Thirtieth Year

Judges Will Select Queen For Rodeo

The queen of this year's Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo will be selected by a committee of judges instead of by vote, it was decided Tuesday night at a meeting of rodeo directors in the district courtroom.
The contest is open to candidates 19 years of age and under and entries may be filed by seeing James Dye at the Piggly Wiggly Super Market or telephon- ing him at 546-J.
The deadline for candidates to enter the queen contest is noon Thursday, Aug. 2. The candidates will be judged that night on the basis of beauty, costume, and so forth. During the last few years, the rodeo queen has been decided by vote, with the votes selling for a penny each.
The winning candidate will reign over activities during rodeo week

City, Schools Cooperate For Public Library

Library facilities for the public have been provided at the Post High School library and will continue throughout the summer and the 1956-57 school year, it was announced this week by R. K. Green, superintendent of schools.
The library was open to the public for the first time Tuesday, from 1 p. m. until 5 p. m., and will be open again for the same hours Friday afternoon. Each week throughout the summer, the library will follow this two-day-a-week schedule.
During the school term, the library will be open to the public from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. Monday through Friday.
A membership fee of $2 has been set. This fee will be refunded when membership is withdrawn, unless it should become necessary to use the deposit for overdue fines or lost books.
Students of the Post schools will have free access to the library during school hours without a deposit, but all students must be clear with the library before registering for school and before receiving grades each week during the school term.
The City Library Committee, which has worked with school officials to establish the public library facilities, is composed of:
Sponsor's—Loyce Josey, Joyce Josey, Katy Lou Thane, Ruth Ann Long, Bettie Sue Norman and Mrs. Bill Mears.
Advertising—Alvin G. Davis, Charles Didway, Loyce and Joyce Josey, Jack Rains, George Samson, Don Long, Billy Meeks and Larry Waldrip.
Concessions—Members of 4-H and home demonstration clubs.
Parking—J. W. (Red) Floyd.
Parade—George Samson and Don Long.
Ticket Sales—Harold Voss, Ira Greenfield, Powell Shyles, Bill G. Humphrey, Jack Kennedy.
Decorations—Fritz Greenfield, Loyce Josey, George Samson, Noel White, James Dye.

Most Observers Predict Light Vote In Democratic Primary Election Saturday

WON'T BE EMPTY LONG—These nine voting boxes were delivered this week to the county's nine voting places for Saturday's first Democratic primary. Making the boxes more attractive are Mrs. Melba Garner (left) and Miss Ruby Montgomery.—(Staff Photo.)

Judging from the lack of interest here the last few weeks in Saturday's Democratic primary election, Garza County's all-time record of 1,704 votes for a first primary, established in 1945, is due to stand for at least another two years.
Many political observers are forecasting one of the lightest first primary votes in recent years, but there are others who think everyone, including the vote tabulators, are in for a surprise.
One of the reasons for a lack of interest on the part of voters during recent weeks has been the fact that this year there are contests in only two county races and two precinct races. However, many of the state offices are sought by two or more candidates and this may help pull a surprisingly large number of voters to the polls.
Through Tuesday's absentee voting deadline, 46 persons had voted absentee at the county clerk's office. A few other absentee ballots had been received from those physically unable to go to the polls on Saturday, and the mails had brought in 19 absentee ballots up to noon Wednesday. Other mail ballots will be received in time to be counted, but the fact remains that this year's absentee vote will be lighter than the one two years ago.
The reason for the scarcity of contested county and precinct races is that under the new law voted at the general election in 1954, only about half of the office holders are up for re-election this year.
The two contested county races are those for sheriff and the newly-created office of tax assessor and collector.
In the sheriff's race, Carl Rains, running for re-election, is opposed by Nathan Mears and Odean Cummings.
Seven candidates are seeking the new office of tax assessor and collector. They are Jewell M. Parsons, Percy Printz, Mrs. W. D. (Heleen) Livingston, Donald Windham, Exa Thomas, George N. Leggett and T. H. (Talmage) Tipton.
In the two precinct races, there are five candidates for the office of Precinct 1 county commissioner and two for the office of Precinct 1 constable.
In the commissioner's race, B. F. (Boone) Evans, seeking re-election, has drawn opponents in L. P. Kennedy Jr., Racy Robinson, Truett Fry and Clark Barton.
J. A. Johnson, candidate for re-election as Precinct 1 constable, is opposed by L. E. Claborn Sr.
Unopposed candidates are Carlton P. Webb for county attorney and Ozell Williams for Precinct 3 commissioner.
Mitchell Williams is unopposed for district attorney of the 106th Judicial District.
Also unopposed are George Mahon for re-election as U. S. Representative, 19th District, and Robert R. Patterson for re-election as State Representative, 90th District.
E. H. Boulter of Lubbock has no opponents in his race for re-election to the State Board of Education.
In the race for associate justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, 7th Supreme Judicial District, Herbert C. Martin of Lamb County, seeking re-election, is opposed by Alton B. Chapman of Floydada.
Other contested races and the names of the candidates as they will appear on the Garza County ballot are:
Governor: Price Daniel, J. Evetts Haley, J. J. Holmes, W. Lee O'Daniel, Reuben Stenerlitt, Ralph Yarborough.
Lieutenant Governor: A. M. Alkin Jr., C. T. Johnson, Ben Ramsey, John Lee Smith.
Attorney General: Ross Carlton, Curtis E. Hill, Tom Moore, Will Wilson.
Associate Justice of Supreme Court, Place 3: James R. Norvell, Robert H. Hughes.
Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals: W. A. Morrison, Jesse Owens.
State Treasurer: Warren G. Harding, Jesse James.
Commissioner of General Land Office: Earl Rudder, Ned Price.
Commissioner of Agriculture: Jim Barber, Bill Jones, John C. White.
Congressman-at-Large: Martin Dies, Bill Ekins.

Election 'Party' Set For Saturday Night

An election "party," at which returns will be posted, will be held Saturday night in front of Greenfield Hardware Co., 112 East Main, County Democratic Chairman T. R. Greenfield announced Tuesday.
The chairman said the store will be closed to all except election return workers, but that returns will be posted on a board in front of the store as they are received. The space in front of the store will be roped off for people attending the election party.
Polls are to open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m., and returns will be coming in shortly thereafter, Greenfield said. He urges as many voters as possible to vote Saturday morning in order to help facilitate tabulation of the votes at the voting places and posting of returns on the election board.

Russell Wilks Jr. Named To Board

Russell Wilks Jr. was named Saturday to replace the late Julius Fumagalli as Precinct 3 member of the Garza County Board of Education, County Supt. Dean A. Robinson has announced.
Wilks was appointed to the vacancy during a meeting of the board Saturday. At the same time, the board elected Sam Ellis, Precinct 1 member, as chairman, in which position Fumagalli was serving at the time of his death.
Other members of the board are George Ramage, Precinct 2; Mrs. Pearl Nance, Precinct 4, and L. G. Thuet Jr., member-at-large.
The board also approved purchase of a new 48-passenger school bus for the Graham School District.

Pastor Appointed To Borger Church

J. F. Chatham, pastor of the Church of God of Prophecy for the last three years, has been appointed to the Borger church, he announced this week.
The Rev. Mr. Chatham told The Dispatch: "Last week in our annual state convention here, T. J. Lowe, our state overseer, in making appointments of pastors for the new church year appointed A. W. West of Borger to pastor the local church here, giving us the appointment to the Borger church."
"After doing pastoral work in Des Moines, Ia., a city of over 200,000, Post seemed small, but we found you people quite friendly," the Rev. Mr. Chatham said.
He said he had especially enjoyed working with the Post Ministerial Alliance during his three-year pastorate here.
"It has been a pleasant three-year stay here for us... needless to say, we feel sad at the thought of leaving, but we feel duty demands it," he concluded.

Lancaster Infant's Funeral Conducted

Funeral services for Jon Warren Lancaster, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lancaster, were conducted at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Hudman Funeral Home chapel, with the Rev. Roy Shahan, First Baptist Church pastor, officiating.
A trio of Ray N. Smith, Elmer Butler and Henry Tate sang "Looking This Way," with Mrs. Smith at the piano. Mrs. Smith also played "When They Ring Those Golden Bells" during the service.
Burial was in Terrace Cemetery.
The infant died Saturday about 10 hours after its birth in Garza Memorial Hospital.
Survivors besides the parents are the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lancaster and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Moseley, all of Southland.

Easements Coming For Right-of-Way

Progress is reported this week by the Garza County commissioner's court on securing right-of-way easements for the widening of U. S. Highway 84 from Post to the Scurry County line.
One of the easements just received is from the Justiceburg Common School District, according to County Judge Pat N. Walker. At a recent meeting, the Post city council voted to give an easement on City Park property just south of town.
Judge Walker said the State Highway Commission had set the last of September as the deadline for securing right-of-way needed on the road project.
Approximately $500,000 has been appropriated by the state for the widening, which will result in a divided four-lane highway. Precinct 4 voters have approved a $50,000 bond issue for purchase of right-of-way.

2,860 Feet 'Phone Cable Is Installed

Linemen for General Telephone Co. of the Southwest have completed installing 2,860 feet of rural district cable to serve new additions in the southwest section of Post, according to R. E. (Bob) Saunders, district manager for the telephone company.
The installation, Saunders explained, is a temporary measure to serve existing known applicants with party line service, and eventually will result in the installation of about 22 telephones.
The boys were ordered by the court to make full restitution, amounting to about $65, for damage to the hose, waste of water and court costs.
The boys were also ordered not to be on the streets between the hours of 9 p. m. and 7 a. m., unless accompanied by their parents; not to leave the county without the permission of the juvenile court; and not to operate a motor vehicle during the term of their probation.
They were ordered by the judge to attend the Sunday School of their church every Sunday, and to report to him every other Monday.
The boys were further ordered to seek and keep gainful employment during the remainder of the summer.
Judge Walker said both boys had withdrawn from school and that if school officials deem it advisable for them to resume their education, the court's orders will include that they re-enroll for the fall term.
Judge Walker said the parents in custody of the boys will be held strictly responsible for their sons' actions and that if they willfully neglect seeing that the orders are carried out they can be held in contempt of court.
"We're through handling juvenile cases with kid gloves," Judge Walker said following the hearing. He also said that, except in circumstances where the court does not deem it advisable, juvenile hearings will be open to the public.
"Exposure will do more to help solve our juvenile problem than a cloak of secrecy," the judge said.

