Commissioners breeze through light agenda

by Wes Burnett
The Garza County Commissioners' Court breezed through a light agenda at the regular meeting Monday morning.

The meeting, originally scheduled for October 14, was moved to the 21st to accommodate a conflict in scheduling for commissioners to attend the annual Texas Association of Counties conference in Galveston.

Commissioners approved the adding of the Pecos County Juvenile Probation Department to the facilities needed for juvenile cases. Judge Giles Dalby recommended the action based on the occasional requirements to send juveniles to a facility, "and when Lubbock is filled, it creates a little bit of a problem."

A $150 assessment to the Texas Association of Counties was approved in support of the recent legal action by the TAC in settling of the payment to counties for housing state prisoners.

Commissioners heard a report from Donna Flinders of the South Plains Emergency Medical Services (SPEMS) outlining 1991 activities and plans for the future. She told commissioners that a new DWI awareness campaign is now available for high schools. Flinders also said that a grant application has been submitted to provide for one automatic defibrillator for each participating EMS unit in SPEMS.

The court agreed to consider continuation of the "Cafeteria Plan" pension fund pending a survey of interested employees. The program, administered by Northwest Texas Brokerage, provides for tax free reimbursement of medical expenses for employees who participate in the program. The only cost to the county is the amount of time to process the monthly fee. Brokerage firm representative Honey Fuller offered to visit with all 15 currently enrolled employees and others to measure the response. Judge Dalby suggested that a larger percentage of participation would be needed in order to justify the time involved in processing the monthly fee.

Post EMS administrator John Redman was asked about the need to replace individual pagers and offered a suggestion for phasing in of new pagers which will be needed to operate with the 911 system.

The matter was referred to the ambulance committee, with all commissioners and the judge emphasizing their support to make sure that the EMS has the equipment needed to do its job.

"You're dealing in life and death situations," Dalby said, "and I am sure all of us, including the city and hospital, will do what is necessary to see that the proper equipment is in place."

Dalby reported to the court on a variety of communications, including a letter from the Texas Department of Transportation showing a total of 346 miles of county maintained roads.

The court will meet again on its regularly scheduled time, Monday, October 28.

Attending the meeting were commissioners Sammy Ellis, Albert Stone, John Valdez and Herb Walls, Judge Dalby, clerk Sonny Gossett and treasurer Ruth Ann Young.

City gets sales tax rebate check for $12,143.33

October's city sales and use tax rebate from the state comptroller's office to the City of Post was slightly down from the same period last year at $12,143.33.

The 1990 rebate was $13,454.13, representing a 9.74 percent decrease. The total for the year, however, remains up, with a 14.03 percent increase at $148,802.77, compared to $130,490.58 for 1990.

The rebate includes taxes collected on August sales and reported in September by businesses filing monthly sales tax returns with the state.

State wide the average rebate was 10.15 percent more than last year at the same period.

Assault by threat...

A 46 year old woman was arrested October 15 by Garza County Sheriff's deputies, charged with assault by threat. She paid a $500 bond in county court and was released.

October 16 a 17 year old man was arrested for disorderly conduct. He paid a $223 fine and court costs in county court and was released.

A 36 year old man was arrested October 20, charged with DWI. He was released on a $5,000 personal recognizance bond.

Texas DPS officers arrested a 20 year old man October 21 on a Taylor County warrant on a charge of theft by check. The man paid a $500 bond and was released.

Hundreds of girls and boys benefit from United Way's support of summer baseball

by Wes Burnett
"We just cannot provide a summer baseball program without the support of United Way," Post Little League president Victory Ashley emphasizes.

The benefits of this program to our youth is impossible to measure, but those adults who volunteer their time and personal financial support and the parents know the value of the United Way support.

The budget for the baseball program is $3,000 and the money is used wisely and carefully by the organization. A detailed budget from the Post Little League and Senior League shows where every penny is spent on direct expenses.

At the close of the 1991 season the organization had a $15,79 cash balance.

