Many Farmers Attend County-Wide Meeting In Crowell Tuesday

Over three hundred farmers were present for the county-wide meeting in the district court room here Tuesday afternoon to hear a discussion of the Bankhead cotton act.

Parker D. Hanna of College Station, district agent, and A. M. Bourland of Vernon, member of the State Cotton Allotment Board, spoke in regard to the benefits of the act. Following their talks, Frank McLarty, Rayland farmer, spoke in opposition to the Bankhead law.

Referendum on continuance of the Bankhead compulsory control law next year will be submitted to cotton growers in Southern states within a few weeks. Plans for the referendum, which requires a two-thirds majority vote for adoption, are being drafted.

CHS PLAYS AT BURKBURNETT FRIDAY NIGHT

In their game at Burkburnett tomorrow night, Friday, the Crowell Wildcats will meet their first stiff competition for this season in a District 5-B game.

After losing a closely fought contest recently to the Olney Cubs, the Bulldogs are determined to get back in the race for the district championship by smashing the Wildcats' perfect district record, and then depending upon Crowell to beat Olney on Nov. 23 to cause a three-way tie.

The Bulldogs did not have a game last week and are reported to be in perfect physical condition for the important engagement tomorrow night. Coaches Volney Hill and Jess Johnson and members of their Burkburnett squad were in Crowell last Friday and scouted the Seymour game.

The Wildcats are determined to meet Olney on Nov. 23 with an undefeated record, but realize that the powerful and fast Bulldogs present a major threat in preventing them from realizing this ambition. With the exception of Austin Wiggins, reserve end, Crowell will be in excellent condition for the Burk battle and Coach Grady Graves will be able to start his strong eleven tomorrow night. Wiggins sprained his ankle in the Seymour game.

Two of the greatest ball carriers and all-around football players in Northwest Texas, Dick Todd of the Wildcats and Lewis Sims of the Bulldogs, will no doubt furnish spectators with plenty of thrills and the game should prove to be one of the most interesting ones of the season. The "Galloping Ghost" of Burk was the outstanding star of the Bulldogs' game with Olney. He is unusually fast and Burk fans not only believe that he will account for numerous long gains, but that he can also be depended upon to stop Todd when the Wildcat ace gets into the open.

HELD IN LOCAL JAIL

John VanWinkle and Grady Walker are being held in the Foard County jail charged with burglary in connection with the theft of two saddles several weeks ago from Herman Bell. They were arrested in Jackson County, Okla., last week after the saddles had been disposed of there. They waived preliminary trial Monday and were returned to jail after failing to make $1,500 bond each, which was set by J. W. Klepper, justice of the peace.

A suit of clothes stolen a few weeks ago from the D. F. McKoon residence was also found in Walker's possession.

Shoot Eagles and Coyotes From Airplane

These two men, E. G. Pope, left, and Ray Bumgardner of Fort Stockton, Texas, have developed a new sport, and at the same time have done sheep men of Far West Texas a real favor. They successfully hunt eagles and coyotes from the air. Their bag of 45 eagles in Culberson county over the Guadalupe mountains definitely establishes man's superiority over birds in the air. The flying hunt-establisman's man's prize bird, an old Mexican brown eagle, is pictured with eight feet. Eagles have been particularly bad with a wing spread of eight feet. Eagles have been particularly bad about carrying off lambs in this area. (Texas News Photo.)

SEYMOUR LOSES TO CROWELL BY SCORE OF 71 TO 6

Crowell High's Wildcats maintained their undefeated conference record and rang up their fourth District 5-B win of the season last Friday in defeating the Seymour Panthers 71 to 6 on the local field.

The Wildcat offense was never checked. Except for 1 brief occasion, the Crowell defense proved entirely too much for the visitors. The Wildcats scored in every period, Dick Todd leading the attack with six touchdowns. He passed to Jim Riley Gafford for two others. John Cogdell, guard, registered his initial touchdown of the season with a 42-yard run after intercepting a forward pass at the line of scrimmage. Raymond Gibson and Lester Patton accounted for Crowell's other two touchdowns.

Seymour's only tally came in the second quarter on the prettiest play of the game, a total of 63 yards being gained on the play. After completing Hooser's 10-yard pass, Robinson lateraled to Hayes who then raced over 55 yards down the sideline for a touchdown, the first one that has been made against Crowell this season by a Class B club.

Over $50.00 in merchandise and services were given to Trades Day visitors as a result of the guessing event.

T. J. Taylor was returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Taylor on Monday morning of this week after submitting to an appendicitis operation in the hospital at Quanah on Saturday, Oct. 27.

