FAVORS FARMERS COUNTY INSTITUTE

Editor News:

In the issue of September 9th you favor the establishment of a County Fair, which would be a good thing for all the worthy and permanent interests of our county, provided we have reached a point in its development when a creditable showing of stock, farm products, various implements, merchandise and business interests, exhibits of school work and all else that tend to make such an institution a factor for educational and social development, would be willingly brought together, and each of the contributors to such a display would cheerfully abide the decision of the judges, and provided further that enough of our people are ready and willing to make the necessary sacrifice of time and labor for the good of the cause without financial consideration.

Now, Mr. Editor, is not a good farmers institute more desirable at the present time and more easily within our reach? The farmers institute in a county like ours, where the foundation of prosperity is agriculture, when considered in all its varied branches, should receive the encouragement and help of merchant, tradesman, doctor, lawyer, teacher, preacher, in fact every interest that is a part of permanent development, should welcome a well regulated farmers institute. In no part of our great country is it more essential to mingle intelligent thought with farm labor than in the semi-arid portions. We are the better for it, even though the hot winds from the southwest or the cold waves from the north sweep over our fields. Such institutes should be carried forward with a large per cent of home talent, together with the help that would come from our A. & M. college.

Such an institute would not be complete without an evening entertainment. If a small admission fee was asked this would probably meet the necessary financial obligations of the first effort.

The proper place for a farmers county institute would be at Crowell, and a good season of the year, just before the full moon in December or January.

Yours for an institute that should prove a great social and educational factor in the further development of our county.

H. F. Ferrien.

REVIVAL CLOSED SUNDAY NIGHT

The second big religious revival of the season closed Sunday night. Throughout the meeting the interest was high and much good solid and lasting work was done. A large number of new converts were added to the church and many back-sliders reclaimed. Some of the additions were among the best and most substantial citizens of the town and county. 27 were baptised Sunday afternoon in the Witherspoon tank northeast of town.

One good feature of the revival was that its work and its benefits were shared by all denominations alike. It was a real union meeting, and if there was one person who did not enter into its service and receive a blessing he has nobody to blame but himself. The opportunity was offered and the invitation extended.

We are glad to see men rising above sectarianism and acting with wisdom and common sense. The great majority of all the denominations of this country are coming to recognize the great essentials of salvation and are ascending to a higher level of Christian brotherhood.

Bro. Billington is a young preacher, but is intensely earnest in the work of preaching the gospel. His open and frank manner of expressing himself assisted in driving home the great truths he sought to impress. One thing he said that was out of the ordinary for an evangelist was that he had seen places a great deal worse than Crowell. We fail to recall a similar expression from any visiting preacher who has ever held a series of meetings at this place. On the other hand, we have heard predictions that this town would very probably experience a fate like that of Sodum and Gomorro if a mighty cleansing up did not soon take place. There is a psychological principle involved in this, and the manner of its application depends upon a knowledge of human nature. No man can, without that, wield the influence over men that he can with it. Jesus knew men. Too many preachers at this day strive to know more about theology than they do about men; hence their failure.

But perhaps personal opinions have no place in this connection; we shall therefore confine ourselves to actual facts. As an expression of their appreciation of Bro. Billington's services the members of the Baptist church, liberally assisted by a number of those of other churches in town, raised a cash payment of $130 for his week's work.

Wells-Campbell

On last Sunday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Andrews, the marriage of Miss Bessie Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Campbell, to Rob Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wells, was solemnized, Rev. S. O. Woods officiating.

To the sweet strains of "Angel Voices" by A. S. Sweet played by Miss Grace Self, entered the bride on the arm of the groom, preceded by Mr. Johnny Cope and Miss Bessie Rash and Mr. Rude Magee and Miss Bettie Allee, where, in the presence of a few friends and relatives, Rev. S. O. Woods pronounced the ceremony that made them husband and wife.

Miss Campbell, having been raised in this county, is well known and is one of our most beautiful and talented young ladies.

