Are YOU HAPPY After Meals

Or Do Gas on Stomach and Sour Stomach make you Miserable?

Too much food, or the wrong kind of food, too much smoking, too much beer, make your body over-acid. Then you have distress after eating, gas on stomach, heartburn, sour stomach. ALKA - SELTZER relieves these troubles promptly, effectively, harmlessly. Use Alka-Seltzer for Headache, Colds, Fatigue, "Morning After Feeling," Muscular, Sciatic and Rheumatic Pains. Alka-Seltzer makes a sparkling alkaline drink. As it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments and then by restoring the alkaline balance corrects the cause when due to excess acid. Alka-Seltzer tastes like carbonated mineral spring water—works like magic. Contains no dangerous drugs... does not depress the heart... is not laxative. Get a drink at your Drug Store Soda Fountain. Orient Train Wrecked

The northbound passenger train was wrecked Sunday afternoon just south of the Wichita river, everything behind the engine going into the ditch and 17 passengers being more or less seriously injured. A broken rail caused the wreck.

Considerable help from Crowell went to the scene of the wreck. Among those seriously hurt was Mrs. Della Howerton, of Marlow, grandmother of W. B. Ty-singer.

Miss Martin (now Mrs. L. A. Andrews), one of the teachers in the Crowell school, had made a visit to her home at Benjamin and was returning on the wrecked train, but received no serious injuries.

Mrs. Paul Fields was on the train but was not injured. Roadmaster C. L. Poland, son of Mrs. Poland of this city, sustained a broken collar bone, some broken ribs and injuries to one shoulder. Conductor Robison perhaps received the most painful wounds, mostly about the head.

Cole-McKown

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. G. L. Cole and Miss Ruth McKown were united in marriage Monday evening, Sept. 29, Rev. J. H. Hamblen performing the ceremony.

The groom is the oldest son of Judge Cole and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McKown of Black. The happy young couple will make their home on the old Hanks ranch on Pease River now known as the ZZ Ranch.

Frank Meason has leased the old meat market stand from Zeke Bell and is now operating same.

Gordon Cooper returned the first of the week from Tell, Texas, and accepted a position in the post office.

The charges to cross the straw bridge on Pease River Sunday will be 50c for the round trip on account of the Baptist Rally at Teacup Mountain.—J. W. Thompson.

MANY THANKS

Just one year ago I opened "Everybody's Food Store" with the intention of offering you the very best merchandise in the food line at real money-saving prices every day in the week. Your wonderful patronage is proof, I believe, that this intention has been lived up to and now I take this method of thanking each and every one who has patronized my business during its first year and trust that I may have the pleasure in my second year to serve any one whom it has not been my pleasure to serve in the past.

Art Appreciation Is Popular in Schools

Austin, Texas, Oct. 2. — More than 2500 school children of Texas participated in the picture appreciation contest of the Inter-scholastic League last year. Schools of Texas are increasingly recognizing their responsibility in training the child culturally as well as academically, according to Roy Bedichek, chief of the University of Texas Bureau of Public School Interests, which directs the League. The great popularity of the "art appreciation" contests held each year by the League is evidence of this trend, he declares. The bureau's new bulletin for use in connection with this contest, "Fifty Fine Art Favorites," has just come from the press. The bulletin was prepared by Miss Florence Lowe, head of the art department of Sam Houston State Teachers College.

AUTO AND TRACTOR REPAIRING

I have organized and put into operation a Service Department in the Self Truck & Tractor building for the purpose of GENERAL REPAIRING. We have installed some of our equipment and are ready to service your CAR or TRACTOR. There is one thing we keep in mind—that the machine you buy has not served its purpose until it has given you a reasonable number of years of service—and that service can be had by the proper care and proper repair. We would be glad for you to come into our place, even though you do not need anything. Let's talk and discuss mechanics. You might get an idea from us that would improve the care you should take care of your car or tractor. Likewise, from you we can get information enabling us to render better service. Our motto is: "Treat people as they want to be treated."

Farmers Making Fine Record Paying PCA Crop Loans When Due

Texas farmers are making an excellent record in paying their production credit crop loans when due, according to Tully C. Garner, president of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston.

WORLD'S RAREST STAMP

The most valuable bit of paper in the world today was only worth one cent in 1855, when it was printed as one of a small issue of postage stamps by British Guiana.

Only one stamp of that issue is now known to exist, and it is owned by the widow of the late Arthur M. Hind of Utica, N. Y., who accumulated the most valuable collection of stamps ever known.

It next passed into the hands of Count Ferrari, Europe's greatest collector, who paid $750 for it. When his collection was sold, Hind bought the Guiana stamp for the record-breaking price mentioned, and offered to give it as a present to King George V of Great Britain.

MISFITS ON THE FARM

Everyone knows that farmers have not had a bed of roses for several years, and many of them are sorely pressed at present in spite of the numerous legislative acts designed to aid them.

Still, regardless of the difficulties of their general situation, there may be found in nearly every community a number of farmers who have made progress, or who have at least held their own, even during the depression. These, it is needless to say, are men who really know farming, and plan their operations in an intelligent manner.

A leading banker in the Northwest, after checking up a large number of farmers in his community, has come to the conclusion that farm failures are largely due to lack of experience on the part of those who failed. He found that among those who have been least successful are a number of persons who do not belong on the farm, and lists a few, as follows:

Two circus musicians, a paper hanger, a sailor, a sea-going engineer, a race horse man, a bricklayer, an undertaker, a deep sea diver, a milliner, a professional gambler and three old maids.

All of these failed as farmers, of course, as might have been foretold, and their unfavorable experiences illustrate the futility of much of the "back to the farm" propaganda that has been spread about.

The farmer needs training and experience in the management of agricultural affairs, just as those in other walks of life must have training and experience before being entrusted with important activities. A misfit on the farm will be a failure, as he will be in any other calling for which he is unsuited.

THE BOOK

... the first line of which reads, "The Holy Bible," and which contains Four Great Treasures

by BRUCE BARTON

THE FIRST CHURCH TRIAL

A strange thing had happened at Jerusalem. The brothers of Jesus had not believed in Him during His ministry, and at one time thought Him insane, but after His death they became loyal converts. Two of them, Jude and James, wrote short books, which are in the New Testament, and James went to Jerusalem and became very active in the church there.

