City Council approves four

City Secretary Wanda Wilkerson reports the following business at Monday night's May Council meeting:

The council discussed the need for the lease-purchase of a bulldozer for the dumpgrounds.

The council will conduct the official hearing toward approving Gene's Garage at 108 W. 5th, at its regular meeting in June.

The council approved four members recently elected to the Library Board. Mary Prather and Ruth Ann Newby were re-elected, and Tom Pass and Peggy Ashley were elected to new terms.

The painting of the library will be added to the new budget for next year, along with a possible renovation of city hall.

The regular meeting of the council will be Tuesday, June 8, a day later than the regular meeting is usually held.

MEETING TO BE HELD
The Post Housing Authority will hold a meeting at the Housing Authority office at 3:15 p.m. Wednesday, May 5, 1982.

One thousand Garza County Democrats went to the polls, Saturday, May 1, electing two new Justices of the Peace, and returning two incumbent County Commissioners to office.

Shelia Melton defeated her former boss, Zora Robinson, by a margin of 91 votes. Mrs. Robinson, the incumbent, polled only 104 votes, to 199 for Mrs. Melton. Dee Justice enjoyed an even larger margin of victory, with 196 votes over three times more votes than incumbent Pat Kitchens could garner, with 65.

Ted Aten, incumbent County Commissioner, Precinct 2, claimed victory in his race with Cecil Foster, Jr. Aten's 222 votes easily defeated Foster's 80 votes. Herbert Walls, County Commissioner for Precinct 4, pushed aside the challenge of Robert (Pete) Hays, claiming 189 markers to 89 for Hays.

The other County races were uncontested, as County Judge Giles Dalby (792) votes, District and County Clerk Carl Cederholm (787) votes, Voda Beth Gradine (772) votes, and County Chairman J. E. Tanner (743) votes re-claimed their seats.

Garza County Democrats gave a vote of confidence to incumbent State Senator E. L. Short of Tahoka, with 512 votes, compared to 421 votes for former Lubbock Criminal District Attorney John T. Montford. In voting throughout the 28th Senatorial District, however, Montford defeated Short, and will face Republican Jim Reese of Odessa in the November General Election.

U.S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen turned back Democratic challenger, Joe Sullivan, both in Garza County returns (634 votes to 240), and statewide. Voters in Garza County narrowed their list of gubernatorial candidates from six to two, giving Mark White a majority of 501 votes to Buddy Temple's 219 votes. Bob Armstrong finished third in the county totals with 135 votes, and Ray Allen Mayo, Don Beagle, and David Young shared 40 remaining votes.

Bill Hobby claimed a clear victory for Lieutenant Governor, defeating Troy Skates 679 to 157 in county voting. Max Sherman garnered 360 votes for Attorney General, outdistancing Jim Mattox (176), Jack Ogg (130), and John Hannah (117). Bob Bullock won a relatively close race for Comptroller of Public Accounts with 511 votes to Robert Calvert's 328.

In balloting for State Treasurer, Warren G. Harding received 382 votes, and Ann Richards finished second in local voting with 260 votes. Reagan V. Brown failed to receive a vote of confidence from voters in this "rural" county, as Jim Hightower with 507 votes, beat the incumbent Brown with 326 votes.

Jim Nugent was a clear local victor in voting for a place on the Railroad Commission. In three close races, Justices of the State Supreme Court shared a host of votes. John Barron claimed a local victory in the Place 1 race, 425 to Ted Robertson's 299. For Place 2, James G. Denton beat Bill Kilgarlin by only 14 votes out of 764. Denton won 389 votes to 375 for Kilgarlin. In the race for Place 3 on the State Supreme Court, Charles Barrow won with 474 votes, to Woodrow Wilson Bean's 292.

District Judge George H. Hansard of Lamesa was returned to the bench with 695 votes in an uncontested race. Steve Carriker was (See Elections, Page 16)

'Hospital Week' observed

Garza Memorial Hospital joins with hospitals all across the country in celebrating National Hospital Week, May 9-15. This special observance is built around the theme "You've Got A Friend in the Hospital."

"We think the 1982 National Hospital Week

theme reflects the role of our hospital and its staff as friends in helping community residents stay healthy," said Maritta Reed, hospital administrator. "We are working to reduce the need for hospitalization through our progress in both prevention and cure of illness and injury." During National Hospital

Week, Garza Memorial Hospital will offer tours to classes of school children, and give free blood sugar and blood pressure checks between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

During the week the hospital is also reminding people to be their own best friend by taking care of their health and by learning to use the hospital wisely to be well.

National Hospital Week is sponsored each year by the American Hospital Association and its 6,000 member hospitals to foster better communication and understanding between hospitals and their patients, employees, and the communities they serve.

Tournament nets $900 for Jubilee

The weekend volleyball tournament, sponsored by the Post Chamber of Commerce, to benefit the Diamond Jubilee to be held in July netted the benefit between $800 and $900.

Another volleyball tournament is planned for local teams only May 13 through 15 with a $25 entry fee for each men and ladies' teams. The Chamber sponsored event invites all churches, businesses, clubs and organizations to enter a team with the deadline for entering May 10. For those who wish to enter, call Jackie or Margie at the First National Bank, 495-2804. Again all proceeds will benefit the Jubilee.

A directors meeting was held recently and discussed plans with Riley Miller for his wild west show, termed by Riley as the "biggest and best yet". The show aka "Fiesta del Llano Estacado", will feature the history of Post and will be shown Saturday and Sunday during the Jubilee with Friday's event scheduled for the Post Community Center in form of a spaghetti supper followed by the "Jubilee Comedy Kapers". The directors also adopted a budget of $30,000 for the jubilee events.

In another fund raising project, a memorial section is planned for one section of the Jubilee Souvenir book, and readers will find a form in today's Dispatch on page 16 which can be filled out and sent to the Chamber of Commerce. The memorial is dedicated to loved ones of Garza County and must be mailed to the Chamber no later than May 10. A picture may be sent with the memorial if so desired along with information on when born, died and by whom donated. Any information concerning the life of the honored individual may also be added and also please note the relationship of person being remembered such as parents, brother, sister, etc. Cost of the dedication is $50.00.

2.72 inches covers much of county

A generalized rain swept across the South Plains Tuesday night, leaving upwards of 1.5 inches of welcome moisture in rain gauges in the city. Though the town of Spur was hit hard by violent winds, hail, and rain, gauges East of Post recorded as little as .55 inches of rain, prompting one rancher to say, "maybe the wind was blowing so hard, it kept the rain out of the gauge."

