From Congress
BOB PRICE

In one of the first House call votes of the 91st Congress, Panhandle Congressman Bob Price voted against sealing Adam Clayton Powell of New York. "My views are the same as they were two years ago when I joined 306 other members in denying Mr. Powell his seat," Price said. "The fact that he was elected again does not right the wrongs for which he has not been absolved."

Price's first bill in the 91st Congress hogg was the same as his first bill in the last session. The resolution proposes an amendment to the Constitution that would allow prayer in schools and other public buildings.

Senator Everett Dirksen has been the main exponent of an amendment in the other House. Price said he believed it is a necessary and proper function of our public schools to provide the opportunity of prayer. "There is no reason to believe the founding fathers felt voluntary prayer in a public school was an evil to be prevented by the First Amendment."

Other "first-day" bills introduced by Price included a package of import bills which would set quotas on oil, meat, textiles, cotton, dairy products and steel. A leader in both oil and meat import legislation for the past two years, Price has testified in hearings on both. "I am a firm believer in reciprocal trade," Price said, "but we need some better rules-of-the-road to keep our domestic industries healthy. The Oil Import Program as now administered threatens to impair the national security which is the basic concept upon which the program was established."

"The Meat Import Act of 1964 has been ineffective because the roll-back figure was too high to begin with," Price said. "The Department of Agriculture estimates meat imports for 1969 will be more than a billion pounds -- up 4 1/2 per cent from 1968 -- and that does not include fresh lamb and cured meats which are another billion. The biggest agricultural product cannot be sold down in the interest of exports."

Other bills in Friday legislative procedure included: --A resolution on employment of known cos in defense plants.

--Making it a felony to carry firearms on ships aboard a commercial craft.

--Tax credits for college improvement.

--Tax credits to employ for job training program.

--Prohibit political inf in the appointment of post and rural carriers.

--Double personal income exemption from $600 to $1,200.

--A Hoover Commission type bill, the Executive Reorganization and Management Improvement Act.

Two bills to change retirement credits for Veterans Administration physicians and dentists. Price said he believed the 91st Congress would be more selective in approving legislation but that there would be a real push for import quotas, particularly on oil, meat, cotton, and textiles. Hearings were held during the last session but no committee action was taken.

Pvt. Brinkley With Center, Vietnam

Vietnam, January 6--Marine Private First Class Jerry D. Brinkley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nevans J. Brinkley of Muleshoe, and husband of the former Miss Christiane S. Parker of 212 Gary St., Clovis, N.M., is serving with Headquarters Battalion, First Marine Division in Vietnam.

His battalion is the command center of the First Marine Division. Marines and sailors assigned to the battalion work either on the staff of the commanding general, or are assigned to one of five specialized companies.

The battalion arrived in Chu Lai, Vietnam in March of 1966 and moved to Danang in October of the same year.

In addition to administrative and logistical duties, the battalion conducts a civic action program and supports both air and ground units engaged in combat.

A fire department is not always appreciated by those who have had no fires.

Mrs. Thomas Wesley Cornelison

Mrs. Blackburn Relates History

Mrs. John Gentry and Mrs. Hugh Young were hostesses January 7 to the ESA sorority in First National Bank community room.

Mrs. Horace Blackburn, guest speaker, discussed the history of Bailey County and the town of Muleshoe, relating interesting and romantic stories collected since her family has lived here.

Mrs. Blackburn said her father, the late A.C. Bray came to Muleshoe in 1912 and purchased oil royalties from the late E.R. Hart, at that time a stranger to him. Approximately forty years later Mr. Bray's granddaughter married Mr. Hart's grandson.

Mrs. Horace Blackburn, guest speaker, discussed the history of Bailey County and the town of Muleshoe, relating interesting and romantic stories collected since her family has lived here.

The beginnings of the town of Muleshoe in 1912 and the rivalry between the towns of Hurley and Muleshoe were discussed by Mrs. Blackburn, also the organization of Bailey County in 1918. She said it was only the rivalry between groups of men that determined the final exact location of the town.

In discussing the climate of our country and its physical properties, she told the women the average number of days of sunshine here is 308 days per year.

