War Crop Goals Set Up For Farms Of Garza County

The Garza County and Community Committees met Monday, January 25th, to set up war crop goals for individual farms in the county, said James A. Boyd, Administrative Officer.

These war crop goals and other problems confronting Garza county producers will be explained and discussed when the farm operators sign their 1943 Farm Plan Work Sheets. These work sheets are expected to arrive in the county office within the next few days and the sign-up is planned to start by the first of February, explained Boyd.

A calendar of the dates and places where the farm operators will meet to sign the work sheets will be sent to each operator in advance so that he will know when and where he is expected to meet his committeeman and sign up for 1943.

"This Farm Plan Work Sheet is more necessary and important for 1943 than ever before," Boyd said, "since it will include, when finished, information to be used by the AAA, Selective Service Board, Machinery Rationing Committee, and the Employment Service." Each farm operator should have well in mind certain data concerning their farms, machinery and equipment, labor situation, etc. Some of the questions which will be asked of each are as follows:

How many acres of soybeans or peanuts do you intend to plant in 1943? How many acres of cotton or wheat? How many acres of corn, oats, barley, sorghums, cowpeas, hay crops, potatoes, etc.? Also, it will be necessary to give information regarding how many head of livestock and poultry there were on the farm on January 1, 1943, and how many head the operator expects to have on the farm January 1, 1944.

The Farm Plan Work Sheet will also contain information regarding the farm production practice allowance, and the operator should consider what production practices are needed on the farm in 1943, and discuss this with the Committeemen.

The farm operators will also be asked to fill in questions regarding the condition of housing, livestock shelter, fencing, machinery, etc., and to give a report of the farm manpower, listing each person on the farm, whether a member of his own family, or a hired hand or share cropper, or their family, who live on the farm, giving their names, ages, and whether they work on the farm, or are available for work off the farm.

All of these questions should be given considerable thought, continued Boyd, since it is vitally necessary to have this information and should be answered as completely and carefully as possible.

FEBRUARY'S AUTO TIRE QUOTAS UP

Slightly more liberal passenger tire quotas for Texas in February, as compared with the previous month were announced Monday by the State OPA office, with a prediction that motorists demands for tires under the mileage rationing program will be substantially met within the next 30 or 60 days.

Truck recap and tube quotas for the month of February showed a small decrease over January.

State OPA rationing officials said passenger car owners newly eligible for tires under the mileage rationing program have swamped local war price and rationing boards with applications during the past month. In many cases, they said, relief has been granted by supplementing the tire quotas allotted to each county at the first of the month.

These officials predicted that the new Victory tire, which requires little crude rubber for its manufacture, soon will be available in sufficient quantities to fill most of the applications from motorists entitled to low-grade tires.

The state OPA office also announced a quota of 5,467 bicycles for rationing in Texas next month and 2,199 new automobiles.

FEBRUARY 1 DEADLINE ON POLL TAXES

Deputy Tax Assessor-Collector T. H. Tipton calls attention to the fact that only two days remain for payment of poll taxes. All poll taxes must be paid by February 1. The list of payments this year will be less than the corresponding dates last year, he asserted. The difference is accounted for in the large number of men most of them in voting age, who are in the service, and the fact that this is what is known as an "off year"—no elections.

Agriculture Is Essential To Winning The War

Planned Production Is Best Method For Farmers Says John L. Wallace

Agriculture is as essential to winning the war as is industry, John L. Wallace, chairman, Garza County USDA War Board, said this week.

Citing President Roosevelt's recent proclamation in which he said "food is no less a weapon than tanks, guns and planes," the chairman pointed out that meeting 1943 production goals in Garza county would be dependent upon each farmer doing his part.

"We must have maximum production from all our farms if we are to go over the top this year and I believe every Garza county farmer feels the same way about it," the chairman said.

Just as battles are fought and won with so many tanks, planes, guns and ships, agriculture is fighting and winning its battle with so much milk, wheat, cotton, peanuts and meat, he continued.

Citing limited resources with which to do such a gigantic job, Wallace explained that planned production in agriculture was the only possible way to get the job done and added that so-called small farms must produce at maximum capacity the same as so-called large farms.