Bruce Barton

It was a decidedly surprising experience for Paul. He had sat in Jerusalem as one of the seventy members of the Sanhedrin, the supreme court of the nation. Now he had found himself back in the same city before Peter and James in positions not unlike that which he had occupied. He saw "those that were reputed to be somebody," as he rather loftily described them, and said, "whatsoever they were it maketh no matter to me."

The story is told in the fifteenth chapter of Acts, one of the great documents in the history of the liberation of the human spirit. Paul's accusers presented their case, and Paul and Barnabas replied, and after a long debate a compromise was arrived at. The church in Jerusalem, consisting entirely of Jews, would stand firm for the old fundamentals, but the churches abroad, being Gentile, might follow a more liberal faith.

Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law; to whom we gave no such commandment...

For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

That ye abstain from meat offered to idols, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

Thus there were to be two kinds of Christianity, the fundamentalist and the liberal, and they were not to quarrel. Christians who had been reared as Jews were to be required to keep the whole Mosaic law, and those who were not so reared were to be accepted on their love of Jesus and a very simple code of morality.

Crowell Wins—

16-yard line, Gibson first made six yards and then went around left end for 10 yards and a touchdown.

Crowell's team consisted mainly of reserves in the third quarter, with the result that the Panthers outplayed the Wildcats in this period. The final touchdown came in the last two minutes of the game after several nice runs by Gibson and a 23-yard run by Alton Horn had advanced the ball to the Eldorado 28.

After a 6-yard penalty against Crowell at this point, Todd went into the game after being out for the rest of the second half. He passed to Gibson, placing the ball on the 9 and then carried it across in two tries. After receiving the kick-off, Eldorado completed three plays and the game was over.

First Quarter

Todd's kick-off was fumbled by Harris, who picked up the ball behind the goal line, returning to the 5. Three line plays gained 8 yards and Harris punted to Crowell's 40. Todd gained 5. Crews added 4 more. Todd made it a first down on Eldorado's 46. Todd's interference got in his way and he lost 2 yards. Two passes failed and he punted over the goal line. Eldorado taking the ball on the 20. Williams fumbled and lost 8 yards. Brisco stopped Cain for no gain.

After a bad pass from center, Harris' punt was blocked by Dunn, with Cogdell and two other Wildcats falling on the ball behind the goal line for a touchdown. Todd's place-kick was good, making the score 7 to 0. Cude returned the kick-off from the 14 to the 36. Harris failed to gain and on the next play passed to T. Williams for a gain of 23 yards, putting the ball on Crowell's 31 as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter

After reaching the 27, a pass failed on the fourth down and Crowell took the ball at that point. After making a few nice gains and a first down on his 41, Todd broke through for 19 yards but fumbled as he was tackled with Harris recovering for Eldorado on his 38.

Line plays failing, Harris passed to T. Williams for a first on Crowell's 49. Making only slight gains, Harris punted with Saunders, Crowell safety, taking the ball on the 12, where he was tackled in his tracks by R. Williams.

Crowell's offense failed to click and Todd punted, T. Williams returning from his 40 to the 44. A pass failed, Williams lost 2 yards, Gibson recovered Cain's fumble on the 45.

Todd's pass to Gibson failed and on the next play Todd broke through for 45 yards and a touchdown. His place-kick was blocked and the score was 13 to 0. Cain returned the kick-off from the 20 to the 38. Harris gained 2 and Cain 1. A pass failed and Harris punted, Todd taking the ball on his 20 and returning 64 yards before being brought down by W. J. Williams on Eldorado's 16. Owens' pass to Meason was incomplete. Gibson gained 6 yards and then went around left end for 10 yards and a touchdown. Todd circled left end for the extra point, making the score 20 to 0. Stroud returned the kick-off from the 20 to the 28 as the half ended.

Third Quarter

Jones kicked on twice for Crowell, but each time the ball rolled out of bounds and Eldorado took the ball on the 40. A pass failed. A second try was completed to T. Williams for 14 yards. A pass failed. Cain gained 3. Gafford intercepted Harris' pass, returning 7 yards from his own 40. Gibson gained 6 and then T. Gafford covered Gibson's fumble. Meason punted to the 8. T. Williams returning to the 28. Harris made 3. Owens stopped Williams for no gain.

Saunders returned Harris' punt 18 yards to his 40. Unable to gain, Meason punted out on Eldorado's 28. Cude broke through for a first to the 40. Cain added 3. Harris made it a first on the 50. A fair play and a pass failed and Harris punted out on Crowell's 8. Meason punted to the 39. Williams returning to the 32. Harris failed to gain. Williams picked up 8 yards. Cain made a yard as the quarter ended. Crowell 20, Eldorado 0.

Last Quarter

With the ball on the 23, Harris made it a first on the 20. Williams added 3 more. Cude fumbled but recovered on the 18. Harris was dropped for a 2-yard loss by Brisco. A pass on the last down failed. Gibson lost 4 yards and then gained 8. Horn fumbled and W. Williams recovered on the 21. Harris gained 2 and Cain 1. Two passes failed and Crowell took the ball on the 18. Gibson gained 14 yards in three tries. Gafford's pass to Joy gained 8 yards, Gibson added 9 and Horn broke through to put the ball on Eldorado's 28. The run was good for 23 yards. Horn gained 10 more yards, but the ball was called back and Crowell penalized 5 yards for having a backfield man in motion before the ball was snapped.

Todd went in for Joy at this point. Meason gained 5. Todd's pass to Gibson was good for 20 yards. Todd gained 3. Horn lost a yard. Todd went over left tackle 7 yards for a touchdown. His place-kick was good, making the score 27 to 0. Taylor took Todd's kick-off on the 20 and was downed on the 24. Harris fumbled and lost 2. Cain gained 3. Harris failed to gain as the game ended.

THALIA AND MARGARET IN NEW BASKETBALL CONFERENCE OF 16 TEAMS; PLAY BEGINS NEXT WEEK

Two Foard County schools, Margaret and Thalia, are included in the Red River-Wichita Valley Cage Conference of sixteen basketball teams that was organized last Thursday night at Oklaunion. Lee Nowlin, Thalia coach, and W. A. Smart, Margaret mentor, were present for the organization meeting.

