READY FOR SLATON ONSLAUGHT

Coach Bobby Davis illustrates some of the finer points of football to Post's "front line" for the Benefit Bowl game here Saturday night between Post and Slaton. The Post squad is Saturday night between Post and Slaton. The Post squad is reported "ready to go" and anxious to avenge a couple of defeats at the hands of Slaton a few years ago.

Benefit Bowl game pits Post, Slaton ex-gridders

Kickoff at 7:30 Saturday night

Post's "outsiders" football team will be out for revenge when it goes against a team of Slaton exes here Saturday night in a benefit bowl game that promises to be action-packed.

In the only other bowl game meetings between two such teams, in the late 1960's, Slaton won at Post and then added insult to injury by also winning in a return match at Slaton. But the Post players are determined that it won't happen again.

"We're not only going to beat them here Saturday night, but we are also going to take them when we go up there Saturday night, Nov. 27," said Ronald Simpson, president of the Antelope Boosters Club, which is sponsoring the game.

Saturday night's game will be played at Antelope Stadium with a 7:30 kickoff time. The admission charges are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students, with proceeds to go to the booster club's high school athletic fund.

Bobby Davis, Post High School athletics director and head coach, is drilling the Post team, with the assistance of other members of the schools' coaching staff. Uniforms were issued team members Sunday, but workouts had been under way for several days prior to that.

The only practice casualty thus far among members of the Post squad came when Lewis Holly, a lineman, cut his head in a collision with a goal post. The cut required stitches to close.

Most of the members of the Post squad are ex-Antelopes, but several are former high school or college gridders elsewhere who now live here.

Listed as quarterback on the Post squad are brothers Duke and Ray Altman. Duke was a member of the 1966 Post team that won the district championship, with Ray playing a few years later.

Other members of the 1966 district championship team slated to see action Saturday night include Jimmie Bartlett, Clyde Cash, Dennis Altman, Dennis Odum, Roy Sappington, Norman and Paul Walker.

The Post squad also includes a number of high school stars of last ter years.

The Slaton squad of 21 players includes eight men who weigh more than 200 pounds, with two of them tipping the scales at 230. Bobby Brake, listed at 215 pounds, is one of the quarterbacks. The other field general is 190-pounder Jimmy Williams. Sparky Stephens, one of the fullbacks, weighs 230 pounds. The other fullback, Jim Stout, weighs 205 pounds.

Ronald Simpson said today that while the Post squad lists 36 players, "that might not be all of them." He said negotiations are still under way with several other local exes to join the squad before game time.

IN CITY'S TARGET AREA

Enrollment drive set for vocational courses

Directors of the Garza County Community Action Committee Tuesday night elected five board members from the private sector and decided to press a drive for enrollment of non-high school young people from the target area in vocational courses at Western Texas College in Snyder for the second semester beginning in mid-January.

The board also put off until its January meeting its election of board officers for 1972, heard a plea for wider use of Post's kindergarten class, and were told that a "housing survey" of Garza County can be expected in about early December.

The board elected Willie Cross, Walter Didway, and Dena Cooper as directors for the first time and re-elected Madie Johnson and Jim Cornish as the five private representatives.

Going off the board after three years of core work in the community action field are Maxine Marks, Ruth Ann Newby, Jack Lott and Earl Chapman.

The 15-member board also contains five directors elected last spring from the target area and five appointed by local governmental units as representatives of the public sector.

New appointees from the public sector are E. R. (Buster) Moreland representing the city and Jack Alexander representing the schools. County Judge Giles Dalby, Mrs. Pee Wee Pierce, and the Rev. George L. Miller are the other three representatives of the public sector.

Board chairman Miller named a four-member committee consisting of Alexander, Mozelle Mitchell, Cornish and Sue Shytle, neighborhood center director, as a committee to work on the college enrollment plan.

Cornish proposed the all-out effort for second semester enrollment at the new area junior college, pointing out that only school trustee approval would be needed to get bus transportation between Post and Snyder for students taking afternoon classes.

At present, 18 Post high school students are riding a 36-passenger bus to Snyder for afternoon vocational educational classes. The bus leaves Post at noon and returns at 5 p.m.

Job training education is the best road to better economic opportunity.

"TOO CLOSE TO CALL"

United Fund goal of $9,500 within sight

If the political computers used by the television networks to predict the outcome of the 1968 presidential election were zeroed in today on the 1972 Garza County United Fund drive they probably all would come up with the same reading: "Too close to call."

A deposit, including pledges as well as cash and checks, of $3,091.75 was made yesterday to bring this year reflecting a tougher economic picture here as a result of inflation, Cornish said.

With only one bale of cotton ginned to date in the county, the farm and ranch division also is well below its total of a year ago, it was also pointed out.

Some divisions have reported higher totals to date this year over a year ago, but this has been due to more new givers rather than to increased contributions.

These include county employee division $316.50 as compared to $178 a year ago; private citizens division $345.25 as compared to

Iron ball batters 2 houses down

The W. G. McMillan Construction Co. of Lubbock gave passersby a treat Tuesday when they brought in a crane with a 100-foot boom and knocked two old rooming apartment houses into a pile of rubble in the 100 block North Broadway.

The firm had purchased the 500-foot front and gained possession of the properties last week.

