Salvation Army Welfare Unit Is Organized Here

A Salvation Army Welfare Unit, consisting of Clint Herring, treasurer, and Mrs. Marvin Hudman and George Barker, was formed here yesterday by Capt. W. T. Gregory, commanding officer, and Bill Robertson, case worker for the Lubbock Area Headquarters.

The purpose of the organization is to assist local families or transients in any problems or situations which are not handled here by other existing organizations.

All money collected in Post will be deposited in the First National Bank for use here. Donations may be given to the Salvation Army workers who come here from Lubbock each week or given directly to Herring, Captain Gregory, said. Persons desiring to give clothing or other useful contributions to the Salvation Army are invited to contact any member of the unit.

The Salvation Army has assisted several families here during 1949 and, in the case of two families, has spent quite a bit of money here. The work has not been as inclusive as desired by the Salvation Army because no local workers were organized here.

Anyone knowing of families or individuals in need and requiring assistance are asked to contact a member of the local unit, and services will be rendered to whatever extent the local funds will permit.

County Judge J. Lee Bowen assisted with the organization of the local unit, which is the third such committee organized by the Lubbock Headquarters. Similar committees will be organized soon in each of nine counties under Captain Gregory's command.

Truman Experiment Must Ultimately Result In Higher Taxes

Washington D. C.—The following is an impartial report as to what the Truman administration is attempting to do to prevent further unemployment.

The plan is not as radical as Mr. Roosevelt's experiments, most of which failed. It, however, seems to most Republicans like trying to "sweep back the ocean from a sandy beach with a broom." Conservatives believe in letting the tides come in and go out as nature intended.

Fire Department Theory

The President's friends would use a city fire department as an illustration of what they are trying to do to stop a business conflagration. A fire department does not prevent fires from starting, but only from spreading. The fire chief waits until a fire starts and then rushes to it and puts it out.

If you divide the annual cost of any fire department by the number of fires—at first thought the department seems inefficient. Every city spends $1,000 to put out a $500 fire. Yet, without the fire department, that little fire would grow and perhaps burn up the entire city. Hence, I believe that the fire chief is the most useful and important citizen of every city. They all should be paid more money.

Compared To Fires

The Truman program is based upon a similar theory. If unemployment starts in a certain state—as it now has in Massachusetts and Rhode Island—the President wants to rush aid to stop the spread of that unemployment to other sections. To a certain extent the President is right in theory.

When the textile and shoe workers of New England are idle, their purchasing power is cut down. This causes other plants elsewhere to lay off employees. Then unemployment increases all over the country like an epidemic of flu. On the other hand, if enough government orders and aid are rushed to these sick places, the unemployed would go back to work and would again buy goods. This helps every other part of the country. At least this is the Truman theory. Whether or not it will work no one knows; but it seems worthy of trial.

Fires Run In Cycles

There is one feature about the fire illustration concerning which my Truman friends don't like to talk. This is the fact that with all the wonderful and efficient fire departments of our country, the total fire losses—over a long period—go up and down according to Newton's law of action and reaction. The best fire chiefs in the world can't control the human element involved in connection with fires.

During certain years people are careless and then there are an extra large number of fires. These so increase that the insurance companies—through the National Board of Fire Underwriters and its efficient leader W. E. Mallalieu—get busy and start a campaign to educate people to be careful. This, combined with other factors, bears fruit and fires decrease for a series of years. But people get careless again and fires again increase. Statistics show that fires have their cycle the same as employment, commodity prices and general business.

What About Stocks?

But granted that this Truman experiment will work, and I surely hope it will, fire departments do not build new houses nor start new businesses. Likewise, this experiment of extinguishing "with a bucket of water", will not change human nature and prevent a readjustment sometime. Certainly, the Truman experiment will fail unless labor leaders have a change of attitude. They can set fires faster than any fire department can extinguish them.