"We haven't enough land, labor and materials to produce all of the foods of all kinds that we'd like to have to fight the war, just as we haven't all the plants, labor and materials to produce all the automobiles, ships, planes, guns and tanks," Wallace said in explaining that production must be planned wisely and first things first if farmers are to deliver the goods to Uncle Sam during 1943.

Southland School Grateful To Oil Company For New Water Well

Southland school children and teachers are grateful to the Honolulu Oil Company for drilling a new water well on the school grounds. The old well caved in about three weeks ago and the quickest possible date drillers could drill for a new well was 60 days, it was learned when Superintendent McGee Moore made investigation. The Honolulu company learned of this and sent their rotary drill to the rescue. The 170 foot well was completed in one afternoon—all free gratis.

Restricted Hours Placed On Nation's Filling Stations

Unlimited service at your favorite filling station has gone to war—this announcement was made by the service station owners and operators in Post today. The restrictions were placed on all service stations throughout the nation at 12:01 a. m. on January 23, by an order issued by Harold Ickes, Petroleum Administrator.

Service station operators of Post will remain open from 8 a. m. until 8 p. m., and will close all day on Sunday, it was decided when a majority of them met to discuss the first methods of complying with the new restrictions. Service station owners and operators are asking the cooperation of all car owners in securing their supplies between the appointed hours, and to do their Sunday shopping for gas on Saturday. There will be no 24 hour service at any station.

No station can remain open more than 72 hours a week and not more than 12 hours a day. The object of these new rules, OWI said, was "to enable service station operators to reduce operating costs at a time when their business has been decreased."

License Tags Not Available Yet For Garza County

License tags for 1943 have not been received for automobiles of Garza county. Information received in the Sheriff's office indicated that delays were being felt by many counties in getting the new tags. Sale of license plates usually starts on February 1.

The shortage of metal has hit the automobile license tags and those that adorn your car this year will be of the rationed variety, according to T. H. Tipton, deputy tax collector. The new tags will be one inch wide and four inches long and will be designed to attach to the 1942 license tags. The old tags must be left on as they will serve for identification, the new numbers being too small to be seen at a distance.

This amount represented payment on sixty farms, and brought the total for Garza county to one hundred and seventy farms on which producers have received payment.

Executive Board Of Red Cross Meet In Session Thursday

The executive committee of the Garza county Red Cross met last Thursday night to formulate plans for the approaching drive for funds for the year. The meeting was held in the office of Dean A. Robinson, Mrs. Linda Miller, field director of the midwestern area of National Red Cross, appeared before the meeting and outlined plans for the coming drive and also discussed various problems of the organization. The membership roll call and the war emergency fund will be included in one call, date of which was set for March. Quotas for this county were also set in the meeting.

In her talk, Mrs. Miller outlined the work that Red Cross is doing in the war areas and in disasters and urged that a concentrated effort be made to take care of disasters if they should hit this county. A disaster committee is already set up, it was learned. Reports from the chairmen were given and an interesting survey of the work of the Home Service Department was told by T. L. Jones, county chairman. The work of this department is proving one of the most helpful things of the organization, Mrs. Miller declared, and the duties of the Home Service chairmen are many. Olive Weakley is chairman for Garza county.

Committee chairmen attending the meeting were: Jones, Dean A. Robinson, Hayes Holman, Roy Holland, John Herd, Dr. D. C. Williams, T. R. Greenfield, Mrs. F. L. Jones, Mrs. J. P. Manly, Mrs. Ed Warren, and Mrs. Frank Nease.

"Panama Hattie" At Garza Theatre Sunday - Monday

Taking its place at the top with the season's best musical, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Panama Hattie," starring Ann Sothern and Red Skelton, opens for a preview Saturday night and runs through Sunday and Monday.

Rich in elaborate numbers, tempered with a good, down-to-earth story revolving around the romance between Miss Sothern and Dan Dailey Jr., and the silly antics of Skelton, Hattie Hattie and Ben Blue as the sailors, the film contains every conceivable element of entertainment.

The songs, including those Cole Porter numbers from the Broadway production, include tunes you'll be humming long after you've seen the show.

