

3 'holiday Saturdays' will be highlight of Christmas season

'Western motif' Yuletide planned

The retail promotions committee of the Post Chamber of Commerce and local merchants jointly will sponsor three big "holiday Saturdays" here in December which will include Santa Claus on each afternoon together with musical entertainment from the schools and a $50 drawing.

The high school band has been invited to welcome Santa into Post at 1 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 4, with the junior high band the Post High School Choir highlighting the Christmas entertainment on Dec. 11 and 18.

It is going to be a "western motif" Christmas and Santa will greet his young friends in a festively decorated western "shed" on the big vacant lot in the 100 block East Main.

In fact, Santa's welcoming committee is looking for a wagon on which to bring Santa into town.

The drawings will be similar to those of recent years.

Area residents, 16 years of age and older, may sign up as often as they desire without obligation in any of the participating stores.

The drawings will be conducted at 4 p.m. each Saturday, beginning Dec. 4.

The person whose name is drawn must be present to win the prize which will be $50 worth of merchandise at any Post store. The winner will receive a letter so that $50 in purchases may be charged to the Chamber here.

If a winner is not present at the first drawing, the prize will be $100 in trade at the second, and if no winner is present Dec. 11 the prize will climb to $150 in trade for the final drawing Dec. 18.

Names will be drawn Dec. 18 until a winner is present.

Christmas lights will go up, beginning Friday with city employees doing the work.

Blinking holiday lights also are planned for the Post Cactus Garden.

An "odd item" holiday window contest is being planned for Thursday night, Dec. 16, in which merchandise prizes will be provided for those coming up with the highest number of correct answers.

Final details for this contest will be announced later.

The retail promotions committee held a second meeting on its plans last Thursday afternoon at the Drover House Restaurant No. 2. Junior high classes have been invited again this year to decorate the vacant store windows in the business district. The retail committee is providing $40 for prizes or purchase of materials for the windows. There are only four vacant windows to be decorated this year, several fewer than a year ago. T. B. Odum is chairman of the committee and will supervise the Santa shed construction.

Forty-Fifth Year

Post, Garza County, Texas

Thursday, November 25, 1971

Number 26

We will point our little Camaró south Wednesday morning for a Thanksgiving run into Houston where we will "turkey and tube" with Walt and Chris and with our one and only granddaughter, Andrea.

We plan to take along one of our TVs because we are determined to see the "game of the decade" between Oklahoma and Nebraska and it will overlap with the Dallas Cowboys' wishbone tussle with the Los Angeles Rams. Our son-in-law is a Cowboy purist.

The Dispatch will be closed for the week from Tuesday on — while Ben Owen is conducting "the noble experiment."

The Thanksgiving holiday seems to be the ideal time to get our front office remodeled if it ever is to be remodeled, so we are going to give Ben the door key as we drive out of town. It will be interesting to note any changes when we return.

The Dispatch front also is due a "face lifting" too. First scheduled is a "sand blasting" probably Thanksgiving Day and then as soon as the weather is nice, it will be administered several coats of paint.

Andy Stelzer will do the blasting — when their are the fewest possible number of people around.

The worst part about fund drives is that it takes as much or more time for the clean-up of the "stragglers" as it does to stage the main

ESTIMATES RANGE UP TO 22,000 BALES

Garza cotton harvest slow getting started

Garza's 1971 cotton harvest, already a month late and with little ginning activity anticipated until after Thanksgiving, isn't expected to measure up to the county's 25,000 bale crop of last year despite a lot of late summer rain and a helpful late frost.

Experts are guessing anywhere from 18,000 to 22,000 bales when the gins finally shut down sometime in mid-winter.

The first real freeze of the fall came Friday morning with the low temperatures ranging from 25 to 28 degrees.

It was enough to blacken the cotton leaves and ready the hard-to-figure crop for its harvest. But an early Monday rain produced enough moisture to keep the cotton strippers out of the fields until Thanksgiving or after.

The first "gin check" of the 1971 cotton season, conducted by The Dispatch Monday, showed that ginners are unanimous in the opinion that the new crop will be well under last year's, but that it is "too early to tell" just how good or bad the cotton actually will turn out to be.

As of Monday only 205 bales of Garza cotton had been ginned to date with the Storie Gin reporting 59 bales and the Graham Co-op Gin 52 bales for the biggest activity to date. The Hackberry Co-op Gin which handles both Lynn and Garza cotton has ginned 90, but half of that or more is Lynn cotton.