All the above means that there is no hurry to buy stock or bonds. The Truman experiment must ultimately result in higher taxes. This leaves less money for people to invest. The real difficulty with the stock market today is not because of the dividends nor the security, but because investors have no money left to invest after paying living expenses and taxes. President Truman's experiment may help to steady the stock market; but I don't see how it could cause a bull market in stocks, commodities, real estate or anything else.

When baskets or other objects have handles, carry them with the weight resting against the hip and bend in the opposite direction to balance. The weight is then transferred to the large bones and muscles of the legs, instead of the back.

Orchard keeping is a lot like housekeeping. Both require work but a clean orderly house or orchard is a source of pride to the family.

East Texas produces thirds of all outdoor stockings in the United States. 20 million rose bushes a year shipped out.

Shaddock is another grapefruit.

Garza and the World

By EVELYN BOYD

Haven't decided, at this writing, whether all the publicity given to Cousin Alben's romance with the Widow Hadley is political propaganda dreamed up to divert the steam from Truman's collar or whether the Veep is merely taking an advantage of a coincidence to bolster his chances for the Presidential election in 1952.

"All the world loves a lover," you know, and the Vice-President's willing submission to the public's desire to make an open book of his private life could be just an indication of his alertness to the political impact of the situation.

Almost any day now, you can pick up a newspaper or magazine and read something about Vice-President Barkley, "the nation's most lovable politician." Had I saved the newspapers and magazines of a year ago, I could now quote from some of these same newspapers and magazines a bunch of propaganda about Barkley being a drunkard, washed up in politics, a befuddled "has-been," etc. That was when he was running for office.

Love is a funny thing. If Barkley doesn't make the mistake of marrying Mrs. Hadley before the 1952 election, he will get elected to anything he desires... that is, if he will keep this "sweet romance" before the public.

Personally, I'm in favor of Barkley and his romance. Furthermore, I think he is a Kentucky gentleman of the old school—of the type who ordinarily would prefer that his private life be kept apart from his public life. If he wants to court a Missouri widow, that's his business. What amazes me, however, is that he is so willing to make it a public affair. Politics is the only answer that I can come up with.

Mr. Barkley is as smooth a politician as this generation has ever seen. Very few men, in fact, could function smoothly under similar circumstances. You see, Barkley was the Democratic leader of the Senate when Harry S. Truman was a junior member there. In this sense, the present Truman-Barkley relationship is rather that of an erstwhile foreman who suddenly became general manager of the plant over the head of the old production manager.

The Vice-President, however, is careful to defer—with every sign that he means it—to the President, whom he calls "Mister Truman" in conversation with others.

Few Vice-Presidents, if any, in the nation's history have been so gracious as Barkley in fulfilling all of the appointments which the President is unable—or reluctant—to fill.

The Veep, in this capacity, has become the foremost traveling emissary for the Truman "Fair Deal." His success in this work very likely can result in his being elected President in 1952. He has all of President Truman's common touch and something besides—a much better speaking manner and a much longer acquaintance with the professional skills required of a public man. An example is quoted in a New York Times Magazine Section:

"Nine days before his inauguration on Jan. 20 as Vice-President, Mr. Barkley hustled off to Bloomington, Ill., to deliver a little speech at a banquet of the Bloomington Chamber of Commerce.

"There was a perfectly sound reason for this, as in every one of his trips, for Illinois had delivered to the gratefully dazed Democrats in November a bonanza of a majority, where they had expected, at the very best, a fairly hearty beating over the head.

"Alben Barkley, an old 'pro' among the politicians, was out there seizing the opportunity to turn these recent Midwestern converts into real, convinced Democrats.

The mission to Bloomington has been followed by Barkley missions all over the United States. He has a way of anticipating the attitude of the crowd which he is to address and telling them what they want to hear, along with a lot of good fellowship and excellent jokes.

Although he is a faithful Old Line Democrat and a staunch Fair Dealer, he gets along beautifully with the rebellious Southern Democrats. He likes them, apparently, and they like him, although each is puzzled at the political philosophy of the other. He has a way of conciliating them without really doing so, and they have a way of seeming to follow him, without really doing so.

