Lorenzo deals 'Lopes 1st round surprise in Caprock tourney

The Post Antelopes' hopes for the championship trophy in the small school division of the Caprock Holiday Tournament at Lubbock fell flat Wednesday morning when the Class A Lorenzo Hornets "slipped up" on them for a 70-68 upset victory.

The Antelopes, who were the pre-tourney favorites in their division, were guilty of too many turnovers in the first half and a below-par field goal shooting percentage of only about 30 per cent, Coach Wilbert Bigott said.

With their sights set now on the consolation championship trophy, the Antelopes play again at 10 o'clock this morning (Thursday), meeting the loser of the Aspermont-Shallowater game.

Wednesday's opening round game, played at the "unusual" hour of 8:30 a. m., saw the Hornets gain revenge for an 87-79 defeat pinned on them by Post in the Plainview tournament early this month.

Lorenzo led 13-11 at the end of the first quarter, 28-27 at the half and 47-43 at the end of the third period.

The Hornets led by 10 points at one stage early in the final period, but the Antelopes rallied to cut the final margin to two points.

"We lost to a good Class A team," Coach Bigott said, pointing out that Lorenzo is the defending champion in District 4A and is one of the district leaders at this stage of the campaign.

The first round loss was doubly disappointing to Post basketball fans, who had waited seven years for an Antelope team to be invited back to the Caprock Holiday Tournament. They last competed there in 1959, losing to McAdoo in the finals after upsetting Dimmitt, which went on to finish second in the state tournament.

Hurting the Antelopes most in yesterday's loss was "our 10 or 12 turnovers of the ball in the first half," Coach Bigott said.

Ronnie Pierce was the game's high scorer with 31 points, Watson, with 21, was Lorenzo's top scorer, with Kuehler getting 20.

The scoring summary:

POST—Pierce 10 11 31; Windham 2 1 5; Duke Altman 3 2 8; Tanner 6 1 13; Heaton 4 1 9; Smith 1 0 2; Bartlett 0 0 0; Johnson 0 0 0. TOTALS 26 16 68.

LORENZO—Jones 5 0 10; McDaniel 5 0 10; Watson 8 5 21; Kuehler 8 4 20; Sawyer 0 0 0. TOTALS 26 18 70.

Three are "newcomers"

7 county officials to be administered oath Jan. 2

Three "newcomers" will be among the seven Garza County officials who will take the oath of office at 10 a. m. Monday, Jan. 2, in the district courtroom.

Being sworn in for the first time as county officials will be Pauline Coleman, county treasurer; Ted L. Aten, Precinct 2 county commissioner, and Herbert Walls, Precinct 4 county commissioner.

Also to be sworn in at the ceremony are re-elected officials J. E. Parker, county judge; Carl Cederholm, county district court clerk; Dean A. Robinson, county school superintendent, and D. C. Roberts, Precinct 1 justice of the peace.

The usual procedure when the county clerk is among the officials being sworn in is for him to be administered the oath of office by the county judge and then administer it to the other officials.

Also to be sworn in are deputies in the offices of the officials taking the oath of office.

Mrs. Coleman will replace Faye Cockrell as county treasurer, Aten will replace Chuck Gurley as Precinct 2 commissioner, and Walls will replace Mason Justice as Precinct 4 commissioner.

The public is invited to attend the swearing-in ceremony, Judge Parker said.

B. Ferguson of Lampasas, and three sisters, Mrs. Loucille Clary of Wilson, Mrs. Imogene Jordan of Hobbs, N. M., and Mrs. Gladys Broxson of Los Angeles.

Mr. Hogan had owned and operated the Gordon Gin in the Gordon community for six years. Prior to moving to the community, he had been an employe of the Lubbock Cotton Oil Co. for 17 years.

Survivors are his wife, one son, a daughter, his mother, two brothers, one sister and five grandchildren.

Bank will be open, but—

Most businesses will mark Monday holiday

Another "holiday weekend" is coming up for Post.

Just about all downtown businesses—but the bank, that is—will be closed Monday, Jan. 2, in observance of New Year's Day which falls on Sunday to start 1967.

Monday will be a Chamber of Commerce holiday for Post which means almost all businesses will be closed. Exceptions this time will be the food markets and those restaurants which are normally open Mondays. These will be open.

The bank, since it began closing on Saturdays, was not permitted by state regulations to close for either Christmas or New Year's holidays this year the Mondays after the actual holidays.

Meek rites are conducted here

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida Maud Meek, 85, who died at 1:15 p. m. Christmas Day in the Twin Cedar Rest Home, were conducted at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Hudman Funeral Home chapel.

Mrs. Meek, who was the mother of Mrs. A. C. Cash of Post, had been in the rest home here for nearly three years after moving here from Amarillo. She was born Sept. 21, 1881, in Missouri. Mrs. Meek's husband, J. I. Meek, preceded her in death 16 years ago.

Survivors other than the daughter of Post include three other daughters, Mrs. Beatrice Brown of Amarillo, Mrs. Leonard Beiden of El Cajon, Calif., and Mrs. W. W. Strain of Farwell; two sons, O. E. Meek of Kingsland, Tex., and Fred W. Meek of Amarillo; one sister, Mrs. Charlie Franks of Tyrone, Okla.; two brothers, Luther Johnson of Denver, Colo., and C. L. Johnson of Little Rock, Ark.; 14 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Clarence Stephens of Spirit, a former pastor of the First Methodist Church here, officiated at the funeral services.

Following the services, the body was taken to Fort Worth for cremation, after which the remains were taken to Amarillo for burial.

School land sale

The Garza County Commissioner's Court is hopeful of getting "a good price" for the sale of approximately 237 acres of cultivated land with two good wells when it goes on sale at 10 a. m. next Thursday, Jan. 5, on the Bailey County courthouse steps in Muleshoe.

The final of three legal advertisements for the sale of the "school land" appears on page 4 of today's Dispatch.

County Judge J. E. Parker commented yesterday that sale of the property involved, if it brings a good price, would boost Garza County's permanent school fund to around $150,000.

The 237 acres is being sold on terms of five per cent down with the balance in equal installments over 40 years at five per cent interest.

County hopeful of good price return

The judge said all principle payments will go into the permanent school fund with the interest into the available school fund.

Garza schools benefit annually from the available school fund and money earned on investment of the permanent school fund.

Parker commented that a fair sale price for the land would bring about a better return than rental of the land as in past years.