Garza's 1971 harvest estimate which was pegged first at 30,000 bales in the area forecasts — which always turn out to be high — has since been reduced to 25,000 bales.

The question, which confuses the harvest picture, is whether much of the top or late cotton will make anything.

County Agent Syd Conner says it is too early to tell, but he is hoping that some of it does, especially in fields below the caprock, but he says it will take 10 days or two weeks to tell.

There are believed to be more Garza acres planted to cotton this year, but there is no accurate way of knowing because final measurements won't come until the harvest.

There were about 38,000 acres last year and there may be well over 40,000 in cotton this year.

Cotton prices are reported holding steady at "pretty good" levels. Both contracts and the market are about the same at 25 to 26 cents per pound.

Lewis Heron, the bank's representative, thinks "maybe on a county-wide average we'll better a half bale to the acre" and looks for between 18,000 and 20,000 bales.

County Agent Conner is "guessing" a couple of thousand bales higher with a range of 20,000 to 22,000.

Several ginners think those green bolls on top are going to be a real problem for everybody.

Here are some of the comments received during the "gin check":

Storie Gin, 59 bales ginned, area outlook not quite as good as last year.

Graham Co-op Gin, 52 bales ginned, three in the shed, 200 acres in gin area defoliated. Manager Bill McMahon says that results to date indicate it is going to take a "little more cotton to make a bale this year." He warned farmers if the cotton comes in "wet or green they can be assured of a dog-tailed grade."

Pleasant Valley Gin, only three bales ginned to date. Gin area hard hit by hail and with so much late cotton Bill Alexander reports, "We are going to be short."

HISTORIC CHURCH

The Rev. George Ascher, pastor of Faith Lutheran Church, looks at the historical medallion marking the structure as Post's only original church building remaining in use. The remodeled church is to be rededicated at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

Rededication of church scheduled here Sunday

The newly remodeled Faith Lutheran Church will be rededicated at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 28, the Rev. George Ascher, pastor, announced today.

The rededication service follows an extensive remodeling program designed to return the church, as nearly as possible, to its original form, the pastor said.

The sermon of dedication will be given by the Rev. Ronald L. Jenkins, circuit counselor for Circuit 3 of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

Performing the service of dedication will be the Rev. Elmer Neunaber, regional vice president of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. The liturgists for the service will be the Rev. Fred W. Neumann, who served this congregation for 18 months, and the Rev. Mr. Ascher.

The first services of Faith Lutheran Church were conducted in 1863 in what was then the property of the First Presbyterian Church, which made the church available for the services after moving into its new church building on West Tenth Street. In July of the same year, Faith Lutheran Church bought the church buildings and dedicated them in October of 1965.

The Faith Lutheran Church has been marked with an Official Texas Historical Medallion as Post's only original church building which remains in use today.

"The congregation cordially invites all the area residents to join with them in this service of rededication," the pastor said.

Ballots have been mailed from the county ASCS office here for voting in the annual community committeemen elections.

Those receiving ballots have until Dec. 1 to mark them and return them to the office here. Voting will be in all five ASCS communities of Garza County.

The ballots will be counted by the county ASCS committee to determine the results in each of the communities.

Following the election of the community committeemen, delegates will be named to the county ASCS committee meeting.

POST LOSES FIRST ONE, 13-6

Second bowl game at Slaton Saturday night

Post and Slaton "outsiders" were at it again at Tiger in Slaton at 7:30 p.m. Saturday with the Post team trying to get things up after losing to the 11 to 6, here last Saturday in the first of two booster games.

Post was estimated at from 350 to 400 fans. The surprisingly well-attended game here Saturday night, in which Slaton scored all of its points in the first half, but was outplayed by the Post team in the second half.

Ronald Simpson, president of the Antelope Booster Club, said Monday that it was too early to tell how things came out financially, but that the net proceeds will be announced in next week's Dispatch, "after all the bills are in."

All proceeds above expenses are to be shared by the Post boosters for their high school athletic fund and by the Slaton booster for their Steve Bourn athletic fund.

Jimmy Williams, smooth-operating Slaton quarterback, who many felt "made the difference" in the game's outcome, received a plaque as the game's outstanding player on offense, while lineman Norman Tanner of the Post team was the recipient of the plaque for the outstanding defensive player. Plaques also went to the rival coaches, Bobby Brake of Slaton and Bobby Davis of Post. The plaques were presented by high school senior Jackie Moore in a ceremony at midfield following the game.

