Open House To Be Held At Funeral Home Here Sunday

The public is invited to call at the Hudman Funeral Home Sunday from 1 until 7 p.m. to see one of the most beautiful funeral homes in West Texas.
The new business was opened last week in the original C. W. Post home, which long has been a West Texas show place. Much of the original splendor of the home was maintained by Marvin and Victor Hudman in converting the historic mansion.
Privacy of a home and the dignified atmosphere of a chapel are combined with the original beauty of the interior to make an appropriate setting for funerals. The family room, chapel as well as other parts of the home are air conditioned.
The home directed two funerals last week, after it was announced that the building was open for business. The first was that of a Mexican baby, who died in Brownfield, and the other was that of Joseph A. Bryant of Levelland, former Post resident who died in an automobile accident.
A beautiful display of caskets has been arranged in one room of the house. Also featured in the business will be a complete line of burial insurance. Marvin Hudman said this week.

Absentee Ballots Now Available In July 3 Election

An advertisement, entitled "Why the Citizens of Post Should Vote for Ownership of Its Waterworks and Sewer Systems" published elsewhere in today's issue, itemizes the appraised valuation and costs of the two systems.
It is noted that the present appraised value of the two systems is $540,000 and that the two companies now owning them have offered to sell them to the city at slightly less than 60 per cent of the present value, or $315,000.
The appraisals were made by engineers employed by the city to make comprehensive surveys during the past year.
The advertisement points out that municipal ownership of utility systems is highly desirable as it affords the city an opportunity to adequately serve its citizens at no increased cost in taxes. The bond issue, which will be voted on July 3, covers purchase and extensions of these systems, which will pay for themselves in earnings.

Scripture: Matthew 9: 10-13
And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your master with publicans and sinners? But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Minute Prayer:
Father, we thank Thee for the power of Thy love, which lifts us and saves us from our sins. Amen.

Biblical Personality

Scholars differ in their interpretation of the life of Hosea, author of the first of the minor prophetic books of the New Testament.

Some believe that the relationship disclosed in his book of a faithless wife is historic and autobiographical. Others feel that it is allegorical, and yet others compromise by seeing a substratum of reality which the prophet uses to emphasize his message.

The first three chapters of Hosea deal with his wife's faithlessness, while the remainder of the book contains a series of discourses in which the sins of the people are censured.

Hosea lived in Israel during the reign of Jeroboam II and his successors. His style, though sometimes obscure, is full of power, and his manner of presenting the relation of Israel to its God, as that of faithless wife to husband, has not only provided him with an unusual and effective symbolism, but has led scholars into the various interpretations of Hosea's own life.

Claudia Ticer and Bud Short, who returned home Saturday from the Baptist Encampment at Ridgecrest, N. C., spoke Sunday night at the First Baptist Church on their experiences while at the camp. Claudia who will enter Wayland College this fall will, after her graduation, become a missionary in a Leprosy Colony in China.

It was the first reunion since 1936, since which year the number of relatives attending had almost doubled. All but two members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Martin of Hayward, Calif., were present.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Qualls of Albuquerque, N. M., Blaine Qualls of El Paso, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Martin and four sons, Jimmy, Tommy, Ronnie and Charles, of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Martin and daughters, Joy and Kay, of Post, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Martin and Lon Gaylon and Larry, of Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Martin and children, Connie and Ruthell, of Post, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Martin and children, Sammy, Carolyn and Cheryl, of Levelland, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McWhorter and children, Flo Ann and Kenny of Artesia, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Woody Clemmons and son, Woody Joe, of Roswell, N. M.

There has been only one death, that of Clyde Martin, Jr., who was killed in 1946 while serving in the U.S. Navy, in the family.

The entire family was entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Martin, where a fried chicken dinner was served.

GEO-MINERAL will enrich your blood, help to make you strong, full of pep, life and energy. Lack of minerals in the blood causes anemia, headaches, nervousness. Minerals generate mental brilliancy, give sparkling eyes, red cheeks, fight disease, build up health.

Wonder Minerals
RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid condition in the blood is often their cause. What could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain of these ills. Doctors send people to mineral springs to find cure or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs to drink and bathe in their mineral water. We have all heard of the wonderous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

Amazing Results
GEO-MINERAL contains minerals you get at the world's best springs. Watch your eliminations from your bowels a day or two after using it. The waste, black as the color of your shoes, will start to break away, and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, relieving you. And then realize the priceless value of GEO-MINERAL.

GEO-MINERAL is not a physic and does not interfere with the foods in the stomach. It cleans and purifies the intestines, thoroughly relieving gas, toxins, acids, and bloating. After these poisons are out of the system and the kidney purified, we begin to feel the arthritis and rheumatism leaving, and Nature starting to complete the recovery.

Committees Give Reports At Garza HD

Mrs. George Evans of Justiceburg presided for a meeting of the Garza County Home Demonstration Council Saturday afternoon in the district court room.

The clubs answered roll call with the number of times members had made yeast breads since the demonstration. The report showed they had made refrigerator rolls 375 times by five clubs and made the sweet yeast dough 135 times. One club had held a leather lacing demonstration and laced three billfolds and two coin purses and three clubs had held knitting demonstrations.

The Finance Committee report showed the council had on hand to sell four boxes of gift wrapping cards again this year. A new sample box was shown at the meeting.

