$10,000 goal topped in fast United Fund drive

Final count may exceed $10,500

Garza County's 1970 United Fund drive has topped its $10,000 goal and indications are that when the final out-of-town business division checks are all in the final total will exceed $10,500.

Not only has the drive been the most successful in recent years, but it probably was "the fastest in local history."

It was scheduled as a two week effort — and at the end of the two weeks the goal had been exceeded in cash and pledges.

Mrs. Helen Cornish, drive chairman, said today the drive total stood at $10,062 with the possibility that when the final clean-up is completed the total might reach $10,724.50.

The final figure is the present projection. Several large contributions from business firms with out-of-town offices are still awaited.

Lou Marks, United Fund treasurer, said a few hundred dollars surprise is always needed to assure the full payout to participating agencies because there are always some losses in pledged contributions.

Any excess funds will be left in the United Fund account as a reserve. In recent years when the fund did not reach its goal, the built up reserve of the fund has been exhausted.

Mrs. Cornish said the success of the drive is due to the campaign workers who reached more people this year than for many years past.

"People will give but you have to ask them," she said.

A breakdown of drive contributions by major divisions shows a $3,399 total for the business division, with the final figure expected to be around $6,000. $1,399 for employees, $1,118 for farmers and ranchers, $1,733 for Postex Plant employees, $277 for private citizens, $25 from the Woman's Culture Club and $110.50 from Justiceburg.

A further breakdown of the $1,399 for employees figure shows: $274 from Post retail employees, $66 from Post ministers, $133.50 from oil employees, $25 from Garza Memorial Hospital employees, $168 from school employees, $65 from ASCS and SCS employees, $85 from highway department employees, $37 from Southland schools, $237.50 from the First National Bank employees.

from four businesses in the Lincoln Addition.

In the campaign to date, $6,553 has been received in cash with the remainder in pledges to be paid at the contributor's designated time. Of the pledges, approximately half are of Postex Plant employees who will have payroll deductions made from their salaries with the Postex office mailing monthly contributions checks to the United Fund.

Mrs. Cornish in her "It's My Turn" column on page 5 makes her own comments on the United Fund drive and thanks the many workers who participated.

She said that a complete written report will be prepared for United Fund officers, together with a list of all contributors by categories and recommendations for any possible changes in organization, etc., to aid next year's drive chairman in preparing for the drive.

To replace pair stolen and wrecked

Emergency request for 2 school buses made

The Post Schools have sent in emergency requisitions to the Texas Educational Agency for two new 48 - passenger school buses to replace the pair "totaled" by vandals here Oct. 30.

Supt. Bill Shiver said the TEA has promised "every consideration" in trying to locate two buses immediately to relieve what could develop with bad weather into a bad bussing situation for the local school district.

Post school trustees at their November meeting Monday night approved Shiver's recommendation to emergency requisition two new school buses at a total estimated cost of around $9,400.

The superintendent told the board that the two older buses which were wrecked by vandals had brought an insurance settlement of $4,000.

Shiver explained that the school buses are not insured for 100 per cent of value but usually for only hail and glass damage. He said he thought the school district had received a very fair settlement on their insurance claim, which is based on actual value of the older vehicles, not on replacement cost.

One of the buses wrecked was a 10-year-old bus body on a 1967 chassis and the other was a much older body on a 1963 chassis. One of the buses was a 36 - passenger size, and the other a 48-passenger.

Shiver explained to the board that one new bus is in the 1969-70 school budget for purchase anyway and the $4,000 insurance settlement will take care of most of the cost for the second.

The Post school bus fleet makes nine rural runs each school day, using eight buses and a small carry-all. The wrecking of the two buses leaves the district with only nine buses, two of which are questionable for regular use.

Shiver told the board until the new buses are received the "bus situation is bad" especially in bad weather. "In bad weather you don't send out buses unless you have something to go get them in case of a breakdown," the administrator pointed out.

Normally, six months is required for state deliveries of new school buses after the orders go in, Shiver said. He said he didn't know how much emergency requisitioning would step up the delivery schedule.

Kay Kirkpatrick, chairman of the trustees, explained to the board that a "reward fund" has been set up at the suggestion of local citizens and contributions to it are being taken at the First National Bank in an effort to spur apprehension of the bus wrecking vandals.

In the only major action of the November meeting, school trustees adopted a policy for driver education in the Post Schools for 1969-70 which will enable the school district to apply for state aid for the program.

