

Travel Trails include Post and Garza County

Routes unveiled at conference

Post and Garza County are included on the Plains Trail, one of the ten new Texas Travel Trails unveiled by Governor John Connally yesterday during the third annual Governor's Tourist Development Conference in Austin.

Vernon Scott and Harold Lucas, representing the Garza County Historical Survey Committee, attended the conference at which the new trails were announced and explained in detail.

The estimated 584-mile Plains Trail travels through 22 counties, including Armstrong, Bailey, Borden, Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Crosby, Cochran, Floyd, Deaf Smith, Garza, Hartley, Hockley, Hutchinson, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Moore, Motley, Potter, Oldham and Randall.

Planning for the travel trails has been going on for over a year.

The other nine trails in other parts of the state are:

The Mountain Trail, a highland route in far west Texas which is surrounded by 19 mountain ranges with 90-mile high peaks; the Forts Trail which includes Fort Richardson in Jacksboro, Fort Belknap in Young County near Newcastle, Fort Griffin north of Abilene, Fort Chadbourne in Coke County, Fort Concho in San Angelo, Fort McKavett near Menard and Fort Mason near Mason.

The Pecos Trail, a 626-mile route through Crockett, Ector, Edwards, Kinney, Midland, Sutton, Upton, Val Verde, Ward, Pecos and Terrell counties.

The Hill Country Trail, which includes a stair-step chain of lakes, President Johnson's home, and historic San Antonio; the Tropical Trail, which includes sandy Padre Island, the Lower Rio Grande valley, and Corpus Christi.

The Independence Trail, in southeastern Texas, which traces Texas' fight for independence from the first battle of Gonzales to the final victory at San Jacinto, and the Lakes Trail, Brazos Trail and the Forest Trail all in east Texas.

The Texas Tourist Development

Agency in announcing details of the Plains Trail in this area noted that when the Spanish explorer Coronado led his expedition across the high plains of West Texas in 1540, legend says the soldiers were forced to drive stakes as they went to mark their progress through the waist-high grasslands.

Some believe, the agency said, that the "Staked Plains" or Llano Estacado got its name from the fact that the land seems to be perched on stakes or giant palisades when viewed from a distance.

Amarillo and Lubbock are the largest cities on the high plains, so-called because of the sharp Cap Rock Escarpment which divides it from the remainder of the state.

Northern - most towns on the trail are Dumas and Stinnett, north of Lake Meredith — a national recreation area. Dumas is in the center of one of the nation's largest grain sorghum producing areas, center of one of the world's great natural gas fields and the producer of two-thirds of the nation's helium.

Farm Road 687 guides travelers along Lake Meredith, with State Route 15 and U. S. 60 bringing them to Amarillo, Palo Duro Canyon State Park, 120 miles long and covering 15,000 acres, is southeast of Amarillo near the town of Canyon. A paved road follows the canyon rim and winds down 1,200 feet to the canyon floor, site of Pioneer Amphitheatre. The outdoor drama "Texas" is performed here during summer months. The musical tells the story of the fight to settle the plains. This outdoor arena under the stars was built as a memorial to the people of the Panhandle. Dramatic lighting with a 600-foot canyon wall as a backdrop creates an unforgettable setting. A small train takes visitors on a tour of the canyon floor and a sky lift carries riders on a round trip from the floor to the rim.

Canyon is also noted for the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum. Located on the West Texas University campus, it is noted for its massive entrance doors which are ornamented with historic brands. The museum also contains an exhibit (See Travel Trails, page 8)

RENAL B. ROSSON

Rosson announces for re-election

Renal B. Rosson announced today he would be a candidate for re-election to the office of State Representative from the 71st Legislative District.

Under the recent redistricting of the 71st Legislative District is composed of the counties of Jen, Crosby, Fisher, Garza, Kell, Kent, King, Scurry and Upton.

Rosson said he considered it a privilege and an honor to serve as representative of the district, and he is fully cognizant of the duties and responsibilities of the office.

He is presently chairman of the Judiciary Committee in the House of Representatives, a member of four other House committees and of the Texas Judicial Council.

Rosson has been my intent and purpose at all times to lend my support and efforts to such measures which will insure good, sound economic development in the district. See Renal Rosson, page 8)

Rites conducted for Mr. Owings

Funeral services for J. B. (Jack) Owings, 65, who died last Friday morning at his home in Slaton, were held at 2 p. m. Friday at the First Baptist Church.

Survivors include a son, Darrell Owings of Aurora, Colo., three daughters, M. L. Masters of Bay, Okla., three brothers, Ed and Fred of Post and Warren of San Angelo; two sisters, Willie Goodgion of Post and Dorothy Kingston of Lubbock, a number of grandchildren.

The Rev. Joe Vernon, First Baptist pastor, and the Rev. Dale Calvary Baptist pastor, officiated at the funeral services. Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Mason Funeral Home.

Survivors were Marvin Williams, Ed Adams, Bill Sanders, Jimmy Holleman, Emmett Shedd and Hughes.

Politics only lukewarm

Second candidate in sheriff race

Politics remained only lukewarm this week, with the filing of J. A. (Jimmy) Holleman, former city water superintendent, as a candidate for county sheriff the only development of local interest.

Holleman, who has been employed by Postex Mills since he resigned as city water superintendent two years ago, filed Tuesday with County Democratic Chairman N. C. Outlaw.

Holleman is the only opponent up to now for Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Claborn, who formally announced

Eckols rites are conducted here

Funeral services for Edward B. Eckols, 54, who died about 9 p. m. last Thursday in Veterans Hospital at Big Spring, were conducted at 2 p. m. Friday at the First Methodist Church.

Mr. Eckols, who was employed as a trucker, died following a short illness. He had been a resident of Post for five years.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Bobby Harrell, Mrs. Jerry Hall and Debbie Eckols, all of Houston; his mother, Mrs. Bertie Eckols, with whom he made his home; five brothers, Garland of Post, Bennie of Waco, Owen of Fort Worth, Darrell of Slaton and Wayne Eckols of Post; four sisters, Mrs. Walter Smith of Fort Worth, Mrs. S. T. Brooks of Post, Mrs. Clayton Pennington of Tucson, Ariz., and Mrs. Earl Gullett of Lubbock, and five grandchildren.

The Rev. O. Curtis Lee, First Methodist pastor, officiated at the funeral services.

Burial was at Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home. Pallbearers were C. K. Pierce, Chester Keeton, S. A. Horton, Thurman Maddox, Floyd Hodges and James Browning.

Mr. Eckols was a veteran of World War II.

$97 stolen from 7-11 store here

The 7-11 Store at the corner of Broadway and 13th Street was robbed of $97 early Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Neil Olive, a clerk at the store, reported to city police.

Police are looking for two men who Mrs. Olive said came into the store shortly before the money was missed.

The clerk said one of the men called her to the meat counter at the rear of the store while the other man stayed at the counter at the front.

The stolen money was in a bag

New Year's Day that he is a candidate for re-election.

Also filing this week with the county Democratic chairman was George Hansard of Lamesa for re-election as district attorney.

State Rep. Renal B. Rosson formally announces in today's Dispatch that he is a candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives from the 72nd Legislative District.

Monday, Feb. 5, is the last day for candidates to file for the primary elections, which will be held in May and June.

Meanwhile, voter registration is continuing at a fairly steady pace at the tax assessor-collector's office, with Jan. 31 the filing deadline.

Up to 3 p. m. Wednesday, 1,572 Garza countians had registered to vote in this year's elections. "We expect from four to five hundred more to register before the deadline," said a clerk at the tax office.

The Dispatch is running another voter registration application form elsewhere in today's paper.

Approval given on new federal grant

School Supt. Bill Shiver announced today that Post Schools have received approval of a $1,113.75 Title III grant of federal funds for a high school science improvement program.

Shiver said the school district has two more federal education grants pending, one of $2,866 for library resources under Title II and an additional $1,000 Title III grant for a social science project in the elementary schools.

The superintendent pointed out that if these other two projects are approved, as expected, the Post schools in the last three school years will have received a total of $113,672.03 in federal funds for improvements in local schools.

Karen Parnell is new H. D. agent

Mrs. Karen Parnell has been employed as Garza County Home demonstration agent by the county commissioners' court, according to County Judge J. E. Parker.

Mrs. Parnell and Mrs. Aubrey W. Russell, district agent, met with the commissioners' court Monday.

The new agent, a January graduate of Texas Tech, will assume her new duties Feb. 16, filling a vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Juanette Gentry on Dec. 31.

At the present time, Mrs. Parnell lives in Loraine, where her husband, Gary Parnell, is employed with the school system.

She is a native of Hawaii, where her parents now live at Waianae, Oahu. After finishing high school at Waianae, she enrolled in Howard Payne College at Brownwood and also attended North Texas State University before enrolling at Texas Tech.

WALTER DIDWAY

Mill here hires Tech graduate

Walter Didway, who will graduate at mid-term from Texas Tech, will join Postex Mills as assistant personnel manager Feb. 1, personnel manager Dick Dickson announced today.

Didway, a resident of Post since 1953, will graduate from Texas Tech with a degree in personnel management.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Didway, he is a 1956 graduate of Post High School and served three years in the Army, including 18 months in Korea. His wife, the former Miss Willa Faye Graves, is a home economics teacher at Post High School. They have a daughter, Cristal Dawn, who is six years old.

Didway, a native of Poteau, Okla., is a former employe of The Post Dispatch, Snyder Daily News and Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

As assistant personnel manager for Postex, his duties will also include the Postex Hall Plant at Memphis, Tex., Dickson said.

If you're watching the Bob Hope Christmas Show on television tonight, you may see Airman First Class Dickie Vardiman if you look close — and, of course if Dickie wasn't cut out of the film during editing.

On R & R last weekend in Hawaii with his wife, Vardiman phoned his mother, Mrs. Richard Vardiman, here twice, and among other items said that the Hope show footage shot at Phan Rang should show Dickie in the third row of servicemen behind the 435th MMS sign.

