

Steps taken to make repairs at fast deteriorating airport here

5-member board being appointed

In a move to delegate responsibility for the improvement and upkeep of the rapidly deteriorating County - Municipal Airport, built four years ago, the city council Monday night appointed two members to a five - member airport board.

Two members had been appointed to the board by the county commissioners' court earlier in the day, and the fifth member will be elected by the four appointed members.

At their respective meetings Monday, the city and county also agreed to make repairs and improvements at the airport, which includes "patching" of the runways.

In other action at its regular September meeting Monday night, the council:

—Raised the salaries of the police sergeant and nine city employees (covered in a separate story in today's Dispatch).

—Designated Pat N. Walker as city attorney on a fee basis.

—Discussed briefly the proposed street paving project with Ronnie Purcell, representing the paving contractor.

—Adopted an ordinance to conform with new state laws on the closing time for places selling beer for on - premises consumption.

—Accepted the bid of the First National Bank as depository for city funds for the next two years.

—Set 1 p. m. Sept. 18 as the time and date of a public hearing on the proposed new city budget.

The council appointed Victor Hudman and Royce Josey to the airport board. The county's board appointees at the commissioners' court meeting were Julian F. Smith and Giles Dalby.

Smith, who was a member of the original airport board, told the council Monday night that with the city and county's cooperation needed repairs and improvements can be made and the airport put back on a sound basis once the airport board is active again.

It was explained that the terms of all the original airport board members expired at the same time some two years ago and a new board was never appointed. That left no one with the express responsibility for the upkeep of the airport, it was pointed out.

City Manager Bobby Pierce said one of the hangar owners at the airport had recently cut most of the weeds at the airport and would have finished the job but for a mower breakdown. Pierce said as soon as the weather permits the city will finish the mowing from 40 to 50 feet on the sides of the runways and around the hangars.

The county has agreed to use its equipment to patch the runways, which have cracked badly, with weeds growing in the cracks.

The council also indicated that it approved of a suggestion by Smith that a gate be built at the highway, with the gate unlocked in the daytime and locked at night.

The council voted to give the new airport board authority to handle all airport operations, including funds, with regular reports to be made by the board to the council.

Action was also taken by the council to complete the payment of something over $400 that has been due the contractor since the airport was completed. Earlier, the county had voted to pay its half of the debt, and the council followed suit at its Monday night meeting.

Purcell, the paving contractor representative, showed the council a revised map of the proposed street paving and asked that it decide which units it wanted to go with so he could start contacting the property owners.

The council deferred action on the paving project, however, when it could not agree with Purcell on the procedure for the filing of paving liens. Purcell was told that the council would confer with its attorney and that it would be ready to take action on the paving at a special meeting tonight (Thursday).

The ordinance adopted by the council permits places selling beer for on - premises consumption to stay open an hour later, until 2 a. m., to conform with a new state law which became effective Sept. 1.

Two are injured, one critically, in bridge accident

A 13-year-old Lubbock area boy, Juan Ramirez, was critically injured about 11:40 p. m. Sunday when a pickup truck driven by his father struck the entrance to the Griffin Creek bridge, 17.4 miles southeast of Post on U. S. 84.

The boy's stepfather, Jose Alvarez, 40, was less seriously injured in the accident. They live at the West Carlisle Station, near Lubbock.

The injured youngster, who suffered a crushed left leg and other injuries, was brought by ambulance to the Garza Memorial Hospital and transferred from there to a Lubbock hospital. The injured boy was amputated shortly after he was admitted to the hospital in Lubbock.

Highway Patrolman Gene Posey, investigating officer, said the truck was traveling northwest when it struck the bridge entrance. The vehicle turned over and skidded on its side almost the length of the bridge before coming up again. The boy was thrown from the pickup.

The Griffin Creek bridge is a 17.4-mile stretch of Justice Highway.

Driver injured in crash here

Rocky Gill, 18, was dismissed from Garza Memorial Hospital Monday after receiving emergency treatment for cuts received when his automobile struck a park-pickup truck and knocked it into a ditch.

Police Sgt. Otis Shepherd, investigating officer, said the accident occurred when Gill lost control of his automobile after striking another vehicle on South Highway.

Gill's car struck a pickup owned by Emmett Stelzer at the Caprock Company and knocked it into a ditch. The officer reported that the vehicles were damaged, and the automobile almost a total loss, according to the officer. Gill was charged with speeding, negligent collision and minor inebriation.

Post receives 3 inches of rain

The rains came Monday night—and kept coming.

That was this week's weather picture, as far as Post was concerned. But much of the county didn't get the hard two - inch soaker which put the streets awash here Monday night.

Rainfall reports from some parts of the county listed only .30 of an inch.

