Gene Moore honored as 'citizen of year'

Gene Moore, who was transferred by Pioneer Natural Gas from Post to Levelland late last year, was named "Post's Outstanding Citizen" here Saturday night for his community involvement at almost every level over the past decade. Chamber president Larry Willard presented Moore his "outstanding citizen" plaque at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet in the community center attended by slightly more than 300 persons.

"I love Post, Garza County, the caprock and all the little breaks," the surprised Moore told the banquet crowd. "This will always be home to me," he said in thanking the community for the honor.

In revealing Moore's selection, Willard cited Moore for serving as Chamber president and on most of its committees and its other offices, for being active for six years on the hospital board, for eight years on the volunteer fire department, for helping out in so many community projects, including heading the cooking of the Fourth of July barbecue and the Rotary Club's pancake suppers, and for being active in United Fund campaigns, the Rotary Club as president, etc., and in the Masonic Lodge.

"He almost wore out a Santa suit," Willard concluded.

Bob Lewis of Big Spring, who is professionally known as "Tumbleweed Smith" in producing "The Sound of Texas" program for some 71 Texas radio stations, treated the crowd to some of the most humorous segments of the 2,500 feature shows he has taped over the years.

"West Texas is a state of mind and a land of big dreams as well as a land of sand and wind," Lewis told the still laughing banquet crowd in conclusion.

Special musical entertainment for the banquet was provided in vocal selections by Marita Jackson, her daughter, Cindee Jackson, dressed as Dolly Parton, and Eric Reece, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Reece, who is a third grade student of Mrs. Jackson's with an excellent voice, who was making his first public singing appearance.

The banquet marked the end of one Chamber year and the start of another.

The officers of the Chamber's Women's Division were introduced by outgoing president, Joy Greer, who presented Geraldine Butler, incoming president of the division.

Other 1979 officers for the division are Mrs. Greer, first vice president; Weaver McKamie, second vice president; Phyllis Morris, treasurer; Voda Beth Grady, secretary; Faye Horton, reporter; and Evelyn Neff, historian.

In a short talk, Mrs. Butler said the division in the coming year hopes to provide the means to get newcomers involved in the (See CoC banquet, Page 12)

Record high 84 Tuesday

Post had a record high of 84 degrees Tuesday.

It was a record here for Feb. 13 and also was of course high for 1979 to date.

With a low of 28 degrees Tuesday morning, the temperature climbed 56 degrees within hours.

Post in February to date has had only .12 of an inch of moisture with a low of 10 degrees recorded Feb. 1.

Trio indicted in welfare thefts

Three persons were indicted Tuesday by a Garza district court grand jury for theft in receiving some $1207.68 in welfare benefits here by falsifying information on their applications to the Department of Human Resources.

Names of the three are being withheld until the trio can be served the indictments and placed in jail or on bond.

District Attorney Joe Smith told The Dispatch Tuesday afternoon that the criminal statutes on welfare fraud has raised the crime from a misdemeanor to a felony and are filed under the theft statute if $200 or more is fraudulently received.

Bank named depository

The Garza County Commissioners Court Monday accepted the bid of the First National Bank and named the bank as the official county depository for the next two years.

The court also appointed a new auditor for the county on a split 3 to 2 vote. The firm of Kelly, Cole & Co. of Lubbock was named to do the auditing.

In other actions, the court voted to purchase three new calculators for the county tax assessor-collector's office; approved the bonds of new deputies Billy Criswell and J.W. Jolly III; and received a request for an additional thousand dollars from Southland Supt. Tom Alvis to complete the Southland water storage project.

The court requested Marianne Hart to determine how many copies the county's multiple use center makes in a month before the court acts upon a request to purchase a copying machine for the center.

City to seal coat 20 blocks

The city of Post in this issue of The Dispatch is advertising for bids for 20 blocks of seal coating here this summer.

Bids will be opened at the council's March meeting Monday night, March 5.

Work is rushed on new show building

Event only week away

By ORABETH WHITE

The annual Garza County Junior Livestock Association Stock Show and Fair will be held at the new facilities on the Lubbock Highway Feb. 21-24.

As much of the new building will be completed as possible by show time. Noel White, association president, said they hope to have the weigh-in room and washrooms useable by that date. Concrete has been run in the bathrooms and the scale room.

The men have been working from 12 to 14 hours a day trying to complete the new barn. They have completed the building of the new grandstand which will be on the north side of the show ring. The old stand will be on the south side.

The fair division is almost complete and ready for use. New kitchen cabinets have been installed. The 40 by 58 foot room is paneled on one side and pegboard on the other. The pegboard will be used for the art and craft displays.

Entry deadline on all of the animals is Thursday, Feb. 15. All entries should be turned into County Agent Syd Conner or CFA instructors E.A. Howard, Larry Crownover or Dick Marsden by midnight tonight.

