Schedule of events listed for Diamond Jubilee

Well, folks, the final call for last minute preparations is here! July 4, is right upon us, and with the festivities of the Post Diamond Jubilee to begin July 2, as the kids say at their own birthday parties, "it won't be long."

The birthday celebration for Post and its 75th birthday, is planned to be one of the biggest and best around, so don't miss even one minute of it. It was a long time coming.

Thursday, June 24, the choir will rehearse for the Community worship, which is directed by Phil Alford. Meet at the First Baptist Church at 7:30 p.m.

Wednesday, June 30, beginning at 6 p.m. dress rehearsal for the Comedy Kapers will be held at the Community Center. Be sure and get into your costumes at the center, so as not to give a preview to onlookers before the show begins.

Times for the practice are 6 p.m. for the Texas Saga; 7 p.m. for the Last National Bank Players; and 8 p.m. for the Mz. Post Beauty contestants.

Then beginning on July 2, at 5 p.m. a spaghetti supper will be held at the community center; 6:45 p.m. the Comedy Kapers Jubilee Edition will be presented; at 9 p.m. the Maines Brothers will play for a dance at the Rodeo grounds, unless the weather forces it to be held at the community center.

July 3, the Hospitality Center, will be held at the lobby of the First National Bank. All out-of-town visitors are encouraged to come here and register, also local people can pick up books, T-shirts and other information about the festivities. Also all entrants for the Jubilee Belle contest are asked to be at the bank to be judged at 1 p.m. in front of the bank.

All people who want to enter the parade, floats, etc. or just participate in some See Jubilee events, Page 12

THE BOOKS ARE READY — The Diamond Jubilee Book with the updated Garza History, is now ready to go on sale and can be purchased from several businesses in Post. The book is selling for $5, and is a bargain at that price. Ben Miller, son of Riley and Mary Miller

Post Diamond Jubilee official souvenir books now on sale

The Post Diamond Jubilee official souvenir program and booklet is now on sale. Recently received from Ammons Printing of Post, who printed the book, it was officially put out for sale during the Tuesday night fish fry at the community center.

The 90-page book which is an updated Garza County

History is an example of the professional job that is being done by so many Garza County residents on the Diamond Jubilee Celebration.

The cover of the book was designed and drawn by Ben Miller, son of Riley and Mary Miller and is very attractive. Ed Neff and Lil Conner were the photographers for the new pictures in the book, Glenda Morrow did the art work and many more too numerous to name helped make the book so attractive. Many long hours of thought and work was donated by so many capable people in the community.

Charles Hardin, Post Diamond Jubilee Chairman and his many volunteers are to be commended on the great job done on this book that will be enjoyed for many years to come.

The books are selling very fast, and only a limited number have been printed. If you want one, better get it now, while there is plenty.

Library board meets today

The Post Public Library Board of Trustees will have a called meeting today, Thursday, at noon at the Library. Members of the Board were trained last Wednesday night in the practice of making oral history interviews, in preparation for the beginning of the Oral History project recently announced by the Board. Rebecca Herring of the Southwest Collection at Texas Tech did the training. Today the meeting will focus on policies and procedures to be used in making the interviews, and maintaining the collection of tapes.

"Wagon Wheels" again on sale

A reprint of the Garza County History book, "Wagon Wheels", has been purchased by the Museum Association and will be offered to the public at a discount during the Jubilee celebration July 2, 3, and 4. The books will be on sale at the museum sales shop from 9 to 4 Friday and Saturday and from 2 to 4 on Sunday, July 4.

This will be a good opportunity to obtain the books as gifts for keepsakes. The book has been reduced to $20 during this Jubilee celebration and regularly sells for $25. No mail orders will be accepted on the reduced price, but may be purchased for the regular price for mailing following the Jubilee.

Film series to begin tonight

Beginning Wednesday night, June 23, at 7:30 p.m., First Baptist Church of Post will be sponsoring the Joyce Landorf film series "His Stubborn Love". Joyce Landorf is a mother, and a grandmother as well as a successful teacher and author. Her humor and insight give encouragement and advice to parents, grandparents, and singles during the six-part series.

The title, "His Stubborn Love" refers to Christ's stubborn love for us and how it can be an example for us.

Targeted especially toward the Christian woman in today's society, the series is produced by the same people who gave us James Dobson's "Focus on the Family" series. The films will be shown on six successive Wednesday nights. The public is welcome and no admission will be charged.

Violent storms dump hail, rain

Violent storms late Friday afternoon, laced with hail, high winds and rain, were just one more weary weather watching day for area farmers, who are trying so desperately to save what crop is left in the fields.

The storms which played around the area until well after midnight, caused damage to windows, siding on houses, and automobiles all over Post and the surrounding communities. Both lumber yards were busy replacing broken window glass by Saturday morning.

County Agent Syd Conner, stated that the extent of damage to crops in the area can not be determined until later on in the week, due to the fact that some fields where only a stem of cotton is left, by Wednesday was beginning to put on leaves and stood a chance of reviving itself if the weather will cooperate.

Of course the worry is not over yet, and with cotton planting time nearly gone, the decision of what to do if the crops don't revive, is yet another decision for area farmers.

Young ladies of the community, there is still time to enter your name for the Miss Diamond Jubilee contest that will be held Saturday night, June 26. Call Donna at the Chamber office, or go by the First National Bank and ask for Margie.

Entry blanks and information sheets will be available at both places.

The contest will begin at 8:30 p.m. June 26, in the primary auditorium.

Rehearsal will be held Friday night at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

Board buys generator

The Garza Memorial Hospital Board of Directors voted to purchase a 65 KW Generator from Lubbock Electric, and to keep the present generator operational as a backup. The only bid received was $14,378.00, from the Lubbock firm. The action came at the regular meeting, June 17 at 7 a. m. The board also tabled action on the personnel policy until a retirement plan can be devised and incorporated.

In addition to approving one indigent application, the present hospital income-poverty guidelines were amended to conform to new federal levels.

Delinquent accounts totaling $3,937.44 were written off.

Welfare board receives grant

The Garza County Child Welfare Board learned last week that a grant proposal had been approved by the Regional Child Welfare Board. The grant, amounting to over $1,000, will make it possible for the local board to purchase a movie projector, which will be used to acquaint local groups and individuals with good parenting skills, child abuse and neglect issues, and other matters related to (See Welfare, Page 12)

Choir to rehearse

The Post Community Choir which will sing for the July 4 morning worship in the park will meet and rehearse at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, June 24. Under the direction of Phil Alford, the choir is open to and in fact needing, public participation.