All told up to Wednesday morning, Post officially received 2.80 inches. That doesn't count the slow, steady moisture which fell yesterday.

Lewis Herron, farm representative of the bank, said the moisture is helping the grass and late feed, but probably didn't either help or hurt the cotton.

If the weather clears off and the sun comes out, this week's rains won't hurt the cotton, Herron said.

Metcalfs give land to school district

The Post Public School District has been given a block - size tract of land by Mr. and Mrs. Irby G. Metcalf, Jr., of Fort Worth for future development as the schools see fit.

The property is located between West Third and Fourth streets fronting FM-1313 along its west side. This is but two blocks south of the present school complex.

School trustees were approached on the gift at their August meeting, but announcement was held up pending some necessary legal steps.

The deed for the property was which they also took an undetermined amount of money.

Machines were damaged in the primary and elementary school buildings, high school building and vocational agriculture shop, with only the junior high building escaping the raids.

The break - ins are being investigated by the sheriff's department and the city police department.

Both wings of the high school building were broken into. Entrance to the north wing apparently was gained after a window glass on the south side of the wing was broken out and the screen cut. Entrance to the south wing was broken out and the screen cut. Entrance to the south wing was gained through a similar operation on the north side of that wing.

Once inside, the vandals looted the coin machines and broke into the principal's and superintendent's offices after breaking out the door glass. Nothing was reported missing from either of the offices.

Officers said the vandals evidently used either a large screw driver or a similar tool to pry the drink and candy machines open. They were unsuccessful in their attempt to break into the machine in the trustees gave Shiver the go ahead (See Vandals Hit, page 8)

When we were out to the White River Lake Saturday for the second "lake day" we took the opportunity before a fried chicken picnic lunch to drive around the new White River Lake golf course.

It's going to be a sporty layout with the lake in view on many holes and with one hole which plays entirely across a deep gulch or small canyon.

The fairways have been seeded to grass for weeks and are being watered regularly as are the bent grass tees and greens. The greens are contoured nicely, but four of the greens have been "lost" due to wild grass blowing in. The four have been "gassed" clear and replanted.

All that golf course grass ought to be growing. Lake Manager Al O'Brien, who is not connected with the golf course, told us the club poured four and one-half million gallons of water on greens and fairways during August alone. The club pumps their own unfiltered water from the lake and pays 10

First use of the new school property will come next Thursday night when a bonfire and pep rally is held there on the eve of the Post Antelopes' first home football game with Lockney.

L. D. Jackson, proprietor of Jackson's Cafeteria and Cafe, certainly should be singled out for special praise for his efforts to make the affair the success it was.

L. D. presides over the kitchen of his cafeteria six days a week and takes Tuesdays off, most Tuesdays that is. On this Tuesday he opened up his kitchen to preparing all the food, worked with other volunteers all day long preparing the barbecue, and then donated use of all his considerable catering equipment for the serving lines Tuesday night. All of this was without charge.

Workshop to be conducted for Post teachers

"Setting Objectives" will be the area of concentration for an in-service workshop for Post school teachers to be conducted Monday, Sept. 22, by Dr. Bruce Evans, associate professor in education at the University of Texas in El Paso.

Dr. Evans, who was band director in the schools here for four years, 1962-66, in familiar with local problems of curriculum development from both an inside participation viewpoint and an outside field viewpoint, said Supt. William F. Shiver.

Dr. Evans, a graduate of Snyder High School, received a bachelor's degree in music education with a minor in English from Abilene Christian College in 1959. He received his master's degree from ACC in May of 1960 with a major in education and a minor in psychology.

Dr. Evans was band director at Rotan in 1960-61 and assistant band director and instructor in music at ACC in 1961-62 before coming to Post. He received his doctorate in education from Texas Tech in May of 1968 with a major emphasis on curriculum development.

The in-service workshop for teachers will be held on the same day that has been designated a school holiday so students can attend the Panhandle South Plains Fair at Lubbock.

All members, especially the new members, are invited to attend a meeting of the Antelope Booster Club at 7:30 p. m. Monday, Sept. 15, in the fieldhouse.

Election of officers is scheduled by the club and a film of the Post-Hale Center game will be shown.

The youngsters out-read the adults in fiction selections for the month with a total of 349 juvenile and easy books checked out to 265 for adults, young adults, mysteries and westerns.

A total of 143 new books were placed on library shelves during the month bringing acquisitions for the year to 317 volumes.

A total of $10.64 was paid in overdue book fines during the month and one easy book was recorded as lost.

Trustees concerned over traffic safety

School zones may get uniformed 'lady cops'

It may not be long now before uniformed "lady cops" will whittle down traffic violators in front of the schools here and issue them tickets from the county sheriff's department.

