10 rental duplexes can be financed by federal loan

A housing specialist for the South Plains Community Action Inc., told the Post city council Monday night how this community can start solving its current housing shortage. He explained a non-profit corporation formed by interested local citizens can obtain a Farmers Home Administration loan of $150,000 to build and operate a 10-unit rental project for low and medium income families.

John Gildersleeve of Level-land, who made the presentation, offered his services and experience in working with any such local corporation in housing.

He reported Crosbyton at present is far enough along with its project that it is ready to ask for construction bids and Spur is only about 90 days away from such bidding.

The council members and County Judge Giles Dalby who sat in on the presentation expressed real interest in such a project.

Gildersleeve explained that high interest rates "have run the rent up out of sight" for any private developers. He said the FHA will make such loans on a 40-year repayment plan and that local funds would not be required, other than the small cost of forming a non-profit corporation.

He said that the government's definition of low and medium income makes it possible for a family of four with an income of $9,600 to be eligible, or senior citizens with an income of up to $11,400.

"This by no means is low income for families here in West Texas," he pointed out.

Gildersleeve said most area communities are using what the government calls its "three percent plan" of operation in which the corporation rents to low or moderate income families with the tenants paying their own utilities.

The corporation pays all taxes for its properties in the community, he added.

He said no member of the corporation operating the project or any director would be personally liable in any way should the corporation fail to meet its loan payments. He stressed, however, that this would be a loan and not a grant.

The specialist said the amount of rent would depend on interest, land costs, insurance and taxes but that at Crosbyton

Good news on the community center project for Post.

SPAG has notified Mayor McCrary that directors of the South Plains Association of Governments has reviewed Post's pre-application for federal assistance under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, Title I for community block grant programs.

SPAG found the proposed $350,000 community center "is eligible under the act and is consistent with regional goals and plans."

This is the essential first step along the road to obtaining government aid for the center project.

Mike Lumsden, community development planner for SPAG, in his letter to McCrary concerning SPAG's approval, added: "We are encouraged to see the overwhelming support of the people for this project and their involvement in it and feel certain, as you do, that, if funded the City of Post will take the responsibility of keeping it open."

Then Lumsden adds a sentence which is quite significant and one worth remembering: "Certainly, the citizens of Post have established a good track record by being the sole funding source for the newly completed library."

The city request asks federal funding of the entire $350,000.

The city in late January made a request for waiver on meeting some of the requirements of the act so that the application could be speeded up

McCook named vice president

The first Chamber of Commerce meeting with the newly elected directors was held Thursday, at Jackson's Cafeteria. Those present were President, Ed Bruton, Will Parker, Jimmy Mitchell, Ronald Thuet, Charles McCook, Curtis Hudman, Lewis Herron, Robert Cox and Secretary Joy Greer.

Charles McCook was elected vice president. The group discussed the coin project, the art work is completed and at the dye factory. Hopefully the coins will be ready in May.

A letter will be mailed to each member on what they would like to see accomplished in Post.

New members, Barbara and Bob Palmer of Palmer's Oil Field Construction, were welcomed to the Chamber.

The lack of housing in Post was discussed, and some contacts will be made and plans will be discussed later.

Easter egg hunt Tuesday

Radio Station KPOS's annual Easter Egg Hunt, sponsored by Post and area merchants, will be held Tuesday afternoon, March 25, at city-county park, Jim Boles announced today.

To give the smaller boys and girls a better chance of finding eggs, the hunt will be run in two divisions this year.

Boles said pre-school and kindergarten children will hunt their eggs, beginning at 4 p. m., and school-age children will go after other eggs at 5 p. m.

Investigative equipment arrives for law arms

The Garza County Sheriff's Department and the Post Police Department, after 10 months waiting, have received a shipment of law enforcement technical investigative equipment for joint use through a project of the criminal justice division of the South Plains Association of Governments. The new equipment includes (1) a crime scene lab, (2) a portable narcotics testing lab, and (3) a portable crime scene lab.

Included in the two crime scene investigation labs are over 26 different types of fingerprinting dust for latent fingerprints, iodine fuming apparatus, alcohol torches, a 110-volt portable power unit, magnifying devices, and microscope equipment, plus many more kinds of chemicals and related equipment to items mentioned.

Police Chief Jim Trulove told The Dispatch that officers now will be able to raise serial numbers from metal objects when the numbers have been filed off.

"We'll also be able to restore fingerprints from decaying material," the police chief said.

The narcotics lab has chemicals and equipment for analyzing amphetamines, marijuana, barbiturates, LSD, and several other commonly used narcotic substances.

"This will enable us to complete local analysis on a lot of our narcotics here without having a delay in taking everything to Lubbock," Chief Trulove told The Dispatch.