The event will begin with weigh-in of all animals on Wednesday afternoon Feb. 21 at 1 p.m. Since all of the new facility will not be completed this year, the earlier time is scheduled to try to give more time and cut down on confusion during the weigh-in.

The hog show will begin at 7:30 on Thursday night, Feb. 22, with Jerry Stockton from Texas Tech University as judge. Jerry Bush will be the superintendent of the hog show this year. Approximately 130 hogs are expected to be entered.

The horse show is set for Friday afternoon, Feb. 23 at 2 p.m. with Bill Hedrick serving as superintendent. Judge for the horse show will be Ernest Kiker of Silverton. Approximately 20 horses will be shown in four classes.

Friday night at 7:30 p.m., the lamb show will begin with John Kearney from Sterling City as judge. Bobby Terry will be in charge of the lamb show.

Saturday morning at 9:00 a.m., the calf show will begin with Neal Clary as superintendent and Spencer Tankersly of Muleshoe as judge.

The auction sale will begin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. Auctioneer for the sale again this year will be Danny Burns of Plainview. Buyers and the public are encouraged to come out and support the youth of our county.

Announcer for this year's show will be Jerry Thuett, a former president of the association and very interested worker and supporter.

Garza hospital sued by TV rental firm

Garza Memorial Hospital directors at their February breakfast meeting last Thursday morning at the hospital discussed a $12,000 suit brought against the hospital by the Continental TV Co. of Kansas City, Mo., for breach of contract.

Johnny Saleh of Lamesa has been employed by the hospital board as its attorney in the suit.

Recently filed in the U.S. district court in Lubbock, the suit is the outgrowth of the hospital returning to Continental last November of all the television sets the hospital was leasing from Continental for rental use by the hospital patients in their rooms.

The action was taken by the board because Continental did not render proper repair service on its sets. The action came after Continental had been advised of the action because of lack of service. The contract with Continental would not have expired until 1982.

Since returning Continental's sets, the hospital has rented color TV sets from another supplier. The hospital board had been advised by another attorney prior to the return of the television sets to Continental that while Continental might sue it would have to file the action in Garza district court.

Hospital Administrator Ed Zintgraf briefed hospital directors on a verbal report he had received from Saleh concerning the suit and the contract.

In other actions at the meeting, the board called an election to name three directors to the board for Saturday, April 7.

Present members whose terms are expiring are Jack Alexander, chairman of the board, Wayne Childers and Arthur (Bo) Jackson.

The board also voted as a fringe benefit to hospital employees not to charge employees for the amount of hospital room charges not covered by their Blue Cross Insurance. This would mean some increase in hospital income here as such employees might otherwise choose to be hospitalized in another hospital or be treated only on an outpatient basis.

Collier speaks before Rotarians

Bob Collier, who has been selling stocks the last several years, spoke before Post Rotarians Tuesday at their weekly luncheon in the community center about various phases of the stock market's operation.

John Jacobs, new manager of Pioneer Gas here, was inducted into the club as a new member by Walter Didway.

Post man burned in Sunday fire

David Espinoza, 22, of 412 South Avenue H, is in satisfactory condition in Garza Memorial Hospital to which he was admitted early Sunday afternoon for a badly burned left arm and other burns on his face and back.

Espinoza and his wife and small child were asleep in the bedroom of their small three-room house about noon Sunday when flames spread from the living room into the bedroom and awakened them.

Mrs. Espinoza reportedly was burned in the face less seriously and the child was unharmed.

When firemen arrived in answer to the fire call they found Espinoza with skin peeling from his left arm fighting the blaze with a garden hose.

Fire Marshall Charles Cooper told The Dispatch the fire apparently started in the couch in the living room and spread into the bedroom. He said a cigarette probably started the blaze which could have burned for some time in the confined room.

Lions see heart film

The Post Lions Club at their bi-monthly breakfast meeting at Damon's Restaurant Wednesday saw a film on the work of the American Heart Association.

Mike Flanigan was in charge of the program. Syan Nichols took the blood pressures of all Lions attending the 6 a.m. meal of hot cakes.

The club as one of its community projects will participate in the heart chapter's door to door canvass the last week in February.

Charles Morris is president of the club.

FFA chili supper to honor workers

The Post FFA Chapter will hold a chili supper at the new Garza County Livestock Show Barn Monday night, Feb. 19 beginning at 7:30 p. m.

This supper is free of charge and is open to FFA members, parents of the members, honorary members and members of the Garza County Jr. Livestock Association.

This event is for appreciation to those who have contributed so much time and effort in building the new stock show barn and exhibit building.

The living room was heavily damaged.

"A smoke alarm could have prevented Espinoza's burns," the fire marshal commented. "The more I see of them the more I like them."

One of the most unusual ads The Dispatch has ever published appears on page 10 of today's edition — a half-pager by the Garza chapter of the American Heart Association to open their annual heart fund drive.

The ad is a dedication of the fund raising campaign which began yesterday to the memory of 200 Garza Countians who have died in this county in the past decade with either heart or blood diseases contributing to their deaths.