Plans were made by the sorority to sponsor a scholarship again this year.

District 3 meeting is to be held January 19 at Denver City. A secret ballot was taken to nominate a candidate for the beauty contest to be held at that time. Mrs. John Young was nominated by the local chapter.

Thrifty Hamburger

by Betty Crocker

So you splurged a bit on back-to-school clothes. And now you need to bolster the budget with some good hamburger ideas. Okay, try these. Hamburger patties with shredded Cheddar cheese and chopped olives baked in the middle. Hamburger meat leaves, individual size, baked with smoky barbecue sauce. Or how about my recipe below for porcupine meatballs. Ground beef and rice, sauté with seasonings and simmered in tomato and Worcestershire sauces. Add a batch of cranberry Celery Crescents hot from the oven, fruit cocktail on lettuce leaves — and what have you got? A painless kind of penny-pinching, that's what.

PORCUPINES

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1/2 cup uncooked regular rice
- 1/2 cup milk or water
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon celery salt
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 2 tablespoons shortening
- 1 can (15 ounces) tomato sauce
- 1 cup water
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce

Mix beef, rice, milk, onion and seasonings. Shape mixture into small balls. In skillet, brown meatballs in hot shortening, turning frequently. Stir in tomato sauce, water and Worcestershire sauce. Cover and simmer 45 minutes. If necessary, add small amount of water. 4 servings.

CELERY CRESCENTS

- 2 cups New Bisquick
- 1/2 cup cold water
- Melted butter or margarine
- Celery or sesame seed

Heat oven to 450°. Stir New Bisquick and water with fork to a soft dough. Gently smooth dough into a ball on floured cloth-covered board. Knead 5 times. Roll into 12-inch circle. Brush lightly with butter. Cut into 16 wedges. Beginning at rounded edge, roll up wedges tightly. Place on ungreased baking sheet about 1 inch apart, points underneath. Curve ends to form crescents. Brush tops with butter; sprinkle with celery seed. Bake 10 to 12 minutes. Makes 16 rolls. Remember, hamburger is always juicier with 1/2 cup milk or water per pound of meat.

Miss Nevil, Mr. Cornelison Wed

Miss Phyllis Kaye Nevil, of Grand Prairie, became the bride of Thomas Wesley Cornelison, of Fort Worth, in a double ring ceremony performed December 14 at Lakeview Baptist Church at seven-thirty o'clock. Officiating minister was the Rev. Paul Rushing, pastor of Lakeview Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbern Nevil of Grand Prairie and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cornelison of Muleshoe.

The altar was decorated with arrangements of gladioli and red carnations and lighted by red tapers on two seven-branch candelabra adorned with holly.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white bridal satin fashioned with Empire waist, jewel necklace, the bodice covered with Chantilly lace. The long sleeves came to a petal point at wrist. The banded waistline was marked in front by a satin bow and in back by a larger bow which held the chapel length train of illusion, lace edged. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was held by a cluster of peau de soie roses and leaves.

The bridal bouquet was an arrangement of white carnations and holly atop a white bible. Mrs. Gilbert Williams of Arlington attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Mike Jackson, also a sister of the bride, and Mrs. James Seiber, both of Grand Prairie. Mrs. Brenda Rushing, of Grand Prairie, was flower girl.

All of the bride's attendants wore identical dresses of red velvet, with empire waistlines and trimmed with gold and red braid. They carried nosegays of peppermint carnations with red velvet streamers. Their headpieces were red velvet pillboxes.

Serving as best man was James Seiber of Grand Prairie. Groomsman were Bill Dale of Muleshoe, brother-in-law of the groom, and Adrian Warren of Abilene.

Ushers were Richard Webb of Lubbock, brother-in-law of the groom, and Doug Simon, of Grand Prairie.

Mrs. Joyce Harper, pianist, and Mrs. Paul Rushing, both of Grand Prairie, provided the wedding music.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cornelison, parents of the groom; Mrs. Bill Dale and Kristi, sister and niece of the groom, all of Muleshoe; Mr. and Mrs. Petty from Fort Worth; Mrs. Adrian arrangement of white carnations and holly atop a white bible.

