County 4-H Club Officers and Sponsors Hold Training Conference Saturday

The Girl's 4-H club officers and sponsors of Garza county held a training conference in the district room Saturday, March 11. The officers of the Southland 4-H club with the assistance of the presidents of the other clubs, gave a demonstration of how a club meeting should be carried on. This demonstration Mary Sims presided as president.

Miss Mabel Ann Manley, County Home Demonstration Agent, told the group how and when to write reports for the local paper. Twenty-nine officers and sponsors were present for this meeting. After the conference the Sponsors met in the County Home Demonstrator's office for a committee meeting. The group chose Mrs. S. D. Sims as chairman.

State Health Officer Advises Against Risks of Typhoid

Austin, March 15— With the approach of spring and summer, an increase in the incidence of typhoid fever may be expected, but under war-time conditions it can very easily become a major health menace, as was pointed out in a statement released by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Nearly all cases of typhoid in Texas can be traced to a supply of contaminated water or food," Dr. Cox said. "Some cases, of course, occur by direct contact with patients or their excreta, usually when sanitary conditions surrounding the patient are bad."

Dr. Cox said that individual water supplies which are poorly located and wells improperly enclosed may receive surface drainage and pollution; therefore, springs and wells should be protected adequately. Sanitary pit privies or septic tanks also help protect wells and springs from pollution. There is real danger in the seepage from poorly constructed or dilapidated privies. Fly screens and covered toilet seats help in warm weather to keep flies from breeding in toilets and carrying infection to food.

Carriers or walking cases never should be food handlers. A carrier, the doctor said, is a person who harbors typhoid germs in his body, though having no symptoms of the disease. Typhoid fever is one of the many infections that can be carried by raw milk. Pasteurized milk therefore should be used, since pasteurization kills disease organisms if they are present in the raw milk.

"Everyone contemplating trips where the safety of the milk and water supplies cannot be established," Dr. Cox declared, "should be immunized by the family doctor. Three doses of the vaccine are given in weekly intervals. The treatment is not dangerous, and it gives protection for two years or more."

Dairy Payment Rates Announced For March And April

"The War Food Administration has announced payments for March and April on Dairy Feed," stated Julius C. Fumagalli, Chairman Garza County AAA Committee. The following is a telegram received by B. F. Vance, Administrative Officer in charge, College Station, Texas:

"Announce immediately rate of dairy production payment on whole milk during March and April your State sixty cents per cwt. Butterfat rate eight cents per pound through nation. Tentative plans contemplate seasonal reduction in rates for May through August."

Payments are now being made for the months of January and February. To avoid delay in your payments, be sure that each cream stub is dated and signed at the cream station. Payments for January sales close March 31.

Opening dates for payments of March and April have not yet been announced.

Simple Taxes, Please

If we were Congress, we think we'd put at the top of the fall program an honest effort to simplify the income-tax law.

This law was rewritten early last summer so as to take in a modification of the Ruml pay-as-you-go plan. Striving to present us with something different from Mr. Ruml's simple formula, our lawmakers finally worked out a statute which is driving many an employer, auditor and plain taxpayer rapidly toward the psychopathic ward.

Its complications are almost unbelievable. The paper work involved is atrocious. The burden of useless, profitless labor it puts on business houses and private citizens alike is outrageous. So tricky and complex is this new law that the Treasury itself has offered to try to simplify it.

Americans in general don't mind paying taxes to win the war and keep the government going. They do mind, and bitterly, being chained to huge periodic jobs of paper work from which they emerge with no clear idea of just how much taxes they ought to pay.

The real explanation for the enormous complexity of the present law lies in the Treasury itself. The Treasury, through Randolph Paul, its counsel, appeared to be more interested in setting up penalties against a few possessors of large incomes than in devising a productive revenue act.

The unfortunate truth is that Mr. Morgenthau has had a succession of advisers who have been animated more by group prejudices than by reasonable fiscal considerations.

The present law is intolerably complex because of the Treasury experts' phobias. The tax burden is now too heavy and too widespread to continue to be the plaything of social experimenters and class haters. The laws should be revised and simplified; in the revision, hate and prejudice should be dropped out. We can't afford such luxuries in wartime.