Both Slaton touchdowns came on passes from Williams to Pat Henderson, with Slaton rolling up a big margin in passing — 125 yards to Post's 29. Norman Tanner's recovery of a Slaton fumble on the Tiger 39 in the third quarter led to Post's touchdown, with Dennis Altman blasting over from the five-yard line.

The first Slaton touchdown came on a 72-yard drive after Ray Altman's punt was returned 13 yards to the Slaton 28. With Williams, Bobby Brake and Bruce Schuette carrying the ball, the Tigers made it to the Post 34, from where Williams passed 14 yards to Randall Partain for a first down on the 20.

Williams kept for 10 yards to the 10, with Junior Foster's tackle (See Bowl game, Page 8)

Three injured in car-truck crash near here Sunday

Three persons were injured, one seriously, in a two-vehicle smashup about 5:30 p.m. Sunday 2.8 miles southeast of Post on U. S. Hwy. 84.

Edgar Witt, 40, of Post, received a broken arm, broken ribs and a broken pelvic bone when the truck in which he was riding and an automobile collided. He was transferred from Garza Memorial Hospital to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock after receiving emergency treatment at the hospital here.

Lyndell McDaniel, 35, of Post, driver of the Service Welding & Construction Company truck, was dismissed after being treated at the hospital here for lacerations and other injuries. Betty Burgess Skoro, 27, of Lubbock, driver of the automobile, was dismissed from the hospital after being treated for an injured foot.

The highway patrolman who investigated said the collision occurred as the Lubbock woman was making a turn to head back the way she had been coming. She had been traveling southeast and the truck was coming northwest toward Post.

The highway patrolman said the truck landed on its wheels after turning over two times.

POST PLACES TO CLOSE

Thanksgiving holiday pause coming up here

Thanksgiving will generally be observed as a holiday in the Post office and professional community. Most stores closing for Thursday observance.

Service business places and will be closed Thursday and Friday.

Patrolman Ken Gilbreath arrested a man here Friday who is wanted by the FBI for offenses in several states.

A 31-year-old suspect is being held in the Lubbock jail. He was arrested in a 1971 American Javelin stolen in Houston last month and containing license plates taken in Midland.

Patrolman noted the man sitting in a car in a grocery store parking lot Friday afternoon reading a newspaper. He thought he remembered the license tag of the car being stolen and checked it out with Midland by law enforcement work.

Following the arrest, a few more telephone queries produced lots of information on the suspect.

It was one time the teletype paid off," Holleman told The Dispatch.

Found in the man's possession at the time of his arrest was a collection of blank checks of Post in several states.

Compensation case is settled out of court

A $19,646 workman's compensation case in 140th District Court in Lubbock ended last Thursday afternoon with an unannounced settlement out of court.

The suit was filed by Troy E. Holly of Post against Liberty Mutual Insurance Co., seeking damages for a back injury Holly allegedly suffered while working for Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Lubbock, Inc.

"We got a late start this year beginning with the first planning session and now we're running into the Thanksgiving holiday," Cornish said.

Although contributions in many divisions lagged well behind those of last year, the drive chairman said a successful conclusion to the drive still is possible.

Most of the callbacks are coming in the big business division, although a few more contributions are expected in several of the other divisions.

A total of $9,849.02 already has been paid or pledged, but many contributions are still out.

Corish, drive chairman, estimated it will take the first ten days of December to wind everything up.

CALL BACKS TO COME

United Fund just $650.98 off mark

The Garza County 1971 United Fund drive stood just $650.98 short of its $500 goal Monday with 18 of 19 divisions reporting, but several dozen "callbacks" still to come as the big fund raising drive moved into its clean-up stage.

A total of $9,849.02 already has been paid or pledged, but many contributions are still out.

Corish, drive chairman, estimated it will take the first ten days of December to wind everything up.

THANKSGIVING, 1971

"In the name of God, amen!"

"In the name of God, amen!" So opens the Mayflower Compact. This pact was a rule of law for the small settlement of Plymouth, to which all must subscribe before leaving the ship to enter the new land. This document is a masterpiece, which in one sentence provided a workable code under which the people might live in peace and order.

Here it is, "We do, by these presents, solemnly and mutually, in the presence of God and one of another covenant and combine ourselves together into a civil body politic, for our better ordering and preservation and furtherance of the ends aforesaid; and by virtue hereof enact, constitute and frame such just and equal laws, ordinances, acts, constitutions and offices, from time to time, as shall be thought most meet and convenient for the general good of the colony; unto which we promise all due submission and obedience."

