Coach Volney Hill's Bulldogs will be lighter than the Wildcats, however, Burk supporters insist that the light weight of their team is offset to a great extent by plenty of speed and a fighting spirit that is apparent from the first to last whistle.

Crowell's last two games were thoroughly scouted by Burk. Coach Hill and several of his players were here for the Quanah game and last week Burk's assistant coach was here to scout the Paducah game.

All piling work was completed Saturday on the new bridge across Pease River between Crowell and Quanah on Highway 16. Piling was driven for fifty-one bents, each bent having five heavy cross-tied piling which in some cases were driven to a depth of 35 feet. It was necessary to grill through solid rock before many of the piling could be driven.

BRIDGE PILING WORK COMPLETED SATURDAY

Work is now progressing at a rapid rate. Remaining concrete caps are being placed and the bents are rapidly being connected with heavy steel I-beams.

BRIDGE PILING WORK COMPLETED SATURDAY

The new bridge approaches will be over three-fourths of a mile in length. A 22-foot clear roadway will be provided, compared with the 16-foot clearance on the old bridge.

BRIDGE PILING WORK COMPLETED SATURDAY

Original plans for the new bridge called for forty-six 28-ft 6-in. steel I-beam spans. After two extra large ties on the river in the spring, the Highway Department changed the plans, adding five more spans in order to eliminate about 115 feet from the dirt dump approach of over five hundred feet on the south end. The plans were also changed to add one foot to the height of the bridge.

TEXAS TURKEYS

Texas produces more total tons of turkeys than any other one state in the Union. Texas produces less prime produce, however, due to the fact that the farmers allow their turkeys a wide range so they may earn their own living and feed them only the last two or three months before the selling season. It is estimated that the average turkey crop brings an additional 8 and one-half million dollars to Texas farmers.

Texas turkeys have been penalized in the markets of the East and Middle West because the buyers realize the bulk of this produce is not finished and can not compete in quality with the pen fed turkeys. Most of the Texas turkeys that have previously been shipped out of the state are shipped through some out of the state association, carrying their inspection tag, as the brokers dealing in Texas turkeys find this the only means by which they can secure a preference price.

Realizing the urgent need of educating and assisting the Texas producer and handler of turkeys to raise, feed, grade and pack turkeys in a manner to better show off their quality, Mr. Thomas W. Heitz, marketing specialist in the Dairy and Poultry Division of the United States Department of Agriculture, in co-operation with the Extension Service of A. & M. College and the Texas Department of Agriculture, will hold a two-day educational, grading and packing school at Plainview, Texas, on October 11th and 12th. All those interested in the development and marketing of Texas turkeys are urged to attend. Registration can be made through any of the hotels in Plainview or with Roy Davis.

LETTER FROM TEXON

Regarding the Mexican Situation

Crowell not having heard from Texon in a right smart while may be you would be interested to know what former Crowell people are doing about our relations with Mexico in this present war threat. Personally, I have at the present time been entirely a Mexican diplomat. I have been constantly assisted by Paul Crews. I wish for Tom Beverly in this work. My brother, Lawrence, is working faithfully in the Mexican situation being stationed at San Angelo, J. L. Martin, assisted by his son, Jimmie, and his daughters, are publishing a paper devoted to the work at McCamey. Prof. Jesse Davis teaches Spanish at Big Lake, devotedly. Rayo Thompson to the west at Rankin keeps the Mexican postal relations straight. Capt and Thomas Ellis at McCamey are in charge of railroad affairs. Farther south and west Geo. Thompson Sr. and Jr. handle range and grazing interests. Bernice Halsell is in border contact. To the east Tom

GRIM MEMENTOES

Stored in a sub-basement of the State, War and Navy building in Washington, seldom seen by anyone, is the most interesting collection of relics connected with the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, including the principal exhibits introduced by the prosecution in the military trial of the conspirators who planned the crime.

Among these exhibits are the .45 caliber Derringer pistol with which John Wilkes Booth shot Lincoln in the old Ford theater on the night of April 14, 1965; the bullet which killed the President; the knife with which Booth wounded Colonel Rathbone, who tried to prevent his escape; one of the assassin's boots, slashed by Dr. Samuel Mudd in order to set his broken leg; Booth's pocket compass, whistle, saddle, necktie, dairy, and several other articles pertaining to the tragedy.

These relics are kept with army court martial records and other archives in the custody of the chief clerk of the judge advocate general's office of the War Department, and are occasionally allowed to be seen by persons especially interested.

The Golden Text is: "The prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him" (James 5:15).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away" (Revelation 21:4).

