Thursday Of Next Week Is Holiday

Except for school on Thursday morning, Armistice Day will be a holiday in Post and it is expected that most of the citizenship will spend the afternoon in Slaton watching the important conference game between the Post Antelopes and their local foe, the Slaton Tigers.

As Armistice Day has been designated a holiday by the Post Chamber of Commerce, most of the local stores, including most of the groceries and markets, will be closed all day. The court house, bank and post office, of course, will close also.

Classes will be held until noon in the local schools. The students will be free to attend the football game in the afternoon.

Booster Club To Have Movie This Evening At PHS

Charles McGuire and Barry Ford, who were chosen by the selecting committee of the Antelope Booster Club as the outstanding football players of the Post-Snyder game, were presented with gifts from Bryant-Link Company and Storie Motor Company at the Booster Club meeting last Thursday night in the high school building. Jerry Odom received honorable mention as a lineman. Homer McCrary was chairman of the selecting committee.

Alex Webb showed a movie of the 1947 football game between Texas Technological College and Denver University. The club president, Marshall Gibson, commented on the showing which the Antelopes made against Snyder and the juniors made against Seagraves, and called attention to the large number of Post fans who bought tickets to see Post beat Levelland.

Coaches V. F. Bingham and Vernon Ray spoke regarding the players, the general condition of the team and the prospects for the remainder of the season.

The Booster Club will meet again tonight, at 7:30 o'clock in the high school building. All football fans are urged to be present. A sports movie will be shown.

Webb, who arranged for the movie, said yesterday that it will be a sound film in which Clark Shaughnessy makes an interesting study of the T Formation, which is used by the Post Antelopes. He believes that every football fan will find the film worthwhile. There will be no admission charge, he said.

Most Unforgettable Character Is Kelly

Garza County folk will never quit missing one of its favorite oldtimers, the delightfully pleasant O. B. Kelly, new of Ontario, Calif. About a month ago his subscription was renewed by George Duckworth of Justiceburg who didn't want O. B. "to miss a single issue." This week, the subscription was renewed again by Mrs. Tom Sims of the Hartford Community, and the duplicate was not noticed until yesterday.

Dollar Day Gains Prestige In Post

A survey of the stores observing Dollar Day Monday indicated the stores are still offering excellent first Monday bargains, with excellent results. "Our first Monday business has increased each month since we started Dollar Day," one merchant said.

Boy Scout Drive To Open With Breakfast Tuesday

A kick-off breakfast for the annual Garza County drive to raise funds for another year of Boy Scout activities in the South Plains Council area will be given at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning, November 9, in the City Hall.

All persons interested in seeing the Boy Scout program carried on for another year are invited to attend. Reservations should be made by Monday with the Garza County Boy Scout Finance chairman, Sherrill Boyd, in the City Hall.

A total of $46,605 is needed for the 1949 budget of the South Plains Area, which directs the Boy Scout activities in Bailey, Borden, Briscoe, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Dickens, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Motley, Terry, Swisher, Yoakum Counties and the town of Turkey in Hall County.

The Boy Scout program is not subsidized by any municipal, state or federal aid. It is financed entirely by the adults in the communities where the Boy Scout troops are active.

Post, with two regular Boy Scout Troops, a negro troop, a Senior Air Scout Troop and three Cub Scout Dens, has an extremely active program for a town this size. Two of the above units were established here during the past year, justifying an increase in this year's quota.

Similar increases in Scouting activities were reported over the area, making it advisable to increase the total budget by more than $6,000.

Garza County's new quota was not known here by press time. The quota last year was $700.

Lawyers To Attend District Institute

A legal institute sponsored by the State Bar of Texas will be held in Lubbock, Friday, November 12, for attorneys of the 19th Congressional District, according to Truett Smith of Tahoka, State Bar director of this district.

One of a series planned by the State Bar in the ensuing nine months, the one-day institute will originate from the Lubbock Hotel and attendance is expected to be fully representative of the 25 counties comprising the 19th District.

First Draft Call To Hit Garza Lightly

It isn't likely that many Garza County 18-25-year-old men will be called in the November 30 army draft, J. E. Parker, county Selective Service chairman believes.

The November call will be for not more than nine or 10 men from the four counties comprising this district. Only two Mexicans have been called to Lubbock for physicals to date, as far as is known, Parker said.

Dog Poisoning Is Danger To Young Children Of Post

No substantial clues regarding the identity of the dog poisoners had been found by press time, Peace Justice Jim King told a Post Dispatch reporter yesterday.

If the poisoner or poisoners can be identified and found guilty they can be fined in King's court a minimum of $10 and a maximum of $200 for each dog killed. Thus a killer of as many as 25 dogs, if proven guilty, could be fined as much as $5,000. If it could be proved that the culprit poisoned 50 dogs, he could be fined a maximum of $10,000, etc.

Although it is not known exactly how many dogs were poisoned in Post about two weeks ago, Deputy Sheriff Bob Reno estimated that 100 dogs were killed by poisoning.

"If this practice of poisoning dogs were kept up," the deputy said, "some small children could lose their lives as a result. For this reason, we are doing everything possible to apprehend the culprits," he explained.

Some samples of the poison are now being analyzed, Reno said.

Manis Farm Barn Is Destroyed By Fire Early Today

A raging fire in the barn at the B. C. Manis farm, just below the Caprock on the old Lubbock highway, kept Post Volunteer firemen busy for several hours early this morning.

Of undetermined origin, the fire was out of control in the barn by the time the firemen answered the call, shortly after 1:30 a.m. The barn was completely destroyed, as were some feed, about 75 chickens and the castings on a tractor.

It was necessary for the white fire truck to make several trips to town for water with which to keep the blaze from spreading to the residence, hen house and a feed stack.

COLD WAVE COMING

A chill breeze is predicted for tonight, the Lubbock Avalanche reported this morning.

Four Cases Heard In District Court Here

District Judge Louis B. Reed of Lamesa granted two divorces and heard two other civil cases in district court here yesterday. There was one order of dismissal. He returned here this morning to hear one or two more civil cases.

Among the out-of-town attorneys here for yesterday's court were E. L. Klett and Doyle Justice of Lubbock.

Memorial Poppies Will Be Sold In Post On Saturday

The American Legion Auxiliary committee, in charge of the annual Poppy Sale here Saturday, is urging the public to honor the dead of two world wars by helping the living, disabled veterans, according to Mrs. Walter Duckworth, chairman.

Mason and Company will be headquarters for the sale.

The nationwide sale of Memorial Poppies was begun by the American Legion and Auxiliary in 1921. At first poppies made in France by French widows and orphans were used.

In 1921, the first poppies made by American veterans were produced in the hospitals in Minne-

Large Crowd Enjoys P-TA School Fete

The annual Halloween Carnival sponsored by the Post High-Elementary Parent-Teacher Association in the high school gymnasium Monday night was a "howling" success, "and I mean HOWLING," said the P-TA president, Mrs. Tom Bouchier Tuesday.

Although a complete accounting of the funds grossed was unavailable by press time, it had been determined that the largest crowd in the history of the carnival jammed the gymnasium, spent a record amount of money at the various concessions and made as much noise as possible while enjoying the excellent program.

The queen contest always a highlight of the carnival netted more than $100 for the High school, grade school and the P-TA. The portions kept by the schools will be used in various class projects, Mrs. Bouchier said.

The high school queen's contest was won by Jean Sartain, Seneca, who was escorted by Ronnie Bouchier during the coronation ceremony. The grade school contest was won by Marca Dean Holland, first grader, who was escorted by Don Richardson. Jean is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sartain. Ronnie is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bouchier. Marca Dean is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Holland and Don is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Floy Richardson.

The Senior candidate received three times as many votes as the runner-up in the high school contest. The Freshman candidate, Neida Floyd, received the second highest number of votes. In the grade school contest, the queen received 10,705 votes; the runner-up, Lois Josey, second grader, received 6,617 votes, and the third place winner, Frances Dietrich, third grader, received 6,501 votes.

Pennell Baby Is Buried Monday

A graveside service for Jim Bob Pennell, 21-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Pennell of the Canyon Valley Community, was conducted by the Rev. A. B. Cockrell in Terrace Cemetery at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. The baby died in the Mercy Hospital in Slaton that morning. Mason and Company was in charge of interment.

Survivors, besides the parents, include four brothers, Wade Wesley, Ira Shelton, Joe Pat and Kenneth Ho; a sister, Joy Nell, and the baby's grandparents, Mrs. Joe Swift of Lubbock, formerly of Post, and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Pennell.

Garza Votes Almost Like Other Areas

It is safe to say that people of Garza County and the nation—and perhaps the civilized world—were as bowled over by the results of the Presidential campaign as the Lubbock sports writers were when the Post Antelopes defeated Levelland. The dope bucket was completely turned over in the eyes of the majority of people, according to radio and news reports from over the world and from casual-to-heated conversations up and down Main Street.

Garza County voted somewhat like the nation. Complete unofficial returns from the nine Garza County precincts showed that the candidates received votes, as follows:

President—Truman, 862; Dewey, 176; Thurmond, 71; Watson, (Prohibition Party), 9, and Wallace, 2.

Vice president—Barkley, 858; Warren, 177; Wright, 69; Learn (Prohibition Party), 8; Taylor (Progressive Party), 2.

U. S. Senator—Johnson, 844; Porter, 227; Morris (Prohibition Party), 17.

Governor—Jester, 957; Lane, 56; Overholt (Prohibition Party), 5; Wright (Progressive Party), 2.

