Post man out on $1500 bond on murder charge

Ellis Harrison, 59-year-old local Negro, is free on $1,500 bond on a murder charge in connection with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Mildred Lea Pine, 36-year-old Negro woman, at the Harrison home about 2 p. m. Saturday.

Police Chief Bill Gordon told The Dispatch that when he arrived at the Harrison home, 403 East 15th street in answer to a neighbor's call he found Harrison in the front yard with a .45 revolver in his hand and Mrs. Pine dead on the floor inside the house.

Mrs. Pine had been a resident of Post for only about two weeks, coming here from Oklahoma with her husband who was employed on a farm in the Graham community.

She had applied for a position as a registered nurse at Garza Memorial Hospital and Hospital Administrator Kenneth Sledge was awaiting information about Mrs. Pine from hospitals where she had been employed before accepting her for employment here.

Chief Gordon said Mrs. Pine had been shot once in the side and once in the stomach. He said under her body he found a long-bladed dagger in her right hand, and a holster, apparently the dagger's holster, in her left hand.

The police chief quoted Harrison as telling him he shot the woman when she came at him with the dagger.

Gordon said he did not know why Mrs. Pine had driven to the Harrison home minutes before Mrs. Harrison, who witnessed the shooting, told Gordon, according to the officer, she did not know why Mrs. Pine had come to the Harrison home.

The police chief said the slain woman's husband, DeWayne, identified the dagger as belonging to Mrs. Pine.

The body of Mrs. Pine was taken to Brownwood for funeral services earlier this week under direction of the Holleman Funeral Home.

Mrs. Pine was born June 19, 1932.

Harrison was arraigned before Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts later Saturday afternoon and bond set at $1,500. He made the bond Monday through a bonding firm and was released from the county jail here.

City Attorney Carleton P. Webb said he drew up a murder with malice charge for filing in the case in the absence of County Attorney Preston Poole who is on vacation.

JP records show, however, that the murder charge lodged against Harrison was filed by Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Claborn and malice was not a part of the charge.

Chief Gordon said Deputy Sheriff Don Rogers assisted in the investigation of the slaying.

Sheriff Claborn told The Dispatch that the slaying is a "county case" and that he had also figured in the investigation with Rogers.

PAPERING COFFEE HOUSE ROOM WITH NEWSPAPERS of the local youths who are actively engaged in converting an old house on North Broadway into a coffee house are shown papering one of the rooms with Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. There is going to be a Post Dispatch room, too, they promise. Coffee house boys seek paint, carpet

By HELEN CORNISH

Look, mothers! It's a good guess that these boys rarely make their beds, hang up their clothes, keep their rooms neat and clean and put dirty clothes in the clothes hamper but they are industriously redoing and cleaning up an old house to turn it into a coffee house, distinguishedly called "The Estate."

A tour of the house will impress most anyone. Not only are these boys, assisted by a few others and a few girls, papering and painting all the downstairs rooms but it is sparkling clean. They have washed all the woodwork, scoured the bathroom and kitchen facilities until they shine and they are having fun doing it.

The night this reporter took the tour, Kay Altman, Kay Hundley, Jan Adams, Ginny Edwards, who was here visiting from Richardson, and Bobo McWhirt, along with those pictured, were doing work that would delight the heart of any mother.

Funeral Monday for Post pioneer

Graveside services were conducted at 5 p. m. Monday in Terrace Cemetery here for Loyd H. Collins, 80, of Odessa, pioneer Post resident who came to this community with his parents in 1908.

Collins, who was retired, died at 1 a. m. Sunday in an Odessa hospital a few hours before he was scheduled to undergo surgery for a broken hip he suffered in a fall July 3.

The Rev. Dale Dazier, officiated at the graveside rites here which followed funeral services at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon in Odessa, Mason Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements here.

Collins left Post in the early 30's. While living here he was employed by the Double U Company. He had been an Odessa resident for the last 10 years.

Survivors include three sons, Otho and Marlin Ray of Odessa and Curtis of Lubbock; one daughter, Mrs. Lavelle Johnson of Odessa, and a brother, Frank, of Carlisbad, N. M.

MAX'S BASSETS NOW NUMBER 3

Anybody lost a young basset hound?

One turned up at Garza Tire Co. yesterday which brought a call to The Dispatch with the thought that it might be Miss Sam, who belongs to the Cs.

But Sam was safely home in the patio yard.

Mrs. C., however, checked with Max Chaffin, a basset lover who has recently acquired two bassets — one given to him by the Jim Prathers because it wouldn't stay home and the other being a wornout lost dog found in Main street a few weeks ago and nursed back to health by Chaffin.

Well, Chaffin now has three bassets.

He just can't turn them down. He wasn't missing either of his, but he volunteered to care for the third until its owner shows up.

If you're missing a basset call Max Chaffin at 2831.

Grand opening is set for World of Difference

Gordon and Marge Lee will hold the grand opening of their World of Difference Beauty Salon and Health Clubs Sunday and Monday afternoons with the public invited to look over Post's best ever health and beauty facilities at 109 North Avenue L.

The open house is scheduled from 2 to 5 p. m. each of the two days.

The beauty salon has been open almost four weeks now with four operators, under Manager Sandra Claborn working in refrigerated air-conditioned comfort in a large, and newly lighted paneled room adjacent to a carpeted waiting room.

It's the health club facilities which will probably interest the public even more — compete with Post's first sauna bath. Stone for the Finnish bath was air freighted over the Atlantic to Post from Finland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee will operate the health clubs for both men and women with Gordon in charge of the men's club and Marge in charge of the women's health activities.

The health clubs will have a separate entrance — the one on the south — from the beauty salon.

The club area, completely apart from the beauty salon includes two exercise rooms, the sauna, a dressing room, and showers.

Local jockey wins big futurity race

Kenneth Hart, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hart of Garza County, is reported by friends to have won probably the biggest race of his career as a jockey in winning a $80,000 to $100,000 futurity race at Lafayette, La., over the Fourth of July weekend.

Details of the race have not been received here nor did they appear in the sports wire service reports in Texas newspapers.

Hart is ranked No. 3 among Texas jockeys by the Texas Racing News. He competed in the junior rodeo here in 1967.

County buys pair of air conditioners here

The Garza County Commissioner's Court at its July meeting Monday accepted the low bid of Western Auto Associate Store of $453 for two 15,000 BTU refrigerated air conditioners.

One was to be placed in the sheriff's office and the other in the commissioners' council room.

Tommy Young, Jaycee president, said entries may be made to him or to Jimmy Smith, Jaycee chairman of the beauty contest.

Young said swim suit competition is planned.

Deadline for entering the contest will be 2 p. m. Friday, July 26 — six hours before the judging starts.

