

2 new divisions in Xmas parade

Two new divisions — decorated doll buggies and decorated doll bicycles — have been added to Post's Christmas Parade, scheduled for 10 a. m. Saturday, Dec. 5.

Wright, chairman of the parade committee, announced that the divisions are open to all who want to enter.

"We hope to have several dozen youngsters enter each division and add new interest to the parade," Wright said.

He announced that three prizes will be awarded in each of the two new parade divisions. The parade committee, which held another planning session Tuesday afternoon at Judy's Cafe and approved the new parade divisions, decided it would announce the prizes for the decorated bicycles and decorated doll buggies next week.

The decorated bicycle division will be open to both boys and girls without age limit. Decorated bikes will be judged on both beauty and originality. Dress of the rider will not be judged in this division.

In the decorated doll buggy division, judging will be on the basis of beauty and originality with the dress of the little girl pushing the doll buggy also taken into account in the judging.

Wright asked that as far as possible the entries try to stay within the parade theme—"The Spirit of Christmas."

The parade committee also hopes to announce another new parade feature next week — the honoring of a group of early-day area residents.

Dale Schmidt, high school distributive education instructor, has accepted the assignment of serving as high school float coordinator and advisor.

Schmidt said he will contact student heads of various high school organizations this week concerning plans to enter floats in the Christmas parade.

Six weeks tests are being held in high school this week, but the students will have two weeks to prepare floats for the parade.

The parade committee will write student organizations putting floats in the parade $50 float expense checks this year and let the organizations pay for their float materials.

Harold Lucas called our attention yesterday afternoon to the fact that the city is now busy with sewer laterals for the sewer extension through the west part of the city. He reported that not too many residents have taken advantage of the city's new sewer service as the city has gone to considerable expense with the project and it is hoped that the folks in the area now take full advantage of modern plumbing. A modern bathroom would make an excellent Christmas present.

Elwood Wright elected by Ex-Students' group

Elwood Wright was elected president and Bud Davis vice president of the Ex-Students' Association at a brief business meeting held at a hospitality hour during last Friday's annual Post High School Homecoming.

Approximately 130 ex-students attended the hospitality hour, which was held from 5 p. m. until 7 p. m. in the old high school gymnasium. A number of those attending were from out of town.

A dance for the ex-students was held in the gym following the Post-Slaton football game. The Bill Mayes Combo furnished the music.

Other homecoming activities included the coronation of football band and pep squad "royalty" at the football game, a chili supper sponsored by the Lions Club, a dance at the Youth Center for high school students, two class reunions, and other get-togethers.

Pamela Stewart, PHS senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stewart, was crowned football queen in pre-game ceremonies. Other queen candidates were Dee Ann Walker and Vivian McWhirt.

1965 Chest drive set up for kickoff here Nov. 30

Meeting is set for next Monday by budget group

Mrs. Irby G. Metcalf was named campaign chairman for Garza County's 1965 Community Chest drive and Monday, Nov. 30, was chosen as the kickoff date for the annual fund raising at an organizational meeting in the First National Bank late yesterday afternoon.

The Chest's budget committee will meet in the Community Room at 4 p. m. Monday to hear budget requests from the participating organizations, and adopt the 1965 Chest budget.

Mrs. Metcalf worked in the Dallas Chest organizations for a number of years and will bring fresh ideas into the local effort. She is the first woman, at least in recent years, to head the united fund raising effort here.

DAVE SANFORD was elected vice chairman of the Chest drive and also will serve as chairman of the budget committee.

Mrs. Metcalf proposed a two-week campaign to get the fund raising done in a hurry and well out of the way before Christmas.

Chest boosters were cheered by the first budget request received for next year. The Girl Scouts are requesting almost $1,000 less than a year ago.

But Mayor Harold Lucas, who handles the checkbook for the county's summer baseball program for boys here, told the group that the program has $702.82 in "old debts" and no other source of income but the Chest. The baseball program was in the Chest for $1,500 last year.

Sanford proposed that the baseball program submit two proposals to the budget committee: One for 1965 operations with strict controls on who is authorized to spend the league money, and the other to clear up past debts.

MR. METCALF told the group that the 1964 budget was $12,331 and only 85 per cent of it was raised. Cash and pledges totaled within $500 of the goal, but all the pledges did not come through, he explained. Participating organizations are being paid only 85 per cent this year with the fourth quarter payments still to go out, he reported.

Some Chest contributions already have been received here. Among these is that of the Santa Fe railroad.

In view of the short crop year, the budget committee will hold the budget line as realistically as possible, it was decided, but the importance of successfully carrying through the Chest program also was emphasized.

Garza County over recent years has met its Chest obligations to participating organizations annually whereas many area towns have not.

SELECTIONS TO HEAD the various segments of the fund raising campaign at yesterday's meeting were:

Mr. Metcalf, the important big gifts division which handles contributions of $25 or more.

Jim Poer, Postex mill employee; Harold Lucas, city employee; Carl Cederholm, county employee; Leo Acker, oil employee; J. B. Potts and Lewis Herron, farmers and ranchers; Barry Thompson, schools.

Yet to be selected is the chairman of the downtown employees division.

Named to the budget committee besides Sanford were Herron, S. E. Camp, the Rev. Ed Graham, Bryan J. Williams, and Jim Cornish.

One major division of the 1965 Chest drive is nearing completion despite the otherwise slow start on the overall campaign.

The Postex Mills employees division launched here Monday with completion expected by Friday.

With only a few mill departments complete yesterday morning, Jim Poer, Postex personnel director, announced that "it looks as though employee contributions will exceed those given last year."

Poer said the success of the Chest campaign among Postex employees is due to the work of various departmental volunteer workers.

Those active this year are: Weaving, Don Riley, Alicia Varela, Mary Welbourn, Hope Solis, Ollie Mae Allen; spinning, Lewis A. M. O. S. Howard Sprayberry, Della Ticer, Audrey Johnson, Adele Gannon, Tony Gutierrez; supply, Mr. Willie B. Sullivan; warehouse, Robert DeLeon; shop, Jerry Conoly; lab, Agnes Welch; bleach and finish, Lloyd Edwards; sewing, Lloyd New, Ronnie Ticer, Davie Young, Eva Britton, Imogene Landtroop, Jewel Taylor, Helen Long, Henrietta Warren and Lorene Sheppard.

