Deviated cost brings saving

Insurance coverage boosted on school buildings here

Post school district trustees have followed the recent recommendations of Dr. W. E. Barron, their consulting expert on school affairs, and increased insurance coverage of school buildings and contents from 80 to 100 per cent with "deviated" coverage asked which will save 20 per cent of the insurance costs.

At their November meeting Monday night, trustees voted to secure $2,134,805 coverage at a deviated cost of $8,013 for each of the next three years.

This is a savings of over $2,000 a year. Rising insurance costs, plus the greatly increased coverage, will up the schools' insurance costs from $3,903 last year.

The five-year insurance contract with three local insurance agencies expired two months ago and trustees have authorized two monthly riders to keep the coverage going until they could study the insurance problem, hear recommendations, and establish some new policies.

Supt. Bill Shiver said the schools, which up to now have had only 80 per cent coverage in case of loss, "were under insured by a million dollars" in former years.

Trustees named Bryan J. Williams as the agent of record again to represent the board and the three insurance firms participating in the coverage.

They are Bryan J. Williams & Son, Post Insurance Agency, and the Sexton Insurance Agency.

To aid students

Library will add copying machine

Post Public Library trustees at their November meeting Tuesday afternoon authorized the purchase of a copying machine to aid students who want to make quick copies of various types of reference materials.

In other actions, trustees authorized the acquisitions committee of the Friends to purchase $500 in new books.

Authorized ducting of heat from the main library room into the new children's library room with the work to be done by Ben Owen.

Authorized purchase of one large additional section of shelving to fit

The board policies on insurance coverage provide that all approved insurance agencies shall have been in fire, casualty and marine insurance business in this community for a minimum of three years prior to Sept. 1 of the respective school year in which the insurance is written.

Dr. Barron, director of the extension teaching field service bureau for the University of Texas, spent two and one-half days here in mid-October studying several school programs, one of which was

Lions to serve pancake supper

The Post Lions Club's annual pancake supper will be held Tuesday, Nov. 19, in the school lunchroom, beginning at 5 p. m. and continuing until everyone is served.

Pancake supper tickets are on sale by Lions Club members at 75 cents each or may be purchased at Martin's Department Store.

Proceeds from the supper will be used by the club in its sight conservation work and other community projects.

SUCCESSFUL HUNT

T. B. Odum spent the weekend deer hunting near Junction with a group of out-of-town friends. He returned home on Monday with two buck deer.

Jack Lott was sworn in as a new school trustee. He was appointed at the October meeting to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Russell Wilks Jr.

Trustees approved the interfund transfer from Title I to operating cash the amount of $5,238.30.

Trustees will hold their December meeting on Monday night, Dec. 16, a week later than usual as Supt. Shiver will be attending an educational meeting Dec. 8-12.

As a result of his recommendations, trustees adopted the new board policies, decided to purchase 100 per cent coverage, and asked for "deviated" coverage to save as much as possible. Dr. Barron explained that "deviated" coverage is still authorized for public buildings in Texas, but not for privately owned buildings or contents.

The new board policies provide that the school superintendent shall be responsible to administer the insurance affairs of the district and "to report annually on the progress and state of the school insurance program."

The policies also provide for evaluation of the insurable values of the school district either by a commercial appraisal firm or consulting engineers from insurance companies every two years, and for the initiation and maintenance of a property accounting system on all contents other than consumable items.

Present valuation of the various school buildings were established on a "replacement cost per square foot" basis, according to Supt. Shiver.

Williams had the present valuations determined by insurance engineers in preparing the insurance proposal.

Dr. Barron praised the proposal made to the schools by Williams as "one of the best he had ever seen". The state school man proposed that the board check the replacement value of $148,600 set on the two-story junior high building, which Dr. Barron considered "high," and suggested that coverage of the equipment in the one-story boiler house building be clarified.

Turstees authorized Supt. Shiver to negotiate any changes in the insurance coverage on these two buildings.

Shiver told The Dispatch yesterday afternoon the insured value of the junior high building was reduced to $59,000 (comparable to the replacement cost of the high school building).

Jack Lott was sworn in as a new school trustee. He was appointed at the October meeting to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Russell Wilks Jr.

Trustees approved the interfund transfer from Title I to operating cash the amount of $5,238.30.

Trustees will hold their December meeting on Monday night, Dec. 16, a week later than usual as Supt. Shiver will be attending an educational meeting Dec. 8-12.

Worker shortage hangs up canvass for United Fund

With but two workers showing up, Tuesday night's block-by-block United Fund canvass of the city fell flat, Bailey Mayo, fund president, reported Wednesday.

"We'll try it again within the next ten days, providing we can get enough helpers to make the canvass," Mayo said.

The two volunteer workers who did put in an appearance Tuesday night did a good job and completed their blocks, the fund chairman said.