There were 220 children participating in the baseball program last summer. A total goal of $15,000 has been set by the Garza County United Way board of directors to support Meals on Wheels and 11 other local organizations in the joint, once a year fund raising effort.

The campaign this year includes $3,000 for the summer baseball program, which serves hundreds of young boys and girls.

Also getting help from United Way here are the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, with a $3,600 budget set for each organization.

Other participating agencies include the Garza County Mental Health, Garza County Child Welfare Board, Red Cross, Salvation Army, Post Jr Girls' Basketball, Trail Blazers, Post Satellite School, Meals on Wheels and Women's Protective Services.

The United Way budget committee screens all requests from participating agencies to ensure that each receives its fair share.

Donations to the Garza County United Way may be mailed to P.O. Box 425, Post, Texas 79356 or at The First National Bank.

Letters to the Editor

Letters to the editor policy: Letters to the editor are encouraged and invited. Letters may be edited for brevity. Letters which are deemed slanderous or libelous will be rejected. Letters must be signed, but the name may be withheld from publication if requested.

Dear Editor:
The United States of America is a nation that prides itself on the fact that it has a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. Therefore, it is impossible to overstate the importance of voting by American citizens in each and every election. You simply cannot have self-government without the involvement of the electorate.

Each time citizens cast a ballot for a candidate of their choice, they are expressing their belief in the institutions of American government and the American way of life. Conversely, each time citizens fail to vote because they are too comfortable, too apathetic, or too lazy, they are symbolically abrogating everything for which this nation stands.

The continuation of self-government and democracy rests in the hands of the electorate. Not just the electorate of this country, but those who have recently turned to democracy as well. In fact, it rests with the electorate of all free countries, both old and new.

The new move towards democracy in Eastern Europe is almost a miracle in and of itself. This movement, and even more, the success of this movement vindicates the position Americans have held for more than 215 years: the position that man is, and by right ought to be, free and independent.

However, there is something that citizens of these new democracies, these Europeans who have so recently tasted the heady wine of freedom, just do not understand about Americans. They are totally baffled by the seeming lack of interest that Americans have in exercising the most precious societal right of mankind, the right to vote.

Frankly, I find it difficult to understand myself why Americans, who are the first to cry out in indignation when someone, or something, infringes upon their personal freedoms, refuse to find the time to perform the small task which will, ultimately, guarantee the continuation of all their freedoms. And, of course, that task is the act of voting.

Voter apathy is hard to understand. Apparently the public is not aware of how completely the government can change every two years. Even in "off-year" elections, those which fall between presidential elections, a full one-third of the United States Senate and the entire House of Representatives come up for election. It is shameful to note that usually less than one half of the electorate decides who will govern our country.

It is up to the individual American to set the example. Don't count on the other person to get out the vote. He or she may be counting on you. Don't let someone else decide your future. If you are not registered, do so as soon as possible. Then, during federal, state and local elections, vote. It is your right and it is your responsibility.

Dear Editor:
The following story was submitted by Michelle Smith and is reprinted out of the Plainsman Press on October 10, 1991.

"All the world's a stage, and all the men and women in it merely players. They have their exits and their entrances; and one man in his time plays many parts."

William Shakespeare
I always dreamed of being an actress and during my sophomore year in high school, Will McCrary and his Garza Theater made that dream come true. Three years and numerous plays later, Will has taken his final bow and I, along with a whole community of people, mourn the loss of this great talent.

Every person who knew Will, knew him in a different way, so in writing this article I do not want to be the one voice who will portray what Will was. Instead, I want to show what Will was to me.

Will was a tough director who expected perfection from everyone, only because that is what he expected from himself. Not everyone could work under Will because of the high expectations he had for his theater and his actors. However, those that stuck with him were overly rewarded with successful plays and friendships that would last a lifetime.

Perhaps the most magical thing Will gave me was the opportunity to act with people from all walks of life, and in doing so, introducing me to new friends who have become the most special people in my life.