School officials in Spur announced that elementary school students would not have school on Wednesday, while windows were replaced which were blown out by the storm.

One Garza county farmer when asked said, "The rain couldn't have come at a better time. Now, maybe it will dry up enough to get a crop started."

Nicholas Vukad, official National Weather Observer, recorded 1.41 inches of rain Tuesday night, which he added to last week's 1.31 inches, to give us 2.72 total inches this week. The Lubbock-based Weather Service promised a continuing possibility of rain for the rest of the week.

BABE RUTH MEETING

Winners named in '82 Post Art Guild Spring Show

"The Art work in this show is such good quality, that it is very difficult to choose the winners," was the comment by Art Show Judge, Bettie Haller of Amarillo, summing up the success of the Post Art Guild's 1982 Art Show held in the community center last weekend.

Over 300 entries were judged in painting, sculpture and photography, by judges Bettie Haller of Amarillo, and Jim Long of Lubbock, who judged the photographs.

Both judges were very complimentary of the quality of work displayed, and the community center with its spacious room and beauty which had a lot to do with the success of the show.

Big ribbon winner in watercolor was Pat Robitaille of Lubbock with two first place and one second place ribbons; Robert Chennult of Lubbock with a first, second and third place in Acrylics; Theresa Martin of Lubbock with two first place ribbons in Bronze, and Lil Conner of Post with a total of 19 ribbons in photography.

County, and to the Scout organization which the Chief has served over the years.

The People's Choice award, chosen by viewers voting for their favorite, went to JoAnn Mock of Post, for "A Farmers Dream", an oil still life of a stalk of cotton.

DEBT program gets weekly teacher

The DEBT program here in Post, Developmental Education Birth through Two, has qualified for money to be allotted for one teacher to be available here in Post twice a week, Wednesdays and Fridays, to go into homes and make developmental assessments of children with learning problems.

DEBT is a Special Education program aimed toward cultivating and nurturing little lives from their beginning, and is a program for parents and their children. It is a home training program designed to add to parental skills in teaching children within the home. The program provides for early identification and intervention of all children having any of the following disabilities: speech or language deficit; physical disability, hearing impairment, mental retardation, visual impairment, emotional disturbance, development delay, or any other condition that may be viewed as high risk.

Kathy Fluitt, a local teacher, has been carrying the weight of this program here in Post for a number of years, strictly on a volunteer basis. She has given of her time and experience to keep this program available to a number of Post children.

The goals for the program are to identify as many of these young ones as soon as possible, and to develop a home instructional program for parents of these children. Also to make parents aware of services offered by the State and community agencies.

Questions parents can ask themselves to know whether to seek help include: Why is our 18-month old not walking? Why is our 10-month old not saying 'mama' or 'dada'? Why is our 6-month old unwilling to suck a bottle? Why does our 2-year old neither notice nor play with his toys? Why do we have such a 'good' baby? Why doesn't he cry? Why does our baby not seem to recognize our voices?

Working with children here will be Marsha Hearon of Lubbock, who is a certified teacher of elementary education, and a 1981 graduate of Lubbock Christian College.

If you have any questions please call the superintendent's office here in Post, and the information will be forwarded to Miss Hearon.

Scanning Social Security

By Jim Latimer

This is the first in a series of five articles provided by this writer. The articles are intended to provide some basic information about Social Security, highlighting recent changes, and giving some insight into the future of this very important program. These articles are printed as a public service by this newspaper.

There has been a tremendous amount of public attention focused on Social Security in the last five years. This is proper because Social Security directly touches the daily lives of virtually every American and is of critical importance to the nation. Social Security is America's basic method of providing a continuing income when earnings are reduced or stop because of retirement, disability or death.

Just two generations ago, only a tiny percentage of Americans had protection against the loss of earnings. Only fifteen percent were covered by any sort of retirement system. Most had to depend on relatives or welfare for basic support.

The development of the Social Security System has changed this situation dramatically. Almost every American now has a direct stake in the system either as a beneficiary, a contributor building protection for the future, or the dependent of a contributor. Ninety-three percent of people in the United States who are age 65 or older are eligible for social security benefits. Ninety-five out of 100 young children and their mothers are protected by social security survivor's insurance. Four out of five people of working age have protection against the loss of income due to long term disability.

More than 35 million — one out of every six Americans — receive a Social Security check each month. About 114 million people paid into the program in 1980.

In almost any discussion about Social Security, some concern is expressed about the financial soundness of the program. Persons who work for SSA are keenly aware that the fear that the system will become insolvent is a very real one to many people. The benefits will be paid no doubt, in the considered judgment of those administering the program and those involved in studying the program, such as congress. The benefits will be paid because Social Security is such an integral part of this nation and thus virtually unthinkable not to fund it.

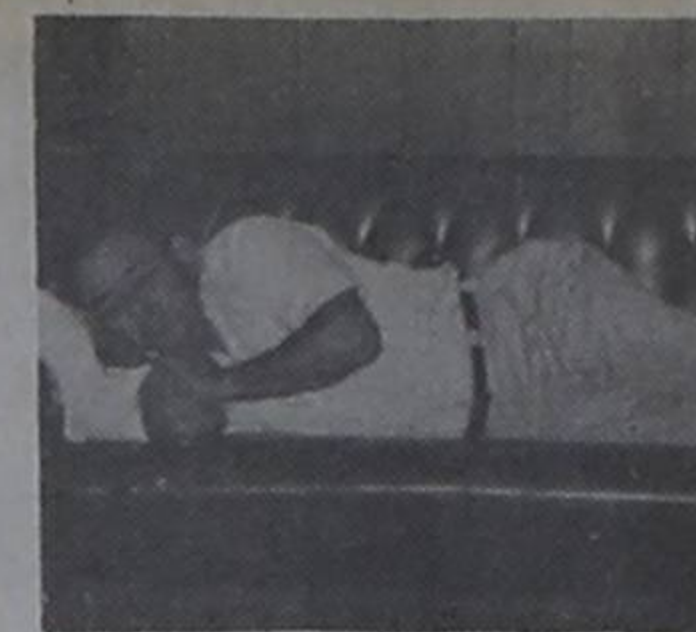

During its entire forty-seven year history, Social Security has never defaulted on any payments. Every President and Congress has strongly supported the program. The real issues which need to be decided are what benefits should be paid and what is the best way to pay for those benefits.