The canvass of the town was scheduled in an effort to raise $3,000 toward the fund's $10,000 goal for 1969.

"We feel sure we can raise $3,000 in a house-to-house canvass, so we're not lowering our sights," Mayo said. "We're just hoping we can get enough workers together to put it over."

The chairman also reported that the United Fund now stands at approximately $7,100 toward its $10,000 goal.

Wastebasket catches on fire at primary school

A fire in a wastebasket at the primary school early last Thursday night filled the building with smoke before firemen got the basket outside and extinguished the blaze.

The fire was discovered and the alarm turned in shortly after 7 p. m. while the Post-Tahoka "B" team football game was under way at nearby Antelope Stadium.

Post Antelope cages to open here Nov. 26

The Post Antelope basketball team will open its season here Tuesday, Nov. 26, against the Cotton Center Elks.

Kenneth (Kenny) Poole, a 1960 graduate of Post High School, is new coach of the Antelope cage team.

The Post Does and Cotton Center Elkettes will play the first game in the Nov. 26 cage action, with the tipoff scheduled for 6:30 p. m.

Dr. Surman admitted to Lubbock hospital

Dr. A. C. Surman, pioneer Post physician, was admitted to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock Tuesday, where he is undergoing tests and possibly will undergo surgery.

Dr. Surman was in the Garza Memorial Hospital here for three days before being transferred to Lubbock.

Cotton harvest rush to start next week

By next week the 1968 cotton harvest rush will be "on" in all parts of the county, ginners told The Dispatch yesterday with weekend freezes halting cotton growth throughout the area.

The county's gin count stood at 6,494 bales at mid-afternoon Wednesday with another 253 bales on the gin yards.

The rush already was on in some gin areas but in others it is still a week away.

The harvest ground to an abrupt halt over the weekend after the surprise Friday morning snow. Strippers started back into the fields Monday afternoon and by Tuesday night gins had about all they could handle.

The gin-by-gin reports:

Graham Co-op Gin: 2,338 bales ginned with 68 on the yard. This area was rated as some of the best cotton in the county and the best in that area in 20 years. The night crew worked "all night" Tuesday for the first time as the gin went into round-the-clock operations.

Storie Gin: 217 bales ginned to date, five more on yard. One crew working 10 to 12 hours daily. Rush in this area not started yet.

Planters Gin: 367 bales ginned to date, working days only. Pulling resumed in area Monday afternoon. Rush not started yet.

Close City Gin: About 1,000 bales ginned to date with another 100 on yard. One crew working 16 hours a day. Rush is on in this cotton area.

Pleasant Valley Gin: 1,522 bales ginned to date, 50 more on yard. Two crews working round-the-clock. Hard freeze got all cotton in this area.

Basinger Gin: Only 75 bales ginned. Freeze got the June cotton and activities expected to really start picking up about next week.

Hackberry Gin: 970 bales ginned to date, half of which is counted as Garza County cotton. Two crews working, but not too busy. The rush should hit in another week. Freeze got all cotton in area.

Grassland Co-op Gin: 1,539 bales ginned to date, one-third of which is figured as Garza County cotton. One crew working 16 hours a day. 85 bales on yard yesterday afternoon.

Petition being circulated

Bond vote sought on stock show building

Petitions asking that the Garza County commissioners' court call a bond election for the county's part in the proposed new stock show and exposition building are being circulated this week by members of the Garza County Junior Livestock Association.

Meanwhile, the stock show group was to get a bid Wednesday night from the building's contractor, Better Products, Inc., of Lubbock, on the cost of enlarging the building from its originally proposed size.

The enlarged portion of the building would be the front part, which would be used for fair exhibits and as a community meeting place. The original plans call for a 40 by 60-foot front, but the enlarged building would increase the size of front part to 80 by 60 feet.

The size of the show and display area of the building would not be changed in the new plans.

Members of the stock show association said yesterday that they now have about $10,000 in cash toward the construction of the building and that another $2,500 is ex-

Texans economy minded in vote on amendments

AUSTIN — Voters showed they are in an economy frame of mind in their decisions on 14 proposed state constitutional amendments.

They voted Nov. 5 to cut out the state property tax, but they refused to go along with raising the state's public welfare ceiling from $60 million to $75 million a year or to increase legislators' salaries from $4,800 to $8,400 annually.

Approved were changes in state employees' pension system, university fund investment liberalization, removal of the $504 a year ceiling on contributions to teacher pensions, wiping out the property tax and clarification of a legislator's eligibility to run for other office by virtue of the termination date of his elective term.

Texans turned thumbs down on tax exemptions for warehouse-stored property, El Paso local government consolidations, Dallas's road bonds, tax aid for Texarkana tobacco merchants, state contract changes, tax benefits for anti-pollution equipment purchasers and industrial bond issues.

