Post Wins 2-1 Over Slaton Teams Last Friday Night

The Post basketball team won two and lost one in a trio of games with Slaton Friday night. In the first game the Post B team defeated the Slaton B team 21-17. McCall and Mills set the pace for the winners.

In the second game the Post A team defeated the Slaton girls 24-18. In the third game the Slaton A team nipped the Post A team 21-17. Going into the third quarter trailing by a large margin, the Post players came to life and pulled to within three points of Slaton, but a last minute spurt by Slaton spelled the difference. Blackford and Cash led the scoring for Post.

Several Measures To Be Considered By 49th Legislature

Probably the number one problem of the 49th legislature, which convened January 9, will be the measure concerning increased salaries for Texas public school teachers.

Rep. Blankenship of Dallas said "I am not suggesting that we must raise the money but the average teacher is drawing a year round salary of less than $400 a month. War industries and other types of employment are draining off our teachers and are threatening the very foundation of our school system. We must find some way to raise these salaries."

Also the Texas University's regular row with Dr. Rainey will be investigated. The University seems to be getting bigger than the whole state.

Legislation may be offered to place the control of feeder airfields within the state under the control of the Texas Railroad Commission with the possible establishment of a state commission of aeronautics.

Memorial Services For "Skeet" Edwards To Be Held Sunday

A memorial service is to be held on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 14, at 3:30 o'clock for another of Garza county's war heroes, Pvt. William "Skeet" Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Edwards were notified recently that their son had been killed on Nov. 6 in Belgium.

BENEFIT BOX SUPPER

A benefit box supper is scheduled for Friday night, the 12th, at the Gransburg school house. Proceeds will be used to purchase an electric lighting system for the building. Everyone is given a special invitation to attend.

William Zetzman Leases Business To Lubbock Men

After serving the people of this county for 27 years, William Zetzman last week leased his blacksmith shop to C. A. Joyce and R. A. Holt of Lubbock.

The Lubbock men arrived here last week and assumed management of the blacksmith and welding shop the first of this week. They have been in the business for the past 35 years and are fully qualified to carry on the business built up over the years by Mr. Zetzman.

Mr. Zetzman has announced no plans for the immediate future except that he "plans to rest for awhile."

He says that his customers give the new managers their consideration and says that he has enjoyed serving as Garza county's "village blacksmith."

Men of Third Army Receive Praise From Gen. Geo. S. Patton

General George S. Patton, Jr. whose 3rd Army is again on the offensive, has praised his men as achieving records "unsurpassed in military history."

From Avranches, to Brest, across France to the Saar, and on to Bastogne, the men and tanks of the 3rd Army have met a cunning and ruthless enemy in every sort of weather on every sort of terrain.

Recently Gen. Patton received from Gen. Bradley a second oak leaf cluster to his DSM.

To his men Gen. Patton said, "This award was bestowed on me not for what I have done but because of what you have achieved. From the bottom of my heart, I thank you."

My New Year wish and sure conviction for you is that, under the protection of Almighty God and the inspired leadership of our President and the high command you will continue your victorious course to the end that tyranny and vice shall be eliminated, our dead comrades avenged and peace restored to a war-weary world."

Family Reunion In Hawaii

Much joy was experienced when three members of the H. E. Smith family were united in Hawaii for part of two days recently.

Two members of the family, L. G. Smith, 2c Yeoman, and Kenneth Warshaw, S-1c, call Hawaii their home at the present. Warshaw is attached to a ship but he is frequently in Hawaii. L. G. is a secretary in Naval office here. Lt. James E. Smith, a bombardier on a B-24, en route to an overseas assignment, stopped in Hawaii on his way out and got in touch with his brother and brother-in-law. He wrote his father, "We had a swell time together."

Warshaw Married Artie Pave Smith who is now living in Long Beach, California. The Warshaw family formerly lived in the Kalar community but are now living in Roby.

All the young folks went to school together in Post.

Another Post boy, Harold Lucas, who is stationed there, was in on the reunion, Mr. Smith reported.

Texas Cars To Wear One License Plate

Miniature automobile license plates will give way to the full-sized design this year in Texas.

The highway commission decided that the 1945 plates—one each to a vehicle—shall be 10 inches in length. Larger plates were last used in 1942.

This year's tag features black numerals on a gold background. A new numbering system will be used, a maximum of four numbers preceded by two control letters. This will make for easier identification, engineers said.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hundley are transacting business in Dallas this week.

Mrs. A. M. Johnson of Merkel visited relatives in Post a few days the first of the week.

Mrs. Lilla Moore spent the week end with Merkel relatives.

First National Bank Reaches All-Time High In Deposits

The First National bank of Post reached an all-time high in deposits as shown by the statement issued in response to the national bank call of December 30, 1944.

This call revealed deposits of $2,680,342.08 as against loans amounting only to $207,999.39. Total resources were listed as $3,038,097.21.

The cash resources, which includes actual cash, U. S. Bonds and war bonds, and CCC notes and certificates, amount to $2,822,246.18 which shows the bank to be better than 97 per cent liquid. That further means that more than 97 per cent of their depositors could be paid in full, on instant notice, without having to call a single loan.

In the last 12 years, since the merger with the Citizens National Bank, the First National has grown from an establishment with a capital of $50,000.00 to one with a capital, surplus and undivided profits of $151,424.31.

Bank officers are G. W. Connell, pres., S. B. Bardwell, vice-pres., Ira Lee Duckworth, active vice-pres., O. L. Wenkley, cashier, and E. S. Stewart, asst. cashier.

Percy Printz Plans To Attend Police Training School

Percy Printz, newly elected sheriff, is expecting to attend a police training school to be held at Lubbock.

The school, which will be held two days a week for six weeks will be operated in conjunction with the Dallas office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Instructors will be Dean R. Morley, special agent in charge of the Dallas office, and FBI agents from Washington.

The following subjects will be offered:

Defensive tactics and mechanics of arrest; jurisdiction of state and federal agencies; fingerprinting; introduction to laboratory; testifying in court; firearms training; demonstration; Texas laws of arrest, search and seizure; traffic law enforcement; public relations; evidence; juvenile control; confessions and signed statements; burglary investigations.

The school will include the usual lecture type of teaching but there will be a concentration on practical demonstrations and actual practice on the part of those officers in attendance, it was announced.

The school will be a part of the program of training being carried on in Texas by chiefs of police and sheriffs with the cooperation of the FBI. "These training schools have available the benefits of the experience of the FBI National Police academy, which is operated in Washington for the training of police executives and instructors."

Classes will be held in the corporation courtroom of the Lubbock police station.

Pfc. Harold T. Childs Graduates From Air Forces Gunnery School

Pfc. Harold T. Childs, son of B. C. Childs of Rt. 3, Post, was graduated last week from the Army Air Forces Flexible Gunnery School, Laredo Army Air Field, Laredo, Texas, a member of the AAF Training Command. He is now qualified to take his place as a member of a bomber combat crew.

Along with his diploma, he received a pair of Aerial Gunner's silver wings and a promotion in grade at brief graduation exercises held here.

He was prepared for his place in America's stepped-up air offensive by a comprehensive six weeks course in every phase of aerial gunnery warfare. Besides learning to fire every type weapon from camera guns to the deadly caliber .50 Browning, he studied turret manipulation, aircraft identification, stripping and reassembly of machine guns while blindfolded. He simulated the course by air firing on towed targets.