Last hospital bonds paid off

Garza Memorial Hospital is now debt free.

The county commissioners court Friday voted to retire the final $15,000 indebtedness.

The $175,000 hospital bond issue was issued Aug. 15, 1950, at a 2 1/2 per cent interest rate.

In other Friday actions, in a continuation of their November session, the court:

Officially accepted the 1964-65 budget, details of which were carried in the Dispatch a number of weeks ago.

Voted to employ Mrs. Carolyn Hopkins as the new secretary to County Judge J. E. Parker and the commissioners court at a salary of $232.50 monthly. She replaces Mrs. Jackie Wisley who has moved to Dallas.

Voted to invest $10,000 from the Pct. 2 sinking fund in a short term bond carrying 4.05 per cent interest.

Union service Thanksgiving

The annual Union Thanksgiving Service, sponsored by the Post Ministerial Alliance, will be held at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 25, at the First Baptist Church.

The host pastor, the Rev. Joe Vernon, will deliver the Thanksgiving message.

The choir, composed of voices from all church choirs here, will sing, under the direction of Vernon Scott. Those who will be singing in the combined choir are asked to meet in the church's Fellowship Hall at 7 o'clock the night of the service to go over the numbers together.

The call to worship will be by the Rev. P. C. Goza, pastor of the Justiceburg Baptist Church, and the invocation by the Rev. Robert DeLeon of the Spanish Church of God of Prophecy.

Bernard S. Ramsey, minister of the First Christian Church, will deliver the welcome, and the responsive reading will be led by the Rev. Clayton Pennington, Calvary Baptist pastor.

The Rev. H. E. Barnard of the Assembly of God, will lead the Thanksgiving offering and prayer, and the scripture reading will be by the Rev. Clarence Stephens of the First Methodist Church.

The Rev. D. J. Peters, pastor of the Friendship Baptist Church, will lead the prayer following the Thanksgiving sermon, and the benediction will be pronounced by the Rev. C. W. Grubbs, Church of God of Prophecy.

Drizzling rain halts Garza cotton harvest

The fall's first freeze is predicted by the weatherman for the South Plains area tonight as skies cleared this morning after 72 hours of murky dampness that brought .90 of an inch of moisture here.

The courthouse rain gauge at 8 a. m. today showed .28 of an inch during the last 24 hours to bring the total for the three days to .90 of an inch.

The rains brought Garza's cotton harvest to an abrupt halt, but if the freeze comes tonight cotton gins soon will be running around the clock with the rush on.

County Agent Syd Conner reported this week's moisture brought Post's total for 1964 to date to 7.66 inches.

With only six weeks of the year left, Post's precipitation for 1964 was more than 13 inches below normal annual moisture of 20.43 inches, Conner said.

The county agent said Post received 25.40 inches last year, mostly due to heavy May and June downpours, and 15.01 inches in 1962.

He said the present moisture to date has caused little damage to cotton in the field.

A freeze is still awaited before the big harvest rush will be on, Conner said.

Rites Tuesday for Post man's father

Funeral services for C. T. (Thurman) Potts, 73, of Lubbock, Rt. 4, father of J. B. Potts of Post, were conducted at 4 p. m. Tuesday in the W. W. Rix Chapel. Interment was in Resthaven Memorial Park.

Mr. Potts died at 1:30 a. m. Monday at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. He had been a resident on Rt. 4 for 35 years.

Besides the son, who is a vice president of the First National Bank here, Mr. Potts is survived by his wife; two other sons, C. T. Jr. and James A. Potts, both of Amarillo; a daughter, Mrs. Bob Mason of Alameda, Calif.; his mother, Mrs. J. B. Potts of Lubbock Rt. 1; seven brothers and three sisters.

Highway proposal gets support

Post for very good reason will give enthusiastic support to the proposition of a new state highway from Borger to Big Spring through Post.

The tourist business is more important than most folks hereabouts realize who aren't directly involved with it.

If the "short, scenic route to Oklahoma" approach can be sold at the Big Spring end, and the "Big Bend route" on the Oklahoma end considerable traffic each way could result.

Since there will be no cities on the route, the smaller communities will get all the business which develops along the 230-mile stretch.

Connecting up the Rails and Gail highways through Post would bring the traffic right through the business district.

An organizational meeting is planned at a luncheon here Friday, Dec. 4, at which time the "pitch" will be prepared for a state highway designation for the route at the January meeting of the State Highway Commission in Austin.

The Borger Chamber of Commerce is the No. 1 backer of the project and if you look at a highway map it is easy to tell why. Borger is simply without highways—and hence is minus the tourist business.

The reasoning behind the project is extremely logical. No highway construction will be necessary. It is an excellent scenic route for tourists going either way. It does avoid the time-consuming procedure of going around or through a big city.

Here is a good example of cooperative Chamber of Commerce effort which can produce real dividends for all the towns involved.

The Post Chamber reacted so enthusiastically that the organizational meeting was scheduled for Post.—JC

Newcomers being welcomed

The Post Chamber of Commerce got off the ground last week with its newest project, that of welcoming newcomers to the city. The new project marks another step in the Chamber's march to achievement of its Program of Work adopted several months ago.

The newcomer welcoming project was long over-due, but now that it has been activated, we can do some "catching up" in welcoming new residents to our city.

It is no secret that, for some reason or other, towns the size of Post sometimes are saddled with the unsavory reputation of not making newcomers feel welcome. Nine times out of ten such a reputation is ill-deserved by the town in question, but once acquired, is hard to live down. Such projects as "Welcome Newcomers" can do more than anything else to erase such a misconception.

In our opinion, the Post Chamber of Commerce is off to an excellent start with its new project under the chairmanship of Ansil O'Neal and with a greeting committee of four charming ladies. The chairman and his committee can't do it all, however. Like any other Chamber project, it needs and deserves the help of the entire membership if it is to become the success it is intended to be. The rest of us can be "ex-officio" greeters of newcomers and help make them feel at home in Post.

The "Welcome Newcomers" project has many advantages. Information acquired from the newcomers can be helpful to business people, to churches and to the schools. It'll make newcomers feel more at home to know that the town's Chamber of Commerce is interested enough in their moving here to call on them. They'll also welcome the merchandise certificates being presented them by the committee through the courtesy of local merchants. So, let's keep the project moving and let our new residents know that we're more than glad to have them.—CD

Traffic accident toll rises

Monday morning's newspaper carried the grisly account of three persons being killed and 26 injured in area traffic accidents Sunday, and the South Plains heads for a new—and unenviable—record in traffic fatalities.