The crane with its iron ball dislodged the two houses — an old rooming house on the corner and an apartment house in the middle of the block — in less than a day working time.

Dump trucks of a sub-contract have spent the last two days virtually clearing the site of the debris and hauling it to the city dump. No effort was made to salvage anything.

The small business building between the two old houses has been sold and will be moved off the location.

The site clearance this week is in preparation for a major business development on the site.

The business firm involved has indicated that it is not ready at the moment to announce its plans.

Tax meeting is set for Tuesday

Business and farm management and recent changes in the income tax law will be the major topics of discussion by Melvin Sartin at a meeting in the district court room Tuesday night, Nov. 2.

Sartin is area economist and management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Sartin held a similar meeting here last fall.

Next Tuesday night's meeting is open to the public. Those attending will be given the opportunity to ask any questions they might have concerning their business, farm or tax management problems.

CLEAN-UP TAKES ALL DAY

Protestor floods jail early Sunday morning

This is the "age of protestors" as county authorities discovered their dismay very early Sunday morning that they had one locked up—but still protesting—overnight in the courthouse's third floor county jail.

This protestor was a woman — and she protested with water, hundreds, maybe thousands of gallons of it.

The woman was arrested Saturday night by city police on a drunk charge and lodged in the women's quarters of the county jail.

About 5 a.m., the sheriff's radio dispatcher, Homer McCrary, in the first floor sheriff's office "got the news" via a drip-drip-drip of water from above that something was amiss.

McCrary telephoned the bad news to Sheriff J. A. (Jimmy) Holleman that the courthouse — upper floors at least—were awash.

What had happened was that the angered woman prisoner had found a box in the jail and used it to fasten down the water faucet in the jail lavatory and to splash the water out of the lavatory onto the floor instead of the water going down the lavatory drain.

County Judge Giles Dalby's newly remodeled office is directly under the third floor jail area.

Water from the flooded jail floor ran down the brick walls to the second floor and came out at the baseboards in the judge's carpeted office.

Some 17 gallons of water were removed Sunday from the carpet by cleaners with suction machine. There are still "watermarks" on the office furniture.

From the judge's office, the water is NOT a carton of "sour grapes."

(See Water Protest, page 8)

Editor Charlie Didway really "wrestled" with writing the side bar story on the sports page today about the timekeeping at the Frenship game. He is not a "sour grapes" writer and didn't want it to sound like "sour grapes" when he finished it.

But he ruefully commented, as he handed me the story to "punch" on the tape machine that "it still sounds like sour grapes."

Rest assured, readers — from Europe to Vietnam — that this is NOT a carton of "sour grapes."

For example, a Frenship back gains six yards on a running play. Just two seconds came off that clock. Time was indeed standing still.

Charlie, like the old pro newspaperman he is, makes no accusations, and tries to tell it like it was. He didn't say that he went after that timekeeper once himself and was told that the Frenship press box was a place a newspaperman wasn't supposed to be in. (They should rename it then.)

(See Postings, page 8)

SHOPPER CONVENIENCE

Stores to stay open on plant pay nights

A group of downtown merchants plan to open their stores tonight to shoppers, beginning at 7 p. m., as the first in a probable series of "Postex Plant employees nights."

The Burlington plant here recently moved their every other week payday from Fridays to Thursdays.

With stores staying open on "pay night" Postex and other Post employees will have the opportunity to shop during evening hours at their own convenience.

The project was worked up here

Tuesday by merchants contacting other merchants.

Several merchants are offering "10 per cent off for cash night" tonight good on any items in their stores. Others are advertising specials for this weekend in today's Dispatch which will include tonight's shopping hours.

Those participating in the "Postex Plant employees night," as advertising in today's Dispatch are Maxine's, Wacker's, Marshall's Department Store, Hundley's, White Auto, Western Auto, Lavelle's, Bob Collier Druggist, and Bottoms Up Shop.

Post band gains first place rating

The Post Antelope band, directed by Herbert Germer, received a Division I (superior) rating at Lubbock Wednesday in area UIL band competition.

Other Class AA bands receiving Division I ratings in the marching contest were Frenship, Littlefield, Abernathy and Dimmitt.

Division II ratings went to Olton, Morton, Denver City, Friona, Ralls, Floydada, Slaton and Idalou. Lockney and Tahoka were rated Division III.

COUNTY JUDGE TELLS ROTARIANS

Law enforcement complex would cost about $80,000

County Judge Giles W. Dalby in a talk on county problems before Post Rotarians at their weekly luncheon in city hall Tuesday said the estimated cost of "the proposed new law enforcement complex" is $80,000 with the federal aid sought for half the cost and the city and county paying about $20,000 each.

The county official said the building can be located on the west side of the courthouse block.

The law enforcement building would house the city police, county sheriff's office, state highway patrol, state game warden, the law enforcement radio and a new jail.

Cost of the proposed building, which could be financed by city and county without a bond issue, was about the only new item on the subject to come out in Dalby's talk.

Other highlights of the talk including county financial problems, the high rate of Garza participation in the Food Stamp program, the growing probation problem, an acknowledgement of the existence of a "drug problem" in the county, and a salute to the county's youth as causing fewer juvenile problems "than any other county that I know of."

The county judge said that 815 Garza countians are now receiving federal food stamps, which figures out to be 15.4 per cent of the county's population.

