Post office, church and schools hit by burglars

Vandals invade cemetery here

Officers today were continuing their investigations into break-ins at the Southland post office, two Post school buildings and the First Baptist Church, and vandalism at Terrace Cemetery.

Three suspects in the post office burglary were being held in the Slaton jail this morning after being arrested by Slaton police, who reportedly recovered a television set taken in the break-in.

Garza County Sheriff J. A. (Jimmy) Holleman said the three suspects were picked up while he and Deputy Sheriff Jim Pippin were in Slaton in connection with their investigation of the burglary. The sheriff said he and other officers, including U. S. postal inspectors, are to question the suspects later today in connection with the burglary, in which a money order machine and the contents of two parcel post packages were taken in addition to the television set.

The intruders pried open the front door to gain entrance to the lobby, then broke the glass out of a door to get into the working part of the post office.

The contents stolen from the parcel post packages had not been identified late Wednesday by the investigating officers.

The burglary was discovered by Mrs. Edmund Wilke, postmistress, when she went to work Wednesday morning.

No apparent attempt was made to break into the post office safe. Theft of the money order machine led officers to theorize that the burglars might be the same ones who stole a quantity of blank money orders in a break-in over the weekend at the Girard post office in neighboring Kent County.

Sheriff Holleman and Chief of Police Otis G. Shepherd Jr. questioned four juveniles Wednesday in connection with Easter weekend break-ins at the junior high school and elementary school buildings.

Damage estimated by Supt. Bill Shiver at $100 was done to three coin machines in the junior high building where three new windows were broken and new screens cut to gain entrance. An undetermined amount of money was taken from the coin machines.

The intruders broke out windows in the gymnasium to gain entrance at the elementary school building.

where a pencil machine and a paper machine were broken into. Principal Jack Alexander said only a small amount of money was taken from the machines, since they had been emptied Thursday. Police Chief Shepherd said some of the pencils and paper taken from the machines had been recovered.

Only a roll of postage stamps was missed in the break-in at the First Baptist Church, which occurred sometime after the Sunday night service. The door into the church office was heavily damaged and the office "mussed up" by the intruders, it was reported.

Vandals damaged two tractor and a water line at Terrace Cemetery some time Sunday, the police chief reported. Damage to the tractors included breaking out the headlights and pouring sand into the gas tanks.

The police chief also reported a rock was thrown through a wash-room window glass at Stone's Texaco Service Station, 201 South Broadway.

COMBINED WITH RUMMAGE SALE

Flower Shower ready for Friday opening

Post's second annual Flower Shower, combined this year with a gigantic rummage sale of clothing, will open at 1 p. m. Friday in the vacant business building at 107 West Main street for a nine-day stand.

Over $600 worth of bedding plants — representing some 39 varieties — will be offered local residents at popular retail prices to beautify local yards and gardens.

Proceeds from the shower and rummage sale will go into the memorial building fund for the Post Public Library.

The flower shower and rummage sale will be open from 1 to 6 p. m. daily, including Sunday, on all days but Saturday when sale hours will be from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Mrs. Peewee Pierce and Mrs. Patty Kirkpatrick are co-chairmen of the flower shower and Mrs. Rosemary Chapman is in charge of the rummage sale.

The first flower shower last year originally was scheduled for a three-day weekend but was then extended over nine days as a longer sales period was needed for the bedding plants.

That is the reason for the nine-day sale this year. The bedding plant order has been trimmed to include only the popular bedding plant varieties at last year's sale plus "a few new varieties."

The plants will be delivered here from a Lubbock nursery Friday morning and the flower shower set up in time for the 1 p. m. opening.

With new emphasis this year on community cleanliness and beauty, the flower shower is expected to attract strong buyer interest.

The rummage sale was added to the shower as room for both is available and volunteer help on hand for the shower can be used to handle the rummage sale as well.

Those who wish to donate clothing to the sale are asked to call Mrs. Chapman and the donations will be picked up.

DRUG PROGRAM

'Operation Kick-it' is coming to high school

The Texas Department of Correction's successful drug program, "Operation Kick-it," will be brought to the South Plains area, including Post, April 27, 28 and 29.

Arrangements to present the program in the Post schools and seven other schools of the area have been made by Gerald Huffaker, county attorney, and Norvell Redwine, county sheriff of Lynn County, together with the National Honor Society.

The participants of the program will stay in Tahoka during the three-day period and travel from town to town. Places other than Post and Tahoka in which the program will be presented are Wilson, New Home, Lamesa, O'Donnell, Brownfield and Seagraves.

The Texas Department of Corrections initiated the program as an effort to actively combat the growing drug abuse problem. The program strikes at the heart of the problem by demonstrating what can happen to the drug abuser.

"Operation Kick-it," a panel of four inmates, has been touring the state since June, telling the story of drug misuse before junior and senior high school assemblies.

Through this program, the inmates are enabled to speak directly to the public and present their simple message — "Illegal drugs are dangerous. Drug abuse is against the law and you can go to prison for it. We did."

The four volunteer panelists are young, first offenders, ages 17 to 21. Each was convicted for possession of marijuana, one for the sale of drugs.

Each inmate tells briefly about his home life, how he began using drugs, and the events leading to his arrest.

"Operation Kick-it," which is funded by a grant from the Governor's Criminal Justice Council, is similar in format to the highly successful "Operation Teen-ager," which was established by TDC in 1962. The purpose of this program is to combat crime among youth by presenting an inmate's story of his own road to crime.

Former resident gunshot victim

Graveside rites were held at Terrace Cemetery at 5 p. m. Wednesday for Melvin L. Garner, 37, a former resident of Post, who died shortly before 4 p. m. Sunday of a gunshot wound in the chest suffered while in the emergency room of Presbyterian Hospital of Dallas.

A Dallas County medical examiner ruled Garner's death a suicide. Funeral services for Garner were held at 10 a. m. Wednesday in the First United Methodist Church at Richardson with the pastor, the Rev. H. Lee McGinnis, and the Rev. Elmer Glazner officiating.

Garner lived at 310 Overcreek in Richardson where he was employed as district manager for the Lockheed Corporation.

He was a 1951 graduate of Post High School and also a graduate of Texas Tech. A resident of Richardson for the last six years, Garner was a U.S. Army veteran.

Surviving are his wife, Melba; a son, Ward, and a daughter, Brenda, both of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Garner of Canyon; a brother, Edner Garner of Canyon, and his grandmother, Mrs. Mell Pierce of Post.

Mason Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements. (See Rotary Talk, page 8)

Chapman elected to head school board

Post school trustees at their April meeting Tuesday night adopted the school calendar for the 1971-72 school year, discussed the construction of two new lighted tennis courts here as a joint project, received a report on tax delinquency cases from Attorney Pat Walker, and elected Earl Chapman as new president of the board in the annual board reorganization.