Closer home, Garza County passed the weekend without a serious traffic accident, but we're also headed for a new fatality record, with 13 people having been killed in accidents since the first of the year.

The Garza County toll through October in rural accidents alone was 50 wrecks, 11 dead, 40 injured and $44,310 in property damage. These figures do not include another death in November, which brings the total to 12 dead, nor does it include the wrecks inside the city limits.

The traffic accident toll is appalling, despite the unceasing efforts of peace officers and safety organizations to reduce it through safety education and enforcement of safe driving rules and regulations.

In the final analysis, the solution rests with the individual driver. He or she can help reduce the toll by observing the rules of the road. Death on the highway has no greater champion than the careless driver.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

The trouble with the public debt is that private individuals have to pay it.—Berle Snyder in The Denver City Press.

It seems like chewing tobacco went out of vogue about the time you quit seeing men in sweat-stained overalls.—Douglas Meador in Matorador Tribune.

The utmost tragedy in the world, in the minds of small boys, is that the home team lost.—The Olney Enterprise.

The man on Main Street says a committee is a group of people who meet and decide nothing can be done.—Ralph W. Carpenter in The Rails Banner.

NEXT THURSDAY is Thanksgiving, which is always followed by the shortest 30-day period in the year. Oddly enough, however, more time is squeezed into those hectic 30 days or so between Thanksgiving and Christmas than into any other period of similar length during the entire year.

Our cat, Blackie, as can be seen here, is hurrying up his Thanksgiving dinner so he can finish and get started on his Santa Claus letter. All you youngsters follow Blackie's example and write your Santa letters early this year. Remember to mail them to The Post Dispatch, from where they will be forwarded to the North Pole.

THE MAN UP THE Street says maybe we were pretty poor in the old days, but at least dime stores didn't have to use lay-away plans.

This from a reader:
A BUSINESS MAN'S PRAYER
Teach me that sixty minutes make an hour, sixteen ounces a pound, and one hundred cents a dollar—Help me to so live that I can lie down at night with a clear conscience, without a gun under my pillow, and unharmed by the faces of those to whom I brought pain—Grant that I may earn my meal ticket on the square, and in earning it I may do unto others as I would have others do unto me—Deafen me to the jingle of tainted money and to the rustle of unholly skirts—Blind me to the faults of the other fellow, but reveal to me my own—Guide me so that each night when I look across the dinner table at my wife, who has been a blessing to me, I shall have nothing to conceal—Keep me young enough to laugh with little children, and sympathetic enough to be considerate of old age—And when comes the day of darkening shades and the smell of flowers, the tread of soft footsteps and the crunching wheels in the yard—make the ceremony short and the epitaph simple—"Here lies a man."

IT'S EASY to spot the successful man. Box seats at the ball game, bucket seats in the car.

One year ago this coming Sunday, on a street in Dallas, the price of one man's alienation proved to be the death of another man, John F. Kennedy—one of the brightest, most successful and most favored men in our history—was killed by one of the most rejected and most futile citizens this nation has ever produced. Lee Harvey Oswald failed at almost everything he undertook. He was in trouble with the Marines, he was fired from jobs, he was at odds with almost everyone he met. He was more at home in the Soviet Union than he was in his own country.

THE STORY of Oswald may be, among other things, a warning that those of us who are at home in our society, no matter how fortunate, can never be entirely safe until we have coped with the problems of those who are alienated from it. There should arise a new awareness of the danger to us all from the alienated and the desperate, hating from the outside a society that they are not quite able to become a part of.

A recent poll shows that most Americans support the national goal of a man on the moon by 1970, but they feel there is no sense of urgency about achieving it. In other words, they figure that as long as the moon has been up there a few more years won't make any difference.

Enumerators to begin visits in '64 farm count

Johnson's hometown paper, the Johnson City Record - Courier, since long before LBJ became president. We've watched the paper closely the last several months to see if there was any change in it in keeping with the new activity generated at Johnson City by LBJ's frequent visits to his nearby ranch home. The paper couldn't be prouder of its native son, but it hasn't changed a bit. It is the same four-page newsy weekly that it was before Johnson became president. It still carries in column one on the front page the publisher's column, "Folks We Know," by Mrs. Stella Gliddon, who always signs off with an "Auf Wiedersehen," which no doubt makes a big hit with the many families of German origin who populate the Johnson City area. It's nice to see that none of the ultra-sophistication brought in by some of the members of the President's entourage has rubbed off on the Record-Courier, which I'll bet LBJ enjoys reading every week.

Enumerator visits in the 1964 Census of Agriculture are scheduled to begin Monday, Nov. 23, in Garza and the northern half of Borden County, according to Bertie Jo Priddy of Ralls, census crew leader.

The enumerators will take about three weeks to complete their work the crew leader estimates.

The job is being done in three stages. First came the recruitment and training of enumerators to count all farms in the county. There is one enumerator for each 150 farms.

Shortly after Nov. 9, the Bureau of the Census started the second stage by mailing agricultural census questionnaires to all rural boxholders in the county. This gave farm and ranch operators a period of time to consult their records and fill in answers to the questions.

The enumerators' visit will be the final stage of the census.

TEMPTATION IS ONE

Read Matthew 4:1-11

When ye pray, say, Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Luke 11:4.

Temptation may come to us in many forms, but it is always the same. There is only one temptation, and that is that we forsake the Father.

Jesus teaches us to pray, "Lead us not into temptation," because we live in a world that is filled with temptations. Life is dangerous. There are so many ways in which our relationship to the Father can be undermined.

As we pray this petition, we may associate it with some besetting sin. We want God to deliver us from this particular sin. Our pet sins can break our communion with God by leading us into despair. Asking God's forgiveness for the same offense often can become tiresome. One may begin to doubt his sincerity and God's willingness to forgive. This is the temptation which arises from a besetting sin, that it may lead us to despair and thus separate us from God.

But also the innocent and the good can disrupt our communion with God. One can become so involved in the good pursuit of life that God drifts out of sight and out of mind.

Things precious and worthwhile, family, friends, and fame, can become stumbling blocks precisely because they are so good. When their interest is at stake, how easy it is to neglect God for their sake!