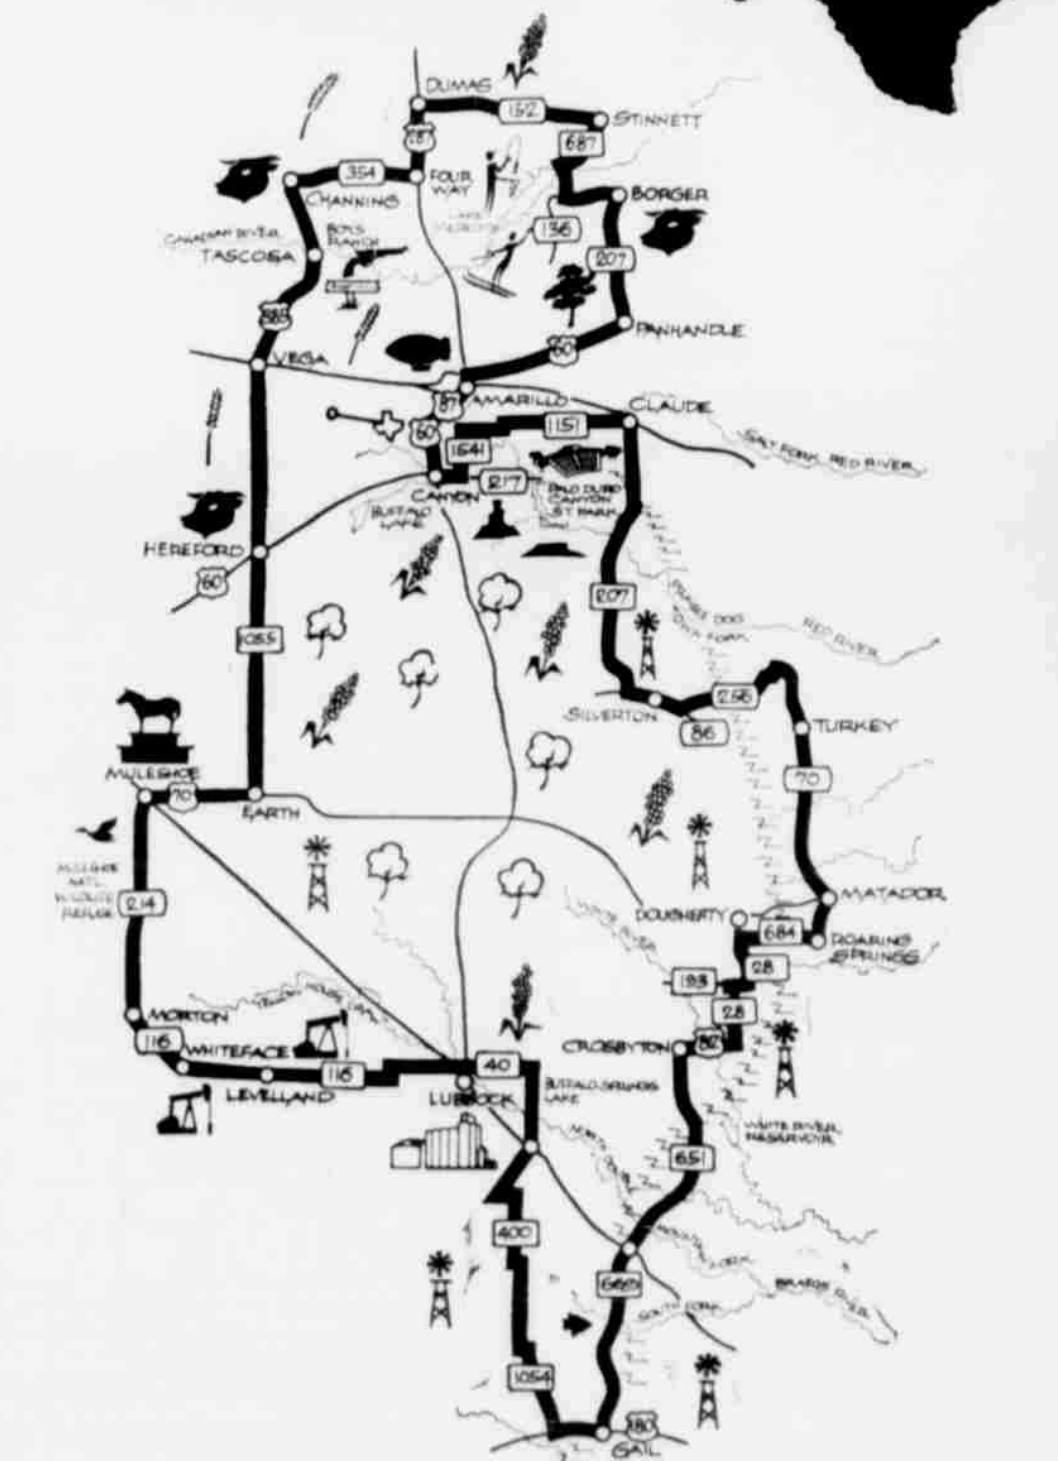

It all depends upon how you look at it — good or bad — but Garza Memorial Hospital had 21 of its 26 beds occupied Tuesday. That's the highest number since the Dec. 1 reopening.

Financially, the hospital is doing all right if collections hold up. The hospital was even "in the black" in December if collections for the period were 100 per cent (not likely of course). For January the hospital has been well in the black as far as billings vs. expenses. The hospital received a $3,500 check over the weekend from Medicare owed since fall to help pay the bills.

Latest report this week from Miami is that Bob Macy's mother, seriously wounded by gunmen last week when her husband was slain, was due out of the hospital Tuesday. Bob is expected to fly back to Post this weekend.

Another copy of the application for voter registration certificate appears in today's Dispatch on page 10. There is no charge for this registration, but if you want to vote in 1968 you must register with the county tax assessor-collector by Jan. 31. You can fill out The Dispatch blank and mail it to this county office if you so desire.

Printing of this form by The Dispatch is a part of a state-wide drive by Texas newspapers to help get the registration in for all kinds of elections coming up.

POST ON NEW PLAINS TRAVEL TRAIL

Shown above is the map of the 584-mile Plains Travel Trail which was announced yesterday at the Governor's Tourist Development Conference.

Vandals, thieves hit at schools

Vandals and thieves were active in the vicinity of the schools last Friday night, with two high school basketball players' cars victimized, and the public address system microphone stolen from the press box at the football stadium.

Two stereo tapes were stolen from Norman Tanner's car, with the car's spark plugs also taken and the wiring "missed up." A new muffler was stolen off Dennis Altman's car.

The boys had left the autos parked in the high school gymnasium parking lot while they were at Wolforth for Friday night's basketball game with Friendship.

Coach Glynn Gregg reports the microphone was stolen from the press box by vandals who damaged the door in prying it open.

Hearing postponed on discontinuing trains

The Railroad Commission in Austin indefinitely postponed last Thursday a series of hearings on the Santa Fe Railway's applications to discontinue six passenger trains, including the two through Post.

The commission said the Santa Fe's application did not meet requirements. The railroad was given until Feb. 5 to amend its applications.

In its order, the commission said it would then consider any amendments made to the applications, as well as motions filed by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to dismiss the applications.

New metal doors for junior high gym

Six new metal doors are being installed in the junior high gym, replacing the old wooden doors.

Bids were taken for the long desired improvement project last summer. The new doors will cost approximately $1,200.

Will we get Mississippi River Water?

It certainly isn't cheerful to look forward to, but the Ogallala formation, which furnishes the underground water that supports the South Plains' agricultural economy is going to be depleted by 1985 or 1990.

When that happens, what will West Texas and New Mexico do for water? The immediate need, we are told, will be from 7 to 8 million acre-feet of water a year, and by the year 2020, the need will be up to about 18 million acre-feet annually. That is more water than that impounded by all the present reservoirs in Texas.

Joe G. Moore, Texas Water Development head, says the answer to this question should be forthcoming soon in the first federal report on a proposal to move Mississippi River water to West Texas, possibly by atomic power.

Moore said the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation is expected to make at least a preliminary report during this session of Congress.

The question now before the bureau is whether to pursue the idea of building a network of canals, pumping stations and reservoirs across several states to furnish irrigation water to the South Plains.

Our cotton seen in different light

The Texas High Plains "problem child" image in the nation's cotton industry has begun to fade, and that's encouraging.

At the National Cotton Council's Beltwide Production and Mechanization Conference held Jan. 11-12, three of the featured speakers called attention to great strides being taken on the Plains toward solutions of the area's problems, and a fourth candidly admitted past USDA errors in assessing market demand for the shorter staple cottons for which the Plains has been noted.

Speaking on "Progress in Variety Improvement," one of the speakers, Dr. Levon L. Ray, agronomist at the South Plains Research and Extension Center, pointed out 1967 increases in both staple length and fiber strength, and left no doubt

Cows can't read, but they do eat

Millions of persons demand their newspaper with breakfast, but not in order to eat it. They thereby differ from cows, which, we learn, are thriving on meals made up of the daily and weekly press. According to farming scientists at Pennsylvania State University, a mixture of newsprint and molasses makes healthy, wholesome cattle-feed.

One herd was fed regular, high quality traditional feed. Another herd was given newspapers and molasses. And the latter herd of heifers gained just as much weight as did those fed with standard feed.

Time short for voter registration

There are many uncertainties ahead for the political events of 1968, but in Post and Garza County there is one surefire fact for all citizens: those who want to vote in national, state, county and local elections must qualify by getting their names on the voter registration rolls. The deadline is Jan. 31.

Registering to vote is simple—and all for free. This time, everybody must register, including those 60 years of age and over.

This year, Texans will be voting on officers

The problems of moving Mississippi River water to West Texas are as enormous as the proposal.

Between the Mississippi and West Texas, the water would have to be lifted a total of 3,300 feet. That would require 60 or 70 pumping stations if the canal route follows the Red River basin, which appears to be the most logical route at present.

Pumping the water would require more energy than the total electric energy output of Texas at present, Moore said. "We may have to consider atomic power as a source for this energy."