Price Control Survey In Garza County To Begin Monday, March 20th

A drive to mobilize price control forces among retailers and consumers in Garza County will begin March 20 under the direction of the local War Price and Rationing Board. Local Board representatives will conduct a store survey of every food store in this area.

The basic purpose of the store survey is to obtain better compliance with price control regulations by helping retailers to understand the necessary requirements. It will also serve to protect storekeepers and their customers from black market competition.

"Price control can be effective in Garza county only if the retailers and consumers join efforts to comply with the community protection program. This drive will protect us from the invasion of inflationary forces."

A second check, beginning April 3 will determine whether storekeepers have corrected their errors. If they are found "out of line" during this second check, they must meet with Rationing Board officials. Deliberate violations will be referred to the OPA District Office for immediate enforcement action.

In the survey, ten "popular market-basket" foods will be checked for selling and ceiling prices. Rationing Board representatives will visit all food stores in this county to assist storekeepers by explaining regulations, to help them with the display of official signs and price lists, and to compare the retailer's selling prices with the OPA ceilings.

Enforcement action will probably be necessary in some cases, but the main job is to help retailers and consumers to understand price regulations and to realize that 100 per cent compliance will keep the cost of living down.

MOTORISTS ARE WARNED ON DRIVERS' LICENSES

Austin— Capt. John B. Draper of the state drivers license office today warned motorists with expired or expiring licenses that about 30 days is required to get a new or reissued license and that the mere fact of application for the license does not protect the driver until he actually receives the current license.

Meantime he may be arrested for driving without a license. New licenses are going out at the rate of 7,500 a day.

Gasoline A Cards Slashed In Fight On Black Market

The "A" card gasoline ration Tuesday was lowered to two gallons a week for the entire country, effective March 22, because of imminent "critical demands" and a gigantic black market which is draining 2,500 gallons daily from the restricted civilian supply.

The action means a one-third cut in basic family car rations for all parts of the country except the eastern seaboard where the "A" ration already is two gallons weekly.

Under the lowered "A" ration, the value of "A" coupons will remain unchanged. Coupons will have to last three instead of two months, however, in those areas which heretofore have had larger rations than the eastern seaboard.

Here is the effect on each section:

Eastern seaboard — no change from present.

Middle-of-the-country, including Texas— "A" rations cut one-third. Local ration boards authorized to issue "B" coupons for up to a maximum of 475 miles a month of occupational driving instead of 400.

Simultaneously with issuance of the orders the Office of Price Administration made startling charges as to the extent of counterfeiting of gasoline ration coupons. Calling it the biggest criminal racket to blanket the country, Shad Polier, director of gasoline rationing enforcement, declared:

Fifteen per cent of "C" coupons turned in by filling stations are counterfeit.

To The Voters Of Garza County:

I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Tax Collector of Garza County.

It is my belief that my experiences have qualified me sufficiently that I can render you efficient service in the event you see fit to honor me with the office I seek. I am mindful of the fact that public offices belong to the people and in my opinion those who are elected to fill them are obligated to serve the community and its best interest.

Transportation conditions are such that it will not be possible to make a house-to-house canvass but I shall attempt to contact everyone between now and primary election date, but if I should happen to miss anyone it will not be intentional.

Your consideration is earnestly solicited and any support you may see fit to give me will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

150,000 Planes Since March, 1941

Of the 150,000 planes produced by the United States since March, 1941, the U. S. has retained 122,000 for its own use and has shipped 28,000 to its Allies, the Foreign Economic Administration has announced. The Allies paid cash for almost 7,000 planes and received more than 21,000 under lend-lease. The British and Russians produce most of the planes they are using, but American Lend-Lease planes with British, Norwegian, Polish, Czech, and other allied pilots are playing a vital role against Germany.

Farm Income To Level Off

Phenomenal increases in farm cash income should be expected by Texas agriculturists during 1944, says Dr. F. A. Buechel of the University of Texas bureau of business research.

In 1943, farm cash income attained a record figure. The outlook is for some additional gain, but the tendency will be for such income to level off in 1944, the economic analyst believes.

A sharp rise in income from citrus fruit in the lower Rio Grande valley, however, was given as the principal reason for a gain in the first month of 1944.

An estimated $67,000,000 was received by Texas farmers during January. This was nearly 16 per cent above their January 1943 income, Dr. Buechel reported.

