Sixth annual stock show and fair to open today

With sponsors keeping their fingers crossed for pretty weather, preparations are under way this morning for the opening tonight of the sixth annual Garza County Junior Livestock Show, with the Garza County Fair to be held in conjunction.

Entries for the stock show began coming in at 8:30 this morning and were to continue until noon. Judging of the swine at 7:30 to night will get the big show under way.

All animals will be exhibited and judged in the show barn, just west of the 4-H building, with the show's crowning event to be the sale of the 64 top animals Saturday afternoon.

Following tonight's swine show, the horse show will be held at 2:30 p.m. Friday and the lamb show at 7:30 p.m. Friday. The steer show is scheduled to get under way at 9 a.m. Saturday, with the sale set for 1:30 p.m.

Ken or Corky Bozeman of Lubbock will be the auctioneer with bidding to be on a dollar basis for each animal, with the dollars bid going as premiums to the animal's owners. Bidders will be required to pay floor price as well if they wish to keep the animal for slaughter. The floor price for each division will be set at the beginning of the sale.

Judging the animals will be Ronnie Woods of Idalou, swine; John Kearney of Marfa, lambs; Calvin Holcomb of Seminole, steers, and Manuel Davis of Claremont, horses.

Sportsmanship trophies will be presented in the various livestock divisions and also an overall sportsmanship trophy.

Toby Thomas, president of the Garza County Junior Livestock Association, said from 160 to 175 animals are expected to be exhibited by FFA and 4-H Club members of the county.

Members of the stock show association held a meeting Monday night to make final plans for the event.

The county fair, sponsored by the home demonstration club members of the county, is to be held in the 4-H building, with judging of the fair exhibits to be from 1:30 p.m. until 5 p.m. today. The exhibits will be open to the public from 5 p.m. until 9 p.m. today, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. on Saturday.

The contest divisions for the fair are: Educational, culinary, canning, clothing, crafts, antiques, flower, handwork, art and agriculture products. Ribbons will go to winners.

There will also be trophies for high point winners in both the adult and youth divisions, and rosettes to department winners in both divisions.

A concession stand will be operated all three days by the Garza County HD Council, and a cake auction will be held Saturday afternoon.

CONSERVATION FARMER AND RANCHER

Conservation award winners and their wives are shown with S. Thuet Jr., chairman of the Garza Soil and Water Conservation District at Monday night's awards banquet.

Soil and water saving plaques are presented

Plaques were presented to Virgil Smith, county's outstanding conservation farmer and to J. Martin Basinger, the outstanding conservation rancher at the annual awards banquet of the Garza Soil and Water Conservation District at 7:30 Monday at Toby's Restaurant.

On the program was an address by Frank Gray of Lubbock, member of the state soil and water conservation board, and the presentation of Hope Johnson, Post

Junior High School student who won the local soil district's annual essay contest.

Smith and Basinger farm a 240-acre ranch in the northern part of Garza County and have made extensive use of soil and water conservation practices on their property. Smith, a former member of the Duck Creek SCD, helped organize the Garza SCD. They were presented their plaques by board member Sam Ellis, who was master of ceremonies.

Gray, one of the pioneers of irrigation with sewage effluent in this area, told of the benefits of the process in helping conserve water and prevent pollution. He also answered a number of questions asked him about the process.

"We of today face a challenge of conserving our soil and water as well as improving it for future generations," Gray said.

Ellis, in his introduction of Gray, said he was the 1961 winner of the Hoblitzelle Award, which is given for the advancement of rural life.

Hope Johnson read her prize winning essay, which is entitled, "Our Natural Environment — Preserve and Protect It." The first line of her essay is, "The biggest threat to our natural environment is man."

Approximately 40 persons, including a number of special guests, attended the banquet.

Funeral service held Monday for former resident

Mrs. E. W. Williams Sr., 77, of Lubbock, was buried in Terrace Cemetery here Monday following funeral services at 10 a.m. in Bowman Chapel of the First United Methodist Church in Lubbock.

Mrs. Williams, a resident of Post for 40 years before moving to Lubbock in 1957, died about 5 a.m. Saturday at the Bivins Nursing Home in Amarillo, where she had been in the last 11 months.

Born Oct. 22, 1893, in Hamilton County, she was married to E. W. Williams Sr. in Post in 1917. Mr. Williams, a prominent Garza County rancher and farmer, died in February of 1957 and Mrs. Williams moved to Lubbock in December of that year.

She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star and the Lubbock Women's Club.