TWO-GAME POLO SERIES OPENS HERE SATURDAY

All details have been completed for the two-game polo series here Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 10 and 11, between Crowell and Wichita Falls. Unusually fast polo is in prospect for this series, which is sponsored by the Gordon J. Ford Post of the American Legion.

The games each day are to begin at 2:30 o'clock. The admission for adults is 25 cents per game. Children under 12 will be admitted free.

The games will be played on the polo field about two miles southeast of Crowell.

Probably the best polo team that has ever represented Crowell will take the field in these two games. Chas. Featherston of Truscott will serve as captain of the local group, which will include J. H. Minnick, Sr., Foard County rancher and the father of polo in this section; Roy Barry, formerly of Crowell and one of the leading young polo players of the Southwest; Bobby Nichols of Detroit, Mich., and George Oliver of New Jersey, a five-goal player who is regarded as one of the best mallet men in polo. All of the other Crowell players rate 2-goal handicaps.

Ernest Fain will captain the team of Wichita Falls stars, Horace Robbins and Luther Weeks, each of whom are handicapped three goals, are members of this team.

Two other outstanding polo stars will be seen in action with the Wichita Falls quartet, Cecil Childers of Fort Worth, captain of the widely known El Rancho polo team, will play with the Wichita team Saturday. He rates a 5-goal handicap.

McGinley of Fort Silo, Okla., one of the best Army polo players in the nation, is scheduled to play with Wichita Sunday afternoon. He was once a member of the Army team that represented the United States in a tournament in England.

The Wichita Falls team is known as one of the strongest of the South, having won championships at Fort Worth and other points. Its clash with the Crowell team is expected to result in fast and closely fought polo.

The finest and most expensive group of polo ponies ever seen in this section will be used in this series.

Thalia Wins Over M. Mound; Margaret Loses to Oklaunion

Thalia defeated Medicine Mound 39 to 12 in a Red River-Wichita Valley conference basketball game at the Crowell gymnasium last Friday night. J. C. Wisdom of Thalia led the scoring attack with 13 points.

In another conference game at Oklaunion, Margaret suffered its first defeat of the season at the hands of the undefeated Oklaunion quintet by the score of 38 to 24.

In games on Friday night of this week, Margaret will play at Odell and Thalia at Five-in-One.

Oklaunion is now leading the Western sector of the conference and Geraldine of the Eastern sector. Both have perfect records.

The Stamps quartet of Lubbock; C. D. Williams quartet of Vernon; Thalia male quartet, composed of J. A. Stovall, M. C. Adkins, C. C. Wisdom and T. H. Matthews; "Gray's Quartet"; accordion numbers by Miss Viola Ramsey; piano numbers by Mrs. W. M. Bralley, and other numbers by local talent.

The program closes the school conducted by Mr. Echols, who is now completing his 97th week of teaching the last two years. From 200 to 400 have been present each evening for his instruction at Thalia and the people of that community feel that his services have been of great benefit. There will be a small admission fee for the program.

Threshold by EMILE C. SCHNURMACHER Reading Time—4 Minutes Harry Carstairs paused for a moment in front of the familiar white door to his apartment. He took in the neatly lettered "14A" beneath which the typed card "Mr. and Mrs. H. Carstairs" was slightly faded. He remembered distinctly having typed that card and tacked it up on the door in its neat bronze frame ten years ago. Ten years—a long time! He and Madeline had both been thirty when he had typed that sign. Still young and just starting life in New York. Now he was forty and still young while Madeline was forty, and old. Curious how differently age treats man and woman. Well, that was all over now. When his passport had arrived from Washington yesterday, in its neat red cover it symbolized more than a passport to visit those foreign countries he had so often planned to see. It was a passport to a new life. With six months of travel in Europe to relax—to shake off that nervous, constant attention to business whose very intensity combined with his ability had netted him a fortune, he would be a new man. He would make new friends, abandon middle age mediocrity. Perhaps after a decent interval following Madeline's divorce, he would even see the world through the eyes of a younger wife. He thought then of Madeline. Madeline had helped of course, helped a lot. He regretted momentarily that he had not seen more of her, but business of course

Mr. Lenz, who was born in Germany in 1888, was apprenticed at the age of 14 to a German foundry at Haagen. Since 1906, when he came to the United States, he has worked as molder, coremaker, smelter, foreman, superintendent, and manager in the foundry industry, with a daily capacity of more than 2,000 tons. In formally presenting the medal, Thomas S. Hammond, chairman of the A. F. A. BE CAREFUL

- IF any laxative is dipetic (makes you thirsty). IF it affects your appetite. IF you need more today than the first time you took it. IF it drains the system (by too watery a movement). IF a bad "burning" is felt. IF there is severe griping.