Mrs. Henry Hardin underwent surgery in West Texas Hospital in Lubbock Tuesday morning. She is in room 311 at the hospital, friends report.

Parker hits at adult delinquency

Ronnie Parker, Church of Christ minister who was president of the Post Rotary Club when he left Post to enter church mission work in Denmark, was the guest speaker at the club's luncheon Tuesday.

Parker is now Church of Christ minister at Dimmitt and has served as the second president of Dimmitt's new Rotary club.

He told Rotarians that "juvenile delinquency is always rooted in adult delinquency and that parents are to blame for developing young criminals."

He offered the equation that had parents plus had discipline equals bad children.

The reason there are so many neglected children in Texas, now cared for by state welfare, is simply because their parents do not care, he declared.

Parker is here this week conducting morning and evening gospel services at the Post Church of Christ.

Sandra Bradshaw wed Sunday to Danny Pennington in Lubbock

MRS. DANNY CLAYTON PENNINGTON (Sandra Kay Bradshaw)

Miss Sandra Kay Bradshaw and Danny Clayton Pennington were married Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Parkway Drive Baptist Church in Lubbock.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. J. W. Bradshaw of Lubbock and the late Mr. Bradshaw, and the Rev. and Mrs. Clayton Pennington of Levelland, former Post residents.

The bridegroom's father, minister of the Park Drive Baptist Church of Levelland, read the double ring vows before an arch covered with greenery, flanked by baskets of gladiolas and candelabras.

Presented in marriage by her grandfather, C. D. Bradshaw, the bride wore a four-length gown of white silk organza made in the empire style. Baby pearls and sequins were scattered about the scalloped neckline. Lace appliques enhanced the dress and the cathedral-length train which was attached to the empire line. Tiny covered buttons adorned the back of the bodice. Her white tulle veil fell from a headpiece of pearls and lace. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and carnations tied with pink streamers on a white ribbon.

Miss Linda Bradshaw of Idaho, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Charlene Hefner, Donna Wood and Diana Vessels, all of Lubbock, and Miss Rhonda Pennington, sister of the bridegroom. They wore identical floor-length empire dresses of hot pink bonded crepe and white lace jackets. Pink bows and white tulle formed their headpieces. Each carried a long-stemmed pink rose.

Kim Peck of Phoenix, Ariz., niece of the bride, was flower girl. Barry Niel of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer. Sheila Pennington and Donald Bradshaw, sister and brother of the bride and bridegroom, followed the bride.

Danny Pennington at Levelland was best man. Groomsmen were Royson Moore, Gary Howard, Larry Scott, Wayne Pennington, Arroyo Parrish, Tom Williams, John Gill, Paul Jones, W. C. Caffey Jr., Ivan Jones, Starman Young, Ray N. Smith, Hansford Huston, L. G. Thum Jr., Larry Welch and Miss Janith Short.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Windham entertained at their home last Friday night with a party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cato of Denton, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Huntley of Memphis, Tenn.

The Catos and Huntleys are former Post residents and they and the other guests all attended Post High School together.

Others present for the evening of visiting were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rankin.

MRS. EDARD WILLIAM LOVE JR. (Barbara Nell O'Neal)

Odesa vows for Patricia O'Neal and Edard Love, Jr.

The First Baptist Church of Odesa was the setting of the wedding of Miss Patricia Nell O'Neal and Edard William Love Jr. June 22.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. O'Neal of Odessa and the groom is Edard William Love Jr. of Odessa. They are both graduates of Odessa High School.

The bride wore a white gown with a high collar and a long train. She carried a bouquet of white flowers.

The bridegroom wore a white suit with a dark tie. He carried a ring on a chain.

The ceremony was officiated by Rev. L. W. Love, pastor of the church. The couple will live in Odessa.

They will take a delayed honeymoon the last week in July to HemisFair where they will participate in a play, "Mid-Summer Night's Dream, Texas Style," being presented by their college speech department.

Mrs. Chevy attended the wedding of her great-granddaughter.

Miss Cathy O'Neal was her sister's maid of honor.

Best man was Robert E. Furgerson. Groomsmen were Lt. Jeff Turner, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Edwin Sullivan and Gay Warren Brant and Douglas Allen Brant, cousins of the bride. Ushers were Marion Cole and Ronald O'Neal.

Traditional wedding music was played by the organist, Mrs. Ashley Lawson, who also accompanied Mrs. Jeff Turner as she sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "Oh, Perfect Love."

Ronald Lynn O'Neal and Douglas Allen Brant were candlelighters.

The reception was held in the church parlor with Misses Maggie and Clydia O'Neal, cousins of the bride, registering the guests. Background music was provided by Mrs. James Babb and Doug Brant, aunt and cousin of the bride, respectively. One of the songs played was composed by Mrs. Will Cravy for her husband, the late Will Cravy, on the occasion of their Golden Wedding anniversary.

For traveling the bride wore a mint green tunic suit designed by her mother.

The wedding date has been set for Sept. 7 and will be held at the Goodfellow Air Force Base chapel in San Angelo.

It's My Turn

— By MRS. C.

I was amused at the remarks made by a mother of a Little League who came in to order a picture of her son's team. She said they had really enjoyed the baseball season and that their son had learned a lot besides baseball.

She qualified her opening remark about "enjoying the season" by saying they did after they learned to become good Little League parents. "What makes a good Little League parent?" I inquired. "Well, we learned the hard way by lying awake one night until 3 a. m. discussing the game and comments and gripes heard around us in the grandstand. We realized that this was a game for boys and the safe way to enjoy it was to sit in our car — far from the "maddening" crowds."

It just goes to show that everything, including baseball, needs to be put in the proper perspective.

Fourth of July seemed a bit livelier than usual in Post. The firecrackers boomed out most of the day and made good music to point to. And, painting on Osage Street was just as popular as fireworks that day. Not only were Mr. and Mrs. C. wielding paint brushes but so were our neighbors, Max Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. John Brockman.

The only painting casualty on our street was me. So, let me give you a small piece of advice. If you are between the shrubbery and the windows and need to separate the shrubs in order to get out, take time to inspect the shrubbery. It isn't just the bushes in the yard that do you but the shrubbery on the street. I did and placed your great efforts in a way that I didn't want to see but the boys took offense and held me about it in an uncharitable manner. I probably came out of them looking better than I did. I'm sure you can improve on entering the Olympics — perhaps the high hurdles.

You'll notice the town of Justiceburg is back in the news again. Mrs. Mona Rey came in last week and volunteered to write a column. So, the first news of our neighboring town to the south is making its debut this week after a long "drought."

I never think of Justiceburg without thinking of Pearl Nance whom Mr. C and I refer to as the unofficial mayor of Justiceburg.