Will taught me a lot about regional theater. In acting, for and with him, I learned to be confident in front of large groups of people, and to use my own special talents to my advantage. So, when I won a competition in which these two skills applied, it was Will who came to mind.

He was not only a director, but a friend as well. I tried to do my best whenever I was in one of his plays, but more often than not, my expectations would be shot down by an unfavorable review. Will was not one to play favorites, but he understood how I felt and would comfort me by simply putting his arm around my shoulder and smiling.

When I graduated from high school, Will gave me a beautiful crystal. I asked him what it was for and he said, "It'll make moonbeams dance just for you." That is what Will did best, making magic happen for others.

During his funeral services, Charles Sommerville told the crowd of friends and family that we must not let the magic that Will shared with each of us just disappear, but instead keep it alive within us forever.

That is what I plan to do. Every time I am caught up in the rapture of a theater production or catch moonbeams dancing, I will think of Will McCrary and the magic he added to my life.

Michelle Smith

Looking back and moving forward

For Fall '91, fashion is drawing much of its inspiration by looking back to the '60s and '70s.

Sixties-revisited looks include pantsuits, A-line dresses, shifts, plastic and vinyl. Surfacing from the Seventies are patchworks, batiks, beads, scarf skirts and crochet. But, in true 1990s style, both decades are happily mixed and often garnished with space-age touches. Newest looks include cat suits, spandex leggings and dresses that are nothing but a long jacket over opaque tights and lots of leg. For the young -- and daring -- there are plenty of Madonna-inspired, pop-con looks in beaded corsetry that is printed, even feathered, for "outside" dressing.

Other '90s touches include Native American motifs, from fringe to Indian beading, on everything from jackets to cocktail dresses. Popular, too, are quilted motifs in vivid colors based on Amish patchwork patterns. Zippers, functional or strictly for looks, show up on center fronts, adorning wrists, securing pockets, or simply spiraling around the body.

The season is full of color. Greens and blues, especially turquoise, are making it big, as is brown, fuschia, purple and all the tartan colors. Trans-seasonal fabrics have spawned trans-seasonal colors, with spring-like pastels, often paired to white, showing up for fall and winter.

For those with a more classical bent, plaids are prominent, whether fashioned into Scottish kilts, or sequin-adorned for evening dresses and suits. Day-time jackets are often punctuated by velvet collars and brass-band buttons. Suits sport unmatched, but tonally related, plaids for jacket and skirt. For the ultimate in plaid mixing, there are several plaid-patched jackets worn over just about everything.

Watch for skirts with hemlines that slant to one side and poncho skirts created from large rectangles that fall into handkerchief points. There's renewed interest in dirmdls and pleated skirts. They look freshest in short versions, such as flirty pleated chiffon with a matching wool jacket, or short, full skirts propped up with petticoats for evening dressing. The trench is reinvented over and over again, as a jacket, coat or dress, in fabrics as diverse as sateen, gabardine, crepe and polyurethane. The bomber jacket is interpreted in even more fabrics than the trench. Consider wool, suede, bright vinyl, fur-trimmed, quilted or sequined.

Education programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap, or national origin.

Val Verde county added to bee quarantine

Val Verde County has been added to a quarantine restricting the movement of commercial bee operations following the recent detection of Africanized honey bees there.

The addition of Val Verde makes 17 Texas counties quarantined, according to Paul Jackson, chief of the Texas Apiary Inspection Service, a unit of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Eight counties across the southern tip of Texas -- roughly a 100-mile radius from the U.S. - Mexico border -- were quarantined after the first AHB swarm migrating into the United States was detected near Hidalgo on October 15, 1990.

Since then, counties have been added as the bee continues to migrate northward, primarily up the Rio Grande and the Gulf Coast.

The other 16 counties under quarantine are: Brooks, Cameron, Dimmit, Duval, Hidalgo, Jim Hogg, Jim Wells, Kenedy, Kleberg, Maverick, Nueces, Starr, Webb, Willacy, Zapata and Zavala.