If you have children who are occasionally constipated, you should know this. If you are "not yourself" because of a constipated condition, don't blame it on your blood condition, or your age, but first try this treatment that safely relieves sluggishness in children or adults. The Proper Treatment You can't safely relieve the bowels with any medicine if you can't regulate the dose. To regulate dosage, you should have a liquid laxative. When necessary to repeat, you can gradually reduce the dose. And that is the secret of safe relief from a sluggish, constipated condition at any age. A liquid laxative can be measured. Its action can be thus controlled. If properly made, of such natural laxative elements as senna and cascara, it forms no habit—even in the youngest child. And such a laxative will help the bowels to help themselves. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative containing herbs, active senna, and cascara, and is the one widely used. You can always obtain it at any drug store. Why not make the "liquid test" which has attracted so much attention of late? It helps nearly everyone who tries it. It may make you feel better overnight. The children will like it, too; Syrup Pepsin has a delightful taste. If you will risk sixty cents to discover the safe, pleasant action of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, we believe bowel worries will be over for your household.

A Sure Way To Prevent Winter Trouble for Motorists of CROWELL

Special Winter Grades of Germ Processed Oil Give Positive Starting, Improved Gasoline Mileage and Utmost Motor Protection!

Change now to the proper grade of New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. You'll get:

- 1. Positive Starting. These new lighter grades permit your motor to reach higher "cranking speed." You save your battery. You choke less—waste no gasoline. 2. Definitely more miles per gallon of gasoline. These lighter grade oils flow freely and minimize friction. 3. Utmost Motor Protection. Other oils drain away, leaving parts unprotected when you start. Only Conoco Germ Processed Oil penetrates and combines with metal surfaces, forming the "Hidden Quat that Never Drains Away." Every part is fully oiled from the first turn of the motor. It cuts down starting wear—saves repair bills!

Conoco dealers and stations have the new Winter Grades, namely, 10W and 20W—heavier grades, too—in refinery-sealed cans and in bulk. Consult the Conoco chart, fill with the proper grade—and stop worrying!

TODAY'S CHALLENGE TO THE RED CROSS

(By William M. Baxter, Jr., Manager, Midwestern Area, American Red Cross, St. Louis, Mo.)

Whatever measures are employed to deal through public funds with distress resulting from depression, the normal responsibilities of the American Red Cross are not lessened. Instead, the national organization's task has grown, rather than diminished in five years of economic depression.

In coping with increased health hazards growing out of drastically reduced family budgets; in broadening its accident prevention program to reach into vast federal work projects; in providing disaster and other needs not otherwise being met; the Red Cross has been assigned to and successfully dealt with problems unparalleled in its peace-time history.

Soon the organization will open its Eighteenth annual Roll Call. During that period it will extend an invitation to every adult citizen to enroll. While economic conditions must be reckoned with they are not the determining factor in the results of such a campaign.

The Red Cross can serve humanity only insofar as public confidence and support exists. It is the medium which we as individuals can express our interest in the welfare of our neighbors. In the hearts and minds of the American people lies the answer.

About 65,000 boys in the state of New York work in daytime and go to school at night, and three out of four have savings accounts.

A CHALLENGE TO YOUNG PEOPLE

During the past forty years tens of thousands of young men and women of many nationalities and denominations have sought free training for Christian service at Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. More than 2,000 students enrolled in its Day and Evening Schools last year. While for certain special courses a high school background is required, and college training desirable, yet grammar school training will admit to its General Course. English is taught to any deficient in its use.

The Bible ranks first in all institute courses, but instruction is furnished in such subjects as Sunday School Administration, Daily Vacation Bible School, Gospel Music, Public Speaking, Home Economics, Hygiene, and Manual Training. In special courses are offered Theology, Homiletics, Church History, Apologetics, Hebrew, Yiddish, Greek, and medical subjects for foreign mission work.

There are three terms a year—Fall, Winter and Summer—but students may enter at any time. An illustrated catalogue will be mailed on request. Address, 153 Institute Place, Chicago Avenue Station, Chicago, Ill.

ARMISTICE DAY

Armistice Day, marking the 16th anniversary of the end of the World War, again recalls the stern realities of that titanic struggle, which changed the map of the world.

The significance of the events which have occurred since November 11, 1918, may be variously interpreted, according to the viewpoint from which we see them. To some it will appear that great progress has been made toward universal peace, while to others the trend of events will imply grave danger for the future.

Even a single individual may reasonably waver between hope and fear—hopeful when some felicitous occurrence seems to draw the nations closer together; fearful when an outbreak here or there threatens to undo all efforts for concord and understanding.

No one is wise enough to foretell the future. Was the "war to end war" the last great clash of nations, or was it only the prelude to more faithful slaughter and destruction yet to come?