That is a very impressive way to show that heart diseases are America's No. 1 killer and this applies not just in the nation as a whole but right here in Garza County.

All 200 to whom the campaign is dedicated are listed in the ad.

When the reader understands that the 200 figure does not include Garza Countians who died in Lubbock hospitals or elsewhere of heart and blood diseases, the figure is all the more impressive.

Mike Flanigan and Zoe Kirkpatrick spend some long hours in getting this "dedication list" from death certificates in the county clerk's office. Mike told us there was "no way" they could examine death certificates filed in Lubbock county and identify the Garza Countians who died of heart problems in Lubbock hospitals.

Watch for the chapter's ad next week. It will list the names of all Garza Countians who have undergone open heart surgery.

We think these are dramatic ways to emphasize to us all home folks that our gains and losses in our battle against heart disease.

The heart chapter will (See Postings, Page 12)

From where we've come

The Post Chamber of Commerce concluded a good, solid year under Larry Willard at its annual banquet Saturday night and is looking forward to another good year in 1979.

Willard was prevailed upon by the Chamber directors to serve a second year as president during the transitional period of establishing the Chamber's new "president elect" procedure for training a new Chamber president by first giving him a year in a major leadership role before moving him to the helm.

Changes in the Chamber's bylaws were effected this year — directors being elected to three-year terms instead of two being another — to provide Chamber operations with stronger continuity.

Willard's acceptance of the presidency again involves considerable personal sacrifice in both time and effort as the office requires plenty of time and attention.

The end result, however, will be a much stronger Chamber from year to year.

Quarterly membership breakfasts were firmly established during 1978 and will continue to offer the opportunity for the board of directors and membership to get together on various Chamber programs.

The big Fourth of July celebration and barbecue, which is the Chamber's biggest community effort, almost was funded on a pay-as-you-go basis for the very first time in 1978. Retail promotions also took a large slice out of the Chamber budget with an active retail committee spearheading the effort to promote more retail business here.

The Tabana Yuan'e breakfast and "sunrise wind" ceremony was another success with efforts being made to develop the unique promotion even more than in past years.

Behind the activity was a solid financial year, as the Chamber's 1978 financial statement given banquet goers, indicated.

The Chamber took in some $17,784.52 in 1978 and spent $17,674.43 increasing its operating balance slightly to $1,872.40. A little more than half of the receipts came from dues of 108 active Chamber members, 41 of whom are individuals and 67 businesses.

In recent years, the Chamber has moved from shaky financial footing to a solid membership base, has moved its office into larger and more visible new quarters, and appears ready to guide much of the community's efforts for a successful future with solid leadership.

Sometimes when we look ahead we forget to look back and see from where we've come. If looking back can provide a good indicator for future accomplishment, the Post Chamber of Commerce is well prepared to handle just about anything which lies ahead for this community.

"My wife fell overboard . . . yesterday."

CONCESSION STAND

First, last and always

Country journalism in West Texas lost one of its giants this week with the death of Roy Craig of Stamford to cancer.

His leadership in the newspaper profession extended far beyond his circulation area. He helped build the Texas Press Association and the West Texas Press Association.

We can remember when he stopped in at The Dispatch a time or two just to visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. He would offer advice and encouragement for our problems, but above all he radiated enthusiasm for weekly newspapers.

Roy seldom missed the newspaper conventions where most of us sit around and listen — and learn from what the other fellows are doing.

Even after his health turned sour and his weight fell off, he kept coming with his ever present smile and that twinkle in his eye. He was a weekly newspaperman first, last, and always.

We're sure he also inspired many others. He kept abreast of newspaper advancements because he primarily was "a backshop man." When everything changed in the newspaper business and "hot type" went out the back door and "cold type" came in the front door, Roy opened both his doors and went with the tide, happy to experiment and develop new methods.

The West Texas Press Association winter meeting in Lubbock next weekend isn't going to be the same without Roy. His friends are going to miss him. The discussions of problems won't be the same without Roy jumping up right in the middle of it to express his views. What will be missed most will be the enthusiasm he simply radiated for our newspaper way of life.

Our new budget mood

A national public opinion poll just out this week shows Americans overwhelmingly favor balancing the federal budget in the future with the enactment of a constitutional amendment preventing the government from spending more money than it takes in.

Since Uncle Sam is by far the biggest spender in the land such action would of course take a lot of "boom and bust" out of our economic cycles.

It is easy to list an impressive range of gains from such a development, but it is more important to look at the possibilities of such a constitutional amendment first.

The balanced budget proposition for the first time in decades is beginning to gain a measure of national favor today in the backwash of Proposition 13.

In the last 40 years Uncle Sam has taken in more than he has spent only two, maybe three years.

There are a few signs that the movement for a balanced budget amendment is gaining momentum.