"Some of them may never have to be used, but if we ever do have the occasion to use some of these things, we will have them here and available," Trulove said.

"Most of our investigative equipment was in really bad shape," the chief pointed out.

'Tab'na Yuan'e crop forecast due Saturday

The third annual "Tab'na Yuan'e" ceremony in city-county park shortly before 8 a. m. Saturday will again produce Post's annual crop forecast in keeping with Indian Legend.

Which way the wind is blowing at sunrise will determine whether this area will harvest bumper crops this fall as it did two years ago, have a crop disaster as the Indian legend correctly predicted last year, or harvest crops somewhere in between the two extremes.

That is, if Indian legend is correct, and Noah Stone who has been testing the sunrise wind direction on March 22 for over 40 years says the legend is "94 per cent accurate."

Frank (Chief) Runkles will conduct the Indian ceremony following a Chamber sponsored breakfast in the 4-H building with serving beginning at 6:45 a. m.

Four paroled jail terms on marijuana charges

Four Texas Tech University students were given probated 30-day jail sentences here Monday and each fined $50 and $47.50 court costs by County Judge Giles Dalby on misdemeanor charges of possession of marijuana.

The four are Dennis Anderegg of Austin, John Tellez of San Antonio, Bradford Cheff of Elpark, Mich., and David Karvala of Virginia Beach, Va. Anderegg, Cheff, and Karvala entered guilty pleas to the marijuana charge and Tellez was found not guilty.

Post Patrolmen Bobby Dean and Bill Franklin arrested the four students early Monday morning in a car on US-84 just northwest of the Post Stampede rodeo grounds after receiving a call of suspicious persons.

When the patrol car's red lights were turned on, the two patrolmen reported a passenger in the right front seat of the car emptied something from a container out of the car window.

When the vehicle was stopped, the officers recovered a container which had marijuana residue left in the bottom. A further search of the car revealed a homemade bamboo water pipe in the rear of the car and a homemade water pipe

Big damage suit filed here

William A. Scott of Post has filed a $135,000 damage suit in Garza district court here against Donnie Hair of Post.

The suit is over injuries Scott suffered as a result of a highway accident early on the morning of Aug. 23, 1974, seven miles north of Post on US-84. In the suit, Scott alleges that the crash was caused when a car driven by Hair in passing a truck crashed into Scott's vehicle going in the opposite direction.

As a result of his injuries Scott underwent surgery in November of last year on his neck for fusion of a portion of his spine.

Scott, father of five minor children, was en route to work as a brakeman on the Santa Fe Railroad.

He asks for $50,000 for loss of wages past and future, $50,000 for past and future physical pain and mental anguish, and $35,000 for reasonable hospital, doctor and medical expenses past and future.

CIRCLEVISION FILM TO BE SHOWN

Easter Art Show to be held here this weekend

The Easter Art Show, sponsored by the Post Art Guild, will be held in the junior high gym here Saturday and Sunday afternoons with four $25 merit awards and 1975 in seven purchase awards to be given participating area artists.

Jodie Boren, a well known Abilene artist, will judge the show.

The show will be open to the public without charge between 2 and 6 p. m. Saturday and from 1 to 5 p. m. Sunday.

The Art Guild has come up with a double-barreled art presentation for the weekend. Not only is it sponsoring the art show but also a color movie of the Holy Land in 360 degree "circlevision."

The movie will be presented in the school cafeteria every half hour from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Saturday and from 1 to 5 p. m. Sunday as a benefit to raise money for the renovation of the American Legion building into a Post Art Guild clubhouse.

Admission will be $2 for adults, $1 for students, with children under six admitted free.

The circlevision film is presented with the small audience sitting in the middle in swivel chairs with the movie being shown from nine projectors on screens in a circle around the audience.

The movie of Jerusalem, Galilee, Bethlehem, the Mount of Olives, and many other portions of the Holy Land is shown to give the viewer the same perspective as if he or she were actually there and could look in any direction.

The film is being made available through the Plains Camera Co. of Lubbock. Those who have seen it say it is quite dramatic with circlevision presentation.

The art guild has leased the American Legion building and needs funds to reroof it and repair it.

The merit awards and the purchase awards will be presented at 4 p. m. Sunday at (See Art Show, Page 12)

Blacks seek neighborhood park on city's east side

Post's black community spoke out Tuesday night at the Garza County Community Action Committee session for a neighborhood park on the east side of Post so black children wouldn't have to make a long and dangerous walk to the city-county park to play.

The request was made as black spokesmen told the community action group that at a Monday night meeting of blacks, Larry Hambrick, Marion Cruse, Pat Cruse, and Delores Harper were elected to represent the blacks on the action committee. Marion Cruse also reported the group had formed what is called the East Side Neighborhood Council and had named Hambrick president, himself vice president and Pat Cruse secretary.

