AT OIL DEDICATION
Elwood Wright (left), David Newby (center) and E. R. Moreland took part in the program Saturday at the dedication of the historical marker at Justiceburg commemorating the county's first producing oil well. The marker is attached to a scale model of an oil derrick made by Moreland.

Large crowd present at dedication of marker

An Official Texas Historical marker commemorating Garza County's first producing oil well was dedicated at Justiceburg Saturday afternoon before approximately 75 persons. The marker, attached to a small derrick, was erected on U. S. Hwy. 84, near the Justiceburg post office and three and one-half miles west of the site of the first oil well.

E. R. (Buster) Moreland, manager of the George R. Brown oil interests here and representing the oil men in the county, gave the welcome address, read the inscription on the marker and gave a brief history of the three early oil ventures in the county, the first successful one of which was in 1926.

Moreland told an interesting anecdote about taking the marker to a machine shop in Lubbock to have it fixed so it could be mounted on the derrick model.

As the machinist, Bill Sikes, was looking the plaque over, he read the inscription, and smiled broadly.

Vietnam victory is not to come easy

"We'll never win the war in Vietnam the way we're going," is the opinion of Kelsie Nowell, who has just returned from months in Vietnam as a 105-millimeter gunner with the artillery.

"I think we should pull out or get there and get it over with," said the stockily built Nowell, who is like a good man to have on your side in any kind of a scrap.

Nowell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Nowell, received his discharge Sept. 23 at Oakland, Calif. He had attained the rank of Sergeant E-5 during his two years in the Army.

Nowell and his artillery outfit threw shells at the enemy from the Mekong delta in southern South Vietnam to locations near the Demilitarized Zone in the north. At one time they were stationed with...

County Gold Star Boy, Girl honored

Larry Bevers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Spence Bevers of the Pleasant Valley community, and Donna Maddox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Maddox of Post, received the Gold Star Boy and Girl awards at the annual Garza County 4-H Achievement program last Friday night at the 4-H building.

The annual 4-H event, which included a banquet, was attended by approximately 140 persons, the largest crowd ever to attend the 4-H program here.

The Gold Star awards, which is the highest honor a boy or girl can achieve on the county level, were only two of the many awards presented 4-H members and adult leaders.

HENRY ADAIR head of the physiology department at South Plains College, Levelland, was the principal speaker. In a talk on "A Look at the Future as We Look at the Past," he reminded the young people of the challenge they face today, at the same time congratulating them for their enthusiasm, integrity and intellectual achievement.

Larry Bevers is the second in a family of six 4-H members to receive the Gold Star award. He has been a 4-H member for seven years and his parents have served as adult leaders in the 4-H program for the past six years.

Donna Maddox has been a 4-H member for seven years. Hers is also a 4-H family, with her mother serving as a 4-H leader and her sister also a member in the program.

Nancy Hart, chairman of the county 4-H Council, served as mistress of ceremonies. At the conclusion of the program, she turned the gavel over to her brother, David Hart, incoming chairman, who will serve with Nancy as vice chairman, Cindy Bird as secretary, Lindy Bird as reporter, and Dayneen Dunn and David Hart as district 4-H Council delegates.

THE INVOCATION was by Kathy Long, with Bill Bevers giving the welcome address following the meal. Larry Bevers gave the 4-H motto and pledge, with Sue Crowdy introducing council members and Bobby Norman the special guests.

Dayneen Dunn introduced the speaker.

Shirley Bland, chairman of the county Home Demonstration Council, assisted by Laura Bevers, presented 4-H year pins as follows:

First Year: Susan Hopkins, Yolanda Garza, Glenna Bevers, Phyllis Kennedy, Genetta Kennedy.

Second Year: Jody Irons, Kelvin Thomas, Jerry Johnson, Tony Conner.

Fourth Year: Joe Bevers, John Johnson, Rusty Conner, Maria Shelton, Sue Bevers.

Fifth Year: Bobby Norman.

Sixth Year: Dayneen Dunn, Laura Bevers.

Seventh Year: Donna Maddox, Larry Bevers.

Eighth Year: Bill Bevers.

RECORD BOOK trophies were presented by Mrs. Bland to Bruce Sanderson, best first-year boy's record; Phyllis Kennedy, best first-year girl's record; Bobby Norman, best over-all boy's record; Donna Maddox, best over-all girl's record.

The 4-H year pins and record book trophies were given by the Home Demonstration Council.

Wagoner Johnson, chairman of the Adult Leaders organization, presented Friends of 4-H awards to the Home Demonstration Council and the Garza County Junior Livestock Association in appreciation of their support of the 4-H (See 4-H Program, page 8)

Trend to cities can be reversed, farm group told

Using government programs now available with the local leadership "we can halt and even reverse the flow of population to urban areas," Arch Fowler of Lubbock, district supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration, said in a luncheon talk here Tuesday winding up the annual Garza Farm tour which took place that morning.

Speaking before the 38 who made the tour, along with host Rotarians in City Hall Fowler said the above conclusion is not his but that of Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

Fowler said President Johnson has expressed his concern that available federal programs are not reaching out into the rural areas.

He cited many programs, including the Farm Home Administration's program via loans to bring recreation to rural areas, and the technical action panel which has been set up in each state and county.

He said Lawrence Smith, formerly of Post, is the executive secretary of the technical action panel program in Texas.

The agricultural department, he declared, is "attempting to develop new programs and new approaches to programs of rural areas."

Because they lack necessary skills for production jobs, a large percentage of rural people who now migrate into the nation's big cities cause additional problems there, he said.

He said a million farm people a year were leaving the farm for the cities in the 1950s and that the pace has slackened to 750,000 per year.

UF campaign to kick off Oct. 23

A planning meeting for Garza County's United Fund campaign will be held at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 19, at the City Hall, Dick Dickson, United Fund president, said today.

The campaign to raise $9,200 for this year's participating organizations is to be held Oct. 23-30, with next Thursday's meeting being held for the purpose of distributing supplies to fund workers and going over other details of the campaign.

This year's goal is $1,000 above last year's, but workers are hopeful of reaching the goal in an even shorter time than last year's took, Dickson said.

A. C. Cash is fund campaign chairman, with the Rev. Curtis Lee serving as chairman of the campaign committee, and the Rev. George L. Miller heading the budget committee.

County leases school land for $1,323

The Garza County Commissioners Court at its October meeting Monday leased 189 acres of its school land in Bailey County to the Sinclair Oil & Gas Co. for four years for oil and gas development.

Sinclair was the high bidder for the four year lease on the basis of $3 per acre for the first year and $1 per acre for the next four years, with a five-year renewal option at the same price.

This lease will bring in $1,323 to the county's school fund for the five-year period.

Forty-First Year Post, Garza County, Texas Thursday, October 12, 1967 Price 10c Number 20

Corporation Court of the City of Post has a case set for trial at 10 a. m. Friday involving charges brought by one Post man against another, with a third charge filed in the case by Chief of Police Bill Gordon.

The Dispatch has had a long-standing policy of not printing such charges brought by individuals against other individuals until the case actually comes to court and a verdict is given.

The Dispatch proposes to follow its news policy in this case and plans to cover the trial and report results in the edition of the paper which follows the court hearing.

Defendant in the case told The Dispatch yesterday afternoon that he had attempted to file charges against the first man in the case, not in corporation court, but in higher court, but that the county attorney has refused to file them, telling him they could be presented to the grand jury in March.

