Houston ient for the consumer and Hoover, scoutmaster of Littlefield. who was scoutmaster here for several years, presented the awin larger than a nickel, and ard in an impressive ceremony Hoover mentioned the fact that he had started Marshall out in scouting four years ago ago and had known him intimately ever since and that he considered him worthy in every way to wear the Eagle badge. He asked Mrs.

Mason to pin the badge on her son

Following this presentation, Mr. G. M. Unger, Scout Execuor foods, under the mest- tive of Eubbock, made an inspiring address on American Ideals as typified by our great presidents, Washington and Lincoln. He called attention to the fact of how this will that many dangerous thoughts and ideas, which threaten these ideals, are being spread among the young people of today. He emphasized "Scouting" as one of the great forces combating the spread of such dangerous doctrines imong our youth. In his opening remarks Mr. Unger mentioned the many difficulties in the way of i boy ever becoming an Eagle Scout. He said he was glad it

The center of all Christian thinking is the fact that God has revealed Himself to man. This revelation is found in the Bible, for it is the Word of God. That is why the commandments which we have studied in recent weeks speak to us with such authority. They are not the expression of human opinion of how we should live. They are God's command which we are to obey.

The great and Anal revelation of God and His love was not the written Word-the Bible-but the Living Word-His Son. The coming of Christ is our lesson for next week. on Christmas Sunday. But this week we want to learn a little more of what His coming into the world meant. He was-

He was to be a prophet like Moses (Deut, 18) and of the kingly house of David (II Sam. 7). All the offerings of Leviticus spoke of His priestly service. Isaiah saw Him as both the reigning and the suffering Messiah (Isa. 53).

All this was incomplete until He came: and when He did. He revealed all the glory of God. He made perfect and final sacrifice for sin, and sat down (His work was finished) at God's right hand (the place of power).

Let us be clear about this: in Christ God's revelation is perfect and complete. We need look for nothing more. The claims of those who appear with a "new light" or some mysterious hidden power are so obviously untrue that we ought not be at all interested.

But not only is Christ God's final Word, He is-

Indian peace pipes are usually nade from stone quarried in Mincosts. The quarry was neutral. where warfare was for-perior in their way to man (Ps. much of angels (as do some groups today), but Protestantism of our day are great and powerful beings who minister on our behalf and who are honored in the loyal service they do for God.

But when they stand beside the Son of God, it becomes evident that He holds a place of incomparable glory and majesty. He is the highest revelation of God, the best Word that God could have spoken to needy and sinful humanity.

We do well to think of who Christ is and what He has done. Just in this passage from Hebrews we find that He is the express image of all of God's glory; He is the upholder of all creation; He has the place of honor and power at God's right hand; He is the only begotten of the Father; His throne has been establiahed forever, and so on.

How well nigh unbelievable that this glorious One is also our Saviour. This is stated in verse 3, but is developed in our next point. III. God's Saving Word (Rom. 10: 4-10)

If sinful man were only permitted to look on His glory it would be a great privilege, but it would not help him in his desire for holiness and eternal joy. There was a "great gulf fixed" between sinful man and a holy God until the Son of Glory became the God-man, when the eternal Word became "flesh and dwelt among us" (Luke 2:14).

Christ as our Saviour is the "end of the law" to the believer (v. 4), not in the sense that He terminates the law by setting it aside, but by completing or fulfilling all of its requiremente

Just so the Christian is set free from the law, not in order that he may disobey it, but that he may keep it in the power and grace which Christ gives him. The Ten Commandments are the law of life for the Christian because he loves the Lord Jesus Christ and wants to obey Him. We do the things which the Decalogue require not to be saved thereby, but because we thereby honor the name of our Saviour. The unbeliever, struggling under the hurden of sin, says, "How can I came to know Him?" and we find newser in verses 8-10. It is
