Farmers Must Have Certified And Rated Lumber Order

Farmers are enlisted to "Certified and Rated order for lumber" if they use it for essential maintenance repair of implements and farm service buildings, according to Julius C. Fumagalli, Chairman of the Garza County Agricultural Conservation Committee.

A farmers' lumber certificate, he said, is a "certified and rated" order and a dealer who fills the order can use the preference rating when he places an order for more lumber to maintain his stock. During this time of lumber shortage, Mr. Fumagalli said, the use of farmers' lumber certificates is the only way we can be sure of keeping enough lumber in the yards to meet essential farm needs.

Farmers who need lumber should apply to the County AAA office in Post. The committee is authorized to issue certificates when the lumber will be used to maintain or repair implements or farm buildings other than dwellings, or to construct necessary buildings other than dwellings when cost will not exceed $1,000 during the calendar year for a particular farm. The committee also may issue certificates for lumber needed for emergencies. For construction which must be approved by the War Production Board, the committee also receives farmers' applications and makes recommendations but does not issue certificates.

Farmers' lumber certificates cannot be issued for lumber to be used on dwellings, Mr. Fumagalli said. Dealers are expected to have a small amount of lumber to sell civilians in general for the maintenance of dwellings and other uses for which no rated orders are issued.

School For 1944-45 School Year To Open Here Sept. 4; 9 A. M.

Monday, September 4, will begin a new school year for Post and Garza county children. Assembly at both Post grade and high school will be at 9 o'clock. The grade school teacher roster is complete and classification of the children will begin immediately.

High school students will be instructed at their assembly about their registration. Supt. Bearden stated Tuesday that he was still unable to find teachers for high school English and mathematics. He made another trip to Lubbock Monday to see Dr. Jackson, head of the teacher placement of Texas Tech. Dr. Jackson told him he had already gotten calls from five superintendents that day and he had no teachers to supply any of the schools.

Lee Smith, high school principal, who resigned to go to Winters, was unable to find a house and will remain here.

Mr. Bearden said all buses are ready to run Monday morning and will remain in town all day carrying students home at 4:00 p. m.

For the first three months of the term school hours will be from 9:00 a. m. till 3:50 p. m. After that they will change to 10:00 a. m. till 4:50 p. m.

Post High School To Have Football Team This Fall

Students and town people alike will be interested in the announcement made this week by Supt. Bearden that Post High school will have a football team this year.

Mr. Bearden said he felt it would be to the interest of the boys in school to have this extra-curricular activity. He asks that the boys interested meet him in the gymnasium at 3 p. m. Monday, September 4.

Some games have been tentatively scheduled, the first one being with Tahoka "B" team on September 21.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Galloway and Alvin Galloway, sons, are attending school at Georgetown where they plan to spend the last of the week in Lubbock with friends.

Rains Are Welcomed By Farmers Over Garza County

Rain, that fell over Garza county and neighboring areas the last week end, was indeed welcome. From nearly two inches to one-half inch was reported from various sections of Garza county.

The heaviest fall was reported in the Justiceburg area where Lee Reed who has the government rain gauge in that community. Stockmen and farmers around Justiceburg declared at least six feet of water was caught in the Justiceburg lake and that stock tanks were full for the first time this year.

Charles P. Witt of Calgary reported a total of .53 of an inch for August 25 and 26 and S. M. Lewis of the Pleasant Valley community received .46. Other communities reported about one-fourth of an inch.

Over the South Plains the heaviest precipitation was reported from northern Hale county where three inches fell. This amount was also reported from Crosby county.

Crosbyton received .30 but a report said that probably two inches fell about 11 miles east of there. Crops in Crosby county have been in serious need of moisture.

Approximately a half inch fell at Slaton. In this section most cotton will produce one-fourth bale an acre agricultural observers predict. Early feed is considered fair.

Goods rains were reported from Meadow, Wilson, Tahoka and O'Donnell and Southland. Good feed and cotton crops are reported from these places.

Cotton and late feed crops which were hanging on the ropes in some sectors were saved by rains Friday afternoon and night. While the rainfall here was not heavy the quarter of an inch was enough to give life for a few more days to some crops that were in dire need of moisture.

Farmers and ranchers are praying hopefully for more rain within the next week.

Additional Rains Fall Over County Tuesday Night

Farmers were jubilant over the rain that fell here Tuesday night and were seen chatting on the streets Wednesday over their good fortune in receiving additional moisture.

Precipitation ranged from more than an inch in the Justiceburg area to a quarter inch in Southland area George Evans of Justiceburg reported that Justiceburg area had a fine rain. It was in this area that the greatest amount was reported on last Friday. Close City farmers reported approximately an inch; Graham around a half-inch; and Southland farmers reported around a quarter. A check of the other communities was not completed but it is believed that the eastern and northern parts of the county also received rains.

Post received .58 of an inch according to the gauge at the Double U office.

Aside from the report on the association's operations and plans for the coming year, the program will include other interesting features.

Two directors will be elected to fill terms expiring this year. Directors of the association are: Will Wright, Z. D. Kemp, Geo. N. Leggett, B. F. Evans and Mike E. Custer.

Details On Supply Of Protein Pellets Given By Julius Fumagalli

Details of a new program to increase the supply of protein pellets for winter feeding of cattle and sheep have been received by Julius C. Fumagalli, Chairman of the Garza County Agricultural Conservation Committee.