Mrs. Gilbert Williams of Arlington attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids ception was held at Grand Prairie State Bank community room, Assisting in hospitalities were Mrs. Doug Simon Jr., Miss Fay Killian, Miss Kathy Irwin and Mrs. Carl Shipley, all of Grand Prairie.

The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of white gladioli and red carnations. A three-tiered wedding cake adorned with red roses and topped with the traditional bride and groom figures was served.

For a wedding trip to Waco the bride wore a three-piece suit of pink linen with white blouse.

The new Mrs. Cornelison is a 1966 graduate of Grand Prairie High School and is employed at Texas Instruments near Dallas.

The groom, 1965 graduate of Muleshoe High School, attended Lubbock Christian College. He is employed at Harveson & Cole Funeral Home in Fort Worth, and will enroll in March at mortician school in Dallas.

The couple are at home at 2729 Avenue C, Fort Worth.

Study Club Considers The Meat Americans Eat

The January 9 meeting of Muleshoe Study Club was held in Muleshoe State Bank community room, with Mrs. John Farley as hostess. Theme for the meeting was "The Meat Americans Eat". Roll call was answered with "The meat recipe I like best," the favorites being beef caserole, especially those that can be quickly prepared. Recipes were exchanged.

Salute to the flag was read by Mrs. W.T. Andrews and the club collect by Mrs. Rufus Glibreath.

Mrs. Pauline Benefield discussed "guides to meat buying" and told the group "You don't have to buy the most tender cuts to get nutritious meat."

Mrs. Glibreath discussed fish farming and told the group it has been shown that a pair of fish per acre foot of surface water will eventually produce more income per year than one hundred mother cows.

Mrs. J.G. Arrun discussed "Foreign Competition Hits the Meat Industry" and quoted a statement from Representative Bob Price who said "The Meat Import Act of 1964 has been ineffective because the rollback figure was too high to begin with." In 1963 2.05 billion pounds of meat was imported into United States. The 1964 Act reduced by 15%, which Mrs. Arrun stated was not enough to help substantially.

"The Nixon administration is expected to be more receptive to proposals to stem the flow of imports on grounds the American economy in many instances is being affected adversely," Duane Rowell, Avallanche Journal farm editor said.

Mrs. Farley served hot spiced tea, sandwiches and fruit cake from an imported Belgium cloth purchased by her daughter.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. John Agee, Mrs. W.T. Andrews, Mrs. Ann, Mrs. Walter Bartholf, Mrs. Benefield, Mrs. Horace Blackburn, Mrs. Cecil Cole, Mrs. Joe Costen, Mrs. Douglas DuBose, Mrs. Farley, Mrs. Glibreath, Mrs. Waid Griffin, Mrs. O.N. Jennings, Mrs. Lovina Pitts, Mrs. G.L. Spawn, Mrs. Doyle Turner and Mrs. R.F. Wright.

Texas Thirty-Third In Teacher Salary

AUSTIN--Texas this year dropped from 33rd to 38th among states in the average annual salary earned by its public school teachers, according to a national survey. Results of the survey, conducted among state departments of education by the National Education Association, were released Tuesday by L.P. Sturgeon, executive secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association. The Texas figures are official estimates of the Texas Education Agency. Texas' 38th place ranking is the lowest it has held since the Gilmer-Aikin school program began in 1949. Lowest previous ranking was 34th in 1960-61. Average salary paid Texas classroom teachers during the current (1968-69) school year is estimated at $6,619. This leaves Texas $1,289 below the estimated national average of $7,908. Texas teachers can earn more in three neighboring states: New Mexico ($7,133), Louisiana ($6,978), and Oklahoma ($6,644). Sturgeon said: "These figures again remind us that the continuing shortage of trained, qualified teachers in Texas is caused to a great degree by our not-very-competitive ranking on teacher salaries. We need to attract and hold capable public school teachers. One of the first questions they ask in deciding where to teach is, 'How much can I earn?'" "The NEA statistics indicate that they can expect to earn more in 37 other states than they can in Texas," he pointed out. In addition to its low rank among states on the average teacher pay scale, Texas ranks 50th among the 50 states in the amount of salary increase paid its teachers this year, compared to last. On a statewide basis, Texas public school teachers received an increase of $43 in average pay this year (from an actual $6,576 average last year to an estimated $6,619 average this year). The 10 states with the highest average teacher pay, NEA reported, are Alaska ($10,427), California ($9,500), Michigan ($9,288), Illinois ($9,280), New York ($9,000), Maryland ($8,815), Connecticut ($8,600), New Jersey ($8,425), Nevada ($8,330), and Washington ($8,250). Oklahoma, which ranked well below Texas last year, raised its average teacher pay $600 for the current year to climb above Texas on the salary ladder. All 50 states raised teacher pay this year, ranging from the $43 annual increase in Texas to a hike of $1,087 in Mississippi. Other states making large increases for 1968-69 were Alaska ($983 increase), Michigan ($995), Maryland ($958), Florida ($914), Iowa ($822), and Wisconsin ($708).