Mr. Wells was also raised here and is a business young man of a promising career, and is at present under the employ of J. H. Self & Son.

The News joins their many friends in congratulations and best wishes.

Methodist Church

There will be the usual services at the Methodist church Sunday, Sept. 25. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and at 8 p. m.

I am not well by any means, but never before in my life have I ever missed a service through ill health, and I am anxious to gird on again the battle armor and get into the fight.

G. G. Hamilton, Pastor.

Make your headquarters at Green's. Everybody knows Green.

MAN KILLED NEAR THE COUNTY LINE

The report came Monday that a murder had been committed in the eastern portion of the county, and when Sheriff Campbell and City Marshal Moore reached the scene of the killing they found it to be in Wilbarger just across the line. John Howe, a young man about 25 years of age and unmarried, was shot through the heart by Clarence Weatherford by a 38 Winchester, plowing an ugly hole clear through Howe's body. Although the first shot was fatal, two other balls were fired into the man's body after he fell. He died instantly. Weatherford went and surrendered to the officers. He is a man of about 30 years of age and is married. The trouble was caused by a dispute over a crop.

Howe's remains were shipped to Benhur, Limestone County, his old home, for interment.

Mr. McWhorter's Sister Dies

Chas. H. McWhorter was called to Paducah Wednesday of last week to be present during an operation to be performed on his sister, Mrs. Ada Latham. The operation was unsuccessful and Mrs. Latham died Thursday and was buried Friday at Paducah. Mr. and Mrs. Church and children and Mrs. McWhorter were all called to Paducah Thursday to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Latham, the only daughter, is survived by four brothers, one living in New Mexico, the other three in Texas, one at Paducah, one at Kirkland and Chas. H. McWhorter of this place. The mother also is living at Paducah.

Dinner Postponed

The dinner which was to have been given Sat. Sept. 24th, is postponed until a later date. Announcement will be given at a later date.

The HOME CIRCLE Column

To make a home out of a household, nice things may help but nothing does so much as kindness.

Teach a child to mind as you teach him his letters. You don't expect him to learn them all in a minute, but one at a time.

Don't rob your wife all your life time in order to make some provision for her in case you should be first taken away.

If you have a home and are out of debt, don't fret and worry yourself and good wife into the grave for the sake of making money. You have only one life to live, and it is brief at best. Take a little pleasure and comfort as you go day by day, and try to do a little good to others. A morbid, insatiate desire to possess the earth, to grab everything in sight, is at the foundation of more misery than almost any one thing. Wealth alone will never keep memory green; a good life and kind actions will.

MONEY MAKING

Is the object of the world's pursuit. Men in every walk of life are striving for gain. It is a legitimate object. It gives bread, clothing, homes and comfort, and the world judges wisely when it makes the position a man occupies hinge comparatively more or less on his ability to earn money and somewhat on the amount of his possessions. If he is poor it argues either some defect in his expenditures or a lack of practical education to cope with men in the battle for gold.

When a boy leaves home it is generally to enter upon some business, the end of which is to acquire property, and he will succeed just in proportion as he has trained for work. Every community is filled with young and middle aged men who are failures because they know nothing of business—their training having been theoretical, not practical and useful. Many are tied to pursuits they heartily dislike, and which are much below their capacity and ability, and would change their course of life and better their condition but for the fact that relatives and friends generally oppose rather than encourage them.

SELF RELIANCE

Gibbon well and truly said, "Every person has two educations—one which he receives from others, and one, more important, which he gives himself." Help yourselves and the Lord will help you. It is no use in these days to sit around, and Micawbar like, wait for something to turn up. You must take hold of the wheel of fortune and use your muscle. It has wisely been said, "He who begins with crutches will end with crutches."

