1,610 Cast Votes Saturday In Primary; No County Runoffs

A total of 1,610 Garza County voters went to the polls in Saturday's Democratic primary election for one of the best voting turnouts in the county's history. With the exception of one precinct candidate, all county and precinct officials up for re-election were swept back into office by comfortable margins. In the gubernatorial race, Garza countians cast 754 votes for Ralph W. Yarborough, 738 for Gov. Allan Shivers, 34 for J. J. Holmes and 28 for Cyclone Davis. The state total late Tuesday showed Shivers leading, 650,919 to 632,040, making a runoff necessary in the Aug. 28 primary. The largest total of votes were cast in the county sheriff's race, where Carl Rains was re-elected over his two opponents, L. E. (Jerry) Tannehill, Rains received 1,092 votes, Claborn, 318, and Tannehill, 178.

Oscar Graham, seeking his first elective term as county judge, defeated Chalmer R. Fowler, 1,037 to 398. In the only other contested county-wide race, Vera Gollehon was re-elected county treasurer over H. G. (Gordon) Flowers by a vote of 1,249 to 274. Total votes received by unopposed candidates for county office were: Dean A. Robinson, county superintendent, 1,383; Pat N. Walker, county attorney, 1,287; Carl Cederholm, district and county clerk, 1,386. Cederholm, who has been serving as deputy tax assessor-collector, was unopposed in his race for the office being vacated by Ray N. Smith.

NO RUNOFF — Ben Ramsey, candidate for re-election as lieutenant governor, won easily over two opponents to make a runoff unnecessary in his race.

All four county commissioners were re-elected as follows: B. F. (Boone) Evans, Precinct 1, 584 votes to 369 for T. H. (Talmage) Tipton; L. E. (Buck) Gossett, Precinct 2, 229 votes to 100 for E. E. (Elva) Peel and 38 for G. M. (Glenn) Davis; Ozell Williams, Precinct 3, 101 votes to 31 for E. W. (Wren) Cross and 24 for Russell Wilks, Jr.; Sid Cross, Precinct 4, 42 votes to 38 for Spence Bevers. In the race for Precinct 1 constable, J. A. Johnson polled 385 votes to 449 for the incumbent, L. E. Claborn, Sr. D. C. Roberts, Sr., unopposed in his seeking his first elective term as Precinct 1 justice of the peace, polled 790 votes in the five Precinct 1 voting boxes. In the race for State Representative, 90th District, Garza County went with the rest of the district in giving Robert R. Patterson 835 votes to 449 for the incumbent, C. F. Sentell. In other contested races, Garza County gave big majorities to Ben Ramsey for lieutenant governor, John Ben Shepperd for attorney general, and Lyndon B. Johnson for U. S. Senator. The county went for Allan Haley in the race for justice of the Court of Criminal Appeals; for Few Brewster in the race for Supreme Court Place 1, and for J. E. Hickman and Clyde E. Smith in other Supreme Court races.

RALPH W. YARBOROUGH

IN RUNOFF—Latest vote tabulations by the Texas Election Bureau show that a runoff is necessary between Gov. Allan Shivers and Ralph W. Yarborough in the Aug. 28 primary.

City Calls For Conservation As Water Level Drops Fast

With the water level at the city reservoir the lowest it has ever been and still dropping, Post residents are being asked by city officials to cooperate in the present emergency by not watering lawns and shrubbery between the hours of 4 p. m. and 9 p. m.

Overcast skies and a sprinkle of rain Wednesday morning held out a promise of relief, but if it doesn't come, the city is faced with a serious water shortage unless residents cooperate in conservation measures, city officials said.

There is no need for alarm if residents observe these conservation measures we are calling for," said Mayor T. L. Jones. Meanwhile, improvement work is under way on the city water wells west of town. One well was overhauled last week, another is being overhauled this week, and a new one is to be drilled next week.

Seventeen wells are now in use, but because of the lower water level are not producing at the capacity of the nine wells in use this time last year. The hot, dry weather has practically doubled water use over last summer. Watering of lawns and shrubbery and almost constant use of air conditioners has brought on the increased consumption, it was explained.

A new all-time record in one day's consumption of water was hit July 13 when 1,269,000 gallons were pumped through the mains. That record still stands, but daily use since that time has been higher on the average than at any other time in the city's history.

Water consumption figures during the past week have been as follows: July 21, 1,251,000 gallons; July 22, 1,180,000; July 23, 1,190,000; July 24, 1,146,000; July 25, 999,000; July 26, 1,261,000, and July 27, 1,193,000. All except one of these figures are far above the 1953 peak, which came on June 9 when 1,034,000 gallons of water were used.

Late in the evening, when water consumption is at its peak, there is little or no water pressure.

EASY WINNER — John Ben Shepperd was an easy winner in his race for re-election as attorney general.

Two were en route to Lubbock after working here Monday on an audit of the City of Post's books. Mrs. Deakins suffered a broken left arm, a back injury and lacerations on her forehead. Williams received a shoulder injury. Sheriff Carl Rains, who investigated the accident, said he was told by witnesses that Williams' automobile swerved and overturned after striking loose dirt at the edge of the pavement as he was attempting to pass another automobile. Williams and Mrs. Deakins were taken by a Mason & Co. ambulance to West Texas Hospital in Lubbock.

Two faculty vacancies are yet to be filled, the superintendent said. One of the vacancies was created by the resignation a few weeks ago of O. C. Strickland, high school science and mathematics instructor. Also to be employed is a vocal music instructor for the schools.