County Attorney Preston Poole said he had no comment to make when asked about the matter.

Quite confusing, isn't it? But what our courtrooms are for in America is eventually to settle all such matters, though it may take some time.

This is National Fire Prevention Week and in this edition of The Dispatch Post's volunteer firemen are saluted by various merchants (See Postings, page 8)

Peace officer being considered for lake

White River Municipal Water District directors at their October meeting last Thursday night named a four-member committee to discuss the possibility of obtaining a peace officer for the White River Lake with the Crosby County Commissioners Court.

Need for such a peace officer, Al O'Brien, water district manager, told directors would be to protect lake homes from vandalism and to check boating permits regularly on the lake.

Tom Bouchier, chairman of the board, asked the committee to meet with the district's attorney, Harry Jung of Crosbyton, on the legal aspects of such a peace officer, report back to the directors, and then confer with the Crosby County Commissioners Court.

Several proposals were made on the peace officer situation and at least one director expressed opposition to the need for one at the present time.

Directors also discussed at considerable length what price the water district should charge for unfiltered water from the lake for use on a proposed golf course near the lake to be built by a country club organization now seeking a construction loan for the project from the federal Farm Home Administration.

A proposal of 10 cents per thousand gallons had been suggested as a "fair price" for untreated water. One director said while this was only a third of the price (See White River, page 8)

Fund drive launched for building repairs

A decision by the Garza County commissioners' court on the old Ponton Sanitarium building in the 100 block of North Avenue N launched a $1,000 fund drive Wednesday morning that was meeting immediate success.

The building, one of the city's most historic sites, was deeded to the county by the Marshall Mason estate several months ago for use as some sort of community building, with a county museum being one of the uses suggested.

The money required by the commissioners' court to begin repair work on the building is being raised through the Arts Development Fund, which has Mrs. Maxine Marks and Mrs. Ruby Kirkpatrick as co-chairmen, and Dr. A. C. Surman as treasurer.

Once repaired, the building could be used as a club meeting place, youth center and other community uses, it was explained by a (See Fund Drive, page 8) board in advance of a visit here in late October of Dr. William Barron, professor of educational administration of the University of Texas, who will completely evaluate the Post schools present program in all phases, including instructional.

Dr. Barron made his first evaluation of the local educational system four years ago.

He will present his findings to school trustees at a luncheon meeting, probably either Oct. 26 or 27, depending upon his schedule.

The agenda at the October meeting of trustees was light.

Shiver notified the board he has been requested to arrange for an adult education class for some adults who quit school before finishing high school and who want to continue their education.

The administrator said that the Texas Educational Agency will not pay for such a program at this time, but with the board's consent he could provide a few courses which the students could pay for themselves.

This was agreeable to the board.

In a mass of mimeographed material presented to the board by Shiver for study was a comparison of the average daily attendance, total school operating expenses, and per capita cost of education per study for five of the six schools in the Post district for the 1965-66 school year as taken from the TEA bulletin.

The figures showed Denver City had an average daily attendance (See School Board, page 8)

Freedom of Press belongs to people

Who ever told that nosy editor he had a right to pry into what happened at our city council meeting? What gave that reporter any idea that he could write about the school trustees or the county commissioners the way he did?

The answer is that there is no law, rule, regulation order that specifically requires a newspaper reporter to cover city council, school board or court sessions. The Constitution says "Congress shall make no law . . . abridging the freedom of the press." One can search out all of the laws of the Federal Government, right down to the Freedom of Information bill passed by the 89th Congress, and find nothing further about "the press."

The same can be said of state law. Most state constitutions recognize freedom of the press to publish news, but none particularize these rights, or set down any press responsibilities.

So, this National Newspaper Week, Oct. 8-14, is an opportune time for The Dispatch to emphasize that freedom of the press belongs to the people and not the newspapers.

The newspaper is not required to report the city council meeting or send someone to the school board's sessions. The reporter could stay home. Nor do laws specify that "the press" be accorded any special treatment before any public body. "Open meeting laws" never mention newspapers, reporters, or news media. They simply affirm the right of the public at large to attend and observe meetings of governing assemblies.

Mrs. Smith, then, can "cover" the city council for her club, her neighborhood, or just for herself. The principle of open government meetings was established for the people—the resident, the voter, the taxpayer, all the governed—not solely for the press or its representatives.

Then, you might ask, why is it that "the right to know" and "freedom of information" always seem to be linked with the press.

The answer is that the "pure democracy" of what used to be the town meeting has given way to representative democracy. Government has grown more remote from the people and has also grown more complicated. Yet the citizen, as a voter, still has the same responsibility to keep himself informed.

That is where the nation's press steps in to fill the role of reporter and commentator on public affairs. The reporter attends city council meetings as a member of the public, but he has a right to be present only if the public retains that right. The editor comments on the council's decisions—or lack of them—as an ordinary citizen. While he is aided in his function by the printing press at his disposal, it gives him no special rights. He can comment only so long as the public has a privilege of commenting.

The "right to know" and "freedom of information" are concepts with which the newsman works every day. The same professional tradition which sends him to the city council, school board or county commissioners' meeting compels him to resist inroads on these public rights. For he knows, and the public should always realize too, that in all that he does, the newspaperman acts as a citizen, in behalf of his fellow citizens.

National Fire Prevention Week

All this week, Oct. 8-14, is National Fire Prevention Week, one of the purposes of which is to urge citizens to take steps to prevent costly fires.

Annually, Fire Prevention Week is this newspaper's occasion to join the rest of the community and county in saluting the Post Volunteer Fire Department, composed of some 25 dedicated men who for very little pay risk life and limb to put out the fires the rest of us sometimes don't try hard enough to prevent.

But as a practical matter, we should all look upon fire prevention as a year around job.

In 1966, the nation's fire losses hit an all-time peak of nearly $1.5 billion dollars, according to the American Insurance Association. In 1966, 12,100 persons died as a result of fires, and countless thousands more were injured. Indications are that when the 1967 totals are in, they will reflect an even bleaker picture.

The rise in fire losses is causing growing concern in business and insurance circles, and on all sides the consensus is that more must be done in the fire prevention field to reverse the upward trend.

City sales tax scores easy wins

As generally predicted, the 1 per cent city sales tax has become an easy reality the length and breadth of Texas in the past two or three weeks, with town after town adopting the program to ease municipal financial woes.

The city sales tax was adopted by a 17-to-1 margin at Taylor, but adoption hasn't been as lopsided in other towns. Austin, for instance, adopted the tax by a 2-to-1 margin, with surprisingly few votes cast, considering the importance of the issue.

So far, Elcra is the only place we've heard of which voted down the city sales tax proposal. Post's city fathers appear to be generally hopeful that current revenues can continue to be spent skillfully enough so that it will not be necessary to consider the sales tax, or to increase ad valorem taxes. The trend, however, doesn't agree with this type of wishing, and the likelihood is that the City of Post is going to find itself one of these days needing additional revenue to carry out necessary programs. When the time comes, we will hear more about the sales tax as it would apply to Post.—CD

THE HIGH SCHOOL football season is half over. Thanksgiving will be here before we know it, and there are only 61 shopping days left until Christmas. How time flies!

And if you think you got problems, what are they going to call 20th Century Fox 33 years from now?

ONE OF THIS column's consistent contributors handed me this poem by a Mr. Fred Foster of Silver City, Idaho, which appeared in a recent Congressional Record:

TAX, TAX, TAX
Now he's a common, common man.