Another thing which will help him get elected to the Presidency in 1952 is his great fondness for "flashy folks." He likes to be around successful stage and motion picture actors and actresses. He is heavily galled, his mere nod suggesting the dof-fing of a cape," the New York Times Magazine says.

He seems to enjoy the current speculations about marriage for him. In a traditional Kentucky gentleman style, he grumps and harrumps

Minute Editorial

Last week's rain temporarily "saved the situation" for about half the farmers and all of the ranchers of the county. Before the drouth was broken, everybody had something to complain about. Now the only complaints heard are from the farmers who have had too much rain, those whose cotton is infested with bollworms and those whose cotton is at a stage where dusting might damage it. Last week when a drouth was with us, no two farmers had the same problem and no two could agree on an estimate as to the 1949 yield in the county. Only one thing seemed certain: A bumper cotton crop for Garza County. Despite drouth, bollworms, too much rain, spring hailstorms and other miseries, the average forecast was at least 20,000 bales, which is high for this county. Fears and complaints this year, in the face of a bumper crop, have seemed as loud as those of former years when a 5,000 to 10,000-bale crop was the maximum prediction. The editors of the Post Dispatch cannot recall a season when farmers and merchants had cheerful faces at this time of year, except on rainy days.

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

SYMPATHY—AN ART—What I'd like to know is how Doctors look so worried and distressed when one relates all of the details of the pains and aches that shoot here and there inside you. After thumping one like as if trying to find out whether you a great deal when the photographers come around while his lady friend is present, but he doesn't turn the other way. He seems to take this kind of publicity as a vast joke and it doesn't seem to really annoy him.

Mr. Barkley does all of his speaking in public without notes and apparently "off the cuff." Reporters like him because they don't have the feeling that his every word has been "cleared" by the President and his advisers.

I don't know what kind of a President a 74-year-old man (he'll be that old in 1952) would make, but it would be at least interesting to see a man in the office whose personality, attitude and general conduct was pleasant to the general public.

Cousin Alben may be the man.

were ripe enough to cut he starts telling about the prospects of the football team, writes some Chinese on a piece of paper, tells you to quit eating everything except milk toast and carrots, then he says have the Chinese prescriptions filled and take one pill after each meal, a dose of the green medicine twice each day and to come by his office three times each week for a shot in the arm, to rest seven hours each day and stay out of the sun, then he says that there is nothing really wrong with you except that you need to slow down, lose a little weight and to stop worrying.

What I mean is why he looks so worried each time and I do not see how he can keep his supply of sympathy so sincere. It must be an art.—The Slaton Slatonite.

BE A GOOD SPORT—Football is a good sport, for both players and fans. The boosters play an important part and they have a very important obligation to the team. Boosters, fans, supporters and all must be good sports regardless of whether their team wins or loses. All of us will be hosts to lots of visiting fans and will be guests of others during the season; so let us resolve right now at the beginning of the season to be an extra good host or visitor. Let's act in such a manner to be a credit to Levelland and our football team.—The Hockley County Herald.

A GRUESOME THOUGHT—We note that a survey has been made by an independent agency—not newspaper men—on the pulling power of newspaper advertisements. It is revealed by this agency that there is no preference to position or page in the appeal of advertising. The advertisement which has a message is read on any page of a good newspaper. We are glad to see this survey, and only wish that all advertisers would take heed. Requesting positions of ads is the headache of all makeup men. We cannot place all ads in the same position and on the same page. And what a drab newspaper it would be with the same kind of makeup week after week.—The Canyon News.

Membership Drive By Farm Bureau Is Opened Again

The annual drive for Texas Farm Bureau members has begun, and the Garza County secretary of the Bureau, Mrs. W. C. W. Morris, has listed a number of good reasons for joining.