"The land would need to be improved if rentals are continued," the judge pointed out, and according to law costs of the improvements would have to be paid from the county's general fund.

Ray N. Smith has been designated by the Garza County Commissioner's Court as commissioner to handle the sale.

TO BE IN ROSE BOWL PARADE

Miss Dennis, a student at Incomate Word College, San Antonio, will be on the float with students from San Antonio College and Our Lady of the Lake College. Mary Ann and the other girls left San Antonio by plane Wednesday en route to Pasadena. The Rose Bowl parade float will commemorate the 50th anniversary of San Antonio's Festival de San Jacinto.—(Staff Photo)

Only 431 registrants for voting next year

Only 431 Garza countians, as of now, are eligible to vote in any of the upcoming 1967 elections.

County Tax Assessor - Collector T. H. Tipton pointed out to The Dispatch yesterday that this was the number who have signed up since the annual registration opened back in October.

The registration closes Jan. 31 and anyone who fails to register by that date will be ineligible to vote in 1967 elections.

There is no poll tax this year. So it doesn't cost $1.75 to get a voter's registration receipt.

But it does require a trek to the county tax assessor's office—and to date that appears to be the problem.

Application for certificates by mail must be postmarked no later than midnight Jan. 31.

The 1967 Voter Registration Certificate enables a person to vote from Feb. 1, 1967, through Feb. 29, 1968, Tipton said.

Work progresses on airport here

Work at the joint airport site here is progressing about as scheduled, despite recent slowdowns because of the holidays and cold weather, Thomas W. Gamblin, airport board chairman, said today.

The contractor, Thomason Construction Co. of Denver City, has put down most of the sub-grade and is hauling in caliche for the runways.

Construction work on the airport, which is three miles east of town on the Clearmont highway, began in October.

Those persons who will be 60 years of age or over on the day of an election, and who do not reside in a city of 10,000 or more, are not required to register to be eligible to vote.

Those persons who have not reached the age of 21, or have not fulfilled the residence requirements at the time of the regular registration period, but will do so before expiration of the voting year for which the registration is effective, must register during the regular period to be eligible to vote after the requirements are fulfilled.

Tipton said residence requirements are one year in the state and six months within the county, district and city.

Persons filing out applications for Voter Registration Certificates should write in all information that pertains to them, Tipton said, including the voting precinct number (not commissioner's precinct). If voting precinct number is not known, persons should write in the location of their voting box, he said.

An agent, a parent, child or spouse of a voter may apply for another if the one making the application is a qualified elector of the county in which the voter resides, the tax officer said.

Ethel thanks Santa for Christmas gift

A six-year-old girl, Ethel, whose letter to Santa Claus in the Dec. 15 issue of The Post Dispatch touched many hearts, this week sent Santa a "thank you" letter in care of The Dispatch. Ethel wrote as follows:

Dear Santa:

I want to thank you from the depths of my little heart for the beautiful doll, candy, coloring book and crayolas you had delivered in the new red car and by the little girl.

Though my brother Tom couldn't come home for Christmas, I talked to him by phone just before Christmas. He had duty all day Christmas.

Christmas night you left me a toy piano, nuts, candy and fruit. So again, Santa, you're the most wonderful person to know all us little kids' names. May you have a happy New Year.

Ethel

Ethel's first letter to Santa, which The Dispatch editor ran in his "Thursday to Thursday" column, read as follows:

Dear Santa:

Daddy says Santa will miss us this year, so I won't ask for nothing, though I'm six years old. All I really want is for my brother Tom to come home from the Army for my Christmas gift, and us all to be well. I won't even ask for a doll or candy nor nothing.

1967 may well be our turning point

Post and Garza County can look forward to the future — and 1967 in particular — with more confidence than most small towns and rural areas.

The confidence comes from a new unity of purpose which was quite evident here this year with the organization of an $80,000 industrial foundation for the promotion of new industry, construction of a city-county joint airport, and the start of the Post Public Library, a real "do-it-yourself" effort on the part of our public spirited women.

Each one of these three projects took a vast amount of planning and work and in the case of the industrial foundation the extra essential ingredient was backing it up with $80,000 in cash and pledges.

The three projects are good indicators that this community and area is facing up to its economic challenge "grow or die." This is the challenge faced by all smaller communities as the population trend to the cities continue. The experts tell us it will be another decade or more before the population pendulum will swing the other way—back to the small cities from the too-crowded cities.

In the meantime, the towns which want to survive must find a new unity of purpose among their leaders, a determination to improve living and economic conditions, and a drive and spirit which will carry them forward.

Post, in 1966, found that purpose, the start of that unity, faced up to the challenge of survival, and began to move forward.

This year well may be the turning point for this community.

The merchants, too, in their promotional efforts made new strides in working together with even greater cooperation already foreseen for 1967.

Another example of the new community spirit.

Tourism seen as real opportunity

The Post Chamber of Commerce isn't expected to pass up the opportunity of having a sizeable delegation on hand at Colorado City on Jan. 6 for the first annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce Tourist Development Conference.

Brainstorming sessions of West Texas leadership held last summer left little doubt that tourism has the greatest potential for economic growth in West Texas.

The WTCC conference at Colorado City is being held in an effort to help West Texas businessmen put more dollars in their cash registers through increasing tourism and tourist attractions in their own communities.

The theme of the conference and throughout the year will be "How to Assist the Small Town in Developing Tourism"—though the large towns will not be neglected.

At this first conference, outstanding authorities in their fields will tell just HOW and WHY was the reorganization of the United Fund organization with "new blood" and "new ideas" taking hold and putting the big fund drive over the top in jig time.

Post got a new surge of oil drilling all over town and around the outskirts which gave our economic picture a slightly brighter hue. The White River dam caught enough August water to take the "if" out of the water supply and provide enough more to enable the district to offer surplus water for sale—which eventually can lead to reduction and finally the ending of the water district taxes as the water project becomes truly self supporting.

It wasn't a good cotton year, but even here there is hope for something better. The new federal cotton program which has three more years to run is aimed at reducing the huge cotton surplus. Garza cotton farmers at year's end were "talking" about giving long staple cotton a try and keeping an eye out for a suitable new cash crop.

In other words, the area's cotton problem is being faced up to. This is the climate for solution-finding. The down-drift of our farm economy should be now in the process of "bottoming out." The future here is at present obscure, but with the determination of farmers to face the problem and find something better lies real hope.