The local attorney told school trustees that already 72 judgments have been taken in Garza District Court against delinquent school district taxpayers representing some $16,378.50 in back taxes and he indicated that some of these judgments would be collectable and construction.

The board also canvassed the vote on the recent school trustee election, swore in newly elected and re-elected board members and took steps to name the school district's board of equalization.

Trustee Bob Macy reported to the board that the state wildlife and parks commission will pay 50 percent of the cost of an estimated $14,000 tennis court project with other local units of government possibly sharing the costs of construction and maintenance providing the courts are made available for public use.

Trustees authorized Macy to continue to work out the tennis court project. Walker said the athletic booster club might also want to share in the cost of the courts

DPS OFFICIAL TELLS ROTARIANS

Law enforcement 'going places'

Suddenly it seems law enforcement "is getting somewhere in the last five years" after "standing still for the 20 years before that," Major C. W. Bell of Lubbock, regional commander of the Department of Public Safety told Post Rotarians at their Tuesday luncheon in City Hall.

In one of the most challenging and interesting talks on law enforcement given here in years, Major Bell attributed the recent gains to "better training of young officers and more money" with which to undertake enforcement programs.

At another point in his short talk, he said that more progress has been made in law enforcement's communications in the last three years than in all of the 32 years before, primarily due to federal money to fight crime becoming available.

Major Bell reported "a significant change" in the outlook of our young people" as to drug abuse and "far less interest" at the college level today in the radical and revolutionary campus groups that in recent years have been making so many headlines. A campus radical has a hard time drawing a crowd anymore he said.

On the subject of drugs, Major Bell said he thought "we've turned the corner", that thanks to concentrated educational efforts in the Ammons and other new Jaycee officers will be installed the latter part of May.

The new president will succeed Jerry Thuet, who was named a state director in Thursday night's voting. Others elected were Charles Morris, first vice president; James Swieten, secretary; Lonnie Gene Peel, treasurer, and Billy Williams, Amado Puentes Jr. and Jerry Bush, directors.

Councilmen take oaths of office

Three city councilmen, elected in 1970, were sworn into office by Mayor Piles C. McCrary at 10 a. m. today in the council room at the city hall.

The new councilmen are E. R. Moreland, Ed Blanton and Sawyer.

Mayor McCrary, who was elected for two-year term in the April election, was administered the oaths of office by City Secretary Ed Wilkerson before swearing in the new councilmen.

Certificates of appreciation for terms on the council were presented outgoing councilmen David Newby and Lester Nichols by Mayor McCrary on behalf of the city of Post. A certificate of appreciation will also be presented to outgoing councilman, Mike Schell, who was not present at the swearing-in ceremony.

Moreland and Sawyers were elected to two-year terms and Blanton to a one-year term in the April election. Ordinarily, all councilmen are elected for two-year terms, but this year's one-year term in the case of one councilman was ordered by the city to speed up the number of councilmen open each election year.

Chamber member drive over top

The Post Chamber of Commerce membership drive sailed right over its immediate goal of 764.36 in increased membership to meet this year's budget, it "isn't over yet."

The drive in its first two weeks netted 15 new business firm memberships, three new ranch memberships, 26 new individual memberships, and increases in dues for 40 old members.

To date, the increase in dues totals $1,959.

If drive members will work their dues outstanding, the drive should end up with about a $2,500 boost in Chamber income, Jim Cornish, drive chairman, said today.

BINGO STAND IS JAYCEE COMEBACK

Tuesday's winds undid in just a few minutes something it had taken the Post Jaycees several hours to do.

Monday, some of the Jaycees built a football toss concession as a Billy Snow fund benefit at the carnival the club is sponsoring on the Piggly Wiggly parking lot. Then the winds came Tuesday and wrecked the concession.

So, the Jaycees have built a bingo stand on the site instead of the football toss. They invite the patronage of bingo players before the winds hit again.

THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1971

We'll know six months from now

The junk yard ordinance adopted by the city council at its regular April session last week is designed to rid the city of such eyesores as junked automobiles and other clutter that more or less falls under the heading of junk.

In doing so the ordinance will finish up a job that has been under way for the last few years, not only by the city, but also by the Jaycees and other civic groups at one time or another.

To date, the campaign against junk cars has been effective, but not nearly 100 per cent so. The ordinance, if enforced, will rid residents of the unsightliness of the junk cars and trucks still sitting around in yards and which the city has been unable to "touch" as far as getting the owners to do something about them.

The new ordinance does not say that the owner of such junk has to remove it, but it does say that he has to fence it off from the view of others. That takes care of the "eyesore" part of the matter, and the ordinance's provisions that the junk yard must be kept in a neat and orderly condition should take care of the "health hazard" part.

The owners of such property as covered in the ordinance are given six months "within which to construct a fence of the kind and character required."

So, six months hence the junk car problem either will be solved, or we will be in a position to learn whether the new city ordinance means what it says. — CD

A program with 'growing pains'

If you want to take a look at a federal program with "growing pains," gaze at the food stamp program.

The federal food stamp program was started in a modest way, designed to supplement diets for the poor and help prevent malnutrition.

Seven years ago, in 1964, the program was launched on an initial budget of $75 million.

The following year it was increased to $100 million.

By 1966 its budget required $200 million. Like other federal programs, the food stamp program has grown and grown. It went to $225 million, then $315 million, to $340 million in 1970 was $610 million.

Guess what it is this year. The fiscal year of 1971 has a food stamp program of $1,750 million.

This means that the food stamp program has increased 2,200 per cent in just eight years.

Obviously, even with a mild recession, this country isn't 2,200 times worse off than it was in 1964. It's just that people have ways of getting around the food stamp program and get free groceries from Uncle Sam.

General Motors workers walked out on a strike and collected some $14 million food stamps to buy groceries during the time they were on unemployment compensation. Food went not to the poor, but to the strikers.

People who walk off well paying jobs to strike for more money don't qualify for food stamps, but they did.

The food stamp program is an example of little programs growing into big problems. In the meantime, the federal budget has zoomed to an astronomical high and the figures are so big that the average American can't begin to understand them.

Something that's there when needed

The Easter Art Show in the Community Center over the weekend and the Southwestern Public Service Company's 50th anniversary light exhibit in the same facility last Thursday points up the fact that this leased space makes an excellent big, all-purpose room for the community.

It's a much more sensible arrangement than having the city's own $200,000 structure somewhere.

For those who will argue that it isn't used enough for the expense involved, The Dispatch would reply that the community center simply needs more promotion, and maybe "cheaper rent."

We have said ever since the community center argument began 10 years ago that such a facility wouldn't be used as much as liked, but that when it is needed, it is badly needed.

A progressive community needs facilities it can afford. It can afford this kind of a community center far better than one of our own.

Let's just remember we have it—and start using it more.—JC

National Library Week, April 18-24

National Library Week is to be observed April 18-24. Here in Post we can add special meaning to the observance by expressing our thanks to the volunteer workers—and that includes all of them—who are largely responsible for the area and statewide recognition the Post Public Library has received as a "unique and outstanding" small town library.

