Commissioners Discuss Lakes with WRMWD

At Monday's regular Garza County Commissioners' Court meeting, Judge Giles Dalby emphasized the intent of the ordinance making legislation is to insure orderly growth at the Justiceburg and Post lakes.

Judge Dalby's statement was in response to a concern expressed by White River Municipal Water District (WRMWD) manager Al O'Brien.

O'Brien, who was in attendance with WRMWD chairman Bo Jackson and board members Everett Windham and Jack King, expressed his concern over who is going to have authority over the lake.

Dalby remarked, "Basically, we feel responsible to the county to protect the people from anybody putting something in that will be harmful or hazardous to the people."

Dalby continued that the county was not trying to create hardships "and we're not trying to run the Post or Justiceburg lakes."

The purpose of the ordinances, Dalby added, is to insure that proper standards are met mainly in regard to health.

The WRMWD board members requested a copy of the proposed ordinances that the county is considering using.

In other business, park board and city council member Jack Alexander presented plans for a bike-walk path to built at the city-county park.

The county is a participant with the city on the project, which the commissioners approved.

The city had agreed on the project at the June 2 meeting. Commissioners also approved a bond for newly appointed county-district clerk Sonny Gossett.

Judge Dalby encouraged the commissioners to attend the TAC conference to be held in Austin August 6-8.

The Judge also encouraged commissioners to plan to attend the fact-finding trip to Granbury August 21 and 22.

Attending the meeting were Judge Dalby, commissioners Herbert Walls, Ted Aten, Tommy Young and T.D. Craft.

Citizens of Post will carry the torch from the top of the caprock on U.S. Highway 84 to Main Street where the run will turn east for a couple of blocks and then turn around and head west toward the County Courthouse for a ceremony.

The torch is expected to arrive at approximately 11 a.m. Saturday.

The ceremony will include an athletic demonstration by the "South Plains Acrospirits," comments by Post Mayor Giles McCrary and by a U.S. Olympic Festival representative.

Citizens are encouraged to participate and support the runners as well as provide a reception at the courthouse ceremony.

Those running in the event are Delbert Rudd for the Lions Club, Billie Garza for Post Girl Scouts, Christina Martinez for Post High School;

Dana Morris for the Middle School, Marvin Lee for Post Athletics, Alicia Pettyjohn and Jeff Lamb for the Post Chamber of Commerce;

Tommy Young for the County Commissioners;

Ron Graves for the 4-H clubs, Keith Bullard for the Post Merchants' Association, Rhonda Norman for the EMS and Jay Kennedy for the PHS coaching staff.

The Post Chamber of Commerce and the Sesqui-centennial Committee are co-sponsoring this event.

Members on the committee are Patty Kirkpatrick, Donald Windham, Gordon Terry, Jay Pollard, Joe Giddens and Maxine Earl.

Ice Melt Contest Worth $100 Gift

by Wes Burnett

You can win a $100 gift certificate Saturday, July 5...by simply guessing what time a 100 pound block of ice will be completely melted.

It's all part of the Post Merchants' Association "Firecracker of a Sale" celebration, which starts Saturday morning, July 5.

The ice melt contest is open to anyone, and entry is simple, just stop by the Dispatch office during regular hours now through July 3, drop in 50 cents per guess and sign your name on the hour and minute you think the ice will be gone.

The sign-up board will be at the PMA watermelon booth Friday, July 4 at the park and at the ice melt scene Saturday.

The block of ice will be placed at the corner of East Main Street and Ave I at 9 a.m. Saturday morning, July 5.

The winner, a person who guesses the nearest to actual final melt-down of the ice block, will win a $100 gift certificate, redeemable at any PMA member store.

The gift certificate does not have to be used all at one store.

Post Notes

by Wes Burnett

Perhaps it's a little early to be talking politics, but with the November general election in sight, the state-wide politicians are beginning to strut their stuff.

And leading the pack is Gov Mark (I know what is better for you than you do) White, who is beginning to sing a little different tune.

What? There might be room for changes in HB72?

Did I hear Governor Mark correctly?

Did he really say recently to a group of teachers that perhaps the six week suspension from extra-curricular activities for students failing one grade was a little too harsh?

Is this the same man who just a few months ago sat in front of a PBS television camera and told a nation-wide audience that anyone trying to tamper with "the best education reform in the history of this nation" should be ashamed?

I am paraphrasing, of course.

Surely, Governor Mark realizes that "back-sliding" on education reform is serious business.

I wonder if he checked with his crony H.Ross Perot before he started calling for revisions to his sacred project.

Or, does he now realize as the election is drawing closer, that Texans are fed up with Austin dictating what is best for us?