The food stamp program is costing Garza County this year $2,251 and "it looks like it is going to cost us an additional $500 annually to continue the program."

Dalby said a meeting was scheduled in Austin today to explain operation of the new food stamp program, which will mean about $500 in additional costs to the county.

In the first 10 months of 1971, Dalby said his county court had handled 112 cases with 58 persons being placed on probation. In addition he says there are 37 more on probation in the county from district or juvenile courts, bringing the total to 95.

At the present time, Dalby serves as the county's probation officer, but he said it is hoped the county eventually will be able to afford a full-time probation officer. He said a $10 monthly probation fee is now being charged to provide funds for the necessary probation work and which could go toward a probation officer's salary.

Turning to the juvenile problem, Judge Dalby said "I take my hat off to our youth."

"We have probably had less problems with youth in this county than in any other county that I know of," Dalby commented. He said he had had only 10 juvenile cases brought before him in the last ten months.

"They're a good bunch of kids,"

(See Dalby Talk, page 8)

FOR NEW CONSTRUCTION

Building permits must be obtained

The city ordinance requiring that a building permit be taken out for construction or remodeling costing $50 or more is back in effect. The fact of the matter is that the ordinance has always been in effect, but just hasn't been enforced the last few years. But it will be enforced from now on, city officials say.

Anyone planning construction or remodeling costing $50 or more is required to obtain a building permit at the City Hall. The fee for such a permit is $1.

The ordinance provides for a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for violation.

The purpose of the building permit ordinance is to make sure that zoning restrictions are being complied with on any new construction or remodeling.

A special day for the coaches

Whether you knew it or not—and most of us didn't—last Friday was "Coaches' Day" in the elementary and secondary schools of Texas.

Last Friday was proclaimed as "Coaches' Day" by Gov. Preston Smith because Friday night was the final night of UIL regular season high school football play.

After the document proclaiming the special day was signed by Governor Smith, it went to the office of L. W. McCanachie, executive vice-president of the Texas High School Coaches' Association.

This state association of high school coaches has a membership of 6,583, which represents 99 per cent of the public schools' active and retired coaches and athletic directors. These coaches work with over 450,000 schoolboys in the yearly football programs alone.

The proclamation reads in part: "It is important that our high school coaches be given the recognition they deserve, because in our history where authority and responsibility are being questioned and challenged, the coach is one man who does successfully represent an authority who is respected by all."

"Many leaders in business, education and government today owe much to a coach who, in the past, set an example in character and discipline that benefited their lives."

"It is fitting that the citizens of Texas express their deep gratitude for time, sacrifice and dedication put forth by these men who are the true leaders of our greatest assets, our children."

Coaches work long hours preparing their plans and drilling their teams. They spend many hours with their players, and get to know them well. Coaches, we have found, take their duties very seriously, are always ready to take responsibility for their actions and decisions, and are both critical and complimentary while working with their teams.

Texas is fortunate as a state to have such a high caliber of men in the coaching fraternity. These men are coaches because they love it. Sad to say, sometimes, fans only look at the scoreboard and are prone to judge a coach in this way.

Post, with an entire new coaching staff this year, is among the many communities in the state with dedicated men in charge of their schools' athletic programs. The high type of coaching we have this year has paid off in the attitude of the players. Measured from the standpoint of wins and losses, the season just closed certainly was not a successful one, but the results of the excellent coaching was seen in the fact that the Post Antelopes played just as hard in their last game of the season as they did in their first. They never gave up in any of their games.

Such coaching deserves the support of the fans and, by and large, we think that support was given—from the opening whistle in the Hale Center game on Sept. 10 to the final whistle in the Frenship game on Nov. 12.—CD

Fate of filing fees uncertain

The U. S. Supreme Court was scheduled to hear arguments this week on the constitutionality of Texas candidate filing fees.

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin and other Democratic party leaders have predicted that "chaos will result" if the Supreme Court rules the filing fees unconstitutional.

The party leaders are as right as rain. If the Supreme Court throws out the filing fee it will upset party primaries from one end of the state to the other. Nowhere is the old saying, "it takes money to make the mare go" truer than in the case of primary elections. And in the past that money has come from candidate filing fees.

Where will the money come from if the filing fees are thrown out by the Supreme Court?

The Legislature could appropriate state funds to finance primaries or order county commissioners across the state to pay for them. Either procedure might be challenged in court, however, on grounds that political parties are private organizations and therefore ineligible for tax funds under the State Constitution.

It is assumed that the governor would call a special session of the Legislature to consider alternate methods of financing primaries if the Supreme Court rules out the filing fee.

Doing away with the filing fee would make it easier—much easier—on the candidate's pocketbook, but who would nominate him if no primaries were held because of there being no money to pay for the holding? —CD

What our contemporaries are saying

Ever want to sit down and write your Congressman or Senators? But did you ever feel that they probably never see your correspondence and regardless of your feelings they will vote on the many and varied issues the way they want to? Chances are you are wrong if you feel your voice isn't heard. Your Congressman and your Senators want to hear from you. They want to know how you feel on various pieces of legislation. Next time you feel like sitting down and writing them—do it!—Goodland, Kans. News.

On one issue, at least, men and women agree: they both distrust women.—Contact.