Gracious Lord, let nothing become a barrier between Thee and me. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

5th birthday for LP gas firm

S. L. Butler LP Gas Co. on the Tahoka Highway will celebrate its fifth birthday Dec. 1.

Butler purchased this business from the late Elmer Butler in 1954. He had known anything about it but it was obvious during the afternoon interview for the Business page feature that he knows a whole lot now and thoroughly understands it.

When cold weather comes, the rural home heating units go on—and so does the Butler gas business.

Selling LP gas, Butler also maintains, is primarily a service business.

An LP gas dealer is expected to keep his customers' tanks full. Only a few bother to call and order their fuel.

Consequently, when a Butler truck goes out in any direction from Post the driver usually checks all customers in the vicinity.

THERE ARE VERY few gasoline powered tractors in this area any more, Butler points out, because the cost of LP gas is only between 50 to 60 per cent the cost of gasoline.

LP gas is simply a cheaper fuel. Now the farmer has accepted LP gas for his tractor, he also is using it more and more in his pickup truck as well.

Butler has been a prime mover here. He installs LP gas systems on pickups and is handy at keeping them adjusted properly for his customers.

Butler explains that a farmer can pay the cost of installing an LP gas system on his pickup in

BUTLER'S LP GAS DELIVERY TRUCKS ALWAYS ON THE GO

Stanley Butler stands by two of his LP gas trucks at the S. L. Butler LP Gas Co. on the Tahoka highway. The big transport is used to haul in the liquid petroleum fuel to the first 50,000 miles through the saving in the cost of fuel and after that he can transfer the system from old pickup to new one.

The LP gas dealer climbed into his own pickup and showed the writer the installation. He has a three-way switch on the dash.

Starting the engine on LP gas, he flipped the switch over to gasoline in the vehicle's regular gas tank and then back to the middle which permitted the gasoline in the bowl to burn out before switching back to LP gas.

Carrying a half tank of gasoline, he explained, is a safety factor so you won't run out of fuel. If a farmer runs out of LP gas—he can just switch over to gasoline until he gets to his LP gas dealer to fill up his LP tank which is mounted behind the pickup cab.

Butler says you get a few miles less a gallon on LP gas than gasoline, but you save because it only costs 60 per cent the amount of gasoline.

their pickups are required by the state to make specific LP gas purchases for their vehicles and obtain a receipt for it, noting number of truck and its mileage at time of fill up.

This is because vehicle users must pay the same amount of taxes per gallon for LP gas as for gasoline. This amounts to nine cents a gallon and quite a believe-it-or-not situation.

Actually, the LP gas now costs only 8½ cents per gallon. Add the 9 cents tax (4 cents federal and 5 cents state), and the federal user is being taxed over 100 per cent for the product—106 per cent to be exact for very gallon he buys.

Butler emphasizes that the LP gas industry has the lowest accident rate of any of the fuels.

"It's safer than gasoline," he explained, "because popoff valves let all the gas out of the tank into the atmosphere before the tank pressure can build too high, because of heat or any other reason."

Butler points out that all dealers are licensed by the state and have to pass a state examination at Austin before being granted a license. State regulations in the field are quite strict.

THIS POST LP gas distributor thinks the LP gas business is still growing because its uses are being expanded, thus enlarging the market.

The flame cultivators are just beginning to gain acceptance for ridding careless weeds from cotton fields.

You guessed. The flame cultivators use LP gas.

If oil exploration ever gets going good around here again, it will be another boost to the LP gas business. Drilling rigs are powered by LP gas.

Butler has become a real mechanic for all types of LP gas systems. He not only has a well equipped workshop at his company headquarters but he stocks replacement parts for LP gas systems on tractors, pickups, etc.

He has three LP gas storage tanks just west of his company headquarters building which hold 13,000 gallons of LP fuel. He has two LP gas delivery trucks with which to service customers and in 1961 added a 5,000 gallon capacity transport truck to haul in his liquid petroleum on a 93-mile round trip from one of the four natural gas processing plants in the Snyder area.

THE BUTLER LP gas firm is quite a family affair.

Stanley's father, Elmer Butler, works on part-time and tends the office when both trucks are out on deliveries.

His wife, Geraldine, takes care of the office work—and there's a lot of record keeping to the business.

The other firm employee is Thurman Maddox, who has been delivering LP gas to customers of the firm for the last 18 or 19 years. Before Butler bought the business, Maddox worked for Garner, the former owner.

A native of Putman, 35 miles east of Abilene, Butler came to Post from Sweetwater in 1948. At Sweetwater he was in the accounting department for International Harvester. He came to Post to become an office, parts, and sales man for Dowe H. Mayfield Co., Inc., at that time Post's International Harvester dealer.

Next he spent eight years here with Service Pipeline Co.

That's when he went into the LP gas business.

FOR A HOBBY, Butler is an avid motorcycle enthusiast. He is the only local motorcycle dealer, selling the BMW motorcycles, a well known German make, and a ch year enjoys motorcycling to Dodge City, Kans., to see the national races held there.

Boy Scout troop on Saturday hike

Nineteen members of Boy Scout Troop 219, accompanied by Scoutmaster Don Osborn, went on an 8 to 10-mile hike Saturday morning in rugged canyon country north of Post.
The hike was the first for 11 of the Boy Scouts who had achieved Tenderfoot rank at a Court of Honor only a few days before. Four boys were also raised to Second Class rank at the Court of Honor.
The scouts' hike began from a country road several miles north of town, to where they had been transported by truck furnished by Assistant Scoutmaster Doug Hill.
From the county road, the scouts hiked to a creek bed and then east up the creek bed to a camping place, where they prepared their noon-day meal. They carried provisions and other outdoor needs in day-packs.
Scouts making the hike were the following:

JOINS SORGHUM FIRM
Dr. Lee C. Coffey, nationally-known grain sorghum seed breeder, has joined the Excel Sorghum Company in Plainview after 20 years with the Texas Extension Service. He worked in the corn and sorghum foundation seed section of the Texas Experiment Station at Bryan from 1950 to summer of 1964, during which time he worked with seed plots at every point of the state. As director for Research and Development with Excel, Dr. Coffey will be in charge of seed breeding.

LP gas—

Recently he bought his wife a motorcycle too.
Asked if he has converted his motorcycle to LP gas, he just grinned and shook his head.
But that's no problem either. He's also the distributor in this area for Conoco gasoline. But that would make another story.

