Half Holiday Declared For Football Tilt

Excitement has been running high all week with plans for attending the Post-Littlefield play-off for the District 4-A football championship Friday afternoon on the Antelope Field. The winner will represent the district in bi-district competition and, for the first time, will have an opportunity to try for the state championship if successful in the bi-district and regional competition.

Littlefield, which was in a three-way tie with Levelland and Sundown for the championship of the North Half of the district, was selected to play Post Saturday at a meeting of officials of the North Half schools in Lubbock.

Coaches and officials of Post and Littlefield met in Lubbock Sunday to determine the time and site of the game and the price of admission. After two hours of discussion, the issue on where the game was to be played was settled by a flip of a coin. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Practically all of the local stores and the schools have declared a half holiday for tomorrow afternoon, so that the general public will be free to attend. Systematic preparations to take care of the largest crowd possible have been made this week by local school officials and members of the Post Independent District School Board. New permanent bleachers are being erected and a stand is being provided for the Post School Band and pep squad.

Reserve tickets at $1.50 each went on sale Tuesday at the local schools. More than 2,000 seats were reserved for Post and Littlefield fans and fans from neighboring towns.

General admission tickets at $1 per adult and 50 cents per student went on sale at the schools, Hundley's, Pure Food Store and Piggly Wiggly. Free tickets were provided for members of both the Littlefield and Post pep squads and bands.

Most of the reserved seat tickets had been sold by press time. The last 420 of them will go on sale at the high school tomorrow morning, beginning at 8 o'clock. Reservations for the tickets may be made by telephone with Supt. G. R. Day, he said yesterday.

Antelopes Chalk Up Ninth Straight Win Hard-Earned Victory Over Slatonites

Post Antelopes chalked up their ninth straight win and the championship of the District 4-A Thursday afternoon in a close game with Slaton Tigers, which they won by a hard-earned score of 14-6.

The crippled Antelopes determined to win the game and they did it in a 6-6 tie. The first half of the game was a 6-6 tie. The second half of the game was a 6-6 tie. The final score was 14-6.

Loop Loopsters Toss Post Girls For 17-14 Loop

The local basketball girls journeyed to Loop Tuesday night to return home with several crippled players and report winning the B game and losing the A game, which Coach N. R. King said "was not a basketball game but would have looked good on a football field."

Am Floyd, Peggy Johnston and Joy Stewart started the B game as forwards with Shirley Schmidt, Verna Dell Long and Barbara Lusby as guards. Early in the second quarter, Margie Freeman came in as forward and Am Floyd switched to guard in Lusby's place. Lanell Brown substituted during the game in both forward and guard positions. Johnston, Stewart and Freeman tied for scoring honors with 8 points each and Brown racked up 4, bringing the totals to 28 to the opponents' 21.

Coach King began the A clash with Janet Stewart, Jeneice Fluitt and Alice Ruth Carr as forwards and Cletta Buster, Mary Nell Bowen and Frances Benson as guards. The major blow came to the local girls, when early in the second quarter, Janet Stewart had to be carried off the court. Her sister, Joy, came in in her place. While Janet was still in the game she hit the basket for 7 points, which gave her the high point scoring honor in the game. The final score was 14-17 in Loop's favor. King said yesterday that he was well pleased with the showing that Am Floyd and Lanell Brown made as substitutes in the A game. Two games will be played here Tuesday evening with Slaton. The whistle will blow at 7:30 o'clock to begin the B game, and a large crowd is expected to be present. The new basketball suits for the girls, which were ordered recently, are expected to arrive within the next few days.

Post Antelopes Work Into 'Pretty Fair Shape' Again

Wildcats Best Team, Lubbock Writer Thinks

Although more Post residents subscribe to the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal than to any other daily paper, they have received little consideration from the Lubbock sports writers during this first year since 1928 that the Post Antelopes have been outstanding among West Texas' Class A football teams.

A sports column, authored by Joe Kelly, has carried several uncomplimentary "cracks" about the Antelopes this season, and the only two-column headline that the Antelopes had rated by November 13 erroneously credited Ronnie Bouchier, instead of Roy Teaff, with making a touchdown.

Although a previous Antelope game (with Levelland) had been covered in person by sports writers from as far away as Amarillo, Kelly indicated yesterday that the Lubbock sports writers had not yet seen the Antelopes play, even though the Armistice Day game with Slaton was one of the most important games that day within 15 miles of the Lubbock sports desk. Here is a direct quotation from Kelly's column which, to the Post Dispatch's sports department, seems typical of the editorial comment that the Antelopes have been receiving all season in Lubbock:

"We haven't, unfortunately, seen Post or Littlefield play this season, but our scouts inform us that the Wildcats appear to have the better team and should win Friday. But we have seen Lockney (60 miles or more from Lubbock) in action and we'd like to pass a word of warning along to Littlefield or Post; look out for the Longhorns."

Officials will be G. B. Wimberley, head linesman; Harvey Dunn, referee, and Curtis Barrett, timekeeper. All are from Lubbock.

Post has won 212 points and lost 32 points in the nine games played so far this season. Littlefield has won 100 points and lost 49 in nine games. The Wildcat scoring record follows with the Wildcat score listed first in each instance:

Dalhart, 24-0; Morton, 25-0; Roscoe, 6-6; Seminole, 0-0; Brownfield, 13-24; Muleshoe, 12-7; Sundown, 0-6; Sudan, 13-0; and Levelland, 7-6.

