NEW STADIUM OPENS TOMORROW NIGHT

Crowell High School Athletic Coaches

Grady Graves, left, and P. Todd, assistant, have been in charge of the local football team through extensive training during the past few weeks and are ready to face their first opponent in the opening game with Matador High school on Friday night. Graves is now serving his ninth year at Crowell High school. During this time his football team has given Crowell High School one of the greatest athletic records of any Class B school in the state.

GENERAL RAIN MONDAY SOAKS FOARD COUNTY

Rain which began falling early Monday morning was general over Foard County and amounted to .55 of an inch when measured at the official gauge above the Crowell State Bank in the afternoon. The precipitation varied in different parts of the county. The Vivian section which shared least in the heavy rains of last week, received the heaviest downpour this time. Two to three inches fell in that area. The rain was equally heavy in the vicinity of the Texas Company oil field in the extreme western portion of the county, causing Good Creek to go out of bounds. The Texas Co. lake was also more than half filled by the rain. The rain was light in the Good Creek community, but became heavier around Foard City, where three-fourths of an inch was reported. The rain in the north and eastern portions of the county was about the same as at Crowell.

Texas Co. Completes 5th Foard Producer

The Texas Company's No. 9 Johnson-McAdams flowed 150 barrels in 24 hours in a test last week following an acid treatment at a depth of 3,625 feet. This well is about 18 miles airline west of Crowell. No further drilling activity is scheduled to take place in the Texas field of Foard County at the present time. The field now has five producers. A depth of around 3,400 feet has been reached in the Cowden-Fagadau & Lindsay No. 1 Dallas Stock Land Bank test which is being drilled about ten miles southwest of Crowell.

Vivian and Beaver to Open Mon.; New Building at Vivian

Vivian will open its 1935-36 school term in a new brick and tile building Monday morning, according to announcement of Emmett Powell, principal. With the Beaver school opening on the same day, all Foard County schools will be in operation by Monday. The new Vivian school includes three class rooms and an auditorium. It replaces the frame structure that was destroyed by fire last spring.

SON OF W. W. BOYD IS BURIED AT SEMINOLE

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Boyd returned Sunday night from Seminole, Texas, where they attended funeral services Friday afternoon for Mr. Boyd's son, Glen Boyd, 33, who died early that day in a Lubbock hospital following an operation the previous Tuesday. Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian Church of Seminole and burial was in the Seminole Cemetery, where the Masonic lodge had charge of services. The deceased is survived by a wife, two children, his father, a sister who lives in Dallas, and a grandmother in Gaines County, where he had spent most of his life.

About one week before his death, Mr. Boyd and a partner started operation of a new grocery store and market in Seminole. He was formerly in the U. S. Navy. In recent years he had visited Crowell on a number of occasions.

RESETTLEMENT OFFICE IS DISCONTINUED IN CROWELL

The Crowell office of the Resettlement Administration, which has been in charge of Julian Wright, was discontinued last Saturday. Local resettlement work, formerly known as rural rehabilitation, is now being handled out of the Quanah office, which is in charge of C. W. Price. He will be in Crowell two days each week. Miss Eva Johnson, secretary in the Crowell office was transferred to Vernon and assumed duties there Monday in the Resettlement office.

DISTRICT COTTON LEADER TO SPEAK HERE SEPT. 25

M. A. Pillars of Wheeler County, representative from this district in conferring with the advisory board in Washington on the cotton program, will speak in Crowell Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 25. The speaking is to take place in the district court room, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Pillars will discuss the new cotton contracts, the processing tax and cotton loans.