Only time can give the answer, but in the meantime it behooves all right-thinking persons, and particularly those in positions of influence and responsibility, to exercise whatever they may possess of tolerance, forbearance and the will to do justice to their fellowmen.

COTTON GRADE AND STAPLE REPORT

The report released Nov. 3 by the Division of Cotton Marketing at Austin, Texas, giving the quality of cotton produced in Texas indicates that 27.5 per cent of the cotton classed as Strict Middling Extra White and better, while less than six per cent is classed as Extra White Middling and below.

White Strict Middling and better is reported as nearly one-fourth of the cotton classed this week. It is estimated that about fourteen per cent of the cotton classed is White Middling and below.

There is an increased proportion of spotted cotton this week. There is a little less than one-third of the cotton classed this week reported as spotted. However, Strict Middling Spot is the predominating grade.

Shorter staple lengths of cotton predominate the report this week for approximately one-fourth of the cotton is shorter than 1/16 inch long, and it is noticeable that one-half of the cotton is 1/16 inch. About 17 per cent is reported as 15/16 inch long while inch cotton is estimated at 2 per cent and 1-1/16 inch and longer cotton is 6 per cent.

The tenderable cotton this week is reported as 75.1 per cent. To date 85.2 per cent is tenderable. For District No. 3, which includes Foard County, the tenderable this week is 68.3 per cent, compared with 72.7 per cent to date.

down shortly after the game opened. Patton returned Lewis' kick-off from the 30 to Seymour's 44. In three tries, Todd advanced the ball to the 20, from which he circled left end for a touchdown. The try for extra point failed as the result of a fumble. Crowell 6, Seymour 0.

Crowell next took possession of the ball when Hogue's straight-up punt was caught by Gafford, who ran 15 yards to the Seymour 22. Crowell lost the ball on the 4-yard line as a result of being held for downs.

After an exchange of punts, Crowell took the ball on the Seymour 28. Todd made 5 yards, Gafford's pass to McKown put the ball on the 5, from which Todd passed to Gafford for a touchdown. The place-kick was wide, making the score 12 to 0, which remained at that figure as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter

Early in the second period, Gibson intercepted Hooser's pass and ran 10 yards to the Seymour 16. Todd's pass to Horn put the ball on the 6, at which point Todd fumbled with Stevens recovering for Seymour on the 9. Shortly afterward Hooser fumbled and recovered on the fourth down in attempting to punt and the ball went over to Crowell on the 7. After three tries, Todd went across from the one-yard line and then passed to Gafford for the extra point, making the score 19 to 0.

Seymour Scores

Hayes returned Todd's kick-off from the 23 to the Seymour 37. Hooser intercepted a pass on his 45 and ran four yards. Todd's pass to Gafford put the ball on the 12. Patton dropped Todd's pass across the goal line. A second pass, Todd to Gafford, was good for a touchdown just as the half ended. Place-kick for extra point failed and the score was 32 to 6.

Third Quarter

Crowell received the kick-off and marched to Seymour's 27 before the Panthers checked the Wildcat offense. Todd punted out on the 21. Saunders blocked Hooser's punt and Gafford recovered on the 3. On the next play, Crowell received a 5-yard penalty. A basket pass from Todd to Patton was incomplete. Two other passes over the goal line failed and Seymour took the ball on the 20. Hooser gained 2 yards. A pass, Hooser to Stevens, gained 21 yards. Womack broke through to knock down a pass. Gafford recovered a Panther fumble on the 39. Todd gained 2 yards and then went around right end for 37 yards and a touchdown. The place-kick was wide and the score was 38 to 6.

Westerman returned the kick-off from the 30 to Crowell's 43. Seymour punted out on Crowell's

Texan Speaks In New York

PETER MOLYNEUX

Peter Molyneux, editor of The Texas Weekly and widely known economist, told the Academy of Political Science in New York Nov. 7 that international cooperation is the only safeguard of peace.

New York City, Nov. 8.—Voicing his belief "that the primary cause of the world depression is to be found in the World War and that the primary economic necessity for the future is the prevention of war," Peter Molyneux, of Dallas, editor of The Texas Weekly and trustee of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, addressed the Academy of Political Science at its annual dinner meeting in New York Wednesday night, November 7th. On the next play another was attempted, but was intercepted at the line of scrimmage by Cogdell who followed some excellent interference in a 42-yard run for a touchdown. Todd's pass to Gafford netted the extra point and the score was 45 to 6, remaining there until the quarter ended a few minutes later.

Last Quarter

With the ball on the Seymour 33, Todd's pass to Joy gained 22 yards. On the next play Todd went over center for 11 yards and another touchdown. The kick was wide and the score was 51 to 6.