About twice a year Pearl honors me with a good visit at the office and I'm always a better person for it. She has a delightful philosophy about life and you can't be around her long without soaking up some of it.

She is always good for a few stories about old timers in this vicinity and never gets impatient with me when I say "Whoa, back up, I'm not all that familiar with all the nicknames."

I don't know of anyone who enjoys life or gets more out of it than Pearl Nance. She's a great one for parties and kept me laughing all through her telling about a shower she and her friend, Winnie Tuffing, had for Skeeter Justice when she was expecting Dee Cecil. Pearl picked the unlikely theme of "Indian" for the shower all because she had recently encountered an Indian, slightly affected by "stomach" Acorchero. Pearl, it turned out to be a "big" "pow-wow" with about 72 persons attending at her ranch home.

Lively-Miller vows are exchanged

Dr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Lively are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Pamela Jane, to Larry Miller, son of Mrs. Mary Miller of Sader.

The marriage will be held July 3 at 4 o'clock at the church in Dallas in the home of the officiating pastor, Rev. W. H. Lake.

The bride wore a white gown with a high collar and a long train. She carried a bouquet of white flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller are both graduates of the University of North Texas. They are both members of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Short hosts to Mystic Sewing Club

Mrs. Gary Brewer was a guest at last Friday afternoon's meeting of the Mystic Sewing Club held in the home of Mrs. Lillie D. Short.

Mrs. Short served dips and chips and frosted cakes to the following: Mmes. Brewer, Estlea Nichols, Annie Hodges, Aylene Runkles, Jimmie Hudman, Edna McLendon and Catherine Rankin.

Mrs. Pearl Polk will be hostess at the July 16 meeting.

Wedding shower Tuesday honors in Alyn Cox

Miss Alyn Cox, bride-elect of Miss Dulcie Duncan, was honored at a wedding shower Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Lake in the Community Room.

The guests, who presented Mrs. Cox with a set of cooking ware, were:

Mmes. Elmer Butler, Stanley Butler, N. C. Outlaw, Lucile McBride, Louise Short, Bryce Martin, Russell Wilka Jr., Wesley Scott, Wayne Pennington, Arroyo Parrish, Tom Williams, John Gill, Paul Jones, W. C. Caffey Jr., Ivan Jones, Starman Young, Ray N. Smith, Hansford Huston, L. G. Thum Jr., Larry Welch and Miss Janith Short.

The guests were the bride's mother, Mrs. Bobet the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Floyd Duncan, Mrs. E. Thum Jr., and Mrs. Russell.

Miss Dowell of Lewisville, Mrs. Larry Welch registered presents at a table enhanced with a mint green candle and mint emerald green flowers, carried by the bride-elect's chosen.

The table was centered with an arrangement of mint and emerald green. Green candles completed the decor. Crystal appointments were used.

LISTENING POST

AT CHANUTE AFB

Airman Billy J. Doggett, son of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Doggett of Route 3, Post, has completed basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio. He has been assigned to the Air Force Technical Training Center at Chanute AFB, Ill., for specialized schooling as a metals repair specialist. Airman Doggett, a 1966 graduate of Post High School, attended South Plains College, Levelland.

Huge wrestler to be fair feature

LUBBOCK — A "wrestler" unbeaten in more than 3,500 bouts will take on all comers at the 51st annual Panhandle South Plains Fair here Sept. 25-30.

The grappler — weighing 400 pounds and standing 6-foot-2 — is Victor the Rasslin' Bear, being brought to the exposition by his handler, Tuffy Truesdell.

Victor, who has appeared at many fairs and other events across the nation, is one of several new attractions carded for the 1968 fair, which begins its second-half century.

Victor usually takes on local celebrities when he appears in a town, but his handler has promised that he will take on all comers from throughout the South Plains during the weeklong fair run.

The biggest show in fair history has been signed as the Fair Park Coliseum attraction. Headlined by Pat Boone, motion picture, television and recording personality, the stage production also includes the Boja Marimba Band, Lee Costin and the Jimmy Dorsey orchestra, humorist Don Rice and writer-juggler Diane Shelton.

Advertising of cotton products in national magazines, cost sharing of newspaper ads with local stores, and joint projects with major retail chains account for major program expenditures.

By GEORGE L. MILLER
A review of "The Last Unicorn" by Peter S. Beagle.
In Tennessee Williams' play, "The Glass Menagerie", it is the small figure of a unicorn that is broken. This fragile animal, best loved of all the glass animals, is a symbol of innocence and wounded love.
Peter S. Beagle's book "The Last Unicorn" brought that to mind. It is a haunting tale — a fairy tale perhaps — of truth and beauty and love. It is a magical tale where things are never quite what they seem. Then again, they may be just what they are, and we the readers aren't what we seem at all.

The tale is woven of many strands. There is the loneliness of the last unicorn, a mythical beast that is immortal. Yet somehow the unicorn is the only "real" person in the book. All the rest are stock characters from folklore and legend.

There is the unicorn's search for the lost unicorns. And there are her friends: Schmendrick the Magician, a delightful fumbler in search of his latent powers; Molly Graue, the embodiment of every womanly trait, and finally Prince Lir, the very model of a fairy book prince whose mission it is to save princess in distress.

There is the evil King Haggard who deserves more pity than scorn, and the terrifying Red Bull, the blind beast whose existence is a constant threat of disaster.

Above them is a sky that is troubled and behind them a sea that is never still.

On one level the story reads like a dream, where cats and butterflies and even a dusty skull can speak. On another level, it is like reading the pilgrimage of a human soul coming of age. On still another level, it hints of eternal things — of truth and beauty lost in a world that is blind to reality. Few humans recognize the unicorn when they see her. Perhaps we are entertaining her around as unaware.

Perhaps the book can only be read as an exercise in symbols. The Red Bull is the destructive power of the subconscious, untamed passion that is blind. This may be the infant who hides the lost unicorns, symbols of eternal truth, that have been hoarded there by the blind beast of instinct. Schmendrick is man, dimly aware of unborn powers and Molly is woman who inspires him to reach higher and claim his birthright. The prince is the hero who must sacrifice himself to the rules of the tale, carrying the burden of our hopes in his unending search for love. He must be the sacrifice, for the world must always sacrifice its heroes.

And the Unicorn? What is she? As truth and beauty she is too dazzling to recognize. For a while she is mortal, a princess in distress. She learns the taste of human love, and also human regret.
Perhaps human life and eternal truths are incompatible. Perhaps mere mortals are not meant to hunger for immortality. But in this tale, the two do meet, and though they part again, the memory lingers on. When the unicorn has gone, the Prince asked the magician to fulfill his promise. "You did promise that I would see her."
—The magician answered him sharply. "I promised only that you would see some sign of unicorns, and so you have. Your realm is blessed beyond any land's deserving because they have passed across it in freedom."
And there is a blessing for us too. In this book we are treated to a glimpse of beauty — fragile, dreamlike and at the same time more convincingly real than what the world calls reality. The unicorns are gone now, and yet not gone. They are hidden in the forests, timeless, immortal, giving reassurance to man in his search for meaning. It may be a lonely search, ringed with peril. We may never grasp the truth with our hands, but we will see faint traces of its passing.

