World Day of Prayer, which will be held at the First Christian Church, Friday, March 1, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, has been prepared by the women of the Asia Church Women's Conference.

Herring-Fontaine engagement is announced here

Clint P. Herring and Mrs. Ernest H. Fontaine Sr. were members of the party.

Herring is a graduate of Baylor College, Lewisburg, W. Va., and is attending McMurry College, Abilene, where she is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi sorority. Mr. Fontaine is a senior marketing major at McMurry.

atnam of Ceylon to do this on their behalf. Mrs. Selvaratnam is the chairman of the conference and has attended church women's gatherings in Africa, other parts of Asia and in the United States. For this order of worship she has drawn on resources common to the Christian church in many parts of the world but particularly those from Asia. Mrs. Selvaratnam's service also reflects her experience of worship as an Anglican.

"Bear One Another's Burdens" is the theme for the service.

Participating in the program will be Mmes. Jack Burreas, L. Harry Hopkins, Bill Crane, Willard Kirkpatrick, Mason Justice and James Minor.

Special music will be provided by Mrs. Winnie Tuffing, Mrs. Jack Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Harley Turbyfill.

The Christian Women's Fellowship cordially invites the public to attend the annual union event.

THE EASTER PARADE, CHILD-STYLE. ONE OF THE PRETTIEST LOOKS ON A 1830'S EASTER MORN WAS THE BASQUE BOUCIE DRESS, FASHIONED WITH PUFFY VIRAGO SLEEVES.

THE YOUNG MISS OF THE 1860'S WHO WANTED TO BE PRACTICAL AS WELL AS PRETTY WORE THE DRESS AND MATCHING PALEOT, AN OVER GARMENT THAT WAS USUALLY HALF TO THREE-QUARTER LENGTH.

A FEW YEARS LATER IN THE 1870'S IF AN EASTER PARADER WASN'T ATTIRED AS A MINATURE FISHWIFE IT WAS A "CATASTROPHE". WHILE MOST MOTHERS CONSIDERED IT "PASSABLY PRETTY" TO THEIR DAUGHTERS THE FISHWIFE LOOK WAS THE MOST WONDERFUL THING THAT EVER HAPPENED TO FASHION.

It's My Turn

Neither ice or snow nor sleet or rain keep the Cs at home. It's getting so I almost think we are responsible for the weather as every time we put our noses over the county line something weather-wise happens. If you want a bit of moisture later in the spring, hire us. We have car and will travel.

We spent a delightful weekend in Houston with our son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. K., who drove up from Leesville, La., to visit us and pick up Mrs. K.'s wardrobe of summer clothes which were still hanging in her closet. Every parent of newlyweds knows what I'm talking about when I speak of things left behind by son or daughter.

We have things in Mrs. K.'s room that are left over from college; we have wedding presents stacked in boxes and we have clothes which we have no idea what to do with. If I throw anything away I'm in dutch and if I keep them I'll still be in dutch the next time Mrs. K. comes home.

Mrs. K. has become a working wife while her husband is working for Uncle Sam. She is teaching in the Louisiana State School for Retarded Boys at Leesville, and finds it very interesting work. They live in a trailer in Leesville, which Mrs. K. refers to affectionately as the "Mold Garden." It also rains in Leesville, but things mildew and mold there. UGH.

The funniest sign we saw between here and Houston is the sign one sees as one approaches Roscoe. A large sign invited the traveler to take the "loop" through Roscoe which calls itself the friendly city or something like that. There is no other possible way to get through Roscoe without taking the "loop." Perhaps they are being farsighted and waiting for the day that the highway bypasses them. They will certainly be ready.

Another sign seen in a cafe in Gatesville. "We love everybody who comes through these doors—Some for coming and some for leaving."

The state highway department is finally coming to realize that people can get lost on freeways due to the lack of comprehensive highway signs. They are finally putting a few names of towns on the U. S. Highway signs so one really knows where one is going. This world isn't exactly ready to have everything numerical.

Any ornithologists in town? I need to have a bird identified. As we left town last Wednesday on the snow-covered highways we noticed flocks of birds every few yards on the highway. They were a medium-sized bird with brown feathers speckled with white and had beautiful orange breasts. I had never seen any thing like them before and figured they must have come with the snow. If anybody knows what they are, give me a call.

