New neighborhood center director is sought here

Board dismisses Ruthie Harrison

The Garza County Community Action Committee is seeking a new director for its Lorenzo Alexander Neighborhood Center following the dismissal Tuesday night of Mrs. Ruthie Harrison from the position.

The vote on the motion to discharge Mrs. Harrison, who has been handling the position for the last six months, was 5 to 1.

Action came following a discussion in which two officials of the regional community action organization from Levelland told directors that they "were embarrassed" because Garza County was the only one in the organization which had not sent in necessary paper work showing that a survey of the poor in this county has been made and that under-privileged families have been informed of the services offered by the community action organization in various fields.

Howard Maddera, who heads the area organization, pointed out that he had recommended Mrs. Harrison to the local board and that efforts will be made to place her in some useful position elsewhere.

Mrs. Harrison moved to Post from Levelland.

A lack of response to the community action program here has disturbed directors of the organization for several months.

William O. McLeod of Levelland told directors that it was Mrs. Harrison's duty to "carry the message" of community action services to poor families throughout the county, although "we do not hold her responsible" for reactions by the families.

The position pays $4,200 annually or $350 a month from federal funds. A high school diploma or its equivalent is the educational requirement for community center director as set up in federal regulations.

Applicants who are interested in being interviewed for the position are asked to contact either the Rev. George L. Miller, dial 2125, or Mrs. Maxine Marks at Maxine's. Miller is chairman of the board, (See Center director, Page 8)

FHA SWEETHEART AND RUNNERS-UP

Melvena Stewart is FHA contest winner

Difficulties with the record player failed to stop pantomimist Melvena Stewart Saturday night and she was crowned winner in the Valentine Sweetheart contest sponsored by the Future Homemakers of America.

Miss Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stewart, had to wait several minutes to present her pantomime of "Hang 'em High," because of record player trouble during the entertainment presentation of the five finalists in the contest.

Miss Stewart, a lively blonde, was sponsored by the junior class.

First runner-up was Stephanie Davis, sponsored by the National Honor Society, and second runner-up was Ritaynn Butler, sponsored by the Antelope Band. Miss Davis' entertainment was a dramatic reading from "Romeo and Juliet," and Miss Butler presented a piano solo, the theme from "Love Story."

The other two finalists were Pam Gray, sponsored by the sophomore class, and Debra Mason, whose sponsor was the senior class. Miss Gray played a piano solo, theme from "Romeo and Juliet," and Miss Mason sang the theme song from "Love Story."

The other contestants were Nancy Cook, Elizabeth Martinez, Jodi Norman, Jan Hall, Syan Thomas, Dejuana Hays, Patricia Cochran, Judy Norman, Karen Potts, Cindy Bird and Della Witcher.

The judges were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garner of Midland and Darwood "Lefty" Mayberry of (See FHA contest, Page 8)

Abel Martinez fund being started here

Friends and acquaintances of the Benny Martinez family have started a fund to raise money to pay for surgery for the Martinez' 13-year-old son, Abel, who was shot in the leg in a hunting accident about four weeks ago.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the fund is asked to make their contribution at the First National Bank. The boy's father is employed as a school janitor here.

It was hard to say goodbye Saturday morning to Franklin, Jano, Gus and Alejandro.

Maybe you find this hard to believe after we had three of these young Chilean visitors as house guests for two days and three nights staying up late, getting up early, cooking big breakfasts and trying to remember all those niceties of playing host, and at the same time maintaining the steady newspaper pace during the working days.

But it wasn't.

We admit it took us the weekend to recover our zest and bounce, but we loved every minute of it.

What do they eat for breakfast?

Just about the same things we do, minus the dry cereals. We discovered almost too late that unlike Americans they like their fried eggs sunny side up. They like bacon, sausage and toast. They can consume lots of orange juice and milk, but like their coffee so very strong they didn't drink much of it at our house.

They were so delighted — the trio who stayed with us — to be in the same home they sat up until 2 a.m. last Thursday morning comparing notes with each other. They said the first night, dinner party for 11 and all, was the "nicest night" they had had in America because they could relax together. They were scattered individually in homes before coming to Post and probably will be the rest of (See Postings, Page 8)

Banquet crowd of over 300 anticipated here

Annual membership banquet of the Post Chamber of Commerce is held at 7 o'clock tonight (Friday) in the Community Auditorium, with a crowd of 300 or more expected to attend.

Scott, pioneer cowboy, dies at 97

Scott, 97, one of the oldest cowboy cowboys in this West Texas area, died at 1 a. m. today in the Memorial Hospital following lengthy illness. He had been in the hospital almost three weeks. On June 23, 1873, Scott began "pioneering" on his father's ranch in Garza County at about the age of 10. He worked for the O. S. Ranch many years and other ranches in the area before retiring approximately 15 years ago. Final arrangements are pending at the Hudman Funeral Home.

Moisture only slight Dispatch's presstime

Weather could be rated "mild" as The Dispatch went to press at 8:30 a. m. today. There were clouds, lightning, and moisture falling in response to the First National Bank's full-anniversary ad of three weeks ago. However, it didn't look like a "million dollar rain" advertisement. It was more like another "going through."

Prices to go! Chop! Chop!

Post's 8th annual George Washington's Birthday Sale is scheduled for Saturday with merchants preparing to chop their prices on leftovers like Father of his Country did something with that proverbial merry tree. Shop this edition of The Dispatch for all the ones they are advertising. They will have more than advertised. Despite the federal confusion celebrating Washington's birthday last Monday, local merchants are sticking to the Saturday closest to Feb. 22. Come early and stay late — and enjoy the bargains.

Stephens rites held Saturday

Funeral services for Joseph Walter Stephens, 85, a former resident of the Graham community, who died last Thursday in the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Amarillo, were held at 3 p.m. Saturday at the First Baptist Church. Stephens, a retired farmer, was a resident of Garza County from 1915 until moving to Amarillo seven years ago. Born Oct. 6, 1885, he was married to Margaret Evans on Sept. 22, 1921.

He served in the Marine Corps in World War I, was a member of the Baptist Church. Survivors include his wife; three sons, J. W. Jr. of Abilene, Bill E. of Dallas and Dr. Pat Stephens of Canyon; four daughters, Mrs. Alene McWhirter of Alvarado, Mrs. Geneva Ann Sadaj of Omaha, Neb., Mrs. Mary Jo Cook of Austin and Mrs. Janet Kristler of Houston; 17 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The Rev. James Criswell, pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church, officiated at the funeral services.

Military graveside rites were conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars post, with Nicholas Vukad and Buren Matthews folding the flag.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudman Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Mason Justice, Jim Mason, Don Tatum, Ray N. Smith, Ronald Joe Babb and Wayne Carpenter.

"DRUG DAY" CONFERENCES HELD

Junior High students learn score on drugs

"A total success and very profitable for each student" was the way student opinion summed up "Drug Day" held last Friday at Post's Junior High School. The day-long program began with an opening assembly in which the students were informed of their task for the day — to learn as much as possible about drugs.

The school administration had given prior approval to the selection of resource people and drug consultants so as to have the best available personnel to make the program a success, said Miss Betty Kuswaki, a junior high teacher and the schools' drug consultant. Each student was assigned a separate role to carry out during the day. The roles were: (1) police; (2) pusher; (3) person contacted and accepting the drugs; (4) person contacted and not accepting the drugs; (5) person contacted, accepting and dying from use of the drugs; (6) person contacted, not accepting, and telling the police; (7) person contacted and needing more drugs.

After being assigned their roles, the students were divided into groups and began working their way through the stations. (See "Drug Day", Page 8)

Burglary loss at drug store heavy

Burglars struck at Bob Collier's Drug late Friday night or early Saturday morning, taking around $200 in money, an adding machine valued at more than $400 and an undetermined number of watches and billfolds.

The burglars gained entrance by sawing through a wooden bar across the back door. Investigating officers Sheriff J. A. Holleman and Police Chief Otis G. Shepherd Jr. theorized that the burglars used a keyhole saw and sawed the bar by inserting the saw in the crack where the two back doors come together.

Sometime Saturday night or early Sunday, a lock was twisted off the back door at the Hudman Furniture Co. warehouse and entry made, although nothing was reported missing, the officers said. The same night, an attempt was made to break into the Custom Upholstery, but the prowlers apparently gave up after taking off one of the two locks securing the back door to the place. (See Yeggs hit, Page 8)

'Texas Heritage' speaker's topic

Tom Bouchier, area pioneer, gave Post Rotarians a historical treat at their Tuesday luncheon as he reviewed the history of this area in a talk entitled, "Our Texas Heritage."