In the lower Rio Grande valley receipts from fruits and vegetables totaled nearly $13,000,000, more than twice those of January, 1943.

Rice and eggs also yielded sharp gains in income over January a year ago.

January's total farm cash income was more than three times that of the average January during the five year period, 1928-32, which comprises the university bureau's base period. The index for January, 1944, stood at 307.7, compared to 224.3 in December and 266.2 in January, 1943.

RIGORS OF WAR

In the tent hospitals which follow the Army in combat areas, American Red Cross hospital workers live exactly like the doctors and nurses. Usually they wear slacks, wash their clothes in helmets, and while on the move have to bathe out of these same helmets. They take over where the nurses leave off, giving the thousand and one little services a mother, sister or wife would, to the wounded soldiers.

Mrs. Juanita McBee has received word from her husband, Cpl. James A. McBee, that he is back in North Africa now after spending five months in Italy. He says that he is enjoying plenty of rest and better food and seems that he is much closer home. Cpl. McBee has been overseas ten months.

Improved Uniform International LESSON

JESUS CRUCIFIED

LESSON TEXT: Mark 15:22-27, 29-30. GOLDEN TEXT: He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.—Isaiah 53:5.

The crucifixion of Christ brings us to that darkest of all days in the history of the world, when wicked men with cruel hearts and hands crucified the loving Son of God. But, thanks be to God, it was also the day when bright hope shone forth for sinful humanity, for in His death Christ bore our sins upon the tree, the veil was rent, the old sacrifices were set aside, and the "new and living way" was opened into the "holiest by the blood of Jesus" (Heb. 10:20).

The cross is not just an ornament to decorate the steeple of a church, or to adorn a man. It speaks of the black horror of the cry, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" But it also tells of our God, who "so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son" as its Redeemer.

What does Calvary mean to us? It means that—

I. The Saviour Died So We Could Live (vv. 22-27).

The details of and circumstances surrounding the crucifixion are of deep interest to every Christian. We stand with Luther and weep as we see Christ's unspeakable agony, not only of body but of spirit, and we cry, "For me, for me!" How can any believer contemplate the cross and withhold self, substance, or service from Christ?

There would be less careless, selfish living if we would go often to the story of the death of Christ and recognize the loving, sacrificial devotion of Christ.

Equally heart-searching is the message of the cross to the unbeliever. He knows he is a sinner (Rom. 3:23); he knows that "the wages of sin is death" (Rom. 6:23), and he knows that "neither is there salvation in any other, for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Here at the cross he meets that one "who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed" (1 Pet. 2:24).

Note the difference between the two thieves who were hanged with Jesus, for it is the difference between those who face Christ in our day. One rallied on Him (Luke 23:39), while the other, repentant, had a faith that looked all the way into Paradise (Luke 23:43).

II. The Son Was Forsaken So We Could Be Accepted (vv. 29-30).

Awful was the railing and mocking which our Lord endured on the cross. It must have made His devoted, loving heart well-nigh break as He saw the scorn of the very ones He died to save.

Yet it was as nothing compared to that moment when He who knew no sin "was made sin for us" (11 Cor. 5:21). Bearing the awful load of the sin of the world He knew the bitter agony of being forsaken by the Father. He turned His head away and we hear that saddest of all cries, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

We cannot fathom the full meaning of that hour, we dare not attempt to explain it, we can only accept it and thank God that because He did become sin for us we may be "made the righteousness of God in him" (11 Cor. 5:21). He died that we might live. He was forsaken that we might be "accepted in Him" "the beloved" (Eph. 1:6).

After the darkness, however, comes the light. He died not as a martyr, a vanquished gladiator defeated in battle; no, there was victory.

III. The Veil Was Rent So We Could Enter (vv. 37-39).

The death of Jesus was not the pitiful weakening of a human martyr. Here was the Son of God, crying with a loud voice (v. 37), giving up His spirit to the Father (Luke 23:46), declaring that the work of redemption was "finished."

As a visible indication of that fact and as a declaration that the old dispensation of law had given place to the new dispensation of grace, God tore the temple veil in twain. Only He could have done it.

No man could have torn this sixty-foot long, twenty-foot wide, and inch-thick curtain, and note that it was torn from top to bottom. This was the act of God. This veil had hung in the temple to keep all but the high priest out of the Holy of Holies, and he entered with fear and trembling but once a year as the representative of the people.