Cotton producers meet in Lubbock

LUBBOCK — Trustees of the Cotton Producers Institute are scheduled to meet at the KoKo Inn here today (Thursday) to study staff recommendations and develop the 1969 CPI program of research and promotion aimed at expanding markets for cotton and its products.

Russell Cotton-Freeman, Calif., is president of the 31-member board of trustees made up of growers elected by 33 cotton producer organizations and representing all of the major cotton-producing states.

The National Cotton Council provides the staff and facilities, without charge, to service the research and promotion program.

Financed by $1-per-bale payments from growers, CPI budgeted $8 million for the 1968 program.

Research is being concentrated on durable press and easy care cottons, on product development, and on reducing the cost of controlling insects, weeds, and diseases.

God Is Not Dead, He's In a Convalescent Home

By the Rev. George L. Miller

Contrary to rumors heard recently, God is still alive. For a while it was touch and go. At one point his vital signs were so weak doctors of theology were unable to say, with certainty, whether he was dead or alive. But indications now point to an eventual recovery, assuming a relapse does not occur.

Doctors are still puzzled about the nature of his illness. One authority speculates it was a case of overwork. This theory has been challenged on the grounds that so few people believe in God any more, he's had even less calls made on him. The best guess put forth so far is that he is suffering from neglect.

A quick glance at the announcement page in your local church bulletin may give a clue to the reason for this neglect. The Church at work in the world is a busy little organization with its chili suppers, bake sales, car washes, Strawberry Festivals and Fall Bazzars. Occasionally you will find an item advertising the Wednesday morning 6:45 businessmen's prayer breakfast or the Every Other Thursday Women's Bible Study hour. With all that activity, who has time for the Holy Spirit these days?

However, past experience shows that God has amazing powers of recovery. Considerable ferment both inside and outside the church seems to indicate signs of new health. Why not stop by church next Sunday and see how the patient is coming along?

Top Bull rider prefers dangers to huge ranch

DENVER, Colo.—A tough young professional who prefers the dangers of bull riding to the comforts of his grandfather's million-acre ranch has taken the lead in the 1968 world's bull riding championship.

The Rodeo Cowboys Association rodeo cowboy Paul, 21, Del Rio, Texas, won the title by finishing the year in fourth place with a total of $14,666. He has pocketed $12,000 so far this year. Combined with his earnings from other rodeos, he has pocketed $12,000 so far this year. Combined with his earnings from other rodeos, he has pocketed $12,000 so far this year.

last January. He entered the bareback bronc riding at the Reno, Nev., rodeo, which ended Sunday, and placed second in the event, winning $512.

The R.C.A. noted that—in national bull riding standings—six of the top 11 men are from Texas, with four of them among the first six.

The Reno prize money totaled $21,809, with 276 cowboys entered. Event winners were:

Saddle bronc: John Ivory, Redmond, Ore., $763; bareback bronc: Walt Mason, Las Vegas, Nev., $619; bull riding: Ashorn and Randy Magers, Fort Worth, Tex., $761 each; calf roping, Bobby Hungate, Waco, Tex., $733; steer wrestling: John W. Jones, Morro Bay, Calif., $707; team roping: Jim Rodriguez Jr., Shandon, Calif., and Ken Luman, Merced, Calif., $897 each.

New class soon for patrolmen

LUBBOCK — A training school for 120 new patrolmen with the Texas Department of Public Safety will start July 30, Maj. Luther Moore, regional commander, announced today.

"We have several new benefits to offer qualified young men," Moore said. "For instance, the pay during training is $500 per month and upon graduation this is increased to $571."

"Also, our selection methods are more liberal in that an applicant is not required to live in Texas for one year prior to employment, and the entrance examination is given every day at our larger offices."

To qualify for employment in the uniformed services of the DPS, a man must be between the ages of 20 and 35, not less than 5 feet 8 inches tall, have a high school education or its equivalent, be in sound physical condition with good vision and must be a citizen of the United States.

Historical Plains paintings shown

LUBBOCK — An exhibition of paintings by area artists which met with much popular acclaim at the Municipal Garden & Arts Center in Lubbock during June has moved to the rotunda gallery of West Texas Museum during July.

"Paintings of Plains History," 26 works depicting historical sites in the West Texas region, was arranged in cooperation with the Lubbock Art Association and the Lubbock County Historical Survey Committee.

The exhibition is presented to help acquaint visitors with some of the colorful history of the Plains country, and to rekindle interest in the history among West Texas residents.

Some of the historical sites include: Yellowhouse Canyon; the old Caraway place, where the large mulberry tree and windmill still stand at 50th Street and Indiana; Buffalo Lake; Slaton's Santa Fe depot; the Lubbock Lake site, which has archeological findings dating back to 12,000 years ago; Cedar Lake in Gaines County; the Spade Ranch, and many houses, barns and outbuildings of famous ranches and homes of pioneers.

The exhibition is open to the public through Aug. 4.

A fitting companion exhibition is the current show in the art gallery, "Plains Heritage in Handicrafts," which will continue through the summer for the benefit of tourists to HemisFair.

COUPON DISCRIMINATION

Dear Editor:

Recently a group of Post merchants developed an advertising plan that consisted of a series of discount coupons sold in book form that were good for various amounts of merchandise and service. These booklets were sold to people indiscriminately without any restrictions thereon and among other services and merchandise available was the service of a local beauty shop.

Several of such booklets or pamphlets were purchased by American citizens who happen to be of Spanish extraction. When the coupons were presented to the beauty shop for the service promised and paid for these citizens were informed that no services would be performed for people of Spanish extraction.

We are not particularly surprised or shocked at this sort of action, in fact, we have generally come to expect such treatment. We simply wonder now if this merchant who took our money, promised services and refused to deliver the same simply because we are of Spanish extraction has any objections to our brothers and relatives helping to fight the war in Vietnam.

Those who are white can only dimly guess at what the pain of racial discrimination must be — what it must be like to be turned away from a public place, or made to use only a segregated portion of that place, for no other reason than the color of one's skin. How can a father or mother explain this intolerable situation to his children? And how can the children be expected to grow up with any sense of pride in being Americans?

Respectfully yours,
Mrs. Delfina Castillo

Great movie to return Sunday

One of the great motion pictures of all time, Michael Todd's epochal "Around the World in 80 Days", makes its appearance, Sunday through Wednesday on the screen of the Tower Theatre.