All the Post Antelopes have been working out this week and Coaches V. F. Bingham and Vernon Ray are of the opinion that they are "in pretty fair" shape to meet the Littlefield Wildcats in the District 4-A championship playoff at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon on the Antelope Field.

Injuries received by several of the players in recent games are improved to such an extent that most of them will be able to play, the coaches said yesterday. The Wildcats, for the first time in four games, are expected to be up to their full strength tomorrow. Jiggs Walker, top-ranking Wildcat who plays tailback in Littlefield's modified T formation, has been out of the last three games because of a leg injury. He will be back in the game. Bingham has been informed.

The Littlefield roster includes twins, John and Jim Fowler, who alternate as right tackle. John plays defensive and Jim plays offensive. Wildcats with outstanding records this season include Bill Currin as right end, Johnny Srygley as quarterback and Tommy Bailes as fullback.

Wildcat coaches are J. Fikes, former Hardin-Simmons football star, and his assistant, E. M. Martin, who played football for North Texas State Teachers College.

The tentative Antelope starting line-up is as follows:

Post Antelopes have been receiving all season in Lubbock:

Here is the Antelope scoring record:

Ralls, 40-6; Spur, 13-7; Seagraves, 24-0; O'Donnell, 31-0; Tahoka, 27-7; Snyder, 32-0; Levelland, 14-6; Lubbock Cowhands, 19-0, and Slaton, 12-6.

Southland Wins Game With Bula

Fullback Larry Tankersley tallied 24 points to lead the Southland six-man football team to a 42-26 victory over the Bula team before a Homecoming crowd at Southland Friday night. Tankersley was aided in the scoring department by Halfback Gene Anderson and Quarterback

Post Millers May Not Organize For Various Reasons

The called meeting of baseball players and persons interested in baseball Tuesday night in the Garner Appliance Building was attended by only a few persons, Oscar Garner said yesterday.

The purpose of the meeting was to select a manager of the 1949 team to replace George Sartain, who resigned.

A manager was not selected because of the uncertainty of having a Post Millers team here next year, Garner said. "There seems to be some undercutting in the Oil Belt League and we decided not to organize until things straighten out," he told a Post Dispatch reporter.

Among former Postites who were running up and down the sidelines at the Post-Slaton game last week were Cleddie Lanier and Claude Miller of Lubbock, and Clyde Williams of Odessa. They were kept pretty busy watching the game and saying a hello to friends in the grandstand.

Garner resigned as president of the Post Millers, explaining that he had served as "president and all the officers" during the last year's campaign to complete the building of the Postex Park. "We had five years in which to complete the project," he explained, "but it was completed in one year. Post now has a $3850 park which is all paid for and the Post Millers owe not one cent in the world, except about $40 in local accounts."

Teachers To Go To Dallas Meet Nov. 25, 26, 27

The 70th annual convention of the Texas State Teachers Association in Dallas Nov. 25, 26, 27, is expected to set an all time record for attendance, County Supt. Dean Robinson said yesterday. It is estimated that more than 15,000 teachers will spend Thanksgiving holiday period attending the general sessions and special meetings, he said.

In addition to three general sessions, the teachers will have an opportunity to attend 53 sectional meetings and 23 breakfasts, luncheons and dinners. Every phase of education of interest to Texas teachers will be thoroughly examined at the 70 special meetings.

Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor University, Waco, will preach the sermon at the Thanksgiving service Thursday morning, which opens the convention.

Miss Emma Mae Brotze, Marshall, president of the state association, will preside at the Thursday and Friday night general sessions.

Dr. Frank P. Graham, president of the University of North Carolina and a pioneer in atomic research, will be the principal speaker at the general session Thursday night.

State Senator James E. Taylor will give a report on the Gilmer-Aikin Committee recommendations. The committee was ordered by the state legislature to make recommendations for improving the Texas School system.

Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction, Austin, will also address that session.

Dr. Willard E. Goslin, Pasadena, Calif., president of the American Association of School Administrators, and H. Roe Bartle, Kansas City, a national Boy Scout executive, will be the principal speakers at Friday night's general session.

Bruce Findlay, assistant superintendent of the Los Angeles, Calif., school system, and Lew Parmenter of the National School Service Institute, Chicago, will make the main address at the general session Saturday morning.

The teachers, in the general sessions, will consider a number of proposed changes in school laws which may be submitted to the next legislature in an effort to help improve the educational standards in Texas schools. They include more equitable distribution of state funds, increasing the minimum salary for degree teachers from $2,000 to $2,400 and increasing increments for years of training and additional degrees, a uniform contract law, and a mandatory, cumulative sick leave pay for teachers.

Joe C. Humphrey, principal of Abilene High School, is expected to be elected 1949 president of the association.

ATTEND REGIONAL MEET

A regional meet of teachers and coordinators of G.I. Vocational Agriculture Schools in Lubbock Tuesday was attended by Lewis Nance, Lee Suther and Alvis Phillips, coordinator and teachers of the Garza County GI classes.

National Book Week Finds Post People Well Read

This being National Book Week (November 14-20), members of the Post Dispatch made a quick survey to determine what percentage of the Post Dispatch readers read books and what books they currently are reading.

The survey showed that the majority of people interviewed at random are either reading a book at present or have completed one in recent weeks. Three or four of each 10 people interviewed read only magazines and newspapers.