Certainly, 1965 was a good year for the optimist. It was a year which didn't solve anything really. But it was a year in which a firm, determined start for something better has been made here on several fronts.

In 1967, increased cooperation—and even firm-er ties of working together—are in order along with determination and diligence to keep on the move forward.

If we come to grips with our problems in 1966, we can look forward at least to some partial solutions in brand new 1967 which is coming right up.—JC they developed varied man-made and natural tourist attractions in their own town—successfully. The creation, development, financing, promotion and maintenance of tourist attractions will be fully explored by people who have actually done it. The conference will not be a theory session, but a down-to-earth examination of problems and how they were solved.

In tourism potentialities, Post has as much, or more, going for it as any town of similar size in West Texas. That fact is well known to local Chamber of Commerce officials and no doubt will influence their decision to send a representative delegation to the Colorado City conference—just as they did a few months ago to the industrial seminar held in Austin.

Towns and cities, large and small, throughout Texas are jumping at opportunities to brighten their economic outlooks. The opportunity to develop tourism attractions is one of the most promising.—CD

Why take a chance with measles?

It is neither wise nor necessary to take a chance with measles, says the American Medical Association in a reminder that is especially timely in Post and other West Texas communities where there have been and still are outbreaks of red measles.

All that's needed is immunization against this disease that once was taken for granted as one of the hazards of growing up.

A veteran medical expert on communicable diseases said this fall that measles could be eradicated in the United States in a relatively short time if all young children were immunized.

Already more than 12 million American children have been immunized against measles since a vaccine was licensed in 1963, and the disease has dropped to a mere fraction of its once high incidence.

The AMA says doctors have long known that measles is sometimes a much more serious disease than many parents realized. True, most children recover from measles in a short time and with no ill effects. However, in recent years deaths attributed to measles have averaged more than 400 per year, and other non-fatal effects have caused serious health problems for many more children.

The American Academy of Pediatrics, the professional society of the physicians who specialize in health problems of children, recommends that the measles vaccine be given at the age of about 12 months. If your infant is routinely under the care of a physician, the chances are he will give the measles vaccine at the proper time.

But if a child is past the age of 12 months and hasn't yet been immunized against measles, don't delay. Call a physician and ask his advice about measles shots. There are several different types of measles vaccine available. The doctor will select the vaccine that will be best for the child.—CD

THE FIRST day of winter, last week, lived up to its advance billing by bringing in the coldest weather we'd had since last winter. It made a nice Christmas gift for you folks who like cold weather, but for the rest of us—brrr!

One of my and Zula's nicest gifts this year is the Cotton Bowl trip I won through outlocking the rest of the contestants in the Olton Enterprise's annual football contest. Someone said to me the other day, "That is an easy way to get to the Cotton Bowl, isn't it?" If he'd seen me "sweating out" some of those Saturday afternoon and Saturday night games during the 12 weeks the contest was in progress, he'd have thought otherwise.

ONE OF THE nicest things about the Cotton Bowl trip is that we'll get to be with our daughter on her birthday for the first time in nearly 15 years. Charline missed being a New Year's baby by only a few hours, but her Dec. 31 arrival helped us wind up the old year in a big way. Since Charline is getting up to the age when women don't like being reminded how old they are, I won't mention the year.

In last Thursday's column, I ran a "Recipe for a Merry Christmas". Since I'm cooking on that burner, I'll follow it up with this—

RECIPE FOR A HAPPY NEW YEAR

Take twelve fine, full-grown months; see that these are thoroughly free from all old memories and bitterness, rancor, hate and jealousy; cleanse them completely from every clinging spite; pick off all sneaks of pettiness and littleness; in short, see that these months are freed from all the past—have them as fresh and clean as when they first came from the great storehouse of Time.

Cut these months into thirty or thirty-one equal parts. Do not attempt to make up the whole batch at one time (so many persons spoil the entire lot in this way), but prepare one day at a time as follows:

Into each day put equal parts of faith, patience, courage, work (some people omit this ingredient and so spoil the flavor of the rest), hope, fidelity, kindness, rest (leaving this out is like leaving the oil out of the salad—don't do it), prayer, meditation, and one well-selected resolution. Put in about a teaspoonful of good spirits, a dash of fun, a pinch of folly, a sprinkling of play, and a heaping cupful of good humor.

Pour love into the whole and mix with a vim. Cook thoroughly in a fervent heat; garnish with a few smiles and a sprig of joy; then serve with quietness, unselfishness, and cheerfulness.

THE MAN UP the street says if it weren't for the optimist, the pessimist would never know how happy he isn't.

This was contributed by a local football fan before the gridiron season ended, but I'm just now getting around to it.

RULES OF THE GAME

The Chaplain's advice to my son on graduation day:

"I'm giving you the ball, son, and naming you the quarterback for your team in the game of life. I'm your coach, so I'll give it to you straight.

"There is only one schedule to play. It lasts all your life, but consists of only one game. It is long, with no time-outs and no substitutions. You play the whole game all your life.

"You'll have a great backfield. You are calling the signals, but the other three fellows in the backfield with you have great reputations. They are named Faith, Hope, and Charity.

"You'll be behind a truly powerful line. End to end, it consists of Honesty, Loyalty, Devotion to Duty, Self Respect, Sturdy Cleanliness and Good Behavior.

"The Goal Posts are the Gates of Heaven.

"God is the referee and sole official. He makes all the rules, and there is no appeal from them. There are ten rules. You know them as the Ten Commandments. There is also an important ground rule. It is 'As ye would that men should do unto ye, do ye also to them likewise.'"

Baptists nearing record in giving

DALLAS — Texas Baptists are nearing a record in giving—an average of $1 million per month during 1966—through their Cooperative Program, a unified budget plan.

T. A. Patterson of Dallas, executive secretary of the 1.7 million-member Baptist General Convention of Texas, disclosed Monday that undesignated funds from the state convention's 4,000 churches and some 400 missions are mounting toward an unprecedented $12 million for the year, exceeding the budget set in 1965.

Receipts through the treasurer's office of the state convention during November—its single month in history—the total for 11 months in 1966 is reported. Texas Baptists have given another $4 million in the January to November period to special or "designated" offerings.

1967 construction program for more than $20,000,000

Construction program call- investment of more than $20,000,000 was announced today by Watson, president and manager of Southwestern Public Service Company. The investment is being made in order that the company can continue to provide economical service for its customers at the same time that it maintains a high level of service. The program is designed to meet the need for power against today's electric power is $1.07—or 7 percent more than its 1952 value. On the other hand, the dollar you pay for other goods and services is only 77 cents today, compare it with a 1952 dollar.