It is being re-released through United Artists.

The starring cast is headed by David Niven as the Phileas Fogg of Jules Verne's famous imaginative novel from which the picture was made, with the famed Cantinflas as Passepartout, Robert Newton as Mr. Fix and Shirley MacLaine as the Indian Maharance Aouda.

They are supported by an all-star cast of 44 cameo players which includes some of the greatest names in movie history.

Besides the actors, the film also sets a record for the variety and number of its animal actors. These range all the way from "Babe", a four and a half ton elephant to barnyard chickens, with some 34 species and 7,959 individuals represented.

Plastic pipe may be answer for range water stations

COLLEGE STATION — Water is necessary in the husbandry of range livestock, but a point often overlooked is the use of water in grazing management. Too, water is essential for the wildlife of the area, reminds B. J. Ragsdale, Extension range specialist at Texas A&M University.

The development of a new watering facility in an under-utilized area of a pasture offers an excellent method of getting more uniform and efficient utilization of the range forage. New watering locations may be necessary before a deferred rotation grazing system can be initiated.

Inefficient use is made of range forage when certain areas of a pasture are overgrazed while other areas go relatively untouched, he says. The location of watering places in undergrazed areas results in the livestock moving into these areas to do part of their grazing.

Often it is not feasible to drill a new well, a spring is not available or the soil type or area does not lend itself to the construction of an earthen stock tank. When this happens, plastic pipe (black polyethylene) lines can be the answer, suggests the specialist.

Conventional float controlled water troughs or the newer automatic fountains can be used. The plastic pipe should be placed beneath the soil surface to prevent deterioration from sunlight. It is not necessary to bury the pipe to a frost-free depth, provided the pressure is removed during the winter, he says.

A cow with calf requires about 10 gallons of water a day and a ewe lamb or nanny and kid need about a gallon. In addition to the volume requirements, distance is an important consideration. Water locations should be no more than one-half mile apart in excessively rough areas, while in flat country they may be up to two and one-half miles apart.

Vietnam View

As reported by Marilyn Coyne, Combat Correspondent and edited by Bob Montgomery

An incoming Viet Cong mortar round abruptly ended a folk singing session at the 3rd Bn. 27th Marine Regiment command post.

"Four of us were sitting in the company supply hooch singing folk songs when a mortar round came exploding through the tin roof," said Cpl. Charles D. Huckaby, 21, Linda Vista, Calif., the "K" Co. supply sergeant.

Lance Cpl. Joe Hecht, 20, Ridgefield, N. J., was sitting closest to the blast. "I got my back pretty well peppered with little pieces of shrapnel," he said, "but all I could think about was getting out to the bunker."

Playing the guitar for the four-piece band was Cpl. D. Olson, 21, Wheeler, Texas. "I was playing 'The Tears and a Kiss' and 'Goodbye' when a mortar round exploded just above our heads. The shrapnel hit my forehead and blew up in my face," recalled Olson.

"We were all having a rest on the door trying to get out and into the bunker," Huckaby said, "but because we were all pressing against it I couldn't get it open."

Huckaby managed to push the other three Leathernecks back far enough to get the door open. "Wow!" exclaimed the Golden State Marine. "I've never seen a party break up so fast in my life."

"Just about the only thing in the whole supply hooch that wasn't hit was the guitar I was playing," added Olson.

Hanoi Hannah would probably gasp at the news. Ho Chi Minh would denounce it as a capitalistic lie and when the word reaches General Giap's command post, there'll undoubtedly be an order declaring it a treasonable offense.

But there it was as plain as day, carefully tucked away in the pack of a soldier of the People's Army of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam—good old-fashioned American Kool-Aid.

"One lemon and lime and two raspberries," said Pfc. Frank Chaplik, 18, rifleman with "E" Co. 2nd Bn., First Marine Regiment. Chaplik made the find while searching out an abandoned enemy bunker west of Khe Sanh.

"I was kind of stunned when he told me," said Pfc. Carl Block, 21, Buffalo, N. Y., "you don't expect to find Kool-Aid with Bugs Bunny on the package front in an enemy pack."

Block, also a rifleman with "E" Co., was with Chaplik when he made the Kool-Aid discovery. "They were neatly tucked away in his pack," explained Chaplik. "There were several packs there but his was the only one containing Kool-Aid."

It was a lucky find for the two Leathernecks. The only water available to them in the area was rain water that had settled in a bomb crater.

"And that wasn't exactly too tasty," noted Block. "So the pre-sweetened Kool-Aid made our day."

"Shower power" is what's happening on Hill 861, a Marine hill-top near Khe Sanh.

In fact, there might be a world record set for jamming men into a shower stall once the Marines get their shower barrels full.

"That's the problem right there," said Pfc. Joseph Roberts, 18, Martin's Ferry, Ohio, an assistant machine gunner with "A" Co., 1st Bn., First Marine Regiment, 1st Marine Division.

"We're praying for rain," Roberts explained. "And if it doesn't rain we'll figure out another way to get water."

The Leatherneck outpost, manned by Marines from "A" Co., 1st Bn., Fifth Marines, is regularly resupplied by helicopter with drinking water but larger quantities of water cannot be heli-lifted to the Marines.

The 1st Squad, 1st Plt. of "A" Co., built Hill 861's first shower stalls. Other Marines in the company followed their example and now several shower stalls, built from empty fuel barrels and spare wood, have been erected on 861.

Now all that's needed is some cooperation from the weatherman so that "A" company shower barrels can fill up.

Early plantings prevents root rot

COLLEGE STATION — Earlier cotton planting and root rot "escape" could be combined to give root rot control plus higher yields, Dr. Luther S. Bird, professor in Texas A&M University's Plant Science Department, says.

"Work here has shown that cotton can be planted two to three weeks earlier than usual and the damage by the root rot fungus can be lowered. By moving the planting date up to about the middle of March instead of early April, we have had good results at picking time," he says.

By early planting the cotton can reach the stage where there is about three to four weeks free of disease during July. The cotton can set and mature bolls before it begins to die and the yield is not affected.

One particular strain tested here has withstood freezing temperatures and progress is being made to breed this cold-tolerance into other cotton strains, according to the professor.

"Escape" from cotton root rot is an inherited factor of certain plants and although the process is complicated, progress is being made in breeding the cold-tolerant cotton with the cotton which has this "escape" factor, he says.

Not only can earlier planting lower the incidence of root rot, but the earlier maturing process can take advantage of the moisture which comes earlier in the season, Bird points out.

Play opens Monday in West Texas Babe Ruth meet

Park improvements are added for six-day event

The Babe Ruth League will play host for the first time next week to the West Texas Babe Ruth League Tournament which will offer improved park facilities for the event as well as an outdoor dining area which figures to be a real title contender.

