Halloween 'fun' runs rampant here; most outhouses spared

One of Post's long-standing Halloween traditions went by the boards Tuesday night when not a single outhouse was burned within the city, but the fire department was called out at 9 p. m. a fire of youngsters had set afire a half-burned shell of a one-room shack on the Rails highway.

It burned to the ground. The combination of bad weather, a big turnout at the Elementary School carnival, nine weeks tests this week for high school students, and a week-long Halloween "celebration", which got under way a week ago last night and apparently left the kids a bit tired of it all, combined to make actual Halloween night one of the quietest and least destructive in years.

The weather and the carnival combined to produce even less than half the usual hordes of small "trick or treaters" making their "candy routes" through the residential districts.

There was one accidental casualty in the week-long Halloween "celebration."

It came Saturday night when an estimated 60 to 70 students, mostly of junior high age, staged a "balloon water fight" in the business district.

A boy intending to throw water paint from an open can or jar had the can slip from his hand.

It struck Liz Dalby, ninth grade daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Dalby, in the forehead at close range. When the girl's vision became blurred she was taken to a Lubbock hospital for observation.

She was released Sunday night. No brain concussion, first feared, resulted.

The week-long Halloween "celebration" was not without its destructive vandalism, however.

Two outhouses were burned at the baseball park. The pair, built at a cost of $120 for the boys' baseball program a year ago, were an unnecessary loss and one which should make parents who contributed the money for their construction and the youngsters involved realize that their useless loss could not be labeled "fun" under any definition. Police foiled two attempted outhouse burnings Saturday night — one on West Main and another on Osage Avenue.

Squad cars arrived before the fire in either outhouse could get going good and both were put out with police car fire extinguishers without the necessity of much more expensive fire calls. A city truck immediately hauled both outhouses off the streets.

The fire department was called out once Saturday night to extinguish an old tire blaze on West Main to prevent excessive damage to the street pavement.

In all, the fire department answered only four calls during the entire "Halloween week" to extinguish blazes set by youngsters.

The entire police force was on duty Tuesday night and extinguished two old tire fires on dirt streets with car fire extinguishers.

The vandalism, besides the needless destruction of the two new outhouses at the baseball park, included the "ice picking" of all four tires on cars of two local residents Tuesday night and on tires on a vehicle behind one downtown business house.

A rock or glasscutters were used Saturday night to mark the display windows of the Hudman Furniture Co., police also reported.

Balloon water-fighting was the "in" thing this year and was (See Halloween, page 8)

Garza historians win awards at 1967 convention

The Garza County Historical Survey Committee, its chairman and its monthly newsletter were honored at the 1967 annual meeting of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee, held last Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Galveston.

Mrs. A. C. Surman of Post was named one of the 26 Outstanding Chairmen of county historical committees in Texas for 1967.

The Garza County committee was honored as one of the 22 top county committees in the state, and its newsletter won third place in the "Best Newsletter" award competition.

This was the first time the newsletter award had been made. The award was established to encourage wider distribution, on the local level, of the newsletter. (See GCHS Awards, page 8)

Harvest barely under way

High wind does some harm to cotton crop

Two blustery days of high and sometimes damaging wind Monday and Tuesday as a cold front moved through the area failed to produce the freeze many Garza County cotton farmers have been waiting to begin harvesting their new long staple cotton.

A check of the gins Tuesday by The Dispatch — the first of the year — showed the harvest just getting under way in scattered fields.

Some gins had only ginned a single bale up to Tuesday and the most reported was 35 bales ginned.

Winds were reported to have "blown down" some of the new long staple cotton and some farmers are now planning to defoliate to avoid any further wind losses.

Only 1 1/2 of an inch of moisture was received here officially Tuesday and Tuesday night, according to courthouse measurements.

The season's first snow flakes were reported in the Southland area early Tuesday.

Meanwhile on page 8 of today's Dispatch, Gaylord Kinard, owner of the Pleasant Valley Gin, announces plans for a 2,000 acre lint block of registered Acala long staple cotton for that gin's area for 1968.

He told The Dispatch that this cotton will be ginned in 100-bale lots to bring in better prices from cotton buyers who are thus assured of more uniform quality.

Sunday's bad weather cuts into CROP drive

Sunday evening's inclement weather cut deeply into the success of the CROP drive held here by the youth of the Methodist, Presbyterian and First Christian churches, sponsors report.

While not able to canvass the entire town because of the bad weather, the youth collected a total of $120.81, it was reported.

Six amendments face Texas voters Nov. 11

The Texas Constitution has already been amended 178 times and voters will have the opportunity to change it six more times Nov. 11, they feel it necessary.

On that date voters in Garza County and elsewhere in Texas will go to the polls to consider amendments ranging from letting cities put all their tax eggs in one basket to setting up a $75 million park development program.

Absentee voting for the election opened Oct. 27 and will close Tuesday, Nov. 7, up to 3 p. m. yesterday, no absentee votes had been cast in Garza County, it was reported at the county clerk's office.

Garza County Tax Assessor-Clerk T. H. Tipton moved today to dispel confusion surrounding qualifications for balloting in the Nov. 11 election.

"Some persons are confused about which voter registration certificate should be used in the Nov. 11 election," said Tipton, pointing out that registration now is under way for qualifying for voting in the 1968 elections.

"Persons voting in the Nov. 11 election will use the registration certificates they obtained last year and which are good for elections through Feb. 28, 1968," the tax official explained.

Tipton said the registration certificates voters are obtaining now are good only for elections held between March 1, 1968, and Feb. 28, 1969.

Persons who did not register last year because they were 60 years of age, or older, may vote in the Nov. 11 election on the strength of their exemption, Tipton added.

He emphasized, however, that persons 60 years of age, or older, must register before Jan. 31, 1968, to be eligible to vote in 1968 elections.

The six Nov. 11 issues to be put to the voters' test, as they will appear on the ballot, are:

1. Authorizing counties to put all tax money in a single general fund rather than depositing it in separate funds corresponding to tax levies for each of the four constitutional purposes.

2. Permitting municipalities, political subdivisions, and state-supervised institutions to issue bonds.

3. Allowing counties to issue bonds to pay for the construction of a new or expanded jail.

4. Allowing counties to issue bonds to pay for the construction of a new or expanded hospital.

5. Allowing counties to issue bonds to pay for the construction of a new or expanded school building.

Postex Hall Plant

Appreciation Day held at Memphis

Industrial Appreciation Day was held at the Postex Hall Plant at Memphis, Tex., last Thursday with a number of Burlington Industries, Inc., officials attending, along with personnel from the Postex Mills here.

Among those attending were Charles A. Gibson of Greenville, S. C., president of B. I. Cotton Mills, a division of Burlington Industries, Inc.; Walter B. Hildebrandt, executive vice president of Erwin Mills; and J. C. Ponder, personnel manager of Erwin Sheeting Division of Burlington.