SAN JACINTO... in 18 Minutes—Blessed Freedom!

At 3:30 P.M. on April 21, 1836, General Sam Houston launched his attack. So sure was Mexican Army Commander Santa Anna of his troops' superiority that he did not even post sentries during the customary afternoon siesta.
The freedom-inflamed Texans, shouting "Remember the Alamo!", sprang upon the enemy. In the incredibly short space of 18 minutes Texas' freedom was won.
Santa Anna was captured. Six hundred and thirty officers and men were killed; the rest taken prisoner. Texas lost only nine men killed or mortally wounded, with 30 less seriously wounded. When the captured Santa Anna ordered his troop commanders to leave Texas, the last threat to peace was removed. Texas was free!

FREE MEN DEPEND ON US!
Today, we cannot—with one decisive stroke—wipe out the threats to freedom that are all around us. Instead, we must join together for an almost unending task of holding at bay those who would destroy the liberty we hold so dear.
Our dollars, banded together in U.S. Savings Bonds, help keep our defenses strong—making sure that no enemy will smash through to victory over freedom.
You can be an active partner in defending freedom by buying U.S. Savings Bonds at your bank or on the payroll savings plan where you work.

STUDENT EDITORIAL

Teamwork Applies to All Things

Teamwork is defined as cooperation or unity of people working toward success. Teamwork doesn't just apply to sports but to all things where people work and play together.

Each student and teacher of Post High School is very conscious of the need of teamwork between each student and his instructors. If each person worked toward better understanding of each other, the problems of our school would greatly decrease. At times, we feel our teachers are over-loading us with work, but if we stop to consider all things concerned, we know this is only for the good of our future.

Some of us will be leaving PHS soon. I hope we can look back with gratitude to the teachers who tried to prepare us for the time when we will be on our own. I am sure I have expressed the sentiments of everyone at PHS. Let each of us work harder to make our school outstanding!—Judy Ballentine.

Language Club to have float

Tuesday, Nov. 10, the Language Arts Club held its regular meeting.

The meeting consisted chiefly of business. The roll was called with 18 members present. Miss Ana Maria Martinez, advisor, read the minutes of the previous meeting.

A float committee was named to make plans for a Christmas float. They are Marta Solis, Brenda Richards, Sharla Pierce, Fernando Raymundo, Ronnie Pierce, Larry Rosas, Susan Ramsey, Carol Camp and Diana Valdez.

Dee Ann Walker, Susan Ramsey, Diana Valdez and Irene Saldivar were chosen to work on a committee for planning a Christmas

Jr. High cage schedule told

By Belinda Lee

The Post Junior High School basketball schedule has been announced for 1964-65. All games will be played on Monday, except tournament games, which will be played on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

The Junior High boys will not start play until the Southland Tournament early in December. Otherwise, the following schedule includes both boys and girls games:

Nov. 16: Idalou here.
Nov. 23: Slaton here.
Dec. 3-5: Southland Tournament.
Dec. 7: Frenship here.
Dec. 14: Tahoka here.
Jan. 14-16: Roosevelt Tournament.

Pen rally held on Main Street

Friday, Nov. 13, the last pep rally of the football season was held downtown. It was Homecoming and a special day.

It began with the band leading the student body. Everybody walked to the site of the rally. It was held in front of the Chamber of Commerce building.

The cheerleaders began with "Good Word", "Hex Post Fight" and "Take a V". Then the band played a spirit-building song. The pep rally continued with "Gold Black" and "Stomp, Clap".

Mr. Thompson, superintendent of the Post Schools, gave an inspiring talk. The last yells of the pep rally were "Who Are the Antelopes" and "Good Word". The band played the school song to end the pep rally, and then led the student body back to PHS.

Thanksgiving origin was many years ago

By Rhonda Case

Canada and the United States have a day set aside each year as Thanksgiving Day.

On Thanksgiving Day, people give thanks with feasting and prayer for the blessings they may have received during the first year.

The first Thanksgivings were harvest festivals or days of thanking God for plentiful crops. This is the reason the holiday still takes place late in the fall after the crops have been gathered.

The American Thanksgiving Day probably grew out of the harvest-home celebration of England.

COLLEGE STUDENT HOME
Lin Alyn Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cox, spent the weekend at home. Lin Alyn is a student at Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene.

The meeting was then adjourned. Nov. 24 will be the next meeting.

OLD ENOUGH!

Not old enough for a novel, a dictionary, an encyclopedia.

But old enough for the Bible!

For in these very years before she fully understands its truth, a child learns to respect God's Word. Reverence is born. A sense of the importance of religion develops.

The passages must be short... and sensibly chosen. Childish but searching questions must be answered. Mother and Dad will soon discover that explaining Truth to their child deepens their own comprehension.

Take advantage of a parent's most sacred privilege. Introduce your child to God. Make the Bible part of the family. Participate in and cooperate with the Church's program of religious education.

A child grows spiritually whose parents grow spiritually!

Pam Stewart is Football Queen

daughter of Mr. Melvin Stewart, Rt. 3, before-the-game ceremony, Nov. 13. Pam is a Senior in Post and has lived in Post since she was born. Pamela is the older sister of Pam, who was crowned football queen in 1960.

Band and is head majorette this year. During her first three years in PHS she was a cheerleader. She plays guard on the Post Does and is a member of the Commercial Club and Future Homemakers. After the game Pam had this to say: "I still can't believe that it really happened to me. When I found out that I was a nominee I thought that was enough for any girl but, when I got it I was so excited that I wanted to cry. I really can't explain how I felt at the moment because there wasn't any feeling at all. I was dumb-founded."

EDITORIAL: Patriotism of Americans

dictatorship. Many of the people in our country do not take advantage of any of these freedoms. These people should because freedom is our most cherished possession. Nov. 3, 1964, the people of this country had the freedom to go to the polls and vote for people, who, in their opinion, were suitable for the offices of the United States. Some voted a Democratic ticket, some a Republican ticket, and some a split ticket.

In the presidential race the Democrats won over the Republicans by a large margin. Lyndon Baines Johnson continued to be our president. Those who voted for Barry Goldwater, I'm sure, were disappointed. They found they would have President Johnson for another four years. There wasn't anything they could do, they couldn't change presidents or change votes. But they didn't go on strike or start a war. They were good citizens. They voted for the man of their choice. It doesn't matter who they voted for, the point is they voted. Many of the people in our country do not appreciate the freedom to vote. But remember, "Freedom is our most cherished possession." — Stephanie Davis.