Lt. Governor—Shivers, 995; Cole, 95; Lowe (Prohibition Party), 6; Adams (Progressive Party), 2.

Attorney General—Daniel, 998; Bryant, 83; Compton (Prohibition Party), 6; Bogdanow (Progressive Party), 1.

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court—Hickman, 1030.

ROGER W. BABSON WRITES THIS WEEK:

Good Will Is Generated By 1948 Christmas Outlook

Babson Park, Mass.—Once again we approach the Christmas season with prices high although inventories are again in good supply. All stores have reduced their stocks of shoddy merchandise and we now find better materials in most lines. In some cases, better than pre-war goods are now available. Continued high prices will not stop the usual late Christmas shopping rush. So begin your purchases now and save yourself and your dollars.

Shopping Trends
Service and courtesy of employees has improved considerably, thus reflecting the slow trend from a sellers' to a buyers' market. Manufacturers are beginning to tempt the general public with luxury items such as television sets, deep freeze chests and electric blankets. In fact a real demand has been created for this type of merchandise by wide advertising. So fast are sales in television climbing that domination of the home entertainment field may be looked for within two years. These and like luxury items will be bought in part with income-tax rebates.

With this year's bumper crops and accompanying lower crop prices we might expect the volume of Christmas buying in farm areas to slide. Yet, the annual total of the farmers' income is nearly as good as last year.

trained this year. For business already knows, in the light of international dis-harmony, that it must do without unlimited quantities of steel and certain other raw materials. For we must never be caught dis-armed again. The stock market, however, should look more cheerful this coming Christmas than it did a year ago.

Effects Of Election
Although a Republican victory in November will undoubtedly brighten the outlook of business in general, it is unlikely to have much effect on Christmas shopping except among government employees. Christmas shopping in Washington will surely be less this coming December than it has been for many years. However, taken all in all, merchants may expect another bumper Christmas.

The expected business optimism following a Republican victory will be somewhat res-out the year. Fishing competitions, skilled demonstrations in outdoor sports, club activities are going on all the year to brighten peoples lives.

Helpful new drugs have been discovered this year and the uses of others improved. Deaths from pneumonia and some other diseases have been less in 1948. While the Russians were blockading Berlin all summer—the United States was showing famed old Masters from German Museums to United States art lovers. The admissions were collected to benefit unfortunate German children. And now I have been pleased to read that a prominent Japanese communist has admitted that his handsome new, double-breasted suit (a rare item in Japan) came from the United States from Soviet Russia. Let Us Remember The Christmas season New Year bring us but let us remember our domestic problems—problems concerning such issues as juvenile delinquency, public health, production and labor relations show our gratitude for gifts to the children of the world. Let us pray that fair dealing in international relations may add to the good will generated by the son here in the United States.

Research carried out in the United States indicates that the child may be born with a tendency to foot and toe disease.

It is estimated that we are going to have to rustle up at least 65,000 nurses—some way or how—to meet minimum needs of hospitals and keep people from dying. The American Medical Association will have to have 4,000,000 nurses during 1949, and after next year the appeal for graduate nurses is expected—well, the medical profession had rather not think what might happen if more girls do not enter nursing schools in the next few weeks. We happen to have 6,280 hospitals in the United States, out of which 90 per cent stand short of nurses today. Something like one-fifth of our hospitals have had to close down wards or wings because of the acute nurse shortages.

Only last year 300,000 hospital beds had to be left empty in Scurry County, Texas.

GETTING OUT On The LIMB

By EDDIE the EDITOR

THE WOMEN. God love 'em: In Lincoln, Nebr., a girl went to jail after wearing stolen jewelry to a policeman's ball.

In Chicago, Dolores McCrossie lost her dog and asked the police to find it. As an identifying mark she gave red nail polish on its toenails.

In Idaho Falls, Idaho, a housewife requested the sanitation department to do a little rummaging through the city's collection of refuse; she badly needed the three needles accidentally dropped in her garbage can.

In Savannah, Ga., a five-foot alligator clamped onto the arm of Mrs. Violet Mackey. She dragged the reptile into the house where she took a pistol and shot it.

In Los Angeles, Barbara Bod put a hand out of her car window to signal a left turn and attracted the attention of a gunman, who jumped onto the running board and relieved her of a $3,000 diamond ring.

In St. John, N. B., 5-year-old Richard Irvine fell off a pier and was rescued by his 65-year-old grandmother, who jumped in after him. Later, she explained: "I never thought what I was doing. I can't swim."

In Providence, R. I., a 17-year-old girl was arrested for stealing a car. She told police that she needed it to practice for her driver's test.

The above gems were gleaned from the news stories by the New York Times Magazine's alert Paul Stein-er.

Had you heard that: Bird lovers received with regret the Audubon Society's report that the ivory-billed woodpecker is extinct. Among other American birds which have died out in the last century are the great auk, the Labrador duck, the Carolina parakeet and the passenger pigeon.

Zachary Taylor was our only President who never cast a vote. A soldier for 40 years, he was never near his home town on election day.

A person weighs more at noon, when the sun is on the meridian, than at any other time during the day. He weighs least at the new moon, when the sun and moon are both on the meridian.

The American public lays over $1,000,000 a day on restaurant tables as waiters' tips.

A researcher has discovered that apples on a tree planted in nitrogen-enriched soil will grow larger, but will lose much of their pretty color.

We hear a lot about people's rights these days. All I know about 'em is that I seem to have fewer and fewer rights each year that I stay in business.

But I was interested in the following "Rights of a Citizen" which a fellow named Harold Heifer figured out for the New York Times Magazine:

- You don't get your share if you live in the United States and fail to:
- Be in a family that opens 500 cans a year.
- Have one to four colds a year.
- Take, if a male, about 100 strokes with your razor with each shave.
- Eat ten pounds of fish a year.
- Lose $4.01 as the result of a fire.
- Have a mortgage amounting to $3,286.
- Eat twenty pounds of ice cream a year.
- Borrow three books in a year.

Garza and the World

By EVELYN BOYD

Now that the election is over, it's time for all of us to settle down to the serious job of preserving our freedom. I, for one, am pleased with what now appears to be the election results and I think it is a major step toward the preservation of what freedom we have left and the regaining of some that we have lost during the past 15 or 16 years.

I was interested in the recollections of Mrs. Bruce Legg's fifth graders to the fine old poem, Independence Bell, which is in their reader. As you remember, the poem was written by an unknown author on July 8, 1776, when great crowds of people were assembled before the State House in Philadelphia awaiting the proclamation of the Declaration of Independence, which had been adopted on July Fourth. The poem, in event you don't remember, goes like this:

There was a tumult in the city,
In the quaint old Quaker town,
And the streets were thronged with people,
Passing restless up and down—
People gathering at the corners,
Where they whispered lip to ear,
While the sweat stood on their temples,
With the stress of hope and fear.
As the bleak Atlantic currents
Lash the wild Newfoundland shore,
So they beat about the Senate House,
So they surged against the door,
And the mingling of their voices
Swelled in harmony profound,
Till the quiet street of Chestnut
Was all turbulent with sound.
"Will they do it?"
"Dare they do it?"
"Who is speaking?"
"What's the news?"
"What of Adams?"
"What of Sherman?"
"Oh, God grant they won't refuse!"
"Make some way, there!"
"Let me nearer!"
"I am stifling!"
"Stifle then!"
When a nation's life's at hazard
We've no time to think of men!"
(verse omitted)
Far aloft in the high steeple
Sat the bellman, old and gray;
He was weary of the tyrant

And his iron-sceptered sway.
So he sat with one hand ready
On the clapper of the bell,
Till his eye should catch the signal,
The expected news to tell.
(verse omitted)
Quickly at the welcome signal
The old bellman lifts his hand;
Forth he sends the good news, making
Iron music through the land.
How they shouted! What rejoicing!
How the old bell shook the air,
Till the clang of freedom echoed
From the belltowers everywhere.
The old State House bell is silent,
Hushed is now its clamorous tongue,
But the spirit it awakened
Still is living, ever young,
And we'll ne'er forget the bellman
Who, that great day in July,
Hailed the birth of Independence,
Which, please God, shall never die.

Mrs. Legg had her pupils write what this poem meant to them, and she permitted me to read the papers. I observed that every child in the room had an interesting reaction, but the one I liked best was that written by Loreta Blodgett who said:
"It makes me think of long ago, when America had freedom."

Another girl named Loreta—Loreta Johnson—wrote what I considered the best interpretation. It follows:
"This bell of independence tells me lots of things about our world of long ago. The poem tells me there was noise in the town of Philadelphia which was then called the Old Quaker Town. People gathered about the Old State House and whispered lip to ear because there might have been a spy of the king.
"There was an old man ready to spread the news as soon as the men in the State House agreed. The bellman was old and gray and was weary of the tyrant which means the king. When he got the signal he would ring the bell. And then a little boy ran out of the State House door and went up in front of the bellman and said "Ring! He shouts "Ring, Grandpa! Ring! Oh, ring for Liberty." Then the old bellman raised his hand and the bell rang far and wide and the other bells took up the sounds, church and other bells rang to spread the news.
"The Independence Bell means freedom and Liberty for me."

Nice work, Loreta—both of you. May we keep the freedom that we have and gain back the freedom that the Liberty Bell reminds the Blodgett child of.

