Ex-Servicemen Plan Registrants' Help

As a mutual benefit to themselves and to the registrants under the new Selective Service Law, ex-Servicemen of Garza County will help the registrants fill out their questionnaires from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. each Friday and Saturday in the Commissioners Court Room at the court house. The questionnaires seem to require assistance, and the ex-servicemen believe it is easier to organize the assistance two days a week at the court house than to try to help the registrants at the ex-servicemen's respective places of business.

Water Office Is Busy As Bees These Days

The Community Public Service office this week has been a beehive of activity, as the majority of the water customers have responded to the general invitation to settle their water bills, receive their deposits and accrued interest and make deposits with the City of Post which recently bought the waterworks. The city water engineer, R. H. Tate, is asking all people who have not signed the new water contract to do so as early as possible so that the Community Public Service officials can clear their books in the near future. The city's water rates, effective from the September reading to the March reading, are announced in an advertisement elsewhere in this issue. It will be noticed that the minimum is based on four thousand gallons, rather than 1,000 gallons. This news is being received with

Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo Is Success

With a profit of approximately $200, the first Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo Saturday afternoon and evening was declared a success this week by the sponsoring organizations, the Post Stampede and Rodeo Association and the Post Chamber of Commerce. Proceeds from the rodeo will go into the building fund of the Garza County 4-H boys and girls, swelling their total funds to something in excess of $500, according to Alvin Davis, 4-H boy who originated and managed the rodeo. More than $1100 was grossed in gate and concession receipts. The cost of producing the rodeo was between $800 and $900 plus tax. It was estimated this week. A complete accounting of bills had not been made by press time. Total attendance at both performances was estimated at between 3,000 and 4,000 people from various parts of Texas. At times, on Saturday, the entire bunch of spectators and visiting performers seemed to be shopping in downtown Post. Several merchants told Post Dispatch representatives it was the best day for business in many months. Show Was Excellent Rodeo spectators received their money's worth, particularly from the matched calf roping in which Jimmy Bird defeated the state high school champion, Scooter Fries of Bandera, the excellent Boys' Ranch performances and the participation of almost as many girls as boys in the various rodeo events. Fries, although losing the main match, proved to be an excellent performer and he won the name of "best all-around cowboy" of the show. The "best all-around cowgirl" was Jo Gregory of Abilene. Afternoon spectators had a better opportunity of seeing the Boys Ranch performers at their best than the evening spectators. The lights of the arena seemed to baffle the horses in some of the evening stunts. Twenty-two youngsters from the ranch, near Tascosa, and their trainer, Leonard Stroud, staged the exhibitions, which included horse jumping, trick roping and fancy horse riding. The crowd particularly enjoyed the spectacle of all boys in the arena at one time, each doing a separate roping trick. Their fancy horse riding included riding the horse while standing on the head, turning a somersault atop the running horse, crawling under the running horse's neck and a number of others. One hundred twenty-eight boys and girls entered five open competitive events of the show. Winners were announced as follows: Winners Listed Cowgirl Sponsor Contest—Rosemary Rice of Pig Spring, first; Snooks Creighton of Lamesa, second, and Sadie Smith of Gall, third. Jimmy Moore set the pattern for the 11 sponsor contestants. Calf roping—Scooter Fries, first; Jimmy Bird, second, and Bill Teague of Crane, third; 27 contestants. Ribbon roping—Bill Teague, first; Scooter Fries, second, and Jo Gregory, third; 32 contestants. Steer riding—E. F. Yates of Lubbock, first; Frank Wilson of Colorado City, second, and Kenneth Wilson of Colorado City, third; 34 contestants. Hat race—Lowie Rice of Big Spring, first; Billy Holley of Gall, second, and Scooter Fries, third; 24 contestants. The Boys Ranch performers transported their own stock to and from Post. In addition to the truck, they brought a Boys Ranch bus. The youngsters have been training in roping and riding tricks about nine months, Stroud said. The trainer holds the world's championship in trick roping and trick riding and is the former world's champion bull rider.

Fewer But Better Entries Are Shown In County Fair 4-H Livestock Departments

The 4-H Club Livestock and Poultry Divisions of the Garza County Fair attracted a large crowd to the Davis Building Friday and Saturday. Although the number of animals entered seemed smaller than in the past two years, the quality was good enough for competition in larger shows. The first place winners will enter the Panhandle-South Plains Fair and other shows in Texas this fall.
Alvin Davis, whose fat steer won the Grand Champion honor, was so busy managing the Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo he had to engage another boy to show his animal's. The reserve champion honor went to a fat steer belonging to Jackie Meyers.

