President Francois Tombalbaye of the African nation of Chad and his entourage Saturday spent the day at the U. S. Lazy S Ranch in West Texas, basking in the hospitality of the state.

Tombalbaye told the group of approximately 100 that "your country looks very much like ours" and that he was "deeply touched by the friendly demonstrations."

He then called John Lott forward and pinned a colorful medal on his western shirt. The medal made Lott an "officer of the National Order of Chad."

Included in the photographic group was a five-man team from the United States Information Agency, an official photographer from the department of state, and a Chad cameraman with the presidential party.

There also were a number of Tech student cameramen representing the Tech student newspaper and the Tech information office.

"NO, THANKS" (IN FRENCH)
President Francois Tombalbaye of the Republic of Chad consented to have his picture made beside a cow pony during his visit to the U. S. Lazy S Ranch here Saturday, but politely declined, in perfect French, to ride the animal.

Council sees need of street paving

Engineer submits proposed program

The Post city council, at its regular October session Monday night, tentatively agreed on the need of a street paving program that could result in as many as 87 blocks of unpaved streets being paved.

The council agreed on the need of the project after hearing Ralph Douglas, consulting engineer, outline a proposed program that would call for the paving of 35 units between Broadway and Avenue S and 22 units between Broadway and the railway tracks.

Douglas estimated that the city's share of the paving bill would be one-third the cost of the paving, with property owners being assessed 100 per cent for the cost of the curbs and gutters.

The total cost of the paving project would be about $228,000, the engineer said. He explained, however, that it was unlikely the city would want to pave all the unpaved streets in one project, even if it could sign them all up for paving.

United Fund goal $10,000; campaign to begin Oct. 21

Directors of the Garza County United Fund have approved a $10,000 goal for the 1969 fund drive, which will get underway Monday, Oct. 21.

Harold Lucas, campaign chairman, announced today there will be a kick-off breakfast at Floyd's Steak House at 7 a. m. Friday, Oct. 18, for drive workers.

He also announced that to highlight the United Fund drive this year a special evening of entertainment will be given Monday evening, Oct. 21, at the Community Auditorium.

Local talent from the community and school will perform. Lucas said "the price of admission" to this evening of fun will be a "donation to the United Fund."

Drive Chairman Lucas points out that the United Fund is designed to help fund public service agencies in county, state and national.

The youth and his father were en route to a cotton field location about 20 miles from Snyder. The elder Dooley, who operates an aerial spraying service, was in another pickup ahead of the one driven by Jimmy.

The municipal auditorium in issue has been "stalled along" so long now by the city it probably won't surprise Dispatch readers a bit to read in today's Dispatch that in the month between the September and October council meetings, no effort was made by the city to contact the owners of the former bowling alley building to complete the purchase of the property as the council voted in September.

The lack of action by the city may not surprise Dispatch readers but it certainly ought to anger them a bit.

The way things are moving on the issue at city hall it may not be settled until next May—after the next city council election.

Applications are being accepted by the Post Junior Chamber of Commerce for entries in competition to select a winner and runner-up to represent Post in the Jaycee-sponsored South Plains Beauty Pageant at Levelland early in November.

The meeting will be held at the Pleasant Home Baptist Church on Pine Street at 8 o'clock. It is not necessary to bring the children to be enrolled unless the parents so desire.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1968

National Fire Prevention Week

In the United States last year, 12,200 persons lost their lives in fires, thousands more were injured, and property damage reached a staggering $1.7 billion.

With more care, a huge portion of this shameful waste could have been avoided.

During the week of October 8 to 12, all of us are asked to redouble our efforts to cut down on this enormous toll of life, limb and property; to check our homes and places of business against hazards which might at some unexpected moment burn us out and threaten our very persons; to remind ourselves that fires indeed can be avoided through the exercise of care.

As T. Lawrence Jones, president of the American Insurance Association, reminds us, Fire Prevention Week is not just another crusade to be taken lightly. It was conceived, and is repeated at this time every year, as a deadly serious reminder to all Americans that fire prevention is a relatively simple task, but one which must be kept in mind at all times.

How simple it is, for example, to put that cigarette—or match—out before discarding it, rather than tossing it carelessly away, perhaps to kindle a fire with consequences you will never forget.

How simple to clean out that kitchen stove, rather than taking the risk of a badly charred room or gutted home which can be the result of an accumulation of grease.