Mrs. Williams was the mother of E. W. Williams Jr. of 2601 Curtis Drive, Amarillo, senior vice president. (See Williams Rites, page 8)

ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS

Hope Johnson is the 1971 winner of the Garza SCD's annual conservation essay contest. Don Sawyers (front) won second place, and Rodney Compton (rear), third place. Shown with the winners is Ralph Welch, essay contest chairman for the SCD board.

Order determined for names on city ballot

Candidates' names have been drawn for the order in which they will appear on the ballot in the city election on April 3, for which absentee voting is to get under way Monday, March 15.

WRONG CANDIDATE

The Dispatch erred in its city election story last Thursday when it listed Donald Windham instead of David Newby as one of the three candidates for re-election to the city council. Windham was re-elected in April of 1970 for a new two-year term.

among whom three are to be elected, will appear on the ballot in the following order: Mike Mitchell, David Newby, E. R. Moreland, Ed Sawyers, Lester Nichols, Ed Blanton and J. D. "Fuzzy" Windham.

Mitchell, Newby and Nichols are candidates for re-election. Mayor Giles C. McCrary's name will appear on the city ballot as the only candidates for mayor. He seeks a second two-year term.

Voting in the city election will be at the City Hall with the polls open from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. Sexton Huntley will be the election judge. Also scheduled for April 3 is the election of three members of the board of trustees of the Post Independent School District, in which the only contest is for Place 6 between Jimmy Moore and Silas Short, newly-appointed member of the board. In a drawing conducted (See Ballot Draw, page 8)

FOR CITY STREETS

Big saving seen on emulsion job

Going on figures furnished by City Manager Bobby Pierce, the city council decided at a special meeting Monday afternoon that it can save approximately $6,500 with a do-it-yourself job on applying emulsion to city streets.

In addition, the emulsion will save a seal-coating job every other year, thus resulting in a net saving of $5,000 a year, the city manager told the council. The special meeting was called

DIRECT DISTANCE DIALING APRIL 4

Direct Distance Dialing for Post is less than a month away, according to G. T. Hamilton of Brownfield, General Telephone Company division manager.

The establishment of the ultra-modern Direct Distance Dialing service is scheduled for April 4, culminating many months of minute planning and delicate installation.

Direct Distance Dialing permits customers to dial their own station-to-station long distance calls, while person-to-person, collect and credit-card calls may be placed through the operator.

Detailed instructions will be mailed to each customer before the establishment date, Hamilton said.

TO NEW SNYDER COLLEGE

Vocational students may take bus rides

Possibility of busing Post High School students to Snyder's new Western Texas College for vocational courses in 1971-72 was presented to Post school trustees at their March meeting Monday night by Supt. Bill Shiver.

The local administrator said such a plan is much more economically feasible than trying to offer such courses here at the cost outlays required for space, equipment and skilled instructors.

Shiver said a survey taken in the local high school has revealed 31 Post students are interested in taking four such vocational courses next year — office occupation, welding, auto mechanics and diesel mechanics.

The administrator explained that the tuition charge for such students would be $325 per student for each school year. He said the Texas Educational Agency would pay $264 of such tuition charges per student, leaving the actual tuition cost to the district of only $61 per student.

He estimated other costs for such an undertaking as $1,200 for annual depreciation on the bus used for transportation, approximately $750 for gasoline, plus the cost of bus driver (probably a student taking a course at the new Snyder junior college) and bus repairs.

Shiver said that the courses could be arranged so that the local students would attend classes here during the mornings and be driven to Snyder for the vocational courses in the afternoons.

The Western Texas College is scheduled to open for the 1971 fall term.

Shiver said the local students could be counted on the local average daily attendance and that efforts would be made to fit the schedules of students so that Post would not lose state support for any teachers with the adding of the vocational courses at Snyder.

The administrator said this procedure would be much less expensive than trying to offer small courses here which would require expensive equipment and highly trained instructors. He said the choice at least for the present was taking advantage of the vocational courses to be offered at Snyder or not to offer the courses at all.

No action was taken on the plan. Shiver merely reported to trustees on current developments.

Procedure is changed on rehiring teachers

Post school trustees and Supt. Bill Shiver have changed the procedure this year on rehiring faculty members for 1971-72. Those teachers considering offers elsewhere for next year are not being offered contracts here.

Shiver told trustees at their March meeting Monday night that this procedure will permit him to fill vacancies this spring when good applicants are available, rather than waiting until mid-summer when resignations come in and qualified applicants are difficult to find.