The most popular books listed, in the order named, seemed to be "The Rebe" by Lloyd C. Douglas, "Tomorrow Will Be Better" by Betty Smith, "The Plague and I" by Betty MacDonald, and "Inside U.S.A." by John Gunther. The Rev. D. A. Bryant probably was the first person in Post to read the sequel to "The Rebe" which was released to the public Monday. Entitled "The Big Fisherman," the new Douglas book takes up the story from the last line in the first novel, which read "He handed it (The Rebe) to the BIG FISHERMAN."

Interviewed At Random

No attempt was made to interview people known to be avid readers. The Post Dispatch members simply surveyed people they chanced to meet on the street or talked with by telephone. Here is what they are reading or have recently finished reading:

Miss Bessie Pitts, "The Rebe," Miss Jennice Propst, "Earth and High Heaven" by James Hilton; Mrs. O. H. Hoover, "The Return of the Burma Surgeon;" Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Greenfield, all the popular magazines, particularly U. S. News and Reader's Digest; Mrs. Will Cravy, the Bible.

Mrs. Maggie Childress, "The Heart of the Matter" by Graham Greene; Mrs. F. L. Bailey and Sherrill Boyd, "Inside U.S.A.;" Mrs. James Hill, "The Plague and I" by Betty MacDonald; Mrs. O. L. Weakley, "The Townsman," by John Sedges; Mrs. Gertrude Ward, "The Great Snow," by Henry Morton Robinson.

Books Are Varied

Mrs. Delmo Gossett, "The Golden Hawk," by Frank Yerby; Mrs. E. A. Warren, "New Song in a Strange Land," by Esther Warner; Miss Ann Russell, "Kingsblood Royal," by Sinclair Lewis; N. J. Lanotte, magazines including U. S. News, World Report, Look, and Time; Mrs. George Tracy, "The Emperor's Position," by J. R. Perkins.

Mrs. Walter Boren, "Nothing So Strange," by James Hilton; Mrs. Hugh Blevins, "The Golden Hawk;" Mrs. Kenny Cash, "The Great Snow;" Kenny Cash, "Drums of Destiny," by Peter Bourne; Mrs. Maxine Presson, "Tomorrow Will Be Better;" Bill DeWalt, "The Rebe;" Mrs. Bill DeWalt, "David the King;" Mrs. Boone Evans, has just finished "The Rebe" and is now studying the Compton Set of books.

Moore, "Come a Cavalier," by Francis Parkinson Keyes; Clint Herring, "The Gathering Storm," by Winston Churchill; Mrs. Clint Herring, "Inside U.S.A.;" Mrs. J. N. ## How's our railroad doing, young man?

"Is it making any money?"
"What are they paying for fuel these days?"
"Are you hauling much freight?"
"Do you like your job?"

The little old lady is not a busybody — she is merely looking after one of her investments.

She has some money in the Santa Fe. Maybe it's ten, maybe it's twenty, maybe it's fifty shares of Santa Fe stock.

She is entitled to attend a stockholders' meeting. She can get on her feet and ask our board of directors questions just like the above. She can compliment those gentlemen for their management, or she can hang her umbrella on the table and tell them off.

Alone, her few shares of stock can't do a lot. Alone, she couldn't elect a president of the United States. But stockholders just like her — housewives, teachers, merchants, salesmen, laborers — can tell us how to run the Santa Fe, and they do. (Actually 29,178 Santa Fe stockholders are women, most of them holding only a small number of shares each.)

And that's the beauty of America — the voice of the people is the voice that runs things, whether it's operating a transcontinental railroad or putting a man in the White House.

Isn't it a wonderful country where so many can own so much? That's "Free Enterprise."

Rainbow Assembly Keeps Busiest Of All Garza Groups

The Rainbow Assembly netted $42 from the "sneak breakfast" which the members and their adult advisers sponsored Saturday morning in the City Hall. Assisted by Mrs. Imogene Jewell, the girls prepared and served coffee and doughnuts, bacon and eggs and hot cakes to the public. Tables were decorated with hand-painted "rainbow" menus, on which "prices" for the various items ranged from "several hundred dollars to nearly a thousand."

The "customers" were not expected to pay anything, but their donations were gratefully accepted. Mrs. Julius Fumagalli, mother adviser, also said that the girls were grateful to Mrs. Jewell, who donated her services, and to the City Commission, which donated the use of the hall.

There's hardly a group of people in Garza County which keeps more interesting activities going than the Rainbow Assembly. In attempting to report some of them last week, the Post Dispatch accidentally omitted several lines of type and mixed up some of the dates. Hence the following reminder of some coming events:

The girls will be guests of the Slaton Assembly Saturday night. They will assemble at the Masonic Hall here at 6:30 o'clock, to make the trip.

The regular meeting on Monday night in the Masonic Hall will be preceded by a gathering at 6 p.m. at the Post Art Studio where a photograph is to be made of the group.

The regular meeting on December 5 will be followed by a party at the home of Mrs. H. W. Schmidt.

On December 11, the girls will sponsor a "country store" in the Garner Building on Main Street. They will sell gifts received from merchants and foods which they have baked.

Mrs. R. A. McLaurin Of Justiceburg To Head Garza County HD Council In 1949

The Garza County Home Demonstration Council, at an annual all-day meeting yesterday in the First Methodist Church basement, elected the following officers for 1949:

Chairman, Mrs. R. A. McLaurin of Justiceburg, vice chairman, Mrs. Julius Fumagalli of Verbena; Mrs. W. H. Barton of Barnum Springs; secretary treasurer, Mrs. Wilburn Morris of Graham, reporter.