These issues are very important and will affect all Americans. It is for this reason that the Lubock Social Security Office is providing this information to you. The knowledge of, and involvement in, Social Security issues by the American public is necessary if we are to have the kind of secure social security system the nation wants and needs.

An air conditioner can improve the performance of your furnace.

An air conditioner?

A very special air conditioner called the add-on heat pump. It cools in summer and heats in winter. And it works with whatever kind of furnace you have.

The add-on heat pump will improve the performance of your furnace by keeping it off completely during a good portion of the winter. The add-on heat pump can satisfy your home's heating requirements more economically when temperatures are above 30° or so. That's about 80% of our area's normal heating season.

Then, when summer comes, the heat pump becomes a cool pump, efficiently air conditioning the home. So, when you're in the market for air conditioning, look into the add-on heat pump.

Call us to see what your savings could be.

Western fans will enjoy Frontier Steel by Nevada Carter. A drifter in Virginia City starts spreading an ugly rumor about the prosperous, respected rancher, Dallas Wayne. Only his arch-enemy, Miss Burlette Francine Smith has the nerve to confront him with the rumor. Ted Sloan, Burlette's foreman, emerges as the real villain, and only Wayne's courage to confront his own insecurities manages to avoid a range war.

You thought you'd heard all the cattleman-shepherd stories, but Giles A Lutz tells another in a book called "The Feud." This time the villain is the banker, Jacob Keeley, who hopes that a range war will keep the Kilmers from making the next payment on their sheep ranch loan, so that the banker can take over the property. Will the evil trick work?

Stacey Orphington, and three other ladies, board the Boston-London plane, all four carrying hatboxes from Filene's shop. Only Stacey has hidden a priceless jewel collection in her hatbox, acting as a secret courier, bound for an exhibition. Marvin and Hortense, two precocious travellers, expose the contents of the hatbox before the plane lands at Heathrow, and the hatboxes somehow become switched. Will the boys help Stacey find her missing jewels? Will she avoid being murdered? The name of the novel is "Bejewelled Death", by Marian Babson.

For a better than average (the publisher said so) cloak and dagger special, read "The Brink" by N. J. Crisp. British agent Richard Conroy is betrayed in West Berlin, kidnapped by the Russian KGB, and then freed, to conveniently. Who is using him? And why?

Richard Harris tells the story of a prosperous New York lawyer, Thomas Hasher, whose life changes when the man who reared him is brutally murdered.

There is one beautiful suspect, but can Hasher avoid being a target? The book is "Honor Bound."

Robert Metz, in a book called Future Stocks, offers "the average person" a way to capitalize on the high-technology stocks which are available on the market now. One chapter lists important information about 27 outstanding companies in the field. If you ever imagined solar power or mini-computers as good investment possibilities, the book may help. My hunch: Metz will make far more on sales of his $13.50 book than in the stock market. Isn't that why he wrote it? Check it out, it's free. At your Post Public Library.

Movies for May listed at the Library include "Bear Cub and the River Inhabitant"; "The Bremen Town Musicians"; "The Foolish Frog"; "Generations of the Land"; "Healthy Mother, Healthy Baby"; "Kayak"; "Latino Profile"; "T Lorrax"; "Make Way for Ducklings"; "North American Indians Today"; "Peege"; "The remarkable Rocket"; "Planting and Transplanting"; "Rabbits"; "Robin"; "Saga of the Sea Otter"; and "Stained Glass."

American fathers of today might welcome a Father's Day gift that would help better their bowling scores. A bowling ball that's set a new world's record of three 300 games in a 12-game set is the AMF Angle. A Stanford University computer helped program its optimum curvature. That's one way to make every father a winner.

Create Inside-Out Creamy Cupcakes

Join two great food concepts and create cupcakes that promise to make the simplest meal a real occasion. Thawed frozen whipped topping with real cream and packaged gingerbread mix answer today's interest in convenience and great taste. The center of each gingerbread cupcake holds a luscious dollop of whipped topping with real cream. How did it get there? A gentle scoop from cupcake center leaves room for whipped topping, which hides under the cupcake top when it's returned. Toasted gingerbread crumbs garnish the whipped topping "frosting." Serve the day they're made. Or store in the freezer and take out 5-10 minutes before serving. Count on these cupcakes as backup dessert from now on. Now that real cream can be enjoyed in convenient frozen whipped topping, you can also count on serving great-tasting topping round the clock.

- 1 package (14 oz.) gingerbread mix
- 1/2 cup finely chopped walnuts
- 1 container (8 oz.) Birds Eye Dover Farms whipped topping, thawed

Prepare gingerbread mix as directed on package, adding walnuts. Divide batter evenly into 12 paper baking cups set in muffin pans. Bake at 350° for 25 to 30 minutes, or until tops spring back when lightly touched. Remove from pan and cool on racks. Cut a 1-inch circle in center of each cupcake and remove. Gently scoop out center, reserving crumbs. Toast reserved crumbs at 350° for 10 minutes; cool. Fill each cupcake with about 1 tablespoon of the whipped topping. Replace tops. Frost tops of cupcakes with remaining whipped topping and sprinkle with toasted crumbs. Serve the day prepared or freeze 2 to 3 hours or overnight. Remove cupcakes from freezer 5 to 10 minutes before serving. Makes 12.

McKamie, Williamson ceremony is read May 1

MRS. KENNY MCKAMIE

Kenneth Wayne McKamie and Sidney Williamson, were united in marriage Saturday, May 1, at 7:30 p.m. in the Hodges Chapel of the First Christian Church in Lubbock.

The Rev. Page Foster, of the Lubbockview Christian Church read the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Williamson, of 8002 Avenue H, Lubbock, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe McKamie, of 710 Chantilly Lane of Post.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of ivory Point D'esprit lace, fashioned in Victorian style, with a scalloped yoke and choke neckline featuring full long sleeves. A lace peplum encircled the waistline. Seed pearls adorned the bodice, with a semi-gathered skirt and also featured an attached chapel length train edged with lace trim.

She wore a hat with tiers of ivory illusion enlightened with seed pearls, and carried a bouquet of ivory Point D'esprit on a lace fan trimmed with seed pearls and embellished with silk blossoms in coral, apricot and ivory. Coral and ivory peccot ribbon flowed from the base of the fan.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Ricky Leaverton of Lubbock, was attired in a formal gown of coral Point D'esprit lace, to compliment that of the bride's gown. It was also fashioned in Victorian style, and she carried a bouquet of peach and plum spring blossoms made of silk. The bouquet was tied with ivory peccot ribbon and coral tulle.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Steve Surratt of San Antonio, Miss Lisa Williamson of Amarillo. They were attired identical to the matron of honor.