Considering the amount of time often used in trying to justify a mistake, if figured at a fair wage scale, even a trivial mistake is expensive. The loss is even extended further with the average lack of interest in any excuse.—Matador Tribune.

President Nixon has accomplished nearly every aim sought by the extreme left for the past 25 years and without much comment from the extreme right. How come? —The Claude News.

The progress of civilization depends upon the cooperation of human beings and it is essential to understand the necessity that the cooperation be voluntary and not compulsory. Voluntary cooperation, based upon the free will of individuals, represents permanent gains for society. Compulsory cooperation, regardless of the pressure that enforces it, inevitably creates individual dissatisfaction and will be dissipated when the pressure is lifted.—West Columbia, S. C., Journal.

The Abundant Life...

YOU'LL GET MORE IF YOU'LL GIVE MORE

The emphasis today is on getting everything we can out of life. The underlying meaning of the modern jargon, "let it all hang out," "what you see is what you get," or "let go and swing with it," is that the things worth having are free if we will just get rid of our hangups and reach out and take them.

The good things of life however, are not free. We get out of life what we put into it. I remember the story of a preacher who went out to a strange congregation to preach one Sunday and took his son with him. He was told by one of the leaders of the church he would be paid whatever the collection happened to be. When the collection plate was passed the preacher put in 50c. After the service he was given the entire collection which totaled only 50c. Going home he was in a bad mood and berating the church for its lack of stewardship. But his son said, "See, dad, if you had given more you would have gotten more."

What a great truth we have here. Friendships do not come free. The more we put into a friendship the more blessings we receive from it. A good home does not just happen. When a mother, father and children put love, kindness and plenty of time into a home they end up receiving much more than put in. You never see a lazy person without direction and goals become highly successful either. You must put lots of work into your life before success comes your way. We receive in proportion to what we give.

This principle certainly applies to religion. So many people wonder why they never get anything out of the church. But when their love, interest and money is elsewhere they should not be surprised if blessings don't come their way. God doesn't give proportionally, he gives a hundred times over what we give him. Matt. 19:29.

Today would be a good day to start putting something into life.

Ten years ago

LIKE EVERYONE else, I woke up to Phase Two of the wage-price freeze Sunday morning, but I could not tell a bit of difference. Nothing like a few Sundays before when I woke up to the change-over from Daylight Saving Time to Standard Time and stayed mixed up the rest of the day.

The man up the street says it is pretty obvious why the husbands of the ten best-dressed women are not on the list of the ten best-dressed men.

IN RELATION TO its size, Garza County has had its share of famous people as native sons and daughters, but one who "just missed" is Glen Campbell, the TV singing star. You didn't know that, did you?

Glen Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Campbell, were residents of the Crossroads community north of Post for five or six years in the late 1920's and were good friends of Mutt and Annie Graves before Mutt and Annie were married.

MUTT GRAVES recalls that Wesley Campbell, Glen's father, was quite a musician himself and played at dances and musicals in the Crossroads community. "One of his tricks was to play a guitar and a french harp at the same time," Mutt recalled.

The Campbells had two or three children when they lived in the Crossroads community, but Glen wasn't born until they moved back to Arkansas, which is where they came from when they moved to Garza County.

MUTT AND ANNIE said the Campbells visited them in the 1950's while en route back to Arkansas from a trip to New Mexico. "They told us then they had a musician son who was broadcasting from an Amarillo radio station," Mutt said. That son was Glen Campbell, and from Amarillo he went on to fame and fortune — over a rocky road, of course, since an Arkansawyer wouldn't feel at home traveling over any other kind of road.

In the early 1930s, Annie and her parents, the Wallace Smiths, moved to Arkansas for a while and lived as neighbors to the Wesley Campbells. Something else, that would make a good story in itself, is that the Smiths made the trip to and from Arkansas in a covered wagon — no longer ago than the

Margie Harrison elected sweetheart of Post Future Farmers of America; Roy Baker undergoes surgery for second time following a fall at his home; Lewis Herron 1930's, mind you.

ANNIE SAYS THE family owned a car at that time, but "just decided" to make the trip in a covered wagon. "The trip took us 39 days going and 40 days coming back," Annie recalled.

The Garza County couple had lost track of the Campbells until a few years ago, after Glen got his own TV program and had his parents as guests one night. Mutt and Annie's daughter, Mrs. Walter Didway was watching the program, and said she remembered the Wesley Campbells from their visit with her parents in the 1950's.

SO, TO MAKE a long story short, Willa Faye telephoned her parents while the program was still on, and Mutt and Annie got to see their old friends on television, along with their famous son, who just missed by a few years being another "Garza County boy who made good."

Post Antelope Rodney Compton hasn't logged a whole lot of playing time in his team's football games this season, but he finished with a perfect record in the kicking department.

RODNEY, WHO has another year of eligibility, was successful on his first extra point attempt when he went into the Idalou game following Kenneth Price's touchdown. Then, against Frenship last Friday night, Rodney made good on the first field goal he ever tried, and went in later to boot the extra point following the Post touchdown.

Rodney didn't get credit for his four points against Frenship in the game write-up in Saturday's Avalanche-Journal. Whoever called it in the game from Frenship apparently was as mixed up as their time-keeper was that night, and credited "James Pollard" with the field goal and extra point.