Each club in the council reported its accomplishments of the past year and each standing committee submitted a report of the goals achieved.

The day's program was highlighted by a report by Lois Ritchie of her trip to the Texas State Fair in Dallas, where she entered the State 4-H Dress Revue Contest.

Mrs. Sid Cross, county Texas Home Demonstration Association chairman for 1949, and Mrs. L. H. Peel and Mrs. S. W. McCrary reported on the trip which they made to the T.H.D.A. meeting in Memphis.

Plans were made for an annual Christmas Party for all home demonstration club members on December 10. Handmade gifts will be exchanged and a Christmas program will be presented.

A lunch was spread at noon and the program also included an enjoyable sing-song.

Garza Group To Be At Lubbock Party

Several Garza County home demonstration women and a 4-H girl, Glenda Grantham of Southland, will attend a District 2 luncheon at the Hilton Hotel Saturday noon in honor of Mrs. B. M. Harris of Plainview, retiring district vice president of the Texas Home Demonstration Association. The luncheon will be a tribute to Mrs. Harris' outstanding work in boys' and girls' 4-H projects.

Each county represented is to bring a 4-H girl who will be interviewed by a Lubbock radio station regarding the 4-H activities in her county. Recordings will be made of the interviews for a broadcast during 4-H week.

Garza women attending the luncheon will be Mrs. Jewell H. Strasner, county home demonstration agent; Mrs. Wilburn Morris, county 4-H sponsor, and Mrs. George Evans and Mrs. Sid Cross.

Mrs. L. A. Barrow spent last week in Carlsbad, N. M., with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Perser, and little granddaughter while Mr. Perser was on a hunting trip.

GETTING OUT On The LIMB

By EDDIE the EDITOR

As a dog owner, I have been devoting a lot of thought to what can be done, in a constructive way, to prevent dog poisoning.

Although widespread dog poisoning, such as took place here in recent weeks, is most unusual and shocking, the fact remains that every year a few dogs are poisoned in Post. Nobody who owns a dog is ever free of the dread of seeing his poisoned dog die in convulsions.

Writing about the horrors of such a sight is no way to put a stop to dog poisoning. Nobody who is cruel enough to poison a dog is soft-hearted enough to reform after reading a sob story in the paper.

The prevention of dog poisoning must be brought about in some other manner.

I believe that if the city and the owners of pet dogs would work together, the solution could be found—somehow like this:

The city could pass an ordinance requiring dog owners to pay a small, reasonable tax, funds from which could be used in the maintenance of a small pound.

When paying such a tax, the dog owners also should be required to have their dogs vaccinated for rabies and tagged with both the rabies and city tax tags. Either tag can serve as identification for the dog.

Every so often the city should hire somebody to spend a day impounding all stray dogs, whether or not they are tagged. The owner of a pet, on finding his dog missing, would immediately suspect that his dog was in the pound. He would gladly pay him out.

All dogs not claimed could be quietly, humanely disposed of, after a certain period of time.

People who poison dogs are dog haters. They hate all dogs because some dogs hang around in their yards, frightening their children, ruining their flowers and making nuisances of themselves, in general. These people actually think they are doing humanity a favor by poisoning every dog they see.

People who are dog-lovers and their precious pets suffer from the above attitude, which is intensified by the thoughtless practice of some owners of female dogs who turn their puppies loose on the town at weaning age, rather than find people who want to make pets of them or quietly dispose of the unwanted puppies.

This practice of turning unwanted puppy litters loose on the town is as responsible as anything for the hatred of dogs that results in the tragic poisoning episodes, which we have recently witnessed.

Everytime there is a major dog poisoning, the city gets the blame. Practically everyone connected with the city personnel owns a dog which he highly esteems as a pet. Anyone who stops and thinks the situation over knows that, of course, the city didn't have the dogs poisoned.

The poisoning—as it always is—was done by someone who hates all dogs because of this maddening, dangerous stray dog situation in Post.

Let's all get together—those of us who would like to keep our own dogs as long as possible—and cooperate with the city. Insist on an ordinance requiring some small taxes that would sup-

Small Business Man May Find Hard Sledding In Future

New York, N. Y.—I am back again in New York City to get the pulse. New York City is no longer the business center of the United States. This has long ago moved to the "Magic Circle," including the states of Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Texas, Oklahoma and Missouri.

On the other hand, all merchants, manufacturers and bankers—wherever located—still go to New York City to buy their goods and sell their wares.

Everyone Pessimistic
Whatever the stock market may be doing when you read this column, let me tell you that

New York feels bluer than it has for many years. The people here believe that the Dow-Jones Industrial Averages will gradually now decline to 165 or under. This pessimism not only applies to the stock market, but to general business, agriculture and foreign affairs.

The big interests here not only expect no special favors from the Second Truman Administration, but they are convinced that they will actually be persecuted. They claim that the New Deal will take the place of the Raw Deal, and a business man will again be abused just because he has been industrious, thrifty and successful.

So far as I have been able to hear from friends throughout the country, this change in feeling for the worse is found everywhere.

Truman Opportunity
Most readers of this column little realize the powerful government "Corporations," Commissions, Boards and other Organizations which were instituted under the Roosevelt regime.

In fact, these semi-official bodies combined actually have more power than Congress itself. As Mr. Roosevelt arranged that the President should have the appointing power to the membership of all these bodies, Mr. Truman now goes into office in his own right with the greatest power, opportunities and responsibilities that any Administration has ever possessed.