There are two reasons for the value of the electric dollar. Our customers use more service, and they pay the less they pay for this increased consumption, in turn, has made it necessary for us to have a continuing program of construction. The new equipment being modern, larger and more efficient helps us keep our service economical at the same time that we improve its dependability," Watson said.

SWPS has not had a general rate increase for electric service in more than 15 years. Since that time, a rate simplification program, designed to reduce the number of rate schedules in the commercial and industrial fields, resulted, generally in lower costs for users.

The major item in the 1967 program is continued construction on a 210,000 kilowatt generating unit at the company's Nichols Station, northeast of Amarillo. When the new unit goes into service in mid-1968, it will double the generating capability of the station.

"We design, engineer and supervise the construction of all of our generating stations. This 'do-it-yourself' approach assures our customers of the best possible plant at the lowest practical cost. Right now, for example, our costs per installed kilowatt of generating capacity run substantially below the nation-wide average for units of comparable size," Watson said.

BOILER DRUM BEING INSTALLED

WATSON ALSO pointed out that the major additions made to the company's generating facilities in recent years are using less fuel and water for each unit of electricity produced, enabling the company to partially offset substantially increased costs for gas fuel and to conserve water resources.

Automation is also playing a major role in holding the price line. Some 70 per cent of the company's total generating capability is now controlled by a computerized automatic dispatching system. The ADS constantly computes the cost of generating and transmitting the power so that the most economical means are utilized under all load conditions.

Additional power for the South Plains section of the company's service area will be provided by a 230,000 volt transmission line which will be built from Plant X, in Lamb County, to Tucco Station, in Hale County.

The new line will result in a four-fold increase in the amount of power available in the South Plains area. It will be the second 230,000 volt transmission link to the region, complementing a circuit of this size which now delivers power into the area at a point south of Lubbock.

"OUR INTERCONNECTED generation and transmission system provides every corner of our 45,000 square mile service area with adequate power resources for future growth. Every community that we serve, from the smallest to the largest, can be assured that adequate, economical power is one of the assets it can include in an industrial development effort. Working in cooperation with all of the cities that we serve, we have embarked upon a new area development program which we hope will add 10,000 industrial jobs to the region in the next ten years," Watson said.

Southwestern Public Service Company anticipates a 1967 gross peak load of 1,368,000 kilowatts and will have generating capability of 1,609,000 kilowatts to meet this demand.

"Our investment in this area has doubled in the last ten years, going, in round numbers, from 200-million to 400-million dollars. There

TEC refers 5,575 Texas youths to Job Corps training centers

The Texas Employment Commission referred 5,575 Texas male youth to Job Corps for assignment to training centers in fiscal 1966, the TEC annual report to Governor Connally revealed this week.

TEC has acted as recruiting, screening and referral agent for the Job Corps since the program began, with the first request for eligible referrals reaching TEC in November of 1965. Of the 5,575 youths referred between that date and Aug. 30, 1966, approximately 85 per cent actually reported to a training center. The remainder had found work, entered military service, declined for family reasons, or had other reasons did not enter the program when notice of selection arrived.

are only two reasons for this investment. First to provide the best and most economical service for our customers today; and then to provide the base on which we will meet the needs of the future. The continued opportunities for growth in this region are apparent, but if they are to be realized they will call for the full cooperation of all of its citizens. Your growth makes ours possible, and we pledge our every effort for continued progress for this region," Watson concluded.

Through Nov. 30, TEC offices had referred 9,249 male Texas youth 16 through 21 to the Job Corps, with an estimated 8,000 of these actually reporting to a training center. This ranks Texas second only to California in the number of male youth participating in the Job Corps training program.

Female youth are recruited and referred to training centers by an organization of volunteer women known as Women in Community Service. TEC plays no part in the Job Corps program for girls.

Christmas Seals total $25,284
 As Christmas Day, West Texasians had contributed $25,284.13 through Christmas Seals to carry on the work of education, case-finding and research conducted by the 23-county West Texas Tuberculosis Association, of which Garza County is a member.
 Pete Hudgins Jr., Christmas Seal chairman, expressed the organization's gratitude, pointing out that delayed contributions are expected to bring the total up after Christmas.
 This is the first year the Christmas Seal campaign has been conducted on an area basis in West Texas. The funds raised determine the extent of the WTTA program, a part of the Texas Plan for the Eradication of Tuberculosis.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL NEWS
 Post students and faculty members will return to school tomorrow, Jan. 2, following Christmas and New Year's days. The schools were closed for the holidays at 3 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 29.

COLLEGE STUDENT
 Jimmy Wells, a student at Western University in Oklahoma, is spending the school day in Post visiting with his mother, Mrs. Louise Herring, and his sister at Post Pharmacy.

In addition to an educational program, the WTTA mobile camps this year has, from 4,700 findings, disclosed 202 suspected cases of tuberculosis, 160 cardiac chest irregularities, and 540 other chest abnormalities, including phymema and tumors.

PRICE INCREASE
 Beginning Feb. 1, 1967, the price of all advertising book matches will be increased. This is the first price increase for matches in 20 years, according to Republic Match Co. of Arlington, Texas. If you plan to give book matches in 1967, regardless of the amount you now have on hand, be sure to ORDER NOW and take advantage of the lower cost.

At present all the matches I sell for various companies are priced the same, depending on style, amount, etc. There is one exception, however. The customer ALWAYS pays the freight bill. And Republic Match Co. in Arlington sells matches to Post cheaper (about $2.25 compared to about $5.25 from Chicago) because of the distance.

From all indications, this is an industry-wide increase, so regardless of who you buy your matches from, now is the time to buy them. Thank you.

Engagement of Deanna Adams and Bobby Gibson announced

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Adams are announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Deanna, to Bobby Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gibson of Denver City.

Wedding vows will be read Jan. 28 in the Calvary Baptist Church.

Miss Adams will graduate from Post High School in January. The prospective bridegroom is a 1965 PHS graduate and is stationed at Kingsville, where he is serving in the Navy.

