

There's A Lot More To A Duck Dinner Than The Hunter's Prowess With Gun

As the duck hunting season opens tomorrow, local sportsmen and the people who cook their game might be interested in a few tips for procedure after the gun is fired.

After the ducks are killed, the hunter should be sure to cover torn, shot-wounded areas to shut out flies. The eyes and bills should also be covered, as they attract flies.

Some gourmets insist on hanging the ducks for some time to break down tough fleshy tissues. In this part of the country, where it is likely to be warm at this time of year, it is advisable to ask the butcher to hang the ducks along with his other meats. Freezing is not recommended. Four to five days of hanging should be enough.

Duck is better if rubbed clean with a damp cloth after plucking, drawing and singeing. It should not be washed with water, either outside or in. After hanging, the duck should be warmed to kitchen temperature before cooking.

Brush With Oil
Olive oil, bacon grease or some other good fat (but not butter as it burns too easily at 500 degrees) should be used to brush the duck inside and out. After salt and pepper has been applied, inside and out, a couple of stalks of coarse celery may be stuffed into the cavity.

The oven should be hot, approximately 500 degrees before the duck is put in. Allow 10 to 12 minutes for teal, 12 to 15 minutes for medium size ducks, and 15 to 20 minutes for mallards and other big ducks, giving the longer time to older drakes. After five minutes of searing, open the oven door to quickly reduce the temperature to about 450 degrees.

Slice off the breast from the wing toward the breastbone, and cut off the legs. Place on a hot platter and cover to prevent unnecessary drying. Squeeze juices from carcass and add to any juice extracted in carving. Some experts season juices with a little salt and cayenne and serve; others reserve some of the duck's blood and add it a little at a time to juices simmering in a chafing dish, then this gravy is poured over the breast and legs.

Can Add Flavors
Some gourmets use either of these two foundation sauces and add a little grated orange peel, melted currant jelly, butter, sherry, paprika—any or all of them. Another variation is to add grated orange peel and apricot pulp to the foundation sauce. The apricots should be soaked overnight, boiled and rubbed through a sieve.

There are two schools of thought on stuffing a duck: Those who don't and those who do.

The more old-fashioned of the stuffers omit the onions, so that the game flavor can better permeate. A good onionless stuffing can be made as follows:

Chop all the giblets and add 1/3 as much bacon, 1 tsp. chopped parsley per cup, 1 pinch nutmeg per cup, enough bread crumbs to bind (moistened with lemon juice and beaten egg), 1 pinch thyme per cup, salt and cayenne to taste. Shape into small balls and place inside and around the ducks.

Good Peanut Stuffing
And here's a good peanut stuffing: To four cups of dry bread crumbs add three cups of peanuts that have been roasted brown and crisp. Put through fine blade of food chopper with 1 medium-sized onion, 1/2 cup of crumbled cornbread, salt and black pepper to taste. Stir in 2 1/2 tablespoons melted butter. Moisten with a little veal broth and white sweet wine, equal quantities; blend with one beaten egg. Stuff the bird.

Obsolete Wiring On Farms Cause Extra Expenses

The electrical wiring on many farms is obsolete so far as safety and economical use of power is concerned. Farmsteads that were wired a number of years ago just weren't wired to handle the modern-day electrical loads, says Lewis Herron, Garza County agricultural agent.

A few years ago the chief uses of electricity on the farm were for lights, perhaps an electric pump motor and a few household appliances. It is different today. Farmers are using large motors to elevate grain, to operate pressure water systems, and literally dozens of smaller motors and appliances to make their work faster and easier around the farmstead, says Herron. There're chicken and pig brooders, cream separators, milking machines and milk coolers, lights all over the place and in the home many new appliances and machines have been added with little thought given to modernizing the wiring system.

Make Simple Checks
Herron suggests that you make a few simple checks for the purpose of determining whether or not some new wiring on your farm would be in order. The lights and electrical equipment are good indicators—just watch them. Lights dim when the refrigerator or pump motor kicks on. The fluorescent light in the kitchen may go completely out. Radio volume decreases when other equipment is on; the cream separator motor doesn't seem to have its usual pep; the electric range doesn't heat as fast at chore time and electric motors stall and get hot. These are danger signals.

If these situations exist on your farm, says Herron, chances are very good that your farmstead wiring is inadequate. For the equipment you are using, the wires from the transformer to the equipment are too long, too small or both.

Rewiring Might Pay
In addition to the low voltage which causes dim lights, loss of power and loss of time in waiting for electrical elements to heat, electricity furnished by inadequate wiring costs more money, says Herron, and a re-wiring job would pay. The use of larger wire and a shorter span between the transformer and the meter have often resulted in considerable savings to the farmer.

The county agent says you should remember that you pay for the energy lost in all wires on your side of the transformer. You don't pay directly for the energy lost in heating the wires between the transformer and the meter, but you make up for it in the inefficiencies of your lighting, heating and power equipment.

New equipment has come along so far that most electric

Tick And Lice Control Begins During Autumn

There is no profit in feeding the external parasites on cattle. This is the time of the year when you can get control of the ticks and lice that will take your profits if they are not controlled, says Lewis Herron, Garza County agricultural agent.

Cattle that are free of parasites have a better appearance, are healthier and more productive than cattle that have to use their own methods and energy to combat the insect pests. Healthy and contented cattle turn the feed and roughage they consume into meat and the mother cows will produce stronger, healthier calves next spring.

Lice bother the cattle more in the winter and early spring when the hair is long and the best time to treat the cattle for these pests is the fall of the year. Herron says to use 8 lbs. of 50 per cent wettable DDT powder to 100 gallons of water and treat twice. The second treatment should come two weeks after the first. This second treatment will take care of the lice that hatch after the first treatment. In the case of dairy cattle, methoxychlor should be substituted for DDT, says Herron. These control methods can be used either as sprays or dips. Cattle will make better gains during the winter months if they are kept free of the external parasites and they will come out of the winter in much better condition, says Herron.

users just haven't stopped to think about what is happening to their wiring system, but Herron says, if you have observed the danger signals, it's time to find the cause.

Kidnapping And Armed Robbery Are Staged Here

A white man and a colored man were in jail here and a second white man was being sought in four states this week in connection with a kidnapping and armed robbery here last weekend.

The man who is sought is Royce W. Barry, who was believed en route to California by automobile in company with his wife and young daughter. Sheriff Bass said he learned that Barry had left Seminole Monday morning.

