

White River gets big water contract

Humphrey edges Nixon by 47 votes in Garza balloting

Hubert Humphrey edged Richard Nixon in Tuesday's presidential election, 662 to 615, in Garza County. George Wallace running third with 374 votes.

Humphrey got 66 percent in winning here for Nixon and 24 percent for Wallace.

Counties didn't get near as excited over their presidential choices Tuesday as they had 4 years ago when a record number went to the polls to elect Johnson rout Barry Goldwater.

Only 1,694 turned out to mark their choices.

Despite the new "voting for" instead of "scratching" voting system and hundreds of split tickets, only 34 of the voters failed to have their vote counted in the presidential race.

Poll workers reported some of the 34 lost their votes because they clearly voted for two of the three candidates, or even because they simply didn't vote for president.

Humphrey carried seven of the county's 12 voting precincts, Nixon three plus the absentee box, and Wallace two (Close City and the Postex plant box).

Actually Humphrey picked up all his victory margin over Nixon in both county and city at the Two draw box where the Democrat rolled up nearly 80 per cent of the Negro and Latin vote to only 11 per cent for Nixon and 12 per cent for Wallace.

The count in this one box was 94 for Humphrey, 14 for Nixon and 14 for Wallace.

The county gave Lt. Gov. Preston Smith over 75 per cent of its vote in his winning bid to become West Texas' first governor of Texas. Smith polled 1,189 votes in the county to only 374 for Republican Paul Eggers.

The rest of the ballot was "all Democratic", too, with Democrats piling up big margins in the county for various minor state offices.

Garza countians approved of only four of the 14 state constitutional amendments on the ballot, voting in favor of No. 3, university land changes; No. 7, property tax decrease (and that was no landslide 638 to 476); No. 9, to raise teacher pension contributions, and No. 14, legislators' office eligibility.

They said their heaviest noes to raising the welfare ceiling (No. 2) and No. 13, stored property tax (See County Election, Page 8)

Brown, Kirby interests plan Garza waterflood

The White River Municipal Water District has negotiated a 20-year contract with George R. Brown and the Kirby Petroleum Company to sell them up to 30,000 barrels of water daily for the waterflooding of the big 480-well San Andres pool of the Garza Field here in Garza County, including under Post itself.

If the maximum amount of water is taken over the 20-year life of the contract, the two oil interests would pay the water district an estimated $4,000,000.

Al O'Brien, water district manager, announced the receipt of the signed water contract from Houston Monday.

The water contract has been negotiated over the last 10 months with the White River directors quietly approving final contract terms at their October meeting.

E. R. Buster Moreland, who heads the George R. Brown operations here, told The Dispatch that a lot of work will be required to get ready for the big waterflood but that the Brown interests which will operate the waterflood, hopes to be injecting White River water into the ground by next March 1.

Moreland said parts of the 12 to 14 square mile field will be brought into the waterflood as units with the town area probably being the last unit to take water.

The water contract calls for the oil firm to pay 2 cents a barrel for the first 5,000 barrels taken daily and 1.825 cents per barrel for all over 5,000.

Comparatively speaking, this means the oil firms will be paying about 47 cents per 1,000 gallons.

JUST EXACTLY what this big water contract will mean in tax relief to the taxpayers of the four cities in the water district will depend upon how successful the waterflooding operation becomes.

If it is successful, it would mean cutting and probably the eventual elimination of water district taxes.

If it is not successful, it will provide but partial tax relief over a short period of time.

THE WATER contract provides that on Jan. 1, 1976, the water buyers must make a new estimate of their water requirements and after that will be required to pay for 75 per cent of the water needed whether used or not.

This gives the oil firms seven years to firm up their water requirements.

The contract also provides that at the conclusion of the 20-year duration of the contract, the two oil interests will have the right to negotiate with the water district for further water with the price and quantity to be determined through negotiation.

O'BRIEN TOLD The Dispatch that the water district may have to install one additional pump on the Post water line when the oil firms get to their maximum usage.

Additional pumps mean that water can be moved through the line faster and thus more water can be moved in each 24-hour period.

Even when the maximum 30,000 barrels are taken by the oil interests for waterflooding, Post should still have all the water it needs, even in peak summer heat periods.

MORELAND explained that no deeper formations in the Garza Field, below the San Andres, will be waterflooded. The San Andres formation drilling started back in 1945.

The tremendous amount of preparatory work for the waterflooding will get under way in about three weeks, according to Moreland.

This will include surveying out and securing the right of way for the oil interests to build a connecting pipeline from the Post water line northeast of town to the injection wells in the San Andres field. Moreland said a pumping station also will have to be built.

Moreland said the size of the Brown work forces in Post will remain approximately the same as now with most of the extra work being contracted. He said the preparation work alone will be quite expensive.

ENGINEERS estimate the waterflooding of this big field will result in (See Water Contract, page 8)

Council adopts resolution

City to participate in building project

The Post city council last night adopted a resolution pledging its participation in the Garza County Junior Livestock Association's show building project.

What the council's action amounted to was the adoption of a resolution to strengthen its oral agreement to participate in the project, which had been made at an earlier meeting, but not included in the minutes.

The council indicated that its extent of participation would depend on what the county does and how much money the junior livestock association has toward the $24,200 building project.

The council also voted to authorize issuance of a notice of intent to pave issuance of paving warrants and employment of engineer Ralph Douglas to draw up plans and specifications for a city street paving program.

The action on the paving project came after the council heard Ronnie Purcell of Lubbock, representing Arnold Purcell, fiscal agent, explain the procedure to be followed when a fiscal agent is hired to handle the sign-up of property owners to paving agreements.

The council has under consideration the employment of a fiscal agent to handle the paving sign-up, but has not yet taken any definite action on whether or not it will go that route.

The city engineer has outlined an (See City Council, page 5)

This Halloween was quiet one

"This was as quiet a Halloween as anyone could have wished for," Police Chief Bill Gordon reported last Friday following the previous night's spooking.

The police chief said the only fire set Halloween night was some old automobile tires and that the blaze was quickly put out.

Not to be entirely outdone, however, some pranksters waited until Saturday night to bring in an outhouse and set it afire on West Main. "We haven't found out where they got the outhouse," Gordon said.

There was lots of water balloon throwing, but it was mainly among the youngsters themselves and did not get out of hand, the police chief reported.

"The police department wishes to thank all the boys and girls who helped us make this a safe and sane Halloween," Gordon said.

There were literally hundreds of "trick or treaters" Halloween night, but most of them went home early, their sacks full.

The Halloween Carnival at the 4-H building, sponsored by the Student Council of Post High School, was well attended by both youngsters and adults, the sponsors reported.

Band to present contest routine

The Post High School Antelope band will go through its marching contest numbers in a half-time show at Friday night's Post-Idaho football game.

The University Interscholastic League marching contest is set for Tuesday, Nov. 12, at Levelland.

En route to Levelland, Director Herb Germer's Post band will present in Lubbock to watch a Texas Tech band rehearsal.

The Post band will perform a number of types of drills at this year's contest, including blockbusters and step - two drills.

"The band is striving for an excellent rating at the contest," Germer said.

Next Tuesday night

Canvass set here for United Fund

A "block by block" United Fund canvass of Post is scheduled for next Tuesday night in an effort to raise $3,000 to enable the Garza County fund organization to reach its $10,000 goal for 1969.

Lou Marks, United Fund treasurer, reported contributions as of last Thursday's "report meeting" stood at $8,033.46 with an increase up to about $6,500 today.

Bailey Mayo, fund president, in announcing plans for the house to house solicitation called for all drive workers to get their final reports in by Saturday, Nov. 9.

With still a number of cards out, including some in the big gifts division, Mayo said it is hoped to wind up Saturday with $7,000 to clear the way for the final canvass.

He said a rural home drive would be announced later.

"We will need the support of everyone to reach our goal," Mayo said. "If you already have given, we ask you to dig a little deeper. Two dollars per family would assure us of being able to carry out our youth programs here and support other worthwhile agencies."

Plans for the Tuesday night solicitation were made at the report meeting last Thursday. Civic clubs are being asked to assist in this final $3,000 drive.

Workers will be assigned solicitation of one square block and will be asked to turn in contributions received immediately at the Community Room where drive headquarters are being established.

"Your gift to the United Fund," Mayo said today, "helps your neighbor, strengthens your community, and makes life a little better for you."