Another big problem is that the withdrawal of water from the Mississippi would have to be regulated to keep the river navigable and to maintain enough flow to keep salt water out of the New Orleans water supply. This problem, Moore said, "led us to the conclusion that we probably could pump only about seven months out of the year and those months don't necessarily coincide with the irrigation season."

So, when and if those of use who are still around see Mississippi River water moving to West Texas, we may well be looking upon one of the new seven wonders of the world.—CD in the minds of his listeners that he looked on 1967 as merely a first step in the move toward longer, stronger cottons.

Something over 35 per cent of the Plains crop in 1967 will staple an inch or longer, and Dr. Ray stated that possibly as much as half the 1968 crop will be 1-1/2/32 inches or longer.

Pressley, or fiber strength, went from an average of 73,000 pounds per square inch in 1966 to over 79,000 psi in the current crop year. This, too, is due for improvement as producers switch to varieties with longer and stronger fiber potentials.

There's still a ways to go before the Plains will be singled out as a model area of cotton production, but losing that "problem child" image certainly is a long step in the right direction.—CD the role of newspapers in feeding minds, we are happy to hear that it can feed maws as well. Charles Lamb said critically of newspapers that they "always excite curiosity. No one ever lays one down without a feeling of disappointment." It is reassuring to know that cows do not share this gloomy view.

We remember having once read that it took 40 acres of Canadian woodland to supply the newsprint for a single Sunday edition of one large American newspaper. This figure appalled us. But we feel happier knowing the time may come when such a Sunday edition is only a way station in the process of feeding trees to cattle.

from the White House right on down to the state capitol, the courthouse, city hall, and school trustees. Some of the faces are sure to be close and exciting. The decisions made at the polls this year will stick for as many as four years.

Politics will be stirring and bubbling at an unprecedented rate. It will be a year to remember and a year when those without the power to vote at every opportunity will feel as lost and forlorn as a lamb in a blizzard.

WHAT A WHIFF of winter we got . . . without even asking for it!

The man up the street says you can usually dodge a question with a long-winded answer.

HAROLD WINERIP of the Boston Herald Traveler is a man after my own heart. I'd often wondered what it is that keeps so many of us in the weekly newspaper business, and it isn't so hard to figure out after reading what Editor Winerip has to say about the joys of running a weekly newspaper, as follows:

"You get more help from a printer than you would on a big daily newspaper; if he doesn't like your copy or headlines, he will take it upon himself to change them.

"You will be a true celebrity in town, which means that no one will run an event of any kind to which you will not be expected to contribute.

"Many envious inhabitants will state, 'Ah, you've got it made, what with being your own boss and all.'

"You will get to know at least half a dozen middle-aged ladies real well. They will suffer total recall about their activities, even as to whether the club covered dish supper was served on round or square tables.

"Many citizens will offer to write for you for nothing — which is exactly what they will be worth.

"You will be expected to know the history of your community even before its founding. Teachers and pupils will call upon you to pinpoint where the dinosaurs hung out.

"A typical greeting from townspeople will be, 'When are you going to print my letter?'

"You will struggle to keep body and soul together, but well-wishers will advise you to add departments on drama, literature, the cinema, the dance, opera, theology, philosophy, the stock market, coin collecting and drum corps activities, and how come you don't have bureaus in Washington, Huphong, Hong Kong and Inner Beirut?

"If you run crime news you will be told, 'There is no need to print that kind of stuff in a hometown paper.' If you don't run it, you will be asked, 'What are you hiding?'

Seeing as how most of us don't have enough trouble as it is with punctuation marks — where to put them and when — they've come up with a new one, the "interbang." It is a combination of a question mark and an exclamation point and has been devised to express both certainty and doubt at the same time. I'll just keep on using a question mark and an exclamation point separately. Like this: ?! Incidentally, in Arkansas they don't call them exclamation points, they call them "Oklahoma astonishment marks."

DORACE WILSON was in the office the other day to show us two draft registration cards she wanted laminated. What was unusual about the cards is that one was issued in World War I, dated June 5, 1917, and the other World War II, dated April 27, 1942. Both cards were issued to Cameron Justice, pioneer Justiceburg resident. The World War I draft card was signed

Social Security benefit increases due in March

The changes in the social security law signed by President Johnson on Jan. 2 will mean a benefit increase of at least 13 per cent in the social security checks of about 35,000 men, women, and children in the Lubbock area.

The Social Security Administration's high speed electronic computers are figuring the increases for all 23,700,000 social security beneficiaries around the country and will finish the task in time to include the increases in the checks delivered early in March.

Beneficiaries need not take any action to get the increase. It will be sent to them automatically.

Residents of the Lubbock area can expect the first increased check on Saturday, March 2, one day earlier than the usual 3rd of the month delivery of social security benefit checks. Under a recent arrangement with the Treasury Department and the Post Office, social security checks are delivered a day early instead of a day late when the 3rd of the month falls on a Sunday or holiday.

Some social security beneficiaries will receive more than 13 per cent increase. The minimum benefit for workers retiring at 65 is increased from $44 to $55. The average benefit payable to a retired worker, about $86, will be raised to $98, an increase of $12 a month. The average couple's benefit, now $145, will go up to $165; and the average aged widow's benefit will rise $11, from the current average of $75 to $86.

The last increase in social security benefits amounted to a 7 per cent increase, and was effective January 1965.

About three out of every 10 beneficiaries receiving an increased check early in March will be someone under 65, many of them the children of working fathers who have died.

The value of social security survivors insurance is often overlooked. Social security is more than just a retirement system. But it is also income protection for the family in case of the breadwinner's death or disability.

With the increased benefit payments provided under the new amendments to the law, the face value of social security survivors insurance protection is increased to about $940 billion. This is just about equivalent to the value of all the private life insurance now in force. Under the amended law, maximum payments to families now on the social security benefit rolls will go up from the currently payable maximum of $309.20 a month to $322.40. In the future, the maximum payable monthly to any one family can be as high as $434.40.

Julia Childs becomes bride of Rex Prather in local ceremony

The Trinity Baptist Church was the setting of the wedding of Miss Julia Childs and Rex Prather Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock with the Rev. A. T. Nixon, retired minister and school teacher, officiating at the double ring reading of the vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Childs of Route 2, Post, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prather, Route 1, Vinita, Okla.

Vows were repeated in front of two tree candelabras and two tapered candelabras and baskets of white mums and greenery.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown made by her grandmother, Mrs. B. C. Childs. The floor-length A-line gown of white peau de soie featured a bateau neckline and long petal-point sleeves. The chapel train was attached to the shoulders by self-fabric bows. Her veil of imported bridal illusion was held by a cascade of white velvet roses and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white crystal roses and baby breath atop a white Bible, a gift from her grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Custer, Streamers, tied in love knots, included her grandmother Custer's wedding ring.

MRS. REX PRATHER (Julia Childs)

Carrying out the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue, the bride wore a necklace belonging to her grandmother Childs; a linen handkerchief, a gift from the bridegroom's mother; a dinner ring belonging to her sister; a blue garter and a penny in her shoe.

Miss Nedra Childs was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Anne Sappington and Miss Laura Ann Gerner of Lubbock. Mrs. Don Bennett of Abilene was bridesmatron. They wore identical red velvet floor-length A-line dresses with a bateau neckline dipping to a V at the back. Their headpieces were of red flowers and red tulle veils. Each carried a long-stemmed pink rose.

Miss Cindy Green of Vinita, niece of the bridegroom, and Miss Lynn Childs of San Angelo, cousin of the bride, carried the bridal train. They were dressed as the attendants with their red illusion veils extending from red covered headbands.

Miss Janet Childs, sister of the bride, and Miss Charla Bickel, niece of the bridegroom, were candelights. Their red velvet dresses were styled similar to the attendants, with red velvet bows forming the headpieces.

Jim Prather served his brother as best man. Jim Bickel of Ballinger, Richard Hart, cousin of the bridegroom, and Pete Dodson were groomsmen. Stan Bickel of Ballinger, nephew of the bridegroom, and D'Wayne Gannon, Johnny Pennell and Darrell Lee Jones seated the guests.

Miss Nancy Hart sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Noel Norman of San Angelo. They are cousins of the couple.

The reception followed at the Community Room. The bride's chosen colors of red and white were carried out throughout the room. The serving table featured a three-tiered wedding cake. Red punch was served.

Mrs. Charles Landtroop of Slaton, Mrs. Lana Carol Overland, Lubbock, and Miss Helen Stowers of Friona served. Other members of the house party were Mmes. Doug Tipton, Thurman Maddox and Barnie Jones, Miss Cindy Childs of San Angelo registered the guests.

For travel the bride wore a white A-line dress under a navy blue double-breasted A-line coat of wool. Her accessories were gold colored.

The couple will be at home at 2902 2nd Place, Apt. F13, Lubbock. Mrs. Prather is a Post High School graduate and attended South Plains College at Levelland and Commercial College at Lubbock. She is employed at Montgomery Motors. Mr. Prather is a graduate of Vinita High School, attended Northeast A&M at Miami, Okla., and will be a sophomore at South Plains College the second semester.

Included in the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prather and Mrs. Gene Green, Vinita; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bickel and family, Ballinger; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Childs and family, San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Delmo Gossett, Mrs. Lucille Meador and Mrs. Kenneth Overland, Lubbock. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Kirksey, Slaton and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hart, Snyder.

Food prices are influenced most by off-farm factors, economist notes

COLLEGE STATION — In these days of high living costs, the phrase "farmers are the consumer's best friend" isn't likely to be greeted with a great deal of enthusiasm.

Yet, it's true, according to Dr. W. E. Black, Extension marketing and policy economist in the Texas A&M University Agricultural Economics and Sociology Department.

Black says a major reason food expenses have gone up is because consumers are demanding and getting a greater variety of higher quality groceries. This in turn has brought on more marketing activity and more processing, packaging and hauling.