Barry and the two other men were charged in connection with the Saturday kidnapping of Jack Lewis and the subsequent armed robbery of Lewis' wife, the sheriff said.

The Lewis said the trio picked Lewis up, took him riding and demanded that he give them $33. Lewis said he had no money, and the men required him to accompany them to his residence where they held a 1917 trench knife to Mrs. Lewis' throat. She said she gave them $33 and they left.

The two men in jail are Max Smith, Post negro, and Robert Riggs, formerly of Illinois. Riggs and Barry had been transferred here Friday with an oil field rig crew from Seminole.

Sheriff Bass and Deputy Sheriff Vernon Lobban arrested one of the men and were assisted by Jim Riddles and Noel Newberry of the State Highway Patrol in arresting the other.

Officers were told that the men armed themselves with the knife and a 12-gauge shotgun after one of them claimed that $30 had been stolen from him in the course of gambling at a cafe in the flats. The suspects happened up on Lewis, who had been in the game, the officers were the justice court of J. D. King told.

The complaints were filed in for action of the 106th judicial district grand jury that will be assembled Dec. 5 by Judge Louis B. Reed of Lamesa.

Baptists Urged To Refuse State Funds And Avoid Statism

The president of Baylor University declared today that statism is spreading rapidly in the United States and Baptists must keep their "hands clean" from accepting federal or state funds, the Associated Press reported.

Delegates to the Texas Baptist general convention in El Paso, heard this statement today from Dr. W. R. White of Waco.

He said that those who believe "a certain hierarchy" is a bulwark against communism were mistaken, because that ecclesiastical has always been lined up with the state and has accepted and sought state funds.

To provide dependence upon the state, Dr. White called for adequate support of ministers, the teaching profession and the church's institutions.

Rainbow Assembly Gives Halloween Party Saturday

The Rainbow Assembly entertained with a Halloween party in the City Hall banquet room Saturday night.

Entertainment included games, fortune telling by Mrs. E. M. Bass and dancing. Mrs. Bass and her assistant, Mrs. R. E. Dodson, were dressed as gypsies.

The room was decorated with bundles of feed which were decorated with masks of witches' and goblins' faces and the ceiling was decorated with interlaced paper streamers in the Halloween colors. The room was lighted with jack-o-lanterns. The stairway had bales of hay stacked along one side and the guests entered the banquet room thru paper streamers at the top of the stairs.

Tips For Sewing On Plaids Given By County Agent

Plaids, so popular in the fashion picture this fall, present a few special problems in home dressmaking, according to Mrs. Jewell H. Strasner, Garza County home demonstration agent.

In training schools being held over the state by Extension clothing specialists Mary Routh and Nena Roberson of Texas A&M College, these problems are discussed with the home demonstration agents and leaders. Among suggestions given by the specialists are these:

It is usually necessary to buy more material than the pattern calls for to make plaids and those with up and down, or right and left design take the most yardage.

When choosing a pattern to make up in plaid, look for simple lines and little decorative detail. The plaid itself offers enough decoration so that fancy extra touches are not needed and the fewer the pattern pieces, the less the difficulty of matching the design when putting the garment together.

If the material must shrink before making up, take care to hang it straight in drying and to hold ends and selvages even in pressing so that the weave runs straight and true, the specialists caution.

The easiest way to make the plaid match is to check the notches when laying on pattern pieces, making sure that a notch on the sleeve, for example, comes at the same place in the plaid as the corresponding notch in the armseye.

Very often it pays, the specialists say, to cut pieces one at a time and on single rather than double material, except for those pieces which must be cut on a fold of goods.

Follow these suggestions and your plaid dress will be much easier to make.

Puckett's Married Fifty Years Nov. 5
Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Puckett will observe their Golden Wedding anniversary Saturday, Nov. 5, during the three day meeting in Dr. J. Howard Williams of Dallas, executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Your Family Will Like You If You Cook Pork Ribs And Kraut For Tonight's Meal

Hungry for "something different?"
How about having pork ribs with kraut for dinner tonight? You can glamorize it by also having orange avocado salad (or ambrosia if you can't get the avocados), buttered beets, corn-break sticks and butter, applesauce cake and whatever beverage the family prefers for supper.

Mrs. Jewell H. Strasner has an excellent recipe for applesauce cake. It goes like this:
One-half cup shortening, 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup smooth, unsweetened applesauce, 2 cups sifted, all-purpose flour, ½ teaspoon baking soda, 2 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg and ½ teaspoon cloves. Nuts and dates or raisins may be added, if desired.

Cream shortening, sugar and spices together. Add the beaten egg, then the applesauce. Sift flour with soda, salt and baking powder and add to the liquid mixture. Beat well, then add nuts and dates (if desired) and beat well into dough mixture. Pour into a greased pan, preferably 9x9x2 inches in size. Bake in a moderate oven (325 to 350° F.) for 40 to 45 minutes.

Spicy applesauce cake was one of the favorite recipes of grandmother's day and it is still a simple, inexpensive cake for family dessert at apple season.

Apples, incidentally, are plentiful. Mrs. Strasner says eat them raw, out of hand, in salads and in fruitcup. Scalloped them alone or with sweet potatoes. Fry them with bacon, sausage or ham. Glaze apple rings as a fine garnish for spareribs and pork chops. Serve that and chilled applesauce or apple butter for breakfast along with crisp toast or hot breads. For dessert, serve deep dish apple pie, apple crisp, apple dumplings or apple bread or crisp cookies.

Vary the flavor with lemon juice or spices, such as cinnamon, nutmeg or cloves. Use spices in moderation. A pinch of salt brings out flavor. Do not let applesauce stand with nutmeg in it. That turns it bitter.

Personality Can Be Reflected In Home's Entrance

Often the entrance hall in the home does not give one the impression that a home is really just a place to hang your hat, but if the entrance hall to your home is thoughtfully furnished, it may reflect the hospitality and cheerful atmosphere of the home, says Mrs. Jewell H. Stasner, Garza County home demonstration agent. The decoration and furnishings of the hall may also be an introduction to the decorative scheme of the house.

Since the hall is a part of the house where people do not usually remain for any length of time, more striking effects can be used here than in rooms where you expect to spend many hours. The most important consideration for the hall are that it have a cheerful and cordial welcoming atmosphere and that it be convenient, says Mrs. Stasner.