Mrs. H. J. Dietrich was brought home last Sunday from the hospital in Lubbock where she has been under treatment for several weeks. She is improving very slowly at this time, according to relatives.

Soldier - Sailor of the Week

Sons of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Jenkins, Charlie Jenkins, PR 2-c of the U. S. Navy, and S/Sgt. Cap Jenkins, are serving their country in various sections of the world.

Cap entered the army in October 1942 and took his first training in Douglas, Utah. He spent 16 months in the States before going to Oran, Africa, where he took additional training before moving into Italy. He was on the front line at Anzio beach in June and went through bitter fighting becoming a prisoner for 22 hours, escaping before being wounded in battle. He spent 33 days in the hospital then went back to the front for 9 days then back into a hospital for 65 days. After being released he was reclassified for noncombat duty and was transferred to the 300th General Hospital section in Naples, Italy. He writes that he likes the work fine. Lt. Margaret Anderson, daughter of Mrs. C. M. Voss, is also in the Naples hospital and the two Postites see one another frequently.

Charlie Jenkins is a parachute rigger and is now stationed at Quilley, Washington. His work is repairing all flight clothing, life rafts, jackets and the repairing of parachutes. He finished the parachute material school at North Island, San Diego, California.

First Lt. Roy Jones Awarded Silver Star Recently

First Lieutenant Roy D. Jones was awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action against the enemy from November 14 to November 22 in the vicinity of Metz, according to a communique received by his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Jones. The incident covering the action is described below:

First Lieutenant Jones was an artillery forward observer with Company L, (censored) Infantry Regiment, in the assault of Fort Gambetta and the subsequent drive on Metz. Throughout this period his performance of duty was conspicuous in gallantry and ability. Often Lieutenant Jones engaged the Germans in small arms firing and on one occasion, when normal communication with the artillery was cut off, he left a place of cover under intense shelling in order to obtain a radio, enabling him to adjust artillery fire accurately on German troops threatening friendly positions.

Lieut. Jones entered Metz with the forward elements of Company L at which time his keen ability to place artillery fire on critical targets just ahead of the assaulting troops was a material factor in the reduction of the German bastion. Lieut. Jones' gallant and skillful service reflects great credit upon him, and in accordance with the highest traditions of the military service.

Lt. Jones is with the Field Artillery and has been overseas since August 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Cross To Move Soon

Another Post family is pulling up stakes to move to another part of the state after living here "practically always." Mr. and Mrs. Lon Cross plan to move quite soon to land they have purchased near Weatherford, Texas. The couple sold their farm near Gransburg which they have owned since 1914. Cross, who has served as county official here at various times, came to this section in 1902 but didn't settle here permanently until 1914. He has just recently completed a 4-year term as sheriff. He also served as county judge for six years and as commissioner for ten years.

A daughter, the former Lona Cross, lives in Ft. Worth and will be near her parents' new home. One son, E. A., resides in Post and another, Milton, in Plainview.

Week end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Justice were Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Griffin and baby of Lubbock, Mrs. Griffin is the former Shirley June Justice.

Purple Heart Medal Awarded To First Lt. Shelley E. Camp

1st Lt. Shelley E. Camp has been awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received November 22nd on Leyte, Philippine Islands. He is with the 32nd Division, which went into action on Leyte shortly after the initial invasion of that island.

Lt. Camp is in a General Hospital on New Guinea and is improving nicely. He was hit in the calf of the leg by a Jap 30 cal. machine gun bullet.

Mrs. Camp, the former Frances Lee Duckworth, received the medal last week. Her husband sent it home by an officer who was shipped back to the States to a hospital.

GRIPSHOLM SAILS

The Swedish steamer Gripsholm sailed from New York Saturday carrying out another exchange of sick and seriously wounded war prisoners with Germany.

Rev. Huron A. Polne, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Ray Smith have returned from Fort Worth where they attended a Sunday School convention.

S-Sgt. Wilburn and Milburn Cash left Kelly Field on November 1st are now in New Guinea. "We have plenty to eat and plenty of time in which to eat it," they said.

WAR BONDS in Action

Ninth Air Force Bomber Base, France—Sweating out the "Sweet Box," a medium bomber of a B-24 Marauder group, is a labor of love with Sgt. Marvin (Bennie) Porter, a Post, assistant crew chief.

The ship has down 98 missions with the Ninth Air Force over hostile territory without a single turn-back due to mechanical failure.

Bennie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Porter of Post.

Phil Foreman To Report To Gunnery School After 28-Day Furlough Here

Phil Foreman, gunner's mate first class, arrived in Post last Friday night to spend part of a 30-day leave. Phil has four and one-half years service in the Navy.

His recent work has been aboard at 472 boat, a sub-chaser, in the Pacific Theatre of war. This is hard duty and extremely hazardous.

For part of his leave Phil will visit with his sister, Mrs. Elmer Hill, in Waco. At the end of the 30 days he will report to Washington, D. C. for a 4 months course at a gunnery school.

Transfer Of County Agents Effective January 10th

Wallace Kimbrough, county agent, is being transferred to Bryan, Texas, to serve Brazos county as agent, he was notified a few days ago by the Texas Extension Service. Replacing Kimbrough will be R. K. McCoy who comes to Post from Pampa where he has been serving as assistant county agent for six months.

Before going to Pampa, McCoy was agent in Terry county. He was Vocational Agricultural instructor in Stanton two years and in Lockrey four years. He is a graduate of Texas Technological college. His wife and five-year old son will accompany him to Post when he takes over duties here on the 10th.

Kimbrough has served Garza county for almost three years and has made a fine record in all fields of extension work. Emphasis was placed on 4-H club work in 1944 and an outstanding record was attained in this phase of the program. One national contest winner, three state-wide winners and three county winners were accredited to this county in 4-H club work this last year. Membership jumped from a small enrollment to 150 for the year just closed. Nine active clubs are in operation.

Outstanding records are also recorded for other fields of extension work.

Not only has Kimbrough been on the job at all hours in connection with the work of his office but he has been an active participant in civic affairs of Post. Mrs. Kimbrough, too, has served in a very capable capacity in church and club work.

Garza Tops Bond Quota In Recent Sixth War Loan

Final figures on the 6th War Loan drive recently completed were released by General Chairman T. R. Greenfield Wednesday afternoon.

The county reached a grand total figure of $208,024.50. Quota for this county was $270,000.00.

Series E Bonds purchased were $72,232.50; Series F, $7,592.00; Series G, $21,309.00; Series C Tax Notes, $38,600.00; 2 1/2% Treasury bonds for the 1968-71 period, $8,000.00; 2% Treasury Bonds for the 1952-54 period, $56,000.00; 1 1/2% Treasury Notes C for 1947, $46,300.00; and 7/8% Certificates H for 1945, $28,000.00.

These figures are official and were released by the Federal Reserve Bank and sent to John Herd, county chairman by Regional Director C. M. Smith.

Smith said, "I believe this is the most successful drive we have had in this region, from many standpoints. The region attained 127.4 per cent of its E Bond quota and 122.4 per cent over its overall quota. We are proud of the record Garza county made in the drive."