Beer Confiscated In VFW Hall Raid

Eighty-one cases of beer were confiscated at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall here Monday night in a raid by three State Liquor Control agents and Sheriff Carl Rains. The raid was made on a search warrant issued at the request of the liquor control agents. No arrests were made, but one of the VFW members on the premises at the time of the raid, was ordered to appear before authorities Tuesday morning. No charges were filed, but probably will be within the next few days, County Attorney Pat N. Walker said Tuesday. The confiscated beer has been stored in the sheriff's office. Officers reported that similar raids were made Monday afternoon and night on VFW halls at Plainview, Lubbock and Slaton. James Raymond Mosser, manager of the VFW Club in Slaton, appeared in county court at law in Lubbock Tuesday afternoon to enter a plea of innocent of three counts of sale and one count of possession. Bond was set at $750.

RODEO SPONSORS SEEK PARADE UNITS

With the opening date of the four-day Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo less than two weeks away, Post business firms and clubs are being asked this week to sponsor floats in the parade, which is to be held at 6 p. m. Wednesday, Aug. 11. Don Long, parade chairman, said this week that plans are to make this year's parade one of the best in the seven-year history of the Junior Rodeo, but that cooperation of the townspeople will be necessary. Float materials may be ordered through the Post Chamber of Commerce office. In addition to floats and other parade units, there will be a number of sheriff's posses and other riding groups in the parade, Long said. A new route has been chosen for this year's procession. ## QUEEN'S CONTEST

Girls 19 years of age and under who wish to enter this year's rodeo queen contest may do so by taking their picture to the rodeo office on Aug. 10, the day before the rodeo opens. Coin boxes will be installed under each picture and votes will sell for one cent each, with proceeds going into the countywide 4-H Club fund. Votes will be totaled Saturday afternoon and the winner announced at Saturday night's show. Entry blanks and rules and regulations are being mailed junior rodeo contestants throughout the Southwest, rodeo officials said this week. Plans are also progressing for the Sixth Annual Garza County Quarter Horse Show to be held on the final day of the rodeo. It was announced by George Samson, president of the Quarter Horse Association. An even larger number of entries than last year's record-breaking list are expected, Samson said. The Chamber of Commerce recently voted to sponsor decoration of the business section for this year's rodeo.

Carl Cederholm Leads Ticket In Saturday Vote

Carl Cederholm, unopposed candidate for the office of district and county clerk, received 1,386 votes to lead the Garza County ticket in Saturday's primary election. Cederholm, now serving as deputy tax assessor-collector, is a candidate for the office being vacated by Kay N. Smith. A close second in the total number of votes was Dean A. Robinson, unopposed candidate for re-election as county superintendent of education, who received 1,383 votes. Other votes polled by unopposed county, district and state candidates were as follows: Pat N. Walker for county attorney, 1,287; George Mahon for U. S. congressman, 19th District, 1,296; Harley Sadler for state senator, 24th District, 1,279; Louis B. Reed for district judge, 106th Judicial District, 1,245; Vernon A. Calvert for state comptroller, 1,234.

Accidents Result In Heavy Damage

Two traffic accidents resulting in extensive property damage, but no injuries, have been reported by the sheriff's office. One of the accidents, involving vehicles driven by two Abilene men, occurred about 9 o'clock Sunday night two miles north of Justiceburg on U. S. Highway 81. The other mishap, in which a trailer horse owned by J. B. Grotts of Mexia was damaged by a low-hanging tree, occurred about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon on North Broadway a block north of the Main Street intersection. In the accident near Justiceburg, a 1954 Chevrolet driven by A. Allen Heidelbrecht of Abilene rammed into the rear end of a trailer being pulled by an automobile driven by Carl Dwain Bradshaw, also of Abilene. Sheriff Carl Rains said Heidelbrecht told him he hit the trailer. See AUTO DAMAGE, Page 8.

Drive Is Under Way Against Stray Dogs

The city's drive against stray dogs got under way over the weekend with City Marshal F. M. Reep picking up and impounding a number of animals which had not been vaccinated and tagged. Licensing of dogs, as required by a city ordinance, has been slow since tags went on sale here early this month. Only about 30 dogs had been vaccinated and licensed through Tuesday. The drive against stray dogs is being made in an effort to minimize the threat of a rabies outbreak, city officials said.

DRY LAND COTTON CONTINUES TO HOLD UP SURPRISINGLY WELL

A barely noticeable sprinkle of rain and cloudy skies lowered temperatures a few degrees Wednesday morning, but brought no other relief from the current heat wave, described by many old-timers as one of the longest-lasting and most severe ever to befall this section of the country. The early feed crop is burning up fast, but dryland cotton is holding up surprisingly well, due to better than usual subsoil moisture. Rangelands are described as "baking" under the heat wave, with stock water rapidly being depleted. Damage at this time is largely confined to early feed—feed planted last May and constituting about half of the county's approximately 60,000-acre feed crop. "Some farmers will make a little grain from early feed, but most of it is gone," Lewis C. Heron, county agent, said Wednesday afternoon. It looked "rainier" Wednesday morning than it has in weeks, but by mid-morning the skies were clearing and the ground had barely been dampened. The last rainfall of any consequence was on May 18, when 1.7 inches were measured here. Post's total for the year is 8.21 inches, although some sections of the county have received considerably more. Rain within the next few days will be the deciding factor on the dryland cotton yield, with Aug. 10 generally regarded as the "seedling date" for rains to help the crop. While early feed is burning up, late feed—planted around June 15-20—also is beginning to

House Numbers Still Available, Lions Say

Although the Post Lions Club's house numbering project has been completed, house numbers still are available to those wanting them, it was announced Wednesday. Anyone wishing their house renumbered to conform to the city's remapping project is asked to contact a member of the Lions Club. The Lions are now discussing plans for compilation and publication of a city directory, a spokesman said. The last city directory was published in 1947.

A VOTE TO BE PROUD OF . . .