The policy provides that each student taking the course will be charged a $25 laboratory fee for the actual driving instruction, but that students unable to pay the laboratory fee will have the course made available to them without charge providing their parents sign an affidavit on their inability to pay.

Shiver said trustees that state reimbursement of $15 per student would provide $910 toward the estimated $2,160 cost for the course.

Two-day search ends

Murder charge filed after body is found

A two - day search that had its beginning in the vicinity of the Little League baseball park here ended Sunday when an 18 - year-old Marine Corps deserter led authorities to the body of a 70 - year-old Abilene man on a paved county road 3 of a mile west of Dermott in Scurry County.

The search had been triggered by the suspect's admission to Houston detectives that he had killed a man Wednesday morning between Post and Snyder.

The victim was Jacob Letson Sellers who currently was manager of the community water works in Potosi, a small town near Abilene. He had left Lubbock Wednesday after attending a regional water utilities short school.

The 18-year-old suspect, Thomas Wesley Matthews of Kutztown, Pa., was charged Sunday in Justice of the Peace court at Snyder with murder with malice in the death of Sellers, who had been shot to death.

Houston authorities drove the suspect to Scurry County Sunday afternoon, arriving near Dermott shortly before 5 p. m.

"He led us to the body within a few minutes," said Scurry County Sheriff Keith Collier.

Sellers' body was lying on the south side of the road by a fence with some grass pulled over it, the sheriff said.

Camp undergoes heart surgery

S. E. Camp underwent open heart surgery yesterday at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston for repair or replacement of a faulty heart valve.

The operation was performed by Dr. Denton Cooley, the heart specialist who has gained national recognition as one of the pioneers in the field of heart transplants.

The operation, which lasted two hours, was termed a successful one.

Camp had gone to Houston with Mrs. Camp for a heart examination, but had not expected to undergo surgery immediately.

Bus to Morton being planned by boosters

A chartered bus will carry fans to Morton for Friday night's Post-Morton football game if enough passengers have been "limed up" by noon today (Thursday).

The bus trip will cost $1.60 per person with the bus leaving at 5 p. m. Friday from the First National Bank parking lot.

Fans wishing to make the bus trip are asked to contact Jim Hundley or Pat N. Walker before noon today.

Water district award winner

The White River Municipal Water District received an award Nov. 8 for having the most attractive and efficient water treatment plant of any municipality in West Texas in the 8,000 to 20,000 population class.

The award was made at a banquet for the 21st West Texas Regional Water Utilities Short School, held at the KoKo Palace in Lubbock.

A panel of three judges made the decision after hearing about and seeing pictures of the plant, with the plant records also judged.

The short course varied from repair shops to the testing of water. In the basic courses, the students were taught the primary methods of water and sewage processing. In the laboratory courses, the students participated in problems that occur in the treatment and transportation of water.

Representing the White River Municipal Water Treatment Plant at the school were Ted Karr, John Rowe, Maynard Brown, Don Higgins and Arles Graham. Brown was on the program of the school in the treatment of water.

Cotton needing killer freeze

The best thing that could happen to the 1969 Garza County cotton crop would be for a killing freeze to hit this area tonight.

Farmers, who have defoliated, are beginning stripping operations again this week with the wet weather gone for the present.

Estimates on the Garza County crop, spread over 35,000 acres, is between 18,000 and 20,000 bushels if nothing else goes wrong.

Those who have defoliated and are now stripping report yields are a little bit better than expected.

The only market for cotton right now is for the short staple variety which Garza is going to produce this year. The question is: will the market hold until Garza farmers can get their crop out?

Right now the market is about 200 points above loan value.

School bus case reward set up

A "school bus reward" fund has been set up at the First National Bank in the theft and wrecking of two school buses here the night before Halloween.

The reward is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the theft and destruction of the buses.

Contributions to the reward fund may be made to any teller at the bank.

Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Claborn said yesterday that his department had nothing new to report in its investigation of the bus thefts.

The buses were stolen off the bus parking lot south of the elementary school building. One was destroyed by pushing it off a 75-foot bluff a few miles south of town, and the other by running off a U. S. Hwy. 380 embankment west of Post.