The Tuesday night drive will open at 7:30 and is expected to be "all wrapped up" by 10 p. m.

No school here Friday, it's in-service workday

There will be no school here tomorrow (Friday) because of an in-service workday being held for teachers.

Friday's in-service workday will be the second of four to be held this school year. Supt. Bill was held Oct. 21.

JUST PASSING THROUGH

Trail ride 'pair' headed due west

Traveling coast-to-coast — from Charleston, S. C., to Los Angeles, Calif. — Go-Boy, a registered Tennessee Walking Horse stallion, and his rider, Farris "Dan" Wilson of Louisville, Ky., passed through Post at 3 o'clock last Thursday afternoon.

While Los Angeles is their destination, Wilson said during a brief roadside stop a few miles east of Post that his main concern right now is reaching Alamogordo, N. M., on schedule.

"They tell me if I get to Alamogordo before bad weather hits, I'll have it made as far as the weather is concerned," Wilson said.

"Even if it gets cold before we get there, though, we'll have memories of our Texas reception to help keep us warm," Wilson said as he patted his horse's neck.

The horse and rider spent Wednesday night at the Lee W. Davis Sr. home, several miles east of Post, and Thursday night at the Elmo Bush home west of Post.

"Mr. Davis was mighty nice to us," Wilson said during his brief stop here. "I slept in the bunkhouse, had a breakfast of bacon and eggs, and Mr. Davis went into town and had some oats sent out for Go-Boy. He also pulled two of Go-Boy's colt teeth before we hit the road."

They left Charleston in July and the day they came through Post was their 56th riding day.

"We take one day a week off," Wilson explained. "Next week, I plan to take off on Election Day and spend it in Lovington, New Mexico."

"We're making every effort to travel 30 to 35 miles a day, but right now are averaging only a little over 27 miles a day."

Wilson said he considers this the greatest trail ride of them all. "Los Angeles is a flat 3,000 miles from where we started," he said.

Go-Boy travels on the unpaved right-of-way along the highway where possible. The rider camps out with his mount except at such times when he is fortunate enough to secure inside quarters for himself and Go-Boy, as was the case at the Lee Davis and Elmo Bush places.

Wilson said their route was mapped to miss the larger towns. "The biggest towns we passed through were Augusta, Ga., and Tuscaloosa, Ala.," he recalled.

Most of the rider's needs and those of his mount are carried on the saddle and in the large saddle bags.

What is the reason for the trail ride, Wilson was asked.

"Well, sir," he replied, "it came about from a chance encounter and conversation between myself and Ray Corum, owner of the Ray Corum Stables at Louisville, Ky."

"With my enthusiasm for making the ride and Mr. Corum's confidence that he had just the horse (See Trail Ride, page 8)

Tuesday's was the most enjoyable presidential election for us since we got into the newspaper business 30 years ago as a kid fresh out of college. This is the first one we didn't have "to cover."

"Covering" is fun in a way, but quite exhausting.

Since there is little interest here in the Garza County vote at general elections, Mrs. C and I stayed home and watched the television and computer marvels combine, mixed with a little bit of "ham" — to follow the returns from around the country. We stayed with it on the bedroom TV until five minutes after 3 a. m. when we finally shut off the "tube" after being convinced CBS just wasn't going to give any of its viewers a peak at the Illinois and California vote counts.

That incidentally was the most (See Postings, page 8)

Cotton crop rush picks up 'steam'

The rush is on in Garza County's first 1969 cotton harvest and "fixing" to get started shortly after the first freeze on the second.

The county's gins report 5,338 Garza County bales to date with 225 more on the yard — and they range from working around the clock to "waiting for frost" depending on which harvest is involved in their area.

Of course, some are involved in both.

The Dispatch in referring to the early cotton as the "first harvest" and the June planted cotton as the "second harvest."

With farmers eyeing the weather yesterday anticipating the first freeze last night, County Agent Syd Conner said "most of the county's cotton" is ready for a freeze, but added, "Some of it won't be ready before Christmas."

The biggest rush is in the Graham Co-op area with the least activity in the Southland area around the Basinger Gin where field water floods literally washed the cotton away last June.

The Basinger Gin has ginned only 20 bales, while the Graham Gin already has turned out 2,855 and is working around the clock with two full crews trying to keep up.

The Dispatch's weekly "gin count" turned up these reports:

Graham Co-op: 2,855 bales ginned, yard crew has been on since last Tuesday. Before that some area farmers helped run the gin part of the night. Most farmers in that area with best cotton in years have defoliated, taking no chances.

Close City Gin: 906 bales ginned, 60 more on yard. Working 16 hours daily, rush pretty well started, according to Gin Manager W. H. Childs.

Grassland Co-op: (One-third of this cotton ginned here is estimated as Garza County cotton) 1,220 bales ginned, 56 bales on yard. Crew working 16 hours daily. Rush under way, lots of defoliation, yield averaging bale or more to acre.

Planter's Gin: 320 bales ginned, seven bales on yard. Running each day until midnight. Mostly late cotton in area and real rush not anticipated before next week; some (See Cotton Crop, page 6)

Post girl runner-up in beauty contest

Janice Gordon and Sheryl Cooper represented Post last Saturday in the Miss South Plains contest at Levelland with Miss Gordon being named second runner-up.

The Post girls' entry in the contest was sponsored by the Post Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Winner of the contest was Nancy Lee Turner, a South Plains College sophomore from Brownfield. First runner-up was Barbara Baker of Levelland.

Girls from eight counties participated in the Miss South Plains contest.

NOT MUCH NOTICE OF VETERAN'S DAY

Monday, Nov. 11, is Veteran's Day, but it won't be much of a holiday in Post.

The post office and other government offices will be closed. The county courthouse also will remain closed, but the city hall and the First National Bank will be open for business.

Veteran's Day is not one of the official closing holidays proclaimed by the Post Chamber of Commerce, so few, if any, business places will be closed for the day.

Saturday night, Nov. 9, the American Legion post will hold its annual Veteran's Day Supper at the Legion Hall, starting at 7 o'clock. All ex - servicemen are invited.

Pioneer county rancher in hospital at Lubbock

Clyde Miller, who has ranched in the Fluvanna vicinity since 1900, is seriously ill in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock, where tests are being made to determine the nature of his illness.

Mr. Miller became ill about two weeks ago while he and his sons, Ralph and Riley Miller, were working cattle in South Dakota. He was admitted to the Lubbock hospital Sunday night after having been in a Rapid City, S. D., hospital for a week.

Men named for '69 banquet

The chairman were named by the Chamber of Commerce directors for their November meeting for the annual banquet for Feb. 6, 1969, and to a nominating committee for the directors and president.

Those named for the banquet are: Vernon Scott was put in charge of banquet decorations, Bert Cox of banquet program, and meal.

The Post authorized the Post to order six - inch letters printed on the Chamber's Post signs on each US-84 to Post.

Johnson, president, told of how livestock association and asked Chamber support the project.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1968

Monday, Nov. 11, is Veterans Day

Next Monday—Nov. 11, 1968—will be Veterans Day.

Fifty years have passed since the end of World War I. America's first great attempt to ensure freedom and peace for the world.

Silence fell over No Man's Land in Europe at 11 a.m. on Nov. 11, 1918, ending World War I. This date and time marks the moment for an annual observance in the United States honoring our veterans—living and dead—of all our wars for freedom.

Today—50 years later—we are still looking toward the future with the continued hope of a world free of aggression. This despite the fact that three more times since the first Armistice Day in 1918, we have crossed the seas to fight for freedom—around the world in World War II, to Korea, and now in Vietnam.

Four and one-half million Americans went to war in World War I and 126,000 of them paid with the supreme sacrifice.

Only a year after congress in 1938 made Armistice Day a legal holiday the world erupted into World War II with tyrants again marching across Europe and Asia. America faced both east and west to meet this challenge and sent 16 1/2 million men to fight on to eventual victory with our allies.

As we celebrate Veterans Day this year, we pause to remember the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, symbolic of over a half million Americans who have paid with their lives over the last 50 years that our freedom might endure.

We have inherited a great treasure and are the recipients of a great trust which we must keep, or we shall lose this freedom which we have maintained at such great cost.

More than 26 million of the 39 million Americans who have marched to arms in past wars are alive today. It is you we will honor Monday on Veterans Day.