The Marketing Committee chairman, Mrs. Wilburn Morris, displayed a folder of rayon materials that the clubs could buy. Anyone wishing to place an order, should see some member of the Marketing Committee or call at the County Home Demonstration agent's office.

The Education Expansion Committee urged all members to continue keeping records on their listening program sheet and turn it in by July 1 as there will be special recognition given to the woman having the highest score in each county.

Pessimistic View Taken On State's School Condition

Conditions improved slightly this year, but nearly half of the 1,500,000 public school children in Texas are still being taught in badly over-crowded classrooms.

A survey announced by the Texas State Teachers Association indicates that 46.7 per cent of the children are getting inadequate educations due to a shortage of teachers and buildings.

Many schools, among them larger cities such as Amarillo, Corpus Christi and Galveston, are on a half-day schedule so acute is the situation, according to Joe Humphrey of Abilene, vice-president of the Teachers Association.

Thirty pupils is the maximum class for efficient teaching, the National Education Association and other organizations agree.

Classes with as many as 65 pupils were found in a survey which was conducted by Miss Willie Faye Floyd of Abilene, Texas representative on the NEA advisory committee on tax education and school finance.

Grade Schools Crowded

Elementary schools are more badly in need of additional space and teachers than are junior and senior high schools, the Floyd survey disclosed.

A total of 58.7 per cent of the grade school pupils included in the survey are in classes of more than 30 pupils. Exactly half of the junior high pupils are over-crowded. The senior high schools have 32.9 of their students in over-sized classes.

"Texas needs a minimum of 2,500 additional teachers and thousands of additional classrooms to relieve the heavy congestion in our public schools," said Humphrey. "It is a very grave problem which, somehow, must be solved."

"All educators recognize the fact that it is impossible for pupils to get the attention they need and adequate instruction in classes of more than 30 students."

More Teachers Needed

Large classes rob children of part of their American heritage, the right to obtain a thorough education.

Humphrey said some way must be found to interest more young people in preparing for a teaching career.

"Even with the increase in pay granted by the last legislature, the inducements to enter the proprofession apparently are not sufficient," he declared.

"Our colleges are not training enough teachers to take care of the usual replacement needs, let alone add to our staffs."

Humphrey also said many schools do not have enough money to construct additional or new buildings.

"Others have voted bonds, but are reluctant to build during these times of high costs, when they can get only about half as much for their money," Humphrey said.

Many Are The Contraptions Of Wonder Available To Motorist Now Days

Tourist cars passing through Post these days are laden with smart looking contraptions exceeding Rube Goldberg's fondest dream.

The automobile accessory and gadget industry, whose principle purpose seems to be to make the life of the motorist more comfortable and safe, has been working overtime to equip the 1948 summer vacationist with labor-saving devices.

Many of the current flood of accessories are interim products, designed to fill the need of replacements for which the automobile industry has not been able to provide enough new cars. Thus, the demand for convertible automobiles now is far in excess of the prewar orders, and production of them is months behind the rapidly rising stack of orders.

What to do with convertibles whose tops are wearing out before they can be replaced? Collapsible tops which can be fitted to almost any open car model are now being produced. And the driver of a convertible whose top has worn out can refurbish his vehicle and take to the road this summer in comfort and style.

Station Wagons

Vacationists are finding the station wagon the answer to many motorized holidays and their popularity, measured by the orders on file, is more than double what it was before the war.

Among the gadgets now on the market for the comfort and convenience of both the short and long range motorist are:

A detachable arm rest that can be installed beside the driver for comfort on long trips. It can be quickly removed.

An outside-the-car night-glow rear-view mirror with an illuminated rim. It is said to be visible in back of the car for a quarter of a mile, adding another warning to the driver behind. It also serves to indicate the clearance required to pass safely.

Battery Charger

An automobile battery charger mounted permanently under the hood or in the driver's compartment. It can be plugged into any 115-volt alternating current outlet. The manufacturer says it can bring a battery up to full charge overnight.

An extension for the exhaust pipe that (1) gives the noise of the exhaust a mellow tone and (2) keeps the rear bumper from staining.

A wind deflector that is attached to the back of the front seat of open cars to protect occupants of the rear seat from the wind. It is said to prevent back drafts.

A snap-on device that permits opening of the small ventilator windows during rainstorms but keeps the rain from trickling in through the open window.

Visors Of Plexiglass

Plexiglass visors installed inside the car and covering the upper third of the windshield. These reduce sun and sky glare and soften the flash of oncoming headlights at night.

Music for everyone who rides in the car is possible, as well as remote-control listening while picnicking, with an auxiliary loud speaker. Its extension cord can be plugged into the dashboard radio for listening in without ear strain in the back seat while driving, or for luncheon music at the picnic table. The speaker stands five inches high and does not interfere with operation of the regular radio speaker.

A hand throttle to replace the foot accelerator and thus relieve leg fatigue on long drives seems, at first, like a return to the hand gas levers of 30 years ago. It operates with finger tip control through a flexible cable.

A safety lock guards against children riding in the back seat opening the rear door while the car is in motion. The device automatically locks the rear door when the front door is closed.

Water Vapor Injector

A hydro-power injector is said to increase gasoline mileage by injecting water vapor into the engine's intake manifold. The Air Force developed this during the war to give its engines an extra thrust of power in emergencies. It is said to increase speed, acceleration, power and efficiency in automobile engines as well.

A rotary first aid chart tells what to do in emergencies until the doctor arrives. It covers the gamut from asphyxiation and severed arteries to fractures, sunstroke and poison ivy.

