REMEMBER WHEN?
Remember the prices in 1920. Two years after World War I? If you were shopping for food then you paid, on the average: 27 cents a pound for sugar, 78 cents a pound for butter, 90 cents a dozen for eggs and 10 cents a pound for white potatoes. Cotton went to 40 cents a pound, or about twice what it was at the beginning of 1946.

HAWAIIAN ROTARIAN SPEAKS TO POST CLUB AT TUESDAY'S LUNCHEON

Rotarians were privileged to hear F. H. Van Cleve, secretary of the Waikiki Rotary club, at their meeting on Tuesday. Mr. Van Cleve became personally interested in the Post club, after correspondence with J. A. Stallings and exchange of their respective club bulletins.

While James Stallings was stationed in Hawaii he met Mr. Van Cleve and later wrote his father about the meeting and the correspondence began. Mr. Van Cleve's remarks were concerned chiefly with his personal views of the pre-war conditions in Hawaii and his dislike of the general effects of martial law as imposed on the islands. The activities of Hawaiian Rotary clubs in relation to the war was discussed also.

In his talk he stated that the Pearl Harbor inquiry, as given the American public was entirely inadequate and he favored an unbridled edition of the report to be given the people.

Mr. Van Cleve is an electrical engineer and has his own business establishment in Waikiki. He and his wife will visit several places on route to Atlantic City for the Rotary International Convention.

ARMY'S RADOSONDE MODULATOR VISITS IN SNYDER; WHAT'S-IT!

Snyder—A radiosonde modulator, an instrument for recording temperatures and dewpoints at different altitudes, direction and velocity of winds at different altitudes, and the height of clouds, was found on land belonging to Mrs. Mollie T. Simmons, 13 miles northeast of Snyder.

Attached to a parachute and balloon, it is believed to have landed between 9 and 11 a. m. Tuesday, about a fourth of a mile from the Simmon's home.

The instrument, which measures approximately 10 by 12 inches, was first brought to the Snyder Co-op Gin and is now at The Times Publishing Company. It is put out by the U. S. Army Signal Corps and the serial number is 54466.

Captain F. J. Teagarden, who was called to identify the instrument, said that he imagined it came from the Sweetwater or Abilene Weather Station, and had probably floated away by accident.

TEXAS KEEPS IN FOREFRONT OF NEWS

Texas made national magazine news this month with articles appearing in the April issue of Coronet Magazine and the April 8 issue of the Saturday Evening Post. In the Coronet the picture story "Oiltown, U.S.A." gives a living portrait of a typical American town, Tomball, Texas. Tomball is in the edge of Harris County, southwest of Houston. The pictures show the story of a town which started as a railroad terminal and grew to be an oil town and a farmer's trading center. In the Saturday Evening Post Texas growing industrial development comes in for considerable discussion in very enjoyable reading form. Texans are accused of bragging with 'becoming immodesty' of their new industrialization. Besides being interesting read-

MRS. RONALD CLEM NAMED HONOR GUEST AT SHOWER IN BROWNFIELD

Mrs. Ronald Clem, who was Melba Adamson before her marriage recently, was honored with a bridal tea shower last week in Brownfield.

Mrs. Frank Szydoski was hostess in her home and was assisted by Miss. Elwood Gradine of Lubbock, Rudolph Grocey, and Miss Joyce Smith, Oleta Leach and Jacqueline Thompson.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Szydoski, the honoree, Mrs. Clem, her mother, Mrs. D. R. Adamson, the groom's mother, Mrs. C. A. Clem, Mrs. Bob Connally and Miss Thompson.

Miss Oleta Leach presided at the brides' book which was of white satin edged in yellow lace with yellow satin ribbon streamers marking the pages.

The tea table was laid with a lace cloth over yellow satin and centered with an arrangement of white plum blossoms flanked with yellow candles. A bride and groom surrounded with white satin on which yellow blossoms were scattered decorated the buffet. Mesdames Grocey and Gradine presided at the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. Loyd Turner. Yellow punch and yellow and white tea cookies were served.

Mrs. Charles Gibson and Miss Joyce Smith displayed the many lovely gifts. Members of the houseparty wore corsages of yellow roses and the honoree wore one of yellow and white roses.

