TO THE PEOPLE OF POST AND GARZA COUNTY:

Regardless of the rumor, I, C.B. Bilberry, have not retired and will not for at least a year, if at all.

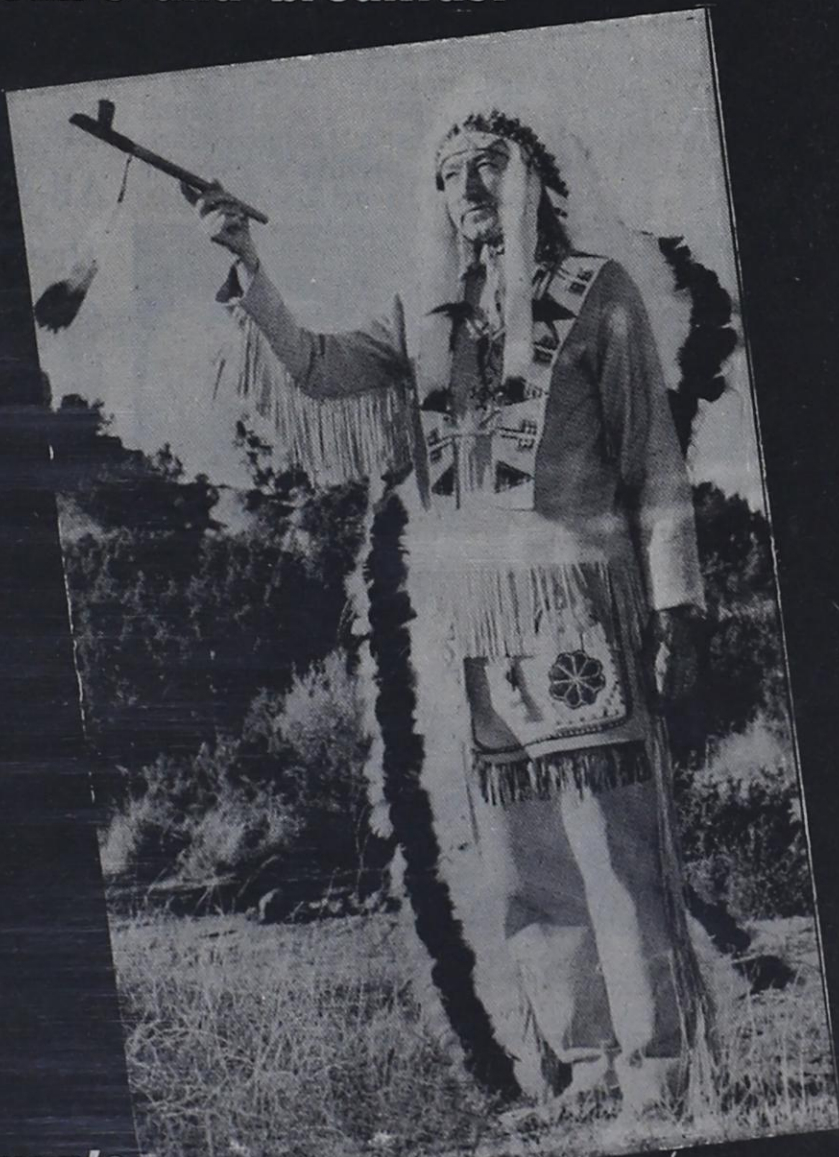

But if I do, my wife and James Kitchens will carry on the business under the same name and same kind of work.

And I will help them, with advice and or work that is done, if needed, and assure the people that work is still done like it should be done and will still be under master plumber license.

Gina Justiss Weds William Becker

Gina Denee Justiss became the bride of William David Becker in a double-ring ceremony March 9 at the First Baptist Ford Memorial Chapel in Lubbock.

The bride is the daughter of Carole Justiss of San Antonio and Wayne Justiss of Canyon Lake. The groom is the son of Mr and Mrs William Becker Jr of Southland.

She is a junior at Texas Tech University and he is a graduate of Texas Tech and is in agriculture. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father.

Rev. Steve Moore, director of Texas Tech Wesley Foundation, officiated the ceremony. The bride wore an ivory chantilly lace with scalloped neckline with three layers of lace, all scalloped on the edge.

A hoop was worn underneath. The dress had been the bride's mother's. The bouquet was a cascading one, made of white carnation and roses.

Penny Justiss, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jackie Montgomery and Paula Helms of Lubbock and Jeyna Horner of San Antonio.

Bridesmaids' dresses were Caribbean blue taffeta with ruffles on the shoulders and a bow across the back. They carried heart shaped wreaths made of grape vine and covered with dried flowers. Berry Alvis of Lubbock served as best man and groomsmen were Dennis Becker, U.S. Air Force of Azores, brother of the groom; Greg Ligon and Kirby Hargis of Lubbock. Ushers were brother of the groom Darrell Becker of Southland and Jeff Camp of Lubbock.

Stephanie Montgomery and Mary Richardson of Lubbock were candlelighters. Dwayne Sanford of San Antonio was organist and solos were sung by Stephanie Montgomery and Greg Ligon.

The reception was held at the reception area of the chapel and the couple enjoyed a wedding trip to the Texas Hill country. They will reside in Lubbock.

The rehearsal dinner was held at Western Sizzlin in Lubbock.

Candidate For Re-Election - Mayor

I am a candidate for Place One in the upcoming school board election.

I am a life-long Garza County resident and a graduate of Post High School.

With two children in school, I am concerned with how the taxpayers' money is spent in the education of our children.

I would appreciate your vote on April 6 or your absentee vote if you will be out of town for the Easter weekend.

Sincerely
Jimmie Bartlett