For convenience, there should be a closet where wraps may be placed and hung. There should be a table or a flat surface of some kind where packages may be left, or letters, gloves or similar articles may be laid. There should be room for a chair or two.

The hall usually gets heavy traffic and is exposed to more of the weather than other rooms, and for these reasons the floor coverings should be too easy to clean, says Mrs. Stasner. Linoleum is a serviceable floor covering for the hall and there are many attractive colors and patterns to choose from. It is quite customary to use scatter rugs on a polished floor in the hall, but when this done, warns Mrs. Stasner, be sure the rugs are anchored so that there will be no falls caused from the rugs slipping on the floor.

Deductions On Debt May Be Made From Veterans' Payments

More than half a million veterans who owe the government money as the result of overpayments on subsistence allowances or other veterans benefits or defaults on loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration may find all or part of their share of the forthcoming special dividend payment on National Life Insurance deducted to cover their debts, the Veterans Administration has announced.

The VA estimated that somewhere between 20 and 30 million dollars of such debts may be collected from the NSLI dividends.

All of the individuals concerned are aware of their indebtedness to the government and know that it is deductible from other VA payments to which they may be entitled, the agency said.

Some 600,000 veterans are currently indebted to VA for total of about $70,000,000. The bulk of this amount constitutes overpayments on subsistence allowances for veterans taking educational courses or training under the GI Bill.

Other types of indebtedness are overpayments on pensions, compensation, or readjustment allowances, and losses made good to leaders on defaulted GI Loans.

A considerable number of veterans are now repaying indebtedness by having deductions from their monthly checks. When the overpayment is wiped out, as it may be by the dividend deductions, there will be no further monthly withholding, the VA explained.

Mrs. J. T. Howard of Roswell, N. M., spent from Saturday until Tuesday here with her niece, Mrs. Tom Miller, and family.

and Mrs. Velma Grimes of Clovis, N. M., Mrs. McAllister is a daughter of J. Art Smith.

Legumes Planted In Area Giving Nitrogen To Soil

Duck Creek Soil Conservation District cooperators this fall put 135 billion helpers to work for them. That's how many nitrogen fixing bacteria they used to inoculate legume cover crop seed this fall. This week, soil technicians found these bacteria at work.

One five-week-old vetch plant from W. C. Quisenberry's vetch-rye planting had six nodules on its roots. Floyd H. Hodges at Cross Roads found them on three-week-old vetch plants. A large sweetclover plant from H. M. Ford's April planting had over a hundred nodules on its roots.

These 135 billion bacteria are the link between nitrogen in the air and that in the soil. Only the legume plants (vetch, sweetclover, alfalfa and peas) can support nodules on their roots.

Scientists estimate there are 35,000 tons of gaseous nitrogen over every acre of land. If all this could be converted into a form of commercial fertilizer it would be worth $5,000,000. An average crop of vetch or sweetclover, when properly inoculated with nitrogen fixing bacteria, will take from the air and add 60 to 100 pounds of nitrogen to the soil. This is $9 to $15 worth of nitrogen fertilizer per acre. The organic matter from these crops helps support other necessary soil organisms.

Nitrogen in the soil make plants grow fast with a dark green color. Nitrogen is an important element of proteins.

When district cooperators used 135 billion bacteria to help improve their soil they were using one of nature's ways to improve soil fertility. Native pastures before they were overgrazed had wild vetches and lespedezas

Why Everyone Reads Dispatch, Passes It Along

What do you do with your Post Dispatch when you finish reading it each week?

The reporter, whose job during the Bargain Rate season is to write something each week to inspire the readers to subscribe or renew without delay, asked the above question of almost everybody who came into the office Friday—this included the comparative strangers who are asked in to try to pay their city and school taxes or leave some cleaning because, to quote some of them, the Post Dispatch "looks like anything but a printing office."

Five out of every five persons interviewed said they look the Post Dispatch over each week. Some were subscribers, some bought it at one of the drug stores or in the Post Dispatch office and others read their neighbors' copies.

Three out of every five said they either sent the copies they read to a former Postite in some other town or passed it on to a neighbor. The other two did everything from papering the closet to lining their garbage cans with their copies after everyone in their families had given it the once over.

Everyone interviewed had a different answer as to why he liked to read the Post Dispatch. One liked the paper because it always contained "something about everything that's happened during the past week," one liked the church column, another bought the paper to see which stores were offering what each week. Every person liked something about the paper, and nobody offered any adverse criticism.

This caused the reporter to reword one of the questions and seek information as to what the readers disliked about the Post Dispatch. These people answered the revised question somewhat like this:

"I dislike the fact that you put it out only once a week. I would like to see it at least twice a week, if not every day."

The Post Dispatch has had a nice steady growth during its 24 years and it celebrated its birthday this week by adding an extra column to each page, but it won't expand to a semi-weekly until those two people quit papering their closets and lining their garbage pails with it.

The informal survey showed that "almost everybody" reads the Post Dispatch, and the purpose in calling attention to this fact is to remind all these people that they can save 50 cents each by buying subscriptions or renewing their present subscriptions right now, during the annual Bargain Days.

Pests Responsible For Reduction In Nation's Cotton

South Plains farmers can profit from national cotton yield reports which indicate that insects were responsible for a 63,000-bale decrease in 1949 production, despite greater acreage and favorable crop conditions.

The plant industry department at Texas Technological College in Lubbock cited the figures today as an incentive for West Texas cotton growers to adopt rotation plans and apply insecticides at the proper time.

Flea hoppers, leafworm, aphids and red spiders can be controlled if the farmer will observe his crop closely and keep periodic counts. Weekly observation permits the farmer to keep pests in check if suitable sprays or dusts are used.

Joe McCowen, son of the section foreman at Justiceburg, broke both bones in his right arm last Thursday afternoon while playing football at the Justiceburg school. He is in the fourth grade.

H. M. Tucker celebrated his birthday Tuesday of last week.

Teachers Choose E. H. Boulter As Their Candidate

E. H. Boulter of Lubbock, candidate for 19th Congressional District representative on the State Board of Education, a non-salaried position, was nominated by a committee appointed by the president of the West Texas Teachers Association.

The committee considered about 25 different people and finally agreed to select two people, of which Boulter was one, and let the representative of each school in the district vote for his or her preference. Of the returned ballots, a vast majority chose Boulter who, consequently, received the nomination.

