Rev. J. H. Hamblen, pastor of the local Methodist Church from 1917 to 1921, made the main address of the morning and chose for his subject, "Pioneer Days." He paid tribute to the pioneers in appropriate and touching terms.

Rev. Paul J. Merrill of Henrietta, a former pastor of the First Christian Church, who served during the time of Rev. Hamblen's pastorate here, was the next speaker on the program. His subject was "Our Duty to Our Country." Rev. Merrill left during his pastorate here to serve in the first World War.

2.56 Inches of Rain Falls Here During 3 Days

Hail, Wind Damage Reported in County Tuesday Night

Foard County received 2.56 inches of rain during the past week-end to bring the total rainfall since January 1 to 10.36 inches, which is approximately half of the average yearly rainfall, according to measurements at the Crowell State Bank.

During January, February and March, the county received 5.97 inches of rain, and the remaining 4.89 inches during April. One and twenty-two hundredths inches of rain were recorded here on Monday, .52-inch on Tuesday and .82 on Wednesday.

Wheat farmers are reporting that the grain is beginning to suffer from too much moisture. It is reported that rust has been started in wheat and it is feared that damage will be done if the rains continue. One farmer reported that he had already lost his oat crop because of rust.

Hail and Wind Damage

Damage was done in the county from high winds and hail which struck Tuesday night. Farmers south of Thalia report wheat damage as high as one hundred per cent. Heavy hail damage was reported just north of Pease River.

High winds blew the garage of Grant Price from over his automobile and also damaged his barn. Several big cottonwood trees were uprooted in that vicinity.

Damage from high winds was also reported at the Ed Self farm. The family remained in the house rather than go to the storm cellar. When the storm had passed, they found that a large tree had fallen across the cellar door and that it would have been impossible for them to open the door if they had sought shelter there.

Damage to wheat by hail was reported in other sections of the Thalia community.

Damage At Rayland

The fruit and garden crops at Rayland were also struck by the hail. H. H. Hopkins stated that about seventy-five per cent of his crop was ruined. Other crops in this community were also said to have been heavily hit.

From reports Wednesday, it appeared that the Thalia and Rayland communities suffered the heaviest hail losses, however, some damage was reported in nearly every community of the county.

Father of Mrs. Jack Seale Died Saturday, April 26, at Quitaque

J. D. Sanders, 71, father of Mrs. Jack Seale of Crowell, died Saturday morning, April 26, at his home in Quitaque. Death came on his birthday. Funeral services were held in the Baptist Church in Quitaque Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock with interment in the Quitaque cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Seale and daughter, Betty Jean, were called to Quitaque Friday morning when Mr. Sanders was stricken and remained until after the funeral services Monday.

Mr. Sanders was a native of Texas and was born April 26, 1870. He assisted in landscaping the capitol grounds in Austin and after moving to West Texas he and his wife operated the first hotel at Silverton and later traded the hotel for a ranch. Mrs. Sanders died in 1935.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Seale, Mrs. George Tibbitts of Quitaque, Mrs. E. V. Abbott, Misses Frankie and Marion Sanders of Tucson, Ariz.

HELP US

We ask those who had guests in their homes for the celebration to please phone their names to The News office. We would like to have them for next week as early as possible. It has been impossible to get them all for this week owing to the limited time.

OUR VISITORS

The News would like to have made a personal mention of every one of the hundreds and hundreds of visitors, former residents, who spent a day or two in the city this week, but that was a physical impossibility in the short time we had after the celebration was over. We have done all we could to cover this wonderful occasion in the best manner possible and will likely have more about it next week.

According to expressions of delight from many people, the Golden Anniversary Jubilee was a grand success in spite of the heavy rain that fell here, and the committees in charge of the celebration and all the people of Foard County are to be congratulated on the successful conclusion of so memorable an affair.

Rain Fails to Dampen Spirit Of Celebration

Foard County's Golden Anniversary Jubilee, given in honor of the pioneers and the program which was made up of a memorial service, mammoth pioneer parade, three-performance rodeo, dedication of the Foard County Hospital, dancing and music, attracted approximately 12,000 people to Crowell Monday and Tuesday.

The states of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, New Mexico, Illinois, California, Colorado, Missouri, Wyoming and Virginia were represented by persons registered here Monday and there were people from other states who did not register.

Officials in charge of the celebration stated that the Jubilee was very successful in spite of rains which fell during parts of both days. The crowd equaled that which attended the birthday celebration five years ago, and practically everyone had words of praise for the people of the county for carrying on the Jubilee in spite of the handicap which was caused by the rain.

After three days of rain, the Golden Jubilee was opened Monday morning with the bursting of bombs and a musical program by the Light Crust Doughboys of the Burrus Mill and Elevator Company of Fort Worth.

Pioneers and visitors were registered throughout most of the first day and 1,225 persons were registered by the members of the Crowell Business and Professional Women's Club. There were many who have or had lived in the county a great number of years ago who did not register.

The weather cleared Monday morning about 11 o'clock and long tables were erected under the awnings of the business houses of the city and people of the county spread basket lunches to feed the visitors. It was estimated that about 5,000 people were fed at the dinner.

Approximately 2,300 pounds of barbecued beef and mutton were also served to the visitors. Several beaves were donated by ranchers of this section and sheep were donated by individuals.

The people of the county did themselves proud again with this dinner which equaled that of five years ago in spite of unfavorable weather conditions. The dinners spread by the people for the birthday celebration have always been a highlight and have drawn much comment, but, as one visitor said: "It was well worth it." (Continued on Last Page)

Gerald C. Mann
Opened Campaign for
U. S. Senate Saturday

Caravans left Sulphur Springs last week inviting towns, cities and counties to send delegations to that city Saturday when Gerald C. Mann opened his campaign for the United States Senate to fill the place left vacant by the death of Morris Sheppard. Gerald Mann was born in Sulphur Springs, went to school there, worked there on his grandfather's farm and in the local hotel, and there launched in 1938 his successful campaign to become Attorney General. The day's program was climaxed with Mann's speech from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m. which was in its entirety over the Texas quality network and over KRLL in Dallas. The speaking program, held on a large platform in the Sulphur Springs public square, began at 8 p. m. Justice Clyde Grisom of Eastland of the Eleventh Civil Court of Appeals, introduced Gerald Mann. Several other five-minute speakers were in the program. Twenty-five high school bands opened the program officially at 3 p. m. and gave concerts throughout the afternoon and until 7 p. m. At this time the bands lead a parade of all visiting delegations. Repeating on a large scale the torchlight march which featured the 1938 campaign opening, the parade will be followed by a torchlight cavalcade of approximately 250 old settlers of Hopkins County. The air above Sulphur Springs was filled with huge balloons, lighted in the evening by powerful searchlights which illuminated the city and heavens for miles. at terminal elevators. On the Santa Fe peak loading has exceeded unloading by nearly 600 cars a day during the past three years. With good crop conditions prevailing over a far larger territory this year than in any of the past three years, indications point toward far heavier daily wheat loading with but relatively slight, if any, increase in the unloading facilities. When it is recalled that during the past several harvest seasons as many as 7,000 of our good box cars have been tied up for days awaiting disposal at terminals and a corresponding number tied up on the rails of other lines, the magnitude of this year's problem can be readily seen. Careful studies are being made in co-operation with The Association of American Railroads to make the ultimate use of every freight car in the country.