Sgt. Bennie Porter Is Assistant Crew Chief for Bomber

Ninth Air Force Bomber Base, France—Sweating out the "Sweet Box," a medium bomber of a B-24 Marauder group, is a labor of love with Sgt. Marvin (Bennie) Porter, a Post, assistant crew chief.

The ship has down 98 missions with the Ninth Air Force over hostile territory without a single turn-back due to mechanical failure.

Bennie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Porter of Post.

Post Cagers Defeat Snyder Teams Here In Two Games

The Snyder basketball team suffered a double defeat at the hands of Post last Tuesday night.

In the first game the Post B team rolled over the Snyder team by a 17-5 margin. Truncated the scoring with seven points.

In the second game the Post A team defeated the Snyder A team 24-17. The Antelope lost an early lead which Snyder was unable to overcome and the local team won in both the victories.

Fred Conli, minister of the Church of Christ at Abott, was visiting friends here this week.

Funeral Rites For Gro. Bradley Held Saturday

Funeral services for George W. Bradley, 77, prominent Garza county ranchman, were held in Lubbock Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the chapel of Rix Funeral home. Mr. Bradley died at 12:52 a. m. Saturday morning in St. Mary's hospital. Death was attributed to a heart attack suffered Monday. He was taken to the hospital by Mason and Company ambulance.

Bradley saw this county develop from thinly populated ranch land to one of the country's outstanding cattle empires. Five generations were in attendance to pay final homage to the colorful West Texas cattleman and pioneer who as a ranch owner had been identified with the cattle business in this section for 52 years.

He came to West Texas from California while a young man and first worked as a cowboy for the old Spur ranch. In 1898 he homesteaded ranch land lying northeast of Post and later bought adjoining grassland from the state.

Mr. Bradley owned and operated the Garza county ranch for 47 years and was actively engaged in its operation until his recent illness. He was a member of the Masonic lodge for 40 years.

When his three children were all at home the Bradleys divided their time between the ranch, Post and Lubbock.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. H. L. (Bud) Johnston, formerly of Lubbock and now living at the ranch; Mrs. Gray Browne of Abilene; Mrs. William H. Evans; four grandchildren, Betty Johnston, Madge Johnston, Milton, Bonnie Blue Browne and Jettie Evans. The Evans family, now living in Childress where Maj. Evans is attached to the Childrens Air Field, are permanent residents of Lubbock where he is in the practice of law.

Rev. Dr. Jack M. Lewis, pastor of First Presbyterian church, was in charge of services and read the same passages of Scripture. He read in the funeral services for Mrs. Bradley.

Funeral services were William E. Dean, Ross Edwards, S/Sgt. Sam West, Neil H. Wright, Sam B. Hardwell and Char. A. Guy, all of Lubbock; George Herd, of Houston and Doug Morrel of Post.

Interment was made in the Lubbock cemetery at the side of his wife who died in December of 1937.

Soil Conservation Practices For Year Given In Report

The cooperators of the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District have established a creditable amount of conservation practices during the past twelve months. Fifty-one plans were written, making a total of 204 farms or ranches cooperating with the District Work Unit, located at Post. These 204 cooperators have surveyed and planted on 88,274 acres of farm and ranch land.

A check-up made at the end of the year showed that the following practices had been applied on cooperating farms and ranches:

Contour planting, 26,796 acres; Crop Residue Management 26,413 acres; Deferred Grazing, 1,122 acres; Proper Stomach Use of Forage, 7,128 acres; Proper Stocking, 27,114 acres; Rotation Grazing, 5,747 acres; Terraces Completed to Date, 300 miles; and Acres Terraced to Date, 9,994.

The Bible is the world's best-selling book.

Recent Trip To Birthplace Of Shakespeare Described
By Glendon Presson

Glendon Presson wrote an interesting account of his recent trip to Shakespeare's birthplace and other famous places in England. Parts of his letter are reprinted here:

Dear Folks:
After re- from my turlough I found several Christmas packages and a few letters . . . all of which re very welcome.

Sgt. Stevens and myself went to Stratford-on-Avon, a historical town in the English midlands, famous now as the Shakespearean birthplace. The town itself is picturesque and beautiful and is located on the river Avon, which is quite a sizable river for England, comparing favorably I think, with the Thames in size. It was unfortunate that we couldn't have visited there in the Summer. I imagine it would really have been a lovely sight at that time. Also, during the Summer months Shakespearean plays are performed at the high Shakespearean Memorial Theatre which stands on the green common overlooking the Avon river and which was built in the early 1930's.

The American Red Cross at Stratford is the former White Swan Hotel. We stayed here and the Club sponsors the Shakespearean tour, taking about one full day to see everything, and of course the guide points out the things of interest. Ann Hathaway's cottage is at Shottery, about a mile and a half from the center of the town of Stratford itself. It is, of course, just like the pictures of it, except the gardens naturally were not in blossom. The inside is supposed to be preserved very well—showing the original fireplace of Hathaway's days as well as some genuine Cromwellian furniture and much other ancient stuff which the guide points out with typical English reverence for oldness. We went to the Church of the Holy Trinity, Stratford-upon-Avon, in which Shakespeare, his family, including his son-in-law Dr. John Hall, are buried. Dr. John Hall, by the way, was supposed to be quite a famous physician in his day, and at the New Place Museum, we saw quite a few of his old documents, including several ancient prescriptions and advice to some of his sick clients of that day. At this church we saw the book in which is recorded the literary master's birth and his burial; also the fountain in which he allegedly was baptized. The guide called our attention to the fact that the chapel of the church was built slanting to the left, representing Christ's head leaning to the left while on the Cross. The grave of Shakespeare itself is merely covered over with cement with the inscription that he wrote to be placed on his grave ending "And ev'ry be he yf moves my bones."

Shakespeare's birthplace has a lot more relics and heirlooms. One thing of interest here was the room in which he was born. On the ceiling is inscribed thousands of names of people who had visited the room and included Lord Byron's, Thackeray's and several other famous people.

The New Place Museum is just next door to the foundations of Shakespeare's home which was destroyed by the Monks of the Guild Chapel because they were jealous when so many people came to see the home where the literary genius lived and died. The guide pointed out an ancient mulberry tree that the writer was supposed to have planted.

Well, at any rate, we enjoyed looking the place over for a day or two, and I'm glad I have seen it. I do think the place is commensurated a bit too much at the present time, but I suppose the "American dollar" is a contributing factor in that. Souvenirs there were scarce due to wartime factors. I will send home a few odds and ends I picked up.

From Stratford-upon-Avon we went to the blitzed city of Coventry and spent a night there. From there we spent the remainder of our furlough seeing the sights of Manchester, second city of England. And there were quite a few sights there, also! We had a very good time and it will be hard to go to work again.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Moreman Resign From Pure Food Market

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Moreman resigned from their work in the Pure Food Cream Department on December 17th and left on December 18th for a visit with relatives in Burkburnett, Texas, and Manitou, Okla. They celebrated their 28th wedding anniversary on Christmas eve in the home of Rev. W. C. Rhoads and family. Rev. Rhoads is pastor of the Manitou Methodist church.