Boulter, in his capacity as deputy state school superintendent, has worked continuously for the past eight years with the school people of this area and, because of the nature of his work, has been concerned with problems involving parents, boards of trustees, laymen and teachers, as well as pupils, in matters of equal and progressive opportunities for the youth of West Texas.

He is a veteran of World War I who has served in the public schools of Texas before taking the state deputy job. He is now associated with the Educators Life Insurance Company. He is chairman of the legislative committee of the 14th District, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers.

He is a native of Brown County, Texas, and holds both bachelor's and master's degrees from Texas institutions. He has been directly connected with the public schools of Texas for 30 years.

Mechanical Boll Pulling To Begin

The Texas Employment Commission has announced that mechanical strippers and cotton picking machines will be needed in the Plains area and urged anyone with a stripper or picker willing to do custom stripping report to the Commission's office in Lubbock.

Stripping machines will begin operations between Nov. 5 and 10.

The Commission also urged any farmer or dealer with new or used mechanical cotton gathering equipment for sale to contact the Lubbock office.

Mrs. John W. Beggs, who was injured several weeks ago by an accidental discharge from a rifle, was taken from the Snyder hospital to the Baylor Hospital in Dallas Wednesday of last week. She is the wife of a Kent County rancher in the Justiceburg area. It was learned this week that Mrs. Beggs had surgery last Thursday and is convalescing satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles Visit Friend Who Lost Legs Oct. 13

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Giles went to Altus, Okla., Sunday to visit a close friend, C. B. Hughes, who lost both legs in a gruesome haybaler accident Oct. 13, and his 90-year-old mother, Mrs. Margaret Neal of Elmer, Okla., who broke a leg the following day. Both are in an Altus hospital.

Mrs. Giles said that Hughes, who went to school with her two sons, Billy and Vernon, when both families lived at Elmer, was working on his farm when the accident happened. After getting his right hand caught in the baler he tried to free it with his feet and got both legs caught. Both limbs were sawed off below the knee and Hughes was rolled away from the baler. He lay on the ground three hours and forty-five minutes before he could attract the attention of his wife. The belt of the baler was so hot, it seared his legs and this prevented his bleeding to death.

Once his wife came outside the house and looked in the direction of the haybaler, he waved to her, and she waved back thinking it was just a greeting. When he was late for lunch, she wondered why and looked toward the haybaler and saw a fire and this caused her to investigate and discover her husband's predicament. He had found a match in his pocket and set the fire in an attempt to attract her attention.

At no time did Hughes lose consciousness. He directed his wife in carrying him to the house and getting him to a hospital and courageously soothed his shocked children, six-year-old Ronnie and three-year-old Markay.

His arm was injured seriously, but it is now believed that it will not have to be amputated.

His mother, on hearing of his injury, hurriedly prepared to visit him at the hospital and while doing so fell and went to the hospital as a patient instead of a visitor.

Hughes' morale is excellent, despite the fact that it will be a year before he can be fitted with artificial limbs. He has been encouraged by letters received from all of his friends and numerous people in various parts of the country who were touched by the news of the accident. He was photographed and interviewed by Life Magazine last week, Mrs. Giles said.

Had RHEUMATISM So BAD That He Had To Quit Working

Caused by dietary deficiencies

Mr. Jerry Watkins, chief of detectives of the city of Hot Springs, Arkansas, suffered with rheumatism so much and the aches and pains were so terrible that he had to quit working in an effort to regain his health after he had tried everything which his friends recommended.

Detective Watkins is well known and his countless number of friends throughout the country will rejoice to know that he is now healthy, free of rheumatic aches and pains and now working hard.

Mr. Jerry Watkins

"For several years," Mr. Watkins says, "I suffered from a rheumatic condition in the hip and leg. I was very nervous and finally developed migraine headaches. I tried all kinds of medicines, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I seemed to be growing worse and worse and was finally advised to take a leave of absence from my work on the police force in an effort to recover my health."

"The pains in my head sometimes were unbearable. I suffered tortures and I was miserable. At night particularly I lay awake and could not sleep."

Mr. Watkins said that someone finally persuaded him to try HADACOL, and after taking the first bottle he said he could see an improvement in his general condition.

"On January 14th of this year," he said, "I felt so much better I decided to go back on the job. The examining doctor told me I was in perfect health. Now I am working from 8 to 12 hours daily and I am able to sleep as any normal person. I have taken six large size bottles of HADACOL and all my friends know I owe my good health to HADACOL."

Mr. Watkins is one of the many thousands of people who suffered from a deficiency of the B vitamins and the minerals that HADACOL contains and who, therefore, found relief in HADACOL.

It is a well known scientific fact that the lack of only a small amount of the B vitamins and certain minerals in your system will cause certain bodily disorders such as nutritional neuritis, which causes the aches and pains common to many cases of rheumatism, and there is no known cure for the disease until the administration of the needed vitamins and minerals. This is why people who suffer from these and other severe nervous ailments should obtain relief with HADACOL, the B vitamins and minerals the lack of which was causing the disorder.

HADACOL does not contain any one but has five of the B vitamins and four necessary minerals. It comes to you in liquid form so that it will be easily absorbed by the blood and, therefore, carried to the parts of the body which need them most.

So, it matters not where you live—no matter who you are—if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, you should be fair to yourself and give this wonderful preparation, HADACOL, a trial. And if your disease is caused by a lack of the B vitamins and minerals which HADACOL contains, then don't go on suffering—don't continue to make your life so miserable. Temporary relief for you is not enough. Take HADACOL. Sold at all leading drugstores. Trial size only $1.25, but save money; buy the large family economy size, only $3.50. If your druggist does not handle HADACOL, order direct from The Le Blane Corporation, Lafayette, La., and when the postman brings your package, just pay the amount plus the e.o.d. and postage. If you remit with the order we will pay the postage.

Then, if you don't feel perfectly satisfied after using HADACOL as directed, just return the empty carton and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Nothing could be fairer.—Adv.

It gives the veterans a decided lift in seeing something to their families. Those without dependents use the money to create a nest egg for themselves against the day when they leave the hospital and endeavor to re-establish themselves in life.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler came here from Gaines County in the fall of 1923. Since Mr. Chandler's death in January, 1935, she had been making her home with her children.

Mrs. Chandler had been a member of the Church of Christ for 50 years.