The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The very circumstance, which your suffering sense deems wrathful and afflictive, Love can make an angel entertained unaware" (page 574).

C. H. S. PEP SQUAD LEADERS

One of our active Pep Squad leaders is Lois Evelyn Norris. She has entered many activities during her high school life. For the last three years she has been a member of the chorus, the pep squad, and baseball team. She is an accomplished pianist and is a member of Los Tertulianos.

Being pep leader is nothing new to Peggy Cooper, since this is her second year to have that responsibility of directing our pep girls. Peggy is a very versatile student. She has taken an active part in many Interscholastic League events having entered chorus, baseball, and the one-act play contest. She is a member of The Dramatic Club and "Los Tertulianos."

FOOTBALL BOYS HONORED

The pep squad honored the football boys with a picnic Monday afternoon, Oct. 7, on the farm of Henry Campbell. After various games were played the group enjoyed a delicious picnic lunch. The group was accompanied by Miss Ruth Patterson and Miss Mildred Goodell, sponsors, Coach Graves, Coach Todd, and Mr. and Mrs. George Cates.

THEME OF THE WEEK

A Boy's Room (By Glendon Reeder) No one could doubt for a moment that this was a boy's room. Old, dirty trousers and shirts were hanging in disorderly array from the backs of chairs, on the bed, and on the dresser. Hanging on the walls were pictures of girls, movie stars, and football and baseball players. Also hanging on the walls were tennis rackets, ice skates, and pennants which he had gathered from out-of-town schools at football games. On the floor "funnies" and the sport pages of several newspapers were scattered from one end of the room to the other.

In one corner of the room was a closet containing all the clean clothes belonging to the boy. In the corner just opposite the closet was a bureau piled high with school books which were seldom opened by the owner.

PEP RALLY AT PADUCAH

The pep squad went to Paducah Friday afternoon, Oct. 4, and gave a pep rally on the court house lawn. Judging from the number from Paducah attending the game Friday night the efforts of the pep squad were very successful.

IX—Saladine informs Schier, by phone, of Huldy's death. The sheriff comes to the farm. Bart explains the situation. Will and Marm Pierce, after their fall, are returning. Will and Marm Pierce's hearts sink. Marm Pierce betrays her to her father, and on the latter's side she reveals the fact that she had accused Will of causing the death, but she knows, in her heart, that she is innocent.

X—Will declares he is innocent. The sheriff is skeptical. Ferrin to the county seat. Marm Pierce informs the sheriff that Will did not kill Huldy, but she can tell them who she thinks did.

CHAPTER XI
Saladine was a man of wit and was quicker than any man at reading the riddles of life day by day. But he had been deeply hurt. He was a stranger to his own people, and they to him; and his appraisal of their character and their capacities for good and evil had to depend upon the few words he could hear, or upon the one said of that one.

stand for the law. That's a sight bigger, and stronger than me, or any other man. The way I look at it, if the law ain't big enough to handle anything that comes up, I wouldn't have much chance to handle it my own self. If anyone figured he was strong enough to go against the law, he wouldn't have much trouble handling me. I'm a peaceable man!"

Bart grinned. "Well, it ain't fit for me to have a gun on me," he said, with a sort of amorphous amusement in his eyes. "If I'm up for murder and all!"

He laid the revolver on the table by the lamp; and he looked at Marm Pierce. "Now you go ahead with your rat killing, Granny," he bade her amiably.

"I've said all I've got to say," the old woman retorted.

But the sheriff was troubled. "You can't go and say a thing like that, if you don't aim to back it up, ma'am," he protested.

She tossed her head; but Bart suggested: "You can't blame her, Sheriff. You had your mind all made up to stand for blaming Will, feeling the way she does about him and Jenny. She'd do anything, or say anything at all, to stop you."

The old woman sat primly, her hands clasped in her lap, watching him with keen black eyes. The lamplight touched her white hair pleasantly. She wore, Saladine thought, a sort of majesty; dignity beyond ordinary minds. Old women know so many things.

"When I set out to fetch Will, after I went by my house and changed. Then when I didn't find Will, I come back past the ledge and picked up my gear, and come on here."

The old woman looked suddenly at Jenny. "Jenny, when you went to fetch Huldy's clothes, how come you didn't meet Bart? If he come back that way, you'd ought to have met him."

But Jenny said, her cheek a little pale: "I didn't go through the woods. I didn't want to go past where she'd fell. I went around by Bart's and on the road. I met Will in the road."

Marm Pierce nodded; and she shifted her position in the chair. There was something in her movement which suggested that one part of the scene was finished, that a new episode was about to begin. She looked at the sheriff, and at Will; and it was to Will she spoke at last.