Farmers, he added, have responded with more production efficiency and increased interest in product promotion, but have not been rewarded financially in proportion. The fact is that overall farm income is down and has been trending in that direction for some time.

The farmer is indeed the consumers' best friend because he has helped keep food prices from rising higher than they are.

Black said the national food marketing bill has more than doubled in the last 20 years. Here are some reasons:

—The volume of food marketing increased by more than one-third because of rising population.

—Marketing services have risen by one-half because consumers want more sorting, grading, trimming, packaging, processing and storage, more built-in conveniences, and they are eating more away from home.

—Labor costs, which account for about half the total marketing bill, have doubled.

—New plant and equipment costs have gone up along with transportation, packaging materials, interest payments, rent and taxes. Corporate profits make up about 6 per cent of the marketing bill.

—Consumer incomes have increased.

Despite marketing cost increases, consumers spend less of their incomes for food than they did years ago, Black emphasized. In fact, disposable income has gone up faster than the price of food. Food costs have risen less in the last 20 years than most other consumer items.

For all items other than food, the cost has gone up 42 per cent, transportation up 60 per cent, housing 42 per cent, rent 52 per cent and

The C's bed didn't get made all last week after Monday morning. This was not a belated New Year's resolution on the part of Mrs. C but a case of necessity. There's no point in making a bed if there are bodies in it.

Mr. C and I overdid the "compatibility" bit last week by being sick at the same time for the first time in over 26 years. Yep, the flu bug really hit us and we had quite a week.

I surrendered to the flu Monday night and spent Tuesday in bed; Mr. C kept plugging along until 1:30 p. m. Wednesday when I took him home and tucked him in. I had arisen about 9:30 that morning and staggered to the office to do what little work Mr. C and Editor Didway had left for me. I joined Mr. C in bed at 5 p. m. I didn't even attempt to get out of bed Thursday or Friday but Mr. C came and went a few times on Thursday and thought he was well on Friday. Ha! Saturday we both worked a bit before collapsing again. Sunday morning we made the bed up all proper and just collapsed on couches and chairs the rest of the day.

So, went the story in many Post homes last week. One hesitated to ask how anyone was feeling in case they'd tell you.

Mr. C got initiated to day-time TV quiz shows between napping so now he'll know what show I'm talking about as I get to watch on my day off, I loved seeing my favorite — "Concentration" — every day.

Day-time TV programming is set up rather nicely. One can watch quiz shows up until 1 o'clock in the afternoon and then when the soap operas come on it's nap time. After a nice nap a few quiz games come on again.

I do believe Mr. C has bought some stock in an orange juice factory because every time I rolled over there he was with a glass of juice for me. He cured himself with bed rest, juice and aspirin. I was taking some of the "high" priced stuff and I'd say we recovered about equally as well.

Meals certainly pose no problem unless it's an argument over who feels well enough to open the can of soup or poach the eggs. Mr. C and I played a "waiting" game at meal time. The hungriest one usually ended up with the chore so you can guess who did most of the cooking at our house. Occasionally, we both got in the spirit of things and went to the kitchen together. That was usually a mistake as one's reactions are a bit slow when he isn't feeling well and we just managed to get in each other's way.

Then there is the "whose going to answer the phone" game. Mr. C usually wins this because he has better nerves than I and I can only stand a phone ring so long.

We also had another game at our house entitled: "There's the 'dear' dog at the door and who's going to let her in." Miss Sam Basset wasn't the most loved dog in town last week. She was so glad we were home and often joined us with a bound to the bed where she wanted to play. I don't know how she kept from getting the "bug."

While you're reading this column Mr. C and I will be on the road to McAllen to attend the Texas Press Association mid-winter meeting. My having a sister who lives there has nothing to do with our going to our first mid-winter press meeting in several years!

We hope the sun will be shining brightly in the Valley and we can finish our recuperation in Texas "land of the sun."

It's My Turn

Miss Childs is honored at shower in Slaton

Mmes. Charles Landtroop, Jimmy Sharp and Maxine Cummings were hostesses at a "bathroom accessory" shower honoring Miss Julia Childs recently in Mrs. Landtroop's home in Slaton.

Miss Childs' chosen colors of red and white were carried out in the decor. Guests called between 3:30 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Cakes and snacks were served.

CLOSE CITY SOCIAL

A pot-luck supper will be held at 6:30 p. m. Saturday at the Close City Community Center. The usual games will be played following the meal.

SO YOU WANT NEW INDUSTRY?

Bushes must be beat for best prospects

(Editor's Note: This is the fifth and final in a series of articles from the Texas Industrial Commission on the five major points considered necessary to a community getting new industry.)

By JAMES J. KELLY
Assistant Executive Director
Texas Industrial Commission

If you have read the first four "points" in this series, you will understand why vigorous prospecting for new industries should begin in earnest only after these four concepts have been given full consideration and at least partially implemented.

Community betterment programs must be under way, ideally with a long range plan and set of goals for the community.

Research and analysis must have been carried out, resulting in the identification of "candidate" industries.

All available means of financing must have been examined and, preferably, an Industrial Foundation formed.

Sites and buildings must have been inventoried and evaluated in terms of your "candidate" industries.

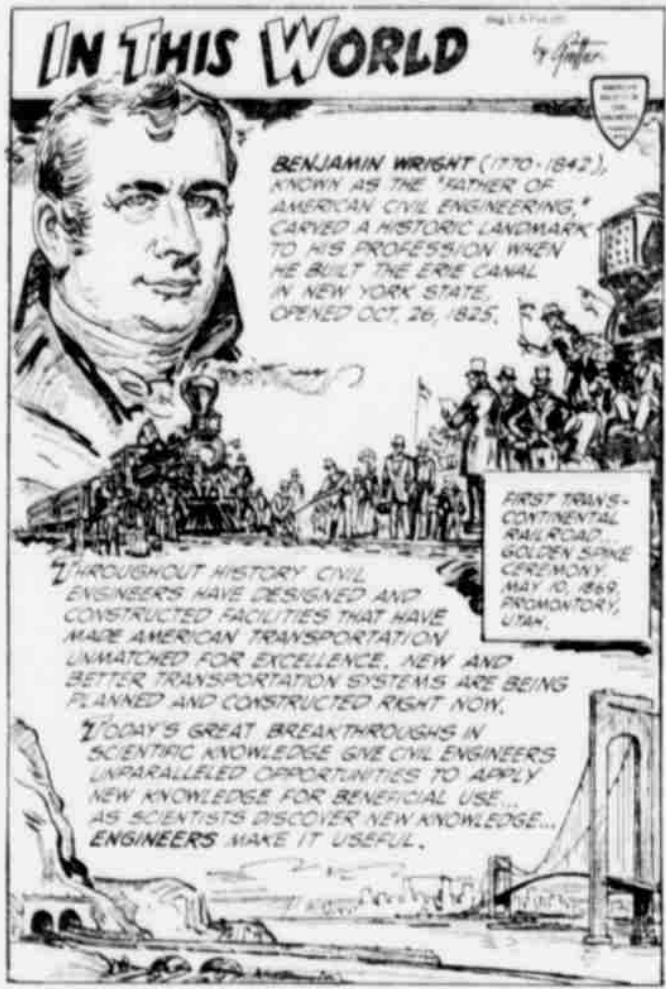

THESE FOUR points are on-going processes and should be well under way before concerted prospecting will be worthwhile. However, because industrial development is a very long-term, continuous process, every community that has a program must inevitably get out and beat the bushes for prospects.

Where are your best prospects? The answer is surprising to some.

Your first best prospects are found in the industry you already have. It may be the least glamorous, but research shows that 80 per cent of all industrial growth is due to expansion of existing industry. And, after all, the industry that you already have will be the easiest and most economical to work on. They need the help of your I. D. Committee just like outside industry does — help and encouragement in the forms of research and financing and securing a new building. The entire program that we have been outlining can apply right in your own backyard.

YOUR SECOND best prospect is "the man with an idea." Inventiveness combined with enthusiasm is very valuable. The man with a sound idea for a new business, or a new way to expand an existing business, may be the springboard to your community needs. Encourage such a man, and work to develop and display an atmosphere that will encourage the emergence of many such men. When you are seeking industrial development, there should be no such thing as too many new ideas.

Your third best prospects will come from your allies. These are the utility companies serving your community, the railroad, or a state agency such as the Texas Industrial Commission. All of these allies are as anxious for industrial

Carroll Cowley receives promotion in Vietnam

TUY HOA, Vietnam — Carroll J. Cowley, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garrie R. Cowley, 1310 East Tarrant, Bowie, Tex., was promoted Dec. 28 to Army specialist four in Vietnam, where he is assigned as a petroleum supply handler in the Tuy Hoa Subarea Command's 226th Supply and Service Company.

His wife, Wanda, lives at 506 West Fifth St., Post, Tex.

The Camp Fire Girls organization was founded by Dr. and Mrs. Luther Halsey Guick in 1910.

there are more types of prospects than you perhaps thought, and closer to home.

At some stage in prospecting, you will want to promote your community. A colorful, informative brochure is a good way to do this. A campaign of direct mail to your "candidate" industries is another good means of promotion. If your town has developed any tourist attractions, these can be used for promotion relating to industrial development.

Prospecting for new industry is never easy, but it will be a lot easier when the first four points of industrial development have been initiated.

IN THE OLD DAYS

In Aunt Miranda's day there was no question about whether you went to church on Sunday. You didn't stay home because it was raining or snowing, or because you had a slight headache. You went—by horse-drawn wagons or carriages—a much harder trek than it is today.

Maybe because it was harder, people appreciated it more. Maybe in that era of pre-modern conveniences people had a better sense of values. They seemed to know, at any rate, what was really important.

Of course, the church is just as necessary today as it was in Aunt Miranda's day. Certainly the complexities of our present generation make life's problems seem increasingly abundant. Hadn't we better go to church next Sunday—and see for ourselves?

Youth Corps is organized here

By Zelika Freeman
The Neighborhood Youth Corps is a newly organized program. It includes 14 areas, and approximately 200 high school students of 16 years of age and over. The program provides part time work ten hours a week for four or five seniors, and pays well also.