The new plan in effect calls for a bonus allocation of protein meal to mixed feed manufacturers who will use it during the July-September quarter to produce pellets containing at least 30 percent protein. Protein meal allocations by the War Food Administrator to mixed feed manufacturers are based upon previous production history.

The new program is expected to help materially in meeting growing demands of feeders for protein pellets and cubes, according to Mr. Fumagalli. Buying is usually heavy at this time of year as ranchers prepare to stock ranges before the winter closes in. Several protein manufacturers have indicated that they will take full advantage of the protein "bonus" and will utilize pelleting facilities to capacity, Fumagalli said. The program also is expected to result in decreased demand for proteins to feed range cattle and sheep later, at a time when requirements for other classes of livestock seasonally increase.

Successful Meeting Held At Calvary Baptist Church

The revival closed at the Calvary Baptist church Sunday night with a packed house. During the ten day meeting there were twenty conversions, twenty-four additions to the church with sixteen coming by baptism. The services were well attended and a deep interest shown.

Airport Plans Discussed At Meeting Held Here Friday

J. D. Church, district airport engineer of the Civil Aeronautics Administration with offices in El Paso, met before a called session of Post business men last Friday to give pertinent facts on the possibility of locating an airport in Post. The meeting was held at the Algerita hotel dining room at the noon hour. Since there was a priority placed on time of the group who met to secure these facts, Roy Holland, Chamber of Commerce president, introduced the speaker who took charge immediately following the luncheon.

Investigations by a group of progressive minded citizens have been underway for sometime on the subject. Mr. Church came to Post on the invitation of this group to give detailed information concerning the project. Considerable local interest was aroused when many Post citizens were invited several weeks ago to attend a meeting in Lubbock when various commercial companies met to discuss post-war plans and commercial traffic. Holland, Clint Herring, B. J. Edwards and O. C. Garner attended the Lubbock meeting to represent the Post group.

Church predicted a tremendous expansion in air passenger and freight traffic after the war. Towns should make plans now for the change in the mode of travel, he asserted, for air travel is here to stay, though in some areas the reconversion may be slow. "The true measure of distance in the future will be time, not miles," he said.

In making recommendations for such a project Church summed up the situation as follows:

The site selected should be convenient. It should be capable of development to running lengths of at least 3500 feet in order to accommodate the type aircraft that will eventually be used. It should be located as near the town as is consistent with the problem of keeping approaches clear—and with the problems of prevailing winds, etc.

The town must purchase the

"Roll Your Own" May Become Vogue For Cigarette Smokers

Time was when customers asked for a certain brand—now they just hopefully ask for cigarettes. The radio announcer queries "Does your cigarette taste differently lately?" and most smokers will answer "It certainly does" for they have sampled many kinds lately.

Several factors have contributed to the shortage, heavy shipments overseas being the main one. Here in Texas distribution is a problem. The cigarette supply is being rationed, most dealers allowing one or two packs to a customer. Snuff and chewing tobacco sales have soared.

Much advice is being offered the smoker such as rolling his own. The art as practiced by early day cowboys is cited as an example. Smokers are cautioned not to be wasteful; to save cigarette until it can be smoked entirely. Of course, another solution is just to quit smoking.

That good old American spirit of making the best of things is still evident and people are doing without cigarettes along with other things they used to consider necessary.

Passenger Car Tire Quota Is Cut Saturday

Tire quotas for passenger cars were cut for the month of September. OPA officials made this announcement Saturday. Allocation was set at 350,000 casings under the August levels. Heavy truck and bus tire quotas, however were increased.

In reducing the passenger tire allotment from 1,950,000 tires to 1,600,000, OPA explained that reserve inventories built up last winter for the summer months have been used up.

OPA said that while the lower passenger tire quota will not result in any corresponding cut in eligibility, "it does mean a still more difficult job for local rationing boards in deciding who among the many applicants for new tires are the most essential drivers."

All "B" and "C" card motorists are eligible for new passenger tires, the agency stated.

In boosting the heavy truck and bus tire quota, OPA stressed that the critical shortage of these casings will not be entirely relieved. While the rayon allotment has been hiked to 102,000 heavy tires, estimates that a minimum of 165,000 casings are needed each month to maintain essential commercial transportation.

Pugh Convicted In Slaying Of Lynn County Officer

Many Garza people have been interested in the outcome of the L. B. Pugh murder trial that has been in progress in Lynn county since many here knew and respected Cos Burns, Lynn county deputy sheriff who was shot to death on the streets of O'Donnell last June after the two men had exchanged words.

Pugh was convicted of the murder and the 106th district court jury recommended 21 years in the penitentiary. The jury deliberated six hours. Prosecution was conducted by District Attorney Rollin McCord, aided by Calhoun Haffaker, district attorney-elect.

Mary Ann Hundley returned Sunday from Brownfield where she visited last week with relatives.

WILL INDUSTRY TAKE CARE OF WAR WORKERS?
The releasing of several hundred employees from North American's plant at Dallas and the announcement of the release of many more from several plants leads one to wonder about these workers.

We were interested last week to see the announcement of the National Industrial Conference Board that the average family's cost of living increased in July. Our cost of living had gone up so we were beginning to wonder. Now we know we are still average.

Views of Neighboring Editors:

Lynn County News— A week after the Japs made that treacherous attack on Pearl Harbor, we were saying editorially that they were fools to attack a mighty power like America. During the months that followed, they almost convinced us that we were wrong. But it becomes crystal clear again that we were right. When they made that assault, as destructive and disastrous to us as it was, they were writing their own doom. They are now beginning to see the hand writing on the wall. And ere long, they will see the writing in fiery characters all over the face of their country. Japan as a world power is doomed.