After receiving the kick-off, Seymour was unable to gain and punted out on Crowell's 44. On the next play Todd took the ball and circled right end for 56 yards and a touchdown. His pass to Crews netted the extra point, making the score 58 to 6.

Seymour took the kick-off and then punted to Crowell's 25. Crews returning to the 28. Todd's kick went to the Seymour 9. Crews also hit center for the extra point and the score was 65 to 6.

Henson returned the kick-off from the 9 to the 27. Two passes failed. Todd left the game at this point. Hooser punted out on his 37. A backward pass was fumbled and Dunn recovered on the 17. McKown went off tackle for 10 yards. On the next play he passed to Patton for a touchdown. dinner was presided over by Owen D. Young, president of the Academy, and the two speakers were Mr. Molyneux and Newton B. Baker, former Secretary of War.

The subject shared by Mr. Molyneux and Mr. Baker was "The Outlook for World Peace" and Mr. Molyneux, Texas' best known economist in the East, emphasized that a policy of economic co-operation between the United States and the world was necessary for international peace.

The Texas editor warned that the tendency toward narrow economic nationalism in the United States and other countries was aggravating conditions of suspicion and unrest, and declared it was reasonable for the United States, as the richest nation, to assume leadership in guiding the world from beneath the menacing war clouds by pursuing policies to promote sympathetic understanding between nations through economic channels of trade.

Mr. Molyneux reminded, however, that these policies must spring from the American people themselves and that leaders in thought must educate the people to that end. "There will never be a dominant public opinion in the United States in support of a program of international co-operation until the American people become convinced that such a program is essential to their welfare," he told his large audience.

CARROLL KILLS COYOTE WITH SIX-SHOOTER MON.

G. Y. Carroll, who lives one mile and a half northeast of Crowell, killed a large coyote with a six-shooter at his farm Monday morning at about 7:30 o'clock. Two coyotes approached the farm home after some turkeys and then took after a calf. Mr. Carroll and two sons, Bob and J. D., got in their car and started out across a wheat field after the coyotes, one of which got away. Mr. Carroll missed the animal in eight shots with the six-shooter, but the ninth one dropped him. At about the same instant, J. D. hit him with the shotgun, after missing him on two previous shots. Bill drove the car during the chase.

Mr. Carroll reports that in recent weeks coyotes have killed four turkeys and over fifteen chickens at his place.

Texas Steers and S. M. U. Ponies Battle to 7-7 Tie

Practically everybody in Austin had a bad case of jitters after going through 60 minutes of nerve-wrecking when Texas tangled with S. M. U. Saturday. It ended in a 7 to 7 tie. The game began with a touchdown for the Longhorns in the first minute of play. It was punctuated with a 34-yard touchdown run by Bobbie Wilson, the Mustang racehorse, which gave the Texas fans heart failure, and a gigantic heave by Bohn Hilliard which gained so many yards that it left Pony supporters biting their fingernails. It ended with the Mustangs on Texas' 20-yard line, going strong, and Longhorn rooters in a cold sweat. Wilson, leading scorer of the Southwest Conference, is shown in the picture as he raced for the S. M. U. touchdown. (Texas News Photos)

FROM RAGLAND

P. T. (Red) Ragland writes The News that he is now located on the little place that he bought one and one-half miles west of Avery, Texas, in Red River County on Highway No. 5. His address is Route 2, Avery, Texas. He wrote in part as follows:

"I will start on that log shanty soon and now have a neighbor employed to help me with it. The weather is ideal, but we are needing rain badly."

"I want to put out an acre of grapes in early spring if I can get the land ready in time. I also want to put out a big patch of blackberries and strawberries too. I will have fencing to reset as it is in poor repair. The donkeys are eating grass and resting. Curly, the dog, has a great time hunting rabbits. Have seen no squirrels yet."

Mothers Have Found Way To Keep Family's Colds Under Better Control

Millions of mothers are helping their families to greater freedom from colds—fewer, shorter, milder colds—by following Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds. The helpfulness of Vicks Plan in reducing the number, duration and dangers of colds has been proved in thousands of clinical tests supervised by practicing physicians—as well as in every day use in millions of homes. The Plan provides proper care—and proper medication—for different types and stages of colds. To Help Avoid Many Colds—At the first sneeze or nasal irritation, apply the unique aid in preventing colds—Vicks Va-tro-nol. Just a few drops up each nostril. Timely use of Va-tro-nol helps to prevent many colds—and to throw off colds in their early stages. (Va-tro-nol now comes in two generous sizes, 30c and 50c.) To End a Cold Sooner—If a cold has already developed, apply Vicks VapoRub on throat and chest. It fights a cold direct—two ways at once. The combined effect of VapoRub's double direct action—by stimulation and inhalation—loosens phlegm—soothes irritated membranes—eases difficult breathing—helps break congestion. Sure relief and with safety. No "dosing." Full details and proof of the effectiveness of Vicks Plan come in each Vicks package.