Our library is unique in that it is operated entirely by volunteer workers. It is outstanding in that it has one of the "best" book collections of any library anywhere near its size. By "best" book collections, we mean up-to-date fiction and non-fiction, good reference works, and well-stocked shelves for the juvenile readers.

The purpose of National Library Week is, "To create a better-read, better-informed America by encouraging lifetime reading habits and stimulating greater library use."

Books have a singular importance unequalled by any other method of human expression. They are the storehouse of the knowledge and wisdom that perpetuates civilization from one generation to the next. An education is impossible of attainment without resort to the knowledge that is accessible nowhere but in the great books that have been produced over the centuries. It is no coincidence that suppression of books is a first act of any despot who loathes the wisdom of human experience as recorded in books that can be found in virtually any library.

National Library Week serves to remind us that we are indeed a wealthy nation—wealthy because we possess two vital ingredients of liberty—thousands of libraries where the world's knowledge is stored and freedom of the press to utilize that knowledge for the advancement of mankind.

WOULD YOU believe it? As dry as it is, the Insurance Information Institute is warning Texans to watch out for floods!

The Institute tones down its word of caution with the observation that "in the middle of the current drought affecting most of the state, most Texans aren't thinking very much about floods." They can say that again.

"But," the Insurance Information Institute warns, "Texans should remember that their state holds two world records for rainfall—22 inches at D'Hanis on May 31, 1935, in ten hours and 45 minutes, and 36.4 inches at Thrall on Sept. 9, 1921 in 18 hours. Just last Spring, San Marcos received almost 7.5 inches in one day and severe flooding resulted."

I didn't know that, and as dry as it is right now, I find it hard to believe.

REGARDLESS OF what the Insurance Information Institute says, the chances are that none of us are going to worry about "gullywashers" and "toadstranglers" when we can't even get a sprinkle.

The man up the street says that people are certainly peculiar. They want the front of the bus, the back of the church and the middle of the road.

MASON FUNERAL Home has out one of the most unique calendars I've ever seen. They've had the calendar out since the first of the year and here it is the middle of April but slowpoke that I am, I didn't see one of them until last Friday while standing around in Mac's Barber Shop after getting a haircut.

It's a 1915 calendar (that's the year Mason's went in business here), but what makes it unique is the fact that it is just like the 1971 calendar as far as dates are concerned. For instance, in 1915 Easter Sunday was on April 11, the same day it fell this year. And all the other holidays are on the same days as this year's, excepting, of course, the ones they've changed around (like Washington's birthday) until even the calendar makers are not sure on which day they fall.

UNLIKE ON SOME of the modern calendars, the girl on the front of Mason's 1915 calendar has on clothes. She's called "The 1915 Golden Girl," and right under her picture are a couple of lines that say, "Watch For Our 100th Anniversary in 2015. Mason Funeral Home."

There's also a little verse on the calendar that tells what it's all about:

This calendar, though 56 years is "late," Will help you remember every important date.

The year may look wrong, upon first sight,

But for 1971, every day is just right!

You will read about happenings of long ago.

And of what the "future" will hold for you!

The "Good Old Days" of years gone by.

Are back to show how time does fly!

National Library Week in Texas, April 18-24

"You've Got a Right to Read — Don't Blow It." With this as the 1971 theme, Gov. Preston Smith recently proclaimed April 18-24 as National Library Week in Texas.

"The Right to Read encompasses both free access to materials and educational programs that give every child the skills he needs to read effectively. Good library service can make developing and using these reading skills a life-long pleasure for all Texans," the governor said.

Sideoats grama named state of Texas

Sideoats grama, a grass which is the backbone of West Texas ranching, has been designated as the state grass of Texas. A resolution passed by the Texas Senate and House of Representatives on Tuesday named the grass as the state grass. The resolution was introduced by Rep. Tom Church, of Abilene, and passed by a vote of 100-0 in the House. The Senate passed the resolution by a vote of 21-0. Church said Texas is only the second state to adopt an official state grass. Sideoats grama is a perennial grass with a purplish spike and is found in nearly all parts of the state. It is especially common in the Blackland Cross Timbers, Edwards Rolling Plains, High Plains and Trans-Pecos. Church said, "Sideoats grama is one of our most native grasses and it is a high-quality, nutritious forage which is relished by all classes of livestock and wildlife. Sideoats grama is being used extensively to re-seed depleted grasslands, it is used in more native grass mixtures than any other grass and it is also winter hardy and highly resistant to droughts," according to Dr. Churchill.

Competition produces avant-garde poster for Small Business Week

WASHINGTON, D.C. — For the first time leading American industries this year teamed up with the Small Business Administration to produce an avant-garde poster to celebrate Small Business Week on May 16-22.

The winning poster was designed by Creighton L. Cory, Hughes Aircraft Company, Aerospace Group, Culver City, Calif. It was picked from some 50 designs submitted by leading industrial designers and illustrators by a subpanel representing the three major government prime contractors associations — Aerospace Industries Association, Electronic Industries Association and National Security Industrial Association. The subpanel was in charge of Warren Deem, corporate small business administrator for Lockheed Corporation.

The poster features a bright red sphere, "Big Business," saying "Thanks" to a tiny red sphere, "Small Business." The theme is "Small Business Supports Big Business."

SBA has had 65,000 copies of the poster printed for distribution to SBA and other government offices and to businesses and government prime contractors throughout the country.

During Small Business Week ceremonies in Washington, D. C., Cory will be presented a certificate signed by SBA Administrator Thomas S. Kleppe. He also will be given a special citation.

Company in Alabama revives interest in grandfather clocks

FAIRHOPE, Ala. — Emperor Clock Company of Fairhope, Ala., has succeeded in generating a revival of interest in the traditional grandfather clock.

Wood, cut from solid mahogany and walnut, and movements imported from West Germany, give Emperor Grandfather Clocks a warm, rich beauty and lasting dependability as a time-keeping instrument.

The firm not only sells assembled unfinished cases without movements, and completely finished clocks with movements, but also "do-it-yourself" kits for building your own grandfather clock.

