At the present price of cotton and cotton seed it will not require many bales to amount to a nice lot of money, as one can see from the receipts of this bale. Of course the lint will have something to do with the price. This bale of Mr. Gentry's was cotton of a very fine staple and brought above the market on the inferior grades. J. D. Johnson returned Wednesday from a week's visit at Gracemont, Okla., making the trip by "jitney." He said he found the roads as muddy as they could be and travel dif-ficult. Some men with a team or two were there accommodating the public by pulling them across and then "pulling their leg" for $7 to $10 for the job, owing to the make of the car they drove. Fortunately J. D. was sporting a "jitney" and got off with a $7 holdup. If he had been driving an automobile he would have had to pay $10.

WHERE IS THE PRO-AMERICAN? Some folks are beginning to doubt as to the strength of the pro-Amer-ican element in the United States. There is no question that there is-or was—a pro-German constituency. These were felt during the war. There is little doubt but that there was a pro-Ally group during the re-cent war. To them everybody else was pro-German.

Since the war, even the pro-Irish element has been heard from in various quarters, with the United States Senate leaning far enough to the Irish vote to officially favor Irish independence. Comment on the Russian situation from various radical citizens prove-clearly that there is a pro-Soviet party, while their opponents are pro-Kolchak, or pro-Denikine. Recent developments over Fium show that there is a pro-Italian ele-ment. A Connecticut citizen of Ital-ian parentage has subscribed $5,000 to D'Annunico's efforts to hold Fiume. There you are! Pro-everything, when everybody should be pro-American. The only redeeming feature is that the pro-Italian is pro-American

CAN SAVE TREATY

According to present appearances only a compromise between the drastic reservationists and the Administration supporters of the treaty can save the document from absolute rejection. Senator Hitchcock, the Democratic spokesman in the Senate, reiterated yesterday his statement of a few days ago to the effect that his supporters would vote to reject the treaty altogether rather than accept it with the drastic reservation pro-posed by the Republicans. The Ne-braska Senator, when asked recently whether there was any prospect of a compromise, made the following statement: "I will say this much, that unless there is a compromise of some character the treaty will be defeated by the votes of those who stand against such stringent reservations as the Foreign Relations Committee majority advocates."

Mr. Hitchcock also intimated that if there was a compromise it must come from the Republicans, saying the Administration supporters were in no mood at present to support reservations which, like those supported by the committee majority, would re-commit the treaty to Paris or Ber-lin. The middle ground reservation-ists are attempting to effect a com-promise without which there would be a deadlock. Senator Lodge when asked for his opinion of the situation said that he did not believe the Dem-ocrats, would do no reject the treat ocrats would dare reject the treaty. Senator Lodge said that any compro-mise would have to come from the Administration forces.

LINOLEUM

Do you intend placing Linoleum on your floor? If so, do you realize that unless you put it down while the weather is favorable you will likely regret it?

Linoleum is made of ground cork, linseed oil and burlap. Its nature is soft, pliant like good leather when warm and is very easily laid and remains that way. But when it gets cold it can scarcely be handled without danger of breaking and never fits snug and close to the floor like it does when laid when warm.

For Building Strength

Rexall Beef, Wine and Iron is an excellent preparation and famous as a system-builder and general tonic. Great care is taken in its preparation, in the treatment of beef, the quality of wine, and the form of iron, as well as in the manner of its preparation.

Beef, Wine and Iron

Is most pleasant to take and is very prompt in its action. It stimulates the appetite and thus helps the stomach to derive full nourishment from all that is eaten. It aids in quieting the nerves and conduces to sound, refreshing sleep. Its blood-enriching properties help to bring the glow af health to the cheeks.

If you are feeling run down, this remedy will tend to build you up.

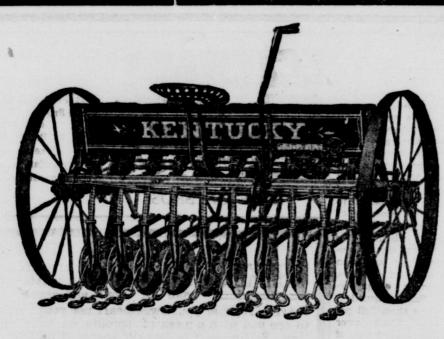

Remember our guarantee. If Rexall Beef, Wine and Iron fails to do all we claim for it-if, after giving it a trial, you are not more than satisfied with the results, we will refund your money.

A Good Grain Drill Will Pay Big Dividends

The advantages of drill seeding over broadcasting are fast becoming admitted. No matter what kind of seed is to be sowed, the drill shows by far the larger returns. Broadcasting is wasteful and subject to failure from the start.

In recent tests made at various experiment stations throughout the country the drill-sowed field showed an average increase of from four to six bushels per acre over the field sowed broadcast. In some instances where weather and soil conditions were unfavorable, the field sowed by drill yielded as high as ten bushels more per acre.