Bouchier in opening pointed to Lester Nichols and said, "He had two ancestors who died at the Alamo," and then he pointed to Mrs. T. L. Jones, club pianist, and added, "Two of Maggie Mae's great uncles fought in the battle of San Jacinto."

Bouchier said the last Indian uprising in Texas occurred in 1841 at Fort Worth. He said all of this area remained Indian territory after that with the three major tribes being the Comanches, the Apaches, and the Tonkawans.

It was in 1849, Bouchier said, that the 3,000 mile long overland stage was opened up to the West Coast, coming through Buffalo Gap near Abilene going to San Angelo and then to El Paso.

General Robert E. Lee, he said, was stationed at Camp Cooper in Throckmorton County to guard against Indians.

Turning to the "War Between the States", Bouchier said this was (See Rotary talk, Page 8)

Become a part of your community

If you believe that "It's People Working Together That Makes a Community Grow," then you should make every effort to attend the annual banquet of the Post Chamber of Commerce tonight (Thursday), because the above expression is the theme of this year's banquet.

If you are wavering between whether to go or not to go to the banquet, read the following comment by an anonymous editorial writer who, in our opinion, really said something:

"My community owes me nothing," he writes.

"If accounts were balanced at this date, I would be the debtor.

"All these years I have lived within the limits of the community, and shared all its benefits. I have had the use of its libraries, parks and public places. I have had the protection of its fire, police and health departments. Its people, during all this time, have been gathering for me, from the four corners of the earth, food for my table, clothing for my body and material for my home.

"This community has provided me a place and role to earn my livelihood. It has furnished the best friends of my life, whose ideals have been my inspiration, whose kind words have been my cheer, and whose helpfulness has carried me over the greatest difficulties.

"What shall I give in return? Not simply taxes; I want to give more; enough so that I can rightfully say, 'This is my community,' so that I can take deserved pride in its prosperity, in the honors which come to its citizens and all that makes it greater and better.

"I can do this only by becoming a part of the community, by giving of myself. In that way only can I pay the debt I owe to my community."

How better to become a part of the community than by joining and supporting your Chamber of Commerce? If you haven't already bought your ticket for tonight's banquet, you can buy it at the door as you go in.—CD

Ethics amendment slick disguise

The four constitutional amendments on which Texans will vote May 18 appear in today's Post Dispatch and will also appear in the next three issues of the paper.

Readers need especially to study Amendment No. 1, the so-called "ethics" amendment which proposes the creation of an ethics commission in the wake of the stock manipulation scandals.

The joker in this one, however, is Paragraph 4 which takes away from the people their right to set the pay of their legislators. This amendment would let the ethics commission do that instead.

Everything in the amendment can be done by statute except the pay raise feature and it is thus obvious why this amendment is presented.

Take a look at all four of the proposed amendments, but especially Amendment No. 1 and its Paragraph 4.

FFA—Involved in America's Future

At one time farming consisted of "40 acres and a mule," and a man did well if he was able to feed himself and his family. In 1971, the story is far different. Farming is a business, and agriculture is a highly advanced industry employing the best brains among many disciplines.

A successful career in agriculture must start at an early age. That is why there are such organizations as the Future Farmers of America which will shortly be observing FFA Week, Feb. 20-27. The theme of FFA Week this year is, "Involved in America's Future." No theme could be more appropriate. Nothing is more closely involved with the future of the United States than the raising of the food and fiber for more than 200 million people.

Some facts in connection with commemoration of FFA Week have been released by The National Future Farmer, a publication of the FFA. The FFA is a national organization of 450,000 students studying vocational agriculture in 9,000 public schools. The foundation upon which it is built includes leadership, community service, scholarship, improved agriculture, citizenship, patriotism, etc. Young people in local FFA chapters are developing into the agricultural leaders of tomorrow.

Texas is the largest of the 50 chartered state associations with over 10 per cent of the national membership. Texas has 940 chapters with a membership of over 50,000. The Post chapter, whose advisors are vocational agriculture teachers E. A. Howard and Tom Horton, has between 60 and 70 members.

Those engaged in agriculture are a declining percentage of the total population of the country. As the number of farmers shrink, the responsibilities of each agricultural producer become heavier. Today, on the average, every farmer feeds nearly 50 other people. Tomorrow this figure will increase and the need for agricultural leadership and ability will grow.

The Post FFA and all the other chapters throughout the nation are to be commended for preparing young people for careers in the most fundamental of all enterprises—bringing forth the bounty of the land to supply the growing needs of our nation and the world.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

We are constantly reminded of the "over" problem in our nation. It is quite out of control. I think most of us tend to sit back and ignore the worldly problems such as this because we say it "doesn't" happen in our small community. Well, I think the "silent majority" better take a closer look because their problems are here too—floods, water (S. D.) Tribune.

A friend of mine, discussing the way things had been going, said, "It's one big rat race, and the rats seem to be winning."—Billy Stockton in The Crosbyton Review.

In spite of kicking about inflation, consumers so far have shown little inclination to turn their backs on the conveniences and luxuries that have been brought to them by the world's most efficient retail mass-distribution system.—The Litzitz (Pa.) Record-Express.

The income tax law has 300 pages and is "explained" in 12,000 pages of court cases and Internal Revenue regulations. Maybe in order to study brevity the taxers ought to consult the Ten Commandments and Gettysburg Address.—Hartleton (Mont.) Times.

STILL NO RAIN, but it seemed just a little damper Monday morning than it has for a long time. Maybe that's a good sign — since signs seem to be the only thing we have to go on.

Congratulations to Melvena Stewart who was crowned sweetheart Saturday night at the annual FHA Valentine Sweetheart contest before a large crowd in the primary school auditorium. Congratulations also to runners-up Stephanie Davis and Ritalynn Butler, the other two finalists Pam Gray and Debra Mason, and to the 11 other girls who came close before being eliminated in the judging.

LARRY BARNER, FFA beau, who crowned the winner and the two runners-up, almost stole the show with his performance and should have been in the picture with the three winners on the front page of today's Dispatch.

The man up the street says they've finally come up with the perfect computer. You just feed in your problems and they never come out again.

HERE IS A little gem someone left on my desk:

A NUMERICAL AGE
If you think numbers have been hard to remember and keep up to date, you are only beginning.

You don't have a name anymore — it's a number.
You don't live in a town — it's a Zip Code.

You don't make a phone call without dialing 10 or 13 numbers.

Your credit cards, checks, tractors you sell, medicine you buy, cars you drive, fuel you burn, all have numbers — no more names.

If you are in business, soon you may receive a letter from a customer that reads like this:
Dear 556-17-831:
The 55 chain on my 468 is wearing. The 76487 sprocket is out of line. I wrote to 383-76-461 at 48906 and he forwarded my letter to 448-13-942 at 52781. If you don't change the 76487, I will get a new 3196, and you'll be sorry. Call me at 1313-476-3248 after 5:30 by the 29th. I have to let 448-21-696 know if I want the 3196.

Sincerely,
327-12-7654
(My nickname is 323/5/5)

"How can you possibly tell the weather with a piece of rope?" the tourist wanted to know. "It's simple, sonny," was the droll answer. "When the rope swings back and forth, it's windy, and when it gets wet, it's raining."

THERE HASN'T been a recipe in this column since several years ago when I ran one on Hopkins County Sews. Here is another one, an extraordinary recipe that appeared in "Cooking Can Be Fun" in the Rocky Mountain Herald. I hope some good cook will let me know how it pans out. Our source for the recipe warns that a dull knife will leave it "though you may have to tease the children to try it, as the Chinese herbs are a little daring."

PUZZLED THRUMP

- 5 medium-sized thrumps
- 2 girlies (raw)
- 1 tablespoon trim
- 1 tablespoon ping
- 1 whif pung

Place the thrumps on a thin baking pan. Mash the girlies finely. Spread a thin covering over each thrump. Now dust the trim, put the ping and pung over them, being careful to dust evenly and one at a time. Place in the oven and bake about one (1) hour at about 300 degrees. Serve piping hot.

Several years ago there was a drive under way to compel filling station attendants to refuse to sell gasoline to tipsy drivers. When some of the attendants wanted to know how they could tell a customer was tipsy, someone came up with this guide, listing "a few infallible symptoms of intoxication in drivers." Here is the list:

- 1) When the driver is sitting with his back against the instrument panel and his feet on the driver's seat.
- 2) When the person sitting next to the driver gets out at the gas station and says he thinks he'll take a bus the rest of the way.
- 3) When the person in the back seat are crouched down on the floor with their arms over their heads.
- 4) When the driver points to the gas tank and says, "A pound of liver, please."
- 5) When the driver is in fancy dress with a paper whistle in his mouth which he is blowing constantly.
- 6) If the driver insists that the gas station man take the driver's seat while he, the driver, fills the tank, first exchanging hats.
- 7) When the driver goes into the rest room and doesn't come out.
- 8) When there is a clothline full of washing draped over the radiator.
- 9) When the driver is alone and is stark naked.
- 10) When there is no driver at all.