Exchange— Gasoline rationing deluxe: Two Sweetwater couples who are going to get married within a short time of each other on the same September date planned it that way so they could take their wedding trip in the same car—to save gasoline! We submit this as the nth degree of homefront cooperation.

Nolan County News— We feel like one of the things that service men, as well as those of us still at home, would like to be assured of when this war is over that we will be able to obtain all of the things we want in our own home country.

For instance, when we are again permitted to buy automobiles we would like to have the assurance that we will be able to obtain just the car we want without having to go some other place to get it.

We would like to feel sure that when we get ready to buy a new electric refrigerator we can get it in Sweetwater when we get ready to air condition our homes, we can obtain the units here and at prices comparable with those elsewhere.

It is possible that in normal times, people did go to the larger shopping centers to obtain merchandise which they could not, or felt they could not obtain here. One thing, it seems, the war should have revealed to the buying public is the fact that as good, if not better, merchandise could be obtained here as anywhere.

We believe that people will buy most of their merchandise at home if they can get what they want. We hope that when normal times return that the public will be able to find just what it wants here without having to go to Abilene, or Ft. Worth, or Dallas, or somewhere else to obtain it.

Courageous Allies See War at Its Worst and Carry On

By Ernie Pyle

ON THE WESTERN FRONT.—When you're wandering around our very far-flung front lines—the lines that in our present rapid war are known as "fluid"—you can always tell how recently the battle has swept on ahead of you.

You can sense it from the little things even more than the big things — From the scattered green leaves and the fresh branches of trees still lying in the middle of the road.

From the wisps and coils of telephone wire, hanging brokenly from high poles and entwining across the roads.

From the gray, burned-powder rims of the shell craters in the gravel roads, their edges not yet smoothed by the pounding of military traffic.

From the little pools of blood on the roadside, blood that has only begun to congeal and turn black, and the punctured steel helmets nearby.

From the square blocks of building stone still scattered in the village streets, and from the sharp-edged rocks in the roads, still uncrushed by traffic.

From the burned-out tanks and broken cars still unremoved from the road. From the cows in the fields, lying grotesquely with their feet to the sky, so newly dead they have not begun to bloat or smell.

From the scattered heaps of personal debris around a gun. I don't know why it is, but the Germans always seem to take off their coats before they die.

From all these things you can tell that the battle has been recent— from these and from the men dead so recently that they seem to be merely asleep.

And also from the inhuman quiet. Usually battles are noisy for miles around. But in this recent warfare a battle sometimes leaves a complete vacuum behind it.

The Germans will stand and fight it out until they see there is no hope. Then some give up, and the rest pull and run for miles. Shooting stops. Our fighters move on after the enemy, and those who do not fight, but move in the wake of the battles, will not catch up for hours.

There is nothing left behind but the remains—the lifeless debris, the sunshine and the flowers, and utter silence.

An amateur who wanders in this vacuum at the rear of a battle has a terrible sense of loneliness. Everything is dead—the men, the machines, the animals—and you alone are left alive.

One afternoon we drove in our jeep into a country like that. The little rural villages of gray stone were demolished — heart-breaking heaps of still smoking rubble.

We drove into the tiny town of La Detinias, a sweet old stone village at the "T" of two gravel roads, a rural village in rolling country, a village of not more than 50 buildings. There was not a whole building left.

Rubble and broken wires still littered the streets. Blackish gray-stone walls with no roofs still smoldered inside. Dead men still lay in the street, helmets and broken rifles askew around them. There was not a soul nor a sound in town; the village was lifeless.

As we stood there talking in the lonely field a soldier in coveralls, with a rifle slung over his shoulder, ran up breathlessly, and almost shouted:

"Hey, there's a man alive in one of those planes across the road! He's been trapped there for days!"

We stopped right in the middle of a sentence and began to run. We topped the hedgerow, and ducked under the wing of the upside-down plane. And there, in the next hour, came the climax to what certainly was one of the really great demonstrations of courage in this war.

We ran to the wrecked British plane, lying there upside down, and dropped on our hands and knees and peered through a tiny hole in the side.

A man lay on his back in the small space of the upside-down cockpit. His feet disappeared somewhere in the jumble of dials and rubber pedals above him. His shirt was open and his chest was bare to the waist. He was smoking a cigaret.

He turned his eyes toward me when I peered in, and he said in a typical British manner of offhand friendliness, "Oh, hello."

"Are you all right?" I asked, stupidly.

He answered, "Yes, quite. Now that you chaps are here."

I asked him how long he had been trapped in the wrecked plane. He said he didn't know for sure as he had got mixed up about the passage of time. But he did know the date of the month he was shot down. He told me the date. And I said out loud, "Good God!"

For, wounded and trapped, he had been lying there for eight days!

His left leg was broken and punctured by an ack-ack burst. His back was terribly burned by raw gasoline that had spilled. The foot of his injured leg was pinned rigidly under the rudder bar.

His space was so small he couldn't squirm around to relieve his own weight from his aching back. He couldn't straighten out his legs, which were bent above him. He couldn't see out of his little prison. He had not had a bite to eat or a drop of water. All this for eight days and nights.

Yet when we found him his physical condition was strong, and his mind was as calm and rational as though he were sitting in a London club. He was in agony, yet in his correct Oxford accent he even apologized for taking up our time to get him out.