Attending from Post were Louie Burkes, general manager of Postex Mills and the Postex Hall Plant; Larry Hopkins, superintendent of finishing and fabrication at both plants, and Dick Dickson, personnel manager, and their wives.

Open house was held from 1 p. m. until 5 p. m. at the Memphis plant, and an appreciation banquet was held at 7:30 p. m., sponsored by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development.

The Postex Hall Plant was opened five years ago.

School's first carnival in years 'big success'

A highly successful Halloween Carnival, sponsored by the Post Elementary School, Tuesday night drew hundreds of parents, other adults, and youngsters and netted an estimated $750 in revenue which will go for educational purposes.

Principal Vernon Payne said he was "tremendously pleased" with the carnival's success and with the cooperation of teachers and parents who worked hard to make this first carnival in several years such a success.

The carnival was spread through two school buildings and the cafeteria.

Payne said he had no way of estimating the total turnout but that over 250 persons paid their way through each of the carnival's two "spook houses."

The principal said that teacher representatives from each class would meet to decide how best to spend the carnival proceeds for educational needs within the two school buildings to benefit the first five grades.

He promised that when the proceeds are spent, an accounting will be made to the community of how the "fun money" was used for the educational benefits of the students.

Teacher representatives from each of the five classes sponsoring the carnival will make the decision on the spending of the carnival money, Payne added.

He said he wished to express his appreciation to all the parents and teachers who pitched in to make the carnival a real "community project."

He expressed the hope that the carnival can become an annual Halloween fixture here.

Payne said no vandalism was reported in any of the three school buildings or to the parked cars around the school buildings.

Goal is $9,200

United Fund total stands at $6,050

The 1968 Garza United Fund total in cash and pledges stood at $6,050 today, received en route to the $9,200 goal with drive officials optimistic that the goal can be reached once all reports are in.

Postex Mill employees contributed a record total of $2,048 to the $6,050 total. This represents over 21 1/2 per cent of the United Fund's goal.

Drive Chairman A. C. Cash and United Fund President Dick Dickson told The Dispatch "We have our fingers crossed and are optimistic that the campaign can reach its goal for the second year in a row."

Still to be reported are donations from a part of the "big gifts division" — $25 and over contributors — farmers and ranchers division, federal employees division, county employees, city employees, and school employees.

The drive opened Monday, Oct. 23.

The $2,048 in contributions from the Postex employees was the highest total ever given by the group. Drive Chairman Cash said "This total certainly shows that Postex employees are solidly behind this community."

Dickson commented that Postex management is very proud of the employees with their generous response in the 1968 fund effort.

The $2,048 does not include the sizable United Fund contribution made by Postex Mills through the Burlington Industries Foundation. This is included in the "big gifts division."

Radio Station KPDS staged a United Fund "marathon" Monday (See United Fund, page 8)

George R. Brown to join in waterflood

The George R. Brown oil interests here announced today work is scheduled to begin Monday to convert five of its producers into water injection wells to join the current American PetroFina waterflood just south of Post.

E. R. (Buster) Moreland explained it was Brown's obligation to join the other firm in the Southeast Garza Unit waterflood.

The Brown wells are located on both sides of the Snyder highway. American PetroFina is already injecting water in 13 or 14 wells in the new waterflood project. An estimated 48 wells are involved in the waterflood.

Only the five Brown producers are involved in this waterflood.

Veterans Day Supper is scheduled for Nov. 11

All armed forces veterans of the area are invited to attend the annual Veterans Day Supper at 7 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 11, at the American Legion Hall.

The barbecue supper is sponsored by James C. Cole Post No. 278 of the American Legion and will include a business meeting.

POSTEX MILLS SAFETY AWARD

Larry Hopkins (right), a superintendent at Postex Mills, is presenting a certificate to Jim Poir, overseer, and Mrs. Opal Rudd, fitted hemmer of the sewing and packing department, for the department's completion of one year without a lost-time accident. A "safety feed" was given employees of the sewing and packing department in appreciation of the accomplishment.

Dispatch Editorials

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1967

We're in favor of park expansion

Unless too many Texans are too busy enjoying "wholesome outdoor recreation" to vote on Nov. 11, the proposed park expansion amendment should carry by a comfortable margin in the balloting on the six proposed amendments to the State Constitution.

Appearing on the general election ballot Nov. 11 as proposed constitutional amendment No. 5, it would set up a $75 million state park expansion program to be financed through bonds supported by admission charges to state parks.

It is aimed at adding another 60,000 acres of park land to the 61,000 now owned by the state.

The Parks and Wildlife Commission would be given authority to set the admission fees designed to pay off the bonds. Gov. John Connally has proposed a $1 per car figure. If the revenue should fall short of that needed to pay the principal and interest on the bonds, the proposed amendment would require that other state funds will be used to make up the difference.

We feel that the park expansion program is necessary to stimulate tourist trade and that it would be a wise investment which eventually would pay for itself.

What it amounts to is that Texas is simply trying to catch up in the parks business.

Our state is five and one-half times larger than the State of New York in area, but New York has seven times as much state park land as Texas owns. Texas has an average of 6.3 acres of state park land per 1,000 population, which is 24.4 acres per 1,000 below the national average.

We feel that general obligation bonds are necessary to finance park expansion because money from the general revenue fund is not available. And we feel just as sure that projected revenues from admission fees will be sufficient to finance the program, thus relieving the taxpayer of this burden.—CD

And about the other five

Here, as space will permit, is how The Dispatch stands on the other five proposed amendments to be voted on in the Nov. 11 general election.

We are in favor of proposed amendment No. 1, which would permit counties to put all tax revenues into one general fund, instead of the existing four funds for roads, permanent improvements, jury expenses and general uses.

A single general fund would give county commissioners greater control over their budgets. They also would have more flexibility in meeting changing and unforeseen needs.

As it is now, money placed in each fund may be spent only for the purposes of that fund. This frequently results in one fund having a surplus, while another is insufficient.

A consolidated fund would allow counties to spend money as the need arises, not as the revenues come into the existing funds. Then, too, surpluses which would build up in one of the four existing funds may be used unwisely, if not contrary to intended purposes.

We favor issue No. 6 on the ballot, which would permit non-elective officers and employees of the state to serve in other non-elective positions in the state or United States government where there is no conflict of interest.

The amendment would make it possible for personnel of state colleges and universities to serve on national boards which have a strong influence on the allocation of federal educational grants.

The proposal would promote intergovernmental cooperation and put Texas on an equal footing with states which do not have the restriction.

The Dispatch is for proposition No. 4, which would authorize counties to pay medical, doctor and hospital bills of county law enforcement officers for injuries which happen in the line of duty and to continue paying the salaries of injured officers while they recuperate.

These officers are not covered by workmen's compensation, and the financial burden placed on officers and their families by injury in the line of duty is often heavy.