About Taxes And Labor
The Budget will need to be greater during the next few years, but it is entirely possible that adjustments can be made so that this could be accompanied by tax readjustments. For instance, it is possible that with some relief from the double taxation of dividends, more money would come into the Treasury.

If such relief comes about, it could help hold up good dividend-paying stocks. There will be no reduction in the capital gains provision; but no further excess profits taxes need be necessary unless we get into war.

New York City is no place to make a forecast on the labor situation. Very few people here are willing to take a broad-minded impartial view. My own feeling is that the New Truman Administration will try not to rock the boat one way or another. It may ask for some correlation between increased wages and increased production. I know that Mr. Truman personally is interested in the "annual wage" idea, emphasizing the importance of "security" to the wage-worker rather than "take home pay." However, the Taft-Hartley Act will be repealed or amended.

European Outlook Improving
Frankly, the election of last week here in the United States was much like the surprise election in England two years ago when the Labor Party there came into power. I doubt how long Mr. Marshall will continue as Secretary of State. General Marshall is a fine man, but he has never had previous experience negotiating. He has always been in position where he could be expected to have a prominent cabinet position under the New Administration. The big pressure group, the small businessmen, the big pressure group, will have had a harder time in the organization, greater effort will have to be put into their own work. He can't labor and selfishly get by being willing to accept advice and compromise. This especially goes for small independent men.

Garza and the World

By EVELYN BOYD

Immediately after setting up the type for last week's Garza and the world, our capable Intertype operator, James Hill, gave in to an urge that long had been building up: To tell Boyd off. That he did, in a letter composed on the typesetting machine. It, no doubt, expresses the opinion of many of the approximately 24,000,000 people who voted for Truman. It is published elsewhere in today's paper under the heading, Letters from the Readers.

Although half of the nation's eligible voters went to the polls, and although only half of those who did vote voted for Truman, the President's victory puts him in an important, crucial and embarrassing position and I do not envy him. He has some decisions to make between now and the time the 81st Congress meets that will put him on the spot with the James Hills who put him in office.

Talk about propagandists! Wonder if Mr. Hill saw the Democrat, blatant, screaming propaganda sheet published weekly by the Democrat National Committee? Resembling the Communist Daily Worker in format and make-up, this paper consistently attributed all previous depressions to Republican mismanagement, then committed the Truman Administration to a series of Five and Ten-Year Plans (Soviet Russia got its start this way) which will cost more than there is paper to print money.

The President is now committed to a drastic revision of the Taft-Hartley Act which, if successful, could quickly upset the nation's entire economy.

The president is committed to some action to control prices, which will put the black marketers back in business and cost the James Hills two or three times what their groceries are worth, if they can find them to buy.

Truman is committed to a broad program for increased social security coverage and benefits; to a Federal aid medical program; to a large-scale, Federally financed low-cost housing program, and, I think, a Federal education program. Who will pay the bill for all this? The Hills and I.

The President is committed to a continuation of the present farm-support price program, to an expanded rural electrification program, to a large-scale land reclamation program, James and I are fools, if we don't move to the farm—the better to capitalize on this form of socializing the country.

The President is committed to seek legislation to outlaw many types of discrimination. This could cause a revolution, which would be hard on our pocketbooks—that is, if pocketbooks are still in use by the masses by then.

The Truman administration, of course, is committed to a large program of military expansion. The total program is expected to be in the neighborhood of $15 billion next year.

And, of course, the expensive European Recovery program and the policy of friendship with Western Europe is expected to continue, as is the occupation of Germany and what about such expensive things as air-lifts?

Early in the 81st Congress, the President is expected to ask for approval of a military alliance between the United States and Western Union, a foreign entanglement which would require Uncle Sugar to provide large quantities of military equipment to Europe.

Whether or not he is committed, it will be Mr. Truman's responsibility to do something about the problem in Germany and the cold war with Russia. Anything he does will cost us plenty of money and, although whatever happens probably won't be the President's fault, he'll get the blame for it.

And there's Greece. Despite the expensive "Truman Doctrine" and millions of American dollars, the Greek government is still far from victory in the civil war. Truman will have to decide just how much farther the United States can go in helping the Greek government win.

And there's also China. Truman has been remarkably silent on aid to China, but the United States will be asked for large-scale help and the President will have to decide whether or not it is forthcoming.

Mr. Truman proved himself to be a miracle man in winning his presidential campaign. But is he

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

HANDS OFF!—The forthright declaration of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower—now president of Columbia University—on the matter of Federal aid to education, sums up the danger inherent to such a proposal. "When Federal money comes into that field, we are entering a dangerous situation," he warns. And "Just so that no one will misunderstand where an old soldier stands on that question, I will have no Federal money in higher education as long as there is one single iota of Federal control coming with it."

How does one draw up a program for Federal aid in a manner to forever exclude the possibilities of Federal control? The answer is, it simply can't be done. The U. S. Supreme Court has ruled that what the Federal Government subsidizes it has the right to regulate, and notwithstanding the cute reply of the proponents that "It ain't necessarily so."

Who is to say, for example, that the court's decision on this matter cannot be invoked to set aside any clause to the contrary in the enabling act?

Yes, General Eisenhower was talking about HIGHER education. But with equal force, if not greater force, the danger applies to public school education at every lower level. The best way—the one safe way—to keep miracle man enough to stand up to all of his commitments? If he spends all the money that's needed to carry out all the commitments, he won't have a friend to his name as even the James Hills will turn against him because of the increased taxes.