The American soldiers of our rescue party cursed as they worked, cussed with open admiration for this British flier's greatness of heart which had kept him alive and sane through his lonely and gradually hope-dimming ordeal.

One of them said, "God, but these Limies have got guts!"

It took us almost an hour to get him out. We don't know whether he will live or not, but he has a chance. During the hour we were ripping the plane open to make a hole, he talked to us. And here, in the best nutshell I can devise from the conversation of a brave man whom you didn't want to badger with trivial questions, is what happened—

He was an RAF flight lieutenant, piloting a night fighter. Over a certain area the Germans began letting him have it from the ground with machine-gun fire.

The first hit knocked out his motor. He was too low to jump, so foolishly, he said—he turned on his lights to try a crash landing. Then they really pored it on him. The second hit got him in the leg. And a third bullet cut right across the balls of his right-hand forefingers, clipping every one of them to the bone.

He left his wheels up, and the plane's belly hit the ground going uphill on a slight slope. We could see the groove it had dug for about 50 yards. Then it flopped, tail over nose, onto its back. The pilot was absolutely sealed into the upside down cockpit.

"That's all I remember for a while," he told us. "When I came to, they were shelling all around me."

Thus began the eight days. He had crashed right between the Germans and Americans in a sort of pastoral no-man's-land.

For days afterwards the field in which he lay surged back and forth between German hands and ours.

His pasture was pocked with hundreds of shell craters. Many of them were only yards away. One was right at the end of his wing. The metal sides of the plane were speckled with hundreds of shrapnel holes.

He lay there, trapped in the midst of this inferno of explosions. The fields around him gradually became littered with dead. At last American strength pushed the German back, and silence came. But no help. Because, you see, it was in that vacuum behind the battle, and only a few people were left.

GO-TO-SCHOOL CAMPAIGN PROGRESSES

More than 40 national organizations—educational, economic, social and civic—are supporting the campaign to get employed high school pupils back to the classrooms next month. In 30 states especially organized campaigns are under way. Greatest stress is being placed on the importance of having a well-educated citizenry in the post war era and the hundreds of thousands of high school boys and girls who have gone to work are being advised by veterans and others of the importance of preparing for the new era. In a joint statement, Katherine F. Lenroot, Chief of the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor, and John W. Studebaker, U. S. Commissioner of Education, said, "Throughout the campaign we are stressing the importance of developing well supervised school-and-work programs in those communities where the labor supply is tight and where the work of young people is both needed and desirable."

GEN. MACARTHUR'S AIDE ADVOCATES AMERICAN PRINCIPLES

The appointment of Col. Carlos Romulo, aide to Gen. MacArthur, as new resident commissioner of the Philippines in Washington is gratifying to those of us who have followed the career of this brave man. The Islands have an ardent spokesman in this fiery advocate of American principles. He takes the place of Joaquin Elizalde who made a good commissioner in the days before the Islands fell to the Japs. Of late he has become too much an admirer of the Franco regime which proposes a return of the Philippines to Spain. Col. Romulo is still an officer of the Philippine Scout Division of the Army of the United States, on inactive duty, and will rejoin MacArthur when the invasion of the Philippines begins.

COST OF LIVING REMAINS STABLE

The cost of living has risen six tenths of one per cent in retail prices of essential commodities, Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins reports. The figure is for the month ended July 15, most recent for which data are available. During the last year, Secretary Perkins added, average prices of family living essentials have risen 1.8 per cent, as compared with advances of 6 per cent and 11 per cent in the years ended July 1943 and July 1942. Higher prices for fresh fruits and vegetables were noted. Prices for potatoes, sweet potatoes, spinach and onions were up in July, but there were large decreases for cabbage, lettuce, and green beans.

It used to be that when a man made $50 a week, his wife also made $50. The same fifty! Now the wife is out making another $50 at the defense plant.

NEW CEILING PRICES ON BRIDES?

New life has no more surprises—in Durban, South Africa, a man was able to get himself a wife by paying her dad $88 in hard cash plus seven cows. So what? So, into the Office of the Price Controller there appeared a man who protested that his prospective Father-in-law had jacked up the price of $128 in hard cash. The father-in-law explained that increased cost of living made it necessary for him to boost his price. But, says Canada's War-time Information Board which reported the incident, it proves that even this primitive man could see the solid common sense and usefulness of price control.

GI Wounded Never Give Up

The days passed. He thirsted terribly. He slept some; part of the time he was unconscious; part of the time he undoubtedly was delirious. But he never gave up hope.

After we had finally got him out, he said as he lay on the stretcher under a wing, "Is it possible that I've been out of this plane since I crashed?"

who had arrived said, "Not the remotest possibility. You were sealed in there and it took men with tools half an hour to make an opening. And your leg was broken and your foot was pinned there. No, you haven't been out."

"I didn't think it was possible," the pilot said, "and yet it seems in my mind that I was out once and back in again."

- Seventy per cent of the merchant marine.
- Seventy-five per cent of the transport and commercial planes.
- Sixty per cent of the fighting and bombing planes.
- Sixty per cent of the silver.
- Eighty per cent of the gold.

SAUL REJECTED

LESSON TEXT—1 Samuel 15:10-22. GOLDEN TEXT—Because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king.—1 Samuel 15:22.

Moral failure is a direct result of disobedience to God's law. He established the moral order in the universe. His is the only right way, and the man who does not walk in God's way is wrong no matter how successful he may seem to be at the moment.

