

Chop! Chop! Chop! Go Local Prices for George's Birthday!

Post merchants are going to honor George Washington here Saturday by chopping down their prices just like the Father of Our Country chopped down that cherry tree when he was a boy.

It will be the ninth annual George Washington Birthday Sale, a town-wide promotion under sponsorship of the Retail Promotions Committee of the Post Chamber of Commerce.

The sale will offer residents of the big Post trade area one of the biggest arrays of late winter bargains in area history.

One of the most unusual is the choice this weekend of two used cars with lots of "get up and go" by a local auto dealer, for just $122.22 each.

Here are just a few of the ridiculously priced bargains Dispatch readers will find in Washington Birthday Sale ads in this edition: Shoe strings for 2 cents a pair.

Men's pants for $2.95 at one store and $2.97 at another.

The ladies, especially the younger ones, should be interested in the entire stock of lipstick and eye shadow, all famous name brands, at exactly half price.

If you're hungry, how about ice cream by the half gallon — you pick the flavor — for only 59 cents Saturday only. Or three dozen medium grade A eggs for $1.

If you want to teach your children to save — and save a little money at the same time yourself — how about brightly-painted paper mache children's banks, mostly wise old owls instead of fat young piggy banks, at just half the regular price.

Or maybe the wife would like a new knit pants suit at a price even you can appreciate — $10.

With the Feb. 22 birthday for George in mind, how about some new dish towels at just 22 cents apiece?

Of course everybody likes surprises. At one store there will be a whole table full for — you guessed it — 22 cents. And at another you can buy a big grab bag, the items inside totaling as high as $6.98 for only 66 cents.

Most youngsters would be delighted to have the used 20-inch "buzz bike" one merchant is advertising for only $10.22 — and it's in good condition too.

If you have a lot of leftovers at your house, how about regular 19 cent freezer containers for two cents each. Or if you're going to have a party soon, how about colorful crepe paper for decorating at also 2 cents per package.

It isn't often you can buy "rings and things" — the "things" including all kinds of costume jewelry — at half the usual retail tariff. You'll be able to Saturday.

The other four finalists were

Miss McBride, sponsored by the junior class, gave a dramatic reading, "The Creation," as her talent presentation in the contest. Miss Reno, sponsored by the Post Antelopes, sang "The Sweetheart Tree," and Miss King, whose sponsor was the FFA Greenhand Chapter, pantomimed "These Boots Are Made for Walking."

The other contestants were Becky Dalby, Jan Bilbo, Jackie Moore,

ROTC cadet is injured in fall

An ROTC cadet from Lubbock was seriously injured Sunday afternoon while "mountain climbing" at the Boy Scout camp, southwest of town.

The cadet, Beau Wendt, was injured when he fell after a rope-stake came loose at the top of a hill he and other cadets were climbing.

Sheriff J. A. (Jimmy) Holleman, who investigated the accident, said Wendt was treated at Garza Memorial Hospital and then taken on to a Lubbock hospital. The sheriff said he learned the injured man was placed in the intensive care unit at the Lubbock hospital.

Shooting victim once lived here

Jimmy P. Legg, 34, of Afton, who was found dead of a gunshot wound in his pickup at Matador Sunday, was a former employe of Jack Lott and Bob Macy on their ranches here.

Legg, who had been employed for about a month as a cattle inspector for the Texas Animal Health Commission, was employed on the local ranches about seven years ago.

Eddie D. Timmons, 28, of Northfield, was charged Monday with murder with malice in connection with the shooting of Legg.

Funeral services for Legg were held at 3 p.m. Tuesday at the First Baptist Church in Afton.

ON USE OF BUILDING

Museum group, county reach 'understanding'

Supporters of the Garza County Museum Association and the Garza County Commissioners' Court reportedly came to a "general understanding" Monday afternoon in an open meeting in the district courtroom on the future of the Mason Memorial Building.

Over 30 persons, including members of the court, attended the session.

Many of the museum association members, believing that the building was given by the Mason family with the intent that it be used for a county museum, became upset when it was announced a few weeks ago that the mental health outpatient clinic had been given two offices in the building, besides those being used by the welfare department and for a federal food stamp office.

Mrs. Ruby Kirkpatrick, president of the museum group, said members began calling her when the story came out in The Dispatch about the outpatient clinic office assignment, saying they feared the museum was being "crowded out."

Mrs. Kirkpatrick took the problem to County Judge Giles W. Dalby, who invited the entire museum group to the commissioner court's February meeting Monday afternoon for an airing of the matter.

While the historical marker in front of the building said the building was for museum use, the deed does not indicate any such intent, Judge Dalby told the group.

The judge explained that the county had put so much money into the renovation of the former early-day sanitarium that it felt it must put the space to the best use possible while the museum was developing.

The commissioners told the museum group that if the association

SANITATION MOVE

Trash can racks to be required

The city council voted Monday night to amend the sanitation ordinance to require racks for garbage cans.

The purpose of the racks is to keep the garbage cans from being turned over and paper and other trash blowing over town. Pete Maddox, superintendent of public works, said the city has received numerous complaints of blowing trash in recent weeks. Maddox said the public will be given a reasonable length of time in which to install racks for their garbage cans, after which inspections will be made to determine if the ordinance is being complied with.

"The city council has authorized strict enforcement of the amended sanitation ordinance," Maddox said.

Probe continues in traffic death

The Dispatch was informed Wednesday by Highway Patrolman Ken Gilbreath that an investigation was continuing in the death of Harold Wayne Oden, 45, of Lubbock, who was killed about 12:15 a.m. Sunday when struck by a car as he walked along U. S. Hwy. 380 about five miles west of Post.