Jack Alexander, president of the community action committee, asked the black representatives to work out what they wanted in such a park and bring it back to the committee at its May meeting.

Lets get our movers moving

Members of the City Council and County Judge Giles W. Dalby were given a 45-minute briefing Monday night on how Post can develop a 10-unit rent housing project.

John Gildersleeve of Levelland, a housing project expert for the South Plains Community Action, Inc., told the officials he was here to help organize such a project under the Farmers Home Administration if local citizens are interested.

Full details of such projects can be found in a front page story in today's Dispatch covering Gildersleeve's presentation.

He emphasized that a group of citizens here can form a non-profit corporation and proceed to develop such a project without any personal liability. Federal money comes in the form of a 40-year loan and is not a grant.

This paper agrees with all those present at the council session Monday night. Post needs such a project in the worst way.

We have watched Crosbyton develop their project over the same route and it's now ready for bidding and building. Spur is well along but about 90 days from the bidding.

One thing about it. This isn't a give-away. The rents will be priced to pay off the loan in a reasonable time.

Crosbyton rentals for each unit in its five soon-to-be duplexes will rent for $100 to $115 monthly for one bedroom apartments and $115 to $125 for two-bedroom units.

Maybe that sounds high, but as Gildersleeve said Monday night, inflation has come to the small town, the traditional low-rent community.

While the law under which the loans are made specify the units are for low to middle income families, the way the government figures income nowadays that can mean all the way to $9,600 income for a family of four and $11,400 for senior citizens.

Post needs to organize such a corporation. It doesn't have to be a city or county project. It would make a great project for the Chamber of Commerce to take on.

And when the corporation is formed, the directors need to be "movers." Thankfully, we are blessed with a good selection of people who can get things done. — JC

Statebeat

By KURT E. JOHNSON

AUSTIN — The average Texan who goes about his own business of working for a living, obeying the law and participating in government at whatever level time and temperment will allow probably has no idea what a morass of confusion the capital building sometimes appears to be.

It is, believe me, a full-time job to attempt to follow through on every bill and every committee which exist on both sides. The real problem, however, is that amid all the bills like school financing and utility regulation are what appear to be small, insignificant, even somewhat technically-oriented bills that attract absolutely no media attention.

The media is generally diligent and nonpartisan enough to inform citizens about major items which are either very controversial or can cause changes of law which affect their lives or businesses. These items include utility regulation, state primary election law, or even the bill introduced by Sen. William Moore of Bryan which seeks to raise the interest rates lenders can charge borrowers on small loans. (Sen. Moore, by the way, is said to hold personal financial interests in lending institutions.)

Be that as it may, every Texan citizen has the opportunity to know something of what's happening, and every citizen should know that state legislators can be written at Box 2910, Austin, Texas 78761 (Representatives) and Box 12068, Austin, Texas 78711 (Senators). One way of getting information which the media might miss is by subscribing to the "Texas Government Newsletter" which is published 42 times a year for the annual price of $16. It can be ordered from: Texas Government Newsletter, Box 12814, Austin, Texas 78711. The publication covers weekly activity in the capitol in addition to state agency and bureau decisions, political party affairs, and activities of personalities in state government.

But believe me, unless a citizen is right on top of capitol news every day, something might slip through and become law which a great number of citizens would woefully regret. These kinds of bills, normally known as "sleepers," are not really reported by the regular media channels and usually serve some special, generally non-controversial need for legislation on a particular subject.

If all legislators are not on their toes, however, a "sleeper" could really do some damage, no matter how vicarious its intent.

The best example of this kind of bill which has emerged thus far in the 64th legislature is HB 72, introduced by Rep. Larry Vick of Houston, whose occupation is listed in the House registry as a "law clerk."

HB 72 is known as the "term paper" bill, and is aimed at out-of-state companies which sell term papers to college students which they can submit to fulfill requirements for classes. The bill obviously has a positive and meritorious intent, but there are a couple of very big things wrong with it. First, these out-of-state, mail-order sellers of term papers will not be criminally prosecutable by Texas law, and even more important, because of the way the law is written, anything a Texan sells and publishes in Texas could cause the publisher to be prosecutable on a misdemeanor charge if some college student copied an article out of a newspaper which he bought and put it in a term paper, claiming that it is his own work, if such newspaper is uncopyrighted.

If you think it sounds crazy or absurd, get a copy of HB 72 and read it for yourself. The bill is currently pending in the House's Higher Education Committee (Rep. Fred Head, Chairman), and has been assigned to a subcommittee chaired by Rep. Abraham Ribak. At the public hearing on the bill which was held on February 21, it looked as if Higher Education Committee members were leaning toward a positive recommendation without realizing the implications.