JURY REPORTS FOR SEPT. TERM OF DIST. COURT

General drunkenness, driving while intoxicated and the operation of marble machines in Foard County were condemned in the report of the grand jury for the September term of court which opened here Monday morning. The grand jury report last May also contained a bitter denunciation of marble machines. The report was submitted Tuesday. Thirteen true bills were returned. The report in full follows: "We, your grand jury in and for the aforesaid term of court having been in session for a total of two days and having completed our labors, wish to make the following report: "We have returned a total of 13 true bills. In the following cases we wish to report no bills: State of Texas vs. Willie Gribble; State of Texas vs. Walter Tucker; State of Texas vs. Ruby Cobb. "We have investigated and inspected the jail and find the same to be well kept and in good condition. "It has been called to our attention that numerous persons are permitted to go about our county while drunk and some are permitted to drive cars while in such condition. We wish to urge upon our officers the use of great diligence to prohibit this sort of thing. Every drunken driver should be prosecuted to the full extent of the law and common drunkenness should be discouraged by vigorous prosecution. "We also wish to deplore the existence and operation in this county of numerous marble machines. These devices are sources of gambling and have an evil influence upon the whole community. We would like to recommend to our officers, and even urge upon them, to use all legal measures and remedies possible to eliminate these machines. It seems to us that our legislature has been dilatory in not clearly and effectively outlawing these machines, and all such machines, by unequivocal and clear cut legislation. "Having nothing further to report we respectfully urge that we be discharged. "H. D. Lawson, Foreman."

TAX VALUES IN CROWELL FOR '35 ANNOUNCED

Tax valuations for the City of Crowell this year amount to $863,520, $10,520 less than the 1934 total of $873,680, according to figures announced last week by J. T. Billington, city secretary and tax assessor-collector. Decrease in personal property valuations accounted for the loss in valuations this year. Personal property in 1934 was valued at $223,530, compared with $203,540 this year. Real estate gained over 1934, the 1935 valuation being $659,980, compared with $650,150 last year. The total tax rate of $1.50 on the one hundred dollar valuation is the same as last year. The rate is divided as follows: sinking—$1.30; general—10c; street—10c.

Telegram Furnishes Cotton Loan Facts

A telegram was received this week at the county agent's office giving details of the cotton loan plan which will be put into operation by the government through the Commodity Credit Corporation. Indications are that the loan will be handled largely as it was in 1934. The telegram follows: "Commodity Credit advises us that no material change in details of 1935 loan procedure from that used in 1934, except the amount of loan. Without recourse of the borrower, loans of ten cents will be made on low middling seven-eighths inch or better and nine cents on low middling or better less than seven-eighths inch to producers agreeing to co-operate in 1935 adjustment program. Interest rate same as last year. It is expected forms will be sent next week to county agents, loan agencies and banks."

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Tom Callaway of Foard City entered the hospital Wednesday and underwent a major operation.

Supt. at Thalia

W. Lee Cox, new superintendent of the Thalia school system, is pictured above. He succeeds W. M. Bralley, now Spearman superintendent, and comes to Thalia from Denton, where he lived for the past four years. During the past year he served as secretary to Theron J. Fouts, dean of men at the North Texas State Teachers College.

It was from this institution that Mr. Cox secured his B. A. degree. He has also completed part of the work on his M. A. degree there. He majored in mathematics and education and minored in physics. Supt. Cox formerly taught in Denton High School and the demonstration school of the teachers college. He lived in Breckenridge for many years and his first teaching experience was in schools of Stephens County. He teaches several courses in mathematics in Thalia High School and an English course in the seventh grade.

Large Enrollment

The present Thalia enrollment is 220 and later on it is expected to pass 250. With sixteen and one-half units of affiliation, Thalia High is classified as a 4-year high school by the State Department of Education. Prospects are favorable this year to secure affiliation in fourth-year English, typing, bookkeeping and commercial arithmetic, according to Mr. Cox.

Bookkeeping is being taught for the first time this year in the school with Pierce Chandler, formerly of Bowie, as instructor.

Mr. Chandler will also be associated with Lee Nowlin this year in directing the athletic program of Thalia High School. Supt. Cox stated that he is interested in athletics and hopes to see the strength of Thalia teams develop along with the development of the school system in general.

As a result of a recent bond election, Thalia now has bright prospects of securing a new structure which will serve as a combination gymnasium, auditorium and vocational building.

Again this year the school cafeteria is in operation and provides hot plate lunches for nearly one hundred pupils daily for the sum of only five cents each. This self-supporting project is sponsored by the Thalia Parent-Teacher Ass'n. Mrs. Bertha Shultz is operator of the cafeteria.

Beer Soaks Highway in Truck Accident

Two of Clint White's motor freight trucks were damaged to the extent of over three hundred dollars about noon Monday in an accident near Scotland in Archer County. One of the trucks driven by Bill Sellers was sideswiped by a truck from Graham loaded with beer. Both trucks were badly damaged and a fairly large area along the highway was soaked with beer and broken bottles. The White truck was damaged about $250 worth and timber flying from it caused over $50 worth of damage to the other White truck, which was being driven by Earl Davenport. It was behind the other machine. Both were returning to Crowell.