By CHARLES DIDWAY

JULY IS FAST SLIPPING away, with time growing short for the rain which most agricultural observers have agreed we've "just got to have" by Aug. 1. Six days of the month remain as this is written, and by the time it appears in print there'll be a couple days of the month left. It's never too late—to hope—and a good one-day rain could pull things out of the fire. Our use, by the way, of that word "fire" doesn't seem a bit far-fetched with the weather what it's been.

BIG EVENTS HERE in August will include the 7th annual Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo, for which plans are well under way, and preparations for the opening of the 1954-55 school term. We haven't checked yet with school officials on the opening date, which may come Aug. 30—not much later, at any rate.

THE LIFE-SIZED COWBOY figure just west of town on the Tahoka Highway is a good advertisement for the Junior Rodeo, and is reminiscent of the big "Tex" used to publicize the State Fair of Texas. Organization for this year's rodeo seems to be the best in years and an outstanding event is being predicted. Once again, however, a whole lot depends on a rain.

WE WEREN'T IN TOWN for Saturday night's election returns party, but judging from the comment, it must have gone over with a typical July bang. Master-minding the affair was T. R. GREENFIELD, county Demo chairman, ably assisted by GANELL BABBE, BILL EDWARDS and POLLY DUREN. It appears now that the gubernatorial race is the only one in which there will be a runoff in the Aug. 28 primary, but there'll probably be enough interest in it to assure the success of another election returns party here.

GETTING BACK TO AUGUST events, there will be an Emergency March of Dimes Aug. 16-31. This special polio funds drive was decided on only after a great deal of consideration by officials of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. WALTER CRIDER, Garza County chairman for the NFIP, and BOB POOLE, chairman for the emergency drive, are reported making plans for an all-out campaign to put the county "over the top."

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE A. J. STRICKLINS, Sr. and Jr., of Brownfield on their Golden Anniversary edition of The Terry County Herald, a copy of which has just reached our desk. The special edition is No. 1, Volume 50 of the Brownfield paper, which was first published at Gomez, west of Brownfield, on Dec. 7, 1903. The anniversary edition contains approximately 50 pages filled with interesting historical articles and congratulatory advertisements. Andy Jack Stricklin, one of West Texas' best-known newspaper publishers, has been at the helm of the paper 45 of its 50 years.

THIS WEEK IS AN IMPORTANT one in the world of agriculture. By presidential proclamation, it has been designated as the 11th National Farm Safety Week. The President

Roger W. Babson Writes This Week.

Total Outturn Of All Crops In 1954 May Be Only Slightly Under World Record Of 1948

BARSON PARK, Mass.—The remarkable fecundity of America's farm lands will be graphically demonstrated again this year, if weather and other conditions continue favorable. My survey of the over-all picture indicates that the total outturn of all crops will be only moderately under the world record established in 1948.

Wheat Misses The Billion-Bushel Mark For only the second time in eleven years, 1954 wheat production may fall to exceed 1,000,000,000 bushels. Although the winter crop—now about harvested—has done well, with an indicated crop of around 739,000,000 bushels, black stem rust has hit the spring crop in the Dakotas and Minnesota, cutting yields down in that territory. However, I forecast adequate total supplies. I predict also that sizable amounts will enter storage under Government loans. This could result in temporary higher prices later on.

Prospects for most of the other grains are quite promising. I expect output of oats to hit a record high of over 1,500,000,000 bushels. The flaxseed crop may be the second largest on record, and the hay crop the third largest. A big barley crop and a sizable rye return also are indicated. This is a favorable development for cattle, hog, and poultry raisers incidentally, I predict that the number of cattle and hogs on farms next January 1 will be relatively large.

Bumper Corn And Soybean Crops Corn farmers really went to town at planting time last spring; in fact, they planted nearly a half million acres more than planned in the March intentions. The second largest crop on record is currently indicated; but what the final outturn will be remains to be seen. Much depends upon the weather between now and harvest time. With the hog-corn ratio still at favorable levels, a large corn could be profitable for hog producers.

I have long been intrigued by soybeans—one of the nation's most versatile crops, with a phenomenal growth curve in recent years. I should not be surprised if farmers put more acreage into soybeans this year than ever before, because of diversion of acreage from crops under allotment programs, attractive prices, and favorable planting conditions. This could mean a large crop and downward pres-

From the standpoint of the size of the vote, Garza County did itself proud in Saturday's primary election. Although this year's election, with the exception of the gubernatorial race, was the "tamest" in years, 1,589 votes were cast. That's a mighty good percentage when one considers that only 1,337 poll taxes were paid. The figures would indicate that just about everybody who paid a poll tax exercised his privilege to vote—in addition to those who were exempted by age from having to pay one.

We believe the size of the vote in Garza County and elsewhere throughout the state is indicative of a trend toward better government being taken by Mr. and Mrs. Average Citizen. We believe that most of us have learned that one of the best ways to assure ourselves of better government is to vote in every election. It probably won't be long until this trend is also evident in municipal and school district and bond elections.

To make 1954 a banner election year, Garza Countians have now only to turn out in the same goodly numbers in the August primary and the general election in November. The odds are against it, since the county races are out of the way, but that is really no reason for eligible voters not casting a ballot. It's such an easy task and well worth it when one stops to consider the dividends paid off in good government.

Courage is the consciousness of power, the realization that emergencies can be met, obstacles overcome. As long as we do not become suspicious of our own ability, we are courageous.

also suggested the theme: "Farm to Live and Live to Farm." There can be no doubt that intensive attention to the farm safety problem is needed. More accidental deaths occur in farming than in any other major industry.

IN HIS PROCLAMATION, President Eisenhower requested "all persons and organizations interested in farm life and welfare to join in a campaign to free as many farm homes as possible from the tragedies and losses caused by needless accidents." That is a great goal, and high hopes are held for its attainment.