Fire Prevention Week is a time to think of these things; to throw out old newspapers and other unneeded collections of combustible materials; to check—or have a serviceman check—electrical appliances and wiring and heating equipment. It is a time to pledge ourselves to making fire prevention a year-round job.

This is the message Fire Prevention Week seeks to convey.

Can any of us afford not to listen—and act? —JC

An 'old pro' in diplomatic corps

Oftentimes Americans are given the impression that much of our diplomatic corps overseas is riddled by "political appointments" of unqualified persons who do much more to hurt than to help America's image abroad.

The best-seller of a few years back, "The Ugly American," is a good example of this belief.

It is probably true to some degree, but not to the major emphasis a lot of folks place upon it.

Certainly, we observed on the U. S. Ranch Saturday afternoon it does not apply to our U. S. Ambassador to Chad.

He is Sheldon B. Vance, a tall, skinny, friendly and intelligent fellow with thinning hair, smokes a pipe and obviously is well endowed with both charm and brains.

In the two hours we observed his operations, it was obvious to us that he is one of "state's old pros" in its African Affairs division.

Vance chuckled when we ask him if he was related to Cyrus R. Vance, Deputy Secretary of Defense. "I've never been able to trace back to him at all," he said.

Vance, who speaks French fluently, has been in the state department's African Affairs division for 10 years and has been serving as ambassador to Chad for the last year.

He is the kind of guy you like and admire instantly. He puts a warm glow in your heart too when you realize that our country does have top caliber diplomats working for us among the emerging nations of Africa which are now being wooed by every power bloc in the world.—JC

They give us one week a year

National Newspaper Week began Sunday, and we're never too busy to take note of the observance—despite the fact that during the other 51 weeks of the year we're "snowed under" with news releases on everything from Pickled-in-Brine Week to Foot Health Week.

Since community newspapers do not ask for much here below—just enough advertising to keep the wolf away and enough news to make you want to read the paper every week—we're perfectly willing to struggle by on just one Newspaper Week a year. But we do ask our readers to share it with us by taking time out to give a few minutes' thought to their hometown newspaper and its place in the community.

We like to feel that the public-spirited men and women of the community depend on their newspaper for a chance to participate more fully in fashioning the community around them and, in a broader sense, the world around them.

President Johnson, in declaring Newspaper Week, said it "focuses on the important and indispensable role of the free press in our daily lives."

"It salutes reliable news coverage and warns against distorted public information. It calls for honesty, integrity and social conscience in pursuit of a cherished American tradition."

The President called newspapers "the shock troops of a nationwide human awakening, and the leaders toward a society free from fear and prejudice."

We hope our readers agree with the President in his opinion of newspapers, and we're reminded again this Newspaper Week that we couldn't possibly get along without the community. We hope the community feels the same way about its newspaper.—CD

Dear Turnrow Junkel

O. C. McBride

Don't you think many current television shows are unfit for children?

It's pretty hard to shock kids these days, but some of the shows are so raw that my wife and I are embarrassed to watch them together. We have worked out a little system—she watches the afternoon soap operas, and I watch the late shows at night.

I read that a prominent scientist said there are intelligent beings on other planets, and they have been observing life on earth from flying saucers. If he's right, why have none of them landed?

Well, the man said they were intelligent.

Russia and the U. S. have agreed not to use the moon for military purposes. Do you approve?

Yes. Judging from those photographs, keeping soldiers happy on the moon would require a heckuva good PX.

WEEKEND CALENDAR: Friday: Post Antelopes vs. Stanton Buffaloes at Stanton; Apollo 7 blastoff at Cape Kennedy, Fla. Saturday: Columbus Day.

After looking forward to it, I missed Sunday night's moon eclipse. The newspaper I was reading that reminded me of it, said the eclipse would be from 7:10 p. m. to 8:14 p. m. It was 8:30 p. m. when I read it, and as I dashed outside to find the full moon shining in all its brilliance, my wife said, "You missed it—slow man in a fast world."

THE MAN UP the street says a career woman is one who goes out and earns a man's salary instead of staying at home and taking it away from him.

Getting away for the moment from forecasts of who will win the presidential election, it is interesting to note that the Census Bureau figures that about 74 million Americans will cast ballots for the next president Nov. 5 if the same percentage of the voting-age population goes to the polls as it did four years ago.