Spectators about judging time received special entertainment when the pigs broke down their fence and scattered over half of Main Street before they could be corralled.
Winners in the various classes were announced by County Agricultural Agent Robert H. Gibson, as follows:

B. F. Nance, state director of Production and Marketing Administration, has been notified that the 1948 Cotton Loan Program has been amended to permit loans on farm stored cotton.

The Texas State Committee of PMA recommended this change at its last meeting. The change is being made to loans more readily available to producers in those areas where there is a shortage of warehouse space, according to Vance. The cotton must be ginned and baled before it will be eligible for on-farm storage. Full details of the on-farm storage will be furnished the AAA County Committees, who will administer the program in the counties, in the near future. The loan rate for on-farm storage will be the same as the rate previously announced for warehouse storage.

To Plains Towns

An equitable allotment of tickets will be made to every town and city in this area for the "Queen for a Day" broadcasts which will be an outstanding feature of the first three days of the Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock September 27 through October 2. The Lubbock Lions Club will sponsor the broadcasts.

"Queen for a Day" is a Mutual network program which has one of the highest ratings in popularity of any radio show. An estimated 30,000,000 to 40,000,000 people will hear the broadcasts from in front of the Lubbock fair grounds grandstand each day.

The daily "Queen" program will last one and one-half hours. The first hour will be a pre-broadcast program. The final 30 minutes will be on a national network. The pre-broadcast program will start at noon each day and the broadcast at 1 p.m.

Admission to the fairgrounds during the forenoons of the days will be $1.50. On each ticket will be a stub on which any woman desiring may write the reasons why she would like to be chosen queen.

From among the these, judges will choose the 25 they deem best. The 25 women thus chosen will be questioned individually. From among them, five will be selected to tell their reasons on the air. The Queen will be chosen from among the five and will receive awards worth hundreds of dollars.

Expectation is the demand for tickets will far exceed the supply. The plan of allotting some to each community has been adopted to insure a fair distribution. Mail applications should be addressed to the Lubbock Lions Club in care of the Hilton Hotel, Lubbock.

Nicest Compliment I've Had

One of the nicest comments I've received about this column was from an editor in the Middle West I called on. And while I don't like to give myself orchids, I think it illustrates a point.

"Joe," he said, "it so happens I don't agree with everything you say, but I always like to run your column. Because it gets down to earth and talks about the right to disagree. And it only asks for tolerance towards the other person's point of view."

He went on to explain, by way of illustration, that he never had happened to have a taste for ale or beer. But that when I spoke of the right to enjoy a moderate beverage like beer, well, he was right there with me!

And from where I sit, that's the important thing: not whether you share another person's tastes or point of view—but whether you recognize his right to exercise a free choice in a free land.

Seagraves Indians Get War Paint Ready For Post Antelopes In Conference Game

With some changes made in the line-up and other weak spots fortified, the Post Antelopes are looking forward to their first 1948 Conference game, with the Seagraves Indians Friday night at Seagraves.

Three scouts from Seagraves watched the Antelopes play Spur here last Friday night, and it is believed that the Indians are ready with plenty of war paint for Post.

Dissatisfied with Post's showing against Spur, but confident that some of the wrinkles have been ironed out, Coach Bingham told the Post Dispatch this week that the fans will see a better Post club in action Friday. Malouf, who suffered a dislocated wrist bone in last week's game, will be able to play part of the time, the coach believes.

The Indians lost their first two games this season to two strong opponents. The first loss was to Hermleigh and the second to the Lubbock Cowhands. The latter, Coach V. F. Bingham pointed out, has been considerably strengthened since the late summer scrimmage in Post.

Post did not play Seagraves last year, but the Antelopes defeated the Indians year before last.

One of the promising Post Antelopes, Delbert Shedd, was declared ineligible last Friday when it was discovered that he has been in high school two weeks too long to play football under the eight-semester rule.

Bingham is still making changes in the tentative starting line-up. He said yesterday that probably he will start with the following players Friday night:

Six-Club Roping To Be Held Saturday

The Garza County Calf Roping Club and five other West Texas roping clubs will participate in a roping contest at Spur Saturday afternoon. The entertainment will be sponsored by the Spur Chamber of Commerce.