MOUNTAIN TOP

"MOUNTAIN TOP EXPERIENCES" . . . It is not yet vacation time, however that time is approaching and we start remembering the wonderful feelings and experiences of our last trip to the mountains, and now we can start to plan new adventures.

That closeness, and the exciting feeling when worshipping the Lord is often referred to as a "MOUNTAIN TOP EXPERIENCE." We invite you to come worship the Lord in his house, and receive the joys of being close to God. Attend church this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Go To Church Every Sunday

The new year always brings about a feeling of having to leave the old and at the same time extending a welcome to the new. It does more than just change a sheet on the calendar. Some calendars change at odd dates, say, April 1 or nearly any other time that a person should choose. The old timers have said that in the plant world the sap starts up on the first day of January regardless. The new year also brings about a resolve to profit by mistakes made in the past and do better next time. Again that is the basis of civilization itself. An accumulation of ideas, practices, knowledge, and several other factors. A beautiful yard did not just happen, often it is an accumulation of several factors. The methods of today are so much advanced that it is much easier to keep a good yard, garden, or other endeavor. It has been said, and is entirely true, that you cannot change the nature of a plant. You can change the environment in such a manner that the plant will adapt to conditions that are not true to form. The more soluble plant food, better soil conditioners, root stimulants, pre-emergence weed control and selective plant control are only a few of the things that we take as common place that were not known to generations in the not too far past. The use of the advanced chemicals like other forms of knowledge does not necessarily come free. Along with the privileges comes quite a bit of responsibility. That is the proper use of the chemicals involved. To use them properly they work wonders. To use them carelessly or improperly will create havoc. The timing is of major importance also. To apply soil conditioners and dormant sprays and other items to get the plants cleaned up for the rest of the winter and then let the miracle of spring take over, will greatly reduce the problem of the summer.

Gala Inauguration Planned

A lively and colorful "Texas Inaugural Festival" is being planned to highlight the inauguration of Preston Smith and Ben Barnes as governor and Lieutenant governor.

"We are planning big, friendly and entertaining festivities surrounding the inauguration," said Gov. - elect Smith, "and, we're emphasizing that they're strictly for the people of Texas and open to the public."

Six inaugural balls, a record number, will climax the festivities following the inauguration at noon on January 21. The activities begin with a Victory Dinner on January 20 with entertainment by Glen Campbell, the leading male vocalist and one of the leading singers in the nation at this time.

These details were made public recently by Dr. Elmer C. Baum and former Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, chairman of the Inaugural committee.

The complete Texas Inaugural Festival will include the following:

January 20 -- 7 p.m. -- Victory Dinner in the Austin Municipal Auditorium. Master of Ceremonies will be Cactus Pryor, an Austin Humorist who is a favorite of President Johnson. The featured performer will be Glen Campbell, who has recently gained his own television show and for the past two years has recorded songs which have consistently gained public approval, including "Wichita Lineman" and "By the Time I Get to Phoenix." January 21 -- 7:30 a.m. -- Prayer Breakfast at the Terrace Motor Hotel. Noon -- Official inauguration ceremonies on the front steps of the Capitol Building. The Texas Technological College Band, designated as the official inaugural band, will play the State Song, "Texas, Our Texas." 3:00 p.m. -- Inauguration Parade featuring about 100 marching and performing groups and floats from all over the state including an Alabama-Coushatta Indian group. 8:00 -- Six Inaugural Balls at the following locations:

1. Municipal Auditorium, featuring music by Henry King and his Orchestra, one of the best dance bands in the nation, has played for Washington inaugurations and other notable events. The Grand March will be at the Auditorium. The ball at the auditorium is formal, and all the other balls are with optional dress.