The four students are: Isabell Alder, Annie Bell, Pete Morales and Glenda Watson.

Isabell is an assistant teacher's aide at the primary school. She prepares stencils, and grades papers for teachers.

Annie, assistant secretary at Junior High, types information for teachers, and does other types of clerical work.

Pete and Glenda work in the elementary library fixing books, making book cards, classifying and shelving books.

Two seniors will be mid-term graduates

By Irene Saldivar
Two seniors, Elaine Bland and Karen Sterling, will graduate from Post High School at the end of this semester in January.

Elaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Bland, plans to marry Gary Donelson Jan. 27 and to begin classes at San Angelo State College Feb. 1. Elaine plans to major in Fine Arts and hopes to eventually teach high school speech and drama.

Karen Sterling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sterling, plans to attend an LVN training course in the fall.

When asked what the highlights of their high school years were, Karen said the Junior - Senior Banquet was, but that the experiences she had in choir and in the various clubs to which she belonged will also be unforgettable.

Elaine indicated that pep rallies, various trips and parties, the Junior - Senior Banquet, and the night Post beat Denver City are among the many events in high school that she will never forget. However, the thing she has enjoyed most, she said, has been the many new friends she has gained during this semester.

Junior High boys help in custodian's absence

Junior High School boys were quite helpful two days last week in the absence of the school custodian, Mr. Gonzales.

Eight or ten boys volunteered to help Mr. Pollard, the principal, in maintenance of the building. This was quite commendable, since it is no small chore to clean a two-story building.

The scores for the seniors who took the ACT test Dec. 9 have arrived. Those who haven't received their scores may pick them up in the office.

Everyone seems a little worried with report cards coming out Wednesday. Last week was spent studying for and taking mid-semester exams. Mid-term is pretty important, but I bet everyone passed — we hope!

It seems that the flu bug has bitten just about everyone. This week it seems to be working on the senior class. Despite this we were still able to have the choir assembly Friday although several of the choir members were out. Only two of the four sextets performed because of illness.

Congratulations go to the basketball boys for defeating Denver City last week! We knew we could turn the tables!

Seniors who passed Civics are going to have to change their schedules for the new semester. Let's hope everyone passed.

The senior class is getting even smaller. Elaine Bland and Karen Sterling are now exes. We'll miss them, but we congratulate them.

Newman stars in 'Cool Hand Luke'

"Cool Hand Luke," filmed in Panavision and Technicolor and starring Paul Newman, is now showing through Sunday at the Tower Theatre.

"Cool Hand Luke" is the explosive story of a Southern chain-gang, and a prisoner who rebels against his jailors and any system that seeks to limit his personal freedom. Paul Newman stars as Luke.

Co-starred with Newman are Jo Van Fleet, George Kennedy, J. D. Cannon, Lou Antonio, Robert Drivas and Strother Martin.

A Southern prison camp was built just north of Stockton, Calif., for "Cool Hand Luke." Included among the dozen buildings were a barracks, mess hall, warden's quarters, guard shack and dog kennels. The camp, over several acres, was surrounded by chain-link fencing.

'Company's Comin'! Beautify Texas' theme of meeting set for Feb. 16

COLLEGE STATION — Roll out the red carpet—company's comin' to Texas. The new year will bring world-wide travelers for HemisFair, Lions International and the Olympics in Mexico.

For the occasion a group of prominent Texas leaders, the Beautify Texas Council, have declared war to beautify Texas.

A statewide meeting to unite forces for beautification and coach communities and individuals is scheduled for Friday, Feb. 16, in Austin, according to O. P. Schnabel from San Antonio, council president. They hope to help roll the carpet with the theme "Company's Comin'! Beautify Texas."

Beginning at 9:15 a.m. in Austin's Sheraton Crest Inn with registration, the meeting will feature a luncheon with a prominent speaker.

Representatives from San Antonio, Houston, and several small Texas towns will form a panel to discuss communities in action.

Mrs. E. O. Barton of Houston, president of the Texas Garden Clubs, will talk on Your Stake in Beautification. Plans include discussion about specific community problems and activities kicked off by Mr. Schnabel.

"We want this to be a cooperative effort, getting every town involved, said Jack Sloan, Extension resource development specialist with Texas A&M University and secretary of the Council.

"Everyone, from mayors to teenagers, is invited to get answers to their problems and learn how-to-do at the meeting. We hope to inspire Texans to do something now to be proud of their state's appearance."

Greyhound buys area bus lines

FORT WORTH — The Greyhound Corp. said Thursday it has completed purchase of controlling interest in Texas, New Mexico & Oklahoma Coaches, Inc., through an exchange of nearly $4 million stock. A 56 per cent interest in the Lubbock based company was acquired in exchange for 173,681 Greyhound shares. They have a par value of $1.50 each and were selling at around $23 a share in Thursday's market.

Greyhound said the Texas line will continue to operate as a separate company with the same personnel.

QUARTER HORSE GIFT
The University of Texas Ex-Students' Association has received a gift of four thoroughbred quarter horses, all mares with a total appraised value of $10,000. They were donated by the Texas-Exes president, Charles S. Coates of Houston, who raises horses on his farm at Brenham. The Ex-Students' Association plans to sell the horses and put the proceeds into its permanent endowment fund. Interested bidders may inquire about the horses by calling the UT Alumni Center, GR 6-6271.

NOTICE OF COMPLIANCE WITH THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964

At its meeting on January 11, 1968 the governing board of Garza Memorial Hospital reaffirmed a resolution that the hospital would continue to operate on a non-discriminatory basis in accordance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964. This means that all facilities and services of Garza Memorial Hospital will be available to all patients and employees on a non-discriminatory basis. Waiting rooms, public toilets, emergency services, dining facilities and room assignment accommodations will be available without regard to race, color or national origin. This action is necessary for Garza Memorial Hospital to continue receiving necessary federal funds for operation, the loss of which will result in the closing of the Garza Memorial Hospital. The board urges all public users and the employees of Garza Memorial Hospital to cooperate in this program so that the transition will be smooth and we can continue our mission of serving the ill and injured of our community.

Travel Trails —

The Plains Trail follows Farm Road 1151 to Claude and turns south using canyon-bisecting highway 284 to Silverton, State Highway 256 to Turkey and State Highway 70 to Matador, a true western town named for a ranch. Farm Roads 684, 28 and U. S. 82 continue southward past White River Reservoir through Kalgary and on to Post, a community founded by C. W. Post, the cereal king. Post grew quickly although all supplies in the beginning had to be brought in by mule train from Big Spring, approximately 70 miles away. A cotton mill started by the community's founder was among Texas' earlier mills and remains in operation.

Next stop, via Farm Road 669, is Gail, noted for its Borden County jail on the courthouse square. The trail turns down U. S. 180 for only a short distance before reverting northward via Farm Road 1054 to Wilson and Farm Road 400 on into Lubbock.

Texas Tech is located in Lubbock. And Mackenzie State Park with its prairie dog town is a tourist favorite. Lubbock, founded in 1891, is center for a vast region of oil, agriculture, warehousing and education. Buffalo Springs Lake, nine miles southeast of Lubbock via Farm Roads 40 and 400, offers fishing, boating and picnicking.

The Plains Trail departs Lubbock westward on Farm Road 2255 and State Route 118 as far as Whiteface, then northerly on State Highway 214 through Morton to Muleshoe. A life-size statue of a mule stands at the intersection of U. S. Highways 70 and 84 in Muleshoe. The creation, made of fiber glass, was unveiled in 1965. The Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge, established in 1935, is the oldest national wildlife sanctuary in Texas, primarily a home for waterfowl.

U. S. 70 and Farm Road 1055 through Earth lead to Hereford in Deaf Smith County, referred to as "the town without a toothache." There is a noted absence of dental decay due to natural fluorides in the water supply. Tascosa and Boys Ranch is farther north up the trail. Old Tascosa, on U. S. 385 south of Channing, was settled in 1870 by Mexican colonists. Boot Hill Cemetery just off the highway is the final resting place for many cowboys who died in 1890 gunbattles. In June, 1939, the late Cal Farley established Boys Ranch for homeless boys on the old townsite. The Plains Trail returns to Dumas via State Highway 354 and U. S. 287.

Driver education handbooks for motorcycle operators will be available at the close of the meeting, Carpenter said.

Motorcycle safety program set here

A motorcycle safety meeting, sponsored by the Post Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be held at 2:30 p. m. Friday, Jan. 19, in the high school auditorium.

The program will be presented by George McMahon of G & G Honda in Lubbock and John B. McKinney of John's Honda Sales in Lubbock.

School Supt. Bill Shiver and Principal Charles R. Hutchins have consented to allow the high school student body to attend the assembly program, according to Bob Carpenter, Jaycee chairman for the event.

The program will consist of a film on motorcycle safety and a talk on the subject by McMahon.

Driver education handbooks for motorcycle operators will be available at the close of the meeting, Carpenter said.

O'Donnell funeral for auto victim

Jackie Jackson, 38, of Lubbock, who died Monday in a Floydada hospital from injuries received in a one-car accident Sunday inside the Floydada city limits, was the son of Lawrence Jackson of Post and the brother of four other Post residents.

Jackson, who was employed in Lubbock as a lithographer for C. F. Boone Publications, had served in the Navy in both World War II and the Korean conflict.

Besides his father, he is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Bernard Pewitt of Post, Mrs. Oscar Veach of O'Donnell, Mrs. Wayne Hair of Crane and Mrs. Wesley Robertson of Lamesa, and seven brothers, L. D., Jim and Arthur (Bo) Jackson, all of Post, Ray of Durango, Colo., Doss of Seminole and Joe Jackson of O'Donnell.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the First Baptist Church of O'Donnell, with burial in the O'Donnell Cemetery.

Precinct 1 bonds are all paid off

Final payment of $45,000 in principal plus interest was made here Tuesday on County Commissioner Precinct 1 road bonds over two years ahead of the final scheduled payment of Feb. 1, 1970.