CARRIAGE HOUSE GOES TO TECH

Lott stands before the U Lazy S Ranch carriage, harness and saddle house which is being given to the Ranch Headquarters, a collection of authentic ranching buildings forming an outdoor museum at Texas Tech. Ranch Headquarters gets Garza building

LUBBOCK — The acquisition of the carriage, harness and saddle house from the U Lazy S Ranch in Garza County for the Ranch Headquarters at Texas Tech has been announced by Jerry Rogers, director of the Headquarters.

The building is the fifth historic structure to be donated to the Ranch Headquarters, a collection of authentic ranching buildings dating from the 1830's into early twentieth century.

The Headquarters will be situated on 10 acres at the site of the new Texas Tech University Museum on the campus at 4th and Indiana.

The structure and a donation of $10,000 are given by Mr. and Mrs. John F. Lott in memory of Mr. Lott's grandfather, John B. Slaughter, founder of the U Lazy S Ranch.

THE RANCH in Garza County was established in 1901, with the purchase of approximately 150,000 acres and 5,000 head of cattle from the Square and Compass Ranch. An additional 6,000 head which had been on Slaughter's Glasscock County property were brought to the ranch.

In 1906, Slaughter sold 50,000 acres to C. W. Post, who was building a town and colonizing large rural tracts in Garza County. Other purchases and sales were made, and the ranch totaled about 90,000 acres until 1966.

Lott now operates 56,000 acres of his grandfather's original holdings. The two - story carriage, harness and saddle house is of board and batten construction with a shed roof. The open center portion of the building was used to shelter buggies and surreys. One end contains the saddle and harness room, the other was used to store feed for milk cows.

THE BUILDING is currently in use on the ranch, and gear collected by Slaughter will be included when the structure is moved to the Ranch Headquarters site.

His grandfather, explained Lott, "couldn't ride past a buckle or piece of harness. He would get off his horse, pick up any bit of gear and carry it back to the house in one of his saddle bags."

John B. Slaughter was born in Sabine County, Texas, in 1848, and a few years later his father, George W. Slaughter, moved the family to Palo Pinto County.

At 17, John went up the cattle trail, driving for his father and brother, C. C., for $15 a month. Impressed by John's careful spending of his wages, George Slaughter rewarded his son with a gift of 30 or so head of calves.

While his cattle increased, John Slaughter drove the Chisholm and Dodge trails to Kansas.

In the spring of 1871, when he was twenty - three years old, Slaughter was shot by an Indian, the bullet going completely through his body. Six weeks later, however, he was back in the saddle. He was shot by Indians on four other occasions.

IN 1877, with $6,000 in capital, John and his brother, W. B., went into business together, buying steers and driving them to market.

In 1880, he established a ranch in Blanco Canyon on the Catfish River in Crosby County, on which he placed 2,000 head of cattle. The same year, he was married to Belle May of Dallas, and the couple came to West Texas to reside.

They had three children, Mamie, who married Frank E. Lott and lived in Kansas City; Jay; and Louie, who died at the age of 17.

When title to the Crosby County land being used by Slaughter was acquired by a cattle company, he trailed his stock to Socorro County, N. M. That operation was sold in 1886 to an English syndicate for $125,000, and Slaughter went to Utah, ranching 30 miles east of Salt Lake City. Utah was not to Slaughter's liking, and two years later he returned to New Mexico, having

We have been harried all fall by that growing green grass in the front yard. It hasn't been green through July in the 13 years we've been here — until this year. We thought it would never quit. At last it has — this week — but Mrs. C. thinks the edges still are needing a mid - November trim.

An interesting visitor to The Dispatch Tuesday was Mrs. Lex McClure of Mountain Home, Ark., who is here with her husband on a business trip.

Mrs. McClure, the former Gladys Gates, is a real Garza County old-timer. She recalls as a little girl seeing C. W. Post, town founder, several times. She told Mrs. C. the only time she spoke to him she asked him if he ate Grape Nuts.

Mrs. McClure's parents were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gates. The family came to Garza County in 1905 before Post was built and her father purchased some land which included Cooper's Canyon.

Her mother was the post mistress at Litwalton, Tex., above the Cooper's Canyon spring where Mr. Gates had a grocery store in which the post office was housed.

Incidentally, that's where Mr. Post got his mail when he was out here until he built Post City, Tex., Mrs. McClure says.

Mrs. McClure subscribed to The Dispatch and promised to look up some of the historical survey commission leaders before heading back to Arkansas.

You'll note on page 4 that Harold Lucas is announcing a new addition to his auto agency's sales department in the person of Cloves Tucker, who retired Sept. 30.