Serving as best man was Johnny Minor of Hurst, Tx., and groomsmen were Troy Jenkins, cousin of the bride of Lubbock, and Craig Simpson, also of Lubbock.

Ushers were Jimmy McKamie of College Station, brother of the groom, and Rick Anderson of Lubbock.

The groom wore an ivory Saratoga tuxedo with tails, a cummerbund with an ivory lace shirt and bow tie. The fathers of the couple were dressed in honey beige Essex tuxedos with ivory lace shirts and bow ties of honey beige.

Groomsmen and ushers wore honey beige Essex tuxedos with ivory wingtip shirts and band ties in honey beige.

Wedding music was provided by Kim Williamson, soloist, cousin of the bride of Levelland, and organist Mrs. George Sell of Lubbock.

A reception followed immediately after following the ceremony in the green room at the First Christian Church. The bridal table was centered with an arrangement of silk blossoms fashioned as a May pole, with silver and crystal appointments used in serving.

The cake was four tiered with lemon flavored icing decorated in an ivory background, with cascades of hand made coral, apricot, and ivory roses and spring blossoms. The wedding cake was decorated with royal icing, and Australian style cornelli lace work on all tiers with an arrangement of silk blossoms in the center of the second layer. Each cake was designed especially for the bride and groom by Betty Johnson of Lubbock.

Brass appointments were used on the groom's table, which also featured brass candlesticks. Finger sandwiches and coffee were served by the groom's sister, Mrs. Doyce Haney of Big Spring, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Jimmy McKamie of College Station.

Serving in the house party were Mrs. Steve Wright of Amarillo, Mrs. Doyce Haney of Big Spring, Mrs. Jimmy McKamie of College Station, Mrs. Gordon Williamson, Mrs. Jack Williamson, Mrs. Jan Barnett, Miss Cynthia Carroll and Mrs. Cliff Alewine all of Lubbock.

Following a trip to Cancun, Mexico, the couple will reside in Lubbock.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Monterey High School of Lubbock and received a BS degree in Education from Texas Tech in 1978. She is employed with Lubbock Steel and Supply. The groom is a 1972 graduate of Post High School, and attended Texas Tech. He is employed as a journeyman electrician with Clark Electric Co. in Lubbock.

BRIDAL COURTESIES

A rehearsal dinner honoring the couple and other guests was hosted at the Gridiron Restaurant, Friday night, April 30, hosted by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Billy McKamie.

A champagne buffet honoring the couple was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dement of 3009 Mesa Road in Lubbock immediately following the reception.

A bridesmaid brunch was hosted by Mrs. Marvin J. Young, mother of the matron of honor, in the Hemphill Wells Gold Room, in the South Plains Mall, May 1, at 10:30 a.m.

Founder's Day celebration held

The Xi Delta Rho Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its Founder's Day celebration commemorating its 51st Anniversary on Wednesday, April 28, in the home of Susan Cardinal.

Fourteen members and the guest speaker opened the program by singing the National Anthem. They were then served a salad buffet which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Following the meal, Margaret Price welcomed the members and informally chaired the program. Johnnie Francis gave a short review of the highlights of the past year's meetings and projects. Bernice Eubank led everyone in the Founder's Day pledge, and Joyce Teaff read a message from the international office.

Tom Pass, then presented Voda Gradine, the outgoing president, with a small token of appreciation of her service to the sorority during the year.

Candidates are selected for their participation in all sorority events and for their promotion of the sorority during the year. Jenny was presented with a full-jeweled sorority pin in honor of this recognition.

Nancy Shaw played a cassette recording she had made of the winning entry in the sorority sing-writing contest. She also provided the music for the national anthem and other songs sung during the program.

Members attending the celebration were: Jenny Francis, Johnnie Francis, Martha Hart, Margaret Price, Betty Dennis, Susan Cardinal, Peggy Ashley, Lois Kennedy, Nancy Shaw, Vicky Howell, Bernice Eubank, Joyce Teaff, Cheryl Blair and Voda Gradine.

TV AND YOUR EYES ONLY

Your favorite TV show is on the screen, but why is the picture out of focus? Maybe it's not the picture. Maybe it's your eyes. Watching TV for long periods of time can cause eye fatigue. But TV watching is not harmful to the eyes.

To give your eyes a break when watching TV, you should be sitting at least six feet away from the screen. One guide is to sit at a distance that is five times the width of the picture. And don't sit in the dark. It's not good for your eyes. There should be light in the room, but not bright enough to wash out the TV picture. Move the light or the TV so that it doesn't cause a reflection or glare in the TV screen.

The set should be in perfect focus. If you've done all you can to get a clear picture but still have trouble seeing it well, maybe it's time for an eye examination.
Corrective glasses or contact lenses or a new prescription will put your eyes where you want them to be: back in the picture — clear and sharp.

Farmers union calls for emergency action

AUSTIN — The Texas Farmers Union has called on the Reagan Administration and the Congress to take emergency action to rectify the depression underway in rural America. The full board of the TFU meeting in Austin on April 29, adopted an economic plan aimed at increasing the commodity prices which are at historically low levels and improving the overall economy in agriculture.

According to TFU President Mike Moeller, the organization of family farmers and ranchers wants the emergency program adopted as it will benefit all segments of the economy. "By raising price support levels on farm commodities we not only will establish a minimum floor price in our domestic markets, we will also set the same price in the international market.

This will bring about a favorably balance of trade and get the U.S. out of red ink."

In addition to increasing Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) loans to meet the current costs of production, the TFU also called on the Congress and the Reagan Administration to adopt the following measures:

Reduce interest rate levels to single digit rates which reflect the current economic situation in the U.S.

Cease all forced liquidations or foreclosures of family farm operations.

Require the FHA to immediately release Economic Emergency Loan funds.

Reinstate a nationwide farm storage facility program through the ASCS.

Reject any further cuts in food and nutrition programs.

Simpson-Jenkins vows read May 1st

Troy Simpson and Darla Jenkins were united in marriage Saturday, May 1, in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church in Lubbock.

The ceremony took place before three twelve candle candelabras and wedding prayer bench. Officiating was the Rev. Dr. D. L. Lowrie.

