

Cotton Unlimited announces opening using cotton for insulation

by Wes Burnett

The spirit and vision of C.W. Post will shine brightly this week when a long planned new manufacturing facility is formally opened at the Postex Plant Building, through the efforts of Joe Pate and Paul Moncrief.

Pate, principal owner of Cotton Unlimited, Inc., will host a special opening event Friday at 3 p.m., introducing friends and guests to the facility. The plant will manufacture, among other items, insulation materials using a unique process developed by Paul Moncrief. Also on hand for the event will be representatives of Eastman Kodak, whose chemical division has been instrumental in the research and development of the bonding process involved in the cotton based insulation.

Among the special guests will be Mid South Machinery owner Carrol Eddins and representatives of Smart Machinery of Martinsville, Va., where the bonding oven is manufactured.

The initial investment for the facility exceeds $1,000,000, but the research and development "has far exceeded that amount," Pate explained. Cotton Unlimited has three patents pending for the bonding process.

"We are so pleased to be a part of this community, and we want everyone here to know how proud we are to share the future with Post," Pate said.

"I knew that Post is where we belong," Moncrief also said. "When we were looking at sites, I just couldn't see where any other place would suit us better."

Hiring for the new facility has not begun, "and just as soon as we have everything in place, we will let everyone know by announcing our hiring in the Dispatch," Pate said.

A small cadre of employees are preparing the equipment and facility for the start-up.

Commissioners approve 'cafeteria plan'

enter executive session on tax collection proposal

by Wes Burnett

The Garza County Commissioners Court entered into executive session Monday morning following the regular meeting, in which commissioners approved a special "cafeteria plan" insurance program for employees.

Archie Rammage of Spur explained the program to commissioners, and outlined the savings to the county and participating employees. The main feature of the plan provides for protection from taxing the supplemental health insurance benefit commissioners voted at the September 24 meeting.

The "cafeteria plan" approved by the court is covered under IRS Section 125. Participating employees would be able to take the supplemental insurance payment out of the taxable category under this plan.

At the September 24 meeting commissioners voted, following an executive session on the subject, to eliminate the previously paid health insurance

Romeo Reyna joins artists visiting Post Saturday for 'Rendezvous of the Arts'

If you've admired the huge tapestry at the Lubbock Civic Center, you've admired Romeo Reyna's creation, and you'll be able to catch him in Post Saturday as part of the Founders' Day "Rendezvous of the Arts" on Main Street, sponsored by the Caprock Cultural Association.

Reyna rarely exhibits his works, mainly because his popularity around the world keeps him so busy.

One of his most notable works is the focal point of the McCallum Theatre for the Performing Arts at the Bob Hope Cultural Center.

Born in the Rio Grande Valley, at 16 years of age, Reyna was the youngest student to enter the Chicago Art Institute. Perseverance and talent made it possible for him to continue his studies at the Los Angeles Art Center and the Otis Art Institute.

While in California he was discovered by the progressive Arthur Elrod and Associates architectural and interior design group. One of the associates, Steve Chase, worked closely with Reyna for more than 20 years, commissioning his unique tapestries internationally.

Another visitor to Post Saturday will be "A Hare Raising Experience" owners Ronny and Rita Peek of Lubbock, with their custom designed and handcrafted furniture. Their unique furniture blends equal parts of tradition and folk art in a tribute to the southwest. Some of their works combine a weathered finish with classic proportions for an understated look; other pieces are carved and brightly colored, drawing on the plains and desert images.

This list of artists expected to attend the "Rendezvous of the Arts" in Post Saturday are Barry Arthur, Jean Scholfield Badger, Ruth Blackmon, Mel Branch, R. Russell Brown, Jack Bullard, Ginger Bundock, Garnet Buster, Robert Chennault, Robert Duffie, Charles Hipp, Jammey Huggins, Renne Hughes, Rick Jackson, Jodie Boren, Robert Campbell, Buster Jones, Sach Morman, La Wanda Murfee, Ron and Rita Peek, Judith Ranchfuss, Romeo Reyna, Tom Ryan, W. Rainey Shannon, Siloia Slegle, Don Stuckey, Gary Ward, Jim Ward, J. Christopher White, Shirley White, K.W. Whitley, Steve Johnson and Renee Lewis.