School trustees, who have been concerned for months over traffic safety conditions for youngsters in front of the schools on US-380, finally decided to move in a new direction at their September meeting Monday night.

They authorized Supt. Bill Shiver to take necessary steps to get a safety patrol of women officers to handle the safety problems around the schools.

Shiver checked with the Lubbock schools, which have their uniformed women patrols operating under the Lubbock Police Department and then contacted Sheriff L. E. (Fay) Claborn concerning setting up such a safety patrol for the Post schools.

Sheriff Claborn consented to take on the job in his law enforcement agency when Shiver told him the schools would pay the salary costs.

The sheriff told The Dispatch after consulting with an attorney on the matter that he planned to deputize the patrol women so they could issue tickets to traffic violators.

Some parents called The Dispatch this week to complain that the traffic situation is both dangerous and "impossible" in front of the schools along Eighth street during rainy weather because of mothers "double and triple parking" waiting to pick up sons and daughters.

Supt. Shiver said during the discussion Monday night that student safety patrols simply "confused everybody." He said the city used to station a police car in the area during the short time periods.

The pay raises for the firemen and the police sergeant were voted at last Thursday's meeting.

Parents turn out despite weather

Monday night's rainy weather didn't keep many parents away from the Parents Night program held in the lower six grades of the Post schools.

Supt. William F. Shiver said good attendance on the part of parents was reported at both the primary and elementary buildings.

The program, which was for the purpose of giving parents an opportunity to meet their children's teachers, was held from 7 until 9 o'clock.

The salary of Police Sgt. Otis G. Shepherd Jr. was increased from $425 to $450 a month. The council had raised the salary of City Patrolman Max Chaffin from $400 to $425 a month at an earlier meeting.

Steps taken to 'rescue' airport

The rapid deterioration of the county-municipal airport, which we were told some four years ago that the community could not get along without, has become the cause of deep concern.

Happily, we can report that at long last something is to be done about it.

The blame for the airport deteriorating to its present deplorable condition can be laid at many doorsteps.

Both the city and the county, which invested tax dollars in the project, can be blamed for not taking more interest and seeing to it that the airport was kept up. Private users of the field also can be blamed for not insisting that whoever was responsible for the airport's maintenance do something about it. And the average citizen is to be blamed for not "holering" about it long before now.

An airport board was appointed by the city and the county in the early days of the airport project, but all the board members' terms expired at the same time some two years ago and nothing was ever done about appointing a new board. So, without an airport board to see that the property, especially the runway, was maintained, what else could be expected.

As one of the original airport board members told the city council Monday night, it's a shame that $100,000 worth of runway has been allowed to go down the drain just because no one would go out and do two days work on it.

The city and the county have appointed a new airport board and steps are already under way to patch the cracked, weed-choked runway and clean up the airport. The city and the county are doing the patching and the cleaning up.

Indications are that the newly appointed airport board, once it sets full sail, will do a much better job on airport maintenance than has been done in the past, with the result that we will have a field of which to be proud—which is what we were promised at the start.

We can recall that its appeal to new industry was one of the "selling points" when proponents of the airport were educating the people to its value. We've wondered though, these last few months, what a representative of a prospective new industry would think of a community that goes "all out" to build an airport and then lets it go to pot.—CD

Let's help 'Lopes get rolling

Bigger things than we have happened since the successful 1967 season are expected of this year's Antelope squad, and one of the best ways to help them live up to those expectations is to attend their games and let them know you are there.

Director Herb Germer's Post Antelope marching band will also be "taking the field" for the first time this season at the Hale Center game, and the band, too, would like to know that you are in the stands cheering them on when they put on their half-time show.

Let's help bring the Antelopes home with an opening game victory to carry into their next two games, both of which will be played at home.

Jaycees plan slap at Madalyn

Post Jaycees are planning to join in a statewide Jaycees campaign to counteract the activities of atheist Madalyn Murray O'Hair in her attempts to prohibit astronauts from praying while on space flights.

The local Jaycees got the "dope" on the campaign at a weekend meeting in Plainview and plan to take it up at their regular meeting tonight (Thursday).

We agree with the Jaycees in their charges that the O'Hair woman has overstepped her bounds by making the request that American citizens have to be told where and when they can pray.

The woman who is trying to prohibit astronauts from praying while on space flights is the same woman who almost singlehandedly removed prayer from our public schools. Furthermore, she is now threatening what she calls "wham-bam" lawsuits against schools that have returned to the practice of praying or classroom meditation. She is a busy woman, but she's working in the wrong workshop.