Dr. Karl F. Butler, president of the American Institute of Cooperation, recently touched on a vitally important yet little recognized phase of the meat animal industry.

"Nations with large livestock herds," he said, have an automatic cushion between the people and the harvests. They simply represent stored food on hoof." In other words, the grain, grass and other fodder the animals consume is turned into meat. It is ready to be used when needed. And, on top of that, the natural fertilization of the land which results from the raising of livestock is a vitally important element in maintaining and increasing the humus of our soils.

Countries which depend on their harvests to support the people are periodically plagued with famines. China and India are prime examples of this. These countries have no animal industry of consequence. They must live on their rice and their grain in the form in which it is produced. A series of poor crops may result in the death by star-

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

WHAT IS GOOD ADVERTISING?—We're vastly amused at some of our local merchants this week over the outcome of what they considered a very smart advertising deal that came off at the Crystal Theatre Monday and Tuesday nights. It was an alleged cross-section of life in Ralls, filmed in sound, and for the trifling sum of $25 each, some 50 of our penny-wise merchants (who wouldn't spend $2 for a legitimate ad in the Ralls Banner) got their profiles in the movies! They literally fell over their cash registers to spend that money for one of the most stupid, amateur jobs of swindling seen in these parts in a long time. A few of the merchants who fell for this deal are the one's who think 40 cents is too high a price to pay to get the name of their businesses read by 1,200 families in this trade territory. Yet they cheerfully spent $25 to get laughed out of a theatre by a capacity crowd of 500! Many will continue to keep their names out of the Banner because "it doesn't help my business" or "it's too expensive." Then some city slicker will come along selling ads on a church fan to be distributed to the missionary outposts in darkest Africa and they'll shoot a year's legitimate advertising budget on the belief that Harry Truman is going to have all the little black savages in Ralls anyway—and they might as well have their business! Too late some found that while the movie man exacted the regular fee of $25 from some, others got the same deal for $15! Hello, suckers.—Ralls Banner.

TRUMAN'S BY-PASS—While Truman is capable of blunders, as who isn't, the most serious one, in attempting to by-pass Secretary of State Marshall, seems to have worked to pretty good advantage for world peace. We have a stronger united nation because of the fact that Truman was forced to take definite stand on the United Nations. Perhaps his stand is only temporary, since no one seems to be able to successfully predict what Truman will do next.—The Canyon News.

Furthermore, a very substantial percentage of all livestock is raised on grass, forage and other foods which are not suited for human consumption. But, when converted into meat, they provide much of the nation's sustenance.

This country is fortunate in its progressive growing livestock industry—and in the thousands of packing plants which compete for the meat supply, and send it through the channels which bring it finally to the dinner table in the most edible form.

COMIC BOOKS—A philosophy professor from Rutgers university thinks that comic books are having more harmful effect on adults of the country than on children.

He says that the funny books tend to prepare a child for life, but it is the adults who receive "hypertension" from reading the books.

The only hypertension we have felt from reading the books to a youngster came from his request "Let's read it again" after we had struggled through the content's once.—Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

DOGS LOVE THE HOUSE—Folks who are supposed to know something about dogs say that most all dogs are healthier when they spend most of their time out of doors, they also claim that a dog is not in the best of health when it is fat.

This may be true but most dogs want to get in where it is warm and I am sure that if a dog could talk it would certainly put up a mighty good argument for being allowed to stay where there is a little warmth.

We have a pooch at our house and so far we have managed to keep him out in his little mansion in the back yard but he is about as hard to get out of the house as it is to get an elephant in the house. He is only a small pooch but he has the appetite of a lion and if I were as good a salesman on selling advertising as he is on selling my wife and me that he should have a part of every meal we serve then the Slatonite would be bigger than the Dallas News. If most of us would study the actions of our dogs we would learn a lot about how to get the things we want.—Slatonite.

CURRENT COMMENT—A pitiful shortage we face today that is acute is that of nurses, registered and practical nurses to care for the sick, halt and lame that quite often cannot obtain adequate treatment in dire emergencies.

Only last year 300,000 hospital beds had to be left empty in Scurry County, Texas.

J. N. Power Takes Dealership For Kaisers, Frazers

Having signed a contract for the Garza County dealership of Kaiser and Frazer automobiles, J. N. Power is this week announcing the formation of the J. N. Power Motor Company.

The automobile business will be housed in the White Auto Store building, which is to be remodeled to include a separate display room. It will in no way effect the operation of the home and auto supply business now carried on in the store, Power said.

A Kaiser or Frazer demonstrator is expected to arrive here this week. The new agent said in his advertisement this week that he is now ready to take orders for either car and can promise almost immediate delivery.

Pack Rat, Termites Extend Vacation For Couple In Colorado

Although an ill-fated pack rat caused Mr. and Mrs. John T. Herd to postpone coming home for a week, their Chipita Park, Colo., cabin is better off as a result of the big rodent's recent visit.

The Herds, who had planned to close their summer cabin and arrive home by November 1, spent several days trying to find the varmint whose nocturnal rabble-raising had disturbed their sleep for several nights.

Deciding that it wasn't a squirrel on the roof, they cut an entrance to the attic and investigated. There they found the rat and enough food and nest-building material to last all winter.

Then they observed something else: The termites—for several years previously—had been working away at the rafters, to the extent that it was unlikely that one of them would hold up through the winter.

The termite exterminators could not be engaged until this week, and so the Herds will not be home before Saturday or Sunday.

They thanked the pack rat, had a gun.

ACA Participants Eligible To Vote In Farm Election

Mike C. Custer, secretary of the Garza County ACA, has announced that the dates to vote on the Community Committees and Delegates to the County Convention Elections are December 11, at the Garza County ACA Office for "C" or the Breaks Community, and on December 14 for "A" and "B" or the Plains Communities. Boxes for "A" and "B" Communities will be in Graham and Southland.

These elections will have much to do with the progress made in farm production and soil conservation as well as price supports and marketing programs in 1949. At these elections, a community committee will be elected to aid in administering the Agricultural Conservation Program and in carrying on price support activities in the community. At this same election, delegates will be elected to attend a county convention for the purpose of electing a county committee.

These committeemen represent the farmers in their communities and the county in making recommendations on farm programs. The county committees are charged with the responsibility of administering farm programs having to do with soil and water conservation, production goals, price supports and other programs dealing directly with farmers.

Since all farmers are concerned with what they get for their crops and what crops to grow and how to keep the productivity of the land, all farmers should be interested in who administers farm programs having to do with the problems.

Every farmer and his wife who have participated in the 1948 Agricultural Conservation Program or the Sugar Program, who is eligible for a commodity loan or other price support, or who has a contract with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation is eligible to vote in the community elections.

The decisions which farmers make in the elections may have far-reaching effects on the future of agriculture, Custer believes. The effectiveness of this farmer administration may well determine the future of farm programs, he says, and what happens to farm programs may have much to do with the security and prosperity of the nation.

Gift Boxes To Be Sent To Children Of Foreign Lands

Packing of gift boxes for overseas to have begun in all Garza County schools yesterday, according to the county Junior Red Cross chairman, Mrs. Nola Brister.

The gift contributions are part of the annual Junior Red Cross campaign which will be in progress throughout the nation until November 15, Mrs. Brister said.

The American Junior Red Cross is the largest youth service group in the world. Its members, numbering 19,270,811, are enrolled through the nation's public, private and parochial schools.

Money earned and contributed by the boys and girls is used for toys, games and books for orphanages, hospitals, and institutions for blind or crippled children in this country.

Assistance for children of other lands comes from the National Children's Fund, which is maintained by the Junior Red Cross. Such assistance now takes the form of an educational rehabilitation program to meet basic school needs in war-devastated countries.

In addition, a quota of 1,000,000 of the gift boxes—such as those packed here—has been set for this year.

Mrs. Sherrill Boyd, publicity chairman for the Garza County American Red Cross Chapter, happened to be in Athens, Greece, when the 1945-46 shipment of gift boxes arrived for distribution to the many handicapped children by the American and Greek Red Cross units. She said she made a series of pictures of the distribution and will arrange a public display of them in one of the schools next week if she can find the negatives.

A sweetheart for a winter start!

Want to get off to a good start? Then let your Conoco Mileage Merchant steer you right... He'll tell you that when it comes to fast, smooth winter starts, a lot depends on having the right kind of oil in your engine. He'll tell you, too, the right oil is winter-grade Conoco N# Motor Oil. For two reasons:
First, because winter-grade N# is specially refined for cold-weather performance. It's lighter... freer-flowing. Saves wear on your battery... and on your nerves... because it gives you faster starts.

And second, N# oil extra-protects against "dry" friction starts... saves wear on engine parts... because it contains a special, added ingredient that actually OIL-PLATES metal surfaces. And this extra film of lubricant stays up... won't all drain down, even overnight!
So, if you want to start off right—and right off—on the next wintry morning...

Recent Fall Rains Benefit Ranch Lands And Farms With Soil Conservation Plans

Recent fall rains have been beneficial to pastures in and around Garza County. Blue grama, Buffalo grass, Tabosa, and sideoats grama are beginning to grow again after being dormant during the hot summer drought.

Some cool season annuals, such as wild rye (a brome grass) and filaree, have been observed growing during the past week. These annual plants growing in waste places and abandoned fields can be of some use if allowed to get a good start before being used.

This also will be an opportunity to rest or defer a pasture in which the grama grass has started to grow, insuring this pasture grass to have a more vigorous growth next spring, according to local Soil Conservation technicians.