What our contemporaries are saying

When someone comments on the bitter criticism being leveled at President Johnson, we usually suggest that he consider the bitter criticism leveled at President Kennedy in October of 1963, at President Truman in October of 1947, at President Roosevelt in October of 1943, 1939 and 1935. Is it any more vicious in October of 1967? The conservatives haven't won a Presidential election since 1928. Perhaps a psychiatrist could explain what makes them act like they do.—H. M. Baggarly in The Tulsa Herald.

Our society has reached a marked phase of change when a middle-aged or older woman has put too much anatomy into a pair of slacks too small for her, and becomes an object of only limited interest.—Douglas Meador in Matador Tribune.

HALLOWEEN HAS come and gone and at the risk of being called an old fogey, I'm going to say that it's about time. Halloween seemed to start earlier and last longer this year than in any other year I can remember.

The two outhouse burnings last week—several days ahead of Halloween—weren't the only Oct. 31 shenanigans going on here. From my desk in the front office of The Dispatch, I had a ringside seat last Friday afternoon on one of the most exciting water balloon fights I've ever witnessed. It involved three carloads of high school boys and girls and took place in the middle of Main Street.

THE FACT THAT the wild driving they were doing jeopardized the lives and limbs of other motorists, as well as pedestrians, didn't seem to bother the youngsters in the least, nor did they seem to mind when one of their water balloons missed its mark and splattered somebody who wasn't even in on the fight—but only trying to get out of the way.

It seems, however, that the water balloon fight I saw Friday afternoon was only a minor skirmish compared to some that went on Friday and Saturday nights. When I told somebody about the one I saw, he said, "Oh, you should have seen the one uptown Saturday night. It was a beauty!" I'll take his word for it: my only objection is his description of a water balloon fight as a "beauty."

OH, WELL, this column is being written Monday, and since Halloween won't actually be here until Tuesday night, there's no object in my making such a fuss about water balloon fights. There isn't a bit of telling what else will happen before you see this copy of The Dispatch.

The man on the street says nothing is more irritating than not being invited to a party you wouldn't be caught dead at.

A POST WOMAN whose husband retired a few months ago told a friend that she now has twice as much husband on half as much income.

I thought of that in connection with something George Dolan wrote in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram the other day in which he said the market value of a retired husband is up above $100,000 now. Dolan figures it out by setting forth the services the retired man performs for his wife and their approximate monthly worth, as follows:

- Keeping burglars away, $25.
 - Doing home repair jobs, $12.50.
 - Serving as escort, $20.
 - Working as third-of-a-maid, $12.50.
 - Acting as chauffeur and car-fixer, $15.
 - Bill payer and tax fixer, $7.50.
 - Attracting invitations to mixed parties, $1.
 - Just being there, $15.
- That's $108.50 a month. Add that to the husband's $300 a month for pension and Social Security, multiply by 12 and you get an annual value of $4,902. That's more than a 4 1/2 per cent return on an investment of $100,000.

Penny Rains, night police radio dispatcher must have known Sunday night that I wouldn't have much to put in my column Monday morning. So, when she saw this in a magazine, she called and read it to me over the telephone:

ECONOMIST vs. STATISTICIAN
An economist is a man who begins by knowing very little about a great deal and gradually gets to know less and less about more and more until he finally gets to know nothing about practically everything, whereas a statistician, on the other hand, is a man who begins by knowing a great deal about a very little and gradually gets to know more and more about less and less until he finally gets to know everything about practically nothing.

AN OPEN LETTER CONCERNING OUR HOSPITAL

Good news for Post and Garza County! We have learned that the Board of Trustees of Garza County Hospital contemplate reopening the hospital on December 1, 1967. We commend them on this decision and endorse their efforts to make our hospital available to the community once again.

The successful operation of the hospital has become a symbol of the future of Post. Our citizens were concerned by the closing of the hospital. The possibility of its opening again gives us new hope for our town.

We need the hospital. We need it now. Many people in our community rely on our hospital as the only place they can go to receive medical treatment. Our doctors need the hospital to provide them with the equipment necessary for their practice. Most of all, we already have these things only waiting to be used. We need to make it possible — now.

We call upon the County Commissioners' Court to seek every means possible to give the hospital the encouragement and support it needs. We call upon the doctors to do all in their power to make our hospital an effective instrument for healing in our community. We call upon every citizen of our County to make the hospital their Number One concern as a symbol of the health of Post.

There is a promise of Good News for Post and Garza County. It is up to us all to make that promise a reality.

We, the undersigned ministers of Post, pledge our cooperation and support to that end.

'Atomic World' demonstration is scheduled here

"This Atomic World", a high school lecture-demonstration program sponsored by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, will be presented at 20 Texas high schools, including Post, during November.

The program, designed to foster increased awareness and understanding among secondary school students of scientific and technical information relating to atomic energy, consists of a 40-minute assembly presentation followed by classroom sessions with science students.

Units of the demonstration program, operated for the Commission by the Oak Ridge (Tenn.) Associated Universities, will appear in the District of Columbia and in 12 states, including Alaska, during the month. This year, Texas A&M University is assisting Oak Ridge Associated Universities with presentations in Texas.

The Arts and Craft Club of Post Junior High School met during the noon hour Oct. 24 in Mrs. Lobban's room. Mrs. Lobban will be our arts and crafts teacher.

We elected the following officers: Melba Mathis, president; Wanda Heintz, vice president; Debra Odom, secretary; Helen Ellenberger, reporter.

High School Editorial
AMERICA — IS IT WORTH IT?

On Saturday, Oct. 28, I was privileged to be on the campus of Lubbock Christian College to hear Mr. Paul Harvey, a notable radio broadcaster, speak on "Americanism."

The thought-provoking message caused me to think about the question of "Are we teen-agers really thankful to be American citizens?" If so, why? All of us are happy to live in America because we are the most richly blessed nation in the world—materially, economically, agriculturally, as well as resourcefully.

We may have riots and demonstrations that cost the defense department one million dollars and Matador's pet buffalo turned 'loose on town'.

Matador's pet buffalo turned 'loose on town'
MATADOR — Someone let Matador's buffalo "loose on the town" recently and the animal was free for several hours until roped by John Stotts and returned to its special enclosure in the City Park here.

The Matador Tribune is sponsoring a contest to find a name for the buffalo. Only youngsters under 12 years of age are eligible to enter the contest.

Boy Scout troop camps near Post

Members of Boy Scout Troop 316 went on a camping trip Saturday and Sunday, camping on a hill overlooking a spring on the C. E. Basinger ranch, north of Post.

Sunday, the scouts enjoyed arrowhead hunting, hikes and nature study. Saturday night, they practiced sending messages by flashlight, using Morse code. They also studied some astronomy, and cooked their evening meal over a troop campfire.