Main Street will be chocked full of arts of all kinds. Look for the boots and cactus indicating artists who will be inside those buildings.

Changing our way of life...

The following is the continuation of a series of articles provided by the Women's Division of the Post Chamber of Commerce as part of an awareness program on protecting our environment. The articles are designed to inform Garza County residents of the importance, necessity and benefits of recycling.

EPA's New Standards

In response to increased concern for protection of the nation's groundwater resources, Congress passed the Hazardous and Solid Waste Amendments of 1984. This legislation directed the Environmental Protection Agency to assess and revise as necessary the criteria for land disposal sites receiving small quality generator hazardous waste and household hazardous waste in order to assure protection from groundwater contamination.

During revision of this criteria, EPA conducted studies throughout the nation to assess the practices and environmental public health impacts of solid waste disposal. They concluded that some municipal solid waste (MSW) landfills have degraded the environment and present potential risks to human health. These impacts are due to inadequate federal and state criteria and inadequate implementation of state regulations.

As a result of these findings, EPA has proposed revisions in the criteria for MSW landfills. These revisions set forth minimum national

Local agencies need you help with United Way campaign

by Wes Burnett

Every unit which is served by the United Way will benefit proportionately if the goal is exceeded, the downside is that if the goal is not reached, the same proportion of reduction in assistance will be felt.

The United Way is designed to give people an opportunity to share the burden of giving in one gift, which reduces the number of organizations competing for donations.

This year those who will benefit from your contribution to the Garza County United Way are the hundreds of senior citizens who depend on the center, hundreds of young boys and girls involved in the summer baseball program, clients of the Garza County Mental Health program, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, children under the care of the Child Welfare Board, girls participating in the Post Junior Girls Basketball program, handicapped adults at the Post Satellite School, senior citizens relying on Meals on Wheels, abused women needing the help of Women's Protective Services and people in need of emergency help from the Red Cross and the Salvation Army.

This year, please make a commitment to contribute your fair share to the United Way, every little bit makes a big difference.

Contributions may be mailed to Garza County United Way, P.O. Box 425, Post, Texas 79356.

and the winners are...

The winner in this week's "Post City Buck" football contest correctly picked all but five of the games, while second and third place winners missed six games, but won their "bucks" with the nearest score on the tie-breaker.

The names of the winners are published each week on the Football Contest page, which includes rules for entering. This week the Football Contest is on Page 16. By the way, you may enter only one per week...more than one entry per person will disqualify all entries for that person.

That's where you'll find the names of this week's winners of a total of $75 in "Post City Bucks", which are redeemable for merchandise or services at any of the Football Contest participating merchants.

Other Saturday events include the Art Guild's Neff and Miller art exhibit, the Caprock Cultural Association sponsored Main Street art exhibits, cowboy poetry and songs by Alvin Davis at the Garza Theatre with free shows at 10 a.m. and 11 a.m.

Founders' Day Ranch Competition starts with the chuck wagon meal at noon, followed by the competition at 2 p.m. at the Post Stampede Arena.

The Founders' Day Slab Dance begins at 8 p.m. with music by Jody Nix. Sunday the museum exhibit continues, along with the Post Art Guild's exhibit and the Ranch Competition.

This Founders' Day has a full week of activity and something for everyone.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
Enclosed is my check for the coming year.

I was dismayed when I read in the September 19 edition of your crime wave. Now is the time to nip it in the bud before it gets a stranglehold as many small towns in California are experiencing. It seems they are coming from the larger cities such as L.A. etc.

I can't see you (we) TEXANS putting up with that very long!

Congratulations on the new Main Street landscaping and the success of the Garza Theater.

I do enjoy the paper very much and always drop everything else when the mail brings it.

Sincerely,
Maxine Farrar

Dear Editor:

When I and or my wife spend all the money we have, it would be nice if we could go to our employer and say, all right you are going to pay us more, because we are going to spend more money than we have. This is not the way things are at the source of our income. We have to stop spending when the money is all gone! We have to figure out a way to manage with what we have. There is no way we will be able to increase our income. There is no TAX for us to increase, the employer will refuse to increase our income. Now it is time for me to find another source of income like taking on another job, or my wife getting a job. Or we simply do not spend more than we have.