In keeping with this new policy trustees voted to extend 1971-72 teacher contracts to 49 teachers out of a professional staff of 65, which included four administrators and the athletic director extended contracts earlier.

Teachers to whom contracts will be extended are:

Elementary school: Mmes. Sue Cornell, Jean Gandy, Suzanne Hudman, Ida Jones, Jessie Lancaster, Leocy Lott, Nona Lusk, Pauline Mason, Jo Ann Mitchell, Lea Mock, Anita Myers, Lucile McBride, Lucille Nixon, Rowena Pierce, and Mary Lee Wristen; Misses Beth Holman, Shariot Rose, Lucila Valenzuela, and Janice King; and Dan Rankin, teacher and assistant principal.

Junior High School: Mmes. Ella Mae Hudman, Ruby Lobban, Carolyn Sawyers, Dana Turn, Beth Walker, Martha Window, Misses Betty Hutchins and Betty Kuwaski; Barry Max Balzen, Lee (Bud) Davis, Fernando Raymundo and Mike Watts.

High School: Mmes. Sandra Al- (See School Board, page 8)

Silas Short to head Rotarians

Silas Short, owner of Short Hardware and a Post newcomer who is participating in a wide range of community activities including his recent appointment to the school trustees, has been elected president of the Post Rotary Club for the 1971-72 club year which begins July 1.

He will succeed Bailey Mayo as head of this civic organization.

New club officers, elected last Thursday night by club directors, also include Jack Alexander as first vice president, Bailey Mayo as second vice president; James Mitchell, treasurer; Lou Marks, secretary and Bill McBride, sergeant-at-arms.

The last three were re-elected to posts they already hold. Grant Lott and Larry West were elected club directors to fill positions which will be vacated by the elevation of Short and Alexander as officers.

Mayo announced that Rotarians will sponsor the appearance of a variety and magical show here April 29th with the proceeds to be put on a community beautification project.

An organizational meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday night in the Reddy Room for all who are interested in putting over the proposed cactus garden project as a beauty spot and tourist attraction.

Mrs. C. K. (Peewee) Pierce, temporary chairman, has extended invitations to all local organizations to be represented.

Both building and financial plans will be presented.

GARZA COUNTY 1970 CENSUS

Pipes, plumbing, people enumerated

Garza County's official population in the 1970 census was 5,289, down 20 per cent from the 1960 figure of 6,611, the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce reports in a computer "print out" received over the weekend by The Dispatch.

The official population of the state was 11,196,730, up 16.9 per cent from the 1960 population count, that was 9,579,677.

The 1970 census counted 4,944 white persons in Garza County, 93.5 per cent of the total; 301 Negroes, and 44 persons of other races. In 1960, 93.1 per cent of the population was white.

Mexican-Americans are counted as white in the census. The Dispatch has had no success in learning from census officials who the "44 persons of other races" are in Garza County. Best explanation offered is that probably most of the 44 were listed in other races due to errors by census takers in tabulating Mexican-Americans.

The census showed 431 children under 5 years; 1,494 in ages 5 through 17; 2,763 people 18 through 64; and 599 who were 65 and older. The population 14 years and over included 2,644 married people, 346 who were widowed, 93 divorced, and 769 never married.

Garza County's 1970 population was classified as 72.9 per cent urban, and 27.1 per cent rural.

There were 1,989 households with 5,266 persons, including 283 one-person households. In addition, 23 persons were living in group quarters. The 1970 census counted 2,018 housing units in Garza County, 1,079 of them occupied by owners, 610 occupied by tenants, and 329 vacant. These included vacant units for seasonal use. The proportion occupied by owners in 1970 was 53.5 per cent, compared with 47.9 per cent in 1960.

Among year-round dwelling units there were 1,911 single family houses, 62 housing units in multi-unit buildings and 25 mobile homes or trailers. The percentage of occupied units with more than one person per room was 11.5, compared with 19.7 in 1960. Of all the occupied housing units, 1,602 had piped water, toilet and bath, while 87 lacked some or all plumbing.

The median value of owner-occupied houses in Garza County was $6,700, compared with $6,600 in 1960. The median rent paid by tenants in 1970 was $47 per month, compared with $57 in 1960. Half of the units were over and half below the median figures.

Both building and financial plans will be presented.

Want to get in on the action?

Those who are interested or enthusiastic for the cactus garden proposal for South Broadway at Eighth Street are asked to attend an organizational meeting in the Reddy Room at 8 p. m. Monday night.

Almost every club and organization is being invited to send representatives.

Considerable preliminary work has been completed.