Some of the scouts passed their cooking requirements and made other advancements on their respective ranks.

Sunday, they broke camp after cleaning up the campsite. The scouts were accompanied by Scoutmaster Hoyt Thomas and Asst. Scoutmasters Tommy Young and Ronnie Morris.

The troop expresses its appreciation to Mr. Basinger for the use of his ranch for this outing.

After being dismissed from the hospital Mrs. McMinn spent some time in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. Lee Crouch, before being able to come home.

Post High School Happenings

By Natha Jo Mears
Last week the Juniors took tests for two days. They didn't like it much for it threw them behind in some of their classes.

Last week was also Twirp Week. It's a good thing that we don't have this too often for the boys might get to like girls paying for dates.

Last Friday Voda Beth Voss, Jane Strofer, La Gayluah Young and Linda Byrd attended the parade and homecoming activities at West Texas State University.

It seems as though Halloween got a little rough this year. Just ask Liz.

President of FFA is visitor here

Danny Burns of Pittsburg, state president of the Texas Future Farmers of America, visited the Post FFA chapter Monday and addressed the vocational agriculture students and their instructors, E. A. Howard Jr. and Taylor Knight.

Burns, who was elected state president at the 39th annual state FFA convention in Dallas, July 19-21, visits as many FFA chapters as possible during the school year.

Former Garza County youngsters collect big array swine awards

Two former Garza County youngsters who are now Lamb County 4-Hers have stacked up so many swine awards that counting them is a major task, says a story in the Oct. 29 issue of the County Wide News, published at Littlefield.

The youngsters are Jimmy Overman, 14, and his 11-year-old brother, Jackie, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Overman of Hart Camp.

The Overmans resided in the Pleasant Valley community of Garza County a few years ago, and many of Jimmy's and Jackie's swine awards were won while they were residents of this county.

The story in the Littlefield paper goes on to say: "And then there are the two little sisters, Janet, 8, and Joy, 5, who are counting every minute until they are old enough for 4-H."

Former Garza County youngsters collect big array swine awards

The youngsters' father, who is employed with Hart Camp Co-op Gin, says, "4-H just has to be a family project to make it really work. With us, our children's 4-H work is our hobby. We love it."

The newspaper article lists the numerous grand and reserve champion and first place prizes won by the Overman brothers.

Jimmy is president of the Olton 4-H Club, which has 70 members, and recently was elected treasurer of the County 4-H Council for next year.

LOUISIANA GUEST
Mrs. Frances Arceneaux from Rayne, La., visited her mother, Mrs. D. C. Williams, several days last week on her way to New Mexico and Colorado to visit friends.

Screwworm increase blamed on hurricane

AUSTIN — Hurricane Beulan may have stirred an outbreak of the dread screwworms in Texas cattle.

The Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation reports 151 cases in 24 counties from South to West Texas. These are the most cases of the year and actually occurred in cooler weather when the problem usually declines. The screwworm fly is windblown.

Foundation President Dolph Briscoe Jr. of Uvalde said hurricanes and floods posed an emergency situation in the screwworm eradication program. Foundation leaders are requesting the U. S. Department of Agriculture for additional funds to expand the screwworm eradication program, which faces the threat of a cutback due to recent federal spending cuts.

It's My Turn

— By MRS. C.

I'm not noted for passing out orchids or pats on the back in this column but this week I'd like to tip my "columnar" hat to Mrs. Maxine Cummings.

The reason I don't "tip my hat" more often is that I rarely see anyone doing such a bang-up job.

Maxine, bless her heart, does more for the youth of this town than anyone and gets little if any thanks for it.

How many of you are aware of the fact that Maxine Cummings watches out for your teen-agers at Teen-Town every time there is a dance there? Are you all aware that Maxine insists that these kids act like ladies and gentlemen? Are you aware that she has the time-consuming job of making all the band engagements, to see that from 75 to 188 kids have fun at Teen-Town instead of chasing around on the streets or "the white road"?

I'm sure Maxine puts up with a lot of "guff" from some parents who never help but are always there to complain if the least thing goes wrong, but I've never heard her complain unduly about this.

She likes kids and she likes to see them have some good wholesome fun. She is not unlike many others in town. They also like kids and they like to see them have some good wholesome fun. The differences arise because Maxine does something about it.

David and Ruth Ann Newby also deserve a pat on the back for the chores they perform for your children. They do miserable chores like keeping the Coke machine filled, seeing that the janitor cleans properly, doing the book work and renting the building out for a little revenue to pay for some of the repairs that have to be made occasionally. They have been doing this for years and years.

Next time you see any of the three take time to say thanks. An unexpected "thanks" can do wonders for one. Heaven only knows what we'd do without them.

While I'm on this big "thank you job" why don't you take time out next Sunday to tell your church organist and your church treasurer thank you.

We just get used to the fine job they do for us year in and year out and forget that they too might like to be "thanked" occasionally. I've noticed that about the only way a good church treasurer gets away from his job is to die!

Reading back over this I realize I should have saved it for my Thanksgiving column. It would have been right in keeping with the holiday.

I plan to do it in person but I'll start out right now by saying "Thank you, Maxine." "Thank you, Ruth Ann and David." "Thank you, Boo Olson." "Thank you, Giles McCrary."

Mark Twain's Story

OF THE

READING SPIDER

During Mark Twain's days as a newspaperman, he was editor of a small Missouri newspaper. One day he got a letter from a subscriber, stating that he had found a spider in his newspaper and asked if this was an omen of good luck or bad luck.

Twain wrote: "Finding a spider in your newspaper is neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

You will find no spider webs across the doors of the merchants who advertise in your local newspaper.

$21,915 damage suit filed here

V. R. Norman and his wife, Alice Deane, of Route 1 have filed a $21,915.81 damage suit in Garza District Court here against Guillermo M. Jimenez of Terrell, Tex., as a result of an automobile collision last July 20 six miles west of Post on US-380.

The petition alleges that Jimenez, driving a 1959 Cadillac, hit the rear of the Normans' car while both were proceeding west on the highway causing "whiplash" injuries to Mrs. Norman, damages to the vehicle, and less severe but loss of time injuries to Mr. Norman.

Southland news

Football queen honors go to Karen Melcher

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
Hi there! Say, how about this weather? It would be a good day to curl up in a warm corner and had time to read yet, or take a nice long nap! Sounds wonderful, doesn't it?

Southland lost its football game to Kiondike last Friday night, 14-0. Everyone was real disappointed, but we were all so thankful that none of the boys got hurt. The Kiondike boys were quite large and I think they played a pretty rough game. There were a lot of Exes at the game and it sure was good to see them. Karen Melcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Melcher, was crowned football Queen during the halftime.

Marine Sgt. Rodney J. Elam and his sister, Wyona Sue Elam, of Hollister, Calif., have been here visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Z. K. McKee.