Pairings call for the Levelland-Frontier first round loser to play the loser of the Brownfield-Post winner vs. Tri City game at 6 p. m.; and the two second round winners to clash in the 8 p. m. feature to see which club will advance into the Saturday night finals.

Thursday, July 18, games will match winners in the losers' bracket with the two Thursday night winners meeting in a single game Friday night to decide the other finalist.

Two games could be needed to decide the champion Saturday night as it is a double elimination affair and one club will enter the finals undefeated.

Tournament Manager Kennedy said a 12:30 p. m. meeting is scheduled Monday in the Community Room at the bank for all team officials, umpires, and regional officials at which rosters will be checked and operation of the tournament discussed.

The district's annual business meeting will be held between the first and second games Monday night with Wilburn S. Deel, district director from Levelland in charge.

Kennedy said each visiting tournament team will have an individual host assigned to it to aid the teams in any way during their stay here.

Post's all-star team for the tournament is composed of Kyle Josey, Thomas Zachary, Jim Poer, John Busto, Robert Mindietta, Kim Owen, Robert Saldivar, Larry Scrivner, Jerry Saldivar, Eddie Jennings, Jerry Bratcher, Ricky Hair, Larry Hair, Jim Dooley and Danny Lee with Reginald Moore and Bobby Blacklock as alternates.

Paul Quinonez is manager of the all-star club.

Lamesa foe in meet opener

The winner of the Post-Lamesa first-rounder next Thursday night at Tahoka will be heavy favorite to roll on Friday night to the championship of the Area II Little League tournament.

The Post All-Stars, who will be managed by Richard Dudley and coached by John Redman, are the defending Area II champs and strong again.

Lamesa, with dozens of players to choose from, is the usual pre-tourney choice and are listed as "double tough" for next week's encounter.

Post drops pair in 13-year-old all-star tourney

Post was eliminated Tuesday night from the first annual 13-year-old All-Star tournament being held in Brownfield this week with a seven-team field.

The locals, composed of all available 13 year old players from the Babe Ruth League, dropped a 5-4 first rounder to Brownfield Tuesday afternoon and an 11-4 tilt to Lamesa Tuesday night.

The game with Brownfield had been called by rain Monday night with Brownfield leading 5-3 and was completed Tuesday afternoon at 4 p. m.

Other teams in the event are Slaton, Levelland, Tri-City, and Frontier. The tourney is a double elimination affair.

The local team was composed of Lanny Blacklock, Reginald Moore, Ricky King, Freddy Huff, Roger Pace, Randy Kennedy, Tol Thomas, Charles Johnson, Dale Walls, Johnny Johnson and Johnny Minor.

Wayne Thomas managed the club with James Kennedy as coach and Mo Huff, the batboy.

Piggly Wiggly Post Pharmacy, Post Insurance Agency and Howell's Gulf Service sponsored the team's Monday trip and Wacker's the Tuesday jaunt to the tournament.

Junior Gray's horse fourth at Matador

Junior Gray's horse placed fourth in the 500 novice-novice class at the West Texas and Central Texas Cutting Horse Association cutting at Matador recently.

His entry scored 136 points in a field of 17 horses.

Rally in seventh provides win at New Home, 5-2

Post's Connie Mack club had to come up with a three-run rally in the seventh to clinch a 5-2 victory Monday night at New Home against their hosts.

The game went into the records as a first half victory for the locals although the second half is about over for the three-team league.

The locals managed but four hits, three of them singles, in scoring their triumph. New Home picked up five against the offerings of Terry Moreau and Clyde Cash, who divided the mound chores.

New Home jumped out in front in the first inning on a double by Jimmie Fillingim, two walks, and an outfield error.

Post tied it in the fourth when Roy Sappington singled, advanced on an error and scored on a double by Cash. Post added the go-ahead run in the fifth on a walk to Pete Morales, a fielder's choice, and a single by Nick Pantoja.

The clinching runs in the top of the seventh came on walks to Jay Bird and Karl Hall, a shortstop's error on Sappington's grounder, and singles by Pantoja and Dennis Altman.

Cash came on with two outs in the bottom of the third after Moreau had loaded the bases on a walk and two singles.

New Home got its final run in the bottom of the seventh on a two-out double by Johnny Armes and a single by Roy Smith. Cash struck out nine of the 14 batters he faced in his four and one-third innings of relief.

CASH TIED FOR 27th ON HOME RUN LIST

Norm Cash, now battling cleanup for the Detroit Tigers against righthand pitchers, clubbed his 11th and 12th homers of the season over the weekend in Detroit's 13-10 victory over Oakland.

His second round-tripper was the 247th of his big league career, tying him at 28th on the all-time homer list with Vern Stephens of the old St. Louis Browns.

The Tigers, winning 10 of their last 12 before the all-star game break, led the American league by nine and one-half games, the biggest margin since the old New York Yankees were 12 1/2 games in front 21 years ago in 1947.

Cash, who has started to hit in the last few weeks, has raised his average over the 200 mark for the first time this season.

Post, Tahoka to play crucial pair tonight

And he well may wait until later tonight to worry about that schedule problem as either Post or Tahoka could wrap up the second half tonight with a sweep and make the pair really unnecessary.

Only if the two teams split tonight would the New Home games have to be played to determine the second winner.

New Home has four bases for the second half and has completed its schedule except for that no-place-to-play twin bill scheduled here Monday night.

Post hasn't been hitting the ball in recent games and anything could happen tonight.

Connie Macks shutout Tahoka in twin bill

Manager Pat Walker's Post team swept a Connie Mack twin bill from the Tahoka Trojans here July 2 by identical 5-0 scores to remain undefeated in league play.

Terry Moreau and Clyde Cash twirled the shutouts for the locals.

Each pitcher went the distance and gave up but one hit for the seven inning distances.

Gatlin-Martin win golf event

Gatlin shot a 77 and Martin an 85 to go with their handicaps of 11 and 17 strokes respectively.

Rickey Welch was low medalist for the event shooting a three-over-par 75.

Tied for low nets with 62 strokes each were Don Davenport and Deamos Altman. Davenport fired an 82 with a 20 stroke handicap and Altman shot a 79 with 17 stroke handicap.

Twelve two-man teams competed in the event.

Other net scores by teams: Teddy Scott and Rickey Welch 137, Felton Gatlin and Darwin Sanders 138, Davenport and Walter Didway 138, Doris Lucas and Monroe Lane 139, Buddy Hall and D. With his handicap, this put his flag a drive off the tee on the 20th hole to win by a single stroke.

Post splits two with Lubbock

Post's Connie Mack team split the league doubleheader with the local Colt League All-Stars Friday night, dropping the 5-0 and coming back to tie the nightcap, 5-2.