Working together, she said, American Farm Bureau members have:

1. Represented every unselfish American Farm Bureau member in Washington at 53 major Congressional hearings and filed briefs in the 80th Congress on 117 other occasions.
2. Texas Farm Bureau actively supported a program to maintain 90 per cent of parity support prices on basic commodities. The success of this program will save farmers millions of dollars.
3. The Texas Farm Bureau led the movement to obtain the three point grain storage program, and saved Texas grain producers more than $45,000,000.
4. Supported and helped secure passage of legislation for Rural Housing giving farmers similar loan privileges as city people.
5. Prevented a move to classify peanuts as a non-basic crop in 1948, thereby saving producers a minimum of $72 per ton.
6. Supported 90 per cent of parity loans for grain sorghums in 1949.
7. Supported enlarged REA and Rural Electric Telephone program.
8. Fought for the enactment of Texas Farm Bureau Rural Road Program to get farmers out of the mud. A larger membership is needed to secure passage.

To prospective members, Mrs. Morris points out that:
"Working alone you cannot—
"1. Be in Austin and Washington each day the State and National legislatures are in session.
"2. Maintain a National Farm Program (including parity prices, research and marketing, soil conservation, farm credit, rural electrification, etc.)
"3. Secure an adequate rural road program that will get the farmers of Texas out of the mud.
"4. Attend freight and legislative hearings in which agriculture has a stake.
"5. Meet in conference with leaders of labor, industry and government.
"6. Uphold your interests as an individual farmer alone against the organized interests of other groups.
"You can't—but the Farm Bureau can and it will cost you only 1.4 cents a day."
Further information can be had from Mrs. Morris, whose address is Route 2 Tahoka.

Millers Defeat Sundown and Denver City Wins From Seagraves In Playoff Opener

The Post Millers, fourth-place team during the Oil Belt League's regular season, upset the first place Sundown baseball nine, 7-6, in the first game of the two teams' two-of-three playoff set.

A five-run outburst in the fourth, on two hits, two walks, a hit batsman and a Sundown error, gave Post the victory before a crowd of 300 fans in the Level-land baseball park.

The Millers will play Sundown again Sunday afternoon in the Postex Park, beginning promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Should the Millers win, they will go into the final bracket. If Sundown wins, a second game between the two teams will be played Sunday afternoon to determine which team continues in the playoff.

The Miller victory was sparked by flashy Jim Boyd, shortstop who is flying back and fourth from TCU for the playoff games. Up five times Sunday, he got three walks, including one when the bases were loaded, and started the five-tally rally.

Typical of the color which Boyd has added to the Miller games was an instance Sunday when Jim was on first and the catcher yelled to him: "You ain't goin' nowhere." After the next pitched ball, Boyd stole second.

Wendle Greer, who came in to relieve Bill Jones with Post trailing by 4-0 in the third inning, was the winning pitcher.

Robert Medford, Sundown's starter, was the loser. Buck Huckabee, who relieved Medford in the fifth inning, whiffed 10 men during his five innings on the mound.

Leftfielder Doug Simpson led the Millers at bat with three singles.

For Sundown, Manager Baldy Joiner had a double and a single and second baseman John Ehrig had two singles.

The line score:

Post	000	500	200	-7	6	4
Sundown	211	000	200	-6	8	2

Jones, Greer (3) and W. B. Holland; Medford, Huckabee (5) and Wright.

At Denver City Sunday—in a game that was bitterly contested all the way and interrupted repeatedly by heated arguments—the Denver City Gassers eked a 6-5 triumph in 10 innings over the Seagraves Oilers.

At least six disputes, which consumed a total time of more than 30 minutes, halted play before Gasser Pitcher Marshall (Hook) Epperson finally won his own ball game in the 10th frame by driving in Cyclone Jones with the winning run.

The second and, if necessary, third game between these two teams will be played Sunday at Seagraves.

Antelopes Hold Ralls Jackrabbits 13-13 In First Game Of 1949 Football Season

The Post Antelopes opened the 1949 football season by holding the Ralls Jackrabbits to a 13-13 tie in a non-conference tilt before a crowd of 1,500 fans, here Friday night.

The visiting District 3-A eleven, which had a heavier line, scored first and held a lead until the third quarter when Post gained the tie.