The 1950 budget of $55,507.50 covers five general categories: Program, Leadership Training, Council Service, Council Administration and stabilization. An example of how the budget is broken down within the various categories, is illustrated with the following items listed under Program:

Camping, health and safety, $8,160; Camp ranger, $3,000; cook's salary, six weeks, $360; water front director's salary, $210; life guard salary, $180; kitchen help, $180; program specialists, $180; camp awards, $50; first aid materials, $40; camp utilities, $280; program materials, $100; truck maintenance, $260; food subsidy, $600; tents, repair and replacement, $100; dishes, utensils, etc., $100; lumber, screens, paint, tools, etc., $200; National Jamboree, $200.

Tax Collections

(Continued From Front Page) the school authorities that sufficient funds will be available to meet current expenses and also to take care of outstanding bonds and interest, some of which come early in the school year.

"To those who have not yet paid their school taxes, this is a reminder that a two per cent discount will be allowed during November and one per cent during December. Taxes not paid by February 1 will bear a penalty."

The same discounts and penalties apply to payment of city and county and state taxes.

Mrs. Lorene Benson, city secretary, said Tuesday that a little more than 50 per cent of the 1949 city taxes have been paid to date, $11,771.78 having been collected. The total due was $21,323.89.

Walter Mathis, deputy Garza County tax assessor-collector, said he collected $120,000 in county and state taxes the last two weeks of October and that T. H. Tipton, who preceded him in the office had collected taxes earlier in the month. Although he was not prepared to report the total when interviewed by a Post Dispatch reporter, he said he was sure the greater per cent of the more than $162,000 due had been paid. He will make a complete report soon, he said.

Win Honors

The American Jersey Cattle Club presented to him their grand champion ribbon for the outstanding work he has done with registered Jersey cattle. He has won many local and district honors at fairs and stock shows and dairy judging contests. He is a member of the American Jersey Cattle Club and has twice represented his county at the State 4-H Club Round-Up.

Is Junior Leader He has served five times as president of his local club at Southland and is now working with George Samson and C. S. Lindsey, adult leaders, and Garza County Agricultural Agent Lewis Herron in the capacity of a junior leader. He has always found time to assist the younger boys in his club with their demonstrations and problems. He overcame a multitude of these problems himself. He and his mother, Mrs. Fern Bourne, for years have operated their farm.

E. P. started his dairy demonstration in 1942 with two animals. Today he has 16 fine animals in his herd. In addition, he has handled 56 head of swine, 12 beef calves, 100 acres of field crops and 775 chickens. Farming has been a big business with him; but it's his dairy herd that he's proudest of and why shouldn't he be proud?

In his record book are the production records of 11 of his cows, and the lowest butterfat producer in the group has a record of 8,044 pounds of milk and 424 pounds of butterfat for one lactation period. Texas' average production per cow is 3,110 pounds of milk and 137 pounds of butterfat. His best cow in 300 days produced 12,240 pounds of milk and 660.5 pounds of butterfat and eight of the 11 head have produced in excess of 500 pounds butterfat in a year. He has 5 grand champion ribbons, 22 first, 6 seconds, 3 thirds and 1 sixth place ribbon that indicate the fine quality of the animals in his herd.

Strives For Best E. P. says, "When I first started my dairy demonstration, I went to considerable expense to obtain good cattle and equipment. I did this because I knew the value of good cattle and the importance of having good equipment. This combination makes possible efficient operations and enables one to produce quality milk under the most strict sanitary regulations. In handling my cattle, I have learned how to mix feed and then to use it properly and profitably." He concludes with this statement: "Believing that anything worth doing is worth doing right, I have endeavored to take exceptionally good care of my 4-H club dairy animals and their records speak for the job done."

The Dairy Production Contest is sponsored by the Craft Foods Company, Chicago. The company provides medals for the county winners, eight $25 Savings Bonds for the state winners, 10 trips to National 4-H Club Congress, Chicago, for the sectional winners and six $300 college scholarships for the national winners. Wicker's record will be entered in the sectional and national contests. Other bond winners in addition to Wicker are: Billy Hugo, Carthage, Penola county; Doyle Davis, Hart, Castro county; and Billy Wayne Fowler, Lakeview, Hall county.

The 135 contestants in the Texas Farm and Home Egg Laying Contest are from 46 different Texas counties and 45,824 hens are involved in the contest.

For A 16-Year-Old, Lois Ritchie Is Most Accomplished

Lois Ritchie, a Sophomore in Post High School, was dumfounded when informed last week by Miss Kate Adele Hill of Lubbock, District 2 Texas home demonstration agent, that she will be one of 16 Texas girls and boys to take the Santa Fe Railroad's all-expense paid trip to the 1949 National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Nov. 27-Dec. 1.

A modest, unassuming girl whose main ambition is to be a dress designer, Lois is still unable to believe that her five years of 4-H club work in this county is deserving of such an honor.

She joined the Close City 4-H Club when she was nine years old because she "wanted to learn to sew". Sewing is still her favorite hobby and art is her next favorite. Although she has had only one summer of instruction in art—by Mrs. W. F. Presson in 1948, she won first place in art at the Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock two years ago.

Has Been Busy The oldest of four daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ritchie, Lois has, for her 16 years, led a varied and interesting life, the highlights of which have been her 4-H activities—all of which she has enjoyed, from gardening to cake baking. She was born in California, but has lived in Garza County most of her life.

Beginning with her first club membership, in 1945 when Miss Mable Ann Manly was home demonstration agent, Lois has written her 4-H history for the Post Dispatch, as follows:

"During the first year, we learned tying and dyeing scarves, studied grooming, made clothing. I served as club reporter and president and attended all the county 4-H rallies.

"In 1946, Garza County did not have a home demonstration agent until December when Miss Jewell Hipp (now Mrs. Strasser) was appointed as our agent. I was elected vice president of the club that year.

Went To A. & M. "During 1947, I attended leadership training schools on water bath canning and shell jewelry. I made one shell pin and gave the demonstration on water bath canning to my club. I entered the county dress revue contest and placed fourth. I attended the Texas A. and M. Round-Up as a delegate. At the 4-H rally at Camp Post that year, I assisted with teaching shell jewelry to the other girls.

"I was chosen as Gold Star winner in Garza County 4-H work in 1947 and was selected to attend the district 4-H encampment at Lubbock.

"At the annual Garza County 4-H Club Show, Dec. 20, 1947, I received the showmanship loving cup as the girl with the most points in the whole show. I was first place winner in needlework, clothing and placed second on poultry. I won the white rosette ribbon in the show. I was appointed on the committee at the annual show in poultry production.