GAY TOGS FOR A GAY EASTER

Sewing for youngsters just past the pip and tucker stage is turning into a pleasant duty for many young mothers in Post and over the county. These lovely young matrons with an eye on the Easter season are seen scanning the fashion magazines for suitable patterns and materials—mostly cottons that are being displayed in Herrings, Haws, LaVelle and Malouf dry goods stores.

In choosing these cottons to make cute little girls and boys cuter mothers are advised by the congenial and helpful clerks to select materials for their washability, wearability, warmth or protection and attractiveness.

Other sewing tips suggested to help the young mother with her sewing are listed by the clerks—

Good buttons and fasteners, good binding or trimming material such as rickrack are essential if the child is to get in and out of clothes easily, and make the garments easy to launder.

Little folks like good fitting clothes. Making a muslin pattern takes little time and saves ripping and tedious pinning that make youngsters fidgety.

A Correction

On March 28 the announcement of the baby born to Mr. and Mrs. Pat Field of Venice, La., should have read 'son, named Pat Judell,' instead of daughter as was printed. Mrs. Field is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nickens of Post.

Former Post Man Here

Otis Thweatt, son of the late Dr. O. L. Thweatt of Close City community and who was reared in Post, arrived in Post Wednesday to visit Raymond Redman for several days. Otis is with the Navy and recently returned from the Pacific.

Homar Patty suffered a slight stroke early Wednesday morning and on the advice of his physician is remaining in bed for the next few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Griffith of Colorado City spent the week end with Mrs. Irene Rodgers.

NEEDED — A NAME!

A column without a name! The church news column needs a permanent name. Several names have been suggested such as The Church Circle, The Meetin' House, etc., but other suggestions from readers are desired.

Why not get your Sunday School classes or your aid groups to suggest a permanent name for the column written so interestingly by Mrs. Bonnie Cearley. The editor receives many comments each week from readers expressing approval of the new column.

Get busy on naming it—won't you?

IRIS IN BLOOM . . .

"A spot of beauty is a joy forever," so wrote the poet. We were reminded of this by the iris bed in the J. E. Parker yard. A profusion of blooms from twenty-two varieties has been a source of delight to the Parker family and all visitors.

Make Your Cotton Planting Seed Go Farther

HERE IS HOW—

Let us delint your seed by the Kemgas Process then you can plant half as many seed and secure a better stand.

WHY IS THIS TRUE?—

The Kemgas Process removes ALL the lint, then recleans, grades and treats the delinted seed with cerasan. Seed processed in this manner will germinate 3 to 5 days quicker than fuzzy seed. Tractors plant 25% more seed land in a day because there is absolutely no lint to choke planter boxes and one filling of the planter box will run 3 to 4 hours.

PLANTING ATTACHMENTS—

No special planting attachments are required—just an ordinary corn plate will plant these seed.

PLANTING SEED SCARCE—

Good planting seed is scarce this year. Get the most out of your seed by letting us process them. We are equipped to do a first class job.

NEWS NOTES FROM . . . Duck Creek Soil—Conservation District Office At Post

Cooperators with the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District of the Canyon Valley conservation group are working together on the ground. T. R. Greenfield and O. G. Hamilton have had the terraces laid out so that some of the terraces cross both farms. J. H. Eubank, who has been building terraces with a one-way, has purchased a whirlwind terracer and is planning to help his neighbors terrace their farms.

The county equipment has recently completed terracing the A. J. Becker farm in the Southland conservation group. The farm is very level and Mr. Becker believes in holding all the water possible on the land. The terrace system is so designed that it will back water from one terrace to another before it runs out the terrace ends. The fall between the terraces is 8 or 9 inches and the terraces are 15 to 16 inches high.

Mr. J. L. Whitted of the same conservation group is also building a terrace which provides for erosion control on his steeper land and prevents water from concentrating around his farmstead.

Clay Johnston, district cooperator in Conservation group 81, has left an unusual amount of stubble and crop residue on the surface of his land. It has reduced blowing to some extent.

FROM THE LOCAL TRIPLE-A
Robert H. Gibson, Secy.