THANKS EDITORS

To the Editors and Publishers of Texas Newspapers:
I want to thank you individually and collectively for your fine cooperation in our voter registration drive. Undoubtedly the newspaper publicity given to registration requirements and procedures was a major factor in bringing about the tremendous increase in registrations this year.

Our office has received many comments from county tax assessor-collectors praising the newspapers for the assistance they rendered and especially for their publication of the application form, which benefited both the voters and the assessor-collectors. Your contribution to the registration drive has been appreciated not only by myself but by assessor-collectors and voters as well.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN L. HILL
Secretary of State

Precious Gift

She's a lucky little girl. Though she's only five years old, she knows how to pray. It is perfectly natural for her to kneel by her mother's side at bedtime and "talk to God."

She has a head start over children who have never experienced this kind of communion. For there are many youngsters throughout our land who have never learned to pray, simply because no one has ever taught them. For that matter, she's ahead of a good many grown-ups, too!

No one, of course, is ever too old to learn how to pray. But those who learn young are fortunate, for constant prayer builds a faith that will sustain them all their lives. Give your child the gift of prayer by taking him to church, by enrolling him in church school, and by listening to his prayers at home, each and every night.

Vietnam View

as reported by Marine Corps Combat Correspondents and edited by GySgt. Bob Montgomery

Living and working with Korean Marines is a "number one" experience, according to Cpl. Gary L. Bennett, 21, of Jeffersonville, Ind. He is assigned to the 1st ANGLICO (Air-Naval Gunfire Liaison Company) detachment that serves with the 3rd Battalion, 2nd Republic of Korea Marine Brigade. Bennett is one of a handful of U. S. Marines at the new 3rd Bn. command post south of Da Nang.

"We are attached to each ROK company," Bennett said. "Our job is to stick with them at all times so bring in air support when they need it."

The ANGLICO Leatherneck explained that he and his teammates operate radios to contact U. S. Marine aircraft when medical evacuation helicopters or fixed-wing air strikes are needed. Except for these liaison activities, they operate just as the ROK Marines do.

"We eat their food, follow their daily schedule and join all their patrols and operations," Bennett states. "It's a great opportunity to learn about their customs and language."

Bennett feels that language is the biggest problem faced by the ANGLICO team in performance of their mission.

"Actually, that's why we're assigned to work with the ROKs," he explained. "Our ANGLICO team can be understood on the radio when the Koreans need air support."

"We weren't trained in Korean language," he continued, "but you can pick up a lot just living with them 24 hours a day."

"Several of the Korean Marine officers speak English well enough to be generally understood," Bennett added.

Bennett works with the battalion's 11th Company which recently participated in a combined operation with the Fifth Marine Regiment, 1st Marine Division.

"It's a satisfying job, and I've enjoyed it," he said. "I've learned a lot about people with a different way of life. The Koreans are great troops to work with."

A Vietnamese motorcycle driver and a U. S. Marine teamed up to get reinforcements when a squad's radio went dead during a VC attack.

After an enemy mortar round landed nearby and a sniper started firing past their heads, Lance Cpl. Jimmy Davis, 19, Chicago, calmly stepped out on the road and thumbed a ride. "A Vietnamese drove up on a motorcycle," Davis said. "I used sign language and a bit of French to tell him that I needed a ride to the battalion about a mile away."

"I got on the rear seat and we hauled off," said Davis. "That guy could drive! You should have seen the stares we got when we pulled into the battalion area."

Davis ran to Company B at the 1st Bn. Fifth Marine Regiment command post to tell of the attack.

Marines were loaded on a truck with a spare radio and headed for the squad's position.

"When we got back to the section of the road where our squad was providing security, the guys were all right," Davis said.

"We didn't have any more trouble with the VC for the rest of the day," he concluded. "I never thought I'd have to hitch a ride with a Vietnamese to get replacements."

Cpl. Harry D. Johnson, a military policeman with the First Marine Regiment, has initiated a one-man program to help end the problem of booby traps around the Quang Tri combat base.

Johnson, of East Jacksonville, Fla., has initiated a swap program with local Vietnamese boys. He trades unwanted C-rations for lost or stolen explosives and ammunition.

"At first I wasn't having very much success," admitted Johnson, "but after one of the boys from the village brought me a fragmentation grenade and I rewarded him with two boxes of chow, the word spread quickly."

"A clip of M-16 rifle ammunition can be worth a can of chow, but a grenade will get the lucky boy as much as two full boxes of rations," he added.