The state Jaycees plan a letter writing campaign to NASA officials with the hope that astronauts "will not be told to pray or not to pray, but instead be given the right to pray if they want to according to our United States Constitution."—CD

It's a road game at Hale Center with an 8 p. m. kickoff to keep in mind. ### MOVE BACK TO POST

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Keeton have moved back to Post after leaving their home in Pecos for the last few months.

member Miss C telling Mr. C and I about one of the job interviews she had in New York. Giving a little parental advice to her in filling out forms we had told her to include everything — such as being a Girl Scout (this always impresses everyone) and telling everything she had ever done, including working at The Post Dispatch. We even insisted she say she had written a column during the summer for the paper.

While being interviewed, she was questioned about her duties at the newspaper office and finally, the interviewer said: "What was the name of the column you wrote?"

Miss C said she wanted to disappear quickly upon being asked this question, but desperately needing a job, she looked the lady in the eye and (without flinching visibly) said: "Susan's Stuff."

She told us it was one of her darkest moments. Nevertheless, she got the job!

So, Patti Peel, remember that this column heading may arise to haunt you in the future.

To keep things even with the C daughters I must announce that Lt. and Mrs. K are no more Lt. and Mrs. K. They are now Mr. and Mrs. K. Had you there for a minute, didn't I? You probably thought I was announcing a divorce!

Not so. Our son-in-law has finished his tour of duty with the U. S. Army and is once again a civilian — a word that isn't much appreciated until one isn't.

They have left Camp Swampy, sometimes referred to as Fort Polk, La., and the town of Leesville, and are now residing in Houston, where Mr. K is enrolled at the University of Houston to work on his master's degree.

Mrs. K is teaching minimal brain-damaged children in a junior high school in Pasadena.

When she applied for the job evidently someone noticed that she was originally from Post and commented that they had another teacher in their school system from Post. This, as we knew but she didn't, is Will Bigott.

Having taken Civics from Mr. Bigott when he was Post High School basketball coach and civics teacher, Mrs. K, with tongue in cheek, informed the person interviewing her that she wasn't sure she wanted to teach in a system that would hire HIM. Evidently the "tongue in cheek" was noticeable because they hired her.

So, now when the Cs get down Houston way we'll have fun visiting them and have a good place to relax. We were getting sort of tired of motels in that city.

Now, I'll be in trouble with Miss C as she keeps asking when the Cs are coming to New York to see her.

Maybe I should have just skipped a column this week.

Southland area news

Longtime area resident makes move to Oregon

By TOMMIE WILKE

Hello out there in newspaper land. It is nice to be back at the old desk trying to scrape up a little news. I was gone all last week so there won't be much news this week. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Zieschang, Edmund and I took a little trip into New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada and Utah. Saw lots of beautiful country and a lot of desolate country, but good old Southland looked mighty good to us when we got back! There just isn't any place like "home, sweet home".

One of our most beloved residents has moved from Southland after living here for over 50 years. Mrs. Nellie Mathis has left for Salem, Ore., where she will make her home. She was given a going-away party a week ago Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Walter Kellum in Slaton with Mrs. Opal Pennell as co-hostess. Approximately 30 guests from Amarillo, Lubbock, Tahoka, Post, Slaton and Southland registered and others paid on the gift presented to Mrs. Mathis. The gift was three pieces of luggage and a matching robe and gown set. The serving table was laid with a handmade crochet cloth over green. Crystal appointments were used and the table was centered with a pink and green centerpiece. Pink punch and cookies were served. We are all going to miss Mrs. Mathis but are happy that she will be living close to her family.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Myers visited in Guthrie over the weekend. Their son and family from Cleburne visited the Myers several days recently.

Our daughter, Sherri, spent the week with Bro. and Mrs. Dodd, Dessa and Will, while we were on our trip.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD PENNELL, Mrs. Lynn Freeman and Will Dodd went to White River Lake Day on Saturday. It was a very gala and festive day. Miss Debbie Hitt of Ralls was crowned Miss White River Lake. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Hitt, formerly of Southland, and Debbie attended school in Southland. Congratulations, Debbie.

RAH, RAH, RAH — yes it is that time of year again. Southland will be playing their first game of the season this coming Friday night. They will be going against Sterling City here at 8 p. m. Once again this year the seniors and their mothers will be in charge of the concession stand with all kinds of goodies. Come on Southland fans and all go out to the game on Friday night and let the boys and the coaches know that we are behind them 100 per cent. See you at the game!

Mrs. Arthur Stolle was clerk at the Southland Post Office last week while I was on vacation.