THE CENSUS BUREAU'S estimate is based on a record voting-age total of 121.5 million people, including servicemen overseas. The 1964 total is 7.1 million more than the 114.4 million people of voting age in 1964 when 70.7 million, or 62 per cent, actually voted.

On the same subject, I'm probably wrong as usual but I still figure that George Wallace is running better in the straw polls than he will on election day. It is one thing to voice a loud protest right now and another thing to cast that ballot. The same goes for Dick Nixon, which shouldn't leave anyone wondering who I'm for.

AND HERE IS a tip to potential future presidential candidates: The most popular of all presidents a month headline writers was Dwight D. Eisenhower. "Ike" takes up only two and a half units of headline space.

This belongs in the Library Listening Post column, perhaps: The Book of the Month Club has selected the longest titled book in the organization's history for distribution in November. There are 22 words in the title: "Man's Rise to Civilization as Shown by the Indians of North America From Primeval Times to the Coming of the Industrial State" by Peter Farb.

Even after you've read the title you're 352 pages from the end.

IT RAINED ON just about every high school football game in Texas last Friday night. The wife and I made a trip to McLean to watch our son's team lose to White Deer, 13 to 8, but we didn't get rained on as much as fans at some of the other games. There was only a sprinkle during the first half of the game, but a pretty good shower part of the second half.

The rain helped the Hale Center Owls beat the fumbling Floydada Whirlwinds in one of the area's biggest upsets. On top of that, the rain and the final score combined to "ruin" Floydada's homecoming. Having seen both teams perform against our Post Antelopes, I'd

HAVE YOU NOTICED that college football scores are beginning to read like the basketball scores of not too long ago? For instance: Houston 71, Cincinnati 33; SMU 35, North Carolina State 14; West Texas State 35, Montana State 20; LSU 48, Baylor 16, etc., etc.

In the press box at McLean Friday night, I heard a scout say his team's star halfback was out of action with a virus after having scored four touchdowns on broken field runs in the previous Friday night's game. "What type of virus does he have?" someone asked. "I'm not sure," the scout replied, "but I think it's dodge fever."

SINCE THE SHOOTING started in Mexico, I've heard less and less people say they'd like to be there for the Olympic Games.

DEDICATION

The halls of Post High School were very solemn last Monday morning, as each student was gripped by the tragic death of a fellow student. This young man was a great friend to all and was very popular with everyone; and it was a very tragic thing to happen to him. Therefore, the entire student body of Post High School would like to dedicate this school page to Mr. Jimmie Dooley in memory of the many events that were done by, with, and for him.

It's My Turn

— By MRS. C.

As a member of the "working press" I engaged in my favorite sport of people - watching Saturday at the U Lazy S Ranch as Mr. C and I "covered" the barbecue luncheon for Francois Tombalbaye, president of the Republic of Chad.

Woman-like, the first thing that popped into my mind when the Lotts invited us to be on hand was: "What does one wear to a barbecue honoring a president?" One look at my wardrobe and I solved that problem immediately. I have a dress which is made from a fabric in a giraffe pattern. "Aha," I thought, "this will be perfect and make the president feel right at home. Surely, they have giraffes running around somewhere in the nation of Chad."

As we arrived at the ranch we were met by the tantalizing aroma of Matt and Andy Stelzer's barbecue competing with the fresh rain-washed air in that beautiful setting at the ranch. Out of hearing of the male Stelzers I asked Andy's wife, Rosemary, exactly what she contributed to all that delicious food they serve. It is just as I thought, she does all the necessary "dirty work" and they get all the credit for their superb cooking!

Mr. C is giving you all the important facts in a front page story on Mr. Tombalbaye's visit and I'm trying to slide in a few interesting tidbits. Ryla, who along with her husband, John Lott, and Jack and Jeri Lott, were hosts of the affair, took time out to tell me about the "State Dinner" she and John attended at the White House.

Just in case any of us are ever invited to a dinner at the White House, Ryla said we didn't have to worry about "what to do" when we arrive. She said one is met by an aide at the door and given a card telling one just about every move to make while one is there. That certainly relieved a load from my mind! Also, I learned that 100 persons are invited to State Dinners. Why 100? That's the number that can be seated in the dining room, that's why. (I have eight at dinners at my house because that's the number I can seat.)

Ryla said the Johnsons were warm and gracious hosts. After a personally conducted tour of the White House, along with Johnson City friends of the President and Lady Bird, the Lotts started to return to their hotel via taxi. Lady Bird, upon learning this, promptly furnished them with a chauffeur-driven car for their stay in our capital. The Lotts also witnessed the signing of the "Save the Redwoods" bill in the East Room.