"Will," she said, "I never see much of Huldy; but I've heard folks tell that she'd wear a rope tied around her waist the same as today, like a sash."

you, and set her finger nails in your cheek; and at that, you went crazy and you hit her so hard you broke your own hand on her face! That's what happened! I'm as certain of it as if I'd been there and see!"

The scratches on Bart's cheek were livid, but his lips twisted in a derisive grin!

Then she turned to Schier. "There it is, Sheriff," she exclaimed, in a tone of finality. "There it is, if you've got enough brains to see!"

But the big man after a moment wagged his head. "Why, I don't see as there's anything only your guess, ma'am," he protested.

And Bart spoke, through stiff lips, yet easily enough. "It's all right, Sheriff," he said. "Old women get fool ideas!"

And he said, calmly: "It couldn't be the way she says." He appealed to Huldy's husband. "Will, you know mighty well that Zeke was always somewhere around Huldy. If this had happened the way Granny says, Zeke he'd have been on my trail in no time at all. You know that, Will, as well as me!"

The Man Who Knows

Whether the Remedy You are taking for Headaches, Neuralgia or Rheumatism Pains is SAFE is Your Doctor. Ask Him

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches, or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains... and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

Membership Drive Started by P. T. A.

The annual membership drive of the Crowell P. T. A. has started and will continue for the remaining days of October, according to the membership chairman, Mrs. L. A. Andrews. The committee is composed of Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Earnest King and Supt. I. T. Graves.

The drive will follow a plan which was pursued last year. Eleven pupils have been chosen to solicit members. The following children have been chosen: Clark Rennels, Theda La Verne Wright, Margaret Long, Robert Louis Saunders, Billie Newton Klepper, J. M. Hill, Jr., Doris Campbell, Joe Wallace Beverly, Joyce White, Reed Sanders and A. Y. Bell. A prize will be given the one who enrolls the largest number of members.

In order to maintain the requirements of a standard association, there must be an increase of 10 per cent over last year and it is earnestly desired that this increase be attained. A report has to be made to the state P. T. A. office by Oct. 30.

Shirley Home Is Scene of Luncheon

A delightful three-course luncheon was served at noon last Friday in the home of Mrs. Paul Shirley, honoring Mrs. T. B. Klepper who recently resigned as superintendent of the children's division of the Methodist Sunday School after eleven years of continuous service in this capacity.

Between the second and third courses, Mrs. A. Y. Beverly, who was appointed by the Christian Board of Education as the new superintendent, presented Mrs. Klepper with a Fostoria buffet tray on behalf of the teachers and substitute teachers of junior department, which includes the nursery, beginners, primary and junior classes, all of which are taught in the basement of the church.

Following the luncheon, a teachers' meeting was held at which time plans for the incoming year were discussed.

The teachers and substitutes of the Junior department present for the occasion were: Mrs. M. J. Girsch, Mrs. H. C. Lankford, Mrs. W. H. Bell, Mrs. Clint White, Mrs. W. C. McKown, Mrs. W. B. Johnson, Mrs. Ralph McKown, Mrs. Roy Todd, Mrs. Geo. E. Turrentine, Mrs. Tom Russell, Mrs. A. Y. Beverly, Mrs. Klepper and Mrs. Shirley.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

With the members of the Junior Columbian Club as guests and with Mrs. Harry Colley and Mrs. John Carmichael of Vernon as honor guests, the Columbian Club observed Junior Columbian Day in the home of Mrs. R. L. Kincaid

Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Kincaid and Mrs. F. A. Davis as hostesses. Mrs. Jim Witherspoon, a charter member of the club, who has returned to Crowell to reside after an absence of a number of years, was also a guest.

Mrs. B. W. Self presided during the business session, at which time it was voted to purchase two Victrolas for the school with which to pursue the music appreciation course.

Mrs. Kincaid introduced Mrs. Colley, who gave a wonderful review of the book "Hungry Men" by Edward Anderson. The writer of the book is a Texas man, being of Abilene. The book is a novel of the depression, a story of the men who rode freight trains, who slept on park benches and who ate what was given out to them.

Mrs. Colley gave a concise review of the book in a most interesting way and those present appreciated the opportunity of hearing her.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Hughston gave a piano number "Barcarolle." Roll call response was made with quotations on "Friendship."

Mrs. N. J. Roberts presented the Junior Club with a beautiful scrapbook, the gift of Mrs. B. W. Self. The hostesses served a delicious ice course.