This rule of law and order in all things was the very premise upon which the United States was founded. It was begun in the cabin of the Mayflower with the signing of the above compact. It established the world's first government for and by the people. Although they could not have known what they were starting, the Pilgrims, with one stroke of the pen, created the freedoms, the justice, and the opportunities which have made America unique among the nations of the world.

The Pilgrims left England to escape the yoke of religious persecution to find a place in the wilderness where they might walk in all His ways, whatever the cost. And in all simplicity and humility, this they did. The Pilgrims brought God to these shores as a partner, comforter, and friend. They brought the Holy Bible as their guide. America was born a Christian nation, thanks to them. They loved God and they loved order. We fell heir to their priceless legacy by their faith and their blood, which they gave that we might be free.

Our American holiday of Thanksgiving which we here in Post and elsewhere throughout the nation are about to celebrate is traced to the Plymouth colony, but the idea is much older. The origin of the custom of setting aside a time of thanksgiving to God is lost in the mists of time. There are repeated references to expressions of thanksgiving in the Old Testament. Noah, delivered from the flood, erected an altar to the Lord in thanksgiving. One can uncover in history many a poignant tableau of thanksgiving. In Revelation we journey to the island of Patmos and pain a prisoner, named John, to behold a future thanksgiving scene that spans the dimensions of time and space, to generate hope and new life in the weariest of human breasts.

We find in Revelation 7:11-12, "And all the angels stood round about the throne... and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, 'Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.'"

Only the blessed of God know what Thanksgiving Day is really all about. Only the country that was founded, under God, is the greatest blest in 1971. We, the people of today, must preserve this heritage for our children and our children's children, in the name of God, amen!

The Abundant Life...

THANKSGIVING

"And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, who stood afar off: and they lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go, and show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, with a loud voice glorifying God; and he fell upon his face at his feet, giving him thanks; and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said, Were not the ten cleansed? but where are the nine? Where there none found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger? And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole." Luke 17:12-19

The Lord has blessed us greatly here in Post. Frankly, there is no other place I had rather be. We as a city should take advantage of this season to pause and give thanks to God and our fellow man for all our many blessings. "Thank you" are the best two words to express gratitude and appreciation.

It is so much more comfortable and rational to see what we have to be thankful for and to rejoice accordingly, than to have our vision for ever filled with our lacks and our needs. Happy are they who possess this gift! Blessings may fail and fortunes vary, but thankful heart remains.

THIS IS ANOTHER one of those "hurry up and go" columns, since we're coming out a couple of days early because of Thanksgiving. That means that anything usually put off until Monday needs to be done today, which is Friday.

Former Postite Alvin G. Davis of Levelland was the means of bringing two Scotsmen together here Wednesday afternoon of last week. Alvin brought his friend, Alex Strachan of Peterhead, Scotland, to Post to call on our own Scotsman, George "Scotty" Samson.

I GOT NEWS of the visit by telephone from out at the Scotsman's house, but was unable to look in because of Wednesday being such a busy day here at The Dispatch office.

I talked to the visiting Scot by telephone, however, and he told me it was great for him to learn that the Post Scotsman had never lost his accent, even though he has been in this country for nearly 70 years.

ALEX STRACHAN also said he is very proud of the reputation his fellow countryman has built up here. "It is very nice to know that this community loves George Samson so much and that he loves the community," the visitor said.

Then Alvin got back on the phone to tell me that Alex is in this country attending the Sunset School of Preaching in Lubbock, and that perhaps he can get back over here with him again sometime soon with more time to visit.

IF YOU HAVE never read this version of "Little Red Riding Hood," here is your opportunity: "Once upon a time, in a faraway country, there lived a little girl called Red Riding Hood. One day her mother asked her to take a basket of fruit to her grandmother, who had been ill and lived alone in a cottage in the forest.

"It happened that a wolf was lurking in the bushes and overheard the conversation. He decided to take a short-cut to the grandmother's house and get the goodies for himself. The wolf killed the grandmother, then dressed in her nightgown and jumped into bed to await the little girl.

"When he arrived he made several nasty suggestions and then tried to grab her. But by this time the child was very frightened and ran screaming from the cottage.

"A woodcutter, working nearby, heard her cries and rushed to the rescue. He killed the wolf with his axe, thereby saving Red Riding Hood's life. All the townspeople hurried to the scene and proclaimed the woodcutter a hero.

"But at the inquest, several facts emerged:

"1. The wolf had never been advised of his rights.