Rex Welch, who has a half section of sandy land near Grass-burr with his brother, Ralph, has an interesting lovegrass planting.

About the middle of last summer Rex planted weeping lovegrass in the dry hot sand between feed rows as he was laying the feed by. The lovegrass seed lay dormant until recent rains and now it is up thick as hops.

Now the question is will the little plants make enough growth to stand the winter? African weeping lovegrass that lived through the summer is making a vigorous growth now. Generally it withstands early frost and grows until freezing weather.

The first vetch and rye cover crops for this part of the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District are doing fine. Both the vetch and rye came up soon after it was planted and is now making a good growth.

Farmers who go out on the Ralls Road can stop by Jim L. Williams farm, seven miles north, and see a vetch and wheat planting. Williams has about 10 acres planted on the north side of his farm between the last three terraces on the east side of the road.

Williams actually is remaking this farm. First he made a complete soil conservation plan on the farm. Last winter he put a new terrace system of 12 miles on it and now he is growing cover crops to maintain and improve the soil fertility.

It Isn't -- And It Is -- A Birthday For Post Dispatch

Volume XXIII, No. 1 on today's Post Dispatch masthead means that this newspaper has passed another milestone and entered its 23rd year of publication.

It is—and it isn't—the Post Dispatch's birthday.

The Post Dispatch actually was founded in June, 1925, and shortly thereafter it absorbed the Garza County News, which was established in November, 1925, by Sterling Williams, present representative from the 118th Congressional District.

In taking over the Garza County News circulation, it became necessary to change the masthead from the original Post Dispatch figures to conform with the number of issues which had been published by Williams, said E. A. Warren, Post Dispatch founder and present publisher.

During the past 22 years, this newspaper's circulation has risen from 300 to more than 1,700 readers. Today's circulation is based upon more than 1,400 bona fide subscriptions plus several hundred papers sold each week over the counters at the Post Dispatch, Warren's, Hamilton's and Collier's Drug Stores and the bus station.

Considering that the average Garza County home has two adults and at least two children and multiplying 1,700 by a conservative four persons, it is safe to assume that the Post Dispatch now goes to the majority of homes in the county—or a total of 6,800 or more persons.

Marines Accepting Enlistments Now

The United States Marine Corps, which will celebrate its 173rd Anniversary on November 10, is now accepting enlistments of 17 to 29-year-old men in Room 200 of the post office building in Lubbock, a recruiter told the Post Dispatch this week.

Abraham Lincoln was shot by John Wilkes Booth at Ford's Theatre in Washington, D. C.

Letters From The Readers

Dear Editor:
"I have no gripe or any 'crow to pick.' Rather the purpose of my writing is to express in a small way the appreciation of what the writer thinks is the best small paper on the South Plains. South Plains is used as little or nothing is known of papers in the other section but it, I am sure, is a safe presumption that papers as such are pretty much the reflection of the people who edit them.

"In our business we have on occasion to observe the policy, editorially and otherwise, of a large percentage of papers edited and read in this section. It is no secret that some papers are run very haphazardly, with an outside advertiser having to take a chance on the whim of that particular newspaper. Some of the largest weeklies are the worst offenders in this regard. Although reference to your books will show that we are not too good a customer as advertising is concerned, we do appreciate and feel that all our dealings have been the most pleasant. When we again need coverage in your area we certainly shall use your media in reaching our customers there.

"Each week as your paper comes to the house, usually on Saturday, it is read with interest. Yes, it is possible for one to be interested in the people and in a town in which he has not had intimate contacts and acquaintances. The manner in which your paper is carried on I think conveys or to me this one thing stands out; do for the pleasure of doing, be accommodating without expecting dollars and cents return. Yours is the only paper I have read in which there is a column, or equivalent, Up and Down Main Street. It gives the merchant a break, one we hope they appreciate. The manner in which your staff writers express themselves is theirs. If this be true and, we know it is, then all who read your paper will feel the same. To me it is something almost indescribable at least to one so limited in his use of the English language.

"Please understand that the writer is not a person who writes, habitually, to newspaper editors. On the contrary, this is the first such letter ever written; but one that has needed to be written for over a year.

"When it is the pleasure of the writer to be in Post next, he certainly shall take time to look up and down Main Street and into the Post Dispatch."

Very truly yours,
Arthur J. Foster, Plains Seed and Delinting Company, Lubbock, Texas.

Smart Dining Room Furniture Is Again Available In Post

In Post furniture stores—Mason and Company, Hudman Furniture Company and Lanotte Furniture—you will find a wider variety of dining room furniture than in several years.

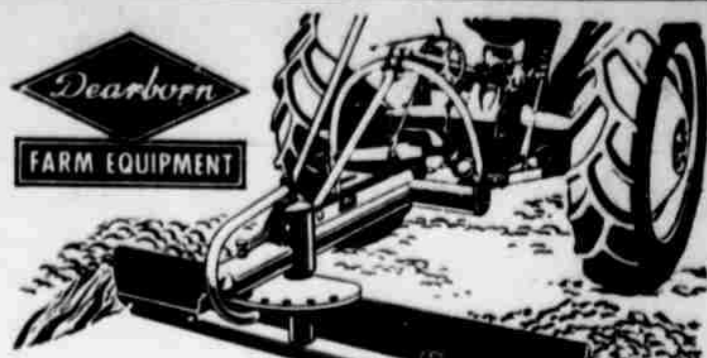

For those who prefer to eliminate the dining room as a separate room and combine it with the living room, making it one large living-dining room, there are a variety of new dining arrangements.

Of particular interest is the console type table which comes in both period and modern design. This type of table occupies only a small amount of space when placed against a wall or in front of a group of windows, yet may be opened up to seat eight to ten people.

The small dinette table fits perfectly into the end of a living-dining room and takes a minimum of space yet opens to a good size buffet table.

Sectional buffets offer unlimited uses. A group of sections may be lined against a wall to provide storage space for dishes, linens, glassware, etc., and at the same time blend with the living room arrangement.

Shop your local stores for fine furniture.

Post Antelopes Thoroughly Outplayed Levelland Lobos In Grid Tilt Friday Night

The speedy Post Antelopes, tagged some time ago as the greatest Post grid aggregation since 1928, had to battle hard last Friday night to eke out a 14-6 victory over the highly-touted Levelland Lobos.

In a game as thrilling as any ever played in this area, the Antelopes outplayed the Lobos all four periods, and continued their unbeaten, untied march through District 4-A grid ranks. The Post boys demonstrated to more than 500 Post fans who witnessed the game that they can "take it and dish it out" when necessary. While the tilt was a non-conference affair, the same two clubs are expected to meet again later in the season for the district crown. Both teams are leading in their respective ends of the loop. The Antelopes went out from in front in the second period and held on stubbornly to win. Their first counter came when Junior Malouf intercepted Don Taylor's pass and raced 54 yards. Jack Kirkpatrick booted the extra point to give the Antelopes the lead they never relinquished. The second counter came in the final period, after the Lobos had scored a touchdown but failed to make good the conversion, when Malouf paved the way with a 26-yard romp deep into Lobo territory. Ronnie Bouchier, after Malouf, Roy Teaff and Kay Kirkpatrick had moved the ball to Levelland's three-yard line, went over for the touchdown. Jack Kirkpatrick kicked the ex-

Post Antelopes Face Tough Foe Friday Evening In Lubbock Cowhand Game Here

Despite the Post Antelopes' past victories and in the face of increasing public opinion to the contrary, Post High's hard-hitting senior football team faces a crucial test of prowess in the game with the undefeated Lubbock Cowhands on the Post Antelope Field tomorrow night, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The Cowhands, comprising basically the same men who scrimmaged with Post before the season opened, defeated the Amarillo Yannigans 20-0 last Friday night. The Yannigans were regarded as one of the toughest teams in the Panhandle.

Previously this season, the Cowhands had defeated Seagraves 34-6 and Slaton 24-0. The Antelopes had defeated Seagraves by a score of only 24-0.

Adding to the fact that the Lubbock team is one of the toughest on this year's Antelope schedule, is the sad truth that an outstanding Antelope end, Jerry Odom, is out of the game for the remainder of the season. He received a broken ankle during last week's game with Levelland.

"We were short of ends to begin with," Coach V. F. Bingham told the Post Dispatch this week, "and we are trying desperately to manufacture a couple of ends this week." Another Antelope mainstay, Ronnie Bouchier, pulled a muscle in the back of his left leg several weeks ago but was greatly improved by press time. Roy Teaff, received hip and ankle injuries in practice yesterday.

Adding to these factors, in Coach Bingham's opinion, is the fact that the Cowhands — like many another team and sports writer in this area — are regarding the Antelopes as the top team of the district. Although this calculating is obviously premature, the coach believes it will inspire the Cowhands to play their best game of the season here tomorrow night.

A large crowd of Post and Lubbock fans, as well as fans from other small towns in this south half of the district, is expected to cram into the local stadium tomorrow night.

The tentative Post Antelope starting line-up was announced this week by Coaches Bingham and Vernon Ray as follows:

HD Demonstrators To Receive Visits On Meeting Days

The Garza County home demonstration program this month will be concerned chiefly with visits to the homes of demonstrators, Mrs. Jewell H. Strasner, agent, said this week.

Another feature will be the showing of recently restyled garments. The clubwomen are asked to bring their remodeled clothing projects to their respective club meeting this month.