Parents of the bride are Mrs. Bobbie Jenkins of Lubbock and Christley Jenkins of Mineral Wells. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Simpson of Post, and grandparents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Barney Wilson of Slaton.

The bride wore a tired candlelight lace dress and a candlelight lace picture hat decorated with silk flowers. The hat was adorned with a shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of apricot and blue silk roses over candlelight lace and baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Joe Holland, of Childress, and Lynn Simpson served his brother as best man.

Candlelighters, Craig Jenking, brother of the bride and Wade Wilson, cousin of the groom, also served as ushers.

The pianist, Larry Tardy, played "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee" as the bride came down the aisle. Soloist Vicki Walker sang "One in a Million" before the ceremony and "This is the Day", during the lighting of the unity candle.

For the reception, the bride's table was laid with a candlelight lace cloth over white. The centerpiece was an heirloom Bible, open to Psalm 5, with the bride's bouquet in the center of the book. The five tier wedding cake was iced and decorated in the bride's colors of apricot, blue and candlelight. A bride and groom set used at the wedding of the groom's parents was placed in the center separators of the cake. It was topped with a set of candlelight satin bells.

The groom's table featured a brass coffee service, brass candlesticks and a royal icing oil derrick. The cake was designed as a book. On the left side was a passage from Matt. 19:5, and on the right side were the names of the bride and groom and their wedding date.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Dale Barkley, Mrs. David Howle, Mrs. Lynn Kuykendall, Alice Rushmore and Kathy Allen all of Lubbock.

Following a wedding trip to Dallas the couple will be at home in Lubbock. Troy is employed by Norton Drilling Co., and Darla is employed by the First Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Simpson were hosts Friday night for the rehearsal dinner. It was held at the 50 Yard Line Restaurant in Lubbock.

NOW: Wine is drunk universally today and is still the preferred beverage in many countries. Wine consumption in the U.S. has increased markedly in the last decade. More Americans are becoming conscious of the many varieties available. Many have welcomed the appearance of two new products—a red and a white—from the Italian wine makers, Martini and Rossi. Both are vintage dated dry wines from limited production areas of two north-eastern Italian wine regions noted for their grape varieties. One, Sangiovese di Romagna, is a dry, full-bodied wine with a flowery bouquet and deep red color. The other, Bianco di Custoza, is dry, with an opulent bouquet and clean taste.

made it to the final four of the Division II National Championship. Wabash finished 24-4 with a big 83-62 victory over Potsdam College for the Division III national championship.

The award, an outgrowth of the Kodak Company's commitment to recognizing excellence in amateur athletics, is particularly coveted by coaches because the winner is picked by his peers.

He's pushed himself to a mean winning percentage of .714. Now, that's demanding.

All three had sensational years. Idaho was 27-3 and made it to the regionals of the NCAA Basketball championship for the first time in its history. Cal. State, Bakersfield was 25-6 and day with Ricky Saldivar running the 800 meter dash at 1:55, followed by the 300 intermediate hurdles at 2:35, and the 1600 meter relay at 3:15 p.m. for the qualifiers.

Milton Williams and Tim Tannehill will go in the long jump at 10 a.m. Saturday morning.

Finals of the meet will get underway at 1 p.m. Saturday.

PHS grad bank president

Bobby Pennington did something 28 years ago that you wouldn't find listed among Harvard Business School's recommended steps to corporate success. He dropped out of college and went to work as a $43.50 a week bookkeeper for Southern Arizona Bank.

Bobby is the son of Mrs. Lala Pennington of Post, and was raised here and attend schools in Post.

Pennington is now the senior vice president in charge of First Interstate Bank's 32 Tucson-area branches in Arizona.

Pennington had two years at Texas Tech, when he and his wife were lured to Tucson with the promise, for her, of a job at a trust company. He was planning to finish college at the University of Arizona, but those plans ended when he learned that tuition for out-of-state students was a bit too steep.

For the next 22 years, Pennington worked in virtually all of the bank's departments, including marketing, advertising and accounting. A year after Southern Arizona merged with the First National Bank of Arizona in 1974, Pennington was transferred from Tucson to Phoenix to head the bank's national division, then directed its retail banking operations before returning to his present position of senior vice president.

Pennington's role as a banking leader has led him full steam into community activities, including chairmanship of the United Way campaign and numerous other board posts.

In the family, his 20-year-old daughter, Shellie, is following a familiar blueprint. After leaving the University of Arizona to get married she went to work for a bank in California and is now teller at the First Interstate branch in Phoenix.

A NATIONAL COTTON COUNCIL SERVICE

Cotton Use Continues Slow
 Cotton consumption remained sluggish in March as domestic mill use inched upward to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 5 million 480-pound bale-equivalents, according to the National Cotton Council.

This was 2.2 percent above the 4.9-million-bale rate for February, but 10.5 percent below the year-earlier level.

Cotton's share of total fiber consumption was 23.7 percent, compared with 24.2 percent in February and 23.1 percent in March, 1981. Total fiber use by U.S. mills in March rose to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 21.1 million bale-equivalents, 4.5 percent higher than the previous month, but 12.8 percent lower than March, 1981.

Export Commitment Hits 6.5 Million
 Net new cotton export sales for the 1981-82 marketing year totaled 61,700 running bales for the week ended April 22, bringing the season's total commitments to 6,566,800 bales, the National Cotton Council said. The major buyers were Japan, with 33,400;

South Korea, 10,600; and Hong Kong, 7,800. The week's shipments of 126,700 bales brought the accumulated total to 4,725,900. Meanwhile, new sales for the 1982-83 marketing year were reported at 49,900. Japan was again the main buyer, taking 29,100 bales.

Assembly Lines

Assembly of God Church

The Kids for Christ group of the First Assembly of God went to the Museum at Texas Tech on Saturday April 24.

Kids for Christ director Billy Warren, and Ricky Farris, Bucky Phelps, and David Brown, co-workers took 28 kids through the museum and the adjoining Ranching Heritage Exhibit.

Also on the field trip were Mrs. Mary Baldree, Mrs. Barbara Torres, Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Brown. A picnic followed the trip.

A Sunday School picnic was held in the Church Fellowship Hall Saturday, May 2, honoring all the children who attended 3 out of 4 services and knew their memory verses. Christine Woods and Shirley Foster were in charge of food, and Susan Phelps and Billy Warren were in charge of the recreation.

