Eight charged here with possession of marijuana

Eight young people, all but one of them from Post, were charged here over the weekend with possession of marijuana, and a 16-year-old local juvenile has been turned over to authorities of Crosby County where he is on probation after also being picked up for marijuana possession.

Sheriff J. A. (Jimmy) Holleman led an early Saturday morning raid of three officers on a Garza Hotel room where four were arrested.

The other five were apprehended early Sunday morning in Scenic Outlook park off US-84 on the caprock's rim by Deputy Les Brown and City Patrolman Jerry Jolly while making a "vandalism check" of the park.

Arrested in the hotel room were Allen Muri Hayes, 21, of Lubbock; Clifford James Redman, 26, of Post; Augustine Cerda, 17, of Post; Bonnie Jay Hart, 17, of Post; and Cindy King, 21, of Post.

Redman has been released on a $1,500 bond and Cindy King on a $1,500 bond. Both Hayes and Bonnie Jay Hart were being held in the county jail here yesterday unable to make bond.

Arrested at Scenic Outlook Park on possession charges were Cruz Villanuevo, 23, of Post; Elias Martinez, 20, of Post; Jesse Cerda, 18, of Post; Augustina Cerda, 17, of Post; and the juvenile.

All but the minor are now out on bond. Bonds were set at $1,000 for Martinez and the two Cerdas, Villanuevo's bond was set at $1,500. He also was charged with possessing an instrument for smoking a narcotic drug.

All the marijuana charges against the eight adults have been filed in Justice of the Peace Racy Robinson's court and are awaiting grand jury action.

PLAQUES PROUDLY DISPLAYED

George L. Miller shows the plaque awarded the Post Music Club as Organization of the Year.

Potts (right), newly-installed president of the Chamber of Commerce, presents Mr. and Bobby Cowdrey a special Farm Family of the Year plaque at the Chamber banquet.

Top individuals and groups honored at Chamber event

Chamber of Commerce's "Man of the Year" award, and a "Farm Family of the Year" plaque, a special presentation from incoming Chamber president J. B. Potts, went to Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cowdrey of the Graham community.

Since a total of 315 tickets were sold and only 26 less than that number attended the banquet, it is believed a new attendance record would have been set had it not been for snowy and slushy roads and streets, the result of a six-inch snowstorm early Thursday morning. The record attendance at a Chamber banquet here is 301, set at last year's event.

The guest speaker was W. B. Harris Jr., director of development, Texas Tech University Medical School Foundation, who outlined the impact the School of Medicine at Texas Tech will have on West Texas.

The Rev. Mr. Miller, who is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was cited for, among other things, his work as president for five years of the Community Action Committee, a position which he only recently resigned; his services to the Community Center.

MEETING SET TUESDAY

A policy advisory committee for Post's proposed "meals on wheels" program was named Tuesday night and an all-out effort will be made to have finalization of the plans ready for decision at a meeting next Tuesday night at 7:30 p. m. in Darby Don's Restaurant.

Persons 60 years of age or over who cannot prepare or have a hot meal prepared for them are eligible to be recipients of the program and should contact Mrs. Tubbs, Mrs. Shelia Wells, or Mrs. Dana Feaster.

Mrs. Tubbs has been named chairman of the advisory committee and the executive director of program arrangements.

Volunteers to deliver the meals are being sought, as well as senior (See Hot meals, Page 8)

'Meals on Wheels' plans progressing

Major actions at the February meeting, trustees extended contracts of High School Principals Pollard, Junior High Principal Billy Hahn, Elementary Principal Jack Alexander and Athletic Director Bobby Shriver in recommending performance contracts for teachers.

They did not have sufficient time to prepare the education contracts for individualized instruction in their courses during the year.

They will be paid on performance contracts for the year. If they do not have sufficient time to prepare, they will be paid on a per diem basis. If they do not have sufficient time to prepare, they will be paid on a per diem basis. If they do not have sufficient time to prepare, they will be paid on a per diem basis.

Last Thursday was quite a day. First an eight-inch snowstorm in the morning and then a record breaking Chamber banquet that night.

We won't guess how long it has been since Post had an eight-inch snow dumped on it, but it's certainly been years.

The Chamber banquet set a record in most tickets sold—315—in paying its own way via ticket sales, and in the most jokes ever told.

We hear J. B. had one left over and although a whole week has gone by since he hasn't found anybody to tell it to yet.

The "outstandings" were truly outstanding and very deserving and were some of our "favorite doers."

We had just one Chamber project left over from our year and we hope to get that one wound up maybe next week. Commonwealth Theaters' district manager in Dallas, Bert English, agreed to have the entrance of the old Garza Theatre boarded up (which has been done) and last week agreed to let somebody rip down the old marquee and cart it off.

Earl Chapman has volunteered to get the marquee down as a community goodwill project, but English has us "holding" for approval from the theatres' Kansas City office.

One of these days you'll drive by and it won't be there any longer—which will be another town eyecore scratched off the list.

Did you know that some other West Texas towns are just starting to look into some of the "cleanup projects" we've had going here in Post for years—specifically the getting rid of "abandoned houses" and "junk cars."

Mayor Giles McCrary is to be congratulated for sticking doggedly to this continual cleaning up process. Post is just about the cleanest city in these two categories in West Texas today.

As usual there hasn't been much political stirring for the spring school and city elections. The filing deadline is next Thursday. Usually when interest is light the electorate is pretty generally satisfied.

SHARES 3 PROJECT COSTS WITH CITY

Garza allocates first year's revenue funds

The Garza County Commissioners Court last Thursday morning at a special meeting voted to share financing of three local projects with the City of Post, allocating $66,930.50 of federal revenue sharing funds received by the county in recent weeks for the year 1972.

The three shared projects, for which the county agreed to pay $10,503.03, are:

(1) Half the cost of local funding of the Garza County Community Action program, beginning March 1, now that federal funding of this program has been withdrawn, or $3,431.50. (The city at a special meeting last week approved an expenditure of up to $3,500 for its share.)

(2) $5,625 for the Chamber of Commerce to proposal to furnish the room between the post office and bank as a combined center and for the cost of operation of a youth center program, including a salaried youth director, for the first year. This is 37½ per cent of the $15,000 requested by the Chamber. (The city council has yet to act on this proposal.)

(3) $1,746.53, or half the annual cost of the librarian's salary at the Post Public Library, as requested by Post Public Library trustees. The librarian's salary is now being paid by federal funds due for cutoff either June 30 or Aug. 31 of this year by the President's impounding of funds.

The other $56,127.47 would be applied to county law enforcement salaries and equipment. This would include both the sheriff's and deputy's salaries.

Breakdown of the disposition of the $40,000 to the county commissioners precincts is as follows:

Precinct 1: Retirement of warrants totaling $4,730, expenditure of $902.40 for new culverts, and (See County funds, Page 8)

Natural gas rates due hike here next month

Gas rates in Post and other cities of Pioneer Natural Gas Company's West Texas Distribution System will go up in April, the company has informed city officials here.

The upward adjustment will amount to an increase of one and one-half cents per 1,000 cubic feet, but will not affect the minimum charge—only each 1,000 cubic feet of gas used above the minimum.

Gene Moore, local manager for Pioneer, told The Dispatch yesterday that the increase will amount to from 15 to 20 cents a month for the average user here. The increase will begin on meter readings made after April 15, Moore said.

The gas company reminded city officials here that "the rate ordinances in effect in the various cities... provide for an adjustment annually in the general service rate, either up or down, to reflect changes in the average cost of gas purchased for the Company's West Texas Transmission System during the previous calendar year."