The conference is divided into two sectors, eastern and western. Teams in the new organization are: Eastern—Burkburnett, Mankins, Valley View, Holliday, Clara, Fairview, Geraldine and Cashion; Western—Oklaunion, Harold, Five-in-One, King, Odell, Thalia, Medicine Mound and Margaret.

Starts Oct. 12

Official play opens Oct. 12 for all teams except Medicine Mound and Margaret, who will play in the Crowell gymnasium on Thursday night, Oct. 11. Thalia will play Odell in the gymnasium the following night.

Games will continue each Friday night for seven weeks. Following concluding games on Nov. 23, the winners in the two sectors will clash in a three-game series for the conference championship.

Last year the conference included 11 teams, the following five being added this year: Margaret, Thalia, Burkburnett, Odell and Geraldine. Harold won the championship last year and has virtually the same team returning this year.

Officers of the association are: A. J. Lynn, Oklaunion, president; F. B. Spencer, Mankins, vice president, and C. B. Roland, King, secretary. A partial list of the coaches includes: S. P. Vick, Harold; B. C. Tiller, Mankins; W. A. Smart, Margaret; Lee Nowlin, Thalia; C. B. Roland, King; R. D. Watkins, Fairview; Paul Nixon, Odell; C. H. Huddlebrooks, Valley View, and H. THE FOARD COUNTY NEWS

October 4, 1934

ON OCTOBER 9th, 1871

Thanks to modern construction, fire fighting efficiency and citizens' care in prevention it is not likely that you will be a part in any such great catastrophe as the Chicago fire which raged October 9 to 11, 1871, at a loss of $121,000,000. It was that great fire which inspired the present Fire Prevention Week, the weekly date to observe October 9th, each year. Private and individual losses from fire each year still reaches stupendous figures. To safeguard your savings and investments you should be fully covered with good insurance. We write insurance of all kinds... best companies... lowest rates and promptness in adjustment on losses.

OLNEY, BURK AND CROWELL SHOW POWER IN EARLY GAMES; CLOSE DISTRICT 4-B RACE IS EXPECTED

Although a few games were played Sept. 20-21, football did not really take hold in the 1934 season until last week. So far as District 4-B is concerned the principal power thus far has been exhibited by Burk Burnett, Olney and Crowell, Chillicothe has also served definite notice that its team will be much stronger than last year.

Olney Beats Graham In the feature game of the season thus far, the Olney Cubs defeated Graham's Steers 21 to 6 before about 3,000 people at Olney last Friday night. Although Graham and Olney are in the same county, the two teams are in separate districts and both are strong contenders for the championship of their respective districts. This was the season opener for both squads.

After pulling somewhat of a surprise by invading Nocona on Sept. 21 and defeating the Indians 13 to 7, Burk Burnett's Bulldogs continued strong last Friday in beating Iowa Park 52 to 0 in the first conference game of the year for District 4-B. Iowa Park lost to Henrietta the previous week 17 to 0.

The Chillicothe Eagles played host to Clarendon's Brones in a tilt that resulted in a 6-6 tie. The Eagles scored in the second quarter, holding the lead until the final period. Clarendon usually has a strong team and had been doped to win.

Nine Seymour Panthers played their first football game against Nocona last Friday and although Seymour lost 21 to 12, the Panthers gave a mighty good account of themselves, considering their lack of experience, and should gather much strength as the season progresses.

Crowell appeared weaker in their 27 to 0 victory over Eldorado, Okla., than they did in defeat at the hands of the strong Class A Vernon huskies by the score of 32 to 12 the previous week. In scoring two touchdowns against Vernon and in piling up a total of 284 yards on running and passing plays against a strong Class A club, the Wildcats have shown plenty of offensive punch, but have been a disappointment defensively. However, improvement in this department may be expected. Crowell also ran second best to both Eldorado and Vernon in getting down the field quickly under punts.

There has been little or nothing to indicate the strength of the other two District 4-B teams, Archer City and Throckmorton. On Sept. 21 two costly fumbles caused Archer City to lose 14 to 7 to Bellevue. Archer City did not play last week and so far as is known, Throckmorton has yet to play its first game.

Games This Week Two conference games will be played this week with Iowa Park coming to Crowell and Chillicothe invading Archer City. Olney will be host to the Class A Eastland club, Newcastle plays at Burk Burnett; Knox City at Throckmorton, and Jacksboro at Seymour.

Outside of this conference, the game that overshadows all in Northwest Texas this week is the conference clash between Wichita Falls and Vernon at Vernon Friday night. Vernon beat Altus, Okla., 40 to 0 last week, after previous wins over Crowell and Frederick. Crowell has been the only team to score on the Lions so far this season.

Simmons-St. Edwards Clash Sat. Night Is Feature at Wichita

Wichita Falls, Texas, October 1.—Texas Conference football will see one of its most bitter rivalries renewed here Saturday night, when the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboys of Abilene meet the St. Edwards University Tigers of Coyote Stadium.

Nine years of competition have brought 3 victories to the Tigers, 3 to the Cowboys and 3 games have resulted in scoreless ties. Saturday night's game should be the first of a fine series of games. The first of these highly touted aggregations fight for an advantage in games won and lost. Added to this traditional rivalry is the fact that this game will be the first conference game of the season for both teams.

Great plans have been made in Wichita Falls to inaugurate this first annual college game, one of which will be offered each year. A capacity crowd is anticipated and every detail has been taken care of to insure full comfort for the fans. Coyote Stadium, seating over 5,000 is one of the most beautiful football fields in Texas, with every seat between the 30-yard lines. The finest lighting equipment gives a daylight atmosphere to the playing field.

An added feature of the game will be the appearance of the world-famous Cowboy Band from Hardin-Simmons University. This musical organization, 100 strong, will arrive here Saturday afternoon on a special train from Abilene to participate in the football parade and to play during the game that night. A low schedule of prices has been put in effect. Adult tickets are now on sale at 85c. Students and teachers tickets are available at 55c.

STATE FAIR OF TEXAS TO OPEN AT DALLAS SAT.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 4.—With everything in readiness for a "bigger and better" exposition, Otto Herold, president of the State Fair of Texas, the board of directors, junior board and staff of the exposition were "all set" here for the opening of the 48th annual exposition, Saturday.