Mrs. Strasner's 4-H girl schedule for November had not been completed by press time. Other activities, however, were scheduled as follows:

November 6, Bake Show, Garner Building, open to public.

November 10, Verbena Home Demonstration Club, tour homes of Mrs. J. W. McQuien, landscape demonstrator, and Mrs. S. F. Everett, bedroom demonstrator.

November 12, Pleasant Valley J. D. Club, home of Mrs. Verna Chase.

November 13, office, morning.

November 16, Justiceburg H. D. Club, visit home of Mrs. Sid Cross, landscape demonstrator.

November 17, annual all-day meeting of the Garza County Home Demonstration Council, courthouse, beginning at 10:30 o'clock; sack luncheon, election of officers, annual and T.H.D.A. reports, planning of Christmas entertainment; open to all H. D. members.

November 18, Post H. D. Club, visit demonstrators.

November 19, Close City H. D. Club, visit remodeled home of Mrs. L. H. Peel, new home of Mrs. Will Teaff, probably others.

November 20, district luncheon in Lubbock, to be attended by Mrs. Strasner, Mrs. George Evans, council chairman, Mrs. Sid Cross, T.H.D.A. chairman, Mrs. Wilburn Morris and an outstanding 4-H girl of Garza County; to show John Lott's colored movie of Garza County Fair, as this county's 1948 achievement exhibit.

November 23, Graham H. D. Club, visit Mrs. Deimer Cowdrey, landscape demonstrator; Mrs. Glenn Davis, kitchen improvement demonstrator, and probably others.

November 24, Barnum Springs H. D. Club, visit Mrs. W. A. Long, landscape demonstrator, probably others.

Homer Cravy, who is working for an oil company at Morton, spent the weekend here visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Cravy.

Mr. and Mrs. Punk Peel spent the weekend here visiting in the home of her parents, the Jack Taylors. On Sunday the Peels and Taylors attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. Taylor's parents, the F. O. Taylors, in Spur.

Walton McQuien was among those who attended the Lobo-Antelope game at Levelland Friday night, from this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lucas spent from Wednesday until Monday in Lampasas visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lucas and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Landers. They also visited in Cherokee and Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmo Gossett of Post visited in the Al Bird home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McQuien, Jr. of Amherst recently visited here. They have bought a home there, where he is associated with the Soil Conservation Office.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Puckett have moved from the Grassburr Community to Post.

Visitors in the home of Isabel Nichols Sunday were Charlie Thompson, Pete Acuff and small son, all of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nichols and family of Post.

Dale Reding, a nephew of V. B. Reding of this community, who has been a polio patient in an Amarillo hospital, has been released from the hospital and is recuperating nicely. An Amarillo Globe-News photographer made some pictures of Dale while he was in the hospital and he insisted that the spurs that his uncle, V. B., sent him have a prominent place in the picture.

Richard Bird of Lubbock is spending a lot of time here attending his farm land and getting ready to sow wheat.

Cotton harvesting was slowed up in this community this week by the 1/2 inch rain which fell Sunday night.

Because of ill health, Mr. McKinney, who has been driving the school bus here, has resigned. His wife has been teaching school. She also resigned as they are moving from the community. Mrs. Tom Ashley will teach school and Mr. Ashley will drive the bus. We regret losing the McKinneys but welcome the Ashleys to this community.

BITS OF NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pierce and daughter are moving to Petersburg. W. E. is already there and is working with an oil company. Mrs. Pierce and baby will join him as soon as living quarters can be found. At present they are with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Barnes.

Gregg and Bob Gossett, small sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gossett of Lubbock, spent the weekend here with their aunt, Mrs. Carl Webb, and Mr. Webb while their parents attended the Homecoming activities at Texas Tech. The Gossetts came for them Sunday afternoon.

Southland Eagles Upset By Three Way

The Southland Eagles, defeated only by the first place Pet-it six-man team, suffered their second loss of the season last Friday night on their grid when they tangled with the strong Three Way Eagles. The Southland team was rolled 25-21 in a District 6-B conference game.

The Southland team was leading 14-6 at the half and appeared on their way to another victory, but the Three Way crew came back in a wild third quarter to take the lead and keep it.

Stanley Stafford, Three Way star, and J. Basinger of the Southland Eagles, led the scoring with two touchdowns each, while Tankersley of Southland and Charles Smith and Bryant of Three Way each had a touchdown. Extra points were kicked by Anderson and Halliburton for Southland and by Bobby Newman for Three Way.

Basinger was the outstanding player for Southland, while Stafford, Smith and Newman, who threw three passes, were outstanding for the visitors.

Levelland scored their lone counter in the fourth quarter when Don Taylor passed 11 yards to Dean Walltrip after the Lobos had spearheaded a ground attack to scoring position in Antelope territory.

In commenting on the game, Coaches Bingham and Ray were in agreement on the selection of outstanding players—"all eighteen of them." "We sent in eighteen boys and they each were outstanding," the mentors asserted. "Had any of them not played 'heads up ball' we would have lost."

World's Costliest No. 1 Disease Is The Common Cold

The world's No. 1 disease is the common cold.

It still ranks near the top of the unsolved mysteries of the human body.

Colds cost Americans as much each year as was spent on the costliest and most historic engineering adventure ever known—the development of atomic energy and the A-bomb. The cold toll cost of the nation is $2 billion a year.

A 140 million Americans catch 500 million colds each year. On any single day you could pick out of this coming winter's calendar there will be 20 million Americans suffering from colds. Two out of three people have at least three colds a year. Two out of eight have four a year.

The three-day cold costs the average person $25 in treatments and loss of income. Labor strikes are the standard headache of management and production, yet colds cause five times the production losses caused by strikes.

Halloween Party Is Given For Leaders

The Leaders Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met last Thursday night in the home of Sybil Cockrum with Elizabeth Hart as co-hostess. Devotional was by Opal Curb and prayer was by Mrs. D. A. Bryant.

After the business session, over which Elvie Carpenter presided, the group enjoyed a Halloween party that had been planned by Ethel Butler, Mohito Allen and Vernie Moore.

Pumpkin pie, coffee and candy were served to 16 members. Mrs. W. L. Davis, teacher, and Mrs. Bryant, substitute teacher.

Louise Ferguson Is Halloween Honoree

Louise Ferguson was honored at a Halloween party last Thursday at the home of her parents. Sandwiches, gum, candy, potato chips, cookies and punch were served.

Guests included Lora Johnston, Lenora and Jerrell Stone, Joy Martin, Joyce Short, Jackie Sue Dale, James Dye, Jeanette Strickland, Danny Redman, Charles Shedd, Gerald Howard, Clara Faye Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Karl and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ferguson.

P-T-A To Meet Day Early Next Week

The Post High-Elementary Parent-Teacher Association will meet Wednesday, instead of Thursday, of next week because of the Armistice Holiday and the football game with Slaton.

The meeting will be held at 3:50 p.m., November 10, in the high school auditorium. Mrs. B. E. Young will be program leader and the principal talk will be made by the Rev. I. D. Walker, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church.

Tacky Party Given For Lions, Wives

Members of the Lions Club and their wives enjoyed a tacky party and dinner at the City Hall Tuesday night. The wives were in charge of the program.

Do You Know?

1. Of whom was it said that they shall inherit the earth?
2. When the twelve who were with Jesus were buying their supplies, who usually paid the bills?
3. How does the Land of Goshen figure in the story of Joseph and his brethren?
4. How many rounds of ammunition did David take with him when he went into his fight with Goliath?
5. How many did he use?

Answers may be found at the bottom of the column.

Minute Prayer:

May God of all truth and mercy dwell richly in our hearts. Amen.

Church News

By GANELL BABB

The Ladies' Class of the Church of Christ packed boxes of woolen clothing for Germany at their meeting at the church Tuesday afternoon.

Members of the Church of God on East Third Street are busy preparing for the annual West Texas Ministers Convention to be held here November 15-17. Among those appearing on the program will be two popular participants in last year's convention here, Miss Edna Rhodes, speaker, and Texie Johnson, singer, both of Cleveland, Tenn. The Rev. M. C. Rains is pastor of the local church.

The Rev. Cone Merritt pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Snyder, and a former Post pastor, preached at the Calvary Church here Sunday morning and evening.

The offering from the Building Fund Bank, which each member of the First Baptist Church has in his home, will be brought to the church Sunday morning. Each member is urged to bring his bank to this service.

Mrs. Madge Mathis Webb will present a memorial plaque to the Methodist Church Sunday morning, in memory of her son, Bryan Mathis, Jr., who died in World War II.

Sunday School will begin at 9:45 a.m. and the morning worship will begin at 10:55 o'clock Sunday morning at the Baptist Church. This change of time was voted recently to begin Sunday.

A District Conference of Methodist Churches was held at O'Donnell Tuesday. Bishop William C. Martin spoke at the morning worship hour. Post folk attending the conference were the Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Greenfield, Mrs. A. B. Cockrell, Mrs. B. E. Young, Mrs. John Lott and Mrs. J. E. Parker.

The Rev. D. A. Bryant and family went to Goldthwaite last Tuesday afternoon. The $100,000 church which was built during his pastorate there was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning.

An announcement was made by the Rev. A. B. Cockrell that a broadcast "These Are Your Children" is on Radio stations WBAP, KFYO and KGNC each Sunday afternoon from 4 until 4:30 o'clock. This program is under the direction of the children in the Methodist Home in Waco.