START NEXT THURSDAY

Stock show and fair dates near

Judging of swine at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 8, will officially open the eighth annual Garza County Junior Livestock Show, which will continue through Friday and Saturday.

The annual Garza County Fair, held on the same day and at the same place—the county 4-H building—as the stock show, will have opened its doors to the public at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, two hours ahead of the opening livestock show event.

Following the opening night's swine judging, the stock show will continue Friday with the horse show set for 1 p.m. and the lamb judging for 7:30 p.m.

Steers will be judged at 9 a.m. Saturday and the sale of show animals is scheduled to get under way at 1 p.m., with buyers expected from over a wide area, according to Tommy Young, president of the Garza County Junior Livestock Association.

Monday and possibly other days early next week will be "work days" at the show barn, with stock show officials getting things in (See Stock show, Page 8)

NEW MANAGER SAYS

Help is big need at Little Foundry

Sam Park, Lubbock businessman who recently purchased a majority interest in The Little Foundry Corp. here from George Carter, told The Dispatch yesterday:

"Our biggest problem is getting sufficient help."

Park said he would "hire 15 more employees today if I could find them." The foundry payroll is down to approximately 15.

Park explained that "we can get all the business we can handle, but we've got to get more employees who want to work to get anywhere I would prefer to hire experienced foundry people, but I'd hire them if they were just willing to learn," Park told The Dispatch.

Carter, who brought the foundry to Post last year from Lorenzo, retains an interest in the firm and heads its foundry operations and development department.

Park, a Texas Tech grad himself, says if he can't solve his help problem any other way, he may have to put on a 4 p.m. to midnight shift of Texas Tech students and transport them back and forth to Lubbock daily.

(See Help-needed, Page 8)

Post Rotary Club names Grant Lott president-elect

Grant Lott, owner and operator of White's Auto store here, is the new president-elect of the Post Rotary Club.

He will succeed Jack Alexander as head of the organization at the beginning of the new club year July 1.

The new slate of officers, elected recently by Rotary directors, were announced at the club's weekly luncheon in City Hall Tuesday.

Other officers are J. R. Bell, first vice president; Alexander, second vice president; James Mitchell, reelected treasurer; Lou Marks, reelected secretary; Bob Collier, sergeant-at-arms; Bill Pool, reelected bulletin director.

Directors are Syd Wyatt and Syd Conner for one additional year, and Don Smith and Dr. Charles Tubbs for two years.

Jerry Baird, director of guidance and counseling at Western Texas College at Snyder, in a luncheon talk praised Post for both its heritage and its future.

Predicting that the smaller towns are coming back, Baird said the community college at Snyder is "a new step, in a new era, in a new direction."

Tom Blacklock dies Wednesday

Thomas J. (Tom) Blacklock, 79, a resident of Post and Garza County since 1928, died about 7:30 o'clock last night in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock where he had been a patient for about a week.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Trinity Baptist Church with the Rev. Rex Newkirk, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Mason Funeral Home.

Blacklock, who was born April 21, 1893, in Callahan County, was a retired farmer and for many years was custodian at the Garza County courthouse.

Survivors include his wife, Fannie; one son, Roy Blacklock of Cleburne; three daughters, Mrs. Ruby Nell Davis of Post, Mrs. Frances (Pauline) White of Monterey Park, Calif., and Mrs. Claudine Hickerson of Garden Grove, Calif.; three brothers, Virgil and Pat Blacklock, both of Post, and Bill Blacklock of Miles, Tex.; one sister, Mrs. Bessie Franks of Stephenville; 14 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

16½ inches of February snow

After 16½ inches of snow in February—eight of them coming last Thursday—Garza County's harvest is still a week away from getting under way again.

That is, if it doesn't rain or snow any more for a while.

Only Planters Gin has resumed operations since last week's snow. Most county gins have been shut down by bad weather for the last three weeks.

Altogether, Post officially received .86 of an inch of moisture in eight inches of snow last Thursday—the biggest snowstorm here in probably 20 years.

For the winter Post has received a total of 26 inches of snow. That includes 2½ inches in November, none but traces in December, 7 inches in January and 16½ inches in February.

Junior class play set for Saturday

The junior class of Post High School will present its class play, "The Stuck Pot," at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, March 3, in the primary school auditorium.

30 'senoritas' to visit Post Friday

Thirty students from the National School for Teachers in Mexico City will make a visit to Burlington Industries' Postex Plant here this Friday.

The students arrived in Lubbock by chartered bus Monday to begin their week-long visit in Lubbock and at other places in the area.

The "Operation Senorita," now in its 11th year, is sponsored by Junior League of Lubbock, Inc.

During the last few years, the students and their trip sponsors have been guests at a reception at the home of Mayor and Mrs. Giles C. McCrary following their tour of the textile plant.

Dave Roberts new deputy sheriff

Dave Roberts, formerly of Muleshoe, began his new duties here this morning as a deputy in the county sheriff's office, filling a vacancy created by the resignation of Jim Pippin several months ago.

Roberts, who is 27 and single, has had law enforcement experience with the Bailey County sheriff's department, the Bosque County sheriff's department and the Cleburne police department.

We congratulate the Girl Scouts

On another page of today's Dispatch is a full-page advertisement sponsored by the merchants and other business and professional men and women of Post congratulating the Girl Scouts of the city on the occasion of Girl Scout Week.

Young people today are facing enormous challenges on what the quality of life will be in the future. How they meet the problems of a rapidly changing society will test their ingenuity, imagination, and abilities. How they prepare themselves to meet these challenges is of utmost importance.

One youth-serving organization which is taking the lead in involving young people in many self-directed, self-planned projects are these same Girl Scouts of the United States of America whom we are congratulating this week. Some GSUSA endeavors are directly related to the quality of our country's physical environment; others concern the inter-relationship of people, and youth participation in planning and decision making.

This concept of responsible citizenship and services with others has always been a basic one in Girl Scouting. Today's Girl Scouts are involved in projects to help close the gaps separating economic, racial, cultural, and age groups. Across the country, girls and adults from urban, suburban, and rural areas are working in partnership with national and local community groups toward these goals.

Prepared by their training, these girls give millions of hours of service to their communities. In day camps for ghetto children, in migrant worker camps, in head start programs, in various tutorial programs, in senior citizen projects, in hospitals, schools and libraries, on Indian reservations, and in hundreds of quality environment projects—Girl Scouts of all racial, economic, and cultural backgrounds contribute their skills.

During this Girl Scout Week, marking the organization's 61st birthday, we, along with other Post business firms, extend our thanks and congratulations to the nearly four million girls, men and women in Girl Scouting.

Big events set for March 8-10

With February fading out and March coming in, it's getting close to that time of year again—time for the annual Garza County Junior Livestock Show and Garza County Fair. The dates for both events are March 8, 9 and 10.

Both the livestock show and the county fair are needful of all the interest and support they can get—and both events are fully deserving of that interest and support on the part of the public.

Both the stock show and the county fair have grown from year to year and will continue to grow with our support. Stock show sponsors are mainly interested in lots of buyers at the Saturday afternoon sale of the youngsters' show animals. Sponsors of the county fair are mainly interested in lots of exhibits and lots of visitors to see those exhibits once they have been judged and opened to the public.

Let's give both the stock show and county fair sponsors what they want again this year—support, interest, buyers and exhibits—only in large quantities.—CD

Stepping in at the right time

Thanks to Garza County and the City of Post—and to revenue sharing funds from the federal government—our Community Action program is not left "high and dry," as it is in hundreds of other counties following the federal funding cutoff of Feb. 28.

The city council and the county commissioners' court are to be commended for their decisions to share the annual $6,863 cost of the operation.