As Panama Hattie, a night club entertainer with a heart of gold, Miss Sothern has one of the best roles of her career. Red Skelton adds quite a few new barrels to his fame and Virginia O'Brien swings from her dead-pan singing into a role you'll enjoy. Dailey does an excellent job in his straight role.

The sequence where the three sailors search a haunted house in their determination to run down a spy is particularly rib-tickling.

Registrants Urged To Contact Local Draft Board By February 1

All men in the State of Texas between the ages of 18 and 35, who have been subject to Selective Service Registration for as long as six months and who do not have their classification cards, were cautioned today by General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, to communicate with their local boards at once.

On and after February 1, General Page pointed out, any man in this age group who does not have in his personal possession his Classification Card (Form 57), as well as his Certificate of Registration, is liable to fine or imprisonment, or both.

The recent order of the Selective Service Bureau of the War Manpower Commission, setting the February 1 deadline for possession of Classification Cards by men of military ages, has met with prompt response in Texas, General Page said. Many registrants are reporting to their local boards, requesting classification or asking that lost Classification Cards be duplicated. However, General Page says he believes there are still a few who have failed to get in touch with their boards because of carelessness or negligence.

Registrants in the 45-to-65-year old group are not affected by the order, and General Page said there are actually comparatively few men in Texas who can be considered as delinquent, according to Selective Service Regulations, for failure to keep in touch with their local boards. Nevertheless, he emphasized that in the present emergency no man will be allowed to avoid military responsibility merely because of failure to keep his local board advised of his whereabouts.

It has been determined, therefore, General Page said, to require each registrant subject to the order not only to have his Registration Certificate (Form 2) in his personal possession, but also to have his Classification Card (Form 57) with him at all times to show that he has been classified by his local board.

While, after February 1, those registrants who fail to carry their Classification Cards will be liable to fine, imprisonment, or both, General Page made it plain that neither arrest nor prosecution of violators of the Selective Training and Service Act, or regulations promulgated under it, is the function of the Selective Service System or of its agents, including local board members. The Federal Bureau of Investigation investigates most of the cases, as the Department of Justice is the authorized enforcement agency.

When there is suspected delinquency, the case is referred to the appropriate United States District Attorney.

Violators of the Act, or its regulations, are liable under the law to a maximum fine of $10,000.00, or five years in prison, or both.

So that each registrant in Texas will comply with the order requiring possession of Classification Cards as well as Registration Certificates, General Page said:

"If he is subject to registration he should be registered and have his Registration Certificate (Form 2) in his possession.

INFORMATION LISTED ON INCOME TAX

Many persons are entitled to exemptions in filing income tax returns, asserted Rex Everett; in explaining points on the Income Tax sheets. He advised Garza citizens to study the list of personal exemptions explained below before beginning work of compiling data for returns.

Personal Exemptions

Every individual is allowed a credit against his net income which varies with his domestic status, that is whether he is (a) a single person, (b) a married person living with husband or wife, or (c) a head of family. This credit is known as personal exemption, and is shown on line 21 of the return Form 1040. The amount of the personal exemption also varies depending upon the period during which the taxpayer occupied the particular exemption status.

The personal exemption for a single person is $500 for the year; for a married person living with husband or wife, $1,200.00; and for a "head of family," $1,200.00. (Personal exemption as head of a family has no effect on liability to file a return.) For Federal income tax purposes, widows, widowers, divorcees, and married persons separated by mutual consent, as well as persons who have never been married, are classed as single persons.

A head of family is defined as "an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage or by adoption, and whose rights to exercise family control and provide for those dependent individuals is based upon some moral or legal obligation." A single person, or a married person not living with husband or wife, may therefore, enjoy a head of family exemption under certain conditions.

Taxpayers using a simplified return (which is permitted if the gross income for the year is $3000 or less and derived solely from earnings from employment and/or from dividends, interest and annuities) obtain personal exemption based on their status as of July 1 of the year. Thus, a taxpayer married and living with husband or wife on July 1 is entitled to $1200 personal exemption on Form 1040 A; if he were a widower on July 1, his exemption would be $500, irrespective of the date on which he became a widower. The amount of the exemption is not deductible from the income but is reflected in the amount of tax shown in the table on the reverse side of the form.