If the problem created by HB 72 is not recognized by enough legislators, a lot of newspaper publishers and other folks who produce the printed word and sell it without copyright will be shaking in their shoes every time a college student turns in a term paper.

Because of committee schedule, this particular bill won't get to the House floor before the negative provisions could be eliminated. Only time, citizen interest and the alertness of legislators will determine the final outcome.

The empty plate campaign

In this edition of The Dispatch you will find an advertisement which explains the new "empty plate campaign" of CARE World Hunger Fund.

CARE through the years has been one world relief organization this newspaper respects highly. It gets the job done with a very minimum of "overhead expense" (staff salaries and cost of fund raising).

To briefly explain CARE, enclosed are some excerpts from the book, "Give", 1974, by Harvey Katz.

"CARE is a lean, hard-nosed efficient organization. It purchases $10 million food and equipment for overseas shipment, receives $69 million in government-surplus food stuffs for overseas distribution, and arranges for the packaging and shipping of all this food and equipment to overseas destinations.

"Fund-raising and general management run $3.1 million—28 per cent of cash contributions, 16 per cent of total income, and if we include the value of commodities distributed an incredible 3 per cent of program services. If you make a contribution to CARE each dollar you donate will produce nearly $10 worth of overseas services.

"As of this writing CARE has 130 employees serving in 34 countries. Their accomplishments are mind-boggling. In 1972 for example, they helped feed 28 million people, mostly children—14 million in India alone. They supervised construction of 504 primary schools, 17 secondary schools, and 97 nutrition centers that will feed 150,000 children. They helped build safe-water sources for 339 communities. They provided counsel and equipment for 562,400 farmers."

Now to tell you a little more about how CARE operates and who controls it and runs it. Quoting again:

"CARE does not solicit customers. Before CARE can provide assistance, the foreign government must request its help. The government must agree to allow entry of CARE commodities duty-free, to help arrange and pay for inland transportation of those goods, and to protect CARE against legal suits and entanglements while operating within the country. Finally, CARE must also conduct a survey within the country in which it analyzes whether the country has true needs that CARE can meet and whether the country and its citizens are sincerely ready to join with CARE in self-help programs.

Finally, CARE and the foreign government must sign a "basic agreement", which clearly defines the relationship between them. Only then will CARE establish a mission in the country, comprising a mission chief and a small staff."

World hunger today is one of our most pressing problems.

While governments haggle, those of us who want to help can do it through CARE and know our dollars are being well spent.

When you can spend a dollar and get $10 worth of overseas food and self-help service you are getting a bargain. That's what CARE offers.

The Micmac Indians believed that the wind was caused by a big bird flapping his wings!

"Rhyme Of The Ancient Water Heater"

Water, water everywhere
And not a drop to drink;
And none to bathe and none to wash.
There's something wrong, I think.
Our ancient water heater,
It burst at 3 a.m.
The signs of strain and stress,
I never thought to check for them.
So first thing in the morning
I'll remove this albatross.
An electric water heater
Will alleviate my loss!

'Career Day' held here for juniors and seniors

By MIKE SHEPHERD

The National Honor Society hosted a Career Day for the Juniors and Seniors March 12. Melinda Nelson was chairman of the Career Day Committee and was responsible for typing the letters and sending out the thank you cards. Marsha Arheiger was in charge of the refreshments, Christy Davis took care of the supplies. Nancy Reno was in charge of the publicity.

Denece Higgins made name tags for the members of the National Honor Society and speakers. Mrs. Linda Linn, our sponsor, did a very fine job in planning the day and being responsible for it. A special "thank you" goes to these people for their hard work.

The day proved to be very enjoyable, enlightening, and educational. All of the speakers were interesting and the students responded well to the activities of the day.

LETTERS To the Editor

LOU THOROUGHLY AGREES
 Dear Editor:
 I just read Mrs. Loucille Morris' letter to you about dogs. I thoroughly agree with her. On Friday night, Feb. 28 and Saturday morning, I counted "ten" dogs using our lawn. They kept us awake most of the night and believe me there is some mess on our yard. Looks like the dogs have all of the "rights" and home owners have none.

Sincerely,
 Lou Marks
AN OPPOSITE VIEWPOINT
 Dear Editor,
 I just got one thing to say about people complaining about the city dog problem. Most people who complain, act like they don't have dogs, and some say that dogs howl all night. I live in a neighborhood where all the neighbors have one or two dogs, that howl all night. I'm not complaining because I have a dog that barks and howls all night. But I think that some people who live in the city (Post) ought to live with barking and howling dogs and some people should put up a fence if they've got to watch where they step.