Clip-on amber lenses turn headlights into fog lights and can be adjusted in a few seconds.

Schmidt's Pig, Like Ferdinand, Prefers Flowers To Garbage

That pig again: Jack Schmidt's elusive pig has forsaken the city dump grounds for the more attractive surroundings of Mayor John Herd's home. It was Tuesday that the Sears-Roebuck Foundation pig, which broke out of its pen the night of June 5, moved over to the Herd Estate and began sniffing around the zinnias, roses and petunias and liked them so well he started digging for their roots.

This started Mrs. Herd calling for help, which came immediately in the form of County Agricultural Agent Robert Gibson, Jack Schmidt and his brother, John.

Having had several weeks' experience at hiding from this eagle-eyed group, the pig took to the mesquites on their arrival and did not emerge until the agent and the boys—in another part of the mesquite forest—had become absorbed in the art of catching a baby skunk. Then the pig came and lay down under Gibson's car in the Herd driveway, and stayed there until the agent and boys started back.

Then the pig ran off into the mesquites again, and hasn't been within catching distance until yet.

If the pig is found, it will be raised for 4-H exhibiting by Jack's brother, because Jack is busy raising another pig. It was bought with money contributed by men from the oil company with which his father is employed.

Barnyard Biddies To Vie For Egg-Laying Honors During Fair

Here is the announcement by which the State Fair of Texas hopes to send barn-yard biddies all over the State into dithers of anticipation.

Another big time competition sponsored by the State Fair is scheduled to start Friday, October 8, at 6 p. m., and will continue until Saturday, October 23, at 8 p. m.

Prize for the winning pen of eight hens will be $25. State Fair visitors will be able to keep posted on the race by means of a broadcast in the contest area. Last year's contest was won by eight production White Leghorns owned by George M. Heberer of San Antonio, with 109 eggs during the 16 days of the Fair.

Prospective exhibitors interested in further details on poultry classifications may obtain the 1948 Fair premium list by writing to the State Fair of Texas, Dallas 10, Texas.

Littlefield Jaycee Rodeo Opens Tonight

A three-day Jaycee rodeo will get under way in Littlefield tonight, under personal direction of Howard Brown of Dublin, one of the Southwest's outstanding rodeo directors. Last year's Jaycee rodeo, produced by Brown, was acclaimed as one of the most colorful in West Texas.

Brown has already brought 96 head of rodeo stock to Littlefield. Besides the rodeo proper, other features will include a cow-girl sponsor contest, a dance each night of the show and a mammoth street parade. Brown has booked some of the best specialty acts to be found on the rodeo circuit. Among these are Jack and Bobbie Knapp of Hollywood, Calif., in an acrobatic trick roping act. Knapp is also a skilled performer in bull-fighting.

Jack Andrews of Lake Butler, Fla., and his trained Brahma bull, will be headlined in another specialty act to be seen at the Jaycee rodeo. Andrews is also billed as the champion "whip popper" of the United States and Australia. He displays uncanny accuracy in flicking his huge bull whip.

A huge western parade, including hundreds of horsemen and colorful floats, will formally open the three-show rodeo at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Four Girls Initiated By Rainbow Assembly

Officers of the new Post Assembly of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls presided at their first stated meeting Tuesday night in the Masonic Hall. Billie Louise Nichols is worthy advisor.

They also conducted their first initiation, conferring degrees on Shirley Schmidt, Claudia Ticer, Jane Ann Turner and Daisy Holly.

The meeting was followed by a social hour. A sandwich plate and cold drinks were served. Fourteen adult sponsors and parents and 23 members were present.

Twenty-Sixth Year Is Begun In 4-H Records Program

Now in its 26th year, the National 4-H Girls' Record awards program is being continued in Texas.

The purpose of the program is to encourage 4-H girls to become proficient in housekeeping skills and managerial abilities that make for a comfortable, satisfying home.

Awards for superior records on county, state and national levels are the same as provided by Montgomery Ward last year, viz: gold-filled medals of honor, Chicago 4-H Club Congress trips, and $200 college scholarships, respectively.

More than $15,000.00 in college scholarships has been awarded to the national winners alone since the program's inception.

Last year's state winner in Texas was Helen Grace Kolaja, Damon.

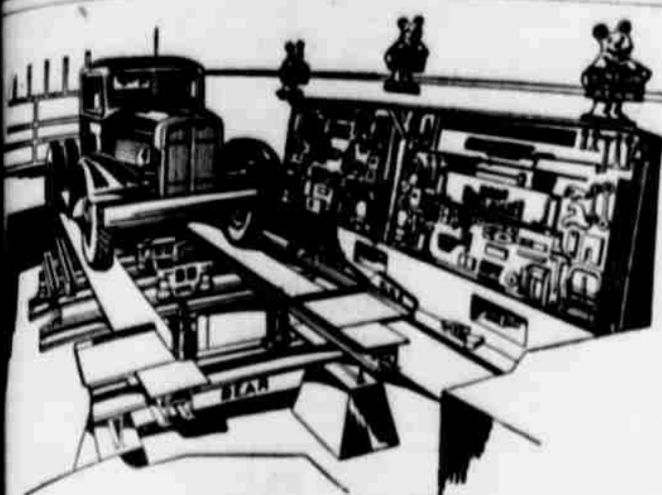

There were 37 county medal winners in 1947.