Santa Fe Railway
Shops Are Busy
Repairing Equipment

Humming with activity Santa Fe Railway shops are busily preparing equipment to move the 1941 wheat harvest which promises at this time to be the largest the Southwest has produced in years. President E. J. Engle, has announced. While the harvesting is not expected to start for some sixty days, the Railway is conditioning its motive power, rolling stock and yard facilities for peak efficiency which will be required to move the big wheat crop in addition to the heavy traffic requirements of the National Defense Program, the rail executive explained. Every effort is being made to give the farmer every car of transportation that he needs. New and reconditioned freight cars are being turned out of the shops in great numbers and will be moved into the wheat belt well in advance of the harvest. At the Santa Fe's big Topeka shops alone 48 newly rebuilt big-capacity cars come off the production line each week. Deliveries on orders for about 4,000 new fifty-ton-capacity box cars are being made daily. These cars will be placed in service before the marketing rush starts. Other new equipment that is expected to be in service soon includes 10 steam locomotives and three additional 5,400 horse power freight Diesel engines. Supplementing this new equipment the company's present rolling stock will be inspected, repaired and placed in readiness for what is expected to be the greatest demand in years. There are fewer bad order cars on hand now than ever before. "Adequate elevator storage and unloading facilities have proved one of our biggest problems in handling the harvest rush during recent years," Mr. Engel said. "When the wheat movement is at its peak many more cars are loaded daily than can be unloaded

I have every reason to believe that if adequate facilities are provided for the unloading and storage of the current year's crop, we can handle the transportation problem capably and efficiently."

Common House Fly
Carries Diseases
That Kill Thousands

Austin.—Thousands of children and adults die every year from diseases carried by the fly. Typhoid fever, tuberculosis, summer complaint, cholera, intestinal diseases, and frequently death follow closely in the trail of the common house fly. "Control of the fly menace comes at the top of the list of necessary public health measures which should be applied by every city and individual in the State," urges Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "Most effective measure for control is to prevent breeding," he said. "Flies breed in filth and about eight days are required to complete a life cycle. During her lifetime of several months one house fly lays from 600 to 1,000 eggs. Thus it can easily be seen that in a season, which usually begins in the spring of the year, the descendants from one fly number countless thousands. "To eliminate flies, breeding places must be destroyed. Manure piles, garbage, and other organic filth furnish the requirements of warmth, moisture, and food necessary for the propagation of the fly. The flies should be kept from contact with food or drink or utensils in which food and drink are prepared and served. Likewise, they should be kept from access to privy vaults where they pick up the infections which they later spread to humans by contact with food and drink and by unwashed hands and utensils. See that your windows, doors, and porches are screened so that the stray fly from some careless neighbor will not molest your family. Also, see that your grocer keeps his meat, vegetables and fruits free from flies. "Organized health measures to destroy the breeding places, control of flies' access to your home and food, and established standards of cleanliness in your community will eliminate the fly. The number of flies is an index to the cleanliness of any community, and they can be entirely eliminated."

As of January 1, 1941, there were 63,113 individuals in the United States holding airplane pilot licenses. This is almost double the number of a year ago when there were 31,264 licensed airplane pilots. In 1929 there were 513 persons in the United States with an income of $1,000,000 and over. In 1939 there were only 42 persons reporting an income of a million or over.

Keep thy heart with all diligence for out of it are the issues of life. -Proverbs 4:23.

Did you ever stop to think that every community has within it the men with the peculiar genius to solve that community's particular problems? The only problem is to get them awakened to the realization that they do possess that genius and that power.

What this country needs is two or three organizations to fight Communism besides the Dies Committee and the American Legion. This is the job of everyone who has any interest in the democratic way of life.

Spring is the season for the optimist. In the spring the optimist sees the prospects ahead, the prospects for the summer and the harvest. The pessimist sees the crop failures, the loss because of dry weather, insect pests and early frosts.

We have always admired Henry Ford for his genius and independence and his fairness to labor, but our respect for him slipped upward a dozen notches when he told the country he didn't need the C. I. O. to tell him how to run his business.

We always pay for our bad guesses. Mussolini said "yes" to Adolf and because of it he lost his empire and the respect of the world.

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

I am opposed to the present day type of funerals. In my opinion when it comes to the matter of the final rites of our departed relatives, friends and members of our family we are too much the slaves of conviction.

I am opposed to the funeral in which the minister in charge preaches a sermon that stirs up the already over-wrought friends, at which the music consists of morbid and melancholy songs, and at the close of the trying service the audience is forced, regardless of the wishes of the individual, to "view the remains."

Rather than go into detail over the type of funeral service that is distasteful to me, I am going to set forth a few details of the type of funeral service which, in my opinion, commends itself to most every person who has regard for the fitness of things.

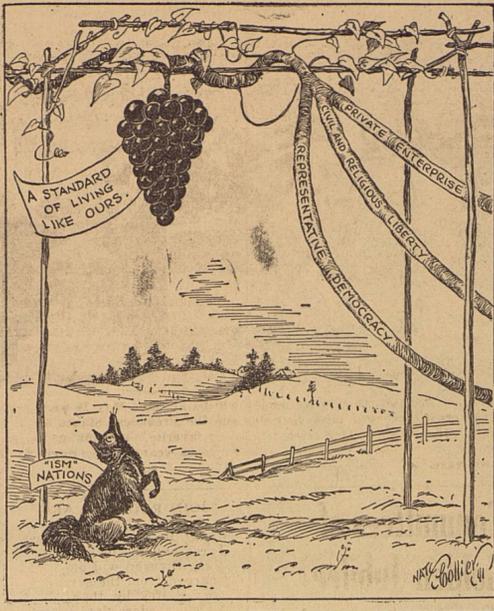

I think rather than the wholesale indiscriminate practice of "viewing the remains" the body should lie in state at the home or the mortuary as the case may be. The friends who were interested could go for a last look upon the face of their friend. Personally I have no desire to look upon the face of a dead friend. I avoid it whenever possible.

I have had friends leave to go on a journey. I have stood on the platform as the train pulled out and watched them wave to me a farewell, happy, smiling, with the face lit with the glow of anticipation.