Went To Lubbock "In October, 1947, I entered my oil paintings, dress and needlework at the fair in Lubbock, placed on both of my oil paintings and received $2.50.

"The projects I carried that year were gardening, poultry, needlework, canning and clothing, and I served as vice president and also as secretary of the club in 1947.

"For the 1948 Dress Revue, I made an aqua blue wool suit which placed first in Garza County with 91 points. This won me a trip to the State Dress Revue in Dallas. That year, I entered several 4-H club rallies, and had handicraft and etching demonstrations. I served as secretary, treasurer and clothing demonstrator of my club.

"That year I was art and handicraft committee chairman for the Garza County Fair, and I helped with the arrangement of my club's booth, which was first place. At the fair, I was high point girl in the Senior Division and also in the clothing and needlework division. I received three purple ribbons.

"In 1948 and 1949, I was on the refreshment committee for the junior rodeo, which was sponsored to raise funds for a 4-H Club building.

"In May, 1949, I entered the Garza County Dress Revue and received 96 points, and won a trip to A&M College to enter the State Dress Revue.

"This year I have carried on poultry, clothing, needlework, canning and raised a calf for home use. Now I have 68 ribbons which I have won in 4-H Club competition.

Can Do Anything "I have found that by work in 4-H Club, I can accomplish anything I am determined to do. As a result of the influence of the 4-H Club in my home, my entire family cooperates and is willing to do anything to add to the comfort and attractiveness of our home. To me, the 4-H work has meant added interest and enjoyment to working.

"In 1948, I entered Post High School and was elected Freshman Class Favorite. I was class reporter that year.

"In the 1948 Garza County Fair, I won the purple rosette ribbon for being the best exhibitor, 21 ribbons, $7.50 in cash and an overnight case and make-up kit. This year, I entered my 'dressy dress' in the Panhandle-South Plains Fair at Lubbock and won first place. I also won third place on an apron and received a cash prize of $2.50."

Model For Sisters Lois' younger sisters, Doris Jean and Norma Lee, are following in her footsteps in 4-H work, both having won several ribbons in the 1949 Garza County Fair. The youngest sister, who is only five years old, also wants to be a 4-H Club girl.

The Ritchie girls helped their parents plan, rebuild and furnish their attractive home in the Close City community during the past year. As there are no sons in the family to help their father with the farming, they have also spent many hours helping with everything from milking cows to chopping cotton. In addition to farming 180 acres of his own, Ritchie does the farming for a neighbor.

Lois likes her school studies and all of the school activities. This year, she is working in the school library. She belongs to the Rainbow Assembly and enjoys all of its varied activities.

With all of this, she seems to have plenty of time for recreation. In this field she likes almost everything—but volleyball, movies and parties she likes best.

The seven-column newspaper is becoming obsolete in the weekly newspaper field so rapidly that now most of the advertising mats come made up for the larger, blanket-size newspaper. An example of this is the Piggly Wiggly advertisement in today's issue.

By having a weekly newspaper the same size as the daily papers, the publisher also has other advantages. More inches of news and advertising can be put on a single page. This is important economically, as it cuts down the number of press runs yet gives more room for news.

Practically all of the larger weekly newspapers of West Texas have switched over to the eight-column page. These include the newspapers at Snyder, Spur, Brownfield, Littlefield, Levelland, Tulla, Seminole, Colorado City, Haskell and others.

For the first time now, the Post Dispatch has room enough to add some interesting features that it has long wanted to publish. A sports cartoon and a nationally circulated sports column by Grantland Rice have been added. Readers will note that Eddie the Editor has returned to his "limb" on the editorial page.

As time goes on, still more features will be added to make the Post Dispatch not the "second best" but the BEST small town weekly newspaper in Texas.

Mrs. Jerry Day and new baby have returned from Sweetwater where the baby was born. Day, who is employed at Wacker's, went to Sweetwater for his family Saturday.

A good cover of the better grasses on range lands is good insurance against mesquite seedling invasion.

Antelopes Outplayed By Levelland Lobos To Tune of 21-12 On Post Gridiron Friday

The Levelland Lobos outplayed the Post Antelopes to win a 21-12 non-conference victory Friday night in the local stadium. Although the Antelopes were ahead, 12-7, at the half, they were unable to break down the opponents' strong defense.

Levelland made the first touchdown early in the first period, when Quarterback Dee Windsor went over center about seven yards. Perry Heard kicked the extra point.

In the same quarter Post scored on a pass from Quarterback Jack Kirkpatrick to Gordon Carey, end, for 12 yards. Kirkpatrick's kick for extra point failed.

In the second quarter Kirkpatrick passed to Right Half Norman Cash about seven yards for a second score, but the quarterback's kick failed again.

Levelland came back for a touchdown in the third quarter which gave the Lobos a permanent lead. Dee Windsor plunged over center for about a yard for a tally and a run for extra point also was good.

In the last quarter, the Lobos' Dean Waltrip went around right end for 30 yards and then kicked the extra point.

The Lobo backfield was solidly on the job, with Glen Clark, Wise and Windsor, supported by Johnson and Heard, all sharing in the running attack.

The Antelopes received several injuries in the first half which seemed to demoralize the team. Roy Wade hurt his ankle in the third play of the game, and Norman Cash received a back injury Calvin Storie received a charleyhorse in his leg but, despite this, he stayed in there and made what Coach V. F. Bingham considered was the best showing made by an Antelope. "Time after time," Bingham said, "Storie stopped Levelland and threw them for a loss. He has been doing this all year and every coach we've played has complimented him."

Post, Slaton, Littlefield And Sudan Are Cynosure of Dist. 4-A Prophets

The eyes of District 4-A are focused this week on four teams, two of which will play it off about Nov. 18 for the football title.

The towns are Post and Slaton, which will play for the South half championship here Nov. 11, and Littlefield and Sudan who probably will decide the north half championship tomorrow.

The only south half conference game on this week's docket pits Tahoka against Seagraves, both seeking their first district triumph. Post will play Crosbyton of District 3-A and Slaton and O'Donnell will rest tomorrow night.

Although each, Littlefield and Sudan, has an additional game to play, tomorrow night's meeting is expected to decide the championship. Each team has three victories and no reverses in conference play.

The Littlefield Wildcats have rolled along at an amazing 50-point-per game clip in district play, while giving up only one touchdown in three contests. Last week they compiled their highest point total of the season as they swamped Sundown 66-0. It was Littlefield's sixth straight impressive win since an opening game loss to Daihart.