Mrs. Jewell H. Strasner, county home demonstration agent, can give full information regarding this program.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hawks of Arlington spent the weekend here in the Jess Wright home. Sunday the Wrights accompanied the visitors to Carlsbad, N. M., where they went through the caverns.

Mrs. L. D. Walker was ill last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones have a new Chevrolet.

GETTING OUT On The LIMB By EDDIE the EDITOR

Nearly everybody is jubilant over the revenue bond election July 3. This is one issue that should carry, because: (1) Nearly everyone in Post recognizes the need for adequate sanitary facilities. (2) The present inadequate sewerage disposal system is a menace to the health of our people. (3) The bonds by law cannot be paid off by taxation. If the election carries, the money needed for city ownership and extension of the present waterworks and sewer systems will be issued against the existing properties and the holders of the bonds will not have the right to demand payment through taxation. The two projects, in time, will pay themselves out of debt.

The only adverse criticism I've heard of the project has been from the people who do not know the difference between revenue and taxable bonds. Revenue bonds can only be issued on self-supporting projects. If it were city pavement or a new court house or something that doesn't bring income to the city treasury, the money would have to be raised through taxable bonds.

This is a great opportunity for the citizens of Post and I believe they will take advantage of it. The only thing that can defeat it, will be the people's laziness about voting. The percentage of qualified voters who take advantage of the privilege is often disappointing. I hope this will not happen here.

THE WOMEN, God love 'em: Statistics show that only a small per cent of the girls in this country are working girls; the rest are working men.

It's vacation time, and lots of folks are taking advantage of the travel routes and information that the various oil companies again are offering free of charge. These fine road maps tell a motorist everything he wants to know except how to fold them up again.

Al Bird was in the other day, and he said if I'd come out to see his place now I can probably get a picture of that porpoise named Gertrude.

He says now that the water in his tank has warmed up Gertrude is surfacing a lot and he is trying to train her to come to him when he calls her with his coyote whistle, which sounds like a rabbit squealing.

So far, about the only luck he had was to call in all the neighboring dogs; but he believes that in time Gertrude will respond to the call just like the alligators come to the caretakers at meal time on those alligator farms.

I forgot to ask Al how big the porpoise is now, but I remember he mentioned that she continues to grow and that her main diet consists of bread. I think, however, he was kidding me when he told me that his wife, Katherine, spends a large part of her time each week baking long, narrow loaves which Gertrude finds very palatable.

Some day I'm going to take my camera out there and photograph that porpoise.

It's sure nice to take the horizontal spaces on the streets marked again. It seems to me that we have twice as much parking room when people park properly in those spaces, and it makes the town look much neater.

ROGER W. BABSON WRITES THIS WEEK:

How To Get A Job Is Explained For Inexperienced

Babson Park, Mass.—At this time of year thousands of young people leave school to look for jobs. Many are through with school. They want work by which they can make a living. Others are looking for summer jobs. They want to use their vacations profitably. Some of you young people have written asking for job-hunting tips. Too many young people when asked what they can do, reply, "Anything." This is a sure way of NOT getting a job. Well, here is some good advice from me:—Collect a few facts about a company before you go for an

Garza and the World

Editor's Note—Opinions expressed here are those of the author, and they do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of the Post Dispatch. The column is carried in the interest of applying world news to the situation here at home.

After writing my heart out the other week about Flag Day and what it meant to the families of our dead war heroes and what it should mean to all of us, I was amazed to observe that not a flag flew in Post on Flag Day, save the lonely symbol that the government makes 'em fly every day in front of the postoffice.

Maybe the people of this great country are tired of and bored with the freedom for which Old Glory is supposed to stand.

Reflecting on the situation in which the only flag that flew here on Flag Day was the one that the government requires, I am reminded of Dr. Franklin's final speech to the Federal Convention, which framed the constitution: "... there is no form of government but what may be a blessing, if well administered; and I believe farther, that this is likely to be well administered for a course of years, and can only end in despotism, as other forms have done before it, and when the people shall become so corrupted as to need despotic government, being incapable of any other."

Things aren't so bad here. The city of Post needs to go into debt only $600,000 to get a waterworks and sewer plant which eventually will pay for themselves. I see by the New York Times that New York City must immediately start a $200,000,000 program for construction of additional sewage treatment plants or "the danger of disease outbreaks will become so great that it will be necessary to prohibit all bathing."

That's liable to cost Dezzie and Dick some extra taxes, whereas if they lived in Post their sewer system could be improved by their voting non-taxable revenue bonds, come July 3.

Our wishy-washy Congress has done it again. By a large majority it accepted the European Recovery Program and immediately the stock of Democracy shot upward in the eyes of a Moscow-threatened world. Then the same Congress turned right around and, also by a large majority, made ERP's success doubtful by a drastic cut in the funds to be made available.

This is what ruined the government's fine experiment with the United States Information program. This is what ruined the Voice of America. The appropriations were cut so low there was no personnel to direct or censor the broadcasts and, finally, they went haywire. The money that was set aside for these programs, although too inadequate to insure their success, was a big waste of my tax money. I don't like it. This country needs an efficient business manager.

I was interested to read in some of the Sunday papers interview. Know something about its product. Know why you want to work for this particular company. Be able to give enthusiastic reasons for wanting the job and state definitely your own qualifications.

Tell the employment manager what work experiences you have had. Convey to him the kind of person you are. Give him the impression that you would be a good producer for his company because of your interests, abilities, experience and personality. Don't tell him you need a job. Talk of his troubles, not yours.