Community Action has meant a lot to both the city and the county these last few years, especially in the assistance it has afforded minority groups. As part of the Community Action program in 14 South Plains counties, the operation has been built up to where it is doing a large measure of good here as an effective program. To have lost it would have been too bad.

Under local funding, the Garza County operation will continue as a part of the overall program in the 14 South Plains counties, the local committee has been assured by the executive director of South Plains, Inc., which administers the area program.

The executive director and program director of South Plains, Inc., foresee a return to some type of a federally-financed community action organization, possibly within 15 months. At such a time, they said, Garza County would receive its share and not be left out because of the local funding, which, as of March 1, is now keeping the operation going.

It was a case of the city and the county stepping in with revenue sharing funds at a time they were needed and needed badly to keep a worthwhile program from going down the drain.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

A certain national organization paid a team of researchers more than $200,000 to conduct a study of driver education across the country. After digging for facts, assembling them, shuffling them, and then recapitulating all reports, the researchers turned in their conclusions. Two of the basic findings were these: There isn't any real definition of good driving. And a further study is needed. —Buckhannon, W. Va., Record.

A real eye-opener to electric heating costs

Electric heating operating cost estimates usually surprise our customers. They expect electric heat to cost a good bit more. A factual, easily understood, written estimate opens their eyes to the fact it can cost little more than they've been paying. Thousands of our customers are heating electrically now because they asked for the facts about electric heating costs. Phone us today for an estimate. It's free. It's accurate. And, it's a real eye-opener.

THIS MONDAY morning it looks as if it might snow again. How many snows would that make for us for the season? Five? Six? I've lost count.

I know I've passed up pictures of some wonderful snowmen this winter, but we've had to adopt a policy here at The Dispatch of one snowman picture a season. If we didn't, there'd be no end to them. Since we ran that "one" snowman picture about a month ago, we've had a dozen or so calls to come make pictures of snowmen. I'm sure many of them have been as good or better than the one we made a picture of, but that "one" had ended it as far as pictures for The Dispatch were concerned.

THE MAN UP the street offers the sage advice that if you see a gunfight, get into it so you won't be shot as a bystander.

Every now and then, one of our compatriots rummaging around in his newspaper "morgue" comes up with one of those ancient literary gems which never seem to grow old.

Such was the case recently when Ollie Neudecker, editor of the Sleepy Eye (Minn.) Herald-Dispatch, came across a poem called "Grandmother's Perfect Day." Ollie dusted it off, set the type again, and ran it with the comment:

"The obvious comparison it draws between the attitude of today and not too many years ago makes it worth repeating."

I agree, so here 'tis: "Grandmother's Day."

Grandmother, on a winter's day,
Milked the cows and fed them hay,

Slopped the hogs, saddled the mule,
And got the children off to school.

Did the washing, mopped the floors,
Washed some windows, and did some chores.

Cooked a dish of home-dried fruit,
Pressed her husband's Sunday suit,

Swept the parlor, made the bed,
Baked a dozen loaves of bread.

Split some firewood, and lugged it in,
Enough to fill a kitchen bin.

Cleaned the lamps and put in oil,
Stewed some apples she thought would spoil.

Churned the butter, baked a cake,
Then exclaimed, "For mercy's sake

The calves have got out of the pen!"
Went out and chased them in again.

Gathered the eggs and locked the stable,
Back to the house and set the table.

Cooked a supper that was delicious,
And afterwards washed all the dishes.

Fed the cat, and sprinkled the clothes,
Mended a basket full of hose.

Then opened the organ and began to play:
"When You Come to the End of a Perfect Day."

SUCH A WOMAN! Poems like the one above don't do the women's liberation movement any good.

Sudden Thought: It's tough to pay what we're having to pay for meat, but it would be tougher if we paid less.

SINCE I'VE "plugged" so many other people and causes in this column, I'm thinking it's about time I got around to the fellows in the back shop—the printers. So, I'm reprinting the following lines written several years ago by Wilfred A. Peterson:

"I've been in groups where men have been talking about their work. There have been doctors and lawyers and businessmen of all types. But, as for me, I'm glad that I'm a printer.

"These men boast of their accomplishments . . . of their challenges overcome . . . of their long hours and hard work . . . of their battles won over obstacles, competition, disease and the minds of men. But, as for me, I'm glad that I'm a printer.

"For where would the doctor be if he didn't have the accumulated printed knowledge that has come down through the years because of printers like me? What would the lawyer do without his record of his law? The minister without his Bible? The businessman without his catalogs and price lists and training materials?"

"These men make their contributions . . . receive their due rewards . . . find justified satisfactions in their jobs. But, as for me, I'm glad that I'm a printer.

"My work makes people happy. It stimulates their minds. It challenges their ambitions. It feeds their souls. It makes them sing. It contributes to their well-being from the cradle to the grave.

"My work makes people sad. And yet, along with the sadness it brings the comfort of the poets, philosophers and great thinkers to lift men out of their sadness and

Easter Seal Appeal letters going out to Garza countians

Easter Seal Appeal letters are to be delivered this week in Garza County according to Mrs. Martha Compton, the Easter Seal representative. Mrs. Compton serves as contact representative for disabled persons needing Easter Seal rehabilitation services and also serves as treasurer of the Easter Seal Appeal in Garza County.

The Easter Seal Society offers physical and occupational therapy, speech and hearing programs, and special equipment loans to enable disabled persons to make the best use of their abilities to overcome handicaps. These services are financed by the annual Easter Seal Appeal.

The society also provides for research into the causes and cures of crippling conditions, finances public education programs, and provides scholarships for training of professional personnel to staff rehabilitation centers.

Mrs. Compton pointed out that all these programs are important if Texas is going to continue to provide the best in rehabilitation services for its own disabled citizens.

During 1972, the Texas Easter Seal Society provided treatment and services for 16,572 children and adults who were in need of assistance. Easter Seal services are available to any disabled person who can benefit from help provided by the Easter Seal Society, and who do not qualify for any other assistance, Mrs. Compton added.

The Easter Seal campaign will continue through Easter Sunday, April 22.

A wise man once said that it's actually better to owe a little—so it's only for a little

Yes, it is smart on credit, but it's smarter to pay your bills promptly.

Most people pay by credit—convenient and lets you take advantage of low rates "on the spot."

So keep your record spotless—by paying your bills promptly.

Post Merchants Salute POST GIRL SCOUTS

On the Approaching 61st Annual

GIRL SCOUT Week

Salute To Scouts Leaders, Too!

Those who make any beneficial youth program, such as the Girl Scouts "go" are the volunteer women leaders, who direct Girl Scout and Brownie units, and who serve on essential committees. You're doing a good job in helping the girls of our community.

Facts About the Girl Scouts . . .

1. Girl Scouts of the United States of America is the largest voluntary organization of girls in the world. Current membership is approximately four million.
2. Girl Scout Councils country wide are reaching out to the disadvantaged youngsters in their areas, with programs under the aegis of the Office of Economic Opportunity, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and many other federal agencies.
3. "Action 70" is a nationwide Girl Scout effort to help overcome prejudice and cement understanding among people.
4. Since the first troop of 18 girls took the Girl Scout promise in 1912 more than 23,000,000 members have made that promise to do their duty to God and Country, to help other people at all times, and to obey the Girl Scout laws of loyalty, honesty, courtesy, cheerfulness, kindness and thrift.