Many new congressmen are committed to such a step as is our own new congressman. President Carter has pledged to balance the federal budget by the early 1980s though it doesn't look like he is going to manage it. Out in California, Governor Jerry Brown who has eyes on the White House in 1981 has called for the convening of a constitutional convention to deal with the balanced federal budget issue.

If Brown makes this a major primary issue in the 1980 campaign, the idea itself will gain new stature and support although fears for such a convention already have been voiced by those who say it might be stamped into unwise decisions on other issues.

The biggest problem to enacting a constitutional curb requiring a balanced budget is the simple one of how to cut expenditures enough to shove the "outgo" back in line with the total huge "tax take."

The same public opinion poll which indicates overwhelming public opinion for a balanced budget amendment spotlights this problem.

By almost as big a majority, the Americans who voted in the poll for budget balancing oppose major reductions in spending to help the elderly, handicapped and poor; to cut back federal health programs; to any sizable paring of expenditures for education; for any significant reduction in defense spending; or for big cuts in environmental protection.

While the poll shows the people don't think they are getting their dollar's worth from taxes paid, it also shows they are not prepared to face the specifics of where to hold back on the outflow of federal dollars.

This has always been the major problem in budget reduction and thus the real stumbling block to accomplishing the end result.

The Dispatch stands foresquare for a balanced federal budget and for such a constitutional amendment.

Despite all the dire warnings of what was going to happen with the passage of Proposition 13, California hasn't crumbled away into the Pacific ocean.

Maybe with Carter working desperately to balance the budget in 1981 in return for a second four-year term and with challenger Brown trying to beat him at his own political game by waving the flag for a balanced budget amendment there will be enough political momentum generated on the national scene to gain both objectives. Certainly the Republicans wouldn't fight it.

Garza census jobs will be available

The U.S. Census Bureau has a number of temporary jobs open during the next few weeks in Garza County to help prepare address lists for use during the 1980 census. Temporary census workers usually will work three to four weeks each and will be paid on a per-address collected basis. For an eight-hour day, the average worker will earn $27 to $30 per day plus 17 cents per mile for any driving done in a private vehicle. Applicants for the jobs must be 18 years old or over, a U.S. citizen and pass a written test.

The work involves driving or walking to compile lists of addresses of each dwelling unit in designated areas of the county. These address lists will play a vital role in taking the 1980 census. They will be used to produce mailing labels for the census questionnaires to be sent to each household in America on March 28, 1980.

Then, a few weeks following the April 1 Census Day, census officials will use the address lists to determine which households have not returned their completed questionnaires. Census takers must then be sent to each non-responding household to collect the information required on the census form.

The 1979 address collection activity in the county is part of a Census Bureau program involving 35,000 temporary workers nationwide to compile lists containing approximately 30 million addresses. Another 50 million addresses have been purchased from commercial mailing list companies.

County residents interested in applying for the temporary census jobs should contact your nearest state employment agency office or write: U.S. Census Prewrite Office, Room 2C8, 1100 Commerce, Dallas, Texas 75242.

Lopes, Does bow out with Denver City losses

Bryan Compton hits season high of 27

Bryan Compton made his final basketball game in a Post Antelope uniform his best one as he bombarded the nets at Denver City Tuesday night for 27 points in a losing cause.

The Mustangs didn't have a shooter to compare with Compton's basket eye but they did have four players in double figures to lead the way to an 84-71 triumph.

The loss rang down the curtain on the cage campaign for Coach Jerry Reynolds' club which wound up the district 5AA campaign with but one first half victory. The Lopes lost them all in the second half.

Another of those losses was a 76 to 54 beating by the Roosevelt Eagles here Friday night in the last home game.

At Denver City, the Mustangs rolled out into a 22 to 6 first quarter lead and never looked back, although the Lopes outscored their hosts by a good margin in the second period and by two in the fourth, they never managed to close the gap under nine points.

Compton didn't connect for a point in the first period and perhaps that's what the problem was. He hit six fielders and a free in the second period for 13, added eight more on four fielders in the third, and completed his "hot night" with three more fielders in the fourth for the final six.

Cliff Kirkpatrick and Jimmy Pruitt each had nine points for the Lopes, followed by Larry Rodriguez with eight. Other Post points came from Dale Redman, four; Mike Macy, four; Barry Tyler, four; Alvin Taylor, two; Chuck Black, two; and Dick Kirkpatrick and Jackie Stelzer, one apiece.

The contest was a rough one with Post being whistled for 36 fouls to 24 for Denver City. The Mustangs popped in 24 frees to 15 for the Lopes with plenty of charity misses on both sides.

The Roosevelt loss also saw the Lopes get off poorly with only a six-point output in the first period as the visiting Eagles zoomed into a 16-6 lead.

Again, the Lopes rallied in the second to outshoot the Eagles 23 to 19, but couldn't close the big gap. It was 35 to 29 at the half and 50 to 41 for Roosevelt after three.