A world food shortage of major proportions is being called to our attention in many ways, announces the chairman of the Garza County U. S. D. A. Council. The Chinese are eating tree bark, weeds, cotton-seed hulls, and mud in an effort to sustain life. In Belgium and Holland there are few children less than three years old to be seen. Those that are there are confined to their hovel-like homes because they lack the energy and strength to play in the streets and fields. The food supply in England is at a bare minimum, and their diet is stricter than during the war.

In the whole of Europe and North Africa the 1945 level of food production was 25 per cent below the pre-war average. In 1946 the food production will be even less because there are few able bodied people to labor in the fields, cultivating equipment is worn out, no fertilizer is available and good seed cannot be obtained.

It is the job of America to help furnish food to the starving people of the world. The President of the United States has asked for a voluntary program of food conservation and production. He has assigned the Secretary of Agriculture and responsibility of conducting this campaign through the County U. S. D. A. Councils. The Secretary of Agriculture has pledged increased exportation of wheat, meat, fats and oils. In order to meet these pledges it will be necessary for every person in the United States to conserve and produce as much food as possible. There are many ways in which each of us can help. Among these are:

Save from waste all kinds of food and feed especially bread and feed grains.

Produce, as far as possible, the milk, eggs, meat, vegetables and fruits needed by your family for a good diet daily.

Do better food buying. Do not handle foods, keep them good. Study food grades and labels. Know and buy good quality foods. Pool orders with your neighbor and buy scarce foods not grown locally.

Continue to improve food preservation.

Cook foods better. Save nutrients.

Improve your eating habits.

Food is still one of the most vital weapons in securing a stable and lasting peace. The deep satisfaction and good will the food conservers will create in helping to relieve the critical starvation conditions abroad will aid materially in establishing this peace, and in addition will relieve the suffering of our fellow man, states the Chairman.

Being a die-hard optimist, we hate to admit there's a drought on, but according to our farmer and stockmen customers, the pickings are getting pretty lean in Garza. In fact, one very reliable source informs us that a group of jackrabbits, seen passing through the county (probably on their way to California) were carrying their own lunch-baskets.

According to the oldtimers, however, we may be encouraged by the fact that we now have what the Indians called a "wet moon." As we understand it; the Indians—lacking the facilities and gadgets of a modern weather bureau—made their weather forecasts by the simple expedient of stepping outside and taking a squint at the moon—which is probably as good a method as any.

But there's no guesswork involved. Folks, when you have your car serviced at Hudman's Service Station. Attention to detail is our cardinal principle, because we earnestly want your continued patronage. After all, we earn our modest living that way!

The prehistoric discovery of the FLAME was man's first step toward civilization; and from that ageless past to the present, the Flame has been keeping humanity warm, cooking its food and performing other services. However, no energy, even that of the FLAME, would be valuable to modern civilized society unless it would be capable of being controlled. It is interesting to note that it was this controllability that, early in our economic history, provided continued usefulness to the GAS FLAME—a usefulness that through the years has constantly widened and strengthened. Today this controllability reaches its highest point of development. And so, as in the past, the GAS FLAME will continue to release, even more effectively, its energy, remaining man's faithful servant for cooking, water heating, refrigeration and year 'round home comfort.

Growth And Improvement Indicated For Neighboring West Texas Towns

Making a check on regional news this week we find many towns complaining of the unseasonal heat last week. Spur reported 103 degrees on Monday and Haskell reported 101 degree weather Sunday. Lamesa reported 97 degrees on Sunday.

Towns which had city elections were reporting the results of those elections and others were awaiting trustee elections on Saturday. Brownfield and Terry County FFA and 4H club boys had a successful calf show. A total of 104 animals were shown. At the auction 85 head were purchased by J. A. Sears of Dallas for the A & P stores for a total price of $12,375. Most remaining calves were sold to individual buyers. The animals averaged 886 pounds. The newly organized Country club elected officers last week. Brownfield was host Tuesday to Home Demonstration club delegates from the district.

Levelland voters went to the polls April 2 to approve the $300,000 city improvement issue by a vote of 25 to 1. The money will be used for street paving and extension of the water works system.

Lamesa has secured state approval for the Vocational School for veterans. Enrollment for a vocational agriculture course is to begin immediately.