Not only was HB72 ill conceived and ill prepared and then crammed down our throats, it is one of the most expensive pieces of legislation to ever come out of Austin...

What's worse, most of the provisions that are

Letters to the Editor

On Friday morning, June 20, 1986, a couple came through Post and stopped at my station for gas.

After using the bath rooms, they came over and asked what the city was doing to clean up the town.

They stated that they had been coming through here for many years, and that the town looked better than they had ever seen it and they said the downtown area looked much better.

They asked if there were an individual effort or a group effort.

I was telling them that a group of downtown business people, along with the city, were behind it, to improve the looks and restore the downtown area.

So, just a word to everyone, your efforts are being noticed, keep up the good work.

I think these people were from the Austin area as they had an Austin emblem on the back of their car.

I want to get the opinion of the people in Post who are so kind to spend their money with our downtown merchants, what they feel about merchandise being on the sidewalk.

Do you like it? Does it let you see bargains? Do you like the excitement it gives? Does the city have the right to tell us as big taxpayers that we cannot put anything on the sidewalk?

Who does this benefit? It doesn't help you the customer and it surely doesn't help us the merchants.

Does the city have the right to take sales out of our business?

I agree that the city owns the sidewalk but let them furnish the manpower to sweep and clean it and let the city fix the curb steps.

If the city has its way no more merchandise will be able to be marked down and put on the sidewalk for you the customer to take advantage of.

Let us hear from you Post - tell us what you want, after all, it is your downtown - tell us what you like.

As you know, we the taxpayer pay the city officials' salaries, but do we agree with the way they run the city?

Dear friends! We as the Senior Citizens of the Garza County Trail Blazers are very excited about helping get our center fixed so we can move back into our dining room.

We are going to have a fund raising Tupperware party, probably at the Community Center, July 1 at 7:30 p.m. and we are inviting each one of you to help us by attending our party.

We will take donations if you don't need Tupperware.

Mrs Letta Edwards of Lubbock is going to have this party for us and we do appreciate her very much.

All her percentage that she receives from this party will be given back to the center as a donation.

So, the more Tupperware we can sell, the more money we receive.

This is to help fix our outside wall that is in very bad shape.

Mrs Edwards' percentage is 35 percent of all sales.

So, please help any way that you can, either by

We worked hard to keep electricity costs down... and, WE DID IT!

In the last three years, while national electric costs went up 12.7%, we held the line. Most SPS residential customers pay about the same for electricity as they did in 1983... some even less.

At SPS, we will continue to do everything we can to keep the cost of electricity as low as possible.

Canning Low-Acid Tomatoes

A little lemon juice may make the difference between safe home canned tomatoes and those that can cause food poisoning.

Recent U.S. Department of Agriculture research shows that the acidity level of fresh tomatoes drops after canning.

This can compromise the safety of home canned tomatoes, especially if they are overripe when canned or if the lower-acid varieties are used.

The acidity of foods is ranked on a pH scale. Foods that have a pH below 4.6 are acid enough to prevent the production of botulin toxin if heated in a water bath canner.

The botulin toxin can cause a person to become ill with botulism, a serious form of food poisoning.

Foods with a pH above 4.6, such as vegetables and meats, must be canned under pressure to reach a temperature of at least 240 degrees to destroy the botulism organism.

By adding lemon juice to tomatoes, the acid level will be high enough that home canners can safely use a water bath for tomatoes, rather than having to use a pressure cooker.

One tablespoon of bottled lemon juice per pint or two tablespoons per quart should be added to the tomatoes.

Bottled lemon juice is recommended because it has a uniform pH.

Class of 1976 Needs to Hear from Local Grads

by Kim Mills
 The class of 1976 is planning to hold its 10 year class reunion the weekend of July 4 and 5. We have had fairly good response from the individuals who no longer live in Post - however, we have had poor response from the class members who currently reside in Post.

If you plan to attend this reunion, this is the last chance to get your name and money ($3 per person) to Pam Humble, Star Rt, Post, 79356.

We have to have your name and money in order to make food plans.

It is going to take a lot of planning to purchase the food for the weiner roast, therefore we must know after this week whether you and your family plan to attend the reunion.

Without a response from you, we won't be able to plan enough food to accommodate those who just show up without letting us know they will be there.

Please, if you know anyone who is planning to attend, remind them that they must let us know and get their money in this week!

Post Notes

Mama Chicken 'Adopts' Baby Skunk

WHAT A PAIR - The workings of nature are sometimes surprising...as Fernie Reed discovered recently when one of his mother hens took up the care of a baby skunk.

by Rodney Marshall
Like a mother hen watches over her little chicks, this mother hen watches over her baby skunk.

That's right! This hen has adopted a skunk just like one of her chicks.