THE POLLARD the Frenship reporter had in mind was, of course, the Antelopes' Jay Pollard, who did the kicking off for the "Lopes and who spent much of the game in the Frenship backfield in turning in an outstanding defensive game. Since Jay is only a sophomore, he, too, will be back for the Antelopes next year.

Friday pep rally something special

By CAROL COMPTON

The student body really gave the football boys a great pep rally Friday for their last game of the season.

The cheerleaders did a song dedicated to the senior Antelopes. The song was to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne."

A skit, "Antelopes Will Win Miss Victory," was presented by the juniors. Those in the skit were Janyce Brockman, Pat Johnson, Gaynell King and Leslie Bilberry.

Coach Davis introduced all the senior football boys as game captains.

Head Cheerleader Nancy Cook was guest speaker. She told how proud she was of the team, and I think she can all agree with her.

On Aug. 10, 1954, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Shumard became the proud parents of a son, Tommy Dale, who is in his final year at Post High School.

Some of Tommy's favorites are: Subject, civics; song, "Kentucky Rain" by Elvis Presley; actor, John Wayne; TV show, "Night Gallery"; actress, Ann Margret; color, blue; foods, steak and french fries.

After high school, Tommy will enroll in either Texas Tech or a junior college.

His high school activities have included four years of football, one year of track, Lettermen's Club for three years, and paper staff.

Byrd Heard??

By WYNETTE BYRD

Is driving backwards contagious? If it is I wish you would tell Goofey Kay before she has the whole town doing it!

How did everyone like the halt in school Thursday? As you know, all the different group pictures were taken and I doubt that the teachers got much teaching done. But we don't mind, do we students?

Well, this is our last game Antelopes and for the seniors, the last one for the good 'ole PHS. I am very proud of the performance our boys put out Friday night. BUT! The basketball season has started so let's continue to support the 'Lopes and the Doves.

Then tennis starts, which brings us to the tennis courts. The tennis courts will be finished this weekend maybe. So by the time you read this the tennis courts should be completed and ready to play on.

Cheer up, girls and boys — the photographer didn't mean it!

By the way, Mary Ann, did you ever receive your banana?

Thought for today, Tom or row! Think about it!

There will be a schedule for the times at which you may use the courts at a later date. Everyone enjoy the courts and have fun.

Food buying and use is studied

By PATI ALLISON

The Consumer Education class is now learning hints for buying, preparing and using food skillfully. In this unit the class learns to distinguish the different cuts of meat, and the variety of ways to prepare them. Also, the economic way to purchase food is being emphasized.

The importance of vitamins, minerals and proteins is being brought out, along with the harm of a high cholesterol diet, and the problems of obesity. As a highlight to this, the class saw a film concerning cholesterol content and its connection with the large amount of heart attacks each year.

Mrs. Marion Wheatley is teacher of the course.

New class sponsor

By LANITA JUSTICE

The sophomore class met last week to elect another sponsor to assist Mrs. Barker. They elected Coach Tannehill as their second sponsor. They also elected Jodi Norman and Albert Varela as the class favorites.

City accepts oil, gas lease bid

The bid of George R. Brown, oil operator, on a 2.8-acre oil and gas lease was accepted by the city council at a special meeting last Friday.

The council accepted Brown's offer of $25 an acre cash bonus, totaling $70, and $252 per year to maintain the lease for a 20-year period.

Sam Richardson represented George R. Brown in submitting the bid, which was the only one received.

The land leased is between two drilling units at the west end of West 10th St.

The council also voted to issue $30,000 in paving warrants in issues of $5,000 each at 4 per cent interest for a period of one year.

The paving warrants will be used to make another payment on a $82,000 street paving project now under way. One $35,000 payment had already been made.

In the only other action at the meeting, Mayor Giles C. McCrary appointed Councilman E. R. (Buster) Moreland as the council's representative on the Community Action Board.

New home agent now in training

Mrs. Dana Kay Feaster of Lubbock, who was named last week as the Garza County home demonstration agent will not be on the job here until she has completed a two-month training program in Lynn County. Her appointment will become effective upon completion of the training program.

She has been employed to replace Mrs. Janis H. Choate, who has transferred to the same position in Mitchell County.

Mrs. Feaster is a native of Colorado City and a 1971 graduate of Texas Tech University with a B. S. degree in home economics. Her husband, David, is currently a student at Texas Tech.

The new agent is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Craddock Jr. of Colorado City and is a former member of the Future Homemakers of America.

While in college, she was in Alpha Delta Pi sorority and a member of the American Home Economics Association. In addition, she was active in intramural sports. She has recently been employed by the Ex-Students Association at Texas Tech.

ity, Cornish said in a discussion begun during an open forum to discuss possible new project.

At present the Snyder school offers students who qualify, as long as funds are available, national defense student loans, Texas Opportunity Plan loans, economic opportunity grants and a work study program in which students are given part-time jobs paid mostly from federal funds.

Cornish also proposed the possibility of some scholarship funds being raised locally for such a project, as some of the prospective students would be young mothers or young men either with families or supporting parents.

John Moody of Levelland, program coordinator told directors the housing survey, now under way in neighboring Lynn county, is a feasting in the area as a prelude to the probably opening of the long-planned regional housing authority loan program in Garza County in 1972.

The plan would move public housing from the rental field into the home ownership field with federal funding support.

Mrs. Pierce said arts and craft classes are planned for the neighborhood center beginning in January for those interested.