A slight scratch on Seller's head was the only injury sustained by the truck drivers.

NO WORKERS' CONFERENCE

The Wilbarger-Foard Baptist Workers' Conference will not be held in Crowell Tuesday as previously announced. The session was called off on account of the district Baptist meeting that will be held at the First Baptist Church in Vernon on Friday, Sept. 27.

STRONG MATADOR TEAM AND CROWELL PLAY FIRST GAME OF '35 SEASON UNDER LIGHTS

The largest crowd that has ever attended an athletic event in Crowell is expected tomorrow night, Friday, when the Crowell High School Wildcats clash with Matador High in the opening football contest of the 1935 season and the first game ever played at night on local soil. The game will also put into use for the first time Crowell's new stadium which is capable of comfortably seating over two thousand people.

Indications are that Crowell High, 1934 regional champions, will have another strong team this year and the Bullfighter-Wildcat battle should be one of the outstanding grid classics of the year. Crowell has ten letter men back from last year.

Coach Harvey Stanford's team will outweigh Crowell on an average of over eight pounds to the player. The Bullfighters will average over 158 pounds, compared with 150 for Crowell. The probable starting line-up, reserves, weights and numbers are shown elsewhere in this issue. Pictures of Matador and Crowell players are also shown on inside pages.

Officials for the game are D. L. Ligon of Rochester, referee; Jno. A. Smith of Benjamin, umpire, and Kevo. O. L. Savage of Coleman, headlinesman.

Band and Pep Squad Ready for Opener

The Crowell High School pep squad and band will make their first appearance of the season at the Matador-Crowell game tomorrow night.

Marion Crowell is director of the band. Peggy Cooper and Lois Evelyn Norris are leaders of the pep squad.

Local Captain

Aldon Horn, now playing his third year as a backfield regular with Crowell High School, is the 1935 captain of the Wildcats. Despite the inconvenience of living 8 or 9 miles from Crowell, Aldon has always reported regularly for practice and has exemplified "dependability" in every sense of the word. He plays fullback on the offense and guard on the defense.

New Term Opened Mon. at Riverside

The Riverside school opened its 1935-36 term Monday morning and up to Wednesday a total of 160 pupils had been enrolled, according to Bailey Remels, superintendent. This is the first year for the school to operate under its new name, "Riverside," which resulted from the consolidation of Ayersville with West Rayland.

Two big buses are being used in transporting pupils to the school. The Riverside P. T. A. started operation of a cafeteria at the school Tuesday and is now feeding 60 to 75 per cent of the pupils daily. Hot plate lunches are furnished at the small cost of 7 cents each. Mrs. Luther Marlow is in charge of the cafeteria.

Local Officials Were Given Hearing Mon. by Highway Heads

Mayor C. T. Schlagal, M. S. Henry, city councilman; A. W. Barker and W. A. Dunn, county commissioners, appeared before the State Highway Commission at Austin Monday in the interest of securing action on improvement of Highway No. 16 south from Crowell to the Knox County line.

After hearing an explanation of Foard County's participation in this matter and the importance of early action on it, the highway commission indicated to the local representatives that a grade and drainage contract would probably be let at an early date. The right-of-way for the highway was secured several months ago.

Two of Clint White's motor freight trucks were damaged to the extent of over three hundred dollars about noon Monday in an accident near Scotland in Archer County. One of the trucks driven by Bill Sellers was sideswiped by a truck from Graham loaded with beer. Both trucks were badly damaged and a fairly large area along the highway was soaked with beer and broken bottles. A slight scratch on Seller's head was the only injury sustained by the truck drivers.

The Wilbarger-Foard Baptist Workers' Conference will not be held in Crowell Tuesday as previously announced. The session was called off on account of the district Baptist meeting that will be held at the First Baptist Church in Vernon on Friday, Sept. 27.

One of the best and most closely fought games ever played in Crowell is in prospect for the opening contest of the season here tomorrow night.

The Matador Matadors, more commonly known as the "Bullfighters," have most of the regulars back from their 1934 team which won the championship of the district which adjoins the Crowell district to the west.