State Board Petitioned To Form Water District

Petitions requesting creation of the four-city White River water district were presented to the State Board of Water Engineers in Austin last week by Tom Bouchier and Henry Tate of Post and Perry Bell of Crosbyton.
Bouchier, who is chairman of the White River Municipal Water Authority Committee, said the hearing on the petitions will be held about Sept. 1. If the state board creates the district, confirmation elections will follow in the member cities of Post, Spur, Crosbyton and Ralls.
The petitions presented to the board had been circulated in all four cities and bore several hundred names, although only 50 were necessary.
If the water district is formed and the confirmation elections carry, the next step will be bond elections to finance construction of the White River project, which will include a dam, lake and filtration plant near Kalgary and pipe lines from the lake to the four cities.
Bouchier, Tate and R. J. Jennings, also a member of the WRMA Committee, attended a regular monthly meeting of the group in Spur on Saturday. At that time Bouchier made a report on the presentation of the petitions to the state board and also reported that topographical mapping of the proposed lake site is to get under way soon.
Each of the four cities is to put up approximately $1,500 to pay for the topographical survey, which will cost about $5,990. The committee has sufficient funds on hand to pay the difference between what the cities put up and the cost of the survey.

Stern Restrictions Facing Juveniles

Two 16-year-old boys who had admitted cutting a water hose at the football practice field face stern restrictions following a public hearing Monday before County Judge Pat N. Walker in juvenile court.
Following the hearing, both youths were probated, one to the custody of his parents. The other was ordered transferred from the custody of one parent, with whom he has been living, to the custody of the other.
The boys were ordered by the court to make full restitution, amounting to about $65, for damage to the hose, waste of water and court costs.
The boys were also ordered not to be on the streets between the hours of 9 p. m. and 7 a. m., unless accompanied by their parents; not to leave the county without the permission of the juvenile court; and not to operate a motor vehicle during the term of their probation.
They were ordered by the judge to attend the Sunday School of their church every Sunday, and to report to him every other Monday.
The boys were further ordered to seek and keep gainful employment during the remainder of the summer.
Judge Walker said both boys had withdrawn from school and that if school officials deem it advisable for them to resume their education, the court's orders will include that they re-enroll for the fall term.
Judge Walker said the parents in custody of the boys will be held strictly responsible for their sons' actions and that if they willfully neglect seeing that the orders are carried out they can be held in contempt of court.
"We're through handling juvenile cases with kid gloves," Judge Walker said following the hearing. He also said that, except in circumstances where the court does not deem it advisable, juvenile hearings will be open to the public.
"Exposure will do more to help solve our juvenile problem than a cloak of secrecy," the judge said.

New Members Are Named To Board

The Garza County commissioners Tuesday appointed three new members to the board of Garza Memorial Hospital. They are G. L. Weakley, Mrs. Irene Rodgers and Mrs. Ryla T. Lot.
The new board members, who were appointed for two-year terms, replace Lowell Short, Russell Wilks Jr., and E. S. (Buddy) Stewart. These three had asked the commissioners' court that they not be re-appointed in view of their long terms of service on the board.
Other hospital board members are Henry Wheatley, Ott Nance and W. S. Duckworth.

Faculty Resignations Announced By Green

R. K. Green, superintendent of schools, this week announced the resignations of Miss Margie Moore and Morris Denson from the school faculty. He also announced that the board had granted a one-year leave of absence to Mrs. V. F. (Bina) Bingham, third grade teacher.
Miss Moore, who has taught high school English here for the past several years, has accepted a position in the Sweetwater Public Schools system, Damon, who taught a fifth grade section here during the 1955-56 term, has accepted a teaching position at Lamesa.

RECORD-BREAKING NUMBER OF HORSES ARE EXPECTED

Show Invitations Are Mailed

Approximately 150 quarter horse owners throughout West Texas and eastern New Mexico have been invited to enter their animals in the 8th annual Garza County Quarter Horse show here Aug. 11, it was announced this week by Don Long, secretary.
Plans are being made for the biggest show in the history of the Garza County Quarter Horse Association, which sponsor the event. More than 80 horses were entered in the 1955 show.
Trophies donated by 11 Post business firms and the American Quarter Horse Association will be presented to all first place winners, with trophy buckles go- ing to the two first place winners in the reining class. Ribbons will be awarded through sixth place in each of the classes in both the halter and reining divisions.
Miss Ruth Ann Long will be in charge of the trophy awards.
Trophies in the halter division will go to the winners in the following classes: Fillies foaled in 1956, fillies foaled in 1955, mares foaled in 1954, mares foaled in 1953 or before, grand champion mare, reserve champion mare, colts foaled in 1956, colts foaled in 1955, stallions foaled in 1954, stallions foaled in 1953 or before, grand champion stallion, reserve champion stallion and gelding.

Rosettes will be awarded in the get of sire and produce of dam classes.
Clyde R. Miller of Gail, long prominent in West Texas quarter horse circles, will judge the animals, with judging to get under way at 1 p. m. on the final day of the Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo.
George (Scotty) Samson is superintendent and J. Martin Basinger is assistant superintendent of the show. Committee members are Floy Richardson, Earl Hodges, S. E. Camp, Don Long, Riley Miller, Don Richardson, Roger Camp and Nathan Little.

Thursday to Thursday

By CHARLES DIDWAY

MOST EVERYONE probably will be surprised if the total vote in Saturday's primary election sets a new record for Garza County. The comparatively low degree of interest shown thus far in this year's election indicates that such will not be the case.

THE VOTING RECORD for the first primary election is 1,704, set in 1948 when a total of 1,805 poll tax receipts had been issued—the exemptions counting for the difference between 1,805 and 1,704.

HERE'S THE WAY the voting went by boxes that year: North Post, 802; South Post, 190; Graham, 95; Close City, 116; Pleasant Valley, 106; Two Draw, 121; Southland, 105; Verbena, 28; Justiceburg, 99.

SIX YEARS AGO, in 1950, total votes cast in the July primary were 1,654. Voting by boxes that year was: North Post, 796; South Post, 222; Graham, 195; Close City, 103; Pleasant Valley, 92; Two Draw, 117; Southland, 88; Verbena, 38; Justiceburg, 89.

THE TOTAL VOTE in 1952 was 1,668, a slight gain over 1950; but still behind the record year of 1948. The vote by boxes in 1952 was: North Post, 682; South Post, 253; Close City, 103; Pleasant Valley, 106; Southland, 91; Graham, 89; Two Draw, 117; Verbena, 48; Justiceburg, 102.

AT THE LAST primary election, in 1954, the vote dropped to 1,618. North Post voted 657; South Post, 235; Close City, 91; Pleasant Valley, 83; Southland, 77; Graham, 87; Two Draw, 119; Justiceburg, 74. The absentee box accounted for 115 votes.

SATURDAY'S TURNOUT, however, may prove a surprise. The potential voting strength, based on 1,552 poll tax receipts and possibly 300 exemptions, is great enough to set a new record if all the voters turn out. Only time will tell, just as the final tabulation will determine the winners.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD do-it-yourself nut who was drinking a can of beer while painting his patio furniture the other day reports that green enamel tastes about the way you'd expect.

THE ODDITY of a rained-out ball game in Post occurred last Thursday evening when the playoff of a protested game between the Little League Dodgers and Tigers was halted in the fifth inning. It was an interesting game and most of us hated to see it called, but it certainly felt good to feel rain in your face.

SOMEHOW OR OTHER, you never hear the word "ethics" in public except just before an election.

THE LITTLE LEAGUE season has ended, but there's more activity scheduled for the new park. On the night of Aug. 7, members of the Lions Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce will stage a donkey ball game. This event will help make it a big week in Post, since the Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo gets under way the next day and continues through Saturday night, with the Garza County Quarter Horse Show scheduled for Saturday afternoon of the same week.

IF YOU LIVE long enough you realize

EVERY VOTE COUNTS!

The importance of Saturday's first Democratic primary election, or any election for that matter, is such that every qualified voter should go to the polls and exercise his privilege of casting a ballot.

Important state, county and district races are at stake, and the polls are the only places to select the right man or woman for the respective offices. In addition, the ballot will include three highly controversial referendum questions—compulsory attendance at integrated schools, strengthening of inter-marriage laws, and use of interposition.

The candidates we elect by clear-cut majorities Saturday will fill important offices at practically every level for the next two to four years. In some races, there probably will be runoffs, with the winner not being determined until the August primary.

It is important whether or not you have made up your mind which candidates to vote for, but not half as important as whether or not you have made up your mind to vote.

Each voter is allowed only one ballot, but each of those ballots count in the final tally. Don't look upon your vote as an insignificant thing just because it will be counted as one vote in each race or on each issue. The votes are counted one by one and your vote will be just as big and have just as much bearing on the outcome as the next fellow's.

Vote for your choice Saturday, but, by all means, vote.

The mad arms race that is shelling the dollars out of people's pockets like a pea sheller in a canning factory has reached a place where they are talking about ultimate weapons. No doubt, they thought that dynamite was the ultimate weapon many years ago but as the old world turns and grows older, its denizens think up bigger and better ways of destroying themselves.—Reynoldsville, Pa., Star.

A few days ago The Sac Sun editor was talking with a man who came over from one of the old countries about 40 years ago. He settled down and went to work. Today he owns a nice Iowa farm and has other property which he calls his own. . . . He says, "It couldn't have been done anywhere else but in America."—Sac City, Ia., Sun.

that most problems eventually solve themselves. Just about a year ago, for example, the Davy Crockett plague seemed incurable.

TELEVISION COVERAGE of the political conventions and campaigns this year will cost one sponsor five million dollars. And there was a time when an entire four-year administration and a medium-sized war didn't cost that much.

THE INTERNAL REVENUE Service has worked out an emergency system for collecting our income tax even in case of a hydrogen bomb attack. That was one thing we had been worrying about.