After a brief period of success, Saul sinned by intruding into the priests office at Gilgal (1 Sam. 13:10-14). This was soon followed by his disobedience in the battle with Amalek (1 Sam. 15:1-9). This brought final judgment from the Lord, and Saul stood revealed as I. A Self-Willful Backslider (vv. 10, 11).

"Turned back from following" God means just one thing, that is, turned back to self-will. These two principles, which are mutually exclusive, rule all actions of man—it is either God's will, or self-will.

Saul, who had every opportunity to make good as Israel's first king, lost out completely, and so turned away from God that God had to turn away from him, which is the thought expressed by "repenteth" (v. 11).

II. A Lying Hypocrite (vv. 12, 13). Knowing that he had done just the opposite, Saul puts on his best "Sunday-go-to-church" manner and professed to be very pious, and completely obedient (v. 13). One marvels at his temerity, but not so much so when one thinks of those in the church who put on the same kind of a "front" to cover a worldly, self-centered life.

Nothing hurts the cause of Christ more than the nervy hypocrites who deny by their lives before the community the thing for which the church stands. By the way, are you a hypocrite, you who read these lines? If so, flee to God in repentance. You are in bad company.

III. A Proved Deceiver (vv. 14, 15). The difficulty with falsehood is that ultimately the truth comes to light. With Saul it came quickly, for the sheep which he said were dead were alive enough to bleat at just the right time. The deceit of Saul thus was proved in the very instant of his false declaration of innocence.

"Be sure your sin will find you out" (Num. 32:23) is not just a religious theory, it is God's word. "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy" (Prov. 28:13).

IV. A Proud Disobeyer (vv. 18-19). Now Saul had to stand before Samuel and hear the words of God's condemnation. He had to face his own life and see there the ground of the judgment of the Lord. He was reminded of the day of his humble dependence on the Lord, which had brought him exaltation to the highest place in Israel. To be small in one's own eyes is to be great in the eyes of the Lord. He is looking for the acceptable sacrifice of a humble heart (Ps. 51:17; Isa. 57:15).

The tumult and the shouting dies; The captains and the kings depart; Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice, An humble and a contrite heart; Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget, lest we forget!" —KIPLING

V. An Argumentative Evader (vv. 20, 21). Once set in the way of disobedience, there seems to be no limit to the bold stubbornness of man. Instead of breaking down in contrition and confession, Saul tried to face the matter down by further argument and tricky evasion.

"I have obeyed," said he, "but the people." Who was king? Did the people obey Saul, or Saul the people? There is nothing honest about laying your sins over on another. How often people do it!

Notice also that Saul became very religious again. If anything had been done that seemed wrong, it was with a good purpose; they were going to "sacrifice to Jehovah."

"The sacrifices and ceremonies of religion are to aid and promote obedience, not to be a substitute. Disobedience can never be made a virtue, even though attended by a thousand sacrifices" (Stanley).

VI. A Rebellious Subject (vv. 22, 23).

"To obey is better than sacrifice." Oh, that we might learn well that lesson which God through Samuel tried to teach to Saul. We need to recognize that giving to the church, or working for the church, is not enough if there is not obedience to God; and with us that obedience must be the recognition of Christ as Saviour and Lord.

Lip service, half obedience, a willingness to make sacrifices were not acceptable in the case of Saul. Be sure they are infinitely less acceptable to God in this day when we have His Son who wants to be our Saviour and to give us the meaning there is in obeying His will.

PLANE TALK
BY Rowland Burston

A common opinion which seems to be built up in the public's mind is that an easy to operate practical helicopter will be made available to individuals shortly after the termination of the war. This idea, however, is not shared by experts in the field who believe that thousands of engineering hours must be put on such planes before they will be satisfactory for consumer use.

Even though the helicopter's efficiency is about one-third to one-half that of a small fixed wing plane, there are advantages which the helicopter of the present time enjoys over other planes, such as its ability to rise and descend vertically and to hover over a fixed point. This is a definite aid in navigation. However, there are certain handicaps which aeronautical engineers are attempting to overcome in their effort to make the helicopter practical for private flying. The helicopter is more difficult to fly than the conventional light plane; it is more subject to icing; its gas consumption is greater than the fixed wing plane; present complicated mechanical parts invite operational failures; vibration, which pilots shun, is apparent; and in addition the helicopter would be difficult to abandon by parachute.

Potentially the helicopter has ideal possibilities for private flyers, but in its present stage it is tricky to operate and far less stable than the conventional light fixed wing plane.

Your BABY
By Lillian B. Storms

Pure milk is essential to baby's health, so you want to be absolutely sure of the purity of your fresh milk supply. If there is any doubt in your mind about its wholesomeness, call your local health board. Your doctor will specify whether he wishes you to use certified, pasteurized, evaporated, or powdered milk. Tell him whether you have a good refrigerator, or no means of keeping the milk cold, for it may make some difference in the choice. Milk offers excellent conditions for the growth of bacteria so that exacting cleanliness in the handling of it is an essential safeguard.

The containers and utensils you use in the handling of milk should be rinsed first in cold water (never hot) then thoroughly washed in warm soapsuds—using a brush for inaccessible parts such as the inside of bottles. Nipples should be turned inside out. And you will want to boil all articles in a large container for five minutes and allow them to drain dry. Protect them, too, from dust, flies, and unnecessary handling. When you prepare the milk for the baby's use, do not allow your fingers, hot dish holders, or towels, to touch the milk or any surface with which the milk will come in contact.