Luci and Lynda were present and were most charming as they mingled with the guests.

Ryla said the dining tables were beautiful. They were covered with yellowish-gold cloths under oregandy, set with Lady Bird's bluebonnet china and held profuse arrangements of flowers. Lovely bouquets were placed throughout the White House and were most impressive, according to Ryla.

John and Ryla's grandchildren, the ones belonging to the Jack Lotts and the Kay Kirkpatricks, were much in evidence at the barbecue and practicing how to greet the president before he and his official party arrived. They decided it would be much easier to say "Hello, Mr. President" than to maybe stumble through such a word as "Excellency". Jay Lott happened to be the lucky one by being in the right place at the right time on his big gray horse to have many photographs taken with President Tombalbaye. I'd have loved to hear their conversation as the president's English is very sparse and I'm sure Jay's French is nil!

As Mr. C and I were leaving the ranch I overheard one of the cowboys say: "I'm going to get out of these hot chaps and be comfortable." "Amen," I said to Mr. C. "I'm going to get out of my hot you-know-what as soon as we get home."

I left feeling that John and Ryla, who live in Lubbock but still call Post "home," are truly fitting ambassadors for West Texas.

Two officers installed as Past Matrons meet

Willie Cross was installed as president and Doll Haire as secretary and treasurer at the Monday night meeting of the Past Matrons of Post, Southland and Tahoka in the Reddy Room.

A Mexican casserole, pickles, crackers, apricot nectar cake, homemade ice cream, tea and coffee were served to the following: Bobbie Oats, Opal Pennell, Minnie Wright, Thelma Clark, and hostesses Willie Cross, Loree Thaxton and Doll Haire.

Following games, cake, cookies, candy and punch were served to the following guests: Chane Guerrero, Gloria Martinez, Mary Villa, Martha and Sarah Morales, Glenda Dunn, Nellie Guerrero, Mary Jefferson, Betty, Sue and Peggy Greathouse, Sandra, Kay and Sylvia Curtis, Joan, Rosy and Alice Harper, Lala Garza, Rosie Tijerina and Auga Garza.

'Poke' party is held by chapter

A "Poke" party was enjoyed at the annual rush party of Xi Delta Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Tuesday night at Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church.

Members and guests drew for bags and dressed in the contents for a style show. First prize went to Vee Gordon and second to Jerry Hester. Crazy bridge was played with Suzanne Clifford and Kay Hays winning high and low, respectively.

A meal of chili con carne and cornbread was served to Jerry Hester, Jan Smith, Kay Hays, Vee Gordon, Sylvia Shipp, Suzanne Clifford, Ginger Carlisle, Lorrye McAlister, Mary Eckols, Lora Blanton, Frankie Robbins, Joyce Teaff, Sammie Maddox, Janey Middleton, Sue Dornor, Johnnie Francis and Willie Cross.

Southland area news

Ronnie Dunn elected ex-student president

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
 Since I didn't have a column last week I would like to tell you about the Southland Homecoming. Approximately 85 persons attended the dinner at which the Rev. Robert Fields, a Baptist minister from Menchaca, was the guest speaker. From all the nice things I heard about his speech, it must have been "great." His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Fields, former residents now living in Dalhart, were here.

After the ball game everyone gathered in the gym again for a short business meeting and Mrs. Gloss Davies was crowned Queen of the ex-students. Queen candidates for next year were chosen and they are Mrs. Wesley Scott, Mrs. Otho Dillard and Mrs. Ronnie Dunn. New officers are as follows: President, Ronnie Dunn; vice president, Lehman Barkley; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Herman Dabbs and Mrs. Max Jackson. It was decided to have a dinner again next year. There were too many ex-students here to list them all. Southland won their ball game against Cotton Center which really kept Homecoming perfect. Dayneen Dunn was crowned Football Sweetheart and was presented a dozen red roses by the football captains, Darrell Wilke, Joe E. Basinger and Larry Bevers. Our thanks to the ex-student officers that have served so well for the past three years. They are Harley Martin, Edmund Wilke, Otho Dillard and Mrs. J. Martin Basinger.