"2. The woodcutter had made no warning swings before striking the fatal blow.

"3. The Civil Liberties Union stressed that, although the act of eating Grandma may have been in bad taste, the wolf was only 'doing his thing' and thus didn't deserve the death penalty.

"4. The SDS contended that the be considered self-defense, since the killing of the grandmother should she was over 30 and, therefore, couldn't be taken seriously because the wolf was trying to make love, not war.

"On the basis of these considerations, it was decided there was no valid basis for charges against the wolf. Moreover, the woodcutter was indicted for unaggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

"Several nights later, the woodcutter's cottage was burned to the ground.

"One year from the date of the

It's a good thing there wasn't anybody around to help the pilgrims

They landed in a forbidden wilderness. No Federal Housing, so they went to work and built their own. No Food Stamp Program, so they raised what food they ate; and when they didn't raise enough, went without.

No Free Schools, so mothers taught their children. No Recreational Programs—they were too busy working. No anti-draft riots—everyone was expected to share in the protection of his country. No Social Security—no security at all, except what each provided for himself.

But there were compensations. No rioters demanding something for nothing. No unwashed "students" telling their mothers what to teach. No wasteful bureaucrats paying themselves out of the workers' production.

Nothing really for the Pilgrims but hard work and a lot of it.

Did it pay off?

Our standard of living proves it.

Man handicapped by rodeo injury among students at Snyder college

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Roland Davis, who has been confined to a wheelchair since being injured when thrown from a saddle bronc in a Post rodeo some 15 years ago, is among the handicapped students attending the new Western Texas College at Snyder. The following article concerning Davis appeared in the Nov. 3 issue of the college newspaper, The Western Texan.)

In Texas' junior colleges today, an increasing number of adults are returning to gain an education. The age level of students attending junior colleges is creeping higher and higher, and even though the majority of students are in the 18 to 21 age bracket, almost 50 per cent of the 640 students attending Western Texas College are in the 22 to 60 year old bracket.

People from all walks of life in the 22 to 60 age bracket are returning to school. The amazing thing is that many of those returning to school are disabled or handicapped students. Among those determined people who are returning to college is a man at WTC who has a most remarkable outlook on life with his vantage point from a wheelchair. He has returned to school to better himself through education. The man with this strong self drive is Roland Davis.

Davis has an interesting background. From the age of 22, he was a rodeo hand. During his rodeo career he competed in such events as calf roping, saddle bronc riding and bareback riding. Davis says, "Calf roping is not as dangerous as bronc riding or bull riding, therefore it is not as exciting."

He says the real danger in rodeoing is the travel involved. During his seven years of rodeoing he rodeoed in 21 states and Canada.

At the age of 22, Davis was injured in an accident at the Post Stampede Rodeo. He was thrown from a saddle bronc and as a result of the accident has been confined to a wheelchair since.

After his accident, Davis traveled and gambled for a living. He did this for about seven years. During this time he went to Las Vegas about five times. He felt that the gambling in Las Vegas was, for the most part, crooked, and he preferred a more honest air.

Davis has always enjoyed sports of all kinds. He moved to Odessa where he coached a men's industrial basketball team, and in 1969 his team qualified for state honors in the Texas Amateur Athletic Federation.

He also managed a softball team which qualified for state honors in the American Softball Association in a tournament in Brownwood.

Davis now lives in Post. He says that the most outstanding event of his life occurred when he became a Christian. He describes being a Christian as wonderful and exciting. He is active in the church, and in his spare time reads non-fiction and writes songs.

His goals are to finish college, to become a teacher and coach, and to write at least one hit song. "I do not make any long range plans," he said. "I just live day by day."

Band is proud of superior rating

By DEBRA YORK

We would like to say "congratulations" to the Post High School Band on their marvelous job at marching contest Wednesday of last week. The superior rating that the band received is the first since 1961 in marching contest.

The band would like to say a big "thank you" to Mr. Germer. We feel that he is the one who made this all possible, with all the hours of hard work and deep concern that he has given to the band to perfect their show. Without him, we could never have made it!

We would also like to thank Mr. Germer for helping us wash the buses. We had a good time marking it up, but we enjoyed the wash job even more. Especially Mr. Germer!

The band will be starting concert season after the Christmas holiday. Now that we have a chance to bring home a sweepstakes trophy, each band member will be ready and willing to start with even more vitality and enthusiasm than before!