Saturday proclaimed 'Jaycee Day' in Post

Saturday, Nov. 15, has been proclaimed "Jaycee Day" in Post by Mayor Giles C. McCrary, with the Jaycees to launch a membership drive as the day's highlight.

The Jaycees' membership campaign will be "kicked off" at a dinner meeting at Jackson's Cafeteria at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, a spokesman for the organization said.

In proclaiming Jaycee Day, Mayor McCrary called attention to the numerous civic projects initiated and carried out by the Jaycees.

This year's projects have included: Clean-up of old sanitarium building; concessions at the Book Fair; removal of fence at Day Care Center; fireworks sale; curb painting; July the Fourth historical marker tour; bicycle races and flag pole dedication at July Fourth celebration;

Cooking breakfast at summer area convention; dunking booth at Sidewalk Sale; sponsorship of Miss Post, Miss White River and Miss South Plains contests; Labor Day mat show; rodeo parade float; rodeo saddle raffle; rodeo beard-growing contest; letters to NASA opposing Mrs. O'Hair's prayers in space objection.

October better for hospital

Garza Memorial Hospital trustees had reason to be more optimistic about the hospital's financial outlook at their November meeting last Wednesday night.

Hospital Administrator Donald Windham's report for October showed an average of eight patients a day with 33 patients admitted for the month for an average stay of 7½ days. There were three babies born and one death.

Ed Sawyers, chairman of the trustees, pointed out that the hospital's income had "made the payroll and paid off some of the hospital's other bills, including the remainder of a bank loan made two months previously to tide the hospital over."

"We haven't had to use any of the new tax money either," Sawyers said.

Windham's financial report showed the hospital collected $9,761.66 during October and had $11,243.28 in October accounts receivable outstanding.

Let's keep the water hot on this

It has been a long time since anything has "shaken up" the community as much as the night before Halloween. The deed was far outside the pale of Halloween pranks . . . so far outside, in fact, that it ranks as one of the most fiendish crimes committed here in recent years.

What it amounted to was the wanton destruction of nearly $10,000 worth of school property. That ranks as a major crime by almost any standard.

Naturally, with the bus thieves and wreckers still unapprehended, there has been much talk as to who might have committed the crime. Was it an adult? A juvenile? Someone in school?

Someone out of school? Was it someone who lives in Post, or someone from out of town?

This newspaper is confident that it won't be long before we know who stole and wrecked the buses. We may never know why they did it, because minds that think up and carry out such deeds usually are of the type that have a hard time thinking up a good reason for anything.

We just hope that the thieves and wreckers are caught before public indignation cools off. Public indignation won't try them, of course . . . that will be up to a court of law. But it will keep the pendulum of public feeling from swinging over to sympathy for someone who has brazenly stolen and destroyed two $5,000 school buses.—CD

FHA was way ahead of FFA here

One who describes himself as a longtime Dispatch subscriber said he read in a recent issue of our paper that the Future Farmers of America voted at their 1969 convention to allow girls to join the FFA. Now he wants to know if the Future Homemakers of America are going to follow suit by allowing boys to join their organization.

Well, after making a few judicious inquiries, we have news for our longtime subscriber . . . membership in the FHA has been open to boys for several years. The only requirement is that the boy who wishes to become a member of the FHA be enrolled in a high school homemaking class. Which is perhaps as it should be. Since this isn't, nor never has been, strictly a man's world or a woman's world, why should either of these two outstanding youth organizations restrict membership to its own sex?

Before anyone tries to crowd us into a corner by asking, "Well, how about the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts?" we'll point out that the very names of these two organizations specify what the sex of the member should be. Besides, they're much more similar in goals, etc., than are the FFA and the FHA.—CD

High interest rates gouging

More and more people are learning daily that the current high interest rates, the highest in the nation's history, are causing economic problems at all economic levels.

People wanting to buy a new home are discovering that mortgage money has become so expensive that they cannot afford to buy a home now. Or, if they must buy, they must settle for a much smaller home than they had planned for.

People who buy washers, TV sets or other appliances or an automobile on time are finding that the financing changes are getting too expensive for the average buyer. The manufacturers of these items are also having to raise prices to offset the high interest they must pay when they borrow money.

Businessmen who want to expand and developers of residential areas or shopping centers have found development money so expensive they have had to give up on their plans.