The W.S.C.S. met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. B. E. Young. Mrs. E. A. Moore and Mrs. Boone Evans were co-hostesses. Mrs. R. H. Collier was program leader on "Korea." She was assisted by Mrs. J. R. Durrett and Mrs. Noah Stone. The group contributed to buy a "Care" Package for overseas relief. The meeting was closed with a prayer. Eleven members attended the meeting.

The Rev. and Mrs. I. A. Smith of Big Spring visited in Post yesterday. He is a former pastor of the local Methodist Church. He reports that a new church is being built in Big Spring where he is pastor.

Answers to the Questions:

1. The meek (Matt 5:5)
2. Judas (John 13:29)
3. It was that part of Egypt allotted to the Israelites as a home. (Gen. 45:10)
4. Five (Sam. 17:40)
5. One.

NEEDLECRAFT CLUB

The Needlecraft Club will meet at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Ida Robinson.

Miss Gibson Weds Buford Finchum In Ceremony Saturday

Miss Ladean Gibson, daughter of Mrs. Mabel Gibson of Post and Frank Gibson of Mangum, Okla., became the bride of Buford Finchum, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hicks, Saturday morning.

The Rev. Mr. Berdine, pastor of a local Church of God, performed the single ring ceremony at 11:30 o'clock in his home here.

The bride wore an aqua blue suit with black accessories. Miss Faye Mitchell, maid of honor, also wore an aqua suit with black accessories. Billy J. Owens attended the bridegroom as best man.

After a wedding trip to Mangum, Okla., the couple will be at home here where the bridegroom is engaged in farming. Mr. and Mrs. Finchum attended Post High School.

Miss Betty Ingram Becomes Bride Of Mr. Pleasant Hill

Miss Betty Ingram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Ingram of Aspermont, became the bride of Pleasant Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hill of the Graham Community, Saturday evening.

The Rev. Mr. Welch, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, performed the single ring ceremony at 6 o'clock at the church. Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Surman Hill and Edsel Stewart.

The bride is a graduate of Aspermont High School and attended Draughon's Business College in Abilene.

The bridegroom attended Post High School. After a short wedding trip, the couple is at home here, where he is employed at Hudman Service Station.

Making Of Leather Gloves Demonstrated To HD Club Leaders

All Garza County home demonstration clubs, except the Post Club, were represented at the leather glove making training school at the court house Friday.

Those present included Mesdames Jack Burkett, Verna Chase and Faye Kuykendall of the new Pleasant Valley Club, Mrs. J. C. Fumagalli of Verbena, Mrs. Sid Cross of Justiceburg, Mrs. W. H. Barton of Barnum Springs and Mrs. L. H. Peel of Close City. Mrs. Wilburn Morris, who was unable to attend, took the instruction the preceding day. The above women are members of their respective teaching the glove-making to clubs.

Mrs. Barton and Mrs. Peel assisted the county home demonstration agent, Mrs. Jewell H. Strasser, in conducting the school.

Merrymakers Meet In Leggett Home

Mrs. Frankie Leggett was hostess to the Merrymakers Club Tuesday of last week. The afternoon was spent quilting. Refreshments of pumpkin pie with whipped cream, cocoa and coffee were served to Mesdames Connie and Posey Wheatley, guests; Mozelle Bartlett, Sadie Storie, Ella Dalby, Faye Martin, Alma Sims, Ida Wheatley, Ora Bratton, Lola Peel and the hostess.

Gossip About Garza Guys And Gals

If the Army doesn't get Percy Parscus first, a good-looking Muleshoe Miss, name of Margaret Aday, will about February 1.

Zora Ann Outlaw of Brownfield was here Saturday. Note to Paul Duren, Jr. of Brownfield: When you come home this weekend your folks won't tell you much about it—but they have a new Plymouth, which they bought Monday. (They are afraid you might try to trade them out of it!)

Kathryn Childress of A.C.C. was here over the weekend. Jerald Bowen was in Oklahoma City, Okla., Tuesday.

Billie Nichols of H.S.U. was home over the weekend and went to the Lobo-Antelope football game. She was accompanied to Abilene Sunday night by her mom, pop, little sis and aunt Henrietta.

Pic. N. B. Teaff who has been stationed in Cheyenne, Wyo., is home on a 15-day furlough. He will be stationed at Tampa, Fla., when he returns to camp.

Bonnie Ann Bowen of H.S.U. spent the weekend here. Bob Smith of Lubbock spent the weekend here visiting relatives.

Party Is Given By Jean And Zoe Sims

Jean and Zoe Sims entertained with a Halloween party Saturday night at their home in the Hartford Community. About 50 guests, mainly students of the Southland School, were present. Tinker Beauchamp of Post also was a guest.

Games were played and refreshments were served.

Two Honored With Birthday Luncheon

Mrs. O. F. Clary entertained Sunday with a birthday party for her son, Leon, on his 18th birthday and her nephew, Noel White, who was observing his 10th birthday.

A buffet style luncheon was served to Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Rosenbaum and daughter, Imogene, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Caywood, Marilyn Steel, Mrs. Paul Foster and children, Terrell Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. White and sons, Noel and Carter, Pete Maddox, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Maddox and Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Clary and son, Leon.

The following officers of the recently organized Pleasant Valley Home Demonstration Club were elected at a meeting October 27 in the home of Mrs. I. B. Robinson:

President, Verna Chase; vice president, Mrs. Gladys Hitt; secretary, Mrs. Faye Kuykendall; treasurer, Mrs. Maxine Burkett; program chairman, Mrs. Bettye Scott.

Eight members were present. Members attending the leather glove-making demonstration at the court house last Friday were Mrs. Verna Chase, Mrs. Jack Burkett and Mrs. Lewis Kuykendall.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"Husbands, Wives, and Marriage"

Maybe you read that survey published recently in a national magazine, entitled "Husbands, Wives, and Marriage."

It showed that among happily married couples, those who criticized themselves outnumbered those who criticized the other person. Among unhappily married couples, it was just the opposite—each one tended to criticize the other.

That's the way it is in our town, as I guess it is in yours. Criticism, whether it's of a wife's taste for hats, or a husband's taste for pipe tobacco and an evening glass of beer or ale, is a sure start towards unhappiness.

As for what made happy marriages, companionship within the home was listed most important of all. And from where I sit, a husband and wife who can spend an evening by the fire—with nothing more exciting than a mellow glass of beer, and a friendly conversation—are a truly well-matched couple!

J. W. Stotts To Sit By Fire And Figure Irrigation Problem

J. W. Stotts, district Soil Conservation cooperater near Pleasant Valley, is making use of irrigation information made available to him through the Duck Creek District. He has leased the J. R. Woods farm and called at the Soil Conservation Service Work Unit Office in Post to check the irrigation map that had been made for Woods. As soon as copies can be made of the map, Stotts will receive one for the Woods' farm and one for his home farm.

Stotts said last year he would try to run water to a certain point and it would go so far and then back up and break over the ditch. He kept cutting and trying until he got water where he wanted it. This winter he can take the contour maps of his fields and sit down near a warm stove in the house and plan out his irrigation system.

Farmers who think they will need help next crop season with conservation irrigation should make application for assistance in soil conservation work to the District Board of Supervisors, local technicians advise.

Farmers Urged To Prepare For Drop In Cotton Prices

Garza County cotton farmers are eyeing the world cotton situation with concern as the possibility of over production may tend to lower prices of the commodity.

World production of cotton this year will equal if not exceed consumption, Dr. A. B. Cox, University of Texas professor of cotton marketing, reported this week in a release to the Post Dispatch.

This should be a signal to cotton growers to readjust their farming operations to a relatively lower price level for cotton. Fortunately for the United States, most of the increase in supply is a result of a record yield per acre which has generally served to lower cost of production.

Dispatch Circulation Department Is Kept Busy These Days

The Post Dispatch's Circulation Department had a rush week from Monday through Saturday of last week as many readers of the Post Dispatch and dailies came in and renewed their subscriptions at bargain rates.

It was noted at the close of the week's business that more than fifty local residents had subscribed or renewed their old subscriptions to the Dispatch, and that twenty-two persons had taken advantage of the bargain rates offered by the daily papers.

The special rates offered by the Star-Telegram, Abilene Reporter-News and Lubbock Avalanche-Journal will likely remain in effect until the first of January, but there is always a possibility that the rates may be withdrawn without notice, as there still remains a shortage of newsprint. Subscribers to any of the three publications should renew their subscriptions through the Post Dispatch as early as convenient to be assured of the savings offered during the bargain days. The Post Dispatch will be offered as bargain rates as long as the daily papers continue their rates.

During bargain rate days, new subscriptions and renewals to the Post Dispatch are offered at a fifty-cent savings to readers. The rate in Garza County is $2.00, and the rate on subscriptions to be mailed out of the County is $2.50. Regular rates are $2.50 and $3.00.

For a limited period, and for the first time in many years, the Star Telegram is taking new subscriptions. During the war years and since, no new names were added to the Star Telegram's circulation lists, and it was necessary for a regular subscriber to supply the "pink label" which carried the name, address and date of expiration. Renewals and new subscribers can now be accepted, during the annual bargain day rates, for $12.95 for the daily and Sunday; $12.00 for daily without Sunday. Regular rate is $18.00.

The Bargain rate on the Abilene Reporter-News, daily and Sunday, is $9.95, affording subscribers a saving of $6.05. The regular rate is $15.00 per year.

The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, daily and Sunday, is $9.00 per year, while the daily rate without Sunday is $8.00.