Start At The Bottom The Babson Institute has contacts with hundreds of employers across the country. I have made a business trip through the mid-west where I talked with employment managers, presidents, and directors of corporations. They report that, more than anything else, young people are in too much of a hurry. Remember you are worthless to an employer until you learn something about a company and its problems.

My father used to say, "It takes two years to make a two-year old heifer." He was right. You can't sell until you know your product. There is no place like the stockroom to learn this fundamental. If you really want to go places on a job, be willing to start at the bottom and do your job well. Don't be afraid of getting your hands dirty.

One middle western employer is currently telling a story about a wealthy young socialite. This young man could have stepped into a lucrative family business.

instead he went to another manufacturer and said, "I am absolutely worthless to you but there is nothing I want more than to learn your business. The only way I can learn is to go into the shop and roll up my sleeves and go to work. I want that opportunity to start at the bottom and get a good background." The employer was so impressed with this young man's sincerity and foresight that he hired him on the spot.

Business Wants Producers One thing employers will find out about you is whether or not you are a good producer. This will be determined by school records, part-time work experience, confidential recommendations, and so forth. You would be surprised how easy it is for an experienced interviewer to size up a fellow who wants a job "goldbricking." Time and again, I have heard businessmen say, "The young person who hasn't learned how to produce isn't worth a plugged nickel to me."

America is what she is today because of the blood and sweat of our forefathers. Only your willingness and ability to produce to capacity will keep her great. Hence, such traits as responsibility, persistence, courage and enthusiasm, will go a long way to help you act and get things done. Adaptability and flexibility, the power to think and reason clearly, are also traits much sought by employers.

Importance Of Character But above everything, the most important qualification is character. It seems to me that without question there is nothing more important to an employer than a strong character. The man of character is the man who gives an honest day's production, and then some, for day's wages. He is the man who gets ahead. There will always be opportunity for well-trained, loyal-minded, young people of character.

The finger of an old cotton canvas glove placed on the end of a curtain rod will be able to slip the curtain of the rod with no danger of calling or tearing the material. The material on the metal rod Kentucky housewife reports.

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

SNYDER MARKS STREETS — Snyder's streets are being "diked up" with real "cited" street markers, thanks to the leadership of the Snyder Lions Club. The markers make one of the most forward steps the town has had for a long time.

Beautiful, deep-etched aluminum markers that will last for years, are being installed by regular city workmen along with their other chores, on streets that are most used and where most houses are located. Angle iron standards are being set in concrete to support the markers.

Like most of the newer markers in the big cities, Snyder's markers bear the number of the block as well as the name of the street or avenue. A perfect stranger to the town—if he knows his ABC's and can count—can find the streets and houses of town with little difficulty. —Scurry County Times.

CITY BEING SPRAYED—If you had an idea Tuesday or Wednesday that everything in town was on fire, you were mistaken. It was only a DDT fog machine spraying the streets and alleys as a health safeguard.

A machine belonging to the city of Big Spring was borrowed for the purpose, the city authorities and the Mitchell county Infantile Paralysis committee paid the bill and the dose will be repeated at intervals during the season.

Mr. Fly and Brother Mosquito will have to have a new hiding place. This is just a part of an area wide effort to control infantile paralysis and to safeguard the health of the towns in West Texas. —Colorado Record.

LET US SPRAY—Science is doing a wonderful thing in its conquest of disease, and to stop the spread of disease. Take DDT and the fight on polio as an example. Everyone knows that flies breed in filth, and the only way to stop filth is to clean up and keep clean. But it is hard to convince all people, and as a result we continue having filth. Along comes DDT, which does a lot to wipe out the breeding places of flies. The full cooperation of all citizens will go a long way toward conquering the breeding places of flies, spreaders of disease. —Canyon News.

PIROUETTING AROUND — Old Bill Spivins says a lady friend of his told him that she recently decided it was time to have a frank talk with her daughter. "I did," the lady told Bill, "and believe me, I sure learned a lot from her." —Seminole Sentinel.

IT COULD HAPPEN HERE—Now is the time of year to be on the lookout for germ hibernating places, and it is the time of year that the polio germ makes with the spread act. It could happen here.

National, state and community health officials are pleading with citizens to make every possible effort to destroy all germ breeding places by the clean-up process.

Seagraves has been "overrun" with flies the past week. Now is the time to get busy at making preparations to destroy the flies by cleaning the town up.

Firemen are making ready to spray the alleys with DDT, but this alone is not enough. Much cleaning, burning and weeding is needed. Seagraves, generally speaking, is a clean town—and an active town—but we can do with some all-over "clean-up" measures. It is the responsibility of every citizen here to safeguard the town against lurking, dangerous disease germs. Let's start now! —Gaines County News.

How To Get A Job Is Explained For Inexperienced

Babson Park, Mass.—At this time of year thousands of young people leave school to look for jobs. Many are through with school. They want work by which they can make a living. Others are looking for summer jobs. They want to use their vacations profitably. Some of you young people have written asking for job-hunting tips.

Know something about its product. Know why you want to work for this particular company. Be able to give enthusiastic reasons for wanting the job and state definitely your own qualifications.

Tell the employment manager what work experiences you have had. Convey to him the kind of person you are. Give him the impression that you would be a good producer for his company because of your interests, abilities, experience and personality. Don't tell him you need a job. Talk of his troubles, not yours.