Mrs. Moreman's brother, M. E. Green, from Eldorado whom she hadn't seen in 17 years visited with them. The couple declared, upon returning to Post where Mr. Moreman took over duties of county treasurer, that this was the happiest visit " had observed in 17 years.

JESUS BEGINS HIS MINISTRY

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 3:13-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve.—Matthew 4:10.

Ready for service—this is the next scene from our Lord's life which comes before us in Matthew. Thirty years had passed since His birth, but these are hidden in silence, save for the one glimpse of Him in the temple which is given only by Luke.

These were not years of idleness or luxury. He was obedient to Joseph and Mary. He worked in the carpenter shop. He fellowshiped with God's people, and best of all, with His heavenly Father. He showed obedience and faithfulness in life's ordinary things. And then, all at once, the day of His public ministry was at hand.

His baptism and temptation were a part, the opening event, of that ministry. We find Him:

I. Identified With Sinners (3:13-15).
John, the fiery forerunner of Jesus, had come with a burning message of repentance, and sinners were coming to him to be baptized as a sign of their contrition.

Suddenly Jesus appeared. John pointed to Him as the "Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1:29). When He offered Himself for baptism, John demurred. There was no sin in Jesus that He should need baptism. There was no occasion for Him to express in a special act His obedience, for He always did the will of God. (Heb. 10:7).

Why then was Jesus baptized? We find the answer in the central purpose for which He came into the world, namely, to save sinners. Here at His official entrance upon that work He, who though He knew no sin was to become sin for us, took the sinner's place in baptism. It was not because He had Himself sinned, but because He was to become the substitute for the sinner. What marvelous condescension and grace!

II. Approved of God (3:16, 17).

The Holy Spirit, like a dove, rested upon Him. The dove is one of the symbols of the Spirit, and speaks of gentleness, meekness, purity, peace and love.

Out of the eternal dwelling places in heaven came the voice of the eternal Father expressing His approval and pleasure in His son. The person and work of Christ bear their own commendation of Him to us as divine. Here we have the Father's word, and the Holy Spirit's coming. Thus we have here the entire Trinity.

III. Tempted by Satan (4:1-11).

A time of testing was ahead. Jesus did not fear it, but notice that He did not seek it either. He was led by the Spirit into this great conflict. We may learn that we must not seek nor put ourselves in the way of temptation, but when it comes we may meet it without fear. God is with us.

He was tempted as the Messiah, and the Son of God, and it was a real testing, one from which we need to learn what to do when tempted. It was threefold: physical, spiritual and vocational.

1. The Physical Temptation.
Forty days of conflict with Satan made His body hungry. Under such circumstances it was a terrific temptation to use His divine power to make bread. He could have done it, but He did not. One doesn't have to live, but one does have to obey and honor God.

Note how effectively Christ used Scripture (from Deuteronomy—have you read it lately?). It is the only sure answer to Satan's temptations, but you must learn it if you are going to use it.

2. The Spiritual Temptation.
Here Satan asked Him to presume on the grace of God. If he cannot get you to abandon your faith, he will urge you to go to some fanatical and unscriptural extreme in using it.

God always cares for His own when they are in the place where He wants them to be, but He does not deliver us from foolhardy and unnecessary risks which we want to call "faith."

3. The Vocational Temptation.
Christ had come into this world to wage war with Satan, the usurper (who is now the prince of this world—John 12:31), the kingdoms of this world. Satan suggested to Him that He could accomplish this by simply bowing down to him—thus escaping Calvary's cross.

Satan is busy urging men to take spiritual bypaths. He has his own leaders who skillfully evade and avoid the cross. They have a religion without the offense of the cross, but, mark it well, it is not Christianity, even though it bears that name.

Jesus met and defeated Satan by the use of Scripture, and by honoring God the Father. Jesus' resistance of the devil caused him to go away. It still works. Read James 4:7. Then come the angels to minister to Him. Victory over the enemy of our souls brings peace and spiritual refreshment.

HUNT'S CAFE

—24 HOUR SERVICE —24—

Now comes the end of America's third year of total war, and the beginning of the fourth.

Interpreted in terms of "business as usual" the old year has been one of problems, trials and heartaches. We could enumerate many, many instances wherein circumstances have caused us to do a poor job of serving our friends and patrons—and we know full well that we have been criticized countless times for things which seemed contrary to the Ideal Laundry's manner of doing business.

Our only answer is that war and non-essential business just don't mix. The one is detrimental to the other, and accordingly business must and should be the one to suffer. Our aim has been, and will be, to accept cheerfully the handicaps and inconveniences attributable to war circumstances and to hope that our customers will do the same.

The Shortage of Labor and the inability to get our car repaired forces us to eliminate every possible pickup and delivery. If you have any means at all of getting your laundry to and from our laundry you should do so.

During the year 1945 rest assured that nothing will be spared for VICTORY, after that we shall exert every effort to give our many customers the best service possible.

Library News...
When school started again after the holiday season the library was rushed with students wanting books, magazines, and cut-out magazines...
The desire for reading seems to be increasing. New magazines, which have just been received,
are not only read for pastime but for satisfaction of learning what is happening in the world today...

SOUTHLAND NEWS

Mrs. Marvin Truelock, Community Correspondent

Mrs. Ed Martin arrived home Sunday. Her brother is improving and hopes to visit her soon.

S. M. Truelock went to Lubbock to visit his older brother, Matthew, who is in the hospital.

Mrs. Hardin Reed and twin babies are visiting her sister, Mrs. Carl Rains. The infants are a boy and a girl. Their father hopes to get a furlough soon.

The two girls will run probably the rest of this month. They had ginned almost 1,500 bales by Saturday.

Sunday about two o'clock Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Armstrong, the Methodist pastor and wife, left for near Sweetwater, where his brother-in-law has been seriously ill for several weeks.

Sunday the A. M. Tamers had a family reunion. Their two sons, R. B. and family from Roby and Timothy from Morton spent the day, besides Mrs. Tanner's brother, C. N. Bell and wife of Lubbock.

The local post office sold $12,000.00 in bonds in December.

Miss Helen Becker left Friday for Dallas to visit her sister Dorothy.

Miss Virginia King came Thursday to spend a day here with her parents, the H. A. Kings.

Lavan Ferguson of Barnum Springs visited Doris Jean Sartain. The Fergusons hope to move to the old Harmonson house this week.

Mrs. Phil Gossett visited Dallas, Abilene and Hamlin last week. She and her girl friend planned to see the Oklahoma A & M - TCU football game but the stadium was all sold out.

Last Tuesday night Mrs. Troy Moore was hostess at a party for her Senior Sunday school class of the Methodist church. Cocoa, date loaf, peanut candy and cookies were served to all present.

Mrs. Hays Robinson and daughter visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Charles Richmond spent the week end in Lubbock with Miss Bertie Jo Poole who returned home with her Monday to visit a few days at the Irwin ranch.

The Lawrence Schultz family moves away Friday of this week. We understand the owners, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Simmons, who lived here last year, are moving back to their farm.

Southland Boys In Service

J. R. Bartlett, the grandson of J. I. Bartlett, was reported injured in action in Belgium. He is the son of Ernest Bartlett of Rails, former local residents.

Fireman Cleo Bland of Midland Air Field spent the week end with his parents, the J. M. Blands of Pleasant Valley.