BIBLIOGRAPHIES AVAILABLE FROM LAW LIBRARY

AUSTIN — Four current bibliographies are now available to the public from the Tarlton Law Library at the University of Texas.

The publications were designed to help students, faculty and the general public to keep informed on current developments in the law.

The bibliographies include:
A selected legal periodical survey from 1940 to 1970 on the Bill of Rights and military justice, a comprehensive list of material on student activism from 1963 to the present; a listing of writings on juvenile delinquency in Texas, and a checklist of Senate executive documents and reports listed in the Monthly Catalog of U. S. Government Publications for 1941-70.

Big Spring, Tex., derived its name from a "big spring" which served as a watering place for herds of buffalo, antelope, and wild mustang horses.

"Proper handling of mulches is one of the most important but least understood soil and water conservation measures used in Texas," Mayo said. "All good conservation farmers leave the stalks and stems from their crops on the land to reduce erosion and conserve moisture. Few conservation measures do more to reduce pollution from blowing dust or from sediment."

The district conservationist said gardeners could use the same principles in flower and vegetable gardens by utilizing mulches from grass clippings, tree leaves, straw, stems and stalks from harvested vegetables, and other material.

SIX FLAGS ANNOUNCES DATE FOR OPENING

SIX FLAGS Over Texas will begin its tenth anniversary season with a special week-long celebration starting April 3.

The popular theme park at Arlington, midway between Dallas and Fort Worth, will be open on a daily basis during the week before Easter. After Easter Sunday, SIX FLAGS will be open on weekends only until daily, summer operation begins June 1.

Officials of the Park also revealed that a major, new ride is under construction at plants in Switzerland and West Germany. To be known as the Jet Racer, the new ride travels on tubular rails at a speed about ten miles per hour faster than SIX FLAGS' well-known Runaway Mine Train.

In addition, the Park will inaugurate a new type of show in its Texas section pavilion. The production will feature Country and Western music performed by talented collegians.

A new show is also slated for Sid and Marty Kroff's Puppet Theater. Called "Pufnstuf" it will feature the star of the Kroffts' popular television series H. E. Pufnstuf.

Scheduled for the Southern Palace Music Hall is a show which Producer-Director David Blackburn calls, "The most ambitious production we have attempted, particularly from a technical standpoint." It will make use of motion pictures and color slides which form a constantly changing backdrop for the musical performance.

SIX FLAGS Over Texas Vice President and General Manager, Charles E. Pafford, said, "We are expecting close to two million people during the 1971 season. All indications are that we will be playing host to more vacationers from outside Texas than ever before in our history."

He noted that the new Seven Seas oceanarium will be opening this summer on a site just west of the park. Pafford predicted that the dual attractions will lead to at least a two day stay in the area for many out-of-state visitors.

GILMORE
Patrick Sarsfield Gilmore, an Irish-American bandmaster who composed the song, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," was perhaps the most famous Gilmore in this country—as well as the noisiest.

Born in 1829 near Dublin, Ireland, Gilmore came to Canada as a young man and then to Boston, Mass., where he was establishing a reputation with his famous "Gilmore's Band" not long after his 21st birthday.

Endorsing the idea that "if 80 musicians make good music, 800 must make music ten times as good," Gilmore originated the "monster band concert." It was not unusual for him to conduct an orchestra of 1,000 persons, plus a chorus of 10,000, a battery of cannon electrically fired, church bells and members of the Boston Fire Department in full uniform beating out the "Anvil Chorus" on 50 anvils.

This bandmaster and other Irish Gilmores derive their surname from the Gaelic "Mac Giolla Mhuire," which meant "descendant of the devotee of the Virgin Mary." It is one of many Irish family names derived from devotion to a saint.

The strong Gaelic influence in Scotland accounts for a "Gilmore" in that country having founded a chapel in Cumberland in the 12th century. The name is usually spelled Gilmour in Scotland.

The English Gilmores derive their name from a place called "Gillamoor" in Yorkshire. The name Gilmore appears on record in England as early as 1228. The Gaelic "Mac Giolla Mhuire" from which the Irish Gilmore evolved is sometimes anglicized Murray in England, with many English Murrays at the present time being able to trace the origin of their name to this Gaelic spelling.

Gilmore ranks 968th among surnames in the United States where it is the family name of an estimated 46,000 persons. There are towns named Gilmore in Arkansas, Missouri and Ohio, and a Gilmore City, Iowa.

Card of Thanks

To everyone who was so nice to me during my stay in the hospital, I would like to say a special thanks. To those who sent gifts, flowers, cards, and for all the prayers. To all the nurses who were so nice to me. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.
 Mrs. Robert Mason

Our most heartfelt thanks to our friends in Garza County for your many acts of kindness; the food, flowers and expressions of sympathy following the loss of our beloved husband and father, J. Walter Stephens. Our special thanks to Reverend Criswell, Ray Smith, Mason Justice, Jim Mason, Wayne Carpenter, Don Tatum, Ronald Joe Babb, Victor Hudman, Elwood Wright, Ethel Redman, the Evans, and the many others for their help and understanding in this time of sadness. May God bless and keep you all.
 Mrs. J. Walter Stephens
 J. W. Allene, Gene, Mary Jo Pat, Bill and Janet

I want to thank all those who bought tickets from me for the band concert, making it possible for me to win first prize for selling the largest number of tickets.
 Gloria Martinez

We wish to thank each and everyone for their kindness shown us during the illness and death of our precious mother, whether in thought or deed. A special thanks goes to Mrs. Billie Caylor and all of the staff at Twin Cedars Nursing Home who so tenderly cared for mother during her stay there; and to Dr. Wilson for his kind attention these last months. Also to Mason Funeral Home for their kind services rendered. May God bless you always.
 The family of Mrs. Dovie Bartlett

I want to thank everyone for being so nice to me while I was in the West Texas Hospital following a heart attack. For all the prayers, visits, flowers, cards and calls I am grateful. Thanks also to those who have taken care of my home. God bless each one.

Valentine Tips from CHDA

HOW TO BUY CANNED AND FROZEN VEGETABLES
Vegetables are an important source of vitamins, minerals and energy. Canned and frozen vegetables are easy to prepare and a necessity when fresh vegetables are out of season. Canned and frozen vegetables wholesome and nutritious although they can differ in quality in a certain brand, as well as in different brands. Since they are packaged before reaching the market, one can not choose by examining the product. Read the label for useful information — grade, quantity, seasonings, cooking directions, content, and recipes. A half cup is the common serving size for most cooked vegetables. Deciding the right size can be difficult, because vegetables are packed by net weight rather than volume. For example, a 16 oz. can of whole kernel corn measures 1, 2-3 cups, while a can of tomatoes measures 1, 2 cups to 1, 2-3 cups. More often manufacturers and packers indicate the number of servings the consumer will take time to read the label. When buying canned vegetables, look for leaks or swelled or bulged cans. Bulging or swelling indicates gas. Small dents do not harm contents, but badly dented cans should be avoided. Packages of frozen vegetables should be firm. Any softening packages indicate defrosting; stains on the package could mean the product was defrosted and refrozen. The contents may be safe to eat, but they will not taste good. The grade and style of vegetable, whether or not seasonings and preservatives are added, affect the cost. Determine the best way to use the vegetable. Short-cut beans, diced carrots and tomato pieces are least expensive and are best suited for soups. The sizes, fancy cuts and those with butter or mushrooms will be expensive. These let you know something different without work and may be worth the cost at times.

(Editor's Note: A Dispatch reader, remarking that "Since you are the advertising business, you might be interested," has sent us a following clipping, which we consider thought-provoking, to say the least.)

THE DAY ADVERTISING CEASED IN THE U.S.

All advertising in the United States was stopped at 10 o'clock this morning.

More than 3,300 of the nation's radio stations immediately announced plans for discontinuing operations indefinitely. Industry spokesmen predicted that all of the more than 500 television stations in the nation will turn off their switches within a week. About 86,000 employees in these organizations will be affected directly, losing their jobs.

Approximately 600,000 in allied industries, it is expected, soon will receive their final paychecks.

The major national networks, stunned by the complete loss of revenue, announced imminent discontinuance of all service.

The nation's newspapers, depending principally upon advertising revenue, were readjusting to the situation quickly. Most of them were reducing size by 75 to 85 per cent and at least doubling circulation prices. The American Newspaper Publishers Association announced that several hundred thousand persons would lose their jobs.