The Jackrabbits took the opening kickoff and staged a sustained drive down the field that was climaxed with Ken Wofford's 11-yard dash over center for the initial touchdown. Wofford ran around right end for the extra point.

In the second quarter, Antelope Quarterback Jack Kirkpatrick broke through a hole over center and sprinted 60 yards for a touchdown which made the score 7-6. Kirkpatrick went straight down the field behind fine blocking, but missed the extra point.

For Short Lead

In the next quarter, Kirkpatrick threw an 11-yard pass to Rex King, who made Post's second touchdown, then Kirkpatrick kicked the second point to put the Antelopes into a short-lived 13-7 lead.

Ralls came back in the same quarter when Bobby Gustin swept right end for 15 yards and a score. His plunge for the extra point that would have won the game failed.

Although Post lead on penetrations Ralls had the edge on first downs, piling up 16 to the Antelope's 11. The Jackrabbits also held an edge on total yardage, gaining 274 yards from rushing and passing to 220 yards for Post.

Maurice Steizer, Post tackle, turned in the outstanding line game of the night, while backfield honors were shared for Post by Roland Joe Babb, left halfback, on defense, and Norman Cash, right halfback, on offense. Both did some fine running, using speed and finesse in the open.

The Antelopes blocked four punts against Ralls and recovered the ball each time. Two punts were blocked by Calvin Storie, one by Jack Schmidt and one by Jerry Odom.

Post Antelopes Are In Good Shape For Friday Night's Game With Floydada

"Stop Findley," will be the ambition of all Post Antelopes Friday night when they meet Floydada's large, well-trained football team on the Floydada High School gridiron.

Findley, according to Antelope Coach V. F. Bingham, is a six-foot-two, 190 lb. left half who does a major part of Floydada's running, passing and punting. In Floydada's 8-0 victory over Slaton last week, he demonstrated that he is excellent at passing and is also a good kicker.

The weather this week has not helped the Antelopes get ready for the Floydada game, but Bingham says most of the boys are in good shape. Jerry Odom has been suffering with a charleyhorse since last week's opener with Ralls, but he probably will be able to play against Floydada.

Bingham said he was well pleased with the showing that the Antelopes made against Ralls last week. He was especially pleased with the hustle and discrimination which they showed when the score was 7-0 in favor of Ralls. Their offense, the coach believes, was better than their defense. Five of the boys were playing football for the first time. "They got a lot of good experience," the coach said, "we'll find out just how good it was tomorrow night."

The coach especially complimented Maurice Steizer on down field blocks, and Roy Wade on running. "Wade has finally found himself," Bingham said. "He has learned that football is a rough game and is now able to cope with it in a like manner."

The coach also complimented Calvin Storie for his good work as guard, and Billy Ross Sullivan and Donald Jones, "guards who did all right in their first game." He said he was well pleased with all the backs, as they had "lots of sprint and fire."

Clark Bartons Are Injured In Crash With Butane Truck

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Barton and their 18-year-old daughter, Helen, of Route 1 were injured when their automobile was demolished in a collision with a butane tank truck near Southland about 4:15 p. m. Monday.

The family was taken to the Lubbock Memorial Hospital by a passing motorist and all were treated for serious injuries. According to Mrs. Mattie Dunlap, mother of Mrs. Barton, Mr. Barton received a broken foot bone and bad bruises but was expected to be up in several days; Mrs. Barton received a broken knee bone, a broken foot bone, a deep gash on her leg which prevents her wearing a cast for the fractures, two bad gashes above and below the right eye and bruises all over her body, and Helen received an injured vertebra for which she will receive a cast in about 10 days to be worn five or six months.

William Franklin Tipton of near Lubbock, driver of the tanker, was not injured. The truck was owned by a Lubbock butane company.

Highway patrolmen said the Barton car was traveling southeast on Highway 84 about three miles south of Southland when the truck, which was going north west, swerved to avoid another vehicle parked beside the highway. Barton swerved his car in an effort to avoid the collision and the two vehicles collided about four feet off the pavement on the southwest side of the road.