Library LISTENING POST

By GEORGE L. MILLER

Last week I attended another workshop at the Garden and Arts Center in Lubbock. This makes three since last August and though I hate to admit it, I'm beginning to really enjoy them.

Part of the pleasure comes from the new books I've been picking up at some of them. Post is fortunate enough to be linked with the Texas State Library through its library systems network. This not only entitles us to inter-library loan privileges, we also now receive free sets of books, permanently loaned to us.

The first set we received was a batch of juvenile fiction books. These were selected for us by the children's librarian at the Lubbock City-County library. The selections are outstanding, and a great asset to our library.

We next received a carton of government publications. I did not know, until I attended that workshop, that the government had so many fine publications. And that these books and pamphlets are so very inexpensive. Unfortunately I have not had the time to process these books yet, so they aren't available in the library right now. I hope we can get them on the shelves before the year is out.

Among these outstanding titles are books on just about any scientific subjects, books on technology, books on just about anything you can imagine.

This acquisition also includes many, many pamphlets on every subject under the sun. These pamphlets have me worried, for I have not been able to figure out where I will store them at the library. Many libraries have what are called vertical files. This is a filing cabinet with a host of files divided up over a variety of subjects. Such a file is a gold mine for students doing research. But so far, we haven't had the funds for a file, a space for a file, or a volunteer who can be in charge of the file. When we get all these things, we'll have plenty of material for it.

Last week, the workshop I attended was perhaps the most helpful of all. It was on reference works, and we received two cartons of outstanding reference books. These books — when we get them on the shelves — will not be available to be checked out. They will stay in the library for reference use only. But what a wealth of material — books on Texas, geography and history, reference works on literature. There is such a wealth of information here I can't begin to mention it all.

In addition to receiving these excellent books, we also were introduced to a new form of learning-teaching technique. It is a self-learning process and we will be receiving new units each month.

The purpose of this is to teach us how to do a better job in hunting out the facts people want. I hope to pass this training on the volunteers so they will know more about our reference resources and how to use them.

This is one of the benefits we receive from our association with the Texas State Library. It enriches our library collection, it gives needed training to our volunteers, and it makes available to us — through inter-library loan — the book resources of all the major libraries in the state. Your little library in Post is as big as Texas itself.

Next week's display will be a sampling of ladies handwork including some very beautiful, handmade Christmas cards, made by Glenda Morrow.

CANDLE LIGHT

A candle's but a little thing
It starts with just a bit of string.
Yet clipped and dipped with patient hand
It gathers wax upon the strand.
Until, complete and snowy white,
It gives at last a lovely light.
Life seems so like that bit of string—
Each deed we do, a simple thing.
Yet day by day, if on life's strand,
We work with patient heart and hand.
It gathers joy, makes dark days bright,
And gives at last a lovely light.

Bowl game—

(Continued from Page 1) saving a touchdown, and Brake gained two more at the line. A five yard penalty for delay of game set Slaton back, but Williams passed 13 yards to Henderson in the end zone for a touchdown. Alvin Sanders kicked the extra point to put Slaton ahead, 7-0, with 4:15 of the first quarter remaining.

The Tigers scored again on the first play of the second quarter, with Henderson taking Williams' pass on the Post 30 and going in for the touchdown. Sanders' extra point kick failed to leave the score 13-0.

Post used up most of the remaining time in the second quarter going from their 19 to the Slaton 15, but ran out of downs there. The biggest gainer on the drive was a 19-yard run by Anthony Altman from the Slaton 39 to the 20, with quarterback Duke Altman and fullback Dennis Altman chipping in with shorter gains to keep the drive alive.

After Tanner recovered the Slaton fumble on their 39 in the third quarter, Dennis Altman and Delton Moore carried for short gains to the 34, from where Duke Altman hit Roy Sappington over the middle with a 20-yard pass to the 14-yard line. Dennis Altman hammered at the Slaton line four times before he was finally able to dart over from the five. Trying for two points Duke Altman connected on a pass to John English in the end zone, but the Post end was jarred loose from the ball.

Slaton's Sanders missed on a 40-yard field goal attempt in the last quarter, with Post getting the ball on their 17.

The remainder of the game continued as a defensive struggle, with neither team offering a serious threat.

Post's tightened defense in the second half, especially in the line-backing department, kept Slaton away from the goal line and enabled the locals to turn the game around as far as offense was concerned.

The only serious injured occurred in the second half when Post linebacker Clyde Cash went out with a broken rib.

Four building permits were issued at the City Hall last Thursday and Friday.