School principal Alexander said there are openings for 10 more children who can meet state qualifications for the Post kindergarten class.

Children can start anytime, he explained. He said the kindergarten training has proved itself very helpful to students. In several more years the expanding state program will include all children entering Texas schools.

Directors noted new side walks have been poured by the Green Thumb crew.

Moody told directors that the rent and utilities have been included in the federal budget application for 1972 for two public housing apartment units now being used for offices and the highly successful well baby clinic sponsored by the women's division of the Post Chamber of Commerce.

United Fund

$303 for 1971; Southland division, $30 as compared to last year's $27; Justiceburg division $123 as compared to $122 last year; hospital employees, $29 as compared to $27 in 1971; and ASC and SCS employees $66.25 compared to $45 last year.

Other division totals to date include business division $4,655.50, retail employees $148, bank employees $228.50, farm and ranch division $420, ministers $66.25, teachers $400, postal employees $41, Postex employees $1,275, and city employees $6.

Drive workers hope to wrap up the campaign this weekend except for the "straggler cards" which probably won't all be in for another 10 days.

Cornish said division chairmen have worked exceptionally hard this year and a concerted effort will be made to rework everything — even if it takes into December — in an effort to reach the United Fund goal for the third straight year.

Building sought as youth center

A youth center organization, formed at a meeting last Thursday night, has contacted the out-of-town owners of the vacant Ford Motor Co. building on West Main Street to see if it is available as a recreation place for the young people of the community.

Dan Rankin, assistant principal of the Post Elementary School, was elected president of the organization. David Woods was elected as vice president and Becky Dalby secretary.

Need exists for used clothing

The need of used clothing and shoes for needy families continues to grow here, according to R. G. "Wilke" Wilkerson, who said present stocks have dwindled.

Anyone with wearable clothing and shoes to contribute is asked to take it to Wilke's, 330 E. Main, or to his home, 109 East 15th. Wilkerson said old or broken toys that can be repaired also will be needed for Christmas gift giving to children of indigent families.

Gas explosion victim reported recovering

Mrs. Donald Pennell of Southland was reported Wednesday to be recovering satisfactorily in a Brownfield hospital from severe burns she received Sunday while attending a Campers Club meeting in Brownfield.

Mrs. Pennell was burned in an explosion and fire that occurred when she attempted to light a gas stove in a camper.

Mrs. Pennell is a sister of Mrs. Carl Cederholm and Mrs. Arville Ferguson, both of Post.

Large crowd attends church homecoming

Homecoming at the First Christian Church here Sunday morning was attended by a large number of local members and many former members from out of town.

Dr. Harrell A. Rea of Fort Worth, the first pastor of the church, 1936-39, delivered the morning sermon.

One of the highlights of the homecoming took place when the only three surviving members of the church were honored with gifts. The charter members are sisters — Mrs. Winnie Tuffing, Mrs. Jack Burrell and Mrs. J. H. Haire — who were described by Bernard S. Ramsey, minister, as having been "loyal, faithful members for fifty years."

Former members Mr. and Mrs. Byron Haynie of Lubbock and Dr. Rea also received gifts.

A buffet dinner was served in the church's Fellowship Hall following the morning service.

The sanctuary and Fellowship were decorated for the occasion with fall arrangements of mums and autumn leaves.

The Rev. Mr. Newkirk recently moved to Idalou from Natura, Colo., where he served as pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church in the mission field. He was in mission work there for three years.

A native West Texan, the Rev. Mr. Newkirk has been pastor of a number of churches on the South Plains. He is a graduate of Wayland Baptist College and did post-graduate work at West Texas State and Texas Tech universities.

The new pastor and his wife have a daughter, Jana, 10, are at home. Another son is in Bible school in Canada, and two other daughters are married. The daughters are Diane, who lives in Hawaii, and Donna, a resident of Colorado.

The Trinity Baptist Church has been without a full-time pastor since the resignation recently of the Rev. James C. Criswell.

Six properties are sold by tax board

The delinquent tax drive is continuing here this week with the new tax authority advisory board negotiating the sale of a group of six properties from those "bid in" by the school district at the recent tax sale.

Persons interested in any of the properties purchased as a "holding action" by the school district at the sale are asked to contact Pat N. Walker, local attorney who is conducting the delinquent tax campaign.

He will place any offers received before the advisory board, composed of representatives of each of the local taxing units, for their consideration.

On page 6 of today's Dispatch six more citations by publication notices are starting a four weeks run in an effort to locate present owners of the tax delinquent property prior to obtaining tax judgments against the properties in district court so they can be offered at a future sheriff's sale.

Other citation of publication notices for additional property which is tax delinquent are not being published in The Dispatch, as no method of payment is provided except through proceeds of the sheriff's sale. These citations have been posted by Walker at the courthouse, city hall, and the Post High School. The law provides the "posting method" is not accepted for publication.

Water protest—

ter soaked the second-floor courtroom an inch or two deep and spilled down into the sheriff's office and the county school superintendent's office on the first floor. Gene Solis, the courthouse building superintendent, bore the brunt of the cleanup. He worked all day Sunday starting at 6 a. m.

Damages were estimated at about $100 and the protesting woman agreed to make restitution. Those arrested here on drunk charges have been kept overnight in the jail as a customary law enforcement procedure.