"We noticed it around June 7," said Jo Ann Reed of Justiceburg, who has this unique family in her backyard.

"When we first noticed it, Fernie (Jo Ann's husband), thought that the skunk was bothering the hen, so he would try to catch one of them," Jo Ann continued.

But it seemed that when Fernie caught the hen, the baby skunk would whine and cry and when he caught the skunk, the mother hen really put up a fuss.

The Reeds noticed that when the skunk and hen were left alone, the hen really cared for her new found young one.

In watching the pair, it was apparent that the hen watched out for the little skunk in a very motherly manner, and when other animals come around, the hen becomes very protective.

"The skunk is beginning to get a little independent," Jo Ann comments, "which is causing some problems."

The main problem seems to be that the skunk sometimes tends to wander around by itself, and the hen shows some excitement when the skunk does not do what the hen wants.

The concern at this time is that the skunk has a hind leg that is hurt and hindering the skunk from moving around freely.

The Reeds, after realizing the adoption occurred, quickly called friends and relatives, because of the unusual circumstance of two animals that are usually enemies, developing such an apparent close relationship.

Maybe there is a lesson in that for all of us.

Cotton Producers Enroll 95.8% in Program

High Plains cotton producers in the 25 county area represented by Plains Cotton Growers Inc., Lubbock, have signed contracts to enroll 95.8 percent of their cotton bases in the 1986 acreage reduction program.

Garza County producers have enrolled 53,776 acres of a total base of 55,077, representing 365 farms out of 390 farms with base.

A final report from the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service at College Station shows an aggregate base for the 25 counties of 4,707,266 acres, of which 4,508,066 were signed into the program.

Producers agreed to idle at least 25 percent of the enrolled acres in return for access to non-recourse loans and deficiency payments if the 1986 average price to U.S. farmers falls below an 81 cent target.

Deficiency payments will equal the difference between the target price and the 55 cent base loan or the average farm price for the year, whichever is less.

January through May prices to the farmer have averaged below the base loan, and prospects for improvement are dim, so most producers are assuming the deficiency payment rate will be the maximum 26 cents per pound.

Payments are based on the payment rate times farm program yields times planted acres, with a $50,000 payment limitation.

Although the base and enrollment figures are the obvious starting point for projecting planted acres, the task is more than a little complicated.

The 25 percent acreage reduction requirement of the 1986 program would permit a maximum planted acreage on the Plains of just over 3.38 million (75 percent of enrolled acres).

But based on the ratio of maximum permitted acres to actual planted acres seen under a program with similar provisions last year, that figure logically can be reduced by about five percent to 3.2 million.

Then comes the hard part.

There is a new provision of the current law under which producers can elect to plant only half their permitted acres and still qualify for 92 percent of deficiency payments.

How many producers will take that option, which remains open until the final acreage certification date July 15, is the big question.

Some are estimating that the 50-92 program feature may reduce planted acreage by another five percent, down to just over three million.

Meanwhile, thousands of planted acres have been destroyed by hail, wind, heavy rains, seedling disease and Ascochyta blight.

Some will be replanted, some won't.

Which leaves observers at a loss to project anything like a firm figure on acreage that will be left for harvest.

Pleasant Home News

by Annie Gilbert

Pleasant Home is once again happy to greet you in the name of our Lord, who makes everyday and keeps us.

We thank God for another week and another chance to praise Him.

Motto: The Church Where Everybody is Somebody.

Sunday's lesson was God's Word Versus The King, the scripture Jeremiah 36:4;8,27-31, the key verse scripture Jeremiah 1:19.

Another beautiful lesson, attendance good.

Sunday morning worship hour as everyone was at their post of duty, worship devotion led by Deacon Elmer Wilson, Sisters Iona Smith and Deacon Wilson, who read Matthew 16:17-19.

During the regular morning worship services altar prayer gave us new life as our pastor prayed for all of us.

The choir sung songs of praises to our Master who is still in His Holy Temple here at Pleasant Home.

The morning message was delivered by our Pastor from the book of Ephesians 1:13-14, his subject was: God's Guarantee.

A very interesting and inspiring sermon, food for the soul.

This week shut-ins include Deacon Willie L. Bursleson, a patient in South Park Hospital in Lubbock, his room number is not known at this report;

Sister Ida M. Brown at home; Bro. Ora D. McDaniel, his home.

And the many other souls whom we shall not forget.

Sisters Lizzie Milo, Sirloma Steel, Bros Harry Trueblood and Nathaniel Wilson are residents in Golden Plains Care Center.

And in Twin Cedar Nurling Home is Sister Lela M. Patterson.

May they all have speedy recoveries.

Pray ye one for another always.

God is not through with us yet.