Oden, a salesman for Modern Chevrolet Co. in Lubbock, was pronounced dead at the scene by Justice of the Peace Racy Robinson.

The driver of the car was identified as Walter Lee Williams of Taboka.

Williams reportedly told investigators he was driving west when he felt his vehicle hit something. He said he turned around, examined the roadway and found Oden's body.

Oden was Garza County's second traffic fatality of the year.

The investigating officers were Highway Patrolman Ken Gilbreath and Gene Posey and Sheriff J. A. (Jimmy) Holleman.

Removal follows three reductions

Local taxpayers get some real good news today — you won't be billed any White River Municipal Water District taxes this year.

Directors of the four-city water district voted unanimously at their February meeting last Thursday at the filtration plant to take the fourth and final tax cutback step — removing the tax. They have been reducing the tax for the last three years.

Taxpayers in Post, Crosbyton, Ralls and Spur have been paying White River taxes since 1961 and in 11 years have paid a total of $1,328,533 in taxes to the district.

Over the same period of time, the water district has paid its bondholders $2,903,205 in interest on its $4,500,000 construction loans and has paid $440,000 in principal as well.

The bond debt now stands at $4,060,000.

Water district property owners had been paying a 50 cent tax per $100 valuation from 1961 through 1968.

Trustees changed the board policy, which read "will be expelled" to "may be expelled," after Juvenile Judge Giles W. Dalby, also a school trustee, explained that the emphasis in the handling of juveniles in trouble is to make every effort to straighten them out.

Four local students now face marijuana possession charges here.

The school board refused, however, to ease the wording for those found guilty at a school board hearing of possession or use of a drug or alcohol while in school or participating in a school-sponsored function. When found guilty, such students will be automatically expelled for the remainder of the semester and no credits will be given the student for that semester.

By changing the wording from "will" to "may" trustees felt they had given themselves some leeway of action depending upon the circumstances of the individual cases.

Trustees agreed they didn't want to make school "drop-outs" out of first-time marijuana offenders.

Judge Dalby also explained the operation of the juvenile court for boys under 17 and girls under 18. In another major action, the steadily increased, the tax has been gradually reduced. It was cut to 40 cents in 1969, 30 cents in 1970, and to 20 cents last year.

At O'Brien, water district manager, brought up the subject of taxes at the meeting by presenting the following financial picture:

To meet the water district's annual operating budget of $136,000 and its annual bond and interest payments of $229,204, the district will receive $170,316 in water revenue from the four member cities, $123,240 from oil firms buying water in Garza County for waterflooding at the current rate of purchase, and $11,400 in water sales to lake residents and farmers along the district's water lines.

O'Brien said the district also will receive over $39,000 in interest on its various reserve or operating fund investments.

All of this, not taking into account any lot lease or recreational revenue at the lake, will leave the water district only $41,200 short of meeting all its obligations from these sources.

O'Brien said that the George R. Brown oil interests in Garza County

Drug conviction rule modified by trustees

Post school trustees voted Monday night to modify its mandatory requirement that students be expelled from school here for the semester upon conviction of a drug charge which did not occur upon school property or at any school-sponsored function.

Trustees changed the board policy, which read "will be expelled" to "may be expelled," after Juvenile Judge Giles W. Dalby, also a school trustee, explained that the emphasis in the handling of juveniles in trouble is to make every effort to straighten them out.

Judge Dalby also explained the operation of the juvenile court for boys under 17 and girls under 18. In another major action, the trustees called the spring school election for Saturday, April 1.

Two board positions, No. 7 now occupied by Robert Macy and No. 6 now occupied by Silas Short, will be filled for three-year terms in the election.

The City of Post's annual spring election, at which three councilmen will be elected, was called for Saturday, April 1, at Monday night's regular February session of the city council.

Councilmen whose terms are expiring are Donald Windham, Fred Myers and Ed Blanton.

In other action Monday night, the council:

—Condemned 12 junk cars as health hazards and five vacant houses as fire hazards.

—Approved the payment of $14,700 for curb and gutter on the U.S. Hwy. 380 widening project.

—Amended the city's no-parking ordinance to extend the no-parking zone an additional 270 feet on South Broadway (U. S. Hwy. 84).

—Amended the sanitation ordinance to require racks for garbage cans (covered in separate story in today's Dispatch).

—Approved requests for one-way alley behind Dr. W. C. Wilson's clinic and for one-way drive coming out of Terrace Cemetery.

$500 worth of tires stolen

Twenty-four tires, valued at approximately $500, were stolen from the Farmers Supply Company on the Taboka highway late Monday night or early Tuesday morning by burglars who entered after breaking the lock on the front door.

Tires reported missing by owner Melvin Williams were six 14-inch new trailer tires, six 15-inch tires eight 67x14 Lee tires tires, two 15-inch Lee tires, one 670-15 Zenith tire and one 670-15 Lee mud tire.

The burglars used a side door in loading the stolen tires into their vehicle, believed to be a pickup.

Sheriff J. A. (Jimmy) Holleman and Police Chief Otis G. Shepherd Jr. investigated the break-in.

'Pops' concert is set for tonight

The fifth annual "pops" concert of the Post bands will be presented at 7 o'clock this Thursday evening in the high school gymnasium.

All four bands — the fifth, sixth, junior high and high school — will participate, according to Director Herbert Germer. Each band will present selections mainly in a popular vein, the director said.

Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Banquet ticket deadline Monday

Monday is the deadline for purchase of tickets for the annual Post Chamber of Commerce banquet scheduled for the Post Community Center next Thursday night.