Tuesday's Lubbock Avalanche reported that the damage to the car was estimated at $1,250. The left side of the truck was smashed for the entire length of the cab and trailer. The truck did not burn.

Nearly 4 1/2 Inches Of Rain Measured Here In September

A total of 4.42 inches of rain which was measured here by the Double U. Co.'s official rain gauge this month, brought the total precipitation for the year so far to 24.16 inches.

One inch fell Wednesday night of last week; 1.42 inches fell Friday, and 2 inches fell Tuesday and early Wednesday morning.

Indications are that the rains have been general over the county and much heavier in some areas than here.

The cold weather, which accompanied Tuesday's moisture, will help check the worms that otherwise might flourish after the recent rains, according to County Agent Lewis Herron. The agent also believes that the rains will help most of the cotton over the county and he is sure that it will help the pasturelands.

Although the cotton harvest has been delayed, it is not believed that the cotton is damaged by the rains.

Being Honest With Yourself

In the year that King Uziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphim; each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory. And the posts of the door moved at the voice of Him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar; and he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged. Also I heard the voices of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. ISAIAH 6: 1-8.

Dear Editor:

We just wanted to let you know that we saw the Universal News Reel of the Junior Rodeo at Post. We saw it at the Valley Drive-In Theatre located in the orange groves near Pomona, the largest and finest theatre of its kind in the state.

Of course, it was a thrill to us, as we knew several of the people in the scenes. There must have been lots of former Texans there, as the horn blowing from the cars were terrific.

Boost the rodeo and the 4-H activities. You are doing a good thing for the county and its people.

Sincerely Yours,

Producer Loans On Farm-Stored Peanuts Planned

Producer loans on farm-stored peanuts will be one of the methods of supporting the price of the 1949 peanut crop, Will Wright, chairman of the Garza County Agricultural Conservation Committee, has announced. This is the first time that such loans have been used to support peanut prices.

Other methods to be used, according to Wright, will be purchases of farmer stock peanuts, loans to shellers, and agreements with shellers to pay producers not less than support prices for eligible peanuts.

The base grade support prices per ton of peanuts containing less than 2 per cent damage and less than 4 per cent foreign material are: $209 for Spanish and Valencia east of the Mississippi River, $204 for Spanish and Valencia west of the Mississippi River, $199 for Virginia, and $187 for Runners. Supports for the 1948 crop, at the same per cent of parity, were $215, $210, $207 and $195.

Wright pointed out that, to be eligible for price support at 90 per cent of parity, a producer must not pick or thresh peanuts in excess of the allotment established for his farm under the peanut marketing quota program. A producer who picks or threshes in excess of his allotment will be able to obtain price support, at 54 per cent of parity, only on the production harvested from the excess acreage. Any marketing of such excess peanuts will be subject to a marketing quota penalty of 45 per cent of parity.

Farmers also were urged by Wright to give immediate consideration to their storage needs for peanuts. As for some other important crops, government loans amounting to 85 per cent of the construction or acquisition costs of farm storage are

Please Send News Not Later Than Monday to HENRIETTA NICHOLS Verbena Correspondent

Mrs. Dew Davis, Mrs. McGunn, Mrs. S. F. Everett, Mrs. Floyd Davis, Mrs. Walters and Henrietta Nichols attended a shower last Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Welch in the Cross Roads community honoring a bride, Mrs. Carol Davis, the former Miss Molly Walters of Verbena.

People of this community are appreciative of the work that has been done on the road between the Verbena church and the east side of the community. It's value was being realized last week when two and three inches of rain were received over the community.

Residents of this community were saddened to learn of the death of Felix Ramirez of Post, a former Verbena resident who was an outstanding citizen.

Many Verbena folks attended and enjoyed the county fair in Post Saturday and the roping that night.