Johnson gets as many as three grenades a day, plus 200 rounds of rifle ammo.

"When you stop to think about it," he said, "the price of a C-ration meal is a very cheap way of maybe saving a Marine's life."

Since Johnson's swap program caught on there have been no mining incidents recorded in the area.

The National Gallery of Art was established by Congress on March 24, 1937, and opened in March, 1941.

Measles may be thing of past in Texas within next five months, authorities say

AUSTIN — Within the next five months measles may be a thing of the past in Texas.

Authorities of two key health agencies have gone on state-wide television and radio to urge parents to have their children vaccinated against the dangerous disease which can cripple and even kill.

Dr. J. E. Peavy, State Commissioner of Health, and Dr. Sam Nixon Jr., chairman of the Texas Medical Association's Committee on Public Health, are telling Texans via TV spots that an effective vaccine is available to all children who have reached their first birthday.

June had been set earlier by Gov. John Connally as the target date for measles eradication in the state.

In one of two statements made by the Health Commissioner — which will be viewed and aired on Texas stations from now through June — Dr. Peavy points out that the goal can be achieved only if parents cooperate with their private physicians, local health department and the State Health Department.

He says further that local medical societies, health departments and civic groups must continue to get involved "if this measles eradication effort is to succeed."

Dr. Nixon says in his spot, "The Texas Medical Association urges parents to work with their personal physicians, local health departments and the State Health Department to protect their children against measles by having them vaccinated when they're a year old."

Thus far, 17 of the state's 254 counties have held measles immunization campaigns between July 9, 1967, and Nov. 12, 1967.

Sponsored by Student Council

Initiation Day to be on Thursday, Feb. 29

The Post High School Student Council is sponsoring an official initiation day Thursday, Feb. 29, from 8 a. m. until 3:30 p. m., the purpose of which is to end the "obnoxious hazing" that has taken place.

The freshmen are asked to wear old clothes. The girls are asked to have their hair half-rattled and to wear dresses between the knee and ankle. The boys are asked to part their hair down the middle, using "greasy kid stuff," and to wear lipstick. The "fish" are also asked to make their own original sign, stating, "I Love Seniors."

Those who can be asked to be at school a little early so they can be checked and painted by the seniors (tempera paint will be used instead of lipstick so that clothes will not be ruined).

Throughout the day, freshmen will be asked by the seniors to carry their books to class. However, the seniors cannot make the "fish" late to classes. If one freshman has already taken a senior's book to class, he will not be asked again. This will enable the freshmen to get to class on time.

Air raids will be held at various times throughout the day. They will occur during the breaks and perhaps before school and during the lunch hour.

There will be an assembly at the close of the day in which freshmen will be asked to participate in a peanut race, three-legged race and an egg race. Also, during the assembly, there will be a group of boys try out for cheerleaders, with the sophomore and junior classes being the audience and the Senior class panel the judges. The freshmen girls are asked to bring slacks to school to wear during the assembly.

Warning! The freshmen are not to be brought to school or taken home by any senior. There will be NO lies given throughout the day, especially during the noon hour. Initiation stops as soon as school is out.

The senior members of the Student Council will be responsible during the day.

It is the wish of the Student Council that all members participate. Also, as an added attraction, there will be prizes for the ugliest-dressed boy and girl during the assembly.

LEAVES FOR FORT DIX

STRICTLY SOUTHERN
THE EXPRESSION "FAIR-TO-MIDDLIN'" ORIGINATED IN THE OLD SOUTH WITH THE EARLY GRADING OF COTTON. COTTON WAS GRADED FROM THE "FAIR" QUALITY, TO THE BETTER "MIDDLING" VARIETY.

BEFORE THE CIVIL WAR, SOUTHERN BELLES WERE SUPPOSED TO ACCEPT HOSPITALITY ONLY UP TO A CERTAIN POINT! THEY POLITELY ACCEPTED BARBECUE OR DINNER INVITATIONS, BUT ATE A MEAL BEFORE THE EVENT, SO THEY'D SEEM TO BE DAINY EATERS!

TODAY, SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY IS THE ONLY WAY A NORTHERNER CAN GET A TASTE OF 'REBEL VELL' BOURBON WHISKEY! THE DISTILLERS REFUSE TO SELL THEIR BRAND ABOVE THE MASON-DIXON LINE, PREFERRING TO CATER EXCLUSIVELY TO SOUTHERN TASTES!