No matter which way you turn, the high interest rates are gouging you. We have had five increases in interest rates since December. Who can afford for this trend to continue?

Farmers Union to seek members

Gov. Preston Smith has proclaimed the week of Nov. 10-15 "Farmers Union Membership Week," which is of interest locally, since Garza County has a Farmers Union organization.

In announcing the proclamation, the Governor acknowledged a prosperous agriculture is vital to the economic well-being of Texas. He pointed out that the Farmers Union is the oldest farm organization in Texas, having been founded in Texas in 1902, and he recognized the growth of the state organization.

The present Garza County Farmers Union is only about three years old, but it is an active unit of the state organization, having met only a few nights ago to elect delegates to the state Farmers Union convention which is to be held in Abilene the first week in December.

Texas Farmers Union is the fastest growing organization among the affiliates in the National Farmers Union and is considered the fastest growing general farm organization in Texas.

Garza County farmers and ranchers who are not now members of the Farmers Union might do well to investigate the advantages membership has to offer when the local unit begins its campaign to enroll new members.—CD

The Post Antelopes will be shooting for a victory at Morton Friday night but their second best season in over 17 years. A victory would give them a 7-3 record for the campaign and the best in probably 20 years, two district champs ago.

The Lopes proved something at Idalou when they rallied from a 27-7 deficit for a 28-27 win in the last seven minutes. We haven't ever seen or heard of a high school team coming from behind that far back—that fast!

But not to be overlooked either is the fact that the Morton Indians are a much better club than their district record of no victories and a cellar spot would indicate. They will be trying to come "all the way back" in their season finale to salvage a victory in their final District 4AA game. (They move to 3AA district next year.)

by PATTI PEEL

Tol Thomas is back in school again after dislocating his hip. We are glad to have you back, Tol.

Mr. Lee was your tent long enough this weekend?

The band goes to marching contest in Lubbock Tuesday. We want to wish them luck.

The spirit was high at pep rally Friday as well as at the game Friday night, as it led the Antelope to a victory over the Idaho Wildcats.

Did the Seniors have fun sweeping out the band buses Friday night?

D-Day better known as REPORT CARD DAY arrived and we all survived.

Everyone help boost the Antelopes to victory over the Morton Indians tomorrow night by going to the game and showing your spirit. Show the Antelopes you are behind them all the way.

I want to compliment the Pep Squad on the halls last Friday; they really looked nice. The girls have done a great job decorating the halls and the gym on Fridays all year. The whole school appreciates it.

What's the good word? BEAT MORTON!

FMA girls have Halloween party

By NANCY COOK
The Future Homemakers of America girls held a Halloween party Oct. 30, with everyone coming "all spooked up." There were witches, black cats, frito-banditos, football players and Martians.
We played games and went through a spooky, bloody horror house. Then came the life of the party, Kathy Jones. She was in a casket, playing dead, and really looked dead!

Then our fortune was told. Next, we all tried to lift Pam Petty up off the floor by great concentration, which did not work too successfully.
Refreshments of hot tea, punch and popcorn balls were served.
We also voted on costumes. Nettie Osby was voted most original; Frieda Mahon, most disguised; and Janyce Brockman, most original. They were awarded prizes.
You can't judge a country by what its opposing politicians say about each other.

Christmas seals being mailed

Wednesday was the opening day of the 63rd annual Christmas Seal Campaign, which is conducted in this area by the West Texas Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association.

Over 110,000 letters will be delivered to the citizens of the 23-county West Texas area. Garza County chairmen for the campaign are Mr. and Mrs. Giles Dalby.

Troop 5 of the Girl Scouts will "stuff" the envelopes to be mailed to Garza County citizens, under the direction of their leaders, Mrs. Jack Lott and Mrs. Bill Shiver. Also assisting will be the Xi Delta Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Ninety-three per cent of the amount raised from Christmas Seals in Texas stays in the state to support these local programs: Adult education, public school anti-smoking education, skin testing for tuberculosis, mobile x-ray unit surveys, tuberculosis clinics, and respiratory disease classes.

Operations then were moved to Glasscock County, Texas, where he had 180 sections of land with 6,000 head of cattle and 100 horses. He also was president for a short time of the Peoples National Bank of Colorado City.

IN 1898, the family moved to Fort Worth, and about the same time, the Glasscock County holdings were sold. Slaughter continued ranching, leasing land in Garza and Borden counties until the purchase of the Square and Compass.