Taxpayers using return Form 1040 obtain personal exemption proportionate with the number of months during which the particular status is held. Thus, for a person who married on July 1, (who was not a head of family prior to his marriage) the personal exemption would be $850 ($250 for the six months as a single man, plus $600 for the six months as a married man). In this example it is assumed that the wife has no income.

Married persons may, however, file joint returns, even though one has no income, and by filing a joint return a couple married during the year may obtain an exemption amounting to the exemption to which they would be entitled for the period of married status, plus the amount of their individual exemptions prior to their marriage. In the example given the total exemption in a joint return would be $1100 ($250 for each spouse for six months plus $600 for six months married status).

If a husband and wife living together both have income and file separate returns on Form 1040, the personal exemption applicable to a married person may be taken in the return of either or divided between them in any way as they may agree, but the total personal exemption taken in the two separate returns may not exceed $1200.

Coffee Substitutes Priced

Fixed ceiling prices have been set by OPA for manufacturers of two coffee substitutes and five coffee compounds that may soon appear on retailers' shelves. Prices of the products to the consumer probably will vary from about 5 cents to 31 cents. OPA cautioned housewives that they will have to surrender a coffee ration stamp to purchase a pound of coffee compound just the same as if the product were pure coffee. The two coffee substitutes for which prices were set are "Jeep" and "Banner Whole Roasted Cereal."

Warning Issued To Guard Against Exposure To Flu

Austin, Jan 27—With the incident of influenza in Texas reaching new highs as winter advances, Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, today issued a warning to the public to guard against exposure to this disease.

"Influenza patients should be isolated as nearly as possible to avoid spreading the disease," Dr. Cox said. "The germ is believed to be spread from person to person through discharges from the nose and throat."

To protect yourself and others from this disease, here are some things to be remembered:

Influenza is highly infectious. Practically everybody is susceptible to it. No matter how many times you have had the disease you may contract it again. Therefore, keep away from people who are sneezing, coughing, or sniffing or who are actively ill with colds, influenza, or pneumonia. Keep away from crowded places. Have your own towel and always wash your hands before eating, and sneeze or cough into your handkerchief.

Keep fit by drinking plenty of water, by eating simple nourishing food, by some exercise out of doors every day, by dressing according to the weather, by having plenty of sleep in a well ventilated room, and by keeping the bowels regulated.

IS A DIFFERENCE

Edie Rickenbacker, returning from his gruelling work in the South Seas and section of fighting fronts, only man who has said American people needed connection with production. In the newspapers the news reels he said that others could be transferred to the front, to our factories, to the employes in the factory, to be transferred to the front, production in this could double in thirty days.

Edie Rickenbacker emphasized nothing the people in this can do will in any measure what the boys on the front are doing. They don't get overtime pay and they work overtime if necessary.

People agree with Captain Rickenbacker. Just because some wear "tin hats" at home, we want to become swelled up with the idea that we are filling the front lines.

Profits are not an issue; and where the perpetuation of liberty and freedom for the individual are the guiding stars.

HE WAS A FARMER!

John Doe—average farmer—left early for town one morning. He was in a hurry, and broke the National 35-mile per hour speed limit, for he had plenty to do at the County Seat. He had to register for Selective Service, fill out an occupational questionnaire, get a certificate for a tire recap, apply for a card to sell his wheat, file for permission to buy a new potato digger, and secure a copy of his oldest boy's birth certificate so he could enlist in the Marines.

When he arrived at the Court House, he found all the offices closed and every one out to lunch, due to War Savings Time. While waiting for the County Agent's Office to open, the State Highway Patrolman stopped and asked to see his driver's license and check his Federal stamp. Then the Chief of Police came along and asked him to move out of a 15-minute parking zone. In his rush, he had forgotten to get his wife's sugar ration certificates, and had to go back for them.

Unable to stand more, he hurried to a drug store and bought some aspirin and if the F. B. I. hasn't caught up with him, he is half way home—and out of gas.

Can you top this story?