The Sudan club, idle last week, has won four and lost three games over the full-season route.

Slaton Is Tied With Antelopes

The Slaton Tigers eased into a first-place tie with Post in the District 4-A South football conference Friday night by defeating the O'Donnell Eagles, 31-0, at Slaton. The Post Antelopes defeated the Eagles, 56-7, on Oct. 7.

Friday night's game was the undefeated Tigers' third straight conference win of the year.

The Eagles held the Tigers to a 12-0 margin at the third quarter mark, but the Eagle defense collapsed in the final period while the Tigers stacked up 19 points.

Ed Willis scored for Slaton in the first period on a five-yard run. He also counted the second Tiger touchdown, from 20 yards out in the third quarter.

Cecil Bybee lit the fuse on the fourth quarter Slaton explosion by scoring on a two-yard plunge. Later, Bobby Thompson went five yards for a counter, with Bob Taylor converting from placement. Curly Lewis intercepted an O'Donnell pass and went 35 yards for the final Slaton tally.

Evelyn Broughton has returned to her home in Tomball after a visit here in the Charles Daugherty home.

ROD CAMERON GALE STORM Johnny Mack Brown Don Castle

Power and Control DUDLEY ROBERTS AND BILL KENT, two Easthampton golfers, arranged an 18-hole exhibition recently that I had wanted to see for a long time.

It was the slugger against nature—the big hitter against the hazards of water, sand and wind. It was a matter of power vs. control.

The four men in the tour of Maidstone were Sammy Snead, F. G. A. champion, Cary Middlecoff, Open Champion, Lloyd Mangrum, ex-Open champion, and Skip Alexander.

These four had been shooting from 64 to 68 on much longer courses than Maidstone, which is only 6,400 yards.

But at the finish their range in scoring was from 70 to 78, and only one of the four equaled par. Snead had a 75 and Middlecoff a 76. (With a normal wind they would have been two or three strokes higher.)

It so happens that Maidstone is a links—not a course. A links is a course by a sea or an ocean. No trees are involved. The only hazards are winds, sand dunes and sea grass.

Maidstone looks more like Scotland than St. Andrews does. It has more dunes and more water and more sand. If this be treason to Scotland, let Scotland come to Maidstone.

Johnny Kieran, the sage, once a 76 shooter in golf, gave up the game years ago. "I would never have quit golf," he told me recently, "if I had seen this links."

The point is that Maidstone was too narrow, too well-trapped for Snead and Middlecoff, the two champions.

At so many other courses around the country, Snead and Middlecoff, two of the greatest, could wander 40 yards off line and have a good lie. Not at Maidstone, where each wavering or off-line shot exacted his penalty. You are in sand or sea grass or some form of sea-side trouble.

The greens at Maidstone are small and the fairways narrow. This is my idea of a great course. I don't care for the big greens and the wide, spreading fairways, now so much in vogue. Maidstone, at 6,400 yards, is much tougher than most courses at 6,900 or 7,000 yards.

There are no hills to climb at Maidstone, which, as the years roll in, is an added feature. Each year the hills get higher.

"Maidstone is a pretty narrow target," Sammy Snead said. "You can't turn loose like you can on those big fairways. And the greens are pretty small."

Why not? Most greens are much too big. Putting is much too important. Putting—where a stooping gentleman of 75 might outputt Sammy Snead.

For the true test I believe in narrow fairways, smaller greens and shorter marches. The Snead - Middlecoff - Mangrum-Alexander show proved I was right. Control is more important than uncontrolled power. There should be a serious penalty for every shot off-line.

The Rules of Golf Golf happens to be a game, quite an ancient game, that has far more players than baseball and football combined. The number runs into several millions. It is a playing game, not a spectator's game.

But in recent years, the rules of the game have slipped badly under poor control.

The original rules of the game, being an outdoor competition covering some 200 or 300 or 400 acres, was that the ball be played where you found it—without any caressing or lifting.

Recently I was following a match with two ex-presidents of the U. S. G. A. They were John Jackson, an eminent lawyer, and Archie Reid, whose father was one of the six men who formed the Apple Tree gang at St. Andrews, Yorkers, in 1892.

This was a match-play round. The sun was shining—the sky was blue. As each player came to a green he promptly picked up his ball—marked it—and stuck the ball in his pocket.

"Why?" asked messrs. Jackson and Reid, who know more of the spirit and purpose of golf than most of the players. "The ball is not supposed to be touched," Archie Reid said. "If it were raining and muddy and a special rule were made for the day, that would be different. Under the rules of golf, they have no right to lift the ball and clean it."

Mr. Jackson concurred. Both were 100 per cent right.

I should like to know why the presidents of the U. S. G. A. and the P. G. A. permit this drift.

NO BOOSTER MEETING

The Antelope Booster Club will not meet tonight because of the football games between the Post, Junior team and the Eighth Graders with the O'Donnell Juniors and Eighth Graders.

Antelopes To Face Strong Crosbyton Team Friday Night With Some Handicaps

The Post Antelopes will meet Crosbyton, second notch District 3-A football team, on the local grid at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

With several Antelopes injured in order to be in better shape for the last conference game, with Slaton, on Armistice Day. This will result in some new faces in the local line-up.

The Crosbyton team is about Antelope size and is expected to put up a good battle, Coach V. F. Bingham said last night.

Probable starters for the Antelopes will be: Billy Lee Smith, center; Donald Gossett and Roy Josey, guards; Buddy Davis and Cletus Graves, tackles; Gene King and W. O. Fluit, ends; either Darrell Stone or Don Brown, quarterback; Billy Gwen Jones, left halfback; Rex King, right half, and L. W. Evans, fullback.

Norman Cash, who was among several Antelopes injured in last week's game with Snyder, received an additional injury in practice yesterday. He will be unable to play tomorrow night.

Post Girls Take Two Games From Cooper Players

A crowd of girl basketball fans saw two thrillers at the local gym Tuesday evening when the Post A and B teams won over Cooper. Coach G. R. Day said he was well pleased with the playing of both local teams did and that the B team forwards looked especially good.

The B team got underway with Glenda Young, Bonnie Gary and Betty Mills, forwards, and Gay Pierce, Janie Shepherd and Mary Alice Wilhite, guards. Juanita Williams, forward, and Geraldine Ethridge, guard, played about half of the game. The visitors led most of the time and were four points ahead at the half. With three remaining minutes of play, the teams were tied with 29 points and then Post got ahead and held a one point lead until the final whistle blew. The game ended 35-34.