Mrs. Margaret Espinosa Lopez, formerly of Southland, was involved in a two-car collision last week in Lubbock. She was treated and released at West Texas Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Bowden of Lovington, N. M., spent the weekend with their son-in-law and daughter, Coach and Mrs. Bob Dyess. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dyess of Spur attended homecoming activities.

Sunday company in our home were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Becker, Mr. and Mrs. James Riney and Cathy, Mrs. Libby Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Becker, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McMinn, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Donahoo, and Martha and Larry Wilke.

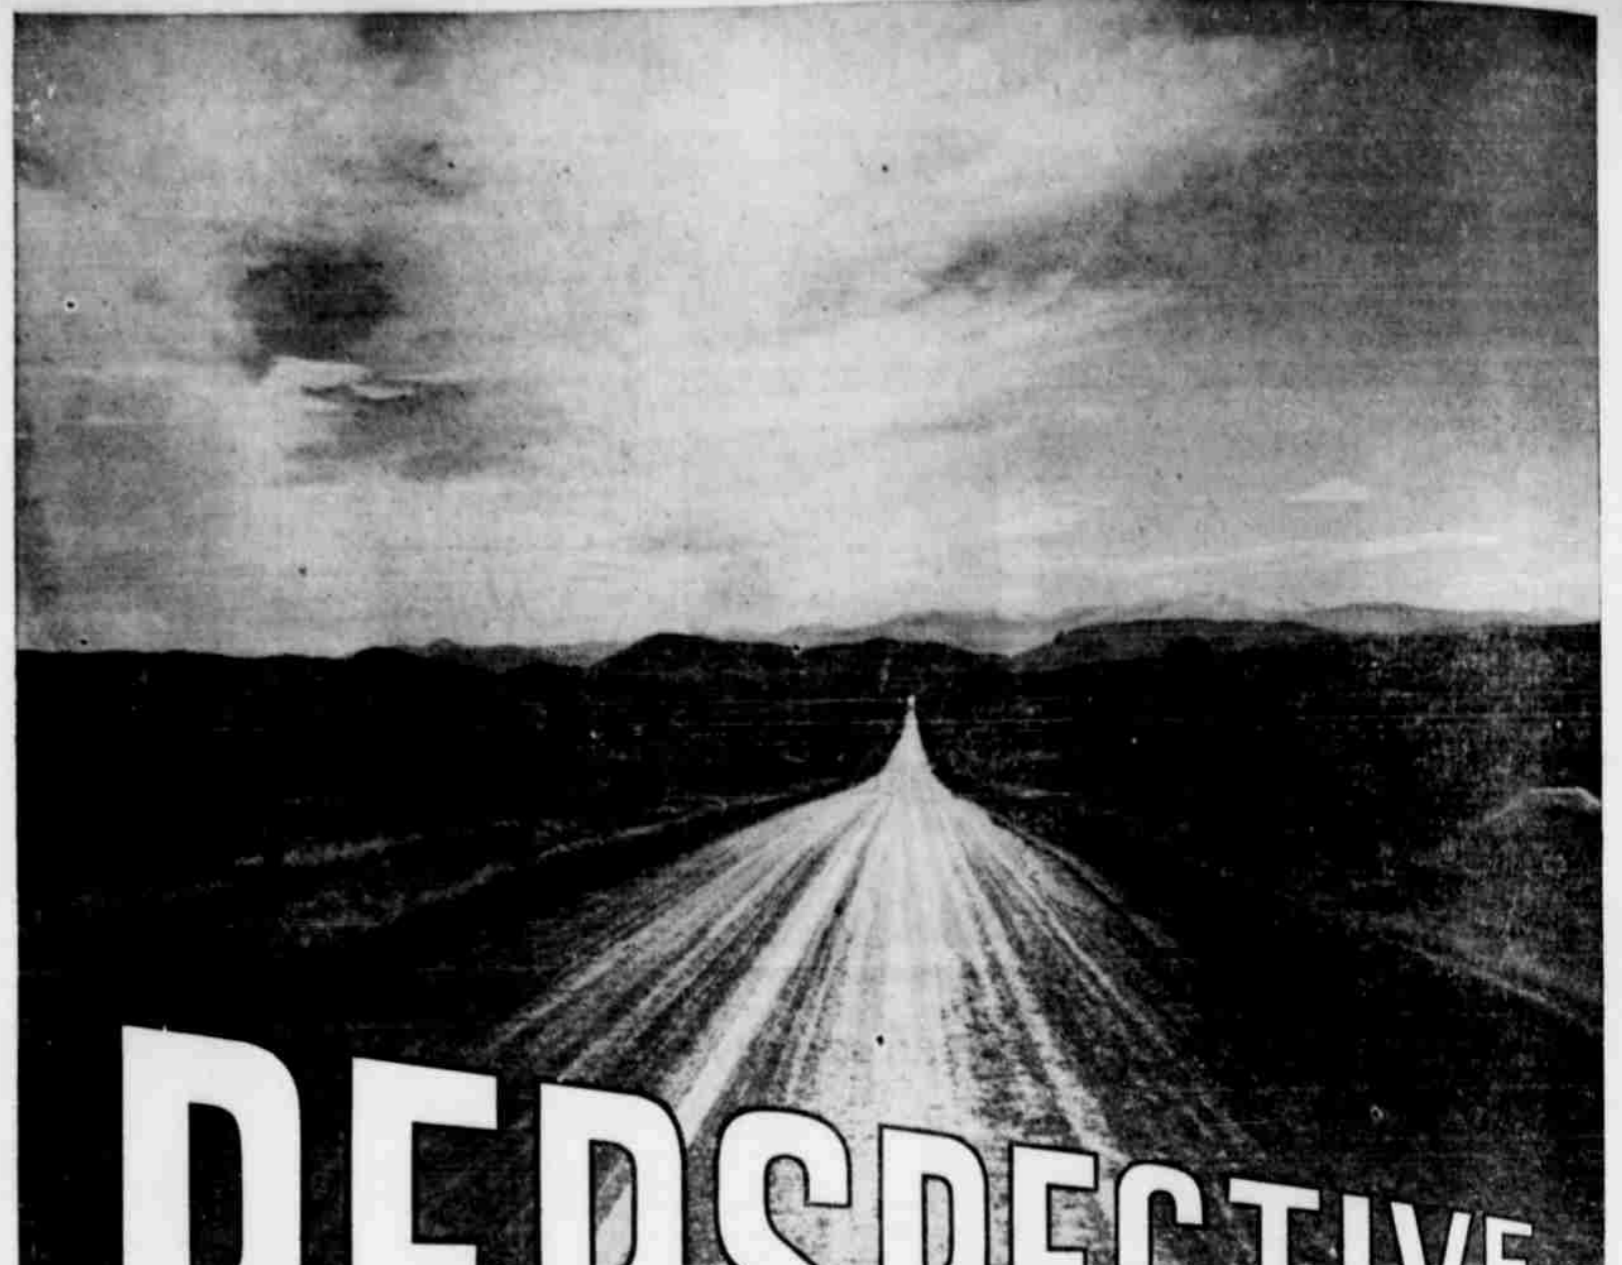

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Donahoo of Lubbock visited their grandmother, Mrs. Wes Donahoo, Sunday.