Former area couple observes Golden Wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Redman of 550 Herbert St., El Cajon, Calif., celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, Dec. 18, at their home with 75 relatives and friends attending the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Redman are former residents of the Close City community. Mr. Redman came to Garza County in 1915 from Grayson County with his parents and three brothers where they resided in the Pleasant Valley community. On Dec. 20, 1916, Mr. Redman and Miss Ola Floyd, daughter of the late Lula Floyd, were married in Lubbock by a Methodist minister in the parsonage. Miss Floyd came to the Close City community in 1914 with her mother and family.

After their marriage they farmed for a few years, then moved to Pampa where Mr. Redman entered the painting contractor's business. He retired in 1960 and he and his wife moved to El Cajon in the San Diego area. Since that time they have travelled extensively in the states and Mexico.

Their son, Ray, of Lompoc and a daughter, Faye, of San Diego were present for the celebration. Another daughter, Mrs. Lilly Mae Scott of Pampa was unable to attend.

Christmas holiday guests in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. George L. Miller were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Baskins, and daughter, Cristelle, all of Los Angeles, Calif. The Baskins left early in the week to visit his relatives in Kansas. The Millers remained here for a longer visit.

BROWNFIELD VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jenkins and family of Brownfield spent the Christmas weekend in Post visiting friends and relatives.

CHRISTMAS IN FORT WORTH

Mr. and Mrs. Max Mitchell spent the Christmas weekend in Fort Worth with their niece and family.

It's My Turn

— By MRS. C.

I always feel like Christmas ends the year and we have a "dead" week before New Year's Eve.

We were so pleased with the turnout at the Nativity Scene this year. You all certainly made a lot of teen-agers happy. One thing about it, our "cast" can always be assured of playing to a "standing-room-only" audience.

As always we have many to thank for helping us with the big "show." David Newby spent most of Saturday at the C house getting the lights and music ready. He was most ably assisted by his son, Steve. I'm not sure Steve will ever get to be in the "scene" as he handles all the lighting inside while the "scene" is taking place.

The Giles Dalbys' burro, Cisco, made his third appearance and we almost feel like he belongs to us. Even he and Miss Sam Bisset have become good friends. Cisco got lonely for us while we were at church Christmas morning. Anyway, that's what we figured when he met us at the corner of Osgood and 10th Street on our way home. Somehow or other he had broken loose and was meandering down the sidewalk as we returned home. We are doubly glad that we don't have a "long-winded" preacher or we might have had a lot of explaining to do to the Dalbys.

Glenn shared the limelight with two sheep and two ponies belonging to Ben Sanchez which the kids picked up in a trailer belonging to the Jackson brothers. Again this year we augmented our cast with those belonging to the Methodist church.

We're always delighted when one of our "older" stars calls and asks if we can be in "it." Larry Osman who used to live here and is now going to Texas Tech, called us Saturday afternoon to inquire if he could come join us that evening. We assured him he would be welcome and he assured us he'd be back next year if Uncle Sam doesn't interfere.

So many people have asked us who portrayed what that I thought I'd run the cast. Marcia Newby and Duke Altman were Mary and Joseph. The three kings were J. O. Smith, Donnie Windham and Bo Hutchins. Shepherds were Paul Walker, Joe Hudman, Larry Osman and Don Lamprecht of Lubbock, a house guest of Dee Ann Walker, Our angels were Susan Ramsey and LaGayluah Young. Townspeople (and this number varies through the years depending on how many wish to participate) were Linda Altman, Edith Johnson, Mary Ann Stone, Meredith Newby, Dee Ann Walker and Susan Cornish. Meredith, Dee Ann and Susan were putting on their sixth performance. If Susan looked like she knew her part better than the other townspeople it's because she has been a townspeople for six years. Dee Ann has played the part of Mary, a shepherd and a townspeople, while Meredith has ALWAYS been a shepherd until this year. Linda and Edith were new recruits.

Mr. C and I were amazed at the number of out-of-town people who expressed amazement that we could get that many teen-agers together on Christmas Eve to do such a nice thing. Maybe we here in Post sell our teen-agers a bit short because they seem so pleased to be in the Nativity Scene and look forward to it so eagerly.

They are so nice to thank Mr. C and I for letting them be in it. Little do they know how much we thank them for helping us keep up the nicest Christmas tradition we have.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Man of the Years

- For his faithfulness in exercising the most precious freedom of all . . .
- For his resolute courage in the face of dangers real and imagined . . .
- For his honest appraisal of his human strength, and his humble trust in God . . .
- For his deep insight into the needs of mankind, evident in his support of unselfish causes . . .
- For his friendliness as a neighbor, his loyalty as an employee, his integrity as a community leader . . .
- For his family's response to his own Christian example, and their participation with him in the life of the Church . . .
- For his readiness to share with you and me the faith that lives in his heart . . .

Grand jury probes juvenile misdeeds

DENVER CITY — The Yoakum County grand jury is investigating the juvenile drinking and crime problem in Denver City. Five members of the grand jury appeared before the city council recently "in an unofficial capacity" to urge action to curtail alleged beer drinking and teen-age traffic and noise violations. The grand jury members told the city council they were not trying to place blame upon all teen-agers. "I think we can boil it down to 10 who are causing 95 per cent of the trouble," said one of the grand jurors. The delegation of grand jury members told the council that more cooperation is needed between the sheriff's department and the city police in the matter.

Postings—

day afternoon for their two championship games in a unique TV doubleheader.

All told, there will be something like 20 plus delightful hours of football watching in store on TV over the three-day span.

There will be the Gator Bowl (Syracuse vs. Tennessee), Cotton Bowl (SMU vs. Georgia) and the East-West All-Star Shrine game in that order for seven hours or more of football Saturday afternoon and early evening.

The American pro league playoff between Kansas City and Buffalo opens the Sunday presentation, to be followed by the Green Bay Packers vs. the Dallas Cowboys for the National pro league crown from Dallas.

Monday's lineup opens with the Sugar Bowl (Nebraska vs. Alabama), followed by the Rose Bowl (USC vs. Purdue), and then Monday night under the lights by the Orange Bowl (Georgia Tech vs. Florida).

Our appeal to the women includes these important points—keep the youngsters in some other part of the house, and occupied; serve meals only during the halftimes; and if possible keep occupied in some other part of the house yourself. Of course, if you too happen to be a video football fan, then make it a real party. Don't try to keep hubby out late New Year's Eve for any old-fashioned party. Let the guy get his sleep so he will be wide awake for the pro play-offs Sunday.