Garza County subscribers to the Post Dispatch may mail in their renewal checks to the Post Dispatch, or drop by the office and renew, or may give their subscriptions to the Post Dispatch correspondent of their community.

Post Men Attending Brownfield School On Water Operation

In order to qualify for the certificates required by Texas law for waterworks operators, two city water department employees, Roy Maddox and Charles Woods, are attending a two weeks night school at the City Hall in Brownwood.

The school, which offers a 20-hour course sponsored by the Extension Service of Texas A. and M. College, opened Monday night. Classes are being taught by A. and M. Instructor W. A. Bandy, assisted by E. D. Jones, general superintendent of the Brownfield waterworks.

Waterworks employees are attending from Lamesa, Anton, Levelland, Whiteface, Sundown, Morton, Plains, Denver City, Seagraves, Tahoka and Post. They will qualify for A, B or C certificates, depending upon their present ratings. The two Post men will try to qualify for C certificates.

The Post water superintendent, R. H. Tate, who holds the A certificate, which is the highest rating, also is attending the course.

Bandy pointed out Monday night that the legislature passed the law requiring certificates 14 years ago because of the dangers of water contamination between the source of supply and the consumer. As the water operator's knowledge of waterworks sanitation is essential to the health of all the people in his area, the Texas Legislature deemed that a license is as necessary for him as it is for a food handler, barber or physician.

shows an increase in balance September 1 this year over last year of 3,800,000 bales. During the past 15 years the cotton balance September 1 has exceeded the present balance of 17,400,000 bales 11 times.

The present supply of American cotton is not burdensome provided proper merchandising policies are followed.

Bill McMillan's 'African Adventure' To Be Seen Here

Spectacular, in brilliant colors found only in the jungle, the McMillan film, "African Adventure," will be screened at Post High School auditorium Friday and Saturday, Nov. 12 and 13 at 7:30 p.m. The picture is being brought to Post under the auspices of the local Lions Club with funds derived from ticket sales to be used by the Club in its community betterment program, announced Jess Wright, Jr., vice-president of the Club.

Children will gasp when they see topi fighting each other and trying to get a throat-hold with their long sharp horns; when they see swarms of African vultures swooping down; the hippopotamus or river-horse closing its port-holes and preparing to submerge; charging lions and cape buffalo; the cavorting baboons, the prowling leopards, majestic elephants wearing up to 200 pounds each of costume jewelry (done in ivory).

Daddy will watch with interest the technique of pitching 14 different camps in most unlikely places, and the skill of natives in casting spears, and the impressive parade of 100,000 migrating animals hustling pell-mell across the plains; nor will he miss a moment of the stalking and capturing of game.

Mother will admire the beauty of green forests, yellow sands, foaming waterfalls along the rivers, and gorgeous tropical flowers cultivated on the 75,000-acre Cole ranch, in the heart of British East Africa. She will like the bright feathers of birds which young native boys collect for adornment. She may tremble at some of the brutal behavior of the wildest beasts on earth. But she will adore the maternal lioness which acted as baby-sitter to 15 cubs while five other lioness mothers went shopping for food at the local A & P—only, they trotted off in the opposite direction from the A & P.

Is there a derelict in the house? He will look twice when out comes the gigantic nerve in the (dead) elephant's tusk. What a colossal toothache a big elephant might have. Oh, my! Oh, my!

It's all in color—it's real, it's startling, it's thrilling, it's the film that put the edge in "education."

Lack Of Proper Refrigeration Is Cause Of Disease

From statistics compiled by the State Health Department, Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer has disclosed that a lack of proper refrigeration contributes materially to the total disease outbreaks for one year, caused from foods other than milk and milk products.

During the year, there were 299 outbreaks of disease from contaminated foods, incapacitating 12,526 persons, 17 of whom died.

"The food poisoning was usually caused from contamination through insanitary conditions, infections of food handlers, or of even more significance, lack of early and adequate refrigeration," Dr. Cox said. "Even when contaminated, foods will seldom develop toxins sufficient to cause poisoning if properly refrigerated promptly after preparation. Outbreaks caused from foods have totaled nearly six times the number caused from water or milk."

The State Health Officer pointed out that the consuming public is, in many areas, protected by proper enforcement of sanitation standards for eating establishments such as are set up in the United States Public Health Service Milk Ordinance and Code. The public is entitled to a good, clean, safe and wholesome food supply, including milk which has been produced under strict sanitary conditions and properly refrigerated. This is a great protection against disease outbreaks caused by contaminated foods of various kinds, and Dr. Cox said this was especially obvious in view of the fact that no disease outbreak has as yet been traced to pasteurized grade A milk, which had been adequately refrigerated.

Many farm animals which appear to be well-fed are actually victims of "hidden starvation," due to the absence of essential vitamins and minerals in their feed.

CARD OF THANKS

Officers and members of the Post High Elementary Parent-Teacher Association wish to express their deep appreciation for the unanimous support which the people of Post gave to the Halloween Carnival Monday night, and during the preceding weeks of preparation.

We are particularly grateful to the merchants who generously gave their time and their money to the cause, the teachers who carried the big responsibility of the entertainment, and to the parents who devoted many hours to helping with the carnival and gave added financial support.

All of the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the children, who join us in saying "THANK YOU."

GULF TIRE FOR REAR TRACTOR WHEELS

THIS QUALITY GULF TIRE has special, high-cleated tread that penetrates into soil or through sod—gives better traction—more pull at the draw-bar.

Tread is open and flexible—springs the dirt free. Notice how tread cleats overlap, so that no cleat releases grip until the next has taken hold. Cleats are guaranteed not to pull off. Tire shoulders built extra high and rugged for full traction, less side-slippage. Open center tread, for cushioned ride even on hard-packed soil.

GULF FRONT TRACTOR TIRE

Combines positive steering control, minimum rolling resistance, maximum flotation. Raised center rib lets you make sharp turns without ridging the soil. Double side ribs resist slippage, grip furrow walls. Wide tread resists soil packing. Extra-strong carcass.

GULF IMPLEMENT TIRES

Wide, flat tread ends damaging vibration. Extra-thick tread, broad and flat, so you can do fast highway-hauling without sidesway or vibration. Resilient construction and tough carcass. Free-rolling design helps make full use of the power available, helps save on fuel costs.

All These Wrong Numbers Caused By Added Service

If you think you are having a difficult time with your telephone, think of the operators.

It seems to them that practically every telephone number in Post has been changed since the installation of the new switchboard which made it possible for the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company to comply with all the requests for straight lines.

During the war a number of people who had always had straight lines took party listings because of the telephone shortage. Now they want their straight lines back and are getting them, as are numerous new subscribers.

The changeover process will not be completed before January 1, but it is believed that the majority of the installations will be accomplished within a month, said Mrs. Fritz Greenfield, local supervisor.

The local telephone book, which was issued in July, is now obsolete and it is not yet known how soon a new one can be issued.

Meanwhile, the public will have a few headaches caused by wrong numbers and the operators will be busier than one-armed paperhangers.

Visiting in the Clyde Redman home over the weekend was a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Cook of Levelland.

Two irrigation wells are being drilled in this community, one on the L. W. Dalby farm and the other on the Chester Morris farm.

Close City folk attending the Lobo-Antelope game at Levelland Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Childs, Mrs. Pearl Davidson and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maddox, N. B. Teaff and Melvin Cearley.

NO MISCHIEF REPORTED

As compared to some past years, the Halloween pranksters were more angelic than devilish this season. Although the usual window soaping was evident and some yard ornaments were uprooted in various parts of the town, there apparently was no serious damage done. At least no charges were filed, Peace Justice Jim King said yesterday.

New P.H.S. Paper Is Circulated Here This Week

The first edition of "The Whirlwind," first newspaper published by the Seniors of Post High School in a number of years, was circulated here Monday—at 10 cents a copy.

The first page of the four-page publication, featured coverage of the Post-Levelland victory, pictures and biographical sketches of the five P.H.S. Hall-oween Queen nominees, and a gossip column entitled "Whirlwind Debris." A sample from the column: "Mrs. Ray N. Smith came to school Monday with a broken toe. We wonder how Ray looked."

Page 2 carried the masthead; a well-written editorial by Shirley Schmidt urging the students to try for better grades in order to qualify for better jobs after finishing school; a column of local jokes, entitled "Cuts At the Crowd," and a brief column called "Attractive Couples."

The third page was devoted to news and society articles and miscellaneous features entitled "What If?" and "From A to Z With the Sophomores." The last page was devoted largely to Sports.

The high school newspaper published in previous years has always been called "The Adax," meaning a female Antelope.

"The Whirlwind" probably will be published every other week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Sullinger and children visited relatives in Dermott Sunday.

Mrs. Hern Pettigrew and daughters of Slaton visited Mrs. Etta Clarkston over the weekend.

BITS OF NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vardiman spent several days last week in Abilene while Mrs. Vardiman was a patient in the Hendricks Memorial Hospital.

Kilmer Corbin, senator of this district, was a business visitor in Post last Thursday.

Mrs. James Hill and little daughter, Linda Gayle, spent Friday in Slaton at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Garland, visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. McIver, and her niece, Mrs. Buddy Rambo, and Mr. Rambo of Honey Grove. The Rambos went on Saturday to Lubbock where they attended Homecoming activities at the college. The Hill's also spent Sunday in Slaton visiting with her parents and other members of the Garland family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Batchler, whose hobby is growing flowers during any and all local growing seasons, sent the Post Dispatch a large bouquet of chrysanthemums and other fall blossoms this week. The chrysanthemums, all of which were a golden yellow, were cream-colored last year. For some reason, it was necessary to transplant them to a different part of the yard, Batchler explained, and the result was a radical change in the color of this year's blossoms.