Ralls' American Legion Building fund will benefit from a style show held Tuesday night. Members of the post modeled their version of American and foreign styles in feminine apparel.

Spur FFA and 4H club boys are not to be left out on display of their animals. They will have their Fat Stock Show on Saturday, April 13.

Crosbyton Chamber of Commerce has begun plans to place a playground in the City Park. Also an immediate survey is to be made of a dam site on the White river east of Crosbyton.

Haskell's Junior Chamber of Commerce has adopted a better lighting project for the benefit of churches and schools. They are to place more street lights at these places. There was a record breaking vote in the city officials election last Tuesday. Work was started on the $20,000 Memorial Building which is being sponsored by the American Legion and Lions club and financed by donations.

Hereford is to have an alfalfa mill and dehydration plant in time for this year's harvest as one of the new industries in that area. Littlefield celebrated Army Day by dedicating a new hangar at Duggan Field. An air show was held during the afternoon.

Tahoka and Lynn county boys will be awarded more than $600 in prize money Saturday at the County Livestock Show. A Labor-saving Device Show from the extension service will also be shown. The Flying Farmers participated in a coyote hunt near Lamesa.

SHORT COURSE TO ATTRACT HATCHERY MEN IN JUNE-JULY

Local hatchery men and poultry raisers are watching with keen interest the plans that are being made for a Short Course that is to be held at A and M College, June 24 to July 12, with chickens and turkeys as the main topic. The three week course is described as one of the best ever mapped. E. D. Parnell of the Poultry Husbandry Department stated.

Word received in Post from the college states that two weeks will be devoted to chickens, the last week to turkeys. The course has been planned to train flock selecting and pulorum testing agents, both chickens and turkeys, and to serve as a refresher or training program for hatchery men, poultry breeders, or others interested in chicken or turkey raising. College credit may be earned by those attending for the full three weeks.

A license may be earned for doing official work with chickens by attending either the first or second week. During the third week official turkey training work will be done. Both written and practical field examinations will be given. A registration fee of $10 will be charged for either two or three weeks attendance.

Swing of Southwest Farm Markets

Farm products continue to bring mostly steady prices at southwest markets last week, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

Despite liberal egg receipts, prices remained about steady at most southwest markets last week. Current receipts brought 30 to 31 cents per dozen. Dallas, Fort Worth and Denver, and 28 to 32 1/2 cents, New Orleans.

Very good local demand continued to absorb light poultry offerings. Heavy hens were quoted mostly 24 cents per pound, Dallas; 22 to 24 cents, Fort Worth and 22 to 25 cents, Denver.

Cotton prices advanced to new highs since the mid 1920's and spot market activity increased last week.

Supplies of grain grew tighter and prices bulged ceiling. No. 1 hard wheat, with ordinary protein content was quoted at $1.85 to $1.85 1/2 a bushel, bulk, in carlots, with all charges paid to Fort Worth or Galveston; sorghums $2.70 per hundred pounds and No. 3 white oats 89 to 91 cents a bushel in Fort Worth and 91 to 93 cents in Galveston.

Hog receipts were lighter at all principal markets last week compared to the same week a year ago. Prices of top butchers stood at the ceiling of $14.50 per hundred pounds, Wichita; $14.55, Oklahoma City; $14.65 Fort Worth and San Antonio and $14.80 Denver.

Small runs of cattle arrived at southwest markets during the past week. Prices were about steady except at San Antonio where trade was irregular. Medium steers and yearlings brought $13.50 to $15 per hundred, Houston. Medium and good shortfed yearlings sold at $14.25 to $15.50, San Antonio. Medium and good beef steers and yearlings realized $14 to $16.25, Fort Worth and $14.50 to $16.50, Oklahoma City. Medium and good light stock steers and yearlings ranged from $12.50 to $14.50, Wichita. Medium to choice steers were quoted at $15.25 to $16.25, Denver.

THE NATIONAL PASTIME

With the advent of warm weather interest over the entire nation is revived in the great national pastime of baseball. With the return of many players from the service and the development of young players the diamond sport will be stronger than at any time since before the war.

Even in Post the baseball fever is reaching a high pitch. Several games have already been played in preparation for a busy season. A softball league has been organized among devotees of the ball and bat art.