2. Austin Coliseum, featuring Buck Owens and the Buckaroos, for the past three years voted the number one male country and western performers and number one band.

3. Terrace Motor Hotel, featuring Ray Price, one of the all-time greats of country and western music.

4. Driskill Hotel, featuring

Charley Pride, recently named one of the top five singers by the Country Music Association. 5. Stephen F. Austin Hotel, featuring the Casino Brass, a rollicking, modern, mariachi-type band with beat.

6. Commodore Perry Hotel, featuring a top "rock" band called "John Fred and the Playboy Band," which has played on The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson and has been successful with some of the top "rock" recordings.

Jimmy Dean, singing star of records and television, will tour all the inaugural balls for performances. He will precede and introduce Gov. and Mrs. Smith and Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Barnes, who will tour all of the dances.

King, Owens, Price, Dean, and the Casino Brass are all native Texans. Tickets for the formal ball at the Auditorium, the Victory Dinner and the Prayer Breakfast may be obtained by writing the Governor's Inaugural Ball Committee, 702 Brown Building, Austin, Texas, 78701. All the inaugural balls except the formal ball will be open to the public and free of charge with the type of dress optional.

Old Story Revised. Prudal Son (Just back)-Father, aren't you going to kill the fatted calf? Father (looking the fatted over)-No, I'll let you live, but I'm going to give you some work that'll take the fat off you.

Three Way

by Mrs. H.W. Garvin

There was a farwell party held in the T.D. Davis home Tuesday night honoring Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carsille, who have moved to Littlefield.

Bonnie Long fell at the home of her sister, Mrs. H.O. Huff and suffered a very bad broken arm. She was taken to Methodist Hospital.

E.B. Julian was a patient in West Plains Memorial Hospital the past week. Also Mrs. Perry Lunskey was a patient in West Plains Memorial Hospital in Muleshoe.

The Jack Furguesos returned home from California after a visit with their daughter and husband, the Jimmy Greens. Also the Jake Burketts returned from a visit in California with relatives.

H.W. Garvin was admitted Thursday morning to Cochran County Memorial Hospital for treatments. Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler and boys from Muleshoe visited their parents the Johnnie Wheelers Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Troy Tyson from Morton were dinner guests in the Roy Oxford home Thursday evening.

Lynn Davis returned to the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Davis, after spending the Christmas holidays with his parents in Farmington, N.M. Lanta Powell and Rhonda

ALL OR NUTHIN--"Will Parker" and "Ado Annie Carnes" played by Ray Sanchez and Betty Harbin, contemplate the restrictions of married life as they sing "All or Nuthin."

Dupler attended the C.Y.O. Meeting at the Catholic Church in Morton Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Powell attended the wrestling matches in Littlefield Saturday evening.

First Communion class will be held in the Mike Duwarte home Wednesday after school. Chester Huff was admitted to Cochran County Memorial Hospital Sunday night.

The Three Way basketball teams were in a tournament at Shallowater this past weekend, boys winning consolation with the girls losing.

An absolutely honest life is probably the best testimony that an individual can offer to prove his religious beliefs.

Envy of the success of others is the best indication that you do not deserve, and success will not have, such properly.

Parents can often prevent accidents in the home and save their children by thinking ahead and removing attractive, dangerous gadgets.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm takes a financial view of the moon trip in his letter this week.

Dear editor:

I don't like to be considered as being against progress, as a matter of fact I've always wanted a tractor with disappearing headlights and a car that'd run for ten years on one small block of atomic energy, with tires that grew thicker instead of thinner and a hood that'd re-shape itself every year to keep up with the styles, so don't get me wrong when I question a space scientist's peculiar argument in favor of exploring the moon.