Texas Tech Head Football Coach Jim Carlen will be the banquet speaker.

Awards will be presented to Post's outstanding man, woman and organization for 1971 as another highlight of the event. New officers will be installed for both the Chamber and the Women's Division of the Chamber.

A goal of 300 ticket sales has been set.

Tickets are $2.50 each and may be secured at the First National Bank, the Chamber office in the McCrary building, or from any Chamber of Commerce director.

The ninth annual George Washington Birthday Sale is scheduled for Post Saturday, so settle back and enjoy some "bargain hunting" in this edition of The Dispatch.

Times do change. Beginning Monday, as you will see in her announcement ad on page 8, Wanza will be doing Roffler men's hair styling in the "upper room" of the McCrary Building. That's a cry from the traditional floor-level barber shop with the candy-pole out front where a male barber in the front window to find out how many are ahead of him.

Wanza, an experienced men's hair stylist, will do most of her work by appointment, so now is the time, fellows, to start ringing her phone.

We're a bit short of Lewis space this week because of all the George Washington Birthday Sale ads and ads, so we'll stop right here with a thank you to all who have been kind as to express your appreciation of The Dispatch's new front.

Keeton funeral held Tuesday

Funeral rites for Sam Ennis Keeton, who died Sunday morning in the Panche Community Hospital, were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Church of the Nazarene here, by the Rev. Tommy Davis, pastor-officiating. Assisting him was A. Ross of Comanche.

Keeton, a retired farmer, lived in Post from 1944 until 1955. Born Feb. 27, 1877, in Brown County, he married in 1898 and farmed in Brownwood until moving to Post. He was engaged in farming (See Keeton Rites, page 8)

White River water tax comes off

There's an old political axiom which goes something like this: Once a new tax is created it is forever.

Generally that is true. But not always. White River Municipal Water District directors came up with the exception to the rule last Thursday night when they removed the water district property tax for 1972.

They had been reducing it for several years as water revenues climbed. Now the tax is gone.

But property owners must understand that the bond obligations are still there on the real property of the four member towns. As long as enough lake water can be sold there will be no tax. But if the time ever comes when the revenues fall off, the tax can return.

Chances are excellent that water revenues will hold up. The George R. Brown waterflood here in Garza County has made the big difference. The success of the flood to date has enabled water district directors to discontinue the tax.

Readers may wonder what the possibilities now are for the development of the Post lake site for which the water district has secured the state water rights.

The lake can only become reality as large new contracts can be secured for the sale of water. The district can borrow money to build such a lake only with enough water revenue guaranteed to repay the loan. Certainly, taxpayers in the four member towns would not vote themselves a new tax levy to finance a second lake.

You can expect the effort to be made this year to survey the oil industry of this area to determine if more floods might produce more sales. Another possibility is sale of water for municipal consumption to cities in need of water. You can usually depend upon somebody in West Texas to "really need" some water.

The George R. Brown waterfloods needs for water will keep the taxes off in the White River Water District, but they cannot build the Post lake too.

But there are possibilities—but possibilities that will take time to develop. The engineers will tell you that anybody in this region with water to sell can find a market. But this lake proposition involves developing the supply and the market at the same time without the taxpayers getting caught in the middle.

This won't be easy. And it won't be done overnight. But before we aim our thoughts in the direction of a new lake in this vicinity, let's salute the White River Water District in developing to the point where "the tax comes off."

The White River Water District project is a remarkable one for many reasons, and is so recognized in state water circles, but to us the greatest reason for its success has been the ability of outstanding business and professional men of four small towns to work and plan together over the long haul with real neighborly fairness for each other.

That is why we have "covered" the monthly water district meetings regularly now for 15 years. The water board has quietly worked its way through tremendous water and financial problems, learning by doing, but never wasting time with a family quarrel. The "water meetings" have remained our most interesting news assignments since we moved to Post. We see in the board's work proof indeed that small towns can solve their problems and in the end provide much better places to live and raise families than either big cities or their sprawling suburbs.

Who, for example, ever heard of "taking off a tax" in one of them?—JC

The Father of Our Country

With George Washington's birthday Feb. 22 traditionally, but Feb. 21 officially due to the new practice of observing many of our holidays on Monday, now is a good time to say a few words in praise of George, and also to remind shoppers of his annual birthday sale to be held even earlier—Saturday, Feb. 19.

In recent years, the George Washington Birthday Sale, sponsored by the retail trade committee of the Post Chamber of Commerce, has developed into one of the town's most successful sales events. If you think you will be too busy Monday to observe George's birthday, why not take advantage of some of Saturday's "chopped down" bargains and celebrate it then?

It is especially appropriate in this election year, in view of some of the things that have been going on, to review some of the facts on George Washington—the Father of Our Country.

He was born on Feb. 22, 1732. Whether he attended school as a boy, or whether he was taught by a tutor is not known. His father died when he was 11, leaving his mother and himself with the responsibility of looking after his five younger brothers and sisters.

At 15 he became a surveyor to help support his mother. At 21 he served as a major in the Virginia militia. The following year he was forced to surrender Fort Mifflin to French attackers. The next four years he fought in the French and Indian War, rising to the rank of colonel. In 1759 he married Martha Custis, a widow with two children. They had no children of their own.

In 1774-75 he served as a delegate from Virginia to the First and Second Continental Congresses. When Patrick Henry was asked to name the greatest man in the Congress, he replied "... if you speak of solid information and sound judgment, Colonel Washington is unquestionably the greatest man on that floor."

In 1775, at the age of 43, he was unanimously elected Commander of the Continental Army, a position he held for eight years, throughout the Revolutionary War.