Many magazines went to the wall immediately. Some were trying to follow the newspaper lead — reducing size and raising subscription prices.

Thousands of retail clerks in the stores throughout the nation, economists predict, will be unemployed within a week. There will not be sufficient buying traffic in the stores to support the huge retail payroll.

Store owners and managers are cancelling orders, given in anticipation of normal business. And, of course, this means that thousands of manufacturers and wholesalers throughout the nation are making plans to reduce production by closing down plants. Economists predict that unemployment will soar into the millions. With mass production crippled, prices on merchandise will rise sharply — while the buying power declines.

Freight carriers — on land, in the air, on water — are having emergency meetings to determine what should be done next. The future looks dismal indeed to them, for there will be little or nothing to carry for profit.

All of this because advertising was stopped at 10 o'clock this morning; all of this because there remains no method of telling the people about the products of their own manufacture.

Market prices on the Exchange dipped to new lows, as investors foresaw general business bankruptcy throughout the nation. Trading is at a virtual standstill. There are plenty of sellers, but no buyers.

Dr. Albert Snailpace, who has been conducting a campaign against "advertising excesses" by organizing citizens' groups throughout the nation, commented: "This is awful." Dr. Snailpace had just been notified that he had lost his faculty job. The university did not expect many of its students to return to the campus for the next semester.

There are emergency sessions of the Cabinet and Congress in Washington, and governors throughout the nation are calling sessions of legislatures.

Officeholders are beginning to wonder how they will conduct their campaigns now. In big towns and small towns, headlines are forming — but there will be no bread in a few more days. Grain and cattle markets in Chicago, Omaha and Kansas City are collapsing.

All of this because advertising stopped at 10 o'clock this morning. There is no voice to tell the buyers about the sellers' wares. There are no dollars to support the mass media that day in and day out, hour in and hour out, convey information to the people.

There are long faces in the Treasury Department — where Savings Bonds officials read quickly the handwriting on the wall. Savings bonds sales would drop to a trickle and the nation would lose a vital means of helping keep our economy stable.

Department of Defense officials made plans for stepped-up manpower drafts, for they could expect very few recruits in the absence of selling assistance from the crippled media of the nation. The Red Cross, long thwarted in its attempts — even under ideal conditions — to maintain blood banks at minimum requirements, has given up that fight completely.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue anticipates only a small percentage of the taxes which will be required to meet the growing demands of emergency operation of the nation.

And in Russia, there is a man with an enigmatic smile. Something had happened in America that reduced that nation to a shambles faster — oh, so very much faster — than a thousand atom or hydrogen bombs, or even some of the more horrible subsequent ones that can take millions of lives.

Ladies and gentlemen, that is what could happen if advertising stopped in America today.

College 'Who's Who' lists Post student

LUBBOCK — Emily Potts of Post, a junior at Lubbock Christian College, is among the 15 LCC students listed in the "Who's Who in American Junior Colleges."

LCC is at the awkward stage between junior and senior college status. The senior year does not start until September 1971, so the campus favorites are still listed in the "Who's Who" in junior colleges for the last time.

Miss Potts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Potts of Post.

4 rural accidents are investigated

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Garza County during the month of January, according to Sgt. H. E. Pirtle, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

The four accidents resulted in one person injured, with no estimate of property damage given.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties in the Lubbock DPS region for January shows a total of 467 accidents resulting in 17 persons killed and 235 persons injured as compared to January, 1970, with 460 accidents resulting in 15 persons killed and 188 injured.

The 17 traffic deaths for the month of January, 1971, occurred in the following counties: Lubbock, 4; Wise, 3; Hutchinson, 2; and Clay, Palo Pinto, Parker, Terry, Wichita, Childress, Potter and Sherman, 1 each.

UNIVERSITY TO SPONSOR CLINIC FOR HANDICAPPED

AUSTIN — A spring development clinic in physical education for the handicapped will be sponsored by The University of Texas Feb. 12 through April 30.

The spring clinic is conducted by the UT Austin Physical and Health Education Department for minimally brain damaged, mentally retarded and orthopedically handicapped children. Similar clinics have been planned for the summer and fall.

Objectives of the clinic are to help the handicapped child gain greater confidence in his body and what he can make it do.

Covered with brownish gray fur, the woodchuck grows from eighteen to twenty-six inches long and weighs from four to ten pounds.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT (SJR 17) Special Election May 18, 1971

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new Section 49-d-1 to read as follows: "Section 49-d-1. (a) The Texas Water Development Board shall upon direction of the Texas Water Quality Board, or any successor agency designated by the Legislature, issue additional Texas Water Development Bonds up to an additional aggregate principal amount of One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000) to provide grants, loans, or any combination of grants and loans for water quality enhancement purposes as established by the Legislature. The Texas Water Quality Board or any successor agency designated by the Legislature may make such grants and loans to political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas, including municipal corporations, river authorities, conservation and reclamation districts, and districts created or organized or authorized to be created or organized under Article XVI, Section 59, or Article III, Section 52, of this Constitution, State agencies, and interstate agencies and compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party, and upon such terms and conditions as the Legislature may authorize by general law. The bonds shall be issued for such terms, in such denominations, form and installments, and upon such conditions as the Legislature may authorize. (b) The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in the Texas Water Development Fund to be invested and administered as prescribed by law. (c) The bonds authorized in this Section 49-d-1 and all bonds authorized by Sections 49-c and 49-d of Article III shall bear interest at not more than 6% per annum and mature as the Texas Water Development Board shall prescribe, subject to the limitations as may be imposed by the Legislature. (d) The Texas Water Development Fund shall be used for the purposes heretofore permitted by, and subject to the limitations in Sections 49-c, 49-d and 49-d-1; provided, however, that the financial assistance may be made pursuant to the provisions of Sections 49-c, 49-d and 49-d-1 subject only to the availability of funds and without regard to the provisions in Section 49-c that such financial assistance shall terminate after December 31, 1982.

"(e) Texas Water Development Bonds are secured by the general credit of the State and shall after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas.

"(f) Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory character."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on Tuesday, May 18, 1971, at which election all ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to authorize the issuance of One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000) bonds to provide financial assistance to cities and other public agencies for water quality enhancement purposes, providing for the improvement and continuance of the water resources program, and establishing an interest ceiling on Water Development Bonds at 6% per annum."

The Lonely Prisoners

By BOB FORD

I have just finished reading a letter which was sent to me recently in connection with a visit which some of our young people made during our revival. One afternoon some of our young people divided into two groups to visit our shut-ins. The blessings we received were greater than any we brought.

This is a preface to say this: There are lonely people in our town! There are people who are in the prison of their own homes who need to be visited. These are human beings who have come to the place in life that they are pretty much home bound. Yet they are still human beings who can share love and need to have love shared with them.

Here is a part of the letter I received: "Please accept the sincere gratitude for the blessings we received from the visit of you and Brother Gray and the young people. Truly it was a spiritual delight. We have forgotten our older people in the race to try to work with our youth. How much time is wasted each week in Post by people indulging themselves in playing bridge when some people could be serving those who are in the prisons of their own homes! What would be wrong if once a month you would visit and share your lives and give up your bridge luncheons?"

In the story of the Last Judgment we are reminded of our obligation to serve with the words: "Then the King will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was . . . sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see thee . . . sick or in prison and visit thee?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.'"

Old-time cowboy dies at Stamford

Funeral services for "Scandalous John" Selman, 86, veteran cowboy, were held Wednesday of last week at the Central Presbyterian Church in Stamford.

Selman died Feb. 8 in Stamford Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient since July 6, 1970.

He was born July 2, 1884, in San Saba County. He married Emma Zinn at Spur.

Selman worked on the old Spur Ranch in Dickens County in 1900 and moved to the Half Circle S Ranch in 1905. He worked there until Swenson Land and Cattle Company bought the ranch in 1915.

Selman became foreman of the SMS Flattop Ranch in 1919 and held this position until he retired due to ill health in 1968.

The 1964 Texas Cowboy Reunion at Stamford was dedicated to Selman, who served as arena director and led the Grand Entry for over 35 years.

Selman was a frequent visitor in the Post area and was well known to many of the old-timers here.

Bird's-eye View

By SHERRY BIRD

Congratulations to the boys who placed at the Fort Worth Stock Show.

The Antelopes played their last ball game last Friday night. Also this game ended all the seniors' playing careers.

Coach Davis has been in the hospital where he has undergone a knee operation. We all hope he has a speedy recovery.

Congratulations to the eighth grade girls for their win over Slaton. Now they hold the title of being the "Champs." I know they all owe Coach Hightower many thanks for his hard work.