Mrs. Jackie Abshire was honored with a bridal shower Sept. 6 in the home of Mrs. Lucille Myers. Other hostesses were: Mmes. Martha Basinger, Emma Lou Taylor, Joan Basinger, Peggy Altman, Elsie Crawford, Patt Dyess, Opal Pennell, Ruby Ellis, Theima Dabbs, Eleanor Dodd, Sis Lancaster, Dana Smallwood, Pauline

Respect of Persons

By Don Davenport

He was walking along the street in the performance of his duty; he was thinking about the things he ought to think about; he was looking out for the welfare of other walkers so as not to run them down; his mind was wide awake and intelligent, but he did not see the little bit of ice, and in an instant he was down on the pavement with a broken arm. And the people rushed to his rescue from all directions, there were representatives of every race and every creed all eager to be of service, and all expressing the most genuine sympathy, and the fortunate unfortunate man was aided to the hospital and cared for until he was well.

Another man was walking through the crowded experiences of a real life, in possession of his full faculties and in pursuit of things worthwhile, but he did not see the bit of temptation in his way, and in an instance he was down with a broken moral character! And all around him were people of every race and every creed, and they turned their faces away from the "criminal" as they called him, and the police and patrol wagon took him away to the prison. AND YET HE BUT SLIPPED AS DID THE OTHER.

"Brethren, even if a man be overtaken, in any trespass, ye who are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ." Galatians 6:1,2.

The halls of PHS are once again echoing clanging lockers, stampeding feet, noisy voices, with door knobs reflecting both old and new faces in PHS.

Tomorrow night a new feeling will come over Antelope fans. The more you have it the more you want it. What is it? SPIRIT! Be spirited. How? Be at the Antelope-Hale Center game tomorrow night and spread the feeling.

The newly appointed Paper Staff consists of Editor, Patti Peel; Assistant Editors, Barbie Gilmore, Billy Williams, Nancy Strawn, and the reporters are 5th period Typing II class. Wish us a lot of luck in this year's publication.

This year like any other year is full of lost, mixed - up freshmen. By the way, what freshman looked for the same classroom two hours in a row?

So, let's help Maxine and have a great dance Sept. 19.

What senior boy was lost in 2nd period English? G. S. Did you finally decide to look at your schedule?

Holmes brothers are new students

By NANCY STRAWN

Post High School has received several new students this past summer.

Two of our new students are Rodney and Terry Holmes. They recently moved here from Lubbock.

Rodney is a junior from Monterey High School. He participated in Band, Choir, Basketball, Pre-Med Club, and was also the drum major of the band. When Rodney was asked how he liked Post, he said, "It's different than a big school. You have more of a chance to be yourself."

Terry is a freshman and comes from Atkins Junior High School in Lubbock. Terry was in the band and plans to play tennis at PHS. Terry likes Post, but he also likes the girls from a larger city.

Ken Herron president Post Antelope band

The band officers for the 1969-70 school year are: Ken Herron, president; Larry Cummings, vice president; Pam Petty, secretary; Nina Young, treasurer, and Nancy Cook, reporter.

The officers will be behind the scenes working for the band, but the people out front will be the drum majors, David Hamilton and Nancy Norman, and the twirlers, Kay Herron, Patti Peel, Sharon Windham and Karen Windham.—KIM McCLELLAN.

Antelopes nip Spur in controlled scrimmage

By DAVID PIERCE

The Post Antelopes played in their second and final controlled scrimmage at Spur Friday, nosing out the hometowners two touchdowns to one. The 'Lopes, who open Friday at Hale Center, once again shone on defense against the surprisingly tough Bulldogs.

Post copped their first series of plays with a 20-yard scoring pass from quarterback Ray Altman to fullback Neff Walker. The Bulldogs came back, however, and scored once on their first series, with most of their yardage gained in the air.

On the last play series, 'Lope halfback George Torres carried three straight times for a total of about 50 yards down to the two yard line. Terry Moreau took over on a sweep to end the scoring drive.

The Post defense then took over, halting Spur from further scoring. Looking very good on defense were the front four, consisting of David Stelzer, David Perez, Steve Newby and Jimmy McKamie. Also combining to stop the opposing team, were linebackers Randy Hudman and Ray Altman, and defensive backs Robert Bullock and Karl Hall.

Plans progress for Snyder 'Ranch Day'

SNYDER — Mrs. Wilson Connell of the Lazy D Ranch north of Snyder has been busy finalizing plans for the Ranchers Day celebration to be held here Saturday, Sept. 20. She is chairman of the celebration which is intended to acquaint the public with the history of this community's trade territory.

Mrs. Connell is also a member of the Ranch Headquarters Committee at Texas Tech University. The Ranch Headquarters, to be established on the 75-acre site of the new museum at Tech, will preserve the ranching history of the Southwest. It is to be an authentic collection of ranch buildings dating from the 1830's to the early 1900's.

Mrs. Connell said the purpose of the Snyder celebration Sept. 20 is to acquaint the public with the buildings that are being moved to Lubbock. A film showing pictures of the buildings will be shown at the celebration.