It seems to me that our government officials that are in power at this time have over looked or forgotten what the history books say is one of the reasons the Pilgrims came to the new country in the first place. I think the history books tell us that the TAX BURDEN was to great in the old country. If my memory is correct, I seem to remember there was a party in the Boston harbor over TAX. I think the history books call it a TEA PARTY. Now it seems that the Government has only one way to turn every time it has over extended its bank account, and that is to find a way to increase the already out of bounds TAX burden in another way so they can continue to spend a already out of bounds budget. There seems that there are some extravagant waste that could be Trimmed in the government its self. Some aids, assistants, assistants to the assistants, committees, etc.

Then there is another point the history books tell us about the founding of this Great Nation which is now known as THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Freedom of religion. What does freedom mean? Could it mean no restrictions? The Random House Dictionary = "Philos, the power to make ones own choices or decisions without constraint from within or without: autonomy; self-determination." It would seem that if this were so then it would be permissible to Pray in any place that seems good, and this should be any where, even in the school house or any other place in public or non public.

History teaches us that the people of a country can be pushed only so far. It has been done with heavy TAX. With undue oppression. With religious oppression. A government that can't hear the people, one so mighty that the people are only tools to be manipulated, etc.

I have heard all of my life. What have you done? Well this is the first time I have lifted a finger. I have always thought that what I had to say was invalid, null and void. Enough is enough. I am speaking up for what it is worth. I think the United States of America citizen has been had. The President of our nation has lied to us and is trying to make us like it. The Government is no longer of the people for the people by the people, but now the people are for the government or else. This last budget is one more notch in the handle of the government six shooter against the people. I am thankful that I did not have to work on the budget, But if I had done it, "IT WOULD BE DIFFERENT."

Riedels have visitors in home

John and Kay Riedel, from Menosha, Wisconsin, were recent visitors to his brother here in Post.

They stopped on their way home from visiting their daughter in Las Cruces, to see Jerry and Sheri Riedel and of course they both took home a Texas cowboy hat.

They commented that for such a little town, Post sure had a lot going on.

Pan, a Greek god, was believed to delight in frightening travelers. The word "panic" derives from his name.

Time to plant bluebonnet seeds & plants

Bluebonnet lovers should be planting them now for spring blooms. Both easily grown seed and bedding plants -- now in red and white as well as blue -- are available in nurseries.

Although they bloom in the spring, fall is the best time to plant bluebonnets. In fact, bluebonnets planted in the fall will produce plants approximately twice as large with twice as many blooms as those established in the spring. For best results, seeds should be planted by mid-September and transplants no later than Halloween.

The new transplants were marketed for the first time last year and thrived in spite of the severe December freeze. The bluebonnet seed has been chemically treated (scarified) to assure germination within 10 days. However, transplants are easier to handle and establish in uniform plantings.

Eight years of development by the Extension Service has made it possible for Texans to not only grow the state flower in their home landscapes, but in several new colors. These colors are completely natural and have not been genetically engineered. Rather, these extremely rare color selections were simply isolated from other bluebonnets and grown in large numbers.

Worthington blue, best described as a sky blue, is named for the Worthington Hotel in Fort Worth because of its strong support of the bluebonnet development program. Seed called "Worthington Mix", which produces plants in white, light blue and traditional blue, are in stores this fall.

Development of a pin bluebonnet was once thought to be impossible because of its extreme scarcity in nature. Named for Texas naturalist Carroll Abbott, the "Abbott Pink" is available along with pure white bluebonnets, both as seeds and transplants.

To ensure success with bluebonnets:

* Plant in full sun in well-drained soil.

* Plant in early fall -- seed no later than late September and transplants no later than Halloween.

* Don't over water. Water seeds only on day of planting, transplants only when soil is dry to a depth of one inch.

* Protect against pillbugs.
* For maximum impact, use large drifts of a single color.
* Cover with a loose blanket of mulch during extremely cold weather (below 20 degrees F.). Uncover plants promptly when temperatures moderate.

A special Extension Service publication, "Texas Bluebonnets - Texas Pride", available free of charge at participating nurseries, contains complete information on bluebonnet planting for the garden.