The choir will perform several patriotic and inspirational numbers as well as leading in congregational singing. The rehearsal will be in the First Baptist Church auditorium. If you have any questions, call Phil at 495-2814 or 2224.

Post man burned in truck explosion

Paul Quinonez of Post was seriously injured when the hot oil truck he was running exploded, destroying the truck, and setting storage tanks on fire, south of Lubbock, Monday.

He is currently in intensive care at Lubbock Hospital with first and second degree burns over 45 percent of his body. According to a spokesman for Palmer Well Service, who owned the truck, a specialist will look at the burned out truck hulk on Wednesday, trying to determine the cause of the accident. The (See Post man, Page 12)

Jubilee Belle entries needed

All ladies of the community are encouraged to enter the Jubilee Belle contest that will be held at 1 p.m. July 3, in front of the First National Bank. Judging will be on the costume of the contestants.

All ladies are asked to call the chamber office and enter your name with Donna Stelzer, or be at the Bank early July 3, and you can enter your name there.

Plaques will be presented to the winners of the contest.

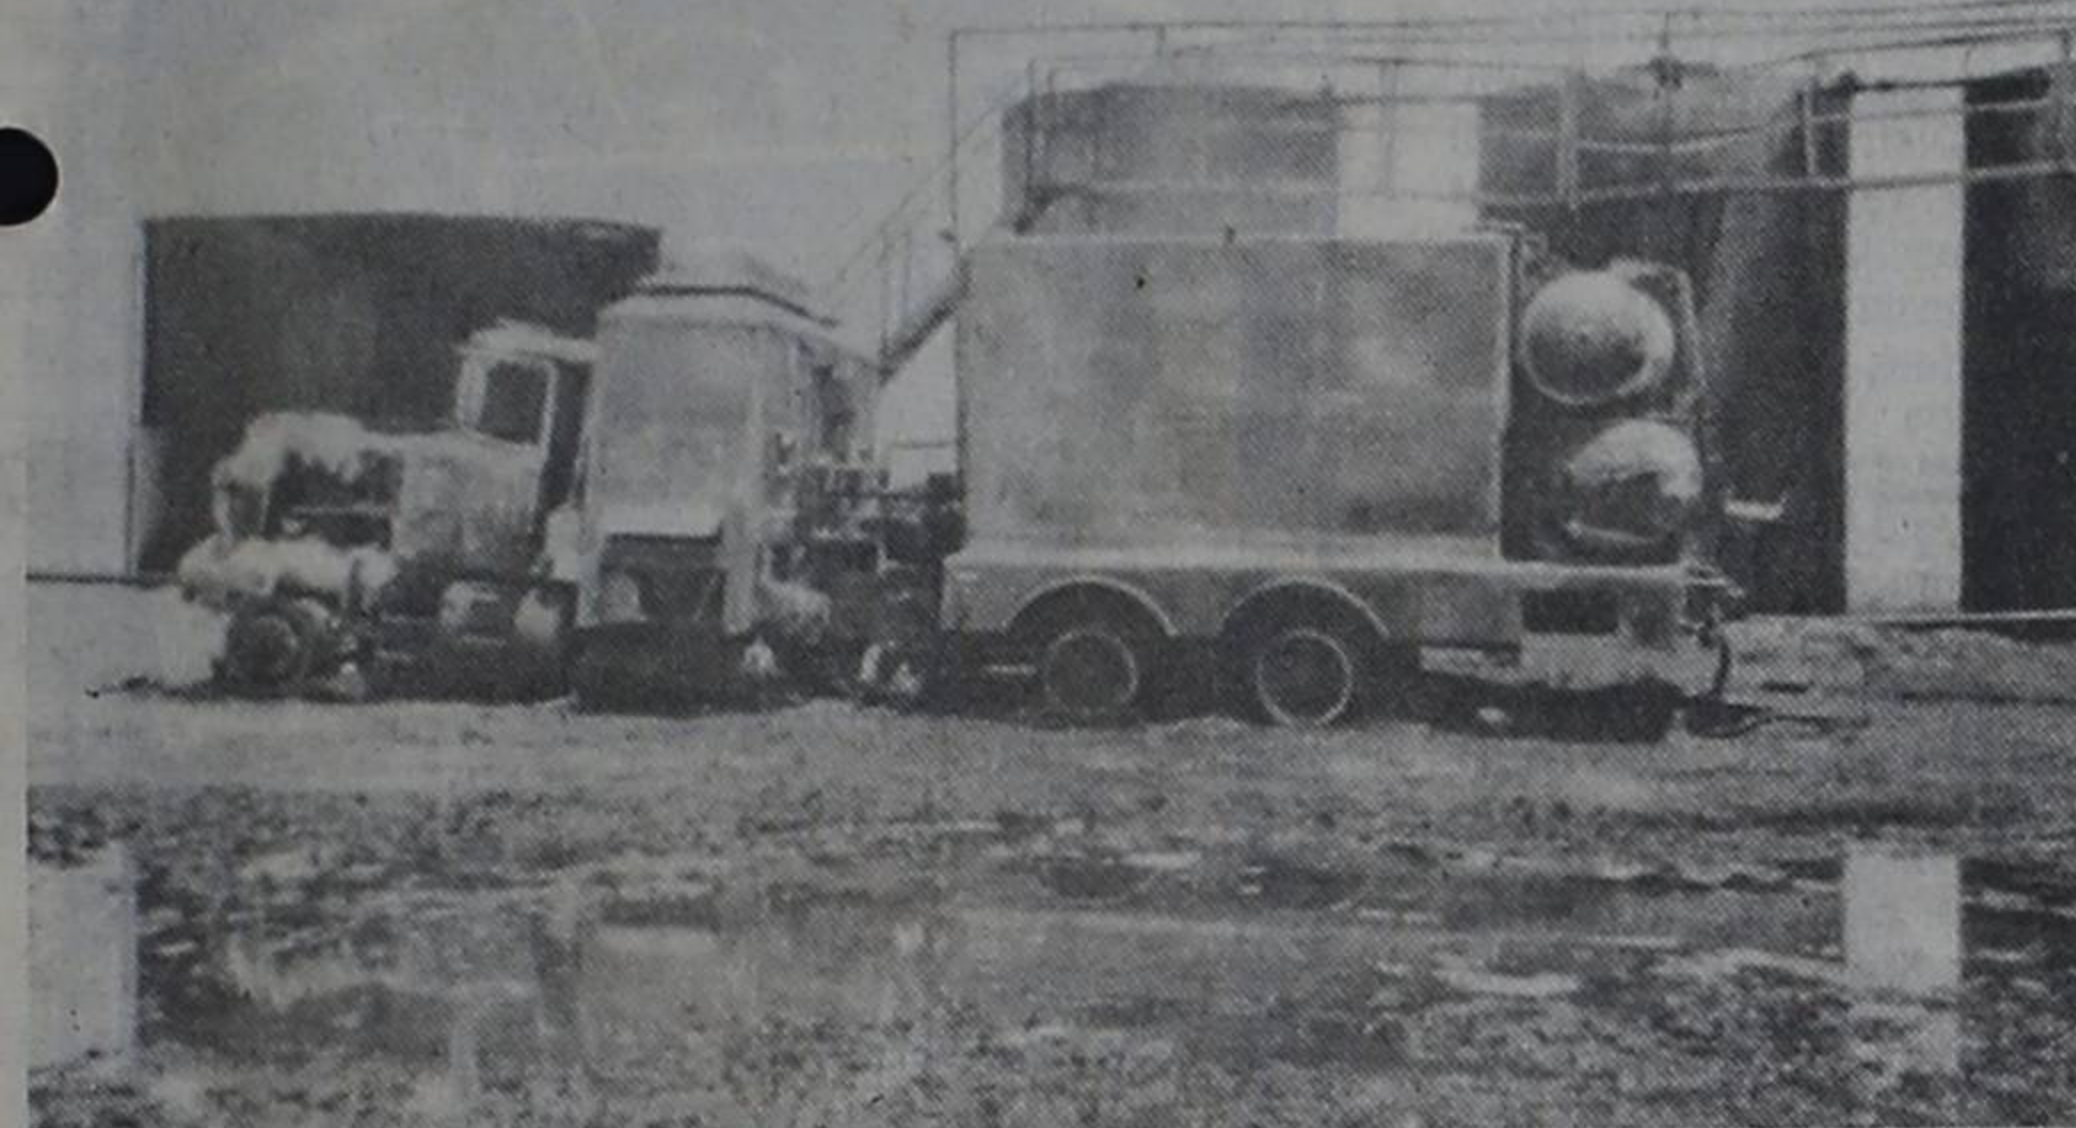

Theft charge brings arrest

Jimmy Howard New-some, the driver of a beer delivery truck of Lubbock, was arrested by Garza County officers on a charge of theft of over $200. He was placed on $20,000 bond, and remains in the Garza County jail.

Other arrests included Margaret Genise Barrick, defrauding with a worthless check, she was released on a $750 surety bond.

Alex Lappen was arrested on a Brownfield warrant for revocation of probation.

James Frank Keel was arrested for driving an unregistered vehicle and excessive loud mufflers, was fined $92 in fine and court costs in City Court, and Ricky Martinez Soto was arrested on an assault charge, fined $176 in fines and court costs.

TRUCK EXPLOSION — The hot oil truck, owned by Palmer's of Post, exploded near Lubbock Monday burning the operator, Paul Quinonez, who remains in a Lubbock Hospital with burns to his body. The tank battery in the background also burned.

oxen pulling a covered wagon on which is daughter, Jennifer Knight and grandson, Clell Knight are riding. They seem to be seeing only prairie and open land far ahead of them, which was probably the same feeling early settlers had when they came to this country when it was first settled. Riley and his family play a major role in the Diamond Jubilee Celebration.

Library Corner

You will not find the "Great American Novel" among the new books listed this week, but you may find that brand new story to tickle your reading fancy, and all of them are available, free, at the Post Public Library.