Pennsylvania is called the Keystone State.

Antelopes Defeat Bulldogs In Last Quarter Of Game

One of the most exciting football games fans have seen on the Post Antelope Field in several seasons was last Friday night's hard-won Antelope victory over the fast moving Spur Bulldogs. The score was 13-7, the locals winning with a through-the-line touchdown by Junior Malouf in the last quarter.

Outweighed by the Antelopes, the Bulldogs got off to a poor start in the opening quarter despite the local weakness in blocking. Near the end of the quarter, R. E. Josey made a touchdown for Post on a pass from Charles McGuire. The kick for extra point fell short.

The Bulldogs warmed up in the second quarter and put up a fight that kept the Antelope line on the defensive. Malouf received an injured left wrist and was pulled from the game until first aid could be administered.

In the third quarter, Spurs sliethery Clyde Blair barged through the Antelope line for a touchdown. The kick for extra point by Melvin Lindsey gave Spur a temporary 7-6 advantage.

After Malouf's touchdown, an extra point was kicked by Jack Kirkpatrick.

Jimmy Bird Wins Over Brunson In Tenth Calf Time

In a nip and tuck 10-calf match Sunday afternoon, Jimmy Bird outroped Willis Brunson of Crosbyton by a total of 13.7 seconds in the Post Stamped and Rodeo Arena.

After the ninth calf had been roped by each contestant, Brunson's total average was 1.1 seconds less than Bird's. Bird roped his next calf in 14 seconds flat, and the Crosbyton man lost out with an 18.8 second score plus a 10-second penalty for breaking the barrier on his fourth calf.

The match was followed by an eight calf match between Scooter Fries of Bandera and Bill Teague of Crane. Fries, who had lost a match the previous day to Bird but had made up for his losses by winning several Teague by a total of 40.8 seconds.

Several jackpot ropings followed. One of these was won by Fries with a time of 14.4 seconds; another was won by Lewis Nance with a time of 15.7 seconds.

Bus To Seagraves To Leave Friday Promptly At Six

The chartered bus for the Antelope-Indian football game in Seagraves will leave from Hundley's at 6 o'clock sharp tomorrow evening. Most of the seats had been sold by last night. Those who still desire tickets should check with Jim Hundley immediately to see if any are left.

The bus is sponsored by the Antelope Booster Club. A large crowd attended the club's regular meeting last Thursday night at the high school. Alex Webb showed an interesting movie of "Football Highlights of 1947" and a movie showing the offensive fundamentals of football.

Coach V. F. Bingham discussed the Antelope's prospects for the 1948 season, on the basis of the showing made to date.

The club will meet at 7 o'clock tonight in the high school auditorium. Webb will show a film of one of the best Class A football games of 1947, the championship game between Levelland and Merkel.

Diphtheria Can Be Avoided By Immunization

An interesting sidelight on public health in Texas was revealed in the morbidity of the Texas State Department of Health for the week ending August 28th, which showed a total of 2 cases of smallpox for this year, while in the same period there were 588 cases of diphtheria.

Commenting on these comparative figures, Dr. Geo. W. Cox of Austin, state health officer, stated that diphtheria is as readily controlled by immunization as is smallpox, but that apparently the public has failed to recognize this fact, or to act upon it.

"Smallpox, which is highly contagious, is no longer considered a major health problem in Texas," Dr. Cox said, "and this is due to widespread vaccination against the disease. Diphtheria, equally contagious, can also be reduced to the point where a single case is a rarity, but only when parents awake to the fact that every child should be immunized in infancy. The baby's doctor will recommend when this should be done, and if all children were given this protection, there would be none susceptible to contract this killing disease."

Ordinarily the immunity provided by diphtheria toxoid lasts a child until he is of school age, however, a Schick test should be given before the child enters school. If needed, an additional shot of toxoid should be administered.

"When all children are routinely immunized against this dread disease, it can be virtually eliminated as the health hazard that it now is, to the boys and girls of Texas," Dr. Cox declared.

R. H. Tate To Live In Hartman Home

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tate, who have been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Parker, will move next week to the home of Mrs. V. A. Hartman. Mrs. Hartman is leaving for an indefinite stay in Sweetwater with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Taylor. Tate is the new water, sewer and street superintendent for the City of Post.