—In your wheat reduces the yield, lowers the test, less in price, and infects your land. A cloud of smut dust from a combine on a hot summer day has been known to infect fields for ten miles. Your fields may be clear of smut this year, and next year badly infected. Clean wheat produces a better and more even stand, so we have prepared to clean your wheat, removing oats, cheat, and foreign substances of all kinds. There were traces of smut in many fields this past year, so next year your field may be infected. We have a regular smut treating machine at our elevator, using only the highest type of copper carbonate, distributed exactly right in your wheat. May we place your seed wheat in first class condition for the seeding of your land?

Over 60,000 May Receive Old Age Pensions in Texas

"Old-age pensions could cost Texas taxpayers as much as $56,093,402 yearly if each of the 288,199 people 65 years of age and over received the full $15 monthly allotment provided for in the recent Constitutional Amendment," State Auditor Orville S. Carpenter said this week.

At the request of Governor Allred, Carpenter and R. B. Anderson, State Tax Commissioner, prepared the report "Cost and General Plan for Old Age Pensions." Upon the Governor's suggestion it was mailed to members of the Legislature September 10.

"Experience of other states has shown that they have attempted at first to take care of only those actually in need of assistance. Requirements made of applicants have been with a view of eliminating those who, although of eligible age, did not actually need assistance. In this way other states have greatly reduced the costs from the amount necessary to pay if all persons of the required age had been included," Carpenter said.

"As there are 41,787 persons 65 years of age and over on the Texas Relief Rolls, this apparently is the minimum number able to qualify for old-age pensions. At $15 a month and with 10 per cent administrative cost added, this would be $8,273,826 yearly," Carpenter explained.

Carpenter believed the figure 62,938 most nearly represented the actual number who probably would receive old-age pensions in Texas. He determined this figure by considering the experiences of other states. If 62,938 people in Texas 65 years of age and over

Local Flour Mill Is Entirely Overhauled

The T. P. Duncan & Son flour mill of Crowell resumed operation last week after being completely overhauled during a shutdown of two weeks. A large amount of the milling equipment was sent to the Hutchison Machinery Company of Oklahoma City to be overhauled.

Lewis Ballard, miller here for the past two years, supervised overhauling operations at the local plant. The daily output of flour is now greater as a result of increasing the capacity of the machinery.

were to receive the full $15 a month, the yearly cost to the taxpayers would be $12,460,734, Carpenter calculated. In this he included 10 per cent administrative expenses.

"The Federal Government, if funds are available, will provide an amount equal to that spent by the State plus 5 per cent for expenses. This depends upon approval of the Texas plan by the Social Security Board in Washington. The Texas Legislature will formulate a plan for distribution, and it will decide whether or not the full $15 maximum will be used," Carpenter concluded.

JUDGE STOKES SPEAKER AT ROATRY LUNCHEON

W. N. Stokes of Vernon, district judge, was the principal speaker at the luncheon of the Rotary Club Wednesday.

In an interesting talk concerning the jury system, Judge Stokes expressed the opinion that the weakest point in this system was that everyone connected with the court was entitled to express his opinion before the jurors except the trial judge.

He gave instances of complicated cases in which competent advice from a judge to the jurors concerning facts in the cases was necessary in arriving at an intelligent and just verdict. He stated that criminal lawyers had every advantage in courts under the system as it now exists, in which the judge is prevented by law from advising juries.

M. S. Henry was in charge of the program and briefly described his visit with local officials to Austin for a conference with the State Highway Commission. Early action on Highway 16 from Crowell to the Knox County line was promised, he stated.

A Holding Company
A government official defined the holding company as follows: "The holding company may be defined as any company which, by virtue of its ownership of securities, is in a position to control or substantially influence the management of one or more other companies; that is, a holding company is different from a mere investment company. An investment company buys securities as an investor would and without any purpose of determining the policy of the management. But when a company by virtue of its ownership of securities is in a position to control or substantially to influence the management of another company it is properly classified as a holding company."

"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 22.
The Golden Text is: "Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble; for the day of the Lord cometh, for it is nigh at hand" (Joel 2:1).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that ye be not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet" (Matthew 24:6).
The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "This material world is even now becoming the arena for conflicting forces. . . These disturbances will continue until the end of error, when all discord will be swallowed up in spiritual Truth" (page 96).