Shirley Foster's Beginners class won both attendance and offering banners for the month of April, 1982.

The Womens Ministries are visiting the hospital patients each Tuesday. The WM's also had their monthly drawing on April 27, with Mary Baldree taking home many nice gifts.

The annual business meeting was held Tuesday, April 27, at 7 p.m. by Rev. J. W. Farmer, the District Superintendent from Lubbock, and Rev. Lonnie Fortner, Presbyter, of Lamesa.

The Advisory Committee members elected were Ricky Farris, Billy Warren, and Mrs. Christine Woods, and church secretary, Mrs. Oleain Seals. The Sunday School officers elected were Sunday school superintendent, Billy Warren, and Sunday School secretary, Bucky Phelps.

We were blessed greatly by the ministry of the Gospelaires Sunday May 3, in the morning worship service. In the evening service we were challenged greatly by the film, "Beyond the Cross", about the underground Church in Russia. Church wide fellowship honoring all April Birthdays followed the film.

What's Happening in Home Economics

By MRS. CHERYL WALKER
County Extension Agent — Home Economics

This week is National Extension Homemakers Week. Throughout the nation, homemakers are being introduced to the local activities of Extension Homemakers Clubs. Let me take this opportunity to tell you about Garza County Extension Homemakers.

We have two clubs in the county: Close City E. H. and Graham E.H. clubs. Both clubs hold two meetings a month. Close City E. H. club meets on the first and third Tuesdays at 2 p.m. Sometimes they meet at the Senior Citizens Center while at other times they meet in member's homes.

Graham E. H. Club meets on the first and third Friday afternoon at 2 p.m. Their meetings are held in the Graham Community Center and in member's homes.

During the meetings, programs are presented on a variety of topics. On Friday, May 7, a special program on coordinating your wardrobe with skin coloring will be presented by a speaker from Lubbock. The clubs are holding this joint meeting at 2 p.m. in the Graham Community Center.

Also, in May, I will present programs on Natural and Organic Foods. These programs will be given on the third Tuesday and Friday meetings of the local E. H. Clubs.

Throughout the year, programs will be presented on a variety of topics. The following list are some of the programs for the rest of 1982: Special Diets, Women & Insurance, Indoor Landscaping, Wise Decisions about Refunds, and Coupons, and Bread Buffet and Household Gadgets.

You are welcome to attend any E. H. Club meeting at any time. Visit a club, meet the members and enjoy the programs. Membership is available without regard to sex, age, race, socio-economic level, religion or national origin.

Investing in small firms brings greater stock returns

COLLEGE STATION — Investing in small firms whose outstanding shares seldom change hands could bring greater stock market returns than investing in the so-called "blue chips," says a Texas A&M University finance professor.

"There's some evidence that this might be the case, although when you invest in the smaller firm you're usually taking more risk," said Dr. S. Kerry Cooper of Texas A&M's College of Business Administration.

Parrish, vice-president, Myrtle Peel; secretary-treasurer, Sue Maxey; council delegates, Mary Peel and Loucille Morris, and alternate council delegate, Nona Lusk.

New E. H. Clubs can be organized whenever a group is interested. If you know of a group of 10 to 15 persons who want to learn together, they can become an E.H. Club. Individual clubs set up their meeting times, places and programs. I will work with you to become an organized part of the local organization.

Remember, E.H. Clubs offer a variety of learning experiences as well as social activities. Visit a club during May and see what we have to offer.

LOAN — A loan value difference of from about $1 to $4.50 per bale on low micronaire cottons hinges on a decision to be made shortly by Secretary of Agriculture John Block, say officials of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

The difference, explains PGC Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, "is between the Secretary following or not following the recommendation of the Premium and Discount Study Committee when 1982 loan program discounts are set."

"Justice is still not being done for our cotton types and there will be other meetings of the committee in which the Southwest will continue the effort to correct existing inequities for 1983 and subsequent years."

Reports indicate that grade and staple discounts in the 1982 cotton loan schedule, as recommended by the committee, are almost certain to be based on an average of 1981 loan discounts and the average of quotations from all nine spot markets.

The 10-member committee mandated by the 1981 farm law, is made up of two producers from each of the four major cotton producing areas, one merchant and one textile manufacturer.

Its recommendations, made after meeting a total of four days on two occasions, call for 1982 micronaire discounts to be based on August through February spot market quotations from the four markets that quote short staple cotton, excluding market quotations from the other five markets. Only Dallas and Lubbock, Texas; Montgomery, Alabama and Memphis, Tennessee quote cotton stapling less than one inch.

Combining the average of spot quotations from these four markets with last year's loan discounts, PGC figures, would result in 1982 discount increases of from about 35 to 65 points. Should the Secretary decide to use spot market discounts quoted in all nine markets, the increases would be from 55 to 155 points.

The recommendation was coaxed out of the study committee by Southwest area producer representatives Lloyd Cline of Lamesa and L. C. Unfred of Tahoka after the committee had decisively rejected earlier proposals. Cline and Unfred maintained in the first two-day meeting that (1) only quotations from the Lubbock and Dallas markets should be used to fix loan program micronaire discounts, or (2) market quotations should be weighted to reflect production volume by areas.

In view of the strong feeling against the Southwest's positions in the committee's first meeting, says Johnson, "Cline and Unfred are to be congratulated for having salvaged at least a partial victory for the producers of shorter staple, sometimes low micronaire cottons."

It is also important to keep in mind, Johnson notes, that the recommendation is only for the setting of 1982 program discounts.

ANOTHER WAY TO ENJOY APPLES

Chicken in apple juice . . . a tangy difference.

Apples taste good. They are good for us. Even better, they're probably one of the most versatile fruits around. Apple juice adds a tangy difference to this chicken dish. It's a recipe from the International Apple Institute, that's ideal for warm weather, since preparation is minimal and results are dee-licious!

CHICKEN WITH APPLE JUICE
2 whole chicken breasts, boned, skinned, split and pounded thin
4 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons oil
2 tablespoons butter
1 1/2 cups apple juice
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1/2 teaspoon crushed marjoram

Dredge chicken breasts in flour, shaking off excess. Heat oil and butter in skillet. Add chicken breasts and brown on both sides. Add apple juice, parsley and marjoram. Simmer over medium heat for 10 to 12 minutes, or until chicken is tender when pierced with a fork. Remove chicken and keep warm. Increase heat and boil sauce until slightly thickened (about three minutes). Serve sauce over chicken. Two servings.