Sometimes it isn't such a good idea.

Postings—

Anyway, we know our readers will be interested in this little follow-up item about that Frenship timekeeping: Supt. Bill Shiver told The Dispatch Tuesday that the Frenship timekeeping will be submitted for consideration at the next meeting of the District 4AA Executive Committee. That meeting won't be until the end of the basketball season. The school administration said rule changes to cover such "things" will be suggested at the district meeting.

The big benefit bowl game coming up in Antelope Stadium Saturday night between Post and Slaton "outsiders" football teams is a pretty serious bit of business for all the ex-footballoers on the local squad who have been hard at work "uncreaking" muscles the past ten days.

It should be an interesting affair and be worth everybody's time and money (proceeds here will go to the Antelope Booster Club to support the local athletic program.).

It reminds us of a New Year's Day bowl game we covered between Garden City and Dodge City, Kans. "outsiders" back about 1948 before the "idiot box" gave over-exposure to bowl games and football in general, and while we were newspapering in Garden City.

The stocky junior college coach put on a uniform and started himself at guard. After the first quarter, he never bothered to get off his knees, just crawling from where one play ended to where the new line of scrimmage was. He finished the game though — the most used up man I ever saw — and when it was over he got a cheer you probably could have heard clear over to Dodge City, although Garden City lost the game. That bowl game drew about 2,000 people.

I hope this one is just as well attended.

Dalby talk—

he said.

As for the drug problem said, "We have one, but it is not as acute as in some communities around us." Dalby said that the drug problem is a "difficult one to handle."

The most surprising came from Judge Dalby's his citing of a government study which estimates that the population of Post will be compared to the office of the 1970 census.

That surprised a lot of people but supports the thought exodus of population from and small towns to the start going the other way next 10 years.

Post cagers to open here Friday against Crosbyton

New coach in debut as 'Lopes head man

Post basketball fans will get their first look at the 1971-72 Antelope coach John Alexander when the cagers go against Crosbyton here Friday night in their first game of the season.

The high school girls' basketball team, the Does, who scrimmaged Spur here Monday night, are also to play Friday night, going against the Crosbyton girls in a preliminary to the varsity boys' game.

Opening the night's activity will be a game between the Post and Crosbyton boys' "B" teams.

While Friday nights game will be the first regular season competition for the Antelopes, they are to go to Cooper tonight (Thursday) for a scrimmage session with the Cooper Pirates.

The Antelopes will get a real test against Crosbyton here Friday night. The Chiefs have three starters back from last year's team and are picked second, behind Lorenzo, in pre-season District 4A ratings.

Coach Alexander said Tuesday that this season's varsity squad will start out with Steve Hays, Randall Hays, Danny Lee, David Woods, Jerry Saldivar, Tony Rosas, Ricky Shepherd, Roger Pace, Kyle Josey, Larry Hair, Robert Torres and Johnny Jefferson.

The two Hays boys, Woods, Lee and Pace are lettermen. Shepherd and Jefferson are the only two sophomores on the varsity squad.

Pre-season predictions in District 4AA favor the Ralls Jackrabbits to repeat as district champions. The district race will be a seven-team affair instead of eight, since Denver City will not be eligible for the championship because of a violation of UIL rules last season. Denver City used a player in consecutive games on Thursday and Friday nights last season, which is against UIL regulations.

Following Friday night's openers here with Crosbyton, the "A" and "B" boys' teams will play at Spur on Monday night, and the Does will play the Jayton girls' team here Tuesday night.

Tonight (Thursday), the Post freshman and 7th and 8th grade girls teams are to play at Frenship, while Frenship comes to Post for freshman and 7th and 8th grade boys' games.

'LOPES LEAD MOST OF WAY

Frenship 'takes' Post in 11-10 cliffhanger

The Post Antelopes lost a barn-burner, as well as a heartbreaker, to the Frenship Tigers, 11 to 10, last Friday night when the Tigers' Roy Cuellar kicked a 31-yard field goal with 25 seconds showing on the clock.

The Antelopes led 10-0 on Rodney Compton's 16-yard field goal and Johnny Minor's three-yard run until five minutes deep in the final quarter when the Tigers scored on a 35-yard pass from Doug Moerbe to Mike Wright to get back in the game.

Coach Bobby Davis' Antelopes, carrying the fight to the heavily favored Tigers on the latter's home field, completely dominated play in the first half and throughout the third quarter before the Tigers started their comeback.

Post lost a chance to increase their lead by a touchdown early in the fourth quarter when quarterback Jerry Tyler, tackled on the Frenship 41, pitched the ball to halfback Kenneth Price, who went the remaining distance for an apparent touchdown, only to have the play called back and the 'Lopes penalized 15 yards from the line of scrimmage to their 31 for what the field judge ruled an illegal forward pass.

(Coach Davis told The Dispatch Monday that the game film showed that Tyler lateraled to Price, the ball striking Price's chest and then bouncing forward before being gathered back in. The coach said the film showed the field judge trailing the play and not in a position to see that Tyler's toss to Price was a lateral.)

A few plays later, Moerbe intercepted a Tyler pass on the Frenship 15 and returned it to the 43, from where they went for the touchdown that brought them back to within striking distance.