Milk is the most important single food for infants, and one way to serve more of it is to adopt a two-serve idea—for babies like variety too! Serve ready-to-serve strained oatmeal at one feeding—then prepared cereal food at the next—turnabout!

VICTORY HINTS

A dry cloth is better for removing a pan or dish from the stove or oven than a damp or wet one. Braising, browning and cooking in a small amount of moisture with the lid on, is used for less tender meat cuts.

Rain water and soap will remove machine grease from washable fabrics.

A tablespoon of turpentine boiled with your white clothes will greatly aid the whitening process.

When window shades wear and become soiled at the bottom they can be taken off the roller, turned end-for-end, tacked back on the roller and hemmed at the new bottom edge.

Jellied vegetable and fruit dishes which may be prepared before the sun goes into high noon are a boon to the housewife on hot summer days.

To repair a break in an extension cord, strip the insulation from the wires for a few inches on either side of the break, twist the ends of broken wires together, solder, tape with rubber splicing compound and wind with friction tape. Don't put two splices side by side when repairing broken wires. Offset them a little.

Waffles are grand for dessert when topped with cream cheese mixed with cherry or blueberry jam. Be generous with both the cheese and jam. No need for butter as the cheese is rich enough.

Milk which has changed may be sweetened or rendered fit for use again by stirring in a little soda.

Grade School P-TA To Convene Sept. 6 For First Meeting

Parents and friends are invited to attend the Grade school Parent-Teacher Association meeting Wednesday, Sept. 6. The meeting will be held in the Grade school auditorium. This is the first year the grade school has had a separate unit in Parent-Teacher work. It is therefore imperative that all parents make an effort to attend the first meeting as matters pertaining to the success of the group are to be discussed and plans for the year outlined.

Barrington Family Held Annual Reunion At Two Draw Lake

The annual three-day reunion of the children and families of the late John E. and Christina Barrington was held on August 18, 19 and 20 at Two Draw lake, for the third consecutive year, with a good attendance. All of the ten children except one were present.

The entire time was spent recalling happy memories of the past, getting acquainted with new members of the various families and singing the old songs they used to sing as they gathered around the old family organ.

Several of the boys are in the service of their country and were missed out plans are now being made for the reunion following their return, at which time it is hoped the attendance will be greater than any in the past.

After lunch Sunday a brief business session was held at which time it was decided to hold the next reunion in or near Brownwood. Each one present expressed gratitude to the city of Post and to friends in Post for their courtesies.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reynolds of Lubbock; Mrs. J. D. Holmes and son of Center Point; another son, J. T. Holmes of Fort Sumner, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Neal, Lamesa; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Aldredge and son, Robert, Allred; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Barrington and daughter, Christine and Mrs. Clyde Barrington and little son Jerry of Crosbyton; J. Edgar Barrington of Sherman; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil H. Tate and sons, Howard and Gaylord; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mathis and sons, Allan and David and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Phipps and two little daughters all of Muleshoe; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Barrington and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McKinney and children, Charles and Judy Carol of Roby; and Mr. and Mrs. Luther D. Miller and children, Jerrell Wayne and Shirley Ann of Rotan.

The brother, A. L. Barrington and Mrs. Barrington of Brownwood, were unable to attend.

Others attending were Mrs. Lois Geesling and daughter Barbara of Dallas, daughter and granddaughter of Mrs. Neal; Mrs. G. W. Cathey of Killeen, mother of Mrs. W. J. Barrington and Mr. and Mrs. Oran Clary and family of Post.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Barrington are formerly of Post and Mrs. Miller is the former Opal Barrington of Post.

Papers on the transfer of the property have not been completed but Clary said yesterday that he hopes to be able to move within a very short time. He plans to sell the house where he is now living and is a newly owned by Fred Custis.

Another real estate deal was terminated when Mrs. L. A. Barrow moved into the home she recently purchased from Tom Miller. Mrs. Barrow has lived on a ranch near Calgary for the past quarter century but recently decided to move into town. Repairs on the house have been in process for several weeks.

Tomlinsons Move Back

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Tomlinson have returned to their home in Post. They left here late last summer for an extended visit in California with their son, Bland and family. Because of her father's illness they returned to O'Donnell the first of the year and have been there since then. Friends are glad to welcome them back home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thaxton and daughter Carolyn of Brownwood were week end guests of W. O. Thaxton and other relatives.

NORWEGIAN LABORERS UNDERNOURISHED

The food ration for Norwegians working in Nazi Slave Labor Camps is so small the workers must have food sent to them from their homes, the Swedish Newspaper Stockholms-Tidningen says in an article reported to OWL. Attempts to get Norwegians to sign up for "harvest work" failed because all knew that meat working on military fortifications. Not one person signed up.

Cpl. James S. Mathis who is stationed in Burma wrote his sister, Mrs. Bill Hughes, that he was in the best of health. He said he enjoyed the jungle in spite of the flies nearly eating him up. ### SHOT GUN SHELLS TO BE RELEASED FOR HUNTERS

If you have a few moments to spare, you may begin to oil up the family flintlock. WPB has taken cognizance of the fact that animals and birds are causing widespread destruction to crops and livestock all over the country. The ban on the sale of ammunition to hunters will be removed temporarily in the near future. Available for rimrods will be 240 million rim fire cartridges, 8 million center fire cartridges and 130 million shotgun shells. Wolves, coyotes, foxes, weasels, wild ducks, crows and pheasants should not be told of this regulation. Happy hunting.