Redman led the Post attack against Roosevelt with 14 points, followed by Compton with 10. Other Lope scorers were Taylor with nine, C. Kirkpatrick and Tyler with six each, Pruitt with four, Macy with three, and Black with two.

The two losses brought the Lopes' seasonal record to eight wins and 20 losses in 28 starts.

The seventh grade boys ended their season with a victory over Roosevelt here Monday night 27 to 24 and a cage season record of 6-7.

Post outscored the visitors in the first half of play, scoring eight in the first period and adding six more in the second to six and two for Roosevelt, but in the second half Roosevelt hit for eight in the third and fourth to 7 and 6 for Post.

R.J. Greathouse was high point for the game with 11. Others scoring were Melton Williams and L.D. Harper each with six and Adam Mendoza had four.

The team was coached by Mickey Long.

Frosh girls capture district cage title

The Post freshman girls won the district cage crown Monday night with a win over Roosevelt 36 to 34 and Slaton lost to Cooper by one point.

The team's only defeat in district this season came at the hands of Slaton, but Slaton was defeated by Post in their return game and then lost to Cooper to end their season with two losses in district competition.

In the game Monday night, Post hit for 12 in the first period to 10 for Roosevelt, but in the second period, Roosevelt reversed the scoring to hit for 12 to 10 for Post and went in at the half tied 22 all.

Both teams added eight more in the third to go into the fourth tied at 30 all but Post overcame Roosevelt to hit for six to four for the hosts.

Post also hit for 50 percent of their charity tosses hitting two for four chances but Roosevelt got five tosses and hit none.

Scoring for Post were Jerri Baumann with 12, Trushell Marts eight, Deann Ammons and Lora Pringler each had six and Karen Davis, four.

The girls finished their cage season with a 15-5 record, 9-1 in district, and were coached by John Morrow.

Frosh fouls are costly

With four starters in foul trouble early in the game, Post freshman boys lost to Roosevelt here Monday night 59 to 44.

Before both fouled out of the game, Gary Lamb and Ronnie Price tied for scoring honors with 18 each. Odell Curtis had four and Dana Scott and Brad Greer each had two. Curtis and Scott were also lost to the team via fouls.

Post led by one at the end of the first 11 to 10 but Roosevelt added 22 more in the second with 14 for Post. Post came back in the third

Southland wins crown

The Southland boys basketball team have been named winners of the 8B district having defeated Wilson at Southland 47-41 Friday, Feb. 9.

Leading the scoring for Southland was Gerry Hill with 20 points and Sherman Daughtery scored 11.

Coach for the team is Keith E. Gast.

to hit for 13 to 7 but Roosevelt bounced back in the final period for 18 points to six for Post.

Coach Jackie Brown's team finished their season with a 5 and 8 record.

JV boys in Jayton split

In their first game of the Jayton tournament held recently the Post JV boys defeated Jayton 55 to 23, leading 25 to 13 at the half mark. Post added 22 more in the third to six for Jayton and eight more in the final period to four for Jayton.

Scoring were Rance Adkins with 12, Larry Rodriguez eight, Ruben Storie six, Alvin Taylor, David Foster, Barry Wyatt, Chuck Black, Kevin Craig, each had four and Jesse Taylor, Drew Kirkpatrick and Ronnie Bilbo each had two and Leslie Willard had three.

In their second game, Post was defeated by Motley County 69 to 59. Motley County led at the half mark 37 to 22, but Post came back in the third to add 20 to 13 and 17 in the fourth to 15 for Motley County.

Scoring in this one were David Foster and Chuck Black each with 12, Adkins, 11, Rodriguez, eight, Kirkpatrick, six, Taylor, five, Wyatt, three and Craig, two.

Seminole in bi-district

The Seminole Indians are the undefeated champions of District 5AA and will play Ballinger, the 6AA champs for the bi-district title at 8 p.m. next Tuesday, Feb. 20, in Snyder's Scurry County Coliseum.

The Slaton girls are the unbeaten winners of the district's fem title.

Girls beat Roosevelt in home final 48-35

Coach John Morrow's Post Does closed their cage season at Denver City Tuesday night with a 39 to 35 loss to the Mustangs after finishing out at home Friday night with a 48 to 35 triumph over Roosevelt.

The split of the final pair left the Does with 13 wins and 14 losses in 27 starts for the long campaign.

Three Does did virtually all the scoring for Post in the win over Roosevelt here.

Dana Bird led the way with eight fielders and four frees for 20 points. She was followed by Luann Kennedy who popped in 15 with five field goals and as many free throws, and Kerri Pool who had four fielders and two frees for 10 points.

That accounted for 45 of Post's 48 points. Making a free throw each to complete the scoring were Lisa Cowdrey, Marinette Hays and Kathryn Bullard.

Nothing much happened in the first period with Post grabbing a 5-2 lead. It was 18-14 for Post at the half as Roosevelt outscored the Does 14 to 13 in the second.

Roosevelt came on to outshoot Post 11 to 7 in the third to knot the score at 25 all.