Now all this is changed. We have now, "brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil."

Therefore, "let us draw near with a true heart and full assurance of faith" (Heb. 10:22).

Good Music Helps Maimed Veterans

Right Airs Properly Played Bring Relief.

NEW YORK.—Good music, with tone and tempo regulated scientifically, is speeding the recovery of many United States servicemen brought home maimed or sick, according to Mrs. Harriet Ayer Seymour, founder of the National Institute of Musical Therapy.

"Extensive research and application of musical therapy in hospitals have proven that the right music properly played helps patients return to good health," said Mrs. Seymour, whose nonprofit organization brings melodic relief to besides in many parts of the country. "It does not actually heal; it brings a reawakening of the spirit."

The plan, which has doctors "putting in orders" for bedside concerts, has been narrowed to set types of songs for specific ailments. For mental cases the foundation provides soft music, with the best tone possible and with gradually increasing crescendo and tempo, and repetition when a reaction is noticed. Tuberculosis patients get music suggesting the outdoors.

"Marches are played for orthopedic cases. In no case is live or boogie woogie played," Mrs. Seymour said.

A surgical case gets soothing music without "shocking high notes," and a medical case is given songs by one voice with a violin-cello-piano team. A patient who just received a sedative gets soft music. One who just awoke gets livelier stuff. "Drawing room music"—light operatic numbers and gay waltzes—is played for convalescents.

"Native music is good, too," Mrs. Seymour said.

For the home Mrs. Seymour recommended soft, soothing music for toothaches, and for such ailments as lumbago snappy pieces to "stimulate the circulation."

Losses to Subs Decrease

60 Per Cent in Past Year

WASHINGTON.—U-boat warfare in 1943 cost the United Nations only 40 per cent of the cargo tonnage total sunk in 1942, a joint Anglo-American statement reported. The tonnage of new merchant vessels constructed last year was more than twice as great as in 1942, the report said.

The tonnage of cargo ship losses to submarines in the Atlantic in December "was again low, despite an extension of (U-boat) operating areas," said the monthly communique, issued by the Office of War Information under authority of President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill.

"Fewer U-boats were destroyed during the month by our air and sea forces owing to several factors, including increased caution by the enemy," the report stated. "Our supply routes were, however, well secured against U-boat attack."

Nearly half the merchant ship tonnage sunk was lost in the first three months of 1943, 27 per cent in the second quarter, and only 26 per cent in the third and fourth quarters combined.

Previously it had been announced that 150 U-boats were destroyed in the second and third quarters of 1943, a total greater than the number of Allied ships lost by submarine action.

The Rev. Austin Moore of the Church of the Nazarene here has been informed that the denomination's Bethany-Peniel College, a growing liberal arts school located at Bethany, adjoining Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, is making final payment on its debt in March, thus leaving the institution completely solvent for the first time in twenty-five years.

The rapid progress of the college in recent years has been due in large part to the leadership of Dr. A. K. Bracken, who served as president from 1920 to 1942; Dr. S. T. Ludwig, his successor; and John Stockton, business manager since 1941.

Although supported by the Church of the Nazarene, the school is not sectarian in its emphasis, and welcomes young people from any denomination who desire the advantages of training and culture in a Christian environment.

The revival at the Church of the Nazarene is getting off to a good start with Rev. Odell Brown of Grassland as the evangelist.

Everyone is welcome to attend, the meeting will close Sunday night, March 19.

A PEOPLE'S TAX

Senator Byrd, of Virginia, recently declared: "There was a time when the Federal income tax was called a rich man's tax; the masses believed that they would benefit and that the wealthy would pay the bill. Today all that has changed. From now on our Federal expenditures will be traced directly to tax burdens in the lower-income brackets, it being estimated that fifty million people will now file income tax returns. The Secretary of the Treasury must have had a similar idea in mind when he stated: 'For the first time in our history the income tax is becoming a people's tax.'"

WE SHOULD APPRECIATE OUR DOCTORS

More than one third of all the doctors in the country are in the armed forces. The doctors remaining in practice are busier than ever, their work is all personal service and this is limited by the number of hours a man can work each day.