"Merry-Go-Round" is the up-beat encouraging story about two contemporary independent spirits who fall in love, save an antique carousel, and win a classic battle for the good, and the environment. Joyce Thompson wrote it.

"The Chosen Prey," by William Braschler, also takes place in small town America, but it's the chilling story of an insane killer, and terror.

Dana Channing Low, a poorly-paid trust officer in a Boston bank, approaches middle age, wanting more. Two different women offer new beginnings — Libby, beautiful and sensual, and Zeline, aging, eccentric, and reclusive. They teach him the meaning of "Love in a Proper City," by John Wahtera.

The shrewd and avaricious Gaveston, banished by the king, is recalled by King Edward II, and favored by the new king, even over the new Queen Isabella, who must bide her time until the moment for "history's most horrific murder," withing the thick, dark walls of Berkeley Castle. Edward II dies because of "The Follies of the King," Jean Plaidy writes the story.

"Every woman dreams about what she could have been if she had made different choices, lived a different life." In "Deceptions," Stephanie and Sabrina Hartwell live that dream. They even trade identities for a week, and then a sudden accident prolongs and complicates The Deception. Will the Deception be bigger than both of them? Judith Michael tells their stories.

James Carroll, author, is the son of an American intelligence official, and he writes a fast-paced novel of espionage, mystery, intrigue, entanglements, and loyalty. "Family Trade" is the name of the book.

"Worldly Goods" is a novel of intense suspense and surprises, the story of a family, a fortune, and crime. Billionaire Paul Foster has no time to enjoy the good things of life until he falls in love with a woman whose past is haunted.

Annerly Brooke, bright and beautiful daughter of a widower and music teacher in Calcutta, returns to her English homeland. There she faces many choices, but decides to go back to her modest life with her father in India, not knowing that fortune awaits them, in a twist that changes their life together forever. Elizabeth Cadell writes this romantic novel called "A Lion in the Way."

MEAT INSPECTION
Meat inspection and grading are related but are distinct in intent and purpose, says an economist in livestock marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension service, Texas A & M University system. All meat moving in interstate and foreign commerce must be federally inspected for cleanliness and wholesomeness. Also, Texas has a mandatory state inspection system for meat, meaning all commercially produced meat in Texas is inspected by either federal or state inspectors. Grading, on the other hand, is a classification system process which separates beef carcasses into distinct groups based on physical factors such as color, texture, firmness, marbling and estimated yields. Only about half the commercially produced beef in the U.S. is federally graded.