Views of Neighboring Editors

A news item from Washington tells of Sen. O'Daniel's invitation to the fuel rationed residents of the "frozen north" to move to the warmth of Texas. They are welcome, but mustn't be carried away by our junior senator's warm invitation. It just seems hotter to Pappy.

The Ralls Banner—There are provisions in the law authorizing the President to take over the coal mines. But none to give authority for taking over John I. Lewis. There is, we suppose, no way to legally take over a man who has by arbitrary order caused a stoppage in the production of one of the absolute necessities of life for a great number of Americans. Now it is up to the President of the United States. The War-Labor Board has come to the end of its authority and has told the President to take over. Somebody better do something quick.

The Severy County Times—Home, Sweet Home... is becoming more than a battle cry with people of this trade area, since homes are becoming places without safety pins, sewing machine needles, new aluminum pots and pans and about a dozen or so other small items one could mention. Homes of this area, in view of the increasing shortages due to war demands, are becoming, though, American institutions again, and places of respect and dignity.

Many people, it seems, did not appreciate homes as much as they have learned to since rationing and shortages became apparent. Even with our trivial shortages in the home, we are a thousand times more fortunate than people in European countries.

As one radio star said this week, we "may have so much rationing in 1943 we'll learn to appreciate the American home all over again."

The Texas Spur—Went down to get my new car license today, and the young lady just ahead of me was told that she could not get her license until her form was properly filled out. She said she would take some setting-up exercises and return next month.

WATCHDOGS OF THE TREASURIES

Beginning the first of January with the Victory Tax, and the 15th of March with income taxes, millions of Americans will get over the idea that taxes are something that just "the other guy" has to pay.

This will be one of the best things that ever happened to the country. Millions of citizens who never took an interest in government before, will begin to watch the financial policies of government to see that public money is not wasted.

Boondoggling political schemes will be less popular as vote-getters.

ANOTHER NAIL.

One of the most remarkable jobs ever done by the fire insurance industry was the recovery of 10,000 tons of the 18,000 tons of crude rubber which was given up for lost in the disastrous Fall River fire which destroyed the 30 buildings containing the rubber at the Firestone plant at Fall River, Massachusetts, October 12, 1941.

The recovery of this rubber illustrates an asset of the United Nations which cannot be put down in figures, namely, the ingenuity and ability of free enterprise to adapt itself quickly and successfully to meeting and mastering emergencies.

American business men, unaccustomed to accepting the word "impossible," would not concede that all the rubber was lost at Fall River. Despite the hopeless outlook, the Rubber Reserve Corporation, the Firestone Company and the fire insurance companies tackled the salvaging job.

The Underwriters Salvage Company owned by fire insurance companies and operated in 36 states, went to work. "Strip" mining methods were used—steam shovels, a crane, trucks and heavy equipment for mining operations. What amounted to a steam laundry was built to clean chunks of "mined" rubber of dirt and muck, by live steam at 200 pounds pressure.

Through winter, spring and summer 65 men working three shifts "laundered" the recovered rubber. It was shipped to the nation's leading rubber goods manufacturers. Today it is on the fighting fronts—10,000 tons that was given up for lost.

Once more, private enterprise drives a nail in the Axis coffin.

RAILROADS WIN NAVAL VICTORY

The prophets who a few years ago cried that the railroads were as out of date as the horse and buggy, are without honor at home or abroad. Our railroads probably saved this country from an invasion.

For example, they moved soldiers and supplies to the critical danger points in a matter of hours following Pearl Harbor. Without firing a gun they became one of the greatest obstacles to the success of Hitler's submarine campaign on the Atlantic.

James F. Byrnes, Director of Economic Stabilization, is quoted in newspapers of December 30, as saying: "The railroads have done a magnificent job. Before Pearl Harbor there were 5,000 barrels of oil delivered in Eastern Seaboard territory a week. Two weeks ago it was 761,000 barrels a day. We have to look for relief from the immediate situation to the railroads and railroad tank cars."

By their ability to do this unprecedented job of moving oil overland, the railroads snatched from the submarines one of their greatest prizes, thus winning what might be termed a major naval victory.

WHAT'S THIS WAR ABOUT, DADDY?

Honey, in a place called China, children can never play as you can . . . because men in airplanes roar overhead and shoot them, and burn their homes.