Everyone thought that snow was here at last and we all could enjoy snowball fights and miss some school. But, despite what we were thinking, the sandstorms struck again.

Congratulations to Sherry Bird and Scotty Hoyle on being named Basketball Sweethearts.

Congratulations to Melvena Stewart on being crowned FHA Valentine Sweetheart.

The varsity basketball girls wish to thank Coach King for the suckers he gave them for Valentines.

I hope everyone had a nice Valentine's Day!

Easter Seals to go out March 1

The 1971 Easter Seal Appeal will open in Garza County Monday, March 1, 1971, according to Mrs. Martha Compton, who serves as a Easter Seal representative for the county.

Mrs. Compton said that Easter Seal Appeal letters would begin arriving at homes in the county about March 1.

As Easter Seal representative, she is the local person to contact to request rehabilitation services from the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas. These services include physical and occupational therapy, speech and hearing programs and special information services to help solve the many problems faced by the families of handicapped children and adults.

Report on company operations is heard by Burlington shareholders

WILMINGTON, Del. — Burlington Industries, Inc. anticipates some improvement in retail sales of apparel and home furnishings in the months ahead, despite the lack of any current evidence of a resumption of consumer confidence.

Charles F. Myers Jr., chairman of the diversified textile firm, said at the company's annual meeting of shareholders today that the unsettled state of the economy has affected consumer confidence, with savings increasing as purchases have dropped. "Inventories, however, both at retail and manufacturing levels, are now low by normal standards, and this would enable a step-up in production when business turns up again," he said.

Commenting on the "excellent growth potential" for knitted apparel fabrics, Myers said that "we are now increasing our investment very substantially in single and double-knit fabric equipment, and total sales of Burlington's knitted fabrics, excluding all types of hosiery, should be at least $85 million for fiscal 1971."

He said that knitting equipment "has been and will be assigned to company divisions which have an established market reputation for providing unique products and service in yarns, dyeing and finishing and in merchandising."

Myers added that Burlington as the largest U. S. producer of textured yarns (the basic yarns used in knitted fabrics), has benefitted substantially from the growth of single and double-knit production. Noting that Burlington has 75,000 employees in the United States and 12,000 in operations abroad, he said that employee relations receive full attention and that personnel programs include those involving occupational health.

"Burlington has undertaken comprehensive research on respiratory ailments believed related to certain cotton processing operations," he said, "and this research is expected to be completed within the next few months. Excessive noise levels in some types of operations are also getting special attention, and hearing conservation programs are in progress throughout the company."

He cited the company's awareness of environmental concerns and said that Burlington will spend over $4 million this year for new and improved pollution control facilities — more than double the amount spent last year.

On textile imports, Myers said the Mills Bill, which has been re-introduced in the new Congress, "deals fairly with the problem of international trade."

He added, "Let me emphasize again that we do not want or expect imports of textile products to be substantially rolled back; rather,

Post Jaycees oppose Iowa court decision

The Post Jaycees are conducting a letter-writing campaign in opposition to a recent ruling by the Iowa Supreme Court that defense of property does not warrant the infliction of serious injury or death. The Jaycees plan to distribute letters to Post residents to sign and mail to President Nixon in protest of the ruling. The Jaycees also will submit the letter-writing campaign at the district Jaycee convention in Lubbock this week. If it is approved there, it will be submitted to the state Jaycee organization. It was said here.

The Iowa Supreme Court ruling upheld a $30,000 damage finding against a farm couple who rigged a spring gun in a vacant house to ward off intruders.

Church here has interim pastor

A former pastor of the church, the Rev. A. C. Hardin, is serving as interim pastor of the First Baptist Church until a full-time pastor is called. Bobby Stice, director of music and education at the church, said today.

The Rev. Mr. Hardin was pastor here from 1936 until 1941. He and Mrs. Hardin now live at Corbin, near Eastland, but will move to Post this week. He has preached at the church the last two Sundays.

The pulp committee, appointed to find a full-time pastor, is composed of E. A. Howard, chairman; L. G. Thurst Jr., Glenn Norman, Junior Hagins, Mrs. Stanley Butler and Mrs. Arnold Parrish. Bob Jackson and Mrs. Bill Pool are alternate members.

The pulp vacancy was created by the recent resignation of the Rev. H. M. Farrington.

DAUGHTER VISITS

New riding club to meet Sunday

Members of the Poor Boys Riding Club, which was organized two weeks ago, will meet at the Post Stampede Rodeo arena at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 21, for barrel races, pole bending, flag races and other events.

Anyone who has a horse and wants to take part in Sunday's events are invited to come out, a club spokesman said. Children under 18 must be accompanied by their parents or have written permission before they will be allowed to participate.

The new club has 30 members and is hopeful of signing others at a family membership fee of $5 a year.

Officers of the club are: Dillard Morris, president; Leon Clary, vice president; Mrs. Leo Witcher, secretary; Oscar Gray and Travis Thomas, parade marshals, and Mrs. Oscar Gray, reporter.

Rotary talk—

(Continued from Page 1) "the beginning of the end of state rights." He said a group of Texans "organized for a buffalo hunt" in the early days of the war, but marched and captured the federal fort at San Antonio instead, which wasn't so hard, Tom added, because it was commanded by a southern officer.

Bouchier said the First Texas Brigade throughout the war was part of the elite shock troops of General Lee's Army of Virginia. When the surrender came at Appomattox only 473 men were left of the original 4,000 Texans in the three regiments. "They suffered the worst casualties of any unit on either side during the war and rated as the very best," he said.

The oldest settlement in this area was on the White River, where there were more buffalo there and at Spring Creek, south of Tahoka, "than anywhere else in the world." He said the Mexicans came up from El Paso to White River to kill buffalo and take the meat back to Mexico.

Bouchier said in 1872 one of the worst slaughters in civilized history occurred at Blanco Canyon, near the present White River dam, when U. S. troops blocked shut the mouth of the canyon and slaughtered thousands of Indian men, women and children, and also killed 1,400 of their horses.

The Indians were driven on west to Santa Fe and in 1877 the "big ranchers moved in." He said five different Slaughter brothers were involved in area ranching and that this was all still free range.

He termed the period of 1878 to 1885 as the "heyday of ranching" in this area with free range, lots of grass and high beef prices.

The droughts of 1885-87 "broke" the big ranchers, and cattle "by the millions of head" were lost. He said at each 100 miles wide through the area was without water.

Bouchier said next the "small ranchers" moved in, fenced a lot of land — some that belonged to them and some that didn't. Then the ranchers started coming. Outnumbering the ranchers and benefited by the Texas "one-section act" of 1892 and the "four-section act" of 1896, they staged a real nester "land rush" in 1904.

Bouchier called this "the beginning of the end" for the ranchers. There probably would have been more history, but Tom glanced at his watch, saw it was 1 p.m. (quitting time for Rotary programs) and said "That's enough history for today."

Center director—

Interviews will be scheduled by the executive committee for Thursday night, Feb. 25, and the board will hold a special meeting Tuesday night, March 2, to take action on employment of a new director.

McLeod told directors that the first of two instructional classes for workers on the family planning program is scheduled today at the center from 1 to 4 p.m.

William Scott reported he would provide the names of five or more families interested in cable TV in the Lincoln Addition area. The community action group wants such a hookup at the Post Day Care Center to provide a class for the neighborhood children at 5 p.m. to watch the top-ranked educational TV show for children, "Sesame Street."

Young people of the area still need a record player for the center, Mrs. Harrison reported.

Efforts will be made to get the Boy Scout troop meeting again. Adult leadership is the problem.

A new sign for the center has been provided and will be put up in the near future, directors were told.

Carl Cook, president of the Lincoln Neighborhood Council, told directors that there are "no people coming to council meetings. We have no interest."

Attending the meeting were directors Miller, Mrs. Madie Johnson, Jack Lott, Mrs. Marks, Scott and Jim Cornish; and Mrs. C. K. Pierce Cook, Mrs. Harrison, and the two area officials from Levelland.

All incumbents to run again

All incumbents have filed for re-election in the city and school trustee elections to be held early in April.

Filing Tuesday with City Secretary Wanda Wilkerson as candidates for re-election were Mayor Giles C. McCrary and Councilmen Lester Nichols, David Newby and Mike Mitchell.

School board members who filed for re-election following last week's board meeting were: A. C. Cash, Place No. 4; K. W. Kirkpatrick, Place No. 5, and Silas Short, Place No. 6. Short had been a p-pointed earlier that night to fill a board vacancy created by the re-

Postings—

We introduced them to America's cleaning twins — the washer and dryer — but almost too late. We started in at 11:30 p.m. the last night and it took two hours to get the loads through.

Gus, the young lawyer, had paid a dear price for some American star-pret shirts he bought in Chile and was really enjoying them.