On Veterans Day we will salute you who have provided us the incentives and the responsibilities for preserving this democracy. We will honor those who have died for freedom's sake, and pledge to you who live that we will remember your contributions to our own freedom.—JC

Small price to pay for rights

The rights of U. S. citizenship include freedom of religion, speech and press, freedom of peaceable assembly, the right to own property and arms, and equality before the law. Only a tiny portion of the people who ever lived on earth have enjoyed this state of personal independence and freedom from tyranny.

In the light of the above, isn't it about time for us to remind ourselves that the price for our rights we are expected to be loyal to our country, obey its laws, vote in its elections, pay taxes for the support of government and serve in the armed forces if called.

Some of us seem to want the rights and privileges of U. S. citizenship but are unwilling to pay the price for them in return. We should all remember that you never get something for nothing, less of all the priceless privilege of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Dear Turnrow Junket

O. C. McBRIDE

I read that according to the Dept. of Labor, there is a "status" in employment butlers in the U. S.

This is not a problem I don't lose any sleep worrying about. Turnrow junketmen and orthodontists, who as far as I know are the only people who can afford junkets, will just have to get by the best they can.

Did you read that doctors have decided that overwork does not contribute to heart trouble, but too much sleep does?

That's terrible news. What is a fellow going to tell his wife when she wants him to work in the backyard on Sunday afternoon instead of taking a nap?

I understand that most television programs scheduled for the early part of the evening are designed for younger people.

Maybe that's the reason I don't watch tv much. I get sleepy before they start the programs aimed at my age group.

Did you read that manufacturers are holding larger and fancier lawn and garden tractors? Some cost more than $2,000, and many people buy them as "status symbols."

In my part of the country, I think boats are considered status symbols. There's no other way to explain people who live 300 miles from the nearest lake in a house worth $3,000, with a $5,000 boat parked outside.

I see where the Government has published a pamphlet telling people how to avoid being struck by lightning.

That figures. I've said all along that those Washington planners think the average citizen doesn't have enough sense to come in out of the rain.

Did you know there is a psychiatrist in Los Angeles who specializes in treating dogs? A session costs $50 an hour.

Of the three parties involved—the dog, its owner and the doctor—I'd say at least two were crazy. There's no way of being sure about the dog.

COW POKES By Ace Reid

"No sir, we shore wanta keep that fly from disturbing our ole best buddy!"

You won't "disturb" us here at the First National Bank by calling on us for a sampling of our Friendly Customer Service.

IT WOULD BE easy to wade right off into this column with a "Congratulations!" if I knew who won the presidential election Tuesday. I know who won it now, while you are reading this, but I didn't know then, while I was writing this.

The man up the street says all most men want from their wives is affection, admiration, encouragement and ability to live grandly on an inadequate income.

A WEEK OR so ago, the Lubbock newspaper published an interesting feature story by Tanner Laine, the paper's regional editor, on the Bryant - Link Company, which for over half a century was this area's outstanding "family store" chain.

There were a few "gaps," however, in Tanner's story. One was his not giving sufficient recognition to the company's founder, J. C. Bryant, who, incidentally, was the grandfather of Mrs. Powell (Sue) Shytle of Post.

JOHN CUTHBERT Bryant, a native of Missouri, came to Texas at the age of 19 years with an older brother, J. A. Bryant. The two brothers opened a store at Anson, Jones County, on Feb. 3, 1884. J. A., the older brother, lived only six weeks after he came to Texas. In 1890, John's oldest brother, W. C. Bryant, came from Missouri to Texas and the two went into business together.

In the meantime, J. C. Bryant and Sarah Caroline Huie of Anson were married and to this union were born four children. One of them, Mrs. Charles G. English, now of Corpus Christi, is Sue Shytle's mother.

WITH A George H. Baker coming into the firm in 1897, it became known as the Baker-Bryant-Link Company and opened a store in Stamford when that town started in 1900. Later in the year, a store was opened in Aspermont.

In 1901, George S. Link came into the firm and it later became known as the Baker - Bryant-Link Company. At the end of 1919, with some 15 stores in the chain, Baker-Bryant was reorganized and, in 1920, the stores were incorporated under the name of Bryant - Link Company.

AT ONE TIME, there were more than 13 stores in the chain, but this number had dropped to 10 when the company observed its Golden Anniversary in 1934. One of the ten stores was in Post, where it had opened in 1917. Others in 1934 were at Paducah, Spur, Jayton, Aspermont, Kiamford, Rotan, Hamlin, Lamesa and Snyder.

Employees of the Post store on the company's 50th anniversary in 1934 included: C. M. Voss Jr., Miss Mary Speck, Mrs. A. H. Justice, R. D. Travis, John Speck D. D. (Bud) Speck and Guy Speck.

THE BRYANT-LINK Company is no more, but it helped make the history of this area by gaining and holding the confidence of its customers. It most certainly was one of the foremost Texas retail institutions while it was in business.

Most of the above information was found in the company's Golden Anniversary magazine published in 1934. In addition to congratulatory advertisements from some of the nation's biggest manufacturing firms, the magazine contains pictures of the Bryant - Link Company's officers and board members, store employees, etc. There are also many gems of wisdom, humor and home - spun philosophy in the magazine, including this one:

IN THE OLD DAYS

Things now are different: some are worse but more are better. Years ago folks boiled coffee and settled it with egg - shell, ladies rode side - saddles, little Johnnie wore brass - toed boots, and daddy wore brogans. It took twenty minutes to shine shoes with Mason's Shoe Blacking Ladies' dresses reached the ground and then some. People served pot - liquor instead of canned soup. Indigestion was called plain stomach ache. About the only crooks were lightning rod salesmen. Cotton seed was considered fairly good fertilizer. The fellow who owned a buggy was looked on as a rich man. A man made the same wife last a lifetime, and horseback riding was considered the swiftest way for the doctor to reach the patient.

DEER HUNTER SUCCESSFUL

Carl Ford returned Sunday morning from deer hunting near Dove Creek, Colo., which is near the Utah state line. The new Piggly Wiggly manager said his group bagged six deer and that it snowed on them last Thursday. He went on his first Colorado deer hunting expedition with some Lamesa hunters.

Card of Thanks

The members of the Graham Methodist Church would like to thank each one that helped make our Harvest Festival a success. We want to thank each one that bought tickets, and donated money, to all of those who came for supper; to Ken Callaway of Ken's Mobil for donating the ice for our supper. The MPY would like to thank Punk Peel or Peel's Conoco for donating our drinks. Thank you, everyone.

Again, during my hospital stay, you showered me with cards, letters and flowers. Again, I was reminded in every way possible, that your thought went my way. And AGAIN I find words inadequate to express to all of you my heartfelt thanks. So this will be my thanks to you for every kindness from every one of you.

Lowell Short

I wish to thank everyone who sent cards, letters, flowers and gifts and visited me while I was in the West Texas Hospital. A special thanks to those who cared for my children.

Mrs. Grady Davis

We wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone and to tell you how grateful we are for your visits, cards, flowers, and especially your prayers during Fred's stay in the hospital. God bless you.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Gossett

Vet's Forum

Q. My wife and I are both veterans with full G. I. loan eligibility. The home we want to purchase will require a loan of $50,000. Our lender says he won't make us a G. I. loan in this amount unless the VA will guarantee $25,000 of the loan amount. Can we combine our entitlement of $12,500 each to do this?

A. Yes, provided the VA determines the reasonable value of the home is at least $50,000. It would also be necessary, of course, that the family income be sufficient to handle the mortgage payments and other family expenses.

Q. I am confused about the new pension law as it applies to Social Security payments. Do I have to include these payments in estimating my 1969 income on the annual VA income questionnaire? If so, will the higher payments next year result in a reduction in my VA pension?

A. Public Law 90-275 says that you will not have your VA pension reduced in 1969 because of higher Social Security payments. However, you do have to include your Social Security benefits in the estimate of your 1969 income. The annual VA income questionnaire will be sent to you a month early this year, around Nov. 1 instead of Dec. 1. You must return the questionnaire to VA a little earlier than in the past, by Jan. 15 rather than Jan. 30.

Q. I receive 30 per cent disability compensation from the VA. However, I will soon be 65 and retired. Can I waive my disability compensation and come under VA pension if it is to my advantage to do so?

A. In a word yes. However, you should check with the VA office where your records are filed and ask for assistance in determining whether it will be your advantage to switch to VA pension program. While pension rates and income tax change on Jan. 1, 1969, you must mind that the monthly compensation rate for service-connected disabilities will also be raised Jan. 1. Your 30 per cent compensation rate will go up from $65 a month.