Already, the stock markets have indicated how the big corporations will suffer from the prolonged Truman administration. From whom can Labor demand wage increases after big business goes broke and the Taft-Hartley law no longer exists? We better get government jobs, James!

I admire Truman for the fortitude which he showed against opposition in every direction, and I wish him well. I honestly do, and he certainly has my deepest sympathy because the "heefing" will continue through every day that he serves as President. He will not deserve many of the complaints. The 50,000,000 people who didn't care enough to vote will scream the loudest.

NO ALIBIS PLEASE—And was that a surprise to see Congress go Democratic and a majority of the states elect Democratic governors? When Congressman Eugene Worley was here only a few days before the election he talked freely about the mess that would exist with Dewey as president; a Democratic Senate and a Republican House. The whole bunch are now Democratic. There can be no excuses or alibis from the Democratic party. It has a real opportunity, and a real obligation to the people. — Canyon News.

FAKE INSPECTORS!—Warning to homeowners and users of gas appliances against permitting unauthorized strangers to inspect or make adjustments, was issued this week by the gas company and local officers.

Posing as representatives of the gas company, two men during the past week victimized a number of Haskell housewives, after the strangers had been permitted to "inspect" appliances in Haskell homes. In practically every instance, the impersonators made a charge of $5 or upward for their services, it was learned after complaints had been made to local officers.

Marion Reeves, local manager for Lone Star Gas Company, pointed out to gas consumers that the company does not make a charge for nominal inspections of appliances when requested by patrons, and urged all gas users to report any unauthorized stranger posing as a gas company inspector. — Haskell Free Press.

YES, HOW LONG?—The way the government payroll is applying these days, one is led to wonder how long the people will be able to support such a program. It is stated as a fact that one out of every six adults are now employed by the government, are or pensioned, or their dependents receive some kind of payment from the government. But, like the old saying, "we never miss the water till the well runs dry" may be the answer to that one. — Terry County Herald.

TEXANS HAD WARNING—A press dispatch from Washington a few days ago predicted that Texans and others seeking legislation to confirm title to the oil-bearing tidelands in the respective states would find the going to be hard. The opinion was that Congress would make short work of the job of taking over these tidelands for the Federal government. In that case, Texas will lose millions of dollars in taxes annually, a large portion of which has been used heretofore for the benefit of our schools. It is hoped that Texas Congressmen will make a strong fight against any such action. For a hundred years the State's title to these tidelands has been undisputed, as we understand it, and we can see no justice in their confiscation by the Federal Government now. In fact, it is doubtful if the Federal Congress can constitutionally take them over. However, Texas voters had fair warning. President Truman months ago took his stand in favor of taking them over for the Federal Government and stouf pat ever since. I would like that job when in his affliction. Through me set will I trust Lacy County News.

Letters From The Readers

For some time now I have been contemplating an answer to Mrs. Boyds Garza and the World column, but so far have let my feelings overrule the subject.

However, I would like to answer her column on the political question in last week's Post Dispatch.

I, for one, am very pleased with the election. I think it is the most important political election ever held in this country. Undoubtedly, many other persons feel the same way, or otherwise it certainly would have been a "Republican Year." Thank heavens it wasn't.

The outcome of the election was a surprize to everyone. As is customary during the election of presidents, you never hear but one side of the argument, the Republican side. Every magazine, newspaper, and periodical of every description is always full of Republican propaganda for almost eight months before the election.

There is so much hullabaloo, in fact, that no wonder the average person can't believe what is true and what is false.

The only way, and probably the best, is to go by actions instead of words. The people of the United States have finally awakened to this fact and have voted a Democratic ticket again.

A mere glance at the record will reveal that we have always been better off when the Democrats have been in office than when the Republicans were in.

The Republicans are always very quick to say, "Look at our record." I believe that is one reason they haven't been in office since Hoover was president. For a look at their record not only shows depressions but all kinds of labor disputes and dissatisfaction among the laboring class of people. Which, after all is at least 90 per cent of the people in the United States.

Take a glance at the 80th Congress. That is a typical Republican example of what the Republicans are for. It has been next to the worst Congress in the history of our country. The first was also Republican.

What about the Republican Taft-Hartley law? Is that the American way of life? Personally I can't see why the people of America are dissatisfied with the way our government is run. No wonder they are looking for a change of some kind. All that we were brought up to think was our "American Way" and all that we have fought for in the years past are just what that Republican law is against.

I think the "free country" and the "American Way" are just about a thing of the past when the people will let such a law get by them. The man with the pocket book has always been, and always will be, the boss. Why enslave a man working for a living with a law such as this?

I sincerely think that we will have a depression within the next three or four years. But contrary to Republican propaganda, I don't believe it will be caused by the Democrats. Regardless of who was elected, I don't believe anyone in the world could save us from the inevitable. I do believe we will have a better chance of survival though with the Democrats in office. Anyway, we will know that there is a man in office that will do all in his power to keep us from having a depression such as we experienced during the Hoover "starve."

Overlooking the fact that the United States is better off to day than it ever has been, no one without a job that can work and wants to work, the Republicans have asked you to look at their past and vote for a free democracy. I am well pleased that the public did.—And voted DEMOCRAT.

As for the buying of things now, I think the wise thing for people to do, if they have any money, is to hold on to it. When the bust does come, the person with the money will, as always has been the case, be on top. Things are too high now to buy, but eventually will come down. Then, if you still have five dollars left, you can maybe buy a week's groceries or a suit of clothes.