There was never much difference in scores between the Cooper and Post A teams although the local six held the lead. At the end of the first quarter, Post was ahead 8-6; at the half 12-8; at the end of the third quarter 19-14 and at the end of the game 26-22. Joy Stewart, Peggy Johnston and Jaunella McClellan were the starting forwards and Cletta Buster, Barbara Lusby and Mary Nell Bowen, guards, played the entire game. Glenda Young replaced Juanelia McClellan.

New Deal will come here Tuesday for two games, beginning at 7 p. m. Admission is 25c for adults and 15c for students.

The Post girls' incomplete schedule for November and December includes the following: Meadow Nov. 15, here; New Deal, Nov. 20, there; Cotton Center, Dec. 2, here; Roby Dec. 6, here; Cotton Center Dec. 16, there; Roby Dec. 20, there.

Crosbyton Chiefs Defeat Matadors

The Crosbyton Chiefs, who will meet the Post Antelopes here tomorrow night, overpowered the Matador Matadors, 34-6, at Crosbyton Friday night. It was the Chief's fourth District 3-A conference win against two setbacks.

Russell Halder opened the Crosbyton scoring early in the first period. Lawrence Hargis added the extra point. Hargis and Halder paced the winners' offensive, with Charlie Wheeler aiding in the scoring. By half-time, the hefty Crosbyton team had a 21-0 lead.

Garland Batten scored Matador's lone touchdown in the third quarter.

The Chiefs, enjoying considerable success with their ground attacks, attempted only four passes, completing three.

Margaret Turner Is Speaker At Rotary Meeting On Tuesday

Margaret Turner, Lubbock Avianche-Journal woman's editor who toured seven countries of Europe last spring, spoke at the Post Rotary Club Tuesday noon at the City Hall. She was introduced by C. W. Ratliff, managing editor of the Lubbock paper, who was presented by E. A. Warren, program chairman for the day.

The program was opened with two songs and dance numbers by Nancy Power, Johnny Haire, Kelly Myers, Gay Cook and Bill Cook, who were accompanied at the piano by their teacher, Mrs. J. A. Stallings.

Miss Turner, a keen observer of human nature, described "the little people" in the various European countries and contrasted them with the ordinary people of the United States.

Among the biggest differences that she pointed out was the European's way of taking life at a slow, easy pace. This, she observed, results in a greater appreciation and enjoyment of life in general for the individual but it appears to be what keeps those countries years behind the United States in industrial progress. She said it will take 100 years to rebuild Europe with antiquated equipment and leisurely methods in use.

In discussing this point, Miss Turner referred to the European custom of taking an hour and a half for lunch and then a long siesta before returning to work, then she described the slow, inefficient methods used in their work.

Frank (Chief Bearclaw) Runkels, ranger at Camp Post, presented an interesting program at the Post grade school after dismissal of classes last Thursday afternoon. It was sponsored by Mrs. Lillie Kitchen's fourth grade pupils to raise funds for their candidate in the P-TA carnival queen's race.

Runkels, who was reared by the Indians, explained that Bearclaw was the name given to him by his tribe and he showed his ceremonial costumes which were decorated with bearclaws. He demonstrated Indian dances, showed a variety of costumes and explained some Indian customs.

Approximately half of the grade school children were present. They found the program so interesting, the principal, E. E. Pierce, said he was going to arrange to have Runkels return in the spring for an assembly program.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Turney of Odessa spent the weekend here in the home of Mrs. Turney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Dye.

Harold Kendrick of Stamford visited Tuesday night here in the home of his brother-in-law, Charles Daugherty.

TRUCK ON FIRE

The Post Volunteer Fire Department was called to an oil well on the Post Estate yesterday at noon in answer to a fire which broke out in a Chemical Process Co., truck. Oil field workmen, however, had the fire under control by the time the James E. Rodgers was taken to the Lubbock Memorial Hospital Friday morning in a Hudman ambulance.

Firemen arrived with the booster truck, Fire Chief Homer McCrae reported. The truck was not badly damaged, he said.

WTCC Directors To Organize Domestic Water Association

Formation of a West Texas domestic water association composed of the directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, will be the leading item on the agenda for the 32nd annual WTCC directors meeting to be held in Fort Worth Nov. 22. Official call for the meeting has just been made by President John D. Mitchell of Odessa.

Business meeting will begin 1:30 p. m. in the Worth Hotel ball room where this and other matters important to the welfare of West Texas will be discussed. At a meeting of the executive board in Abilene Sept. 26, it was decided to submit the formation of the domestic water group to the board for final consideration.

Purpose of the proposed association would be fostering local districts or authorities to bring about construction of multi-city dams to serve the needs of drought stricken West Texas towns, according to Manager D. A. Bandeen.

After the business meeting the annual banquet, to be held at the Texas Hotel, will be addressed by Secretary J. A. Krug of the Department of Interior. Amos G. Carter, Fort Worth Star-Telegram publisher, will be master of ceremonies.

Theme of the Fort Worth meeting will be water, with a slogan of Dam West Texas or West Texas is Damned.

A campaign to build attendance to the banquet now is underway under direction of Max Bentley, organization director. Local directors and chamber of commerce managers have been enlisted to build attendance from each West Texas city.

Art Show Combined With School Party

An art show was combined with the program of the Halloween Carnival at the Garnolia school last Thursday night. Guests paid five cents each to see the pictures which won places in the art contest held at the school.

Gwen Morgan, whose picture won first place in the sixth grade, won first place in the entire contest. First places in the other grades were won, as follows: Bryan Williams, fourth grade; Shirley Watson, fifth grade; and Faye Taylor, seventh grade.

Art is being taught for the first time in the Garnolia school by the principal, Bryan J. Williams.

BITS OF NEWS

A little boy named Jackie Odum reported to the Post Dispatch yesterday that one of his friends, Sally Veach, received a broken bone in her left hand Monday when the wheel of a trailer rolled over it. He said Sally had accompanied other members of her family to Lubbock and they had a trailer behind their car. Before reaching Lubbock, they had to stop for some reason and they placed rocks under the trailer wheel to keep it from rolling. Without understanding this move, Sally removed one of the rocks and received the injury when the trailer moved.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Miller and Lanell Brown of Lubbock spent the weekend here with relatives.