THE ANNUAL GIRL SCOUT

Cookie Sale

Is Now In Progress and Will End March 10

Each troop keeps 10 cents for every box of cookies the troop members sell. The remainder of the profit — 58 cents per box—will go for the improvement and upkeep of Camp Rio Blanco near Crosbyton.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT

relating to the abolition of the county school superintendent and the board of school trustees in Garza County; and declaring an emergency.
BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
Section 1. The office of county superintendent of schools and the county board of school trustees in Garza County are abolished. The county superintendent holding office on the effective date of this Act shall serve until the expiration of the term to which he was elected, and members of the board of school trustees shall serve until the expiration of the terms to which they were elected. If a vacancy occurs before the expiration of the term of office of the county school superintendent or of a member of the board, by resignation of the incumbent or otherwise, the office or position on the board shall cease to exist.
Sec. 2. All duties and functions of the abolished office of county school superintendent shall be performed by the superintendents of the independent school districts located in Garza County. All duties and functions of the abolished board of school trustees shall be performed by the boards of trustees of the independent school districts located in Garza County.
Sec. 3. All records and documents of the abolished office and board shall be transferred to the control and custody of the county clerk.
Sec. 4. All assets held in trust by the county board of school trustees shall be transferred to the county permanent school fund prior to the date on which the abolition of the board takes effect.
Sec. 5. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendar in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted. ttc 3-1

Chamber board begins planning

The Post Chamber of Commerce's new board of directors held its first luncheon meeting Monday noon at the Drover House Restaurant and discussed the organization's 1973 budget, the annual membership drive, and the filling of the upcoming vacancy of the Chamber's secretary.
No action was taken on any of them. Six applicants are seeking the secretary's job. Mrs. Wynonne Kennedy's resignation becomes effective over the weekend.
Mrs. Kennedy reported that 315 tickets were sold to the annual Chamber banquet—largest number in history—and that all banquet expenses were paid from ticket sales for the first time in many years.

Historians to host guests at meeting

The public is invited to attend the March meeting of the Garza County Historical Survey Committee, at which those who were honored at the Post Chamber of Commerce banquet will be special guests.
The historical survey committee meeting will be held at 10:30 a.m. in the bank community room.
The special guests at the meeting will be "Man of the Year" George L. Miller, "Woman of the Year" Patty Kirkpatrick, one or more representatives of the Post Music Club, "Organization of the Year" and "Farm Family of the Year" Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cowdreys.
The special guests will speak briefly on the accomplishments that earned them their honors at the Chamber of Commerce banquet, according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Borren, acting chairman of the historical survey committee.

IN HOUSTON HOSPITAL

Mrs. Andy Stelzer was undergoing x-rays and tests at Houston three week after having been taken there from a Lubbock hospital where she underwent minor surgery Saturday. No report had been received by relatives here late yesterday on the results of the tests, but it was learned that Mrs. Stelzer had not undergone additional surgery.

'Alcohol Abuse' to be topic of SPAG meeting

"The South Plains Regional Plan for the Prevention, Control and Treatment of Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism" will be the topic of an open hearing to be held at 7:30 tonight (Thursday) by the South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG) at the City Council chambers in Lubbock City Hall.
Conducting the public meeting will be the SPAG Alcoholism Advisory Committee, of which Garza County Judge Giles W. Dalby is chairman, and the Alcoholism Planning Commission.
In addition to being used as a guideline for alcoholism programming in the area, the South Plains regional plan will be incorporated into the Texas State Plan by the Texas Commission on Alcoholism.
Judge Dalby said 30 individuals of the SPAG Alcoholism Advisory Committee and Alcoholism Planning Commission have been developing the South Plains regional plan. Working on various facets of the plan, each individual has been asked to contribute ideas according to their interest or expertise.
In addition to various sections dealing with statistical data, the plan includes sections dealing with needs, priorities, and methods of implementation for alcoholism programs.
"The purpose of the public hearing," Judge Dalby said, "is to gain input from the general public as to what they consider are the needs and priorities of this major health problem."

Potluck

By ROSEMARY CHAPMAN
Non-farmers always seem to say the wrong thing to farmers about rain. If one comments, "Glad it's raining—must be good for the crops", they give you a baleful look, glance beseechingly toward heaven as if to say, "God save us from another one of these d u m m i e s", and walk painfully away.

On the other hand, if one says, "Sorry it's raining — must be bad for the crops", they do the same thing. It beats me. A farmer is a hard man to figure out on rain.

It must be that sometimes he wants it and sometimes he doesn't. Whichever he happens to want at the time, it's doing the other.

In the oil business, things are different. You always know exactly where to take your stand. Rain and snow are bad. Always. It shouldn't ever rain or snow.

When the ground is wet, an oilman can't get in to check his wells. Heavy equipment can't be moved in to work on his sick wells. A truck can't get in to move his oil out. Yessir, when it rains in the oilfield, grown men cry, wring their hands, whine, groan, sulk up and complain. What's worse, they do all this at home.

When the ground is wet in the oilfield, oilmen's wives are torn in two different directions at once. They hate to see the poor guys out of work. On the other hand, that's about the only time they get to see them. It's also about the only time they get to go any place.

The last time it snowed, Earl and I loaded the kids up in the Blazer and drove to Lubbock for the first time since the last time it snowed. We went to the movies, ate dinner at El Chico's, and went to a car show at the South Plains Mall (The two cars that were attracting the most attention were the Cadillac Eldorado and Lincoln Mark IV—very flashy, both of them, but I can't see paying half a house for a car that doesn't even have four doors.) It was a wonderful afternoon and evening.

When it rains or snows, an oilman's wife thinks of those weirdo magazines that you pass at the newsstands with covers advertising articles entitled, "My Secret Sin". Our secret sin is rain. We love it. Without it, we wouldn't have a social life.

Let's hear it from the farmer's wife!

The bride-elect is a 1970 graduate of Post High School and a junior student in Lubbock Christian College. The future bridegroom is a 1968 graduate of Arcadia High School in Phoenix and attended LCC. He is presently employed by Clark Equipment Company in Lubbock.

The wedding date has been set for June 22 in the Church of Christ in Post.

Library Listening Post

By GEORGE L. MILLER

For a guy who likes words and who never feels at a loss for something to say, it was humbling to be named Man of the Year and also myself speechless. The honor caught me off guard, and for once words failed me.

There was so much I would like to have said. Like the Oscar winner, going through the list of people who deserved thanks for helping him win this high honor, I could have spun quite a list myself. Whatever I may have accomplished was done with the hands of dozens of volunteers all of whom should share the praise with me.

I could have said quite a lot about Post and what it has meant to me and my family these past six and a half years. Anything I may have done for Post has been returned sevenfold in the friendships we've found here. You're our family and this is home.

But of all the things I wish I'd said, one thought tops all others. My reward last Thursday night came when Jim Cornish announced the action of the County Commissioners Court to fund the librarian's salary and the Community Action Program.

These two projects have been my special concern. Their success have meant the most to me, and their continuation has been my greatest hope and prayer. To hear that the county agrees, and that the city has also agreed to underwrite the Community Action work,

Mother's March raises $223.32

The annual Mother's March for the March of Dimes netted $223.32 in the local drive Monday evening. The March was sponsored again this year by the Gamma Mu Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority with Nell Morris as chairman.

The march began at 6:30 p.m. with several of the girls from the Future Homemakers of America chapter and local mothers making the block by block drive. The money was counted at the community room of the First National Bank by members of the Gamma Mu Sorority.

Proceeds from the drive will go toward research for the treatment and prevention of birth defects in the state.

Donations will be taken for the March of Dimes in connection with the Mother's March at a potluck supper at the Graham community center Friday night at 7:30.

The event will also include a musical by local talent.

was the highlight of the banquet. I can see a strong library serving our community for many years to come. The plans already are taking shape. The completed library promises to be an exciting place. The floor plan worked out by David Newby is tremendous. It will be easy to use and attractive to the eye. We're going to be proud of it, believe me.