The Babson Institute has contacts with hundreds of employers across the country. I have made a business trip through the mid-west where I talked with employment managers, presidents, and directors of corporations. They report that, more than anything else, young people are in too much of a hurry. Remember you are worthless to an employer until you learn something about a company and its problems.

My father used to say, "It takes two years to make a two-year old heifer." He was right. You can't sell until you know your product. There is no place like the stockroom to learn this fundamental. If you really want to go places on a job, be willing to start at the bottom and do your job well. Don't be afraid of getting your hands dirty.

One middle western employer is currently telling a story about a wealthy young socialite. This young man could have stepped into a lucrative family business.

Instead he went to another manufacturer and said, "I am absolutely worthless to you but there is nothing I want more than to learn your business. The only way I can learn is to go into the shop and roll up my sleeves and go to work. I want that opportunity to start at the bottom and get a good background." The employer was so impressed with this young man's sincerity and foresight that he hired him on the spot.

Business Wants Producers
One thing employers will find out about you is whether or not you are a good producer. This will be determined by school records, part-time work experience, confidential recommendations, and so forth. You would be surprised how easy it is for an experienced interviewer to size up a fellow who wants a job "goldbricking." Time and again, I have heard businessmen say, "The young person who hasn't learned how to produce isn't worth a plugged nickel to me."

America is what she is today because of the blood and sweat of our forefathers. Only your willingness and ability to produce to capacity will keep her great. Hence, such traits as responsibility, persistence, courage and enthusiasm, will go a long way to help you act and get things done. Adaptability and flexibility, the power to think and reason clearly, are also traits much sought by employers.

Importance Of Character
But above everything, the most important qualification is character. It seems to me that with out question there is nothing more important to an employer than a strong character. A man of character is the man who gives an honest day's production, and then some, for day's wages. He is the man who gets ahead. There will always be opportunity for well-trained, loyal-minded, young people of character.

The finger of an old codger, a canvas glove placed at the end of a curtain rod will be able to slip the curtain on the rod with no danger of cutting or tearing the material. The material on the metal rod Kentucky housewife reports.

GETTING OUT On The LIMB
By EDDIE the EDITOR

Nearly everybody is jubilant over the revenue bond election July 3.

This is one issue that should carry, because:

- (1) Nearly everyone in Post recognizes the need for adequate sanitary facilities.
- (2) The present inadequate sewerage disposal system is a menace to the health of our people.
- (3) The bonds by law cannot be paid off by taxation. If the election carries, the money needed for city ownership and extension of the present waterworks and sewer systems will be issued against the existing properties and the holders of the bonds will not have the right to demand payment through taxation. The two projects, in time, will pay themselves out of debt.

The only adverse criticism I've heard of the project has been from the people who do not know the difference between revenue and taxable bonds. Revenue bonds can only be issued on self-supporting projects. If it were city pavement or a new court house or something that doesn't bring income to the city treasury, the money would have to be raised through taxable bonds.

This is a great opportunity for the citizens of Post and I believe they will take advantage of it.

The only thing that can defeat it will be the people's laziness about voting. The percentage of qualified voters who take advantage of the privilege is often disappointing. I hope this will not happen here.

THE WOMEN. God love 'em: Statistics show that only a small per cent of the girls in this country are working girls, the rest are working men.

It's vacation time, and lots of folks are taking advantage of the travel routes and information that the various oil companies again are offering free of charge. These fine road maps tell a motorist everything he wants to know except how to fold them up again.

Al Bird was in the other day, and he said if I'd come out to see his place now I can probably get a picture of that porpoise named Gertrude.

He says now that the water in his tank has warmed up, Gertrude is surfacing a lot and he is trying to train her to come to him when he calls her with his coyote whistle, which sounds like a rabbit squealing.

So far, about the only luck he had was to call in all the neighboring dogs; but he believes that in time Gertrude will respond to the call just like the alligators come to the caretakers at meal time on those alligator farms.

I forgot to ask Al how big the porpoise is now, but I remember he mentioned that she continues to grow and that her main diet consists of bread, I think, however, he was kidding me when he told me that his wife, Katherine, spends a large part of her time each week baking long, narrow loaves which Gertrude finds very palatable.

Some day I'm going to take my camera out there and photograph that porpoise.

It's sure nice to have the horizontal spaces on the streets marked again. It seems to me that we have twice as much parking room when people park properly in those spaces, and it makes the town look much neater.

Garza and the World

Editor's Note—Opinions expressed here are those of the author, and they do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of the Post Dispatch. The column is carried in the interest of applying world news to the situation here at home.

By EVELYN BOYD

After writing my heart out the other week about Flag Day and what it meant to the families of our dead war heroes and what it should mean to all of us, I was amazed to observe that not a flag flew in Post on Flag Day, save the lonely symbol that the government makes 'em fly every day in front of the postoffice.

Maybe the people of this great country are tired of and bored with the freedom for which Old Glory is supposed to stand.

Reflecting on the situation in which the only flag that flew here on Flag Day was the one that the government requires, I am reminded of Dr. Franklin's final speech to the Federal Convention, which framed the constitution: "... there is no form of government but what may be a blessing, if well administered; and I believe farther, that this is likely to be well administered for a course of years, and can only end in despotism; as other forms have done before it, and when the people shall become so corrupted as to need despotic government, being incapable of any other."