Sincerely,
 Michael Jay Snow

Local minister to conduct workshop

Bob Connel, minister of the Post Church of Christ, will be in Brownwood, Monday and Tuesday, March 24 and 25 at the Austin Avenue Church of Christ, to conduct a Singing Emphasis Workshop.

The workshop is held to develop congregational singing and to encourage the spiritual aspects of singing in the worship services.

7 conservation contracts written in Garza in '75

Bob Arhelger, District Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, reports Great Plains contracts have been written on seven farms and ranches in Garza County this year. These involve a total of $26,970.40 in cost share assistance for application of conservation practices.

The Great Plains Conservation Program cost shares on needed conservation practices that benefit both the landowner and general public. When a Great Plains contract is written on a farm or ranch, every acre receives all needed conservation treatment, Arhelger says. This is one way natural resources can be conserved for future generations.

Permanent type conservation practices such as terraces, waterways, ponds, brush control, etc. are needed, but most landowners find the cost of installation prohibitive. In agriculture, production costs are sky rocketing and profits are dropping. Cost sharing on these practices through the Great Plains Conservation Program is one way the farmer or rancher may be able to afford these practices. The initial step in entering the Great Plains Conservation Program is to make application at the local Soil Conservation Service Office. Details of the program will be explained by SCS technicians. Application for participation in GPCP does not commit the landowner to a contract, but does set up priority for a contract if he decides to enter the program.

Arhelger says a GP contract can be tailored to the farmer's or rancher's operation to cover a period of three to ten years for completion.

Persons interested in assistance should drop by the local Soil Conservation Service office for more information on the GP Program or any other conservation problem.

Sermon topics are announced

Sermon topics for the First Christian Church, for Palm Sunday will be "Calvary Does Not Involve Me?" for the morning worship service and "A Religion for Women?" for the evening worship service.

Other services for the week are 9:45 Church School, CYF immediately after the 7 p. m. worship and mid-week prayer service at 7:15 p. m. Edgar L. Fox is minister.

Postex Relays Friday may draw 800 to 1,000 athletes

49 teams from 14 schools included in record field

The fourth annual Postex Relays here Friday is expected to draw its biggest field ever — with between 800 and 1,000 boys on 49 teams competing in the four divisions.

Lane Tannehill, meet director, said 14 schools will compete in the seventh grade division, 14 in the eighth grade division, 13 in the ninth grade division, and eight in the high school JV division.

It will be the track opener for Coach Danny Chisum's seventh and eighth grade Post teams, for Coach Bobby Davis's ninth grade Post team, and for the Post junior varsity squad coached by Don Black and Tannehill.

The relays are co-sponsored by Burlington Industries and the Post High School.

Tannehill told The Dispatch that new high jump takeoff pad, high jump pit, new pole standards, and new pole vault and long jump runways are being provided for the meet.

Some of this was made available by the Antelope Booster Club.

The meet will get under way at 10 a. m. with the preliminaries in the running events and the start of field events.

Running event finals are scheduled to start at 2:15 p. m. The schedule calls for the meet to be completed at 5:30 p. m. at which time awards and trophies will be presented, but as Tannehill pointed out Tuesday the Postex Relays usually run ahead of schedule rather than behind. He said the whole show may be over by 4:45 p. m.

Teams entered in the various divisions include:

Seventh Grade: Post, Tahoka, Slaton, Cooper, Roosevelt, Frenship, Idalou, Floydada, Lockney, Tulia, Colorado City, Crosbyton, Ropesville and Sundown.

Eighth Grade: Teams from same 14 schools.

Ninth Grade: Teams from all the above schools but Ropesville.

Junior Varsity: Post, Tahoka, Slaton, Frenship, Floydada, Lockney, Tulia and Ropesville.

The relays this year will have 14 more teams in the four divisions than competed here in 1974.

Preliminaries for the running events are as follows with all four divisions running within the time span given for each event unless otherwise noted.