Years from now, you may forget you ever called me Man of the Year, but if you are still enjoying an outstanding library, I'll be content.

The average person has about 10 pints of blood in his body. Giving one won't hurt.

Giving a pint of blood won't hurt you at all, but it will help several people continue to live or save the life of just one. That one pint of blood can be broken down and the coagulating factor used to stop a hemophilic from bleeding. It can be used in a transfusion for a person needing open heart surgery. Women hemorrhaging after childbirth. Or a child seriously injured in an accident. On the other side, donating blood is good for you. It stimulates a healthy person's bone marrow to produce more red cells. And it only takes a few minutes. Today, visit your nearest hospital, Red Cross center, or volunteer blood center and give a little of yourself.

Give blood. And give life.

This plea for blood sponsored by Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Texas, Texas Medical Association, Texas Hospital Association, Texas Osteopathic Medical Association, and Texas Osteopathic Hospital Association.

TAX ERRORS LISTED

Texas farmers and ranchers make a number of common mistakes each year that cost them additional dollars at income tax time.

With the deadline for filing farm income tax returns drawing near (March 1), key management decisions can still help reduce the tax load for 1972 by overcoming some common errors, point out Mike Sprott and Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

They list the major income tax mistakes made by agricultural producers as the following:

1. Letting the tax accountant do it all. Turning your tax records over to an "authority" may not be the best decision. Producers must know tax laws themselves and must "think taxes" with every management decision they make during the year. Be sure the tax accountant selected knows farm tax laws and that he asks you questions about your operations that may affect your taxes.

2. Poor planning. This is a major area with far-reaching effects. Included is the failure to buy or sell before the end of the year and the lack of attention to timing sales and trade-ins to transform ordinary income into capital gains.

3. Failure to claim investment credit. This also reflects on poor planning since trading an implement too soon will reduce the amount of investment credit that can be claimed. Using the 7 per cent investment credit can lighten the tax burden for many farm and ranch operations. Many items, when purchased new or when bought with a farm, qualify for investment credit. Items often forgotten include tile drains, feeding floors, paved drives, wells, fences and grain storage bins. Investment credit can be carried back three years to retrieve tax money previously paid and may also be carried forward seven years to save on future taxes. Use Form 1040K to claim any refund due for past years.

4. Poor record keeping. To take full advantage of tax credits, good records are a must. A good record-keeping system should meet the needs of production operations and tax record requirements. Often, overhead expenses such as publications, insurance, electricity, telephone, interest, repairs, and car and pickup expenses are overlooked.

5. Failure to watch tax changes. Tax laws and court rulings change from year to year. And the agricultural producer must keep abreast of all items that may affect his operation. Of special importance is the Keogh Act which provides for tax-free retirement benefits. The Act allows a deduction of 10 per cent of earned income or $2,500, whichever is less, to be set aside—tax free—in a qualified retirement plan. Also, up to $2,050 may be paid to each child annually for farm wages without losing their exemptions, and the child owes no tax as well.

6. Failure to use capital gains fully. Capital gains can be a major source of tax savings. A long-term capital gain means that only one-half of the profit is taxed if assets were held for six months or more, except for certain classes of live-

Lobban, a Post High School graduate, is a freshman Agricultural Education major.

JACK GORDON

Music scholarship to Post student at SPC

LEVELLAND — Word has been recently received from Kenneth Cuthbert, Dean of the School of Music at North Texas State University, Denton, that Jack Gordon of Post, sophomore music major at South Plains College, has been awarded a full scholarship in the field of voice. This scholarship was awarded through a competitive tryout that was held on the campus of NTSU on Jan. 27. A panel of six or seven, from the voice faculty served as judges for this vocal occasion. A large number of students, some who will graduate from high school this spring, and some as transfers from other junior colleges were on campus on this date for this competitive festival. North Texas has now the second largest school of music in the United States, with better than 1,250 students majoring in some area of music, Illinois University being larger. Gordon is a graduate of Post High School in Post. He became interested in singing while in high school. Jack states that he needed an extra credit during his sophomore year, so he thought choir would be the subject he would like to complete his schedule. Joining, he found a great love for singing. Gordon remarks, his interest has grown steadily ever since and plans to make singing a career. Jack is interested in opera, and plans to take full advantage of the opportunity to become deeply engaged in the Opera Workshop at North Texas.

At South Plains College, Gordon is a member of the Madrigals, SPC Choir, president of the Pi Zicanto (Music) Club, and was recently named to Who's Who among Students in American Junior Colleges.

Jack and his wife Mary Ann live in Levelland where she is employed with Paxton-Harder Agency.

Three other South Plains College music majors have gone to NTSU and were outstanding in the vocal field while attending the institution. These students are Sonny Rios, who graduated from SPC in 1962, Dorothy Garrett in 1964, Sandra Moreland in 1967. All were voice students of Harley Bulls, instructor in voice and chairman of the Fine Arts Department at South Plains College. Sonny is now in full time evangelistic work for the Southern Baptist Church, Dorothy is an elementary teacher in Fort Worth, while Sandra is a music teacher with the Midland Public Schools.

'Stable Home and Stable Life' is FHA meet topic

Monday night Future Homemakers of America met for a business meeting at 7 o'clock. Topic for the meeting was the state goal of "Stable Home—Stable Life".

To give ideas of how this is accomplished, there was a panel of three ministers, Robert Griffin of the First Baptist Church, Bob Ford of the Methodist Church, and Syd Wyatt of the Church of Christ. Questions were directed by Jan Bilbo, program chairman. Questions dealt with dating and its problems and relationships before and after marriage.

The answer for each question was given thorough thought and discussion and each preacher gave his views on the idea brought up by the question. Afterwards there was refreshments of lime punch and German chocolate cookies.

FHA would like to thank these men for giving their time to come and give this program, and also the faculty advisors, Mrs. Wheatley and Mrs. Mitchell.

Girls attending from the senior chapter were: Phyllis Eckols, Diana Collier, Connie Flores, Pam Feagin, Maude Cade, Nancy Maddox, Jan Burkett, Janet Childs, Judy Heintz, Melba Wynne, Jan Bilbo, Gail Browning, Debbie Ledbetter, Cathie Morris.

Attending from the junior chapter were: Becky Heaton Terri Clary, Cythia Morris, Christy Davis and Gienna Bevers.

School board—

is scheduled for the board's February meeting each year.

No salary increases, other than the addition of another annual experience increment to each salary, was considered except for Alexander who will receive a $500 boost as he is to begin taking over some of the responsibilities of the school system's curriculum director as well as to continue with his principal duties.

Deadline for filing for the school trustees' election will be March 5, which is next Thursday.

Positions 1, 2 and 3 are open on the board for two-year terms. Candidates for office must file for a particular trustee position by number.

Present incumbents are position No. 1, Earl Chapman, who has filed for re-election; No. 2, Giles W. Dalby; and No. 3, Mrs. Billie Windham. Neither Dalby nor Mrs. Windham have indicated as yet whether they will seek an additional term.

Trustees by resolution approved the proposed move to seek special legislative enactment of a bill to do away with the Garza county school superintendent's office, now held by Dean Robinson, and the Garza County School Board.

The county school board already has approved the proposal, as has the Garza County Commissioners Court. The Southland school trustees, which also must approve before the special bill is introduced at Austin, are expected to act next week at their March meeting.

Trustees approved the delay of the March board meeting to March 15 so that Dr. Harris of the University of Texas can report to the board on progress in changing the school curriculum over to "packet type instruction."

Mrs. Delores Kay Maley of Lubbock was employed to fill the speech-English vacancy in the high school faculty for the remainder of the current school year.