Tax him! Tax him all you can,
Tax his house and tax his bed,
Tax the bald spot on his head,
Tax his bread and tax his meat,
Tax his shoes clear off his feet,
Tax his "Henry" and tax his gas,
Tax the road that he must pass.

Tax the farmer, tax his fowl,
Tax the dog and tax his howl,
Tax his plow and tax his clothes,
Tax the rags that wipe his nose,
Tax his pig and tax his squeal,
Tax his boots run down at the heel.

Tax his cow and tax his calf,
Tax him if he dares to laugh,
Tax his barns and tax his lands,
Tax the blisters on his hands,

Tax the water and tax the air,
Tax the sunshine, if you dare,
Tax the living, tax the dead,
Tax the unborn before they're fed.

Tax them all and tax them well,
And do your best to make life Hell!

Well, how do you stack up mister?

HOW OLD IS Old? Kiplinger's Changing Times has a description of a recent survey made by BBDO in which they asked 2,000 men and 2,000 women how they felt about their age. BBDO found that most people think of themselves as younger than their natural age, particularly women who just can't believe they are that far along. Younger adults (under 34) yearn for their mid-twenties. Older types (50 and up) think the late thirties were the best of times. Only the young (18 to 24) think the best years are yet to come. (Nostalgia for yesterday apparently sets in at age 25 and never lets go.) Women in the 25 to 34 age group seem to have the hardest time getting used to growing old.

DON'T LET tomorrow slip up on you . . . it's a Friday the 13th!

It's all in the way you look at it, of course, but I'm of the opinion that Sunday's debate between the Church of Christ minister and Playboy magazine's religious editor will result in more people going out and buying Playboy magazines.

TODAY (THURSDAY) is Columbus Day—if you need an excuse for staging a parade.

It isn't far to Slaton, so let's all go over tomorrow night and support our high school football team, which needs support, if any high school team ever did.

New iron foundry going to Slaton

SLATON — This town has reaped quick results from its organization of an industrial and development foundation.

Slaton will be the site of a new iron foundry plant, which has been approved for a loan of some $427,000 by the Slaton Foundation.

The new industry is Modern Castings Corp., which will be located on about 5.4 acres of land just north of the Triangle Manufacturing Co.

The approval of the plant was announced by Bill H. Smith, foundation board chairman. He said the local board had received notification that the Small Business Administration had approved a loan of $330,000 to the Slaton development board. Under this type SBA loan, the local board provides 20 per cent of the loan.

The company will provide its own working capital. The Slaton Foundation loan is for land, building and equipment.

The company will employ 21 people immediately with a monthly payroll of about $10,000.

Student teachers help in physical education

By Zelika Freeman

There are 16 high school students assisting in the physical education program at the primary and elementary school levels.

The primary grades, grades 1 through 3, are assisted by the student teachers in playgroup games and in daily exercises.

The student teachers of elementary grades, grades 4-5, actually go out in gym shorts along with the youngsters to play basketball, play games, and follow a general plan of physical education.

These high school students spend a period each day, or one hour, with the student teachers and they receive credit for their efforts.

Student teachers at the primary school are: Ben Miller, Danny Bostick, Elaine Bland, Ricky McMillan, Debbie Tucker, David Hamilton, Debbie Cummings and Debbie Eubank.

Student teachers at the elementary school are: 4th grade, Helyn Cheshire, Donna Stewart, Lee Norman and Donnie Blacklock; 5th grade, Norman Tanner, Ricky Kine, Kim Hundley and Shannon McCampbell.

Post couple's grandson semi-finalist in Merit Scholarship standings

David Evans, La Marque (Tex.) High School student and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Outlaw of Post, has been named as a semi-finalist in the 1967-68 National Merit Scholarship Program.

David, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Evans of La Marque, is one of two students from his high school to be named as a semi-finalist in the program.

Semi-finalists scored the highest in each state on the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test given last February. They are now required to advance to finalist standing to be considered for Merit Scholarships.

The semi-finalists constitute less than one per cent of the graduating secondary school seniors in the nation.

7th grade president tells why he likes Post Jr. High School

By Jay Scott Stone

The Junior High School here at Post is a very nice school. If you have ever been in it, you will know that it is quite large. You get very mixed up on your first day. Having six or seven teachers is pretty complicated.

Sometimes it is fun here at Junior High. We get to elect officers. We elect a president, vice president, treasurer, secretary and Student Council members. There are, however, some difficulties to maintain your position as an officer if you are elected. You have to at least have a "C" average or someone will replace you.

We also have a new place for the cars to park. We planted grass in the back to replace the old gravel we used to have.

We have many programs throughout the year for entertainment, such as Western Day. This is where we all dress up like a cowboy or cowgirl and they give a crown to the best-dressed girl and best-dressed boy. Refreshments are served and cookies are eaten. I guess you could call this Annual Day also, because this is when the annuals are distributed to the people who bought them.

We also have a reptile show. A man came and gave a program on all his animals he has captured throughout the world.

Last year we had an art show. This artist came and drew pictures on a big tablet. When he had drawn them he would put different shades of light on them. He also did sound effects.

The principal of our school, Mr. Pollard, is a very nice man. You won't get in trouble with him unless you force it.

The custodian has tried very hard this year to keep our grass green, but it doesn't do much with everybody playing on it. The grass in the back is doing pretty good. I am proud to be going to this school. I am proud to be the president of the 7th grade of this fine school. The teachers, principal, superintendent, custodian and everybody should be proud that they go to school here, because I'm proud.

I guess this is all there is to tell about our school. All I can say is, don't you wish you were still young?

Science and Math Club in election

By Karen Lee

The Science and Math Club elected officers for 1967-68 at a recent meeting.

Officers elected were: Jimmie Johnston, president; Mike Scott, vice president; Vada Beth Voss, secretary-treasurer; Norman Tanner, Student Council representative.

The club's objective for the 1967-68 school year is to encourage competition in the Interscholastic League science, slide rule and number sense contests.

Little Sisters of FHA elect 1967-68 officers

Karen Potts was elected president of the Little Sisters organization of the Future Homemakers of America chapter at an FHA meeting Oct. 2.

Other officers elected were: Peggy Bevers, first vice president; Irene Walls, second vice president; Judy Norman, third vice president; Cynthia White, fourth vice president; Rhonda Case, parliamentarian, and Bertha Torres, hostess.

Missionaries on visit to Post

Visiting in Post this week were the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Lee Hensley and daughters. The Hensleys are Southern Baptist missionaries in Brazil and are home on a four-month furlough.

The Rev. Hensley is the son of Mrs. M. W. House and a brother of Mrs. Garland McDougale and Mrs. Philip Martinez Jr., all of Post.

Appointed in 1964 by the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist Convention to serve in Brazil, the Hensleys spent their first year in Campinas, Sao Paulo, studying the Portuguese language. Rev. Hensley now serves as evangelist in the state of Goias, a Texas-size state in the heart of Brazil.

The family makes its home in the state capital city of Goiania, a modern city 125 miles from Brazilia. Mrs. Hensley is state leader of the Young Women's Association.

Rites conducted for father of Post man

Charles Blodgett, 76, of Lometa, father of Gilbert Blodgett of Post, was found dead at his home last Thursday. He is survived by 11 children.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 3 p. m. in Lometa. Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett and their four daughters, Christine Elkins of Eagle Pass, Edna Mae Cox of Austin and Loretta Puckett and Martha Wilke of Lubbock attended the services.