Being an old TV football watcher, we gave Mrs. C one of those 700-piece jigsaw puzzles on a Christmas present. We figured that would keep her quiet and busy the entire New Year's eve weekend.

But we admit we're worried. We underestimated Mrs. C's zeal at "jigsaw puzzling." She's already about half finished with it—and literally zooming along.

Thrifty shopping urged

Grocery bills keep going up in Texas

Grocery bills of Garza counties and other Texans are increasing. And there isn't much anybody can do about it except shop more thriftily.

That is Gov. John Connally's conclusion after studying a special committee's report on food prices.

While the cost of market-basket items is going up faster in Texas than for the nation as a whole, food still is a bargain, the committee advised.

Connally requested the study by representatives of the University of Texas, A&M University and Texas Technological College.

These conclusions highlighted the report.

—Consumer food costs in Texas during the last two years jumped 10.5 per cent, compared with 8.7 per cent for the nation. Retailers' market-basket costs rose 6.8 per cent in Texas, compared with the U. S. average of 6.4 per cent.

—Today the average Texas family of four spends $1,134 a year for groceries. This is $108 more than two years ago. Nationwide food-basket cost rose $89, for a total expenditure of $1,116 a year.

—An overall price increase of 12.5 per cent for Texas farm products the past year (September to September) contributed to 71 per cent of the hike in retail food prices.

—Net profit levels of food retailers actually declined fractionally from 1.91 per cent of gross sales in 1964 to 1.83 per cent this year. Increased labor and equipment costs were cited as major contributing factors.

—Farm prices, which lagged for 17 years, began to move forward the last two years, and consumer demand exceeded farm supplies. —National growth and economic development, together with inflationary price rises in all items, were held basically responsible for the long-term upward trend in food prices.

Connally found no special legislative or executive action warranted. He pointed out that "a lot of food costs depend on the individual tastes of people and wise shopping on the part of the housewife."

Head coach, five Antelopes named to All-South Plains

With one of the best Post School football seasons in his 1966 Post Antelopes land, the 1966 Post Antelopes land players on the All-South Plains football team and won the Coach-of-the-Year award for their head man, Coach Gregg.

All-South Plains team, announced last Friday, was selected by Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

The first team were end Donnie Windham, guard Jackie Huff, guard Paul Walker, guard Clyde Cash and quarterback Dick Kennedy were named to the second team.

Hart, A-J area sports editor, of Windham in announcing the selections: "Windham is perhaps the best AA player in the state. He was one of two players to make the all-time team both ways. He caught for 200 yards and three touchdowns, but his main asset was blocking and tackling. He averaged 10-12 tackles a game, recovered four fumbles and intercepted five passes. On top of this, he's an A-student."

Of Walker, Hart wrote: "Walker was the second leading scorer in the area and averaged 100 yards per game on the ground. His extra point kicking ability won the Antelopes the bi-district championship."

Huff was a standout on both offense and defense for the Antelopes in every game, and in the Floydada game realized a line-man's dream when he ran a blocked punt for a touchdown.

Cash was one of the Antelopes' most dependable players on both offense and defense, playing at a guard position on offense and at a cornerback spot on defense.

Kennedy, who started the last half of the season at quarterback, played at the split end position in the team's first five games and wound up as one of the team's top scorers, although slowed by a leg injury late in the season.

Gregg, in his second season as the Antelopes' head coach, received the Coach-of-the-Year honor over Bill Curry of Floydada and Fullback Paul Walker was a second team selection on the All-South Plains Dream Team.

Windham was named to an end position on the offense team in the selections announced Sunday. He was one of the only three Class AA players making the team, the other two being tackle Bob Bruegel of Dimmitt and guard Willie Devorce of Memphis.

Following passage of the bond issue, the city purchased 320 acres of land two miles north of town for an airport site and for possible industrial development.

Huge weekend in making at Dallas

How to define a "happening"? That's easy. It's the Broilingnagian weekend in store for State Fair Park in Dallas when 1966 becomes 1967.

Opening the weekend with a fan-faronade will be the colorful Cotton Bowl Festival Parade which will step off at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 31, to make its mile-long way through State Fair Park.

Admission and parking are free to the parade, which will have as its Grand Marshal Sergeant Major of the Army William O. Woodrige, the nation's highest ranking non-commissioned officer. There will be some 70 units, including 25 crack marching bands, two dozen gaudy floats and many entertaining novelty units.

The annual Cotton Bowl Classic will kick off at 1:30 p.m. Saturday pitting the Southwest Conference winner, Southern Methodist University, against the University of Georgia.

Then on New Year's Day comes the big game which will decide the championship of the National Football League. The Green Bay Packers, Western Division winner, will meet the Dallas Cowboys, top team in the Eastern Division. Kick-off time for this game will be 3:05 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 1.

Both the SMU Mustangs and the Dallas Cowboys play all their home games in the 75,479-seat Cotton Bowl.

Nearly a quarter of a million people are expected to pass through State Fair Park during the two-day action, the biggest non-fairtime weekend in the park's history.

Visitors help make Christmas happier

By MRS. O. H. HOOVER

Christmas is over! What an enjoyable time it has been—big dinners, family get-togethers and general rejoicing. I hope we didn't forget why we celebrate Christmas or that we didn't forget our boys who are fighting for us. I was hoping so hard that we might have peace by this time—peace on earth and goodwill towards all men.

Part of the Hoover kids were home for Christmas with their mother: Nina Belle Chapman of Plainview, Herbert C. Daurene and Doyie Hoover of Littlefield, Jerry, Margie and Gary of Lubbock. Huston and Lura went to their daughter's family in Rosamond, Calif. Durane Hoover had to work and Rodney, No. 1 son of Herbert and Daurene, was in San Diego taking training in the Naval Reserve. Jack had sent his mother a tape recorder with one roll full of talk from his family in the Philippine Islands and we had a lot of fun filling a tape to send back to him. I hope he enjoys it as much as we did. We had a lovely day together Sunday and Nina Belle stayed over until Monday afternoon.

The Gus Porterfields had a big dinner and their tree Christmas Eve. Attending were the Dr. D. G. Porterfield family of Abilene, Jim Bob and Janette and children, the T. A. Stone family, and the grandmother, Mrs. Georgie Cook of Tahoka. What a lovely time Christmas is!