The reason you missed (I hope) the Southland news last week was because Edmund and I, along with the Leroy Zieschangs of Slaton, went fishing at Possum Kingdom. We had a wonderful time but didn't catch many fish. The men put out trotlines and caught a few catfish, and that is about all we did catch. Can't even blame the weather because it was just beautiful. Guess I will just have to call us "poor fishermen". We were gone from Sunday until Thursday.

The Paul Winterrowd family visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Winterrowd, in Amarillo over the weekend.

BREONNE Winterrowd went to Dallas with a group from the Slaton MYF and attended the SMU-North Carolina State game in the Cotton Bowl and the State Fair. They were overnight guests of the Irving MYF, were entertained with a party and all attended church

Sunday morning.

Mrs. Cecil Stolle won third place on a child's dress that she entered at the Fair. This was her first entry so we would like to say congratulations, LaVerne!

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dyess of Spur, parents of Coach Dyess, attended the Homecoming game and spent the night with the Dyess. They all went to Lubbock Saturday to attend the Coronado High School game and the Texas Tech and Texas game. Coach has a nephew, Gary Dyess, who plays on the Coronado team.

BY THE WAY Edmund and Yours Truly also attended the Texas Tech football game and enjoyed it very much despite the tramping we received. We were sitting on the grass with at least a thousand or two others, and let me tell you we were stepped on, kicked, stepped over and Cokes spilled down our backs until tempers started flying. Seems like I viewed half of the game between pairs of legs. Looks like when a place is so crowded that people would stay put, but without thinking of other people they continue to tramp back and forth, unnecessarily, for Cokes, popcorn, and this and that! Anyway, it sure was a good game!

Mrs. Robert Long's father, J. H. Poindexter, underwent eye surgery recently.

The Rev. Tommy Wilson and daughter visited several days here recently while his wife was a patient at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. He is looking and feeling fine after his recent heart attack.

The Rev. and Mrs. Wilson Hill and son recently spent the night with the H. D. Taylors, attended homecoming activities and attended a bridal shower honoring Miss Sharla Taylor.

Miss Carol Stolle of Amarillo spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stolle.

Mrs. Irmgard Bredemeyer from Sweetwater is spending the week with her daughter and family, the Cecil Stollies.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Pennell and Jay and Stacy Callaway visited in Cloudcroft, White Sands and Albuquerque, N. M. over the weekend.

HERE FOR GAME
 Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Duncan of Lubbock were among those attending the football game between the Post Antelopes and Roosevelt Eagles Friday night. Mrs. Duncan, the former Lin Allyn Cox, teaches in the Roosevelt school.

Mmes. Loyd Hagens, Selma Kiesel, C. J. Miller, Douglas Neugebauer, Arthur Stolle, Cecil Stolle, Walter Stolle, Edmund Stolle and Edmund Wilke attended the Southern District American Lutheran Church Women's convention at the KoKo Place in Lubbock Tuesday through Thursday.

Mrs. Dollie Donahoo who moved to Lincoln, Neb., in August, underwent surgery recently. From what I understand the surgery was quite tedious and lasted six hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coble and Mrs. Della Coble of Wolfforth were Sunday afternoon visitors of the E. L. Andersons.

Mrs. Lena Lieske has been under the weather. May God grant her comfort in her time of need.

Edmund and Yours Truly visited the Jimmy Beckers and the Alvin Beckers Sunday evening. From Alvin's house we drove over to the "blowing" oil well, which is only several miles from their house. My goodness, that is something. It looks like it is blowing steam along with the sand. It roars so loud that it sounds like a jet or a train to me. If you haven't been out to see it, better go, because it is really something to see!

Mrs. Alpha Taylor has returned to her home in Slaton after spending two weeks with her son, Clarence, in Netherland. She flew both ways and says she is getting used to flying as she has been flying more lately.

Miss Sharla Taylor was honored with a lingerie shower given by her sorority sisters at Canyon last week. Her mother, Mrs. Grady Taylor, attended the shower and spent the night with Sharla at Tulsa.

Mrs. Nellie Mathis is spending the week in Levelland with Dee and Carolyn Hodge.

THE SOUTHLAND Eagles had an "upset" Friday night when the Three Way team beat them 24-0. I think several things contributed to this defeat. Several of the boys were just about sick and it rained hard from the second quarter on. Seems like the Three Way Eagles were carrying a lot more weight than our "Eagles" and they could get around in that rain and mud better than our boys. Anyway, our boys just never could get going. Better luck with Whitharral this Friday night, boys!