IN A CLASS OF ITS OWN
 Mrs. Baird's Biskroll, new bake-and-serve product, is like nothing else you've ever tasted.

Mrs. Baird's Biskroll delightfully different bake-and-serve product

When a group of women sample a new baked product and all agree it tastes like nothing else they have ever eaten, that's news.

The newsmaker is Mrs. Baird's Biskroll, a delightfully different bake-and-serve product with all the attributes necessary to become a family favorite. The taste and texture are completely unique.

This delectable new product is destined to fill a place in the busy homemaker's desire for more and better convenience foods. Mrs. Biskroll is almost embarrassingly simple to prepare. They come ready to bake in their own aluminum pan. All you do is remove the pan from the bag and place in a preheated oven at 425 degrees. Bake until golden brown.

One package of Biskroll serves an average-size family. Because the product has been so well accepted in market tests, the folks at Mrs. Baird's wisely package "15 to the dozen."

During the test marketing, consumers were asked two questions. How would you describe the taste of Biskroll, and when do you serve it? To the woman, consumers were at a loss to describe in exact words the unique taste of Biskroll. However, they were all enthusiastic about finding a new product with the virtues of exceptional appetite appeal, ease of preparation, and excellent keeping quality.

As to serving ideas, the ladies included breakfast, lunch, family meals, buffet suppers, and company dinners in their answers. With more than one thousand meals to prepare each year, the modern homemaker welcomes this versatile newcomer—Mrs. Baird's Biskroll.

A. Dodson and sons, Leonard Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Dunlap and children, Helen Downs, Lubbock; Cran Morris, Slaton; Mr. and Mrs. My McMillan and children, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Menzer and daughter, Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Gunnels and daughter, Levelland.

Eleven grandchildren were unable to be present.

This was the first time since 1958 that this many of the family had been together.

Patricia Ruth Bennett honored on birthday

Patricia Ruth Bennett was honored with a party on her 11th birthday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bennett of Crosbyton.

The Bennetts are former Post residents.

Among those attending were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. McMahon, Denise Peters, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Peters, and Joni Hays, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hays, all of Post.

Carolyn Kay Davis engagement to Elvin Allen is announced

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Davis are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Kay, to Elvin Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Allen.

A January wedding is being planned.

Miss Davis is a senior at Post High School. Mr. Allen attended PHS and was recently discharged from the Army after three years of service, part of which was spent in Vietnam.

It's My Turn

— By MRS. C.

"Happy anniversary to me, happy anniversary to me, happy anniversary Mrs. C., happy anniversary to me."

You probably think you are celebrating Columbus Day this Oct. 12 and you might be, but I am celebrating the sixth birthday of "It's My Turn." Yep, that's right. Exactly six years ago today I started writing this column after listening to Mr. C nag, nag, nag for months.

I'm sure if I took time out to read all six years of my efforts I'd never write another column. I've been informed that I've made a few people laugh, a few people

Demonstration on block printing

Barbara McKeown presented a program on block printing at the Monday night meeting of the Post Art Guild which met in the home of Geraldine Butler.

Each member fixed a block as Mrs. McKeown demonstrated the art of block printing.

Four guests were present. They were the hostess' husband, Stanley, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Howell Jr., of Lubbock and Ed Neff.

Blueberry dessert, nuts and coffee were served from a table laid with a green cloth and centered with an antique red kerosene lantern surrounded by gourds and fruit.

Final plans were made for the annual art show to be held Nov. 19 at the Community Room.

Members attending were: Marie Neff, Eleanor Cooke, Mary Cross, Allie Martin, Lea Mock, Evelyn Neff, Boo Olson Bertha Irons and Barbara McKeown.

SHARON ANN SIEWERT

Dec. 28 set as wedding date

Mrs. Aileen Siewert, former Post resident now living in Muleshoe, is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Sharon Ann Siewert, to Robert Green Pedden Jr., son of Mrs. Mavis Orgain of Dickson, Tenn.

The couple plans to marry Dec. 28 at the First Baptist Church of Muleshoe with the bride-elect's grandfather, L. H. Welch, officiating.

Miss Siewert is a 1965 graduate of Muleshoe High School and attended West Texas State University. She is employed by Southwestern Investment, Amarillo.

The prospective bridegroom is a 1964 graduate of Dickson High School and attended Austin Peay State College. He is serving with the Air Force and is stationed at Amarillo AFB.

Air Force Academy liaison officer is appointed in area

Maj. Emil D. Flynn, an Air Force reservist in Snyder, has been appointed as a liaison officer for the U. S. Air Force Academy. His appointment was announced this week by Lt. Col. Floyd Boze of Lubbock, Academy coordinator for the liaison officers in Stonewall, Dawson, Scurry, Borden, Garza and Kent counties.

Major Flynn will furnish information concerning the Air Force Academy to students and counselors in local high schools, covering schools in the above six counties.

The new liaison officers will visit the high schools and will advise students on how to prepare for the Academy's entrance requirements and its program of education. He will assist highly qualified students to apply for an Academy nomination the year previous to desired admission.

Students or parents interested in obtaining information about the Air Force Academy may contact Major Flynn by writing him in care of the School Business Office at Snyder or calling him at HI 3-3401 or HI 3-9434 in Snyder.

Contemporary comedy is coming to Tower

"Divorce American Style," a contemporary comedy in Technicolor, shows Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Tower Theatre here.

"If you are planning to be married, or if you have ever been married, or if you know someone who is, you should see 'Divorce American Style,'" says theatre manager John Hopkins.

The film stars Dick Van Dyke, Debbie Reynolds, Jason Robards, Jean Simmons and Van Johnson.

Farm Bureau in Lynn elects new officers

Bob Lusk of Route 3, Post, was elected secretary of the Lynn County Farm Bureau at its annual meeting at Tahoka Monday night.

The Lynn County Farm Bureau with which the Garza County Farm Bureau is affiliated, elected Howard Moore as president to succeed L. C. Unfred. Irvin Cross and Amor Gerner were among the directors elected.

and I think I'll just keep it that way. How many other women are awakened with a back rub and have a scrumptious breakfast served to them each morning in return for only eight hours of work?

Rush social is held by chapter

Epsilon Sigma Alpha met last Thursday at 7:30 o'clock in the evening for a rush social in the home of Bertha Irons with Kay Pace as co-hostess.

Linda Reynolds welcomed the guests and gave a brief talk on the meaning of ESA. She named local projects which the sorority has helped with including shoes for needy school children, school auditorium curtains, library and books, March of Dimes and the National Kidney Foundation.

Sandra Alexander gave the program on "Letters for All Occasions" based on the book by Amy Vanderbilt.

Lemon pie, coffee and Cokes were served from a white lace cloth over gold. Large gold daffodils, backed by lighted blue candles, formed the centerpiece.

Guests were Frankie Robbins, Thelma Mason, Joyce Howard and Kathy Rankin. Members attending were: Theresa Gilbert, Linda Reynolds, Sandra Alexander, Kay Pace, Bertha Irons, Laveta Norman, Blenda Roberson, Betty McLeroy, Margaret Allen, Gale Birkes and Mary Mayo.

The next meeting will be Oct. 19. Each member is to bring homemade candies, etc., and box items to be sent to local servicemen serving in Vietnam.