A basic plan has been drawn, clearance obtained from the state highway department, a cost estimate done, some research into the availability of cacti in the ranch area for transplanting into the garden ready for reporting.

A financial plan has been evolved too which will be explained at the meeting.

To back up this cactus garden project, the Clean Sweepers of two summers ago turned out on hot summer nights to clean up a very weedy and trashy tourist highway through Post. They vowed then they would beautify it later and marked down a cactus garden as project No. 1.

That's where matters stand today. Monday a decision will be made whether we open the "will" and the "way" to build and open the cactus garden for tourists this summer. If we don't have it, then a year's delay is painfully obvious. Because now is "do it time."

There are a lot of factors which contribute to the success of projects like this.

One of them is dedicated people who can get the job done. Peewee Pierce as temporary chairman of the old "clean sweepers" is working hard to get the people out for Monday night.

David Newby, who has built quite a reputation here in recent years for planning and supervising community projects (boarding up the Ameen Hotel) and establishing the Sextuple Oil Well tourist attraction are two prime examples not to name the tourist place mats) has designed a cactus garden for consideration and has volunteered to supervise the garden if people want him to do it.

Another factor essential to success is some community cohesion. There are lots of projects. Almost anybody can come up with a good one. The essential step in "dream to reality" is getting everybody to work together on them one at a time.

Right now, the cactus garden is "the project." Let's turn out Monday night and get the job done. Everybody who wants a part can have one whether just decision making, putting up funds, or doing some work. You pick your own "thing". This is one of the "people projects" which have proved so successful here in recent years.

Such a cactus garden will not only be a beauty spot but it will be a tourist attraction and an educational project all rolled into one.

Want to get in on this little bit of community action? Just come to the organizational meeting —8 p. m. Monday in the Reddy Room. We're "reddy" to go.—JC

Don't miss week's big events

This is a big week for Garza County's 4-H Club and Future Farmers of America members, the Junior Livestock Association members, and members of the home demonstration clubs of the county. It is a week that has been eagerly looked forward to by these people—especially the 4-H Club and FFA members.

The annual Junior Livestock Show and County Fair are to be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday. That's only half a week, but the first three days of the week will be spent by the above groups setting the stage for the stock show and fair. What the stock show and fair visitors see after the two events are under way tells only half the story; the other half is what goes on in preparing for the occasion.

The Dispatch joins the livestock association and home demonstration clubs in urging that everyone attend and support this year's stock show and fair. It is one of the year's biggest events on the local scene and represents a great deal of time and effort on the parts of the sponsors and the exhibitors.

The growth of the junior livestock show and fair from year to year has been made possible by the public's interest and support. Your continued support at this week's 1971 event will assure an even bigger and better one in 1972.

Museums telling 'Texas story'

The Dispatch has just received its copy of the 1971 Texas Museums Directory, compiled and published by the Texas Historical Survey Committee and distributed by the Texas Highway Department and THSC.

Listed for the first time in the directory is the Borden County Historical Museum at Gail, which was opened last year. This new museum focuses on pioneer life in Borden County, with exhibits on the founding families of the county, memorabilia and historical items.

While the new directory of Texas museums contains much of interest to us, it is not as interesting as we expect the 1972 directory to be. Because, if everything goes according to plan, Post and Garza County's museum—now in the process of being established—will be included in that directory.

The newly organized Garza County Museum Association has received its charter, and the Mason Memorial Building is being prepared to house the museum.

We learn from this year's directory that, in the wave of a nationwide trend, the number of museums in the state of Texas has mushroomed during the last few years. Whereas in 1964 there were 82 museums open to the public in Texas, today there are 225 opening and 189 more in the planning or building stages. Including—we are happy to report—his one here.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

Seems strange that the taxpayer who pays for the care and medical or hospital expense of most of the alcoholic, heroin and drug addicts in the U.S.A. is barred to give a lengthy funeral statement and personal history, plus occasionally give the old homestead as security of get past the front desk in a hospital for his own care. Discrimination I call it.—Carroll, Ok., Herald.

How come the IRS is giving tax exemptions to full fledged organizations bent on destroying our form of government and at the same time considering denying tax exemptions for private educational institutions bent on maintaining our form of government? We should not be forced to subsidize our own destruction with our own taxes.—Wynneville (Va.) Enterprise.

I HAVE MY camera all unlimbered for this weekend's stock show, but if it isn't asking too much, I would like for the stock show officials to give tranquilizers to the hogs that I am supposed to take pictures of.

I never have the least bit of trouble getting pictures of the calves, lambs and horses, but I never have anything else when it comes time to shoot the hogs — which I sometimes feel like doing with something other than a camera.