HERE ARE A FEW gems from John Randolph's new book, "The Jokes on Texas."

Back in the days when prairie chickens were a common fowl and freely hunted in the plains of West Texas, they were often served in restaurants. Once a visitor was looking over a menu, saw prairie chicken listed and asked what it was. The waiter told him: The man's comment: "If it has legs to walk on and wings to fly with and didn't get out of Texas, it's too tough for me!"

Moisture once got so scarce in southwest Texas they had to put stamps on letters with paperclips.

Easterner, after his first day on horseback: "If, when I die, the journey to my eternal home leads me to Hell, I hope to make the trip on horseback. I'll be so glad to get off I won't care where I am."

THE JULY ISSUE of "Cheer," distributed by E. C. Palmer & Co., contains a little poem which is a $64 lesson in English, with its take-off on plurals. Here's the way it goes:

"We'll begin with box; the plural is boxes. But the plural of ox should be oxen, not oxes. One fowl is a goose, but two are called geese. Yet the plural of moose should never be meese. You may find a lone mouse, or a whole nest of mice. But the plural of h'ave is houses, not hices. If the plural of man is always called men, Why shouldn't the plural of pan be called pen? The cow in the plural may be called cows, or kine; But a bow, if repeated, is never called bine. And the plural of vow is vows, never vine. If I speak of a foot and you show me two feet And I give you a boot, would a pair be called beet? If one is a tooth and a whole set are teeth, Why shouldn't the plural of tooth be called teeth? If the singular's this, and the plural is these, Should the plural of kiss ever be written keese? Then one may be that, and two would be those, Yet hat in the plural would never be hose. And the plural of cat is cats, and not cose. We speak of a brother, and also of brethren, But though we say mother; we never say methren. Then the masculine pronouns are he, his and him, But imagine the feminine, she, shis and shim? So the English, I think you all will agree, Is the funniest language you ever did see."

Cotton And Fall Crops

Heavy supplies of U. S. cotton would have glutted markets and severely depressed prices during the past year had it not been for Government loans. Yet, the basis has been laid for an improved statistical position in the 1954-1955 season. Cotton farmers more than complied with the Government's rigid control program. Acreage in cultivation on July 1 was sharply under a year ago and the ten-year July 1 average. Total supplies, nevertheless, will be sizable, but prices will be well propped at 90% of parity.

Other fall crops, with the exception of potatoes, promise to be in large supply. Potatoes, however, should be in good balance with requirements, barring further damage to the Maine crop. Baked bean lovers can look forward to full pots. Rice pudding devotees also have nothing to worry about, since a record outturn of this grain is indicated. Production of sugar beets this year is likely to be far above the ten-year average. This will further complicate the problem of a world over-supply of sugar; but U. S. prices may be well controlled by the Federal Import Quota Program.

What About Price Supports And Farm Income?

The Government's price support program will have to be revamped. Under the present system, farm surpluses have mounted to fantastic levels at the taxpayers' expense. While it will require a high degree of political courage to do the right thing, I believe that we are on the way. If farm price supports are to continue, they certainly should be directly geared to the size of the crops produced. This means a flexible system, which is the only thing that makes sense.

As far as farm income is concerned, I believe that the 1955 outlook is favorable. Although there may be a slight decline as compared with 1954, the farmer's net income will still be substantial, and a strong bulwark to the national economy. Farming is an essential industry. Its people are industrious, sensible, and highly religious. I do not believe they ask for or need any special privileges; but they are entitled to a just share of the nation's economic prosperity.

Getting Out On The Limb

by EDDIE the editor

SUDDEN THOUGHT: The reason most young people don't make hay while the sun shines is because the wild oats look more interesting.

He who thinks by the inch and talks by the yard ought to be dealt with by the foot.

Says here that a statistician has found that eight out of ten women are knock-kneed. And here all these years we've been thinking statisticians never had any fun!

A ST. LOUIS business man, Frances J. Curtis, has given to the American Chemical Society the rules for membership in the Coronary Club—all invitations to heart attacks. He sets down 10 rules, the first of which is, "Your job comes first; personal considerations are secondary."

All the remaining nine rules are in the same vein, like "Never say no always say yes," and "Never delegate responsibility to others, carry the entire load yourself at all times."

Others include: Never turn down an invitation to attend a banquet, make a speech, or join a committee; don't eat a restful, relaxing meal—always plan a conference for the meal hour; regard fishing, hunting, golf, bowling, billiards, cards, gardening, as a waste of time or money; believe it's poor policy to take all the vacation time allowed you; and finally, if your work calls for traveling, work all day and drive all night to keep the next morning's appointment.

It looks like a sure-fire formula for a fast-moving but brief life, all right.

Nearly everybody admires the go-getter, the fire ball, the guy who never turns down a call to "duty." In fact, they admire him so much they are perfectly willing to sit back and let him do all the work, for good old George can always be depended on—the guy never said no to a call for action. So here lies good old George, the workhorse, the human dynamo, the fire ball, gone before his time. Looks natural, doesn't he?

Thomas A. Edison often worked day and night, went without meals, apparently burned the candle at both ends, compiled a record of personal achievement in the field of invention without parallel in human history—and lived to ripe old age. But Edison was no fire ball; he knew how to relax and did so frequently in 15-minute naps. He took things easy like, cracked jokes, never got in a hurry, avoided tension.

Many another man of enormous energy has followed the same course, without harmful physical results, either because he was born to relax, or acquired the habit early in life.

Life would be one grand sweet song if our blessings would only stare us in the face like our troubles.

The only way some farmers can keep their children home is to move to the city.

THE SAFETY SECTION of the Highway Patrol Division, Department of Public Safety, has compiled several typewritten pages of clever traffic safety sayings and verse. Here are a few of the sayings, each of them a capsule of wisdom.