County Judge J. E. Parker said this bond issue was for the county's share of the right-of-way for four-laning US-84 from Post to Southland.

He pointed out that payment of the bonds means no 30 cent precinct road tax will be needed on the 1968 tax levy.

Two Post women injured in crash

Two Post women, Mrs. Doll Haire and Mrs. Nita Burress, received minor injuries last Thursday morning when the rear of their automobile was struck by another car on U. S. Hwy. 84 near the Lubbock city limits.

Both women received bruises and neck whiplash injuries. Mrs. Haire, who was driving, was the more seriously injured of the two. She was in Mercy Hospital in Slaton from Thursday until Friday.

The injured woman's sister, Mrs. Winnie Tuffing, escaped injury in the accident.

Damage was extensive to the Haire automobile, which was spun around by the force of the impact. The car that struck them was driven by a Slaton man.

Low county diesel bid was 12.6 cents gallon

The Dispatch incorrectly printed the low county diesel bid for the county's 1968 business in last week's Dispatch through an error in giving the information to a Dispatch reporter.

Texaco won the diesel bid at 12.6 cents per gallon, instead of 19.1 cents as reported.

Keeping America Beautiful

The awe-inspiring beauty of America's majestic terrain is famous the world over. Each year, millions of families spend their vacation camping among its rugged mountains, sparkling rivers, and fascinating wild life.

But this magnificent landscape is disappearing under a litter load that's increasing by six per cent annually. Although taxpayers spend $500 million a year on clean-up, we're losing the litter fight!

Leading American businesses, such as the Pepsi-Cola Co., have joined the anti-litter campaign. For free loan of the film on this pressing problem — "Lassie's Litter Bit" — contact your local Pepsi-Cola bottler.

Post Lions see film on Holy Land journey

Ed Hamilton, Tahoka businessman, showed a film of his trip to the Holy Land at Tuesday night's Lions Club meeting.

A group of Post Lions attended the Jayton Lions Club's charter night program last Thursday night. The Slaton and Spur clubs sponsored reorganization of the Jayton club. Lions attending from Post were Henry Harden, president of the local club; Jack Alexander, Bryce Martin and Bud Davis.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

All stockholders of Post Stamp, Inc., are urged to attend a meeting at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Jan. 23, at the First National Bank community room. Election of officers and other important business is on the agenda.

Gas firm's peak run now August

Ansil O'Neal, local manager of the Pioneer Natural Gas Co., had a good believe-it-or-not for Post Rotarians in a talk about the growth of his firm at the Tuesday luncheon.

He said the firm's peak demand now is in the hottest month of the summer—August—instead of the coldest months of the winter as one would figure.

The reason is that his firm services gas to thousands of High Plains farmers for their irrigation engines and August is the big water month for the cotton crop. O'Neal said his firm has 8,400 stockholders scattered all over the world. He added that almost every Pioneer employe is a stockholder since the company made stock purchasing available to employes not too long ago.

He said Pioneer has its own exploration department which last year drilled some 80 wells in the continuing search throughout the Southwest for additional gas supplies for future years. In answer to a question, he said Pioneer also has become interested in uranium.

The gas utility manager said the firm has over 7,000 miles of gathering lines, transmission lines, and distribution lines serving 40,000 square miles of customers.

Stolen clothes recovered, 2 held

Jesse Earl Brantley of Spur is out on $1,500 bond and Marvin Henry Perry of Spur is being held in the county jail here on charges of felony theft over $50 as the result of the reported theft of a suitcase of clothes valued at $324.25 here Saturday night.

The clothing was taken from James Capps after he hired the pair to drive him here from Spur. The arrests were made by the Dickens County deputy sheriff this side of Spur after Garza County sheriff's officers notified him of the theft.

Deputy Sheriff Bob Adkinson said the pair hid the suitcase in a culvert but the clothing was found in their car at the time of the arrest.

Capps had gone into Ge'nez Steak House to get the pair some food before their return trip. When he came outside with it, the two were gone — and so was his suitcase of clothes he had left on the back porch, Adkinson said.

Area jockey ranks No. 3 in Texas

Kenneth Hart, a former Post Junior Rodeo performer, is ranked No. 3 in the top ten of Texas jockeys by the Texas Racing News.

Hart, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hart, rode a number of winners at Ruidoso Downs, N. M., during the past season and also added to his point total on Texas race tracks.

He is now at Uvalde getting colts ready for upcoming races, but will be back in the saddle as soon as the racing season starts again. He will ride at Laredo and other places in South Texas before going to Ruidoso.

Hart competed in the Junior Rodeo here last August and had also performed in previous junior rodeos here.

Lonnie Gene Peel Jaycee of Month

The Post Junior Chamber of Commerce this week announced the selection of Lonnie Gene Peel as "Jaycee of the Month" for November.

Peel served as chairman of the Jaycees' Christmas trees and turkeys project for the rest homes here, and was also chairman of the dunking booth project during the summer that raised the money for the Christmas project.

Peel and his wife, Janet, and their two children, Kraig and Kayla, live on Route 3.

School census to start next week

School census blanks will go out via students next Wednesday for parents to fill out and sign for prompt return, Supt. Bill Shiver announced today.

Required by the state, the annual spring census helps in planning for the 1968-69 school year.

School administrators are especially interested in the names of children who will be attending school for the first time next fall.

Parents not receiving census blanks are asked to pick them up at the superintendent's office.

Slaton cagers here Friday night for crucial games

Tigers and 'Lopes tied for third in district

The Slaton Tigers and Tigerettes will come to Post Friday night for crucial District 4AA games with the Post Antelopes and Does. The Slaton and Post boys are tied for third place in District 4AA with identical marks of 2-2, trailing first place Midland Carver and second place Stanton. The Slaton girls have won their only district game thus far, downing Stanton, 5-3, last Friday night. The Does have won over Frenship and lost to Stanton.

The Tigers lost to Midland Carver, 78 to 64, Tuesday night, and were defeated by Stanton, 80 to 61, last Friday night. They have won from Morton and Denver City in district competition.

The Tiger offense is paced by Richard Washington, who scored 33 points in the loss to Midland Carver Tuesday, and 27 points in the loss to Stanton.

Marilyn Davis is the Tigerettes' top scorer. She racked up 31 of Slaton's 45 points in their victory over Stanton.

The largest crowd of the season is expected to see Friday night's Slaton games, with the girls' game scheduled for a 6:30 p. m. tipoff. Following Friday night's games, the Does and Antelopes will be tied until late next week. The girls' next game is a non-conference affair here with Tahoka next Thursday night, with the Doe 'B' team also scheduled. Friday night, Jan. 26, the Antelope 'A' and 'B' teams go to Morton for district contests.

Norm Cash still Tiger choice at first base

According to an article in this week's Sporting News, Norm Cash is an unexcused when someone raises the old question in Detroit — who's on first?

Manager Mayo Smith, gearing himself for the start of spring training on Feb. 24 at Lakeland, Fla., makes the point that the Tigers "haven't written off Cash" at the position he has occupied for eight seasons.

The article continues as follows: It is true that Cash, joining Al Kaline in a 33rd birthday, sat out the start of the last ten games of Detroit's frenzied campaign for the 1967 American League pennant.

Mickey Stanley did the honors in one game against lefthanded pitching and Ed Mathews, now 36, knocked in eight runs in the last nine games for a sound finishing performance.

"It's an unusual situation," conceded General Manager Jim Campbell, "and people ask me everywhere I go what we are going to do with two experienced first basemen, Cash and Mathews."

"What do you tell them?" Campbell was prodded.

"That Norm's our first baseman," he replied. "Everybody

The Doe "B" and freshman girls' teams are to play at Slaton today (Thursday), while the Antelope "B" and freshman boys' teams take on Slaton here. The first game tipoff is scheduled for 5:30 at both places.

Post's Junior High teams swing back into action Monday night, Jan. 22, with four conference games at Frenship.

Antelopes go down, 58-56

Stanton speeds up in final stanza for win

The Stanton Buffaloes kept their District 4AA record unblemished by coming from behind early in the fourth quarter here Tuesday night to pin a 58-56 defeat on the Post Antelopes, who are now 2-2 in conference play.

The 'Lopes led 33-30 at halftime and 46-42 at the end of the third quarter, but the explosive Buffaloes, with David Avery doing most of the damage, capitalized on Post mistakes in the final period to run their conference mark to three wins against no losses.

The teams were all even, 18-18, at the end of the first quarter and it was nip and tuck throughout the second period until Charles Harper's field goal just ahead of the halftime buzzer put Post three points into the lead.

The 'Lopes increased their margin by one point in the third period when they outscored the Buffs, 13-12, but it was the last time they were to lead.

Two field goals by Tommy Glynn and one by David Jones to open the final period catapulted Stanton into a two-point lead, but Post pulled even again on Harper's two free throws.

Avery hit four field goals in rapid succession to put the Buffs ahead by eight points, but a charity toss by Nick Pantoja and a field goal by Dennis Altman shaved the Stanton lead to five points. A free throw and a field goal by Ray Altman pulled the Antelopes within two points before Stanton's Ricky Corbell sank a free throw to give the Buffs a three-point lead.

Tanner hit a field goal with 20 seconds remaining to pull the 'Lopes to within one point, but he missed a free throw that would have knotted the count. With three seconds remaining, Pantoja fouled Glynn to break up a Stanton stall, and Glynn hit the free throw. A desperation shot by Post from behind the center line hit high on the backboard as the buzzer sounded.

At one time in the third quarter, Post led by nine points, but a rash of turn-overs on bad passes wrecked the Antelope cause.

Stanton's David Jones took scoring honors with 19 points. Harper led the Antelope team with 18.

The scoring summary:
STANTON — J. Jones 1 0 2; Louder 2 0 4; D. Jones 9 1 19; Glynn 3 1 7; Corbell 3 5 11; Avery 7 0 14; Franklin 0 1 1. Totals 25 8 58.