Abilene reception to honor couple

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Barnes will be honored with a reception on their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, Oct. 15, at the home of Mr. Barnes' mother, Mrs. W. F. Barnes, 2025 Merchant, Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes were married Oct. 15, 1942, in Abilene. They lived in Post for six years before moving to Hale Center where he is the counselor of the elementary school and she is a second grade teacher.

Hosts for the reception will be Mr. Barnes' mother; their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Barnes of Dallas, and Ken, Neal and Mary Veta, all of Abilene.

The reception will be between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Texas Highway Department, now celebrating its 50th Anniversary, spends more than $1 million a year on research for safer highways.

Runkles are hosts to Mystic Sewing Club

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Runkles were hosts to members of the Mystic Sewing Club, their husbands and guests last Thursday night.

After the covered dish supper was served, Mr. Runkles gave the history of the table decorations which had been made by Boy Scouts during the summer camping at Camp Post. Mr. Runkles is camp ranger at the local camp.

Games of "42" were enjoyed by the following:

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hudman, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Windham, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Young, John Nichols, Mike Vardeman, Miss Henrietta Nichols, and Mmes. Winnie Henderson, Edna McLendon, Opal Williams and Nora Willingham.

PRISCILLA CLUB

The Priscilla Club will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. O. H. Hooper, Route 3.

Honor book is given Library

"Children, the Challenge" has been placed in the Post Public Library by the Garza County Young Homemakers in honor of Mrs. Bettye Scott, who showed slides of her trip to Japan at a recent meeting.

A chili supper was planned to be held Nov. 10 at the school lunchroom preceding the Morton-Post football game, Nov. 10.

Patricia Knight and Joyce Howard were hostesses and served refreshments to guests, Mrs. Scott and Linda Killingsworth, and to the following members:

Ruth Ann Young, Melanie Windham, Karen Dailey, Linda Crane, Billie Robinson, Patsy Craig and sponsor, Marion Wheatley.

I've had a few "letters to Mrs. C" blistering me for my views on this and that. I tried "crusading" just once about junk cars and a houses which need to be torn down or fixed up and got exactly nowhere.

I've written columns when I was too tired to think; when I was mad at the world and had to try to be bright and gay; when I was mad at the world and let it show through; when it was raining and I felt as gloomy as the weather; when I had nothing to say (which must please those who think I never have anything to say); and when I didn't have time to write a column.

I've torn up several columns and even had one "censored" by my employer. It went into the waste basket and I hurriedly wrote another one at the last minute. However, I told my employer that the next time that happened I wasn't going to write another column. We'll just run a column with the word "CENSORED" running down a blank space in the paper.

That would probably stir more interest than anything I have to say.

I started working at The Dispatch in the spring before I became a columnist and I've learned a lot in these six and one-half years.

I've learned that on the whole people are pretty nice but there are a few that we just learn to live with. I've learned that some people just aren't going to like anything we do so why worry about them. I've learned there are a few who really appreciate the work we do and we work hard at pleasing them.

I've noted through the years that our country correspondents (and we've had many) are always philosophical. They may gripe about the weather and the crops but they always comment that there is another year coming and as Mrs. O. H. Hoover, an ex-correspondent from out Grassland way, always said: "Count your blessings."

Many times I yearn to stay home and be a little ole homemaker which is what I started out in life to be. I have the feeling, though, I'd be bored stiff within a couple of weeks. Anyway, I have a good thing going with my boss

A SENSE OF SECURITY

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Money in a savings account? Money in a checking account? Money in your pocket? These all add up to a fine sense of security. But as everybody knows, the security of money can disappear. The stock market drops, expenses chew up your savings.

There's another kind of security that is not based on the fleeting, material treasures of life. It is the security needed when sickness strikes, a son or daughter disappoints us, or death takes a loved one. This security chases out doubt and fear. It enables us to go right on living day by day, certain that we will not walk alone. In fact, God has said that He will never leave us nor forsake us.

Discover for yourself this security! In your church you can find those eternal values if you trust in the security of Him who cannot fail.

LISTENING POST

By ROSEMARY CHAPMAN

Dear Rosemary:
It's been almost two years and I'm still worrying about Post's problems! Noticed in The Dispatch that the library is having a problem getting books returned. (Bet you considered yourself a local columnist but you have a faithful reader in Garland — wonder how many copies of The Dispatch go out of state? You might well be a "nationally known" columnist!) Anyway, back to the library — if it wasn't for the night depository here, I don't know when I'd get a book back. I'm either not dressed to go in, in too big of a hurry to park and go in, or it's after hours when I think about it. When I drove up to the night depository (like a big-mouthed mail box) last night, I thought of the Post library and decided to pass it on. If you don't have one, it might be worth looking into. Don had to add his two cents worth and suggest one of the extra ballot boxes at the County Clerk's office.

Love,
Weldeen (Marth)
Good idea. Weldeen. Thanks! Library trustee, David Newby, is checking on the possibilities now.

One of my favorite Fall pastimes is browsing through the attractive greeting card catalogs that come from the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Philadelphia Museum of Art, and the United Nations Children's Fund. All specialize in beautiful, unusual, and low-priced Christmas cards; the museums on a non-profit basis, and UNICEF on a "benefit the children" basis. For ordering or simply "admiring", we have a copy of each catalog at the library.

Speaking of catalogs, if 92 people would send me one dollar, I would put it with mine, and we could buy the No. 4010 book display rack as pictured on page 7 of the Gaylord Library Supplies Catalog. I don't suppose 92 people would like to send me one dollar? How about 184 people at fifty cents? 368 at twenty-five . . . ?

Lora Blanton just came by with a list of supplies that the Jayceettes will need for their book-mending project this year. Other clubs or individuals who would like to help with this project are asked to contact Lora at 2663 for further details.

Book contributions were received this week from Larry Barton, Mayor John Hopkins, the Midland County Library, Meredith Newby and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Thaxton.

Acquisition Chairman Helen Cornish met with her committee last Monday night. The committee has been authorized to spend $1,400 on books — $500 from the City Library Board and $900 from the Friends of a Post Public Library. Ruth Ann Newby and Patty Kirkpatrick are working on Adult fiction and non-fiction, George Miller on Young Adult fiction and non-fiction, and Rosemary Chapman on Easy and Junior fiction and non-fiction. If you have suggestions to make in any of these categories, now's the time to make them. Helen hopes to have all book-purchasing lists compiled and the books ordered within the next three weeks.

Approximately $300 has already been spent at Pix Bookstore on 1967 publications for adults. These books are processed and will be taken to the library tonight (Thursday). For first choice in the latest spies, mysteries, fiction, and non-fiction, be there! A list of the new books will be posted on the magazine rack.

SLATON TIGERS Vs POST ANTELOPES

Friday Night, October 13
7:30 P.M. Kickoff
in Slaton's New Stadium

Slaton's Tigers, with their best football eleven in years, will definitely be favored tomorrow night in the traditional clash between Coach Glynn Gregg's Post Antelopes and Slaton in Slaton's new stadium.

But it also will be Friday, the 13th, and perhaps a bad omen for the Tigers.

The Antelopes will be out for an upset after scoring five straight victories over Slaton. Slaton will be out for revenge in their homecoming game.

The tilt will be the second straight district 4AA road clash for the Antelope club which is rebuilding after all but graduating all of their bi-district champs of last season. Both clubs are 1-1 in district standings with the Tigers going down 40-6 in the onslaught of the Denver City Mustangs in a game in which Tiger bobbles and pass interceptions turned what was billed as the championship game into a Big Red rout.