According to his argument which I read in a newspaper last night, going to the moon is exactly as important as Columbus' discovery of America, and the people who are questioning the 24 billion dollars it took to get there are the same type of people who questioned the few thousand dollars it took to get Columbus across the ocean and back.

Understand, I think we ought to keep on exploring space and I think the three astronauts who made it to the moon and back are genuine heroes, but you reckon the human race will get the same return on the moon trip as it did on the Columbus trip?

Twenty thousand dollars to open up America was a good investment, but 24 billion to open up the moon? Have you seen the pictures of that airless ball of rock? Or, as one of the astronauts put it, that "big bunch of nothing"? The moon has spacious skies all right but it's short on fruited plains.

I'm afraid the space scientists are using the wrong arguments. They're going to have to go beyond the moon and find something better before they're up on the same financial level as Columbus.

If Queen Isabella had taken a mortgage on everything Columbus discovered and all his heirs and assigns, do you have any idea what she'd be worth today?

She failed to do it, though, and Washington wound up with the mortgage.

Yours faithfully, J.A.

Sturgeon New TSTA Executive Secretary

AUSTIN-- L.P. Sturgeon, longtime educator and a member of the executive staff of the Texas State Teachers Association since 1954, has been elected executive secretary of the 123,000-member TSTA.

TSTA President Claude A. Hearn, Jr., of San Antonio, announced Sturgeon's promotion to the top administrative position after unanimous action by the association's executive committee at a called meeting in Austin.

Sturgeon was given a contract extending to August 31, 1973. He succeeds the late Charles H. Tenneyson, who died unexpectedly of a heart attack on December 20 in Austin. Sturgeon moves up from the post of executive director of governmental relations.

He joined the TSTA staff in 1954 as director of public relations, coming from the Texas Education Agency where he had been associate commissioner of education.

Hearn himself made the motion to elect Sturgeon, calling him "a man with a dimension for greatness, progressiveness, and effectiveness."

Under Sturgeon's leadership, Hearn declared, "TSTA will accelerate its movement to promote educational progress and assure the teacher professional stature--in a profession that is the mother of all professions."

A resolution praising the service of Tenneyson was authorized by the executive committee. A special committee was named to prepare a suitable memorial to the late TSTA leader who was executive secretary until his death on December 20 of a heart attack.

Sturgeon has devoted his entire career to schools. Before education assignments brought him to Austin in 1949, he served as classroom teacher, coach, high school principal, and superintendent of schools.

During those years in the public schools, Sturgeon worked actively with members of his profession, the lay public, and the Legislature to gain improvements for education. That work has continued since he went to Austin.

In 1949 Sturgeon left his school superintendency at New Boston to become director of the Minimum Foundation Program which had been enacted by the Legislature that year. Working under the State Auditor's office, he put the program into operation in September, 1949.

In 1950, Sturgeon was appointed associate commissioner of education with TEA, the post he left to join TSTA in 1954.

Sturgeon is a graduate of East Texas State University, where he received his B.A. and M.A. degrees. He also has done graduate work at the University of Texas at Austin.

Farmers Face Social Security Deadline Soon

Farmers have until January 31 to file reports on the Social Security taxes withheld from their employee wages, Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for Northern Texas, said today.

The reports should be filed on Form 943, Employer's Annual Tax Return for Agricultural Employees.

Mr. Campbell said that any farmer who pays an employee cash wages of $150 or more a year must withhold Social Security taxes. Taxes must also be withheld on wages under $150 for any person hired 20 days or more a year.

For tax purposes, a farm employer includes anyone who furnishes and pays workers to perform agricultural labor on his behalf or for someone else. Mr. Campbell said a "crew leader" is an employer under this definition.

The 1968 tax rate is 8.8 percent of the first $7,800 of taxable wages paid a farm employee. Half the tax is paid by the farmer and the other half by the employee.

Farmers should remember to give a W-2 wage and tax statement to every worker they pay $600 or more a year. Employees paid less than $600 should receive a statement covering their Social Security taxes Mr. Campbell said.