Valentine party held at Justiceburg school

By FRAN McWHIRT

Slush, slush, slush. This is the wettest winter I can ever remember. And everyone is getting tired of it — including your news correspondent. I wish to thank the Riley Millers and Rafael Rios for bringing their children out to the highway all last week, so I wouldn't have to drive over the country roads in the school bus. They are one big gloomy mess. I guess we really are thankful for all the moisture and will remember this summer when it will be hot and dry and wish for some of this wonderful moisture.

Mrs. Douglas McWhirt and son, Mark, of Hurst and Bobo McWhirt of Arlington arrived Thursday night and returned to their homes Monday. Elaine and Mark stayed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Pate, Bobo was a guest of James McBride Saturday night.

Due to the weather and no school last Wednesday, we had our Valentine party Friday at the school. Refreshments of coffee, punch and cookies were served following the Valentine exchange. Glenns Bevers, Jenny Miller, Liddie Bell Mize, Linda Rivera, Flora Rivera and Cindy Mason alternated with the serving. They were so cute! Those attending were: Mmes. Raymond Rivera and children, Willie Moreno and children, Bill Mize, Abel, Winnie Tuffing, Pearl Nance, Cecil Smith, Cameron Justice, Billy Blacklock, Sam Bevers Jr., Douglas McWhirt, John Boren and son, Riley Miller, Lee Reed, Isaac Morales and Susy, Skipper McWhirt and son, Tommy Rivera and daughter, Carlos Levva, and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin and Men and Ronnie Reed.

The Rev. and Mrs. Leslie Welch were unable to come Sunday for services due to the weather. So, we only had Sunday School with 15 attending.

LAST Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Fernie Reed were called to Lamesa to be with her father, C. C. Cornett, who is in the hospital. On Friday Mrs. Reed went back to be with her niece and family, the Don Tyras of Louisiana for the funeral services of Mrs. Tyra's father, C. D. Applegate of California, who was killed in a car accident. Sunday she went back for a visit and to see her father, who is a little improved.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ethridge of Lubbock were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Robison.

Due to weather conditions Mrs. Winnie Tuffing stayed in Post last Sunday night.

The Sam Heintzes of Post were Sunday visitors of the Raymon Keys.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Cole were Saturday evening guests of the Weldon Reeds.

Mrs. Johnny Robison and son, Mrs. Jimmy Sharp and children and Mrs. Billy Hill visited in the Don Robison home Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Pearl Nance and Mrs. Winnie Tuffing were in Fluvanna Saturday evening on business.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Pennell of Post were hosts of a birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Weldon Reed and her sister, Mrs. Ernest Riley of Lubbock. Other guests included Mrs. Billie Newman, Ernest Riley, and Weldon Reed and children.

Ernie Robison of Raton, N. M., was a recent visitor with his mother, Mrs. Mae Robison, in the Area couple leaves on Australian trip

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
Hello everybody! Hope this finds each of you well and happy. Say, the sun is kinda shining today. How about that? We were beginning to forget just how the sun looked. We have really received some good moisture here at Southland and surrounding community.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon McGeehan and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mason have gone to Australia and plan on being gone for about a month. Wouldn't that be absolutely fabulous?

Thomas Pennell, 75-year-old uncle of D. D. Pennell, who lived in Durham, N. C., was struck by a car and killed instantly Feb. 14. His funeral was held Feb. 16 at Durham. Mr. and Mrs. Pennell had visited with him last summer. We extend our deepest sympathy to the family.

Our real live Valentine is Dayneen Dunn who celebrates her birthday each year on Feb. 11. Those helping her celebrate with a little party were Mickey Mason, Sherri Wilke, Mrs. Aubrey McNeely, Mrs. Dillard Dunn, Mrs. Ronnie Dunn and Lance. Cake and a frosted punch was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Opal Pennell and E. L. Dunn are two others who are having birthdays this month. Happy Birthday, all!

Southland School was out last Wednesday and Thursday due to the weather.

The Senior Class has selected its play and have received the play books and are now working on the Senior play which they will be presenting sometime soon.

Our basketball season is now over and thoughts and efforts have turned to volleyball and track. Good luck, boys and girls.

A large group of people from here attended the boys basketball game between Wilson and Ropesville which was played in the Roosevelt gym Friday night. The two teams were well matched, so it proved to be quite an exciting game. Wilson won so they are the 7B District champs and will be playing Meadow in bi-district. We say good luck to Wilson.