IT APPEARS THAT nation-wide there will be a minimum of "deposits" in Uncle Sam's Soil Bank, which moved into operation late in June. Actually, however, not much response to this year's program was, or could be, expected, because the effective date was well past planting time, not only in this area but in most parts of the nation. The true worth of the Soil Bank program won't be seen until 1957.

DON'T FAIL TO VOTE SATURDAY!

"You can read on a train crossing the desert or on a plane at 17,000 feet above the Atlantic—no static, no fading, no blips," says Miss Kilgallen. "You can read in a bathtub or while hanging onto a pole in a crowded bus. You can read as fast or as slow as you want, as much or as little as you want."

"And if you read something you like, you can tear it out and save it to read again some day. I enjoy radio and television, and I am gainfully employed by both, but I must admit they have their drawbacks. Did you ever try to clip a television program and paste it in your scrapbook?"

Roger W. Babson Writes This Week:

Businessmen Will Benefit From Knowledge Of Cash Commodity Market Developments

BABSON PARK, Mass.—The whole world has been upset economically and politically by World War II and its aftermath. In the midst of our own long postwar boom—only recently showing signs of decline—it is hard to believe there are many areas where serious losses and widespread suffering have resulted. Prices here have been so stable that we have forgotten the importance of commodity market trends.

Prices Should Be Watched Closely

For more than fifty years, I have been keeping tabs on commodity price swings. The Babson Organization has been publishing a Business Inventory-Commodity Price Forecast over this long period, primarily because I believe that a knowledge of month-to-month developments in the major cash commodity markets will benefit all businessmen. Commodity prices should be watched closely, especially in these uncertain times.

The so-called "built-in stabilizers" of our post-depression American economy have helped us forget the basic principle that the price of each commodity is finally determined by the supply relative to the effective demand. A surplus of a commodity brings lower prices and vice versa. The many attempts of governments and individuals to control prices have all ended disastrously.

Swings in Prices

Years of study have shown that commodity prices move in definite cycles. I have proved to my satisfaction that individual commodity prices, as well as groups, follow distinct—though not regular—periodic fluctuations. Of course, one must distinguish clearly between the major cyclical or long swing movement and the minor or shorter-swing movement. When both trends are in the same direction, the price movement is accentuated. Otherwise—as in recent years—prices tend to hold fairly steady or to move in the direction of the stronger trend. In order to gauge properly the movement of prices, you must consider both the major and the minor trends.

Commodity experts who now follow the various commodity markets more closely than I do believe that the major trend in commodity prices continues upward. They forecast a higher average of commodity prices before this present major cycle has been completed, but they emphasize that interruptions to this upward trend are possible. Also, they tell me that there will be individual commodities which will move contrary to the underlying trend. Hence it is absolutely necessary—especially in these uncertain times—to analyze each commodity separately. I forecast that failure to do so may prove costly, for the next minor movement in commodity prices will be downward. I forecast it may get under way sooner than today seems possible.

Commodities And Investments

From my readers' mail, I notice that there are comparatively few questions on commodities. Most people are interested only in individual securities or groups of securities. They simply do not realize that supply-demand trends and prices in the commodity markets determine, to a considerable extent, the return they get on their stocks.

I never buy stocks without giving consideration to price trends in the products made or heavily used by the company in which I plan to invest. I recommend this policy to others and I caution against speculating in the commodity futures markets. You can make money fast in commodity futures, but you can lose it twice as fast! The fluctuations of the stock market are great enough; but commodity prices fluctuate even more.

Advice To Manufacturers And Merchants

Most manufacturers must buy their raw materials nearly a year in advance, but they can usually protect these purchases by buying or selling "futures." In such cases, however, they should never be traded in to "make money" or for speculation.

Merchants should not bother with "futures," they are dangerous. Better stick to the advice of wholesalers with whom you have traded for many years. Do not let any salesman "high pressure" you into buying more than you will need for more than six months ahead. This is a time to keep inventories in good control.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank all my friends who sent cards and visited me while I was in the West Texas and Post Hospitals. Your visits were greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Forrest Cearley

I would like to express my thanks for all the kind words, visits, flowers and cards from my friends and neighbors while I was in the hospital. May God bless you.

Mrs. L. P. Baker

To our friends who stood by so faithfully, in all your deeds and other kindnesses, we wish to express our deepest gratitude. You have helped to make this time of sorrow easier to bear.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lancaster

We wish to take this means of saying thank you for the many kindnesses you have shown us since Thelma's accident. We want to thank all the churches in town for the prayers, the men and women who sat up with her at the hospital, all who brought food to our home, the many who sent flowers, gifts and cards and all who visited us. We are happy to report that Thelma is improving nicely and enjoys company.

You live better... because of advertising

Sure you live better—and you don't have to look far for evidence. You have a kitchen full of appliances that your Grandmother never dreamed of! You can eat fresh frozen strawberries in the middle of winter, and cool your bedroom with air conditioning during the summer heat. The power steering on your car, that 21-inch television set, even your nylon stretch socks—they are all new within the past few years.

What has advertising to do with it? Plenty. The new products you enjoy would never be made if they couldn't be sold. That's where advertising in this newspaper comes in—helping local businesses sell all manner of things. Then manufacturers can make newer and better products to raise your standard of living still higher. It's a never-ending process of improvement, and you are always the winner. 22 Pct. Increase In School Lunch Funds Is Slated For Texas

COLLEGE STATION (S.P.)—Texas public schools will get about 22 per cent more funds from the U. S. Department of Agriculture than last year to serve noon-day meals under the National School Lunch Program.

The increase of $853,453 brings the total to $4,686,908 for the coming school year. This announcement was received today by Dr. J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education, Texas Education Agency. First quarter allocation of this money will be made to Texas this month, according to John J. Slaughter, chief, southwest food distribution division, Dallas.

This office of the Agricultural Marketing Service deals with the states in this region on the National School Lunch Program.

Slaughter explained that the 22 per cent increase in the Texas allotment was the result of an increase of $18,700,000 over last year's appropriation by Congress.

Federal funds are shared by the states on the basis of the number of children between the ages of 5 and 17, inclusive, and the need of assistance in the state as indicated by the relation of the per capita income of the United States to that of the state.

Slaughter praised the Texas Educational Agency for the way it has developed and administered the school lunch program.

Rodeo Season Is Always Busy One For Connie Connell, 16

(Editor's Note: Connie Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Connell of Polar, former residents of Post, was the subject of a feature story in the July 15 issue of The Snyder Daily News. The article will be of interest to rodeo fans in general and particularly those who are acquainted with the Connell family.)

By SANDRA DEFORE
For Connie Connell . . . the next few days are going to be busy ones.

It's rodeo time in Snyder and there is work to be done. And when there is work to be done the twenty-odd miles to town from the Connell Ranch are not traveled very often by the Connells.

Connie has three horses. Two of these horses she appears with in rodeos and horse shows regularly while the other one, a colt, must be content to wait until his day comes. Connie trains her own colt to participate in horse shows.

West Bay is a cutting horse. This horse has won as many as seven trophies in cutting and in competition as a quarter horse. Scooter Probst is the horse that Connie uses when she rides in the barrel racing contest. Three horses take a lot of time and work, but they must be ready when Connie enters the cutting horse and barrel racing contests in the Snyder Rodeo.

Connie has been entering rodeos and horse shows about three years. Her father, Wilson Connell, is an active participant in rodeos and horse shows and therefore this comes naturally to Connie. She gives most of the credit to her father for the prizes and trophies that she and her horses have won. "Daddy helps me a lot. He's always there to tell me what I am doing wrong. I don't know what I would do without him."

The busy season begins for Connie in May with the Post Stampede Rodeo and ends usually with the World's Championship Junior Rodeo in Abilene in August. Between these months Connie's time is filled with rodeos and horse shows in the vicinity.

After the Snyder Rodeo, Connie plans to enter the Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo at Post and the Abilene Rodeo. She says there is a chance of her going to the Fat Stock Show Rodeo in Fort Worth next year if her father feels that she is ready for the occasion.

The winning of a silver belt buckle is one of Connie's most thrilling moments of her rodeo career. She won her first belt buckle in the cutting horse contest at the Post Junior Rodeo last year. "You always work toward this first belt buckle. You want one because everyone else has got one, but when you get it you think, ah heck! it's just a belt buckle." Yet Connie, like so many others, keeps right on working for another belt buckle.

Why does Connie participate in rodeos and horse shows? "I just love it. It's a lot of fun and it's my hobby. You have a chance to meet such nice and wonderful people." Also Connie enjoys training her horses for the different rodeos and horse shows.

Connie is a member of the American Junior Rodeo Association. This is a group of youngsters 19 years of age and under who are interested in rodeoing. Until last year Snyder had a junior rodeo, but because of lack of interest on the part of the public, Abilene now has Snyder's time. Connie was hostess and sponsor for the rodeo that was held here last year.

Connie is a member of the Texas Barrel Racing Association. When asked how she thought she would do in the Snyder Rodeo, Connie just smiled and answered, "I don't know. A lot of it is luck."

Connie is the type of girl who feels just as much at home at a rodeo as she does at a tea. She has lived on a ranch near Polar for many years and horses have been a part of her life ever since she was a small child. "I used to ride with my Dad when I was too small to ride by myself." She must have been small indeed since Connie was given her first horse at the age of five.

Last year Connie was elected FFA Sweetheart by the Future Farmers of America chapter of Snyder.

What does the future hold for 16-year-old Connie? To be sure, there will be more rodeos and horse shows. After high school she plans to go to college and study interior decorating, which is a far cry from the excitement and tension of the rodeo arena.

PCG Executive Calls Attention Of Farmers To Cotton Loan Changes

George Pfeiffenberger, executive vice president of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., has called attention of cotton producers to changes in the 1956 Cotton Loan Program which deals with eligible cotton.

The PCG official pointed to paragraph 427,706 of the program: "(b) Such cotton must not be false packed, waterpacked, mixed packed, reginned, or repacked; upland cotton must not have been reduced in grade or staple for any reason, except that such cotton which is reduced not more than two grades because of preparation will be eligible; extra long staple cotton must have been ginned on a roller gin, shall be of normal character, and must not have been reduced in grade or staple for any reason."