About 1905 the family moved to the ranch, living in a large house considered to be one of the finest in West Texas. It burned in 1936, destroying art objects and fine furniture which Mrs. Slaughter had collected.

Slaughter gained recognition for successfully crossing Brahma cattle with buffaloes. The resulting "Cattalos" were then crossed again, supposedly a genetically impossible feat, and a large, heavy, thrifty animal known as "Vernier" was the product.

He continued in active operation of the ranch until his death at the age of 80. Lott, who was born and raised in Kansas City, assumed management of the properties in 1948.

Lott is a member of the Ranch Headquarters Committee which, during the past two years, has located a sequence of ranch buildings to show the evolution of ranch architecture during each decade of the industry's history. Other members are Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Holden, co-chairmen; D. Burns, Miss Christine DeVitt, Mrs. Wilson Connell, Watt Matthews, Frank Chappell and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Schroiner, III.

School buses—

(Continued From Front Page) for 70 students and would more than pay the charges for students not charged for the course because of their inability to pay.

Shiver estimated there might be 20 students not charged for the course.

The policy was adopted by a four to nothing vote with Trustees Billie Windham and Don Tatum abstaining. Trustee A. C. Cash was not present.

Tatum and Mrs. Windham objected to some students being allowed to take the course without charge while parents of other students were charged the $25 fee.

Unless the school policy provides for driver education for students unable to pay any fees charged, state aid for the course would not become available. No state aid was received here last year because of this.

Shiver told the board that proper driver education is essential for Texas highway safety and that Police Judge Pat Walker is dismissing charges of "no driver's license" against underprivileged youths here until the local school offers them driver's educational training to qualify them for such a license.

Body found—

Sellers' car was found Thursday morning in Robstown, near the Gulf coast, with bloodstains and a .22 caliber cartridge case on the floor.

The suspect was arrested Friday in Houston at a store where he had attempted to buy some radio equipment with Sellers' credit card, authorities said.

As soon as the word reached Garza County Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Claborn, he and his deputies began combing the area between Post and Snyder, calling in Texas Rangers, highway patrolmen, and other officers in the search. The search was called off for the day at sundown Saturday, but was resumed Sunday.

According to homicide detectives in Houston, the youth said he shot Sellers after he got him to stop southeast of Post so he could take some pictures of a range of hills. He said he took $22 from Sellers' wallet, along with a credit card, drove the car to a side road and dumped the body.

The youth said he had caught a ride with Sellers just outside of Lubbock on U. S. Hwy. 84 Wednesday morning.

Postings—

Cloves was a squadron first sergeant in the Air Force and traveled all over the world on his Air Force assignments, including two visits to Europe, one to Alaska and service in the current Vietnam war. He returned from Vietnam in September, 1968, and was stationed at Wichita Falls for his final year in service.

The Tucker family includes his wife, Ada Mae, three daughters and one son, with only one daughter, Joy, and the son, Robert C. still at home.

Cloves says he has called Post "home" since 1923 although he hasn't been here very often in the last 25 years. He is now looking forward to catching up with some home living and selling a lot of cars around town.

Student comments on film 'Charly'

By BILLYE WILLIAMS

"This weekend I went to see "Charly," and when I walked out of the theatre I was depressed and deeply moved.

"Charly" was the story of a man mentally retarded. He was given an operation which gave him the mental capacity of a genius. But Charly himself discovered that he was to regress to what he had been.

To us, today, if things aren't our way or everything is not going smooth, the roof is falling in. But imagine, losing all your knowledge, insight into the world, and the capacity of learning.

What you have gained, you will have forever. You will never face the loss of all your experiences in life. To put it short and sweet, be thankful for the life you've got and live it to the fullest. If things are down, think of Charly.

Recently, the maximum age limit was raised to 38 in hopes of attracting retiring Armed Forces personnel. Date of employment must be prior to applicant's 39th birthday.

Representatives from the Dallas Police Department will be at the Red Raider Inn in Lubbock on Nov. 25 and Nov. 26 to answer questions about the Dallas Police Department and explain what it has to offer. In addition, they will administer the Civil Service examination to those applicants who meet the minimum requirements.

In Feature No. 2, Philip Roth's National Book Award winner, "Goodbye, Columbus," has finally been brought to the screen. One movie critic wrote, "Goodbye, Columbus" is the warmest, friend-

Post to end '69 grid season at Morton Friday night

Last high school game for 14 senior athletes

With 14 seniors in a Post Antelope football uniform for the last time, Coach Billy Hahn's gridders will go to Morton Friday night for the final game of the 1969 season.