Things aren't so bad here. The city of Post needs to go into debt only $600,000 to get a waterworks and sewer plant which eventually will pay for themselves. I see by the New York Times that New York City must immediately start a $200,000,000 program for construction of additional sewage treatment plants or "the danger of disease outbreaks will be so great that it will be necessary to prohibit all bathing."

That's liable to cost Dezzie and Dick some extra taxes, whereas if they lived in Post their sewer system could be improved by their voting non-taxable revenue bonds, come July 3.

Our wishy-washy Congress has done it again. By a large majority it accepted the European Recovery Program and immediately the stock of Democracy shot upward in the eyes of a Moscow threatened world. Then the same Congress turned right around and, also by a large majority, made ERP's success doubtful by a drastic cut in the funds to be made available.

This is what ruined the government's fine experiment with the United States Information program.

This is what ruined the Voice of America. The appropriations were cut so low there was no personnel to direct or censor the broadcasts and, finally, they went haywire. The money that was set aside for these programs, although too inadequate to insure their success, was a big waste of my tax money. I don't like it. This country needs an efficient business manager.

I was interested to read in some of the Sunday papers

the Tucker automobile company's full-page ad containing a letter to the automobile industry. According to the letter, the company's new automobile plant has suffered everything from sabotage to political skullduggery in Congress at the hands of some of the powerful, established automobile manufacturing companies who are reluctant to see a new type of car and a new manufacturer join the trade.

The Tucker Company, evidently having enough money behind it to buck the opposition, believes it is about to win its battle and will be out with a brand new type of automobile that has the motor in the rear and a lot of other new features in the near future.

I saw the three-wheel automobile get defeated before the war by the same type of political pressure. The people behind this bold venture didn't have enough money to buck the opposition.

The same fate has been suffered by many a hapless inventor in other lines. There is, for instance, such a thing as women's hosiery, sheer as glass, that is incapable of developing a run. But the established hosiery manufacturers have kept it off the market, because they can't afford for women to have durable—yet sheer—hosiery.

Our largest corporations watch the U.S. Patent Office and quickly try to buy up anything that looks like competition. If any of these things, like the runless hosiery, could cause a drop-off in the sales of fast-selling commodities they are pigeon-holed.

Had it not been for the war, which necessitated the development of many of these revolutionary items, we of the general public wouldn't be knowing about them until yet.

I dunno, maybe it's best that our resourcefulness is thus throttled. Had Hitler and Company known what all we had pigeon-holed, he would have stocked up with these tricks, too, and had a better chance to win the war.

With all this throttling, we are 50 years ahead of any other country in progress that makes for an ever improving standard of living.

The Yankee (20th) Division Association will meet in Providence, R. I. June 24 to 26, according to Fred A. Jones of Worcester, Mass., who is commander of its 65 chapters.

The U. S. Navy has developed a new steel cutting torch using electricity and an oxygen jet to operate. The new torch avoids the dangerous inherent in using the highly explosive acetylene torch.

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

SNYDER MARKS STREETS—Snyder's streets are being "diked up" with real "cited" street markers, thanks to the leadership of the Snyder Lions Club. The markers make one of the most forward steps the town has had for a long time.

Beautiful, deep-etched aluminum markers that will last for years, are being installed by regular city workmen along with their other chores, on streets that are most used and where most houses are located. Angle iron standards are being set in concrete to support the markers.

Like most of the newer markers in the big cities, Snyder's markers bear the number of the block as well as the name of the street or avenue. A perfect stranger to the town—if he knows his ABC's and can count—can find the streets and houses of town with little difficulty.—Scurry County Times.

CITY BEING SPRAYED—If you had an idea Tuesday or Wednesday that everything in town was on fire, you were mistaken. It was only a DDT for machine spraying the streets and alleys as a health safeguard.

A machine belonging to the city of Big Spring was borrowed for the purpose, the city authorities and the Mitchell county Infantile Paralysis committee paid the bill and the dose will be repeated at intervals during the season.

Mr. Fly and Brother Mosquito will have to have a new hiding place. This is just a part of an area wide effort to control infantile paralysis and to safeguard the health of the towns in West Texas.—Colorado Record.

LET US SPRAY—Science is doing a wonderful thing in its conquest of disease, and to stop the spread of disease. Take DDT and the fight on polio as an example. Everyone knows that flies breed in filth, and the only way to stop filth is to clean up and keep clean. But it is hard to convince all people, and as a result we continue having filth. Along comes DDT, which does a lot to wipe out the breeding places of flies. The full cooperation of all citizens will go a long way toward conquering the breeding places of filth, spreaders of disease.—Canyon News.

PIROOTTING AROUND—Old Bill Spivins says a lady friend of his told him that she recently decided it was time to have a frank talk with her daughter. "I did," the lady told Bill, "and believe me, I sure learned a lot from her."—Seminole Sentinel.

IT COULD HAPPEN HERE—Now is the time of year to be on the lookout for germ hibernating places, and it is the time of year that the polio germ makes with the spread act. It could happen here.

National, state and community health officials are pleading with citizens to make every possible effort to destroy all germ breeding places by the clean-up process.

Seagraves has been "overrun" with flies the past week. Now is the time to get busy at making preparations to destroy the flies by cleaning the town up.

Firemen are making ready to spray the alleys with DDT, but this alone is not enough. Much cleaning, burning and weeding is needed. Seagraves, generally speaking, is a clean town—and an active town—but we can do with some all-over "clean-up" measures. It is the responsibility of every citizen here to safeguard the town against lurking, dangerous disease germs. Let's start now!—Gaines County News.