Pfc. Leroy Voigt is now in a rest camp in the South Pacific. He is doing fine.

The mail from Belgium and vicinity seems varied Monday two letters came from there. Mrs. King's from her son Cpl. Henry (Baba) was written Dec. 20 and Mrs. Landers' letter from her son, Sgt. Ralph, was dated Dec. 11.

Kathryn Blanche Childress' Name Placed On ACC Honor Roll

Kathryn Blanche Childress, 1944 graduate of Post high school, and the daughter of Mrs. Maggie Childress of Post, had her name placed on the honor roll for the second six weeks at ACC, Abilene, as a result of her making a grade of "Superior" in 1 subject.

Kathryn is a freshman in ACC.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express a kind "Thank You" to our many friends in Garza county; to the members of the Church of Christ of Close City for the platform rocker presented to us, and to the women of our community who gave us a lovely "going away" shower of gifts.

We regret to leave this section of the country but hope to find contentment and prosperity in our new home at Santa Rosa, Texas. We invite all friends to visit us if you are ever in that section of Texas.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Ray McNabb

Mrs. George Evans visited her mother Mrs. W. M. Henderson of Plainview during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullinger and family visited relatives at Dermont Sunday.

Mrs. W. T. Parchman, jr. is leaving this community to join her husband who is in the Navy and is stationed at San Diego, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McCombs and Mrs. W. T. Parchman, jr. visited relatives at Hamlin Tuesday.

Billie Benson of Brownfield visited Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dorman and family Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Slinger of Lubbock visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Evans Sunday.

Jeff Reed was in Snyder Saturday.

Nazis Send V-Mail On V-Bomb Wings

London—The Germans are using their V-bombs as carriers for V-mail letters from British prisoners of war, it was disclosed here.

After one recent attack on northern England by the vengeance bombs, a packet was found marked "V-weapon prisoner-of-war mail."

It contained three letters in photostat, and the notation: "Finder is requested to cut out or copy the letters printed here and transmit them to the addressees so that they will receive them as early as possible. The original letters are being sent through the Red Cross in the usual mail channel."

Sgt. and Mrs. Thurlow Morrow and family of Kemt were week end guests of Mrs. Marjorie Brooks and daughter and Mrs. Juanita McFee.

THE SEAL OF SCIENCE

SOLID FOUNDATIONS are being constructed for the days of reconversion and a gradual return to an industrial peacetime economy. Testing and research programs have been geared to preparing for future eventualities both on the basis of demands of the immediate postwar period and for meeting any challenges that change may bring in the period to follow.

Research, quite naturally, plays the greater role in these endeavors, for a growing and constantly advancing progressive technology provides the fundamental concepts for meeting the challenge of change. Vigorous prosecution of an accelerated research program has brought technical advances of great significance and its stimulating effect will undoubtedly elevate them to constantly higher levels. Thus the Laboratories Approval Seal, which for many years has distinguished gas appliances of merit, will continue to be a symbol of technical competence and workmanship worthy of the public confidence which it enjoys—for Research Lights the Way!

If your gas appliance displays the Approval Seal of the Testing Laboratories of the American Gas Association, you may rest assured that that appliance has met the rigid requirements and tests to which it has been subjected. The Seal of Science is for your protection.

THE ATLANTIC CHARTER— JUST WHAT IS IT?

With all the talk about the Atlantic Charter, some have asked just what it says. It was supposed to be a very formal document, but we discovered it was just a memorandum written at sea by President Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill. There are no signed copies, because neither had the power to sign such a commitment. Anyway, the Charter advocates in brief:

- No agrardment, either territorial or otherwise.
- No territorial changes without free consent of the people.
- Right of all peoples to choose their own form of government.
- Equal access to trade and raw materials by all nations.
- Collaboration for higher labor standards and social security.
- Freedom from want and fear, and the sort of peace to insure it.
- Freedom of the seas for all.
- Abandonment of force . . . a system of security . . . disarmament.
- Consultation among the Big Four Nations (U. S., Britain, Russia and China.)

Captain John Smith was one of the bravest soldiers in the old Plymouth Colony, but he wasn't brave enough to ask Priscilla Mullins for her hand.

Lincoln made five written copies of his Gettysburg Address. Two of them are on exhibition in the Congressional Library in Washington, D. C.

Although covered with snow, parts of the polar regions are as arid as the Sahara Desert, having an annual rainfall of less than ten inches.

THE SECOND THOUGHT

The lady who believed a year's military training was in the interest of preparedness and "would be good for the boys" is most estimable. And, her son had just returned from sixty-six missions. The man, too, had sons in service. There was no question of knowing what war is or is not. But the man answered heatedly, "So would it be good for a boy to be put out on a highway with five dollars and made to work his way to New York and back. But who wants to do a boy a trick like that?"

The Dispatch believes that these fine boys who have given up their school life, their companions, their homes, their hopes, their loves, deserves more than to come back and see their little brothers, or their sons, hiked off to an Army camp for a year of discipline under military rule. A lot of things would be good for grown-ups but they don't do them. Why should boys be made to do them? Those who need to be prepared, to be alert, to be in constant training should be the career men in the army and the allied industries serving the armed forces.

Where this country was short in 1940 and 1941 was not in training ground soldiers who knew how to fold a blanket or point a rifle, but in equipment and an understanding of modern war and its requirements in the way of planes and bombs. The lack was at the top and the topper you went, the more the lack. Before we go overboard on a "year's military training" that would force a growing young mind out into a regimented camp, let's spend some time seeing to it that those at the top keep themselves abreast and alert to the demands of a possible war ahead and not the requirements of the one already fought.

Rode Between Nazi Tanks In a Jeep to Safety

One of the First Times in History American Troops Retreat

By Ernie Pyle

(Editor's Note: This dispatch was written and first published when Pyle was with the GIs at the Tunisian front. He is now on his way to cover the boys in the Pacific war zones.)

THE TUNISIAN FRONT.—Capt. Jed Dailey of Sharon Mass., got back safely in his jeep after the German break through out of Faid Pass. But he had a horrible time. He was beating it to the rear across the desert, along with the rest of the command post's personnel, when suddenly he saw a Mark Four tank staring him in the face not a hundred yards away.

The tank was stopped, the crew had the turret door open, and a German was just standing there, looking at Captain Dailey as cold as ice. It was enough to give you the creeps. Jed swung the jeep around—and here was another Mark Four staring at him. He kept turning and dodging, but everywhere he could go he would be looking smack at the front end of a Mark Four. They just seemed to appear from nowhere, and there they'd be suddenly, until he felt like a mouse trying to get out of a room full of lion cats.

Finally Jed did the only thing left to do. He took his heart in his and drove right between two German tanks, with their crews sitting there at the guns and looking at him as he passed 50 yards away. They didn't shoot, and he doesn't now to this day why they didn't. Then he stepped on that jeep and went soaring across the desert, flying over irrigation ditches you'd normally cross in low gear. German artillery got after him. They rapped an 88 on his right, and then one on his left, and then one to the front of him. They had him clobbered.

When artillery does that, the next shot always gets you. But they never fired a fourth shell. He has no idea why. It was just kind of like a miracle. Things like that went on all afternoon. Finally it got dark, and a sort of safety came. But it wasn't complete safety, for German patrols were out scouring the desert for stragglers.