A service which I attended recently and which impressed me because of the splendid good taste shown in every detail was held in a local mortuary. The close friends and relatives were seated back of a curtain out of the view of others in attendance—a wise and merciful provision.

THE FOX AND THE GRAPES

tunity to view the body as it lay in state. There was but a single spray of flowers upon the casket. The quiet dignity and good taste that was in evidence throughout every detail of the service impressed me deeply and won, I felt sure, the silent and sincere approval of every one present.

Tuesday Winners

Winners of day money Tuesday were: Beam riding—Stub McLain of Woodward, first; Tom Reeder of El Reno, second; Ace Elmore of Archer City, third; Ed Caldwell of Henrietta, fourth.

Steer riding—Pete Gordon of Clovis, N. M., first; Johnny Stovall of El Reno, second; Barney Folsom of Wilson, Okla., third; Chuck Dent of El Reno, fourth.

Bulldogging—Tuffy Maddox of Childress, first with a time of 9 seconds; Chuck Dent of El Reno, second; Bill Marlow of Wichita Falls, third; Marion Ross of Sayra, Okla., fourth.

Calf roping—Bill Keller of Earth, Texas, first; Brick Wilfong of Haskell, second; Odie Riddle of Vernon, third; Leland Timmons of Childress, fourth.

The rodeo was promoted by Beutler Bros. of Elk City, Okla., and Monte Reger of Woodward, Okla., who brought an excellent string of stock to Crowell for the rodeo. The stock included bucking horses, brahma steers, brahma roping calves and riding ponies.

One of the features of the performances was the appearance of "Bobby," famous long horn steer. The horns measured eight feet and six inches, following the curves. The animal was well trained by Mr. Reger who put the steer through paces which any well-trained horse would perform.

Trick riding and roping was done by Panhandle Pete, Dixie Lee and Virginia Mae, youthful performers. Dixie Lee presented her educated pony, Pal, during each show. Color was added to the shows by Panhandle Pete, clown, and his educated mule.

Judges during the rodeo were

Army Life With A Selectee

(Following is the second of a series of letters which will be written by a selectee, Pvt. J. M. Crowell, now training at Fort Brown, Texas. Due to the Jubilee rush this letter has been held two weeks, and since that time Pvt. Crowell has been confined to the hospital with pneumonia, but has been recently released.—Ed)

This week I will give a few more details concerning my daily routine in the Army. In the last letter, I was so rushed getting started off in this new life that I could not include all that I wanted to at that time.

As I stated last week, this is a cavalry camp, but I am not connected with the 124th cavalry, but with the post, (Post Medical Detachment).

I drill in the mornings and act as X-ray technician in the afternoons. I get off on Saturday afternoons and Sunday, so far.

I arise at 5:15 a. m. and make reveille at 5:30, police up tents, etc., until 6:45 and then go to chow (very good at the hospital). At 7:30 a. m., we fall out for drill and this continues until 11:30. Today it got me. We practiced

Morris Cooper of Hamlin and Robert Price of Wilson, Okla. Timekeepers were Jim Minnick of Crowell and Paul Portwood of Baylor County.

The cowboys who took part in the rodeo are as follows: Joe Blair of Swearingen, Marshall Farris of Swearingen, Frank Cox of Truscott, Red Keith of Swearingen, Clifford Covington of Stribling, Leland Timmons of Childress, W. E. Garrison of Childress, Abe Deakins of Shawnee, Okla., Fess Reynolds of Roosevelt, Okla., Swede Swenson of Haskell, Will Smith of Childress, George Brown of Haskell, Birch Wilfong of Haskell, Junior Turner of Haskell, Barney Folsom of Wilson, Okla., Bud Brown of Wilson, Okla., Wayne Donaldson of Wilson, Okla., Tuffy Maddox of Childress, Odie Riddle of Odell, Bill Drew of Crowell, John Nagy of Crowell, Delbert Riddle of Odell, Robert Weekly of Vernon, Orville Whatley of Quanah, A. S. McCullough of Quanah, Charles McMinnifee of Quanah, Bill Crowder Jr. of Quanah.

Dick Danials of Mangum, Okla., Wallace Harbert of Benjamin, Zelma Harrington of Ranger, Stub McLain of Woodward, Okla., Bill Bell of Crowell, P. Harrington of Ranger, Jake Williams of Wichita Falls, Neal Collier of Wichita Falls, Doc Collier of Wichita Falls, Bob Marlow of Wichita Falls, Bill Marlow of Wichita Falls, Clarence Mayberry of Canut, Okla., Luther Weeks of Woodward, Okla., Lee Tugman of Wilson, Okla., Bill Reynolds of Woodward, Okla., Ace Elmore of Archer City, Marion Ross of Sayra, Okla., Deck Beavers of Paducah, Emmel Castor of Odell, Tom Reeder of El Reno, Okla., Chuck Dent of El Reno, Okla., Johnnie Stovall of El Reno, Okla., Robert Price of Wilson, Okla., Bill Keller of Earth, Tex., G. H. Hudson of Benjamin.

Bill Overby of Iowa Park, Dewey Spruiell of Iowa Park, J. W. Kromer of Vinson, Okla., Richard Butts of Iowa Park, Earl Moody of Crowell, Floyd Carlton of Crowell, Skeet Rasberry of Crowell, Roy Wilkerson of Swearingen, Bob Hunsucker of Truscott, Tom Hudson of Truscott, Raymond Rasberry of Crowell, Amel Frey of Henrietta, Eddie Caldwell of Henrietta, Palmer Colburn of Clovis, N. M., Butch Tucker of Yuma, Ariz., Pete Gordon of Clovis, N. M., George Cates of Crowell, Rip Barnett of Pampa, Jim Neville of Pampa, Jiggs Brewer of Pampa.

J. D. Craft of Pampa, Raymond Davis of Pampa, Billie Brown of Pampa, V. C. Bright of McQuinn, Okla., Leland Timmons of Mador, Smokey Stockman of Fort Worth, Kenneth Walters of Fort Worth, Luke Morgan of Fort Worth, Bob Betts of Iowa Park.

extended order drill and advanced cross country to an imaginary machine gun nest (running about 25 yards and falling flat on our stomachs.) I'll bet I lost 7 pounds. My feet ache and every muscle in my body is sore (thanks to softball yesterday). The selectees played some troops and led them 7-2 until the sixth inning and then our outfield and pitcher blew up (just like old times). They beat us 12 to 8.

But back to work. After chow at 12 noon, I loaf until 1 p. m. and then go over to the hospital where I'm X-ray technician. I like this work, for actually it is only photography which I really like. Few X-rays are made and naturally I don't work very hard. I get off at 3:45 and I'm on my own until 10:45—then lights out at 11 p. m.