ORDINANCE NO. 276 JUNK YARDS - POST
 An Ordinance regulating the operation of places used or maintained as junk yards or dumping grounds, or for the wrecking or disassembling of automobiles, trucks, tractors, or machinery of any kind, or of any of the parts thereof, or for the accumulation of rubbish or any description; providing for a license; and prescribing a penalty for the violation of the terms of this ordinance.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF POST, TEXAS:
 Section 1. Hereafter any place used or maintained by any person, partnership, or corporation as a junk yard or dumping ground, or for the wrecking or disassembling of automobiles, trucks, tractors, or machinery of any kind, or for the storing or leaving of worn out, wrecked, or abandoned automobiles, trucks, tractors or machinery of any kind, or of any of the parts thereof, or for the maintenance or operation of such place for the accumulation of rubbish or any description, is hereby declared to be a public and common nuisance, being obnoxious and offensive to the inhabitants of the City of Post, because of its interference with the comfortable enjoyment of life and property by said inhabitants, and is prohibited within the city limits of said city, unless the same is conducted in the manner hereafter stated following the payment of the license fee hereafter prescribed.
 Section 2. Any person, partnership, or corporation desiring to use or maintain any property within the City of Post, Texas, for any of the purposes mentioned in Section 1 hereof, shall make written application to the City Secretary for a license which said application shall set forth the name and address of the applicant and a legal description of the property or premises upon which said business is to be conducted, and the said City Secretary shall have the power either to grant or reject such application. If the application is granted, a license to operate such business shall be issued by said City Secretary upon the payment of a fee of $5.00 per annum. Any license so issued shall expire January 1, next succeeding the date of its issuance, but it may be renewed from year to year in like manner as is provided for the original license.
 Section 3. Any person, partnership, or corporation granted a license as provided for in Section 2 hereof, shall keep the premises used in the operation and maintenance of said business in a neat and orderly condition. The property and premises on which such business or private disassembling, wrecking, storing or leaving of worn out, wrecked or abandoned automobiles, trucks, tractors, appliances or machinery of any kind shall be enclosed by a light board or metal fence of sufficient height to obscure same from the vision of people on neighboring property or from people driving upon any public street or alley. Said fence shall be kept in a neatly painted condition and no junk of any character, or parts, or machinery of any kind shall be allowed to remain outside such fence; provided, however, that any existing business of this character now being operated and maintained in the City of Post shall be allowed six months within which to construct a fence of the kind and character required hereby.
 Section 4. The City Council of the City of Post shall have the power to revoke the license provided for herein at any time for good cause, but only after notice has been given to the owner or owners of the business of a hearing to be held not less than ten days after the service of such notice.
 Section 5. Any person violating any of the terms and conditions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in an amount not to exceed $100.00 or less than $10.00. Each day such violation shall be permitted to exist shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

HERE'S HOW! by Doris Thompson

VALUABLE OIL PAINTING WHICH HAS BECOME DULL CAN OFTEN BE BRIGHTENED UP BY CAREFULLY APPLYING A CREAM WAX FURNITURE POLISH. SOAP OR DETERGENT SHOULD NEVER BE USED TO CLEAN IT, EXCEPT BY A PROFESSIONAL RESTORER.

FACE SHOULD BE BOILED IN THE SMALLEST POSSIBLE AMOUNT OF WATER SO NONE OF IT IS LEFT OVER TO CARRY AWAY THE VITAMINS. THE USUAL AMOUNT IS ABOUT TWO CUPS OF WATER TO EACH CUP OF RICE.

ALWAYS KEEP UNOPENED JARS OR CANS OF "EMERGENCY FOODS" STORED AWAY IN YOUR PARTY PARTY IN CASE YOU RUN OUT SUDDENLY IN THE MIDDLE OF A PARTY. GOOD EMERGENCY FOODS INCLUDE NUTS, ANCHOVIES, SMOKED OYSTERS, PICKLED MUSHRROOMS, AND PEPSI-COLA BECAUSE THERE'S NO REAL SUBSTITUTE. PEPSI GETS A LOT TO GIVE TO PEOPLE WHO GET A LOT TO LIVE.

LOT OF PEOPLE DON'T REALIZE IT, BUT ODD-NUMBERED U.S. HIGHWAYS RUN NORTH AND SOUTH, WHILE EAST-WEST U.S. HIGHWAYS ARE EVEN-NUMBERED.

TO PREVENT EGG YOLKS FROM COMING OUT POWERY KEEP THE WATER FROM BOILING. COOK AT SIMMER HEAT. THE WHITES WILL TASTE BETTER, TOO.

Education counselors to be here tonight

ELECTRIC SCISSORS

Electric scissors make a useful and time-saving addition to your home sewing equipment.

They are available in a wide variety of sizes, shapes and weights. Varying from six to eight inches in length and four to eleven ounces in weight, models can be powered from either a wall plug or batteries.

Basically, all electric scissors consist of a small motor encased in plastic with a pair of short blades in front. The stationary lower blade is set at an angle, and slides along the cutting surface to guide and support the appliance. The upper blade does the cutting by means of thousands of tiny snips. Although the stubby blades look vicious, they are really comparatively safe as the blades do not close completely and the area that does the actual snipping is very small.

Choose electric scissors according to the kind of sewing you do. However, light, well-balanced, compact and easy-to-grip models will prove the simplest to handle. To avoid rusting choose those with carbon steel or stainless steel blades.

To operate the electric scissors, hold and move the appliance easily. Pressing too hard and fast into the fabric causes pulled, shredded or uneven edges and inaccurate and uneven cutting of the bottom fabric layers.

Like any scissors, the electric blades will gradually dull, but replacements are available. Keep your appliance in top running order by applying a drop or two of light machine oil on the blade pivot. And avoid running over pins.

Governor-for-a-day Jack Hightower praises Texas Highway Department

AUSTIN — Sen. Jack Hightower, serving as Governor for a day, lauded the Texas Highway Department for providing "almost total mobility" for Texans.

Governor-for-a-day Hightower, of Vernon, singled out for special commendation highway department employees in the West Texas region.

In an official memorandum, Gov. Hightower noted that no state activity touches the lives of his home 30th Senatorial district as do the state-maintained highways of Texas.

Gov. Hightower noted the variety of special services provided to the traveling public by the Texas Highway Department.

"The Texas Highway Department leads the nation in the number — and in my opinion, in the quality — of safety rest areas, roadside parks and scenic turnouts, for example.

"The department has erected and maintains special signs and markers for the information and convenience of highway travelers.

"Further, the department is charged with conducting the important collateral phase of the official state program to stimulate the tourist industry."

Gov. Hightower noted that the department operates 11 tourist information centers which last year provided professional travel counseling to almost 1.2 million travelers.

Also, the highway department distributed 7.6 million pieces of descriptive literature about Texas, some 4.7 million pieces of which were produced by the department itself.

"All this is in addition to providing a superb system of highways of all types for the safety and convenience of Texans and their visitors," Gov. Hightower noted.

He said he issued the official memorandum to recognize the highway commission and the men and women of the Texas Highway Department for a job well done.

M., and Mildred Wilborn, Mrs. Crider's mother and sister from near Wichita Falls also visited.

TALKING ABOUT TAXES

Salt, windows, bridges—these are just a few of the strange things on which taxes have been laid in years past. Today a family's income tax depends on the number of children.

But whatever the number of children they desire, women today have more convenient methods to plan their families than ever before—pills, spermicides, diaphragms and intrauterine devices. Delfen contraceptive foam can even be obtained in the drugstore—and while you won't need a doctor's prescription for this newest method of family planning, you may pay a sales tax!