Two complaints from parents and the request of a transfer into the school district were discussed, with no action taken.

Stock show—

shape for the annual exhibition.

The county fair is sponsored by the county home demonstration council and clubs, but exhibits are open to everyone, including men. There will be divisions for both adults and youth in clothing, canning, crafts, culinary, handwork, flowers, antiques, agricultural products, and art.

All adult entries must be brought to the 4-H building between 8:30 a. m. and 12:30 p. m. on Thursday. The youth entries will be accepted from 4 to 6 p. m. Wednesday March 7. Educational booths may after 3 o'clock.

The fair will be open to the public from 3 p. m. until 9 p. m. Thursday, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Friday and from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Saturday. Exhibits may be claimed and picked up at 4 p. m. Saturday.

Judging of the fair exhibits will begin at 1:30 p. m. Thursday, March 8. The judging is closed to the public, but may be seen at 5 p. m. Thursday. The judges for the fair are: County Extension Agents Mildred Patterson and Jana Cobb of Lubbock County, Ruby Butts of Scurry County, and former Lynn County agent Linda Huffaker.

The concession stand will be operated all three days by the home demonstration clubs. A door prize of Ball jars and lids will be given away on Saturday. The winner must be present at the drawing at 3 p. m.

County funds—

$4,367.60 for rebuilding roads and applying caliche to such roads.

Precinct 2: Purchase of new precinct truck for $5,700; new culverts, $1,000; rebuild roads $3,200.

Precinct 3: Rebuild two bridges $6,000; rebuild roads $2,500; and new culverts $1,500.

Precinct 4: new bridge $5,000; replace culverts $1,000; retire warrant $3,000; and road rebuilding $1,000.

County Judge Giles W. Dalby said the expenditure of some of the federal revenue sharing funds for otherwise budgeted county items would permit a build-up in the county's general fund to the point where the county can discontinue borrowing from the bank on a short-term basis to get through its fiscal year.

The county, once approximately a year behind in revenues before reevaluating taxable property upward several years ago, borrowed $20,000 to get through fiscal year 1972, but only about $15,000 of the amount was actually needed, Judge Dalby said.

Post band qualifies four for state meet

Four members of the Post High School band have qualified to compete in the state band contests at the University of Texas in Austin the first week in June. Band Director Herb Germer has announced.

The students representing the Post band in the state contest will be Sherill Guichard, flute, and Jana McKemie, Jan Bilbo and Tina McAlister, twirlers.

TECH MAN IS SPEAKER

W. B. Harris Jr. (center), director of development for the Texas Tech University Medical School Foundation, was guest speaker at Thursday's annual Post Chamber of Commerce banquet. Here he chats with new president J. B. Potts and outgoing president Jim Cornish.

Chamber event—

as volunteer librarian of the Post Public Library; Chamber of Commerce activities, and his interest in music.

School Supt. Bill Shiver, who presented the awards to the outstanding man, woman and organization, referred to the song, "People Who Like People," in announcing Mrs. Kirkpatrick as the choice for woman of the year.

The wife of rancher K. W. Kirkpatrick, she has worked with both Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, is a member of the library board and Post Music Club, and has worked as a volunteer in various school programs.

The Post Music Club, recipient of the organization of the year plaque, was cited for its annual sponsorship of a Sacred Music Concert involving all of the city's churches, its recent organization of a Community Chorus, and music and band scholarships. The plaque was received on behalf of the club by Mrs. George L. Miller.

In presenting the farm family of the year plaque to Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cowdrey, Potts told of their success as a farm family after Cowdrey had decided to go into agriculture instead of some other line of work. The Cowdreys—Bobby and Jenny Lou—have five children.

Potts also presented an appreciation plaque on behalf of the Chamber to its outgoing president Jim Cornish, who earlier had presented plaques to outgoing directors, and introduced the holdover and new directors.

The directors who went off the board were: Mrs. W. M. Kirkpatrick, James Mitchell, Giles W. Dalby, Grant Lott and Bailey Mayo. Introduced as new members of the board were: Bob Macy, who was elected recently to complete the unexpired term of Mayo; Dr. William C. Wilson, Jack Alexander, Joe McCowen, Silas Short and Jim Wells. The holdover directors are: Earl Chapman, Walter Didway, Arthur "Be" Jackson and Ronald Simpson.

Cornish presented a $50 gift certificate on behalf of the Chamber to Mrs. Wynne Kennedy, who is resigning after two years as secretary. "She has always shown enthusiasm in her work and has done an outstanding job," Cornish said.

"Total commitment to progress in 1973" was asked of every Chamber member by the new president in his acceptance speech.

Some of the abstract and concrete goals mentioned by Potts as objectives for the future included "pride in your community," a youth recreational center, improvement in the housing situation, rural involvement, overnight camping facilities, new business firms, and continuation of efforts to build the proposed new Post Lake and have an interstate highway routed through Post.

"Let us forget yesterday and think of today and tomorrow with a positive approach," the new president said. "Post has a great future and we need to get together to see what we can do about it in 1973."

Potts told his audience that in a survey of a high school English class here, the students had indicated youth recreation as the community's No. 1 need, and pride in Post as No. 2.

The year 1972 was described as "a busy and productive" one for the Chamber of Commerce by Cornish in his president's report.

Enthusiasm on the part of officers and members was mainly responsible for a productive year, he said. "Credit for almost everything accomplished this year belongs to you members," Cornish concluded.

His president's report, listing the accomplishments of the year, from finishing 1972 "in the black" financially to a successful membership drive which gained 18 new member firms and seven new individual memberships, was inserted into the printed banquet program on a separately printed folder.

Mrs. Inez Hartel, president of the Women's Division of the organization, told of last year's projects, and installed new officers.

Last year, Mrs. Hartel said, the women's division sponsored the well-baby clinic, helped find homes for West Texas Boys Ranch boys here for the OS Ranch steer roping, helped with the ranch's western art exhibit and sponsored the Christmas Festival of Lights.

The officers installed and introduced by the president were: Marie Neff, first vice president; Patsy McCowen, second vice president; Betty Posey, secretary; Wynne Kennedy, treasurer; Nancy Jolly, reporter; Maxine Marks, parliamentarian, and Evelyn Neff, historian.

Syd B. Wyatt, minister of the Church of Christ, was master of ceremonies. The invocation was by the Rev. Robert Griffin, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Entertainment was by "The Quartet," a singing group of Margie Peggell, Marita Jackson, George L. Miller and Bob Stice, accompanied by the piano by Miss Dana Pool, who also played dinner music. "The Quartet" sang numbers ranging from popular to madrigal.

Harris, in his talk on the School of Medicine at Texas Tech, explained how the school curriculum differs from other medical school programs, the rural preceptorship with the school oriented to graduate students who wish to become general practitioners in small towns, and the regional academic centers planned.

Noting that there are 17 West Texas counties with no physician at all, Harris described the preceptorship program which will place with a physician in the area where he will "stay with him, work in the office and find out what it's like to run a medical practice in a small town."

"The student will realize that his patients are like his fellow students—to club with, to eat with, the people that are a part of his daily life."

"He will learn that there is more to being a physician than just caring for their ills."

Hot meals—

citizens who want to receive the meals.

Both the Post school lunchroom and Garza County Memorial Hospital have offered to prepare the noon meals and one or more individuals have expressed an interest in cooking them.

Jim Cornish, who heads the Garza County Community Action Committee, told the meals on wheels group Tuesday night that the South Plains Community Action Association, which has funds for a two-year experiment program, has offered to contract with the Garza Committee for a six months period and pay a lump sum to the county committee to finance the program here.