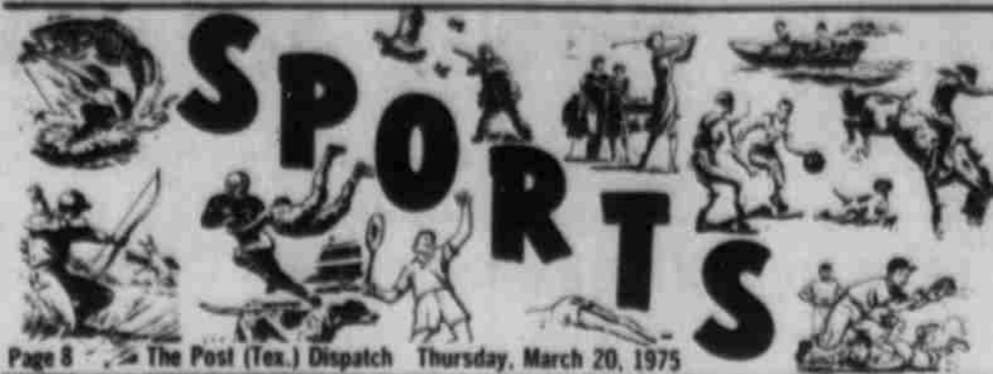

10 to 10:15, 440 yard relay.
10:15 to 10:30, 70 yard high hurdles for 7th and 8th grades.
10:30 to 10:40, 120 yard high hurdles for 9th and JVs.
10:40 to 11:15, 100 yard dash.
11:15 to 11:30, 330 yard dash for 7th and 8th.
11:30 to 11:50, 440 yard dash for 9th and JVs.
11:50 to 12:10, 230 yard intermediate hurdles for 7th and 8th.
12:10 to 12:30, 330 yard intermediate hurdles for 9th and JVs.

12:30 to 2:15, lunch break.
The track finals' schedule for the afternoon is as follows:

2:15 to 2:30, 440 relay; 2:30 to 2:45, 660 yard run for seventh and 8th; 2:45 to 3:00, 880 yard run for 9th and JVs; 3 to 3:10, 70 yard high hurdles; 3:10 to 3:20, 120 yard high hurdles; 3:20 to 3:35, 100 yard dash; 3:35 to 3:45, 330 yard dash; 3:45 to 3:55, 440 yard dash; 3:55 to 4:05, 230 intermediate hurdles; 4:05 to 4:15, 330 intermediate hurdles; 4:15 to 4:30, 220 yard dash; 4:30 to 4:45, 1,320 yard run for 7th and 8th; 4:45 to 5:00, mile run for 9th and JVs; 5:00 to 5:15, 880 relay for seventh and 8th; and 5:15 to 5:30, mile relay for 9th and JVs.

Field events are scheduled for the following four starting times:

10 a. m., 7th pole vault, 7th shot put, 8th high jump, 9th discus, and JV long jump.

Lopes are third in West Texas Relays

Coach Lane Tannehill's Post Antelope tracksters placed third Saturday in the Class AA division of the West Texas Relays at Odessa.

The locals scored 84 points to trail winning Stanton, which had 106, and runnerup Crane with 101. Seven other schools trailed behind Post.

Showing the balance they did in 1974 in winning the district title, the Lopes won but a single first but placed in 11 events. Jackie Blacklock won the 330 yard hurdles in 42.9 seconds.

Post scoring included: 880 yard relay (Alfred Pena, Edward Price, Joe Moore and Jackie Blacklock,) second.

440 Yard Dash: Chris Wyatt, third; and Pena, sixth.

330 yard hurdles: Blacklock, first; and Mike Waldrip, sixth.

Mile Relay: Pena, R. Wyatt, Price and C. Wyatt, fourth.

Volleyball team places third

The Dalby Cattle Co. women's volleyball team placed third in the Spur invitational tourney last Friday and Saturday.

Rule won the double elimination event in which the locals play five games and the Spur Security Bank team was runnerup.

The Dalby team next will compete in Southland's tournament beginning March 31.

Members of the local team are Janet Hall, Flute King, Jackie Lester, Mona Harris, Terry Patterson, Cindy Johnson, and Doylene Shumard, who was unable to compete at Spur because she was attending a convention.

Little league to reorganize

There will be a meeting in the Reddy Room, Monday, March 24, at 7:30 p. m. for all coaches, managers and interested parents of the Post Little League.

The meeting is being held to reorganize and discuss plans for the upcoming Little League Season.

Denver City's Relays next

The Post High School track team will journey west to the Denver City Relays Saturday to get a competitive test of the track and field facilities where the Lopes will be defending their district track title April 11.

The district teams will be divided this weekend event the Mustang-sponsored event and the track meet at Roosevelt.

Coach Lane Tannehill's tracksters lost some almost sure points, and probably a batch of them, when sprinter Dennis McDonald checked in his suit Monday with the announcement that he didn't want to run this spring.

McDonald did not accompany the team to Odessa Saturday and has not competed this spring to date.

Coach Tannehill announced

Post Does third against AAAA and AAA competition

Coach John Morrow's Post Doe track team was competing away out of its class at Spur last Friday but finished third in a four-school field against AAAA and AAA competition.

The locals scored 105 points to beat Snyder which tallied only 29.

Abilene High, a AAAA team, scored an even 200 points to win Division II at Spur with Abilene Cooper at 117, just 12 ahead of the Dikes winning second.