POST — Tanner 7 2 16; D. Altman 2 2 6; Pantoja 2 1 5; Harper 8 2 18; R. Altman 3 5 11. Totals 22 12 56.

Does upset Frenship; Antelopes win easily

The Post Does surprised the defending district champion Frenship Kittens, 63 to 59, at Frenship last Friday night in the first conference game of the season for Coach Jiggs King's girls.

In the boys' game, Coach Wilbert Bigott's Antelopes downed the Frenship Tigers, 71 to 47, for their second district win against one setback.

The Does overcame a 10-point halftime deficit to upset the Kittens. They trailed 19-17 at the end of the first quarter and 36-26 at the half, but scored 22 points to Frenship's 15 in the third period to trail by only one point, 49-48, going into the final quarter.

Freshman Sherry Bird's only field goal of the night broke a 59-59 tie to put the Does ahead, 61-59, and Karon Windham hit two free throws in the final seconds to stretch the lead to four points.

The game was a rough one, with the Kittens drawing 29 personal fouls and the Does 27. Post hit 29 of 44 shots from the free throw line to 29 of 39 for the losers. Field goals made the difference, with Post hitting 17 and the Kittens 15.

Karon Windham's 33 points on eight field goals and 17 free throws led the Post scoring. Sharon Windham cashed in on five fielders and four free throws for 14 points, and Karen Lee made three from the field and eight from the free throw line, also for 14 points.

Donna Howard's 30 points on six field goals and 18 charity tosses was the best effort of the Frenship forwards.

The Does' starting guards, Vicki Martin, Kay Altman and Nancy Hart, all fouled out of the penalty-ridden game, while one Frenship forward and one guard also went to the bench via the personal foul route.

Post led all the way in the boys' game, piling up a 21-9 first quarter lead, finishing the first half in front, 41-13, and going into the fourth period with a 48-29 lead.

Nick Pantoja had his best scoring night thus far this season with 25 points to lead the Antelopes. Norman Tanner hit 21 and Charles Harper, 12. R. Morris and D. Abney each had 12 points to lead the Frenship scoring.

Sophomore starter Ray Altman of the Antelopes missed the game because of an attack of the flu.

The scoring summary:
POST—Tanner 7 7 21; D. Altman 0 0 0; Pantoja 9 7 25; Harper 4 4 12; Walker 0 1 1; Pollard 0 1 1; Rudd 3 2 8; Mitchell 0 0 0; Pierce 0 1 1; Crenshaw 0 2 2; Bird 0 0 0. Totals 23 25 71.
FRENSHIP — Gravor 1 1 3; Morris 5 2 12; Abney 3 6 12; Walker 1 2 4; Madison 4 1 9; Curry 1 5 7. Totals 15 17 47.

Doe rally falls short against Stanton girls

The Post Does, falling behind by 10 points in the first half, fell short in a second half rally here Tuesday night to lose to the Stanton girls, 55 to 52, in a game that had the fans in an uproar throughout most of the final quarter.

The Post team outscored Stanton, 32 to 25, in the second half, but the 10-point lead built up by the visitors in the first half pulled them through.

The loss evened the Does' district record at 1-1 and brought Stanton's up to 2-1.

KARON WINDHAM'S eight free throws are all that kept the Does in the game in the first quarter and they didn't hit a field goal until right before the buzzer when Karon hit from under the basket, thus scoring all of her team's points in the opening period of play.

Stanton, meanwhile, behind the shooting of Kay Harrell and Doris Howard was racking up 14 points in the opening period.

The visitors outscored the Does 16-10 in the second quarter for a 30-20 halftime lead.

Karon Windham and Sherry Bird began finding the range in the third quarter and the Does gained four points by outscoring Stanton 21-17, to trail by only six points, 47-41, going into the final period.

A FIELD GOAL by Karon Windham and two more by Bird tied the score at 47-47 two minutes deep in the fourth quarter, and the teams were still tied, at 51-51, when Kathy Biggs' fielder shot Stanton into a 53-51 lead.

A bad pass on the throw-in following Biggs' go-ahead field goal turned the ball over to Stanton with 1:09 to go, and Karon Windham made the free throw after a technical foul was called on Stanton to make the score 53-52. Harrell sank a free throw for Stanton with 30 seconds left and then made good on another charity toss after being intentionally fouled by Post guard Kay Altman. Stanton stalled out the final few seconds.

The Post guards did a good job on the tall Stanton forwards in the second half. They held Harrell scoreless from the field in the final quarter, but she cashed in on four of eight free throws.

Nephew of Justiceburg woman dies of wounds

By FRAN McWHIRT

After a very trying week last week with the flu I will attempt to write the news. Robert and Danny had the flu at different intervals, so we had a week of it.

The Riley Millers and Jenny were ill also. Mrs. Franklin, Mrs. Eddie Ross and sons, Eddie and Rafael, Liddie Bell and G. W. Mize, Pete Morales, Faye Abel, Mrs. Sam Bevers and Glenna all were on the sick list. We started out this week with Ben Miller and Tommy Reed missing school due to illness. But I am so proud that everyone is better and very thankful I haven't gotten it yet.

Friday evening the Frank Breedens of Albany came by for a visit in the Douglas McWhirt home and then went on to Levelland for a visit. Mr. Breedens got sick there and Leona Goad brought him to our house Saturday. Sunday morning Doug took him to an Abilene hospital where he remained for observation. Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goad and Alicia came for Leona and were supper guests. Weekend visitors included Vivian and Jackey Flutt and Bobo McWhirt of Arlington and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Forrest.

Add Jones, Mrs. Sid Cross and Pearl Nance attended the Farmers and Ranchers Cattle Auction last Thursday.

The Weldon Reed family were supper guests of the John Borens Tuesday night.

We would like to express our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Key on the loss of her nephew, Del Ross, who was killed in action in Vietnam. Willie spent the weekend at Seminole with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hancock before they left by plane for his funeral service in Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith visited his sister, Mrs. Ella Murphy, Saturday.

Mrs. Cameron Justice visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Nance and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brewer Saturday. Mrs. Nance has been sick and we wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardie Ainsworth were Saturday night visitors in Fluvanna.

Mrs. Fernie Reed and Ronnie visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cornett, in Lamesa Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Lynn from Petersburg were Sunday guests of her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Bud McLaurin and Mrs. George Duckworth.

Dan Griffin of Lubbock visited with Pearl Nance and other friends Sunday.

Bandy Cash and E. M. Woodard were business visitors in Roby Friday.

Rural traffic accidents claim 3 lives in Garza

The rural traffic accident summary for Garza County during 1967 shows a total of 57 accidents, resulting in three persons killed, 28 injured and an estimated property damage of $59,375.

Ten accidents on rural highways in the county were investigated by the Texas Highway Patrol in December, according to Sgt. A. E. Roberts of Lubbock, Highway Patrol supervisor for the area. The December accidents resulted in eight persons injured and an estimated property damage of $8,360.

VISIT DURING WEEKEND

Visiting during the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Morris were Mr. and Mrs. Travis Guy of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gravit of Santa Anna, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Key of Farmington, N. M., and the Glen Huntleys, who have been stationed in Hawaii and are in the process of moving to Memphis, Tenn.

Graham resident birthday honoree

By MRS. GLENN DAVIS

There are a number of cases of flu in this community. So far it has passed Yours Truly by and we are hoping it continues to do so. We wish no one had to have the flu as most all have been real sick.

Mrs. Carl Flutt's relatives from Tahoka surprised her Friday evening of last week with a birthday party. They brought the cake and all the trimmings. Those attending were the Clifford, Clinton and Reuben Gandy families, Mrs. L. W. Gandy and a Frankie Stanley of the Grassland community.

We extend sympathy to the relatives of Vincent Morris. A number of relatives from here attended funeral services in Littlefield last Wednesday.

Sunday luncheon guests of the Bobby Cowdreys were Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Cowdrey. They helped Kurt celebrate his first birthday. However, he didn't feel like too much celebrating as he had the flu.

We hope Mrs. W. C. W. Morris has recuperated by now from the fall she suffered last week. We were happy to hear she wasn't injured seriously.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gossett visited from Tuesday until Thursday last week with the Jason Justice family near Petersburg.

Sunday luncheon guests of Mrs. Glenn Davis were the Bruce Evans family and Miss Karen Hawley.

The Glenn Huntley family is here from Hawaii visiting their parents, the Sexton Huntleys and E. E. Peels, and other relatives.

The Melvin Williams family had lunch Saturday with the Claud Williams and on Sunday afternoon they visited the R. L. Simpsons.

Hugh Blevins and daughter were Sunday luncheon guests of the Jimmy Doggetts. Afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crider.

Tuesday visitors of the Carl Flutt's were Norman Gandy family of Tahoka, Mrs. Rogers and children and Butch Freeman of El Paso and Miss Ann Hendrix of Post. Mrs. L. E. Klyant of Lovington, N. M., also visited several days and the Quanah Maxeys were Thursday evening visitors.

THE BUTCH Burketts visited after church Sunday evening with the Melvin Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Doggett visited Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Don Ellison and family.

The Jody Mason and G. T. Mason families, Mrs. Willie Mason and Quanah Maxeys were Sunday luncheon guests of the Lewis Masons.

Saturday overnight guests of the Carl Flutt's were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flutt of Arlington. Other Sunday guests were the Delwin Flutt family and Mrs. Maud Thomas. Supper guests included the Theibert McBride family and the G. T. Mason family visited Saturday evening.

Lunchroom Menus

Meals served in the Post school cafeteria Monday through Friday of next week will be as follows:

Monday: Barbecued franks, buttered rice, English peas, cabbage slaw, pineapple cheese salad, cornbread, milk.

Tuesday: Pinto beans and salt pork, hot tamales, spinach with buttered corn, pickles, fruit jello with orange juice, cornbread, milk.

Wednesday: Baked turkey, cornbread dressing, giblet gravy, green beans, crisp salad with spinach cucumbers, spiced apple rings, bread, milk.