More detailed information is available in IRS Publication 51, "Agricultural Employer's Social Security Tax Guide." Send a post card to Supply, Internal Revenue Service, P.O. 1738, Dallas, Texas, 75221, for a free copy.

Railroads Come Back!

BY PAUL HARVEY

How come most every other enlightened nation is improving its rail passenger service while we are letting ours decay?

Our railroads have been phasing out passenger service as fast as the Interstate Commerce Commission will allow. With skyways jammed and airports forced to curtail traffic, the need for alternative transportation is increasing. Railroads protest that passenger trains lose money; they can't afford the drain.

Recently, the ICC issued an economic report contradicting the conclusion, showing that for each of the last eight years railroad revenue from passenger service exceeded expenses for passenger service.

Additionally, the ICC says that during the past 14 years--despite losses from 1954 to 1958 and again in 1967--passenger service more than paid for itself. Passenger revenues those 14 years exceed operating expenses by $35 million.

The Assn. of American Railroads says it isn't so, charges the ICC with "financial chicanery," says the agency must be using "some kind of new math."

And while this ancient debate drones on, Americans with a preference or a need for train travel are finding schedules reduced, passenger accommodations less attractive, services aboard declining or discontinued entirely.

Gallantly, some railroads have tried to hypo short-haul passenger service. High-speed rail service between New York and Washington, operated by the Pennsy, at 110 m.p.h. has cut rail time between those cities to less than three hours. (Counting travel time to and from airports, this is competitive with air transportation -- and less costly.)

At the same time, the C&O-B&O, beginning January 1, 1969, serves complimentary meals to sleeping-car passengers.

Conversely, however, the CB&O wants to discontinue two passenger trains between Chicago and Kansas City "because the Burlington lost more than $282,000 last year on those two trains."

The railroad's spokesmen note that competing Ozark Airlines, over the same route, has received federal subsidies since 1954 totaling more than $5 million.

This -- subsidy -- appears to be the necessary inducement for which rail men are waiting.

Some of us who consider passenger train service essential to our wartime and peacetime mobility find no satisfaction in the name-calling between the AAR and the ICC. Railroads remain the most economic form of passenger mass transit. Railroads cannot be expected to perform this service as some sort of charity. And we cannot afford to allow more railroads to go bankrupt.

Sen. Harrison Williams is sponsoring a bill which would authorize the federal government to subsidize commuter railroads. It would pay up to two-thirds or out-of-pocket operating losses.

The railroads would still have an incentive to make money on passenger service, but would be protected from losing too much on unprofitable routes.

Such encouragement might provide the incentive necessary to upgrade and repopularize passenger train service. The Chicago and Northwestern over the past six years has modernized equipment, improved service, doubled its commuter traffic, is showing a profit.

Also, the new Canadian National Railways Turbotrain has proved that when speed and luxury and convenience are combined and available, such service is profitable.

Sen. Williams' subsidy may not be the whole answer, but it's better than nothing. And we've tried nothing.

The sergeant, a graduate of St. Agatha High School, Redford, Mich., has completed a tour of duty in Vietnam.

THE GIRL IN THE PINK TIGHTS-- "Curly", played by Steve Woodard, is carefully studying the "Girl in pink tights," unaware that a spring will release a deadly dagger. "Laurey" looks on in horror as she realizes "Jud's" evil intent. This is one of the many scenes from "Oklahoma."

Tax Man Sam Sez:

CLAIMING MARRIED STUDENTS

If your son or daughter is going to school during the year, but was also married and depending on you for his or her-- or his and her -- support, you need to observe several rules in order to claim the exemption on your return.

Don't let the married students file a joint return on their income, (if any). Since they must file separate returns, they will have to split their income and each file on their community half. You must have provided principal support for one or both married students in order to claim the dependent or the dependents. Be careful to maintain your support records on personal exemption on their own married student dependents return, however, they cannot and/or their dependents. They claim any grandchildren if you can also claim, and must claim, claim them.

SHORT SNORTS

All statewide elective officials (except the governor and lieutenant governor) who serve two-year terms began new terms on January 1.

More got out than in state prison last year. A total of 3,485 inmates were released (1,921 through parole) while 4,736 were admitted.