More new features are promised for the State Exposition this year than ever before in its history. With its new quarter million dollar race plant which brings back horse racing to the State Fair for the first time in many years, a new type of show in the auditorium—"The Show of A Century," a huge musical extravaganza, the return to the policy of presenting free entertainment to visitors in the form of sensational outdoor attractions and many other innovations, President Herold has promised the people of Texas an entirely new exposition.

Despite the drastic drought through which the State passed this summer, the Agriculture and Livestock shows bid fair to be better than ever. A complete showing of livestock will be on the grounds throughout the 16 days. The agriculture show will be a recommendation to farm leadership as every county exhibit is from a county where there is stationed a home demonstration agent, a county agent, a vocational agricultural instructor or some agricultural agency which is ready to lend its aid in combating such conditions as Texas has undergone this year.

The 48th annual exposition will open by celebrating its annual Press Day to which every newspaper editor in Texas is invited. The Press Day program this year includes luncheon at the Baker Hotel, the afternoon at the races, and at night in "The Show of A Century," at the auditorium.

Miss Florence Barnes of Duluth halted her wedding ceremony and had the clergyman start over, omitting the pledge to "obey."

Methodist Church

In Haiti when the tide comes in it blows the fishing boat into harbor and the populace on shore through the beach calling out "What luck?" Are you interested to hear of the success of God's work and the church when the spiritual tides come in? Because of the prayers and faith of some (perhaps many) in the church the tide is coming in, bearing the catch that Jesus spoke of when He said "Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men." Should not this harvest make us to rejoice more than the harvest of the sea or ground? These are our children and neighbors' children whose hearts are responsive to the Gospel call, and they are coming each Sunday. There are others who should be reached while God is calling on these and you parents and teachers may be instrumental in leading to Christ those who are dearest to you. Pray for them and talk to them. That worldly parents are leading their children away from Christ is a source of grief to the faithful workers in the church. The youngest of our recent converts when asked to retire on prayer meeting evening replied, "I told Bro. Turrentine I would attend all the services of the church, and I would be telling a story to stay away." A little child shall lead them. The moral of this account: "He that runs may read." Again we had an increase at all services Sunday. Next Sabbath is the first of our Educational year. Bible pictures are shown at 7:30 in the basement. GEO. E. TURRENTINE.

Christian Church

Next Sunday is Rally Day in our Sunday School. The class having the largest percentage increase of attendance over enrollment will receive special recognition. Mrs. Kincaid addresses the school on the subject: "The Gist of This Quarter's Lesson."

Our enrollment is 92; our average attendance for the year has been 63; we have never had 100 any Sunday this year. Let's have 100 several times this quarter; let's raise our average; let's make our enrollment at least 125 before the end of the quarter. Our attendance records show for this year to date, 13 with perfect records; 27 attending over 75 per cent of the time; 17 perfect record for three months; and the teachers and officers averaged 91 per cent in attendance. We are proud of this record. Let's all try to attend more regularly. Don't forget that Bro. Merrill begins teaching the Leadership Training next Monday evening and that all church people in the community are invited to attend. Get your text at my office. C. V. ALLEN, Supt.

Church of Christ, Thalia

The writer began working with the church here on Sept. 30. Everything looks bright for a very successful work during the coming year. We had 155 in Bible School last Lord's Day. We announce the following services for next Lord's Day: 10:00 a. m.—Bible School. 10:45 a. m.—Preaching service. 11:40 a. m.—Communion service. 7:00 p. m.—Young People's Class. 8:00 p. m.—Preaching service. Be with us next Lord's Day. You are always welcome at any of our services. J. D. ROTHWELL, Minister.

Christian Science Services

"Unreality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 7. The Golden Text is: "All that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever" (I John 2:16-17). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good" (III John 1:11). The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christian Science brings to light Truth and its supremacy, universal harmony, the eterneness of God, good, and the nothingness of evil" (page 293).

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

by Charles E. Dunn

Fellowship with Christ. Lesson for Oct. 7th. John 15. Golden Text: John 15:4.

This is the first of a series of studies in the Christian life. The chapter chosen for the lesson, John 15, belongs to that sublime section of the gospel devoted to the discourses of the Master at the Last Supper. It begins with the wonderful allegory of the vine and the branches. Here we have a clear picture of the roots and fruits of the Christian vocation. One of the key phrases in this eloquent passage is "Abide in me." (vs. 4) Do we abide in Christ? Is He our living room? Prof. Lucioke, of Yale, reminds us of the parlor of a typical old-time New England dwelling, with its shut windows, drawn shades, and horse-hair furniture covered with crocheted doilies. The wall paper and carpet were in hideous taste, and the gold clock was utterly unable to keep time. This stuffy room was reserved for painful occasions such as a funeral or a minister's call. No one actually lived there.

Now it is the business of religion to take us out of such a stifling parlor into the living room where Christ dwells. And what a spacious, attractive chamber it is, large and hospitable enough to harbor every person of generous impulses and spiritually-minded.

aspiration! There is nothing narrow or confining about fellowship with the Master. But how shall we enter this appealing room? Well, like all compartments, it has a door. The door stands between Christ and the human soul. Open it, enter in, and the Saviour and your own heart will abide together in the gracious abode of God's truth and love. And from this comradeship there will blossom rich fruit. "He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit." This is the explanation of the magnificent success of Sir Wilfred Grenfell in Labrador, of Albert Schweitzer in equatorial Africa, of Toyohiko Kagawa in the slums of Kobe, and of Frank N. D. Buchman, the founder of the Oxford Group Movement, in reclaiming the lost. We can share in their reward.

Alida C. Bowler of the United States Children's Bureau has made superintendent of the Indian school and reservation of Nevada, which has a population of nearly 5,000 Indians. The United States has many fatalities from appendicitis and any other civilized nation. The Philadelphia Library is the oldest institution of its kind in the United States. Paris subways have 60 miles track, operate 297 trains and carry an average of 1,860,000 passengers a day. James Forsham of Manchester, Eng. who led to Miss Edith Ans about his prospects to oblige her promise to marry him, pay her $750 for the deception.