Better be late than disintegrate. Speeders start three, careful drivers get three. A chance taker is an accident maker.

The smartest thing in new suits this year is a courteous driver. Time saved by speeding may be a lifetime lost.

Our Contemporaries Are Saying

Mighty Nice Here

It has been mighty nice living on the South Plains the past two weeks. While the rest of Texas, most of the midwest, and parts of the east have been devastated by a tremendous heat wave, with the thermometer going up to as much as 120 degrees, our balmy July has brought temperatures that hovered around the mid-nineties. We can remember only one day this July that went over a hundred. Remember the twenty or thirty-day stretch last summer with each day running over a hundred degrees? Of course, our crops need a rain and there are plenty of other things to worry about, but at least the thermometer is giving us a break—Garza County News.

Now that the first primary will soon be a thing of the past, predictions are in order on the coming cotton crop. There is some awfully pretty looking cotton in the county and we'd like to hear from those who know about such things, just what they think the county will produce. One man gave his opinion yesterday as follows: "Without another drop of rain, Schleicher will make between 2,300 and 3,000 bales this fall. With another good rain right soon, we'll go away over 4,000 bales"—Eldorado Success.

The Latest Style

It's the latest style . . . and indications are that they'll sweep the "Last Frontier" area come Aug. 3-6 and 7. We're speaking about the sky-blue western kerchiefs, hat bands, and badges the Jaycees are promoting hereabouts in association with the now famous "Texas" Last Frontier Rodeo.—Morton Tribune.

Let's Cool Off

A lot of people get mad over religion and politics. It should not be so. True religion makes you love everybody and if what you have generates hate, you might re-examine yourself. The Bible says "God is Love." You will never lose any true friend if you differ with him over politics.

Next Week: The "Jaybird and the Woodpecker."

Variants of these or similar rhymes will be recorded in the permanent collection of Mother Goose in Texas if addressed to Ray at Raywood, Texas. Copyright 1954, by Ray Wood.

Two Choices

Two fleas went to the theatre one night and a rain storm came up while they were inside. When they got out, one flea said to the other, "Think we should call a taxi, or catch a dog?"—The Olney Enterprise.

Given Safety Award

Slaton's police department has received a plaque from the National Safety Council commending them and the citizenry of Slaton for having passed the year 1953 without a fatal traffic accident.—The Slaton Slatonite.

Mother Goose In Texas

Pat-a-cake, pat-a-cake, Baker man, Make a little cake, Fast as you can. Pat it, prick it, Mark it with a "B," And put it in the oven, For Baby and me.

This rhyme or one similar to it is probably the first one a child ever hears. One of the best known of child rhymes, it quite likely came to this country with the earliest arrivals, and in many parts of the country it remains unchanged. But the game of "pat-a-cake" is such a favorite with young children that it was only natural other rhymes should be invented, about things familiar to pioneer children, such as this one:

P-U-kin, N-kin-Y, Double E-N-kin, Pun-kin-pie.

This might well have originated in New England, where pumpkin pie is said to have originated, but in other parts of the country, and in Texas, children have made their own rhyme, using an object familiar to the Texas landscape.

T-U-turkey, T-Y-ly, T-U-turkey, Buzzard's eye.

Next Week: The "Jaybird and the Woodpecker."

Panhandle-South Plains Fair Offers $14,416 in Premiums To Exhibitors

LUBBOCK (Sp.) — Premiums totaling $14,416.30 will be offered exhibitors at this year's Panhandle South Plains Fair, President Charles L. Adams, Jr., announced this week. Adams has announced that George "Scotty" Samson of Post will be this year's superintendent of the Agriculture Department, W. B. "Bill" Griffin of Tahoka is the Livestock Department superintendent and Mrs. Ralph Robinson of Lubbock has been named superintendent of the Women's Department. Other officials of this year's Fair will be: Walter Y. Wells and Raymond L. King, Lubbock, agriculture assistants; Lee Suther, Lubbock, county and individual agriculture exhibitors; E. C. St. Clair, Lubbock, veterans vocational agriculture; Dean Walls, Floydada, Aberdeen-Angus cattle; Gerald Collier, Ralls, Hereford cattle; R. N. McClain, Brownfield, dairy cattle; V. M. Peterman, Amherst, dual-purpose cattle. Like Topsy, in Uncle Tom's Cabin, who "pected that she just growed and growed, and growed," the social security program has likewise "growed." Within the past three years the number of social security beneficiaries has doubled—so that, at the end of 1953, nearly six million persons were receiving a total of about $254 million in monthly payments. The growth of the program received its greatest stimulus when Congress effected major changes in the old age and survivors insurance program in September, 1950. By extending social security protection to approximately ten million workers not previously covered, and by making it easier to qualify for benefits, many thousands of beneficiaries have been added who otherwise could never have qualified. Over a million beneficiaries—children of deceased parents—the working father, or in many instances the working mother. Benefits are paid on behalf of the children until they are 18 years of age. Mothers young widows, who have child beneficiaries in their care, number over 250 thousand. Retired workers, age 65 or over, wives and dependent husbands make up the largest group of beneficiaries—exceeding four million. Other beneficiaries are aged widows, dependent widows and dependent parents. They number nearly 900 thousand. As with Topsy, the old age and survivors insurance program has "growed."

Garza County Wheat Growers Give Nod To Controls By Vote Of 13-1

Garza County wheat growers voted 13 to 1 here Friday in favor of controls on next year's crop, reports Mike E. Custer, county office manager for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. Voting here was at the ASC office.

Nationwide, wheat farmers voted 195,801 to 71,303 in favor of controls, the Agriculture Department reported.

The margin for controls, however, was only 73.3 per cent, a record low. The total vote also was light.