BLANE DYESS son of Coach and Mrs. Bob Dyess, celebrated his 7th birthday last Saturday with a party. His birthday is the 20th but since he is in school the party was held early. His guests were Terry Scott Smallwood, Todd Taylor, Terry Don Taylor, Jay Callaway and Lance Dunn. They were served hot dogs and all the trimmings for lunch and later enjoyed the birthday cake. Blane's sister, Monica, helped serve. They played basketball and other games in the afternoon. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Bosdon of Lovington, N. M., came down on Saturday morning.

The Southland School gym has had an "outside face lifting." The Rev. Mr. Hill has just recently painted it and it sure does look better.

Jackie Dunn, son of the Herbert Duns, visited here Sunday. Jackie is going to graduate school in Austin and had come back to Texas Tech for the weekend to attend a fraternity meeting.

Jettie Crawford, daughter of M. and Mrs. Payton Crawford, fell and cut her knee real bad last week and it required quite a few stitches. Jettie lives and works in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and children visited his parents Sunday.

Janet Belk, daughter of the Elmer Belks, won first place in the Post Talent Show in the elementary and junior high division. She sang a medley of songs from "The Sound of Music." She competed with 12 others in this division. Mickey Mason accompanied her on the piano. Congratulations, Janet.

Roy Belk was very sick over the weekend and was unable to attend school Monday.

MR. AND MRS. J. B. Rackler Jr. and Jeffrey of Waco visited their parents over the weekend. They spent Friday and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rhoads, and Saturday afternoon and night with the Racklers. Mrs. Rhoads was a supper guest in the Rackler home Saturday. The Waco visitors returned home Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Reper went to Seminole Thursday to visit their granddaughter, Renee, who was in the hospital with a throat infection. She is better now and is at home recuperating.

Edmund and Yours Truly were Sunday supper guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Zieschang in Slaton. Other guests were the James Riney family and Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Kizer of Slaton.

Z. K. McKee was involved in a two-car accident at one of the crossings here Monday afternoon. No one was hurt and neither car was damaged too much.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dabbs have just returned from a three-week trip. They first went to Ventura, Calif., to visit his sister, Mrs. C. W. Steele. From there they went to Richmond to visit Thelma's sister and family the R. B. Underwoods for three days. They went on to Mountain Home, Idaho, to visit their son and family, Capt. and Mrs. Travis Dabbs. David went out with them and then flew back to Texas. They stopped and visited in Salt Lake City, Utah, where they toured the Mormon Temple.

Mrs. Dabbs says that it is just fabulous — so big and pretty. They visited two states they had never been in — Utah and Idaho. They saw a lot of snow and everything looked like a "winter fairyland."

Even though they saw a lot of beautiful country, Mrs. Dabbs says it is good to be back in Southland! Their son, Travis, will be leaving for Thailand in the near future, but he will be coming to Texas first. His family will probably move back to Slaton to live while he is overseas.

See you next week.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Connie Martin and Demito Ja were accompanied to their home in Dallas Friday by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baldrée Jr., who spent the weekend before returning home.

ENTERS TEMPLE HOSPITAL
James Minor entered Scott and White Hospital at Temple for tests that were expected to take the remainder of the week at least.

Okla. Wilbur Plaugher will return as rodeo clown and Clem McSpadden, Oklahoma legislator, will serve as announcer.

"They do pretty well considering not one of 'em is even plugged in."

Scrappy northern pike are in new lake home

SAN ANGELO — An overnight set of 600 feet of experimental sampling net at the newly created Greenbelt Lake, seven miles north of Clarendon in Donley County, resulted in the catching of 126 northern pike, according to fisheries biologists of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The northern pike is an exotic in Texas, but thus far their progress shows great strides, says Regional Supervisor Leo Lewis. The pike from Greenbelt, approximately nine months old, weighed up to 3.4 pounds each and measured up to 24 1/2 inches in length. They will be stocked in another Panhandle lake, Buffalo Lake, near Umbarger, will be the new home of the 126 pike, and Department crews are in the process of making the transfer.

The season is presently closed on the cigar-shaped scrapers and likely will not be opened until the biologists feel that northern pike exist in sufficient numbers to assure the future of the species.

Salsbury is the capital of Southern Rhodesia.