Information needed on SSI
People who receive Supplemental Security Income will soon receive a special authorization form in the mail. This is a request for your consent to allow Social Security to obtain the information from the Internal Revenue Service. Laura Purcell, district manager of the Lubbock Social Security office, said these forms will be mailed in late May and early June.

"The law requires us to verify the income and resources reported by people who get Supplemental Security Income (SSI)," explained Mrs. Purcell. "One way of doing this is to compare our records with IRS records. The IRS records will tell us now much income you received other than wages. The amount of income listed on the IRS records will also give us an idea of the value of your resources."

The only information this authorization will allow IRS to give Social Security is from informational returns. These are returns filed with IRS by banks or any other organization that has paid you income. For example, banks report any interest you may earn. Dividends, winnings from gambling, farm subsidies and unemployment compensation are also reported on these informational returns. This authorization will not allow IRS to give Social Security copies of your tax returns — only the reports of income paid to you by others.

Any time a person receives SSI benefits, income and resources are subject to verification. The income and resources of other members of the household are also subject to verification in many cases. For example, income of parents is considered when determining the amount payable to a child on SSI. Consequently, you may receive an authorization if someone else in your household gets SSI.

Finally, Mrs. Purcell noted that failure to sign and return this authorization could result in the termination of SSI benefits.

Lynn County reunion set
The annual Lynn County Pioneer Reunion will be held on Saturday, June 26, at the Tahoka School Cafeteria.

Registration will begin at 10 a.m. and tickets for the barbecue luncheon will be sold for $2.50. The awards program will follow the luncheon and new officers for the coming year will be elected.

Awards will be presented to the oldest man and oldest woman attending, who have not received the award before. An award will also be given to the one traveling the greatest distance to attend the reunion. First and second place plaques will be awarded for the best business decorated windows.

The Tahoka Rodeo is being held in conjunction with the reunion so Pioneers and their families are invited to come spend the day in Tahoka visiting with old friends, and go to the rodeo that night.

Cancer society raises $2,200
Mrs. Kim Mills, chairman of the 1982 Crusade for the American Cancer Society, announced today that with a few packets still outstanding, the Garza County Chapter of the ACS is expected to surpass their 1981 goal of $2,200.

Mrs. Mills, who conducted the business drive for the ACS in 1981 with Mrs. Donna Stelzer, accepted the chairmanship for the entire crusade for 1982 and has worked with a number of volunteers who have canvassed the community for donations for research and services for cancer victims.

Anyone who has not been contacted and would like to make a contribution may do so by contacting Mrs. Mills, 909 West 7th, or calling her at 3719.

Two Post ranches in Texas Ranch Roundup

Two Post ranches will be participating in the second Texas Ranch Roundup to be held in Wichita Falls, August 19-21. Participating in the festivities from Garza County will be the U Lazy S Ranch, and the UU Hereford Ranch.

Ranch hands from 12 of Texas' largest spreads will tussle once again over bragging rights as "the best ranch in Texas".

Plans for the peaceable competition were announced today at a press conference at the North Texas Rehabilitation Center, which is co-sponsoring the event with Budweiser.

The Lewis Ranches, headquartered in Clarendon, will return to defend the title their ranch hands won last year, but the cowboys will face stiff competition from the other participating ranches.

Other ranches in the competition will include the R. A. Brown Ranch, the Cowan & Son Circle Bar Ranch, Pitchfork Land &

Cattle Company, Scharbauer Cattle Co. Renderbrook-Spade Ranch, Swenson Ranches, Tongue River Ranch, and the W.T. Waggoner Estate.

In combination, these ranches sprawl over nearly two million acres of cattle country, nearly triple the area of Rhode Island.

Tom Moorhouse of the Moorhouse Ranch is expected to try to hold his Best All-Round Hand title for a second year.

Texas grit and gumption will be the mainstay of the rodeo-style competition which spotlights working ranch skills in such events as wild cow milking and team branding.

However, the "best ranch in Texas" battle isn't fought in the rodeo arena alone. A ranch queen contest, a talent contest, and this year, a ranch cookoff, all mean additional points for ranches winning these events and additional colorful Texana for spectators.

In addition, the best hitch in the horse world, the Anheuser-Busch Clydesdales, will make special appearances during the grand entry preceding each evening's roundup performance.

Dances both evenings cap off the Texas Ranch Roundup.

Festivities begin Thursday, August 19, with an invitation-only auction of work by more than 20 outstanding western artists.

The roundup opens Friday evening, August 20, with the first rodeo performance at 7:30 p.m. Teams of cowboys from each ranch will compete in team roping, saddle bronc riding, team penning, team branding and wild cow milking. A wild horse race will be a bonus event. The dance at 9 p.m. features Mountain Smoke.

On Saturday morning, the ranches will compete in an 8 a.m. jackpot roping event and a women's barrel racing event at noon. A ranch food cookoff, the talent contest where anything goes, and the ranch queen contest are featured Saturday afternoon before the final rodeo events that evening at 7:30 p.m. The Mountain Smoke band will perform at a dance that evening at 9 p.m.

Points will be awarded to ranch teams and individual cowboys in each event to determine the best ranch and the top all-around cowboy. The winning ranch will take home a traveling trophy, a bronze sculpture by Lex Graham, and the winning cowboy will receive a hand-tooled saddle. First through third-place winners of the ranch food cookoff will receive prizes.

Budweiser Rodeo Six Pack members Jack Ward, T. J. Walter, Bobby Brown, and Monty Henson will judge the rodeo events.

Proceeds from the Budweiser Texas Ranch Roundup will benefit the North Texas Rehabilitation Center, Wichita Falls; the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, Abilene; and the West Texas Boys Ranch, San Angelo.

YOUR TELEPHONE SERVICE - A REAL BARGAIN

All things considered, talking is a real bargain. The chart below shows how your telephone costs compare against other goods and services you use daily.

(Figures based on data gathered from U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics from October 1976 to October 1981.)

*Away from home
Basic local service in QTSW's Texas exchanges

Frequently, the convenience of the telephone is taken for granted.