Better times are coming for 'Lopes

The second disastrous football season in a row for the Post Antelopes ends with the Morton game here Friday night. Following Friday night's game, the next football season is a long way off, but there is little doubt that it will bring better things for the Antelopes, their coaches and their fans.

The current Antelope roster lists only two seniors on the squad, which means that some 30 boys will be back for the 1969 gridiron campaign, plus a number of good boys from this year's freshman team.

This year's juniors and sophomores on the Antelope squad have gained in experience and football savvy through nine tough games, with Game No. 10 coming up Friday night. Other Antelope non-conference and district foes for 1969 are going to be much harder hit by graduation than we are, so things can't help but take a turn for the better next year. How much better remains to be seen, of course.

There hasn't been a whole lot to cheer about this season, but we believe the Antelopes and their coaches have given of their best. They haven't given up, which is more than can be said for some of the fans.

The two seniors who will be playing their final high school football game Friday night are James Pollard and Jerry Crenshaw, both of whom have been mainstays on this season's team. We wish to say "farewell" to James and Jerry, as far as high school football is concerned, and "we'll see you next year" to the rest of the Antelope squad.—CD

Nov. 17 "Safety Sunday" in Texas

Texas Gov. John Connally has set aside Sunday, Nov. 17, as "Safety Sunday" in the State of Texas, and in his official memorandum called on all citizens to enlist in the fight for greater safety by considering their moral obligation to protect the sanctity of human life.

"It is essential that every Texan realize that safety for himself, his loved ones and his friends, as well as others is a matter of moral responsibility," the Governor said in his proclamation, while pointing out that "accidents continue to take a grave toll in our state each year."

The Governor noted that in traffic crashes alone, 3,367 Texans lost their lives and an additional 250,308 persons suffered painful injuries last year. The economic loss from these accidents is estimated at some $793 million.

The Texas Safety Association sponsors the "Safety Sunday" for the purpose of focusing public attention to the necessity of reducing accident tolls especially during the fall and winter holiday seasons. The Safety Association reports that previous experience indicates tolls increase sharply during this period.

Clergymen of all faiths are being asked to join civic leaders, state officials and others in a united effort to prevent additional tragedy on the highways and in the homes of Texas by making our citizens more fully aware of their individual moral responsibilities for accident prevention.

Dear Turnrow Junkel

O. C. McBRIDE

Soon you won't have the Johnson Administration to criticize. Won't this cause you to run short of material for your column?

No. Up until now I've only had to point out the mistakes of the Democrats, but with a Republican Administration and a Democratic Congress, I'll have to keep my eye on both. It may become necessary for me to increase the length of my column.

Did you read that after recent wage settlements, bricklayers in Ohio receive $9.75 an hour, or $19.50 if they work overtime?

The way things are going, it won't be long until only doctors can afford brick houses, and only bricklayers can afford to get sick.

I understand that the new microwave ovens now on the market can cook a 3 pound roast in 26 minutes.

That wouldn't change anything at our home. My wife would put the roast in the oven exactly 26 minutes before the start of my favorite television program.

Is Aristotle-Omasis richer than Howard Hughes?

He's not even in the same league. Omasis might own an island, but I'll bet he couldn't even buy Reno, much less Las Vegas.

Some political experts think Eugene McCarthy and George Wallace will both lead new political movements in the future. Would you approve of a four-way system?

This could cause a serious problem, especially during election years. How could a nation survive with four political parties, two professional football leagues, and only three television networks?

What do you think of the makeup of Congress after the elections?

I would have preferred a general housecleaning, but there are some bright spots. For instance, Barry Goldwater is back in the Senate, and Wayne Morse is out. This may not please everyone, but I'm sure it displeases the Communists, and that's good enough for me.

What did you think about George Ball resigning his post as ambassador to the U. N.; and joining Mr. Humphrey's organization?

The way the polls are looking, George may have made a mistake. The U. N. never accomplishes anything, but the pay is steady, and the outfit will probably still be in business after November 5th.

Did you read that Richard Nixon said he keeps his weight down by eating a lot of cottage cheese?

Anyone who has to shave twice a day, and eat cottage cheese to stay slim, must have a lot of will power. Under the same conditions, I'm afraid I'd end up as a fat man with a long beard.

A political expert says it is difficult to unseat the party in power, because more than 33 million Americans draw a regular government check.

I don't think this holds true under the present administration. The people not getting checks are envious, and those receiving them think they should be larger.

After hearing last week that the Garza County Historical Survey Committee's newsletter had won third place at the state meeting in San Antonio, I began wondering who had won first, and finally found out that it was Borden County, our neighbor to the south. Mrs. Frank Miller of Gail, the Borden County committee's chairman, brought the first prize home with her from the meeting.

THE MAN UP the street says the trouble with a person who has the gift of gab is that he never wraps it up.

Three or four years ago Post held three horse shows—Quarter Horse, Paint and Appaloosa—which must have set some sort of record for a town this size, but we could just as easily have had four horse shows that year if someone had told Oscar Gray, chairman for the three shows, of the Gallieno breed of horses.