Thursday: Hot dog on bun, mustard, new potatoes with sauce, carrot sticks, mixed fruit, oatmeal raisin cookies, milk.

Friday: Fish steaks, tartar sauce, potato salad, blackeye peas, orange juice, canned pears, rolls, butter, milk.

Couple talks to son in Hawaii on R&R leave

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vardiman talked to their son twice while he was in Honolulu, Hawaii, on a five day R&R leave.

AIC Dickie Vardiman arrived in Hawaii a day late for the leave which he spent with his wife who had flown over for the occasion with another serviceman's wife, Mrs. Freda Hardin.

Mrs. Vardiman said they talked to Dickie at 11:30 p. m. Thursday and at noon on Sunday. She said it sure was good to hear his voice.

SERMON TOPIC

The Rev. George L. Miller, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, has announced that his Sunday 11 a. m. sermon topic will be "The Lukewarm Church."

Manager named for Water, Inc.

LUBBOCK — C. H. Chamberlain, a colonel in the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, will assume duties as general manager of Water, Inc., on Feb. 1, according to John J. Kendrick of Brownfield, the water organization's president.

Colonel Chamberlain is a native of Falls County, Texas, a 1940 graduate of Texas A&M and a Registered Professional Engineer in Texas. He will be retiring from the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers after 27 years of active commissioned service.

Water, Inc. is a non-profit corporation dedicated to bringing additional water resources to the region of West Texas, Eastern New Mexico and Western Oklahoma.

Trained cowboys, once stand-bys of Old West, becoming harder to find

DENVER, Colo. — The trained cowboy — who can handle a horse, a truck and cattle — is hard to find these days.

Good cowboys are scarce and getting scarcer in most of the cattle country. One exception is Montana where "there are more cowboys than jobs," says a spokesman for employment bureaus.

But other states report ranchers need capable hands. Brad Stewart, president of the Arizona Cattle Growers Association, said, "The trained cowboy is becoming a vanishing breed."

Lyle Liggett of the American National Cattlemen's Association, with headquarters in Denver, said, "The shortage is real."

"IT'S NOT just a matter of money," he said. "The good, old-time, hard-working cowboys are dying off, and not many young men are coming along to take their places."

Liggett said cowboys are paid as much as $300 to $400 a month plus such benefits as a house, a vehicle and free beef and milk. "That makes the job comparable to most town jobs," he said.

Television is a factor, too, because cowboys who have families don't want to work at ranches that might be out of range of TV.

Dick Wilson, editor of a Texas cattlemen's magazine, said, "We're mechanizing where we can, but it's kind of hard to mechanize the cattle business." Horses are still used in many areas.

In Wyoming more ranchers are using haying equipment and four-wheel-drive vehicles. Dean Prosser, executive secretary of the Wyoming Stock Growers Association, said this means a cattleman who formerly hired 10 to 12 cowhands now gets along with four or five.

Ranchers have been using high school boys on weekends, but recent Labor Department regulations on teen-age labor will cut off many of these workers.

Asked about qualified cowboys, R. E. Pankey, a Truth or Consequences, N. M., stockman, said,

Manager named for Water, Inc.

RETURNS TO HOSPITAL

Noah Sweeten was scheduled to undergo surgery at Methodist Hospital today (Thursday) to have the pins removed from his knee. Noah, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Sweeten, was in a truck accident several weeks ago and underwent surgery at that time.

Trained cowboys, once stand-bys of Old West, becoming harder to find

EVEN SO, the shortage of good cowboys is the ranchers' biggest complaint.

Ranchers have been using high school boys on weekends, but recent Labor Department regulations on teen-age labor will cut off many of these workers.

IN SLATON HOSPITAL

Mrs. Susie Bradshaw was admitted to Mercy Hospital at Slaton Monday morning. She is the wife of Mrs. Robert Lee Hagler.

"Why, they just don't exist!"

Some ranches in Texas and Arizona are employing Mexicanes for chores like mending fences and clearing brush. Dogs pickup trucks are being used in parts of Texas to round up cattle.

Harry Lee, who helps him operate a 250,000-acre ranch in New Mexico, summed up one aspect of the problem: "One of the troubles is when you finish on a range camp, you are in town when you finish you can go to a movie or do whatever you want."

Serviceman home again from war in Vietnam

MRS. EDMUND WILKE wrote out there in newspaper things have been rather slow around here this week. Not too much news to report.

Y. R. Gregg, grandson of Mr. Mrs. Stonewall Jefferson, returned to Southland last week after spending quite some time in Vietnam. We are so thankful that he returned home safe and sound.

J. H. (Doll) Haire was injured in a car wreck between Slaton and Lubbock last Thursday. Haire and her two sisters were on their way to Lubbock when a car hit the rear of their vehicle. Mrs. Haire spent several days in Mercy Hospital at Slaton.

Irmgard Bredemeyer of water spent the week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. Mrs. Cecil Stolle.

High school boys and girls basketball teams played Cooper last Friday night and we won games. The boys won 63-52 and the girls 34-24. The girls were dropping in Darrell Wilke 6. The girls were dropping in Polly Martin sack 34 points. Congratulations!

7 drownings now sharp rise

STATISTICS — Drownings in 1967 increased 34.3 per cent over drownings in 1966, according to unofficial statistics of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

There were 236 drownings recorded with 317 in 1967. The figure was well over the 300 recorded earlier for the year.

Most of the recent drownings were persons running off the into water in their cars.

Investigation of the facts in case by Department personnel revealed that most of the drownings were caused by a breakdown in common sense or a violation of the Water Safety Act.

Infants and toddlers were left when they were left unattended near water. One 17-month-old boy drowned while taking a bath with his three-year-old brother.

Several drownings occurred after victims fell from the motorboat. A Coast Guard approved jacket, if it were worn, could have saved their lives.

A 3-year-old man drowned when his boat overturned during a fish-boat race in Lake O the Pines.

A 10-year-old boy drowned when he fell out of his boat. The boat was found circling the body.

A 3-year-old boy drowned when he fell from the rail of a canal in the Lower Neches Valley.

Area church will have supply minister Sunday

By MARY LEE LAWS

I don't seem to have much news as I've been out of town this past week helping to care for a new nephew at Hobbs, N. M. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Warren and they named their son Bryan Dean. The Victor Bullards, Dean Laws and R. A. Weatherbys all went to Hobbs a week ago Saturday to see their new nephew—the Weatherbys are the grandparents. I arrived home Sunday night. Jimmy Warren had returned home with the Dean Laws and stayed for about a week.

TO FORT POLK

Pvt. Gene Nowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Nowell, left Jan. 3 for advanced infantry training at Tiger Land, Fort Polk, La., after completing his basic training and spending the holidays at home.

Central Baptist Church will have a supply minister from Lubbock Sunday for their usual services.

Cordie Laws visited Mrs. C. C. Jones from Saturday through Tuesday.

FARM INCOME TAX REPORTS DUE SOON

Yep! It's that time again! Time to dig out all the farm records from the past year, consult the "Farmer's Tax Guide" and the that income tax return.

Completed returns must be filed by Feb. 15 unless the farmer has already elected to file an estimated income tax return. If an estimated return has been filed, the farmer has until April 15 to file a complete return.

Farm business income and expenses should be included on Schedule F of Form 1040. Gross agriculture income includes receipts from crop and livestock sales, legislative program payments, qualifying patronage dividends, cash rental income and crop insurance proceeds.

On the other hand, farm expenses include such items as hired labor, repairs and maintenance, interest on mortgages, taxes, crop insurance premiums, cash rent payments, conservation costs, fertilizer, feed, seed, oil and other purchased supplies, storage costs, record books, qualifying farm organization dues and marketing and advertising costs.

Investment credit restrictions were relaxed after March 9, 1967. Qualifying credit may be claimed subject to the limitations covered in the "Farmer's Tax Guide" which, incidentally, is available at the county Extension office.

Breeding livestock held over for one year may qualify for capital gain treatment. In this case, only one-half of the realized gain is included as taxable income. Schedule D in the tax guide offers additional examples.

Qualifying soil and water conservation expenditures can be claimed up to 25 per cent of the gross agricultural income from farming. Any excess can be carried into succeeding years.

The farmer may elect to include land clearing expenses incurred to make such land suitable for farming. This amount cannot exceed $5,000 or 25 per cent of the taxable farm income, whichever is less. Any excess expenditures must be capitalized. This election applies only in the year for which it was made.

Personal expenses may be itemized if they are greater than the standard deduction allowed. Explains the agent, such items as contributions, interest on personal loans, personal property taxes and medical and dental expenses are examples. The minimum standard deductions may be used where beneficial.

Sewell resigns as Plains coach

PLAINS—L. T. "Rip" Sewell has resigned as head coach at Plains High School to accept a position with an insurance company at Stillwater, Okla.

Sewell has been a member of the Plains coaching staff since 1957, eight years of that as head basketball coach and five years as head football coach. His basketball teams have won five district championships, his football teams three championships and his track teams two district titles.

Sewell is a graduate of Tulsa University, where he was a member of the Hurricane basketball team.

City cage loop plans under way

The Post Junior Chamber of Commerce will make use of Uncle Sam's mail to determine if there is enough interest here for organization of a city basketball league again this season.

All males 18 years of age or older and out of high school are asked to send their names to Basketball, Box 636, Post, Tex. 79356, if there are interested in playing in a city basketball league.

All names must be in by Feb. 17. If enough interest is shown, a league will be organized and play will begin Feb. 29. If not, the project will be dropped, said Johnny Kemp, the Jaycees' basketball project chairman.

Local business places interested in sponsoring a team in the proposed league are also asked to write the above address.

points for scoring honors, but she was closely followed by Karen Windham with 28. Bird scored 18 points for Post, 15 of them in the second half. Sharon Windham and Benita Noble each scored three points to round out the Post scoring. In addition to Harrell's 30 points, Howard notched 19 for Stanton.

Vicki Martin, Kay Altman, Nancy Hart, Karen Lee, Theresa Sims and Pam Petty held down the guard positions for Post.