A win over Morton would give the 'Lopes a 7-3 season record for the best since 1966 and their second best in 20 years.

Seniors sitting out for their last high school grid battle will be: Jay Hall, Terry Moreau, Ray Altman, Terry Hall, Neff Walker, George Hines, Dennis Dodson, Grady Shy, Kim Wilks, Steve Newby, Jimmy McKemie, Randy Hudman, Jimmy Hair and Butch Heaton.

Morton, winless in district play, expected to give the Antelopes a rough time if they expect to win it, Coach Hahn said.

The Indians lost district encounter to Denver City and Frenship by respectable scores, losing to the Mustangs, 9-0, and to the Tigers, 24-14, in their other two district

Freshman '11' closes with 20 to 0 victory

The Post freshman football team ended its 1969 season with a convincing 20-0 win over the Roosevelt freshmen here last Thursday.

After a scoreless first quarter in which Post at one time drove to Roosevelt 15, Coach Bud Darr team notched a touchdown in the second period on a pass from Pace to Randy Kennedy, a play covering 25 yards.

Later in the second period, Bill Hudman picked off a Roosevelt pass that had gone wild and ran 23 yards for a touchdown, giving Post a 12-0 halftime lead.

The third quarter was scoreless,

Post takes Idalou in barnburner, 28 to 27

Roaring from behind with 21 points in the final seven minutes of the fourth quarter, the Post Antelopes pulled one out of the fire to defeat the Idalou Wildcats, 28 to 27, Friday night at Reddell Field in Idalou.

Blocking of a punt by linebacker Dennis Dodson and interception of a pass by halfback Neff Walker highlighted what undoubtedly rank as one of the greatest comeback wins in Post High School football history.

Walker's three fourth quarter touchdown runs, one for 51 yards, and three extra point kicks from the reliable toe of Randy Hudman gave the 'Lopes their one-point margin.

After the teams had battled to a 7-7 deadlock through the first half, the Wildcats scored 12 points in the third period and seven early in the fourth to grab what appeared to be a comfortable 27-7 lead, but from there on in all the momentum belonged to Coach Billy Hahn's Post team.

Walker's 51-yard touchdown ramble made the score 27-14; his four-yard dive for another six-pointer after Dodson had blocked an Idalou punt made it 27-21, and the senior halfback's one-yard blast after he had intercepted an Idalou pass made it 28-27 — with Hudman coming through on the extra point kicks.

The Post defense had caught fire along with the offense and completely bottled up what had been an effective Idalou running and passing attack through the first three quarters.

The Antelopes scored first after Larry Bilberry recovered a fumble on the Idalou 27. Seven plays later, halfback Karl Bruce Hall banged four yards through the line for a touchdown, with Hudman tacking on the extra point.

The Wildcats tied it up with 2:37 remaining in the first half on a 42-yard pass play from quarterback Donnie Drake to end Larry Pretree, with fullback John Hamilton kicking the extra point.

An Idalou recovery of quarterback Robert Bullock's fumble on connected on one of 16 for 15 yards, giving the locals 253 total yards to the visitors' 32.

Post's offensive standouts included Pace, Mindieta, who gained 90 yards on 13 carries; Johnny Minor, Kennedy, Junior Stelzer, Abraham Perez and Dan Hodges. Standouts on defense included Robby James, who covered two Roosevelt fumbles; Hudman, Jerry Smith, Martin Morales, Stelzer and Arthur Ayala.

HUDMAN'S 24

Sale Starts Friday, Nov. 14

Dear Customers:

As you know we don't have PROMOTIONAL sales wherein we would buy cheap merchandise to promote at a cheap price. We have always tried to stock GOOD merchandise ranging from the economy groups through the top grades in the industry. That is why we do not have promotional sales and this is not one.

In order to get the best possible prices we buy direct from the manufacturers. This means that often we have to buy six or seven months prior to delivery. In this type of operation it is impossible to not get overloaded on some items. Also after a year we come up with broken lots, odds and ends, unmatched pairs of lamps and etc. We had rather sacrifice these and put in new stock.

Now is the time to furnish that room with the furniture or carpet you want at a price you want to pay. Use your credit. We would like to have your account.