The Impossible Has Happened

By BOB FORD

A number of years ago Charles Schultz had a series of his cartoons dealing with Snoopy. The first series showed Snoopy lying in his doghouse smiling and thinking to himself, "It's nice to wake up in the morning with a feeling of well-being. To know that even though there's snow on the ground and it's a little chilly outside, basically life is good and that you are..." Then he happens to look up and he sees a huge icicle hanging over the doghouse and he finishes his discourse with himself by saying, "DOOMED!"

As the series continues Schultz has Snoopy trapped by the icicle in his doghouse. In one cartoon Snoopy says to himself, "It's silly to be trapped in a doghouse by an icicle. I think I'll just make a run for it! I think I'll just zoom right out of here! I think I'll just leap up and zoom right out of here!" Then he realizes the truth about himself and says "I think I'll just lie here for the rest of my life!"

Charlie Brown now begins to take a hand. He phones the Humane Society and asks their advice on getting Snoopy out of his fix. They suggest trying to coax him out of his doghouse with some food. So Charlie Brown phones a pizza parlor and orders a pizza.

He places the pizza in front of the doghouse and Snoopy smells it and comes dashing out just as the icicle crashes down on the doghouse. Charlie Brown and Lucy, who has been an interested bystander, yell, "SAVED BY A PIZZA!" And a thoroughly shaken Snoopy can only respond with a "Good grief!"

Now we can laugh at this and pass it off, or we can laugh at this and think about it. We are Snoopy! We have been trapped in the doghouse of sin. We, like Snoopy, lack the will power, the strength to get out of the doghouse. We need the incentive to draw us away from our prison.

This last week we celebrated the event which has drawn us out of our doghouses. Let us rejoice and sing!

Post High choristers to sing in Amarillo

AMARILLO — Choristers from Post High School will gather with more than 9,500 school-age musicians in Amarillo next week for the Greater Southwest Music Festival. Under the direction of George M. Wilson the choir will compete with 70 other choirs for honors. Dates of the festival are April 22 through 24.

Trash Round-up Week in Texas' to get support

AUSTIN — Enthusiastic support of the Texas Highway Department has been pledged for "Trash Round-up Week in Texas" set for April 26 through May 1 by the Texas Legislature.

"The week will further call to the attention of all Texans the mammoth litter problem confronting the highway department the year around," said State Highway Engineer J. C. Dingwall.

Trash Round-up Week was designated by a resolution introduced by Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas. It was approved by both houses and Gov. Preston Smith signed it Feb. 9.

The resolution urges all citizens of the state "to join in an all-out effort to clean up our roadsides, our parks, our streams and lakes, and our own individual property, so that the entire State of Texas will sparkle from north to south, from east to west."

Dingwall pledged "wholehearted and unqualified support of this effort by the men and women of the Texas Highway Department throughout the state."

quartered in Amarillo's new $7,000,000 Civic Center will draw student musicians from six states. Founded by interested local musicians and businessmen under the aegis of the Fine Arts Council of the Chamber of Commerce, the competition is intended to further excellence in school music groups.

Scheduled during the festival are activities in all phases of music performance. 199 separate organizations will compete, including marching and concert band, choirs, orchestras and stage bands. In addition some 900 students will enter solo performance competition. In the events for large ensembles, judges are to listen to the organizations, criticize their performances, and rate them according to a national standard. Also, the adjudicators are charged with the responsibility of selecting — or declining to select — the "outstanding" choir orchestra and band in each classification of entries. The classifications are based on school enrollments.

Judges for the choir events will include Dr. Lee Kjelson of the University of Miami, Dr. Gene Brooks of Cameron State College, and Richard Brothers of the University of Arkansas.

In addition to the competitive events scheduled, students will have the opportunity to participate in clinic sessions in their particular areas of interest. Dr. Kjelson will conduct the vocal clinic. There will also be evening concert hours scheduled, including performances by the Amarillo College Choir and the West Texas State University Band.

Feedlot providing most of fed cattle in west and southwest

COLLEGE STATION — Auction markets and terminals are still the major sources of slaughter calves for packers, but the feedlot is providing most of their fed cattle in the west and southwest.

The 1969 report of the Packers and Stockyards Administration of the USDA indicated that Texas and California alone accounted for more than one-third of the cattle fed by packers.

In 1969, packers fed or had fed 1.6 million head of cattle and calves (seven per cent of fed cattle marketings).

The concentrated feeding areas in the west and southwest make e markets and terminals relatively unimportant in states such as Arizona, California, Colorado, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas.

About 12 per cent of the total commercial slaughter of sheep and lambs were packed fed even though only 15 firms were involved in lamb feeding in 1969. Dr. Ed Uvacek, extension livestock marketing specialist, pointed out.

More than half of the fed lambs come from Colorado, Utah, and South Dakota.

Packer feeding of hogs remained relatively unimportant as less than one per cent of the total slaughter was packer fed.

The recently released report also indicated that in areas where auctions and terminals were important sources of cattle for packers the country points were leading sources of cattle, hogs, sheep and lambs.

According to Dr. Uvacek, the 10 major packers bought three-fourths of their cattle, hogs and sheep from country sources.

He added that the smaller packers used the auctions and terminals to a greater extent for all livestock than the larger packers.

Dr. Uvacek noted that the numbers of livestock purchased by the packers on a carcass basis showed upward trends. Almost 20 per cent of the cattle bought by packers were on a carcass basis.

Four per cent of the calves and seven per cent of the sheep and lamb purchases were on carcass basis. Carcass purchases of hogs amounted to four per cent of the total purchases.

Open house for seniors slated at Texas Tech

LUBBOCK — High school seniors from a wide area of Texas and New Mexico are invited to find out for themselves "what it's like" at Texas Tech University Saturday, April 17.

The university will conduct an open house from 8 a.m. to noon for visiting seniors, who later will have an opportunity to attend one or more events scheduled during the afternoon and night.

"The purpose of the open house," said Dr. Owen Caskey, associate vice president for academic affairs, "is to acquaint high school students with the services and educational opportunities offered at the university."

"Choosing the university where he will spend the next few years of his life is one of the biggest decisions a high school student will make. Often this decision is made without the benefit of even seeing the campus he will attend."

The open house will afford interested high school students a chance not only to view the campus but also to visit with the departments in which their educational interests lie, he said.

? Your Name? WHAT'S IN IT?

By CHARLES DIDWAY

OWEN, OWENS

The surnames Owen and Owens have the same origin and the same meaning. Both mean "the son of Owen," with the genitive "s" added in the case of Owens.

Owen, meaning "well-born," is a Welsh form of Eugene and was one of the most popular given names in Wales at a time when individuals had only a first, or given, name.

There are many Welsh family names that are quite common because at the time they were becoming hereditary they were mostly derived from only a few given names in common use. It was not until after 1542, the date when Parliament passed the act which united England and Wales, that Welsh surnames became fixed. Most of the Welsh people formed their surnames from the names of their fathers or grandfathers.