Presbyterian Church Rev. J. A. Phipps will be with us for services at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. On account of being unable to be here for his regular second Sunday appointment on Oct. 14, Rev. Phipps is coming the first Sunday instead and will preach at 3 p. m. in order to return to Chicago.

Trail's End

SYNOPSIS

Three weeks after a cream-colored roadster had been found in the sea at the foot of a cliff calling herself Anne...

Of course it's all right. Ought to have thought of it myself. But it hurt to be a little careful at you say when that little trick around. She sounds to me like a pretty smart young woman.

Little Cleo! She's come out to look off the job and collect her salary, I suppose, he reflected. "Little lady, if I didn't have some important business of my own on hand, I'd give myself pleasure of cradling your hair."

Barry met his guests at Marston Gate. He drove down alone, not seeing Petry. Lately he had had an unnecessary inter-ference with Petry, and Petry had hated him.

Three people instead of two waited for the two-thirty-eight. Nancy demanded that he should look too dumfounded, but Barry's thoughts went racing back to Perch, where there was no one to meet Cleo Pendleton, and she had dashed across a continent without warning.

"Hello, Cleo!" Barry, you needn't look petrified. Didn't Nancy get my name?"

"Why, no, I think not. At least, she may have been forwarded, too, for her to let me know." He remembered his duties as host. "So see it's a real surprise," he said hastily, and turned apologetically to the other two.

"I'm frightfully sorry," he said, but Mrs. Duane won't be able to give you. She was called away, only a few days ago. It was very unexpected—and it had to open at the wrong time, of course. I'll do my best to be both of them."

"O-o-h!" said Cleo softly. "You'll be a wonderful substitute, Barry, but it's a shame that Nancy had to go." Her eyes were sparkling.

Damn Cleo, Barry thought moodily. Nancy might at least have sent him word about that letter. That the letter had merely been another of Cleo's little tricks he could scarcely know. Nancy had let him down again.

Gage gave him a sharp look and said "Good bad! Too bad!" in his ruff way. Barry was really grateful for the interruption of Cleo's ruff voice.

"Barry, you're terribly disappointed. I thought you'd look like a movie hero, and you haven't even a gun to shoot the rattle-snakes."

"I left it home. They don't usually bite a Cadillac," Barry was adding his feet again. "I'll look after the luggage, Mr. Gage."

she go if she left? How long, with her dwindling capital and her slender knowledge of ranching, would Trail's End yield her a living? The money she had brought in the little gold bag was nearly gone now—she had not asked Barry for any after she had learned how embarrassed he was for actual cash.

If she went away, it was almost a certainty that she would never see Barry again. He would let it kill him before he gave in.

She shivered under her protective coat and went back into the house.

At the Perch, Martha, engaged for the purpose, waited on the whims of Barry's women guests with suspicious eyes and an uncompromising jaw.

"It ain't respectable," she said crossly to Petry, "havin' those fancy lookin' women here, almost the minute Miss Anne's gone."

"They sure was fixed up for dinner," he admitted.

Martha, fiercely pursuing her own train of thought, paid not the slightest attention to him.

"All this talk about letters! You needn't tell me Miss Anne ever invited her up here. And him takin' it all in like a ninny! Oh, well, I suppose men can't help bein' simpletons."

Martha slammed her iron down wrathfully. Cleo had tossed her several frocks to press, and Martha was doing it with indignant efficiency.

Cleo was fully aware of Martha Larabee's antipathy.

"Disagreeable old thing," she thought as she caught sight of Martha's ample form in the distance. "I believe she knows where Nancy is. . . I wish I knew the way to that Trail's End place of hers."

For the present she had to be content to wait. John Gage had come here on business. On the very night of their arrival Barry had made his worried apologies to her, and the next morning he and Gage had started off early on horseback.

Already Cleo was bored to suffocation. All day long with Paula Gage, and not a man in sight to make life endurable for either of them, except a Chinese cook and a leathery old man called Petry.

To be sure, he had stopped his work and taken her for a ride at lunch, but in spite of her pointed suggestions they had gone nowhere near Trail's End.

Shortly after dinner Gage had unceremoniously claimed Barry's attention, and the two were sitting at the far end of the room, talking boring things. Cleo went outside to find Paula Gage. Paula was wandering aimlessly up and down the long veranda.

The next morning Petry drove Gage over to the county seat to do some long distance telephoning. Paula went with him, and Barry was free to devote at least part of the day to Cleo.

"How about a ride?" he suggested, and Cleo agreed promptly. She looked particularly engaging in riding clothes, and she knew it. Barry's sober face brightened as she ran down the steps to join him.

He helped her up, and she found herself mounted on a glistening little bay.

"Where are you going to take me, Barry?"

"Anywhere you want to go,-- he answered unguardedly.

"I'd love to see Nancy's little ranch. Trail's End, isn't it? Let's go there."

"I'm sorry. I'm afraid we can't do that. It's a bad trail."

"But I won't. Sorry, Cleo. What's the next choice?"

He had to watch himself to keep an edge out of his voice. But he could not let anybody from Granleigh get through to that isolated little valley and find Nancy drudging through the days in a shabby old ranch house, bleakly alone.

Cleo's eyes were shining. Now she knew that Nancy was there.

"Oh, all right. Lead on and I follow!"

When they returned they still had the place to themselves.

Shadowed were lengthening when Anne heard the sound of a car, coming in from the desert side. That would be dear old Boone. She went over to a window and looked out.

It was not the big grey car. This was black, or had been, and it was much smaller and a little battered, and the driver was not Petry. The door flashed open. Anne stood there.

"Jim!" she said breathlessly. "What are you doing here?"

"Thanks for the enthusiastic welcome. I'll come in, if you don't mind." His grin was mocking, but he gave her a sharp glance as he sauntered past her. "What's the matter? Sick?"

"No, I'm all right. Why have you come here?"

"Just dropped in to make a call."

He was locking deliberately around him.

"No sign of the haughty husband. Are domestic relations still strained, or are you just hiding out until company goes home?"

"I've left. It's over, everything is over, and you should be the last to ask why."

Kennedy made a brief sound like a muted whistle.

"Took it hard, didn't he?" he frowned and moved his shoulders irritably. "Keep your chin up, and he'll come back."