A HOG CAN be as photogenic as any other animal if you can just get him settled down long enough to draw a bead on him.

It could be, however, that Gumperson's Law has something to do with photographing hogs. You know, like if you didn't have a camera in your hand and wanted the hog to move, he'd stand as if rooted to the spot.

INCIDENTALLY, THAT Gumperson's Law is a funny thing, but there's no getting around it. It has been wordily defined this way: The contradictory of a welcome probability will assert itself whenever such an eventuality is likely to be most frustrating or, in other words, the outcome of a given desired probability will be inverse to the degree of desirability.

It is Gumperson's Law for example, that causes blue grass to grow in the cracks of concrete sidewalks but not on your lawn.

IT ACCOUNTS, too, for the fact that you can throw a burnt match out the window of your car and start a forest fire while you can use two boxes of matches and a whole edition of the Sunday paper without being able to start a fire under the dry logs in your fireplace.

A brief elucidation of the law, with details on its origin and development, is presented herewith for the benefit of the lay reader.

Dr. R. F. Gumperson, internationally famous divinitist, began serious work in 1938 on a phenomenon long known to scientists but up until then considered as a mere curiosity. This was the fact that the forecasting record of the weather bureau, despite its use of the most advanced equipment and highly trained personnel, was not as good as that of The Old Farmer's Almanac. After four years of research Dr. Gumperson enunciated his now famous law and was able to make a series of predictions later confirmed by other scientific workers in the field. Some of the better known of these include the following:

That after a raise in salary you will have less money at the end of each month than you had before.

That the girl at the race track who bets according to the color of the jockey's shirt will pick more winners than the man who has studied the past performance of every horse on the program.

That children have more energy on a hard day of play than they do on a good night's sleep.

That the person who buys the most raffle tickets has the least chance of winning.

That a child can be exposed to the sun for weeks without catching a tan but can catch a tan in a few hours if he goes on vacation.

That the dishwasher will break down the evening you give a dinner party for ten people.

That good parking places are on the other side of the street.

DR. GUMPERSON served as a consultant to the armed services during World War II and evolved the procedure whereby the more a recruit knew about a given subject the better chance he had of receiving an assignment involving some other subject.

There is no knowing to what further glittering lights Dr. Gumperson's genius would have led him had it not been for his untimely death in 1947. Strolling along the highway one evening, he was observing the pedestrian rule of walking to the left facing traffic. He was struck down from behind by a Hillman-Minx driver, an English visitor hugging the left side of the road.

JARVIS

The surname Jarvis is no exception to the rule that search of most family names will turn up a number of individuals who were engaged in a variety of occupations or who had a variety of accomplishments to their credit.

One of the first of the name to catch the public eye was John Jarvis, a two-foot dwarf who served as page to Queen Mary I of England. Another Englishman of the name, J. A. Jarvis, in 1907 won the first "Swim Thru London," which came to be one of England's most popular long-distance swimming events.

In America, William Jarvis became the first to introduce Merino sheep to this country and distribute them in large numbers throughout the states. In 1808, when Napoleon conquered Spain, seizing and confiscating property and pushing on into Portugal, Jarvis, then serving as U. S. consul at Lisbon, purchased 3,500 of the sheep and exported them to the United States. Up to that time these very profitable sheep had been jealously guarded for centuries against export by the Spanish government. Jarvis' contribution to the economic history of the country is commemorated by a sheep carved on his headstone at Weathersfield, Vt.

Other prominent Americans of the name have included Charles H. Jarvis, born in 1837, who was one of the best American pianists of his time; Thomas Jordan Jarvis, who served as governor of North Carolina, and John Wesley Jarvis, portrait painter and nephew of John Wesley, founder of Methodism.

The surname Jarvis is derived from the Teutonic personal name Gervais. Its original form in England was Jervis, but it became Jarvis through the vowel change in which the medieval "er" was usually sounded as "ar."

Jarvis ranks 896th among surnames in the United States, where an estimated 30,500 persons answer to the name.

Come on friends and neighbors, let us let the rest of the world know that there is something going on in our Southland community. How about giving me your news and letting me share it with others. I'll be waiting. Until then, here is a little something that I think is very true:
 A smile is cheer to you and me
 The cost is nothing — it's given free
 It comforts the weary — gladdens the sad
 Consoles those in trouble — good or bad

To rich and poor, beggar or thief
 It's free to all of any belief
 A natural gesture of young and old
 Cheers on the faint, disarms the bold
 Unlike most blessings for which we pray
 It's one thing we keep when we give it away.