LARRY LONG visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long, Friday night and attended Southland homecoming. The Longs and Cathy took him to Lubbock early Saturday morning and Mrs. Long and Cathy attended the open house at Lubbock Christian College. The new Mabee building was dedicated Saturday and a free barbecue dinner was served to all the guests. Paul Harvey was guest speaker. Mrs. Long and Cathy spent Saturday night and Sunday with her father, J. H. Poindexter.

Achievement tests are being given in school this week. The Rev. and Mrs. Tommy Wilson and daughter of Hartley were here for homecoming and were overnight guests of the Billy Lesfers.

Mrs. Ingegard Bredemeyer from Sweetwater and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bredemeyer and sons of Rojan were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Stille. Mrs. Bredemeyer and Lawrence are Mrs. Stille's mother and brother. The Walter Stilles and Mrs. Rose Gindorf were Sunday dinner guests.

Mrs. Linda Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Camden, was a patient at Mercy Hospital for several days.

PERSPECTIVE

Parallel lines always converge at the same point on the horizon. If we stand in the center of a highway, and look straight ahead, we discover that the lanes seem to disappear at one central point. The artist must deal with this curious fact when he paints a canvas. We call it perspective. It is the way our eyes see the picture. If we stand at a different position, the scene changes, and the vanishing point is moved to a new place on the horizon. By changing our position we change our perspective.

This is true of life. How we look at our afflictions and our troubles is very largely determined by our inner attitude. In a very real way our ideas about God will determine our perspective.

The Church can help you to place all areas of life in balance. Many people today are confused and disturbed because they see things in the wrong perspective. Visit your church this Sunday and see if the world doesn't look better next week!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

DENVER CITY MUSTANGS

Friday Night

November 3

At

Denver City

The Denver City Mustangs are a wild pony herd again and high in the state Class AA rankings as they come down the stretch with the door wide open to the District 4AA throne room.

But over the years the Post Antelopes have given the Mustangs more trouble than any other district club with a tough defense, top conditioning, and the determination to play it all the way.

Coach Glynn Gregg's Post squad has had an open weekend to rest up and make special preparations for this one. The Ponies, of course, will be favored. But Gregg figures to have all his grid wounded back in the trenches and fired for an allout effort.

State convention of Farmers Union said biggest ever

LUBBOCK — Farm bargaining, cotton market research, federal budget cutters, and corporation farming were high on the list of issues tackled the last three days by the Texas Farmers Union, which Saturday wound up its biggest state convention in many years.

Public figures appearing on the program included Sen. Ralph Yarborough; Commissioner John C. White of the Texas Department of Agriculture; Tony T. Dechant, national president of the Farmers Union; Charles F. Brannan, former Secretary of Agriculture and Russell Giffen of Huron, Calif., president of the Cotton Producers Institute.

Jay I. Naman of Waco, re-elected to a seventh term as the Texas organization's president, warned the convention that farm programs are highly vulnerable to a "fanatic economy binge" in Congress that already has sharply cut some programs.

Among those representing the Garza County Farmers Union at the convention were delegates Arnold Sanderson, Bob Tidwell, Wayne Carpenter, Cecil Stolle and C. R. Lancaster.

Former resident dies in Lubbock

Mrs. Cora Yonge, a former Post resident, died yesterday morning at her home on Lubbock. She was 74.

Mrs. Yonge was the widow of Arthur Yonge Jr., who died a year ago Tuesday.

The Yonges lived in Post from 1915 until 1926, where he was manager of the telephone company. They moved to Memphis, Tex., in 1926 and to Lubbock in 1932.

Funeral services for Mrs. Yonge will be held at 2 p. m. today at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Lubbock, with the Rev. W. B. Easter officiating.

Graveside rites will be held at 3:30 p. m. at Terrace Cemetery here, where she will be buried beside her husband. Rix Funeral Home of Lubbock will be in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Yonge is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Edwin L. Neill of Lubbock; a brother, John W. Sturdivant of Tulsa, Okla.; two sisters, Miss Ella Mae Sturdivant of Austin and Mrs. Mosby Pharr of Corpus Christi; two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Post Rotarians at their weekly luncheon next Tuesday will hear a talk on pharmaceutical research.

City council room is being remodeled

The city council room in City Hall is now receiving its long awaited remodeling.

The improvement has been budgeted for the last two years, but was put off a year to permit the city to finance the remodeling of the present Post Public Library quarters.

Lefty Davies is doing the work, which includes paneling of the meeting room.

Ministers back reopening hospital

Thirteen local church pastors today are calling for full community cooperation in the reopening of Garza Memorial Hospital.

Their declaration, entitled, "An Open Letter Concerning Our Hospital", which appears on page 3, calls upon the commissioners' court, the doctors, and every person in the community to support hospital trustees in the reopening of the hospital.

"We need our hospital. We need it now," the open letter reads.

The awards were announced Friday at the statewide annual meeting, where the Garza County committee was represented by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Runkles. Mr. Runkles is secretary of the Garza County committee.

Mrs. Surman was cited as an outstanding county committee chairman for her leadership in carrying out activities of the state and local RAMPS program to Record, Appreciate, Mark, Preserve and Survey Texas history.

About 350 persons from over the state attended the meeting, which was held at the Moody Convention Center.

Principal speaker was Ernest Allen Connally, chief of the Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation of the National Park Service, U. S. Department of the Interior. Connally spoke on the National Historic Properties Act and how it will affect Texas.

Additionally, speakers of statewide note in various fields of historical endeavor covered "The State Travel Trails," "A Comprehensive Museum Program" and "Progress Report on the Institute of Texas Cultures."

A representative from the Parks and Wildlife Department spoke on that department's plans for the restoration of six Texas forts as well as the $75 million land and historic sites acquisition program.

A scenic and historical tour of Galveston and the surrounding area was part of the meeting activities.

Halloween—

One youth was hit in the side of the face by a balloon apparently filled with rocks instead of water. Others were filled with shaving cream.

One local store reported approximately $1,000 in balloon sales to youngsters in the last few weeks.

There was no sooting of downtown windows Tuesday night, as is customary on Halloween night although many merchants had prepared for this contingency by buying "spook insurance" from the high school junior class.

Class members sold the "spook insurance" which guaranteed a clean-up of any damage for $1.50 per policy in a novel fund raising project to help finance the junior-senior prom and banquet next spring.