Mrs. Connell's family came to Crosbyton in 1910. Her father, Henry Smith, was a colonizer with the C. B. Livestock Co., which sold a great tract of land to farmers. The land sold was previously a part of the old Two Buckle Ranch.

The Smith family moved to Post in about 1914 where Mr. Smith assisted C. W. Post in colonizing the old Curry Comb Ranch. It was in Post that Elizabeth Smith met and married Wilson Connell, son of Clyde Connell and grandson of W. E. Connell. The Connells owned the OS Ranch, which they bought from the Long Brothers in 1902.

Wilson and Elizabeth moved to the Lazy D Ranch in 1936. Since his death in 1958, Mrs. Connell has continued to operate the ranch, which in the Free Range Era of the 1880's was a part of the OS Ranch.

The police sergeant said packages of cookies taken from one of the machines were found hidden in the rest room of one of the buildings.

Bull's Farm & Ranch Supply at 302 West 8th St., which is near the schools, also was broken into over the weekend, but nothing was reported missing, the police sergeant reported. Malcolm Bull, the owner had taken the money out of the store's cold drink machine and left it open.

After just about the hottest summer on record — and one of the driest — the lake level had fallen only "16 inches below the normal level." Not bad, eh?

If the rain keeps up there are going to be a lot of wet cars this weekend. They will be left out instead of put into garages because nine garages are going to be the sites of weekend "garage sales" here, all of which are advertised in the want ads in today's Dispatch.

Post gridders to open season Friday at Hale Center

Owls have won two out of three games played

The Post Antelopes, hopeful that they can keep the momentum going that they have generated in scrimmages with Petersburg and Spur, journey to Hale Center Friday for their 1969 opener against Coach C. H. Keeton's Owls of District 1AA. The kickoff is set for 8 p. m.

The 'Lopes, playing their first game under new Head Coach Billy Hahn, will be out to even the series with a team that has beaten them two out of three. The Owls won by decisive scores last year and in 1967 after Post had taken the series opener, 12 to 7, in 1966. Hale Center, which finished the 1968 season with a 6-4 record, has ten lettermen — five regulars each way — back. They have a young club, with but six seniors on the squad.

"We're a little bit larger this year, but we don't have the speed of the past," said Coach Keeton. THE RETURNING Owl lettermen include Tommy Dyer, a 165-pound junior, who played halfback last year, but who will start at quarterback this season. Dyer is described as a good runner and a good thrower on the sprint — out series.

At fullback will be Johnny Davis, a 170-pounder who started as a sophomore but was hampered by injuries last year. He was well enough to boot a 42-yard field goal in the Owls' final game, however.

Also back after a bout with a knee injury will be center Don Brown, a 160-pound senior.

The Owls have picked up line strength in Tim Hill, a 200-pound junior, who is a transfer from Crosbyton. He could have started last year had he been eligible, according to Coach Keeton.

At one of the ends will be Gary Conley, a 170-pounder who started as a freshman last year. Tommy Rambo, 150-pound senior letterman, will start at the other end.

Coach Hahn said Tuesday that all members of the Antelope quad are in good physical condition with the exception of quarterback Robert Pace, who is still out with a knee injury, and tackle George Morales, who broke an arm in the Petersburg scrimmage.

TUESDAY'S downpours of rain kept the Post squad inside for practice sessions in the gymnasium.

The coach said the players' attitude is good and that they are working together "with a lot of pride."

"I feel they are going to do all right for themselves Friday night and throughout the rest of the season," he added.

Tentative Antelope starters on offense are Randy Hudman at tight end; Butch Heaton or Jay Bird at split end; Jimmy McKamie and Steve Newby, tackles; David Perez and Dennis Dodson, guards; David Stelzer, center; Ray Altman, quarterback, and Neff Walker, Karl Hall and George Torres, backs.

On defense, the tentative starters are: Stelzer, McKamie, Newby and Perez, linemen; Bird and Robert Bullock, cornerbacks; Altman, middle linebacker; Hudman and Ralph Menchaca, outside linebackers, and Walker and Hall, halfbacks.

BOTH THE offense and defense looked good in the scrimmage at Spur last Friday night, as they had the week before here with Petersburg.

The Antelopes scored twice against Spur, once on a 20-yard pass from Altman to Walker, and again on a short end sweep by halfback Terry Moreau, after Torres had gained 50 yards in three carries to the Spur five-yard line.

The scoring pass from Altman to Walker was the only one of four completed by the Lopes, whereas Spur hit on seven of 17 for 84 yards.

Spur, which scored once during the scrimmage, was held to 47 yards net gain on the ground, while Post rolled up a net of 146 yards.