But three Roosevelt players fouled out in the fourth period as the Does cut loose with a 21-point burst. The Does got 18 free throws in the quarter and made but half of them to go along with six fielders to win going away. At Denver City Tuesday night it was an entirely different story.

In a defensive struggle, the Does couldn't get any kind of scoring attack going. Denver City jumped into an 8-4 lead and led the rest of the way though never by much. It was 15 to 13 at the half and 26 to 23 for the host club at the end of the third.

Post couldn't get any point production from anybody in this one.

While Mull was dropping in 20 for Denver City and Harvey adding another nine for the winners, Bird and Pool tied for high point honors for Post with only seven each.

Other Doe points came from Cowdrey with 6, Hays and Leanna Davis with four each, Kennedy with three, and Tricia Craig and Holly Giddens with two each.

JV girls win cage final

The JV girls finished out their season with a win over Roosevelt here Friday night, 44 to 16.

Scoring for Post were Tricia Craig with nine points, Dede Redman, eight, Amy Thuett, seven, Sharla Macy and Melissa Tatum each had six, Holly Giddens, four and Judy Morris and Lillian Cendalski each had two.

8th boys are 2nd in 5AA

Coach Joe Giddens' Post Middle School eighth grade boys finished their cage season with a victory over Roosevelt here Monday night, 50-41. The win brought their season record to 11 and 4 and gave them a second place in district behind Slaton.

The boys jumped to an early lead by scoring 20 big points in the first period to six for the visitors and nearly doubled it in the second by hitting for 19 more to 17 for Roosevelt.

The third period had Post scoring 17 to 10 and both teams tied with seven points in the final period.

With 15 players seeing action, Bill Black led the scoring with 13. Mark Odom was right behind with 10, Irvin Price nine, Will Kirkpatrick seven, Tim Tannehill, six, Wade Giddens, Marvin Wynne, Toby Craft and Chris Belongia each had three and Lee had two.

In last week's write up in The Dispatch, it was inadvertently omitted that Will Kirkpatrick and Richard Cisneros were named to the All Tournament team at Coahoma.

7th girls drop final

In a squeaker at Roosevelt Monday night, Coach Lu Allen's seventh grade girls lost to Roosevelt 13 to 12.

Roosevelt jumped to an early lead seven to four in the first period, with Post adding four in the second to two for the hosts. Post outshot Roosevelt in the third four to one but Roosevelt found the basket for three in the final period and Post went cold to score none.

All the scoring was had by Doris Pringler with seven and Denise Smith had five.

8th girls finish 11-3

With an 11 and 3 record, the Post eighth grade girls wound up their cage season with a loss at Roosevelt Monday night 37 to 33.

Scoring for Post was Darla Jackson with 12, Charlie Dalby eight, D'Linda Tyler, five, Tina Greene, four and Norma Samora and Verdy Taylor each had two.

The freshman girls get the banner CONGRATULATIONS for the week in winning their district in basketball. The eighth grade boys and girls follow close behind for their fine record of the season. GREAT GOING KIDS... and coaches.

Happy Birthdays for the week go to Johnny Morrow, who turned the magic number of 18; Phil Tyler, Tina Greene, Brent Howard and that Valentine baby, Patti Ann McClellan.

Did you hear about play practice last week with all the weird sounds and noises and ghost stories floating about? Some of the girls got so scared that they wouldn't even drive their cars home and left them at school. And poor Debbie Tyler who lives way out in the country was the only brave person among them and had to take some of the girls in town home. Huh Jody?

I know that you basketball people are glad to see the warm spring weather appear and are ANXIOUS to get into those running shoes for track season.

Don't forget the Sweetheart Contest Saturday night at the auditorium. The Youth Center will open following the contest.

Several First Baptist Young People and invited friends went skating last Thursday night and enjoyed it tremendously. Those I know of that attended were Kelly Mason and Tammy Reece, Darrell Reece and Melissa Tatum, Danny Gunn and Kerri Pool, Brent Howard, Tim Tatum, Brent Mason and Donna George, Peggy Jackson and Jay Lott, Gayle Scott, Jay Young, Cindy Polk, Tina Rogers, Nita Jo Gunn, Amy Thuet, Leslie and Anita Looney, Tammy Eckols, Lea Ann Babb, Melodie Willson, Leslie Willard, David Foster and Kevin Craig. Was it Darrell that almost broke his sacroiliac??

This partial list covers the approximately 10-year period during which your Garza County Heart Association has been working to help all of us. We need our continued support.

Library Corner

by RUTH B. YOUNG

Mrs. Pierce (Pee Wee) has given me the titles of some books that are on the library shelves. One I'm thinking of is "Camp Grounds and Trailer Park Guide", which is large and thick — like a Sears Catalog — but which anyone planning a vacation or trip would be wise to study. It gives the name of parks, their location and access to places to shop, eat, etc. Other books of the same category — non-fiction are: "The Over 50 Guide to Money Making Business Opportunity", and "The First Lady's Lady", by Sheila Rabb Weidenfeld, which was written while the Fords' were in the White House. Another good book is "The Princess in the Tower", by Elizabeth Jenkins.