The results mean the government will continue to pay high support prices for wheat, anywhere between 75 and 90 per cent of parity, depending on what figures Congress finally decides on and the President accepts.

At the same time, the farmers voted to go along with the toughest controls ever on next year's plantings. The 1955 acreage allotment has been set at 55 million acres for wheat, compared with 63 million this year.

Agriculture Secretary Benson issued a statement after the unofficial totals were tabulated saying the acceptance of marketing quotas shows most of the wheat farmers recognize the "serious" surplus problem and are "willing to make production adjustments to help bring supplies into better balance with demand."

The margin for controls another crop year—73.3 per cent—was not very far above the 66.7 per cent required to continue them. It was far under advance expectations.

Had the 1955 controls been rejected, the support price would have dropped to 50 per cent of parity.

1955 ACP Program To Be Mapped At Meetings In Area

The first four, in a series of 12 district meetings, have been scheduled to commence work on the 1955 Agricultural Conservation Program. According to Lester Young of the Texas ASC office, meetings are set for the Amarillo Hotel on Aug. 2; district courtroom, Lubbock, Aug. 3; Texas Electric Auditorium, Wichita Falls, Aug. 4, and Hotel Brownwood, Brownwood, Aug. 5. Each meeting will begin at 9:30 a. m.

The Garza County ASC committee of Julius Fumaga, Claude Spence and Will Wright will attend the Lubbock meeting. Also attending will be local representatives of state and federal agencies.

Young says the purpose of the meetings is to get from the county committees suggestions on the practices which should be included in the 1955 program. From the district meetings will then come the recommended practices and practice specifications which later in the month will be considered for inclusion in the state program.

Final recommendations from Texas will come jointly from the State ASC committee, state conservationist, S. C. S. and state forester of the U. S. Forest Service. Representatives from the teaching, research and extension parts of the Texas A. and M. College System and many other state and federal agencies meet with the recommending group while the final plans are being made, says Young.

Young also says the latest information on acreage controls and related subjects connected with ACP and ASC programs will be discussed. However, he adds, the big job will be the outlining of conservation and soil building practices which producers can carry out on their farms and ranches during 1955 and thus earn conservation payments.

Four Horse Shows Are To Brighten Schedule At State Fair Of Texas

Four of the most famous horse shows in the nation will brighten the schedule of livestock events at the 1954 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 9-24, in Dallas, Ray W. Wilson, the fair's livestock manager, has announced.

"These four nationally recognized shows will be the Quarter and Palomino horse classes, the open cutting horse contest and the Shetland Pony show," Wilson said.

"The combined premium purse for the four shows is $10,910, with $3,840 posted for Quarter horses, $2,070 for Palominos, $2,000 for the cutting horse contest and $3,000 for the Shetlands."

Quarter horses take the spotlight during the first weekend of the fair. First and second grounds in the roping and cutting divisions are set for opening day, Oct. 9, with the finals in both divisions on Oct. 10. Reining classes will be on Oct. 12; halter classes for mares on Oct. 15, and halter classes stallions, geldings and groups on Oct. 16.

The fair's open cutting horse contest will begin on Oct. 15, race into the second go-round on Oct. 16 and smash into the finals on Oct. 17.

"The top event of our Palomino show the last weekend of the fair will be the selection of the Stock Type Palomino Horse of the year and the Pleasure Type Palomino Horse of the year," Wilson continued. "Owners of these two outstanding mounts will receive handsome trophies Oct. 24, from the Texas Palomino Exhibitors Association."

The Palomino judging calendar calls for all halter classes on Oct. 22 and for performance classes on Oct. 22-24.

State Fair's Shetland Pony show—one of the most colorful, beautiful and graceful shows of all livestock events—opens Oct. 22 with the stallion halter classes and four of the twelve performance classes. Mare and group classes will complete the halter competition on Oct. 23. The performance classes will continue on Oct. 23 and reach their climax on the last day of the fair, Sunday, Oct. 24.

ENJOY A BETTER HOME

Every year about this time, my Mother used to get the urge to really spruce up the old homestead.

For days we'd come into a house smelling of paint, fresh air, and waxed floors... and dark nights of stumbling over furniture that had been in the other corner that morning.

Well... recognizing this habit of the "weaker sex" we've come up with a plan that makes it easier on the pocketbook.

Repaint, repair now... add an extra room, new yard fence, build a garage... many, many home improvements are eligible for loans under the

SEE "FREEZER FAIR" AT YOUR REDDY KILOWATT APPLIANCE DEALER

Mrs. E. C. Patton of Guymon, Oklahoma: "I use my left-overs for planned-overs! There are many reasons my home freezer is a saving. I always look for economy, because with four growing boys, it takes plenty of food and clothing."

"Behind my home freezer door, I have a store at home that is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. No more trips to the grocery store when unexpected company drops in. I have complete meals in my freezer which include a variety of meats, vegetables and desserts."

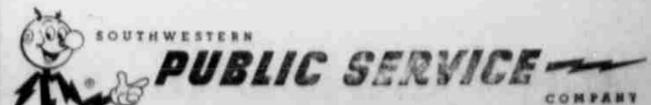

ELECTRIC HOME FREEZERS ARE AVAILABLE IN UPRIGHT OR CHEST MODELS

"I freeze my ground meat in patties, which is a big time saver. Any time my family decides on hamburgers, it takes but a few minutes to have them ready for eating. I also freeze my cakes in slices, so I can take out just the amount needed for meal time."

All homemakers are looking for economy these days, and the home freezer is one of the best places to find it. Better meals at lower cost, with less work, is the assurance a home freezer will give you.

Freezers save as much as $250 a year on food costs, and completely eliminate food waste and spoilage, which "eats up" 10% of the amount of money that you spend for food.