TIPS IN EGG BUYING

Shoppers know that eggs are sold with a grade and a size. These are the key factors in making wise selection, yet few know what goes into grading and sizing. The grade is based on the interior of the egg and the condition and price of the egg shell. The inequality is checked by a prodded candling. Light is projected through the egg, making the visible through the shell. The grader uses standards to "grade" the egg.

The consumer may be able to choose three grades on the market: Grade AA (Fresh Fancy), Grade A and Grade B. Grade AA covers a small area when broken. The white is thick and stands the yolk is firm and high. Grade A will spread some. The yolk is not quite as firm as AA. Grade B will be even and more spread. Grade AA and A are used for poaching and since appearance is important, Grade B is used in general cooking and baking.

If you are puzzled because you have not seen Grade B. Actually, the rate of change in an egg fast that Grade AA may be Grade A by the time you get to the store. A Grade B egg could be a B. Knowing the location from where the eggs are shipped will be clues to quality.

Grade your eggs by size or weight. The minimum weight per egg will be 27 ounces for extra large, 24 ounces for large, 21 ounce for medium and 18 ounces for small. By dividing the weight into the number, the shopper can compare sizes for the best buy.

junk cars piled up—and that job isn't over either.

Certainly every "opic and span" type citizen owes a word of thanks to Mayor Giles C. McCreary and City Manager Daley Pierce for getting this job done for us.

It's too bad we couldn't stage a Clean Sweep Parade down Main Street.

Just think of how impressive it would be to see big transport trucks hauling off the hulks of some 40 abandoned houses—relics of the town's post World War II oil "boomlet"—and with the trucks followed by 200 old hulks of cars. That mess would stretch out to over two miles in length and be one of the great sights any Postite ever saw—providing the parade's line of march headed right out of town toward the dump grounds.

Other survivors are three brothers, Joe Martin of Amarillo, Harold Martin of Wildorado and Spur 1 in Martin of Socorro N.M.; a sister, Mrs. Herman Schulz of Truth or Consequences, N.M., and two grandsons, E. W. Williams III, a freshman at Southern Methodist University, and David Williams, a junior in Amarillo High School.

Pallbearers included John Birdwell, Dr. John R. Chalk, Irby G. Metcalf, George C. Miller, J. B. Potts, J. W. Smith, Tol Ware and Fred Underwood.

60 booked for speeding here since March 1

If drivers on US-84 through Post aren't already slowing within state speed limits, they soon will be.

State highway patrolmen since March 1 have booked 60 drivers for speeding in JP court here, most with out of county addresses. Also funneled into the JP court were 13 others charged with a variety of driving and loading violations.

In the same period, patrolmen booked four for driving while intoxicated in Garza County court.

by school trustees Monday night Short's name was drawn to appear first on the school ballot.

The other candidates are A. C. Cash, Place 4, and K. W. Kirkpatrick, Place 5.

Two members of the board of the Garza County Hospital District also are to be chosen in a third election April 3. The only candidates to file were Sexton Huntley and Charlie Brown, both seeking re-election. The hospital election will be held in the Post Public Library.

Mrs. Bettye Scott, director of elementary education, also was voted a new contract in the central office.

Trustees spent almost an hour discussing with Jerry Hoglan of El Paso construction of two new school tennis courts with the use of a plexiglass finish on asphalt. Hoglan estimated "a turn key" job would cost $10,000 to $12,000 including fencing around the two courts.

No action was taken in the absence of two board members, one of whom, Bob Macy, is quite knowledgeable on tennis matters as he was a winning tournament player as a young man.

Trustees approved the employment of Joe Giddens to replace Waco Reynolds for 72 school days for $3,854.16.

The court went on record as opposing Senate Bill 182 now before the Texas Legislature which would provide state probation control instead of probation control being retained by the counties.

In other actions, the court: Reappointed Judge Dalby, Bryan J. Williams, Avery Moore and Syd Conner to the county's veteran's land board committee; leased space in memorial building to Mu Alpha chapter of Beta Sigma Phi; received state comptroller's approval and voted its own approval for the First National Bank to serve as depository for county funds; and agreed to meet with city officials at 10 a. m. March 15 to "discuss a sanitation project."

Cold weather and high winds slowed the runners in the Idalou meet. Floydada won the team championship with 157 points. Idalou was second with 109 points, Tahoka and Slaton tied for third.