The Rev. J. E. Stephens of Post preached here Sunday and he and his wife were dinner guests in the Al Bird home.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Bird and Mr. Bird's grandmother, Mrs. Kate Buchannon of Spur, have returned from a vacation in Roswell, N. M. Mrs. Buchannon is in Post this week visiting in the Charlie Bird home.

'Homer' Doesn't Care For School Without Children Playing

"Homer" is back on the Justice school ground. He is a snow white pigeon that suddenly started going to school each day last year. The children adopted him and named him.

He ate scraps from the children's lunches, played around on the baseball ground and perched on the backstop post to watch the children's games. Although he never seemed to be afraid of the children, he always kept himself "just past arm's reach."

After the close of school last spring, Homer came to the school grounds daily for about two weeks, then finally disappeared. On the third day of school this year, he returned—only two days late for the 1949-50 term.

Daring Film, 'Home Of The Brave', Will Be Shown In Post

Released by United Artists, with a cast headed by James Edwards, Steve Brodie, Lloyd Bridges, Douglas Dick, Frank Lovejoy and Jeff Corey, the film has a theme which is deeply concerned with the plight of a young negro surveyor who is assigned, with four white men, to a dangerous reconnaissance mission on a Jap-held island in the South Pacific during World War II. Fully aware of the prospect

September Rain To Be Good For Legume Planting

District cooperators are taking advantage of September's 2.32 inches of rainfall to plant hairy vetch, sweet clover and alfalfa. Early September planting of these legumes is good insurance for their success, local soil conservation technicians believe.

When hairy vetch can grow six weeks or two months before freezing weather, it establishes a deep root system that will carry it through the dry winter months.

Local soil conservation service technicians took a look at the Double U Co.'s monthly record of rainfall for the past 40 years to see what chances legume plantings had this year. They found 22 of the 40 years had good September or October moisture. Ten of those years had enough rainfall during winter and the next spring to make a good vetch crop. Nine years the vetch crop would have been fair, and three years it would have failed because of dry winter and spring months.

The technicians pointed out that there is no way telling what would have happened to the crops in the in-between dry years. They pointed, however, to this year's vetch and rye crop of J. B. Montgomery at Jayton, which was first planted in the fall of 1946. This year the rye and vetch, mostly volunteer, provided a good cover and soil building crop and pastured 50 head of cattle from last November to July of this year.

Another example is J. C. Eubanks' alfalfa that was established in 1946. It has taken the past two dry years and with recent rains will make the fourth cutting of alfalfa this year.

The soils men believe that by timely planting and attention to good bed preparation, proper inoculation and fertilization, legumes can be worked into a coordinated conservation plan.

District cooperators making legume plantings are W. C. Quisenberry, Canyon Valley, 20 acres in alfalfa, 20 acres in vetch and rye mixture, 10 acres in sweet clover, all fertilized with superphosphate; J. C. Eubanks, Canyon Valley, several acres in alfalfa; Ralph Welch, Grassburg, 40 acres in rye and vetch mixture; Floyd Hodges, Cross Roads, 10 acres in rye and vetch mixture; Bill Norman, Barnum Springs, 10 acres in rye and vetch mixture; the district supervisor, C. P. Witt of Calgary, plans to plant 500 pounds of vetch seed in a vetch and rye mixture; John Davis of Polar, 15 acres of rye and vetch mixture; Henry Edwards, four acres in alfalfa, 2 native tame pastures; Jack Meeks, three acres in vetch and rye mixture, and E. O. Merrill, 100 acres in rye with some vetch.

that his film story of this sensitive, educated negro's war-time problems which, in the last analysis, are the duplicate of his peace-time problems, might be too daring for boxoffice success, especially in the South, Kramer courageously made "Home of the Brave" in spite of his realistic outlook. Variety reports that the picture chalked up as a smash hit in the East, the Middle West and the Far West and has taken the formidable South by storm, with the heaviest grosses in years.

Although the picture has been picketed by fanatics on the racial question in some Texas cities, Manager John Hopkins of the local theatre believes that his patrons will thoroughly enjoy it.