SOME WORLD WONDERS

The seven wonders of the ancient world have often been described. They were the great Pyramid of Cheops, the Hanging Gardens of Babylon, the Temple of Diana at Ephesus, the Grecian statue of Jupiter, the Mausoleum at Halicarnassus, the Pharos lighthouse at Alexandria, and the Colossus of Rhodes. All except the great pyramid have been destroyed.

Other wonders, which vie with the classical seven in magnitude and historic interest, are to be found in various parts of the world, mostly in ruins. Among these the most striking are to be found in Italy.

The Circus Maximus at Rome, originally built in 605 B. C., was enlarged at various times until in the fourth century it was capable of holding 385,000 spectators.

Another of the world's largest amphitheatres, the Coliseum at Rome, was the scene of horrible atrocities, in which early Christians and others by the thousands were thrown into the arena to be killed by wild lions and tigers.

The Appian Way, extending 360 miles southward from Rome, was built some 300 years before Christ.

The Vatican at Rome, home of the Popes since 1377, was begun by the Emperor Constantine in the fourth century. It is the largest residence in the world. Here also is the largest church in the world, the Cathedral of St. Peter, begun in 1506 and completed 126 years later.

All these are visited by thousands of tourists and others each year, because of their unique character and historic interest.

The pastor will leave Wednesday morning for Abilene, where the Northwest Texas Conference will be held. Hold that line for one more week and the year's efforts will be over. The way to the goal has not been easy, but we have reached the goal, set in the beginning of the year and two years ago, in some particulars. There are yet many endeavors worth our best efforts, greatest faith and un-fading prayers before they can possibly be accomplished. May we follow the Apostle Paul in "Pressing toward the mark, unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." The pastor and our Lord most of all appreciate our faithfulness.

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 11.

The Golden Text is: "He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth." (John 3:31.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good. . . . Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them." (Genesis 1:31; 2:1.)

The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Because Mind makes all, there is nothing left to be made by a lower power. . . . All that is made is the work of God, and all is good." (page 520.)

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

by Charles E. Dunn

The Christian Citizen.

Lesson for Nov. 11th, Galatians 5:13-26.

Golden Text: Matthew 26:52.

The words of Jesus chosen for our Golden Text, "All they that take the sword shall perish with the sword," is an admirable theme for Armistice Day.

Every nation that entered the World War lost it so far as freedom and economic security are concerned. Europe is seething with terror and unrest. The seeds of another first class cataclysm are sprouting. And the direct result of the war and its aftermath in the United States is in the throes of the worst depression she has ever known. Moreover huge debts are owing to her which will never be paid.

In this alarming crisis what is the Christian citizen to do? One fertile suggestion has been made by President Palmer, of the Chicago Theological Seminary. His proposal is that millions of people, the Christian Church leading the way, sign the following non-aggression agreement, "I will never cross the boundary of another nation to kill or destroy nor will I support my government in doing so." Such a personal non-invasion pledge might go far in preventing another international holocaust.

But such a gesture, fine as it is, is too negative. What we need most of all is a positive strategy. We shall never advance very far in our quest for permanent peace until we strengthen mightily all those organizations working realistically for the triumph of common sense in the conduct of world affairs. One of these is the World Court. Another is the League of Nations, mankind's greatest step forward. It is one of the absurdities of history that our country is not yet a member of either the Court or the League.

If Christian citizens do not place themselves behind a positive peace movement of aggressive power they deserve well-merited rebuke. The Church must repudiate war.

Lightly

...she admitted it, in her mind—weren't important. Just models like herself. With stately names behind which hid their own commonplace labels. Gay Vardon—the shorter one, with the angelic face framed in red hair. She was in demand for magazine covers, Gay. Her innocent eyes were a guarantee on any periodical of its faith with the public. Claire Tremaine—the tall, willowy one, who posed for fashion work. Who, with her boneless, curveless figure was just a little passe in this new age of fashion elegance.

They weren't of much importance, these two. Just white of egg, beaten to a stiff froth. Not a Even at twenty Ellen couldn't great deal of substance, or nourishment, there! Sandy Mackintosh? Somehow, although his work sold readily, although he had a real flair of expression, he belonged with the two girls, Ellen told herself. His essays at love-making always bordered on the comic, for her. He was always ready to put her into one of his careless, charming illustrations, however, always ready to buy her a dinner at some place where the food was good, and the lights were low, and there was wine for the asking.