Athalie Smith Back On Duty In The Aleutians

Word has been received from Athalie Smith by his parents, M. and Mrs. W. M. Smith of the Cross Roads community, that he is back on duty in the Aleutians. This army engineerman was at home in June for thirty days and gave some interesting highlights on the conditions in the chain of islands. He helped to build the Alaskan highway and has been in the army for three years and there most of that time. He also helped to build air bases and landing strips in that chain of islands. He was in the battle of Attu and was on the alert all during the battle as he is an expert marksman. A clip of shells from a dead Jap was brought home as a souvenir of that battle.

who ever thought A SYNTHETIC TIRE COULD BE SO GOOD!

THE NEW U.S. ROYAL DeLuxe

Even tire men had their fingers crossed when they were faced with the job of building tires entirely from the new government synthetic rubber GR-S. Many said it couldn't be done. But it was done! And in record time! Today, the new U.S. Royal DeLuxe synthetic tire, when driven at wartime speeds and given the kind of care any good tire deserves is doing a job so good that it's close to pre-war performance—and improvements are still being made. When you are eligible for new tires, remember, the new U.S. Royal DeLuxe synthetic tires are good tires!

IT'S VENTILATED! The open-spaced tread design and deep-cut shoulders allow cooling air to circulate freely drawing heat away from the body of the tire. This is vitally important in synthetic tires.

IT'S SAFETY BONDED! Every cord is bathed in a specially compounded solution that locks the cords firmly into layers of synthetic rubber cushions. Safety bonding means extra miles of safe service.

IT'S MILEAGE-TESTED! In the laboratory and on the road, U.S. Royal DeLuxe synthetic tires are mileage-tested, proving over and over again that "U.S." synthetic tires are good tires!

TIRES ARE SCARCE

First call on tires must go to our fighting forces. The rest of us have the job of making our present tires last right on through the war if possible. Keep spare tires up. Recap in time!

HOG BRISTLES FLOWN OVER "HUMP"

Most dangerous air route in the world, by general admission, is the flight from India to China over the Himalayan mountains. This run, known as flying "The Hump," is used for hauling vital war cargoes to China. On the equally dangerous return flight, Chinese hog bristles make up part of the cargoes. The Foreign Economic Administration reports, American pilots are killed too young to have time to grow the long, strong bristles characteristic of Chinese hogs—in reality boars. These hog bristles from China are very important in the making of paint brushes for the Navy and U. S. Maritime Commission, as well as for brushes used in wool combing machines.

MILLIONS TRAINED FOR WAR JOBS

During the past four years, more than 13,500,000 men and women enrolled in organized training programs for war jobs, Paul V. McNutt, Chairman of the War Manpower Commission reports. The training was provided by agencies cooperating with the WMC Bureau of Training. Of this vast group, the food production war training program, conducted through vocational agriculture schools had 3,035,566 enrollments. The engineering, science and management war training program, given in selected colleges, had 1,558,123 enrollments. The training within industry program enrolled 1,375,767 supervisors who, in turn, provided instruction for millions of war plant workers. The National Youth Administration, which is no longer in existence, provided training for 772,756 persons, during 1942 and 1943 fiscal years.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Everett went to Dallas last week after their daughter, Mary Charles, who is a Cadet Nurse in training at the Parkland hospital there. Mary Charles will visit here for a month. They returned to Post or Thursday night.

The Texan's Share In The War

Hundreds of Lone Star fighting men are coming home to Texas. By plane and train, on stretchers or crutches, they arrive daily at the army's great McCloskey Hospital at Temple. They are the heroic wounded, the boys who know the true meaning of sacrifice in this war.

With Capt. F. J. Moss, McCloskey's affable and capable public relations officer, the writer of this column visited the hospital and spent hours chatting with the boys and their party in the fighting.

And don't get the idea that these returned, wounded veterans are spending their time in the hospital griping or feeling sorry for themselves. There's not a cry in a carload!

As a matter of fact, there probably is no more cheerful group of men in Uncle Sam's army. With fingers off, feet and hands off, and other terrible wounds, the lads in McCloskey face the future with a smile and a wise-crack and the painful present with a type of courage that is an inspiration to everyone who visits them.

There are two miraculous facts that you will discover if you visit this great army establishment, where wounded men are given new health and new hope. The first is the cheerful courage of the men, themselves. The second is the consideration and skill of the officers and men who administer to them.

We talked with many of the patients. Corporal Leland Grohman of San Antonio told of heavy fighting in Italy, but forgot his own troubles to praise the home-folks who sent USO-Camp Shows across to entertain the boys.

We met Sgt. Charlie Ruinwell of Waco, who spent months in a Nazi Prison Camp after losing both his legs from machine gun wounds. Charlie talked about the National War Fund, too, telling how sports equipment, books and other anti-boredom materials were sent over by War Prisoners Aid helped the captured men fight off "barbed wire sickness."

And Lt. Major Gray of Killeen, who served through 77 days under constant shell fire at Anzio, before being sent home to recuperate at McCloskey. The petite nurse told of the black day when the German bombed the hospital, killing scores of patients, doctors and nurses and wounding many more. She was close by when Lt. Helen McCullough, another nurse of the Baylor Hospital Unit, was seriously wounded. Lt. McCullough, who wears the Purple Heart, was released from McCloskey Hospital last week, well again.