Anne shook her head. It was not a subject she could discuss with Jim. "How did you know I was here?"

Kennedy dropped into a chair and settled himself comfortably.

"How did I know? Ask me a hard one, Nancy. I knew where you'd started for, and that you had a little ranch somewhere near here, and who was visiting up at the big place. It was easy. I've a nice little hand-made map of the roads here," he added calmly.

She rose. "I'll get you something to eat," she said quietly, and went into the kitchen.

He followed her to the kitchen. She knew why Jim had come all the way from Granleigh to Marston. How could she keep him from doing what he was bent on doing?

Kennedy swallowed the last of his coffee. "Thanks, Nancy. Pretty decent of you, all things considered. No, I can't stop for more. I'm calling on some friends of mine at a place called Eagle Lake, and I'm behind the schedule now."

He pushed back his chair and found his hat.

"She'd never do it for you, Nancy," he said suddenly.

"We're different," said Anne dully. She felt so awfully tired. "We're just made differently. Jim, please don't go there! Why can't you let it drop? What's the sense of all this hating? How dare you—Oh, Jim, don't go!"

"Sorry not to oblige, but I'm afraid I shall have to." His face had flushed slightly; he was hard again.

The car jarred and rattled into action. Dusk had closed in.

Anne stood in the doorway and watched it. Her head hurt, but her mind was frantically busy. Jim was taking the longer way, out through the desert. He didn't know the rough short cut. And it was dark—he might lose his way again.

She slipped into a coat, slammed the door and ran out to the corral.

Paula Gage was alone and time dragged heavily. John and Barry Duane had left early. Late in the afternoon Cleo had invited herself to accompany Petry on a hurried run into Marston.

Paula could spare Cleo, but she hated this place where she had to look all day at water, hiding rocks and slimy things beneath its surface. She hated water. She saw things in it.

Restlessly she went outside. Down through the trees the lake glistened darkly. Where the trees came close it was dark. She hated it, but it dragged at her.

Half-way down the slope she stopped.

H. D. and 4-H CLUB ACTIVITIES

Officers of FOARD COUNTY HOME DEMONSTRATION COUNCIL Mrs. T. W. Cooper, Chairman Mrs. F. E. Diggs, V. Chairman Mrs. E. A. Dunagan, Secretary-Treasurer Miss Myrna Holman, Home Demonstration Agent

FOARD CITY 4-H CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The following officers were elected at the first meeting of the Foard City girls 4-H Club Tuesday morning: Ora Mae Owens, president; Thelma Lewis, vice president; Pauline Lilly, secretary; Lavoyce Lefevre, reporter.

Seven members were enrolled, including three new ones. Several amusing games were played following the business meeting.

The club will hold its next regular meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 17.

VIVIAN H. D. CLUB

Parliamentary law was the leading subject of discussion at the Vivian H. D. Club meeting in the home of Mrs. A. L. Walling last Thursday. Miss Bernice Walling was hostess.

Miss Rosalie Fish was leader of the program. Mrs. Geo. Benham, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Oscar Fish gave the "hows" in making club meetings worthwhile, emphasizing presence and participation.

Thirteen members and one visitor were present.

The next meeting will be Oct. 11 with Mrs. Ray Whately. The lesson will be on pellagra and goitre.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB

How to have a good club; introducing a speaker, and preparing for a club meeting were the subjects discussed at the meeting of the West Side H. D. Club on Sept. 26 at the home of Mrs. Glenn Roberts.

There were twelve members and two visitors. Mrs. S. W. Burks and Miss Cleo Eubank, present.

The club will meet with Mrs. Gamble on Oct. 10. Visitors are always welcome.

Plans Completed for Selecting Jr. Members of CCC Corps in Tex.

Austin, Oct. 1.—Plans for selecting 2938 junior members of the Civilian Conservation Corps in Texas between October 1 and 15 were being completed today as Neal E. Guy, enrollment supervisor for the Texas Relief commission, issued instructions to the county administrators over the state who will actually pick the candidates.

Of the nearly 3,000 selected, it is expected that about half of them will go to camps outside the state in Oklahoma, New Mexico or Colorado. The remainder likely will be absorbed by camps in Texas.

As in past enrollments, unmarried men between the ages of 18 and 25 who are American citizens and who have dependents to whom they are willing to allot a substantial amount of their monthly allowance, are eligible to be selected. They are to be taken from relief rolls or from families on relief rolls.

No two boys from the same family are eligible.

Men with criminal records are not eligible and neither are those with any history of mental derangement. A person previously discharged for any reason is not eligible to re-enter a camp.

Each man will receive $20 per month, between $22 and $25 of which must be allotted to his dependents. Although the applicant agrees to enroll in the government service for six months, if unusual circumstances arise, he may be released from his contract and discharged.

Administrators were urged particularly to "select men able to perform ordinary labor without injury to themselves." Strict observance of the minimum age limit also was advised.

$1,000 Boy

LOS ANGELES . . . Mickey Rooney (above), with a Superior Court judge looking on, signed his name to a movie contract calling for $1,000 per week to "just be a boy" on the screen.

SKIRT FROM TROUSERS

A skirt made from a pair of trousers was the first garment added to the wardrobe of Mrs. Claude Dodd, recently elected wardrobe demonstrator for the Gambleville H. D. Club. The skirt is an attractive four-gored one, the gores being cut from the legs of the trousers, by the use of the foundation pattern. The material is a good, smooth heavy grade of blue serge.

GOOD CANNING RECORD

Fifty-five quarts of tomatoes have been added to the pantry of Mrs. S. E. Tate of the West Side Club. The tomatoes were brought from New Mexico by truck at a cost of about six cents a can.

These together with the 235 quarts of fruit already canned is a sufficient supply to furnish "fruit twice each day" as required for good nutrition.

Mrs. Tate has canned a total of 436 quarts, not including the tomatoes, apples, plums and grapes. She is now canning two bushels of pears, some more apples and tomatoes, and plans to can peas later.

WEST RAYLAND H. D. CLUB

Mrs. Harry Simmonds was hostess to the West Rayland H. D. Club at the home of Mrs. R. G. Whitten September 25.