Jed finally got away by driving the jeep straight up over the top of a mountain and down the other side. He just missed driving over several sheer cliffs. From now on he hates Germans.

Lost Razor Blades. Most of the men who survived the German's surprise break-through on the first day of the Sbeitla battle lost everything they had. Major Seth Elkins of College Station, Texas, came out with only the tubes on his back. But he resented not losing 300 razor blades to the Germans.

Captain Dailey swears he will get to German who is now sleeping in a bedroll. One soldier was sore as a hornet because the day before he gathered up his inertia and accomplished the nasty job of writing six long overdue letters home. Now he has Germans have them, and he has set writing job to do all over.

Again, Jed Dailey lost his camera and a dozen rolls of film he had been taking for months. One of them was a foolish picture, such as a soberest of adults sometimes indulges in. He had picked some desert flowers, stuck them behind his ears, and posed for the camera making a silly face.

"The Germans will develop those films for what information they can get," he says. "And when they come to the one of an American officer with flowers behind his ears, he'll probably tell Goebbels to put it out on the radio that Americans are sissies."

One soldier told me his most vivid impression of the afternoon was seeing 10 brand new tires burning up on the wheels of a huge American truck. "With rubber so short at home, and tires rationed," he said, "it seemed awful to see these brand new ones burning."

Another soldier said, "You damn well, here's the sky full of planes, and the country full of tanks, and us dropping all around you, and you're worrying about tires!"

Lieut. Col. George Butherford of Shreveport, La., and Lieut. Robert Simons Jr., of Columbus, Ohio, walked 20 miles across the desert.

that night. They had a compass and it saved them. We had been talking about them while they were missing. "George will show up," one officer said. "I'll bet any amount of money on it. Germans will turn him loose after two days, to get rid of him before he talks them to death." And show up he did.

He and Junior Simons say they consider the compass the most valuable piece of equipment the army issues. They had one horrible experience that night. An Arab they encountered in the desert ran them almost into the hands of a German patrol. They escaped only by lying deathly still, hardly breathing, for an hour, while the Germans hunted within a few yards of them. But another Arab balanced the account by getting out of bed to give them drinking water.

They were so thirsty that they didn't take time to purify it with the pills they carried, but at this writing they are still feeling fine.

Majestic Withdrawal. The withdrawal of our American forces from the vast Sbeitla valley, back through Kasserine pass was a majestic thing in a way. It started before dawn one morning and continued without a break for 24 hours.

It had no earmarks of a retreat whatever. It was carried out so calmly and methodically. It differed in no way, except size, from the normal daily convoys of troops and supplies. I left Sbeitla in the middle of it. Vehicles were so well spaced, it was not difficult to pass them on the wide gravel road. And, since I was not required to keep line, I could go forward and back to get a good view of the entire movement. Our planes were in the air almost constantly that day.

So far as I have heard, the Germans did not do a single road-strangling job on our withdrawing columns. They missed a magnificent opportunity. Why they didn't try is still a mystery to me.

First, before daylight, came the kitchen trucks and engineers to prepare things ahead. Then came rolling guns, and some infantry to set up protection along the roads. Then the great vast bulk of long supply trains, field hospitals, command posts, ammunition wagons, infantry, artillery, and finally—when night came again—the tanks started and moved on until the next dawn.

The whole thing was completely motorized. Nobody was walking. It was hard to realize, when you were part of it, that this was a retreat—that American forces in large numbers were retreating in foreign battle only of the few times in our history.

We couldn't help feel a slight sense of humiliation. Yet, while it was happening, that humiliation was somewhat overcome by our pride in the orderliness and accomplishment.

It simply could not have been done better. Military police patrolled the road with jeeps and motorcycles to see that there was no passing, no traffic jams, no loitering. Not many of our American trucks broke down; and those that did were immediately taken in tow. There were almost no accidents.

The withdrawal from Feriana and Thelapte airbase was separate, and smaller than ours. They were evacuated in the dawn hours. Ammunition dumps were set off, and all gasoline that could not be moved was set ablaze.

Planes that took off that morning on dawn missions did not return to the field but landed elsewhere. All planes that could not get off the ground, because of minor damage or needed repair, were burned.

There never was anything built above ground at Thelapte, because the field had to take too much bombing.

Refugees Delayed Retreat

There were French civilian refugees on our road, but not enough to hinder traffic. Most of them walked, carrying brown suitcases and bundles. I noticed they did not carry much, so they apparently had faith in our coming back.

There were few Arabs among them. The Arabs are supposed to get along wherever they come to—except in their country.

French artillery and infantry also were withdrawing. They did hinder traffic, after we were safely back at Kasserine pass and the road grew narrow and busy.

We well know the French were the best fighters in the world, but this delaying stream of high-wheeled carts, rolling along as last-century-USA, seemed symbols of France's whole disaster.

Cape Henry, at the entrance to Chesapeake Bay, Va., received its name in 1607 from the English soldiers there, who gave it that title in tribute to Prince Henry, son of King James of England.

SEEMS hard on the man, yet there he is, with practically 3-cars-in-1 . . . First, that's his pre-war car . . . Second, it became his wartime car . . . And third—long may it live postwar! For not even record-smashing new car output in 1945 can keep millions from being forced to wait until 1946 or so—most likely including you.

Then go the limit shielding your priceless motor car by having its engine OIL-PLATED. That's your sure gain in switching to Conoco Nth motor oil. Made of finest paraffin-base stock, refined by latest processes, Conoco Nth oil actually tops all that by OIL-PLATING your engine's insides. This extra inner surfacing checks even cruel acid corrosion.

In fact, no straight liquid oil—always wanting to slide off—can ever fight wear like Conoco Nth oil's high-strength liquid film PLUS unprecedented OIL-PLATING. And the less wear, the less carbon and sludge . . . the more gasoline mileage and battery life, too. There's your whole fatful of reasons for getting patented Nth oil. It costs a mere trifle extra, but how it will help to conserve your car! Change to an OIL-PLATED engine today at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

WHAT IS OIL-PLATING?

It's the lubricant that becomes almost an actual part of the cylinder walls, piston rings, bearings and shafts. That's how closely OIL-PLATING is attached by Conoco Nth oil's added ingredient—developed by endless experimentation, costly research. Even after your car stands cold, the OIL-PLATED parts are still ready-lubricated—before any more liquid oil could circulate. And out goes the worst winter starting snarl . . . another boost for our life!

Woman's Culture Club Meeting Held at Jennie's Tea Room

The Woman's Culture club met for its first session in 1945 last Friday night at Jennie's Tea Room with Mmes. Kitchin and McTea as hostesses.

With Mrs. Jones presiding the usual business session was conducted. A new member, Mrs. H. H. Snowden, was present and welcomed into the club.

Mrs. Durrett was program leader and presented a most interesting discussion of Child Prodigies in Music. Mrs. Parker gave a very informative talk on Clothing in Wartime.

A general discussion of timely topics by all present presented some very interesting ideas and was thoroughly enjoyed.

The hostesses served delicious sandwiches with hot chocolate to twelve members.

At the next meeting, members are reminded, there will be an election of officers. A short program on Health and Safety is to be presented by Mmes. Edwards and Hines. Hostesses are Mmes. Young and Hodge.