Mrs. Maggie Ivy of Plainview, who has been visiting her sisters here, returned to her home last week.

Babson Takes Own Advice -- Moves To War-Safe Retreat

Scientist-Statistician Roger W. Babson, Post Dispatch Columnist, has followed his own repeatedly-offered advice and moved to a bomb-proof retreat, according to a recent United Press dispatch.

Convinced that World War III with at least one atom bomb labeled "Boston" is just over the horizon, Babson penciled on a map a 60-mile area from his downtown Boston, Mass., headquarters and began to scout the area.

New Boston, N. H., according to the United Press, fitted his requirements. It is 60 miles from Boston and it is small but within 15 miles of a good-sized unlikely target city, Manchester, N. H.

The columnist, a widely known business consultant who predicted the 1929 crash, bought a farm and several buildings for his new laboratory which will explore the mysteries of gravity.

The farm was chosen with great care, Babson. It was resected, specified it should have enough buildings to house them, be within walking distance of schools, stores and a postoffice, and have an independent water supply.

Tractors, cultivators and other modern farm equipment were purchased and stored for use when the emergency demands it. In the meantime, the 200 acres will be kept in grassland.

Babson will set up a research laboratory to study effect of gravity upon man's brain and general feeling. He wants to find out how much gravity he has to do with man's judgment and attitude from day to day, and from hour to hour during each day.

In 1946, Babson established Utopia College in Eureka, Kans., where he planned innocent looking buildings to disguise underground classrooms and officers.

Readers of the Post Dispatch editorial page, will recall that Babson repeatedly has recommended decentralization of industry and recommended the moving of essential businesses and research projects to remote places that will not be targets for war.

All These Wrong Numbers Caused By Added Service

If you think you are having a difficult time with your telephone, think of the operators.

It seems to them that practically every telephone number in Post has been changed since the installation of the new switchboard which made it possible for the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company to comply with all the requests for straight lines.

During the war a number of people who had always had straight lines took party listings because of the telephone shortage. Now they want their straight lines back and are getting them, as are numerous new subscribers.

The changeover process will not be completed before January 1, but it is believed that the majority of the installations will be accomplished within a month, said Mrs. Fritz Greenfield, local supervisor.

The local telephone book, which was issued in July, is now obsolete and it is not yet known how soon a new one can be issued.

Meanwhile, the public will have a few headaches caused by wrong numbers and the operators will be busier than one-armed paperhangers.

Mrs. Will Teaff entertained the young people's Sunday School class of the Baptist church with a Halloween party one night last week. Twenty-five were present.

The people of this community enjoyed a halloween carnival at the school Thursday night. A large crowd attended and enjoyed bingo, cake walks and various other entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Mason visited a daughter and family, the W. C. Maceys, at Earth Thursday.

Visiting in the Clyde Redman home over the weekend was a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Cook, of Levelland.

Two irrigation wells are being drilled in this community, one on the L. W. Dalby farm and the other on the Chester Morris farm.

Close City folk attending the Lobo-Antelope game at Levelland Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Childs, Mrs. Pearl Davidson and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maddox, N. B. Teaff and Melvin Cearley.

NO MISCHIEF REPORTED

As compared to some past years, the Halloween pranksters were more angelic than devilish this season. Although the usual window soaping was evident and some yard ornaments were uprooted in various parts of the town, there apparently was no serious damage done. At least no charges were filed, Peace Justice Jim King said yesterday.

Happy Birthday:

November 4, Dale Cravy, Carol Ann Edwards, Alton Willis and W. F. Cato.

November 5, L. J. Richardson, Jr., Karnan McGehee of the Pleasant Valley Community and Kenneth Falls.

November 6, Mrs. K. C. Dickson of the Pleasant Valley Community and Kenneth Falls.

November 9, Vernon Lusk.

November 10, Ricky Clary, Norman Cash of Justiceburg and C. A. Batchler.

New P.H.S. Paper Is Circulated Here This Week

The first edition of "The Whirlwind," first newspaper published by the Seniors of Post High School in a number of years, was circulated here Monday—at 10 cents a copy.

The first page of the four-page publication, featured coverage of the Post-Levelland victory, pictures and biographical sketches of the five P.H.S. Hall-Queen nominees, and a gossip column entitled "Whirlwind Debris." A sample from the column: "Mrs. Ray N. Smith came to school Monday with a broken toe. We wonder how Ray looked."

Page 2 carried the masthead; a well-written editorial by Shirley Schmidt urging the students to try for better grades in order to qualify for better jobs after finishing school; a column of local jokes, entitled "Cuts At the Crowd," and a brief column called "Attractive Couples."

The third page was devoted to news and society articles and miscellaneous features entitled "What If?" and "From A to Z With the Sophomores." The last page was devoted largely to Sports.

The high school newspaper published in previous years has always been called "The Addax," meaning a female Antelope.

"The Whirlwind" probably will be published every other week.

Weeks this week: American Art Week ends Sunday; November 7-13 is American Education Week and also American Optimist Week.

Mrs. Hern Pettigrew and daughters of Slaton visited Mrs. Etta Clarkston over the weekend.

Babson Takes Own Advice -- Moves To War-Safe Retreat

Scientist-Statistician Roger W. Babson, Post Dispatch Columnist, has followed his own repeatedly-offered advice and moved to a bomb-proof retreat, according to a recent United Press dispatch.

Convinced that World War III with at least one atom bomb labeled "Boston" is just over the horizon, Babson penciled on a map a 60-mile area from his downtown Boston, Mass., headquarters and began to scout the area.

New Boston, N. H., according to the United Press, fitted his requirements. It is 60 miles from Boston and it is small but within 15 miles of a good-sized unlikely target city, Manchester, N. H.

The columnist, a widely known business consultant who predicted the 1929 crash, bought a farm and several buildings for his new laboratory which will explore the mysteries of gravity.

The farm was chosen with great care, Babson, it was reported, specified it should have enough buildings to house them be within walking distance of schools, stores and a postoffice, and have an independent water supply.

Tractors, cultivators and other modern farm equipment were purchased and stored for use when the emergency demands it. In the meantime, the 200 acres will be kept in grassland.

Babson will set up a research laboratory to study effect of gravity upon man's brain and general feeling. He wants to find out how much gravity he has to do with man's judgment and attitude from day to day, and from hour to hour during each day.

In 1946, Babson established Utopia College in Eureka, Kans., where he planned innocent looking buildings to disguise underground classrooms and officers.

Readers of the Post Dispatch editorial page, will recall that Babson repeatedly has recommended decentralization of industry and recommended the moving of essential businesses and research projects to remote places that will not be targets for war.

BITS OF NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vardiman spent several days last week in Abilene while Mrs. Vardiman was a patient in the Hendricks Memorial Hospital.

Kilmer Corbin, senator of this district, was a business visitor in Post last Thursday.

Mrs. James Hill and little daughter, Linda Gayle, spent Friday in Slaton at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Garland, visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. McIver, and her niece, Mrs. Buddy Rambo, and Mr. Rambo of Honey Grove. The Rambos went on Saturday to Lubbock where they attended Homecoming activities at the college. The Hill's also spent Sunday in Slaton visiting with her parents and other members of the Garland family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Batchler, whose hobby is growing flowers during any and all local growing seasons, sent the Post Dispatch a large bouquet of chrysanthemums and other fall blossoms this week. The chrysanthemums, all of which were a golden yellow, were cream-colored last year. For some reason, it was necessary to transplant them to a different part of the yard, Batchler explained, and the result was a radical change in the color of this year's blossoms.

Mrs. Maggie Ivy of Plainview, who has been visiting her sisters here, returned to her home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dowe Mayfield and children attended funeral services in Sweetwater Tuesday morning for Grant Mason, a close friend with whom Mayfield had been associated in the International Harvester Company for 20 years. He died of a heart attack Sunday morning in Odessa.

Several grandmothers in town enjoyed Tech Homecoming to the Nth degree. While their sons and their wives took in the Homecoming festivities at the college in Lubbock, the grandparents, Mrs. Irene Rodgers, D. C. Williams and J. A. Stallings, to name a few, kept the grandchildren.

Susan Rodgers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rodgers of Midland, Lynn Ellen Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Williams of Borger, and Jimmy Stallings, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stallings of Lubbock, were the grandchildren who visited here from out-of-town. Two other grandchildren who had a big time at grandma's during the weekend were Bryan and Lee Williams, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan J. Williams.

Mrs. W. V. Roy is a patient in the Lubbock Memorial Hospital. She is recovering from pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tracy were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lane, former Post residents, at their home in Lubbock during the Texas Technological College Homecoming last weekend. The Lanes visited here Tuesday.

MEMORIAL POPPIES—

In 1924 it was seen that the poppy program lent itself more naturally to the work of women than of men and the American Legion gave the Auxiliary complete charge of the national program. How well the Auxiliary measured up to the responsibility is shown by the development of the poppy program. Each year approximately 25,000,000 Americans wear the American Legion and Auxiliary poppies, contributing well over two million dollars for the welfare of the war's living victims.
ed 262,218 in this county, it carried in the state, as did the other seven propositions. The vote on the amendments was light, averaging about 500 votes per proposed amendment.