Mrs. Tubbs and Cornish will confer here Friday afternoon with John Moody of the South Plains organization on how to meet all necessary requirements for the funding.

The advisory committee Tuesday night decided to offer the daily hot meal to homebound senior citizens, the elderly who don't prepare or have hot meals available to them, and temporarily to patients just strong enough to resume cooking immediately.

The policy advisory committee elected includes Mrs. Foaster, Mrs. Wells, Wayne Thomas, Mrs. Nora Kiker, Mrs. Madie Johnson, Syd Wyatt, Mrs. Tubbs, Dr. Charles Tubbs, Jim Cornish and Dr. William Wilson.

Students, he explained, tend to settle in the area where they get their education. The school feels that the preceptorship program and future post-graduate work in these areas will have a definite effect on medical school graduates.

"Nationally, there is one doctor for every 804 persons, but in West Texas there is one for every 1,368," Harris said. The school will fill a real need by training physicians to stay in the area, he said.

"The great wealth of a nation lies in the health of its people," Harris said in conclusion.

The ham dinner was prepared and served by Jackson's Catering Service, with FHA girls doing the serving.

KENNY PRICE

WESTERN DANCELAND

Proudly Presents
KENNY PRICE

Friday, March 2

Kenny Price, the large-economy size of happiness who records for RCA is a rather contagious young man... you like him immediately.

Kenny's first record, "Walking On New Grass", spread through the record-buying, radio listening public and reached near-epidemic proportions.

It was what people were waiting for... it was different... it had an altogether new sound—a happy sound! You hear that same happy sound, with different variations, on Kenny's recordings of "Happy Tracks" - "Grass Won't Grow On A Busy Street" - "My Goal For Today," "Northeast Arkansas Mississippi County Bootlegger," "Biloxi" and "Sheriff of Boone County."

Kenny isn't classified as a new-comer to the entertainment world, in fact, Kenny is a veteran Television performer of some thirteen years—five years of which gained him national exposure on the network show "Midwestern Hayride" as lead singer for the Home-Towners.

People who meet Kenny Price for the first time are impressed with his good natured personality—old friends always feel good in his company. It would seem that life itself offered Kenny a choice, and he said without hesitation, "Make Mine Happiness!"

On camera, on stage, or on a record, you're in for a real treat when you see or hear RCA's Round Mound of Sound—Mr. Happiness—Kenny Price!!!!

Help needed—

"I've done just about everything I know to do to find workers," Park said. "I even offered to put on my own bus from Lubbock daily if the Texas employment office there could recruit me some help. But they couldn't get them." Park, who is new to the foundry business but has had considerable management experience in a variety of firms, says the foundry business is too good an opportunity to abandon. "Maybe I'll have to move it to Lubbock if I can't get workers here," he said.

Most trackmen to compete in Bulldog Relays at Spur

More entries in every event in Saturday meet

Antelopes will enter track and field competition as a team Saturday in the Bulldog Relays at Spur.

Coach Lane Tannehill named a tentative list of entries for Saturday's Bulldog Relays, but stressed that the list was only tentative and might be "changed around some" after this week's workouts.

Of the 27 athletes on the Antelope squad, 19 are sophomores, five are juniors and three are seniors.

The tentative entry list for the Spur meet is as follows:

100-yd. dash: David Conoly, Dennis McDonald, Jerry Tyler.

220-yd. dash: Danny Lee, Kelvin Thomas, Dennis McDonald.

440-yd. dash: Ruben Ayala, Ricky Shepherd, Roger Taylor.

880-yd. run: Randy Kennedy, Chris Wyatt, Andy Torres.

1-mile run: Mark Bevers, Jerry Johnson, Jay Kennedy.

120-yd. high hurdles: Jackie Blacklock, Kent Kirkpatrick, Mark Terry.

330-yd. intermediate hurdles: Blacklock, Kirkpatrick, Terry.

440-yd. relay: Shepherd, Tyler, McDonald, Lee.

1-mile relay: Tyler, Shepherd, Ayala, Taylor.

Shot put: Roger Pace, Jay Pollard, Tim Owen.

Discus throw: Owen, Pollard.

Pole vault: Randy Babb, Sammy Gutierrez.

High jump: Lee, Tyler, Shepherd.

Long jump: Lee, Shepherd, Ayala.

Track field teams first action

Four District 5AA teams — Post, Tahoka, Denver and Slaton — picked up the first track and field season over the weekend.

The defending district champion, scored 38 points for a first place finish behind Ozona and in the Comanche Relays at Slaton. Post, taking only 10 points to the meet, scored 38 points, and Denver City.

JV division is added to relays

A junior varsity division has been added to the second annual Postex Relays to be held here in April, Coach Bobby Davis said this week.

The junior varsity division will be in addition to the 7th grade, 8th grade and freshman divisions, Coach Davis said.

It was stated in last Thursday's Dispatch that at the District 5AA junior high track and field meet to be held here in April, the freshman teams from the district schools would also compete. This was an error, however, since the freshmen will compete at Denver City at the same time the district meet is held for the high school division.

MOORE LEADING SCORER, REBOUNDER

Post cage statistics are listed by coach

Coach John Alexander's Post Antelopes, who ended their 1972-73 basketball season with an impressive 20-7 record, were led in both scoring and rebounds by Reggie Moore, who was named to the All-South Plains Class AA team picked by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

Although missing the first two of the Antelopes' games, Moore finished with a 376-point scoring total for a 15.0 game average, and 502 rebounds for a 20.0 game average.

Moore also led in field goal averages with 49 per cent, hitting 90 of 179 of 349 attempts. His free throw average of 46 per cent was fourth lowest among the 'Lope starters, however.

Moore pulled down 200 offensive and 302 defensive rebounds.

Post's other big man, Steve Hays, was second in scoring with 339 points in 27 games for a 12.6 average. He was also second in rebounds with 294 for an average of 10.9 a game.

Hays' field goal percentage was 45 per cent, and he was 50 per cent at the free throw line. He was second only to Moore in field goal percentage and ranked third among the starters in free throw percentage.

Roger Pace was third in rebounds with 248, an average of 9.1 a game. He scored a total of 84 points for a 3.1 average.

Ricky Shepherd and Danny Lee waged a close race for third place in total scoring, with Shepherd nosing out Lee by 234 to 228 points—an average of 8.7 a game to Lee's 8.5. Lee's field goal percentage was 38 per cent, hitting on 91 of 241 attempts. Shepherd put the ball in the air from the field 176 times and connected on 72 for 41 per cent.

Shepherd had the highest free throw percentage of any of the starters, connecting on 90 of 131 for 69 per cent. Lee hit 46 of 83 from the charity stripe for 55 per cent. In rebounds, Lee grabbed off 82 for a 3.0 game average, and Shepherd, 73 for an average of 2.7 a game.

Johnny Jefferson, who was a starter until forced out of the lineup by a leg injury, scored 176 points in 18 games for an average of 9.8 a game. He had a 42 per cent field goal average and a 63 per cent free throw average.

Of the other squadmen, Rodney Compton played in 23 games, scoring 40 points for a 1.5 average; Randy Kennedy in 19 games, scoring four points; Robert Mindieita in 17 games, 17 points; Bill Hadden in 21 games, 22 points; and Rusty Conner in 20 games, 25 points. Conner and Compton led the reserves in rebounds, with 43 and 40, respectively.

The 'Lopes scored a total of 1,544 points in the 27 games to their opponents' 1,269. They also outrebounded the opposition, 1,372 to 927. The 'Lope game scoring average was 57.2 to their opponents' 47.0.