It's My Turn

— By MRS. C.

Item and then I hit the book on my desk! I feel like I've cancelled what I am going to do — what am I going to do in the future when I sit down to write? Monday?

Code. I finally thought of something good about it. I think the money we lose since it came into being by paying 10 cents to get papers back that get "screwed" up at sectional centers and the extra papers we send out to patrons who do not receive a certain paper, might just balance out at the end of the year by collecting an extra five and four cents (the rate drops in consecutively run ads) from people who put the Zip Code number in their classified ads. I might enter the above sentence in a "longest sentence contest" if I can find one going on.

Oops, I left out "imitation." Do you know that one can now buy imitations? I found this out several weeks ago when pausing at the dairy counter to purchase some margarine. There before my eyes was a low-calorie margarine which I stupidly bought. A few days later I was using it to butter (funny how the word "butter" sticks around — I've never thought of "margarine" toast, have you?) some toast and noticed that it said on the package that it was an imitation of an imitation. Take a tip from me and don't waste your money. It is not a success!

"Happy mail patrons" won't take long. Occasionally I get notes from people who say "I get my paper when I ought to. Why don't you ever say anything nice about the post office?" To my way of thinking, doing the "job you are supposed to do" never rates any praise. It's when you exceed the norm that praises are in order. So there!

I got too wordy again so am left with "oaks." I'll leave it as a "seed" to grow on. The pun is intended.

Guests artists at Music Club meet

Cecil Bolton, organist of the First Presbyterian Church in Lubbock and Miss Jolene Montgomery, a senior music major at Texas Tech were guest artists at the Monday night meeting of the Post Music Club, National Federation of Music Clubs.

Forty-five members and guests were present to hear the "Sacred Music" program at the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Bolton, who is a member of the Fellow of American Guild of Organists, played music appropriate for weddings and funerals. He also accompanied Miss Montgomery as she sang songs appropriate at the same functions. A discussion concerning the music was also conducted.

Mrs. Glenn Norman and Mrs. Hershel Bevers were hostesses.

'Nutcracker Suite' rehearsals begin

Post Music Club members have commenced rehearsals for the presentation of "The Nutcracker Suite" by Tchaikovsky.

The production is planned for Dec. 7 at the Post primary auditorium, with singing, narration and puppets to be included.

The local club is a member of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Sulphur's name came from the Latin word for brimstone, meaning burning stone.

WED FRIDAY, OCT. 25

Miss Karen Sue Autry became the bride of Lamar Jones at 8 p. m. Friday, Oct. 25, at the Assembly of God Church of Tahoka. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Autry of Route 2, Tahoka, and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Jones of Post.

WANTS CLEANER TOWN

Dear Editor:

I would like to say a few words in support of Mrs. Didway's letter to the editor regarding the weedy vacant lots in our city.

Mrs. C. indicated in her column, "It's My Turn," that Mrs. Didway's complaints would fall on deaf ears, which is likely true, as this thing has been complained about before without any results. However, I believe if enough of the citizens of this town would really get together and let it be known through the paper, like Mrs. Didway did, that we wanted and deserved a cleaner town, we would get results.

It was mentioned that the city officials must not ever drive around in town on Sunday evenings.

It's hard to imagine that they could fail to see at least enough weeds, trash and litter of every imaginable kind, not to mention grass and weeds growing through the pavement. That looks ridiculous in itself, but it's usually found growing near the gutter, which naturally catches trash, dirt and silt each time it rains, building a sizeable sand bar in front of someone's home he has worked hard to keep attractive.

They should see enough going to and from work to prompt some action. We do not believe the dumping of street sweepings are the ideas of the employees. We believe they are instructed so by the officials. You can hear them squawk: "The land these sweepings are dumped on belongs to the city." It's been said before; perhaps it does. But almost every home that is occupied, whether by owner or tenant, are taking care of this land. They have trees, grass and shrubs growing on it. They keep it watered, the grass mowed, the trees and shrubs trimmed, which adds to the beauty of the property, thus adding to the beauty of the city.

Show me something beautiful about several loads of street sweepings dumped on someone's vacant lot or church lot with tumbleweeds growing all over it. Look on the west side of the church lot at 115 14th St. Why not put these sweepings on dirt streets that are full of holes, where it would be beneficial, and haul the other debris to the dump ground, where it belongs?

'Cost of Credit' panel scheduled

A three-man panel will discuss "The Cost of Credit" to highlight Consumers Education Week today (Thursday) at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the Community Room, according to Mrs. Karen Parnell, County Home Demonstration agent.

Panel members will be Vernon Scott, a vice president of the First National Bank; Bill Stewart of Tahoka, county Farmers Home Administration supervisor; and Harold Lucas of Lucas Chevrolet-Olds.

A question and answer period will follow the panel's discussion on credit.

The 55, Pleasant Valley and Graham Home Demonstration clubs will host the affair and extend an invitation to all women of the county to attend.

Posters on "Consumer Education" made by 4-H youths will be on display.

Post artists spend weekend at ranch

Several members of the Post Art Guild enjoyed a weekend of sketching, painting and picture taking at the Ralph Welch ranch near Sterling City with Helen Welch, another member, as their hostess.

Mmes. Geraldine Butler, Marie Neff, Boo Olson, Allie Martin and Evelyn Neff left Post at 8:30 a. m. Saturday and arrived at the ranch in time for lunch. In the afternoon they took Mr. Welch's van and drove to a canyon for their art work.

Sunday morning they went north of the ranch to "Lover's Leap" and to a spring for more sketching, painting and picture taking. Lots of wild turkeys and several deer were sighted by the group.

Picnic lunches were taken with them for the Sunday excursion. After returning to the ranch at 3 o'clock the ladies drove back to Post.

BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Brenda Kay Foll will become the bride of Billy Jack Hodges at 8 p. m. Jan. 18 at the First Baptist Church in Aspermont. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Foll of Aspermont. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hodges of Route 1, Post.

Culture Club members are to visit and support Girlstown

The Woman's Culture Club voted to support and visit Girls' Town at Whiteface, a Caprock District special project this year, when it met Oct. 30 in the home of Mrs. Ralph Welch with Mrs. Jack Myers as co-hostess.

Mrs. Myers opened the meeting by leading members in the union reading of the club collect.

In other business, the club president, Mrs. M. J. Malouf, reported that the sale of scenic table mats was going well, commenting that some members had sold their complete allotment. Mrs. Joe Irons informed members that the old Post Sanitarium building is available for club use, and Mrs. Lee Davs told members about the recent Caprock District meeting in Friona.

Mrs. Ira Lee Duckworth began the program on "United States Presidents" with the life history of George Washington entitled "The Steward of Revolution." Mrs. J. H. Haire spoke on John Adams — "Colossal of Debates" and Mrs. Herman Havis on Thomas Jefferson — "Sage of Monticello."

The hostesses served finger-sandwiches, pumpkin pie, homemade fudge squares, coffee and tea to the following:

Mmes. Malouf, Irons, Duckworth, Davis, Louie Burkes, Bailey Mayo, Tillman Jones, R. L. Marks, J. F. Storie, R. T. Dickson, C. D. Morrel, C. R. Thaxton, Kent Magness and Haire.

DID YOU KNOW?

THE DRIVE TO SAFETY

SKIDDING WAS ONE OF THE MAJOR CAUSES OF NEARLY 13 MILLION AUTO ACCIDENTS LAST YEAR, RESULTING IN OVER 50,000 DEATHS AND ABOUT 2 MILLION INJURED AND DISABLED.

SCIENTISTS HAVE FINALLY DEVELOPED A DEVICE TO HELP PREVENT SKIDDING AND SWERVING—THE LEE MYLES ROAD PILOT, AN ANTI-SKID AUTO STABILIZER. IT'S A COMPACT, FULLY ENCLOSED INSTRUMENT THAT HOUSES A HORIZONTAL PENDULUM AND, WHEN ANCHORED TO THE TRUNK, INSTANTLY AND AUTOMATICALLY HELPS THE DRIVER MAINTAIN CONTROL ON OIL SLICKS, WET OR SNOWY ROADS, PANIC STOPS OR BLOWOUTS AND CURVES.