For instance, a few things you use your phone for:

1. Shop ahead, save gas.
2. Make appointments (doctor, sales calls, lawyer, preacher)
3. Emergencies (police, fire, ambulance)
4. Talking with loved ones in other towns
5. Conducting business via long-distance, save on travel cost
6. Calling scout troop, civic club, little league team, etc.
7. Visit with a friend across town.

Talk is cheap and also a real bargain. For a true picture, divide your basic local service rate by the days in the month. For just pennies a day, excluding long distance and special services, you have your town at your fingertips.

Watkins, Pollard vows read in Ft Worth

MRS. GREG POLLARD

Derrellynn Watkins and Greg Pollard were united in double ring ceremonies, Saturday, June 12, in the Gambrell Street Baptist Church in Fort Worth. Dr. Thomas Pass, minister of the First Presbyterian Church in Post officiated the ceremonies.

Parents of the bride are Dr. and Mrs. Derrel Watkins of Fort Worth, and the parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Pollard, Sr. of Post.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin full length gown, featuring a chapel length train, with lace trim on the neckline, hemline and edging the train. The dress was sashed at the waist with white satin. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink roses, accented with baby's breath and ivy.

Maid of honor was Susan Sands of Fort Worth. She wore a floor length blue satin gown trimmed with matching lace, and accented with a dusty pink sash. She carried a nosegay of daisies and pink carnations.

Jay Pollard, brother of the groom, of Post, served as best man with James E. Pollard, Jr. of Haskell, brother of the groom, and Stephen Watkins of Fort Worth, brother of the bride serving as ushers.

Runkles host family reunion

Chief and Alylene Runkles hosted a family reunion for the decedents of Thomas Pinckney and Susan Smith who immigrated from Georgia to Texas in 1871 in a covered wagon drawn by oxen, at the Post Community Center, June 19 and 20.

Present and seated at the head table were four of the grandchildren of the original family that came to Texas. They were Mrs. Carrie Adams of California, Mrs. Amy Townsend of California, Mrs. Stella Lawrence of Arizona and Mrs. Rasyford Read of Snyder.

Gifts were presented to the eldest and the youngest of these four. Michael Liles of Florida came the greatest distance and received a Texas T-shirt.

During the festivities, a large circle was formed at which time everyone had an opportunity to tell some things they remembered about their ancestors. Many incidents which happened in the past were shared with the younger generations, and proved to be the highlight of the entire weekend.

Musicians which were members of the family from Lamesa and Maryneal entertained during the morning with old time string music and songs.

Congressional Comment

In this time of big budget deficits and funding cutbacks, Americans have to call on their creativity and ingenuity to solve some of this country's problems.

Turning to the federal government for help in solving every problem just isn't possible if we are going to reduce federal spending.

One of the most troubling problems this nation faces now is rising unemployment. There are more than 10 million men and women looking for work without success.

Yet oddly enough, we also are on the verge of a critical shortage of technically skilled workers.

Department of Labor projections indicate that in this decade, the United States will have 2.5 million jobs left unfilled because applicants will not have the skills to qualify. Each year between now and 1990, we can expect to have a shortage of 57,500 industrial machinery repairmen, 28,000 computer operators, 21,300 machinists and 19,000 licensed practical nurses.

The obvious thing to do is train the unemployed to fill the jobs. However, a third problem arises. Our educational system is not equipped to handle this demand. Vocational and technical programs already are suffering from faculty shortages and outdated equipment.

In the worst recession since World War II, our need for graduate engineers continues to outpace supply. Yet, colleges and universities report from 2,000 to 2,500 vacancies in engineering faculty. Of more than 200 training facilities surveyed by the American Vocational Association, 44 percent of the technical programs and 52 percent of the technical and industrial programs were using tools and equipment that is more than 10 years old.

This presents a gloomy picture. In time, I believe the free market process would resolve the situation, but I don't think we can afford to wait. With the right incentives, I think that business and education could pool their resources to solve these problems more rapidly.

I have introduced a package of three bills, the Bentsen Skilled Worker Training Proposal, which will provide the incentive to reduce these anticipated skills shortages without a big federal spending program.

Under my plan, business and industry would receive expanded tax credits for lending engineers to teach at colleges and universities and for making grants so these schools can hire more faculty. Tax credits also would be given to employers who encourage their workers to participate in skills training program.

Tax deductions would be expanded for business that donate or share modern equipment with schools and colleges. One suggestion would be for businesses to allow students to train, outside of regular office hours, in the business facility on up-to-date equipment.

This plan would simply encourage schools and businesses to work together to overcome their problems, while at the same time making it possible for millions of Americans to compete for high paying skilled jobs.

Cardinals win Little League crown

Season comes to close Saturday

The first five Yankees reached base and scored Thursday night, and four of those same batters scored three runs each, but the Red Sox outscored the Yankees 21-18. The Red Sox had only seven hits in the game, but seventeen walks and two errors gave the Red Sox enough scoring opportunities to win the game. Floyd Slay pitched the victory.

The second game of Thursday night's Little League schedule also ended with a 21-18 score, the Giants taking the win from the Tigers. The Tigers led until the fourth inning when the Giants scored ten runs, and took the lead. Henry Jackson, and Paul Perez shared mound duties for the Giants.

The pitching combination of Victor and Amando Chapa held the Giants to six runs, and the A's scored three runs in their last at-bat to beat the Giants, 7-6, Saturday night. Second baseman Rance Sappington's hit was the game-winner, scoring Lex Dun, who had walked.

Michael McLain pitched six innings, Monday night, leading the Giants to a narrow, 5-4 win over the Dodgers. The Dodgers had scoring opportunities in every inning, including twelve base runners who coaxed walks, but scored two runs in an inning only once, when they had four walks and Kent Ammons's double.

Greg Benham limited the Red Sox to six hits, five of them, singles Monday night, as the Cardinals won 6-2. Dale and Bobby Gonzalez and Johnny Torrez had doubles for the Cardinals.

In Tuesday night's early action, the A's scored five runs in the last inning to insure a 12-6 win over the Tigers, who kept the game close until the last inning. After the five-run outburst, Eric Reece came on to shut out the Tigers in their last at-bat. Daryl Foster pitched for the Tigers.

The Yankees got back on the winning track, Tuesday night as Willie Rangel and Glen Harden each pitched three innings in an 11-6 win over the Giants. Michael Ayala had a triple, single, and scored three runs to lead the Yankee attack.