Coach Hahn said Spur has a real tough team, that they hit hard and appear to be considerably better than they have been rated in pre-season predictions.

Post rancher onetime teammate net champ

Rod Laver of Australia, who won the U. S. men's tennis singles championship at Forest Hills, N. Y., Sunday, was once a junior doubles partner of Bob Macy, Post rancher.

Laver and Macy teamed in 1954 to win the junior doubles championship in the National Western Tournament at Champaign, Ill. Macy was in high school at the time, and Laver was in the United States as a member of a group of junior tennis players on a tour sponsored by the Australian government.

Laver and Macy also played as a team in other tournaments and were roommates for a while. The Australian, who turned professional in 1963, downed his fellow countryman, Tony Roche, to win the U. S. title Sunday after giving disposed of Arthur Ashe of the U. S., in a semifinals match Saturday.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This truly classic "American Way of Life" editorial was written by Joe Parham, editor of the Macon (Ga.) Evening News many years ago. It was mailed us by a Dispatch reader, and with a new school term just under way, we think it will be of special interest to those with youngsters entering the first grade.)

DEAR TEACHER . . .

Well, this week we turn him over to you. For the next 12 years, in grammar and high school, you'll have him on your hands. Next to his Mother and I, you'll have more influence on his life than anyone else except the members of his immediate family.

He's such a little boy now. A pair of sturdy legs, tanned shoulders, bright eyes, a tow head and an infectious grin. He's yours to mould, clay for your hands and mind to fashion as you will.

He's not afraid of anything. His mind is alert and quick to learn. His body is healthy, his curiosity boundless and his stubbornness aggravating.

There's a lot you can do for him in the coming years. I hope you will.

Teach him to remain fearless. Never mention the word "fear" and perhaps he'll never know what it's like to be afraid. Respect for danger and caution and carefulness, yes, but not fear.

Cultivate that healthy curiosity he's blessed with. Let him ask a million and one questions, and you come up with a million and one answers and be waiting for the next. Keep alive always that spark of interest in the people and things around him and in himself. He'll never be bored or disillusioned or cynical if his curiosity's never satisfied.

Sure, you're going to have to spank that little caboose of his occasionally. We do ourselves. Teach him discipline and respect for authority and understanding of rules and regulations, but don't curb his spirit. Let him not become a regimented automaton who follows others, lockstep style, through life, never hunting a better or different way of doing anything and always being content with the status quo.

Instill in him a sense of fair play and a deep admiration for justice. Let him not be the schoolyard bully nor the schoolyard coward. Show him that it is one thing to stand up for his rights and quite another to attempt to depose the rights of others. Breed in him a compassion for the weak, and a feeling of kindness for the oppressed.

He already knows love, and he knows God. The two are synonymous with him. Fan that glow! Breathe with understanding and love that ember so that it may become a strong enduring flame. Instruct him in the wonders of God's Universe and the glory of God's works.

Teach him tolerance. Place no word or deed or malice of antagonism or hatred toward any of Heaven's children in that small heart. Let none of the venom of intolerance that any of us might feel spill upon and scar that clean soul of his.

Impress upon him the importance of cleanliness. Help him to keep clean his ideals, his mind, his body. Show him by example and illustration how strong is a clean life. Build within him a deep sense of honor and a knowledge that integrity is not merely a word, but a way of life. Teach him that it matters not what a man's reputation may be. A reputation is merely what the world thinks of a person. But tell him that it is character that really matters, for character is what God thinks of a person.

He'll be coming to your school and into your heart and your mind this week. Teach him all these things. Teach him well, and when these things have begun to be learned — the arithmetic and the spelling and reading and all the rest can be taught, too.

Do a good job. Some day you may be as proud of him as I am right now.

Sincerely, DAD

'Lope barbecue draws 650 despite weather

A roaring crowd of 650 packed the county 4-H building Tuesday night to eat all the food in sight and cheer the introduction of Post's five football coaches and the 143 boys on the Post schools' five teams.

The sponsoring Antelope Booster Club proved conclusively that the way to memberships is through the stomach.

Over 160 $5 family memberships were sold for the big and highly successful "Meet Our Antelopes" barbecue. The week's wet weather didn't dampen any spirits. The crowd poured in from the muddy parking lot after the event had to be moved indoors from the park.

Coach Billy Hahn, the Lopes' head grid mentor, standing at the mike below a black and gold sign that proclaimed "Year of the Antelopes" told the enthusiastic fans, "We are about to present to you Antelope football, 1969 version. It's going to be hard playing, hard tackling, winning football."

Bill McBride introduced the coaches — Hahn, Waco Reynolds, freshman coach Bud Davis, "B" team coach Kenneth Poole, and grid assistant Bert Leaverton, who in turn introduced their respective clubs.