THE STURDY little Gallieno horse is the type the Spanish Conquistadors rode, and Coronado and his men probably rode them through this area on the Llano Estacado trail. The popularity of the horse is spreading, and a Gallieno show was held last Saturday afternoon at Hamilton, sponsored by the Hamilton Sheriff's posse.

Life's Like That: A boy who had left the farm to take a job in the city wrote a letter to his stay-at-home brother telling him of the joys of city life.

"Yesterday we autoed out to the country where we golfed until dark, then picnicked and later motored to the beach where we weekendend."

Not to be outdone, the farmer brother wrote back:

"Yesterday we bugged to town and baseballled all afternoon. Today we muled out to the corn field and geehawed until sundown. Then we suppered and piped for a while; after that we staircased up to our rooms and bedsteaded until the clock fived."

QUAIL HUNTERS sometimes run onto things they weren't looking for. That was the case Sunday when Danny Richardson, Post Dispatch employee, and his brother-in-law, Gene Davis of Plainview, came upon a grass fire while hunting quail on Floy Richardson's place. Danny and his brother-in-law immediately forgot about quail and began fighting the wind-fanned flames, with the help of four other quail hunters who saw what was going on and came up to help. The fire consumed several acres of grass before burning itself out at the edge of a canyon. Danny said he and the other hunters fought the fire with jackets, sweat shirts, etc. Despite the interruption by the fire, all the quail hunters had good luck hunting. Danny reported.

There may be only a dozen of them in the community, but they will improve the lives of a thousand neighbors just by living there.

They care about everything that touches the community.

They care if windows are clean and sidewalks swept, if lawns are green and streets are clean.

They worry about recreation for youngsters, and whether or not teachers can teach.

They care about laws being enforced impartially. They want public officials to be men and women of whom all can be proud.

They attend public meetings and carry petitions and write letters and jangle phones.

They deplore garbage untended and junk abandoned in unsightly yards.

They volunteer while others scoff.

They care about trees and churches, about sidewalks and streets, they care about the people who use these things each day.

Such people who care do not lead the carefree lives of their neighbors. Sometimes they are objects of ridicule from their litter-throwing, free-throwing neighbors.

But without them a community can soon reach the level of the blizest slob who lives there.

They annoy us with ideas, read us to work, but we're thankful there are still a few who care living in our town.

POST ANTELOPES

Vs

MORTON INDIANS

IN ANTELOPE STADIUM

Friday Night, Nov. 15

7:30 P. M. Kickoff

Coach Glynn Gregg's Post High Antelopes will close out their 1968 grid campaign here before the home folks Friday night against the Morton Indians, needing a win to climb out of the district cellar.

Morton looked—off the record (1-7) to be a team the Antelopes might handle until they fought the Tahoka Bulldogs to an 8-8 tie in the cold and wet at Morton last Friday night.

But the Lopes by their second half comeback against Idalou proved they still have the desire to win. It ought to be a slam-banger and one worth seeing.

Let's root those Antelopes to a closing victory!

Kuykendoll-Stewart wedding is event of Nov. 8 in Sabina, O.

The Sabina, Ohio, Church of Christ was the setting of the wedding of Miss Constance Dee Stewart and Sp4 Johnny Carl Kuykendoll Friday, Nov. 8, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening with the minister, Robert A. Fogleman, officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The chancel of the church was banked with potted palms. Seven-branched candelabra, among baskets of white chrysanthemums and pom-poms, flanked the altar. Bows of white satin adorned the pews of the center aisle of the sanctuary.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart of Sabina and Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Kuykendoll, Route 1, Post.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length princess gown of Dulcette satin and Alencon lace with long lace sleeves tapering to traditional points over the hands. The skirt was appliqued with lace and the Watteau detachable train was held in back by a butterfly bow. She carried a colonial bouquet of pom-poms surrounding a white orchid. The bride carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue.

Mrs. Larry Starcher was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a light blue floor-length velveteen frock. Her veil was attached to an open pillbox of matching fabric. Misses Peggy and Diana Stewart, cousins of the bride, and Miss Lynette Stewart, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. They were gowned identical to Mrs. Starcher in royal blue. They all carried colonial cascades of blue carnations and pom-poms, wore white elbow-length gloves and neck chains of jeweled crosses, gifts from the bride.

Serving his brother as best man was Staff Sgt. Jerry Kuykendoll of Lubbock. Ushers were the bride's brother, Jon Stewart, and her brother-in-law, Larry Starcher, and Sgt. Donald Hunt of Akron, Ohio. Mrs. Warren Stauffer, organist, accompanied Miss Cathy Beckett as she sang "More", "True Love" and "The Wedding Prayer."