It is said the lobster, when left high and dry upon the land, has not energy enough to work back into its element, but waits for the sea to come to it, and if the sea fails, lays there and dies. The world is full of human lobsters; young men why have the ability and the muscle, but are waiting for something to turn up. The struggles of life produce self reliance. Peril is the self school of education. He who battled with poverty and ill luck, will be far stronger than he who has reveled in the lap of luxury. Read the biographies of the world's great men, and you will find they started in very humble circumstances. Abraham Lincoln, James Garfield, and a score of others, testify to this. Help yourself. Every man has all he can do to attend to his own business. He has no time or inclination to help you. If you get mired by the wayside in life's struggle, pull the harder and catch up with the maddening, hurrying crowd in the bustle of life. Once out in the world's varying scenes, you have to depend upon your own endeavors. There are many things that bring out self reliance. The canary sings the sweetest when its eyes are put out. The flower gives forth its full fragrance when crushed. It is always the darkest with us before dawn. John Calhoun, when at college, was laughed at by his schoolmates for his untiring exertions. He replied, "I must, to be able to fulfill my position in the legislative hall of this nation." There is no excuse for any young man of ordinary ability to sit down and mope over spilt milk. The world is before you. The palaces of nature are open to you. Any young man with honesty, sobriety and industry can accomplish his highest ambition. If this article happens to strike a young man who is waiting for something to turn up, may he awake to the realities of this life.

OUR BOYS

Yes, boys will be boys; and why should they not? Now, a boy should go to school, but there is no particular pleasure in that, for fun he wants and fun he will have. Your boy should be always nice and clean; it makes him look well—but even that does not satisfy his frisky nature. A boy should go to meeting, once or twice during the week, but, good as he is, he will crave for pleasure. We love a boy with a merry twinkle in his eye; he looks so cunning; and, besides, he will need all the spirit of a young colt before he gets through the world. If properly trained it will be to him what steam is to an engine. Did it ever occur to you to turn boy yourself and lay aside your dignified, serious airs? Try it. Play with them; laugh with them; talk with them;

ing with them; and, when night comes, you can pray with them with a result you little dreamed of. If they can always have more pleasure with you than anybody else you will always know where they are. Did you ever notice how the older animals play with their young? It looks funny you will admit. We have often laughed at an old stifle-legged horse playing with a colt, and what a queer game of "tag" it was; the baby horse beat every time, but the little one always kept close to its mother, and was never heard to neigh. Parents, take a lesson and it will be possible to know where the "wandering boys are tonight."

Moved

I wish to notify the public that I have moved to the Crowell Hotel near the depot, formerly run by T. L. Hays. Your patronage will be appreciated.

Moved to North Side

E. H. Green has moved his confectionery to the north side of the square in the front part of the building occupied by Tanner's pool hall. He is also making preparations to put in a well cafe and restaurant. He already has the waterworks system installed. The counter which is 20 feet long, is very beautiful having 16 feet of plate glass back of it, and is colored to match the fountain on the opposite side, which gives the room a very attractive appearance. The restaurant will be running about the first of the week.

A Suggestion in Behalf of Socialism

BY A CITIZEN

As we have a collector's safe in our new court house, let's all be socialists in the county, and have an authorized collector or collectors, as may be needed, let him or them collect all the money incomes in the county and lock them up in the collector's safe in the court house. Then give every voter in the county a key to said safe, and allow each one or each head of a family to go and take out such small amounts as his family or business may need from time to time. As to the resources of the county that is not money, let the collectors make an invoice of all these and where they are located and allow each voting citizen or head of a family, when he needs a turn of corn, or wheat or rye, or shelled feed stuff or a few bundles of feed stuff, go to the invoice holder and get a ticket to draw what little feed stuff of whatever form he may use and wherever it may be loaned, no matter whose granary or stack it may be in. I say let them do this for the small returning wants of himself or family. In other words, let's all be socialists. What say you, people?

A CITIZEN.

All favoring the motion will please let it be known by the Socialist sign-bray—[Ed.]

School Notes

There were twelve new pupils enrolled Monday, several of whom are in the High School.