Farm leaders on mission in Japan

WACO — In a telephone report from Tokyo, the president of the Texas Farm Bureau said Wednesday there is great concern in Japan about Congress limiting imports of Japanese products into the United States.

Carrol Chaloupka of Dalhart is one of the farm leaders from 24 states on a trade mission to Japan. The group of state Farm Bureau presidents told Japanese industrialists and agricultural representatives in Tokyo that $15 steaks and $20 cantaloupes in Japanese markets ought to make them reconsider trade barriers in agriculture that are "unwise and self-defeating."

Chaloupka told the TFB headquarters recently that rural areas control a majority of the members of the Japanese Diet, and that they have been largely successful thus far in restricting competing imports into Japan.

The U.S. delegation, led by American Farm Bureau Federation President Robert Delano, arrived in Tokyo Sunday for a six-day mission to try to influence a relaxation of Japanese trade barriers against agricultural imports.

Texas is one of the leading states in farm exports, but depressed prices have created a severe crisis on the farm.

Half of all cotton is exported. Cotton prices are down 39 percent from a year ago. Two-thirds of the rice crop is sold abroad, and the price is 34 percent below last year. Feed grains are also big export crops, and their price is down substantially.

Chaloupka said his group met with a group of food purveyors recently and were warmly received.

"They're on our side," Chaloupka said. "They know of the high quality and reasonable price on our products — including beef." Chaloupka said the visit by the American farmers had attracted national media attention in Japan.

"We had one of the largest news conferences I've ever seen, and our story is getting out across the country here," he said. The Dalhart beef and grain producer said in an interview for Japanese television that Japanese beef producers would benefit from competition — that the market could be expanded to take American beef.

"We're going to have to keep pressure on the Japanese government," Chaloupka said. "They've got to know we have no alternative but to go to Congress to get restrictions on Japanese imports unless we are treated fairly in their markets. They've got to let us compete over here. They've got to make some concessions."

The US farm leaders found wide agreement with proposals to reduce protectionism against U.S. farm products from representatives of Japan's auto and electronic industries, but have met with opposition from agricultural interests.

The Japanese agriculturalists argue that current import restrictions are necessary to help Japan build its own agricultural sufficiency and to reduce a current over-production in rice supplies.

AFBF President Delano, a diversified farmer from Virginia, argued that reduces trade barriers would be as beneficial to Japan's economy as to our own. He noted quota and tariff restrictions that have driven prices of beef steaks to $15 and more in Japan that consumers in Hong Kong can buy for $4.50.

He told his Japanese conferees that full access to U.S. farm markets would meet substantial consumer demands in Japan now unfulfilled because of high prices and lack of product availability. And he warned that continued protectionism in Japan would lead to counter-productive pressures on Japanese exports in the U.S.

Delano called for a balanced long-range trade policy in the interests of both trading partners.

"There is a relationship between the export of Japanese cars and television sets," he said, "and the import of American beef and fruit. Japanese cars are quality products, competitively priced. We say the same about our farm products."

The group will return to the United States April 24, following meetings with various Japanese groups, including members of the Japanese Diet, consumers, exporters of automobiles and electronics, importers, farmers and Japanese government officials.

Another group of Farm Bureau state leaders will embark May 22 on a trip to Brussels and Geneva. The week-long visit will include meetings with European Community officials concerning trade barriers against U.S. farm products.

Expansion of export markets are part of Farm Bureau's campaign to improve the farm income picture. Other points in the plan include supporting completion of the economic recovery program to halt inflation and bring down interest rates, and avoidance of government programs which result in dumping surplus farm products on the market.

A prototype television was invented in the 1890s by an Austrian named Szczepanik.

1981 farm act provisions to aid cotton producers

NASHVILLE — Several 1981 farm act provisions written by Congress at the recommendation of the cotton industry are now being used to help ease producers through their current difficulties, the chairman of the National Cotton Council's board of directors said today.

Frank M. Mitchener, Jr., a Sumner, Miss., producer, pointed this out in an address here to Cotton Warehouse Association members at their annual meeting.

For example, he noted: (1) producers have entered almost 6 million bales of this season's crop into the loan program to help hold back some of the excess supply until market demand picks up again; (2) additional supply adjustment is promised as a result of the voluntary 15 percent acreage reduction program announced by Agriculture Secretary John Block; (3) some half a billion dollars in target price deficiency payments have now moved into farmers' hands and should help many obtain enough credit to finance the coming season's production; and (4) every reasonable alternative is being explored to obtain adequate farm credit.

In addition, Mitchener said an aggressive selling program is being launched for cotton. He noted that Cotton Incorporated is now conducting a hard-selling advertising and product development program in the domestic market, while Cotton Council International is making a special effort overseas to increase the impact of its $3.7 million program in the 11 target countries that buy 85 percent of the industry's raw cotton exports. Efforts also are being made to increase export credit for cotton's overseas customers, including appropriations to start up the export credit revolving fund authorized by the 1981 farm act.

Mitchener said adoption by 1983 of the Industrywide Bale Packaging Committee's recommendation for materials and methods that fully cover the bale could be important to cotton sales efforts and is already drawing an enthusiastic response from mill customers. He told warehousemen a completely covered bale would make it easier for them to provide a cleaner, better package to cotton's textile mill customers. In turn, it would facilitate mills' compliance with the current cotton dust standard which requires them to eliminate manual handling and cleaning of cotton where possible.

Any increased cost involved in complete bale coverage Mitchener added, would be more than offset by reductions in cleaning time, in fiber damaged or lost, and in contamination of yarns and fabrics.

"These are the kinds of reductions it's going to take to enhance our competitive position in bidding for staple fiber markets at home and abroad."

Where need for a standard has been established, the Council maintains workers can be protected through a more reasonable dust exposure level, medical surveillance, and other measures at a fraction of the present standard's cost.

Nursing Home Week proclamation signed

A proclamation signed by Mayor G.C. McCrary of Post, designated the week beginning May 9, 1981, as Texas Nursing Home - Life Festival week.

The proclamation reads as follows:

Whereas many of our pioneer citizens reside in licensed nursing homes in order to receive the round-the-clock care and special therapies they may need, and

Whereas these residents engage themselves in a wide range of worthwhile activities which help enrich their own lives and which contribute substantially to community and public needs, and

Whereas the week beginning Mother's Day May 9, 1982, has been designated as Texas Nursing Home Week featuring the Second Annual Life Festival saluting research and medical science, and a celebration in which the general public is invited to participate, and

Whereas all proceeds of life festivals staged at nursing homes will be donated to the Leukemia Society of America in support of its research and patient aid programs, and

Whereas Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers, in their roles as Celebrity Hosts for Nursing Home Week and the Second Annual Life Festival, have urged people everywhere to "Share Your Love — Visit a Nursing Home."