This means, Pfeiffenberger said, that weak and wasty cotton and spindle twist cotton will not be eligible for the loan this year. While spindle twist cotton has little meaning to South Plains farmers, the weak and wasty cotton, if so classed, could mean a loss in price to farmers so involved, Pfeiffenberger pointed out.

Another paragraph involving changes is: "(g) Each bale of cotton must weigh not less than 350 nor more than 650 pounds, gross weight, and must be adequately packaged in new material manufactured for cotton bale covering, except used jute and sugar bagging will be acceptable if such bagging is clean and in sound condition. Heads of bales must be completely covered."

"New bagging used in the cotton experimental bale cover program sponsored by the National Cotton Council will be acceptable provided there is attached to each bale covered with such bagging a tag which identifies bale with the program, the type of cover used on such bale and which shows the actual tare weight and the number of pounds to be added to the gross weight of the bale for the purpose of adjusting the bale to the normal gross weight under such program."

These are two changes added to the 1956 Cotton Loan Program which were not in effect last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Coel Winn and son of Slaton recently visited friends and relatives here.

and all producers are being advised of these changes in order that no cotton will be refused entrance in the loan because of these reasons, Pfeiffenberger said.

The Fleming Corp. reservoir, to be built on Green River in Utah, has a power plant for 750,000 capacity.

The government has launched a settlement development program for 240,000 square mile area virtually uninhabited.

The kids in the grandstand are yelling, "Strike him out!" and our young pitcher is going to do exactly that. This is his day for a shut-out game . . . his day to win.

He's feeling pretty good about it, and who's to blame him? But what if things had gone the other way? What if some other boy had been warming up in the bullpen, about to have taken his place? But he is a well-balanced youngster, and he would have taken that in stride, too.

He has learned about being a good sport, about regard for his fellow men, and about many other equally important things in Church. For, like thousands of other American youngsters, the Church already plays an important part in his life. That is one reason why his parents have faith in the fact that he will grow up to be a pretty fine man.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

HAS BEEN OUTLAWED FOR HALF A CENTURY

Cowmen Themselves Requested Law Banning Steer Roping In Texas

An exciting rodeo event that isn't seen in Texas shows anyone is steer roping, which has been outlawed in this state for half a century.

The law against steer roping was passed, not at the insistence of a humane society, but at request of the cowmen themselves. In those days, Texas steers mainly had long horns even if they weren't strictly of the Longhorn breed, and the cattlemen complained the cowboys injured too many of the cattle with which they worked, while practicing for the roping events.

Some states, notably Oklahoma, New Mexico and Wyoming, have never outlawed the sport and they have produced the greatest number of top steer ropers.

This brings to mind the fact that back in the days when steers had wider horns spreads than are now seen on most bulldogging steers, when roping steers weighed from 1,200 pounds up and were long and lean and lanky and fast on their feet, one of the greatest of all the steer ropers was a girl, Lucille Mulhall.

One of the country's outstanding horsewomen, she was the world's champion steer roper, occupying a position in that field comparable to that now occupied by pretty Pat McCormick of Big Spring in the bull fighting arena.

Lucille Mulhall's skill with a rope brought her fame in Europe as well as in America. She was the daughter of Col. Zach Mulhall and years ago she worked with such up-and-coming stars as Will Rogers and Tom Mix. Here, other feats with a rope marked her as the world's champion loop tosser. She could catch six and eight running horses with one throw. In 1929 she entered a steer roping contest at Ardmore, Okla., against some of the country's best men ropers and she won it. She was also a rodeo promoter and put the Fort Worth show at the top of the stack.

In later years she retired from active participation and lived on the Mulhall Ranch at Mulhall, Okla. She died in 1940.

Farmers Vote For Wheat Controls

Farmers have voted for the fourth consecutive year to allow Uncle Sam to restrict the production and sale of wheat.

The Garza County vote was 12 for and none against controls, according to Emmarhe I. Hartel, manager of the county ASC office. Since only a very few Garza County growers were eligible to vote in the referendum, the turnout here was considered "fairly good," the office manager said.

Virtually complete returns from the 36 states in which the referendum was held gave 228,839 votes for federal marketing quotas and 32,787 against. This was a favorable majority of 87.3 per cent, which is far in excess of the necessary two-thirds.

In approving controls, farmers assured themselves of a national average price of $2 a bushel on next year's production, the same as this year. Under farm law, the price support would have dropped to around $1.21 a bushel had the quotas been rejected.

The librarian, city committee, school officials and city officials invite and encourage the use of the library by the general public.

Paving 'Confabs' Continuing Here

Negotiations are continuing this week between the representative of a paving company and property owners in regard to this summer's proposed street paving project.

C. J. Barney, representing the C. & C. Asphalt Paving Co. of Colorado City, is carrying on the negotiations by authority of the Post city council.

Councilman Powell Shyles, head of the city council's paving department, said eight and one-half blocks had been signed up for paving before the negotiations began last week, and that he understands about six additional blocks have been included since that time.

Property owners who have signed for the street paving are being contacted by the paving company representative in regard to costs and other details.

New Deadline Is Set In Soil Bank Program

The deadline for Soil Bank acreage agreement sign-ups was extended last week from July 20 to July 27, and the time for destroying allotment crops on Soil Bank acreage from July 31 to Aug. 2.

Emmarhe I. Hartel, county ASC office manager, said Tuesday that approximately 200 growers had signed up for the Soil Bank program. It is estimated that payments for cotton destroyed under the plan will total about $75,000.

Rotary Information Is Speaker's Topic

The origin, growth and scope of Rotary International was described by T. R. Greenfield, charter member of the Post club, in a talk at Tuesday's luncheon.

Greenfield, who is Rotary Information chairman for the club, said that on June 15, 1956, there were 9,115 clubs with a total membership of more than 431,000 in 99 countries. More than half of these clubs, 4,636, are in the United States.

The speaker also told of the many services rendered by Rotary International throughout the free world.

At next Tuesday's luncheon, the members will be brought up to date on progress of the proposed White River dam project. The speakers will be Tom Bouchier, who is chairman of the White River Municipal Authority Committee, and Henry Tate, Post city superintendent.

Opposed To Change In Retirement Act

The Garza County commissioner's court this week adopted a resolution opposing a move to have county judges included in the state's Judicial Retirement Act.

County Judge Pat N. Walker said copies of the resolution adopted by the court have been mailed to the district's state senator and state representative and to officials of the County Judges and Commissioners' Association, which is backing the proposal.

Judge Walker said the move on foot by the association is to have the next Texas Legislature to place county judges under the Judicial Retirement Act.

"We are unalterably opposed to it," Judge Walker said.

Measuring Of Cotton Acreage Nearing End

The measuring of cotton acreage has been completed in the field, but a few more days of clerical work remains to be done before growers can expect a notice of their measured acreage, it was announced this week by Emmarhe I. Hartel, office manager of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Mrs. Hartel said that clerical work is expected to be completed Friday, after which growers will be notified of the measured acreage.

"There were seven reporters measuring in the field, but only two clerks measuring in the office," Mrs. Hartel explained.

Field reporters, who completed their work last Friday, were Ellis M. Mills, Guy Nutt, Alex Ringhoffer, Royce Josey, Joe Lancaster, Jerry Pennell and Leon Miller.

SCARCE ITEM

* WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont.—The West's first formal mode of travel, the stagecoach, is a mighty scarce item in Montana. A West Yellowstone innkeeper canvassed the state for one of the four-wheeled chariots. He found a few coaches, but they were either museum pieces or beyond repair.

NEW BIRD
EAST LANSING, Mich.—A new bird may be moving into the Great Lakes region, according to Michigan State University fisheries and wildlife professor. Dr. Miles D. Pirnie recently saw the bird, the cattle egret or buff-backed heron, a native of Spain, near the southeast corner of Lake St. Clair, Ontario.

FLYING BURGLAR
MARSHALL, Tex.—A flying burglar is on the call from Miss Fort. When they arrived in arrest, they found a burglar on a window street.

On the average, legs lose ten days annually.

'Reds' Down 'Blues,' 11 To 7 In All-Star Game Saturday

Before the largest crowd of the season Saturday night, the "Reds" defeated the "Blues," 11 to 7, in an all-star game which wrote "finis" to Post's first Little League baseball season.

The Reds, managed by Walter B. Holland and Punk Peel trailed at only one stage of the game.

That was after they fell behind in the first inning, but they rallied for a single run to tie the score in the second, added five more in the third and three in the fourth to lead by a score of 9 to 1 at the end of four innings.

The Blues, managed by J. P. Parnell and N. A. Lusby staged a late rally which netted four runs in the fifth and two in the sixth, but were never able to overhaul the Reds, who had posted two more tallies in the top of the sixth.

John Valdez, the league's winningest pitcher with seven victories against no defeats in regular season play, was the victim of the Reds' booming bats. He was nicked for 11 hits in the five innings he pitched. In the Reds' half of the sixth, Valdez traded places with shortstop Bobby Beard, who held the winners hitless, but gave up two more runs in the inning he pitched.

Reuben Valdez was the winning pitcher, but yielded the mound to Leslie Acker with two out in the fifth and the Blues threatening to get back into the ball game. Acker got Lee Williams to ground out, pitcher to first, to end the inning, then hurled the final frame, walking four batters and yielding two runs, but holding the Blues hitless.

After the Reds had failed to score in the top of the first, the Blues got off to a one-run lead when Dwain Capps singled, moved to third on Mike Cornell's one-bagger, then came home when shortstop Buddy Moreland bobbled a grounder off the bat of John Valdez. Cornell and Valdez were left stranded when Reuben Valdez fanned Bobby Beard and Sylvester Collazo.