In other places . . . in Norway and France, in Poland and Greece and Russia . . . children have their mothers and daddies taken away from them . . . led off to a prison called a concentration camp. Their children may never see their parents again.

Many of these children—boys and girls just like you—don't get enough to eat. Many of them have starved to death.

Why is all this happening? Because there are evil people in the world, who call themselves the Axis, who do these things. And it's our job to make them stop—to see that they never trouble the world again. That's what this war is all about.

To do our job we've got to knock out the Axis. And a lot of us Daddies would like to do it with our own fists . . . or our own guns. We can't all do that. There's other work that Uncle Sam wants us to do.

So let's help knock out the Axis with that work. Let's take a dime out of each dollar we earn while working and buy War Bonds and Stamps to turn our dollars into America's tough new tanks and planes.

So . . . tell your employer to set aside 10 percent of what you earn every payday in the War Bond Payroll Savings Plan. Then, each time it adds up to $18.75, you'll get a bond.

Your Government will use that money to smash the Axis. Every dollar is a nail in Hitler's coffin. Every bond a bomb to blow the Jap off this earth. And your money is an investment against ~~time~~ time when peace returns and you will no longer have to answer that question:

"Daddy, what's this war about?"

WHY U. S. WAR BONDS ARE THE SAFEST PLACE YOU CAN PUT YOUR MONEY!

1. They are obligations of the United States. What else is safe, nothing is!
2. For every $5.00 you invest in War Bonds you get back $4.00 at the end of 10 years.
3. They do not fluctuate in dollar value—see how worth less than you pay for them.
4. You can name one individual either as co-owner or as beneficiary right on the face of the bond.
5. Your savings in War Bonds cannot be lost or stolen. Each bond is registered at the Treasury Department.

Post Basketball Teams Play Three Games At Southland

The Senior visiting girls defeated the local girls with a score of 14-3. The Southland girls playing were: Letha Ann Russell, Viola Bruedigam, Doris Wilke, Virginia King, Mabelle Crisp, Betty Sue Basmger, with Doris Becker and Janie Morris for substitutes.

The Senior boys: Billy White, LeRoy Voigt, James Field, Truman Riddle, and Wesley Scott evened the score by defeating the visiting team 14-2.

The local junior boys: Clyde King, Billy Engle Lester, BiBily George Kelly, Jack West and Elbert Cary were victorious with a score of 15-7.

Mrs. R. L. Kirkendoll is expected in Post this week to visit for some time in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Horner McCrary, and Mr. McCrary. Other guests in the McCrary home are Mr. and Mrs. Dave Stiles of Farmington, New Mexico, who will visit here for several days.

Planned Poultry Program Needed To Reach 1943 Goal

Uncle Sam wants Texas farmers to produce 11 per cent more eggs this year than last, and also to substantially increase poultry meats. Translated into totals, 11 per cent means nearly 27,000,000 dozen more eggs than Texas hens laid in 1942. To reach this goal and at the same time furnish more poultry for the pots and ovens, flocks will have to be enlarged by starting more chicks, and their egg laying activity stepped up. This is the opinion of George P. McCarthy, poultryman of the Extension Service.

McCarthy suggests planning the 1943 program to start at least two groups of chicks, one to come off in February or early March, and another as soon as the first group can be removed from the brooder house. Moreover, he adds, it will be an advantage to raise straight run chicks this year. The cockerels could be fed out as heavy fryers and sold at a good price next spring.

Moderation, however, should be observed. Overcrowding, lack of feed hopper space, and lack of water fountains should be guarded against. McCarthy recommends at least one square foot for two chicks in a brooder house and at least one inch of feeder space per chick. At least one quart of water should be provided for each 25 chicks. For best results, allow at least three square feet of floor space for each laying hen and three inches of feeder space, and provide approximately five gallons of drinking water for each 100 birds in the house.

To avoid transportation delays McCarthy suggests buying chicks as near home as possible. But in doing so, choose the better grade from a reliable hatchery, preferably operating under the National Poultry Improvement program, or from one carrying on a comparable program.