Considering the caliber of the competition, Coach Morrow said he was well pleased with the Post girls' performance.

The Does won two events and finished second in five others. Ann Mitchell won the discus with a heave of 105 feet, 1 1/2 inches, and Patricia Bilberry sprinted to a victory in the 220 yard dash in 28.5 seconds.

Second places included Jenda

Gilmore in the 80 yard hurdles in 12.8; Brenda Price with a 12.5 century dash; Mitchell with a 36 foot, 1 1/2 inch throw in the shot; the 880 yard relay team (Jenda Gilmore, Jodine Tipton, Bilberry, and Price) in 1:50.3; and the mile relay team (Genetta Kennedy, Sharon Johnson, Hope Johnson and Patricia Posey) in 4:35.4.

Post's three thirds included the 440 yard relay team of Karen Williams, Bilberry, Tipton and Price in 53.1; Joni Hays with an 83 foot, 11 inch throw in the discus; and Genetta Kennedy with a 29.3 in the 220 yard dash.

Fourth were won by Williams with an 8.2 in the 60 yard dash; and Sharon Johnson with 30 feet, 6 1/2 inches in the triple jump.

Fifth place points were scored by Bilberry with a 4 foot, 6 inch high jump, Linda Wynn with a 68.7 in the 440; Kennedy with 30 feet 6 1/2 inches in the triple jump; and Price with 15 feet, 2 inches in the long jump.

Hays took a sixth in the shot with 28 feet, 4 1/2 inches. Karla Kennedy got another in the high jump by clearing the bar at 4 feet, 6 inches.

Coach Morrow, who will take the Does to Olton Friday for their third start of the season in a meet without divisions, says it is "too early" to tell about the team's district title chances. But Post already has beaten all district schools but Roosevelt, who they have yet to meet.

Coach Morrow has 26 girls on the track squad, counting the freshmen, and he takes 19 to the meets.

The girls compete in the same track and field events as the boys except they don't run the mile or pole vault. But they compete in the triple jump while the boys don't.

Trulove named to SPAG group

Police Chief Jim Trulove was appointed last week to serve on the Criminal Justice Planning Committee of the South Plains Association of Governments.

Kits —

Some of our regular fingerprinting dust is so old it is getting hard in the bottles. We have had to borrow a lot of equipment from other agencies in the past.

This new equipment will not cost either law enforcement agency anything. Trulove said "The entire cost is funded through criminal justice funds for this area."

Our agencies would like to jointly thank the South Plains Association of Governments and its criminal justice director, Walter Head for letting us participate in this regional project. Sheriff J. A. (Jimmy) Holleman and Trulove declared.

Marijuana —

made of metal in the possession of one of the students.

Both pipes contained a usable amount of marijuana, the officers said.

Police Chief Jim Trulove analyzed the marijuana with the new narcotics lab equipment received here for police and sheriff department use as a part of the law enforcement technical equipment grant project.

When the test results were positive the marijuana charges were filed.

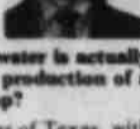

Postings —

and approval given for all construction.

That went to the area director of the Department of Housing and Urban Development in Dallas.

Wouldn't it be something, if the application went through?

TEXAS TALK
By FRED MYERS

Q: How much water is actually needed for the production of a good cotton crop?

A: In most areas of Texas, with the exception of a couple of times of the year, the most prevalent answer would be "All we can get". More specifically, authorities now estimate the weight of water evaporated from an acre of cotton during a typical summer day to be as much as 68,000 pounds. That's equivalent to more than a quarter of an inch of rainfall a day. Considerably more than we can count on having. Irrigation supplements the rainfall wherever possible to provide an effective 30 inches of moisture during the average growing season.

In some areas of the really arid Southwest, farmers sometimes irrigate enough to provide the equivalent of 32 inches of rainfall through the course of a full year.

Rainfall can be most harmful just after planting when the water may lower the soil temperature below 58 degrees.

Housing —

Rents are on the rise in small towns as inflation has reached them, Gildersleeve explained.

He said the rental units would be built in duplexes with 633 square feet for the one-bedroom units and 838 square feet in the two bedroom units. He passed around a set of plans of the Crosbyton units for council examination.

Construction costs, he said, will average $16 to $17 a square foot.

He said a non-profit corporation to operate such a project should include 50 to 75 citizens and have nine directors. It does not have to be sponsored by the city or county government, he added.

A housing survey is required for a planning start after the corporation is formed, he said.

Taba'na —

(Continued From Page One) local business and professional men to buy their breakfast tickets in advance and to be sure and attend this unique local promotion.

Stone says that the Indian legend testing of the sunrise wind direction on March 22 was begun 73 years ago here by J. I. Wilburn, an early day dry goods dealer.