In 1787, when he saw that the Articles of Confederation were too weak to succeed, he brought together and inspired the delegates who wrote the Constitution. He was elected president of the Constitutional Convention. In 1789 he served as our nation's first President, being re-elected in 1793.

What sort of man was he? His six-foot, two-inch figure and aristocratic bearing created awe in those who saw him. Yet he was a man with human appetites and frailties. He enjoyed gambling, he liked to dance all night, he prided himself on his fine horses.

No one knew him better than Thomas Jefferson, his first Secretary of State. Fifteen years after his death in 1799, Jefferson wrote: "His mind was great and powerful, without being of the very first order... as far as he saw, no judgment was ever sounder."

Perhaps the strongest feature in his character was prudence. His integrity was most pure, his justice the most inflexible I have ever known, no motives of interest or consanguinity, of friendship or hatred, being able to bias his decision. He was, indeed, in every sense of the words, wise, a good man and a great man.

It may be truly said that never did nature and fortune combine more perfectly to make a man great, and to place him in the same constellation with whatever worthies have merited from man an everlasting remembrance.

What our contemporaries are saying

Raving Beauty: The gal who placed second in a beauty contest.—Journal, Milwaukee.

ANYONE KNOWS that "MIX" spells "mix," but most of us have to look it up before we know that MIX also means one thousand and nine in Roman numerals.

From the time I learned to read, nothing has "thrown" me any more consistently than Roman numerals. I was almost grown before I learned to tell time at a glance, on account of Roman numerals being used on the face of the only clock we had in the house.

ABOUT ALL THAT Roman numerals have been used for the last two or three hundred years are to number the faces of some (not all) clocks and watches, to list important topics in outlines, and to record dates on monuments and public buildings.

I have long suspected that the reason Roman numerals are used for ceremonial occasions is because part of their impressiveness lies in the fact that few people can make them out without some study.

UP UNTIL A few years ago, I went along with the Texas State Teachers Association in referring to their area district as District XIII, but after seeing it "flubbed up" in type a number of times, I said to heck with it and started writing it District 13. It was the same thing with the Extension Service's District 11, which came out in print as District eleven on account of the tape puncher hitting the lower case "l." key a couple of times instead of the capital I (eye) key, so I started writing it District 2, which, after all is what it is.

Time was when Roman numerals were the most popular form of writing numbers, but that was some five hundred years ago and I, for one, am thankful that they gave way to the Arabic numerals, for which I think even the Israelis ought to thank the Arabs.

THE MAN UP the street says a pessimist complains about the noise made when opportunity knocks.

If more weekly newspaper columnists would emulate Buford F. Davenport, publisher of the Abernathy Review, we might get enough people concerned over the stray dog problem to get something done about it.

In his "Talk in Print" column in last Thursday's Review, Mr. Davenport wrote objectively, but to the point, on his town's dog problem. Here are his comments:

"Recently, we stated in this column that packs of big dogs could kill a child or injure an adult. H. E. Richter, one of our older citizens, very well could have been injured in a recent experience with dogs. He was attempting to run a pack of dogs out of his yard when one became hostile and wanted to fight back. Mr. Richter, in backing away from the dog, stepped on a weather-slicked slab of concrete and fell. Fortunately, the dog left when he fell, and Mr. Richter was lucky that no bones were broken when he hit the concrete."

"Friday, after school was out, I investigated a commotion in front of my office. Three Negro girls, who appeared to be in the second or third grade, were watching a big dog half a block away that was blocking their usual route home."

"One of the girls had a tree limb to fight the dog, but she would have been no match for the large dog. I suggested that they walk a wide semi-circle around the dog rather than to fight it with a tree limb."

SOME PEOPLE have a harder time trying to find excuses for not making decisions than they would have if they would go ahead and make them. I'm going to help these people by listing 12 ways to avoid making a decision.

1. Find a scapegoat and ride him. Americans can blame the Russians or vice versa. Both can blame the general apathy of the people or the atom bomb or the social order.
2. Profess not to have THE answer. That lets you out of having any answer.
3. Say that we must not move too rapidly. This avoids the necessity of getting started.
4. For every proposal, set up an opposite and conclude that the middle ground (no motion whatever) represents the wisest course of action.
5. Say that the problem can't be separated from other problems. Therefore, it can't be solved until all other problems have been solved.
6. Ask what is meant by the question. By the time it is clarified it will be time to go home.
7. Discover that there are all kinds of inherent dangers in any specific formulation of conclusions: danger of seeming too pro-Russian, too anti-Semitic, of having your statement in the hands of the wrong people, or of committing the organization too deeply.
8. Appoint a committee.
9. Wait until an expert can be consulted.
10. State in conclusion that you have clarified your thinking. This completely obscures the fact that

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY SALE

By George!
What a blast
of bargains!

We've blown prices for a rousing celebration that's "REAL GEORGE".

Quantities
Limited

All Sales
Final

Beat the rap on prices!