"Ap," meaning "son of" was used in forming many Welsh surnames, and sometimes the "p" from "Ap" became a part of the name as Pugh from Ap Hugh and Powell from Ap Howell. If the name began with a vowel the "p" would turn into a "b" giving Bowen for Ap Owen, Bevan for Ap Evan and so forth.

Both Owen and Owens are recognized in Ireland as Welsh surnames but are sometimes used in that country as a synonym of MacKeown, for which MacOwen and Owenson are other occasional substitutes.

Among the earliest written records of the name is one listing a Robertus filius Owen (the Latinized form of Robert son of Owen) as a resident of Oxfordshire County, England in 1221.

In the United States, Owens is a more common family name than Owen. Owens ranks 115th among surnames in this country, with an estimated 154,000 persons by the name. Owen, ranking 395th, is the surname of an estimated 63,500 persons.

New 69-page booklet has listing of all herbicides sold in Texas

AUSTIN — Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has announced the publication of "Texas Herbicide Manual," a 69-page booklet listing all herbicides registered for use in Texas.

The TDA has the function of regulating the sale and transportation of all herbicides. The legislature has also charged the Agriculture Department with the responsibility of registering all herbicides.

Through registration the TDA can maintain an element of control over the materials by making certain that labels contain proper use and warning statements and no false claims.

The manual defines herbicides as "any weed killing chemical." The booklet also notes herbicides are employed to control toxic plants in industrial and recreational areas, as well as for ranchers seeking to gain maximum livestock production by destroying undesirable plants and guiding ecological succession.

Most herbicides have a low order of toxicity, the publication notes, but the few with high levels are denoted in a special column. Prudent use of all herbicides, lessening chances of possible harm to ALBANY — Fort Griffin, one of the official State Longhorn towns is due to get a visitors center as historic site restoration.

A $5,764 contract was recently awarded to Stein Lumber Company of Fredericksburg for work on the historic site located 15 miles west of Albany.

The project should be complete in November.

Old Fort Griffin was established in 1867 on a bluff overlooking the townsite of Fort Griffin and the Clear Fork of the Brazos River. The fort was deactivated in 1880. The nearby town of Albany annually holds a "Fandangle" in commemoration of frontier times.

There are 50 manufacturers of electric air conditioning and all major brands are available in our area. Brands in your area are listed in the Yellow Pages or identified on your neighborhood dealer's store front.

CHOICE OF SIZES

Electric air conditioning offers the right size for your cooling job. Too large a unit makes your first cost unnecessarily high; too small runs up operating cost. Electric air conditioning can save you money on both counts.

COMPLETE SERVICE

The principle of electric air conditioning is so well understood and the parts so easy to change that any air conditioning man can give you service quickly should you ever need it.

Youth arrested in Idaho for attempted rape

A 17-year-old AWOL serviceman is being held in Gooding, Idaho, as a suspect in the attempted rape of an 18-year-old Post area girl Easter Sunday afternoon near Green Tank, a few miles southeast of Post on U. S. Hwy. 84.

County Judge Giles W. Dalby said this morning that extradition proceedings are under way for the youth's return here to face a charge of attempted rape.

The attempted assault is said to have taken place after the girl had stopped her car because of a flat tire. After some other motorists had fixed the flat, the serviceman allegedly drove up and volunteered to follow the girl in his car to see if the tire held up.

When tire trouble again forced the girl to stop her car near Green Tank, the soldier brought her into Post in his car to get some tools he said were needed to repair the tire.

On the way back to where the girl's car was parked, the soldier stopped at a secluded spot where the alleged rape attempt was said to have been made.

The youth reportedly fled the scene when a party of Easter egg hunters came upon the parked automobile.

Major Bell commands Region 5 of the DPS, which includes 50 counties in this West Texas area, with his headquarters in Lubbock. He reported he has 400 employees on the regional payroll, 275 of them in uniform, with 260 automobiles, a helicopter and lots of crime fighting equipment.

In reviewing the various activities of DPS, Major Bell said that the department "is trying to build better programs into state driver licensing." He pointed out that a vision test is now required on all license renewals and that a test on knowledge of driving regulations is being considered as a new step for drivers seeking renewals.

The regional DPS commander said that the 12 state rangers in his command probably spend "99 per cent of their time investigating thefts and burglaries in rural areas because improved police methods in the cities are driving the criminals out of the cities into the countryside."

In the rural areas, he said the common burglars concentrate on stealing farm equipment, herbicides and insecticides, and that DPS forces need an amendment to the state statutes to make it easier to prosecute those who receive such stolen property.

Under present statute, he said, investigators must prove the person receiving or buying stolen property has knowledge that the items were stolen. This is extremely difficult to do, he explained, and prevents law enforcement from reducing the criminal's market for stolen goods.

Major Bell said "the hardest job I have to do is convince my personnel that our job is to enforce all the laws and not play communities by ear."

He explained that one of the problems for any law man is to determine what each community actually wants in law enforcement. Some want a DWI crackdown some want stricter enforcement in other fields and show no interest in DWIs.

State highway patrolmen are concerned basically with "speed and alcohol" on the highways Bell said. He reported that some 68,000 traffic violators have been issued tickets and 5,900 arrested for driving while intoxicated in the last three years.

Results in this traffic campaign is beginning to show up in the rural areas, but not in the more traffic congested cities, he commented.

Major Bell pointed out that the last traffic fatality here in Garza County occurred on Oct. 4, 1969.

School board—

Walker is employed by all the units of local government in a now two-year-old delinquent tax collection drive.

The attorney advised trustees of the problems which lie ahead and of his intentions now to move against absentee vacant lot owners in the city of Post who have not paid their taxes over a long period of years.

In the annual election of officers for the board of trustees, Chapman, who has been serving as secretary, was named president and K. W. Kirkpatrick, who has served for the last two years as president, was elected vice president. Macy was chosen the board secretary. The three were named in unanimous votes without contest.

Trustees adopted a compulsory policy change for the school lunchroom as required by higher authorities and accepted the tax assessor-collector's report for March.

Supt. Bill Shiver told the board he will be attending the annual spring school executive development seminar next week. It is conducted by the University of Texas.

The adopted 1971-72 school calendar calls for classes to begin Aug. 30 this fall — a week ahead of Labor Day, following a five-day in-service workshop from Aug. 23 to 28.

The Christmas vacation was shortened to eight days to permit a week's later start of the school term to avoid intense August heat. The Christmas vacation will be from Dec. 23 to Dec. 31.

School will end May 30 with bad weather days extending the school year beyond that point.

Trustees authorized Shiver to acquire two new school bus chassis and possibly one new bus, depending upon cost. This new equipment will be ordered for the fall school term but the order must be placed with the state well in advance.