Breakfast tickets, priced at $2.50, are on sale at Twins Fashions, Bryan Williams & Son Insurance, Jackson's Cafeteria, Raferti and the Chamber of Commerce office.

Two Lubbock TV stations will film the "Taba'na Yuan'e" ceremony for airing later Saturday.

Member goal of 50 for Rotary

Post Rotarians were urged by Tom Power, their membership chairman, Tuesday to boost the club membership to 50 by the time the local civic club celebrates its 50th anniversary in October.

Power said the club has had a net gain in membership of 10 to 42 since the present club year began last July 1.

The local insurance man in a luncheon talk also brought up a number of his own suggestions of improvements the club could make or projects it could undertake in its 50th anniversary year ahead.

Curtis Hudman gave a classification talk on the furniture business prior to the remarks by Powers.

Starting off the program, Jennifer Miller and Kelvin Thomas sang a duet accompanied by David Morrow at the piano.

Investigators school here

The Post Police Department will sponsor a Criminal Investigators' School here with the tentative dates the second week in April.

The class will be limited to 15 area law enforcement officers on a first come, first serve basis.

Three of the instructors will be Police Chief Jim Trulove, and two SPAG officials from Lubbock, Ronnie Smith and Walter Head, who heads SPAG's criminal justice division.

HER SISTER DIES

Mrs. C. K. Pierce, local librarian, has received word that her sister, Mrs. Pat Beene, was found dead in her bed yesterday morning at her home in Pflugerville, Tex., by her husband. She had been suffering from asthma. Funeral arrangements are pending at a Round Rock funeral home.

City Council---

(Continued From Page One) Discussed with Chamber Secretary Joy Greer whether or not the city could loan money to downtown businessmen to remodel their store fronts. Mayor Giles McCrary said in his opinion such loans couldn't be made and the city's attorney, Harvey Morton of Lubbock, was asked to look into the matter.

The special meeting was set up for Monday afternoon after the council discovered the city had "goofed" in thinking the next insurance policies expiring for the city wouldn't be until July.

Harold Lucas of the Post Insurance Agency appeared before the council to call attention to the policy expiration March 29, which he had included in a listing of city policies given the council two weeks ago.

Lucas offered the council a combined three-year policy for liability, fire and extended coverage on all their buildings and contents at what he described as the "lowest possible price" available.

The insurance proposal in written form was not read by the council as they moved to set up a special session at which they would consider any bids submitted by the four local insurance agencies. Secretary Wanda Wilkerson was instructed to notify the agencies of the bidding by phone the following day.

This action came after Mayor McCrary reported that the county handles its insurance through bidding invitations and that the school trustees have been advised by their attorney that bids aren't required and that buying insurance is "a management decision."

The mayor also presented the council with "Guidelines for Insurance Administration" prepared by a University of Texas Insurance expert and a listing of all insurance companies doing business in Texas along with their ratings.

Lucas in his short appearance before the council first asked on behalf of the Retail Merchants Association that the local credit organization be permitted to use the former police building for its office. He said the Chamber also might be interested in the move with joint offices for the two organizations.

The council decided to permit use of the building providing the organizations maintained it, paid their own utilities, paid their own liability insurance and prorated share of the building's insurance cost. The city will keep a portion of the building for record storage.

Attorney Morton was asked to draw up a contract on the buildings use for final consideration by the council at its next meeting, but in the meantime the RMA and Chamber were given city authority to "move in."

Councilman Ed Sawyers opened the discussion of the proposed mobile home ordinance by saying some citizens "believe we've already passed a strict mobile home ordinance" (which the council of course hasn't) and that he wanted to go on record as opposed to "discriminating against mobile home owners" by setting up space requirements on property for mobile home use if the city permits any kind of old house to be moved into town and put down anywhere on a lot without any consideration for safety or fire hazard factors involved.

The proposed new ordinance would require only one mobile home per 40-foot lot. Mayor McCrary pointed out the city has a building code which sets up safety factors for permanent construction and if the "old house move in" Sawyers cited hadn't first been authorized by a city building permit (which it hadn't) legal corrective action could be taken. McCrary made the point the

Blacks seek —

(Continued From Page One) ported they had held a community get-together recently and had selected Olga Perez, Louisa Valdes and Benny Valdes to be their representatives from the target area on the action committee. Bylaws of the committee require that representatives of the poor be elected at such community meetings.

County Judge Giles Dalby told the committee and a large group of onlookers that the Garza County Commissioners Court has arranged to pay for any necessary hepatitis shots for those who cannot afford to pay for them. Dalby said any required shots would be given by the county health officer, Dr. William Wilson.