The next Little League action will come Saturday, with the A's and Red Sox playing at 4 p.m. followed by the Yankees and Dodgers at 6 p.m. and the Tigers and Red Sox at 8 p.m.

After those games, the top two teams will play in Lubbock Monday night, and All-Star selections will be made Monday, July 5, at 7 p.m. July 6, awards will be presented.

Hospital receives accreditation

Big Spring State Hospital has been given three year accreditation by the Joint Commission on Hospital Accreditation (JCAH). Accreditation is a process wherein the total operations of a hospital are surveyed by an independent team of health care professionals, applying national standards in order to evaluate patient care services provided by the hospital.

Word of the approved accreditation came to Albert Keene Smith, MSHA, Superintendent, May 17. In February, the hospital had undergone a four-day survey of the adult, child and adolescent psychiatric programs, along with the combined alcoholism-drug abuse programs, in an on-site visit by a team composed of a physician, a nurse and a social worker.

JCAH is governed by representatives of five national health care organizations — the American College of Physicians, the American College of Surgeons, the American Dental Association, the American Hospital Association and the American Medical Association. It is a private not-for-profit organization.

Upon learning of the accreditation, Smith stated that "achieving this recognition is more than just a 'pat on the back'; it clearly says to the people of West Texas that quality mental health care is available at this facility. The entire staff can take pride in this achievement and in the fact that BSSH becomes the first facility in the Texas state hospital system to achieve three years approval from the JCAH.

IT'S A FACT!

Water is a manufactured product. Hard to believe? The fact is, water is a most valuable and limited resource. According to the American Water Works Association, your water utility bill pays for the necessary processing of water—the gathering, treating, testing, pumping, storing, distributing and replacing that your water utility does for you, 24 hours a day. The result? Safe, pure water for you and your family.

Crop insurance program needs improvement

WASHINGTON — The new federal crop insurance program must be drastically improved if it is to protect cotton farmers adequately from risks associated with abnormal weather and other conditions beyond their control, a National Cotton Council producer leader said today.

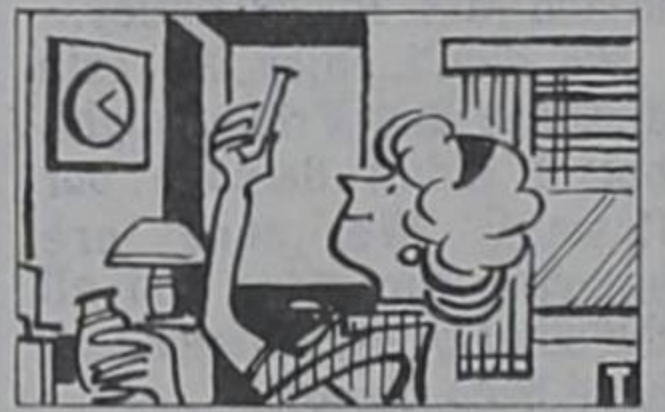

John S. Barr, III, Oak Ridge, La., told the Senate Agricultural Committee that the program must attract far more cotton acreage than the 11 percent that participated in 1981. Increased participation, he said, would prevent program losses like those incurred last year when yields were among the best in recent history.

The producer said the council has long supported a widely affordable all-risk federal crop insurance program based on individual farm yields and area production costs, but quick action must be taken if this goal is to be achieved.

"The intended subsidy for lower premiums is largely passed through to the insurance agent with commissions in the range of 20 percent," Barr commented.

This substantially increases producers' costs and discourages the volume of participation that's necessary for an affordable program, the Council's Producer Steering Committee chairman said. He added that lowering sales commissions is one obvious way to lower premiums and increase participation.

Diabetes affects 11.9 million people in this country; 4.8 million of them as yet undiagnosed. Two million must take injections at least once a day.

Barr strongly urged that USDA be required to base its insurance on an individual farm's actual yields as shown in county ASCS records or the next best reliable source. Production records for the past five years instead of the currently required ten years should be entirely adequate, he stressed.

Among other suggested improvements were: (1) increasing the allowed maximum insured coverage up to 90 percent of the previous five-year average; (2) more rapidly increasing or decreasing insurance premiums according to a farm's loss ratio experience; (3) licensing and strictly supervising all insurance agents; and (4) extending coverage until harvesting is normally completed in a region instead of arbitrarily ending it on January 1.

Barr noted that the present soybean contract provides a three-bushel payment at the insured rate when a farmer is forced to replant his crop. He said the cotton contract should have a similar provision, with a 40-pound payment at the insured rate. Also advocated were (1) elimination of the requirement that 20 percent of insured yield must be harvested before losses can be claimed at the highest insured rate, and (2) arbitration of claims by local ASCS committees instead of the federal claim adjuster's district director.

Most of these changes can be made administratively, Barr said. However, if the law is changed or a new program is instituted, he asked the Senate committee to consider total administration of the program by ASCS, and insuring a specific cost of production or total input based on individual growing areas.

Are you tired of the same old ham and eggs? Don't despair. Ripe Olive Eggs Tudor is the answer.

Seasoned scrambled eggs are spooned over slivered ham and then covered with a creamy cheese sauce accented with crunchy ripe olives. Sprinkle grated cheese on top, broil and serve in individual bakers garnished with a ripe olive and cherry tomato halves.

It's a breakfast the family won't forget in a long time, and it's special enough to serve to company.

- Ripe Olive Eggs Tudor
- 4 tablespoons butter or margarine
 - 2 tablespoons flour
 - 1 1/2 cups light cream
 - 1 chicken bouillon cube
 - 3/4 teaspoon salt
 - 1/4 teaspoon white pepper
 - Dash nutmeg
 - 3/4 cup grated Swiss cheese
 - 1/2 cup coarsely chopped California ripe olives
 - 8 eggs
 - 1/2 cup milk
 - 1 1/3 cups slivered cooked ham
 - 4 whole ripe olives
 - 4 cherry tomatoes, halved

Melt 2 tablespoons butter. Stir in flour. Gradually, stir in cream. Add chicken bouillon cube, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon pepper and nutmeg, to cream mixture and cook, stirring, until sauce boils and thickens. Stir in 1/2 cup cheese and chopped olives. Stir over low heat until cheese melts. Keep warm while preparing eggs. Beat eggs with milk. Add the remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/8 teaspoon pepper. Preheat broiler. Melt remaining 2 tablespoons butter in skillet. Add seasoned egg mixture and cook, over low heat, stirring occasionally from bottom of pan, until eggs are set. Place 1/3 cup ham in each of 4 individual baking dishes. Top each with 2 tablespoons sauce. Cover with scrambled eggs. Spoon remaining sauce over all and sprinkle with remaining cheese. Place low under broiler and broil until top is lightly browned. Garnish each dish with a whole ripe olive and a halved cherry tomato. Makes 4 servings.