Doctors have a long tradition of years of schooling, the "starvation years," a few peak years of income. Still the ambition to serve steadily draws new recruits into their ranks.

Sinclair Lewis was the first American to receive the Nobel Prize

The territory of Brazil is larger than that of either the United States or Australia.

EMINENTLY REASONABLE

The oil industry, in urging the formulation of a foreign oil policy by our government without further delay, touches on a question of direct interest to everyone in this country. A representative of the oil industry recently pointed out that: "The need for such a long-term policy becomes immediately apparent when we consider the fact that in 1943 the United States produced two-thirds of the world's oil from one-third of the known reserves of the world, while the other two-thirds of the world's oil reserves, principally in the Near East, produced only one third of the oil. Likewise in 1943, for the sixth successive year, we found less new oil than we produced . . ."

Nowhere else in the world do facilities exist capable of the output of our oil industry. Without our oil industry, the cause of the United Nations would at best be a dubious one. But for the efforts of men who devised the organizations and equipment under a system of free enterprise, that are today producing millions of barrels of oil every twenty-four hours to keep the fighting machines running, the grand military strategy of the statesmen would be of little avail. Victory depends upon oil.

The oil industry has given the nation oil. It now asks that it be given access to the world's oil reserves on equal terms with the nationals of other nations, and that it be allowed to continue operation free of competition from our own government. Its request is eminently reasonable.

Views of Neighboring Editors:

Scurry County Times— In the language of popular fiction writers, our valley of peace and sanctuary in Scurry county is greening with the breath of spring, and a thousand fruit trees, in a thousand favored spots, are bursting out in bloom—in bloom when fruit will be more urgently needed than ever to keep the jars filled in county cellars.

Greenness in pasture land means flesh and sleek coats of hair for winter-worn livestock, a good bottom season in the ground means corn an' cotton an' sorghum an' peanuts when Ole Man Summer casts the sunshine of his smile our way; and trees filled with a corsage of blooms will mean fruit not only for our use here but for our boys and girls when they get back home. We may have trials and vexation of spirit, but we can plan, if we will, to keep our valley green with life and promise for our boys who are away.

Don't you believe the least we can do is to keep faith with our fighting men and see they return to green valleys and fields of growing crops? The most we can do will be small enough, compared with their sacrifices, so plan to do everything you can to hasten the day of victory—be it war loan drives, Red Cross work or such small things as contributing regularly to scrap and salvage campaigns.

Nolan County News— Sen. W.
Lee O'Daniel has announced his intention of coming home to tell the people of Texas about the "skullduggery" going on in Washington and about his proposal to replace all congressmen who have been in office for six years or longer.

Now if the good senator really wants to serve the people of Texas he can remain in Washington and attend to his duties as a member of congress, before which will come many more momentous questions than how many of them have been there six years or longer.

Why don't W. Lee come out openly and tell the people he is opposed to a fourth term for the president, instead of beating around the bush so as not to run the risk of endangering his own future political fortunes?

Same thinking Texans have not forgotten the rank accusations he made against high government officials in his last senatorial campaign. Then he did more to create distrust of the nation's leaders than he did to inspire confidence in his ability, or in the ability of any of his colleagues in Washington.

BY DESIGN OR BY ACCIDENT?

According to responsible authorities, attempts have been made to hold up production of civilian goods, in the belief that a policy of scarcity is an effective morale builder. If this is true, a despi-cable trick is being played on consumers and the battle against inflation may be immeasurably more difficult.

Most observers agree that the impense productive capacity of industry now stands as the best guarantee against uncontrolled inflation. Unless industry turns out things people need in sufficient quantity to offset the billions of new dollars which the war has put into the hands of the public, the natural laws of supply and demand will wreck price ceilings. Industry should be encouraged to produce the goods and retail distributors should be encouraged to make those goods available to consumers on as large a scale as possible without actually impairing war production.

Complicated regulations have been to blame for removing from retail shelves many critically needed consumer items. When merchants and manufacturers point to the effect of specific regulations on dwindling supplies, they are assured that everything possible is being done to correct the situation—but the regulations continue in force and supplies dwindle. Low priced clothing is a case in point. Certain lines of women's and children's apparel have literally been ruled off the market.