VA Questions And Answers

Q. May I take my dental internship training under the Korean GI Bill? If so, what rate of GI allowance will I be paid—the rate for on-the-job trainees or the rate for students at school?

A. You may take a dental internship course under the Korean GI Bill, provided it has been accredited and approved by the Council on Dental Education of the American Dental Association, and provided it leads to a certification by a Dental Specialty Board. Your GI allowance will be the rate paid to full-time classroom students.

Q. I am an Army officer, and I am being retired for a disability. If I choose to receive retirement pay rather than VA disability compensation, would I still be eligible to take vocational training under Public Law 167?

A. Yes, if you meet all the other eligibility requirements of the law, you may be permitted to train under Public Law 167. While in training, you will receive a VA subsistence allowance in addition to your Army retirement.

Q. I have been granted a waiver on my World War II GI term insurance policy because of total disability. While the waiver is in effect, could I convert my term insurance to a permanent plan?

A. Yes, you may convert to Ordinary Life, 20-Payment Life or 30-Payment Life. You may not convert to an endowment plan, however, while you are totally disabled.

Q. If the widow of a serviceman killed in Korea remarries, does she have to give up the monthly indemnity payments she has been receiving?

A. No. The legal widow at the time of the serviceman's death has entitlement to the indemnity. Her remarriage does not bar her continued entitlement.

Mays No Babe Ruth

A Brooklyn fan, Mike Harrigan, writing to The Sporting News, complains about what he calls "this tripe" about comparing Willie Mays with Babe Ruth. Of course Mays is good, says Harrigan, but let's wait before rendering a verdict. After all, this is Mays' first full season. "Was Babe Ruth," he asks, "being compared to Cap Anson or Rube Waddell in his first complete season with the Red Sox?"

Musial's Secret

The pitching coach of the Cardinals, Bill Posedel, says he knows one reason why Stan Musial is the great hitter he is. He's never satisfied, forever seeking improvement. "Remember last month," Posedel said to a writer of The Sporting News, "when Musial was hitting homers like mad and batting about .450? Well, he noticed an error in his swing. He had me up early the next morning, after a night game, for an hour of private batting practice. How many 400 batters would you catch doing that?"

Third In Strikeouts

Bob Feller is now third on the list of all-time strikeout artists. When he struck out eight men in a game with the Orioles on July 8, he raised his lifetime total to 2,511, and put him ahead of Christy Mathewson. Only two men are ahead of Feller in strikeouts. Cy Young with 2,819 and Walter Johnson with 3,508.

Not An Easy Trick

Hitting for the cycle—that is, getting a single, double, triple and home run all in one game—is not an easy trick. When Don Mueller of the Giants did it against the Pirates on July 11, it was the first time it had been done in the majors since June 4, 1952, more than two years earlier. The man who did it then was Larry Doby of the Indians.

Littlefield Did It

Dick Littlefield of the Pirates has already won some sort of distinction for the 1954 season. He started and finished a game against the Giants on July 11. The Sporting News relates that 18 straight pitchers had failed to go the route against the Giants when Littlefield beat them, 5 to 1.

Another Dean On Way

Another Dean is on the way, says The Sporting News. Paul Dean, Jr., posted his sixth straight victory in American Legion Junior ball a few days ago when his Hot Springs, Ark. team beat Little Rock, 7 to 3. Paul is the son of the younger member of the great Dizzy and Brother Paul twosome of the Cardinals of 20 years ago. But he's no junior when it comes to size. The 17-year-old youngster stands six feet, three and one-half and weighs 180 pounds.

Roberts Set Records

Robin Roberts of the Phillies set a new record for National League pitchers when he made his fourth start in the All-Star Game. He also opened the 1950, 1951 and 1953 classics. The all-time record for starts is held by Lefty Gomez, the former Yankee star, who made five starts for the American Leaguers from 1933 through 1938.

No Use Rushing

In all this hullabaloo about the time it takes to play a ball game these days, Manager Eddie Stanky of the Cardinals often comes in for criticism. Many fans complain that he uses slow-poke tactics. But Stanky doesn't mind, says The Sporting News. "We've got lots of time," he said. "I just don't believe in rushing through games. We get paid to play ball. That's what we try to do."

Wood Bees Stage Rally To Defeat Lamesa, 7-6

The Post Wood Bees scored five runs in the ninth inning here Sunday to defeat a team of Lamesa Independents, 7 to 6, and remain undefeated on their home diamond.

The same teams will play a return game at Lamesa Sunday afternoon.

Three bases on balls given up by O'Neal, Lamesa pitcher, and singles by Reep, Dink Taylor and Billy Ramage produced five Post runs in the final inning after the Wood Bees had gone into the frame trailing by a score of 6 to 2.

The visitors scored two runs in the first inning, single runs in the second and sixth, and two more in the eighth. The Wood Bees tallied once in the opening frame when B. Jones doubled to score Nolan Williams, who had walked. They scored again in the sixth when Ingram singled home Alton Taylor.

Ramage gave up only five hits, while he and his teammates were collecting nine off O'Neal. The Post hurler struck out seven batters and walked the same number. O'Neal struck out four and walked seven.

The box score:

Applications Are Being Taken By Highway Patrol

Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today that the Texas Highway Patrol will accept applications between now and August 25th from young Texans for appointment to the Texas Highway Patrol.

Garrison said the examinations for appointment to the Patrol recruit training school will be given at various points in the state early in September. Some thirty vacancies due to resignations, deaths and transfers will be filled from the roster of those qualified.

The Public Safety director invites all young men who are interested in a career of law enforcement to make application as early as possible. He pointed out that they must be between 21 and 35 years of age, inclusive, have a high school education, be at least 5 feet 8 inches in height and weigh not less than two or more than three and one-half pounds per inch of height.