In the top of the second, the Reds tied the score when John Sepeda doubled with one out, then came home on John Villa's one-bagger. Pete Asebedo walked, but Villa was forced at third by John Guthrie, and Roger Camp popped out to the pitcher to end the inning.

ed force-out failed on Moreland's grounder. Sepeda grounded out, short to first, the runners holding, but Valdez and Johnson scored when Villa's infield grounder was bobbled. Moreland scored on a fielder's choice, but Villa went out on an attempted steal. Asebedo, who had reached second after getting on on a fielder's choice, scored on Guthrie's single. Camp grounded out to first base to end the inning.

In the bottom of the third, Capps grounded out to first, but Cornell was safe on an infield error. He was forced at second by John Valdez, and Valdez went to third on Beard's single. Sylvester Collazo singled to left field, but a fine throw from Guthrie to Acker nipped Valdez at the plate and the inning was over.

Leading off in the top of the fourth, Acker singled and then scored on Reuben Valdez' double. Johnson fanned, but Moreland reached first on an error, Valdez going to third. Sepeda walked and Villa singled to score Valdez. With the bases loaded, John Valdez struck out Asebedo and Guthrie to end the inning.

The Blues threatened again in the fourth, but Jimmy Smith, who had walked, was thrown out attempting to steal, and Rankin also walked, but was forced at second by Filiberto Collazo. For the third time in a row, Williams grounded out, pitcher to first.

In the top of the fifth, John Valdez struck out Neal Francis, who had replaced Camp, and then whiffed Acker. Reuben Valdez singled, but Glenn Polk, who had replaced Lloyd Johnson, went down swinging.

The Blues got back in the ball game in the bottom of the fifth. Capps led off by rolling out, but John Valdez drew a free pass. Beard was walked intentionally to fill the bases, and Capps and Valdez scored on a fielder's choice by Ivie. Smith walked to again load the bases, but Acker fanned Cook and then knocked down Filiberto Collazo's hot grounder and tossed him out at first to end the game.

To start the sixth for the Reds, Charles O'Neal, a replacement for Moreland, fanned. Sepeda was

Southland Mentor To Attend 6-Man Football School

KERRVILLE (Sp.)—F. W. Callaway, superintendent of schools at Southland, will be among the 100 grid mentors to attend the 11th annual Six-Man Football School for Coaches at Schreiner Institute here Aug. 1-3.

The school will be climaxed by the East-West basketball and football all-star games on successive nights.

About 50 youngsters, the most outstanding athletes of the state's small schools, will check in July 29. They will be fed and housed at Schreiner Institute. Workouts will start the next day.

The football coaching staff for the Aug. 3 all-star struggle includes Claude Morrison of Enochs for the West and Robert Hardy Jr. of New Waverly for the East. Coaching the basketball stars will be Wilford Arthur of Jayton for the West and Benford Gardner of Gardwood for the East. The all-star hoop game is set Aug. 2 in Schreiner's gymnasium.

The coaching school will have Schreiner Athletic Director John coaches, their wives and guests Hamberger and Coach Verdell Turner as speakers. About 150 are expected for the instruction and demonstration sessions.

hit by the pitcher and went to second when the second baseman bobbled Villa's grounder. Asebedo walked to load the bases, but Sepeda was thrown out trying to reach home. On a fielder's choice by Delroy Odom and an over-throw, both Villa and Asebedo scored. Cook struck out to end the inning, with the Reds ahead, 11 to 5.

Trailing by six runs, the Blues got off to a good start in the last of the sixth when Capps walked. Cornell struck out, but John Valdez drew a free pass. Beard was walked intentionally to fill the bases, and Capps and Valdez scored on a fielder's choice by Ivie. Smith walked to again load the bases, but Acker fanned Cook and then knocked down Filiberto Collazo's hot grounder and tossed him out at first to end the game.

DEFEAT DODGERS IN PROTESTED GAME PLAYOFF

Pat Cornell's Two Home Runs Spark Tigers To 9-6 Victory

Pat Cornell's two home runs helped power the Civic Clubs' Tigers to a 9 to 6 victory over the First National Bank's Dodgers last Thursday evening in the playoff of a protested game.

The game was called because of rain with the Dodgers coming to bat in the bottom half of the fifth inning.

The game was the playoff of a July 7 contest in which the Dodgers were victorious, but on which a protest was filed by N. A. Lusby, Tiger manager. The protest, which involved a decision over a Dodger base runner leaving the base too soon, was upheld by the league president.

The Tiger win was their first of the season over the pennant-winning Dodgers.

The Tigers scored a run in the first inning when Lee Williams, who had singled, came home on an overthrow at first after having been advanced on a fielder's choice.

The Dodgers came back to score three runs in their half of the first when shortstop John Valdez banded a three-run homer.

The Tigers went back in the lead in their half of the second on Bobby Hudman's single, Williams' double and the first of Pat Cornell's two circuit smashes.

Daniel Johnson singled for the Dodgers in their half of the second and then scored on Filiberto Collazo's one-base blow to pull up to within one run of the Tigers, and after two complete innings the score was 3-4.

The Tigers kept rolling in the third on singles by Delroy Odom, Williams and Jimmy Ivie, and Cornell's second over-the-fence homer, making the score 9-4 when the Dodgers came to bat in their half of the third.

Valdez doubled and Sylvester Collazo walked, Valdez then scoring on a fielder's choice by David Lee, and Collazo came home on Pete Asebedo's single.

The Dodgers got a man on base in the bottom half of the fourth after holding the Tigers scoreless in the top half, but Ivie, Tiger hurler, retired the next three men in order to squelch the threat.

Ivie was the winning pitcher and Bobby Beard was the loser.

Fish Law Violations Lead Arrests Report

AUSTIN (Sp.)—Most Texas fishermen had good catches to show for their trips to lake and stream but a comparative few had far unhappier reminders of their angling exploits, according to the monthly arrest report by the Game and Fish Commission.

The document shows that more than half of the prosecutions for violations, mainly for lacking the $2.15 individual angling license. This particular violation netted 143 persons. Fines ranged up to $25 plus costs.

Seven cases were made for using electrical devices to take fish, more commonly known as "telephoning fish." Field men observed, according to the director of law enforcement, that recent severe penalties by justices of the peace have helped discourage this illegal practice.

A few of the outers got caught grabbing or using too many hooks. Two men were charged with dynamiting fish and two others from Troy got harsh treatment when they were taken into court for using illegal wire traps. Both paid fines of $100 plus costs.

Consolidation Vote Slated For Aug. 7

An election on proposed consolidation of the Grassland and Tahoka school districts has been called for Tuesday, Aug. 7, by Lynn County Judge W. M. Mathis. The Post Dispatch has been informed by two members of the Grassland school board that, contrary to a news story in the July 19 issue of The Dispatch, the proposal to hold the consolidation election was not voted on by the Grassland board.

Our source of information was the July 13 issue of The Lynn County News, which stated that the Grassland board voted unanimously in favor of such an election. Petitions asking that the election be called were circulated in both the Grassland and Tahoka districts and then presented Judge Mathis.

The Grassland district recently rejected a five-district consolidation proposal which also included the Southland, Garnolia, Graham and Close City districts. Grassland last year also voted against consolidation with Tahoka.

Native Of Turkey Completing His Study Of Textile Industry

Yelmar Oral, 25-year-old native of Turkey, who is helping install new machinery at Postex Cotton Mills, Inc., is in the United States to study its textile industry, but says he is getting as much good out of learning the customs of the land as he is in picking up pointers on its textile-manufacturing.

He says the same was true in Germany, where he spent three and a half years, and in England, where he spent eight months.

Oral's five-year permit from the Turkish government to visit foreign lands in his study of the textile industry expires soon and he plans to return home the latter part of August, stopping off in England and Germany to visit with friends he made while studying in those countries.

"I've learned much of the textile industry in each of these countries, but I think that in the long run what I've learned about their people will prove as valuable to me as my technical training," he said.

It has been three years since Oral has visited his family in Isparta, Turkey, and he admits that he is homesick. He says he is looking forward to attending the Junior Rodeo here Aug. 8-11 as one of the remaining highlights on his visit to the United States. He has never seen a rodeo.

Oral arrived in the United States on May 1, spending several weeks in Maine and other New England states visiting mill equipment factories. From there, he went to Charlotte, N. C., and it was here that he received the opportunity to come to Post and help install machinery in the local mill's huge expansion program now under way.

Oral says he is glad he came to Post, where he finds the people "very friendly." He rooms with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Parker. "In no time at all," he said, "they had made me feel like a member of the family. You might say that Mrs. Parker is my first American 'mother.'"

In Isparta, Oral's father is a large-scale manufacturer of Oriental carpets, in which business he has been engaged for about forty years.

Turkey grows its own raw materials of wool and cotton for its thriving textile industry and, while the major segment of the industry is controlled by the state, the trend is toward private ownership, Oral said. The nation has been almost completely "westernized" since the revolution of the early 1920's, and is growing industrially by leaps and bounds.

Oral said that upon his return to Isparta he will help install a new spinning mill. Most of the rugs, for which Turkey has been famous for centuries, are handmade, with women doing most of the work. Tobacco, grown extensively in the northern part of the nation, is one of Turkey's chief products, and Turkish cigarettes are known the world over. There are large, relatively undeveloped deposits of coal, iron, copper, petroleum and chrome. The country has the largest arms industry in the Middle East.

Church and State now are separated in Turkey, with the vast majority of the population being of the Moslem faith. Education is compulsory, free and secular between the ages of seven and 12, and optional but free, through the university. There are primary, intermediate, secondary and vocational schools with universities in Istanbul and Ankara.

Oral finished high school at a state-subsidized school in Istanbul, where he learned the French language. After going to Germany, he found it necessary to learn the German language in his studies of that country's textile industry, and learned to speak English during the eight months he was in England.

Oral said that between 700 and 800 Turkish students are studying in the United States.

He is a member of a large family. His oldest brother studied in this country, receiving his master's degree here. Another brother studied law, two older sisters are married and a younger brother and sister are still in secondary school.

Basketball, as it is played in America, is a popular sport in Turkey, Oral says. But the nearest thing they have to American football is the game of soccer.

"If we can be said to have a national sport, it is wrestling," Oral said. "Not the type of wrestling you see on television in this country, but the Greco-Roman and catch-as-catch-can types. Turkey has provided the continent of Europe and the Middle East with a number of championship wrestling teams."