HOW IT WORKS

WHEN A SKID STARTS, THE REAR OF THE VEHICLE GOES IN THE OPPOSITE DIRECTION TO THE POSITION OF THE STEERING WHEEL. THE PENDULUM IN THE STABILIZER MOVES TO "PUSH" THE REAR END BACK TO A STRAIGHT LINE. POLICE, BUS AND FIRE FIGHTING VEHICLES ARE NOW INSTALLING THE LEE MYLES ANTI-SKID AUTO STABILIZER.

"I Need To Rest On Sundays . . ."

Fifth in a Series

By Bernard S. Ramsey

"I WORK TOO HARD DURING THE WEEK AND NEED TO REST ON SUNDAYS" . . . that's Jack Smith's fifth excuse for absenting himself from Church on the Lord's Day.

To which I answer: "I am so glad to hear you say that because THE CHURCH IS THE BEST PLACE IN THE WORLD TO REST!" . . . "Frankly, Mr. Smith" I continue, "if you are accustomed to sleeping on Sunday, we invite you to use our pews. On an average Sunday I can look around and see several people sound asleep because THEY ARE AT PEACE WITH GOD AND THE WORLD."

And then I remind Mr. Jack Smith of the appeal of the Bible: ". . . they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength". That truth, Mr. Smith has been verified by scores of mental clinics and hospitals; thousands of patients have been aided tremendously in getting well, who had breakdowns due to overwork, by attending church.

Tired, working people are the very ones with whom Christ would populate His Church . . . "COME UNTO ME ALL YE THAT LABOR AND ARE HEAVY LADEN AND I WILL GIVE YOU REST" . . . I am just about to give up on the possibility of ever getting Jack Smith and family back to church—when he gives me his sixth excuse . . . (sixth excuse next week)

POST ANTELOPES Vs IDALOU WILDCATS Friday Night, Nov. 8 7:30 P. M. Kickoff IN ANTELOPE STADIUM

Coach Glynn Gregg's Post High Antelopes will close out their 1968 season here the next two Friday nights with district clashes with the Idalou Wildcats and the Morton Indians. They want to win both of them.

What's more they have an even chance to win a pair.

Idalou, the toughest of the two, comes to town tomorrow night. They walloped the Morton Indians 31-8 at Idalou last Friday night for their first victory of the year.

What the team needs against both Idalou and Morton is YOUR SUPPORT! Stir up some enthusiasm. The Antelopes attack has been improving the last three weeks. Post moved the ball through the air against Denver City last Friday night.

Garza countians attend '68 Texas history meeting

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Surman and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. "Chief" Runkles represented the Garza County Historical Survey Committee at the 1968 annual meeting of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee and its private affiliate, the Texas Historical Foundation, held last Thursday and Friday in San Antonio.

Garza County won third place in the statewide competition for "Best County Committee Newsletter" at the convention.

The highlight of the meeting was an address by Gov. John Connally in which he stressed the importance of appreciation and preservation of Texas heritage. The governor was accompanied by Mrs. Connally, who was presented the Ruth Lester Award for Meritorious Service in Historic Preservation. She won the honor for her work in restoring the gardens and grounds of the Governor's Mansion in Austin.

The meeting's tour of historic points of interest included the King William District of historic homes, the famous San Jose Mission and the Institute of Texas Cultures.

City Council—

(Continued From Front Page) ambitious paving program that would cost the city approximately $87,000 as its part. The engineer explained, however, that the outlined program includes all the unpaved streets from the railroad tracks west, and that the city no doubt would not include all the unpaved streets in its project. The engineer predicted that the city "would do good" to be able to include 50 per cent of the proposed program in its paving project.

The council accepted the West Texas Equipment Co's bid of $6,000 on purchase of a bulldozer to be used mainly at the city dump grounds. The council bid was the only one submitted.

City Manager Eddie Warren said the bulldozer would be here "within the next week or two." The city council tabled a request submitted by Fire Chief Loyd Mock for a $1 an hour pay raise for volunteer firemen. The firemen's pay now is $1 an hour for the first hour of firefighting and $2 an hour for every additional hour.

Wednesday night's council session was its regular November meeting, which had been postponed from Monday night.

My Neighbors

"Can't you set it to come up with only hopeful predictions?"

Trail ride—

(Continued From Front Page) for it, we set out on many months of planning, securing special equipment, saddle bags, and so forth, and conditioning of myself and a Go-Boy for every conceivable obstacle we would have to endure. "We agreed right at the start that the personal satisfaction and fun of planning and making this great ride, along with the publicity the Tennessee Walking Horse breed would receive, would compensate for the effort involved."

Go-Boy, whose full name is Go-Boy's Missing Heir, is a four-year-old red roan stallion, raised and owned by the Ray Corum Stables. Wilson is a native of the Bluegrass Region of Kentucky and has been a lover of horses since childhood. He is at present in the process of developing his own horse farm near Louisville where he will devote his time to the raising of Tennessee Walking Horses following the completion of this coast-to-coast ride.

"This trip is satisfying one of my lifetime ambitions," he said "that of turning my mount west from the tides of the Atlantic and riding him across the U. S. A. to the surf of the Pacific."

"I hope to eat Christmas dinner in California," Wilson said, "maybe not in Los Angeles — but in California."

"If this trip works out like we think it will, we'd like to see a nominal horseback trail established along the same route," Wilson continued. "In fact, I'd like to have a group go back over it with me."

All that was Thursday of last week — over a week ago. Somewhere in New Mexico, Go-Boy is plodding along with Wilson in the saddle — hoping to make Alamo-gordo before the snow flies.

Each year the Texas Highway Department spends approximately $69 million to make highways safe and to improve existing routes.

Idalou takes two from Post teams

Post's 7th and 8th grade football teams lost at Idalou Tuesday evening in their final games of the season.

Post's 8th grade team led, 6-0, at the end of the first half, but Idalou came back strong in the second half to post an 18-6 victory. The Post 7th grade team lost, 18 to 8.

Robert Mindieta scored on a five-yard end run in the second quarter in the 8th grade game, but Idalou tied the score in the third period and notched two more touchdowns in the fourth.

In the 7th grade game, Idalou led 18-0 at the end of the first half, with Post scoring in the third quarter on a pass from John Redman to Ricky Shepherd. Johnny Jefferson scored the extra points on a run.

Tuesday's losses to Idalou gave both Post Junior High teams a 5-1 record for the season. It brought Coach Bud Davis' 8th grade team's record for two years to 10-1-3, since it compiled a 5-0-2 record last year.

Water contract—

(Continued From Front Page) quire from 22 to 24 years to complete. Moreland said no accurate estimate can be made as to possible recovery until the actual oil recovery operations begin after sufficient water has been injected.

The big San Andres pool of the Garza Field covers approximately 12 to 14 sections, beginning northwest of Post and running diagonally across Post to the southeast.

Kirby Petroleum has a fourth interest in George R. Brown wells in the field plus a 15-well lease of its own west of Post. O'Brien told The Dispatch that the negotiations went smoothly with Moreland and R. P. Haddox of Houston, chief engineer for the oil and gas divisions of George R. Brown, playing important roles in it.

O'BRIEN said the oil firms once they begin injecting water into the San Andres formation are expected to build up gradually to their maximum uses of 30,000 barrels daily. White River directors three months ago authorized O'Brien to conduct the final contract negotiations in behalf of the district.

The water district's first contract for waterflooding in this county was signed last year with Sun Oil providing for a maximum of 4,000 barrels of White River water daily. The firm is now injecting but 1,500 barrels daily in its waterflood south of Post.

The main component of man's diet is carbohydrate starch. It is also his chief source of energy.

Postings—

(Continued from Front Page) stupid aspect of the TV coverage, which wasn't had until the computer totaling the results broke down early in the morning and the TV people refused to admit what had happened or we could have gone to bed a couple of hours earlier.

Cong. George Mahon stopped in at The Dispatch office in mid-afternoon of election day just to say hello. George was quite relaxed as he was unopposed for another term. He was driving home with Mrs. Mahon from a visit further south to watch the returns come in election night at Lubbock.

The big news this week, of course, is that big water contract George R. Brown and Kirby Petroleum have signed with the water district to waterflood the oldest pool in the big Garza Field. If it works, tax relief is coming. In time, it can mean the ending of White River taxes, but success of the waterflood must be first assured.

The Brown oil interests — as represented by Buster Moreland and his local crew — have been doing a host of good things for Post over the years, but this water contract can be the best of all.