Youth Center is scene of dance

Post High School students held their Homecoming dance at the Youth Center, Nov. 13, after the football game. Playing for the dance was a very popular band from Brownfield, The Emperials. During the evening of entertainment, Miss Pamela Stewart, PHS senior, was introduced as Football Sweetheart. Pamela, a popular student at the high school, also marches in front of the Black and Gold Marching Band as a majorette. Chaperones for the dance were Coach and Mrs. Harold Teal, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Osman.

Edith Johnson, sophomore, made 24 points the second game she played as forward on the varsity basketball team, hitting 62 per cent from the field.

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving is here. Relatives are coming. The turkey is cooking. And everything's humming. The prayer is beginning. And everything's quiet. For thanks we are giving, and thanksgiving is right.

Prejudice: Being down on what you are not up on. "Oh, what a lovely cow," said the cute young miss from the city. "But it hasn't any horns." "There are many reasons," replied the farmer. "Some cows do not have horns until later in life."

Even though Post did not have a very successful football season as far as games won, the Pep Squad is very proud of the team. They showed fine sportsmanship and everyone would have been proud of the Antelopes even if they had not won any games. The Pep Squad feels Post has the greatest football team in Texas or elsewhere.

The Pep Squad would like to thank the Boosters for supporting the Antelopes on the field before the game and at the half. The football boys express their appreciation for the buses chartered by the Boosters.

The Antelopes and coaches express their appreciation to the student body, townspeople, faculty, cheerleaders, Pep Squad, and Band for their support at all the games.

Pep Squad girls that were selected as doing outstanding work this year were: Sandy Gary, Charlotte Gilmore, Annette McBride, Ann Hendrix, Carolyn Matiser, Darla Pierce, Susan Ramsey, Susan Cornish, Vickie Wilks, Becky Thompson, Mary Ann Stone, Dee Ann Walker, Meredith Newby, Ceritha Jones, Beverly Duncan, Sue Gilmore, Julia Childs, Nancy Hendrix, Sherry Gist, Marcia Newby, Linda Hays, Linda Altman, Natha Jo Mears, Patsy Pierce, Helyn Cheshire, and Micki Sterling.

The best of luck to the Antelopes in their basketball and track seasons.

PHS students and faculty would like to express their gratitude to Mrs. Edna Blodgett for the floral arrangement she sent for Homecoming. The arrangement was a football with four large orange mums and two streamers with "Post Antelopes" written on them.

6th grade girls attractive in gala parade of fads, fashions

By Linda Blythe
A blue tight skirt jumper worn by Karen Stanley over a long-sleeved white blouse is very pretty. A red and white striped blouse with a light blue jumper that buttons down the front, worn by Judy Florence, is nice for school. Karen Potts wore a red short-sleeved pullover sweater with a gray and red pleated skirt. Kathy Mason wore a pretty brown dress with red, white and yellow designs.

A yellow blouse with a white pleated skirt is attractive as worn by Belinda Blacklock. Quay Williams was stylish in a blue striped jumper with a blue blouse and blue knee-length socks. Peggy Bevers wore a white blouse with a green corduroy wrap-around skirt, which is very pretty. Ryan Thomas wore a white blouse with a pink pullover sweater and a black wrap-around skirt. Yolanda Pantoja wore a very pretty black wrap-around skirt with a white blouse and musical instruments decorating it. A blue blouse with colored stripes and a brown skirt is the school fashion worn by Sue Strofer.

FHA girls name Bilberry beau

Johnny Bilberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bilberry, was chosen beau of the Future Homemakers of America, Monday night Nov. 9, at a meeting in the PHS speech room. Johnny was born in Post on Sept. 12, 1947. He is president of the FFA chapter and also of the Mesa District. Johnny was recently elected as parliamentarian of the Future Teachers Association.

MYSTERY STUDENT

This week's Junior High Mystery Student is of medium height. Her favorite actress is Patty Duke and actor is John Wayne. She has blonde hair and green eyes. She wears glasses, too. She likes and is very good at basketball, which is her favorite sport. Her favorite food is steak and her favorite dessert is lemon pie. Can you guess who she is? (Kay Herron)

FFA teams compete leadership contests

Saturday, the Post Future Farmers of America entered leadership contests at Brownfield. Teams representing Post were Senior Chapter Conducting, Farm Radio, Junior Chapter Conducting and Senior Farm Skill.

Senior Chapter Conducting: Sammy Sims, president; Charles Wallace, vice president; Jimmy Kennedy, secretary; Birch Lobban, treasurer; Johnny Kuykendall, reporter, and Bill Doggett, sentinel.

Ronald Simpson Pep Club beau

Feb. 22, 1947, was a special day for the Pep Squad. It was on this day that Ronald Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Simpson, was born. Ronald was crowned Pep Squad Sweetheart at the homecoming game between Post and Slaton.

Junior Chapter Conducting: Johnny Jones, president; Dennis Ray, vice president; Donnie Blacklock, secretary; Ronnie Blythe, treasurer; Lew Bishop, reporter, and Dwayne Gannon, sentinel.

Thanksivina Prayer

By LaRue May
Lord, thank you for this bread, we pray,
And that we have a place to stay,
So we can welcome other folks,
That have no home at all.
We pray that the children safely sleep,
And that in sorrow they do not weep,
We pray that troubles like ours they don't have to bear,
Or at that even give a care.
Lord, give us meat to keep in this house,
So we can share it with the folks that have no food at all.

Early-day market owner visits here

Charlie Brown of Abilene, who in 1908 established the first private business firm in Post, visited old-time friends here Wednesday en route to Ralls and Matador.

Mr. Brown, who is 83, was accompanied by his son, R. C. Brown of Odessa, who was born in Post 54 years ago.

The elder Mr. Brown recalls that in February of 1908 he bought the butcher shop in which he was working from C. W. Post, the town's founder.

"Mr. Post sold me the butcher shop on credit and also loaned me $200 with which to purchase beef to stock it," he said.

Mr. Brown said the butcher shop was located in the rear of the company building, and recalls that the post office was in the front of the building. Will Mann was the postmaster.