This old post is very pretty. As soon as I get in the barracks I'm sure that I'll like things much better. Six of us stay in our tent and all civilian clothes have to be hid behind army clothes. I'm still wearing the same pair of pants issued at Fort Sam Houston and they can't be cleaned for I have nothing to change to. Equipment seems to be short but I hope to get some more clothes this week.

I received my last typhoid shot this afternoon and my old arm feels heavy. The second shot almost knocked me out, but I managed to stay on my feet. A paragon certainly has to be careful when taking baths for some very severe cases of "athlete's foot" have been confined to the hospital. I went to church yesterday just so I could see some white people. Practically everyone here is Mexican. I just don't appreciate them as I should.

Some of the earlier recruits were paid today and are happy. A soldier is across in the library banging on a piano, another has tuned in "Red River Valley" on the radio, one is writing a letter for another and everyone seems to be happy.

We medicos have a swell lounge in one wing of the hospital to read, shoot pool, write letters and gossip. The officers, non-coms, and all the selectees are really rather nice. I believe that I was very fortunate in getting this post, however, it is too far from home to ever think of making it back before Christmas.

I may get tired of this by or before then and try for a transfer, however, if I make good here, I may be sent to Fort Bliss for further training in X-ray technique. Three left Saturday and several ratings are open so I may get a specialists rating some time soon, which will hike my salary about $15.

The Republican National GOP monthly recently made a poll of the country to determine the attitude of the party toward certain matters pertinent to the future program of the party. The poll was taken of 7,000 rank and file party leaders from their opinion. County chairmen and other GOP leaders favored a liberalized program. An increase of 50 per cent supported the President's foreign policies (including the Lease-Lend proposal). An average of 61 per cent advised promotion and extension of New Deal reforms while only 29 per cent demanded consistent opposition.

Fifty-one per cent favored Willkie for the party leader, Joseph W. Martin, present national chairman, was second choice. The others in order were Thomas Dewey and Herbert Hoover, Senator Robert Taft, Senator Arthur Vandenberg and Alf Landon, the 1936 presidential candidate, trailed far behind.

Remediable Defects of Registrants Runs Substantial Per Cent

A substantial percentage of registrants rejected for full military service on physical grounds have remediable defects which, if corrected, would permit training of the men in the armed forces, State Selective Service Headquarters announced this week.

Reporting on an analysis of 37,132 physical examination blanks, Lt. Col. J. W. E. H. Beck, Chief of the Medical Division of the Selective Service System in Texas, said that of 30,283 white registrants examined 71.20 per cent were classified as qualified for full military service, and of the 6,849 colored registrants 64.69 per cent were classified as qualified for full military service.

Of the total number classified, Col. Beck said, 70 per cent were qualified for full military service, 12.72 per cent for limited service only, and 17.28 per cent were classified as unfit for any military service.

The principal causes for classifying these registrants as unfit for military service are: Eye defects, 1306; defective teeth, 817; hernia, 861; cardiovascular disease, 701; tuberculosis, 278; diseases of the nervous system, 776; syphilis, 1982.

"It is an appalling fact that approximately one-third of these men were disqualified for full military service simply because they had not received proper care and attention earlier in life."

Texas' local boards have been requested to notify every registrant disqualified because of physical defects the reason for his rejection, and to suggest that he report at once to the physician or dentist of his choice for treatment. Ordinarily, Col. Beck said, the local physician or dentist is familiar with the registrant's background and he is well-qualified to determine the best treatment for remediable defects.

Furthermore, if the registrant is found to have defects which are not remediable, his local physician or dentist is likely to be the person best suited to recommend proper treatment.

"More attention must be paid to the prevention and cure of disease. It is hoped that improvement in the health of these young men of military age will tend also to better general public health," Col. Beck said.

Travel Expert Finds Five Million Tourists Visited Texas in 1940

At least 5,265,570 tourists visited Texas last year, and spent $306,264,265.00, according to an estimate which has just been released by Philip Fuller, director of the Conoco Travel Bureau, the largest free service organization for motorists in the country.

Fuller's estimates are based on Wisconsin, through her reforestation program, increased her forest area in 1940 by 20,000 acres. Over 38 million trees were planted.

One out of every three-and-one-half wells drilled by Texas oilmen to date has been dry.

all tourist information obtainable—traffic flow data, counts made by state highway patrols, statistics obtained from managers of private tourist attractions, and from toll bridge records, and from various other sources, including the Bureau's own records of travel information furnished through Conoco stations where Touraides are available.

Records of the Conoco Travel Bureau, broken down by state regions, show that the Bureau itself directed 73,985 tourist parties, or 258,948 individual tourists, into and through the Panhandle; 42,434 parties, or 148,519 individuals, into and through the southwest corner of the state; 36,360 parties, or 127,260 persons, into and through the Gulf Coast region, 52,060 groups, or 182,210 tourists into and through East Texas; and 51,990 parties, or 181,965 persons, into and through central Texas.

Fuller's investigations over the entire country show that motor travel throughout the United States showed an increase of 6.82 per cent last year. The greater portion of this increase, Fuller indicated, was brought about by Mr. Average American making his vacation a motor trip. The wealthy group of travelers added materially more than their usual amount to the total tourist travel by staying away from war-torn Europe and doing their traveling in this country, a fact definitely indicated by an increase in the business done by the higher-priced recreational establishments throughout the country.

Camp Bowie, Texas, April 25.—Three enlisted men of the Thirty-sixth Division will be honorably discharged from the service of the United States by their organization commanders for the purpose of re-enlisting in the Regular Army for three years, it was announced here today.

GOLF TOURNAMENT

Invitations to the annual Wichita Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce golf tournament have been received by many golfers of this city and territory.

The tournament will be held this week-end, May 3 and 4. It consists of 18 holes qualifying Saturday and 36 holes medal play Sunday. All entries will be placed in flights of 24, so the poor golfers have just as good chances at the prizes (same in all flights) as the good shooters.

This tournament has grown to the biggest annual golf affair between Fort Worth and Denver. The reason for this is merely: it is meant for "average or worse" players, and there are more of them than any other kind.

Incidentals of the tournament include $100 worth of six-bit balls to be given for birdies on qualifying rounds and a stag party Saturday night. It's all included in the $2 entrance fee.

The usual amount of Northwest Texas handshaking and golf conversation will also be thrown in.

Back My Dear Old Texas," a song composed by Mr. McLaughlin, Mrs. Arnold Rucker, who composed the music for the song, accompanied John Thomas.

Mrs. N. J. Roberts paid further tribute to the pioneers and made a talk concerning the "City of the Dead," where many of them lie sleeping.

The next number on the program was a letter in the form of a poem which was composed five years ago by Mrs. J. W. Cope, a former resident of Crowell now living in Fort Worth. The letter was read by Joe Wallace Beverly, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Beverly.

The service was thrown open for expressions from the home-comers and many responded with words of appreciation for the service in honor of their loved ones.