At Southwestern Public Service Company, we keep our customers in mind when selecting the type of fuel to use in our electric generating stations. That is why we chose coal as the fuel for our newest power plants. Coal meets the tests of availability, technical and economical feasibility, reliability, environmental standards, and is in line with national energy policies.

Morris Rantz, Fuel Administration Manager, Amarillo.

The economy affects utility companies just as it does all of us. Despite their regulated status, utilities still face the problems of inflation, high interest rates, and soaring fuel costs. And regulation does not guarantee that a company will make a profit. Instead, regulators establish a "ceiling" or maximum amount of profit which a utility may make, a profit level which few utilities are able to reach because of the expenses involved in providing reliable electric service.

Jo Barnes, Chief Clerk, Levelland.

Using major electric appliances during "off-peak" hours can help keep down the cost of electric service. Certain times of day, usually between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m., are "peak" hours, when SPS' full generating capacity must be used to meet customer demands. Using your appliances during "off-peak" hours can help balance the load on these facilities and allow SPS to deliver your electricity in the most economical way.

Connie Moyers, Consumer Services Representative, Clovis.

Knowing what electricity is worth is worth knowing. For answers to your questions, call or write your SPS manager.

Summer months present dangers

As we emerge from one of the coldest winters on record, we may tend to forget that the hot months of summer also present potential dangers.

During periods of very high temperature, anyone — especially the elderly and those with medical problems — may build up enough body heat to incur heat stroke, heat syncope or heat exhaustion.

We can't control the weather, of course. But I'd like to alert everyone to some precautions we can take to control the way extreme heat affects us.

Drink plenty of fluids, even if you don't feel thirsty. Your body needs considerably more fluid than your thirst will indicate. When the outside temperature is above 95 degrees, you may easily need to drink more than a gallon of fluids a day. (Before increasing your fluid intake, however, consult your doctor if you have epilepsy; heart, kidney or liver disease; or fluid diet.)

Don't drink alcoholic beverages.

Avoid direct sunlight. Stay in the coolest place possible. If you don't have an air conditioner, try to spend some time each day in an air-conditioned place. Other good ways to cool off are taking frequent showers or placing icebags or wet towels on your body.

Wear lightweight, loose-fitting clothes.

Avoid unnecessary physical exertion. Don't use salt tablets without consulting your doctor, because salt can compound existing medical problems such as high blood pressure.

The three most serious conditions hot weather can trigger are heat stroke, heat syncope and heat exhaustion.

Tax relief for flood victims

The Internal Revenue Service advises victims of flooding caused by the recent heavy rains that they may be eligible to claim casualty losses on their 1982 returns.

Losses to business property are generally deductible in full. Personal property loss deductions are limited to the amount of loss exceeding $100 for each occurrence.

To claim a casualty loss a taxpayer must be able to substantiate the loss. Victims should compile a list of those items damaged or destroyed and determine their value immediately before and after the loss occurred. Before-and-after photographs of damaged property are important records to maintain, as are judgements of independent appraisers.

Of course, any portion of a loss covered by insurance and subsequently reimbursed is not deductible.

Further information for taxpayers is available by calling IRS toll free and asking for Publication 547, "Tax Information on Disasters, Casualty Losses, and Thefts," and Publication 584, "Workbook for Determining Your Disaster Loss." Call 742-2440 in Dallas, 335-1370 in Fort Worth and 1-800-492-4830 elsewhere in Texas.

Every Diabetic Needs Annual Eye Exam

The leading cause of new cases of blindness among adults under 75 is a diabetes-linked eye disease. Medical eye specialists urge annual eye examinations for all diabetics, even those with no symptoms of visual difficulties.

According to the National Society to Prevent Blindness, the longer a person has been a diabetic, the greater the chances of developing the disease. Early diagnosis is the best defense. Laser therapy to seal the blood vessels and other treatments are available. Even those with advanced diabetic retinopathy have real hope for retaining useful vision.

Scanning Social Security

By JIM LATIMER

This is the second in a series of five informational articles about Social Security.

In dealing with Social Security issues, it is important that some basic facts be understood. These include how the system is financed and what benefits it does — and does not — provide.

The basic idea of Social Security is a simple one; during their working years, employees, their employers and self-employed people pay Social Security taxes. When a worker retires, dies, becomes severely disabled, Social Security benefits are paid to replace part of the earnings the family has lost.

Social Security is the nation's basic retirement system, but it is also much more than that. Benefits are, indeed, payable to retired workers and their dependents. Reduced benefits can begin as early as when the worker reaches age 62. However, only sixty-three percent of benefits paid out by SSA are paid to retired workers.

The remaining 37 percent are paid to dependents, survivors, and disabled workers. Severely disabled workers and their dependents can be eligible for benefit at any age if the worker becomes unable to work. When a worker dies, benefits can go to certain members of the worker's family. Also, Medicare coverage helps protect people from the high costs of health care. Social Security beneficiaries who are 65 or over or who have been disabled for 24 months are entitled to Medicare coverage.

Most public or private pension and insurance plans cannot duplicate Social Security's comprehensive protection. Some may offer the same types of insurance but have limited benefits or other restrictions. Protection for dependents of retired or disabled workers is a feature offered by few other insurance plans of any kind.

Social Security protects against inflation by guaranteeing that the amount of benefits will increase as the cost of living goes up. This extremely important feature is almost unique to Social Security.

Social Security benefits are tax-free. They are not subject to federal or State income taxes. They are also portable. That is, Social Security moves with you from job-to-job. Any and all work credits earned count toward benefits.

Social Security, however, is not designed to replace all the earnings lost when a worker retires, dies or becomes disabled. It provides a basic level of income on which workers can build through savings, investments or other insurance. Under present law, a worker gets retirement benefits at age 65 generally in the range of 30 to 55 percent of his or her recent taxable earnings.