Mrs. Carrie Wall and children had their Christmas with Billie Joe and family at New Home. Maurice didn't get to come as the roads down around Dallas were slick. The Carl Greers all gathered in the home of Ruby and Morris McClendon. Every one of the bunch was there and they had a turkey dinner and the tree Saturday night. Mr. Greer seemed to enjoy the tree very much. However, he had a choking spell after they got home and was bad until Monday. He seems improved some now for which we are very thankful. Sure hope he continues to improve.

THE GERNERS sure have had the visitors over the Christmas weekend. Jerry is home as I told you last week. Laura and Louise were home. Others included Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Haley of Kingsville, (he is an Air Force man stationed at Houston) Cindy Haley and nephew, Rickey, of New Home and his girl friend from Tahoka, Raymond and Marie Gerner and son, Wade, of San Angelo and Wade's girl friend, Donna Roe, of Lubbock. Jerry Turner spent the weekend with Jerry and his friend, Dennis Germaine. Addie and Terrell Brown and Larry and Marie Anderson of Roswell, N. M., and Neal Francis, who is stationed in Houston with the Air Force and J. M. Haley were also guests. Grandmother Haley is staying with the Gerners at this time.

The McCleskey and Allen clan celebrated Christmas in the home of Carlos McCleskey with 16 present. Santa came and brought loads of beautiful gifts. After the festivities ended, the W. G. McCleskeys, visited Uncle Mac and Aunt Nora Ritchey, and the W. L. Gribbles.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murray spent Christmas Day with their son, Julian and family in Odessa and also visited Tom's sister, Pansy.

The J. F. Moore bunch all gathered in their home. All the children and grandchildren and Mrs. Moore's brother, Otis and wife, Opal Bosworth of Harrison, Ark., were there to celebrate Sunday and Monday.

Christmas weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Huffaker were their daughter and family, the Jay Johnstons, of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Mrs. Huffaker's mother, Mrs. Hicks, who is still here with them.

Delbert McCleskey, who goes to school at Bethany, Okla., is spending the holidays at home.

Mr. and Mrs. "Preacher" Roberts of Tahoka visited the Kelly Laws Monday and played "42" for awhile.

The Kenneth Huffakers really celebrated with a travelling Christmas party. They were Christmas Eve dinner guests at the H. E. Huffakers and had their tree there. From there they went to Sonja's grandparents in Slaton and on to her parents, the Virgil Smiths. Two of Sonja's brothers were also there. I'll bet they were full and tired.

A bunch of young men left Monday for Rock Springs to deer hunt. They were Kenneth Huffaker, Alton J. B. and Steve Greer. Jim Bob Porterfield and three other "good luck" boys.

Little Don Porterfield is on the sick list with a bad earache. Hope you feel better soon, Don.

The J. A. Pronats had all their children home for Christmas except Janiece who lives in Colorado. Those present were the Mutt McClellan of Abilene, the Tom Markhams of Anton, Morris, Dorsey and Traci Huff of Woodland, Calif., and the Charles Pronats. They all plan on spending the 27th together again.

Mrs. Inez McGrew was an overnight guest of her sister, Lucile Walker, last Monday night.

Cleety and Lucile Walker took Mrs. Lucian Walker to Plainview to see a specialist Monday. He is making some tests. We wish for her better days soon.

The Morris Huffs visited Mrs. Hoover Saturday morning. It was so good to see old neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Melton of Crane spent last Friday with her mother, Mrs. Spears, in Tahoka.

The Inklebarger bunch enjoyed their Christmas Saturday night in the home of the Doyle Terrys and their Christmas dinner in the Jim McGrew home in Lamesa.

The Kenneth Turner family of Tahoka spent Christmas Eve with the L. S. Turners and had a turkey dinner and the tree. Of course, Santa brought lots of nice gifts.

Mrs. Lucy Cunningham went to Midland to spend the holidays with her daughters, Sylvia, Mr. Reed and Sylvia drove us for her.

Billie Inklebarger seems to be much better. We hear that Jim Patterson is back in the hospital. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Nazmi and Lewis Ward and son, Lawson of Ruskin spent Christmas with the G. C. Watsons and their mother, Mrs. Spears.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson visited their son, Herbert and Laura Watson in Abilene one day recently. They are doing fine.

Mrs. Spears, who is in the nursing home in Tahoka, surely enjoyed all the many lovely cards she received from her Grassland fri-

Count your blessings, folks, for 1966 and have a good year in 1967 is my wish for you.

CHRISTMAS GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Wheatley and son of Irving and Mrs. and Mrs. James Williams and children of Ballinger spent the Christmas holiday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Powell Shytles. Other guests included Mrs. Shytles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. English, of Corpus Christi.

Plenty of excuses for celebrating on Jan. 1

The birth of a New Year may seem—to many people—precious little reason for celebrating. As you tot up your Christmas bills, worry about your mounting fuel expenses, and ponder the world situation, you may reflect that if 1967 is going to be like 1966, who needs it?

But never fear. There are plenty of other excuses for celebrating on Jan. 1.

Birthdays are always cause for a party. J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, was born Jan. 1, 1895. Instead of shouting "Happy New Year," you can shout "Happy birthday, J. Edgar!"

Other famous people have New Year's Day for their birthdays, according to researchers for World Book Encyclopedia. Lorenzo de' Medici, patron of the arts and ruler of Florence, was born Jan. 1, 1449. Revolutionary patriot Paul Revere called Jan. 1, 1735, his birthday, and Revolutionary hero "Mad Anthony" Wayne was born on the same date 10 years later.

And though it may be unchivalrous to mention a lady's age, flag-maker Betsy Ross came into the world Jan. 1, 1752.

There are plenty of other reasons for celebration. Haiti proclaimed its independence from France Jan. 1, 1804. Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation Jan. 1, 1863. The Commonwealth of Australia was proclaimed Jan. 1, 1901. And the United States parcel post service began Jan. 1, 1913.

But don't let your party last

HOLIDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Billy O'Neal family of Lubbock and Mr. Mrs. Bobby O'Neal and family of Corpus Christi spent the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ansel O'Neal. Mrs. O'Neal's father, Lee Rogers, of Lubbock, was also a guest.

long; not more than a week or so. It was on Jan. 16, 1933, that the 18th amendment to the Constitution was ratified.

That's the amendment that prohibited the sale of alcoholic beverages.

Q. I draw $66 a month from Social Security, but $3 is deducted for Medicare. Do I report the full amount when I turn in my income to the VA?