Mrs. S. C. Caldwell returned last week from Marfa, Texas, where she attended the funeral of her brother-in-law, James Harris. Mr. Harris, assistant superintendent of the City of Marfa utilities department, died in the Stamford hospital after a lingering illness of eight months. A blood infection and complications were given as the cause of death. In recent years he had visited the Caldwell home several times. Mrs. Harris, with her little daughter June Rose, accompanied Mrs. Caldwell home and spent several days here.

Dan Rodgers of Texas Tech is expected home this week end to visit between semesters with his mother, Mrs. Irene Rodgers. Dan is a member of the Naval Reserve V-7 and resigned his position with Hemphill-Wells Company recently in order to take extra work in connection with the regular college curricula. He expects to be called into service within a few months.

First Aid Cabinet Is Farm Necessity

A program to safeguard the available manpower of the farm is being sponsored by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Safety first now means better farm production and fuller participation in war activities. In addition to preventing farm accidents, farm people should prepare for emergency treatment in case of an accident. Proper first aid measures reduce suffering and save human lives, as many rural Texans have learned since the Texas Home Demonstration Association promoted first aid training more than two years ago.

It has been suggested that a first aid kit or cabinet include:

A Red Cross first aid text book, three-inch squares of sterile gauze and assorted sterile bandage compresses in individual packages, one and one-half-inch and three-inch roller bandages, triangular bandages, roll of adhesive tape, picric acid for burns, absorbent cotton, two per cent iodine, tincture of mercuric iodine for scratches and cuts, and as swab for the throat, castor oil or mineral oil for use in the eyes, calamine lotion for skin irritations, burn ointment such as tannic acid jelly, aromatic spirits of ammonia, oil cloves, boric acid crystals, rubbing alcohol, swab sticks, tongue blades, three-inch splinter tweezers, eye dropper, and scissors.

The contents should be packed so that articles can be located quickly without unpacking the entire kit. Material should be wrapped so that unused bandages and the like do not become soiled from handling.

MUST CARRY CARDS—

Those subject to the new requirement who are not in compliance, General Page said, should:

(1) Register at the nearest local board, if they have not registered, and obtain their Registration Certificate (Form 2).

(2) Go to or write to their local board, if they have not received their Classification Card (Form 57) and be certain that their local board knows their proper address where mail will reach them at all times.

(3) If they have received a Classification Card (Form 57) and have lost it, they should so notify their local boards, requesting a duplicate.

Any man who is not certain of the address of his local board should go to the nearest local board and ask that a communication for him be referred to the board having jurisdiction over the area which he described as his place of residence at the time he registered, General Page said.

Mrs. Luther Harper of Killeen, Texas, arrived several days ago for a visit in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Moore, and Mr. Moore.

To The Public

Petroleum Directive No. 62, effective February 1, prohibits the granting of credit in connection of ANY petroleum product. This ruling applies to the use of COURTESY CARDS and OPEN ACCOUNTS. An amendment to this ruling permits the following three exceptions:

1. Federal, state or local government.
2. Commercial use of motor boats.
3. Motor vehicles displaying "T" ration stickers.

Dealers' coupon or script books may be used only when sold for cash.

The undersigned firms regret that they will not be able to extend this courtesy to their customers after February 1 except those excepted in the above mentioned amendment. It has been explained that this will cut the costs of operation and save manpower.

Motorists Should Check Anti-Freeze

Motorists who are not sure what kind of anti-freeze solution they have in their radiators should check at once, J. B. Joyce, deputy regional WPB director in charge of production service warned. WPB has just issued an order forbidding manufacture of anti-freeze solutions made from inorganic salts or petroleum distillates. Such solutions, widely sold during recent weeks, have been found highly destructive to radiators, ignition systems and rubber connections.

Mrs. Ed Miller returned last week from Clinton, Okla., where she attended the funeral of her brother.

T. R. Greenfield visited with his daughter, Mrs. Weldon Jobe, in Amarillo hospital last Sunday.

IS ALL THAT WAS LEFT

Insurance was the only thing left for the members of the family that survived the fire! Their home—everything lost to them.

Insurance could at least give some compensation with which to carry on. It's foolhardy to put off being protected with the right insurance—because fires give no warning.