Therefore I, as Mayor of Post designate the week beginning May 9, 1981, Texas Nursing Home - Life Festival Week in this community and urge all of our citizens who can do so to visit a nursing home and participate in the festivities and observance of this worthy occasion. In recognition whereof I affix my signature this 4th day of May, 1982. Signed G. C. McCrary, Mayor of Post, Texas.

Are you into solar energy? Well then, why not use sun-power to brew your iced tea this summer?

It's called "sun tea," and it originated in the southwest desert country where iced tea is served year-round.

To make this failproof thirst-quencher, just suspend 4 tea bags in a quart jar of water, add a lid and set it in the sun for 4 to 6 hours. "Old Sol" does the work, extracting tea flavor and creating a sparkling clear golden beverage, ready for ice cubes and sugar to taste.

For an especially nice iced tea, use Constant Comment, the very first orange-and-spice tea. It was created nearly 40 years ago and is an original recipe of the Bigelow family.

MANY THANKS

I would like to take this time to thank all the voters and tax payers of Precinct 4, and all the others that helped me in any way in my re-election.

I tried to see all voters in my precinct, and if I missed anyone, it wasn't intended.

Let's continue to work together in the best interest for the people of Garza County.

PORTABLE BUG KILLER
The Burgess Propane Insect Fogger is completely portable. It is an economical and extremely effective way to control annoying insects: works on flies, gnats, mosquitoes and other flying pests. Ideal for around the patio or yard. Great for camping, boating, fishing, at the beach or on picnics.

THE BURGESS PROPANE FOGGER IS EASY TO USE
Once the fogger is lit, the consumer simply allows it to warm up for two or three minutes. He is then ready to spray. By pumping the trigger, liquid insecticide is sprayed through the heating element, where it is vaporized into a dense, insect-killing fog. One ounce of liquid insecticide is converted into 2,000 cu. ft. of fog, making the Burgess fogger very economical.

USES STANDARD PROPANE CYLINDER
Propane cylinders are readily available at most hardware, discount, sporting goods or lawn and garden stores. Each cylinder provides 2 1/2 hours of continuous fogging.

UIL qualities are presented

Miss Candace McConnell, drama teacher in the Post High School, presented the program for the Post Rotary Club, Tuesday, April 27, and spoke on the UIL events in the education process, and not the financial status of the Post Schools as was reported to the last edition of The Dispatch.

Parts of her speech, which was very well received by the Rotarians, is given below

"Win, lose or draw, there are great values in educational competition. The pitting of one's skills, knowledge and talent against friendly opponents is a means of learning one's own strengths and weaknesses." Good contest, properly supervised, give youthful competitors the opportunity to gain self-confidence, improve skills, and learn to win with humility and lose with grace.

The self discipline and sacrifice involved in competition are keys to those same values that will be of great importance to everyone in life. In the best of competition there are no losers. It matters not if you win or lose, but how you play the game! How often during our school years did we hear that phrase. It is good advice, but the bottom line is...everyone likes to win and none of us wants to lose!

Competition among high school students constitutes one of their greatest learning experiences. Learning to lose is important whether it be a sport, scholastic or a speech event. But of even greater importance, is learning how to win. Most youths learn how to cope with losing, early in life. However, learning to be a gracious winner can often be very difficult.

The values of UIL competition are priceless. It is the structure from the state in order to organize the programs for the "Gifted and Talented" student. It happens to be the only one like it in the State. There is nothing to compare with peer rivalry, especially during the teen years. These are vital training years, where adult personalities begin to emerge. Good hard friendly competition is one of the most important factors in developing that personality. The friendships, close ties and high values which are obtained during UIL competition, are of incomparable value.

The reason being no other system allows, spellers, writers, typists, speakers, actors, mathematicians and scientists to get an early start on their life ambitions. The given talent and skill that is developed over a period of years has the opportunity to grow and mature. When a young speaker walks out of a winning round of debate he feels as if he has just won a major case in court. He, himself, feels like the attorney, or when a young journalist writes a feature story he or she can imagine themselves writing for the Washington Post or New York Times.

One cannot imagine the intense pressure and the amount of pressure and the amount of tension within one of these contests. No matter what event, every-one demands various levels of skill, timing, logic, reasoning memory and intelligence and our young people of Post have acquired all of these elements.

So what do we look for in our prospective UIL contenders? A dedicated student who displays a good attitude and a willingness to work hard and become stronger. We look for someone that has the spirit to win, and the dedication to get there.

Many times we find multi-talented students who can easily spell, do number sense and write like a dream. Then as coaches we have a difficult task, we need to specialize the area without breaking the spirit. We usually allow the student to try each event at practice contests, and then they can find the event they prefer. Then as coaches we counsel the students and try to direct their ideas towards that preference. Our philosophy is that in order to get students to the highest level, the State meet, we must specialize their talent.

The UIL schedule is very hectic. We travel to UIL speech tournaments nine or ten weekends out of the school year. Here at Post, we attend three or four All Events UIL meets, and then we have the various weekends of one-act play. Seven or eight times throughout the year we host UIL practice meets for visiting schools. So as you can see we are indeed busy! Quite often I marvel at my wonderful staff of coaches and realize that they are responsible for our outstanding UIL record. With wonderful people like Suzanne Hudman in spelling, Sandra Alexander in Ready Writing, Amy Cowdrey in the journalism and Carolyn Black handling the typing and shorthand, I realize how fortunate we really are. And then with George Pierce coaching science and Juanita Thompson with number sense and calculator, all of us work together for our young people and their success.

It all adds up to one thing: Extracurricular activities are one of the few remaining educational bargains. Texans can be proud of the University Interscholastic League, unsurpassed in its effort to prepare its young people for a meaningful role in our Democracy.

As the accelerated programs for high achievers, different levels now exist in elementary and junior high contests, this is the process of building our feeder schools. The special blend of talent and artistry merge together to build the fine characters within our young people. Remember the old cliché, "It matters not if you win or lose, but how you play the game," well I have my own philosophy in this area, I always tell my students "Winning isn't everything, but trying to win is!"