We are glad to have Miss Vida Barrow enter the work being done by the Senior class, Monday morning. Vida was in the class last year and fully appreciates the importance of work.

The Senior class was organized Friday afternoon. Miss Maude Self was elected president for the term with Miss Harriett Stephens Secretary. Miss Mildred Haney and Miss Harriett Stephens were appointed to select pin, flower, colors and motto for the class.

We now have the fire drill, a thing certainly needed with so many children in one building. Three strokes of the bell in quick succession means for every one to leave the building in double quick time, going down the stairs and through the halls in the regular way. The alarm was given last week and every pupil was out on the ground, in good order in 60 seconds. The pupils of the tenth and eleventh grades organized a literary society Friday afternoon. They elected Roy Alger as president, Murray Martin, vice-pres., Mildred Haney, Sec., Anna Ruth Hale, treasurer and Pat Staton, librarian. Also program committee was appointed by the president. We expect to derive great benefit from our literary work.

The pupils have begun their work in earnest now. During the last two weeks most of the pupils were attending the meeting and of course could not do as much work.

Several literary societies were organized in the lower grades last Friday afternoon.

Doyle Bridges of Sterling City entered the High School Monday. She is a grand daughter of M. R. Shirley.

Percy and Nina Moorhouse entered the High School Monday.

A Needed Ordinance

The News does not wish to go on record as one always giving advice, it does not claim superior wisdom that fits it for such duty, but it does claim the privilege, as any other citizen should, to make any suggestion it thinks would be for civic improvements or better sanitary conditions. There is one thing we believe our city council should do if it never does anything else in the world, and that is to pass an ordinance against spitting on the sidewalks, and then rigidly enforce such regulation. We are in favor of this, and should it be passed and we are the first to violate it we will pay the fine without a murmur.

Here are some reasons why we should have such an ordinance. Spitting on the sidewalk is an inexcusable practice that causes uncleanness. There is absolutely no excuse for such accumulations of filth as we see on the walks in front of the stores and about the columns of the banks. It is unbecoming to a respectable citizenship and should not be tolerated. The worst thing we see about it is its danger. Spitting on the sidewalk is positively dangerous and if for no other reason than this the habit should be subject to a fine. To illustrate: a consumptive walking along, spits on the sidewalk in front of a grocery store where there is a display of fresh vegetables. A deadly germ is released after a while by the sunshine and is then gently lifted by a noiseless breeze and placed in a cabbage head, or in a bunch of celery or in a box of oranges. It is then carried to the kitchen. If this theory is unreasonable, and the reader may so regard it if he wishes, here is another that has the approval of the medical world. A cluster of flies light upon these filth centers, become loaded with whatever disease germs there may be and then plant them where they may do damage to health.

The world becomes alarmed at the spread of germ diseases and stands awe-stricken at the countless numbers of their annual fatalities. We unhesitatingly express the belief that it is due very largely to our own ignorance and carelessness as to the proper sanitation.

It is alright to force people to pen their cows, but a thousand cows running at large over the town can not do as much harm as fifty men spitting and spurling on the sidewalks. Pen the cows. And when folks spit on the sidewalk pen them. We believe in doing anything right that can be done at all. We do not see how a city ordinance like this would work a hardship on any one. If anybody thinks it would we offer him the columns of the News to use in his defense.

It is no excuse that other towns allow this pernicious habit. Many towns do not allow it. But it matters not if every other town in the world allowed men to spit on the sidewalks, it does not do away with the fact that it is utterly repulsive to all decency and self respect and positively endangers health.

This matter is here brought before our city council with no other hope than that they may take it up in their meetings and pass an ordinance against it. It is hoped that the citizens of our town will also throw their influence in this direction, as we believe they will since the matter is brought to their notice. Too much is involved to continue as we are, more than all else being our health. If there be one man in Crowell who will defend this habit openly we should like see him. Let us be careful that we do not by our silence endorse it.