When you see a Marlboro cigarette TV commercial look closely if it's got some "horse buyers" in it—because you may know those "buyers". Six local men were in the group of "extras" used in filming a Marlboro commercial on the famous Pitchfork Ranch between Guthrie and Dickens last Friday. The rest of the "buyers" were from Lubbock. Lubbock and Post Jaycees lined up the "extras."

Local men were Paul Cartwright and Don Ammons, Jaycees, and Pete Pennell, Bus Pennell, Bill Case and Roy Stevens. They said it was fun while the crew was "shooting," but all the sitting around got awfully tiresome. The men reported in western attire for the filming.

It's the Law...

SHIRT OFF YOUR BACK?

To the beleaguered debtor, his creditors may seem ready to snatch away all his worldly belongings. Armed with a judgment against him, they may indeed be able to seize his available assets in satisfaction of their claims.

However, there is a nest egg of possessions which — by law — is exempt from this dire fate. The debtor, at least if he has not waived his rights, may hold onto these possessions no matter what.

One purpose of these exemptions is to protect the debtor from "losing the shirt off his back" — that is, from losing the simple necessities of life. He is not to be pushed to the brink of either starvation or indecent exposure.

Another purpose is to let him keep what he needs to carry on as a breadwinner, so that he and his family will not become public charges.

Which items are exempt? There are a lot of odd items in the individual state laws, such as surveys and spinning wheels. But the most common are the family homestead, furniture, clothing, tools of the trade, insurance benefits, and wages — within widely varying limits.

In interpreting these laws, the courts usually give the debtor the benefit of the doubt, since exemptions are intended mainly for his and his family's welfare.

Thus, under an exemption of "household furniture," courts have protected not only chairs and tables but also a family piano. Under an exemption of "wearing apparel," courts have protected not only

Teachers attend TSTA convention

Three teachers represented the Garza County unit of the Texas State Teachers Association at the 90th annual convention of the TSTA held last Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Fort Worth.

Representing the Garza County unit were Anita Myers, president; George Pierce, vice president, and Beth Walker, treasurer of District 17 of the TSTA.

Keynote speaker at the state meeting, which was held in the Tarrant County Convention Center, was Bill Moyers, publisher of Newsday and former assistant to President Johnson.

Section meetings attended by the Post teachers were: Texas Association of School Librarians, Mrs. Walker; Texas Council of Teachers of Mathematics, Mrs. Pierce; Texas Elementary - Kindergarten-Nursery Education Association, Mrs. Myers.

Cotton crop—

Storie Gin: 153 bales ginned, working up to 12 hours a day, with rush not really started as most farmers waiting for freeze. Most cotton in area now ready for killing freeze.

Hackberry Gin: (Half these totals figured as Garza County cotton), approximately 810 bales ginned through Wednesday.

Basinger Gin: 20 bales ginned at three to four a day rate. All cotton in area late and farmers waiting for freeze.

Pleasant Valley Gin: 1,073 bales ginned, 130 bales on yard, half cotton early, half late. Two crews working around the clock, cotton grading fair.

Theft from police station reported

A 17-year-old Post youth was charged with misdemeanor theft in city court last week after he allegedly entered the police station and stole the billfold and other possessions of another youth who had been arrested on a drunk charge.

Police Chief Bill Gordon said the arrested youth's billfold and other possessions were put in an envelope and placed in an unlocked drawer of a filing cabinet at the police station.

He said the first the police knew of the theft was later that night when someone found the stolen billfold at the gate of the baseball park and turned it in to the police.

Gordon said the police immediately checked and found a youth asleep in a car at the ball park. He said a search of his pockets turned up some of the arrested youth's possessions that had been taken from the police station. The stolen billfold had contained $5.36 in money, the police chief said.

Hemophilia, an inherited blood disease, is known as "the disease of kings" because Queen Victoria passed it on to many of her descendants.

an extra suit of clothes but also a wrist watch.

On the other hand, courts have refused to stretch the exemption laws to unreasonable lengths. If they did, creditors would be that much slower to extend credit in the first place.

Accordingly, under an exemption of "tools of the trade," a barber was allowed to keep his scissors and combs — but not his chewing gum machine; an undertaker his candelabrum but not his office safe.

"Exemptions should be liberally construed," said one court, "but should not be applied as an instrument of fraud or imposition upon creditors."

County election—

(Continued From Front Page) exemption, and No. 10, the Texas-arkana tobacco tax relief. Strangest amendment vote appeared to be the close rejection of No. 5, legislative pay raise, which failed only 604 to 544 as far as Garza countians were concerned.

County Tax Assessor - Collector T. H. Tipton, unopposed for reelection, led the entire ticket with 1,279 votes.

Other county officials re-elected without opposition were County Attorney Preston Poole 1,243, and Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Calborn Jr., 1,248. County Commissioner Paul Jones polled 575 votes in precinct No. 1 unopposed, and Ben Sanchez 216 for re-election as county commissioner in precinct 3 unopposed.

Buy Bonds where you work.

They do.

Why do our servicemen buy U.S. Savings Bonds? Their reasons are the same as yours and mine: saving for the future, supporting freedom. And because they're fighting for freedom, too, maybe servicemen see the need more clearly than many of us. Buy Bonds. In more than one way, it makes you feel good.

Dear Customers:

As you know we don't have PROMOTIONAL sales wherein we would buy cheap merchandise to promote at a cheap price. We have always tried to stock GOOD merchandise ranging from the economy groups through the top grades in the industry. That is why we do not have promotional sales and this is not one.

In order to get the best possible prices we buy direct from the manufacturers. This means that often we have to buy six or seven months prior to delivery. In this type of operation it is impossible to not get overloaded on some items. Also after a year we come up with broken lots, odds and ends, unmatched pairs of lamps and etc. We had rather sacrifice these and put in new stock.

Now is the time to furnish that room with the furniture or carpet you want at a price you want to pay. Use your credit. We would like to have your account.

Southland class will present play tonight

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE

Greetings from our little community. It is once again that time of year when we flock to the "polls" to cast our ballot for the candidate of our choice. Thank God that we live in a country where we are free to do this. People who never take the time or the interest to do this really are not taking advantage of the wonderful privilege that is theirs, and ours, and yours! Yet, nine times out of ten, they are the ones that yell the loudest when things don't go their way. The election will once again make history and I am thankful to God that I will be helping in a small way to make that history.

The Southland Junior class will be presenting their play tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 p. m. Everyone is invited. This western comedy in three acts is named "The Blundering Herd" and has the following cast: Walrus, foreman of Long Horn Ranch, Larry Bevers; Pappy, a permanent fixture on the ranch, Gary Lester; Timothy Tyson, a scholarly soul looking for adventure, David Mock; Zip, a boxcar traveler, Larry Lockridge; Gordon Rodgers, a likeable young man from the East, Stanley Abshire; Shoo-Hi the Chinese cook, Louis Flores; Peggy Houston, owner of Long Horn Ranch, Sherri Wilke; Ruth Bell, a neighbor of Peggy, Norma Eckert; Miss Herring, a spinster from the East, Pearl Flores; Sylvia and Mildred, wards of Miss Herring, Lucy Cardenas and Rosemary Davilla. For reserved seats see any Junior!

Well, the Dawson Dragons topped the Southland Eagles 38-6 last Friday night. At the beginning of the season we all had bright hopes of winning our district, but things just haven't gone that way—due largely to injuries suffered by the boys. Our team is small in number to begin with and when even one boy gets hurt, it hurts the whole team. Darrell Wilke sustained injuries in the Loop game Oct. 25 and is out for the season; Joe E. Basinger and Louis Flores both have injuries which haven't kept them out of the game but has kept them from playing their best. Douglas Smallwood received a bad ankle injury Friday night and I don't know if he will be able to play in the next game or not. Even though Southland won't be winning their district, their fans think that they are a great team and are behind them 100 per cent. They will play the Union team at Union on Nov. 15. Good luck, boys.

MY SISTER and brother-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Bryan of Farmington, N. M., spent Friday night with us on their way to Monroe, La., to visit relatives. We expect them back here on Wednesday.

The Rev. and Mrs. Tommy Wilson and Tommie Jean were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Lester.

Jackie Abshire and Bill Bevers visited here with their parents over the weekend. They are both students at West Texas State University.