ADELPHIAN CLUB

Mrs. A. Y. Beverly was hostess to members of the Adelpian Club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. T. S. Haney, leader for the afternoon, reviewed Johnson's "Now in November," which is a Pulitzer Prize Novel.

Mrs. Clint White gave some of the outstanding facts about the life of Johnson, the author.

Mrs. W. B. Johnson gave an interesting report from "Correct English."

Miss Vera Patton was welcomed into the club. Refreshments were served to twenty-five club members.

TEACHING AT PRESIDIO

Miss Dorothy Florence Hinds assumed duties last week as English and Spanish instructor in the high school at Presidio, Texas, which is in the Big Bend section. She taught at Alpine last year and had returned to teach there this year before she was offered the Presidio position. Miss Hinds is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hinds of Crowell.

ATTEND REUNION

Clint White, Ebb Scales and A. Y. Beverly were in Fort Worth Sunday to attend the annual reunion of the World War veterans of the 36th Division.

This was the third reunion for the 36th Division. During the World War, soldiers of the 36th trained at Fort Worth. It is now planned to make the reunion at Fort Worth an annual affair.

Those in attendance were urged to return again in 1936 and "bring their 36th vets" with them.

Famous Fun Makers With Circus Coming Here on October 31

No circus is complete without clowns. The Harley Sadler-Bailey Bros. Circus has an array of them who will make you laugh. They guarantee a laugh a minute with their funny capers and gestures. The featured clown is none other than Buck Baker himself. Buck was with Ringling Bros.-Barnum and Bailey Circuses for over twenty-five years, and now comes to the Bailey Bros. Circus with his bunch of jokes. Buck says that he will make the older folks laugh as well as the kiddies.

Observance Health Regulations Helps Prevent Diseases

Austin, Texas, Oct. 8.—"Quarantine and isolation have long been practiced to limit the spread of contagion. Theoretically, these measures should no longer be necessary for diphtheria and smallpox, two diseases which are absolutely preventable," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. Practically, however, we still have smallpox with us and cases as well as deaths due to diphtheria, occur only too often. Control and preventive measures are now practiced against scarlet fever, measles, and whooping cough. Nevertheless, until such measures find more universal application, isolation and quarantine must continue to be emphasized. These are, in a true sense, essential aids in the control of disease.

The attitude of people toward observance of health regulations varies as greatly as does human nature itself. Most families, realizing the necessity for such measures, co-operate readily. This attitude is exemplified by the mother who learned that her little girl had measles. She waited a while and then telephoned to the health office to ask that her home be placarded. Mothers in increasing numbers are asserting this sort of health consciousness.

There is, of course, the opposite attitude, that of evasion. Failure to report the presence of suspected communicable disease in the home is unfortunate. A chief purpose of isolation is to allow for the infected person to rid himself of the disease germ. In the case of scarlet fever, this period covers a number of weeks. If proper isolation is not observed and a child is allowed to return to school while still infectious, the danger to other susceptible children is obvious. To counteract such danger requires constant vigilance on the part of teacher, nurse, and physician or health officer.

Duplicate Names

Quite often in glancing over our exchanges, we run across names that duplicate those of persons living in Crowell and Foard County. We now regret that we have not kept a list of them.

In the Lockney Beacon last week, Marvin Brotherton was listed as fullback with the Lockney Longhorns—probably named for Rev. Marvin G. Brotherton, Margaret-Thalia Methodist pastor for all we know.

The Floyd County Hesperian (Floydada) had an item about W. B. Jones being in a serious accident near there, but it wasn't the well known Foard farmer, W. B. Jones. We also read about a Homer Johnson at Chillicothe and a Joe Ward at Wichita Falls.

Ruth Patterson, Travis Fox and several other names of local people have appeared in news items printed elsewhere and about entirely different individuals. We don't even recall the publications in which the duplicate names appeared, but will watch more closely from now on.

Youngest Fan

Gloria Ruth Billington at eight weeks of age is no doubt the youngest backer of the Crowell Wildcats and probably holds a world record for the number of football games seen for her age, the total being three. Tonight will be the fourth. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Billington. Her city secretary father thinks it a bit early to allow her to join the pep squad, but remarks that she is mighty good already at this "yelling" business.

One Year From Today

We predict that one year from today—Oct. 10—you will find no less than 500 Crowell and Foard County people, together with thousands of others from every nook and corner of Northwest Texas in Coyote Stadium at Wichita Falls.