Plans are underway for Post to have a hard-ball team in the semi-pro Oilbelt League, so we may see some budding Di. Maggios, Kellers, Moores and Musalls on the local diamond this summer.

A CHALLENGE TO LOCAL CITIZENS

As a result of interest in the future of Post as a progressive business town some sixty-five business men attended the meeting Friday morning at which an inactive Chamber of Commerce was revived.

Since Post can use anything from a new telephone directory to more paved streets it is gratifying to know our business men are combining forces to promote the city's welfare.

Many talks were made concerning ideas for civic advancement and names were presented for directors of the organization.

These names were considered carefully and a set of directors chosen for their ability and willingness to plan constructive measures.

The burden of promotion falls on these men but as in the case with any project it makes little difference how well plans are made if no one works for their accomplishment.

Individual citizens can be of inestimable help by assuming the responsibility of general action. Words or wishes are not enough to make the things desired for our town but a real "shoulder to the wheel" demonstration by each of us would assure a carrying out of whatever plans which are considered feasible for the size and capabilities of our town.

This should constitute a challenge to all Post citizens to make our town the best little town, not only in West Texas, but anywhere. With this respect we shift our hats to past glories and here, roll up our sleeves to accomplish future needs of citizens.

DEFAULTING ON AN OBLIGATION

Only one out of every nine handicapped World War II veterans who applied for employment during the month of February got a job according to General Omer N. Bradley's report to the national employment conference of The American Legion in Washington, D. C. Nearly 52,000 men—disabled veterans looked for work. Less than 6,000 found it.

Is this what they fought for? No one is more entitled to general employment than the veterans who gave their lives in our common victory. For the men who contributed arms, legs or eyes to the bloody battles on Berlin and Tokio, the war will never be over. No one can ever replace the cost of their devotion.

But we should enable them to become self-sustaining members of our communities. That is an obligation on which we are defaulting. The American Legion has produced a 15-minute motion picture entitled "No Help Wanted" which every employer and every citizen should see. It portrays the ability of the handicapped person to hold a job in industry when properly trained. It demonstrates to employers how safely and efficiently the disabled veteran can handle exacting and responsible jobs. Actual scenes of the training of World War II amputees are shown.

Every community in our land should organize immediately to give top job priority to these trained disabled veterans. In this effort management, labor unions, civic organizations should cooperate like a team. American Legion posts everywhere stand ready to help.

Giving these disabled veterans the opportunity to earn their own way is an obligation that rests inescapably on every American. They paid that all of us might remain free. We must, we can not, default on our obligation to them.

HELP THE YOUNG AND OLD TO LIVE

Persons over 65 and under five years of age account for nearly three-fourths of the accidental deaths in the home every year! Two out of three killed in this group are people who are past the 65-year mark.

From these figures, declares the National Conservation Bureau, accident prevention division of the Association of Casualty and Surety Executives, it is obvious that infants receive more care at home than do the old folks. And it must be clear to all of us that grandpa and grandpa have many of the physical handicaps characteristic of age, and that they certainly need as much surveillance and care as we give to the little tots.

Many of us who avoid accidents will grow old one day, and we should practice some of the safety measures now that may protect us later.

The Japs have discovered that we Americans come to a slow boil, but stay hot for a long time.

Sidelights . . .

FROM WASHINGTON, D. C.
By Congressman Geo. Mahon

On April 12th I plan to appear before the House Committee on Education in behalf of legislation to expand the vocational training programs in the high schools of the nation.

Aside from the over-all national requirements, there is a need for the reopening of the 24 Vocational Agriculture Departments that were closed in our own Congressional District by reason of the war. Additional units are also being sought for other high schools in our area.

A number of additional Homemaking Departments are also needed. In fact, in the State of Texas it is estimated that more than 400 additional Homemaking and Vocational Agriculture Departments are required to complete the vocational training set-up in the high schools.

Texas schools have shown tremendous interest in vocational training. In the high schools of our 25-county Congressional District there are 51 Homemaking Departments and 36 Vocational Agriculture Departments now in operation.