Ray McNabbs Moving To South Texas This Week

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McNabb, residents of the Close city community for many years, are leaving this week to make their home in Santa Rosa, Texas. They have purchased a citrus grove in that section. Santa Rosa is near Harlingen, Texas. The McNabbs will be missed as they have been active participants in the progressive, civic, church and social affairs of the county.

Miss Kitty Faires Is Married To Mr. Neil De Lavon Dec. 22

Miss Mary Catherine Faires was married on December 22 to Mr. Neil De Lavon of Lubbock in a simple but dignified ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fulkerson of Tahoka, Texas. The pastor of the Methodist church, performed the single ring ceremony at six o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. De Lavon, known to her many friends in Post as Kitty, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Faires of Lamesa. She made her home in Post for several years and before going to Tahoka she was employed in the First National bank here.

The bride wore for her wedding a gold colored wool suit with black accessories and had a shoulder corsage of gardenias. She carried cut the traditional custom of brides by wearing something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue. She chose for a wedding ring an antique ring given to her by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Hoskins. The groom's gift to the bride was diamond ear screws.

Mr. De Lavon is associated with his mother in business in Lubbock. Only wedding attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Robertson of Lubbock and the Tahoka couple.

Following the wedding, a supper was given in honor of the couple in the Robertson home in Lubbock.

After spending a few days at the home of the bride's parents where they visited with Leigh Faires, A/S, of the U. S. Navy who was at home on leave from Miami, Florida, the couple went to California for a three week's honeymoon. They will make their home in Lubbock.

Your BABY

By Lillian B. Storms
The modern practice of gradually introducing a variety of foods during the first year of your baby's life gives him a variety of the necessary vitamins. His food, if carefully selected, gives him the vitamins he needs. Just by way of checking up on these vitamins and the foods which contain them, we will summarize them.

Milk contains almost everything your baby needs, except for vitamins B and C (ascorbic acid). Vitamin B does not occur in foods in adequate amounts so we give cod liver oil or some other concentrated form. Vitamin C, or the anti-scurvy vitamin, is most abundant in citrus juices and tomato juice. These two vitamins are given in these forms in the first two to four weeks of life whether the baby is fed from the breast or bottle. Prunes do not contain Vitamin C although they have other vitamins.

Vitamin A is necessary for growth and is abundant in cod liver oil. There is some in milk, it is in cream, most vegetables, fruits, and egg yolk. All of these foods are given early in the first year. By the time the baby is six months old, he is getting some of these sources of vitamin A.

The B group of vitamins is necessary for growth and aids the appetite. Even a good appetite is not helped by additional B vitamins and they help the development of a sound nervous system. The B vitamins are found in milk but more are desirable. That is the reason the special baby cereals have added or, as we say, are fortified in the B vitamins. They are also present in vegetables and fruits.

When we supply these vitamins in the foods listed, we do not need to be concerned about the other vitamins.

Roy Mullins Family Left This Week For Their New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mullins and children left the middle of the week for their new home near Dallas. Mr. Mullins has been put in charge of ranching interest in that section.

The Mullins family will indeed be missed in Post. Mrs. Mullins has been prominently identified with school, civic and social affairs here as she has conducted personality speech and singing classes. Her pupils have attained a wide reputation for their ability to perform graciously whenever called upon.

Mr. Mullins has had ranching interests in this area.

Pfc. Charles Wood of the U. S. Marine Corps arrived in Post several days ago to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wood. Charles is a gunner on a troop transport and has been in the South Pacific theatre of war. He was near numerous Post boys in that area such as Elwood Wright, Lefty Davies and others but never did have the opportunity of looking them up. Wood was a guest of the Lions club Tuesday night and gave a short informative talk.

Mrs. James Minor visited friends in Brownwood recently.

Series Of Parties Compliment Miami, Florida Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Macy of Miami, Florida, houseguests of Mrs. Macy's aunt, Mrs. Skeeter Slaughter, have been complimented with numerous parties since their arrival here for a visit last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Macy will be remembered as Miss Mary Belle Lott, daughter of Mrs. Frank E. Lott and granddaughter of Mrs. John B. Slaughter.

The first of the series of events was given on Friday night when the Miami couple shared honors with Mrs. Blanche Connell Young of Ft. Worth. A dinner party was given in the G. W. Connell home with Mr. and Mrs. Connell and Mrs. Blanche Dalby entertaining.

On Saturday night a dance was given in the American Legion hall with Mrs. Dalby and Mrs. Slaughter as hostesses. The Western theme was stressed and such dances as the Shoddish, Virginia Reel and other popular cowboy favorites were enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Macy gave a "specialty" number during the evening's entertainment.

A string orchestra from Spur provided the music.

Open House Held In Slaughter Home

Mrs. Slaughter held open house Sunday afternoon for the guests and also complimented Mrs. Young.

The entertaining rooms of the Slaughter home were beautifully arranged for the occasion with American Beauty roses adding rich color to the scene. Lighted candles throughout the suite provided illumination for the party rooms.

The tea table, laid with a lace banquet cloth over red satin, was appointed with gold and silver services. A gold pitcher filled with red roses and flanked by white tapers in gold holders was used for the centerpiece on the beautifully arranged table.

In the receiving line were the hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Macy, Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Morrell and Mr. T. J. Welborn.

During the first calling hour, Mrs. Bryan J. Williams and Mrs. James Minor presided at the table and during the second hour, Mrs. Blanche Dalby and Mrs. Ernest Griffith presided.

Others in the houseparty were Mrs. Bryan Mathis, Mrs. Kate Davis of Lubbock, and Misses Iris Joy Parker and Mary Helen Robertson.

Vocal numbers were presented by Mrs. Davis and Miss Robertson.

About 75 guests called during the receiving hours.

Ranch Style Supper

A ranch style supper was the event for Monday night when Mrs. Irene Rodgers and her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Griffith, entertained in the Rodgers home. Unique table appointments were used for the gay occasion.

A cleverly arranged breakfast was given by Mrs. Glenn Kahler and Mrs. R. S. Davis Tuesday morning at Jennie's Tea Room. Sharing honors with the out-of-town visitors, was Mrs. Wallace Kimbrough who is leaving Post to make her home in Bryan, Texas, where her husband is being transferred. Lovely guest prizes were presented to the honorees at the conclusion of the party.

Dinner and Game Parties

Jennie's Tea Room was also the scene of another dinner courtesy on Tuesday night when Mr. and Mrs. Bryan J. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Williams entertained. Following the delicious dinner the group of friends assembled in the game room of the John Herd home where Mr. and Mrs. Herd entertained with a variety of games.

Mrs. James Minor and Mrs. Martin Reynolds were hostesses on Wednesday. A luncheon was given and cleverly arranged appointments added much to the entertainments. Personalized stationery was given to the guests at the end of the bridge games.

The series of parties was brought to a close Wednesday night when Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Morrell and Mrs. Belle Fairbanks entertained with a dinner party in the Morrell home.

No Change In Condition Of Mrs. J. W. McCoach

"There is no change" in the condition of Mrs. J. W. McCoach, Mr. Stallings informed a Dispatch reporter Wednesday. The beloved woman, mother of Mrs. Stallings, is quite ill in Los Angeles, Calif. Mrs. Stallings wishes to see her bedside.