Cellar shelves are being rapidly filled up at the home of Mrs. W. O. Fish of the Vivian Club. She reports having canned 292 quarts this summer including 150 of fruit and 32 of tomatoes. Cream peas, corn, beans and other vegetables will be ready for canning in a few days according to Mrs. Fish. Mrs. Fish says that when the fall canning season is over she expects to have a sufficient supply for two years in her cellar.

Taking advantage of the recent rains, Mrs. J. B. Rashberry of the Vivian H. D. Club, planted a fall garden with the view of securing additional vegetables for canning as well as for eating fresh. She reports that she has turnips, radishes, beets, mustard, lettuce, beans, spinach, squash, and cucumbers planted and that part of them are up and growing.

HOSTILE VALLEY

By Ben Ames Williams
CHAPTER VII — Saladine, caught in heavy rain, takes refuge at Marm Pierce's. Bart Carey arrives, carrying Huldy, whom he claims has fallen from a ledge, and seemingly is dead. Marm Pierce declares her dead, but while Huldy and Jenny are alone, the woman with her last breath, asserts that she killed her. Horrified, Jenny decides to tell one of the accusations. She goes to the Ferris farm to notify Will.
CHAPTER VIII — With him Jenny returns to Marm Pierce. She has told him of Huldy's death, and he is bewildered. Zeke Dace cannot be found. Will has to go back to his farm to feed the cattle. Jenny goes with him, having the feeling that she is in a manner protecting him.
CHAPTER IX
Yet Saladine was relieved to see Will and Jenny thus depart to tend the cows, for he thought Will might well resent his having summoned the sheriff. Even Bart had resented it, a while ago.
"I dunno as Will'd like it," Bart argued. "And I don't aim to get Will riled at me."
Saladine said: "You don't have to do it. I telephoned the sheriff myself."
And despite Bart's resistance, he got Sheriff Sohier on the wire. These two were old friends, and Saladine spoke excitedly, telling what had happened. "And Sheriff," he suggested, "there's a steam mill down below here. You better find out if any of the men from there were up this way. And see if Win Haven is in Liberty. He stayed with Bart Carey last night, but he set out to go to Liberty this morning."
When he hung up the receiver, Bart predicted, with a wry amusement in his eyes: "Win's apt to climb yore frame, old as he is."

in," she said. "If a dam breaks, water flows downstream."
Her eyes met Saladine's. "Waiting is a long weary business when you're young," she told him; and then she chuckled. "I guess I can then throw that lily root away!" she said in an obscure satisfaction. And then she added briskly: "Drat that Jenny! She's gone and left me to get supper, and me in my best bombazine!" She found an apron, tied it on.
As she began to be busy, she looked at him reflectively. "You ain't in any hurry to get home," she remarked. "We can put you up if you're a mind to stay."
Saladine hesitated. "Why, much obliged," he said. He thought the time to speak had come. "Ma time to speak had come. 'Ma time to speak had come,'" he said. "I dunno as you'll think I did the right thing; but it looked funny to me that Miss Ferris would just—fall off that ledge!"
"I sh'd think it was," she agreed sharply.
"And there wa'n't no reason she should jump."
"She wa'n't the kind for that!" "Sheriff Sohier is in Liberty to-day," Saladine explained. "I telephoned him from Bart's, and told him he'd best come in here."
"Silence was long. Then she asked: 'Is he coming?'"
"Yes."
She nodded. "Well, that's a relief to me," she decided. "I'm an old woman, but I can see a hole in a doughnut as far as the next."
She spoke to Bart. "Folks around here don't bother the sheriff much with their troubles," she said, as though appealing to him for confirmation. "But I say it's the fitten thing to do. I don't see as it can do a mite of harm." She looked at Saladine keenly. "You figure someone pushed her off the ledge, do you?" she asked.
Bart said earnestly: "Sure, Granny! That ledge is as safe as your floor here. She couldn't fall off unless she did it a-purpose; and she wouldn't!"
Marm Pierce nodded briskly. "That's the way it looks to me," she agreed. "So it comes down to a question of someone did it, Bart, who do you reckon it was?"
He shook his head. "I wouldn't say a word," he declared. "I've took notice that just keeping your mouth shut saves a peck of trouble, sometimes."
She seemed to weigh this. "I'm thinking Zeke might have, Bart. Ain't you?"
"He might," Bart admitted. "But it's not my business, and I'm not mixing in." He looked toward Saladine and grinned. "Saladine there, he told the sheriff to check up on Win, and the steam mill men."
There was mirth in Marm Pierce's old tones. "It wa'n't Win!" she said. "He might brag and blow, and get big ideas, but it wa'n't him!"
Bart said: "Matter of fact, I don't think it was Zeke, either. He'd not hurt Huldy. If it come down to someone killin her. . . He hesitated, then muttered huskily: "Well, if I was the sheriff, I'd look for one that had reason to."
Marm Pierce watched Bart with some displeasure in her sharp old eyes. Presently she asked him: "You going home to supper, Bart?"
"Lowed you might want me here," he suggested.
She nodded. "In a surface hospitality. 'Certain. Stay where you be. Right now, the more folks around, the better I like it." She bustled briskly to and fro upon the business of supper, brumbling about the danger to her black bombazine.
Then suddenly she stood still, and her head lifted. "Car coming," she said softly.