ASHLAND, Ky. — David C. Williams, general manager of United Carbon Company's Engineering Department, recently completed the Ohio State University Executive Development Program.
 The program Williams took includes subjects which range from general administrative management to business forecasting and planning. Williams, a native of Post, Tex., and a son of Mrs. D. C. Williams of Post, holds a degree from Texas Technological College in mechanical engineering. He and his family make their home in Houston at 12227 Boheme Drive. He is a 28-year employee of United Carbon, a division of Ashland Oil & Refining Company of Ashland, Ky.
 According to officials of the university, the chief objective of Ohio State's executive program is to develop the growth potential of businessmen.
 Specifically the program helps the executive achieve further improvement of his analytical ability and decision-making skills from a company-wide point of view and gives him a greater understanding of political, economic and social forces that affect business.

 of 1,499 students, an operating expense for the year of $943,564, and a per capita expense per student of $629.46. Slaton was second in ADA with 1,880 but lowest in per capita expense at $357.82 with operating costs of $672,696.
 Frenship was next in ADA with 1,462 students with the next lowest per student expense at $397.86 with a school operating budget of $577,695.
 Post had an ADA of 1,200 students, a per capita expense of $468.42, operating expense of $562,102, whereas Morton was the lowest in ADA with 1,163 students, a per capita expense of $496.63 per student and an annual operating expense of $577,087.
 It should be noted, Shiver pointed out, that Post's total operating expense for the year was the lowest of the five district schools. Operating expense, he emphasized, does not include debt retirement or interest on such debt.
 Shiver also reported Denver City has 11 football coaches, including two for seventh grade, two for eighth grade, two for ninth grade, two for "B" team, and three for varsity, in comparison with Post's total of five football coaches.

Jehovah's Witnesses missionary assignment being filled in Post

The Robert Mikesell family, 107 East 13th, has moved to Post to take up a missionary assignment.
 Mikesell, former resident of Carlsbad, N. M., and minister associated with the congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses there, his wife Shirley and their two children, Matthew, age 3 and Timothy, age 1, have moved to Post where they hope to carry on and expand their ministry as Jehovah's Witnesses in Illinois during his seven years in the ministry.

 in seven miles of the Cambodian border.

The 105 - millimeter gun has a barrel of about four and one-half inches in diameter and the speed at which it can be fired depends on the kind of crew operating it, Nowell explained. The gun crew is supposed to consist of a maximum of nine men, but most of the time has only five or six, he said.

Nowell says the people responsible for the riots plaguing this country should be sent to Vietnam to learn what it's all about. "They would soon learn to be thankful that the Lord gave them this country to live in," he said.

The veteran said now that he's home, he plans to take it easy for awhile — hunting and fishing. He trained at Fort Bragg, N. C., and Fort Riley, Kans., before going to Vietnam.

 the member cities pay (30 cents per thousand), the lake itself represented only 25 per cent of the district's over $4,000,000 investment and that the club should be charged only for compounding the water.

Director James Minor of Post contended the club must "stand on its own feet" and the directors' obligations was solely to the member cities and the taxpayers involved.

Cost of the water to the member cities is now estimated at around 62 cents per thousand (which includes the taxes city property owners pay to support the district as well as the price of the water.)

Many directors expressed their belief that the club should pay a fair price for the water used. At the end of the discussion O'Brien was requested by directors to compute actual cost figures for compounded water for consideration by the board at its next meeting.

The district's water price to the club will determine in some measure whether the FHA long-term loan for construction of a golf course is granted because all aspects of the club's operation must be feasible before federal money will be loaned.

 "Do you know," he said, "that I cut the threads on the tools that were used to drill this well? They would bring them to me when they had broken off a pin and I would make a new one. I worked at this in my off - time and was paid $5 for each tool I repaired."

Moreland was given credit in the introduction for building the small derrick that the marker is attached to. The derrick is built exactly to scale and has 1,300 separate pieces.

Ellwood Wright, as a representative of the Post Chamber of Commerce, expressed appreciation for the oil industry and its contribution to the economy of the county.

The welcome from the people of Justiceburg was given by Mrs. Winnie Tuffing.

David N. Newby, production superintendent for R. S. Anderson, oil operator, gave a talk recalling the early history of oil development in the county.

Appreciation to County Judge J. E. Parker and the county commissioners for their help was expressed by Walter Duckworth on behalf of the Garza County Historical Survey Committee.

Frank Runkles, a member of the GCHSC, expressed the committee's appreciation to the highway department for its work in setting up the marker.

The Rev. Curtis Lee, pastor of the First Methodist Church, gave the benediction.

Basket lunches were served picnic style.

The first Farm to Market Road built by the Texas Highway Department — 50 years old this year — was built in 1936. It extended 5.8 miles from Mount Enterprise to Shiloh in Rusk County.

Young is average winner in roping

Olis Young of Peralta, N. M., won the two - day average at the National Finals steer roping championship at McAlester, Okla., over the weekend, in which Jim and Tim Prather of Post competed.

Jim Bob Altizer of Del Rio emerged from the finals, however, as national steer roping champion, having gone into the event with a $2,000 lead. Altizer won his first national championship after being the 1964 runnerup.

Altizer won a total of $5,696 this year in steer roping. Tim Prather finished fifth with $2,797; Walt Arnold of Silverton, formerly of Post, seventh with $2,370, and Jim Prather 15th with $1,687.

Repairs most needed to the building usable are to the windows and screens, it was pointed out.

In a few hours Wednesday fund raisers had received approximately half the minimum amount needed for the party to begin the repair work, it reported.

Anyone wishing to make a contribution to the project may do it to the Arts Development Fund at the First National Bank or call it with Mrs. Marks at Main 220 East Main.

Frost is awaited by area hay fever victim

By MRS. GLENN DAVIS
Here I am trying to write the news with a bad case of hay fever. I am thinking if the hay fever doesn't get better soon, I will need a new nose. If any of you have been victims of it you will understand. We are looking forward to a frost and freeze to get relief.

We were so thankful last Wednesday when the Chandler and Albert Stone cars ran together here than any one was killed or seriously injured. The cars were badly damaged.

M. Sgt. and Mrs. Glenn Barron and family were weekend guests of her mother, Mrs. Willie Mason. Sunday visitors were the Lewis and G. T. Mason families and Jody Mason.

Members and sponsors of the MYF went on a picnic Sunday to Silver Falls.

The David Williams family and Mrs. Esther Barlow were Saturday supper guests of their uncle and brother, H. P. Horton, in Plainview.

The Thelbert McBrides visited the Auvy McBrides Sunday.

Miss Karen Hawley and Mmes. Bernita Maxey and Viva Davis attended church in Lubbock last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambers Parrish and granddaughter, Donna, and Mrs. Mack Ledbetter visited with the Jimmy Parrishes one day last week.

The James Stones visited several days last week with the Gerald Dean Jr., family in Capitan, N. M.

The Lonnie Gene Peel family spent the weekend in Olton with her parents and a brother and sister-in-law, who were visiting from Goodwell, Okla.

The Fred Gossetts and Aubrey Ritchies visited Friday evening in the Virgil Stone home.

Carl and Bob Fluitt, Mrs. Elmo Bush and Mrs. Ray McClellan attended funeral services in Odessa Monday afternoon of a cousin, Lanson Fluitt.