And farmers experienced with drills say that there is nearly as much difference in results obtained with different types of drills as there is between drilling and broadcasting.

Kentucky drills have the various types of furrow openers necessary to do the right kind of work in any kind of soil, and feeds that can be regulated for just the correct amount of seed per acre. They can be had in any size you desire from a five to twenty-four marker.

Bag a few more bushels from each acre of grain this year. A Kentucky drill will help you do it.

THE STATUS OF ADVISORS The world makes progress, even if owly, and in spite of handicaps. A few decades ago when a strong nation wishing to grab the territory of an important country, and could make arrangements with other big nations to permit her seizure, an undisguised annexation was put over. Now, the process of assimilation is begun in a vaguer method, the world's conscience not being strong enough to stand the direct shock of older man-Instead of grabbing the country in toto, the procedure is to have "advisers" appointed and then these advisers proceed to their appointments to collar all authority possible.

In 1915 when Japan made a move to control China, she only asked that Japanese "advisers" be employed in political, military, and financial capacity. Great Britain followed the same course in Persia, and in exchange for military and political "advisers" who shall be "endowed with adequate powers" she is to loan Persia

The line between "advising" and "enforcing" certain lines of conduct is then gradually obliterated.

As a means to offset the high cost of living a Boston chicken man is givng his attention to the matter of breeding a hen three times the size of the biggest now in existence, and of the biggest now in existence, and with a crop that holds no more grain than that of the ordinary hen. The size of the eggs, of course, will be multiplied by three, and we'll get more meat and bigger eggs for the expense of feeding. Now if we could develop a race of people with a diminished abdominal capacity correspondished abdominal capacity correspond-ing to the said hen's increased capacity for egg production, we might render future generations a valuable service, but so far as we are concern-ed personally, we were so built and capacitated for the storage of eggs that an egg is just an egg and there can't be three in one.

"It is an ill wind that blows nobody any good." We are not very good on quotations, but it goes some thing like this. According to an ad vance report this saying is especially true with the Literary Digest as will be shown in the issue of October 18 for each page of reading matter wil be an exact photograph of the origi-nal type-written copy. These will be printed from plates made from photographs of the written copy. The printers' strike in New York City, which has effected the publication of the big magazines very much, has created the necessity for devising some plan to overcome the shortage of operators, and a way out has been found by the Literary Digest. The report says: "It is possible in this age of marvels that the whole future of magazine production may be revolutionized by the elimination of typesetting."

Mr. Travers Had Not Properly Estimated His Losses on That Little Fistic Encounter.

"I can't afford to lose $50 on a prize fight," mourned Gelatine Travcelved over the wires that fatal Friday afternoon. "But you have lost without the usual contest. Glancing through the paper rapidly Mrs. Travers tore out a square section from page 2, and another from page 11. Then at one of those unexpected moments every woman knows breakfast is replete with, said: "So you could lose $50 on a prize fight. Well, well. Here is a sale I have been awaiting for a long time. And strange to say, here is another just across the street -one is on suits and the other on gowns. And the strangest of all, we happen to have accounts at both those stores. Fifty dollars, you say, you lost? Was it an even fifty?" And so it was that the breakfast dishes at the Travers' home went unwashed Saturday morning because Mrs. Travers was obliged to catch an early jitney downtown and commence operations.-Kansas City Star.

Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught. Relief From Headache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga .- Mrs. Chas. Gaston, of this place, writes; "I am a user of Thedford's Black-Draught; in fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty regular until the lives ented well and ular until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of domor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Thedford's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit.

If your liver is not doing its duty, will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, bilious-ness, constination, indiges ion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way. regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Insist on Thed-ford's the original and genuine. E 79

DANGER IN CLOSED WINDOWS.

National Tuberculosis Association, Which Sponsors the Annual Sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals, Reports 150,000 Deaths Each Year From the Disease.

People who live in the smaller towns and on farms have a great health advantage over the city dwellers in that they have ever an abundant supply of fresh air and sunlight.

These two gifts of nature, so lavishly bestowed, are not always appreciated to their fullest extent. They are two of the strongest weapons against the menace of tuberculosis, or consumption, as it is sometimes called. But consumption is not unknown in the rural districts. Why Lose What You Make?

Many a time the farmer has lost heavily because he had no adequate protection for the gathered crop. There are two special reasons why he should store this year. One is to save all he can by storing low priced feed until the surplus is used up, when the demand will raise the price. Another is to store cotton for its protection until he wants to sell, thus enabling him to get a better price for his bales when sheltered from the weather. If the farmer intends to hold for a higher price, he will make by holding for a better condition of his product.

See us for plans and particulars on this warehouse. It's an investment that will pay for itself.