How Safe are Oral Contraceptives?

According to a recent report in the medical journal, American Family Physician, more than 13 million American women now take oral contraceptives -- more commonly known as "birth control pills." Despite the widespread use of these products, women should be and are concerned about potential short-term and long-term adverse effects. A study conducted in 1985 indicated that three-fourths of women interviewed thought that the use of oral contraceptives could lead to stroke, cancer, and heart attacks. Were these women correct in their beliefs?

The safety of oral contraceptives is reviewed in a recent article in the American Journal of Obstetrics and Gynecology. According to this article, research has shown that the use of oral contraceptives actually decreases the risk of uterine and ovarian cancer.

New studies of healthy women taking contraceptives containing low-dose estrogen (35 micrograms or less) have failed to show an increased risk for stroke or heart disease. Results of other studies suggest that oral contraceptives can provide several health benefits. For example, they may reduce the risk of iron deficiency anemia, follicular cysts, dysmenorrhea, and PMS (premenstrual syndrome).

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has filed an application with the Texas Public Utility Commission to introduce two experimental services called Call Forwarding - Busy Line and Call Forwarding - Don't Answer.

Call Forwarding - Busy Line and Call Forwarding - Don't Answer are optional call management services that will automatically forward a customer's incoming calls to a pre-designated number whenever that incoming call encounters a busy or don't answer condition. These services are for both business and residence customers. The company proposes that the services be available beginning November 19, 1990.

The monthly rates for Call Forwarding - Busy Line and Call Forwarding - Don't Answer are $1.00 for residence customers and $3.00 for business customers. The monthly rate for subscribing to both services is $1.75 for residence customers and $4.00 for business customers. During this experimental offering period the installation charges will be waived.

Call Forwarding - Busy Line and Call Forwarding - Don't Answer are expected to generate first-year revenues of approximately $752,000.

Call Forwarding - Busy Line and Call Forwarding - Don't Answer will be offered on an experimental basis in selected areas throughout the state for 12 months. The availability of these services after that time will depend on Southwestern Bell's decision of whether to offer the services on a permanent basis.

Although these revisions have not been finalized, the EPA indicated in a verbal communication with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service on February 2, 1990, that the criteria would be finalized and put into action in May 1990. The 18-month implementation and compliance period would begin at that time, making November 1991 the anticipated deadline for compliance.

Court ruling changes Texas education, leaving questions

The following is a statement from Commissioner of Education W.N. Kirby regarding today's ruling by Austin State District Judge F. Scott McCown on the constitutionality of Senate Bill 1:

"There is good news and bad news in today's ruling on the constitutionality of Senate Bill 1. The bad news, of course, is that the system of public school finance system as provided in the legislation has been declared unconstitutional. From reading the court's opinion, it appears that the five-year plan to achieve equity within our public school system does not go far enough to address the plight of the state's property-poor school districts."

"The good news is that there will be no changes for the 1990-91 school year. The court recognized that to mandate wholesale changes in the finance system for this year would do nothing more than disrupt an already complicated system of school finance. We have until September 1, 1991 to remedy this situation, and our state lawmakers will have a full regular legislative session to address the issue of school finance. I am confident that they will be able to do so."

"The bad news is that the Legislature, the new governor, educators, taxpayers, the business community -- literally everyone -- will now have to go back to the drawing board and reconsider all those issues that they struggled with before in developing a school finance plan. These issues include things like consolidation of school districts or tax bases, caps on local district spending, or 'Robin Hood' finance plans in which money is taken from wealthy school districts and redistributed to property-poor districts. The latter would be the equivalent of leveling down to mediocrity for all children, something which would be disastrous for Texas."

"Given the state's current financial situation, our lawmakers did a good job of improving equity in our school finance system and providing more opportunities for children in property-poor school districts. The Legislature significantly raised taxes, so much so that we now have one of the highest sales tax rates in the country. The additional $528 million in state aid for 1990-91 provided by Senate Bill 1 is as much as the state could reasonably be expected to provide at this time, considering that additional revenue is extremely difficult to come by."