At the reception at the Sabina school cafeteria the bride's table and tea table were covered with lace cloths over royal blue. The tiered cake featured blue roses, silver leaves and a miniature bride and groom. Rice bags of light blue net, tied with royal blue ribbons, adorned the bride's table.

Following a honeymoon to an undisclosed destination, the couple is at home at 209½ North Mulberry St., Wilmington, Ohio, where Sp4 Kuykendoll is stationed at Nike Site. They plan a trip to Post around Dec. 1, after which the serviceman will begin a tour of duty in Vietnam.

For travel the bride chose a purple bonded knit dress and jacket and added the orchid from her bouquet.

Out-of-town wedding guests registered from Kettering, West Jefferson and Chillicothe, Ohio.

Library Listening Post

By ROSEMARY CHAPMAN
We have two copies of "Storming Norman Cash" at last. Come for them today or be prepared to put your name on the waiting list.

Acquisition Chairman Helen Cornish and I drove to Lubbock last Thursday to inspect the Fall book crop with our good buddies, James and Billy Willis, at Pix Bookstore, and a new acquaintance, can't think of his name - but he gives us a 20 per cent discount too, at Dunlaps. By the time we returned, the back seat was piled so high with booty (warning: we had to put the books in the back seat because the trunk was so loaded with items for Next Year's Book Fair that (move over, Paul Bunyan) we scraped the bottom of the car coming down the Cap. A successful harvest, indeed - deed - deed.

Two books which may be of particular interest to West Texans - "Against the Moon" by Jane Gilmore Rushing and "Scurry County Style" by Viola M. Payne. Mrs. Rushing lives in Lubbock and is presently teaching creative writing and American poetry at Texas Tech. Mrs. Payne lives in El Paso and her book contains "stories from below the Caprock and beyond."

Would you believe this title from one of our new junior books? "003½, the Adventures of James Bond Junior!" It purports to be the daring exploits of - who else but - 007's nephew.

Helen MacInnes . . . Alistair MacLean . . . Patrick Dennis. (Remember "Auntie Mame?") A number of the most popular authors at Post Library have written new books this Fall.

Are you a Frank Slaughter fan? How about John O'Hara? David Westheimer? (You know, "Von Ryan's Express".)

We bought somebody for everybody. Nathaniel Benchley? Romain Gary? Noel Gerson? Elizabeth Bowen? Stephen Birmingham? Saul Bellow? Conrad Richter? Gwenn Griffin? Stephen Becker? William Humphrey? R. F. Delderfield? Pierre Boule? Geoffrey Household? The list could go on and on and on.

Actually, we bought too many good books by too many good authors. I can't decide from moment to moment whether to process them, read them, or review them. In order to avert one of those grinding, mouth-frothing halts which I sometimes come to, I think that I shall go full speed ahead on the first item, depend on you for the second, and forget the third.

One word of advice: Our new books are usually checked out just about as fast as we can get them on the shelves, so if you want a good selection, come early. Last one to the library is a green pig.

CANVASS ELECTION

The Garza County Commissioners Court at its November meeting Monday canvassed the general election returns and approved the payment of county bills.

HOW IS YOUR CREDIT?

The worst thing you can do is not to respond to a reminder that your payments are overdue.

The best thing you can do is go in and talk it over.

TIPS ON KEEPING A GOOD CREDIT RATING.

1. Pay promptly. This is more important than a big income.
2. Don't buy more than you can afford with charge accounts and time payments.
3. Leave some of your income free for emergencies.
4. Balance your use of cash and credit.
5. Never try to dodge your debts.
6. Explain matters to the credit manager.
7. Start making payments, however small.

as reported by Marine Corps Combat Correspondents and edited by
GySgt. Bob Montgomery

A 1st Recon Bn. Marine carries an unusual "good luck" piece with him — the twisted remains of a hand grenade.

Cpl. William D. Nagel, 20, North Haven, Conn., of "A" Co., 1st Recon, carries the fragments to remind him of his luck when an enemy rifle round went through the grenade and it did not explode.

The 1st Division Leathernecks was walking patrol with his team in the Happy Valley area south of Da Nang. They were heading toward an objective when they came upon a large, rocky open area which had to be crossed.

The team began crossing the area. "Our radioman was having some trouble with the rocks," said Nagel, "so I stopped to give him some cover."

At the same moment the team took approximately 100 rounds of sniper fire from an unknown position.

The average staple length from the South Plains area last week was slightly longer than 1-inch.

Micronaire readings by percentages were: 5.0 or better, 2 per cent; 4.9, 79 per cent; 3.3 - 3.4, 11 per cent; 3.0 - 3.2, 5 per cent; and 2.7 - 2.9, 3 per cent.

Most Texas output on irrigated land

LUBBOCK — Reliable estimates indicate that 36 per cent of the total value of crops produced in Texas is produced on irrigated land. Only about 25 per cent of land growing crops that are being harvested in the state is irrigated. Natural underground water bearing formations which are found under about half of the surface area of the state are the principal sources of irrigation water.