I pulled another boo-boo a couple of weeks ago when I reported that Douglas Neugebauer and E. C. Stabeno had gone deer hunting on their Texas lease, because the deer season in Texas hadn't even opened. They were just down there checking on their lease. Sorry, guys!

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stolle and Mrs. Cecil Stolle and Mrs. Cecil Stolle spent the weekend in Sweetwater visiting relatives. They returned home Monday afternoon.

The Southland basketball girls traveled to Cotton Center Tuesday night for a practice game. Will they know next week how they came out. This was the first game

JAPAN BUYS AMERICAN

For the past two decades Japan has ranked as the best overseas customer of the U.S. 1967 was another record year—with American exports totaling over $2.7 billion.

The U.S.-Japan Trade Council reports that such of our 50 states shared in the expanding sales volume. Major exports, according to the Council, were oilseeds, machinery, chemicals, grains, lumber and cotton.

Exporting U.S. goods to Japan means a higher standard of living for both countries. Thanks to this successful partnership, more than 250,000 Americans earned their living in growing, mining, and manufacturing products for the Japanese.

Lowell Shorts return to Post for month

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Short returned to Post Monday and plan to remain here for about a month to wind up their business affairs before moving to the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

The Shorts, who recently sold their hardware store here, have been in Fort Worth at the home of their daughter, Mrs. J. M. Vardeman, while Mr. Short was recuperating from a serious illness.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Bernard S. Ramsey, minister of the First Christian Church, announced yesterday that his 11 a. m. Sunday sermon topic will be: "Doubt Your Doubts." The minister extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend all services.

ON RIGHT SIDE

Faye Dunaway, the Bonnie of "Bonnie and Clyde," is on the right side of the law in her newest film role. She stars with Steve McQueen in "The Thomas Crown Affair," which is showing this weekend at the Tower Theatre.

Rites for sister of Post woman

Funeral services for Mrs. W. C. McCelvey Sr. of Lubbock, sister of Mrs. Boone Evans of Post, were held at 4 p. m. Saturday in St. John's Methodist Church, Lubbock, with Dr. Burgin Watkins, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Resthaven Memorial Park.

Mrs. McCelvey died last Thursday in Methodist Hospital following an extended illness.

A native of Crockett, she moved to Lubbock from Southland in 1934. Mrs. McCelvey was a member of St. John's Methodist Church.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Loyce Copeland of Lubbock; six sons, H. A. of Lubbock, G. C. of San Clemente, Calif., W. C. Jr. of Maple, S. E., C. P. and J. D. McCelvey, all of Lubbock; two brothers, Edgar Spence of Los Angeles and Bluford Spence of Levelland, and two sisters, Mrs. Johnny Hall of Lubbock and Mrs. Evans. Mrs. Henry Wheatley and Mrs. Dale Cravy, both of Post, are nieces of Mrs. McCelvey.

Nephews were pallbearers. A number of friends of the Evans family attended the funeral from Post.

Methodist pastor home from Hawaii

The Rev. Curtis Lee returned to Post Monday to assume his pastoral duties at the First Methodist Church following a month-long evangelistic mission in the Philippines.

Mrs. Lee joined her husband for the last week of his stay in the Philippines and they spent that time in Honolulu, touring the highlights.

The group of evangelists took guided tours of Hong Kong and Tokyo before arriving in Manila to begin their preaching mission at the invitation of the Methodists in the Philippines.

The Rev. Mr. Lee's headquarters for two weeks was on the frontier island of Mindoro which is just now being homesteaded by the Philippine Nationals. There he lived in a home with no screens or electric lights. The Rev. Mr. Lee commented that he learned to "get along without ice cubes" on the island also.

He summed up his mission trip as fun, exciting, facing new experiences almost daily and hard work.

Freedom Shares more convenient than ever

J. B. Potts, chairman for U. S. Savings Bonds, reports that recent legislation permits the redemption of Savings Notes (Freedom Shares) in the same manner as Series E Bonds.

Formerly, Freedom Shares had to be forwarded to a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasurer of the United States for redemption.

Chairman Potts points out that this new legislation makes Freedom Shares an even more cheerful companion to Series E Bonds. Freedom Shares, issued on and after June 1, 1968, now pay 5 per cent, compounded semiannually, if held to maturity of 4 1/2 years.

Freedom Shares may be purchased on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or over the counter at your bank—in combination with Series E Bonds of the same or larger denomination. They must be held for one year before they may be redeemed.

Thanks, Voters of Precinct 1

I wish to express my appreciation to you for re-electing me to a second term as your county commissioner in the November general election.

I pledge to you to continue to do my best in this office for the next four years.

Soldier from Vietnam is home on furlough

By MRS. GLENN DAVIS

Sp5 Robert Johnson has completed a tour of duty in Vietnam and is home on furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Johnson, before reporting to a post in the States. Other Sunday guests of the Johnsons were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Johnson of Lubbock and Mrs. Ada Oden.

Sunday luncheon guests of Mrs. Willie Mason were the Jody, Lewis and G. T. Mason families. They helped G. T. celebrate his birthday.

Recent visitors of Mrs. and Mrs. Albert Stone were Mr. and Mrs. Danny Stone and baby of Lamesa, Mrs. D. Brown of Plainview and the Ted Tatum family and Mrs. Harrison Davis and John.

Helping Ricky Bush celebrate a birthday Sunday were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Bush, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bush, Laura McCampbell and Gary Lester.

Mrs. Ada Oden visited Monday morning in Twin Cedar Nursing Home with Mrs. Minnie Shepherd and Miss Gladys Fox.

THE GRAHAM Home Demonstration club met Nov. 1 in the community center with roll call being answered with "How I Looked When I Cooked Breakfast This Morning." The program, "Good Breakfasts" was given by Karen Parnell, county agent. Club members were happy to have the district agent, Mrs. Aubrey Russell, of Lubbock visit. Refreshments were served to the guests and seven members. The club will meet again Nov. 15.

Hayden Rogers was dismissed from the hospital last Thursday but didn't get to stay home long as he had to return to the hospital for more treatment. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Charles Wallace, who is stationed at Sheppard AFB in Wichita Falls and his cousin, Debbie Tucker, spent the weekend visiting relatives here.

The Jimmy Parrish family of Cotton Center spent Sunday with the Amers Parrishes.

Mrs. Royce Hart and son of Jal, N. M., recently visited Mrs. Mason McClellan and daughters.

Among those visiting the sick from this community in Lubbock hospital last week were Mrs. Willie Mason, Mrs. Ray McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. James Stone, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Peel, Mrs. Pearl Wallace and Mrs. Glenn Davis. Mrs. Troy Nelson spent Saturday night with her grandmother, Mrs. S. D. Lofton at the hospital.

MR. AND MRS. Elgie Stewart have moved to Post. We are sorry to have them leave our community but glad they didn't move too far away. We wish them the best of everything in their new home. Mrs. Ethel Redman spent from

Santa Fe '69 calendar is being distributed

AMARILLO — "Erosion of the Monument Valley" is the 1969 painting reproduced on the cover of the Santa Fe calendar.

The scene depicts a lone western Indian on horseback, riding this colorful valley in eastern Arizona at sunset. The painting presents a vivid picture of brilliant reds and yellows, oranges and purples and blues.

The 1969 calendar painted by Gray Bartlett, renowned western artist, and is one of more than 700 fine art subjects in the Santa Fe painting collection. During the past four years, the Santa Fe calendar has been the most popular art subjects in the west and southwest. The "Monument Valley" is included in the 1969 calendar because of its popularity.

All-Region Choir tryouts Saturday

By Elbert Rudd

The All-Regional Choir tryouts will be held this Saturday, Nov. 9, at Coronado High School in Lubbock.

There will be ten members of the Post High School choir trying out for this choir. They are seniors: Sue Harrison, Charles Baker, Mary Ann Strawn, Sharyn Bilberry, and Elbert Rudd; Juniors: Becky Poer, Don Collier, Jackie Gordon, and sophomores: Jimmy Poer and Carol Davies.

If any of the members succeed in making the regional choir, they can then try out for the All-State choir. It is a great honor and privileged experience to be in either one of these choirs; so, we wish these students all the luck in the world and hope that they succeed in their efforts!

DISMISSED FROM HOSPITAL

L. C. McMinn was dismissed from Methodist Hospital in Lubbock last week and taken to the home of his daughter in Crosbyton where he planned to stay a few days before returning to his home in Post this week. He is reported to be doing fine after his recent surgery.