The church was beautifully decorated with red roses and white carnations. A memorial wreath was sent from Pomona, Calif., by the daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Woods, Foard pioneers, for this occasion. It bore the names of Barkley, Finn and Woods.

OMP Director, Wm. Knudsen, says that the defense program will provide jobs for 3,000,000 more men before the end of the summer. This is in addition to the 2,000,000 put to work since last September. The hiring of these men is to be done through local employment agencies which will register applicants and certify them to plants as the government calls for them.

Defense Savings Bonds Will Go on Sale Today, May 1

The United States Defense Savings Bonds and Postal Savings Stamps will be placed on sale in the main post office at the opening of business on Thursday, May 1, as part of the national effort to make America impregnable.

Postmaster General Frank C. Walker, in a letter to postmasters throughout the country, said that the help of local postmasters would be "a real service to the country." He transmitted the thanks of Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau for the help that local postmasters had already given in the sale of United States securities, and also Mr. Morgenthau's thanks in advance "for the co-operation which he knows you will give to this new effort."

The new Defense Savings Bond is similar to the familiar "Baby Bond," of which more than five billion dollars worth have been bought by more than two and a half million Americans since 1935.

A Defense Bond may be purchased May 1, or thereafter, for $18.75. In ten years, this bond will be worth $25.00. This is an increase of 33 1-3 per cent, equal to an annual interest return of 2.9 per cent, compounded semi-annually. Any time after sixty days from the date of purchase, the bond may be redeemed for cash, in accordance with a table of redemption values printed on the face of the bond.

To spread investments widely among all the people in America, a limit of $5,000 has been set on the amount of these bonds to be bought by any one person in one year. The bonds are in denominations of $25, $50, $100, $500 and $1,000, all of which are sold for 75 per cent of their maturity value and all of which mature in ten years.

For larger investors who can afford to purchase up to $50,000 worth of bonds a year, the Treasury Department has issued two additional kinds of Defense Savings Bonds, but these will be sold only through banks and by direct mail from Washington, D. C. They are intended for associations, trustees and corporations, as well as individual purchasers.

For the smaller investor who wants to buy a Government Bond on an easy payment plan, the post office will have a new series of Postal Savings Stamps, at 10c, 25c, 50c, $1, and $5. Each purchaser in advance "for the co-operation which he knows you will give to this new effort."

Secretary Morgenthau said that even a boy or girl who saved 10c to buy a Savings Stamp would help the country. He added that "you can safeguard your own money and your own future, while helping the national defense, by buying United States Savings Bonds now."

The cover design of the albums is in color, featuring a United States battleship and an eagle bearing the American flag. On the back cover is a painting of the Minute Man statue by Daniel Chester French, which symbolizes the American citizen ever alert in defense of his country. The inscription is "America on Guard."

Texas Called Upon For 1,000 Men For Military Training

There have been 247 persons classified for military training under the Selective Service Act and there have been no appeals made to the board of appeals, according to information released by John E. Long. However, this is in line with the remainder of the boards of Texas, according to information received this week.

With 272,005 Selective Service registrants classified by Texas' 351 local boards as of April 1, on the basis of their availability for military service, only 527 appeals had been made to Selective Service boards of appeal, and only one request for adjudication of decision had been submitted to the President, it was announced this week by General J. Watt Page, State Director of Selective Service.

"This is a splendid record for our state," General Page declared when making the announcement. "It is a record that speaks highly for the work of the patriotic citizens who are serving without pay as members of Selective Service boards and as examiners and advisors, and also to the credit of our State as a whole. It is more heartening to all Americans to know that this spirit of co-operation for National Defense prevails throughout the country, for, according to information from National Headquarters, more than 4,000,000 registrants now have been classified with only a comparatively infinitesimal number of appeals from the decisions of Selective Service boards."

At the same time, General Page said, the Selective Service System is anxious to make certain that all registrants, their dependents and others interested in their welfare, have opportunity to obtain review of any classification they consider unjust. "There is an obligation," he said, "upon all members of the Selective Service System who come in contact with the registrant to make certain that he understands, not alone that he has the privilege of appeal, but also when he must do it and how he must do it. We cannot afford to permit registrants who want to appeal to lose their opportunity simply because they do not understand the what, when and how of so doing. While we do not want the appeal machinery clogged up with claims of those who merely seek to delay their induction, it is equally important that no registrant be inducted until he has had ample opportunity to exercise all his legal rights.

Any registrant, or his dependents or others interested in his welfare, General Page said, can obtain full information concerning his right to appeal a classification by consulting his local board, government appeal agent, or advisory board for registrants.

Men With Suspended Sentences Eligible For Military Training

A man convicted of a felony, but who receives a suspended sentence, is still eligible for induction into the military service if otherwise subject to the Selective Service Act, it was announced at State Headquarters today.

General J. Watt Page, State Director, pointed out that this rule applies in those cases in which the suspended sentence is still pending, as well as in those cases in which the suspended sentence has been set aside.

"All Texas Selective Service boards have today been instructed to check their classification records, and to reclassify and induct in the order of their order numbers all registrants heretofore placed in Class IV-F as felons who come within the purview of this ruling," General Page said.

Dislocated Christians

Text: "Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted."—Galatians 6:1.

Our text speaks of a Christian who has in his life a known sin which he cherishes and refuses to give up. The spiritual Christian is exhorted to restore this sinning Christian. The word "restore" is the translation of a Greek word which was used when referring to the act of putting a dislocated arm back in place.

The Church of Jesus Christ, made up of all true believers in the Lord Jesus as Saviour, is likened in Ephesians to a human body, and Christ is likened to the head of that body. Each believer is a member of the body of Christ.

When an arm is dislocated, it is not cut off from the human body. It is still a member of that body, and the blood running through the arm. The life of the head is still in the arm. When a Christian has sin in his life, he is still a member of the body of Christ, and still has the life of the head in him. But when an arm is dislocated, it is in great pain. So with a Christian with sin in his life. He is a miserable person. He knows he has done wrong, and his conscience gives him no rest until he confesses that sin to the Lord Jesus, and gets rid of it.

When an arm is out of joint, it is useless to the body. So a Christian with sin in his life is useless to his Lord. The Christian service a believer renders when he has sin in his life, is not accepted by the Lord.

When an arm is out of joint, the pain is felt through the whole body and through the head. Just so, when a Christian is sinning, it makes other Christians sad, and grieves the Lord Jesus.

When an arm is out of joint, it will neither obey the head nor the body. When a Christian has sin in his life, he does not obey either the Lord Jesus or the elders of the church who are in spiritual authority over him.

The thing to do with a dislocated arm is to go to a doctor and have it put back in place. The thing for a Christian to do when sin enters his life is to confess it to the Lord Jesus, and put it away, and resolve never to do it again (1 John 1:9).