Mrs. Maud Thomas, Mrs. Carl Fluitt and Mother Fluitt visited Mrs. Childs Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Morris of Amarillo spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Morris.

Harvest Festival set at Graham

The Graham Methodist Church will hold its annual harvest festival Saturday afternoon and evening, Oct. 14, at the Graham community center, seven miles southwest of Post.

Lord's Acre items will be displayed for sale throughout the afternoon. There will be a sale of livestock beginning at 4 p. m., with a country-style supper to be served from 5 until 8 o'clock. Cost of the supper will be $1.25 for adults and 50 cents for children.

At 8 p. m., there will be a sale of Lord's Acre items, handwork, needlework, quilts and other items. Everyone is invited, sponsors of the harvest festival said.

CALIFORNIA VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lanotte of Albany, Calif., visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ray N. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Weakley last week. Mrs. Lanotte, the former Miss Lois Ruth Weakley, is a sister of Mrs. Smith and Mr. Weakley.

HOME AFTER SURGERY

Bo Wheatley was returned to his home in the Close City community Tuesday from Mercy Hospital in Slaton where he had undergone surgery. He was reported to be doing "just fine."

SUNDAY GUEST

Mrs. Hooper Shelton of Roby was a Sunday visitor in the home of Mrs. Lelia Robinson. Mrs. Shelton will be remembered as the former Mamie Anderson, a former long-time resident of Post.

GRANDDAUGHTER VISITS

Carol Deanne Pate of Clovis, N. M., is visiting in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Pate, while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carol Pate, are in Wichita Falls where he is attending a school on refrigeration at Sheppard Air Force Base for two months.

Marker dedication at Justiceburg is success

By FRAN McWHIRT
The historical marker dedication service for the first oil well in Garza County was a success. There was plenty to eat and the program was enjoyed by approximately 75 who attended. We want to thank to all who made the occasion a success.

Weekend guests of the Douglas Shirts were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fluit and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fluit, Saturday. Jack Fluit and the McWhirt boys and the Carl Fluits.

Friday night and Saturday visit of the Riley Millers were Mrs. Dillard, Lea Ann and Lydia, Dillard, Robert and Robert and her grandsons Robert and Robert, all of Andrews.

Winnie Tuffing, Mrs. Jack Fluit, Mr. and Mrs. Hub Haire, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Haire, son attended funeral services for nephew and cousin, Monty Ramsay, of Fort Worth. Burial in Liberty Hill. The group returned Tuesday and returned home Saturday.

Friday luncheon guests of Douglas McWhirt were Mrs. Rodgers of Lubbock and Rafael Rios.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bevers, Son and Glenna, attended the 4-H banquet Friday night at Justiceburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Blacklock, Donnie and Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Ben and Jenny, attended the FFA ice cream supper last Thursday night. Ben received another award.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boren and attended the Texas Tech football game Saturday.

JUSTICEBURG Women's met Friday afternoon from 4 o'clock in the lunchroom for further discussion of the Halloween Carnival. Mrs. Winnie Tuffing served candy to Meses. Fran Shirt, Elton Nance, Riley Miller, Sam Bevers, Pearl Nance, Fernie Reed and Cameron Justice. The surprise package brought by Mrs. McWhirt was won by Mrs. Nance.

Mrs. Sam Bevers visited Wednesday morning with Mrs. Douglas McWhirt.

Mrs. Bud McLaurin returned last Thursday from Amarillo after being with her son-in-law, Doyle Cameron, who had undergone surgery. He is now at home and reported to be doing fine. Her grandsons, Todd and Ray, came home with her for a two-week visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Cole were Sunday visitors of the Weldon Reeds.

Mrs. Sam Bevers visited her mother, Mrs. Gladys Morgan, in Lubbock Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Lynn of Petersburg spent the weekend in the Bud McLaurin and George Duckworth home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hern Pettigrew of Slaton and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pettigrew were in Dallas over the weekend to attend the ordination services of their granddaughter's and daughter's husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Huckabee of Morton were Sunday night and Monday visitors of the Elton Nances. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Helms were also Monday visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bevers and Glenna visited the Sam Heintz a week ago Tuesday.

James Maxwell of Houston stopped to visit the Douglas McWhirts Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Robinson and Kirk visited the Don Robisons last week.

BASKET LUNCH
Members of the Trinity Baptist Church enjoyed a basket lunch at the church Sunday, which was the last day of the revival services conducted by the Rev. Hayward Kube of Lubbock.

Grassland folks have 2 Arch Atens in for visit

By MARY LEE LAWS
Believe it or not two Arch Atens—one from Harper and the other from California—spent last Thursday night with the Mack Ritchies.

We have several folks that are on the sick list. Tommy Rash suffered a broken leg while playing football at Tahoka Thursday night. He seems to be getting along pretty good. Mrs. Billie Inklebarger entered Methodist Hospital Sunday and was to undergo major surgery Tuesday. The Rev. J. E. Yeats, former pastor at Grassland Methodist Church now at Wellman, was also to undergo surgery at Methodist Hospital Tuesday. We wish for both the best.

Odell and Doris Blassgame of Amarillo went by Idalou and got their mother, Mrs. T. B. Green, and visited the Jurd Youngs Tuesday afternoon. Charlie and Vivian Craig visited them after church Sunday night. Ervin Young and family of Lubbock visited Sunday afternoon as well as William and Ruth Young and grandson, Mike, all of Lubbock. Ivy Young was a Sunday luncheon guest.

Jim Bob Porterfield, Riley Ray and Robert Craig fished at Falcon Lake last week.

We enjoyed the rain we received Friday night. Everything was a really dry.

The Rev. and Mrs. Joe Serratt were Sunday dinner guests of the Charlie Craigs.

Mrs. O. H. Hoover visited Mrs. Ada Oden late Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. B. Ray spent the weekend with her son and family, the Johnny Rays.

Chester Gray of Levelland visited the R. C. Rays Friday. He

Faye Ruth Hamilton
Mrs. Paul Duren
J. A. Johnson
Mrs. Marvin Dunlap
Andrea Kay Mann
Kim Norman

said his father, Elmer Gray, was about the same.

The Bill Ingles visited the Dean Laws Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davis of Lubbock visited Mary Craig on a day last week.

Ruth Ingle and Mary Lee Laws visited Mrs. R. L. Craig Monday morning.

Mrs. Gus Porterfield and Mrs. O. H. Hoover attended a book review in Tahoka on "Encounter of the Faiths" Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of last week.

Preacher and Lois Roberts and Don and Joy Riley of Tahoka visited the Kelly Laws Sunday afternoon.

Jurd and Artie Young took their six-year-old granddaughter Tamara, fishing at Two Draw Lake one day last week and she caught 14 fish. She had been visiting her grandparents for a week. Wednesday night her family, the Shirley Youngs of Midland, spent the night and returned to Midland with Tamara Thursday morning.

MYF meets for program session

The junior and senior Methodist Youth Fellowship met at the church Sunday evening for a program session under the direction of Mrs. Pat N. Walker and Miss Debbie Dickson.

Following church services, refreshments were served by Mrs. R. L. Marks and Mrs. Jess Compton. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Thomas were in charge of recreation.

Next Sunday plans will be made to "trick or treat" for CROP with the youths from the First Christian and First Presbyterian churches. The drive will be held Sunday, Oct. 29, beginning at 5 p.m. Mrs. Jimmie Redman and Mrs. Gene Gandy will serve refreshments and work, under the direction of the Wayne Thomases, will begin on the building of ping pong tables.