Texas A&M University has reported that in 1965, 65 per cent of Texas irrigation was located on the High Plains; 17 per cent on the Rio Grande Plain, including the Lower Valley and Winter Garden area; six per cent on the Coastal Prairie; four per cent on the Rolling Plains; four per cent in the Trans-Pecos area; two per cent in stream bottomlands, and two per cent in other areas.

Irrigation accounts for 100 per cent of the rice and citrus production, 66 per cent of the grain sorghums, 63 per cent of the cotton, 54 per cent of the wheat, 46 per cent of the barley and 20 per cent of the state's corn production. Increased irrigation has been a major change in Texas agriculture since World War II. The greatest shift to irrigated farming has been on the High Plains.

Uneven distribution of water both in annual rainfall and geographically is a continuing problem in expansion of the state's agricultural and industrial base. Abundant rainfall in Eastern Texas causes surplus runoff into the Gulf. The Western portions of the state have suffered from inadequate supplies and frequent droughts. The statewide water plan now under study must find a way of evening out this mal-distribution.

Post, Morton to battle Friday for 'cellar escape'

Antelope Stadium to be scene of final '68 tilt

Antelope Indians will come to Antelope Stadium here Friday for the final game of the season. The Post Antelopes will provide the opposition in a game that is anything but routine.

The game will be a battle to see who stays out of the District playoffs and will wrap up the season for both teams.

Friday night's surprise will be Tahoka, the Morton team, which is keeping pace with the Post with a single victory.

Post's one win came in its first game of the season, 44 to 13, against the Post's only victor in a 50-15 decision.

Post has just conference games in Denver City, 56-0; Fremont, 31-0; and Idalou, 31-0. Non-conference games have been to Farwell, 42-0; Sudan, 26-0; and Friona, 26-0.

Post reports that Morton is a "team of effort" Friday night. Tahoka, a team of effort, is Post's favorite set in Morton's favorite formation, but they are out of a T-formation to utilize the "I" formation.

Davis Heaton on Cisco cage squad

Sharon Windham, who was a basketball letterman at Post, is playing at a forward on this season's Cisco College basketball team. She is season Friday, against the Midwestern junior varsity at Cisco.

Sharon from Post is 6'4" tall and weighs 195 lbs. She is a member of the district co-ed Antelope basketball team and the district co-ed basketball team his senior year.

He was also a member of the district championship football team his senior year.

Coach Ken Henson terms the Cisco team's strongest point is shooting, while height and experience are the areas of concern. He states, however, that "this is a very good group of boys with which to work, and I feel they will represent the school well."

Heaton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Heaton of Post, is one of five sophomores on the 14-man Cisco roster.

22 students listed on Post High honor roll

The school honor roll was announced this week from the office of Vernon Payne.

Post man serves in college drive

LUBBOCK — J. B. Potts, president of the First National Bank of Post, has been appointed by the trustees and administration of Lubbock Christian College to serve as Project IV Advancement representative in the southwestern Panhandle area.

Project IV Advancement is LCC's drive to raise $3,192,000 in three years to advance from a junior college to a four-year senior college serving 1,200 students.

Potts will lead in contacting all alumni, parents of ex-students and prospective friends of LCC. He has been a loyal booster of LCC and has helped the college grow to its present size with 10 permanent buildings and assets of over $6.5 million. Seven hundred and thirty-five students are presently attending the private junior college.

First half disastrous for 'Lopes

Idalou outlasts Post in wild one, 33-26

The Post Antelopes and Idalou Wildcats put on a tremendous offensive show before a chilled crowd in Antelope Stadium last Friday night with Idalou coming out on the long end of a 33 to 26 score.

The Wildcats won the first half and the Antelopes the second half, but the Wildcats did it more convincingly. They scored 33 points to Post's 14 in the first half, but were held scoreless in the final two quarters while the Antelopes played an unsuccessful game of catch-up.

The 'Lopes roundly outplayed the Wildcats in the second half and threatened repeatedly to overtake them after pulling up to within one touchdown with 1:50 of the 3rd quarter remaining. That was to be all the scoring, however, despite the Post team's valiant fourth quarter efforts to catch up and win their first district game of the season.

WITH GARY Sage, 155-pound wingback, scoring four first half touchdowns, three of them on long runs, the Wildcats threatened early to make a runaway of the game. The Antelopes had different ideas, however, and put them into operation in the second half when they made ten first downs to Idalou's three and outgained the Wildcats on the ground by 134 to 32.

Pint-sized running back George Torres carried the brunt of the Antelopes' ground attack, netting 203 yards in 32 carries and scoring his first varsity touchdown. His runs included scampers of 33, 34, 13 and 33 yards.

The Wildcats scored the first time they got their hands on the ball. Sage rounding end from five yards out after two long runs by quarterback Donnie Drake had brought the ball to that point. Fullback John Hamilton kicked the extra point.