"Senate Bill 1 laid out an ambitious program of school finance reform. By 1994-95, the legislation would have raised the state's average per pupil expenditure from the current $3,400 per child to $4,500 by ensuring that every district had access to similar revenue for similar tax effort. In many cases, school districts probably would have been able to reduce their local property taxes as additional amounts of state revenue became available during subsequent years of the plan."

"As good a bill as Senate Bill 1 was, I was concerned about whether the Legislature would be able to appropriate enough money to fund the requirements of the legislation in future years. Already, estimates are that we are facing a $3 billion shortfall in the state funds for the next budget cycle. Now, our state's leaders must not only try to find the additional money necessary to fund the current level of service, but will have the additional challenge of completely revamping our system of school finance."

"While we plan to request that the Attorney General appeal this decision, one thing is certain: The state must develop an equitable system of school finance that provides access to quality educational opportunities for children in all school districts, regardless of property wealth, or the courts will do it for us. Our state's leaders must display the bold leadership necessary to develop a system of school finance which will put us on a path to educational excellence, or risk having the courts lead our children down the road of mediocrity for all."

Charles William Post

C.W. Post, founder of today's Post Cereals, became interested in nutrition and health when his own health failed. In an effort to improve his condition, C.W. Post developed a nourishing wholesome cereal beverage named Postum®. Two years later, C.W. Post introduced one of the first ready-to-eat cereals: Grape Nuts®. Grape Nuts® was made of wheat and malted barley, baked in the form of bread loaves, then ground into crisp nuggets. C.W. Post named his cereal Grape Nuts® because he believed that "grape sugar" was formed during the baking process and because the cereal had a nutty flavor.

Post Toasties® was C.W. Post's third success at creativity and producing a healthful cereal. In 1904, he introduced a "double thick" corn flakes product which he called "Elijah's Manna." A devout man himself, he was puzzled when some persons objected to the use of a religious name to sell cereal.

Nevertheless, in 1907, Post renamed the product "Post Toasties." Like Postum® and Grape Nuts®, Post Toasties® was sold as a health food, and in each package of cereal C.W. Post included a copy of his pamphlet, "The Road to Wellville."

Later in 1907, his health still ailing, C.W. Post looked to a dryer, warmer climate. When in 1907 West Texas was opened for settlement, Post purchased approximately 225,000 acres of land - a portion below the Caprock Escarpment - for the purpose of developing a 'dream city' to be called Post City. He advertised his farmsteads and many farmers who had eaten Post Toasties® and drank Postum® put their faith in the Post name and headed West.

As part of the elaborate self-sufficient plan, Post hired stone masons to quarry sandstone in the area to be used in the construction of numerous commercial buildings. (Many of these historic structures have been restored in recent years.) A brick factory and a cotton mill were also operated.

A program involving landscaping within the city limits was instituted late in 1907 with trees being planted along every 30 feet of city streets. A nursery was opened and by 1909, virtually every city street was lined by trees, for Post believed landscaping was an integral part of a healthy social environment. Thus, the Main Street Project is currently working to once again landscape the Main Street area of historic Post City.

C.W. Post's vision, determination, and dream are still very much alive both within Post Cereals and in Post, Texas. We invite you to be a part of the ongoing dream by participating in the 1990 Founders' Day Celebration in Post, Texas.

'Lopes find key to stopping Idalou tenacity and speed get the job done in a 28-0 win here

by Wes Burnett

At halftime last Friday night at Antelope Stadium, when the Pride of Post Marching Band completed its show and struck up the Antelope fight song, fans waited with anticipation to see if the home team could control a feisty Idalou Wildcat upset-minded football team.

The answer came within a couple of minutes into the third quarter when Junior Ray Gonzales blocked a Ty Harmon punt attempt, and five plays later quarterback Matt McCook found Danny Leach at the end of an 18 yard pass for the touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

Two more minutes later Jay Whitehead intercepted a Harmon pass and dashed into the end zone for an Antelopes lead of 21-0. Post fans sat back to watch the defense take control of Idalou's talented running back Freddy Martinez and the offense grind out the yardage.

First Half Action

The game opened with enough excitement to last for a while as Darrin

Brown electrified the stands with a 95 yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

He took the opening kickoff at the Post five yard line, cut to his right and behind great blocking at the 40 he simply outran the Idalou defenders down the right side line. Gonzales kicked the first of four extra points. Post fans smelled a rout in the making, but the Wildcats had other ideas.