A plastic plane has been produced. The plastic is composed of ply wood bound together with plastic. The new plane, it is claimed, is 20 per cent lighter than if made of metal. It is pointed out that mass production of the plane will not require machine tools or many high skilled workers but that carpenters and cabinet makers can be readily trained for the job.

Major can manufacturers, it is said, will shortly order steel companies producing tin plate for cans to cut the amount of tin used in the coating of containers from 10 to 25 per cent. Food packers will also be encouraged to use glass and paper containers. The step is being taken in the interest of conservation of tin that more of it may be available for defense use.

The Golden Text is, "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy" (Proverbs 28:13).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction: For whom the Lord loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth" (Proverbs 3:11, 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Love corrects and governs man. Men may pardon, but this divine Principle alone reforms the sinner" (page 6).

Margaret Methodist Church We invite all people who can to attend services at Margaret Methodist Church Sunday. Our revival begins then. Rev. Alfred Walls of Dallas will preach during the revival. He has been preaching in Kansas. Don Culbertson, Pastor.

Two Minute Sermon

(By Thomas Hastwell)

He Is Wise Who Prepares: The matter of being prepared is something in which everyone is interested at all times. We are preparing for spring, or summer, or winter. We are preparing for the future, for old age when we will be no longer able to earn. Each day finds us preparing for something ahead. There is, however, one type of preparedness that many are prone to overlook. It is the preparation for the trying and troublesome times that come to everyone, and from which there is no escape. Since it is inevitable that there will come times, many perhaps, in the life of the individual when he will need strength other than his own, it is important that he establish contact with the source of that strength that when the need comes he can turn naturally and confidently to it. We refer to inner spiritual strength. The man who has not built up within himself an inner spiritual life cannot hope to rely upon it when the need comes. Christ's program was designed for this very thing, to encourage, and hearten, and strengthen men and women for the trials that every thinking, reasoning individual must face. Before this program can become a real and usable in any life that life must be prepared for it, and the best place to receive that spiritual strength is in the religious service of some church. Unless this thing is put into the life of the individual, he cannot expect to be able to call upon it when the need comes. He must be prepared.

Uncle Sam's new defense bonds, savings certificates and stamps will go on sale May 1 with a $3,000,000 publicity campaign behind them—the "Liberty Bond" drive of World War II. Shown above is Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr. and a chart showing the series and amounts of the defense securities.

Headquarters for Defense Savings Staff Established at Austin

Frank Scofield, State Administrator for the National Defense Savings Staff, has announced the appointment of his executive assistant, John M. Griffith, president of the City National Bank of Taylor, Texas, in the capacity of Deputy Administrator for the Defense Savings Staff. Headquarters for the staff have been set up in Room 215 of the new Federal Court House in Austin, Texas.

Defense Savings Bonds In Detail

The Defense Savings Bonds will be offered for 75 per cent of its maturity value, with maturity of 10 years. Thus, a Defense Savings Bond bought in May, 1941, for $18.75 will be redeemable in May 1951, for $25.00. This is an increase of 33 1-3 per cent, equal to an interest return of 2.9 per cent per annum, compounded semi-annually. This bond is not transferable, will not fluctuate in value and may be redeemed at any time before maturity at values printed on its face. Intended chiefly for people of small income, ownership is restricted to individuals in their own right, with a limit upon holdings of $5,000 maturity value of bonds issued in any one calendar year. Denominations are $25, $50, $100, $500 and $1,000. The Defense Savings Bond will replace the present "baby bond" series and will be available to all subscribers under the Regular Purchase Plan familiar to many thousands of small investors.

The new Series F Savings Bond, intended for larger investors, for trustees, and for reserve funds, is offered for 74 per cent of its maturity value, with maturity of 12 years. It can be held not only by individuals, but by trustees, associations, pension funds, and corporations, with a limit of $50,000 cost price issued in any one calendar year, alone or in combination with Series G. If held to maturity, the yield approximates 2.53 per cent a year. The Series F Bond is not transferable, and may be redeemed on thirty days' notice after six months from date of issue in accordance with a table of redemption values printed on its face. Denominations are $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

To meet demand for a current income bond, the new Series G Savings Bond, to be issued at par, bears interest during its 12-year term at 1 1/2 per cent, paid semi-annually by Treasury check. Intended for both small and large investors, the Series G Bond is not transferable, and can be registered like Series F in the name of individuals, associations and corporations, up to a total of $5,000 cost price issued in any one year, alone or in combination with Series F. Denominations are $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

Series G Bonds will be redeemable before maturity on thirty days' notice after six months from date of issue at fixed redemption values printed on their face. In fixing these values, inducement is given to holders to retain their bonds until final maturity.

Defense Savings Bonds will be on sale May 1, 1941, at 16,000 post offices, at Federal Reserve Banks and at the United States Treasury. Series F and G Savings Bonds may be obtained on application to Federal Reserve Banks or to the Treasury. Arrangements are now being made through which it is expected that orders for bonds of all three series will be accepted at commercial and savings banks generally.

Great emphasis is laid by Secretary Morgenthau upon the importance of Postal Savings Stamps as a means of encouraging steady savings among the youth of America and all others to whom payment of $18.75 at one time for the smallest Defense Savings Bond is not convenient.

The Postmaster General has approved a new series of stamps, of special design, priced at 10c, 25c, $1 and $5. Purchasers will be given attractive pocket albums in which to mount them. An album containing seventy-five of the 25c stamps has a cash value of $18.75 and can be exchanged for a Defense Savings Bond which in ten years will be worth $25. There are similar albums for mounting the 50c, $1, and $5 stamps, exchangeable for $50 and $100 bonds.

The Gestapo is the name of the German secret police who stand around on street corners and in crowds in an effort to overhear a chance remark by which some one may be picked up and sent to a concentration camp. By this means a large part of the people of Germany are kept under subjection, afraid to talk to their neighbors or express an opinion. Previous to taking over a country these agents of Hitler come into the country and by visiting and talking to people secure the names of those leaders opposed to Hitler who are to be first picked up upon the occupation of the country and sent away to concentration camps as warnings to those remaining. Secret police do not make their arrests in the day time. To do so would bet to reveal their identity. After spotting their man they learn his address and he is called out of his home at night and sent away without ever seeing his accuser. The corresponding organization in Russia is known as the OGPU.

Party Given Monday Evening for Early Blankenship Pupils

One of the happiest and most outstanding features of the Golden Jubilee celebration was a "party" sponsored by several of the local people who attended the first school which had for its head B. R. Blankenship, deceased. Dr. J. M. Hill was originator of the idea and the very capable chairman of general arrangements. As far as was possible, invitations, which were in the form of a poem composed by Tom N. Bell, were sent to all former first pupils of this beloved teacher. There was a generous response when sixty old-timers gathered at the Adelpian club house for an evening's entertainment.