Two minutes later, Idalou lit up the scoreboard again, with Sage taking a pitchout and racing 43 yards to paydirt. The Wildcats had taken the ball on downs after a fourth-down gamble on their 43 failed to pay off for the 'Lopes.

Post got its first touchdown after Jay Bird recovered an Idalou fumble on the Wildcat 45. Torres gained five, then 33 more to the Idalou 12 after a penalty had set the Antelopes back five yards. Torres gained four and Ray Altman added one on a keeper. Altman's swing pass to James Pollard failed, but on fourth down the Post quarterback found Jerry Crenshaw all alone in the end zone and hit him with a perfect peg for six points, with Randy Hudman's conversion making it seven.

THE WILDCATS lost little time in widening the gap to 20-7. The short kickoff was returned to the Idalou 30 and on the first play Sage took a handoff from Drake and raced 70 yards for a TD with only 57 seconds of a wild first quarter remaining.

The Wildcats drove 61 yards for a touchdown early in the second period, with Hamilton diving through the line for the final four, then kicking the extra point to make it 27-7.

The 'Lopes put on a drive of 62 yards to score their second touchdown, with a 15-yard penalty against the Wildcats helping out. From the Idalou 42, Torres, Pollard and Altman alternated in lugging the leather to the 15 from where Altman passed to Crenshaw in the end zone for the TD. Hudman's kick split the uprights and it was 27-14.

Idalou's final touchdown of the night came with 6:35 left in the first half on a 67-yard run by Sage. A passing try for the extra points failed. Post drove deep into Idalou territory before the first half ended, but lost the ball on downs on the 25.

WITH BOTH their offense and defense sharpened, the Antelopes came back strong in the third quarter.

Altman returned the second half kickoff to his 38, from where a four-yard gain by Torres and a 15-yard pass from Altman to Neff Walker took the ball to the Wildcat 43.

A four-yard gain by Torres and a five-yard pass from Altman to Pollard left the Antelopes a yard short of a first down, but Altman kept for a 14-yard gain to the 20.

Torres banged the line twice for seven yards and Pollard grabbed Altman's pass for a first down on the 8, from where Altman kept and lunged over for a TD. Hudman's kick was blocked to leave the 'Lopes trailing, 33-20.

After kicking off to Idalou, Post threatened again after Karl Hall recovered a Wildcat fumble on their 29, but the 'Cats held on their 25.

A FOURTH down gamble by Idalou deep in its own territory failed, with Post taking over on the 29 — and Idalou just shouldn't have gambled.

Altman and Torres gained a total of seven yards and Walker grabbed Altman's short pass for a first down on the 16. Altman kept around left end for nine and two plays later Torres banged through the line for a TD. Hudman's kick again was blocked to leave the 'Lopes trailing, 33-26.

On the first play of the fourth period, Bird threw Sage for a four-yard loss on a pitchout, but on the ensuing punt the 'Lopes were penalized 15 for roughing the kicker. The aroused Post defense held and the 'Cats punted to the 7.

The 'Lopes couldn't go from deep in their own territory, and Altman's punt was returned five yards to the Post 30. Steve Newby put the 'Lope offense back in business by recovering a fumble on the 30.

AFTER ALTMAN and Torres had carried for a first down on the 41, Torres broke loose for 33 yards to the Idalou 26 as the Post fans started whooping it up.

The 'Lopes couldn't stand prosperity, however, and Torres fumbled the ball away on the Idalou 25 two plays later.

With 2:08 left in the game, Pollard ran an Idalou punt back eight yards to the Post 38, from where Altman and Torres carried for a first down on the Idalou 49.

Altman kept for 10 yards and another first down on the 39, but lost two yards on his next try. Another running try and two passes failed to gain and Idalou took the ball on downs with 0:28 showing on the clock. The 'Cats used up the remaining time in one play.

The Post Antelope "B" team ended its season against the Tahoka Bulldog "B" team here last Thursday with Tahoka winning, 16 to 8.

Post jumped into a first quarter lead on Kelly Duren's pass to Danny Vargas, with Kim Owen banging over for the extra points.

Tahoka came back to score on a pass and ran over the extra points for an 8-8 halftime deadlock. The Bulldogs scored again in the third period on a short drive and added the extras for the final score of 16-8.

Coach Waco Reynolds said Mike Feagin, Kenny McKamie, Ralph Menchaca and James Walker were defensive standouts for Post, with Kyle Josey and Owen standing out on offense.

Karen's Korner By Karen Hundley

Three - day weekends are wonderful. You can catch up on your sleep, your homework, and other odd habits. I fervently wish that each weekend contained 72 hours. That way you have enough time to dit down and contemplate each individual piece of gravel in a driveway. By the way, if you don't have anything to do, come by and I'll LET you count the gravel in my driveway, the blades of grass in my yard, or the bricks in my house. Look at it this way: at least you would learn how to count!