Mrs. J. S. Ray was appointed Farm Food Supply demonstrator succeeding Mrs. L. A. Rheay, who moved to Vernon. Two new members, Mrs. R. G. Whitten and Mrs. H. G. Simmonds, were added to the roll.

Ten members were present. The club will meet with Mrs. Frank Ward, October 9.

Whooping Cough Is Cause Many Deaths

Austin, Texas, Oct. 4.—"There is no other communicable disease as dangerous as whooping cough to the very young, and there is no other disease causing an equal amount of suffering of which parents show such an unaccountable disregard, not only for the safety of their own little ones, but also for the lives of the neighbor's children," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

"There is no natural immunity against this disease during the first six months of life as there is against measles. It is at this age that whooping cough strikes its hardest blow and over 50% of the deaths occurring in children are under one year of age. The disease is usually transmitted by direct contact with the secretions of the mouth or nose, and only a very short exposure is required to contract the infection. Handkerchiefs, drinking cups and toys also may transmit the infection."

"The infection is communicable from the appearance of the first symptoms and is most contagious at this early period when the nature of the affection can only be suspected. The incubation period is commonly seven days. A slight fever, running of the nose and cough make their appearance so gradually and insidiously that a diagnosis is practically impossible unless a history of exposure is obtained. When the 'whoop' appears there is no mistaking the disease. If there is whooping cough in your community keep other children away from your little children and keep your children at home. Call your physician early. Isolation of all cases for at least two weeks from the development of the characteristic cough should be rigidly enforced."

Requests for teachers in the public schools of Texas have increased by almost a third this year as compared with last, according to Miss Miriam Dozier, secretary of the University of Texas Teachers' Appointment Committee. With this increased demand, Miss Dozier has had the opportunity to place a much larger number of University ex-students and others who sought positions than in several years.

Requests which have come to the University Committee numbered close to one thousand since February 1 of this year. Requests have been most numerous for primary teachers, with many also coming in for teachers of home economics, English, and Spanish. There

GLAMOR OF CIRCUS POSTERS SEIZES KIDDIES' IMAGINATION

BOLIVER and DIXIE WHITAKER

Get ready!

The Circus is coming!

The Al G. Barnes show, one of the world's largest, will exhibit in Vernon on Tuesday, Oct. 16.

Three special trains are used this season to transport this great organization from city to city. Traveling with the great organization are 1,080 employees in addition to 108 advance men. Twenty-two tents covering twelve acres of ground house the transient city in the daytime. The circus has its own doctor, lawyer, dentist, U. S. postman, detectives, blacksmith, carpenter and in fact, every artisan in the average small city.

The famous Al G. Barnes menagerie, declared to be the finest and most complete traveling zoo in the world, is a part of the show. Many new, rare and costly specimens of wild animal kingdom have been gathered from all parts of the globe. Tigers, gnus, Vlack Varks, lions, tigers, camels, dromedaries, zebras, leopards, panthers, yaks, emus, jaguars, elands, seals, and three herds of elephants are but a part of the traveling university of natural history.

The wonder spectacle of all time, the "Fiesta of the Rio Grande," a gorgeous professional fiesta of old Spain, is used this season as a prelude to the circus proper. More than 1,000 men, women, horses, camels and elephants take part in this never-to-be-forgotten pantomime of enchantment. Upwards of $70,000 was expended on the wardrobe. The mighty audiences which daily greet the magnificent production are among the largest that have ever been drawn together in the history of the amusement world.

Great stars from eighteen foreign countries, the respective champions in their line, participate in the gigantic display of arenic numbers. The trained wild animal displays are headed by Miss Mabel Stark, Johnny Myers and Capt. Terrell Jacobs. In massive steel girted arenas will be seen performing lions, tigers, jaguars, and pumas, all subjugated by master trainers. Forty dancing horses and forty dancing girls will be seen in a horse show unparalleled. Among the sixty equestrians will be "Foodles" Hamford, the riding clown, and the Hamford family of equestrians. The petite and charming Esther Escalante, intrepid aerialist comes from old Mexico to thrill and amaze you. From Europe will be the amazing Flying Clarksons, international aerialists. Sixty clowns will furnish fun for the little folks.

Performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m. Doors will be opened an hour earlier to permit an inspection of the zoo or to enjoy a concert of popular and operatic music by Prof. Redrick and his military band.

There have also been many vacancies for athletic coaches.

As a part of its back-to-the-farm campaign, the German government forbids the agricultural population to move into any of the cities of that country.

CO-LABORERS CLASS ENTERTAINED THURSDAY

The Co-Laborers' Class of the Methodist Sunday School were entertained on Thursday evening of last week with a picnic supper in the basement of the church.

The hostesses were Mesdames Bob Bell, Sewell Roy, Thomas Hughston, Everett Meason, Parlan McBeath, Henry Lankford, Roy Todd and P. D. Moseley. A delightful social hour was enjoyed.

The following officers have been elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Jeff Bruce, teacher; Mrs. Allen Sanders, assistant teacher; Mrs. Henry Lankford, devotional leader; Mrs. Maggie French, president; Mrs. Clint White, vice president; Mrs. Everett Meason, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. O. O. Hollingsworth, finance chairman; Mrs. G. L. Cole, social service chairman; Mrs. Walter Thomson, publicity chairman; Mrs. Lewis Ballard, recreation chairman; Miss Minnie Ringgold, membership chairman.

FAITHFUL WORKERS CLASS HAS SOCIAL MEETING

The Faithful Workers Class of the M. E. Sunday School met in an all-day social meeting with Mrs. Bush at the home of Mrs. Jeff Bruce on Thursday, Sept. 20.

A devotional was given in the morning and the afternoon was spent in diversion. Each member contributed something toward the diversion. A delicious covered dish luncheon was enjoyed at the noon hour.

Those present were Mrs. Belle Bulkeley of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. J. J. Brown, Mrs. Maggie Magee, Mrs. S. F. Rignold, Mrs. W. R. Tuttle, Mrs. T. L. Hughston, Mrs. P. S. Lovelady, Mrs. J. F. Steele, Mrs. W. L. Ricks, Mrs. D. C. Greer, Mrs. H. A. Bennett, Mrs. J. H. Olds, Mrs. Sam Cruss, Mrs.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Everybody's Food Store, owned and operated by Claude Dodd, is celebrating its first anniversary this week, featured by an anniversary food sale, which is advertised elsewhere in this issue.