THE Day of Cheap Cotton is Over

Every month in the year cotton and cotton seed products are finding new markets. There is only a comparatively small portion of the earth's surface that will grow cotton. So the man who invests his money in land that will grow cotton will never see the time when his investment will depreciate in value. Mining enterprises and city property may be changed on conditions lose their value. Not so with a cotton farm. We have a large lot of land specially adapted to cotton growing. Come and see us.

SOCIALISTS TEACH SUNDAY SCHOOL

Brookly Eagle.
 Perhaps the strangest Sunday school imaginable is a socialist Sunday school. In most Sunday schools one finds Bibles and hymn books everywhere; each child has his or her golden text picture card, and other scholars their quarterlies. But in the little socialist Sunday school which opened yesterday morning at 475 Green street, Evergreen, Queens, with more than 100 children present, no Bible is ever opened. There are songs of socialism, but no songs of praise. The quarterly is a socialistic tract explaining how everything we have comes from the earth, and certain relations of labor with the gaining of what is necessary for life.
 An Eagle reporter visited the Sunday school yesterday. The school opened with about 100 children ranging from 8 to 14 years in age present, and was in charge of John V. Storck, who represented the Socialist Sunday school committee.
 The exercises did not open with an invocation, nor did they close with a benediction; neither was there a word of prayer offered to any Higher Being. It opened with a song rife with sentiments of socialism sung to the tune of "America." The new words prophesied a reign of justice to come, instead of telling of a land of freedom already here.
 These children were not taught from the Bible, but from a socialist tract. They learn that the earth is everything and the source of everything. No religious principles of any kind are introduced into any class until the members are all above 14 years old—until they have reached the age of reason, their teacher explained.
 "We do not burden them with the grewsome story of the cross until they have reached an age reason," said Mr. Storck yesterday.

 No hymns or songs of praise are ever sung. All the songs are of a lighter character, and all deeply imbued with scholastic thought.
 "What ideal is held before these children that would lead them to something better?" asked The Eagle reporter of Mr. Storck. "The ideal of socialism," he answered.
 American history is taught in this Sunday school, but it is taught in the light of socialism, and the children's faith in many things and in the heroes of history is broken down. But in its stead they are given a faith in socialism.
 "We do not take these children from other Sunday schools," said Mr. Storck. "They are the children of free thinkers who would not send them to a Sunday school where a religion is taught."
 Yesterday nearly the whole of the lesson time was spent in grading the children in classes according to their grades in the public schools, and with special reference to their mental capacity.

School Notes

(Last week's notes)

In as much as the Preparatory Class of the Crowell High School thought that a well organized class would serve to promote the general interest of that department for the coming school year, a call meeting was had for that purpose after recess last Friday p. m.

The students unanimously united themselves into a band of "Dandy Doers," following the usual plan of organization. One of the main features of the meeting was the formation of a literary society to have its meetings every Friday after recess, in which each pupil will render to the best of his or her ability any part assigned by the program committee.

The officers are as follows: Miss Verna Mitchell, Pres., Miss Eva Hallmark, Vic-Pres., Miss Lois Halsel, Sec., Miss Minnie Ferebee, Asst. Sec., Mr. Clifton Hill, Editor, George Self, News Reporter.

Last Friday evening the "Dandy Doers Society" met, each one carrying out his work well. "A" division of seventh grade carried out the work last Friday. "B" division will carry out the program today.

A Suprise Dinner

Mrs. Fannie Thacker surprised her son, Carl, on last Saturday by giving him a birthday dinner, it being his 25th birthday. She invited a number of the boys, who were: Clarence and Riley Self, Arthur Clark, Fite Crowell, Johnny Cope and Tully Klepper. When the noon hour arrived the boys got together and told Carl they were going home with him for dinner. When they arrived, to Carl's surprise, Mrs. Thacker had an excellent dinner in waiting which was greatly enjoyed by all.

A whole hog of cooking and heating stoves to arrive next week. A little early but we want to be on time. -Hughston-Henry & Co.