Denver City cage team suspended for next season

DENVER CITY — The Texas University Interscholastic League has suspended the Denver City High School basketball team for the 1971-72 season. The team can play its schedule next winter, but will not be eligible for the district cage championship.

The suspension came about when it was discovered following the close of the 1970-71 season that a Denver City basketball player had participated in five tournaments, three with the "A" team and two with the "B" team. UIL rules prohibit a player from playing in more than three tournaments in any one season.

Denver City school officials reported the illegal participation to the District 4AA chairman and to UIL headquarters as soon as it was discovered.

The suspension involves only the basketball team and does not in any way affect other Denver City athletic teams or any other interscholastic activities.

Criticism directed at penal code revision

AUSTIN — Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has joined leading state prosecutors in urging the legislature to put off passage of a proposed penal code revision for two years.

Dallas District Atty. Henry Wade blasted the code at a committee hearing as a "monstrosity" which would make it more difficult for law officers to do their jobs.

PUBLIC NOTICE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

APPROVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Special Election May 18, 1971

IT IS RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Article III, Section 24, of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows: (1) The State Ethics Commission is created as an agency of the State. The commission consists of nine members. Three members shall be appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas with the advice and consent of the Associate Justices serving on the Court. Two members shall be appointed by the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas with the advice and consent of the other judges serving on the Court. Three members shall be appointed by the Chairman of the State Judicial Qualifications Commission with the advice and consent of the other members of the commission, one of whom shall be an attorney at law, in active practice of law, in addition thereto there shall be two ex officio members, one from the House of Representatives and one from the Senate to be elected on the first day of each Regular Session of the Legislature by a majority of the membership of each House for a term of two years. (2) With the exception of the initial appointments, each member shall hold office for a term of six (6) years and his successor is appointed only if he has qualified. In making the initial appointments, each appointing officer shall designate one (1) appointee to serve a term of two (2) years, one (1) appointee to serve a term of four (4) years, and one (1) appointee to serve a term of six (6) years. Interim vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies due to expiration of a full term, and only for the unexpired portion of the term in question. The membership shall designate one of its members to serve as chairman for a period of two (2) years. (3) The members of the commission shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. (4) The commission shall recommend the compensation, per diem, and mileage allowance of members of the Legislature, and may recommend the salary of the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Lieutenant Governor proved before that day by resolution of either House of the Legislature. (b) All rates of compensation, mileage allowances or per diem rates and all changes and recommendations made by the commission thereof shall not take effect until approved by resolution of both Houses of the Legislature. "All votes on these resolutions or parts thereof shall show the individual votes in the respective journals of both Houses." (5) The commission shall investigate any alleged violation of any rule of ethics promulgated by it and report its findings to the appropriate State agency, official, legislative body, grand jury or district attorney. (6) Until otherwise provided by the commission, each member of the Legislature shall receive from the public treasury an annual salary of Four Thousand, Eight Hundred Dollars ($4,800) per year and per diem not exceeding Twelve Dollars ($12) per day for the first 120 days only of each Regular Session and for 30 days of each Special Session of the Legislature. No Regular Session shall be of longer duration than 140 days. In addition to the per diem, the members of each House shall be entitled to mileage in going to and returning from the seat of government, which mileage shall not exceed Two Dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) for every twenty-five (25) miles, the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel, from a table of distances prepared by the Comptroller to each county seat now or hereafter established; no member to be entitled to mileage for any extra session that may be called within one day after adjournment of the Regular or Called session. (7) The commission is further authorized to recommend to each Legislature changes which will update, improve, and effect economy in the legislative process. Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the 18th day of May, 1971, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to create a State Ethics Commission empowered to set rules of ethics for members of the Legislature, State officers and legislative officers, to investigate violations thereof, and to recommend compensation for members of the Legislature and the Lieutenant Governor and recommend improvements and economy in the legislative process."

Now there's a new, small Pontiac with a small-car price for small-car lovers.

Wouldn't you know it would be fun to drive, stingy on gas, quick to service and built to last.

Of course you would. We wouldn't build a small car unless we figured it would give you more of what you want a small car for.

Take that low price. Ventura II is a small car, so it has a low, small-car price. But it's what you get for that small price that makes Ventura II worth a close look.

Ventura II is fun to drive. It should be, it's from the Wide-Track people. Which means you get a smooth, comfortable, Wide-Track ride.

The handling's quick. There's a nifty 111-inch wheelbase for easy parking. And both the 250-cu.-in. six and available 307-cu.-in. V-8 respond beautifully in city traffic or on the expressway.