On the basis of population, the three largest countries in the Americas are the U. S., Brazil, and Mexico.

WHY THE CITIZENS OF POST SHOULD VOTE FOR OWNERSHIP OF ITS WATERWORKS & SEWER SYSTEMS

At a COST PRICE OF $315,000 as compared to the present appraised value of $540,000, it may be seen that the City has an opportunity to purchase the systems at a price of slightly less than 60% of its present value. It has also been estimated by the consulting engineers that it would require $707,000.00 to replace these systems today.

Municipal ownership of utility systems is highly desirable as it affords the City an opportunity to adequately serve its citizens at no increased cost in taxes. The bond issue as set up covering purchase and extensions of these systems will pay for itself from earnings of the system in slightly over 20 years.

APPRAISED VALUATION AND COST WATERWORKS AND SEWER SYSTEMS

System	Depreciation	Replacement Value (New)	Net Appraised Valuation
Waterworks System	$166,000.00	$664,000.00	$497,000.00
Sewer System	37,000.00	43,000.00	43,000.00
TOTAL	$203,000.00	$707,000.00	$540,000.00

Cost of Systems	Value of System in Excess of Cost
Waterworks	$300,000.00
Sewer	15,000.00
TOTAL COSTS	$315,000.00

In other words, the combined cost of the Systems to the City is less than 60% of the Net Appraised Valuations.

BONDS

Authorized	Waterworks Revenue	Sewer Revenue	TOTAL AUTHORIZED
	$400,000.00	200,000.00	$600,000.00

Unissued	Waterworks Revenue	Sewer Revenue	TOTAL UNISSUED
	$ 75,000.00	75,000.00	$150,000.00

Issued	Waterworks Revenue	Sewer Revenue	TOTAL
	$325,000.00	125,000.00	$450,000.00

Bond Funds	Purchase Price	Improvements	TOTAL
Waterworks	$300,000.00	$ 25,000.00	$325,000.00
Sewer	15,000.00	110,000.00	125,000.00
TOTALS	$315,000.00	$135,000.00	$450,000.00

The citizens of Post are urged to make a careful study of this proposition as its acceptance will mean benefits to every person in the city.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Grasshoppers Like African Diet
Weeping lovegrass, an imported grass from the dry countries of Africa, seems to be "a la piece de resistance" to west Texas grasshoppers. Young seedling African weeping lovegrass plants from 1/2 to 6 inches high are being seriously damaged by grasshoppers.

It has been said "it seems the grasshoppers sit and wait for the grass to come up." To date the grasshoppers have done little damage to native pastures.

Grass Seedlings For 1949
Thirteen years experience by Soil Conservation Service technicians in helping district cooperators revegetate eroded land has shown that a dead stubble mulch seeded will give the best grass stands. Although a year's wait is required to establish the dead sorghum stubble mulch, many plantings in two of three years are better than those planted without a stubble cover.

Included among those district cooperators who are preparing a dead stubble cover for next spring grass planting is Tom Gilmore on Mrs. L. A. Barrow's ranch, J. C. Eubanks at Canyon Valley, Russell Wilks near Grass-burr, and Bruce Montgomery, near Clairmont. Wilks used a grain drill and planted a mixture of 5 pounds of Clay Cowpeas with 15 pounds of hegar per acre. The Cowpeas were inoculated.

To Plant In Middles
Bruce Montgomery, near Clairmont, has a stand of red top cane planted in 40-inch rows. After this is cultivated once or twice, he plans on planting another row of cane in the middle of these rows to get a sowed cover effect. If these cooperators harvest this cover crop, they will leave a stubble a foot or more high to cover the soil. When a grass planting is made in a dead stubble cover seeded, young grass seedlings are protected from hot drying winds, the soil does not blow and sift, and weed competition is eliminated.

Kills 400 Fish
When the final total of points is made by the District Supervisors at the end of the year, Tom Gilmore and Mrs. L. A. Barrow are going to be hard to beat for the outstanding Duck Creek Soil Conservation district cooperators. Whether they made their conservation plan it included every acre being treated according to its capability, and they are carrying this out even to their ponds. This week, with assistance of Soil Conservation Service technicians, Gilmore killed approximately 400 mud catfish out of their pond with poison. These fish ranged in size from 2 to 7 inches. They were typical of those found in improperly stocked ponds. Gilmore is having his order for bass and bream to restock this pond sent to the District Supervisors at Spur on Thursday, July 1, along with several other re-

It's Costing You Money

Even small leaks waste large amounts of water if allowed to continue 24 hours a day over a long period. For example, at 50 pounds average pressure—

- A dripping faucet wastes 450 gallons per month
- A 1/32-inch opening wastes 7,920 gallons per month
- A 1/16-inch opening wastes 28,300 gallons per month
- A 1/8-inch opening wastes 114,200 gallons per month

If you have a dripping faucet or other leak, have it repaired immediately. Do not allow a leak to continue indefinitely as it adds to your water bill every minute. Water is cheap, but not if it is wasted!

The Hundleys offered to furnish the gas, line, plane and pilot if the city would furnish other equipment and the DDT. The type of equipment needed was not readily available, the city secretary said.

An Associated Press report from Austin last week said the worst polio record in the state's history is plaguing Texas this season.

The State Health Department reported that the year's total incidence of the dreaded disease had mounted to 428. The figures were well over twice the 196 cases recorded in the comparable period of 1946, the previous high for a comparable period.