Cash went the seven innings for Post in the second game and had a two-hit shutout in the final frame when Lubbock put together two doubles and a single for a last ditch two-run rally.

Post won the finale in the first when the first three batters in the top half were struck out by a shortstop's error to open the frame and Leftfielder Dennis Sappington and Third Sacker Roy Sappington followed with singles.

Nick Pantoja went down on the second, Cash walked and Norman Jones got life on a fielder's choice. R. Altman whiffed for the second out but Centerfielder George Torres singled to score Sappington and Cash was out at the plate for the final out.

Post got its other two runs in the third when Sappington and Pantoja singled and Cash doubled, all in succession to lead off the inning.

The locals put runners on second and third in the fifth when Sappington led off with his third straight single. One out later, Cash followed with his second hit, a single.

After that Mims, who took over the Lubbock pitching chores in the fifth, got about as tough as a pitcher can get. He retired the next five Post batters via strikeouts.

In the opener, Lubbock showed across four runs in the first inning before Pitcher Terry Moreau and his mates could get settled down.

With one out, Robert Lewis singled, Joe Byrne got a life on an infield error and Ronald Kinner got a life on a fielder's choice.

That's when Rightfielder Steve Kelly knocked it over the fence for a home run and too many runs were home. Kinner slammed another out of the park for a homer to lead off the fifth for the final run of the game.

Norman Tanner pitched the final two frames of the opener for Post, walking two but allowing no hits.

Post got runners on second and third with two gone in the second on a fielder's choice and a walk. In the fourth they got Sappington, who led off with a walk around to third.

Bird got the only hit for the locals when he singled in the sixth.

Post's Connie Mack team split the league doubleheader with the local Colt League All-Stars Friday night, dropping the 5-0 and coming back to tie the nightcap, 5-2.

COOKING FACTS by THOMPSON

KNOWING WHEN TO REMOVE MEAT FROM THE OVEN IS AS IMPORTANT AS KNOWING THE RIGHT SAUCE TO SERVE WITH IT.

BONELESS ROLLED ROASTS COOK MORE SLOWLY THAN LONG SLENDER CUTS OF MEAT. FOR BEST RESULTS ADD ABOUT 10 MINUTES PER POUND TO COOKING TIME OF ROLLED ROASTS.

IT'S MUCH EASIER TO CARVE ROASTED MEAT IF YOU ALLOW IT TO "REST" ABOUT 15 MINUTES IN A 170 DEGREE F. TEMPERATURE AFTER COOKING. THE MEAT'S TEXTURE ALSO IS IMPROVED.

WHETHER YOU PREFER MEDIUM RARE OR WELL DONE ROASTS, THEY CAN BE COOKED TO TASTE CONSIDERABLY IN A GAS OVEN EQUIPPED WITH ROBERTSHAW CONTROL COMPANY'S AUTOMATIC MEAT PROBE. YOUR LOCAL GAS APPLIANCE DEALER WILL EXPLAIN THE AUTOMATIC PROBE'S ADVANTAGES.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

RECREATION APPRAISAL BEING MADE

The Garza County Technical Action panel meets today (Thursday) to review and evaluate the potential for outdoor recreation for Garza County. The Soil Conservation Service in cooperation with the Garza SWDC will be responsible for publishing the report. Assisting with the report and evaluating 12 distinct types of recreation will be Mrs. Inez Hartel, ASCS; Bailey Mayo, Soil Conservation Service; Bill Stewart, FHA; E. A. Howard, Vocational Ag.; R. S. Conner, County Agent, and Bud Howell of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Service. We hope to have the material published and ready for distribution by Sept. 1.

The potential for outdoor recreation should be high for Garza County. We are located on a major highway and are located less than an hour's drive from Lubbock. Outdoor recreation is becoming a big business and there are strong indications that it will become much larger in the future as recreational resources are developed and income rises and populations continues to increase.

The annual spring exodus from the city into the countryside is proof that farm people have what most city people want — the open air, areas to camp in, canyons to hike and ride in, and ponds and lakes to fish in.

ATTENTION CLUB LEADERS

As you are probably aware, the Soil Conservation Service, assisting Soil and Water Conservation Districts, has the responsibility of encouraging the conservation and wise use of our soil, water, and other natural resources. Through our information programs we continually try to reach as many people as possible and make them more aware of the vital role of natural resources in our lives. Even in this time of advanced technology, we are still very much dependent upon these basic resources for our existence.

We always welcome the opportunity to assist with programs concerning soil, water, and other areas of resource conservation. We have various aids that might be of interest and help to you in planning your program.

The local SCS office, assisting your local Soil and Water Conservation District, maintains an up to date listing of films and slide sets that are available. The Work Unit Conservationist should be contact-

Karen's Korner By Karen Hundley

After all the fireworks last week, things have certainly quieted down to the usual dull, boring squeak. I know I heard enough firecrackers to satisfy me for the remainder of my life. In the first place I HATE the things! Secondly, my little sister, Debbie, bought several packages of the awful things and fired them off just to show like old "coward" me. Anybody like to have (for free) a troublesome 13-year-old little sister? Please, I'm desperate!

A week ago Wednesday night a dance was held at Taboka with the fabulous "Traveling Salesmen" playing. Numerous Post kids attended the dance, such as Debbie Tueker and Duke Altman, Donna Stewart and Dennis Altman, Liz Dalby and Randy Hadman, Kay Altman and Jerry Crenshaw, Kay Hundley and Clyde Dwayne McWhirt, Martha Miller and Karl Hall, Sherry Bird and Steve Newby, Darrell Wilke, Dan Eckert, Kim Hundley, Jan Adams, Jimmy Jones, Timmons Bull and Norman Tanner.

Last Saturday night was a very disturbing evening. Several people I know enjoyed disturbing some other people. After an interval, some other people tried to be bothersome. My, but we have some nosy people around! As of Tuesday, Mrs. Cummings had not had a band contact her, so it looks there won't be a dance this Saturday night. However, there will definitely be one next weekend.

Now, since you have finished digesting my weekly bit of information, go do something important. Bug your sister or brother, or be constructive and burn up a whole tank of gasoline!

Southland area news

Don Basinger in hospital after tractor accident

By MRS. EDMUND WILKE
Greetings from Southland—the wilderness of West Texas! Weeds are getting so tall around here that we nearly think we are living in a forest! Well, that is stretching a little, but the weeds are growing by leaps and bounds. Edmund, Sherri and Yours Truly slipped off last week and went to HemisFair. We were gone from Friday evening until late Monday afternoon. Sue did enjoy it, too. We liked to have walked our feet off but it was well worth it. We had heard some people say that they didn't enjoy the Fair and some say they had, so we really didn't know what to expect. But we thought it was just fabulous! I would like to go again because we just didn't see it all in two days!