Miss Joan Thompson Bride of Lieutenant Glenn Emerson Roof

Of interest here was the marriage of Miss Joan Thompson, daughter of Mrs. Bess Thompson of this city, to Lieutenant Glenn Emerson Roof, Signal Corps, Army of the United States, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Emerson Roof of Shaker Heights, Ohio, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Watson in Lake Charles, La. on Dec. 30.

Dr. Guy M. Hicks read the double ring candlelight service at eight o'clock, the ceremony taking place before the mantel in the living room which was centered by a fan-shaped arrangement of white gladioli, white chrysanthemums and white carnations, flanked by white tapers. The fireplace was banded with palms and tall candles burned in seven-branch candelabra on each side. Gladioli were arranged about the room.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother and Mrs. Dick Watson was her only attendant. Lt. E. R. Tramantini served as best man to the bridegroom.

J. N. Brazeley, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, sang pre-nuptial solos.

The bride wore a tailored two-piece aqua gabardine suit accented by a flowered hat, brown accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Watson wore a mist gray dressmaker suit with a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Roof, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in flowered print with a corsage of gardenias and Mrs. Thompson, mother of the bride, was attired in gold crepe with a corsage of violets.

A reception followed the ceremony. The face-laid table held the tiered wedding cake and white tapers burned at each end of the table. Mrs. W. W. Thompson, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake.

The bride, a lovely member of the younger set, was educated at the Southern Methodist university in Dallas, where she became a member of Kappa Delta sorority. She lived here with her grandmother, Mrs. John H. Ramsay, while attending high school and has been a frequent visitor here since moving to Louisiana.

Lt. Roof attended Western Reserve university, Cleveland, Ohio, and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He has been in the service for four years and is stationed at the Lake Charles Army Air Field at present.

Mrs. Ray McNabb Is Honored With Farewell Party

Mrs. Ray McNabb was complimented with a lovely farewell party recently when five hostesses of the Close City community entertained for her in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Richardson. Hostesses were Mmes. Richardson, Sadie Storie, Berniece Crisp, Mabel Bartlett and S. C. Caldwell.

Many lovely gifts were presented to the honor guest after which delicious refreshments were served.

Churchill Hopes For '45 VE-Day

London—Prime Minister Winston Churchill expressed the cautious hope last week that Germany may be finally beaten in 1945.

In a New Year's message to members of the Primrose League, he observed that the Allies were entering upon a year "that should bring us victory in Europe."

"Before many months have passed," he said "the evil gang that has long dominated that unhappy Continent will be wiped out."

"Until that end has been achieved, there can be no return to our normal life."

Karen Sue and Joan Sanders, children of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sanders of Lubbock, went back to their home after spending a week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dent, Mr. and Mrs. Sanders suffered injuries in an

Grade School News

Vynonna Clark, Reporter

Editor's Note—Mrs. Vynonna Clark is the newly elected Grade school reporter. She teaches the first grade and is quite a personable young woman. Miss Bonnie McMahon gave up this reporter job to do some extra work on the Grade School Parent-Teacher Scrap Book. We welcome Mrs. Clark to the Dispatch staff and say a "Sincere Thank You" to Miss McMahon.

Beginning The New Year In Grade School . . .

1945 slipped right in and found Grade School youngsters back in the school room working with renewed energy to carry out their New Year Resolutions.

Here are a few which were chosen at random throughout the student body:

2nd Grade: "We will smile and be happy; we will be workers, and not 'shirkers' or 'jerkers'."

3rd Grade: "We resolve to study hard and do better work, and to come to school clean and neat."

Marilyn Light: "I resolve to do my best in school work and play; to be truthful to my parents and teachers, and to treat my friends as I would have them to treat me."

Dutch Rainey: "I'm going to make more friends and be a better citizen in school, at home and at town."

Joy LaVelle Howell: "I resolve to help others any time I can; to be good to my family; and not to have to go to the office any time."

Dale Karpe: "I resolve to pass the 5th grade and to be better to my friends and teachers. I am going to Sunday school every week."

Lillie Belle Sutter: "I resolve to be kind to all of my friends and to my mother and father. I am going to do my work the best I can and I'm not going to miss a day of school unless I am sick."

Mary Ann Hundley: "I will save my money for defense stamps. I will learn my lessons better. I will work harder."

Buddy Davis: "I will work hard in school. I will do whatever my country asks me to do . . . like buying defense stamps and bonds."

James Barnes: "I resolve to do better in school and to do my Sunday school lessons."

Marty Reynolds: "I'm going to

Clyde Wright Receives Certificate of Merit

The following letter was received by Mrs. Morgan Wright concerning her son Clyde who is with the 8th Air Force Service Command. The letter was sent to the Dispatch by Ashley Lawson who is now living in Odessa. The Lawsons and the Wrights are all former Post citizens. Lawson also sent a letter from Clyde written on Dec. 15 in which he was thanking Ashley and Mary for his Christmas packages that arrived in very good order. He said, "I hope you are having a good business these days. Would like to be there helping you. I sure get tired of being in the army."

Mrs. Morgan Wright,
Dear Mrs. Wright:

The Certificate of Merit has been awarded to your son, Staff Sergeant Clyde Wright, in recognition of the meritorious manner in which he has performed his assigned duties as a non-commissioned officer in a unit of my command.

His devotion and untiring effort in serving our country has contributed materially to the success of the aerial offensive on the enemy.

It was my pleasure recently to have signed this citation and realizing you too would be pleased to learn of your son's achievement, I am writing this letter to advise you of the award.

Sincerely yours,
D. R. Goodrich,

be quiet in the school room. I'm going to mind my mother and daddy and do everything they say. And I make a resolution to do what I say."

The contest for Grade School Sports Queen ended in assembly Friday afternoon. Barbara Jean Northcutt, from Mrs. Brister's 3rd grade, was winner of the contest. Mary Neil Bowen, 6th grade contestant, won second place.

The contest was determined by was conspicuous in gallantry and will be used for buying much needed playground equipment.

The next week ends our first semester. Exams will be given during that week, and reports will be sent out the following week.

Mrs. Dezzie Power Receives Word of Son, Capt. Tom Power

News that Captain Tom Power was "OK and doing fine" was received here Monday by his mother, Mrs. Dezzie Power who has not heard from him since Oct. 29.

Word came via letter from Capt. George Taylor, one of Tom's closest friends, who is attached to the Headquarters unit of the 1st Cavalry Division—one of the divisions that has been beating the Japs out of the Philippines.

Taylor said too that "I also have been in communication with another of Tom's friends and he said that your Tom was riding a captured Jap horse and was in his glory."

Mail from boys in the front lines in the Philippines is fouled up and news of many Post boys who are with this unit is very meager.

Reunion of Post Boys

News of another reunion of Post boys overseas reached here this week. Glendon Presson who is in England wrote of seeing 5-Sgt. John Graham, whose mother is manager of the Post Auto Courts, Graham, who is with the motor section of a troop carrier outfit, flew from France to England where his mother's people reside to spend part of his Christmas furlough there.

Other Post boys who are now seeing each other frequently are Clyde Wright, Arthur Stolls. All four of these boys, John, Glendon, Clyde and Arthur had a grand visit together just recently.