EXPERIMENT STATION PUBLICATIONS

Cotton Research Is Featured In New Bulletins Now Available

Two recent Texas Agricultural Experiment Station publications, B-830, Cotton Production on the Texas High Plains, and B-832, Smith-Doxey Classification, Fiber Testing and Problems of the Cotton Trade, are now available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Tex.

The first named was prepared by the staff of the Lubbock sub-station headed by Supt. D. L. Jones and Dr. H. C. Lane of the Department of Plant Physiology and Pathology, College Station.

Such items as seedbed preparation, planting, cultivation, irrigation, fertilization, insects, diseases, varieties, defoliation, harvesting and field storage of cotton are discussed. The authors point out a successful cotton program for the area is through lower cost of production. They say this can be accomplished only by a thorough understanding of the factors influencing cotton production, so that a sound integrated production program can be evolved. Listed in the bulletin are the results of research aimed at developing such a program.

Dr. R. L. Hunt, professor, Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology, in the second bulletin reports the findings of a study made last year. He interviewed or sent a questionnaire to members of the Texas Cotton Association and 65 merchants answered the questions in sufficient detail to use their replies. These firms represent shippers, f. o. b. merchants, spot brokers and mill buyers and have an annual business of approximately 4,864,000 bales.

On Smith-Doxey, 53 said they bought some cotton on S-D classification and in 1954 about 38 per cent of their total purchases were made on the basis of "green cards." Thirty-two said the vice was satisfactory, partially so, 20 said it was satisfactory and 20 made some criticism of it. Some use of fiber noted by 53 firms, half of the 4.3 million bales by the 65 firms on the basis of Microzone only 27 per cent was on this basis.

VOTE FOR

JUDGE ALTON B. CHAPMAN FLOYD COUNTY FOR ASSOCIATE JUSTICE COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS

"We can do nothing but predict a victory for Judge Chapman in his race for Associate Justice. Judge Chapman is as capable and deserving a Christian man as we have ever known. With the Courts of our land in hands as devoted and capable as the hands of Judge Chapman American Justice in both criminal and civil courts will continue to be a lighthouse throughout the world."

The above quote was taken from the July 16th issue of the Texas Spur, a newspaper in the town where Judge Chapman finished high school, where he served as County and District Attorney and for the last 19 years as District Judge.

His record on appeals, when the cases he has tried and disposed of are compared to the cases reversed, is better than 98 per cent perfect.

Rodeo Cowboys Find Best Way To Quit Saddle Real Problem

Doubtless the first man who ever rode a horse was faced with the problem that will confront riders in the Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo here Aug. 8-11 how to get off a bronc after the ride is finished. There isn't any best way, and rarely ever does it happen the same way twice.

Each individual ride presents its own particular problems. This is equally true of the bull riders.

It's a matter of calling off or jumping off. The cowboy, if he has succeeded in making his eight-second ride, must decide in a small fraction of a second how he is going to leave the animal. If he has been thrown, and hasn't stayed aboard for eight seconds, the decision is made for him and he must try to make the best of it as he hits the ground.

The saddle bronc rider can try to hold on until a pickup man gets to him, racing his horse alongside the pitching bronc. The pickup man reaches for the cowboy at the same time that the cowboy reaches for him. The pickup man can then slow or stop his horse and lower the cowboy to the ground.

But if the saddle bronc rider can't wait for the pickup man, or if the bronc is whirling and pitching in such a fashion that the pickup man can't close in on him, then the rider has other problems which must be solved all at once. He must be sure he is clear of the stirrups and other saddle rigging, and he must jump or fall in such a fashion that he can avoid the bronc's feet and at the same time not break bones in the fall itself.

The bareback rider has only to turn loose and jump or fall in such a manner as to avoid being hit or stepped on by the bronc.

The bull rider has additional troubles. The big Brahman bulls have been infuriated. While the bronc, once he is free of his rider, is usually satisfied to run on off and separate himself as far as possible from the man, the Brahman bull all too frequently turns on the grounded rider for revenge. And since the bull has no more respect for a horseman than for a man on foot, pickup men cannot be used to help bull riders.

It is here the rodeo cowboy saves his main purpose, skilled bull fighter and job to divert the animal bull long enough to allow him to escape from the arena. Usually there isn't any way for the clowns if they are able with the bull. Their singing and footwork is also defense they have to aid each other.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Webb were in Snyder Thursday and Friday with Mrs. Gladys Mathuson, who is a patient in Cogdell Memorial Hospital, suffering from severe burns on her face and hands.

Mrs. Mathuson, who has been ill for several months, received the burns while rescuing her granddaughter, Candy Hall, from their burning Snyder home last week.

Mrs. Mathuson's daughter, Mrs. Anita Hall, lost her life in the fire. Funeral services were conducted for her Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Neilson and children of Odessa spent last week with Mrs. Neilson's mother, Mrs. Marie Williamson. Before leaving for his new home in Colorado, Jerry Williamson of Slaton also visited his grandmother, Mrs.

Williamson. Visiting Tuesday in Peddy home were Mr. A. A. Porter and two Big Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Spearman were Friday guests of his mother, Mrs. Pierce. On Saturday the Joplin, Mo., to take Mrs. Arnie Nelson to after she had spent a week with Mrs. Pierce.

Mrs. Jessie Voss left day to spend several days with her daughter, Mrs. Snell, in Temple.

Miss Bobbie Meador, Colington, is visiting Miss Dagers this week.

Stock Bronc Event Is Similar To Ride On Flying Suitcase

an idea of what it's like to ride a bareback, you should imagine that you have a large suitcase, grasped with your hand between your legs and have been tossed off a flying airplane on a rope.

It will give you a fair idea of the position of a cowboy on a bareback horse, but to really feel it, you should imagine the pilot swoops low and the bag off an irregular roof top.

It may be a slight exaggeration, but at least the bareback rider has more control over his horse than you would over the suitcase and no more than a suitcase to hang on to.

The equipment used in this event is a simple surcingle with a leather handle on the top. The rider has no saddle to help him position and no stirrups to help him balance or help the shock of the bucks.

A horse doesn't even have a bit or rein to help the rider control him.

At the start, the cowboy must ride up seconds from the time the chute leaves the chute. He has his spurs over the break and is touching the horse when its feet touch the ground on the first jump out of the chute.

He can't touch any part of the horse with his free hand during the ride and can't change hands during the ride.

In saddle bronc riding, the rider is decided by the judge's decision of the two cowboy judges. In every movement of the horse, the opposite sides of the horse are used to score the rider. Points to score the rider are 1 to 85 points to score the horse.

It's difficult to imagine how a cowboy could look like they're trying to stick out the time of this event, the experienced riders can easily spot the caudal and sticking the limit rough.

Markings go to the cowboy who ride the best, spurring much as they can. Bareback riding differs from that in bronc riding and is done around the shoulder rather than the sides of the horse. In an event, too, the contestant hopes to draw the meanest horse in the stock contractor's string because he needs the high marking on the horse to win and because only a good buckner will give him opportunity to show his best bronc-riding ability.

If the horse falls with the rider, or if the rider is knocked off at the chute, he may ask the judges for a reride—if he's still able to ride. If the flank strap comes off the horse, he's entitled to a reride but if the surcingle comes off without breaking, the rider is disqualified. The contestant can also be disqualified for riding with rowels on his spurs that are too sharp in the opinion of the judges.

Bareback horses are just as wily and cantankerous as saddle broncs. As a general rule, the saddle broncs may be a little bigger and more powerful but the bareback rider, with a lot less to help him on the horse, can expect everything from the bronc's bag of tricks.

The horses sunfish (twist violently in midair), rear, buck straight ahead and kick high with their hind feet. Worst of all they mix up their tricks, changing the pace of their pitches and kicks to throw the rider off balance.

In bareback riding you'll see the cowboy's legs flapping through the ride like sapling branches in a windstorm. If the horse is bucking especially hard and the cowboy is getting in good lucks with his spurs, you're probably watching the winner.

But if you ever see daylight between the seat of the cowboy's denims and that suitcase handle on the surcingle, it's a good bet the bronc's next jump will send the rider flying to a fall and out of the money.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe carloadings for week ending July 21 were 23,656 compared with 25,163 for the same week in 1955. Cars received from connections totaled 11,476 compared with 11,386 for the same week in 1955. Total cars moved were 35,132 compared with 36,549 for the same week in 1955. Santa Fe handled a total of 34,956 cars in preceding week of this year.

A few weeks ago we ran an ADVERTISEMENT LISTING a lot of items for sale under FALSE PRETENSES. Now we noticed you didn't RESPOND to this ad as well as we would like but we did have a call or two for ONE ITEM we didn't list. Seems like so many folks prefer to DROWN THEMSELVES and since we didn't have any WATER-HOLES for sale we had to pass the sale by.

But We Offer This Suggestion

When you start for the lake, river, tank or ocean take along a good supply of FISHING TACKLE—also a good ICE CHEST for your cold drinks and sandwiches and a THERMOS JUG OR WATER CAN to have cold water on the trip. A good CAMP STOVE (gasoline or butane) a folding TABLE & CHAIRS, Gas or Butane lantern for lights in the camp, DON'T FORGET the sleeping bag and AIR MATTRESS.

Any time you go anywhere on any occasion, COME BY for emergency needs in HARDWARE.

Calf Roper's Big Job Comes Prior To Area Performance

No single rodeo event displays as many of the cowboy's skills as does calf roping, which annually proves one of the most popular events at Post's Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo. In 15 seconds or less, you'll see how well a horse can be trained and ridden, how well a man can handle a rope and tie a kicking calf, and how well horse and man can work together as a team.

Most of the work it takes to be a successful calf roper is never seen by rodeo spectators since it is done long before the chute gate opens and the calf streaks across the arena.

No roper would invest an entry fee without having a good roping horse, and the horses you'll see in this event are some of the best-trained working horses in the country. Fast and intelligent, they are trained from the best quarter horse stock.

They have the quick burst of starting speed—necessary to come right up on the running calves—that is characteristic of their breed. They are trained to follow the calf through every twist or turn, holding their position just behind it and a little to one side to give the roper the best chance to throw his loop.