Be It Known That:

- No sir, we can't tell a lie either! Post merchants have really chopped their prices for this town-wide sale.
- Many of the Sale Specials are simply ridiculous in price. But the quantities are limited. So ride in early Saturday like Paul Revere. Better still, be waiting when they unlock the doors.
- Shop the many individual WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY SALE ads of merchants in this edition of The Dispatch so you will know what a wonderful day is in store for you.
- Local merchants are determined "to let George do it" and clear their shelves.
- George Washington Birthday Sales are famous the nation over for their fabulous bargains. This is the ninth one held in Post on a city-wide basis.. Last year's was a "smash."
- Come early, stay late—and enjoy yourselves. If you like our George Washington Birthday Sale, tell our merchants. Then we can plan another one for 1973.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank everyone for the cards, flowers and a special thanks to the members of the Methodist Church in Post for all the kindness shown me while I have been in the hospital.
 Mrs. Ella Murphy

We want to express our most sincere thanks to everyone for your kind "helping hand" since the fire. You've helped us realize the real meaning of friends. The clothes we were unable to wear have been given back to Wilke in hopes that they may help another family the way you all have helped us. God bless you.
 The Larry Hadderton family

We wish to thank each one that donated to our bake sale and those who brought cakes and pies to be sold. We also want to thank everyone who purchased something. If you are in need of a special cake or pie for some occasion, we will take your order and bake it for you. Call 495-2598 or contact one of the Pink Ladies of the Garza Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

The Post High School Choir would like to thank everyone who helped in the production of "Li'l Abner". Many people who are not involved in our choir gave their time to help us. We want each one of these people to know how much we appreciate their cooperation. A special thanks to Mrs. Barbara Babb, Miss Cindy Davis, and Glenn Polk; also to Andy Williams, Danny Guthrie, Jay Kennedy, Leroy Holly, Ronnie Pruitt, Bobby Norman, Glen Branson, Dusty Norman, Randy Babb, Gary Shepherd, Brad Lott, David Posey, Thomas Zachary, Melodie Willson, Sherry Morris, Randy Gordon and Karla Scribner.

Again we would like to say thank you; we could never have done it without you!

I want to thank everyone for the kindness shown me while I was in the hospital. Especially thanks to Drs. Harry and Charles Tubbs, the nurses and the cooks.

Timely Tips from CHDA

By DANA FEASTER

WINTER IS SOUP WEATHER
The soups on, or it should be. When cool weather and cold and flu victims abound, the time has come to have plenty of hot and hearty soup ready for your family. You have a variety of choices when you prepare soup. The soups can be ready in a matter of a few minutes, or they can take hours of simmering.

If you want convenience and speed, plenty of delicious soups are available on the market for your choosing. The ready-to-serve canned soups require only the flick of the wrist with the can opener and a couple of minutes for heating. Canned condensed soups and dehydrated soups are nearly as quick to prepare. To them, you just add water or milk before heating. If you buy your soups, read the labels. A variance in prices often exists among the different soups. Ready-to-serve soups often cost more than condensed or dehydrated soup of the same kind. The extra weight and size of the can of ready-to-serve soup often causes the transportation costs of the product to be higher.

Also, when you calculate differences in prices between a ready-to-serve and a condensed or dehydrated soup mix, don't forget to count the cost of the milk if you plan to add some. Often, the thickness of the soup, or the meat, vegetable or spice content will affect the cost. Then, your tastes and preferences must take over.

Facts about Lincoln told at club meeting

Members of the Needlecraft Club answered roll call with interesting facts about Abraham Lincoln when the club met with Mrs. Bess Bowen last Friday.

Textile manufacturing is the oldest industrial art.

High wish to extend a warm and friendly "thank you" to all who helped make "Li'l Abner" the success that it was. It gives a great sense of accomplishment to work hard for months, to put a full heart in a production and then, on opening night, watch the house fill up.

The last night of "Li'l Abner" at curtain call, roses were presented to Nan Bilberry for her performance as Daisy Mae, and to Sue Britton as Mamy. This year, as every other year, Mr. Willson was given a standing ovation.

Following the performance, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Owen gave a party at their home, which began about 10 o'clock and lasted until midnight.

At the gathering, awards were given to the production's three most dependable people; a key chain to Kim Owen with "Li'l Abner" inscribed on it, and plaques to Mrs. Barbara Babb for choreography and Mr. Willson for his never-tiring endeavors to keep the production rolling.

? Your Name ?

WHAT'S IN IT?
 By CHARLES DIDWAY

MADDOX

Maddox, a particularly ancient and historic Welsh surname, means "descendant of Madoc". Madoc was the name of a legendary Welsh prince credited by his countrymen with the discovery of America before Columbus—about 1170. However, the only basis for this claim is the supposed discovery of a tribe of American Indians speaking Welsh and possessing Welsh Bibles, religious articles, etc. Supporters of the claim also see a connection in the name of the Modoc Indian tribe.

Maddox and other forms of the name, such as Maddocks and Mattocks, are common family names in South Wales and in the western counties of England bordering on Wales. It is especially common in the English county of Herefordshire, and in the county town of Hereford, Maddox was the name of four mayors during the first half of the 18th century.

Hereditary surnames in Wales did not develop until after the 16th century. Many of the surnames derived from old Welsh personal names such as Madoc arose in England where they became hereditary in the 14th century or earlier, long before such surnames were known in Wales. This resulted from Welshmen moving across the border into England.

Maddox also appeared in Ireland as a Welsh name and is said now to be indistinguishable from the Irish MacMaddoc, a branch of the McMurrighs in County Wexford.

Richard L. Maddox, born in 1819, was an English physician who, as an amateur photographer, produced the first successful dry plate, which in time replaced the old wet plate in the development of photography.

Maddox is the 807th commonest surname in the United States, where there are an estimated 33,000 persons by the name.

FREE FISHING & NO TAXES!

WHO SAYS ANY TAX "IS FOREVER"?

The White River Municipal Water District Will Not Levy Any Taxes for 1972. This is a Real Savings for Every Post Taxpayer.

The water district was able to remove the tax this year because of greatly increased water sales to oil firms for Garza waterfloods.

Primarily, the growing waterflood by George R. Brown has made this possible.