Here's a note to mothers, wives and sweethearts of the wounded lads at McCloskey—a note that may ease their worries about the boys:

Don't worry about them! They are being cared for better than any soldiers ever were cared for before. They are cheerful, happy and confident of the future.

They are getting the best medical and surgical attention that

JOHNSON URGES LABOR DAY TRAVEL RESTRICTION

Prospective Labor Day train intercity bus travelers had better cancel plans unless their trips are directly connected with the war, Col. J. Monroe Johnson, director of the Office of Defense Transportation, announced recently in Washington.

"Only actual service with the armed forces or business directly connected with the prosecution of the war justifies taking up train or bus space at this time," the director said.

Director Johnson said military demands or transportation, which have shown no letup since the invasion of Europe, will not decrease for some time.

ANAZACS MEET U. S. MEN'S FOOD NEEDS

To date Australia and New Zealand have supplied American forces in the Pacific battle zone with 250,000,000 pounds of meat, 34,000,000 dozen eggs, 175,000,000 pounds of fresh fruit and vegetables, 27,000,000 pounds of butter and 55,000,000 pounds of sugar up to the beginning of this year, the Commonwealth Food control announces.

To determine the real value of money, just try to borrow some.

can be had. And, best off all, they are loved and lovingly cared for by the officers, nurses and men who staff this great army healing unit. There is nothing impersonal about the way McCloskey Hospital takes care of its boys. Every patient is a personal responsibility of those who staff the great institution, and nothing is left undone to return them to health, happiness and usefulness.

Livestock Producers Should Plan Now For 1945 Feed Needs

Livestock producers should begin immediately to plan for their 1945 feed requirements, and provide as much fall and winter pastures as they possibly can. Small grain can be planted and will flourish, under good weather conditions, a vast amount of excellent pasture through the fall, winter and spring months. As an example, last year Johnny Ray planted about thirty acres in wheat and although weather conditions were not altogether favorable, this provided a great deal of forage and relieved his native pasture.

Double funeral services for Mrs. C. L. Covey and her daughter, Miss Marian Ruth Covey, sister-in-law and niece of Mrs. Walter Duckworth of this city, were held Tuesday afternoon in Lubbock. Mrs. Duckworth's brother, C. L. Covey, is in the Lubbock General hospital in a serious condition following the automobile accident in which his wife and daughter lost their lives and in which another person was killed.

The accident occurred Saturday night four miles north of Brownfield on the Lubbock highway. Three cars were involved in the accident and in addition to the three deaths eight persons were injured.

Roy Baker, a Meadow mechanic, was indicted on two counts with murder without malice in connection with the accident. Investigations and hearings were made by authorities in the 106th district court grand jury. Patrolmen who investigated said Baker's car struck the back of the Covey car, knocking it crosswise of the pavement where it was hit by an approaching car.

The funeral services for the two members of Mrs. Duckworth's family were held at the Broadway

THREE 17-YEAR-OLD POST BOYS JOIN NAVY LAST WEEK

Three Post boys have joined the Navy in the last week. They signed their papers when the recruiting officer from the Lubbock office made his regular weekly trip here last Wednesday. Parents of the seventeen year old boys placed their signatures on the papers and the boys left that night for Dallas where they took their physical examinations.

Those leaving were Sammy Thomas West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis West, Vernon Gale Bowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Bowen and Luther Alexander Bundrant, son of Mrs. Nettie Roy.

All boys will be classed, if they pass their physicals, as Apprentice Seamen in the V-6 division of the USNR. After a period of indoctrination at a boot camp they will be classified and assigned to the branch of the service they are most suited for and to one to which they express a preference.

Seventeen year old boys and those approaching their seventeenth birthday who are interested in joining the Navy are asked to contact the recruiting officer in Post at 10:30 each Wednesday morning at the Post Dispatch office or to get in touch with the office in Lubbock in the Federal Post Office building.

DISTRICT 4-H CLUB ENCAMPMENT

By Wallace Kimbrough, County Agent

The following boys attended a three day encampment at Ceta Glen in Swisher county from Garza county: Alvin Davis, Carter Gene White, Frank Thomas, Max Chaffin, Joe and Frank Stokes, Harley Martin, D. G. Porterfield and Emory Stevens. There were 4-H club boys from nearly every county in this district. The Garza county club boys took their share of the awards in the various contests. Alvin Davis placed 10th in the senior boys rifle contest and Carter Gene White took top honors for the junior boys rifle contest. Alvin also placed as one if the first ten in softball.

A wonderful program was enjoyed by all attending the camp. Dr. Dan Russell from Texas A. & M. college, Dr. Taylor from A. & M., Prof. Stangel of Lubbock, Mr. Lancaster of the Texas Extension Service and others put on demonstrations and made timely talks on worthwhile subjects for the club boys.

Alvin Davis along with four other club boys who won trips to the National 4-H club congress last fall gave short talks about their trip to Chicago. Alvin was asked by L. L. Johnson, State Boys Club Agent to give in detail his trip to Chicago. This was considered by many at the camp as one of the highlights of the entire encampment.

Lt. Darwood Billings left Sunday night for Maxton Army Air Base in North Carolina. He will take specialized training there for two months. He has been stationed at SPAAF, Lubbock, where he was glider instructor. Mrs. Billings and daughter, Cheryl Anne, will remain here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Sogree.

Church of Christ and burial was made in Lubbock cemetery.