Stranger", a regency novel by Joan Aikin; "Special Effects", by Harriet Frank Jr., "The Collected Mysteries of Edgar Box", written by Mr. Box, "The Sixth Commandment", by Lawrence Sanders and "Proteus" by Morris West. Mr. West is a very good author and his books are collectors items of avid readers.

If none of these titles appeal to you come in and browse around. You probably will find one that is more to your liking.

McAlister in college play

Tracy McAlister, a 1977 graduate of Post High School, has been cast in the role of Lewis Baker in the Lon Morris College production of "The Last of Mrs. Lincoln" by James Prideaux. This historical drama will be presented on the L.M.C. campus in Jacksonville on Feb. 15, 16, and 17 at 7:30 p.m. in the A. Frank Smith Fine Arts Building.

Several are arrested here

Ricky Hair of Post paid a fine of $150 plus court costs after pleading guilty in city court to charges of disorderly conduct and profanity in a public place as a result of a fight he had with a Dermot man in a local tavern Friday night. The other combatant was treated at Garza Memorial Hospital here and released.

Four men from Wolfthorh pleaded guilty in city court here this week with three fined $250 each on charges of disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. They were Victor Pena, 39; Gregorio Gonzales, 22, and Victor Pena, Jr., 20. The fourth, Atola Montalva, 32, was fined $33 for being drunk in a public place. The three fined $250 were released on $250 bonds put up by a bondsman who will pay their fines in 60 days with the trio to pay the bondsman or have their bonds revoked.

Alvin Moore, 19, of Slaton was arrested last Wednesday afternoon at Wacker's by deputies on a charge of shoplifting. He was released on a $200 cash bond.

A local juvenile, out on parole from the state school, is going to make restitution of several hundred pennies stolen in a local house burglary and be relocated with relatives in another West Texas city, Sheriff Jim Pippin reported, after the youth was interviewed by a parole officer for the state.

Pat M. Mitchell, 18, was released on a $250 surety bond Tuesday night after being charged with fleeing from officers on a borrowed motorcycle. Sheriff Pippin said deputies chased Mitchell all over town.

Father, 87, makes afghan

Thomas C. Warren, father of Clarence and Virgil Warren of Post, has accomplished something most men his age has not.

Warren, 87, has just completed an afghan. What is so unusual about that you ask? Well, he only learned to crochet two years ago and did that by only observing others doing crochet. He started out making pot holders and rugs and then turned to the afghan, which measures 80 by 92 inches, using 30 skeins of rug yarn.

He is a resident of the Itasco Nursing Home and has lived there for the last seven years.

Warren enjoys dominoes and other games and is interested in individual crafts and small hand work projects.

He crochets only when the mood strikes and took seven to eight months at odd times to finish the afghan.

CofC banquet-

Willard, who has been reelected to a second term as Chamber president, said the Chamber has had "a good year" and is looking forward to another under new bylaws which provide for a president-elect to get a year's work in the organization's operations before taking over the Chamber controls.

He then introduced Danny Shaw as the organization's first president elect. Shaw presented Willard with a plaque for his service to the Chamber as its president this past year.

Willard earlier had presented plaques to his three 1978 vice presidents, Jim Well, D.O. (Rob) Robison, now of Amarillo and soon to be Denver City, and Jim Cornish, and to retiring directors Wells, Robison, and Don Payne.

He then introduced newly elected Chamber directors James Pollard and Mrs. Jane Terry. The third new director, Jim Boles, was unable to attend.

Holdover Chamber directors besides Willard are Mrs. Iva Hudman, Charles Adams, Mrs. Linda Waldrip, Shaw and Cornish.

Chamber secretary Phyllis Morris also was cited by Willard for an excellent job in running the Chamber office.

The banquet crowd was served buffet style in record time with a choice of roast beef or ham by the Jackson Catering Service.

The Rev. Tom Pass gave the invocation.

Congressional Comment

By Rep. Charles Stenholm

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The Administration recently released its proposed budget for 1980 calling for outlays of $531.6 billion and revenues of $502.6 billion creating a deficit of $29 billion.

Increases in Social Security payments, due to increased benefits and a greater number of beneficiaries, compose over one-third of the growth in spending. Defense spending rises by $11.3 billion. Medicare-Medicaid, veterans benefits and interest on the national debt are additional major elements in the outlay expansion. Despite the increases in some of these programs, the President refers to the budget as "lean and austere."

While studying the proposed budget, I am increasingly concerned by the large deficit, particularly when perceived realistically the President's Budget will probably exceed $29 billion in the red.