Let Purina Range Chow Blocks . . . Turn those Stalks into Pounds

A lot of farmers run feeder calves in their stalk fields. But stalks and "down" corn don't provide the balanced nutrition the calves need to maintain their weight and condition.

Cattlemen are fast finding out that the easiest way to supply this nutrition is to feed protein-fortified Purina Range Chow Blocks. And here's why cattlemen go for Range Chow Blocks:

- Easy to handle—each block weighs 33½ lbs.
- Saves time—feed about once a week.
- Highly palatable—cattle like them.
- Weather resistant—should hold together in all kinds of weather.
- Easy to store—long storage life.
- Gives equal chance to all cattle—smaller and timid cattle aren't crowded out.

Why deny your cattle the nutritional supplements they'll need while running in stalk fields. Call us right away and place your order for Purina Range Chow Blocks. They'll help keep your stock in good shape until you start 'em on full feed.

POST ANTELOPES

Vs

Stanton Buffaloes

FRIDAY NIGHT, OCT. 11

8 P. M. Kickoff

On Stanton's Field

The Post Antelopes got a sweet taste of victory along with the rain Friday night when they notched Win No. 1 with a 20-15 victory over the Roosevelt Eagles. This will whet their appetites for more.

Certainly, the Lopes will need to get that passing attack hitting on all cylinders when they invade the range of the Stanton Buffaloes Friday night.

The Buffs, who've split with the Lopes over the last two seasons, have a fine ball club headed by an all-district Negro quarterback, Davey Jones. They won their first three, Rotan 27-6, Seagraves, 18-12, and Tahoka, 26-7, before losing last weekend to Coahoma, one of the state's top Class A clubs, 22-8.

Al O'Brien, manager of the White River Municipal Water District, has received a letter from the development fund manager of the Texas Water Development Board in which it congratulates O'Brien and the White River board of directors for "superior management" as reflected in the recent annual audit of the water district.

"You may rest assured," Danny Burger, the fund manager of the state board wrote, "that the Water Development Board and our executive director are aware of this and appreciate the manner in which you and your board of directors share in the responsibility of a job well done."

Needle in foot, tours big fair in wheelchair

Lorry Chapman, ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chapman, didn't let the fact that she underwent surgery last Thursday night ruin the family trip to HemisFair over the weekend.

Lorry stepped on a needle last Thursday afternoon and four-hour surgery was required to extract the broken portion from her left foot. After treatment locally Lorry was taken to Methodist Hospital for the surgery and was an overnight patient.

The Chapmans, including their son, Kurt, went on to San Antonio where Lorry toured the World's Fair in a wheelchair. She returned to classes Monday on crutches.

Installation set for Interact Club

The Post Rotary Club will host an installation banquet for the new Interact Club it is sponsoring for high school boys.

Interact members, their parents, Rotarians and their wives will be invited to the installation banquet Nov. 4.

The Rotary Club also is buying Interact membership pins for all Interact members.

These plans were announced at the club luncheon in City Hall Tuesday during an Interact Week program. Bill McBride, chairman of the club's Interact committee, and four Interact members who were club guests at the luncheon spoke on various phases of the Interact program.

Interact speakers were Neff Walker, president; David Hamilton, treasurer; David Pierce and Joey Lee, Steve Newby, secretary of Interact, also was a luncheon guest.

Interact projects already set up include helping develop the community center, organizing a summer recreational program for the community's youth, adopting a child overseas at a cost of $120 annually, and helping to bring another foreign exchange student to Post to attend high school here for a year.

Other Americans along were Lou Ross, project supervisor of the United States Information Agency; Kenneth Watson, reporter for the Voice of America; Gus Moshos, engineer for Voice of America, and a photographer, producer-director, chief cameraman, assistant cameraman, and assistant soundman, all from the U.S. Information Agency.

After the barbecue and the gift exchange between President Tombalbaye and Lott, the Chad group took a two-hour tour of the ranch operations in four carry-alls with John Lott, Jack Lott and Kay Kirkpatrick driving three of the vehicles.

The president's "convoy" of limousines returned to Lubbock in late afternoon with President Tombalbaye and his ministers. The guests of Texas Tech President Grover Murray at the Tech - Colorado State football game (left) night.

President Tombalbaye was still wearing his new western hat, instead of his leopard skin cap, when introduced to the 36,000 fans in Jones stadium.