As each player's name was called he walked, trotted, or ran up and over the little Santa Claus stand, used by the Chamber of Commerce downtown each December but this time fittingly bedecked in black and gold streamers.

First came the 38-player seventh grade squad, next the 31 players of the eighth grade, then the 29 freshmen, followed by the 20 "B" team players, basically sophomores, and finally by the 25 players of the Antelope varsity.

The meal was a gem of friendly precision with the huge throng being served barbecued beef, potato salad, chili beans, cold slaw, pickles, bread, ice tea and peppers within a short span of 40 minutes via a double serving line.

Nobody anticipated the turnout and the bread and ice tea were all consumed before the end of the chow line was served. Everything else came out "about even."

Elwood Wright, booster club president, opened the program by thanking the big crowd for turning out to honor the players. He praised the efforts of L. D. Jackson, Rusty Dean, Gene Gandy, Bill Hall, Neal Clary, Royce Josey, Pat Walker and others "who have spent the last 12 to 14 hours cook-

'B' team, frosh to try Floydada

The Post Antelope junior varsity and freshman football teams will open their 1969 season in a pair of games at Floydada Thursday night Sept. 18.

The first action for the Post 7th and 8th grade teams will be at Slaton on Tuesday, Sept. 23.

Kenneth Poole is coaching the junior varsity squad, with Bud Davis and Bert Leaverton handling the freshman team. Waco Reynolds and Davis are coaching the 8th grade team, and Reynolds and Billy Hahn the 7th grade team.

The freshmen saw their first action of the season at Spur last Friday evening in a controlled scrimmage preceding the varsity scrimmage.

The Post freshmen held their own against a Spur team that included four or five sophomores. Both teams were able to move the ball well, but neither managed to score.

MOVES TO POST

Mrs. George H. Miller, mother of Bernard S. Ramsey, minister of the First Christian Church, moved to Post last week from Atlanta, Ga., to make her home. She is living at 414 West 10th St.

What Does Your Credit Bureau Do?

The credit bureau provides necessary information to credit grantors to show how well a person has earned the privilege of credit.

Most people pay their bills as agreed and the credit bureau helps to speed the granting of credit for them. Some consumers are saved from over-obligating themselves and their families because the credit bureau maintains records that show a prospective credit grantor that the person has a recurring record of financial instability. Most credit grantors will draw the conclusion that such a record would indicate further indebtedness to be unwise.

Thus the credit bureau can furnish the information that may keep a person from compounding his financial problems.

Through all these services the credit bureau serves the community and makes it possible for consumers and credit grantors to deal with one another in an atmosphere of mutual trust and goodwill.

Muddy roads taking all joy out of rain

By MARY LEE LAWS
 Here it is rainy weather again. Seems like once it gets started there is no stopping place. If it wasn't for the muddy roads around here the rain would be appreciated much more.
 Mike Saunders passed away at 9 a. m. Friday in a Big Spring hospital. He and his wife lived here several years ago. We extend deepest sympathy to the family.

 Several women in our community helped serve a dinner for the Saunders family in the Bob Norman home Sunday before the funeral services.
 Visiting in the Alvin Bradshaw home Saturday night were the Leo Witcher family, Mickey and Vince Gribble, Emily Dusek, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Laws and Cindy and Bryan Warren.
 Rev. Mr. Pierce of Post preached at the Central Baptist Church last Sunday. He was accompanied by his wife and a grandson.
 Mrs. Amos Gerner visited her mother, Mrs. O. F. Haley, in Twin Cedar Nursing Home Monday.
 Kevin McCleskey has been on the sick list.
 Mrs. H. E. Huffaker is still visiting in Colorado.
 Mrs. Lucy Cunningham helped Mrs. Tom Murray put up beans Monday.
 The Jimmie Warrens are home last week after a visit in Rome, Miss. They visited with the Kenneth Leach family while there and report they are all fine.
 SINCE DOVE season opened the first of September we've had lots of hunters over our way.
 Mrs. Ivy Young was a Saturday dinner guest of the Jurd Youngs.

Three of Artie's cousins from Gorman and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Thompson visited in the afternoon.
 Mrs. Dennis Herman of Lubbock visited her mother, Mrs. R. L. Craig, Saturday afternoon.
 I noticed in last week's Lynn County News they said the Jimmie Warrens had bought a 1969 Buick. Instead they have a 1969 Pontiac station wagon.
 Beulah and T. W. Tew visited their brother, Harry Tew, in the Big Spring Veterans Hospital Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harrison of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Jurd Young spent from Thursday until Saturday at Oak Creek. They had no luck fishing but had a nice time.