Travel Information Centers operated by the Texas Highway Department at seven key highway gateways and in the rotunda of the State Capitol in Austin, served as hosts to three - quarters of a million travelers during 1966.

Amendments—

(Continued From Front Page) ported entities located within hospital districts to participate in the establishment and operation of mental health, mental retardation, and public health services.

3. Extending the veterans' land program by authorizing the sale of $200 million of state bonds to purchase lands to be sold to veterans and expanding the program to include also veterans of service during the armed conflict in Vietnam.

4. Authorizing counties to pay medical, doctor, and hospital bills of county law enforcement officers for injuries incurred in line of duty and to continue paying salaries of injured officials during period of incapacitation.

5. Authorizing the Parks and Wildlife Department to issue and sell general obligation bonds in the amount of $75 million to finance acquisition and development of lands for state parks and recreational areas.

6. Permitting non - elective state officers and employees to serve in other non - elective positions under the state or United States government where there is no conflict of interest and where the state will benefit.

The two bond proposals probably will carry the most interest. The veterans' land program extension will be making its third trek since 1963 to the voters. It was defeated the two previous times.

Rates go down on telephone calls

Good news for Garza countians this week is that they will share in a $120 million annual savings for telephone users in the nation.

The seventh long distance rate reduction in five and one - half years went into effect Wednesday.

The new rates apply to station-to-station interstate long distance calls (between states).

Under the new after - midnight economy rate schedule, customers will be able to call the furthest point in the United States — excluding Hawaii and Alaska — for 75 cents, not including overtime charges and taxes.

Savings also will be realized by customers because the lower priced rate periods have been extended to include more hours. Station-to-station calls will have day rates Monday through Friday from 7 a. m. until 5 p. m. However, calling periods will not be changed for intrastate messages (within the state).

Hippocrates prescribed walks to prevent emotional disturbances, hallucinations and expansion of the waistline.

United Fund—

Contributions were accepted by the fund as called in by station listeners, Dickson said.

Cash urged all division men, who have not reported, get their contributions in as quickly as possible either to himself or the First National Bank.

Final wrap up of the drive probably will require most of the next two weeks.

Cash also issued an appeal any who have been missed drive workers to leave their contributions at the bank or bring them to the bank.

He urged full community cooperation in efforts to reach the goal.

Underdog Antelopes journey to Denver City Friday

Game one of Mustangs' homecoming highlights

The Post Antelopes will be trying for the upset of the year when they engage the Denver City Mustangs, also known as the "Big Red," at 7:30 p. m. Friday on the Mustangs' home ground. The Antelopes knocked off the Mustangs, 14-0, here last season to win their first district championship. But the chances of the Antelopes doing it again this year are somewhat less than remote. Each Don Orr's Mustang eleven rolled to a 7-1 record last season. The Mustangs whipped Slaton, Morton, 42-2; Stanton, 54-0; Midland Carver, 69-0. Coach Glynn Gregg, who saw his City humble Midland Carver Friday night, said this is the Mustang defensive unit is best any Denver City team has seen play. The Mustangs nearly matches it. They have a set of four fast and sneaky backs, and right behind them the four starters are four backs almost equally as fast. The Mustangs' 175-pound fullback John Powell, scored touchdowns, all of them on plays, in the 69-0 rout of Midland Carver. Quarterback, the Big Red Robert Kizer, 166-pound senior, and at halfbacks the Hatfield

4AA district grid slate set for '68

Jr. High teams play at Tahoka

The 7th grade game will start at 5 o'clock this afternoon instead of the usual starting time of 5:30 with the 8th grade game to follow. In games here three weeks ago, the Post 7th grade team defeated Tahoka, 16-0, while the 8th grade team lost, 22-18. Professional cowboys in 'Frisco for major event

DENVER, Colo. — The nation's top professional cowboys are congregated in San Francisco, Calif., this week making their last bids of the year for eligibility in the National Finals Rodeo. Only the top 15 cowboys in each of six events — based on money won during the season — are eligible to compete in the Finals, which will be held Dec. 1-9 at Oklahoma City, Okla. San Francisco's 14-performance Grand National Rodeo, which ends Nov. 5, offers an estimated $50,000 in prize money. In the Cow Palace arena are title contenders, reigning champions and Finals hopefuls. Gene Pruett, secretary-treasurer of the Rodeo Cowboys Association here, said 1967 may set an all-time record for money won in the rodeo.

Whites outscored the Reds, 36-22. Operating in the White backfield were Ray Altman, Pollard, Torres and sophomore David Pierce at wingback. The backfield for the Red team was Jay Bird, Dennis Altman, Ronnie Petty and James McGuire. Tanner, a 205-pound tackle, went into the Reds' backfield after Dennis Altman was injured, and carried the ball nine times for 133 yards. Coach Gregg said Morales, Miller, Hudman and Boyd Noble were outstanding on defense for the Whites, with Tanner, Kenneth Mitchell, Cooper and Jimmy Johnston turning in outstanding defensive jobs for the Reds. The Post squad and its coaches are scheduled to leave for Denver City at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Bilberry scores twice in frosh win over Slaton

Coach Bill Smith's Post freshman football team downed the Slaton freshmen, 14-10, here last Thursday night, with Larry Bilberry scoring both Post touchdowns. The first counter came in the opening quarter with Bilberry going over on a dive play. The extra points try failed to give Post a 6-0 lead. Bilberry scored again in the second period on a sweep, and Johnny McGuire ran over the extra points to boost the Post margin to 14-0. Slaton scored a touchdown in the second half on a long pass play and added the extra points to pull up to 14-8, then notched a safety in the final quarter when a high snapback from center went across the Post goal line. Coach Smith said all his running backs — Bilberry, McGuire, Robert Pace and Robert Bullock — played outstanding games, with David Perez, David Stelzer, Bobby Hodges, James Walker, Arthur Torres and Ralph Menchaca all showing up good on defense.

Justiceburg Halloween carnival a big success

By FRAN McWHIRT
Will start off this news with a brrr as it is cold. According to our thermometer it is 40 degrees but I believe it is colder than that. Could be because the wind is blowing a gale.

Well, another Justiceburg Halloween Carnival has come and gone with all indications that everyone had a good time. The proceeds were great! I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the ladies for working so hard and to everyone who donated food, gifts, time and energy to make the carnival a success. Thanks to Bud Schiehuber and Sam Bevers for calling Bingo. People attended from Post, Snyder, Fluvanna and Arlington. Again thanks to everyone. Oops, I nearly forgot to say thanks to the school children and teachers for all the hard work they did.

Miss Vera Perriman of Snyder called on her sister, Pearl Nance, Saturday.

Mrs. Bud McLaurin and Mrs. Fernie Reed and Ronnie were in Snyder Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Key and children of Abilene recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Key. They are planning to move to Farmington, N. M.

Cecil Smith and Dee Cecil Justice visited Mrs. Ella Murphy on Sunday.