Certainly we need a constitutional amendment to balance the budget except in times of war or national emergency. I have sponsored such a proposal in Congress. Despite the large deficit and the high tax rate proposed, I am pleased with the direction in which we appear to be heading. The attitude of our leadership seems to be toward a more fiscally responsible course.

There is not the massive increases in social programs that past Presidents have proposed. People are beginning to understand the definition of economics; the study of the allocation of scarce resources. We are not a nation of unlimited resources but are subject to restraints that must be death with.

We must, though, realize that the government has to perform some essential services that the private sector is unable to provide. The President's proposed cuts, in some of the expenditures that enhance the assets of America such as soil conservation and agricultural research and development, cause me great concern. They constitute investment for future generations. The budget does contain increases for necessary government spending for defense. I support these increases because they are needed to defend our way of life against aggression. If we do not have an adequate defense the rest of our goals will not matter for we stand in danger of losing everything we cherish.

Certainly the government has to provide some services, but if we are to survive as a world power our citizens must realize that government cannot solve all of our problems, all of the time. Our strength as a nation depends on how each one of us lives our own individual lives. It is not a time to ask more of the government, but a time to demand more of ourselves. It is not a time to increase government handouts, but a time to put people back to productive work. It is a time to thoughtfully plan for the future of our nation.

Hospital-

This has been the case here for several months. Zintgraff said there just isn't as much sickness this winter as last.

The average patients per day in January was only 6.4 as compared to 8.2 last January. The average patients per day for the present hospital year is but 5.7 patients as compared to 8.1 for a similar four month period the previous fiscal year.

The hospital admitted 47 patients in January for a total of 199 patient days. The average stay was 4.2 days.

Four babies were born in the hospital in January. Outpatients treated totaled 186.

Hospital collections for the month totaled $20,191.26 from accounts and $7,143.61 more in taxes. January expenses totaled $55,666.02, higher than usual because the hospital is making all its budgeted 1979 equipment purchases in the first month or two of the year, according to Zintgraff.

Piano student places first

D'Linda Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Tyler, was among the winners named in the Lubbock Music Teachers Association Sonata, Sonata and Concerto contest held Feb. 2-3 in Lubbock.

More than 400 piano students were judged on poise, accuracy, technique, interpretation and memory in intermediate, junior high and senior high levels.

D'Linda placed first in competition on the first movement of Sonata, Opus 88, No. 2 by Kuhlau. D'Linda received a superior rating. As a first place winner she played in the winners recital held at the Municipal Garden and Arts Center in Lubbock Feb. 9.

D'Linda is an eighth grade student at Post Middle School and is a piano student of Mrs. Jim Milner of Slaton.

Dan H. Sawyers, 110 N. Ave. R.; Michael T. Shepherd, 1015 W. 11th; Steven B. Shepherd, 1015 W. 11th; Denis C. Simpson, 612 W. 7th; and Nathan V. Wheeler, route 2.

To qualify for a dean's honor roll a student must have a grade point average of 3.0 or more on a 4.0 scale and must have taken as many as 12 semester hours of work.

Postings-

(Continued From Page One) conduct a door to door campaign for heart donations the last week in February and that's going to be a well organized effort with plenty of participation.

We will predict that with the "heart month" advertising campaign the chapter has launched in today's Dispatch people will "get the message" and contribute a record total to help continue the fight against America's No. 1 killer.

Somebody did a little illegal Saturday night driving downtown. We didn't check the entire business area, but a vehicle was driven down the sidewalk in front of The Dispatch in the 100 block East Main, knocking the Lubbock A-J's news rack from in front of Corner Grocery into the street on one side with tire marks showing the vehicle missed the sidewalk ice box of the grocery store by only 15 inches on the other side, which meant a mighty tight squeeze on that side. The vehicle either turned into the vacant lot next to The Dispatch or came onto the sidewalk from the vacant lot. The skid marks indicate it was "burning rubber". We still can't figure out how they turned the corner into or out of the vacant lot.

During the month of January, 1979, interest earned from the State from improved management of the current operating funds amounted to $13,963,330.57, an increase of 46.1 percent over interest earned from the same source a year ago.

State record in interest

AUSTIN — State Treasurer Warren G. Harding, announced this, "It is with great pride and pleasure that I announce to the people of Texas that interest income from the investment of State's funds during my sixteenth month tenure of office amounted to $185,230,502.02, an increase of $46,726,624.46 over the previous sixteen month period.

Since being sworn in as State Treasurer on Oct. 7, 1977, the percentage of funds invested has steadily been increased from 84.8 percent to an unprecedented average monthly percentage of 94.2 percent during the month of January, 1979, which is an all-time historical high. During Hardings' sixteen month tenure interest rates have been increased from six percent to nine percent and total interest earned on the State's operating funds has amounted to $185,230,502.02, an increase of 33.7 percent over the previous 16 months.

During the month of January, 1979, interest earned from the State from improved management of the current operating funds amounted to $13,963,330.57, an increase of 46.1 percent over interest earned from the same source a year ago.