The bottom of the Dead Sea is 2,600 feet below sea level.

ATTEND BOARD MEETING

Attending a recent Jaycee State Fall Board meeting in Brownwood were Tommy Young, president of the local organization, Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Callaway.

The oldest university in the Southern Hemisphere is University of Santo Domingo, in the Dominican Republic, founded in 1538.

Week before last you read what ten students thought of lowering the voting age to 18. Following are the views of ten more PHS students:

Linda Josey: I do not think you should vote at 18. I don't think you are that mature.

Barbara Bartlett: I think that the voting age should be lowered to 18 because youth at 18 know more, or as much, about the political candidates as adults do.

Also, if a boy is called to fight for his country, then he should be able to vote.

Bob Wilkins: I think the voting age should remain at 21. People do not actually start taking on real responsibilities until they are about 21 years of age.

Karon Windham: I think the voting age should remain at 21, because most 18-year-olds are still dependents and do not know how to get along on their own. But, if the voting age remains at 21, I think the drafting age should be raised to 21, so that soldiers fighting for our country could also vote.

Sharon Windham: I believe that the voting age should remain at 21, because there are too many people who at 18 cannot accept Kay Herron: I think the voting age should not be 18, though, if these draftees do not have a voice in their government.

Should either lower the voting age should remain at 21. Between the ages of 18 and 21, a person learns more and is wiser and would make smarter decisions.

Brenda Lee: I don't think that kids should vote at 18 because most of them don't know what's going on in the world. But it's OK, if they know what's going on in the world.

Donna Stewart: I think if young men at 18 are old enough to fight for their country, they are old enough to vote.

Connie McWhorter: I feel the y Paul Walker, who lettered three age or raise the drafting age. Considering raising the drafting age would involve too many married men with families. I feel that the voting age should be lowered. After all, the youth of today is one of the most informed generations of the day.

Sheryl Cooper: I feel that the voting age should be lowered because if a boy is old enough to fight for his country and maybe even die for it, he should be able to have a voice in the government.

Tommy Duncan: I feel in this day of modern inventions and education that many of the youth are most able to handle enormous tasks. Such of these is service

YOU miss it!

Rejoice, for Friday there will be no school. However, Wednesday we got our report cards, which sort of dampens the spirit.

Gossip: Who brushes their teeth every day at lunch? What graceful person fell and bruised her left ankle last Saturday night? What person flirts with her sister's boy friend? What certain place was crowded Saturday night? What teacher can't keep a sharpened pencil? Who stayed at home last Saturday night and "tried" to play the guitar? (If you have any more tidbits, please whisper them in my ear sometime at school.)

Attention civics students: Nov. 5 has gone. The crisis has passed. Live again! But, remember: we now face a new administration. Prepare yourselves!

Thank you: The Post Does would like to thank the boys who donated their time and effort to the Does' booth at the Halloween Carnival. The boys who helped were James McBride, Mike Scott, Tim Monk, Kenneth Mitchell, Danny Dozier and Neff Walker. These boys made the "Marriage Booth" a great success!

Karen's Korner

By Karen Hundley

Last Thursday night Post had a problem. The dust at the 4 - H Barn created air pollution. It was like breathing dirt, which is not very enjoyable, especially when it gives you asthma. But anyway, everybody had fun (I hope) at the Halloween Carnival there. I pity the poor people who were the "dummies" for the dunking booth. Also, the marriage booth was kept busy. Seems like some people were married several times. Would you believe that it's called polygamy?

Last Saturday night "The Kids" played for the dance. Couples there were Sharyn Bilberry and Dennis Ray, Linda Justice and Bo McWhirt, Debbie Tucker and Duke Altman, Rhonda Case and Joe Irons, Kay Litton and Bill Doggett, Kippy Payne and Johnny Hodges, Syan Thomas and Neff Walker, Connie McWhorter and Jimmy Jones, Donna Stewart and Mike Scott, Karen Hundley and Jimmie Johnston, Jan Wilks and Randy Hudman, Melvina Stewart and Robert Bullock, and Patti Allison and Charles Neff.

Other lurkers there included Sue Johnson, Jan Olson, Billy Bland, Cheryl Pennell, George Torres, Richey Lee, Barbara Lucas, Johnny Pennell, Bill Turbyfill, Kay Herron, Joan Minor, Jane Johnson, Mary Ann Wright, Darrell Wilke, Jackie Abshire, Rebecca Pruitt, Larry Lockridge, Stanley Abshire, Polly Martin, James Palmer, Jackie Moore, Delores Odom, Rickie Hines, David Midkiff, Larry Brown, Bob Wilkins; Karl Hall, Boyd Noble, Sally Dorland, Roger Dale Blair, Sue Litton, Brenda Lee, Jan Bullock, Larry Scribner, Billy Lee Williams, Pam Petty, Martha Miller, Ronnie Petty, David Pierce, Kay Hundley, Mike Petty, Debbie Cummings, Debbie Eubank Curtis Lancaster, Kim Hundley, Larry Cummings, Donna Kolb, Darrell Odom, Steve Newby, Sharon Windham, Liz Dalby, Dan Eckert, Karon Windham, Timmons Bull and Jody Kolb.

Debbie Tucker and Charles Wallace of Wichita Falls were in Post for the weekend. James Palmer of Roaring Springs visited his cousin, Jimmie Johnston, last weekend. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fleming visited his sister in Oklahoma during the weekend. Vada Beth Voss, Bill Bevers and Jackie Huff came down from West Texas State University for the weekend.

Many thanks goes to Mrs. Cummings for arranging the dance. This Friday night Post's "Flyte Ltd." will play at Teen Town after the football game. And, DON'T

WT homecoming this weekend

CANYON — Highlighting annual Homecoming activities, Saturday, Nov. 9, at West Texas State University will be a parade, football game, dances and the silver anniversary reunion of the Class of 1943.

Pre-Homecoming day activities are centered around the annual Homecoming assembly of the 7,300 WTSU students at 11 a. m. Thursday, Nov. 7, when a queen to reign over events will be crowned. The gigantic pep rally will be staged in the fieldhouse, and events will be televised by an Amarillo station at noon.

Members of the Class of 1943 open observance of their 25th anniversary Friday, Nov. 8, at an informal get-together at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Foust in Amarillo. Reunion activities start at 8:15 a. m. Saturday in the ballroom of the Student Union Building. The group will also have a special luncheon at noon in the West Dining Hall.

The WTSU School of Business will host exes and visitors at a dinner Friday at 8 p. m. and will hold open house from 8 a. m. until noon Saturday in its new quarters in the University Complex South. Outstanding alumni of the School will be honored at the dinner.

General registration of visitors and ex-students will open at 8:30 a. m. in the Student Union Building and continue throughout the day.

Featuring more than a dozen floats, area high school bands and riding clubs, the traditional Homecoming parade will start at 10:30 a. m. from downtown Canyon. Theme is "The Wonderful World of Walt Disney."

The Buffaloes will play Western Michigan in the Homecoming game at 2 p. m. in Buffalo Bowl, following barbecue lunch served in the two campus dining halls. Barbecue tickets are $1.25 each.

Spook carnival is big success

By Kay Latham
Last Thursday night the Spook Carnival was held at the Post High School Stadium. The carnival, sponsored by the Post High School Student Council, was a great success. The money raised from the carnival will go a long way in trips, the Junior-Senior and other expenses.

One special attraction of the carnival was the dunking booth. The dunking booth was filled with bubble gum, red cake coloring. Another attraction was the marriage booth where couples were "married" until midnight.

SUNDAY SERMON
"The Camel and the Eye" will be the sermon of the First Presbyterian Church morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. George L. Miller is the minister.

LIFE LINES

THE BEAT

Although they started performing in obscure basements in Hamburg and Liverpool, the Beatles went on to become one of the greatest influences on modern culture. The "English sound" in music, the emphasis on meaningful lyrics, and changes in hair style and dress can all be traced to these four young men.

Their triumphal U.S. tour had them playing in halls and stadiums across the country, before audiences that numbered as high as 55,000. But the high point of their career came in 1965 when Queen Elizabeth dubbed them members of the Order of the British Empire.

Today, the Beatles have emerged as mature artists, respected as composers, actors, writers, and musical innovators. To find what makes this exciting group "tick," read excerpts from their authorized biography in Life magazine's Sept. 13 and 20 issues.