Benefits to current Social Security beneficiaries are paid from current taxes. When today's workers retire, die or become disabled, benefits will be paid from the taxes of people in covered employment at that time. Part of the taxes are also used to provide Medicare hospital insurance. It is this unique pay-as-you-go feature that makes Social Security different from other types of insurance. Its financial soundness is based on projections of how much will be paid in benefits and how much will be received in taxes in future years.

When these points change adjustments are needed. These adjustments have always been made when needed and, we are sure, will continue to be made in the future.

The taxes are used for nothing else except to pay benefits and the administrative costs of the program. Administrative costs amount to only about 1.5 percent of Social Security taxes collected.

The next article in this series will deal with some recent changes in the Social Security program.

Traffic deaths increase by 6%

AUSTIN — Texas traffic deaths increased by six percent last year compared to 1980, according to statistics compiled by the Department of Public Safety. The mileage death rate, however, decreased by two percent. The rate was 4.2 deaths per hundred million miles traveled in 1981 as compared to 4.3 in 1980.

"A total of 4,701 fatalities were recorded on our state streets and highways for 1981," said Colonel Jim Adams, DPS director. "This was the fifth consecutive record year for motor vehicle deaths in Texas."

DPS reports 2,071 city traffic deaths in 1981 which is 44.1 percent of the total fatalities, while rural highway accidents claimed 2,630 lives or 55.9 percent of the deaths.

Adams noted that DWI-related deaths last year

Research fund established

A General Surgery Research Fund has been established at the School of Medicine at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center.

George P. Beck, M.D., and Connie Beck made the first contribution in the name of Lloyd A. Storrs, M.D., a Lubbock native and a pioneer in the field of microsurgery of the middle ear. Dr. Storrs is presently a director of the American Board of Otorhinolaryngology, and one of his many accomplishments is the development of a fascia graft replacement for the tympanic membrane.

"We are grateful to Dr. and Mrs. Beck for establishing this fund to honor a local physician who has made many contributions to medicine," said Peter C. Canizaro, M.D., chairman of surgery at the School of Medicine at Texas Tech.

Donations to the General Surgery Research Fund may be made through the TTUHSC office of Development, Lubbock, Texas, 79430, or phone 806-743-2727.

totalled 1,082, an increase of eight percent above 1980.

"Fatalities attributed to drunk driving made up 23 percent of the total killed, according to investigating officers. However, we believe this figure would be as high as 50 percent if Texas law required blood alcohol measurements from all rivers involved in fatal accidents," he said.

Motorcycle deaths reached 442 in 1981, rising 17 percent compared to the previous year. Seventy-five percent of the cyclists killed were not wearing helmets.

"Total accidents reported by state and local officers last year numbered 458,017, six percent higher than 1980," Adams pointed out.

"Our statistics also show that 206,196 persons were injured in Texas traffic mishaps in 1981. That amounts to an 11 percent increase over the previous year."

Statistics show motorists traveled 111,036 billion miles. This represents an increase of 7.5 percent.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell, in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, hereby gives notice of the company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas, effective July 27, 1982, unless otherwise determined by the Commission.

It is expected that the requested rate schedule will furnish a 13.4 percent increase in the company's intrastate revenues.

A complete copy of the new rate schedule is on file with the Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas, and with each affected municipality served by Southwestern Bell, and is available for inspection in each of the company's public business offices in Texas. The Commission staff has contended in the past that all rates are subject to change as a result of Southwestern Bell's rate application.

Notice to El Paso Area Customers

Effective January 1, 1982, Southwestern Bell adopted the Mountain States tariffs in effect for El Paso County. Southwestern Bell proposes to merge the separate El Paso tariffs with its tariffs applicable to the rest of Texas. The resulting new rate schedule is on file with the PUC and the El Paso area municipalities served by Southwestern Bell, and is available for inspection at our El Paso business office.

Notice to Customers of Other Telephone Companies

The filing includes, but is not limited to, proposals to increase rates for interexchange private line and foreign exchange (FX) service. Changes in such rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies because such companies provide interexchange private line and foreign exchange service in accordance with rates specified in Southwestern Bell's tariffs. While Southwestern Bell has proposed no increase in long distance rates, any change in those rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies.

Aviso Público

Southwestern Bell, en conformidad a las reglas del Public Utility Commission (Comisión de Servicios Públicos) de Texas, por la presente hace saber su intención de establecer un nuevo arancel para servicio de teléfono en Texas con vigencia a partir del 27 de julio, 1982, a menos que la Comisión haga otra determinación.

Se espera que el nuevo arancel que se ha solicitado rendirá un aumento de 13.4 por ciento en los ingresos intraestatales de la compañía.

Una copia completa del nuevo arancel se ha archivado en las oficinas del Public Utility Commission en Austin, Texas, al igual que en cada municipalidad afectada y servida por Southwestern Bell, y cada una de las oficinas de la compañía para negocios con el público en Texas tiene una copia para lectura pública. En el pasado, la Comisión ha sostenido que toda tarifa está sujeta a cambios que resulten de la manera en la cual Southwestern Bell aplique sus tarifas.

Aviso a Clientes en la Región de El Paso

Con vigencia a partir del 1o de enero de 1982, Southwestern Bell ha adoptado las tarifas de Mountain States efectivas en el condado de El Paso. Southwestern Bell propone unir las tarifas de El Paso con sus otras tarifas que se aplican al resto de Texas. El nuevo arancel que resulta de esta unión se ha archivado en la Comisión de Servicios Públicos (Public Utility Commission), al igual que en las municipalidades de la región de El Paso servidas por Southwestern Bell, y está disponible para inspección pública en nuestras oficinas de El Paso.

Aviso a los Clientes de Otras Compañías de Teléfono

El registro incluye, pero no se limita a, propuestas para aumentar las tarifas para servicio de línea privada entre centrales telefónicas (interexchange private line) y servicio de central telefónica extranjera (foreign exchange FX). Cambios en dichas tarifas de servicio también afectarían a clientes de otras compañías de teléfono porque dichas compañías proveen los servicios ya mencionados en conformidad a tarifas especificadas por Southwestern Bell. Aunque Southwestern Bell no ha propuesto un aumento en las tarifas para larga distancia, cualquier cambio en las mismas también afectaría a los clientes de otras compañías de teléfono.