This store opened in the A. L. Johnson building. The growth of the business necessitated larger quarters with the result that about five months ago the location was changed to the Erwin building, the space formerly occupied by the Crowell Cleaners and the old Foard County News location.

Besides Mr. Dodd, those employed at the store are Mrs. J. E. McClure and Bill Baker. Extra help is employed on Saturdays. Seven persons were employed at the store last Saturday, on which day the store had its biggest business of the year, according to Mr. Dodd.

Successful Style Show Last Friday

Mrs. J. R. Beverly, owner and manager of "The Beverly Shop," sponsored a very successful style show on the lawn at her home on last Friday evening.

A walk-way, constructed from the front porch and leading across the yard, provided ample space for the display of the attractive dresses, coats, hats and accessories from the stock of the Beverly Shop, which were modeled by twenty or more local young ladies and women. The various types of ready-to-wear for fall and winter were included in the display. The lighting facilities were so arranged as to show to the best effect the model and the apparel.

An orchestra of eight pieces furnished music throughout the entire evening.

Approximately 500 people were present to witness the style show.

Crockett Fox With McMurry Glee Club

Abilene, Oct. 3.—Crockett Fox, of Crowell, a Sophomore in McMurry college, has been selected as a member of the college glee club for the coming year, according to an announcement this week from the office of Gypsy Ted Sullivan Wylie, dean of the McMurry school of fine arts and director of the singing groups. Fox will sing baritone.

The boys club, made up of twelve voices, was extremely active last year, when they gave over two hundred concerts throughout the State.

FORMER RESIDENT VISITS

J. D. Satterwhite, former Foard resident, visited in Crowell a short time Tuesday while returning to his farm near Las Cruces, N. M., after spending a few days in Woodward, Okla., with his father, who was ill.

The Satterwhite family left here in July, 1933, and settled on a 35-acre farm that Mr. Satterwhite purchased near Las Cruces, northwest of El Paso. Since that time he has purchased an additional 66 acres for the farm.

The finest kind of crops, cotton, corn and alfalfa, have been made on the farm. "Judging by the crops, you would never have known that a drought existed," Mr. Satterwhite stated. His crops are irrigated from the Elephant Butte Dam, which is about 85 miles beyond his farm.

Mr. Satterwhite reported that his wife's health had greatly improved and that in general his family was getting along fine.

This-That, Etc.

By Typo Wrighter

Each week The News publishes items taken from our old files. This week the 15-year-ago items appear; next week the 1914 items will hold forth; two weeks from now the 25-year-ago sensations will appear, then back to the 15-year-ago items the following week, and so on and on.

These items are published under a two-column headline plainly telling how old they are, a procedure that has been followed for the past few years, yet it is surprising how many instances occur in which people confuse the items as being present day news.

Rude Magee recently received applications for the position as local school janitor because a 15-year-ago item appeared in which he, as school board secretary, advertised for a man to fill this position.

Several months ago a 20-year-ago item about a new school for Crowell caused several to apply for work on the proposition. Publication of births from the old files seem to cause the most sensations and its not unusual for parents to be congratulated upon the birth of a "baby" that now happens to be 20 or 25 years of age.

The 1919 items this week may be the cause of some people becoming surprised upon reading of the weddings of Grover Cole and Gabe Sanders. "Wonder what became of their other wives," may be the thoughts that will run through a few heads. Then again some man may lead his family into his car and head for the scene of that big train wreck south of Foard City. Maybe someone will apply for Mrs. Frank Hill's position as telephone operator. If such cases happen, they will be no more unusual than a number of others brought about in the past through misunderstanding of an old item for present day news.

From the Battlefield

Latest reports indicate that Guy Todd and Bob Oswalt are getting along pretty well down at San Antonio in their efforts to make the St. Mary's University football team, which plays its first game with Texas Military College Saturday at the Alamo city. Bob is a prospective tackle and Guy is trying out for the backfield. Here's hoping that they will make good.

Hubert Smith came home over the week-end to see about getting his tonsils removed and as a result his Decatur College team lost to the Cameron Aggies in Oklahoma. And then after getting here, the former Wildcat star found that it was all o.k. for him to take his tonsils back with him to Decatur. We expect Decatur victories from now on.

college up in Missouri that considers education more important than football. In giving a diploma last week to Lewis "Hoot" Gibson, another former Wildcat star, at the Chillicothe Business College at Chillicothe, Mo., lost a valuable fullback at a tiffing started, since only two games had been played.

Otis Gafford is another local boy who recently received a diploma from the same Missouri business college.

Transportation Club

The club unofficially formed last week to remove any cause for local gridsters having to walk many miles to their homes in the country after football practice is functioning nicely and is gaining strength each day. Monday the boys had ways out with family members, however, ride were needed Tuesday and Wednesday and were provided by Jack Roberts, Jr., and Merl Kincaid.

Relief, Please

Applications for various kinds of relief have been made in the past, but still another is now in order, according to several hundred members of the Foard County Ka-Choo Club, and this time it should be in the form of hay-fever relief.

With the Old-Timers

Uncle Bud Harwell, 72, still spends a few hours most every day in the saddle while herding cattle or "just riding" at his place near Crowell. He cannot remember when he started riding, but states that very few days have gone by in the past 66 years that he has not been in the saddle.

We hereby challenge any locality to produce a man who has spent more time in the saddle than this pioneer cowboy of Foard County.

Yesterday, Oct. 3, was Uncle Jake Middlebrook's birthday, so we hear. We don't know how old Uncle Jake may be, but we are sure that he is a lot "younger" in his common-sense and optimistic attitude than a great many in the county 50 years of age and under. We hope to have a visit from Uncle Jake soon in order that we may publish another old-timer's story.

Miscellaneous

A local man states that people differ. Some object to a fan dancer, and others to the fan.

Despite the "earlier than usual" cool weather, we are not expect-

What's New

A new device causes an electric switch to be thrown off when the circuit is overloaded, instead of blowing a fuse.

Mexican surgeons have developed a method of using ether as an anesthetic during operations.

Experts at Elgin, Ill., are using a device whereby a signal may be set by radio signals out being taken from the pockets.