The Chad party, which had spent two days in Washington before flying to San Antonio in one of President Johnson's special Air Force planes to visit HemisFair Friday, was scheduled to fly to Florida Sunday for a tour of the U. S. space port at Cape Kennedy before returning to New York City Sunday night to end his state visit.

President Tombalbaye planned to remain privately in New York City for several days before flying back to Chad, an African country with no coastline and equal in size to Texas, California, and Oklahoma combined.

The state department, thorough in its preparations for such state visits as that of Tombalbaye, had mimeographed sheets available at the ranch Saturday listing all Chad and American members of Tombalbaye's party, the full itinerary of Tombalbaye's five-day state visit, a pronunciation sheet on the difficult names of Chad officials, and a four-page digest of information about the Republic of Chad as well as a map to show Chad's size and location on the African continent.

Ambassador Vance told The Dispatch that President Tombalbaye had headed the Republic of Chad since it became an independent nation in 1960 and that he comes up for re-election again next year.

Vance, who speaks French fluently, has been the U. S. ambassador to Chad for the last year but has served 10 years for the state department in its Ministry of African Affairs.

A film also will be shown. Several organizations have accepted projects to assist the center. The Methodist Busy Bees are making sheets for the children's cots; the United Presbyterian Women are covering cardboard boxes to be used as building blocks; the Jaycees are constructing a fence for the play area which the Interact Club members will paint; the Greenhand chapter of the Future Farmers of America, under the direction of Taylor Knight, is building playground equipment with the lumber being furnished by the Board. Amity Study Club is donating cooking utensils to be used to prepare the hot noon meal and snacks, which will be served daily.

Post to end non-conference slate at Stanton Friday

Tough Buffaloes boast 3-1 mark on season

Post Antelopes will journey to Stanton Friday for their final non-conference game of the season, opening District 4AAA football on Oct. 18. The game is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Six members of the Antelope squad missed Monday's practice because of influenza attacks, Coach Gregg said. They were linemen David Perez, David Stelzer, Steve Collazo and Jimmy McKamie and backs James Pollard and Terry Moreau.

Junior end David Pierce, who has been out all season with a knee injury, worked out Monday and is expected to see action against Stanton, the coach said.

Antelope receivers dropped at least eight of Altman's passes which were right on target and made many errors of both omission and commission, but there wasn't a drenched fan who stayed to the final gun who couldn't say it was all mighty interesting.

TRAILING 15-6 midway in the third period, Altman hit Crenshaw free behind the Eagle secondary with "the bomb." Fading back from the Antelope spread on his own 26-yard line, Altman arched a 35 yarder right into Crenshaw's hands. Running free down the east sideline, Crenshaw took the ball without a break in stride and fled 39 yards into the end zone for the six-pointer which changed the entire complexion of the game.

Placing second in the 13-year-old age group with 210 points was Steve Hays. Jay Pollard placed third.

Tony Conner was the 12-year-old winner with 198 points, followed by Richard Dudley with 190 and Mark Terry with 176.

Among the 11-year-olds, first place was won by Garland Dudley with 180 points. Bruce Sanderson placed second with 164 and Jackie Jennings third with 151.

Jimmy Dorland scored 163½ points for first place in the 10-year-old age group, where Terry Botts was second with 147 points and Gregory Gregg third with 141.

Dale Gregg copped the nine-year-old division with 143½ points. Mike Waldrip scored 122½ points for second place and Jimmy Hays 121 points for third place.

The eight-year-old winner was Ivan Lee Jones Jr., with a total score of 106½ points. Stephen Myers placed second with 92½ points and Brent Terry third with 90½.

First place winners received gold trophies, second place winners silver trophies and third place winners bronze trophies.

The first place winner in each division will compete in the district PP&K contest at Lubbock.

'Lopes down Eagles for initial victory

The passing combination of quarterback Ray Altman to halfback Jerry Crenshaw brought Post High School from behind with two quick third-period touchdowns here Friday night as the Antelopes put their first 1968 victory on the scoreboard with a 20-15 decision over the Class A Roosevelt Eagles.

Most of the scoreless fourth period was played in a driving rain with the Antelopes digging in to stop Roosevelt's deepest thrust on their own 26-yard line with 8:42 left on the clock.

Antelope receivers dropped at least eight of Altman's passes which were right on target and made many errors of both omission and commission, but there wasn't a drenched fan who stayed to the final gun who couldn't say it was all mighty interesting.