The Chileans are something like the French. They use water only to wash, brush their teeth in and to swallow pills with. The rest of the time they prefer wine. We bet you didn't know you can buy Chilean wine right here in Post. We didn't either until they arrived — and then we surprised them with it. They loved it with their evening meals.

They didn't want to talk Chilean politics. They have a leftist president now and are somewhat divided in their thinking about him. They came on a people-to-people mission — and they tried to keep it that way.

Gus invited me to Chile. It's only 11 hours by Chilean jet from Miami with a lot of 30 minute stops counted in that flying time. But it won't be this year.

Bob Macy took them up in his helicopter for a look at the caprock from above Friday afternoon and they all enjoyed that. They had a great time too singing to the young Mexican señoritas at the McCrary home that same afternoon.

Ruth Ann and David Newby were out of town last week, but before they left David drove their extra Volkswagen over and parked it in our driveway. They'll probably be needing a car, David said, and you can't take them all in your "old man" sport model" (that is what I call it with an "automatic in the floor.")

Were the boys ever delighted to find it waiting for them. They disappeared Thursday evening in it for parts unknown and we were afraid for a while they might be late for their dinner invitation that night. On their Friday tour of Post they took it with them for the day.

No problem, legally, either. It turned out that Jano, the youngest one with the big mustache (how he captivated Vic and Irma Slaters' daughters) has an "international driver's license." How about that?

This is to report they thought Post and everybody who entertained them were just great.

Don't miss that stylish "Burlington and Texas" ad over on page 11. We think The Dispatch is a test paper for what may be a new newspaper advertising campaign in Texas. Money aside, we think it's a smash ad.

'Drug Day'—

The role played by the pharmacist in the dispensing of drugs was explained to the students by Bob Collier, Post pharmacist. Posters on barbiturates and amphetamines were displayed and their usual medical use explained by Collier.

Highway Patrolman Ken Gilbreath told of the penalties that could be incurred by those found with drugs or in the company of someone possessing drugs.

Films were shown on marijuana, LSD and narcotics, showing some of the effects of these drugs on young people.

Students listened to recordings of songs, "Lucy in the Sky With Diamonds," which is about LSD, and "Help From My Friends," which is about the use of stimulants.

Two Morton High School students, Becky Green and Dub Bryan, were student consultants during Drug Day. Dub, who admits having used drugs, is now working to help keep other young people from using them. Becky acts as an aide to Dub and as his sponsor.

Yeggs hit—

Sheriff Holleman also reported a burglary at the Basinger Double U place north of Post. A stereo set was stolen from an unoccupied house which is being added onto and in which furniture is stored.

Council accepts bids on truck, automobile

The Post city council accepted the bids of Lucas Chevrolet-Olds on the purchase of a new automobile and a new flatbed truck at a special meeting last Friday afternoon.

The Lucas bid on the automobile was $2,500 with the trade-in of a 1967 model. The new car, a 1971 Bel Air Chevrolet, will be used by the water department for two years and then turned over to the police department. City Manager Bobby Pierce said.

The local dealer's bid was the lowest by $513.72 of four submitted. The other bidders were Sims Chevrolet of Slaton, Smith Ford of Slaton and King-Brown Ford of Breckenridge.

The Lucas bid on the flatbed truck was $5,130.57, which was $35 under the next lowest bid. The other bidders were Sims Chevrolet and Smith Ford, both of Slaton, King-Brown of Breckenridge and Lone Star of Lubbock.

The new truck will be used in the street department, the city manager said.

Also at the special meeting, the council approved the laying of a four-inch water line north from 11th street on May Avenue to Oak Street and then west to the Rails

Accident fatal to Snow youngster

Randy Lee Snow, 8, a Post youngster, was killed Friday in a traffic accident as he was crossing the street to a drive-in to buy ice cream cone.

The youngster ran into the rear of a moving pickup truck and was run over by a trailer being pulled by the pickup. He died instantaneously, relatives here said.

Randy Lee was the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Snow of Belton, formerly lived here. He is also survived by three sisters.

Funeral services were held at Belton at 2 p.m. Sunday. Relatives attending the funeral were Bobby and Patsy Snow, Mr. and Mrs. John Guthrie, and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Carlton.

John Phillips is new auto salesman here

John Phillips has moved to Post from Monday to accept a position as a car salesman with Harry Lucas Chevrolet-Olds. He has seven years experience in the sales field.

Phillips plans to move his wife and son here from Monday as well. His school is out this spring.

8th grade girls vanquish Slaton for district title

Teams tied, but playoff won by Post, 43-32

The first half ended 23-9 in Post's favor, and the locals led 33-21 at the end of the third quarter.

Jenda Gilmore led the Post scoring with 24 points on 11 field goals and two free throws, while Melanie King finished with 18 on eight buckets from the field and two from the charity stripe. Carol Davis scored Post's only other points. Nan Bilberry also saw action at forward.

The Post guards, who did a good job containing the Slaton forwards were Lea Merrie Cross, Kim Hester, Jana McKamie, Ann Mitchell, Nancy Reno and Sandy Bullard.

Other forwards on the Post team are Patti Parrish, Sherry Compton, Tina McAlister and Dana Pool.

Coach Hightower's 8th grade club finished the season with a 16-1 record. His 7th grade girls' team finished second in the district. Their season record was 13-4.

Frenship waxes Post in final cage game

The game was close at the first quarter, 8-6, in Post's favor, but Post opened in the second period with Slaton's three. All points in the second quarter on field goals — five by Gilmore and two by Melanie Frenship led by just one point, 12-11, at the end of the first quarter Friday night, but had shot out to a 35-21 bulge at halftime and a 52-37 lead at the end of the third period.

The Post team held its own on field goals with each team hitting 18 two-pointers, but the Tigers meshed 40 of 62 free throw attempts, which probably sets a record for the Post gym as far as chances from the charity stripe are concerned.

The Lopes cashed in on 17 of 37 free throws for 47 per cent, but the Tigers' 40 out of 62 gave them a reading of 64 per cent from the free throw line.

Three of the Post players fouled out of the penalty-riddled contest and four others had four fouls against them at the final buzzer. Robert Bullock, W. D. Sims and Danny Lee were the three Antelope benched on personal fouls.

Steve Hays scored 12 points to lead the Antelope attack, while Jake Rogans scored 25 for Frenship.

Antelope men start Monday

For this season's Post track and field team workouts Monday, with the competition scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 27, at Brownfield.

Coach Davis, new athletic director and head football coach, and Joe King, who joined the coaching staff this week, are in charge of the season's Antelope track squad.

Coach Davis said today that only a few individual trackmen will be invited to the Brownfield meet on Feb. 27, but that a full team will be invited to the Idalou invitational track meet March 6.

This season's returning trackmen include sprinter Larry Brown, who was district champion last year in the 100 and 220 dashes and regional champion in the 100 and 220 dash.

The scoring summary:

FRENSHIP: Morris 49 17; Snowden 10 2; Rogans 7 11 25; Stong 1 6 8; Christensen 0 1 1; Boen 0 2 2; Black 4 7 15; Durham 1 2 4; Howell 0 2 2. TOTALS 18 40 76.

POST: R. Hays 2 1 5; Curtis 0 0; S. Hays 5 2 12; Bullock 2 4 8; Rob. Pace 1 1 3; Sims 3 3 9; Rog. Pace 0 0 0; Hoyle 1 1 3; Saldivar 0 0 0; Lee 3 2 8; Woods 1 3 5. TOTALS 18 17 53.

League sets 25 meeting

Officers will be elected at a meeting of the Little League organization at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 25, at the TV-Appliance Center.

Markley Rasbury, Little League president, said everyone is excited in the summer baseball season, especially the Little League players, are urged to attend a meeting.

Coach Jiggs King's Post Doe 'B' team is playing this weekend in an invitational tournament at O'Donnell.

The Post girls play Wilson at 5:40 p.m. today (Thursday) in a first round game. If they win, they play next at 5:40 p.m. Friday. If they lose to Wilson, their next game will be at 3:20 p.m. Friday.

TOP VARSITY PROSPECT

Boyd Noble of Post, who at 6-11 is the tallest athlete ever to wear a Red Raider uniform, is a mainstay on this season's Texas Tech freshman team and is considered a top prospect for the varsity. —(Texas Tech Sports photo)

Boyd Noble 'cuts ice' on Tech frosh team

LUBBOCK —Although Boyd Noble is only in his second semester at Texas Tech, he's already made a name for himself as a Red Raider athlete.

In fact, Noble made a name for himself the day he signed a Tech letter-of-intent. He is the tallest athlete to ever wear a Raider uniform in any sport.