It's most unusual to have a tax "come off." It's even more unusual to have such a community-spirited oil firm directly responsible for it.

SO WE SALUTE —

George R. Brown, Buster Moreland and your fine group of local employes for saving money for all us taxpayers.

3 Demo chairman vacancies filled

Three precinct chairman vacancies were filled Monday afternoon at a meeting of the Garza County Democratic Executive Committee in the offices of County Democratic Chairman N. C. Outlaw.

Mrs. Helen Miller was named Precinct 8 chairman to replace Mrs. Loucille Morris, who has moved to Plainview. C. C. Lee was appointed Precinct 7 chairman to replace the late Lee Ward, and Mrs. La Nell Warren was named Precinct 12 chairman to replace Mrs. Vera Browning.

The duties of the precinct chairman include serving as election judges in their respective precincts (voting boxes).

The group also appointed a new committee which is required this year to draw the order of candidates' names on the ballot and for other duties. Named as members of the committee were Charlie Didway and E. C. Smallwood of Precinct 1, Bill McMahon of Precinct 2, Dale Cravy of Precinct 3, and Mrs. Minnie Tanner of Precinct 4.

The executive committee estimated the costs of holding this year's primary elections at approximately $2,100, and discussed the means of financing them, which is still an unsettled question following a federal court's recent ruling on candidate filing fees.

Those attending Monday's meeting were Outlaw, Didway, Smallwood, McMahon, Cravy, Mrs. Tanner, Mrs. Winnie Tuffing, Mrs. Billie Cross and L. H. (Lonnie) Peel.

$168,000 loan okayed for Poka-Lambro Co-op

A loan application of Poka-Lambro Rural Telephone Cooperative of Tahoka in the amount of $168,000 for improvement of its system has been approved by the Rural Electrification Administration, according to a telegram received by The Dispatch from Gang, George Mahon.

The Poka-Lambro Co-op serves the counties of Lynn, Borden, Dawson, Gaines, Garza, Hockley, Martin, Terry and Yoakum.

Water tax—

(Continued From Front Page) ty have "very conservatively estimated" that they will add 20 additional wells to their expanding waterflood projects by July 1, 1972. He estimated additional water purchases for these wells at $39,967 which would virtually make up the amount needed to take off the water district's tax for the first time.

At present, O'Brien reported the water district has a total of $796,517 in bank funds and investments. Of this amount, $394,873 are in Dallas reserve accounts drawing interest ranging from five to seven and one half per cent. Most of the rest also has been invested.

Actually, through the removal of the tax collecting expenses to be paid the four member cities in the current water district budget, the addition of the 20 new George R. Brown wells to the waterflood will more than provide enough increased revenue to meet the budget without a single tax dollar.

Directors, in discussing the move before taking the action, emphasized that the bond obligation against all the taxing properties of the four member cities remains, and should water sales and other income fall, then the tax at some future date might have to be put back on again.

But directors do not expect this to happen.

In January, the water district received $25,610.55 in water sales income and $40 in recreational income.

The water sales included $14,193 from the four member cities, $8,865.12 from George R. Brown, $1,195.48 from the Sun Oil Co., $373 from meters on the main lines to the cities, and $728 from water sales to lake lot owners.

Attending the meeting from Post were Directors J. B. Potts and Julius Stelzer, and Dispatch Publisher Jim Cornish.

Birthday sale—

(Continued From Front Page) but you haven't quite got the price? This one is for you — all you need off a big roll of Herculon hi-low pile carpet at "George's price" of only $3.98 a square yard.

Of course, if a 9 by 12 foot oval braided rug would do just as well, here's the answer. A floor sample, that means it's been used for display purposes only, for exactly $19.95, a huge savings.

Choose from a rack of ladies' coats at half price and be set for a good March snow or a chilly 1972 football season.

If you're alley is a mess because of your lack of garbage containers, how about a 20-gallon plastic can for only $2.98?

These aren't all the George Washington birthday sale bargains in today's Dispatch — all of which you can buy Saturday if you're at the head of the right line.

Others include car wash brushes at 62 cents; carpet samples measuring 13½ by 18 inches, for 19 cents each; boys' shoes at half price; boys' shirts for just $1 each, and many, many more.

Take a look through the next 11 pages and pick out the sale items which attract you most and then schedule that "bargain trip" for downtown Post Saturday.

Entertainment was by The Messengers, a singing group, accompanied by Mrs. Barbara Babb, and the Top Twenty, accompanied by George M. Willson. Kim Owen, a member of the Top Twenty, sang "A Time for Us."

The contest was under the general direction of Mrs. Marion Wheatley and Mrs. Patricia Malone, FHA sponsors.

Harold L. Watts and Earl Taylor.

To qualify for the honor list, a student must be enrolled in 12 semester hours of courses, excluding pass-fail courses, and have at least a 3.0 grade point average. Texas Tech uses a 4.0 grading system.

Feb. 29 deadline on cattle brands

Feb. 29 is the deadline for re-registering cattle brands at the county clerk's office here.

The re-registration has been under way for the last six months, but there are still a number of brands in Garza County that have not been re-registered, according to the county clerk.

Brands not re-registered before the Feb. 29 deadline will be cancelled. The re-registration, for which a $2 fee is charged, is good for 10 years.

Museum group—

(Continued From Front Page) would give the county advance notice of its need for additional space for the museum it would try to make the requested space available.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick told The Dispatch that since the county and the museum organization did not have any written understanding, and the project evolved over a period of years, she felt the two groups now understood each other, and the museum association could proceed with the development of the museum.

"We don't need the additional space yet," she added.