Ventura II is stingy with your gas money. Both the standard six-cylinder engine and the V-8 you can order run beautifully on regular gas or the new low-lead and no-lead fuels. The carburetor on the six is an economical one-barrel, and the transmission for both six and V-8 is a practical 3-speed manual.

Ventura II is quick to service. If you're a do-it-yourselfer, you'll like fiddling around with the new Ventura II.

New twist-lock lamp sockets let you make changes in seconds.

The engine is uncomplicated, and there is plenty of engine-compartment space, especially with the six.

If you ever need to have somebody else work on your car—well, you'll like Ventura II, too. Both the standard six and available V-8 are tough, time-tested designs. Same goes for transmissions. The standard 3-speed manual and the available 2-speed automatic, Turbo Hydra-matic or floor-mounted 3-speed are all rugged, dependable units.

Ventura II is built to last. There's nothing lightweight about this car. It's welded—not bolted—at hundreds of strategic points to help keep it tight and quiet.

The body is heavy-gauge steel. And it has double paneling in the deck lid, hood and doors. You could probably sum it up best with three little words. Body by Fisher.

So, come on, if you're a small-car lover, stop by your Pontiac dealer's today. Tell him you want to see the new Ventura II. It's the small car that gives you more of what you want a small car for.

Don't forget to buckle up for safety.

Ventura II — It's Pure Pontiac!

EVENT SET FOR MAY 6-8

Band will compete at Six Flags Over Texas

ARLINGTON — The 82-member Post High School band has been accepted to appear in the eighth annual Six Flags Over Texas Concert Band Festival.

Two buses will transport the young musicians and their director, Herb Germer, to Six Flags for the competition May 6 through May 8. During the three-day festival the judges will hear 54 top bands. The competing groups will come from as far away as Kentucky, Tennessee and New Mexico.

Judges for the 1971 festival are Paul Yoder, internationally known composer, arranger and conductor of band music; Wayman Walker, professor of music and director of bands at Colorado State College; and George C. Wilson, interim president of the National Music Camp and the Interlochen Arts Academy.

The competition will be held in Arlington, midway between Dallas and Fort Worth. While there the band members will spend at least one day enjoying the rides, shows, and other attractions at Six Flags. The big theme park is celebrating its tenth anniversary this year.

James Pate has joined the Air Force and left for San Antonio on March 7. Good luck, James!

I have one question for Dee Justice. What is this object being passed around to the teachers and to the girls? Is it a snake or something else?

The juniors have scheduled the Junior-Senior Banquet for May 1. It's not too far away, seniors!

NAMED MAN OF YEAR

AUSTIN — Gordon Fulcher, chairman of the Texas Water Quality Board, has been named "Man of the Year" by the Texas Water Conservation Association. Fulcher is publisher of the Citizens Journal in Atlanta, Tex.

NO STUDENTS DENIED

Board's policy told on Driver Education

A charge by George William Perry of Dallas, president of the Texas Safety Association, that "the children of less affluent Texas families are being denied the advantages of driver education," does not apply to the Post school district, Supt. Bill Shiver tells The Dispatch.

Perry said in a news release issued by the Texas Safety Association that because driver education is not part of the foundation school program, the cost of the driver training program is often prohibitive for lower income families.

Shiver told The Dispatch that no student in the Post schools eligible to take driver education is being denied it because of inability to pay.

"The policy adopted by our board of trustees is for the school to pay the cost of driver education for any student wishing to take it and whose parents are unable to pay," the superintendent said.

Last year, the Post school paid the $25 driver education fee for four students whose parents were unable to pay it. "We had figured on paying for the course for as many as 10 students, but only four of that number took the course," Shiver said.

Dr. Ray was a veteran of the first World War, having served with the 142nd Infantry, 36th Division, in France where he suffered severe wounds.

Dr. Ray is survived by his wife, a son, M. B., and a daughter, Shirley Ann.

Install gas air conditioning now?

You should be so foxy

Installing GAS air conditioning now means you'll beat the rush that always comes with the first hot or dusty spring day. While everyone else is waiting for the overworked installers you'll be cool, calm, and collected.

GAS air conditioning cools your whole house quietly and efficiently. You'll save on repairs, too, because there is no compressor to break down or wear out. And, GAS air conditioning cools your whole house for what you might have been paying to cool just two or three rooms before.

So, be foxy. Call Pioneer and tell them you'd like to find out more about installing GAS air conditioning in the winter. A representative will tell you what it will take to include it in your present forced air heating system. You may be able to use the same ductwork for heating and cooling. It costs nothing to get a complete survey of your home or business.