James Pollard for a first down on the 11. George Torres got a yard and then Jay Bird slipped through right tackle for eight to the two-yard-stripe.

Altman "sneaked" twice, getting a yard each time — with the second effort bringing the touchdown, thus involving the quarterback in all of Post's scoring.

The conversion kick was blocked after a high center snap and it was 6-0 Post at 9:28 on the clock.

The 'Lopes got good field position on the Roosevelt 44 late in the opening quarter but couldn't move and had to kick.

Post came right back with another scoring opportunity early in the second period driving from their own 35 to the Roosevelt 20 before losing the ball on downs.

The big gainer was a 30-yard dash around left end to the Roosevelt 25 by Torres, the longest ground gain of the night for the locals.

THE EAGLES who hadn't even made a first down to this point, took the lead three plays after taking over the ball. Quarterback Roger Guess faked a handoff for a line plunge and then caught the Antelope defense napping by rolling wide to his left and outlegging the Post secondary on a 74-yard touchdown jaunt.

Junior Brown toed the conversion kick through the uprights for a 7-6 Roosevelt lead at the intermission.

Things got worse for the 'Lopes before they got better in the third quarter.

Terry Moreau fumbled a Roosevelt punt on the Post 19 and the Eagles covered the ball to set up their second and final touchdown.

Roosevelt rammed it over in five running plays with Randall Hughes skirting right end for the TD and Brown running the two-point conversion off a fake kick formation.

On the second play from scrimmage after the next kickoff, Altman uncorked his first TD throw to Crenshaw and the 'Lopes were bouncing back to victory.

Of course things might have been different had the Eagles not been caught holding when Guess again pulled another solo end run for 53 yards for what would have been the winning points, also in the third.

Post 'B' team 36 to 22 victor over O'Donnell

With Larry Bilberry scoring three touchdowns and Kyle Josey two, the Post Antelope "B" team outlasted the O'Donnell "B" team, 36 to 22, last Thursday in a free-scoring game at O'Donnell.

Coach Waco Reynolds' Post team mounted a scoring drive after receiving the kickoff, with Josey going over for the TD. Quarterback Robert Pace ran the extra to give Post an 8-0 lead.

O'Donnell tied the score at 8-8, then went ahead, 16-8, late in the first quarter. Bilberry scored for Post, but the extra point failed, giving O'Donnell a 16-14 lead going into the second quarter.

Bilberry scored his second touchdown in the second quarter and also added the extra points to give Post a 22-16 halftime lead.

Josey scored a touchdown and the extra points in the third quarter, but O'Donnell came back with a six-pointer to trail 30-22 going into the final period of play.

Also operating in the Post backfield was wingback David Hart. Others seeing action included Keny McKamie, center; James Walker and Grady Shytle, guards; Mike Feagin and James Morgan, tackles; Kim Owen, tight end; Johnny Hair, split end; Johnny Hodges and Ronnie Tyler.

7th, 8th graders roll over Slaton

Post's junior high school football teams stayed on the winning track here Tuesday evening with a doubleheader victory over Slaton.

Coach Bud Davis' 8th grade team won by a score of 14 to 0 after Coach Waco Reynolds' 7th graders had taken a 20 to 6 decision.

Robert Mindieta returned two punts for touchdowns for the difference in the 8th grade game. He ran one of the punts back for 80 yards in the second quarter and the other for 60 yards in the third quarter. Danny Lee caught a pass from Mindieta for the extra points following the second touchdown.

"Our defense looked real good, but our offense never got rolling," team's only offensive thrusts. Coach Davis said. The punt returns for touchdowns were the Post defense never allowed Slaton to cross the 50-yard line. Post made 11 first downs to Slaton's nine and had 109 yards rushing to the visitor's 90.

In the 7th grade game, Post scored in the first quarter on a sweep by Jerry Tyler after a Slaton punt had been blocked. Johnny Jefferson ran over the extra points to give Post an 8-0 halftime lead.

Coach Reynolds' gridders boosted the score to 14-0 in the third quarter on a 30-yard end run by John Redman. Slaton returned the ensuing kickoff for a touchdown to pull up to 14-6.

The Post team added the clincher in the fourth period on a 30-yard pass play, Redman to split end Ricky Shepherd.

Coach Reynolds said the entire team played well, giving special mention to Macky Sappington, David Conoly, Charles Bell, Robert Torres and Victor Cisneros.

If you haven't driven a Ford lately, you're one of the reasons we built this one!