On their first possession the visiting team smashed the line of scrimmage, using Martinez and Ruben Rodriguez on an 11 play drive that fizzled on fourth down from the Post four yard line when a wide open David Carrillo couldn't handle Harmon's pass in the end zone. There was nothing fancy about the Wildcat offense, and no surprise to Idalou fans as Martinez simply overpowered would-be tacklers on his seven carries in the drive.

The Antelopes roared back from their four to the 30, but were forced to punt on fourth down.

Idalou mounted a second time consuming drive, eating up most of what was left of the first quarter. A screen pass on third down to Rodriguez was tipped and almost intercepted by Bobby Curtis, forcing a fourth down punt from the Idalou 42 yard line.

The Antelopes got the ball at their own four yard line with 23 seconds left on the first quarter clock.

Great blocking up front and quick bursts by Brown, Whitehead and Gonzales put the Lopes into great position in five plays at the Wildcat eight yard line.

On second down from there the exchange between McCook and Brown was bobbled and Idalou recovered the fumble, stopping the Antelopes at the nine yard line.

Martinez and Rodriguez went to work again, taking six minutes off the clock on a 10 play drive that was stopped on third down when Martinez was slammed to the ground by Lance Bland at the Post 46 yard line. The previous play saw Gonzales putting Harmon on the turf for a quarterback sack at the 48.

The 'Lopes took the ball from their own 18 in four plays to the Idalou 44 on big runs by Gonzales and Brown. On fourth down Gonzales booted the ball to the Idalou 10 yard line.

The Wildcats got one more shot before halftime, using Martinez for big gainers and Rodriguez, and on fourth down from the Post 42 Joe Garcia met Martinez at the line of scrimmage, stood him up and took the tough running back to the ground.

Making good use of the clock, the Antelopes were unable to cross the goal line and the teams went to the lockers to figure out second half strategy.

Second Half Action

Taking the second half kickoff, the Wildcats tried to repeat their first half success, but the Bold Gold defense found the key to stopping Martinez. Starting at their own 34, Martinez hit the line three times and on third down from the 39 he was met head on by Hiram Gutierrez and Shane Horton, setting up a fourth down at the 43.

Harmon dropped back to punt and Gonzales roared into the backfield, blocking the punt, which was recovered for the Lopes by Garcia at the Idalou 35.

It was one of those plays that are always referred to as "key turning points."

In five plays the 'Lopes led 14-0. Whitehead went over left guard to the 31, Gonzales burst over left tackle to the 24, Brown took the pitchout around right end, breaking a tackler to the seven, and a clipping penalty set up first down at the Idalou 21. Brown ripped over right tackle to the 18 and on second down McCook faked the inside handoff, dropped back and lofted the ball to Leach at the two and he tucked the ball away and slid into the end zone. Gonzales put the ball through the uprights for the extra point with 7:52 left in the third quarter.

The Wildcats' hope for a comeback was short lived, when on third down following the kickoff Harmon's attempted pass on the right side was picked off by an alert Whitehead, who raced down his left sideline to the end zone and with 6:21 left in the quarter Gonzales' kick made it 21-0.

Idalou returned to their style of ball control with Martinez carrying eight times on their next possession, which saw the visitors set back to the Post 46 on a holding penalty and on third down a pass on the left side to Martinez went incomplete with Brown on defense.

Harmon's punt went to Whitehead at the Post 15 and he dipped and dodged defenders to the 46.

The fourth quarter began with Post at the Idalou 42 following a quick opener over right guard by Slay.

The drive, featuring running by Slay and Brown, got the Idalou eight yard line when Slay fumbled, and the ball was recovered for Post by Brown at the 11. An illegal motion on the play set the ball back to the 36.

Two running plays failed and the 'Lopes turned the ball over on downs at the Idalou 17.

The Wildcats, feeling the pressure of time, tried three passes, all incomplete and on fourth down punted from inside their own end zone. Post set up the next series at their own 39 following a clipping penalty on the punt return. A first down play with Whitehead getting to the 42 was set back to the 24 on a clipping penalty and on second down Brown broke out of the backfield, breaking loose from a tackler and raced toward the end zone, only to be caught from behind by Ramon Martinez at the six yard line.