At a signal from the roper, they'll stop on a dime, sitting back on their haunches and braking with all four feet as the cowboy steps out of the saddle to run down the rope. Then, without a rider, they stand alertly facing the calf, backing slightly to keep the rope taut, but never dragging the calf.

Contest calf roping is a timed event and frequently several hundred dollars depend on the saving of a split second. You'll see how the teamwork between horse and cowboy is polished in this event to machine-like smoothness.

At most rodeos all calves are given a head start determined by the size of the arena and other conditions. The officials who work the event are a scoreline judge, a field judge and two timers.

When the calf is out of the chute and has crossed the scoreline, the scoreline judge drops his flag to signal the starting of time and pulls the rope barrier from in front of the box where the roper waits. If the contestant starts out of the box before the calf crosses the scoreline, he breaks the barrier and a ten-second penalty is added to his time.

Once out of the box, the horse closes on the calf as quickly as possible. As soon as he's in range the roper lets fly with his loop—usually from about 12 feet away. The rules are catch as catch can, which means the roper can catch the calf any way he can—around the head, feet or body—as long as the loop is out of his hand when it catches and holds until the roper gets to the calf.

As soon as the rope has settled

Proper Use Defoliants, Desiccants Can Sharply Reduce Harvest Costs

Savings up to $30 per bale in harvesting costs can result from proper use of defoliants or desiccants on cotton, according to the Cotton Improvement Subcommittee of the Statewide Cotton Committee of Texas.

Improper use of these chemicals, the committee adds, can result in costly losses. Benefits from defoliation or desiccation usually outweigh disadvantages when materials are supplied wisely at the right time.

Properly used, the harvest-aid chemicals offer the advantages:

1. Quicker and more uniform boll opening and results in more of the crop being harvested at one time.
2. Hand or machine harvesting is aided in rank and heavily foliated cotton; these chemicals are essential for machine harvesting rank stands, especially in wet seasons.
3. Harvest is speeded up, helping to avoid lower grades through weathering and stops insect reproduction.
4. Grade, staple, fiber and seed properties may be improved.
5. Chances of boll rot and quality loss are reduced.
6. Some help to control regrowth, which can reduce quality.

If used, improperly, especially too soon on plants with immature bolls, harvest-aid chemicals can:

1. Reduce yields.
2. Reduce boll size and number of seed per boll.
3. Decrease fiber length and grade, increase fineness and neps and cause immature fibers and seeds.
4. Cause spotted, stained fiber.
5. Force more drying and ginning, which may lower quality.
6. Increase mill waste and processing costs because of immature fibers, overheating and overmachining.
7. Reduce quality of fabrics, yarns or other mill products.
8. Toxic and rapidly-acting compounds, usually called desiccants, produce more damage than milder defoliants. Seed germination and stands may be reduced when chemicals that are not recommended are used or when chemicals are applied before the crop is fully mature.

"Harvest aid chemicals", the committee concludes, "must be used wisely and are a definite part of mechanized cotton production. When properly used, they have no adverse effects but may improve many fiber and seed properties."

Confused "Sit"-uation

Been meaning all week to tell you about Curley Lawson's "baby-sitting" experience.

His Mrs. left him in charge, about seven p.m., with instructions not to let the children come downstairs. So Curley read his paper and whenever he heard footsteps on the staircase he ordered the culprit back to bed. Happened three or four times.

Little while later, Mrs. Miller from next door came over to inquire if Curley had seen her Sonya. "Here I am, Mom" came a voice from upstairs. "But Mr. Lawson won't let me go home."

From where I sit, jumping to conclusions like Curley did, doesn't always make for an amusing story. I'm reminded of the people who—without due consideration—have concluded that I'm wrong to like an occasional glass of beer. Well, to my way of thinking, that's not only intolerant... but, what's more, "minding" the other fellow's business is not the American way.

MRS. WILL TEAFF OF CLOSE CITY WRITES

Birthday Party Is Given On Monday Honoring Mrs. Walter Brown, 80

Visiting in the A. O. Rosenbaum home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Foster and children of Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cearley spent Saturday night with the Royce Waltrip and Wayne Cearleys at Levelland and with the J. B. Cearley family at Woodrow.

Sunday visitors of the Glen Cearleys were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Cearley of Fort Worth.

Howard Lee Teaff was rushed to Garza Memorial Hospital Saturday afternoon after suffering severe burns on his arm and chest when gasoline exploded in his face.

Visitors in the L. R. Mason home Sunday were their son, Robert Louis Mason of Lubbock.

The Rev. Nowell of Lubbock has accepted the pastorate of the Baptist Church here. He and his family will move here soon.

The Rev. A. T. Nixon is conducting a revival at Pleasant Valley this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Teaff went to Gouldbusk Saturday to visit the O. J. Watson family. On Sunday, they attended a birthday dinner for Walter Teaff in the Randall Story home in Abilene.

Mrs. Barnie Jones took the following intermediate girls to Plains Baptist Assembly Wednesday: Barbara Blacklock, Gwen Copple, Eunice Brown, Frances Barron and Oneita Jones. They returned home Friday.

Mrs. O. J. Watson and children of Gouldbusk are visiting the Will Teaffs. Other Sunday evening visitors were Mrs. Harvey Stotts and sons and Pam and Sandra Bayer of Lubbock. Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Roberts and Sue and Mr. and Mrs. Berned Teaff and children of Abilene and T-Sgt. and Mrs. N. B. Teaff and son also of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Cross and children of Verbena visited in the Bon Longshore home Sunday and attended services at the Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Maddox and children visited relatives in Slaton Sunday.

A birthday party honoring Mrs. Walter Brown on her 80th birthday was held Monday in the Will Teaff home. Mrs. A. M. Smith read a scripture and poem and the group sang "Precious Memories". Punch and cake were served to the following: Mrs. Wheatley, Mrs. Marshall Tipton, Mrs. R. V. Blacklock, Mrs. Glen Cearley, Mrs. L. R. Mason, Mrs. Barnie Jones and Reta Fern, Mrs. A. M. Smith and daughters, Mrs. R. H. Sappington and children, Mrs. Cecil Bland and children, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Teaff and the honoree.

Mrs. C. K. Wheatley visited in the Slaton home of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Meeks last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schmidt of Hobbs, N. M. visited in the H. W. Schmidt home Tuesday evening. Michael Schmidt, who had been visiting them, returned home.

Grassland Woman Is Burned In Explosion

Mrs. James Brookshire, 24, of the Grassland community, was reported in fair condition this week in Lubbock Methodist Hospital where she is being treated for burns received at her home Saturday.

Mrs. Brookshire was burned about the arms and legs when butane gas, being used to blow out water lines at her home, ignited from the bathroom water heater.

RAPID PROGRESS

Early results from beef cattle performance demonstrations are a strong indication that rapid progress in beef cattle improvement can be made in both weaning weight and conformation grade of calves when such a program is put into operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dean and two children visited in Lubbock Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Paddy and Shirley of Galena Park were guests of his parents, the J. T. Paddys, last week.

Mrs. J. E. Parker left Monday morning for Fort Worth, where she will spend a week visiting with her five sisters.

LONE STAR AGRICULTURE

Daily Risks Of The American Farm Are Both Physical And Financial

By JOHN C. WHITE
Commissioner of Agriculture

During recent years agriculture has been a notoriously bad business to get into. Crop prices have dropped steadily and net farm income is now the lowest in our history.

Yet, in spite of this farm depression, the farmer's chief investment—the farm itself—has risen in cost to about the same extent that prices for commodities have dropped.

There are several reasons for the rapid rise in land prices. The most important has been the need of farmers for additional land to offset lower acreage allotments. Other farmers need more land to take full advantage of increased mechanical equipment and keep income up, despite falling prices, with added production.

Then, too, suburban and professional men with plenty of money to spend have been investing in land. Some want a farm as a place to retire, and others buy small farms for homes and hobbies—and tax write-offs. Farm land prices in suburban areas have gone up most.

But despite this strong demand and prices up nearly 30 per cent since 1950, farm sales have continued at a very low level. Those who could have held onto their land, either because of stubbornness and determination to stay put or else for higher stakes. However, for those who are buying land or for those who are holding out for all-time high prices on that land they have for sale, a word of caution is advised.

Of course, it is sometimes hard to evaluate good land in terms of cash, considering what human and natural resources have gone into "making" a farm. But, practical matters considered, most current land prices are above levels that can be justified by present or prospective earnings.

Farm operating costs are almost certain to go higher. Labor wages are on the upward trend, and so are transportation, machinery and other supplies. The cost-price squeeze shows little or no signs of easing. Refinancing credit is less plentiful, and interest rates are higher.

Also, there is no land shortage in sight, probably not for two generations, and even, then per-acre farm output will have increased to such a level as to be more than plentiful for our population.

In short, unless there is a more rapid rise in farm commodity prices than now appears likely, it will take longer to pay out a farm on the present market than at any time in 40 years if the farmer relies solely on the sale of farm products. And that's about all they grow.

NO FIVE-EASY-LESSONS PROPOSITION

Learning How To Drive Is Lifetime Job, County Sheriff Tells Motorists

"Learning how to drive is not a five-easy-lessons proposition—it's a lifetime job!"

That was the message to motorists today by Sheriff Carl Rains in connection with the vacation safe driving program which is being conducted this month in Texas by the Texas Safety Association, the Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council.

He pointed out that the past decade has seen marked strides forward in automobile design and production, with the result that modern automobiles are faster and more powerful—and more numerous—than ever before.

Urging all motorists to keep up to date in their driving habits, he said that many drivers on our highways today are still using driving techniques as obsolete as the out-dated model in which they first learned.

"A motorist has to be alert to rapid developments in our highway system, too, especially with so many superhighways springing up over the country," the sheriff said.

"These smooth ribbon-like roads cutting across mountain and valley from one end of the country to the other are beautiful to drive on, but driving a modern high-powered car on them requires control, precision and highly developed driving skills," he said.