AIRMAN PROMOTED
Dickie Vardiman, who is serving as a munitions specialist in Phon Rang, Vietnam, was promoted to Airman second class, Sept. 30. Word of the promotion was received here last week by his wife, who is living in Post while her husband is in Vietnam, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vardiman.

To avoid that run-down feeling—look both ways before crossing the street.

Post minister leaves to attend Assembly

Bernard S. Ramsey, minister of the First Christian Church, left Post Tuesday for St. Louis, Mo., to attend the Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches. He will represent the local congregation as a registered voting delegate.

Filling the pulpit this Sunday in the minister's absence will be Baily Mayo at 11 a. m. preaching on the subject, "When a Man Opens His Mouth", and Jack Alexander at 7 p. m. whose subject will be "Works Which Follow".

CRITICALLY ILL

M. M. (Snorts) Storie is critically ill in Methodist Hospital, Room 602, where he has been a patient since Sept. 30. Included among his weekend visitors were the Calvin Storie family of Richardson.

Southland's cotton gets both rain and wind

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
Today is a beautiful fall day! The kind that farmers like to see. Southland had an inch of rain on Friday and quite a bit of wind. Kind of strung the long staple cotton up and down the rows, but it could have been a lot worse. At least we didn't have any hail.

Mr. and Mrs. Payton Crawford are proud parents today! Their son, Webster, is out of the service after serving a long time in Vietnam. He and his wife, Janet, are back home now. Welcome back to civilian life, Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stoffle spent the weekend in Sweetwater with Mrs. Irmgard Bredemeyer, who had spent several days here the first of the week.

J. H. Poindexter, father of Mrs. Robert Long and a former resident, recently underwent surgery at Mercy Hospital. He is at his home in Lubbock now and doing real fine. The Longs visited on Sunday.

Cathy Long spent Sunday in Slaton with Carolyn Bligg.

Coach and Mrs. Bob Dyer and children visited in Spur Friday with Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dyer.

A bridal shower, honoring Mrs. Sammie Wartes, was held last Friday in the home of Mrs. D. D. Pennell. Hostesses were: Mrs. Pennell, Ruby Ellis, Mary Ellis, Ken Callaway, Don Pennell and Jack Myers. Purple dahlia napkins and a lace cloth were carried out the recent help. Shamsan colors. Pink punch and serving were served with Mrs. Ruby Ellis pouring. The hostess gift was a hat spread. Twenty-five guests called during the afternoon. Outdoors guests included the honoree's mother and grandmother of Post, Mrs. Cecil Cummings of Lubbock, Mmes. Joyce Montgomery, T. H. Basinger, James Brooks and Kenneth Davies of Slaton. The Wartes live in Lubbock.

Mrs. Harvey Louis Pennell is a patient in West Texas Hospital but may get to go home in a few days. The Don Pennells visited her Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Havis went to Roaring Springs during the weekend.

Kelly Jo Myers visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Winterrowd and children visited in Snyder on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Buchanan. Paul and Mr. Buchanan were World War II buddies.

Karen Hagens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Hagens, was a proud little "gal" when her corn bread won third place at the Panhandle South Plains Fair. Karen is a 4-H member and I think this is her first year to enter anything at the Fair, so I think she did real good. Congratulations, Karen.

Gloria Cisneros, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alejo Cisneros, has moved to San Antonio where she will take a six-month beauty course. Gloria graduated from Southland High School in the spring.

The Robert Becker family of Brownfield visited the Willie Beckers and the Junior Beckers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Stoffle and Beverly and Rex Stoffle moved to their farm near Shilohwater last week. Mrs. Mary Stoffle moved up there with them for the time being, but will probably move back to Southland when her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Stoffle, move here from Corpus Christi. The Edmund Stoffles will move into the Stoffle's home place. We all sure hated to see these families move away. They have lived here for so long that there is nothing to be a big emotion now. But we do want to wish them a lot of good luck in their new home. Don't forget to come back and visit us sometime!

Edmund, Sherri, Darrell, Larry and Yours Truly attended the Texas Tech - Mississippi State game last Saturday night. Tech had a hard night and that disappointed me, but the band was wonderful and the big crowd was very exciting to me. I sure would like to go again sometime.

George Ellis of Austin flew to Lubbock on business Wednesday and came to Southland to spend the night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ellis. George works with the O. E. O.

SOUTHLAND HOME-COMING has been set for Oct. 27. There will NOT be a dinner this year, as per usual, but the Exes will get together in the gym after the football game for refreshments and a lot of talk. Southland will be playing Klondike that night. So, make your plans to attend. See you there.

Southland will play Loop at Loop this Friday night. Let's all go to the game and support this fine team.

There was a lot of hair-combing and primping last week at Southland school because the men came to take the school pictures. Can't hardly wait to see some of them. The cheerleaders went to a studio in Slaton Friday to have pictures made.

I received a long letter from Pat Gilliland last week and she said to tell all you nice people hello and that she misses you very much. Saturday I received word that Pat's mother, Mrs. Leota

Martin of Morton, had suffered a serious stroke and wasn't doing too well. Also, Patti, their eldest daughter, has the chicken pox. Looks like when it rains, it pours. May God's blessings and comfort be with this family.

Our daughter-in-law's grandfather passed away last week and was buried Saturday at Lometa. He was the father of Gilbert Blodgett of Post. May God be with the family in their sorrow.

Patsy Dunn, a student at Texas Tech, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Dunn.

Visitors of Mrs. Nellie Mathis during the weekend were the Walter Kellums of Slaton, Dee Hodges of Levelland the Delroy Odom family of Post.

Mrs. Ed Siewert fell and hurt herself recently and was confined at home for a couple of weeks. She was back in church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Riney and Edmund and Yours Truly visited Sunday afternoon with the Leo Stalles at their new farm home.

B. D. (Blondie) Ellis was called to Kermit Saturday due to the illness of a brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Barton and Mrs. Mattie Dunlap of Post went to Tyler to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dunlap over the weekend.

Mrs. Dixie Barton taught school one day last week in place of Mrs. Ruth Hall. All the kids sure were glad to see her.

First meeting of fall is held by Cub Scout Pack

The first fall meeting of Cub Scout Pack 314 was held at 7:30 p. m. Oct. 2 at the American Legion Hall, with Cubmaster Jack Bishop presiding.

Bailey Mayo, representative and committeeman, led the Pledge of Allegiance, and the following Cub Scouts were presented awards: Ricky D. James, Bobcat; Bill Rose, J. O. Cummings and Mark Kirkpatrick, all of Den 1; Ray Martinez, Den 2; Bruce Blanton and Ricky James, Den 3; Byron Gray, Kyle Duren, Joe Clary and Danny Hutchins, all of Den 4, and Lewis Ammons Jr., Den 5, all received Wolf Awards.

The Pack has 46 Cubs on the roll at present. The goal set for new recruits is 30 for Pack 314.

Den Mothers and assistants are very much in need, Maudie Faye Rose being the only den mother going over into the 1968 season.

Mary Mayo has been named leader coach to assist all den mothers with any help that may be required. She is also secretary of the Pack.

Under the new program all boys 10 years old, whether or not they have scouting experience, are to go into the Webelos under a new leader — of which the Pack is in need at this time.

SERMON TOPIC ANNOUNCED
"Surprised by Faith" will be the sermon topic at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday at 11 a. m. as announced by the pastor, Rev. George L. Miller.