Mrs. Sam Bevers was in Lubbock Wednesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Gladys Morgan, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Russell.

Riley, Claude and Ralph Miller returned last Friday from South Dakota. On the way home they stopped in Trinchera, Colo., and visited Mr. and Mrs. Excie Smith and Mr. and Mrs. GERALD Smith.

Recent visitor in the E. C. Franklins was his sister, Mrs. Maude Lynn of Hemet, Calif.

Mrs. Pearl Nance buzzed up to our house Sunday afternoon for a visit and to tell us there would be no church service that night due to the death of the grandfather of our pastor's wife. Other visitors were Mrs. Tommy Forrest and Nona.

Mrs. Lee Reed was in Lubbock Sunday to see Mrs. Allan McCowen, who is a patient in Highland Hospital. The McCowens are former residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackey Fluit of Arlington were weekend guests of the Douglas McWhirts, Saturday. Jackey and the McWhirt boys visited the Carl Fluitts.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bevers and children went to Midland Sunday to visit the J. K. Joneses.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Franklin visited her brother, A. A. Nipper, in Lubbock Sunday afternoon.

It was good to have Mr. and Mrs. Andy Thomas of Lubbock attend church services here Sunday. They were dinner and afternoon guests of the Douglas McWhirts.

Record said due in retail sales

AUSTIN — While downtown Christmas decorations are being strung in some places, Texas retailers already are looking forward to record sales in most lines during the next two months.

The Texas Bureau of Business Research reports that the 11 percent August to September decline in durable sales and five percent in non-durable sales shook retailers' confidence "more than was warranted."

More encouraging signs point to "surprisingly strong" apparel store sales this fall, and "substantial increases" are seen in furniture and appliance store sales.

COURT NEWS

COUNTRY COURT

A county court jury returned a directed verdict of not guilty Tuesday afternoon in the trial of Pete John Nachlinger, who was charged Aug. 25 with transporting alcoholic beverage in a dry area.

Oliver McDougale was charged Oct. 29 with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He entered a not guilty plea and bond was set at $500.

Ramona Lupe De La Cruz pleaded guilty Oct. 19 to a charge of unlawfully destroying personal property. She was fined $100 and costs and ordered to pay for damages of $48.75.

WHAT PRICE POWER?

IT COST $185,000,000 TO BUILD THE GRAND COULEE DAM, EQUIPPED TO IRRIGATE MORE THAN ONE MILLION ACRES. THE DAM IS THE WORLD'S LARGEST SOURCE OF HYDROELECTRIC POWER.

THE AVERAGE WOODEN UTILITY POLE WHICH SUPPORTS THE ELECTRICAL STRUCTURE VITAL TO MODERN LIFE COSTS ABOUT $40 AND LASTS FOR OVER 35 YEARS. IT HELPS KEEP YOUR ELECTRIC RATES LOW.

PROPOSALS TO REPLACE THE OVERHEAD POWER STRUCTURES WITH AN UNDERGROUND SYSTEM WOULD COST AN ESTIMATED $207,000,000 OR ENOUGH MONEY TO BUILD 1,568 GRAND COULEE DAMS!

RANCHER MUST KEEP EYE ON ECONOMICS

An agricultural economist said in Lubbock that the present - day successful rancher must be first of all a business man with a sharp eye open at all times for opportunities to reduce costs and increase his revenues, or both.

"This may involve changing his basic ranching program, altering the seasonality of his purchases or sales and shifting the risk of price changes through hedging, improved financial management and close attention to all economic developments affecting his business," said Dr. Willard F. Williams, head of the Texas Tech Department of Agricultural Economics, during a Ranch Management Conference at the Tech Student Union.

About 175 ranchers, businessmen and others attended the day - long conference which had as its theme, "The Ranching Industry - Past, Present, and Future."

Discussing the long - term outlook of the ranching industry, Williams said that "disregarding costs and considering only market prices of cows, calves, stockers and feeders, for the next 4-5 year period we can see justification for a good deal of optimism." Depending partially on government policies regarding imports, slaughter cow and feeder cattle prices should be relatively high during 1968 - 72, he added.

In his short - term observations, Williams said that he expects the feed cattle sector to go through the wringer again this spring and summer. Sharply lower prices for all classes of cattle may be in the picture for as early as January or February.

The economist pointed out that he expects cow and feeder cattle prices to remain generally satisfactory during the remainder of the year, with some seasonal price reductions in November. "The Outlook for the first half of next year, however, definitely is not good," Williams asserted.

In discussing the future of the cattle industry, Don King, secretary and general manager of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, said that the cattleman of the future must be more versatile and ready to accept change.

King further pointed out that land use will become more intensified and diversified. The number of beef cattle will increase from more than 49 million head this year to more than 56 million by 1980, an increase of 14 per cent.

Christmas mailing dates and rules are announced by postmaster here

Regulations and deadline dates for mailing Christmas cards and packages overseas and to distant states have been announced by Postmaster A. J. McAlister.

McAlister pointed out a stipulation of special importance regarding addresses for overseas military mail. The instructions read: "The five-digit APO or FPO number is an essential part of these addresses. Mail showing all the other elements of the address, that is, the name, rank or rating, service number and organization, without the five-digit military post office number is incompletely addressed. The five-digit number is required to route the mail to its destination and effect its delivery."

The postmaster also said to assure delivery of packages to all places, a list should be made of items the parcel contains and showing the addresses of both the person to receive the package and the sender. This list should be placed inside the parcel for use in case the outside address or wrappings should be lost.

Recommended mailing dates are as follows: Airmail to Armed Forces overseas, Dec. 1-10; other than airmail, Oct. 21-Nov. 10. Parcels to distant states before Dec. 10. Usage of Zip Code is urged.

New gas rates in effect soon

AMARILLO — Gas used for domestic and commercial purposes after Nov. 15, 1967, will be billed at a new rate by Pioneer Gas Company. In June, the company applied for an 11.5 per cent increase in rates in the West Texas service area, and by late September all of the cities and towns had approved the new rate.

Since it began serving the area in 1923, Pioneer has applied the same rate in the West Texas service area, and this new rate will become effective in all cities and towns simultaneously.

Pioneer Natural Gas Company will commence paying additional taxes to the cities and towns at the same time. The new tax will be 3 per cent of the gross receipts, rather than the 2 per cent which had been paid previously. This tax is in addition to local ad valorem taxes, and sales taxes and the gross receipts tax paid the State.

Lunchroom Menus

Meals served in the Post school cafeteria Monday through Friday of next week will be as follows: Monday: Ranchburger on buttered bun, new buttered potatoes, English peas, bun, raisin cobbler, milk.

Tuesday: Pinto beans with salt pork and chili seasoning, onion rings, pepper rings, chilled tomatoes, orange juice, cornbread muffins, fruit jello, milk, butter.