Under present statute, he said, investigators must prove the person receiving or buying stolen property has knowledge that the items were stolen. This is extremely difficult to do, he explained, and prevents law enforcement from reducing the criminal's market for stolen goods.

Major Bell said "the hardest job I have to do is convince my personnel that our job is to enforce all the laws and not play communities by ear."

...to improve the beauty of our town and contribute something toward upcoming library expansion.

We'd guess you're going to find a rather professional attitude this time around at the Flower Shower with a year's experience under the belts of the volunteers who give so generously of their time to help this community of ours.

We were showing an out-of-towner around just the other morning who was thinking about a Post location. He asked if Post had any pride. We wheeled the Camaro around the corner to the new Post Cactus Garden, explained what the corner looked like three weeks ago, and then drove a block north and pointed out the library and explained how it had been a labor of love—and still is. He was thoroughly satisfied — right in the middle of Tuesday's sandstorm too.

Target area vote slated tonight

A public meeting open to all who live in Post's target area has been called for 7 p.m. tonight in the Lorenzo Alexander Community Center to elect target area representatives to the Garza County Community Action Committee.

Purpose of the community action organization, funded by the federal government, is to help people help themselves.

Persons in low income and minority groups need to attend so they can elect men and women who speak best for them, a representative of the community action committee said.

The action group seeks to establish programs of self help for the poor and disadvantaged to help raise community standards in morals, social and economic responsibility areas.

Ticket sale begun for Zogi revue

Post Rotarians Tuesday opened an advance ticket sale aimed at a crowd of 400 for the club-sponsored appearance in the primary school auditorium Thursday night, April 29, of the Zogi Variety Revue.

Adult tickets will be sold for $1.50 in the advance sale and $2 at the door.

The Rotary's share of the proceeds will be used for Post beautification projects this summer. Bailey Mayo, club president, told members in handing out the tickets at the weekly luncheon.

Mayo said a matinee is planned April 29 for students in the first five grades.

Demonstration on rain-making is set for Saturday

(Editor's Note: The following item was turned in anonymously at The Dispatch office Tuesday. We rather suspect that it is to publicize some sort of a fund-raising project on the part of one of the high school classes or some student organization, but we do not know that to be the case. At any rate, since we're all "grabbing for straws" as far as rain is concerned, what do we have to lose in running it?)

It seems that all efforts to bring rain to our parched West Texas soil have been fruitless. However, residents of Garza County are encouraged not to lose heart. A demonstration of a new rain-inducing technique will take place at 9 a.m. Saturday, April 17, at the corner of Broadway and 12th Street. The demonstrations will be continued until 5 p.m.

Individual demonstrations will be from 30 to 35 minutes long, costing approximately $2 per demonstration. Although observation is welcomed, participation is necessary in order to finance the effort.

Those wishing to participate need only to come to the demonstration site at any time Saturday. Your participation will be greatly appreciated.

Proposed legislation would hike fishing, hunting license costs

AUSTIN — Better understanding of fish and wildlife in Texas and its recreational potential are aims of legislation which would increase Texas Parks and Wildlife Department funding through a modest raise in the price of fishing and hunting licenses.

HB 632, sponsored by Rep. Tom Christian of Claude, District 75, would increase the fishing license from the present $2.15 to $3.25 and resident hunting license from $3.15 to $5.25. Last increase was in 1957 and since then the single sports fishing license has been the same for both residents and non-residents fishing in Texas' fresh and salt water.

Other proposed license fee hikes include commercial fishing, from $5 to $10; non-resident hunting, from $25 to $35; non-resident migratory bird, from $5 to $10.50 and adding quail as legal game; shooting preserve, from 5 to $7.50; sort from $3.15 to $5.25, and a proposed additional archery season license at $3.25 for bow hunting seasons other than the regular autumn and spring hunting open to all hunters. This includes all special archery-only seasons. If passed, the law would be effective Sept. 1, 1972.

Rep. Christian's bill would also retain license exemptions for persons under the age of 17 and 65 or older. Thus, all persons ages 17 through 64 would be required to have licenses "to hunt any wild bird or animal" and "to fish in any of the public waters of this state," according to the proposed bill. Exempted persons would be required to register to hunt deer or wild turkey, at 25 cents.

The majority of new funds expected would be derived from resident hunting license sales, up to $1,500,000, and fishing licenses, increased about the same. Third largest amount would be another half million by repealing the landholder exemption on hunting.

Post school lunchroom menus for the coming week are as follows:

Texas cowboy in rodeo top spot

DENVER, Colo. — Phil Lyne has done it. In one month he's come from nowhere to lead the all-around championship standings, the Rodeo Cowboys Association said here today.

He moved into the number one slot after the recent Edmonton, Alta., Canada, rodeo. Lyne, 23, of George West, Tex., was crowned all-around cowboy at Edmonton by winning $2,008 in calf roping, bareback bronc riding and bull riding. His total earnings for 1971, of $13,185 make him the "winningest" cowboy of the season.

Lyne, who competes in the five major events at each rodeo, made his bid to lead in all-around competition by winning more than $7,000 at the Houston, Tex., Astrodome rodeo, which ended March 7. After Houston, he was sitting third in all-around standings, which are based on winnings.

Since Edmonton, Lyne's winnings are above those of Paul Mayo, of Grinnell, Iowa, who has led in winnings throughout most of 1971.

Texas teachers strike down 4 Code provisions

AUSTIN — Texas teachers struck down four provisions contained in the Proposed Code of Ethics and Standard Practices for Texas Educators.

Results of the state-wide referendum showed that educators rejected the provisions concerning felony convictions or misdemeanors involving moral turpitude, outlawing the right to strike, evaluation by superiors, and enforcement of the code itself by the Professional Practices Commission.

Texas Classroom Teachers Association, representing over 45,000 teachers, had officially opposed the entire code, and worked actively for its defeat, urging teachers to write across their ballot, "I support the Code of Ethics of the Education Profession."

TCTA President, Oather E. Raynes, said, "We thought the entire code was an unsuitable instrument to govern the behavior of the profession. However, we are pleased to see that the most objectionable provisions of the code were thrown out by teachers."

Raynes stated that TCTA had urged support of the Code of Ethics of the Education Profession already adopted by the National Education Association and Texas State Teachers Association.

Information released by the Texas Education Agency indicated the statement, "I support the Code of Ethics of the Education Profession" had appeared on a significant number of the referendum ballots.

Mercy Hospital at Slaton may have to close

SLATON—A citizens' group has been appointed here to explore possible solutions in keeping Mercy Hospital operating, according to J. C. McCleskey, Chamber of Commerce president.

Hospital officials announced two weeks ago that "the Sisters of Mercy no longer have the resources to maintain the hospital and make a long-range commitment to the community."

Officials indicated that the hospital might have to close in the near future unless citizens of the community and area come to its rescue.

An evaluation team from St. Louis, Mo., had visited here and reviewed the hospital's problems. They estimated a minimum of $50,000 would be required to bring the hospital up to state and federal requirements.