The older man, Dick Alven? He wasn't a lightweight! He didn't depend upon charm to put his drawings over. He didn't even care, always, that his paintings would interest dealers—rather than sell them! Ellen, her gaze creeping about the room, felt a thrill of affection as her eyes rested upon his face. For it was to Dick that she had first gone, quite by chance, in her quest for work. A slim, frightened child, in a scarlet cap and an unfashionable topcoat, she had come knocking at his studio door. And he, with curiosity written in every line of his face, had led her into the square, somber room in which he painted.

"So you want to pose?" he had questioned. "I fancy, from your looks, that you've just run away from school, with an odd copy of The Common Law tucked into your pocket. Well, I do need a model. But you'll find it hard, unromantic work!" Ellen had answered haughtily, to cover the shiver in her heart, the quake in her soul.

"I've posed all my life," she told him. "I know it's not easy. But I'm used to it!" Dick Alven's practiced, oddly personal yet oddly impersonal gaze had run the length of her slender body. He sighed. "You're such a kid," he told her. "Do you pose for the figure?" Ellen felt the blood mounting into her cheeks, pounding into her temples. But she answered with a certain doggedness. "I have, of course, posed that way," she said. "I can, if there's no other work to be had. But I'd rather—not!" Dick Alven had laughed. "I thought that would scare you out," he said. "I'd know you for an amateur any day. Who've you posed for—you little bluffer?" Ellen's head was high. The blood had receded from her cheeks.

"I posed for Mrs. Church," she said. "You must have seen her portrait. She specialized in drawings of children's lips all at once were quivering; all at once the tears stood, roundly, in her eyes, 'she was—my mother!" Dick Alven, with a certain mute astonishment, had watched the tears spill over on the pale cheeks. He had given himself a little shake, and had closed the studio door. "Make yourself at home," he told Ellen. "I've an order for a sort of Kate Greenway mural, to dress up a half-baked, junior league inspired children's theatre. I can use you plenty."

And so Ellen entered the studio, and buttoned herself into a high waisted, blue-sashed muslin dress, and started out upon her career as a professional model. It was as easy as that! Under Dick's tutelage, which almost amounted to chaperonage, she met other artists, secured other work. It was getting late. The cigarette smoke was rising toward the ceiling of the room. As soon as the bunch left, Ellen thought, she would fling up the windows—and make the room sweet again. "I think," she called now to the corner in which Gay and Sandy were sitting, very close, "that you'd better clear out. I'm working tomorrow, and I'm starting early."

Sandy eyed her reproachfully. "Women," he said, "they're all alike. Just puppies in mangers. Ellen won't let me touch her hand. But the moment I seek any consolation in Gay, she throws me out. Jealous cat, I call her!" Claire rose lithely from her place on the cushioned day bed. She stretched as a slim, lazy panther stretches. Nobody had been making love to Claire.

"I'm ready to blow," she said. "This party hasn't been what you'd call a vow for excitement. The story of Ellen's past is too blameless to make what might be known as a hectic evening. See me home, Dick?" there was a slightly eager note in her drawing voice. "You go my way!" But Dick, slowly, was shaking his head.

"I'm staying on here, for a bit, after the rest of you leave," he told her. "I want to talk with Ellen. I'm the guy she's working for tomorrow. We're starting on that Indian thing—and I want to talk to her about costumes."

Sandy, rising, had dragged the diminutive Gay to her feet. "We'll drop you at your shanty, Claire," he said. "That is, if you're really afraid to venture out alone on the sidewalks of New York!" Claire shrugged. "I'd suspect you, Ellen," she said, as she pulled the season's smartest hat over her beautifully arranged hair, "only it's hard to suspect anyone with milk—frozen milk—in her veins! I don't doubt."

"They're laughing about me," Ellen told Dick, and her tone was tranquil. "They think I'm something from another planet. That I have six toes on each foot, and they're webbed. You tell 'em different, Dick. You've seen my feet."

But Dick was staring at her strangely, through the drifting smoke, most of which he was now creating, himself. "Sandy may laugh at you," he said, "but he's in love with you, Ellen."

Ellen, again, attempted to shrug. It was more of a success this time. "Oh—love!" she said. Just that. Dick went on. "So," he said evenly, "am I, for that matter? I love you, Ellen, you know. Foolish, isn't it?" Ellen agreed. "Yes, it is, rather," she said. "Because I have reason to suppose, Dick, that love would stand for marriage, with you. You're that sort. Sandy? Possibly he isn't. But—well, what would marriage with you mean, Dick? Figure it out, from my point of view. Only McCoy's God Liver Oil Tablets, they're called "Cod Liver Oil in Tablets", and they simply work wonders. A little boy of 8, seriously sick, got well and gained 10% lbs. in just one month. A girl of thirteen after a same disease, gained 3 lbs. the first week and 2 lbs. each week after. A young mother who could not eat or sleep after baby came got all her health back and gained 10 lbs. in less than a month. You simply must try McCoy's at once. Remember if you don't gain at least 3 lbs. of firm healthy flesh in a month get your money back. Demand and get McCoy's—the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Refuse all substitutes. Insist on the original McCoy's—there are none better.