Mr. Brown said that just a short while after he assumed ownership of the butcher shop, the town's second private business firm was established. It was a men's furnishing store opened by Sam Farber.

The old-timer said he attended the first Sunday School class ever held here. It was held in a house known as the Prairie Dog Inn and was taught by Postmaster Mann's mother.

Mr. Brown, who moved to Abilene in 1922, served as a U. S. marshal for 11 years with headquarters in Abilene. Last July, he was elected president of the annual Cowboy Reunion at Stamford.

Accompanying Mr. Brown and his son on a visit to The Dispatch office were two old-time friends, Allen Cash and George "Scotty" Samson.

Black and Gold band to contest

The Post High School band will participate in the Region I UIL marching contest Tuesday, Nov. 24, at Jones Stadium in Lubbock along with 46 other area bands. More than 3,000 students will participate.

Bands participating in Class AA will be Post, Frenship, Lockney, Floydada, Morton, Olton, Abert, Slaton and Dimmitt.

Bands are judged by standards including marching, playing, body and instrument carriage, and overall perfection. Ratings are given as follows: I, superior; II, excellent; III, good; IV, fair; V, poor.

Director Bruce Evans' Black and Gold marching band received a Division I rating at the contest last year for the first time in its history. Although hindered by weather conditions, the band is working hard toward achieving that goal a second time, the director said.

Judges for the marching contest will be Frank Persol, Iowa State University; Jim Jacobson, Texas Christian University, and Pete Long, Ponca City (Okla.) High School.

Enumerators for census named

Enumerators have been named in Garza County and the northern half of Borden County for the 1964 Census of Agriculture. Crew Leader Bertie Jo Priddy of Ralls said today.

Appointed as Garza County enumerators were Noel K. White and Mrs. Evelyn Jones, with Mrs. Jeanine Hodge named as the enumerator for the northern half of Borden County.

The enumerators will be trained in a special four-day home study course designed to prepare them for the farm census, their crew leader said.

NAMED MISSIONARIES

Postings—

We hoped, through Congressman George Mahon, to line up something interesting for the Christmas Opening Parade Dec. 5 in the way of a national space administration exhibit. But the congressman reported back by letter yesterday that simply nothing in this line was available, enclosing a letter from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration explaining that while NASA has numerous exhibits for indoor showing on a three-day loan basis, none of the exhibits available is suitable for mobile or outdoor use. We were quite impressed with the NASA space center at Houston in June and thought we might get a real eye-opener for the parade from this source.

If you have a parade idea, let's hear it. Let Elwood Wright, the parade chairman, know. Yours might pan out better.

Building permits total $588,908

City building permits for 1964 total $588,908 through the first 10 1/2 months of the year, according to records at the City Hall.

The issuance of building permits has been slow since the year's biggest one, $306,153, was issued in June to the Post Housing Authority for the construction of 28 low-rent housing units here.

The year's only other sizeable building permit was issued in January for construction of the new Piggly Wiggly building.

The only permit issued thus far in November went to A. J. Stevens Co., Inc., Tuesday for renovation of the exterior of a residence at 613 West 10th St. at a cost of $10,000.

Bus firm sued for $10,000 here

Wilma Sarah Holder, a Lubbock resident, filed a $10,000 damage suit against the Greyhound Bus Lines in Garza County District court here this week.

The plaintiff alleges she was a passenger on a Greyhound bus traveling from Lubbock to Fort Worth, Jan. 31, 1964, when the bus was involved in a collision with a car about 2:30 a. m.

In her petition, she alleges that she was asleep at the time and as a result of the collision was violently thrown about the interior of the bus, suffering injuries, for which she seeks $10,000 in damages.

Burglars break into Lee's Tavern

Burglars broke into Lee's Tavern, east of Post on the Clairemont highway, Saturday night and stole nine cases of beer and change from various tavern machines.

Deputy Sheriff Bob Atkinson, who investigated the break-in, said that the cigaret machine, juke box, and marble machine were broken into, and that burglars also broke into the walk-in freezer to get the beer.

Entrance was gained through the front door.

Total loss was placed at $63.60. Phyllis McWhorter is the owner of the tavern.

Post Does open with 46-45 win over Sundown Tuesday

Roughettes. With 21 seconds to go and Post ahead, 44-32, guard Cheryl Martin was fouled, and Vivian McWhirt calmly sank two free throws to make it 46-43. Sundown hit a fielder from under the basket with three seconds left, and that was the ball game.

Antelopes, Does will host Spur on Nov. 24

The Post Antelopes will open their 1964-65 basketball season here Tuesday night, against the Spur Bulldogs. The evening's cage fare will also feature a game between Coach Sherry Woods' Post Does and the girls' team.

Lettermen are among the stars for this season's Antelopes. They are Danny Pierce, Simpson, Teddy Scott and Brown.

Star game cancelled here

Because of a delay in completing regular season schedule, Post High School's all-star football game has been cancelled, officials said today.

Post defeats Slaton, 40-0, in final game

The Post Antelopes ended their 1964 season on a "happy homecoming" note Friday night by blitzing the Slaton Tigers, 40 to 0, in a District 4AA game that gave Coach Harold Teal's gridders second place in the district for the third year in a row.

The Post win also pulled them up to within one game of the Tigers in the 31 contests between the two teams. Slaton now has won 16 of the games and Post 15. Three of the contests have ended in ties, but each time Slaton was declared the winner on penetrations.

THE ANTELOPES rolled up 525 yards—292 on the ground and 233 in the air—in breezing to their victory. They scored 14 points in the first quarter, 8 in the second and 28 in the fourth after a scoreless third period.

The nearest the Tigers came to scoring was early in the second quarter when they made their way to the Post 14 after recovering halfback Ronald Simpson's fumble.

on the Antelope 30. A 15-yard clipping penalty set them back to the 28, and three plays later Post regained possession of the ball on downs on their 31 after Donnie Windham and Larry Osman had nailed Johnny Hennington for a five-yard loss.

Raiders to host Arkansas team

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech brings to a close one of its most successful seasons with possibly the toughest competition in college football at this stage of the 1964 season—the University of Arkansas Razorbacks—in Jones Stadium at 2 p. m. Saturday.

Arkansas' Razorbacks, already in the Cotton Bowl, will be seeking a possible No. 1 national ranking, a perfect season, and an undisputed Southwest Conference championship.