Anyway, until the Republicans can get a man that can stand on his own laurels and not say to look at a sordid picture of the past and can prove his party has something to offer besides to make the capitalists stronger and the man that's making the stronger stronger then maybe the Republicans can get in office.

I feel that the American people have finally decided to stop all this nonsense and stand up for their rights as free citizens in a free country and vote down the undesirable characters they know are only for the things that are against the masses of the people. That is the only way to get what you are for and the people need.

Your (obviously) staunch Democrat,

James Hill.

MRS. McCOACH RITES—

(Continued From Front Page) San Francisco, Calif., who visited her mother here last week, and Mrs. J. A. Stallings; five grandchildren and six great grandchildren. A daughter, Mrs. Minnie Barton of Los Angeles, Calif., passed away about two years ago.

Her husband, who was buried here on December 30, 1932, was the second Santa Fe agent in Post. He succeeded E. W. Ewing, who came here as agent when the railroad was built through Post in 1910. McCoach had been a railroad man for 54 years and an employe of the Santa Fe company for more than 40 years at the time of his death. His son-in-law, J. A. Stallings, the present agent, succeeded him.

Mrs. McCoach was born in New Albany, Ind., on October 4, 1857. Despite her advanced years, she had been in fairly good health until about three weeks ago when a fatal infection developed in her left foot. Until her recent illness, she enjoyed visiting with her friends and relatives and maintained the wonderful sense of humor and good nature which always had been outstanding in her personality. She continued her ardent study of the Bible through the years and had her favorite Psalm read to her daily during her recent illness.

Among the out-of-town relatives attending the funeral were two grandchildren, James Stallings and Mrs. Royce Durham, and their families of Lubbock. Although a complete list of out-of-town friends attending was unavailable, it included Jimmy Napier, Miss Jeanne Samson and Mrs. Deyle Justice of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Taylor and Mrs. Sam Bradbery of Snyder. The McCoach family formerly lived in Snyder.

Mason and Company was in charge of the funeral.

89th Division, he embarked for overseas on January 10, 1945 and landed at LeHavre, France, 11 days later. He entered combat for the first time on March 12 in the Mozelle River sector and was killed 16 days later near the Rhine River.

He is survived by Mr. and Mrs. Ray N. Smith, Sr., and two brothers, Roy A. Smith of Lubbock and Robert Smith, and two sisters, Mrs. Garland Cannon of Petersburg and Mrs. Bill Uhlman of Brownwood, all of whom are planning to attend the funeral.

Other out-of-town guests who are expected include Mrs. Smith's cousins, Miss Lora Blount and Mrs. Faye McClure, of Roby.

The schools, which had only a half holiday November 11 and will have only a half holiday tomorrow, will have two Thanksgiving holidays. There will be no school on Thursday and Friday of next week in Post and Garza County.

The courthouse, postoffice, bank and other buildings also will observe the Thanksgiving holiday, but it is believed that most of the restaurants will remain open, at least part of the day.

The courthouse will close at noon tomorrow for the football game and the postoffice will be closed during the game.

HALF HOLIDAY IN POST—

(Continued From Front Page) The gate to the football field will open at 12:15 o'clock tomorrow. General admission tickets for the east side of the field may be bought at the gate.

Supt. G. R. Day announced that, because of the expected crowd, no automobiles will be permitted inside the gate. The Post High School buildings will be open during the game, he said.

Enthusiasm is as high in Littlefield as it is in Post, according to newsmen who have been telephoning the Post Dispatch for background information on the Post Antelopes.

Coach J. Fikes, one of the area's most outstanding Class A coaches, is serving his fifth season with the Littlefield Wildcats and is trying for the fifth time for the District Championship. During his first three seasons with the Wildcats, they won three district championships, three bi-district championships and one regional championship. The Wildcats try for district championship last year was a failure.

The winner of the Antelope-Wildcat game tomorrow will meet Lockney, the District 3-A winner, in the bi-district bracket of the playoff to a Class A championship.

It is the first time in 20 years that the Post Antelopes have been this close to a district championship. In 1928, Post won the regional championship which, at that time, was as high as a Class A team could go.

Two radio stations, one from Littlefield and one from Lubbock, are making plans to broadcast the district game from the local field. A broadcasting booth is being erected.

Smoking Is Chief Cause Of Loss By Fire Over Nation

Texans are smoking themselves out of home. They are also smoking themselves out of life, health, jobs, farm products, raw materials, timber, and places of education and entertainment, claims Marvin Hall of Austin, State Fire and Insurance Commissioner.

He says the main cause of fire throughout the nation is careless smoking, not only according to the major number of fires it starts each year, but also in the amount of cash damage done.

"Smokers should use friction lighters or safety matches wherever possible," he suggested, "and matches, cigars, cigars and pipe ashes should be thoroughly extinguished and thrown in a metal container. Matches should also be kept in a metal container, and in a place where small children cannot reach them. Also a liberal supply of ashtrays should be provided throughout the home."

To diminish the chances of a cigaret fire in your home, Hall says do not smoke in the garage, barn or in the attic, and as you value your life, do not smoke in bed, this being one of the most dangerous practices of smokers.

He stated that smoking should be prohibited in all storage plants and warehouse basements of all stores and buildings, schools, theatres and places of amusement where large crowds gather, wholesale and retail gasoline plants and stations, and wherever fire may endanger liv-

Garza People See Comet Near Venus For Several Days

A spectacular comet, which last week attracted much attention among world astronomers, was seen by a few Garza County residents. It was first noticed, as far as is known, by Vada Childers who spent weekend before last in Lubbock. As she came home on an early bus the driver pointed it out to her at about 6 a.m. and said he had seen it for several mornings.