The 6-11 center from Post may also be the first seven-foot player for Tech, since he is only 18 years old, and still has some growing left, but after his physical statistics have been worked over, his basketball talents come in.

Tech freshman coach Allen Eaker is optimistic about Noble's chances both this year on the freshman Picador squad and in the future on the Raider varsity.

"I'd say Boyd has made more improvement than any player on the freshman team," Eaker said. "He's really been an asset to our ball club, especially in the last few games."

When Tech played Texas in the second game of the conference race the Picadors upset the UT frosh, thanks to the help of Noble.

"We won that game by a bout 10 points," Eaker said, "and Boyd scored 10 points and grabbed 10 rebounds, so you can see what might have happened without him."

Eaker and Tech head coach Gerald Myers have plans for Noble on the varsity, when that time comes.

"I think he will really be good in the next few years," Eaker explained. "We hope to have him gain some weight and then he should be strong under the boards. He reminds me of a player like Texas A&M's Steve Niles (a 7-0 all-SWC player)."

Eaker said Noble's best thing going for him right now is his attitude.

"He has the best attitude and works harder than anyone on our team," Eaker commented. "If he keeps that kind of attitude, I don't see how he can help but become a quality player."

Tech coaches were concerned over Noble's weight when he came to Raiderland, but Eaker said he has gained some poundage and should gain quite a bit more since he is the youngest player on the Picador squad.

"When the season is over we will put him on the weights a whole lot," Eaker explained. "I think it will really help him."

Noble is ready to pursue a basketball career at Tech, and he already has a pretty good start, in his own estimation.

"The Texas game really gave me an idea of how great it is to beat a SWC rival," Noble explained. "I hope I can always play my best games against conference schools, especially after I'm on the varsity and playing for the conference title."

Tech is a school that celebrates the most when the Raiders beat a conference rival such as Texas, so Noble could make quite a name for himself if he plays his best against them.

After all, being the tallest Raider ever is only the beginning.

Poole's team is 19AA co-champs

Coach Kenny Poole's Madisonville High School basketball team finished the season as co-champions of District 19AA.

Madisonville, with a 24-6 record for the season, tied for the championship with Bryan Kemp High School, but lost the playoff game Tuesday night to decide the district's representative in the bi-district playoff.

During the regular season, Madisonville and Bryan Kemp were 1-1 against each other in district play.

Poole, a Post High School graduate, was head basketball coach here two years before going to his present school where he is in his first year as head cage coach.

COMES TO POST FROM O'DONNELL

Joe Giddens assumes new coaching duties

Joe Giddens, a 1959 graduate of West Texas State University, assumed his new duties here Monday as an assistant on the coaching staff of new athletic director and head coach Bobby Davis.

Giddens was football coach at O'Donnell High School this past season, resigning his position there to accept the Post coaching assignment.

The new coach is a graduate of Littlefield High School where he lettered in football, basketball and track.

Following his graduation from WTSU, where he majored in physical education, Giddens was "B" team football coach at Spade High School for one year. After the year at Spade, he joined the Army for three years, serving in sports administration where he coached football and basketball.

Following his discharge from the Army, Giddens was basketball coach and assistant football coach at Paducah one year before going to Alamogordo, N.M., where he was assistant football coach for three years and head football coach two years.

Giddens was out of coaching for one year before accepting the position at O'Donnell at the start of the 1970-71 school year.

The new coach's wife, Doris, will finish this year at Texas Tech and is doing her practice teaching in Lubbock. They have three children, Danna, 10 years old, Holly, eight, and Wade, five.

Giddens said he will move his family here within the next week or two. During the remainder of the school year he will assist Coach Davis in coaching track and will teach a world history course.

Steve Hays noses out Bullock in point race

Steve Hays, who will be back next year, led the Post Antelopes in scoring during the 1970-71 basketball season with a total of 282 points in 25 games for an 11.3 average.

Hays barely beat out senior Robert Bullock, who finished with 275 points in 26 games for a 10.6 average.

Hays' scoring total came on 119 field goals and 44 free throws, while Bullock hit 98 from the field and 79 from the free throw line for his 275-point total.

Randell Hays, who also will be back next year, finished third in scoring with a total of 173 points in 26 games on 66 field goals and 41 charity tosses.

Other squadmen scoring 30 points or more during the season were: W. D. Sims, 139; David Woods, 138; Danny Lee, 129; Jerry Hoyle, 76; Robert Pace, 58; T. C. Curtis, 39; Jerry Saldivar, 36; and Roger Pace 30.

Coach Bert Leaverton said all the squadmen carried on the roster at the end of the season earned varsity letters. They are R. Hays, Curtis, S. Hays, Bullock, Sims, Robert Pace, Roger Pace, Hoyle, Saldivar, Lee and Woods.

In winning four games and losing 22, the Antelopes averaged 53.0 points a game to the opposition's 64.0.

Post's biggest single game point total was 75 against the Jayton "B" team in the Jayton tournament, and their lowest was 32 points against Crosbyton in the first game of the season. District champion Rails scored the most points against Post in a single game, 102.

Cage sweethearts are crowned here Friday

Sherry Bird and Jerry Hoyle were crowned basketball sweethearts at the Post-Frenship varsity boys' game here Friday night.

Miss Bird was selected sweetheart by members of the Antelope squad and Hoyle was selected by the Doe squad members. Both sweethearts are senior class members.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (SJR 15) Special Election May 18, 1971

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1 That Article III, Section 24, of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 24. (1) The State Ethics Commission is created as an agency of the State. The commission consists of nine members. Three members shall be appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas with the advice and consent of the Associate Justices serving on the Court, three members shall be appointed by the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas with the advice and consent of the other Judges serving on the Court, and three members shall be appointed by the Chairman of the State Judicial Qualifications Commission with the advice and consent of the other members of the commission, of each group of three appointees no more than two shall be attorneys engaged in the active practice of law. In addition thereto there shall be two ex officio members, one from the House of Representatives and one from the Senate to be elected on the first day of each Regular Session of the Legislature by a majority of the membership of each House for a term ending on the first day of the next Regular Session.

"(2) With the exception of the initial appointees, each member shall hold office for a term of six (6) years and until his successor is appointed and has qualified. In making the initial appointments, each appointing officer shall designate one (1) appointee to serve a term of two (2) years, one (1) appointee to serve a term of four (4) years, and one (1) appointee to serve a term of six (6) years. Interim vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies due to expiration of a full term, but only for the unexpired portion of the term in question. The membership shall designate one of its members to serve as chairman for a period of two (2) years.

"(3) The members of the commission shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

"(4) The commission shall recommend the compensation, per diem, and mileage allowance of members of the Legislature, and may recommend the salary of the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Lieutenant Governor at an amount higher than that of other members notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary of Article IV, Section 17, of the Texas Constitution.

"(5) The commission shall promulgate rules of ethics to govern the conduct of all legislators, legislative officers and all officeholders, appointive or elective, of any office, department, district agency, commission, board or any governmental unit or branch established by or under the authority of the constitution and laws of the State of Texas and all persons who shall use any privilege of the floor in either House of the Legislature. The Texas State Ethics Commission shall further promulgate rules providing that each member of the Legislature and each of the hereinabove named officeholders upon election and any appointee to any of these offices shall file with the State Ethics Commission a statement under oath setting out a complete financial statement in detail within 10 days after being elected or receiving an appointment. This information shall be privileged information to the State Ethics Commission to be used only by them to determine if there exists a conflict of interests or if there is or has been a violation of any of the rules of ethics promulgated by the Texas State Ethics Commission or any laws of the State of Texas. The Legislature shall enact statutes dealing with unauthorized disclosure or misuse of said privileged information.

"(6) The commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet in Austin at least once each year to review existing rules of ethics, legislative compensation rates, mileage allowances and per diem rates, and to make any changes deemed necessary.

"(7) All rules of ethics, compensation rates, mileage allowances or per diem rates currently in force, as well as all changes and recommendations by the State Ethics Commission shall be promulgated before the convening of any session of the Legislature by filing a certified copy of the proclamation with the Secretary of State.

"(8) Each rule of ethics or change thereof made by the commission shall take effect on the 15th day of the legislative session following the proclamation unless disapproved before that day by resolution of either House of the Legislature.

"(9) Until otherwise provided by the commission, each member of the Legislature shall receive from the public treasury an annual salary of Four Thousand, Eight Hundred Dollars ($4,800) per year and per diem not exceeding Twelve Dollars ($12) per day for the first 120 days only of each Regular Session and for 30 days of each Special Session of the Legislature. No Regular Session shall be of longer duration than 140 days. In addition to the per diem, the members of each House shall be entitled to mileage in going to and returning from the seat of government, which mileage shall not exceed Two Dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) for every twenty-five (25) miles, the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel, from a table of distances prepared by the Comptroller to each county seat now or hereafter established; no member to be entitled to mileage for any extra session that may be called within one day after adjournment of the Regular or Called session.