Pointing out that the comfort and ease of driving today has a dangerous tendency to dull the alertness of the driver to the increased dangers of modern traffic, the sheriff cautioned all motorists, especially those on vacation trips, to drive safely and to keep alert at all times.

"A good motto for every motorist to heed," he said, "is 'Drive to Arrive Alive—Slow Down and Live!'"

Education Graduates From University To Average $345 Month

AUSTIN (Sp.) — University of Texas education graduates this year will average $345 monthly, compared with $431 for engineering-science graduates.

The teacher salary average is for nine months, however, while engineers draw pay for 12 months.

Maximum salary offered for the 1956-57 school year is $4,000 for nine months—about $445 monthly—at Snyder, says Dr. Hob Gray, University Teacher Placement Bureau director. Minimum for beginning teachers with bachelors' degrees is $312 monthly.

Almost all University graduates are going to schools where salary schedules are above the "minimum foundation" the state requires, Dr. Gray reports.

Teachers with masters' degrees command higher salaries, even without classroom experience. They can expect a monthly minimum of $335, an average of $368, and a $468 maximum. Last year's comparable figures were $335, $358, and $458.

Davis, Taylor Among Degree Candidates

Two students from Post, Lee W. Davis Jr. and Doyle Meredith Taylor, are among the 123 candidates for bachelor's degrees in Texas Tech's Arts and Sciences Division at the end of the current summer session Aug. 24.

The list, made public by Dean R. C. Goodwin, includes 50 prospective teachers for the state's hard-pressed public school systems, 24 petroleum geologists, and students with majors in 18 other specialized fields.

The candidates are scheduled to receive degrees in commencement exercises at 7:15 p. m. Friday, Aug. 24, in the Lubbock Auditorium.

Davis is majoring in education and Taylor in sociology.

Robert Stewart of Spur spent Sunday afternoon in the Walter B. Holland home.

Supplies Of Broilers, Fryers 20 Pct. Above Figures Of Year Ago

Supplies of broilers and fryers are making prices which should prove popular with Garza County consumers. August supplies are expected to be 20 per cent above a year ago with an average of nearly 29 million birds going to market weekly. Prices are running 20 to 22 per cent below last year.

Too, the USDA announced that the turkey crop is at least a third larger than a year ago with heavy breed hens and toms making up most of the excess.

Food shoppers will also find plenty of beef available. Large quantities of all grades are expected for August.

Fresh plums and Bartlett pears are two plentiful fruits listed. The plum market has its peak supply in August and prices usually break.

Other plentiful listed for August include fresh and processed lemons, peanuts, peanut butter, rice and hens.

The USDA suggests that menus featuring broilers and fryers or even turkeys be used during the coming month because of the supplies and favorable prices of these food products.

Free Heated Issues Face Voters On July 28 Ballot

Highly controversial re-encroachment." 3. "For (or against) specific legislation perfecting state laws against inter-marriage between white persons and Negroes." The proposal to exempt any child from compulsory attendance at integrated schools is an effort to sidestep the Supreme Court decision and could result in wrecking Texas' public school system, referendum foes claim. Proponents claim that the proposal would merely provide a free choice of schools and is not necessarily in direct contradiction with the high court ruling. Opponents of the inter-marriage referendum say the present criminal law now provides penitentiary terms of two to five years for the marriage of a white and a Negro and the civil code decrees that such a marriage is null and void. They also say that relatively few instances of inter-marriage have been found in Texas. The question of interposition, whether or not it actually exists, and how valid it is, and what effect it would have, is one that has been discussed and debated recently by lawyers and laymen in many states. Interposition is a process by which a state objects to federal action which the state feels violates rights reserved for the state. It is based on a constitutional provision that states uniting themselves into a federal government retain unto themselves rights and powers they did not surrender to the central government. It is considered a step short of nullification—an act in which a state declares "null and void" a federal action which it feels violates the rights reserved for the states. Proponents of interposition say that the doctrine has constitutional basis and is upheld by precedent, citing several instances in early American history in which states used interposition to federal action. Some foes of interposition say that it exists only as a theory, that it has no legal status, and that any resolutions declaring interposition are without any effect. They cite numerous rulings and precedents which they say establish the federal government as supreme.

Astronomical Center Is Planned At TCU
FORT WORTH (Spl.)—If present plans materialize, a new Astronomical Center will be constructed on the campus of Texas Christian University within the next year, President M. E. Sadler announced today. To be housed in a specially designed building, the Center would include a 12-inch catadioptric telescope as the main instrument, other smaller telescopes, a spectroheliograph, a planetarium, laboratories, classrooms and other facilities.

Garza Countians Have Purchased 48.9 Pct. Of Savings Bonds Quota
T. R. Greenfield, Garza County Savings Bonds chairman, announced today that citizens of Garza County have purchased 48.9 percent of their $160,000 quota in Series E and H Savings Bonds during the first six months of 1956. Chairman Greenfield reminds the people that by their continued purchase of Savings Bonds they are helping themselves and their government. By putting more of the national debt in the hands of individuals, citizens are helping the government in its efforts to maintain a strong and stable economy. "Not only are the people helping the government," he says, "they are purchasing one of the strongest and safest investments in the world today. Series E Savings Bonds pay 3 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually, when held to maturity and both the interest and principal are fully guaranteed by the U. S. Treasury Department."

New Floor Stocks Tax Forms Ready
Business firms subject to the new floor stocks tax on products included in the recently passed Highway Act may now obtain copies of Form 2265 from the Internal Revenue Office at Lubbock, Administrative Officer H. O. Nichols said today. Returns, with payments, are due by Oct. 15. Increased taxes are levied on floor stocks of the following items on hand as of last July 1: gasoline; tires of the type used on highway vehicles; truck, bus and trailer chassis and bodies, and tractors. A new tax was imposed on tread rubber of three cents a pound. An instruction sheet accompanies the new form, Nichols said. It explains and defines inclusions and exemptions in the products listed as taxable on the form itself. Continuing taxes called for under the Highway Act will be paid as part of regular quarterly excise tax returns. A 16-year road-building program to cost about $3 billion dollars will be financed by the taxes set forth in the new act. Two million copies of the form were printed to meet the needs of affected businesses. Of these about a third are being distributed directly by trade associations and manufacturers, with the remaining two-thirds to be available through district revenue offices. Returns and payments should be sent to the district office, and checks or money orders should be made payable to the Internal Revenue Service, Nichols reminded business firms.

186 Are Candidates For Degrees At TCU
FORT WORTH (Spl.)—There are 186 candidates for degrees at Texas Christian University's summer commencement exercises the night of Aug. 24. Registrar Calvin Cumbie reported that 127 are due to receive their first bachelor degrees, 12 are candidates for the Bachelor of Divinity degree and 47 are seeking masters degrees. Last year, 151 degrees were awarded at the Summer exercises.

FALL SEEDING BEST
Fall seeding is best for establishing alfalfa stands. A soil test will show what fertilizers are needed by this favorite forage crop. The seedbed should be firm, clean and moist and only certified seed should be planted, says E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist.

FAIREST OF THEM ALL—"Mirror, mirror on the wall—who's the fairest of them all?" No one can deny that Maid of Cotton Patricia Ann Cowden of Raleigh, N. C., must be ranked among Dixie's fairest flowers. Her great wisdom is also in evidence as she shows her preference for U. S. Savings Bonds—one of the fairest and best methods of saving for the big things in life. Pat has a genuine knowledge of saving Bonds, having served as bond clerk in the North Carolina bank where she worked before her selection as cotton queen. Pat is only one of over 40 million Americans who feel more secure because they own U. S. Savings Bonds.

VA Questions And Answers

Q. I am a Korea veteran, just getting out of service. I have a $5,000 insurance policy with a private company, but no GI insurance. How much Korean GI term insurance may I get—$5,000 or $10,000?
A. You may be eligible for the maximum of $10,000 of Korean GI term insurance. Your private insurance does not reduce the amount of GI insurance you may be able to get.

Q. A friend of mine is a blind veteran eligible for VA aid who is planning to get a guide dog. Will VA pay for his travel expenses in going to the place where he is supposed to learn to adjust to using the guide dog?
A. Yes, VA will pay his travel expenses, as well as meals and lodging during the period of adjustment to the guide dog.

Q. Does VA in Washington, D. C., have a list of all courses approved for veterans under the Korean GI Bill?
A. No. Each VA regional office maintains a list of State-approved courses for veterans under the Korean GI Bill. To get the information, contact your VA regional office, and not VA headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Q. I am a Korea veteran, and I have no plans to take training under the Korean GI Bill. Could I get VA vocational counseling just to find out whether I'm in the right field of work?
A. No. Vocational counseling is available only to veterans planning to train under the Korean GI Bill. Also, it's required of all disabled veterans planning on vocational rehabilitation training. But it is not available to other veterans.

Mrs. Guy Floyd will accompany Mrs. Edgar Floyd to Ruidoso, N. M., this weekend to visit friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Moses of Sudan spent Tuesday visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Parrish. Dana Lusby is visiting in the F. M. Reep, Jr., home in Lubbock this week. She will return home Monday.

PRICE DANIEL OF LIBERTY COUNTY
for Governor

Judge the future by his record of the past ...

- ★ For honesty and integrity in government. Author of the only announced plan to clean up misconduct in the State Government without partisanship or politics ... Proposed a Citizens' Law Enforcement Commission created from county grand juries, to search out the truth and punish the guilty.
- ★ As Attorney General fought organized crime and gambling syndicates, ran the slot machines out of Texas and closed the horserace gambling wires. Author of the strongest narcotic control law ever written in the U.S. to fight the dope racketeers ... Will sponsor Texas laws to whip the dope traffic.
- ★ Has fought for Texas and the rights of the States as opposed to Federal encroachment ... Has consistently battled for local self-government.
- ★ Fought without compromise for six years to prevent Federal seizure of the Tidelands ... Co-author of the bill restoring State ownership, a move that has already netted $60 million for the Texas school fund.
- ★ A dedicated public servant for 16 years, respected in Texas and across the Nation for his honesty, fairness and personal integrity.
- ★ A clean campaigner who has refrained from name-calling and mud-slinging ... Has advocated a program of progress for all Texans.