If these regulations that restrict production and distribution of consumer goods are par of a misguided attempt to bolster civilian morale, it is about time the country learned the truth. A nation whose people have sent ten million men to war, will not appreciate public servants playing with the home front like children play with a toy.

Close City 4-H Club Girls Hold Regular Meetings Recently

The 4-H club girls met Feb. 28. The president, Wylene Moss, brought the meeting to order. The secretary, Marilyn Curry read the minutes. All business was discussed, including how much we would pay for club dues. We decided that each member is to pay 10¢ a month.

Wylene Moss, Jeanne Kiker, La Vern Furr, Helen Williams, Helen Grisham and La Nell Brown all had their scarfs finished. The others had their's almost done. Mrs. Teaff met with the girls. She seemed to think our ideas splendid.

We met again Tuesday, March 7. Our president brought the meeting to order. Marilyn Curry read the minutes. Miss Manley met with us and was very pleased to know that one hundred per cent of the girls had their scarfs done. Her words of comment were, "all are very nicely done." Of course some of us had more practice than the rest, so more should be expected from them than from the smaller ones.

Miss Manley gave us some more papers to go in our note books. Also we had a style show to decide on what apron pattern we wanted to make ours by. An apron will be our next project.

We think we are making good progress and would like to have any visitors who wish to come. Our next meeting will be March 21. Everyone is welcome. —Rep.

cently declared: "There was a
would pay the bill. Today all that has changed. From now on our
estimated that fifty million peo-
turns. The Secretary of the Treas-
tax.'"

each day.

steadily draws new recruits into
their ranks.

ican to receive the Nobel Prize

that: "The need for such a long-
fact that in 1943 the United States
oil from one-third of the world's known reserves of the world, while
Near East, produced only one third of the oil. Likewise in 1943,
for the sixth successive year, we found less new oil than we produced..."

of men who devised the organiza-
today producing millions of bar-
hours to keep the fighting machines running, the grand military
upon oil.

The oil industry has given the
is eminently reasonable.

Views of
Neighboring Editors:

language of popular fiction writers, our valley of peace and sanctuary in Scurry county is green-
fruit will be more urgently need-
in county cellars.

good bottom season in the ground
an' peanuts when Ole Man Sum-
our way; and trees filled with a
our boys who are away.

do will be small enough, compared with their sacrifices, so plan to
small things as contributing regu-
paigns.

Nolan County News— Sen. W.
the people of Texas about the
"skullduggery" going on in Wash-
been in office for six years or longer.

Now if the good senator really
wants to serve the people of Texas he can remain in Washington,
come many more momentous ques-
have been there six years or longer.

future political fortunes?

Sane thinking Texans have not
made against high government officials in his last senatorial cam-
ton.

BY DESIGN OR BY ACCIDENT?

According to responsible au-
goods, in the belief that a policy
cable trick is being played on consumers and the battle against in-
more difficult.

immense productive capacity of
guarantee against uncontrolled inflation. Unless industry turns out
should be encouraged to produce
should be encouraged to make
those goods available to consum-
production.

retail shelves many critically need-
to the effect of specific regulations on dwindling supplies, they
case in point. Certain lines of wo-
literally been ruled off the market.

If these regulations that restrict
guided attempt to bolster civilian
with a toy.

The 4-H club girls met Feb. 28. The president, Wylene Moss, brought the meeting to order. The secretary, Marilyn Curry read the minutes. All business was discussed, including how much we would pay for club dues. We decided that each member is to pay 10¢ a month.

Wylene Moss, Jeanne Kiker, La Vern Furr, Helen Williams, Helen Grisham and La Nell Brown all had their scarfs finished. The others had their's almost done. Mrs. Teaff met with the girls. She seemed to think our ideas splendid.

We met again Tuesday, March 7. Our president brought the meeting to order. Marilyn Curry read the minutes. Miss Manley met with us and was very pleased to know that one hundred per cent of the girls had their scarfs done. Her words of comment were, "all are very nicely done." Of course some of us had more practice than the rest, so more should be expected from them than from the smaller ones.

Miss Manley gave us some more papers to go in our note books. Also we had a style show to decide on what apron pattern we wanted to make ours by. An apron will be our next project.

We think we are making good progress and would like to have any visitors who wish to come. Our next meeting will be March 21. Everyone is welcome. —Rep.