AN APPRECIATION

SENIOR PICNIC
About thirty-five members of the Senior class attended a picnic at Dixie Mound Monday afternoon. Swimming and football were the chief diversion of the afternoon. Refreshments consisting of weiners, pickles, bread, potato chips, cakes, bananas, and punch were served. The class was accompanied by its sponsor, Henry Black.

JUNIOR PICNIC
Thirty-five members of the Junior class enjoyed a picnic at Dixie Mound Wednesday afternoon of last week. After the group had played various games, the picnic supper which consisted of sandwiches, punch, pickles, and potato chips, was served. Mrs. L. F. Campbell, one of the class mothers, and Coach Graves, class sponsor, accompanied the group.

FOOTBALL HIGHLIGHTS
Football workouts took on a new interest this week as time drew near for first game. Thirty-two boys are still reporting for practice. With two games a week for the Wildcats and Wildkittens most of the thirty-two boys will see service each week. Monday afternoon the seniors took early to give the fair sex a treat, and the boys that were left had a tough scrimmage between the "B" team and a combination of regulars and scrubs. The game ended in a thirteen and thirteen tie. "Dub Skipper Bodyguard" Briscoe was the outstanding performer on the field as the game changed leads as he changed from one lineup to the other. The twin rabbits, John Lee Orr and Raymond Joy, ran wild all afternoon on the offense, while Toughy Wilson, William Simmons, and "Slim" Horn were new men that stood out on the defense. "Cyclone" Fitzgerald learned more football than he knew was in the book. However Cyclone will make a real man some day for he has shown that he can "take it." Manager Lankford came out to show the boys a few tricks, but "Sonny Boy" Shook and "Stud" Reeder dealt him misery all afternoon.

Saladine and Bart stepped on the porch, and saw the headlights through the trees toward the road. The sheriff came to join them. The old man watched together while a truck with a long body pulled to the yard. Two men alighted and Saladine saw the big dog and the sheriff, and another, who tried a black bag in his hand.
Saladine and the sheriff spoke to one another. The sheriff spoke to Marm Pierce, stripped his coat. "The road's real ma'am," he said.
Sheriff Sohier unbuttoned overcoat, but did not remove it.
"Best to keep Miss Ferris taker advised. 'I can take home in the morning." Marm Pierce nodded. "Stay," she said. She opened door into the dining room. The door in together, and she the door.
The sheriff looked at Saladine and at Bart. He said to Saladine: "Evening, Jim."
"This is Bart Carey," the sheriff explained. "Bart here, he found . . ."
Sohier looked inquiringly at other man; and Bart spoke to Marm Pierce. "I was fishing down below and a steep drop below it like a na'bridge when you climb up there and found Marm Pierce is good at doing I loved maybe she could do thing."
"Wa'n't dead?"

Time Lost is Money Lost
It costs money to be sick. You see it directly if your pay envelope is short. You lose out on some important work if you live on a farm or if you are one of the few who are not docked for lost time. You can't afford to show up on the job unless you are feeling fit. The boss wants results—not excuses.
How many times do Gas on Stomach, Headache, Sour Stomach, "That Tired Feeling," That "Morning After" Feeling, Neuralgia, Rheumatic, Sciatic, Muscular or Periodic Pains keep you at home or interfere with your doing a full day's work?
All these troubles are caused or made worse by too much acid in your body. To correct this condition take