Following the Tiger touchdown, halfback Johnny Silvas ran over the extra points that pulled Frenship within two points of the 'Lopes, 10-8.

With 4:10 remaining, Kyle Josey punted to the Frenship 10 where the ball was killed by Ronald Tyler. The Tigers' 185-pound fullback Joe Rogans, who had left the game with an injury in the first quarter, broke for a 22-yard gain to the Frenship 32, where he was stopped by Danny Lee and Dennis Conrad.

Rusty Dove gained four yards before being hauled in by Jay Polard and Conrad, and Wright went for six more and another first down on the 42, with Jerry Tyler making the stop.

Kim Owen pulled down Wright after a five-yard gain, and Rogans bulldozed his way for five more and a first down on the Post 48, where he was tackled by Jimmy Bertran. Wright gained 11 to the Post 37, with Lee making the stop, but a personal foul penalty against the 'Lopes took the ball to their 23.

Cuellar circled end for five yards but a holding penalty set the Tigers back to the 37. Wright was forced out of bounds after a short gain, but a five-yard penalty against Post took the ball to the 32.

The clock showed 54 seconds to play when Dove was stopped by Kenny McKemie after a two-yard gain, and, according to the clock, Rogans used up only two seconds in gaining six yards to the 24. Cuellar's field goal came after McKemie had stopped Rogans following a three-yard gain to the 21.

In the lead by a single point, the Tigers kicked short, with Tony Rosas returning the ball five yards to the Post 32. After Tyler lost five yards trying to find a receiver, Kim Owen carried the ball for a 21-yard gain to the Antelope 48.

Following an incomplete pass, Post drew a five-yard penalty for delay of game, and Cuellar batted down Tyler's pass to Josey on the Frenship 40.

Randy Kennedy's recovery of a fumbled punt on the Frenship 30 in the first quarter set the stage for Compton's field goal.

Minor and Price moved the ball to the 18 for a first down and a personal foul penalty against the Tigers took the ball to the nine-yard line. Three running plays gained only four yards and Compton came off the bench to boot the three-pointer with 4:29 remaining in the opening period.

Post's touchdown came on a 66-yard drive early in the second quarter after Shepherd fielded a Frenship punt on the Antelope 34.

A 31-yard pass from Tyler to Josey took the ball to the Frenship 35, with Josey gaining four yards and Price 12 on two carries for a first down on the 19. Robert Torres gained a yard at the line and after Tyler's pass to Josey missed a first down by inches, the Post quarterback kept for a first and 10 on the three. After a stab at the line failed to gain, Minor burst through a big hole in the right side of the Tiger line for the touchdown. Compton kicked the extra point to give Post their 10-lead with 7:36 of the first half remaining.

The Post defense held Frenship to 37 net yards in the first half, but the Tigers netted 118 yards rushing and 71 yards passing in the second half to turn the game around.

Woman suffers burns at campers' meeting

By TOMMIE WILKE
 Wheee — it is kite flying weather today, that is if your kite has a good stout string on it, otherwise it might break away and sail off into orbit! The wind has blown like crazy all day and it is cloudy and kinda damp! Just wonder what we are in for? Hope all is well with you, wherever you are.

 Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Pennell really had some bad luck on Sunday morning. They went to Brownfield Saturday afternoon to attend a "Good Sam" camper meeting that was being held on Saturday and Sunday. Sunday morning, Mrs. Pennell got up and started to prepare breakfast and when she struck a match to light the burner on the stove, there was an explosion, probably caused from an accumulation of butane, and blew her across the camper and burned her very badly over most of her body. She was rushed to the Brownfield hospital and is doing very well, considering everything. The explosion ripped the camper apart. Mr. Pennell wasn't hurt, only received a singed hair. Don't know how long she will be in the Brownfield hospital, or really, just how extensive her burns are. May God be with her and restore her to good health very quickly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Farrar from Ontario, Calif., stopped by the post office this morning, Monday, and visited for a while. I hadn't met Mrs. Farrar until this morning, and they are both such delightful people. They were on their way to Post for a visit and then were going on down to Dallas, Fort Worth, and Lake Whitney and maybe on to New Orleans. Mrs. Farrar is the former Maxine Loyd. They gave me a bag of fresh California dates, and they are just delicious.
 Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Don Altman on the birth of a son, Dace Edward. Don is a 1965 Southland High School graduate.

 We extend our deepest sympathies to Mrs. Herman Havis whose aunt died this past week.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Pennell and Mrs. Lynn Freeman attended the "Good Sam Camper National Rally" which was held at Coolidge, Ariz., recently. There were close to 350 campers and trailers there with 28 states represented. They stopped in Alamogordo, N.M., on their way and spent the night with the Jim Bryants.
 We extend our sympathies to the

D. D. Pennell family on the loss of his uncle, Robert Pennell, in Boomer, N.C., who passed away Nov. 6 at the age of 82.
 The Pleasant Valley 4-H Horse Club met Nov. 13 with the following members attending: Sue and Mark Bevers, Billy and James Alexander, Maria and Donna Shelton and Joy Jean Basinger. Adult leaders present were Bill Alexander and James Shelton. Guests were Laura Bevers, Joe Bevers, Jackie Alexander and Kim Basinger. After a two-hour work session, refreshments were served. The next meeting will be this coming Saturday, Nov. 20, at the Pleasant Valley. Ya'll come!