Judge Dalby told The Dispatch that if the proposed law enforcement complex is built, the county would wind up with some office space in the present courthouse which probably could be used for some of the offices now in the Mason Memorial Building.

The curbs and gutter project on which the council voted to spend $14,700 is part of the highway department's widening of U.S. Hwy. 380 from Avenue S west to the top of the caprock. The new curbs and gutters will extend from Avenue S five-tenths of a mile west, giving a 72-foot width to that particular stretch of the highway. The funds to pay for the curbs and gutter are included in the current city budget.

The 270-foot extension of the no-parking zone on South Broadway was approved by the council at the request of the highway department, which had complained of trucks parking in front of the highway buildings in that area. The new 270-foot no-parking extension will run south from 3rd Street.

At the request of Dr. Wilson, the council voted to make the alley at the rear of his clinic one-way — from west to east. The one-way drive at the cemetery will be for traffic leaving the cemetery, which will be required to take a sharp turn right to the highway instead of returning to the highway via the access road leading into the cemetery.

Mayor Giles C. McCrary and the councilmen expressed agreement with Morris and Thomas that an electric code is needed in Post not only for the protection of life and property but also for lower insurance rates.

The council was told that nearly all Texas towns the size of Post has an electric code, and Morris suggested that copies of other towns' codes be studied as a basis of enacting one here. He said all municipal codes are based on the City council—

(Continued From Front Page) ing had been made that of the three councilmen elected the one receiving the lowest vote total would serve only a one-year term. This was done in order to balance out at three the number of positions filled in each year's city election. In the upcoming election, all three councilmen elected will serve two-year terms.

The council authorized that the 12 junk cars be picked up and hauled away after condemning them as health hazards on the recommendation of the city health officer. A time extension was given on a 13th automobile, on which the council was told the owner is correcting the conditions that had caused it to be declared a health hazard.

Public hearings will be held at the next council meeting on the five houses and one business building condemned as fire hazards on the recommendation of the city fire marshal. The business building condemned is the old Lev's Restaurant building on North Broadway just north of the Main Street intersection.

TAHOKA STOCK SHOW

TAHOKA — The annual Lynn County Livestock Show will be held here Feb. 24-26, according to County Agent Bill Griffin. Community shows at O'Donnell, Tahoka, New Home and Wilson precede the county show.

National Electric Code

The council indicated it would look over electric codes from other towns and also request a suggested code from the Texas Municipal League in pursuing the proposal further.

School board—

(Continued From Front Page) about this time a year ago, is now in such an improved financial condition that the price of student lunches probably can be reduced slightly at the beginning of the fall term.

The school administrator reporting on the new school evaluation system development and program here said that because of the current major evolution in the handling of school finances in Texas that Dr. Harris has recommended that the three to five-year program be pushed through in just two years to avoid losing it in any new system of school financing. Shiver said he had asked Dr. Harris to have a contract between the school district and the University of Texas drawn for the program's development.

He said the educators who will guide the program will be here for a March workshop with the teachers and that printed course guides from a California university had been secured to aid teachers in planning course goals and methods in the new program.

Trustees accepted the only bid received on 16 pound duplicator paper for the 1972-73 school year. It was for 72 cents a ream from the American Desk Manufacturing Co. and was accepted.

TO SIOUX CITY, IOWA

Garza Farmers Union members make trip

Three members of the Garza County Farmers Union, Elvus Davis, Wayne Carpenter and Bill Carlisle, participated in a goodwill mission to Sioux City, Iowa, during the week of Feb. 7-11.

Forty Texas farmers departed from Lubbock and Amarillo on Feb. 7 for the Convair flight to Sioux City. They were met at the airport by farmers from Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota who served as hosts at a get-acquainted reception. The Texans stayed in the homes of the host families.

Each of the three Garza County men spent the week visiting with farmers in different counties about vital issues facing agriculture, and soliciting memberships in the Farmers Union. Davis spent the week in McCook County, South Dakota; Carpenter in Hanson County, South Dakota, and Carlisle in Mooney County, South Dakota.

Texas Farmers Union is cooperating with National Farmers Union and sister states in a series of "Flying Farmer" exchange programs designed for membership building and public relations activities.

In an exchange program during the week of Jan. 10-14, 40 North and South Dakota farmers flew to

The golf teams will be coached by John Alexander.

Texas for a week of similar activities. Elvus Davis, who is president of the Garza County Farmers Union, made the following observation concerning the area they visited: "The average age of farmers in this region is extremely advanced. This indicates that agriculture will soon be in trouble in this region because of a lack of operators. "It seems to me that the farmers' equipment was at an age that should be replaced in some cases. This indicates to me that there is a lack of income in these cases and that farmers have been living on their depreciation. This is an invitation to disaster in the near future."

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Maxey met the Franklin Maxey family of El Paso in her parents' home in Carlsbad, N.M., Saturday. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

L. G. Thuet Sr. returned home Saturday after several days in the Lubbock Methodist Hospital. He is doing well and had a number of visitors Sunday. We wish for him a fast recovery.

Patti Ann McClellan celebrated her eighth birthday Monday with a party. She had 18 friends come after school and they enjoyed playing games, and eating a Valentine cake and drinking punch.

Mrs. Jewell Graham returned home Monday from a three weeks stay in Abilene with her daughter, Mrs. Dwight Kinard, and family. She is recuperating from an illness and a bad cold. We hope she will soon be much improved.

No playoffs for Jr. High titles

No playoffs will be held to determine champions in the 9th grade girls and 8th grade boys divisions of the junior high basketball conference, school officials have ruled.