"(10) The commission is further authorized to recommend to each Legislature changes which will update, improve, and effect economy in the legislative process."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the 18th day of May, 1971, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to create a State Ethics Commission empowered to set rules of ethics for members of the Legislature, State officers and legislative officers; to investigate violations thereof, and to recommend compensation for members of the Legislature and the Lieutenant Governor and recommend improvements and economy in the legislative process."

FACTS OF FOOD
EACH DAY A PERSON'S DIET SHOULD SUPPLY HIM WITH PROTEIN FOR GROWTH AND BODY REPAIR, VITAMINS AND MINERALS TO KEEP THE BODY FUNCTIONING PROPERLY, AND FATS AND CARBOHYDRATES FOR ENERGY.

BALANCED DIET CAN BEST BE ATTAINED WITH A DAILY INTAKE OF SEVERAL SERVINGS FROM EACH OF THE "BASIC FOUR" FOODS: MEAT, POULTRY OR FISH--FRUITS AND VEGETABLES--MILK PRODUCTS--AND CEREAL PRODUCTS.

EXTENSIVE RESEARCH HAS SHOWN THAT CANNED FOODS ARE GOOD SOURCES OF NUTRIENTS. THERE IS INSIGNIFICANT LOSS OF VITAMINS DURING CANNING. MINERAL NUTRIENTS OF CANNED FOODS ARE COMPARABLE TO THOSE OF THE SAME PRODUCTS PREPARED FROM THE RAW STATE.

AUSTIN — Legislators have now passed major emergency finance bills and are moving to other bills to hold down the size of the bill.

A $34.9 million appropriation bill to avert reduction in aid to needy families with dependent children passed both houses and went to comptroller Robert S. Calvert for certification.

Before he would accept the bill, Calvert advised passage of another bill which would realign priorities in the state's massive omnibus tax finance fund. In effect, this would divert turning over to welfare some $35 million that normally would go to the teacher retirement fund between April and August.

Teachers association and retirement fund leaders had no formal objection to the latter, although it would cost the retirement fund an estimated $100,000 to $600,000 in short-term interest. However, the aid will be repaid in full when the ultimate new tax will go into effect Sept. 1.

While these measures were moving methodically through the House and Senate, the House passed a bill to establish a $185 million bond issue to finance construction on new college campuses. Bonds would be repaid from tuitions, and would cost taxpayers little. Final approval of the plan in the Senate would relieve the tax bill of a heavy burden in order to build new institutions already authorized by the Legislature.

Another potentially important measure bill won quick Senate approval. It would require all cities and counties, population 10,000 and above, to report to the state all welfare spending for the medically needy. If federal officials will agree Gov. Ben Barnes proposes subsequent legislation to require all these local funds be routed through the state treasury, where hopefully they would attract an extra $100 million in two-tone matching federal aid.

PEOPLE'S LOBBY FORMS — A new liberal group, including representatives of labor, ethnic and environmental interests, has organized an "issues-oriented" people's lobby.

About 300 attended the organizational meeting. Former U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough and former U.S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark were the main speakers.

Congressman Bob Eckhardt of Houston was named temporary chairman and State Sens. Barbara Jordan of Houston and Joe Bernal of San Antonio, temporary vice chairmen. Twelve steering committee members were chosen to work with them.

By a divided vote, the group decided to steer clear of candidate endorsements (although there was plenty of speculation at the meeting that Yarborough may run for governor in 1972 and concentrate on specific legislative goals.

AG OPINIONS — State Comptroller is required to pay counties 25 cents for registration of voters under 21, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that: Comptroller does not have the affirmative duty to withhold issuing state warrants to agencies of the state where an employment-discrimination complaint has been lodged.

Exchange of real estate between Dalhart and the Dalhart school district requires publication of a notice and a public hearing.

Omnibus crime control grants can go to non-profit groups, individuals and non-state supported schools if qualifications are met.

Any money held by Texas State Board of Examiners in Optometry cannot be spent without legislative authority.

Fees collected from adult probationers may be used for paying probation officers' salaries, his office help, travel expense and training.

State Board of Examiners of Psychologists cannot certify psychologists who don't have a master's degree.

State Health Department can require the seal of a licensed, professional engineer on plans for hospitals and other institutions.

OPEN MEETINGS AMENDMENT — A bill to require notice before and posting of minutes afterward concerning closed-door meetings of public agencies was heard by the House State Affairs

Auto stereo systems and tapes are popular target of thieves

DALLAS — "Music hath charm to soothe the savage beast," so the old saying goes — and the music from automobile stereo systems seems to charm many thieves judging from the constant increase in thefts of auto tape decks and tapes over the past few years.

Whether the motivation is the charm of the music or the charm of high profits, thefts of auto tape decks and stereo tapes cost insurance companies some $40 million in paid claims in 1969, the last year for which figures are available. And the trend of this type of thievery is definitely upward.

While it's difficult not to feel sorry for someone who wakes up to discover his traveling symphony missing, the Insurance Information Institute points out that many music loving motorists have been unwitting accomplices to the theft of their own property.

Stereo devotees spend about $400 million annually for recorders, and even more than that for tapes, the institute said. And a thief needs only three to five minutes to get his "share" of this prized equipment — especially when the motorist is cooperative.

Leaving a car unlocked and in a dark or unguarded area is an open invitation to a fellow with larceny on his mind. And stereo tapes lying on car seats are dead giveaways to a car window shopper looking for an easy theft.

The Institute advises motorists to get in the habit of locking their parked cars. When tapes are not in use, store them in the glove compartment and lock it too.

It's a good idea, too, to mark tape players and tapes and record the markings. They can serve as inanimate fingerprints when identification needs to be established.

'The Out-of-Towners' Tower film feature

"The Out-of-Towners," starring Jack Lemmon and Sandy Dennis, is the Tower Theatre film attraction for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

The stars, Lemmon and Dennis, experience a series of hilarious misadventures during a 24-hour visit to New York City in "The Out-of-Towners," photographed in color by Movielab.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS TO TEXAS STUDENTS

AUSTIN — Two University of Texas students are among 32 American youths just named to receive coveted Rhodes Scholarships for study at Oxford University in England.

They are Larry R. Grisham, a senior physics student from Lufkin, and Marvin Charles (Swede) Hemberg, a first-year philosophy student from Laramie, Wyo.

In the current year, UT Austin (with its two winners) is third only to Harvard and Yale in the number of Rhodes recipients. Since 1903, when the Rhodes Scholarships were established, UT has provided 20 such scholars.

Committee

Closed meetings now can be held legally to discuss personnel, real estate or security matters.

Bill by Rep. Dave Alfred of Wichita Falls would not ban these meetings, but would require notice in advance that they are to be held. Within three days, under the bill, minutes sketching the action which took place in the closed meeting would have to be made public. Bill went to sub-committee for study.

Meanwhile, Sen. Mike McKool of Dallas introduced a bill to require publishers, broadcasters and billboard concerns to charge their "lowest" rate for political advertising. Bill proposes $100 fine and recovery action for "excess charge."

FIRST BILL SIGNED — First bill of the legislative session, reopening voter registration thru February, was signed into law by Governor Smith.

Voters who register this month cannot take part in elections before April 1. Those who registered before the close of the old deadline, in January, can vote by March 1.

Burlington and Texas

A Winning Combination!

Burlington Industries became part of the Texas industrial economy in 1956. Today, Burlington and its Burlington Domestic operations at Post, Memphis and Sherman employ more than 1,100 Texans in modern textile manufacturing facilities producing quality sheets and pillowcases for the nation's home furnishings market.

"Vera" and "Burlington" lines manufactured by Texans at these Texas locations are sold by leading stores in many Texas communities.

These quality textile products being purchased by Texans are the handiwork of Texas people. Employees at the Post Plant, for instance, go the entire route of converting fiber to fabric—fiber opening, spinning, weaving, finishing, fabrication and packaging. The Memphis plant compliments the Post operation in fabrication and packaging.

Burlington Domestic is one of 30 divisions of Burlington Industries, a company involved in virtually every phase of textile and textile-related production... a record that has made it the world's largest and most diversified textile firm.

The names "Vera" and "Burlington" on sheets and pillowcases reflect a unique concern in Burlington for quality manufacturing and merchandising. These names also denote the efforts of a group of employees dedicated to quality and loyalty.

These names also reflect a high measure of dedication, concern for quality and company loyalty of more than 1100 Texas employees.

That's a winning combination!