PREPARING FOR RAIN

On the assumption that one should "in time of drought prepare for rain," Mrs. Dave Sallis of the Gambleville Club has been busy with concrete walks and other improvements. With a few sacks of cement and what Mrs. Sallis termed some real work a concrete porch was built at the front of the house. Using the cement left from this, they built walks to the front gate and past the cistern in the back and then bricked up and cemented the cistern from the ground up. With this done the family can enjoy the future rains without the necessity for frequent shoe shines.

FINE FOOD SUPPLY

One thousand and thirty-four pints instead of the 734 planned may be found in the cellar of Mrs. G. C. Owens, farm food supply demonstrator of the Foard City Home Demonstration Club. These were organized according to the class of food, as leafy, starchy, and other vegetables, fruits, meats, preserves and jellies, pickles and relishes and miscellaneous. The budget was more than filled with leafy vegetables, meats, and preserves and jellies and more than double in fruits. Every jar and can in the cellar was labeled, the shelves labeled, and food organized. Mrs. Owens plans to keep up her pantry as a demonstration.

When the famous old Charter Oak blew down in 1856, it was given a funeral service by patriotic citizens of Connecticut.

This-That, Etc.

By Typo Wrighter

If you heard a peculiar noise as Dick Todd plowed his way through center for eleven yards and his fifth touchdown of the afternoon last Friday, it was probably because something was smashed besides several Seymour Panthers.

In crossing the goal line on that run, Dick sent crashing to the ground a record that had stood as a mark for local gridsters to shoot at for nearly four years.

DICK '34

In the 1930 season, Guy Todd, brother of Dick, set a new CHS scoring record for a single season with 181 points. He is now with the St. Mary's University football team at San Antonio. Last year Dick lacked only one point in tying Guy's record.

That fifth touchdown Friday gave Dick 182 points for the present season and for good measure he added another touchdown before the game was over with a 55-yard run that brought his grand total to 188 points for the 1934 season—and it isn't over yet!

Dick's total football record for his entire high school career now totals 534 points. To the left we see Dick pictured as he appeared in the 1931 season when he scored 80 points. In 1932 he made 86 and last year he accounted for 180.

So far this season Crowell has scored 333 points to 38 for opponents. Even though the season is not yet over, this is next to the best scoring record ever made by a CHS football team. In 1930 Crowell made 388 points to 39 for opponents. To equal that great record the 1934 Wildcats must hold their remaining opponents scoreless and pile up 53 more points themselves.

Graham and Class A

An editorial appeared in the Graham Leader last week concerning Graham's entrance in Class A football next year. According to the editorial, sentiment is pretty strong down that way for the Steers to jump from Class B to Class A competition, for Graham High is finding the competition too easy in their own district.

Incidentally, we are going to make a little prediction right here to the effect that Crowell and Graham will compete again this year in the bi-district battle. And those Graham fans who worry about not having real Class B competition, can start worrying right now in the other direction, for it will be too plentiful when those Steers bump against the Wildcats.

We're Nominated

Because he is charged with the responsibility of keeping count of Crowell's score and because he covers the game by following the play on the field, Typo has been nominated by Ray Nichols, editor of the Vernon Record as the "busiest athlete" in this section. In connection with his nomination, Ray stated in his column, "Home Town Stuff," that the tickers of the New York Stock Exchange would be running behind time when the Wildcats really start clicking.

There is more truth than poetry in Ray's comment. While these Wildcats are breaking all scoring records, they are likely to break down Typo's stamina if they continue their present tactics.

More Predictions

We scored 800 out of a possible 1,000 in our predictions last week. In ten games we were entirely wrong only once and that was in picking Tipton to beat Chillicothe. Two tie games, SMU-Texas and Ark.-A. & M., caused us to be half wrong on each.

Our predictions this week are: Crowell 26, Burkburnett 6. Olney 27, Chillicothe 0. Seymour 32, Iowa Park 0. Throckmorton 13, Archer City 0. Wichita Falls 13, Graham 7. Electra 13, Childress 6. Vernon 30, Plainview 7.

Rice 20, Arkansas 6, S. M. U. 20, A. & M. 7, Texas 26, Baylor 0.