Reggie Moore named to All-South Plains team

Post Antelope Reggie Moore was one of three District 5AA cagers named to the Class AA All-South Plains basketball team announced in Sunday's Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

The other two District 5AA players to make the select team were Lyndall Trout of the championship Denver City team and Jay DePanion of Frenship.

Both Moore and Trout are listed as seniors, while DePanion, a junior, will be back to help the Frenship cause in next season's court campaign.

Moore, who is 6-2 in height, led all 10 team members in rebounds with 502 for a 20.1 average. Of his 502 rebounds, 302 came off the defensive boards.

Moore's scoring average for the 25 games in which he played was 14.9 per game.

DePanion scored at a 19.1 per game clip and averaged 5.2 rebounds a game. Denver City's Trout averaged 12.5 a game in scoring and 13.1 in rebounds. He is 6-3 and DePanion is 6-1.

Other members of the All-South Plains team are: John Clark of Lockney, Mark Dovel and Jerry Teel, both of Tulla, Jimmy Harvey and Ted Thomas, both of Morton, Ray Martin and Dick Rogers, both of Abernathy, and Kenny Ringo of Dimmitt.

DePanion and Abernathy's Rogers tied in scoring leadership with a 19.1 average per game.

Carl Irilbeck of Abernathy was named coach of the year after leading Abernathy to a 29-0 mark before they lost to Morton in the playoffs, and Dick Rogers of Abernathy was tabbed player of the year.

NANCY RENO TOP REBOUNDER

Tina McAlister led in Doe JV scoring

Tina McAlister, with 206 points in 12 games for a 17-point average, was this season's top scorer for the junior varsity Post Does, who finished the season with an 8-4 record.

Tina's field goal percentage was 36 — hitting 93 out of 270 — and she had a free throw shooting percentage of 53, sinking 19 of 36. Her high point game was 29 points.

First Baptists to show film at 7 p. m. Sunday

"Though I Walk Through the Valley," a new and different motion picture, will be shown at the Community Center during the evening service of the First Baptist Church this Sunday, March 4, at 7 p.m.

This film is unique in that it tells in motion picture the last six months of the life of college professor Tony Brouwer, who had terminal cancer. Unexpectedly he and his family faces new questions, new fears as death confronts life and is the loser. Filmed to show the warm tenderness a Christian father has for the family he must leave behind, it also displays the love and courage of his wife and daughters as they learn to "walk through the valley of the shadow of death."

"Though I Walk Through the Valley" is not the typical deathbed story, nor is it aimed at the tear ducts. It simply illustrates how a man can live his life so that when death comes he can meet it as a friend tenderly, and gently in Christian hope.

The public is invited to the showing of this film.

LIVING WITH CHILDREN

Living with children, unfortunately, is not always easy. But by channeling actions, we can avoid

"head-on" clashes with children. Many problems can be short-circuited if imagination is used and outlets provided for feelings.

Instead of punishing a child, consider letting him take the consequences for his actions. When you start thinking about it, this approach makes a lot of common sense. For example, if he hits another child, going without companionship tells him what his behavior accomplished. If he insists on running through mud puddles without boots, staying inside while his shoes dry is more effective than scolding.

However, this method isn't always easy on parents. It may be quicker, easier and neater to do many things yourself, but the goal is to give the child responsibility for his own behavior.

Below are six guidelines which encourage the "positive" approach to living with children.

1. Give Commands in Line with a Child's Nature. Commands often interfere with a toddler's natural curiosity, exploration, sense of adventure and perpetual motion. For example, if the child enjoys getting into drawers, furnish him one of his own. By diverting his behavior through a substitute, reprimands will diminish.
2. Consider the Child's Ability and Your Expectations. Match expectations to his current abilities. After all, it takes time for a toddler to get without creating some mess.
3. Have More "Do's" and Fewer "Don'ts". Use the positive approach—it works wonders with youngsters. Indicate what to do, not what not to. Instead of "Quit jumping on the sofa this minute," try "Let's see how high you can jump on the floor." Once a command has been given, follow it through.
4. Change the Environment to Achieve Desired Behavior. Three tools are anticipation, diversion and substitution. For example, in order to get a toddler to the bathroom, tell him to "Go find the soap." Whistling often adds a musical element.
5. Set Limits. Although a child definitely needs limits, balanced (rather than imposed) limits are necessary. A reasonable number is beneficial—so long as the child knows where he stands.

However, limits shouldn't be considered restraints, but channels for normal behavior. A youngster needs things he can touch and places he can go, as well as those he shouldn't.

In general, a child can't always control his own impulses. He may vary from great independence at times to clinging dependences. Protect him from real harm, but not to the point he becomes upset over minor hurts. When setting limits, don't tear the child down. Give love and praise generously.

6. Show Your Love. From the time they're infants, talk things over with children. Sing to them, read stories and recite nursery rhymes. Show they're respected as persons.

In addition, indicate your love for others. The concept of sharing and taking turns is often difficult for small children to accept. Thus, sharing should be on terms they understand—such as the counting technique. An example of this is letting each child bounce on the horse for a count of 25. Young children seem to understand this is fair.

Teaching a child to take responsibility for himself can be easy if parents are consistent with their methods. For more detailed information on this subject read the book "Logical Consequences" by Dreikurs & Grey.

WEEKEND VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Baxter, their daughter, Annette, and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Doyle Wayne Baxter, and two children, of Aztec, N. M., visited last weekend with their parents, Mrs. Artie Baxter and Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Long. Mike Huff, son of Mrs. Carol Grigsby, and the Long's grandson also made the trip with the Baxters. Mrs. Doyle Wayne Baxter went to San Antonio for the weekend to be with her husband who is serving in the U. S. Air Force.

IN RODEO WINNINGS

Mahan leads once as all around champion

DENVER, Colo. — Larry Mahan leads once again for the world crown, with 1973 winnings amounting to $8,383, the Rodeo Cowboys Association said.

Mahan, of Dallas, Tex., reigned as rodeo's top cowboy from 1966 through 1970, only to have the title taken from him the last two years by Phil Lyle of George West, Tex., Lyle, who formerly competed in all events, is semi-retired from the sport now, and Mahan, competing in three events, is back on top.

But he's followed closely by an old high school friend, Doug Brown, who is second with $8,307. Brown, 1969 world champion from Silverton, Ore., and nears his 40th birthday, is also a former champion. Although Mahan led around championship, Taylor of Hugo, Okla., $4,853 in calf roping, to lead for the event with $10,367.

"Witnesses for Christ"

By Robert D. Griffin

He first findeth his brother Simon, and saith unto him, we have found the Messiah... and he brought him to Jesus. —John 1:41-42

A man fell through the ice into the river one bitter cold day. A fellow workman came to his assistance with a plank, one end of which was covered with ice. The struggling man grasped it again and again, but every time his hand slipped off. At last he cried, "For God's sake, man, give me the other end of the plank!" I fear many of our so-called efforts for the salvation of men are performed with the icy end of a plank. Put out the other end. Better still, throw the plank away and reach down your hand to these struggling ones, and by the power of grace divine you shall reach men for Jesus.

This is the most important task of every Christian to share Christ with other people. Jesus instructed disciples to witness and then commissioned them to make disciples," he also promised them the power of the Holy Spirit for the task. Every modern day disciple or follower of Christ surely ought to be taking this seriously than we are, to think some person is waiting for you to hand them "a plank."

Somewhat the attitude of the day is that witnessing is the pastor's task or maybe even the deacon's or anyone else. Witnessing done in love by a very truly Christian can do more for reaching people for than many great planned sermons or revival meetings. The most effective witnessing is one-to-one and every day of the week. So to every follower of Christ I encourage you to hand some one you know a plank.