One of the permits was issued to Tom Harmon for a 29 by 30-foot addition to Harmon's Hamburger Hut at 312 North Main. Costing an estimated $700, the addition will be of sheetrock construction inside and corrugated metal on the outside with a metal roof and concrete floor.

Cecil Foster Sr. was issued a permit to move the City Floral building he purchased to his garage building on North Broadway. The building was moved from a site in the 100 block of North Broadway that is being cleared for a major business development.

Other permits issued went to J. W. Mitchell for a carport at 304 Osage, to Bailey Mayo for a shed at 302 Osage, and to Homer Joe Mason for a carport and concrete driveway at 711 West 5th St.

New feed and seed firm opened here

George Childers, a resident of Post since 1948, this week announced the opening of the Garza Feed & Seed Company at 132 West Main in the building formerly occupied by the Garza Tire Company.

Childers, who will be owner and operator of the new business, said he will carry a complete line of feed and seeds. For the last eight years he has been employed by the Cross H Ranch, during which time he says, "I mixed a lot of feed."

At the evening worship, the message will be "A Plan of Union—Conclusion."

Bernard S. Ramsey is minister of the church, and the public is cordially invited to all services. There is a supervised nursery during the morning worship.

IT'S ELEMENTARY BY THOMPSON

PALLADIUM and RHODIUM are uncommon elements that have a lot in common. Members of the platinum family, both precious metals are well known for their use in making alloys of gold.

To the world of medical science, however, these two elements are worth more than gold—because they are vital in the production of Minocin minocycline, an important new drug effective against a host of infectious diseases.

Developed after 10 years of research by American Cyanamid Company's Lederle Laboratories, Minocin is considered an "exotic" antibiotic—due to the scientific sophistication required in its development... and the "exotic" nature of the elements used in its manufacture.

Stories of Post area appear in Ed Sayers' book

WACO — The founding of Post and stories of the surrounding Plains area are featured in a new, one-volume Texana edition of the state's major stories, "Off the Beaten Trail," just released by Texian Press, publisher Robert E. Davis of Waco said today.

"The struggle of cereal king Charles W. Post to provide water for what he saw as a rich agricultural area is described in one story in the 500-page book. There is a graphic account of Post's 'rain battles' of the early 1900's, when he bombarded the atmosphere to produce rain. Also included are some area stories of the days of buffalo hunting, with particular reference to Buffalo Ridge, and of the time of unfenced range. Stampede Mesa, site of a legendary ghost herd east of Post, is another story in the collection.

Written by Hill Country author-historian Ed Sayers of Kerrville, OBT, as it has become popularly known, appeared for many years as a weekly metropolitan feature in most Texas cities. In book form it proved a consistent best seller through three volumes and seven printings, Davis said, adding that the one-volume Texian Press edition combines all previous books with new material, index and maps.

"'Off the Beaten Trail' has to be the best-read writing on our state 'today,' Davis said. 'It's in a very large number of Texas schools and has been highly praised by critics and heritage groups alike. It covers Texas from pre-history to yesterday and border to border; it's a big book.'

My Thanks

— This Thanksgiving

I guess this is my favorite time of year. We have so many things to be thankful for that to name them would take a whole page.

First we want to thank you, our customers, for letting us serve you through the year with coffee, ice cream and medicine. It's a real privilege to have people like you to serve, and you make work a pleasure.

Second, I'd like to thank the people that have worked for me through this year and years past. I've always been real fortunate to have some of the nicest people I know to help us serve the public. It's great to work with people who don't fight each other. We all work together, and this is a blessing.

I'd like to thank friends for coming in and sharing your day with me. So many of you really help with a hello, or a smile, or "How are you getting along."

I'd like to thank the pastors in our community for ministering to our needs through the love of our savior, Jesus Christ.

I'd like to thank my family for overlooking my shortcomings, and loving me when I'm tired, grippy, and discouraged.

Last, but not least, I'd like to thank the Holy Spirit for loving us, being with us each day of our lives and hanging loose.

It's a great life. Happy Thanksgiving!

Antelopes win, girls lose in openers with Crosbyton

The Post Antelope basketball team, under new head coach John Alexander, opened its 1971-72 season here last Friday night with a 45-35 triumph over the scrappy Crosbyton Chiefs.

Coach Jiggs King's Post Does lost to the Crosbyton girls' team, 64-41, and the Antelope junior varsity won, 44-25, in the first of the night's three games.

The varsity boys' game was close until late in the third quarter when the Antelopes, stressing defense, opened up a five-point lead, which they had increased to 13 points midway of the final period.