Oct. 10, 1936, merely happens to be "home-coming day" for Dick Todd in a football way, for according to present plans, the Texas Aggies will be playing Hardin-Simmons, Oklahoma, Texas Tech or some strong opponent that has not yet been selected on that particular date. And since the Wildcat warrior will again be back on soil he knows so well and because lots of his friends will be there, it is rumored that his coach will probably allow him to carry water or the 10-yard chain so he may again be seen in action on a Northwest Texas gridiron.

A message hot off our College Station wire says: "Todd is fast becoming the talk of all this part of Texas. He can make an opponent look sillier than anybody we ever saw. He and Bill Audish are going to make people forget about the great McCauley-Wallace combination at Rice Institute."

In their first regulation game last Thursday night, the Aggie Freshmen beat Allen Academy 25 to 0 at Bryan, using about 50 men. Todd made two touchdowns; Brim of Grove, Okla., one, and Rogers of Mart, Texas, one. The next game is Nov. 15 at Houston with the Rice freshmen. The freshmen are allowed only 3 games each season and the final game is with the Texas Short-horns at College Station on Nov. 27, the day before the annual Thanksgiving game between Texas and A. & M.

Memories

Those effective left-handed heaves of Roy "Lefty" Mullins. Has a Crowell football team ever had another south-paw in the backfield?

The 40th Anniversary celebration. There's no reason why the county should not have a far greater one for Foard's 45th Anniversary—April 27, 1936. A pre-Centennial affair, so to speak.

Those 28 square turns between Crowell and Vernon and the water from springs running along the highway in the West Rayland section.

Cranks on the telephone boxes. Some of the real pioneers remember when Crowell had new telephone directories.

The time when local folks watched hours for the Graf Zeppelin—and then because of some sort of storm area it left its direct route and passed over the Childress area.

Complete absence of brick buildings on the east side of the square.

The phonograph loudspeaker in front of Womaek Bros. on Saturdays and those stirring military marches.

Those Bullfighters

Wonder what those "experts" who lowered their estimation of the Wildcats because of their scoreless tie with Matador think now since Matador has accounted for 115 points to opponents' 0 in the two games played by the Bullfighters since they opened the season in Crowell. Levelland, former district champion and usually a very strong Class B team, was the 50-0 victim and Quitaque went down 56-0. Incidentally, Kempson, one of the Levelland linemen, was named on the first all-state Class B team last year.

Mistaken Identity

No less than two hundred persons, including many of the county's leading citizens, have made the mistake of starting in The News office for the purpose of having some garment cleaned in recent years. Usually the victim of the mistake barely gets to the door, then discovering the mistake, he or she jumps back suddenly in an embarrassed manner and rushes on next door to The Wright Cleaners without saying a word.

Strangers in town often come inside to tell just how they want a garment serviced, or to call for Joe Bott's pants and they become equally embarrassed when informed that we have presses in here, but not the kind to neatly press clothes.

However, outsiders are not the only ones guilty of the mistake. Doc Wright and Typo are also in the group, each having mistaken the others headquarters for his own.

The Rattlers Strike

Guy Todd's St. Mary's Rattlers of San Antonio defeated the Texas School of Mines of El Paso 38 to 0 last Saturday. The Rattlers' next game will be Sunday afternoon with the Randolph Field Ramblers from San Antonio's "West Point of the Air."

About the Bulldogs

Joe Forrester of Quanah, coach of the Quanah "B" squad, issued a few words of warning about Burk's Bulldogs while here with his team yesterday. "In scouting Electrica, I saw the Burk-Electra game two weeks ago and those Bulldogs have an offense that is plenty dangerous and a boy by the name of McKown that really goes places with the ball. They scored two touchdowns against Electrica and nearly scored two more."

Forrester added that they climb some spinners that really click with some fancy and effective aerial work.

The Bulldogs have always been noted for their great fighting spirit. An outstanding example in this respect was Crowell's 1931 game with the Bulldogs on the local field. Crowell was generally doped to win by 4 or 5 touchdowns—and what happened? The Wildcats were mighty lucky to come through with a 7 to 0 victory. The only touchdown came as a result of a Burk fumble deep in their own territory. Final minutes of the game saw the Bulldogs within a few yards of the Crowell goal line. The Crowell line held and the day was saved for the over-confident Wildcats who entered that battle. So don't forget 1931.

TEACHING IN TENNESSEE

Grady Halbert, who is taking a law course at Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., was recently given a part-time position as a teacher of history and general science in the Castle Heights Military Academy of Lebanon. For the past two years Mr. Halbert had been principal at Truseett High School and taught five weeks, beginning Aug. 5 of this year at Medicine Mound, before resigning to resume his law course in Cumberland University, where he had been earlier in the summer.