An interesting and clever program, with T. N. Bell presiding, was carried out. A group of songs, "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," "School Days" and "The More We Get Together," were sung by the group. Mrs. Mattie B. Hutchison of Covina, Calif., accompanied all the musical numbers. Greetings were given by Tom Bell and the response was made by Will Grimm. Mrs. N. J. Roberts read "The Village Rondelay." A duet, "Till We All Smiles," was rendered by Mrs. T. N. Bell and Mrs. Pearl Thompson Carter. Arthur Comper, Charlie Thompson, Jack Roberts and Mark Hill sang a quartet, "Bohunkus and Josephus." "Barbara Allen" was sung as a quartet by Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Inez Allison Self, Mrs. E. F. Gordon Bell and Mrs. Mary Ragland Thompson. Clarence Thompson gave a musical reading, "Euphie, Maid," "Auld Lang Syne," "Till We Meet Again" and "Good Night Schoolmates," concluded the official program. The rest of the evening was given to talks by the former pupils, all of whom attested to the pleasure and joy they had received from the get-together.

At the close of the social hour a Blankenship Club was formed with Tom Bell elected president and Pearl Thompson Carter secretary. Mrs. B. R. Blankenship and Mrs. Mina Daughtry-Hankins were chosen elder sisters and guardians of the club. Complete details were to be worked out later under the direction of the president. The date for the next meeting was set for 1943, with privilege of changing reserved.

Those present were: Dr. J. Mark Hill, Edna Thacker Hill, Crowell; Mary Taylor Hunter, Margaret; Clarence Thompson, Julia Walford Thompson, Crowell; Lelia Patton Terrell, Norman, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barkley, Spearman; Mr. and Mrs. Will Comper, Bowie. JUBILEE SINGING

A pleasant feature on the social calendar of the celebration week was the Jubilee singing held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Henry Sunday afternoon.

The party was especially to honor Mrs. W. S. Douglas of San Angelo, Mrs. C. E. Hutchison of Covina, Calif., Mrs. Luther Roberts of Dallas, and Mrs. W. L. Thurston, Denver, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Klepper of Los Angeles and the guest list included numbers of persons who had returned from various places to attend the Foard County Golden Jubilee and also many Crowell people. Mrs. T. M. Beverly was in charge of the guest register.

The members of the house party and a number of the guests were attired in old-fashioned costumes.

The singing of songs, old and new, and conversation provided entertainment during the afternoon. Lemonade and cookies and candies were served to about sixty guests.

New Licenses—

Every person who is the driver for wages, compensation, or hire, or for fare of a motor vehicle transporting passengers.

The fees that will be charged for the licenses in the future are as follows: operators, 50 cents (good for two years or less); commercial operators, $1.00 (good for one year from date of issuance); chauffeurs, $3.00 (good for one year from date of issuance).

Special attention is called to the fact that none of the operators licenses now outstanding will be renewed until Oct. 1, 1941, and holders of those operators licenses are asked not to come in to try to renew their presence licenses until the above date.

All operators licenses issued to persons who have not heretofore been licensed between now and Sept. 30, 1941, will expire on Nov. 1, 1942. Applications for duplicate operators licenses will be taken as in the past where the holder of a license has lost his present license.

Expiration Dates. Regardless of the expiration date now stamped on operators licenses, all licenses in the state will expire according to the serial number on the license under the following schedule: Licenses listed numerically from 1 to 450,000 expire Dec. 31, 1941, and are renewable on and after Oct. 1, 1941. Those listed numerically 450,001 to 900,000 expire March 31, 1942, and are renewable on and after Jan. 1, 1942. Those numbered from 900,001 to 1,350,000 expire June 30, 1942, and are renewable on and after April 1, 1942. Those listed 1,350,001 and above, and issued on or before Sept. 30, 1941, shall expire Nov. 1, 1942, and will be renewable on and after July 1, 1942.

Any person holding a valid operators license, and who presents said license at the time set forth in the above schedule will be issued a new license without examination upon payment of the required fee. Any licensee failing to make application for renewal of license as above set forth may be required to take examination as required in this Act or applicant's license.

Attention is called to the fact that there are several new restrictions placed on the issuance of the new licenses. Also, the State Department of Public Safety is given more power of suspension and patrolmen have warned that a license, though easy to get, will also be easier to lose. All licensees are urged to check their licenses against the above table to see when their license expires, and are further asked to apply for renewal only during the prescribed time. Any and all of the new requirements will be explained to each applicant at the time of renewal.

A copy of the expiration dates of all licenses will be posted on the bulletin board in the court house.

Jubilee—

(Continued from Page One) itor stated, it appeared that the harder the conditions under which to work, the people seemed more determined to make a success of the affair.

Old-time cowboys and other visitors of Foard were served real chuck wagon grub by members of the Wichita Falls Chuck Wagon Gang. The food was prepared and served in the rear of the Broadway Chevrolet Company because of the rain which fell during the morning.

The first performance of the rodeo was staged at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and was attended by approximately 3,500 persons. The second show was held at 9 p. m. Monday. The last rodeo show was held Tuesday afternoon. The night performance was cancelled because of rain.

Street dancing was started in town immediately following the first rodeo performance Monday afternoon and continued until midnight. Music was furnished by the Foard County Jubilee string band, which traveled with the caravans during the advertising campaign. Members of this band were Everett Evenson, Jack Young, Bobby Spears, "Slim" Davidson, Troy Evenson, Ebb Seales, and others. Dancing Tuesday night was stopped by heavy rain.

Rain again threatened the Jubilee, but the weather cleared about 10:30 Tuesday morning and the remainder of the program was carried out with approximately 7,000 people present.

Tuesday morning's program was opened with the feature of the celebration, the memorial service which was held at the First Methodist Church of Crowell at 10 a. m. A large crowd, including pioneers and ex-residents, attended this outstanding service.

The Foard County Hospital dedication service was held on the east steps of the court house at 1 p. m. The hospital was dedicated and turned over to the county by Homer Holtzer of Fort Worth, acting WPA supervisor. Others who appeared on the short program were Judge Leslie Thomas of Crowell and Alton Bell of Crowell, field man for W. A.

The parade was opened Monday morning for inspection and was visited by several hundred people during the two days. This is one of the most modern equipped hospitals to be found between Wichita Falls and Amarillo. At 1:30 p. m. Tuesday, the huge pioneer parade, which was at least two miles in length, was held. The parade came down Main Street from the north, traveled around the square and back north on Main Street.

The parade was led by John Clark Long, bugler, and S. S. Bell, flag bearer. Mrs. N. A. Crowell, "Sweetheart" of the Jubilee, rode in the front car which was immediately followed by several cars in which other pioneers of the county rode. Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sandifer, pioneers, were mounted near the front of the procession.