The main physical requirements at the hospital now include installation of fireproof doors, a sprinkler system for fire safety, and a new fire escape to accommodate litter patients.

Area post offices hit by burglars

U. S. postal inspectors and the Kent County sheriff's department are investigating burglaries early Monday at the Claiborne and Girard post offices.

At Claiborne nothing was taken from the post office, but a half dozen packs of cigarettes were discovered missing from a nearby cafe.

Loss was considerably greater at Girard, where burglars took $60 in cash and $507 worth of stamps from the post office. The intruders also broke into a farm supply store and took about $250 in antique coins, several stereo tapes, a toaster and $85 in cash.

Washington Monument was dedicated Feb. 21, 1885.

Solons back to work on drafting tax bill

AUSTIN — Serious financial business faced the state legislators on their return to the capitol after spending the Easter holiday with the homefolk.

A Senate sub-committee immediately began drafting a tax bill which is expected to exceed $550 million. That is the minimum amount needed to balance the upper house version of the budget from a smorgasbord of proposals already aired.

Both the House and the Senate are due to take up and pass their respective appropriations bills, already drafted, and move the issue of budgeting into a 10-member conference committee of top legislators.

The big battle in the Senate over revenue-raising, may be on a liberal-backed proposal to levy a new corporation income tax. More than a dozen votes are regarded as firm for the corporate profits tax, with three or four more senators rated as "possibles."

Senators are cool toward the $492.5 million tax package sent over from the House — first, because they regard it as inadequate and, second, because it places the bulk of the load on consumers and students. The bill would raise the sales tax three-fourths of one percent to four per cent, hike college tuitions and mark up the corporate franchise tax 50 cents per $1,000.

Earlier, and for the first time, the Senate voted against permitting floor amendments on tax proposals which have not been subject to public hearing.

Here are some of the major tax proposals which have been made to the Senate State Affairs Committee:

— A corporate profits tax of six per cent, which would produce an estimated $600 in two years.

— Increase the sales tax to four per cent, to bring in $279.8 million.

— Two cents a gallon gasoline tax increase, to promote $92 million to the state and $30 million to cities and counties for highway matters.

— A beer tax boost to $10 a barrel, $85 million.

— Pipeline tax, $30 million.

TEXAS ASSOCIATION

Southland residents host Easter guests

By TOMMIE WILKE
Hello, dear readers. How was your Easter holiday? Hope yours was as happy as Edmund's and mine. We had all our children home for the first time in a year, and of course we had our little Lea Ann here and I could write a whole page on how sweet and smart and good she is — uh — but I won't! It is wonderful to be a grandmother, but we tend to brag a little too much. Right? Larry, Martha, and Lea Ann left Monday morning for Gila Bend, Ariz. Sherri left Tuesday for Seguin and Darrell went back to Tech Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Boatman from Toyah, Texas, spent a few days in Southland during the Easter holidays.

Mrs. Cookie Winterrowd, Breonne and Jerry, spent a week in Fort Worth and Lake Whitney visiting with her mother and sister.

Visitors in the D. D. Pennell home over the Easter weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bryant and family from Alamogordo, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Long from Post, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pennell and Kim from Lubbock and Mrs. Karen Callaway, Jay and Stacy of Southland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Callaway and Jay Callaway spent a week at the Big Bend park and Fort Davis. They took their cycles along and did quite a bit of riding.

Mrs. Donald Wayne Crawford was honored with a "pink and blue" shower in the home of Mrs. J. M. Riney of Slaton Saturday afternoon, April 10. Yellow and white were carried out in the decorations and cookies, coffee, punch, mints and nuts were served to approximately 15 guests.

Recent guests in the home of Mr.

and Mrs. Edmund Stolle were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Saage from Slaton and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stolle.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Stolle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gindorf and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steinhauser recently visited with Mrs. Walter Steinhauser at Wilson.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers over the Easter holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Beatty and David from El Paso; Mrs. Billy Stephenson from Abilene, K. D. Myers, Jack's dad; Mr.

and Mrs. Fred Myers and son of Post and Mr. and Mrs. Ned Myers and family of Hereford.

Some of the company in the Carl Wartes home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cummings and children and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stahl and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gravel and family visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ellis, Easter.

We extend our deepest sympathies to the family of Jack Myers in the loss of Jack's cousin, Garland

S. Reese, 39, of Stephenville passed away last week. His funeral was held in Plainview Friday last week. May God comfort the family in their sorrow.

Mrs. Louise Denton Carr has been doing quite a bit of traveling recently. On March 3rd she accompanied her sister, Myrtle, to her home in Oklahoma. She stayed for a visit, returning to town on the 16th. On the 18th she went to visit her daughter and son-in-law in Dallas.

 Mr. and Mrs. Bob Corley
 Chicago, or really in Arlington
 Chicago. On the 22nd
 Carson and Mr. and Mrs.
 and Mr. Corley's mother
 Little Rock flew to Mexico
 There they went on a n y over the country, visiting restaurants and churches.

She said that there are approximately 3,200 churches in Mexi c o
 City alone. They took a ferry ride and even got to see John Wayne's home. Mexico City has a population of eight million. While there t h e y also attended a jal alai game. They went to Acapulco and enjoyed the beaches and beautiful scenery and restaurants. They visited different castles and palaces and also a pyramid. After a most interest ing trip, they returned to Chicago on the 30th of March, and Mrs. Carson returned to Slaton on April 6.

 She said that the weather was just lovely, cool enough to wear a sweater in the evening but just right in the daytime. She spent Easter Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Denton and visited the Southland Baptist Church that morning.
 Mr. and Mrs. Larry Long, M. r. and Mrs. Bob Long and Cathy and Mr. J. H. Poindexter recently returned from a trip to Gilmer where they visited with Mr. and Mrs.

Marvin Black and family. She is a daughter of the Longs. They stayed from Saturday until Thursday. They had a "get-together" of five generations while there. How great! Mr.
 Poindexter stayed down there for a longer visit with relatives around Dallas.
 Cathy Long spent from Frida y until Sunday in New Home with Cindy Raindl.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dunn took a little excursion Sunday, stopping by Lowake for lunch and then going on to Abilene where t h e y visited with a sister-in-law. If you have never eaten at the Steak

 House in Lowake, you have missed a real treat, because they do serve delicious steaks!
 Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hopper h a v e returned from a trip to Truth or Consequences, N.M., where the y took some of those hot baths.
 Mrs. Bertha O'Keefe spent the
 ther, Mrs. Ed Lieske, Bill and August.

The Rev. C. T. Jordan, pastor of the Southland Baptist Church, reported a good crowd at church on Easter Sunday.

 with her parents, Mr. and M r s.
 Walter Stolle, during the Easter holidays.
 Mrs. Otto Klaus is still a patient in Mercy Hospital, Slaton.