Last Friday night after the football game, "Flyte Ltd." played for the dance. Couples there were Pam Petty and Steve Newby, Karen Lee and Wiley Miller, Linda Justice and Bo McWhirt, Billye Lee Williams and Curtis Lancaster, Janice Gordon and Anthony Altman, Karen Hundley and Jimmie Johnston, Kippy Payne and Johnny Hodges, and Jan Adams and Benny Owen. Also there were Kay Altman, Kay Hundley, Duke Altman, Jimmie Bartlett, Sherry Bird, Jan Bullock, Debbie Cummings, Debbie Eubank, David Dabbs, Boyd Noble, Karon Windham, Johnny Pennell, Ronnie Petty, Darrell Wilke, Sharon Windham, Larry Scrivner, Joan Minor, Kim Hundley, Dan Eckert, Barbara Lucas, Martha Miller, Mike Robinson, Willa Branson, Sherri Wilke, Polly Martin, Rickie Hines and David Midkiff.
Many thanks go to Mrs. Cummings for arranging and sponsoring the dance. This weekend there is a possibility that "The Lox" will play after the game. However, more people need to make their grand entry there if the dances are to be any fun.

The Senior Class's ex - sponsor made a grand appearance in Post last weekend. Mr. John Martinez, who now teaches junior high school in San Antonio, visited in Post with his friends and ex-students. He left late Sunday to go to Odessa to visit with his parents before returning to San Antonio. Tommy Duncan went to Coleman last Thursday to visit his grandmother, who was very ill for a time.

Well, since the Senior picture controversy and the election are over, things are settling down around PHS. But it won't be long until something else of interest enters the scene. Would you believe letting The Institution out for a week because of snow? (!) It's my luck that the sun is shining while I write this!

Pep rally held last Thursday

By Martha Jo Walls
The weekly pep rally usually held each Friday was conducted Thursday because of the Teacher Workshop. The cheerleaders led yells commonly known to the students which included basically the favorite yell — the Class Battle Cry.
Karl Bruce Hall, a junior letterman, told the intentions of the team, which was to beat Idalou. One of the proposals brought to the student body to boost school spirit was to answer each telephone call with a "Beat Idalou." There's just one more football game of the season so YOU get out to the field tomorrow night to support the Post Antelopes in their win over Morton.
Go get 'um 'LOPES!

"I'll Think It Over . . ."

Final in Series

By Bernard S. Ramsey

Mr. Jack Smith has already come up with five excuses for being AWOL (absent without leave) from the services of the Church and I am optimistic thinking he's just about to commit himself and his family. But he rubs his chin and mumbles: "I'LL THINK IT OVER."

And so I move toward the front door, feeling I've done my best to persuade Jack Smith how much he has to offer the church and how much the church has to offer him. Of course, I know that he has other excuses. When he runs out of one set, he thinks up another.

I don't want to seem rude and impatient with him, but I just can't resist resisting this excuse: "Think it over, Mr. Smith? Think what over? Isn't that what we've been doing? Is there something else you haven't thought of? Really, Mr. Smith, there isn't a thing to think about. You don't need to think as to whether you want heaven or hell, life or death, freedom or slavery, communism or Christianity, happiness or unhappiness. All you need do is to give yourself to the Church . . . AND THE CHURCH WILL DO EXACTLY THE SAME FOR YOU!"

And I leave Mr. Smith's home with no little heaviness of heart realizing that there are scores of "Jack Smith" families in Post: fathers, mothers, sons, daughters who are AWOL from Church week after week.

So I hope all the "Jack Smiths" read this sincere, heartfelt appeal: COME TO CHURCH MR. AND MRS. SMITH AND FAMILY . . . the Church of your choice—that Church wants all of you . . . and all of you need that Church.

Three Post High singers named to All-Region Choir

by Sharyn Bilberry
Congratulations to Jackie Gordon, Elbert Rudd and Jimmy Poer for making the All - Region Choir. Jackie will also be a candidate for the All-State Choir. We are all very proud of these three.

Sue Harrison, Becky Poer, Carol Davis, Mary Ann Straun, Don Collier, Charles Baker and myself also went to Coronado High to try out for the choir, but we weren't lucky enough to make it.

Those who didn't make the choir were disappointed, but enjoyed the trip anyway. We registered at 9 a. m. and then began our long wait for our turns to sing. Each minute that passed, we became a little more nervous — at least I did. The waiting wasn't too bad, since several of the schools brought their guitars and sang for everyone.

Next time we go I think Sue and Don will want to play the piano for themselves, and I'll take me a tranquilizer. Poor Elbert didn't get to eat lunch because he had to sing right after we ate.

We want to say thanks to Mr. Willson for the hours he spent in helping us, and thanks to Mr. Oliver for driving the bus.