All the incentive will not be that of the invaders. Texas Tech is also definitely in the running for a major bowl invitation. Furthermore, a Red Raider victory would tie the mark of Tech's last winning team, the 1955 squad that posted a 7-2-1 mark.

More than the impetus of homecoming will be needed. Tech's homecoming record hardly is formidable, since the Red Raiders have won on 19 such occasions while losing on 14, tying one.

"Oh, I've got my license, but everytime I bend a fender my husband makes me take a refresher course."

first quarter when Fullback Benny Owen bored through from the 4. Butch Cross passed to Sammy Sims for the extra points. Post had taken over on the Slaton 38 when a fourth-and-one gamble failed for the Tigers.

THE ANTELOPES boosted their lead to 14-0 with 2:54 left in the first quarter when Luis Ayala took Cross' pass on the 10 and scampered across. The touchdown came at the end of a 55-yard drive, in which the big gainers were passes from Cross to Danny Pierce and Owen.

The final play of the first half produced Post's third touchdown, with Cross passing five yards to Sims in the end zone. Simpson circled right end for the extra points to give the Antelopes a 22-0 halftime lead. Post had started the drive after taking over on downs on the Tiger 48.

In the scoreless third quarter, the Antelopes once got as far as the Slaton 17, but the Tigers recovered Owen's fumble to halt the drive, which had started when Owen intercepted a pass on the Slaton 48.

Teddy Scott intercepted a pass on the Post 10 and brought it back to the 22 to start the drive that resulted in the Antelopes' first touchdown in the second half. Running plays gained to the 37, but a personal foul penalty set the Antelopes back to their 22.

CROSS HIT PIERCE with a quick pass over the middle, and the tall end rambled to the Slaton 15, where he was pulled down from behind by Tiger end Larry Smith. On the first play, Simpson took a screen pass from Cross and went across untouched, with 9:28 remaining in the game.

Post scored again, four minutes later, when Cross passed eight yards into the end zone to Pierce. The scoring drive covered 63 yards with a 26-yard pass from Cross to Simpson eating up most of the yardage.

The final touchdown came with 3:03 left when Simpson dived through for one yard after halfback Buddy Howell had taken a short pass from Cross to the two-yard line, where he was bounced out of bounds. A personal foul penalty against the Tigers set the ball on the one for Simpson's scoring plunge.

AS THE FINAL MINUTES ticked away, Post recovered a fumble on the Slaton 31, but an offensive pass interference ruling in the end zone and a 15-yard penalty gave the Tigers the ball on their 35.

Senior linemen Charlie Brown and Billy Mitchell were shifted to the backfield on Post's final possession, with the 263-pound Brown gaining five yards on a crack at the line, and the 263-pound Mitchell picking up three on his try—wiped out, however, by a five-yard penalty against Post.

Owen led the ball carriers with 109 yards net on 22 carries, while Simpson netted 117 yards on 19 efforts.

Jr. High girls break even in Idalou tilts

Coach Billy Hahn's junior high girls' basketball teams divided a pair of games at Idalou Monday night, the 7th grade team winning, 36-18, and the 8th graders losing, 19-18.

The Post teams play Slaton here Monday, Nov. 23, in the high school gym with the 7th grade game starting at 5:30 p. m. In the 8th grade game at Idalou, the winners scored a field goal in the final minute of play and then stalled for the final 32 seconds to beat the Post team, which has held a 14-13 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Vicki Martin was Post's top scorer with 9 points, followed by Benita Noble with 7 and Karen Lee with 2. Other forwards were Brenda Lee, Sharyn Bilberry and Judy Dooley.

Eagles defeat Klondike, 28-20 in final game

The Southland Eagles flew to victory over the Klondike Cougars, 28-20, Friday night in their final game of the season. This was the final game for five of the Eagle players—Don Altman, Rod Callaway, Joe Hall, Troy Lewis and Larry Wilke. These boys have done an outstanding job, along with the rest of the team, in compiling a 4-3-2 season record.

The Eagles scored first against Klondike on a 30-yard run by Duke Altman, but failed on the extra points try. The Cougars went ahead on two touchdowns, but missed the extra points, to take a 12-6 lead. The Eagles knotted the count on another touchdown by Duke Altman, and the halftime score was 12-12.

The Eagles took the lead in the second half, 20-12, on a touchdown by Don Altman, with Dennis McGehee scoring the extra points. The Cougars pulled up even, 20-20, with a touchdown and the extra points, but Southland went back out in front on a touchdown by Capt. Don Altman and a two-point conversion by Duke Altman for the 28-20 win.

22 members of Post squad earn football letters

Twenty-two football lettermen for 1964 were named today by Coach Harold Teal following Friday night's final game against Slaton.

Of the 22 lettermen, 15 are seniors, which means a big re-building job for next year, with only seven returning lettermen in the fold.

Teal also announced that letter awards will go to five managers and to 25 reserves and junior varsity players.

Three of this year's lettermen will be receiving their fourth letters. They are Butch Cross, Teddy Scott and Danny Pierce.

Three-year lettermen are: Bill Mitchell, Benny Owen, Charlie Brown and Ronald Simpson.

Two-year lettermen include: Donnie Cornell, Jackie Braddock, Dennis Odum and John Sutter. Lettering for the first time this year are: Ricky Welch, Birch Lobban, Buddy Howell, Luis Ayala, Gary Hays, John Bilberry, Jim Kennedy, Finnis Corley, Sammy Sims, Donnie Windham and Larry Osman.

Burlington is to build $2 million research facility

GREENSBORO, N. C. — Burlington Industries Inc., will build a large new textile research center near Greensboro, Charles F. Myers Jr., president, announced today.

Myers said the modern facility, representing a total investment of approximately $2 million, will be built on a 40-acre site a few miles west of Greensboro, fronting on Interstate Highway 40 near the intersection with Jamestown-Fulford Station Road.

The increasing importance of research to textiles was cited by Mr. Myers as a prime reason for Burlington's decision to expand its research activities. "While we have concentrated on the development of better textiles for a long time," he stated, "scientific and technological advances are now being made at a more rapid rate than ever before. Through use of this new operation, we will be able to place even greater emphasis on this fast-developing and important phase of the textile industry."

Construction will be undertaken as soon as possible. Design and plans for the new center are being developed by A. G. Odell Jr. & Associates of Charlotte. The basic plan calls for a single-story structure with 72,000 square feet of floor space.