The 'Lopes out-rebounded the Chiefs by a whopping margin of 60-33, and, in the long run, it was their defense that made the big difference.

It was the first game for both teams and turn-overs were numerous on both sides. The Post offense was slow cranking up and the first quarter was half-way gone before the 'Lopes lit up their side of the scoreboard on a field goal by Steve Hays.

It didn't take the 'Lopes long to catch up, and they were ahead by one point, 16-15, at the end of the first quarter, with Steve Hays hitting 11 of the locals' 16 points. The teams were tied, 28-28, at the halftime intermission, but Post was ahead by five points, 41-35, at the end of the third quarter.

Steve Hays' 19 points topped the 'Lope scoring, but sophomore Ricky Shepherd was only a point behind with 18. Billy Joe Johnson of Crosbyton was the game's high scorer with 23 points.

In the girls' game, Post led by a point, 16-15, at the end of the first period, and the teams were deadlocked 25-25 at the half. Crosbyton had gone out in front by three points, 37-34, at the end of the third period, and outscored the Does 15-9 in the fourth quarter for their nine-point win.

The Does committed 24 personal fouls against only 15 for Crosbyton, and the visitors made the most of it at the free throw line, cashing in on 21 of 37 free throws, while Post hit 11 of 21.

Jackie Moore led the Post scoring with 20 points on six field goals and eight free throws. Cindy Bird scored 10 points; Becky Dalby, six; Sue Cowdrey, four, and Jodi Norman, three. Nelda Vera of Crosbyton grabbed scoring honors with 27 points.

The starting guards for Post were Pam Feagin, Darla Baker and Jan Hall, with Phyllis Kennedy, Wilma Bullard and Jo Beth Gandy also seeing action.

Randy Kennedy's 19 points was a tops for Post in the junior varsity game. Others scoring were: Rodney Compton, 14; Johnny Minor, five; Bill Hudman, three; Garland Dudley, two, and Rusty Conner, one, with Victor Cisneros also seeing action.

The scoring summary in the varsity boys' game follows:

CROSBYTON: Gowens 2 3 7; Ferree 0 0 0; McDowell 1 0 2; Johnson 8 7 23; Walters 5 1 11; Ellison 0 2 2; Freeman 0 0 0. TOTALS 16 13 45.

IN GAMES WITH FRENSHIP

Junior High boys win 2 of 3 opening tilts

Post won two of three games from Frenship here last Thursday night, the 7th and 8th grade boys' teams winning but the freshman boys losing by two points.

Coach Lane Tannehill's freshmen outscored Frenship 17 to 6 in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough to overcome a big lead stacked up by the visitors through the first three quarters. The final score was 29-27.

The teams were all even, 6-6, at the end of the first quarter, but Frenship was ahead 14-10 at the half and 23-10 at the end of the third quarter, in which Post failed to score.

Post outshot Frenship from the field with 13 field goals to 11, but hit only one free throw out of 22 attempts, while Frenship was cashing in on seven out of 16.

Randy Josey was the game's high scorer with 13 points. Tony Conner scored eight, Kent Kirkpatrick, four, and Bob Craig, two. Others playing for Post were Jackie Blacklock, Noah Abraham, Grayling Johnson, Ruben Ayala and Joe Martinez.

We finally had a freeze, Nov. 19. Guess the farmers will soon be gathering cotton. Some of the cotton looks real good.

Mrs. Ray McClellan and Mrs. Willie Mason visited last Friday in Andrews with Harry Lee Mason who was a patient in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Stone visited last Friday evening with the Elmer Cowdrey family. Other recent visitors have been Mr. and Mrs. Mack Ledbetter, Mrs. Bernita Maxey and Mrs. Jewell Parrish.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Choate were last Friday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Delwin Fluitt and family.

Post student is in college band

SAN MARCOS — Zelika Tuck, the former Zelika Freeman of Post, is a member of the Southwest Texas State University's colorful marching band.

Mrs. Tuck, a senior elementary education major, plays trombone in the 96-member playing unit of the SWTSU band organization. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Freeman of 316 West 11th St.

This year, the SWTSU band, under new director Douglas Wiehe, will perform in the Houston Astrodome on Dec. 5. The group's colorful, exciting halftime shows are an added attraction to any athletic contest.

Mrs. Tuck is a member of the Texas Student Education Association and the Association of Childhood Education at SWTSU. She also plays both the piano and tonette and is a member of the choir.