DPS urges safety for 'Trick or Treaters'

It's time, once again, for "Trick or Treat." Halloween is fast approaching and hundreds of little children will be taking to our neighborhoods in search of those wonderful treats.

Major V.J. Cawthon, Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Region 5, said, "Many disasters can be prevented this Halloween, if parents and motorists will use good judgement. Small children should be accompanied by older children or adults and trick or treating should be confined to those areas that the parents are familiar with."

Major Cawthon urged that parents dress their children in non-flammable costumes and the costume should be of light colors. He also stated that the mask should not prevent the child from being able to see. Parents should also keep their children away from Jack-O-Lanterns with candles.

Parents should also instruct their children in some traffic safety tips, insuring they look in all directions before crossing streets and to walk, not run. A flashlight carried by the child can serve as a warning to motorists, and children should be instructed to use sidewalks, whenever possible.

We, as motorists, should remember that children in play become very excited and may forget the safety rules. Let's remember to be careful in the residential areas and be on the lookout for kids darting into the streets. We, the drivers, need to be extra alert to ensure that this is a happy Halloween for all our Trick or Treaters.

Major Cawthon stated, "If parents and motorists join together and think 'safety first', we can make this 1991 Halloween a safe and enjoyable evening for everyone."

Halloween safety tips for ghouls and goblins

Halloween is almost here, and everyone is preparing for the big night. Although having fun and filling up those trick-or-treat bags are foremost in their minds, children need to remember to follow safe practices. According to the Department of Emergency Medicine at Scott & White in Temple, parents should keep in mind the following safety tips:

- * Make costumes short enough so the child won't trip when going up and down stairs.
- * Use white colors or big patches of white on the costumes to ensure good visibility.
- * Use fire-retardant fabric for the costumes or treat the material with a chemical fire-retardant.
- * When making masks or hoods, cut out holes in them that are large enough to assure easy breathing and good vision. Using makeup or face paints instead of masks is an even better idea.
- * If face paints are used, make sure that they are designed specifically for this purpose, they are non-poisonous and that the paint can be washed off easily.
- * When lighting Jack O'lanterns, use small flashlights -- not candles -- in order to prevent fires.
- * Have an adult accompany the children while they are trick or treating.
- * Trick or treating should be done before dark, especially if you have young children. Set a curfew for the older children and enforce it.
- * Instruct the children to stay in their own neighborhood and to call on only people they know and trust.
- * Give each child a flashlight and remind him or her not to shine it into anyone's eyes, especially someone driving an automobile.
- * To prevent falls, remind children to use sidewalks instead of cutting across yards and vacant lots.
- * If your child get sick, try to find out exactly what he or she ate and where it came from. Call your doctor immediately or contact the Scott & White Poison Control Center at (817) 774-2005.

PUMPKIN CRAZY

Halloween brings around the fun of pumpkins! Kids from young to old enjoy carving bright orange Jack-O-Lantern creations! Besides the common use of pumpkins for Halloween, pumpkins provide the makings of spicy pumpkin pie, bread or muffins; various puddings and custards; as well as stuffing with meat and vegetables or meats and seafood in the smaller ones. Pumpkins are also an excellent source of Vitamin A.

Antelopes swarm Bulldogs in 28-7 district win

Last Friday night at Tahoka the Post Antelopes looked like the championship team fans here have become accustomed to, as the 1991 'Lopes hammered the Bulldogs 28-7.

The Antelope offensive line played well throughout the game, and were especially effective on the power sweep, as tailback Brandon Bird took advantage of the blocking, picking up 198 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

Close behind Bird in the rushing stats was fullback Michael Self, who pounded the Tahoka defense for 105 yards and two touchdowns.

The 'Lopes mounted long, sustained drives, one of the hallmarks of Post football teams, then put a stout and aggressive defense on the field, recovering fumbles and intercepting passes.

Shane Horton recorded a first this year for the team with a safety, tackling Bulldog quarterback Heath Brewer in the end zone for the final points of the game.

The defense was particularly solid on crucial third down situations, forcing punts and fourth down turnovers.

The Antelope defense picked off four interceptions and recovered four fumbles.

A host of players saw action in the second half as coach Dewayne Osborne used the substitutions freely.

First Half Action

Post won the toss, and with a stiff southerly breeze blowing, deferred to the second half, allowing Tahoka to choose to receive the kickoff.

In three plays the Antelope defense proved who was in charge, as linebacker Adrian Castillo and Junior Nava were credited with punt-forcing tackles on second and third down.

The 'Lope offense got the ball after the punt on their own 40 yard line. Quarterback Damon Curtis bobbled the snap two times, recovering both fumbles. Then on third down Bird got the pitchout around his right end, picked up a key block from Ricky Jefferson and raced 49 yards to the end zone. Horton put the ball through the uprights and Post led 7-0 with 5:54 left in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs picked up a couple of first downs on their next possession, before Josh Bush, Michael McClellan, Peter Torres and Horton found the defensive key. Horton's quarterback sack on third down forced another punt.

The Antelope offense got two first downs before sputtering to a stop on fourth down at the Tahoka 10 yard line.

The Bulldogs decided enough was enough, and with the aid of a roughing the passer penalty, marched down the field, with Seth Prince scoring from the two yard line on second down following the 81 yard drive. With 10:52 left in the first half, Tahoka knotted the score following the point after kick.

As if to say, "we're not about to give this one up," the 'Lope offense came roaring back. Using the same squib kick that most opposing teams have resorted to against Post, Tahoka gave the 'Lopes great field position at the Post 48 yard line as Tommy Ammons scooped up the ball.

Four plays later the 'Lopes led 14-7 when Bird took the pitchout around the right side one more time, this time going 19 yards to paydirt. Horton put the extra point on the board with 9:17 left in the second quarter. The drive featured Bird on the first two plays, Self on first down from the 31 to the 19 and then Bird for the final carry.

Another strong defense effort stifled the Bulldogs. Jaime Ayala, Castillo and Horton combined on three plays to force another punt. Self gathered the ball in for the 'Lopes at the 26 yard line.

It took eight plays, aided by a personal foul on Tahoka, for the 'Lopes to score. Self blasted twice up the middle, setting up a third down at the 34, then Bird powered his way to the 42 for the first down. Self ripped off four more to the 46 and then Bird roared into Bulldog territory at the 30, where the personal foul call on Tahoka put the ball at the 15. Self got the call three times, going into the end zone on first down from the four yard line with 4:47 left in the first half. Horton's point after kick was wide and the 'Lopes led 20-7.

The two teams exchanged punts until the final seconds of the half, when Brewer's pass with one second left on the clock was intercepted by Ammons and the teams headed for the locker rooms.

Second Half Action

Post took the second half kick off, again getting good field position following the squib kick. Starting at their own 43 yard line, the 'Lopes mounted an eight play, 47 yard scoring drive. With 8:18 left in the third quarter, Self got the call on first down from the four yard line and zipped into the end zone over his right side. The point after failed and the 'Lopes led 26-7.

Ammons recovered Brewer's fumble on Tahoka's next play from scrimmage, setting up a first down at the Bulldog 25. Curtis then threw a pass which was intercepted and gave Tahoka the ball at their own four yard line.

Brewer rolled right on the option and was trapped in the end zone by a pursuing Horton, giving Post a two point safety with 7:55 left in the third quarter.

Jim Riley Simpson came in for the Antelopes and put together an eight play drive that fizzled on fourth down at the Tahoka eight yard line.

A second chance for the offense came after the defense forced a fourth down punt, but the drive was halted when Simpson lost control of the ball on a fumble at the Tahoka 17.

Gang tackling by Josh Bush, Ayala, Torres and Hiram Gutierrez stopped the Bulldogs, forcing a fourth down pass attempt that was picked off by Damon Curtis at the Post 31 yard line.

Simpson guided the Antelopes, using the power and speed of tailback Henry Reed. Sharing running honors on the time-eating drive were Sid Estep, Gutierrez and Ayala.

'Lopes scramble to stay in district race

by Wes Burnett
The Seagraves Eagles, who lead District 4AA with three wins and one tie, come to Antelope Stadium Friday night attempting to snuff out the Post Antelope surge toward a playoff berth.

"We know one thing," coach Dewayne Osborne observes, "we'll have to play the best game this year to win, but I believe we have what it takes to win, it's really up to the players to maintain their intensity."

Seagraves has outscored Tahoka, Ralls and Crosbyton and tied New Deal. In order to maintain a chance at post-season play, the Antelopes must win the remainder of their games and Idalou will have to win the rest of its games.

"We played a good game last week," Osborne adds, "and that helped build our confidence."

The Antelope offensive line, consisting of Aaron Davis, Tommy Ammons, Michael Harper, David Heaton, Josh Bush, Ty Hill and Anthony Cruse will have to continue the style of football shown the past few weeks, as they have provided the blocking for Brandon Bird and Michael Self, both running with great effort.

Bird at tailback and Self at fullback have been a powerful combination behind the solid performances of quarterback Damon Curtis.

"One thing I am really proud of," the coach adds, "is our team's attitude and the fact that every single high school player came through the first six week's grading period without any problems."

A weekend "sandlot touch" football game, however, has put a question mark on Heaton's starting position Friday. "We hope it's just a bruise," Osborne says, "but we don't have a report (Monday afternoon) from the doctor yet."

Idalou traps J.V. in second game

Tahoka was unable to field a junior varsity football team, so the Post and Idalou junior varsity squared off for their second meeting of the season, with Idalou winning 22-8.

"It is hard to beat someone twice in the same season, especially when the teams are as evenly matched as these two teams are," coach Bart McMeans comments about last Thursday's game at Idalou.

"We played hard on defense. They only had one drive, their other scores came on long pass plays," the coach adds.

The young 'Lopes scored on a 58 yard interception return by Brad Lawson and Lance Clay collected the two point conversion.

"On offense we just couldn't block anyone," McMeans says, "we played as poorly on offense as we have all year."

The stats back up the coach's comments with the Post junior varsity getting only 94 yards total offense. The defense allowed Idalou 186 yard rushing and 85 yards passing.

The team hosts Seagraves tomorrow with a 6 p.m. kickoff.

Coaches are scrambling to fill the final two games of the season because Ralls and Crosbyton also are not fielding freshmen or junior varsity teams. The October 31 and November 7 opponents will be announced next week.

8th graders notch another victory and shutout

Another shutout and one more win was recorded by the Post 8th grade football team last Thursday as the team marked up a 22-0 win here.

"The defense gave up some yards, but played good when they had to," coach Darrell Radle comments.

Raymond Garza was credited with his fourth game to rush for more than 100 yards. He and Alvin Reed averaged more than five yards per carry.

Paul Lopez ran five times for 41 yards, averaging more than eight yards per carry.

Garza also recovered two fumbles and Bodie Simpson was credited with intercepting a pass.

The coach praised the defensive efforts of Saul Martinez, Robbie Palmer and Marty Dissinger.

As quarterback, Simpson completed three of four passes for 48 yards and two touchdowns.

The young 'Lopes collected 290 yards offense and limited Tahoka to 135.

The first scoring drive was a 23 yard, three play effort set up by Garza's interception. Three plays later Simpson threw a pass to Blythe Wilson for the 16 yard scoring play, then Reed took the ball in for the two point conversion.

In the second quarter the team scored on a 12 play, 89 yard drive, including several big plays by Garza and Reed. Simpson completed 22 yards on a pass to Tori Harper for the touchdown.

The final touchdown came in the fourth quarter with a 64 yard, 11 play drive that featured Reed going the final seven yards for the score. Wilson took the ball in for the two pointer.

The team travels to Seagraves tomorrow.

Melton or Junior Nava are possibilities at filling the gap on offense if Heaton is unable to play.

Antelope fans will not be surprised to see the familiar antics of one of the best quarterbacks on the South Plains opening up here Friday evening for the Eagles. Last year it was Tim Cavazos' shifty moves that left defenders clawing the grass as the Eagles cruised to a crucial district win. This year Cavazos has run for 500 yards and completed 1,000 yards in passing.

Junior fullback Kendrick Anderson is a good tough runner and leads the Eagles in rushing. Seniors Tony Conde and Rudy Garza share time at wingback and tailback, running hard and showing good speed.

Sophomore tight end Todd Moore has also shown good speed on pass patterns. Returning starters seniors Auturo Villanueva and Kris Allen anchor the offensive line, along with 190 pound senior Eric Thomas and 205 pound senior Jorge Rodriguez. Edward Vidales and David Ingle round out the offensive line.

Cavazos, Anderson, Garza, Moore, Vidales, Thomas and Ingle also play on defense, along with Rene Gonzales, Lionel Navarro, Sam Kemper and Steve Cavazos.

The Eagles take advantage of the quarterback's option and Anderson's running talents as they stay on the ground 87 percent of the time, dropping back to pass only 13 percent.

Thomas is the best lineman on defense, returning from his All-District selection last year as a junior.

"We'll just have to play hard nosed football, try to keep the ball on offense as much as we can, and play the best we can," Osborne adds.

No More Cottonseed On The Ground!

Does this sound good to you? MONTGOMERY SEED & DELINTING can guarantee that your seed will not be stored on the ground. A new 20,000 sq. ft. covered barn has been built to assure each customer that his valuable cottonseed will be kept HIGH AND DRY!

Instead of dumping this trailer on the ground, we are transferring the seed to a larger trailer which will be used only for storing the seed.

The storage trailer will then be stored under this 20,000 sq. ft. shed until delinted. This shed is also available to customers having seed caught on their trailers and needing storage space.

We will deliver your seed to your barn at no extra cost.

All of our trailers sent to gins will have a tarp mounted on it for quick and easy covering.

Along with the LMC Gravity Grader we installed last year, which did a fantastic job of removing cockleburrs, we have recently installed a larger and more efficient seed cleaner. Also, only the sewn type bags will be used this year which everyone seems to prefer. CARE, QUALITY & SERVICE are what Montgomery Seed & Delinting can and will offer each of their customers.

News from Congressman Stenholm

Topic:

Bank Overdrafts, Restaurant Tabs, & Parking Tickets

Three issues that have been heavily reported in the past few weeks are overdrafts at the House of Representatives Bank, unpaid bills at the Congressional dining rooms, and "fixed" parking tickets. I would like to discuss these issues in greater detail.

The Government Accounting Office (GAO) recently reported that 134 Members of Congress have overdrafts at the House of Representatives Bank in the first half of 1990. Unfortunately, and to my surprise, I was on that list.

When the report was first issued, I referred to my monthly House Bank statements which showed no overdrafts. I publicly commented on that fact and also publicly supported House Speaker Tom Foley's plans to start assessing a penalty for overdrafts.

In the following days, I decided to review the GAO report on my own. That's when I first learned my account had incurred overdrafts. The bank had not notified me, nor noted the overdrafts on my monthly statements. Even without receiving notification, my overdrafts were covered in less than three days. I regret failing to transfer funds from my bank accounts in Virginia and Stamford, Texas, in a timely fashion. Had I known of the overdrafts, there would have been no repeats. It is an understatement when I say I was shocked and embarrassed. Believing in accurate public disclosure, I immediately issued a public statement, naming myself as one of the Members with overdrafts and apologizing for any part I may have played in embarrassing the institution of the U.S. Congress.

It is important to note that the House Bank was not a bank in the real sense of the word. It was more like a cooperative. It has no charter, no regulations, and no deposit insurance. It paid no interest on accounts and made no loans. It was a place where Members deposited their money for the purpose of writing checks. Any outstanding overdrafts could have been covered by garnishing a Member's wage if matters became excessive.

On October 4, I was part of the majority of the House that voted 390-8 to close the bank by the end of this year. The Ethics Committee is also investigating all accounts to see if there were any members deliberately abusing the system. These actions should resolve this issue.

As for restaurant tabs, my account is paid in full. As the story was generally reported, the public was given the idea that 250 Representatives were going to the House dining rooms, eating fancy meals, signing for them, and not paying. The true story is that Service America (the firm that had a contract with the House until early August) is owed over $255,000, but the majority of the overdue bills are owed by outside groups who asked Representatives to reserve rooms in Congressional buildings and hired Service America to cater their events.

Members are required to reserve rooms used by outside groups, and are responsible for the catering bills after normal efforts to collect from the groups themselves have failed. Invoices are still being issued and efforts are underway to balance all accounts.

The third issue is parking tickets. District of Columbia law allows lawmakers who have the proper license plates and are on official business to park as long as necessary to any curb space except in loading zones, handicapped spaces, or those that would block firehouses or hydrants.

The practice was that when a Member received a ticket while on official business, he or she was entitled to turn that ticket over to the House Sergeant-at-Arms who would verify with local officials any tickets which incorrectly had been issued during official business. On Tuesday, October 8, Speaker Foley eliminated this practice, so Members will now have to follow the appeal route on their own. I support the new rules.

As with any institution, Congress needs to continually evaluate and improve its operating systems. As shortcomings with our procedures have become apparent, we have moved promptly and decisively to improve our operations. In searching for a silver lining in this cloud, I have become even more committed to strengthening the integrity and honor of the greatest legislative body in the greatest country in the world.

Public Notice

On July 1, 1991, Southwestern Bell Telephone filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas that proposes to delete Paragraph 3.4(G) from Section 3 of Southwestern Bell's intrastate Access Service Tariff, which concerns credits where a customer uses Switched Access Service to furnish a service which has been defined to be an exchange service. The application was assigned Docket No. 10463.

Because Southwestern Bell is not aware of any customers who presently use switched access service to furnish an exchange service, Southwestern Bell does not believe its revenues will be affected. However, certain interexchange carrier customers of switched access service have made claims under the aforementioned tariff. Such customers, but only to the extent they provide an exchange service using switched access, would be affected by this application. Based on claims made for credits (assuming such credits were allowable), Southwestern Bell's revenues would be affected by no more than $1,168,962 annually, which is .037 percent of the Company's adjusted revenue for the 12-month period ending December 31, 1990. It is not possible to know how many interexchange carriers might believe themselves entitled to credits, but 189 carriers have registered with the Commission pursuant to PUC Substantive Rule 23.61.

The tariff, after suspension, is proposed to be effective May 1, 1992.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible, but no later than November 15, 1991. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256. The telecommunications device for the deaf (TDD) number is (512) 458-0221.

Video on 'Wealth in Wetlands' available

There's a Wealth in wetlands that goes beyond economics, say the farmers featured in a 23-minute videotape released on the topic.

"To me, it's a quality of life. This slough here, I'm never going to do anything with. I'm going to preserve this thing as long as I live," says Minnesota farmer Charles Piekarski of a wetland he restored near his farmstead.

Piekarski and four other farm families are featured in "The Wealth in Wetlands." Each farmer explains how wetlands fit into the farming operation, and outlines the values of wetlands in terms of the farming operation and personal satisfaction.

The video, narrated by actor Leslie Nielson, also shows wetland restoration techniques and gives sources of help in wetland restoration and conservation.

Copies of the tape are available for loan from local offices of the sponsors. The 1/2 inch VHS tape may also be purchased for $10, or borrowed for $5, from the National Association of Conservation Districts, P.O. Box 855, League City, Texas 77574-0855 (tele. 1-800-825-5547).