The Post, Slaton and Idalou girls, tied for the 9th grade championship, have been declared tri-champions, and the Post and Ralls boys, tied for the 8th grade championship, co-champions.

The fact that the Slaton and Ralls varsity teams are in playoffs did not inconvenience for the junior high playoffs to be held, school officials here said.

Two Southland couples are new grandparents

By TOMMIE WILKE

Hi! Here I am, sitting at my beat-up old typewriter — the one that is forever misspelling even the most simple words — wishing that the sand wouldn't blow, but knowing full well that it could be so much worse.

This is Monday — "Hearts and Cupid's Day." Did you give your Valentine a box of her favorite chocolates, or visa-versa? Hope you did, because most of the time it is the little things that mean the most to us. Right?

Mrs. Paul Winterrowd, Breonne and Jerry, were in Amarillo this past weekend visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Winterrowd.

J. C. Leake, who spent a little over a week in Mercy Hospital at Slaton, came home Monday.

Robert Becker and son, Joe Don, visited in the Willie Becker home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Becker have recently returned from a trip to Leawood, Kansas, and Kansas City, Mo., where they visited with Mrs. Joe Blythe and son, John Earl, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Becker and family.

Jeff Becker, son of Gilbert Becker, broke his leg recently and has been confined in the hospital, but will probably be going home in a few days.

David, Dennis and Darrell Becker stayed with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker, while their mom and dad were off on a trip.

Here's a belated "happy birthday" to Junior Becker and son, David, who celebrated their birthdays Tuesday, Feb. 8.

Happy birthday to Shane Maner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Maner, on his second birthday Feb. 14. He came down to visit his grandfather, Sunday night and collected his birthday present.

Edmund and Yours Truly visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Stolle Friday night of last week. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gindorf.

Carl Wartes spent several days in the Garza Memorial Hospital in Post last week. Mrs. Wartes underwent leg surgery recently at Methodist Hospital, and is at home, but still isn't getting around too spry. Hope all goes well with both Mr. and Mrs. Wartes.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Taylor on recently becoming grandparents. Their daughter, Debra, presented them with a grandson, Shane. His mom's and dad's names are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stanley. The Taylors recently became new parents themselves. Congratulations to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Lester and children, Allan, Terri and Loretta, have recently moved to Lubbock. This community certainly will miss this nice family.

Mrs. R. L. Hagler and Ed Denton are both patients in Slaton's Mercy Hospital. May God be with these two and grant them relief very quickly.

Mrs. W. A. Lyman of Dallas was a recent visitor in the Southland Methodist Church. She came with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Morris of Slaton.

Henry Van Santen, owner of the Antique Shop in Southland, suffered either a stroke or heart attack this past Sunday morning. He was taken to Mercy Hospital in Slaton by ambulance. May God be with him in his hours of need.

On Tuesday of last week, Edmund and I visited with his sister, Mrs. Minnie Steinhause, in Wilson and later attended a birthday party for R. M. McMinn in Slaton. Others attending the birthday party were Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Zieschang, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Schaffner (who, incidentally had a birthday on the same day), Mrs. Alfreda Becker, Rev. and Mrs. Del-

FFA members go on tour of farm offices in Post

By JOE CRAIG

The Post Future Farmers of America were taken on a tour of the Soil Conservation and ASC offices here in Post the past two weeks during their regular FFA class.

Bailey Mayo and J. R. Bell explained the job of the Soil Conservation Office. They explained to the FFA members how terraces, mainly parallel terraces, are planned, built and used. Slides of various county conservation projects were presented, with soil profile samples from the area shown and conservation programs discussed.

The following week, the FFA students went to the ASC office where Mrs. Inez Hartel told how records are kept on land owners and the different farm programs. She demonstrated the various calculating and printing machines and showed aerial photographs of Garza County. She also gave a brief history of the county's agricultural past.

The Post FFA chapter wishes to thank these people for doing such a fine job of explaining the details of these offices.

POST STAMPEDE MEETING

The annual stockholders meeting of Post Stamped, Inc., is to be held at 7 o'clock tonight in the bank community room. All stockholders are urged to attend as important business will be taken up.

MIDLAND VISIT

Mrs. Edna Cass visited in Midland last week with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Cass and baby daughter.

mas Luedke and daughter, Jennifer, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Voigt, and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Pennell attended a Campers Caravan meeting in Harmony Community House in Petersburg this past Saturday and Sunday. Twenty-one couples attended from Plainview, Lubbock, Midland, Stanton, Flaydada, Lockney, Petersburg and Kress.

"A woman worries about the future until she gets a husband, while a man never worries about the future until he gets a wife." So long until next week.

News Flash: Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Jordan have a new grandson, born today, Valentine's Day. Shane Starkey arrived into this world at 11:30 a.m. and his proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Mike Starkey of Pecos. Congratulations everybody. Oh yes, the young man weighed in at a whopping 8 lbs., 3 ozs.

We're putting our money where your mouth is.

A lot of people have been shooting at the telephone companies these days. And, in truth, we've had our hands full keeping up with the zooming demand for increased phone service. But General Telephone and, in all fairness, the other phone companies haven't been sitting around counting dimes. For some time now, we've been paying a healthy "phone bill" ourselves trying to make our service do everything you expect of it. And a few things you don't expect. During the next five years we'll be spending millions of dollars in the areas we serve upgrading and expanding every phase of our phone operation. From laying underground cables (an important, if invisible area) to customer contact service (an equally important, but highly visible area). But no matter how much we spend on equipment and expansion, it's what we do for you in your home or business that counts. Ladies and gentlemen, we're working as fast as brains, manpower and money can combine to make our service as efficient as possible.