A. Yes. You report the full amount before any deductions.

Q. If a veteran's child marries is he or she still eligible for compensation from the VA?

A. No.

Q. What procedures are necessary to have other than honorable discharge reviewed in accordance with the new laws signed by President Johnson?

A. An exemplary rehabilitation certificate may be issued when certain requirements are met, such as evidence that over a period of not less than three years the veteran has rehabilitated himself. This evidence includes notarized statements from employers, law enforcement officers, and not less than five persons who have known the veteran for this period to the effect that he is of good character and has shown exemplary conduct. Applications and instructions will soon be available at U. S. Employment Service offices, and will be handled by the Department of Labor, not the Veterans Administration.

Worldwide direct dialing among changes in store for phone users

Sometime in the early 1970's, an American will be able to telephone almost anywhere in the world without the help of an operator.

Groundwork for worldwide direct dialing has already been laid, the National Geographic Society says. Each country has been assigned a number under a global plan approved by the International Telecommunications Union in Geneva.

Countries are grouped into large geographical zones: North America is 1; Africa, 2; Europe, 3-4; South America, 5; South Pacific, 6; USSR, 7; North Pacific, 8; Asia, 9.

The first digit in a country's code number is the number of the zone. Argentina, for example, has the number 54; Venezuela, 58.

Americans may be able to dial Europe as early as 1968. For France, they will dial 33; for the United Kingdom, 44.

Direct dialing all over the world is only one of many changes in store for telephone users. Dialing itself will become something of a misnomer. The familiar dial will be replaced everywhere by the numbered buttons of the new touch-tone telephone.

Using her push-button telephone, a housewife will be able to order groceries merely by calling a supermarket and placing her order by pressing the code numbers for various staples. Her groceries will be ready for pick-up; the retailer's computer will record the order and bill her at the end of the month.

Future telephones will also offer the "automatic transfer." A person leaving home can dial a double code number and the telephone number where he can be reached. Thereafter all calls will be automatically switched to that number.

A person getting a busy signal will not have to call the number again and again until the line is free. Instead, when the other party has hung up, the switchboard will automatically put the call through and ring both phones.

Telephone officials expect the worldwide use of the telephone, with the stimulus of such advances, to grow from about 180 million subscribers today to about 600 million by the year 2000.

Mark Twain's Story OF THE READING SPIDER

During Mark Twain's days as a newspaperman, he was editor of a small Missouri newspaper. One day he got a letter from a subscriber, stating that he had found a spider in his newspaper and asked if this was an omen of good luck or bad luck.

Twain wrote: "Finding a spider in your newspaper is neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

You will find no spider webs across the doors of the merchants who advertise in your local newspaper.

Economist takes look

1967 outlook for agriculture good

COLLEGE STATION—The 1967 economic outlook for agriculture is good. The production forecast is being opened up to take care of both domestic and foreign demand increases and total receipts from farm marketings will be larger than in 1966, says John G. McHaney, Extension economist at Texas A&M University.

Food grain acreage is expected to increase by 12 to 15 million acres and wheat allotments have been increased by almost one-third, he adds.

These additional acres are needed to bring production in line with expanding markets and to rebuild carryover stocks of grain, explains the economist. Government movements to producers will be smaller, perhaps by a half billion dollars, as more acreage is returned to production.

McHaney says production expenses will continue to climb; however, he looks for the increase to be less than that of last year. Realized net farm income in 1967 may not reach the near-record level of 1966, but it is expected to be well above the 1965 figure, he says.

Farmers added $18 million to their assets during 1966 to bring the total value of their assets to $273 billion. The $35 billion increase during the past two years exceeds that of any previous consecutive two-year period since balance sheet estimates began in 1940, McHaney said. While total indebtedness increased, owners' equities increased by $14 billion, about the same rate as in 1963.

The domestic demand for farm products is expected to increase in 1967 but at a slower rate than in 1966. General economic activity is expected to keep consumer buying power on the upward move and thus increase the demand for farm products.

Exports are taking an increasing share of farm product marketings and prospects for the 1966-67 marketing year point to another sizeable rise in foreign dollar sales. McHaney sees an increase about equal to last year's which would push total dollar sales close to the $6 billion mark.

The economist calls attention to three factors which he lists as uncertainties for the year ahead. They are possible changes in the Vietnam conflict and their impact on the general economy and agriculture; the new grain program with added acreage and their influence on 1967 crop output and foreign crop prospects and their effect on export markets.

Damaging mailboxes brings heavy fines

Mailboxes are protected by Federal law, and pranksters or vandals who damage or destroy the boxes and their contents may be in for a heavy fine or imprisonment, Postmaster A. J. McAllister warned today.

The postmaster noted that some 25,000 mail receptacles were damaged or destroyed in the past year. It was also noted that 2,641 persons were arrested in the year up to June 30 for damaging or destroying mail receptacles.

Postmaster McAllister quoted from the law: "Whoever wilfully or maliciously injures, tears down or destroys any letterbox or other receptacle intended or used for the receipt or delivery of mail on any mail route, or breaks open the same or wilfully or maliciously injuries, defaces or destroys any mail deposited therein, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than three years."

This applies to all mail receptacles and the mail in them, even though the boxes are bought by citizens and are their personal property. Postmaster McAllister emphasized.

"Pranksters—and especially children who do not know any better—should be made to realize the seriousness of their actions," the postmaster said. "A $1,000 fine or a term in jail is enough to take the humor out of any prank."

Often the mailbox damage is the work of youths, who do it for "kicks." And the courts have shown little sympathy for this youthful means of expression. In Michigan a justice sentenced two 18-year-olds to 10 days in jail, including two on a diet of baby food. The diet specification, explained the judge, was because the youths "acted like babies." They were also fined $25 each plus $15 costs.

In New York State, five youths were fined $25 each plus restitution or restoration plus no driving for an indefinite period, plus an $8 p.m. curfew, plus a written analysis by each of a magazine article entitled "A Judge Gets Tough on Hoodlums."

Two Iowa youths who damaged

39 mailboxes were required to personally apologize to each boxholder in addition to making repairs or providing a new box.

In Missouri, three 17-year-olds lost their driving privileges, were given a 9 p.m. curfew, and had to report twice weekly to juvenile authorities. They had damaged 63 mailboxes.

And in Arkansas, four juveniles faced the following: (1) no driving until further notice, (2) a 10 p.m. curfew, (3) return to court in a month with letters from their school principals reporting on grades and attitudes, (4) full restitution of all damages, and (5) wear a sign for 30 days stating:
