

Victory Loan Drive Off To Slow Start

SECOND WEEK OF CAMPAIGN BOND SALES LAGGING WITH TOTAL OF ONLY $2,400.00

Garza County is off to a bad start in the Victory Loan drive, according to T. R. Greenfield, chairman. Total E bond sales in this time had reached only $2,400.00, which is somewhat disappointing after the enthusiasm shown in previous campaigns. A quota of $235,000 in view of the fact that Garza county will rally to the call of the last campaign for World War II. The first few days of voluntary purchases were slow, but since the enthusiasm has been coming in, it is hoped that the city might be reached without special solicitation, however, if sales do not speed up in the week end, machinery will be put in operation to launch a "house to house" campaign.

Last week the Chairman issued orders for rural committees to be organized at his office, but they have not responded to the request. A second appeal is being put out this week urging committees to "pick up" supplies and campaigning can get underway in rural areas of the county.

Many people have never been enthusiastic about buying bonds and now that the shooting is over they feel that the government is presumptuous in asking for more money," said Greenfield. "Then, too, the money figure is beyond the realization of many of us and wonders just why calls are still being made."

The truth is that actually the drive is over but there are still thousands of soldiers overseas waiting for transportation home and thousands more are doing their duty. An army of such magnitude can not be dismantled in a hurry. These soldiers still need to have various necessities which must be purchased by money contributed by the public.

Over seas for this money are thousands of wounded veterans, unemployed war hills, and service men's dependents.

Beyond your consideration for the service man buying bonds also consider a selfish satisfaction. The return of your savings into the market will restrain inflation (higher prices) also, bonds bear interest as profitable investments, and the government stands behind its bonds and E bonds can be cashed when necessary, there will be no hesitancy in converting money into profitable securities.

Let us have at home ponder the thought... They finish their job, let's finish ours."

Dr. D. M. McElroy Did To Rest Friday Terrace Cemetery

Funeral services for one of the most beloved women, Mrs. D. M. McElroy, were held Friday afternoon, November 2, at the Baptist church at 3:30 p. m. A host of friends filled the church for the service which was conducted in a beautiful manner by pastors who were close friends of Mrs. McElroy.

Mrs. McElroy, 72, died at her home in Post on November 1, after an illness of several weeks. She was born Josephine Erick in Ohio in 1873. She came to Texas at the age of eight, became a Christian in early childhood, holding membership in Baptist church through the years.

She was married to D. M. McElroy at Deatur, Texas, on May 18, 1892. To this union was born seven children, all of whom reside in Post. She moved to this city in 1911 and had lived here for forty-four years.

In presenting obituary remarks, H. C. Bristow, pastor of the Baptist church, said, "In passing of this fine Christian woman and mother, a vacancy will be felt in the home and church. Her life will be remembered as one of sweet charity and love for her Lord and home. We shall miss her. Her life was well spent."

Dr. Walter Devers of Sylvan, a friend of the family and pastor of the Baptist church, conducted the funeral and gave most sincere comforting thoughts to the bereaved. (Continued on back page, Col. 1)

VOLUME XIX POST, TEXAS "OUT WHERE THE WEST IS THE WEST" THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1945 "THE GATEWAY TO THE PLAINS" NUMBER 47

Hundred Box Cars Needed To Move Garza's Grain Crop

Relief to Garza county farmers, in the way of railroad freight cars to move thousands of bushels of grain sorghum which have been piled at turn-rows in fields, may be expected within a short time, reports James A. Boyd, of the Triple A office.

The urgent need for box cars was cited by Fred Runnels, of the Production and Marketing Administration, who took the matter up with C. P. Wasson, district manager of the car service department for the Association of Railroads in Dallas. Wasson immediately advised that he had made requests to the Eastern roads to forward box cars to this area to move the big grain sorghum crop.

Other South Plains counties are faced with a similar crisis, and it has been pointed out to congressmen, that the thousands of bushels of grain now being harvested will be lost if box cars are not routed to this area immediately. Combines have been stopped in fields while wind threatens to blow down small grain, already killed by frost. Elevators in most West Texas counties have quit operation because of shortage of storage space and the whole grain crop movement is now stymied. Senators Tom Connally and W. Lee O'Daniel, and Congressman George Mahon have been notified of the situation and are making efforts to assist farmers. Senator Connally last week end advised the Rails Chamber of Commerce, which had made a plea for help, that "Eastern railroads are lending 1000 cars a day, beginning today, to Southwestern roads, to ease the situation."

Garza county alone needs more than one hundred box cars to move the grain which is now piled at turn-rows in fields, on vacant blocks and in elevators, Boyd asserted. "This is only the beginning when the late feed crop is harvested the situation will become worse, if railway cars are not forwarded soon."

Practices Are Being Planned For New 1946 Farm Program

Realizing that they face the greatest responsibilities in administering the 1946 agricultural program than any committee in the past, Monday afternoon the County Triple A Committee started the task of working out details of the new farm program.

The Committee met with V. L. Cade, State AAA committee man of district 2, which comprises Garza county, and C. T. Wasson, field officer of the district, to discuss the 1946 program and allocation of funds available to Garza producers under the new program.

Various practices and allocation of funds for each, are being considered today in a joint meeting of the County Committee and Community committees.

With the information that has already been furnished the local office, practices adaptable to this County can now be decided, and everything put in readiness to begin the new program January 1, without delay, asserted James A. Boyd, secretary of the County ACA.

Details of the program will be announced to all Garza producers within a short time, said Boyd.

O. R. Cooks Receive War Department's Death Notification

Mr and Mrs. O. R. Cook of Graham community, several days ago received official notification from the War Department stating that their son, Staff Sergeant Paul Cook has been declared as dead. Mrs. Paul Cook, the former Miss Margaret Greenhouse of Tahoka, who now resides at Caldwell, also received notification.

Sergeant Cook, a gunner on an Army aircraft, was reported missing in April of 1944 when his plane was operating on a mission over Germany. No other official information came from the government until the death notice arrived several days ago.

The Cooks have another son, Flight Officer James W. Tom Cook, who was reported missing in action last November 26.

County Teacher's Association Formed, Officers Are Elected

Organization of the Garza County Teacher's association was perfected last Thursday night when representatives of most of the rural schools met with teachers of Post schools at the county court house. Teachers were present from all rural schools, except Graham, Cross Roads and Verbeno.

Officers elected for the county association include R. H. Runson, superintendent of Post schools, president; Mrs. Virginia Williams, Verbeno, vice-president; Miss Bonnie McMahon, Post, secretary, and J. P. Hewlett, superintendent of Southland school, treasurer.

During the business session of the meeting the group decided to have a county-wide teacher's party in April. Discussions on sponsoring the County Interscholastic League meet were heard, and resulted in appointing a committee to decide the issue. The group named Superintendent Runson, and County Superintendent Dean A. Robinson as delegates to represent the Association at the West Texas Teachers Institute, which meets in Lubbock next Spring.

Announcement was made that Superintendent Robinson would attend the State organization's meeting in Dallas this month as a district delegate.

Representatives of four schools, Post, Close City, Verbeno and Justiceburg reported 100 per cent membership in the Texas State Teachers Association.

American Legion Staging "Big Feed" Saturday Night

In observance of Armistice the James C. Cole American Legion post is staging a "big feed" Saturday night, November 10, for servicemen and ex-service men of the County.

Preparations are being made to entertain at least one hundred and fifty men with a special invitation extended to servicemen who are visiting in the county to attend. Returning veterans, who have not affiliated with the Legion, are especially invited to attend the supper.

"We want every man in uniform, and all those who have worn the uniform, to be the Legion's guests," said T. L. Jones, commander of the post.

"Chow call" will be at 7 o'clock and the tables will remain covered until everyone is served—the food will be the usual, with an ample supply of the unusual.

"Come when you can, and stay as long as you like," said Jones.

"Lest We Forget..."

On this Armistice Day, Sunday, November 11, we honor the dead of two wars—the valiant heroes of World War I who gave their lives to win the peace that wavered—their valiant sons who gave their lives in World War II that the Peace for which their fathers died might be saved and embrace the world forever. For these men who shall never return, we bow our heads in prayer—to these men we pay tribute this Armistice Day.

Post Will Observe Armistice With Holiday Next Monday

Post retail stores, along with the bank, post office, Triple A, and other governmental agencies, will observe Monday, November 12, as a full holiday for Armistice, which falls on Sunday.

Following a survey of representative business men Tuesday, more than thirty signatures were secured on a petition recommending that the long-standing custom of making Armistice a city-wide holiday be continued this year.

During the war the holiday was not observed as the government deemed it necessary to keep war plants in production.

No formal program has been announced for the city's observance of the holiday.

Mother Receives Awards Presented Son Posthumously

Mrs. Minnie J. Puckett of Spur, mother of Basil Puckett of Star Route, Post, has received the Silver Star and Purple Heart awards presented posthumously to her son, Clifton, who died on February 25, 1945, from wounds received on February 24.

Clifton, a member of the Paratrooper Corps, was on Corregidor. He was wounded three times.

Mrs. Puckett has also received official word that another son, Clifford, twin brother of Clifton, was dead. He had been reported missing since May 1942. Notification from the War Department said that he had died of malaria fever while in a Japanese prison camp. He volunteered for foreign service and was sent to the Philippines before the war was declared. Mrs. Puckett only had three letters from him. He was reported missing in action on May 8, 1942. No other communication of any sort was received until last week when she received notice of his death.

Another son, Horace, has recently been discharged. He spent 29 months in Germany, France and Italy.

The Puckett boys have made a family bond here for several years. All three boys volunteered for service. Clifford while living in New Mexico, Clifton while living in California, and Horace while living in Spain.

Sergeant Parchman, Jap POW, Receives Big Welcome Home

Twenty-five or more relatives and friends early Friday morning greeted and welcomed home Sgt. W. E. Parchman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Parchman of Justiceburg, who for 4 years and 3 months had been in a Japanese prison camp. During 3 years of that period, no word had been received from him. He was liberated on August 20, 1945 bringing with him several souvenirs and speaking very little of the hunger, mistreatment and privations suffered in the prison camp. Looking surprisingly healthy and well, he remarks, "I guess it takes more than a few little Japs to get me down, even though I have been considerably thinner than I am now."

Sgt. Parchman entered the service on May 26, 1940 and was taken prisoner on May 6, 1941. He arrived home from Tambo where he is to report back in ten days.

He has two brothers still in service, W. T. Jr. and H. B., both in the Navy and serving somewhere in the Pacific.

County In Excellent Financial Condition Despite Short Crops

Financial condition of Garza County is very good at this time, despite an almost total crop failure and short grain sorghum crop.

Continued receipts from cattle, oil, and grains have resulted in an all-time high in individual bank deposits, report officials of the First National Bank.

The bank has an increase in the number of depositors by almost 30 per cent over last year.

2 Wells Added To Garza Field, More Staked

TEST IN NORTHEAST GARZA HAS SHOWING TO GO TO 3,340 FEET

Two more producers completed, "fair" showing made by test in northeast Garza, and new explorations staked outside proven area in central Garza field were features of oil activity in Garza county last week.

Latest completion for spreading of Garza's central field, four miles south of Post, was Hermon and George R. Brown and Comanche corporation's No. 8 Post estate, which pumped 192.58 barrels of 35.8 gravity oil in 24-hours. The test was treated with 7,000 gallons of acid between 2,705-2,940 feet. The lease in which the new well is located is in the east half of the southeast quarter of section 1250. This is the second well to be completed by Brown-Comanche in the past two weeks. The other producer, located in section 7, pumped 180-barrels of 35.9 gravity oil on 24-hour pumping test.

Completing its second well in two weeks was Lynn Oil Company, which brought in its No. 4-3 Post estate last week. The new producer pumped 174 barrels after being treated with 4,000 gallons of acid. Location is 900 feet from north and 2,310 feet from west lines of the lease in section C, block 5, K. Aycock survey. The well was bottomed at 2,877 feet. The well completed the week before was the Company's 7-3 Post estate located 1030 feet from the north and west lines of the center's No. 3-lease. It pumped 179 barrels on 24-hour test.

A showing of oil was reported Friday at Union Oil Company of California's No. 1-C Post estate, in northeast Garza, (Cross Roads community) but was not of sufficient quantity to justify completion of the well. The showing came at 3,220 feet where drilling was halted. Operators resumed drilling Saturday to go to 3,243 feet. The test is located in section 29, block 4, K. Aycock survey.

Application was filed last week by Grisham-Hunter Corporation to drill No. 3-A Post estate, at a point 330 feet from the east and 1,650 feet from north lines of the "A" lease in section 5, K. Aycock survey. The test is to go to 2,900 feet, starting at once.

PHM Company of New Orleans began setting up last week to drill two test in Post estate land in the area of the central Garza field.

Antelopes Have Tough Grid Battle For Friday Night

Facing the strongest contender for District 5-A championship, the Antelopes Friday night, on the final position, will mix with the powerful Denver City team.

No one doubts that this game will be the "toughest" so far for the Antelopes. Denver City played games up with a perfect record, which the locals hope to upset. Most fans of the district have already awarded the 5-A championship to the boys from the oil town, following their victory over Andrews several weeks ago.

The Antelopes expect to give them a run-for-their-money Friday night by playing their best game of the season... the locals have been working hard this past week getting in readiness to upset the applicant.

The starting whistle will blow at 7:30 sharp.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for November 11

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education, used by permission.

THE FRUITS OF PUBLIC WORSHIP

LESSON TEXT—Isaiah 6:1-8; Ephesians 5:15-21. GOLDEN TEXT—Praise ye the Lord. I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.—Psalm 133:1

The center of every community should be the church. The house set aside for the worship of God is the gathering place of His people. There they find fellowship as they meet their Lord. He is in their midst exalted and mighty, but ready to enter every humble and contrite heart.

Our lesson shows us how the worship of God brings blessed results as His people meet.

I. Recognizing God's Presence (Isa. 6:1-8)

King Uzziah, who had begun well but had forgotten God, was at the end of his life a leper because of his sin and dying in disgrace. Israel which had known unprecedented prosperity under God's blessing now hardened its heart nationally against God and was also about to go into eclipse. God needed a man to speak for Him in such an hour, to bring to His people a message of judgment and also of blessed invitation. To prepare that man, the great Isaiah, God gave a remarkable manifestation of His glory and power.

It is essential that the man who speaks for God should first see the Lord high and lifted up and to bear of His holiness and glory. The negative tone of the present-day message, the lack of enthusiasm and interest in holy things, the low standards of personal holiness, the failure to preach boldly the truth regarding God's holy standards are to be explained by the fact that there has been no vision of the eternal holiness and glory of God.

II. Renewing by God's Power (Eph. 5:15-21)

To see the holiness of God is to be immediately conscious of one's own sin and unworthiness. The obvious conclusion which one draws from that fact is that anyone who is proud, who is not concerned about his own sins and the sins of his people, is living far from God and has either never known or has forgotten about His divine holiness.

Isaiah spoke of the pollution of his lips, thereby confessing that his heart was not right. Whereof the heart is full, thereof speaketh the mouth, for we read that "out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh" (Matt. 12:34). Remember that even though Isaiah was a believer he recognized the need of cleansing.

"Then" (v. 8)—what an important word! When Isaiah called out in humble confession, "then" he was cleansed. The turning point is right at that place for any life. Only when we come to the place of confession and contrition which Isaiah knew, can we expect the Lord to send the cleansing fire and the enabling power.

Reformation, turning over a new leaf, character development, all commendable in their place, are not sufficient. There must be a divine cleansing of the life if there is to be a commission to service.

III. Realizing God's Will (Eph. 5:15-17)

The ministry of the Church of God can serve no greater purpose than helping men and women to know the will of God. That wisdom (v. 17) comes through the teaching of God's Word and through the ministry of the Holy Spirit, both in the church and in the individual.

The Church (and that means every member) is to recognize that the evil day in which we live is a challenge to holy and effective living. Time is not to be wasted, or casually used. It is to be redeemed—every moment to count for God.

The walk of the believer is to be circumspect, that is, with "painstaking attention to details, under a sense of their importance," not a foolish walk, but a wise one.

IV. Receiving God's Spirit (Isa. 6:21)

God wishes to fill His children with the Holy Spirit in such mighty overwhelming power that they are entirely under His control. Such Spirit-filled believers find their joy and satisfaction in the fellowship of those who sing the praises of God from the heart.

Being a Christian is not a depressing, sorrowful business. It makes you glad. It is God's people who sing and make melody. Some of us who have failed to appreciate this truth should begin now to "get happy" about our religion.

The Holy Spirit leads believers into a life of humility and self-denial (v. 21). Pride and self-exaltation are definitely ruled out.

Do not neglect the note of thanksgiving found in verse 26. The Church of Christ has so infinitely much for which to be thankful that actually ingratitude is a sin. How much blessing is lost because of it! Let us "give thanks always for all things."

Chaplain Gives Information On Death of Meeks

A letter received last week by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Meeks from the Chaplain of the 322nd Infantry, giving details of the accidental death of their son, Pfc. Delmar R. Meeks, and the burial rites, will be of interest to friends of the bereaved parents. The chaplain in expressing his deepest sympathy, along with that of the entire company, wrote:

"According to the information we have, he and some friends were fishing when a dynamite can exploded and set off some cans of gasoline in their boat. He received multiple burns about the body, some of which were third degree. He was not alive when the boat was brought to shore and evidently died almost instantly.

"On the following day we gave him a military funeral. It was conducted in the vicinity of the flag pole in U. S. Armed Forces Cemetery, Leyte No. 1, Philippine Islands. I read selected passages from Psalms 23, 1 Cor. 15, and Revelation 14:13, then offered prayer. The flag was presented to the Company Commander. Three volleys were fired by a firing squad of eight men and two were sounded. The body was then removed to grave number 2718 where it was interred with the committal service by the chaplain. Six of his fellow soldiers served as pall bearers.

"I can assure you that the government is sparing no effort to make beautiful and worthy the last resting place of those who have given their all while in its service. The Graves Registration Section handles all bodies with the high sense of dignity and respect befitting the departed.

"Now as you attempt new adjustments to life in his absence, I trust you will lean heavily upon the strong arm of the Eternal God who has assured us, 'My grace is sufficient for thee, for my strength is made perfect in weakness,' and that He shall keep you in the fond hope of glad reunion in that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

"If there is further service that I can render, please call on me."

Automatic Guns To Be Registered With Federal Unit

It is mandatory, Garza County people are informed, that all firearms of the automatic type such as machine guns, sub-machine guns or any type of gun from which a number of shots or pellets may be discharged with one continuous pull of the trigger, be registered with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C.

So states James Watson of the Bureau of Internal Revenue Alcohol Tax Unit, Lubbock area, said while here last week.

Many firearms, Garza counties are informed, have been brought or sent to this county from abroad by members of the armed forces and merchant marine—either with or without certificates signed by commanding officers—and have not been registered.

Persons holding in their possession firearms of the type described must immediately contact in person, by phone or mail, the nearest investigator in charge of the Alcohol Tax Unit, Bureau of Internal Revenue. The investigator in charge can be reached at box 5566, Dallas.

This official will furnish details relative to all provisions of the National Firearms Act and will provide Form 6 (firearms) and assist in preparation thereof, as well as furnish information concerning the rendering of the firearms unserviceable which it is requested be done as a matter of public safety.

It is illegal to transfer firearms of the types described except by the payment of the $200 tax as provided by law. However, if the firearms are rendered unserviceable, they may be transferred tax-free as war trophies upon submission of the proper form to the omission of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C.

The National Firearms Act provides a penalty of a fine not to exceed $2,000 or imprisonment not to exceed five years or both, in the event any person is convicted on a charge of violating any provision of the act, which includes failure to register a firearm of the type described and transfer of such firearm without payment of the $200 tax, reports Joseph D. Nunan Jr., commissioner of internal revenue.

FROM WASHINGTON, D. C.
By Congressman Geo. Mahon

By law Congress has given war veterans priority rights in the purchase of surplus government property. But the veteran has not been having much luck in actually getting a chance to buy this surplus property. Some time ago I joined with other interested members of Congress in urging and demanding that the Surplus Property Board make available to the veteran his legal preference to acquire surplus property.

Effective October 15th, a new procedure was put into operation whereby a veteran who desires to secure surplus property makes application to the nearest District Office of the Smaller War Plants Corporation for the items he wishes to buy. The SWPC offices which are nearest western Texas are located at the Mercantile Bank Building, Dallas; The Caples Building, El Paso; and the Key Building in Oklahoma City. The SWPC grants a priority certificate to the veteran and seeks to help locate the property for him.

Effective November 5th, surplus property in Texas is actually disposed of by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Surplus Property Division, Ned P. Anderson Building, Fort Worth, Texas.

Heavy machinery and industrial equipment are disposed of by the Regional RFC office, Cotton Exchange Building, Dallas. But the Fort Worth office handles all consumer type goods—the items in which veterans and people generally are interested.

The articles in which veterans have expressed the greatest interest are as follows, and in the order named: automobiles, trucks, radios, photographic equipment.

One stumbling block in the way of veterans who have sought to buy surplus property is the fact that federal agencies, the states and sub-divisions thereof, have a prior right to buy the property. The veteran will now have priority over the general public but not over governmental agencies.

During the period from October 23rd to November 6th, 9100 surplus items were offered for sale to the federal agencies, states and sub-divisions. All of them will probably be old in this period, but if any remain, they will be offered to the veterans. The general public will be next in line. This will be the general procedure followed in future sales of various types of surplus property.

The rate of disposal of surplus property is increasing rapidly. There are billions of dollars worth of surplus property to be sold and the amount sold thus far is only a drop in the bucket. Veterans will soon have much better opportunities to acquire property in which they are interested and which many of them have sought in vain to secure.

I have asked the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to have a man specially assigned to enlarge disposal office whose duty it would be to eliminate red tape and facilitate sale of surplus property to interested veterans. However, for the present the veteran will have to secure his preference certificates through the District Offices of the Smaller War Plants Corporation.

Long Range Soil Building Plan Set For Agriculture

Garza county farmers are advised this week that the U. S. Department of Agriculture has adopted a "grass roots" approach to speed the reconversion of the nation's farm land from war-time production to long range soil building and water conservation.

The 1946 Agricultural Conservation Program in Texas will give more responsibility to farmers, working through their AAA county and community committees in recommending conservation practices.

Under the plan outlined by N. Ed Dodd, director of the field service branch of the production and marketing administration, counties will be given an allocation of funds within which to operate their conservation programs. Past AAA programs have allocated assistance principally on a state-wide basis. The 1946 program will provide about the same amount of assistance as 1945's.

The 1946 program is divided into these types of practices for which assistance will be available: (1) Application of lime, fertilizers, and other materials; (2) planting of cover crops; (3) harvesting of legume and grass; (4) erosion control and water conservation; (5) range and pasture improvements; (6) forestry practices; (7) other practices such as noxious weed control and clearing land for pasture.

STATE POLITICS

State politics is going to dominate the front pages of Texas newspapers for several months next year. There is sure to be a number of candidates for governor. We hope that the Lord gives us wisdom to detect and the purpose to swat the mere demagogue who comes with the oily tongue to bewitch and to beguile the people

STAR MAIL ROUTES

(Fort Worth Star Telegram)
 Star route carriers, who handle by contract the overland mail to small towns with wayside deliveries in some instances, are seeking relief in legislation that has been pending in Congress for more than a year. The bill would allow star carriers 6 cents a mile and 75 cent per hour salary.

Under the prevailing arrangement, contracts on star routes are awarded to the lowest bidder who can make bond and furnish the equipment, and the contracts run for four years. The businesslike arrangement, however, fails to work as satisfactorily in all rural regions as would be expected, because bids too low are offered by persons inexperienced in business. The net results in such instances are delays in mail deliveries from breakdowns in old equipment and hardship on the carrier from substandard income that prevents him from giving proper service. When sureties take over a star mail contract, they often give no better service than the principal formerly gave.

Certainly, the impairment of mail service under the rural contract plans calls for the attention of Congress with a view of rectification. Since rural mail carriers, delivering to boxes on country roads, receive salaries on a mileage basis with annual base pay of $2,200 a year and longevity to enlist under his banner.—Lynn County News

READING & WRITING
 BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKoun

The days of August 1942 were very dark for the Russian people. The battle of Stalingrad was raging, and the Germans seemed sure of winning. Over 2,000 Nazi bombers were counted over the city in one day; there were always fires burning. The city, spread out over a length of sixty-five kilometers, was nowhere more than five kilometers wide, and along almost its entire length the Germans had already occupied the city's western district.

KONSTANTINE SIMONOV

In the midst of this holocaust, civilians continued to live in cellars, Red Army units set up headquarters in gutted apartment houses, Red Army nurses escorted the seriously wounded across the Volga in barges.

The story of the epochal battle of Stalingrad is the subject of the novel, "Days and Nights," by Konstantine Simonov, the current Book-of-the-Month Club selection. In particular it tells of Captain Saburov, a war-toughened veteran who was twenty-nine though he looked forty, and of his fellow officers sent in to lead Red Army units in forays and house-to-house fighting.

"Days and Nights" has had enormous sales in Russia. Richard E. Lauterbach, Foreign News Editor of Life, says of it: "If a better novel about this war has been written, I have not read it." And Joseph Barnes, Foreign Editor of the New York Herald Tribune, who did the very fine translation, wrote to the publishers: "I think you have picked the most interesting Russian novel in a great many years."

Konstantine Simonov is now only thirty years old. He has written poetry, novels, scenarios, and twice won the Stalin Prize. As a soldier, he fought on nearly every sector of the long Russian front. His war dispatches in the Army newspaper, Red Star, were read by Russian soldiers with something of the same pride that our GIs had in reading Ernie Pyle. He is married to Valentina Serova, one of his country's most glamorous young actresses. His courtship brought him a certain unexpected notoriety. He wooed his wife in a series of beautiful love lyrics, and when they were collected for book publication, Stalin is reported to have said that the edition should have been printed in only two copies—one for him and one for her.

allowances, it would seem that relief for star carriers would lie along the lines proposed in the bill before Congress. The disparity in incomes of rural and star route carriers, who do similar work, is an argument for more pay for the latter. The public interest in regular, speedy mail delivery should not be overlooked by any means.

EVERYBODY'S IN THE SAME BOAT

While the housing shortage in Port's trade area continues at its most acute level in a period of several years, people in this area can at least be consoled with the fact that other communities of the nation are in the same predicament. Housing authorities now declare that America has a deficit in housing facilities nearing the 12,000,000 mark, and no prediction can be given as to when we will get settled in a normal manner.

FULL PRODUCTION IN 1946

Another year of full production will be needed from farmers in 1946, according to President Truman. Continuing great demands for food, plus the uncertainties of weather, will call for about the same total acreage in crops next year as this year, the President said in his reconversion message to Congress. He pointed out, however, that this does not mean the same volume of production for each farm commodity since surrender of Japan has brought about changes in the kinds of commodities wanted.

WELL WORTH THE RISK

After an extensive study of the subject of postwar price control, the Brookings Institution has issued a detailed analysis which concludes with the blunt statement that, "Beyond the setting of initial prices for products whose manufacture was suspended during the war, the continuation of price control is impracticable. Without wage stabilization and without rationing, the OPA is not in any case in a position to hold the price line. And the process of continuously reviewing and readjusting a multitude of prices to meet the needs of a rapidly changing situation, would be so time-consuming that the expansion of production and employment would inevitably be retarded."

This is not the opinion of a prejudiced pressure group. It is the considered judgement of a group of qualified research specialists. It indicates that whether the country so desires or not, price control will have to be abandoned. Either that, or an airtight dictatorship will have to be established to buttress price control. If price control is abandoned in favor of allowing natural laws of supply and demand to govern price fluctuations in a free market, it will be an encouraging indication that the United States intends to preserve representative government and the political liberty of the people even at the sacrifice of a measure of so-called economic security. The reward is well worth the risk.

Certainly the history of the free market in this country gives reason for confidence. Under it, we have witnessed the development of an amazingly efficient mass production and distribution system. Every manufacturer, every retailer is a part of the system. Successful merchants, whether they are chain or independent, hunt for ways to reduce prices because they know that low prices promote volume and volume is the heart of modern trade.

AN IMPORTANT DATE FOR THOUSANDS OF ARMY VETERANS
 NOW IN CIVILIAN LIFE

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE NEW ENLISTMENT PROGRAM

Between now and November 21, thousands of Army veterans will reenlist in Uncle Sam's new volunteer peacetime Army. Because men who have been discharged between May 12 and November 1 of this year and reenlist on or before November 21 will be able to return to the Army with the same grade as they held when discharged.

Men with six months of satisfactory service discharged as privates will, on reenlistment before November 21, be given the grade of private first class.

Men now in the Army who apply for discharge after NOVEMBER 1 for the purpose of reenlisting in the Regular Army will also retain their present grades, if they enlist within 20 days after discharge and before FEBRUARY 1, 1946.

"BEST JOB IN THE WORLD"

These special privileges are typical of the new law recently passed by Congress. Few opportunities for a lifetime career offer as many attractive advantages.

Can you think of any other job that would give you good pay, your food, clothing, quarters, free medical and dental care, world-wide travel, 30 days' furlough every year, education and training in any of nearly 200 skills or trades, and enable you to retire with a life income anytime after 20 years' service?

There isn't any! That's why a job in the Regular Army has been called "The Best Job in the World."

1. Enlistments for 1, 2 or 3 years. (1-year enlistments permitted for men with 6 months' service.)
2. Men reenlisting retain their present grades, if they reenlist within 20 days after discharge and before Feb. 1, 1946. The same applies to men discharged between May 12 and Nov. 1, 1945, who reenlist before Nov. 21, 1945.
3. An increase in the readjustment bonus to $50 for each year of active service since the bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service.
4. 20% extra pay when overseas.
5. Paid furlough, up to 90 days, depending on length of service, with furlough travel paid in home and return, for men now in the Army who enlist.
6. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.
7. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—or three-quarters pay after 30 years. (Retirement income in grade of Master or First Sergeant up to $155.25 per month for life.) All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.
8. Benefits of GI Bill of Rights.
9. Family allowances for the term of enlistment for dependents of men who enlist or reenlist before July 1, 1946.
10. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater in Air, Ground or Service Forces on 3-year enlistment.

Farwell Man Named Head of W. T. C. C. At Recent Meeting

Hamlin Y. Overstreet of Farwell was elected president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at the closing session of the 28th annual meeting held in Abilene the first of the week.

Overstreet, elevated from vice-president, succeeds E. W. Hardin of Amarillo.

Other officers named were H. C. Custard of Cleburne, Grady Mitcham, San Angelo, and C. P. Davidson, Decatur, vice-presidents; Malcolm M. Meeks, Abilene, treasurer; D. A. Bardeen, general manager since 1929, was re-elected.

All plans in the referendum were approved on the basis of membership voting except part of one issue which would have required WTCC to support a legislative appropriation to finance an all-Texas advertising program.

Mrs. Maggie Hill of Marlow, Okla. visited in the O. B. Cearley home last week. Mrs. Hill, who is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Cearley, is visiting her daughter in Midland. This was the first visit in many years of the two sisters-in-law.

Southwest Farm Products Bring Strong Prices

Most southwest farm products continued to bring strong prices during the last few days of October and early in November, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

About the only exception was on cattle, which eased off a little under liberal marketings, a larger proportion of low-grade offerings, and shortage of box cars which resulted in day-to-day holdovers at some receiving centers. Oklahoma City, Denver and Wichita reported the largest run of the season on October 29. The San Antonio supply on that day was about equal to the previous Monday's large volume, and Fort Worth had its second or third largest run of the season. Houston's mid-week receipts were heavier than for any other Wednesday to date this year. Demand continued very active, limiting the extent of the price declines to a range of 25 to 50 cents at most places. Some markets reported a show of strength toward the close of the week when supplies became in better balance with trade needs. For instance, San Antonio ended with slaughter steers and yearlings steady to strong and some values of canner and cutter cows 15 to 25 cents higher.

Movement of hogs has begun to show a slight seasonal increase, but keen competition for all available offerings continues to keep prices firm at ceiling levels. Volume marketing of hogs is later than usual this year, reflecting the inclination of producers to feed to heavy weights.

Sheep and lamb receipts are on the decrease, but southwest prices generally show steady to weak in line with business at markets further north.

Continued strength on wheat reflects, in part, the smallest October 1 supply stored at interior mills, elevators and warehouses in the United States since 1939. Frost damage to grain sorghums in Texas and Oklahoma hastened harvest operations which resulted in slight price easiness on milo and kafir as the week closed.

Cotton prices reached another new high. Demand for the better grades is very strong in the face of prospects for a comparatively small low-grade crop. Sales in the ten spot markets totaled 373,700 bales during the week.

Welcome Home Discharged War II Veterans

This column is dedicated to the service men and women who wear this armed services discharge button. As the Dispatch has followed them from civilian life through their war experiences, it will record their lives from the time they receive their discharge papers until they become rehabilitated and re-established in civilian life.

Garza men registered in this county who recently received discharges include: Letton Garland Huntsman, Richard A. Bird, George W. Whited, Luther H. Caffey, James F. Terry, William J. Locklear, Joe P. Jones, Merle J. Dyon, Virgil E. Rasco, Manuel Ornelas, William D. Williams and Loyd Gillebon.

Among the soldiers whose honorable discharges were announced October 29 was William H. Cravy. He received his discharge at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.

Bill Wood received his discharge from the U. S. Army today in Camp Chaffin, Arkansas. He was a visitor here last week end after returning from a trip to Austin where he completed arrangements for entering the University in March. His wife and baby visited here a few days before returning to their home in Tahoka.

Receiving his discharge on Oct. 27, 1945 from Fort Sam Houston was James A. McBee, husband of the former Juanita Tucker. McBee entered the service on Oct. 16, 1942 and went overseas on June 3, 1943. He was with the 7th Army and saw action in Sicily, Italy, France and Germany. His plans for the future are as yet unknown but at present he and Juanita are visiting friends and relatives out of town and plan to return some time this month.

Being sent for their preinduction physicals on Monday, November 5 were: G. W. Martin, Harvey W. Mason, and James F. Condon.

Pfc. Neel W. Allphin, brother of Mrs. John Cearley, left Tuesday to report to Fort Bliss after a 45-day furlough.

S-Sgt. Clyde Wright recently received his honorable discharge from the Army. He was attached to the supply depot of the 100th Bomb Squadron of the 8th Air force in England.

NEW 1946 MODEL CHEVROLET

The Sport Sedan

Front-End Styling Accentuates Massive Low Lines

The new 1946 Chevrolet, shown above, is outstanding not only for style-leading design, but for quality in materials and construction, advanced engineering, proved performance, economy and dependability. Every line and contour emphasizes the massiveness and lowness of the vehicle from front to rear. The distinctive radiator grille, shown at the right, presents an appearance of gleaming chrome-plated horizontal bars, framed within a wide-arched molding. A model of simplicity, it tends to emphasize width as well as lowness.

Sundown Cops 20-0 Victory Over Post

Sundown's grid machine in an aerial attack, which was launched after a scoreless first period, scored three touchdowns Friday night to roll the Antelopes, 20-0 in a District 6-A conference game. During the first period both teams see-sawed up and down the field, with neither seriously threatening over the other. Sundown's grid machine in an aerial attack, which was launched after a scoreless first period, scored three touchdowns Friday night to roll the Antelopes, 20-0 in a District 6-A conference game.

Post Sailor Has 70,000 Miles Sea Travel On Cruiser

Seventy thousand miles of sea travel has been left behind by Glen R. Day, MM3-c, Post sailor aboard the light cruiser Vicksburg. These many thousands of miles covered operations in which the ship contributed 975 tons of projectiles to the defeat of Japan, when the Vicksburg took part in the observance of Navy Day at Santa Cruz, California, Oct. 27. The cruiser had made the trip back from Tokyo Bay, where she had dropped anchor at the end of hostilities to take part in the occupation of the Japanese home land.

One of the high spots of the Vicksburg's war career was the Iwo Jima campaign. On D-Day in that operation, the cruiser standing only 1,500 yards offshore, fired her guns so rapidly that the paint was burned off the barrels.

At Okinawa, her gunners were called up for some of the most accurate shooting of the war when they threw thousands of rounds in support of the Army's advancing troops, some of her targets being only 500 to 800 yards ahead of the invasion forces.

In another action, close to the enemy's homeland, the Vicksburg had to dodge torpedoes and bombs that came too close for comfort, while flares turned the night into day, but she came through without a scratch—and with eight Japanese chained up to her credit.

Warning Issued On Spread Of Whooping Cough

There is no other communicable disease as dangerous as whooping cough to the very young, and there is no other disease causing an equal amount of suffering of which parents show such an unaccountable disregard, not only for the safety of their own little ones, but also for the lives of the neighbors' children, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. There is no natural immunity against this disease during the first six months of life as there is against measles. It is at this age that whooping cough strikes its hardest blow and over 80 per cent of the deaths occurring in children are under one year of age. The disease is usually transmitted by direct contact with secretions of the mouth or nose. Handkerchiefs, drinking cups and toys also may transmit the infection.

The infection is communicable from the appearance of the first symptoms and is most contagious at this early period when the nature of the affection can only be suspected. The incubation period is commonly seven days. A slight fever, running of the nose and a cough make their appearance so gradually and insidiously that a diagnosis is practically impossible unless a history of exposure is down opened up with a fancy aerial attack in the second quarter and clicked over two touch downs. The third period went by scoreless, and about midway of the last before the Sundown boys slipped by another aerial which was taken over the pay-stripe.

Sundown completed eight of ten passes and amassed eight first downs, while Post completed seven of fourteen passes and earned nine first downs.

Sgt. Billy Hays Receives Army Unit Citation

S-Sgt. W. (Billy) Hays, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hays of this city and serving in the 1st Battalion, 188th Glider Infantry Regiment, has been cited for outstanding heroism and conspicuous performance of duty in action against the enemy on Luzon, Philippine Islands, from 31 January to 5 February, 1945. The citation is quoted as further saying:

"During this period, this airborne battalion by its aggressiveness and courage contributed immeasurably to the rapid advance of an airborne division to Manila. Despite the disadvantages imposed by lack of transportation and small sized companies, the battalion landed at Nasugbu, 31 January 1945, against the fire of enemy automatic weapons and artillery. The battalion proceeded rapidly inland by a forced march of 25 miles in 24 hours. En route, they reduced the Japanese beach defenses, captured the towns of Wawa and Nasugbu, Nasugbu Airport, the strategic Palico Bridge, and were attacking the main Japanese line of resistance in the Carlabo Defile. Without halting and in the face of heavy machine-gun, mortar, and 105 and 155-mm artillery fire, the battalion attacked and seized Mount Aiming, the dominating terrain of the Japanese position. The battalion defended this position and held it through numerous enemy counterattacks. When one Japanese attack thrust through the lines and cut the battalion off from the remainder of the regiment, the exhausted men attacked and annihilated the Japanese force. In conjunction with two other battalions, the 1st Battalion overran the enemy position and proceeded on foot toward Manila, reaching Siland before being picked up in trucks. At the end of the fifth day, the battalion, en route to Manila, had marched on foot a distance of 45 miles, had fought three minor and one major engagement, and with tireless determination was preparing itself for the battle for Nichols Field. The unhesitating subordination to personal safety to the task in hand, and the magnificent courage, fortitude, and physical stamina displayed by the soldiers of the 1st Battalion, 188th Glider Infantry Regiment, are in accordance with the highest traditions of the military service."

Pall bearers were George Tillan, Tom O. Miller, Roy Baker, Bill and Sam Sanders and J. Herring.
Interment was made in Terrace cemetery. The graveside service was conducted by Rev. Ruben D. Smith of Aspermont.