Our Congressional District occupies a high place among the 21 Congressional Districts of Texas in the field of vocational training and in the number of vocational training departments. In the number of Homemaking Departments, we share top honors with Congressional District No. 7, represented by Tom Pickett of Palestine, which also has 51 Departments. In the number of Vocational Agriculture Departments, we rank No. 1 among the Congressional Districts. District No. 21, represented by Fisher of San Angelo occupies first place, and Pickett's District occupies second place.

Vocational training departments in the schools are financed under a system of State and Federal cooperation, the system having been in operation since 1917. Benefits that have accrued to the Nation are immeasurable.

The chances are excellent that Congress will approve the bill for additional cooperation with the States in vocational training and that many new departments will be placed in operation in West Texas schools when the new term begins next August and September.

Congressman Adam Powell, the colored member from the Harlem District in New York, created quite a furore in the House of Representatives a few days ago. He offered an amendment to an appropriation bill for the District of Columbia which would have put an end to the non-segregated practice in Washington of maintaining separate schools for the white and colored children. After a half hour of heated debate, the vote was taken. Congressman Joe Martin, the leader of the Republicans in the House, and 48 other members, about evenly divided between the Democrats and Republicans, voted for the Powell amendment. The rest of us who were on the floor at the time, 122 in number, voted against the Powell Amendment. We voted to continue separate schools for white and colored children.

There is no likelihood that Congress would tolerate the consolidation of schools for the white and colored children in Washington, and Congressman Powell did a disservice to the cause of racial understanding and good will by offering his amendment. It should be pointed out that the same high standards of service apply in both the white and colored schools.

Of the 88,000 school children in Washington, 39,000 are colored.

CLIFFORD D. PUCKETT IS HONORED BY LEGION POST AT SPUR

The American Legion Post at Spur now bears the name Williams-Puckett Post, the second name being added in honor of Clifford D. Puckett, the first Dickens County boy to lose his life in World War II.

Clifford D. Puckett, son of Mrs. Minnie Puckett of Spur, was killed on May 7, 1942, when Corregidor fell. Mrs. Puckett was notified soon after the fall of Corregidor that her son was missing in action and his death was confirmed in April, 1945.

A twin brother, Clifton L., was killed on February 24, 1945 during the fight for the liberation of Corregidor. He was awarded posthumously the Silver Star for exceeding gallantry on this date.

These boys are brothers of Basil Puckett of Post. Other brothers are Horace of Spur, Albert of Hillsboro, and Bert of Bakersfield, Calif. These boys received their early schooling in Spur and then attended Post High school. The Puckett twins were on the Antelope football team.

FORMER POST BOY LOST ALL POSSESSIONS IN HAWAIIAN STORM

Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Hudman received word Monday that their son, Bill, and his family were safe after the tropical storm that lashed the shores of Hawaii last week. The couple with their two children lived on an avenue in Hilo along the beach where the destruction was complete.

Mr. Hudman woke up and got up to turn on the radio. He looked out the window just in time to see the first of the seismic waves approaching the shore. He woke his family and ran to the garage to get the car to carry them all to safety. The giant wave hit, rolled his car over and went through his house as it did all of the others.

As soon as the water receded Mr. Hudman and his family hurried to a small hill and took refuge in a tree. They watched the second wave come in and in his letter, Bill said "it seemed like the house went into a million pieces. After the third wave, everything washed out to sea, people, animals, and all signs of their existence."

It is by mere chance, sheer luck, or just what you might wish to call it that the Hudmans are safe since so many lost their lives. As they left the house they did gather up some diapers for their infant daughter.

The Hudmans were planning to visit the States this summer. Bill married in Hawaii and wanted to bring his wife and children to visit all his family here. Since this catastrophe they will advance the time of their visit, coming as soon as transportation is available.

The family here had sent a cablegram but couldn't get an answer and were nearly frantic when finally they received the letter. Due to conditions there no cablegram could be sent from Hilo. According to Bill's letter, mailed April 4, they had gone inland and were staying with his wife's aunt.

Miss Billie Baker returned Saturday afternoon from Orange, Texas, where she visited five weeks with her sister and brother-in-law, W-Q James Mason and Mrs. Mason. Warrant Officer Mason is attached to staff of the commander of the Texas Group of the 16th Fleet.