Runs by Bobby Curtis, Damon Curtis and Gonzales got three more yards and on fourth down McCook's pass to Leach in the end zone was too high and the Wildcats got the ball with 5:13 left in the game.

The Post defense had Freddy Martinez' number and on third down Harmon's attempt to Carrillo was tipped by Brown, setting up a fourth down punt.

Final Scoring Drive

Whitehead took the punt at the Post 40 and avoided tacklers to the Idalou 29. Six plays later the 'Lopes put the final points on the scoreboard with 46 seconds left on the clock. McCook broke a couple of tackler before being sacked at the 33. Brown got back to the 31 and on third down McCook rolled to his left, under heavy pressure, threw the ball to Leach in the middle of a crowd for a first down at the 14 yard line. It was a great pass and a terrific catch.

Brown roared over right tackle to the nine, Whitehead broke through the secondary to the three and on first down Gonzales rammed his way into the end zone on a burst of extra effort. He then kicked the extra point and the defense came to the field following the kickoff to put the finishing touches to the victory.

The Lopes travel to New Deal Friday for a 7:30 p.m. kickoff with the Lions, who are fresh off a 14-8 win over Crosbyton.

8th Graders shut out Idalou 22-0

The Post eighth grade football team returned from Idalou last Thursday on the winning end of a 22-0 win over Idalou.

"We had great defense and good offense," coach Darrell Radle comments. "Idalou had been undefeated, and our defense allowed only three first downs during the game, and two of those were on penalties."

Idalou had 28 offensive plays and 11 of those were for negative yards. "We had a let-down in the second half on offense and need to improve on that," the coach adds.

The Post eighth graders collected 206 yards on offense and allowed Idalou a total of 22 yards.

The young Lopes scored in the first quarter on an 11 play drive going 72 yards. Lance Clay went the final yard for the touchdown and quarterback Heath Eagle threw a pass to Oscar Acevedo for the two point conversion.

Again in the first quarter the Lopes hit the end zone on a six play drive following a partially blocked punt. Eagle passed to Acevedo for the 12 yard touchdown and then to Javier Saldivar for the two point conversion.

In the second quarter the Post team ripped off 64 yards in four plays with Clay going the final 12.

Clay led the rushers with 104 yards on 15 carries and two touchdowns. Brad Lawson got 45 yards on seven tries, Acevedo went 31 yards on five carries, 15 yards receiving and a touchdown; Cody Clay was credited with 17 yards on six attempts, Saldivar caught two passes for 17 yards and Eagle completed four passes for 32 yards.

The 8th grade team hosts New Deal tomorrow.

New Deal Lions are better than record shows

The first ever football game between the Post Antelopes and the New Deal Lions will get underway Friday at 7:30 p.m. at New Deal.

"The really are a better team than the record shows," Antelope head coach Dewayne Osborne comments. "They are young, they play hard and they've got pretty good size."

The Lions come into the contest with a 2-3 record, winning 36-12 over Morton and 14-8 last week over Crosbyton. New Deal has lost this year to Hale Center 34-14, Olton 34-12 and Seagraves 26-6.

"They were toe-to-toe with Seagraves," Osborne adds, "and the game really wasn't decided until the fourth quarter. You know, they surprised a lot of people last week by beating Crosbyton."

The Lions operate out of the wishbone, but will change the formation to fit the situation. Two quarterbacks share playing time, with sophomore Abel Ramirez and senior Robert Flores calling the signals.

Tommy Herron, a 170 pound senior fullback, gets the bulk of the running chores, along with running back Mario Garza, and 135 pound senior.

Jimmy Jackson is considered an excellent receiver who has great speed. In passing situations the Lions use a play action and sprint out formation.

"Their linemen are about the same size as we've been playing against. Defensively, they are better," Osborne says, "they do a lot of stunts and slants, and their linebackers are very aggressive as are the front seven."

Game time at New Deal is 7:30 p.m. The stadium is located just to the east of IH 27, approximately five miles north of the Lubbock Airport.