Don Basinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Basinger, was involved in a tractor accident Saturday and received a concussion, broken shoulder and a cracked shoulder blade. He will have to undergo surgery but not until the danger of the concussion is past. He is in Plainview Medical Center Hospital and we sincerely hope that all goes well with you, Don.

We had a big fire here Wednesday night, July 3. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Stonewall Jefferson burned completely. They were gone from home so therefore they didn't save anything! At the present, they are living in a house belonging to Clarence Basinger.

Ed Benton spent quite some time at Mercy Hospital recently and we are so glad to hear that he is at home now. His daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lichey of Durant, Okla., visited with him while he was in the hospital.

Joan Gindorf and Mrs. Libbie Schnieder flew to Red Neck, N. Y. June 27 to visit Mrs. Schnieder's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Gindorf, and daughters. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Duff and children of Levelland are here visiting their mother, Mrs. W. P. Lester.

Seems like bad luck has been hitting the Charlie Rodriguez family recently. First one thing and then another! Charlie got his finger cut off in an accident last week. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Callaway recently spent some time at Lake Thomas.

The Robert Long family attended a "town picnic" at O'Donnell July 4th.

The Southland cheerleaders are attending cheerleading school at Texas Tech this week. They are Daynee Dunn, Laura Bevers and Sherri Wilke. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wartes and grandson, Gregg Wartes of San Angelo, who is spending the summer here, have just returned from a trip to Fort Worth and Dallas. They visited their children that live there and Gregg went to Six Flags with Doris and Joyce and their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Odum and children have returned from a trip to Dallas, Fort Worth and Lake Whitney where they camped out for several days.

MR. AND MRS. F. W. Callaway are home from a short trip to Conchos Lake and another place of interest near Santa Fe, N. M. They were trying out their new 15-foot trailer. Wouldn't that be fun? Mr. Callaway tried his hand at trout fishing and the only fish he caught was a peewee size so don't imagine he will be bragging about it!

Mrs. Delbert Abshire and family went to Siloam Springs, Ark., recently. The Albert Mayo family of Arkansas were recent visitors in the Abshire home. Mr. Mayo and Mrs. Abshire are brother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wright and family of Mesa, Ariz., visited the Delbert Abshires recently. The Delbert Abshires plan to attend the Abshire reunion in Ardmore, Okla., July 21.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Anderson attended the Anderson reunion in Abilene recently.

Jackie Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dunn, of Austin visited here during the holiday, returning to Austin on Sunday.

Norma Eckert gave a "slumberless party" July 4 with the following girls attending: Bronnie Winterrowd, Cathy Long and Sherri Wilke. The girls finally went to bed the next morning around 5 or 6 o'clock. Wow!

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wayne Crawford who were united in marriage July 4 in Slaton. Mrs. Crawford is the former Miss Judy Krell. May this young couple receive God's richest blessings.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long and children attended the Pointdexter reunion at Pioneer Park in Lubbock Sunday along with 59 others. Cathy Long is spending the week with her cousin, Cindy Rindel, at New Home.

Mrs. Agnes Sisk and son of Fort Worth spent Sunday night with the Robert Longs.

Mrs. Eula Grider and family of Eulless visited in the Robert Long home Monday.

The Elmer Belk family has moved to Whitharrel where Mr. Belk will be teaching in their school system in the fall.

We extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Basinger. Her brother-in-law, Hugh Simpson, died suddenly of a heart attack and was buried June 21. May God comfort this family in their sorrow.

Marilyn Basinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Basinger of Mercedes, is here spending two weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Basinger. One day last week Mrs. Basinger and Marilyn visited Mrs. A. Wilke in Slaton. Mrs. Wilke is the great grandmother of Marilyn.

Guests in the Otto Klaus home for the Klaus-Cruhkey wedding in Wilson were their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Michaels, and their niece and nephew, Patricia and Leroy Michaels. Most of their visit with the Donald Klauzes, Sunday, the day after the wedding, all of the Michaelises and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frank and daughter and granddaughter of Lampasas spent the day in the Werner Klaus home. Other guests were the Calvin Klauzes of Slaton, the Hugh Makers of Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klaus of Southland and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Klaus and daughter of Wilson.

MR. AND MRS. Harvey Pennell and Heath of Plainview spent Saturday night with the Donald Pennells. Harvey is a life guard and swimming instructor at the Plainview Country Club this summer.

Mrs. Lynn Freeman has returned to Houston after a three-week visit in the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pennell.

Mrs. Dorothy Dugger of Lubbock visited in the D. D. Pennell last week and showed pictures and told of her tour to Europe. She is a cousin of the Pennells.

Mrs. Melvin Basinger's mother, Mrs. Eva Trimble, is a patient in Methodist Hospital. May God's healing hand be upon her.

Mrs. Grady Taylor's father, Mr. Billingsley, is a patient in Methodist Hospital. The Rev. and Mrs. Harris visited him and Mrs. Trimbie Sunday afternoon. The Don Pennells were July 4th dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Pennell and they all attended the car races and fireworks display in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Harlan Pennell went to Amarillo Sunday to meet her mother, Mrs. Buck Harrison, and Sue who were returning from a trip to Washington state where they visited relatives.

Howton Haire is a patient in Mercy Hospital. May God take care of him during his illness.

Mrs. Pat Dyess ran the post office for Yours Truly while we attended HemisFair.

The Southland schoolhouse, gym and concession stand is "more or less" receiving a facelifting or something like that. Repairs are being made, roofs being put on, a little paint here and there. All three buildings received damages from the recent storms. Wish they could build a new schoolhouse, but, of course, that is out of the question.

The school trustees met in a regular monthly meeting Monday.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Wilke was moved out to their farm Monday morning and if things go as planned, they will be moving into it in about two weeks. They have been living in the Marcus Wilke home while their house is being built.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hodge and the Delroy Odum family visited Mrs. Nellie Mathis during the weekend.

Mrs. Troy Lewis was honored with a bridal shower July 9 in the home of Mrs. Buddy Hall.

Little Clarissa Gindorf, daughter of the Chris Gindorfs of Red Hook, N. Y., is recuperating at home after her accident with the garage door. She is getting along fine and we sincerely hope she continues to do so.

Mrs. Chris Gindorf Jr., spent a night in Mercy Hospital having X-rays made.

August Becker is getting along real fine after his recent surgery. Robert Mock and a pickup truck belonging to Lyntegar Electric of Tahoka collided on a country road last week and did quite a bit of damage to the vehicles. It happened just a short distance out of Southland at one of the crossroads where the county has let the weeds grow so high that it is nearly impossible to see unless you get out