Floats were entered by business houses of the county, various Home Demonstration Clubs, churches, Adelpian Club, B. & P. W. Club, Crowell and Thalia schools, Columbian Club, Rotary Club, American Legion, Rayland Boy Scouts and Crowell Girl Scouts.

The cowboys who took part in the rodeo also appeared in the parade. Many relics, old pictures and documents had been placed in the business windows of the town and drew much attention. The Jubilee was unofficially opened Sunday afternoon with a spontaneous gathering of the

Early and Regular Dental Care for Children Urged

Austin.—The high prevalence of faulty dental conditions among draftees when they report for physical examinations is cited by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, as emphasizing the need for early and regular dental care for children—both at home and under professional supervision.

Doctor Cox stated that dental disease has resulted in the rejection of as high as ten per cent of draftees for regular military service. He attributed these dental defects to failure of the draftees to avail themselves of dental care—even when properly advised—during childhood. Another probable factor was the period of economic depression during which a great deal of needed preventive dental service was allowed to go unattended.

"When the majority of the present draftees were of elementary school age there was little or no development of the present day dental school health program. These programs, still not as nearly universal as they should be, aim at the double goal of educating the child in the importance of good teeth and securing needed dental care for the child from his family dentist or through school dental clinics. By the first of these two aims it is hoped that children will be led to continue

Curtain Club in Austin Will Honor One-Act Play Casts

Austin, Texas, April 28.—Gilmer Brown, executive director of the Pasadena Community Playhouse, Pasadena, Calif., and John Rosenfield, dramatic critic of the Dallas Morning News, will give the principal addresses at the Second Annual Texas Drama Conference at the University of Texas, May 1, 2, and 3.

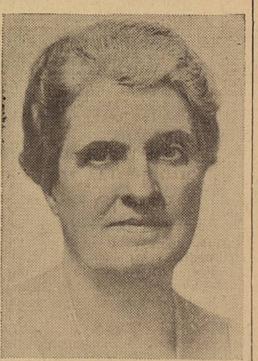

Attending the conference will be the regional winners in the Interscholastic League one-act play contest, including high school drama groups from Crowell High School, Lamar High School at Houston, Waco, Greenville, San Angelo, Victoria, New Braunfels, and Marfa High Schools.

The drama conference, held in conjunction with the fifteenth annual State One-Act Play Contest, is sponsored by the Interscholastic League of the University Division of Extension and the University Department of Drama.

Visitors at the conference will be guests of the University Curtain Club Thursday night, May 1, at a rehearsal-preview of the club's next production, "A Woman Wronged, or May Blossom," an 1885 melodrama. Friday night, the Curtain Club will honor the eight high school casts participating in the one-act play contest, their directors, and visiting speakers at a dinner at the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs building.

Finals in the one-act play contest are scheduled for Saturday, and the Albany High School will present "Two Thousand Nights in the Theatre" by Robert Nail of Albany, Saturday night.

Heads Convention

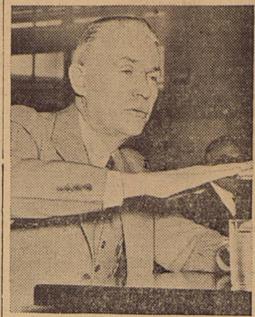

The annual convention of the American Association of University Women will be held at Cincinnati, Ohio, May 5-9. Dr. Margaret Morris, (above) is president.

pioneers and ex-residents of the county in the streets of Crowell. In spite of rain which fell all afternoon, the old-timers trooped around the streets of town greeting those friends whom they had not seen in many years. They talked, laughed and talked over old times during hours which turned out to be one of the important highlights of the program for the pioneers who had traveled back to Foard County. But, after all, those happy hours when old friends are able to get together in informal fashion and re-live the early days of the county is the purpose of the birthday celebrations, however, this year this came off before the celebration opened in a manner which could not have been planned more perfectly. It was estimated that some 3,000 people were on the streets Sunday afternoon.

One Jubilee visitor was met at the train Sunday afternoon in a covered wagon equipped with spring seats and brought into town in a real western fashion with several mounted cowboys following the wagon.

"Had the draftees received the initial care that results from this school program, the ill effects of the depression period would probably not have been so markedly reflected in the present day condition of their teeth. Every dental defect that results in the loss of a tooth had a small beginning. Had these and subsequent defects been noted early and corrected, the number of necessarily extracted teeth would have been materially reduced, with, in turn, reduction of the number of draft rejections because of dental defects.

There is no cure for dental decay, once it is started, other than prompt corrective service by a dentist. It is believed that the efforts now being made to accustom the children to early and regular dental care will prevent the development of conditions similar to those that are now influencing the rejection of draftees. If it does this, it will also result in the improved health of our adult population whether or not a national emergency is faced. "And good teeth in healthy bodies are as essential in normal as in emergency periods."

Exemption Swindlers Operating in Texas, General Page Warns

Prospective trainees were warned today by General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, against subscribing to "deferment or exemption insurance."

"It has come to the attention of State Headquarters," General Page said, "that swindlers are operating in Texas, and particularly among the colored registrants, selling for a cash fee policies or papers which are purported to insure the registrant against military training, or to procure for him deferment of service under the Selective Service Act. It is reported that some of these racketeers are impersonating army officers, and in one instance investigation developed that a colored 'sergeant' was threatening hesitant victims with induction into the army on a moment's notice."

General Page pointed out that, with the exception of ministers and students of divinity, there is no such thing as an "exemption" under the Selective Service Act, and that local boards alone have the authority and responsibility for determining whether a registrant may be deferred from military training. He said: "Registrants are classified according to their order numbers and when the time comes for classification of a registrant, his case will be given separate consideration by his local board in accordance with the provisions of the Selective Service Act and Regulations. There is no way by which exemption or deferment may be purchased for any price or consideration whatsoever."

Registrants are urged to report immediately any instance of this nature, together with all evidence collected, to his local board or to a United States attorney.

"The Selective Service Act is a Federal Law," General Page said, "and any violation of it is a federal offense and will be prosecuted by the United States Department of Justice."

All Right! Move Out in the Yard!

BOB (roaring): "Who snatched the bulb from my lamp? I might as well move out in the yard!"

JANE (fearfully): "Go ahead! The yard light is better than the tiny bulbs you get. . . I had to have some light in the kitchen, didn't I? YOU took the kitchen bulb for the garage. . ."

WHY Quarrel Over Light?

MOST everyone does it at some time or other—and unnecessarily, because light is CHEAP in West Texas. A 100-watt Mazda bulb costs only 15c; a 150-watt bulb, 20c; and a 3-way 100-200-300-watt bulb, 60c. Avoid bulb-snatching quarrels and arguments about who's going to use the light by keeping an extra supply on hand.