PHS runners compete at Lubbock Cross Country event

"This meet was at Mae Simmons Park, probably the most difficult course in the area," coach Lu Allen says about last Saturday's Lubbock Invitational Cross Country Meet.

"The boys and girls ran well, we are excited about the future of this team," the coach added. The next meet will be at Floydada Saturday.

Idalou outscores 7th grade 18-8

The Post 7th grade football team came home from Idalou last Thursday on the losing end of an 18-8 score.

"We did not play as well offensively or defensively as we are capable," coach Chili Black commented.

"Tory Harper and Bodie Simpson had good defensive games," the coach added. The team scored following a blocked punt in the first quarter by Jeffrey Redman and Raymond Garza.

The score was at the end of a four play drive. The two point conversion came on a pass from Simpson to Harper.

The Post 7th graders collected 113 yards offense, limiting Idalou to 101. The team hosts New Deal tomorrow.

QUICK LINEMEN are the key to success for the Post Antelopes. Anchoring the right side of the line here last week in the 28-0 win over Idalou are Danny Leach (81), Benji Vargas (70), Jr Nava (60) and Michael Brogden (55).

benefits for employees' families and dependents, and in place of that benefit provide $100 per month for the employee to use at his or her discretion. That payment direct to an employee would be subject to federal withholding and social security taxes.

In other action, commissioners heard from Shelly Veselka, representing the law firm of McCreary, Veselka, Beck and Allen concerning their services in delinquent tax collections. Veselka's presentation was in response to a proposal in September by attorney S. Rafe Foreman to provide the delinquent tax collection service.

Following Veselka's presentation, Foreman addressed the court and restated his qualifications for providing the service and reminded commissioners that since he had done the work, and that his office is now located in Post, that he could provide a more efficient service for the county.

The decision to change was tabled, but later the court went into executive session to discuss the matter.

The court approved a resolution supporting the campaign "My Choice...Drug Free". Justice of the Peace Dee C. Justice pointed out that Garza County was one of first government units in this area to provide counseling and a program years ago with the establishment of the Garza County Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention program, "and we should be proud of the work we've already started," he said.

The low bid of $3,630 by Joe Patterson was accepted for remodeling of an office upstairs for use by the judicial courts. Scott Davis also submitted a bid of $3,921.67.

Commissioners agreed to use county equipment and manpower to make temporary repairs to the parking lot, which Judge E.A. Howard reminded them "was in a sorry state."

Corrected field notes were presented to the court by Texas Highway Department representative Carl Bednarz, who requested that final land purchases be completed so that work on the road to Lake Alan Henry could begin. "We're ready to go as soon as the purchases are finished," he said.

Attending the meeting were commissioners Sammie Ellis, Ted Aten, John Valdez and Herb Walls, Judge Howard, clerk Sonny Gossett, tax assessor Chita Hataway and Justice.

The first mailboxes were erected in Paris in 1653. However, messengers, fearful for their livelihood, put mice in the boxes to destroy the mail.

Ecology group endorses Counts

Most candidates for state office in Texas, particularly for seats in the Legislature, are neglecting environmental issues; but the Texas League of Conservation voters endorses incumbent State Representative David Counts for re-election in November.

A bi-partisan selection committee of members of the non-partisan TLCV determined the endorsements.

TLCV considered environmental policies; answers to a TLCV letter; answers to questionnaires by Sierra Club and Texas Committee on Natural Resources; voting records and performances in office by incumbents; and environmental activities in the private and public sectors.

TLCV is a not-for-profit, non-partisan citizen group. It has been endorsing and contributing to Texas candidates for state office since 1974.

Representative Counts stated "It is indeed an honor to be recognized as a protector of our environment. We must all do a better job and continue to fight so our grandchildren can enjoy what we have."

"This is where I want to be ... in Off-Broadway Theater. About 2000 miles off Broadway!"

"I have spent most of my adult life in the theater. This includes 25 years in New York City as well as time in California and on tour across the United States. But, this is where I want to be. This is where my roots are. I was born here. Five years ago, I came back and started a regional theater. "It has been very successful and a wonderful experience for me. In this area, I have found a refreshing approach to life. There is a great environment in which to pass on my knowledge of the theater. Thomas Wolfe, notwithstanding, you can 'go home again.'"