Garrison emphasized, too, that applicants must have been citizens of Texas for at least a year and they must be of good moral character and in perfect physical condition and able to withstand a rigid character investigation.

Application forms, Garrison said, may be obtained from all Texas Highway Patrol District Offices or by writing directly to W. J. Elliott, Chief, Texas Highway Patrol, at Austin.

PARKING METER VOTE

NORMAN, Okla. — Cards of political candidates have been causing traffic trouble. Norman has been collecting its parking meter fines in little boxes put on meter posts. The cards fit neatly into the boxes. Police are finding them stuffed full of "vote for me" pleas.

In the Middle Ages, the use of certain furs for garments was almost a badge of office—for instance, the use of ermine by judges.

Grand Ole Opry Stars To Perform At Fairhandle-South Plains Fair

LUBBOCK (Sp.)—Many of the stars of the nationally famous Grand Ole Opry will be featured performers at this fall's Fairhandle-South Plains Fair, officials have announced.

Heading the list of top Western entertainers will be Webb Pierce, 28-year old vocalist-composer who has been acclaimed the nation's Top Folk Singer for 1952 and 1953 by Farm and Ranch Magazine. In the past 18 months he has sold over four million records in more than a dozen great country music hits. Most of these records have achieved the Number One position in all of the nation's music score boards.

The singer's first top hit was "Wondering." This has been followed by such songs as "That Heart Belongs To Me," "So Used To Loving You," "Don't Throw Your Life Away," "It's Been So Long," "Slowly," and his present releases "Even Tho'" and "Sparkling Brown Eyes."

Pierce and the other talent from the Grand Ole Opry will appear twice daily at the new, 5,500-seat Fair Park Coliseum which is being constructed at the regional fair grounds. The walls of the huge building have already been erected and the structure will be completed in time for the fair Sept. 27 through Oct. 2.

This will mark the first time an indoor show such as the Grand Ole Opry has been presented at the fair and officials are looking forward to a record-breaking attendance throughout the week.

In addition to the new Coliseum, fair patrons will have the opportunity to see some of the best displays arranged in two other new buildings—a new women's building and a new agriculture building. Construction is progressing rapidly on both of these structures.

Experience Expensive Teacher As It Relates To Farm And Home Accidents

COLLEGE STATION (Sp.) — Experience, as it relates to farm and home accidents, is an expensive teacher. The cost of an arm, leg or life itself is a high price to pay for a lesson in safety and can never be justified by the returns.
Don't forget, cautions W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer, that accidents can happen to you. Faulty equipment or hidden obstructions can and do cause accidents but carelessness, not thinking and fatigue take the heaviest toll. These causes are all man made and under the direct control of the individual concerned.

Ulich believes if farmers and their families would answer a simple question before beginning each job many accidents just never would happen. The question is: "Can I possibly get hurt doing the job this way?" If the answer is yes, better change the method of doing the job or be more careful, says the specialist.

He points to the high casualty rate among children under four years of age resulting from tractor accidents as an example. Fatalities among this group are almost as high as for the group between the ages of 15 and 21. "Sure," he says, "a ride on the tractor is fun for the youngster and they love it but children don't always do as they are told and a fatal fall may be the sad end to a tractor ride."
National Farm Safety Week is now being observed across the nation but year-long attention to preventing farm and home accidents is the only sure way to cut their toll. "Agriculture is now rated as the nation's most hazardous industry," says Ulich. "This rating will continue until rural residents, individually and collectively, really make it their business to see that life in the country is as safe as in any other industry. It can be done," says Ulich, "if farm and ranch families become and remain safety conscious every day in the year."

Rich Proteins On August Food List

COLLEGE STATION (Sp.) — Homemakers will find foods rich in proteins heading the plentiful list for August. Turkeys and beef, milk and other dairy products, medium and small eggs, peanuts and peanut butter top the list.

Bartlett peas and turkeys are so plentiful, says John Slaughter of the USDA Agricultural Marketing Service, that they are being featured throughout the nation this month.
Food buyers should also find available plenty of fresh and processed lemons and limes, salad oils and vegetable shortening and some fresh vegetables. The dry and hot weather in many sections of the state and nation has shortened the marketing season for many of the popular field produced crops such as watermelons and cantaloupes.

Cotton Insects, Destructive In 1953, Making 1954 Crop Another Costly One

COLLEGE STATION (Sp.) — Cotton insects last year destroyed more than $62 million worth of lint and cotton seed in Texas. They are busy now and coupled with dry weather could make the 1954 crop an expensive one.

Last year's loss amounted to an estimated 342,600 bales of lint and approximately 142,600 tons of cottonseed, says Freeman Fuller, Jr., assistant extension entomologist. The figures were developed by the National Cotton Council from basic data released earlier by the USDA, reports the specialist.

The top "culprit in the cotton patch" last year was the boll weevil and was responsible for reducing yields by an estimated two per cent. All other cotton insects raised the total loss to five per cent for the state.

A review of the figures, Fuller says, shows that Texas Cotton producers are doing one of the better control jobs in the nation. Only California, New Mexico, Arizona and Missouri show a lower percentage of the crop lost to insects.

The loss for the nation amounted to almost $261 million in both lint and cottonseed and is slightly below the total damage done in 1952.

Fuller suggests that farmers continue to keep a close check on the cotton insect population by making frequent field inspections. Should infestations develop to the damaging point, control measures become a must.

The intervals between applications and the thoroughness of the job done, he emphasizes, becomes very important factors in stopping insect outbreaks. Any recommended insecticide he adds, will give good control if properly applied.

Finally, he suggests, farmers may secure information on insect identification, insecticides and their use from any Texas county agricultural agent.

I also wish to extend my sincere congratulations to Buck Gossett on his re-election to the office.

Sincerely,
E. E. (Elva) PEEL