Later in the week, a Garnolia school teacher noticed it after having read about it in several newspapers. He told the school children where to look in the sky, and most of them reported to him last Friday morning that they had seen it, just to the right of "the morning star."

Last week's Lamesa paper stated that the comet was visible Thursday at 5:45 a.m. It was low in the sky to the south-east, below and to the right of the much brighter planet Venus. The paper described it as being hazy in appearance and having a long tail which made what appeared to be a 15 degree arc.

Vada reported seeing the comet several mornings last week and that it was visible only until sunrise. It became visible a little later each morning until about Monday when it was no longer within view of the naked eye. It was as bright as Venus and had a swinging tail, she said.

Rotarians Told That Tolerance Is World Hope

"The modern-day challenge that Rotarians, as members of a world-wide service organization, must accept with action in terms of good will and understanding is 'Live together in constructive thinking and tolerance—or die.' Our responsibility is not so much to try to get the other fellow to understand us but rather, to try most earnestly to understand him."

That was the message of Dr. Ira E. Woods of Littlefield, Governor of District 127 of Rotary International, in addressing the Post Rotary Club at the city hall Tuesday noon during an official visit here.

"Rotary, with one of its principal objectives to encourage and foster international understanding through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service, has a wide influence far greater than its numerical strength," Dr. Woods said.

"Devoted to service, Rotary provides a common ground for the men of the world, regardless of creed, color or government under which they live, to promote and nurture understanding," the district governor emphasized.

He said that Rotary's objective of international good will predates a provision of the United Nations charter in virtually the same language, and that at the San Francisco conference the leaders included seven Rotarians as well as 39 members of the service club on the staff as consultants.

Indorsing the United Nations Program, Dr. Woods declared: "Even if the United Nations groups meet only to disagree, they still meet and that is a step which holds hope. Surely, no nation will risk its all to fight the world. The United Nations serves as that check."

Dr. Woods arrived here Monday and conferred that evening with club officers, directors and committee chairmen. On Tuesday morning he visited the places of business of various Rotarians. He said he "and the rest of the population of Littlefield" would be here tomorrow for the football game.

Rotarians, at their luncheon meeting Tuesday, received tickets to sell for the magician show.

It's Your Fight, Too!

Bing Crowley was "beefing" the other day about all that Our Town's doing in the way of sending food and clothes to Europe. Bing felt that those struggling democracies should look after themselves.

But most agreed with Judge Cunningham who said: "So long as any family or individual in Europe is helping hold the line for freedom—against the forces of intolerance—it's common sense, and common decency, to help 'em."

Because that's everybody's fight: To see that individual freedom is preserved in every aspect, big or little—whether it's the right to vote, or the right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer or ale with friends.

And from where I sit, no liberty's too small to overlook. Because the minute one small freedom is threatened, all the others are in jeopardy—just as the minute one small country loses freedom, all its neighbors are in danger!

Line Can Be Run
Now For Terrace
Built Later On

Terrace lines can be run now and the terraces built later, according to Duck Creek Soil Conservation technicians. Many farmers have put off building terraces, even though they are needed, because after they listed the land, terracing would ruin row system.

Technicians assisting the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District have developed a technique whereby the land can be listed and the terraces built later in the winter or spring. First the terrace lines are laid out by SCS engineers. The farmer starts listing, using a terrace line for one of the rows. Several rows are listed above and below the terrace line. When the terrace finally is built, the outside cut on each side is kept along even rows.

After the terrace is complete and checked, the rows can be made over the terrace to match with the outside rows. Terracing contractors, especially those who build terraces with maintainers, do not object to the ridges because they use them instead of having to measure out on each side, to start the channel cut.

This method is recommended on land where crops were a failure and the land needs listing early to prevent blowing.

Caution should be made by putting a heavy stake in the terrace row so it can be easily found.

School Children
Use Library In Different Ways

Mrs. Nola Brister, Post Grade School librarian, said this week that the State Department of Education offers a reading certificate to pupils in the fifth grade or above who meet certain reading requirements and that several Post Grade School pupils received the certificates last year, and a number of the pupils are enrolled this year.

Activity in the local school library, she said, has been brisk. Last Friday, 144 books were charged out, indicating that a large number of pupils are qualifying themselves for certificates in addition to enjoying many pleasant reading hours and gaining useful information.

The library received some new books last week, including "Caddie Woodlawn" by Carol Brink and "Smoky the Cow Horse" by Will James.

Mrs. Brister pointed out also that some interesting, before or work is being carried on by different classes. Mrs. Maxine Preston's history group is using the library books to find out more about discovery and exploration.

Flat Tobosa Range
To Be Improved By Conservation Plan

Ernest Henderson this week, with the assistance of Merle Britton, Soil Conservation range conservationist, developed a range conservation plan on the Henderson Estate, six miles west of Justiceburg.

Henderson's range is mostly flat tobosa land. It is in fair condition. Where usually a pure stand of tobosa is found on this land, Henderson's range has a mixture of alkali sycamore with blue grama and buffalo grass.

Britton, assisting the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District, says "This is the first time I have found a mixture of the better grasses on this kind of land."

Henderson plans to defer grazing over the range on a rotation to further increase the high forage-producing grasses, and develop a cover of grass litter to pro-