NEW SECRETARY

Miss Dorothy Carey, 1947 graduate of Post High School and former student of Draughon's Business College in Lubbock, has been employed as secretary in the office at the Post High School to replace Miss Margie Edwards, who has taken a job with the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company.

W. L. DAVIS ILL

W. L. Davis has been seriously ill the past week in the Lubbock Memorial Hospital. His condition had not improved by press time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. (Pokey) Hundley left September 10 for an extended visit in Waurika, Okla., with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hundley. En route they spent a night in Crosbyton visiting their son, Clyde, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Butler and granddaughter, Stanna Cheryl, have returned from a week's trip to Cisco, Dallas, Louisiana, Marlin, Cross Plains, Baird and Clyde.

E. F. Stolle of Corpus Christi purchased a farm near Southland this week.

It is believed that the O'Donnell players are similarly matched in weight.

Italian Rye Can Keep Lawn Green In Cold Weather

A green winter lawn brightens the home grounds. It stands out in lush greenness against the bare, brown background of winter. It catches the eye of passers-by, and makes them say, "That family grows green grass in the wintertime."

Italian rye grass makes a good winter lawn for this area. It's easy to grow, and does not injure Bermuda or any other summer grasses. It takes up in the fall where the summer grasses leave off, and dies in the spring when they are ready to start in again.

This grass is well-known among stockmen as a good winter pasture grass, and can be bought from feed stores, seed companies and nurseries.

This is the time of year for the people in North Texas to seed Italian rye—about the middle of September. Around the first of October is the best seeding time for Central Texas, and those further south should wait two weeks or a month later. Seeding rate for this grass is a pound and a half to two pounds for every thousand square feet of lawn area.

It's possible to wait later on into winter, but there's a risk there. Cold weather slows up seed sprouting, and some of the seed may not come up until next spring. On the other hand, if you plant too early—before the cool season starts—young plants are likely to be killed by the heat. Italian rye thrives in cold weather.

Guests in the Fred Steinhauer home Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Stolle and son of Corpus Christi, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Neitoch of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Stolle of Southland and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Steinhauer and family of Wilson. The Edmund Stollies returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Susie Brown, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, spent Saturday and Sunday in Memphis visiting her brother, Ray Campbell, whom she had not seen in 39 years nor heard from in 37 years. The family lived in Gatesville until 39 years ago, when Campbell moved to Oklahoma. Mrs. Brown lost track of him two years later and did not learn until recently that he was living in Memphis.

"By All Means Yes!" Boy Homemakers To Join Homemaking Dinner Belle Club

"The boys of P.H.S. are taking Homemaking this year. There was a vote to see if the boys could belong to the Dinner Belle Club and the result was by all means Yes!"

The reporter of the Dinner Belle Club, formerly an organization of girls in the high school homemaking classes, wrote the above paragraph in a report of the club's Tuesday afternoon meeting for the Post Dispatch. There are about 20 boys in the homemaking classes this year.

The club also elected Mrs. Charlie Bowen and Mrs. Roy Stevens as club mothers, and named the following F.H.A. Sweetheart nominees:

Senior — Mack McCullough, escort for Janet Stewart; Sophomore — Giles Daiby, escort for Mary Neil Bowen, and Freshmen — Cordell Custer, escort for Barbara Norris.

All new members of the club will be initiated at 7 o'clock Monday night at the high school.

Officers for the 1948-49 year are: President, Mrs. Theona Josey; vice-president, Lanelle Brown; secretary, Barbara Lusby; treasurer, Iris Mahon; reporter, Tinker Beauchamp; parliamentarian, Alice Ruth Carr; song leader, LaRue Stevens; pianist, Faye Ruth Hamilton; recreation chairman, Janet Stewart, and program chairman, Alma Floyd.

After the business meeting, a song was sung and refreshments were served.

Merrymakers Meet With Mrs. D. Sims

Mrs. Dave Sims was hostess for a meeting of the Merrymakers Club the afternoon of September 14. The members worked on a quilt.

Sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, cake and punch were served.

Attending were Mrs. J. F. Brandon, a guest, and Mesdames Mozelle Bartlett, Ora Bratton, Ida Cook, Pearl Crisp, Sadie Storie, Pearl Storie, Ella Dalby, Nora Kiker, Faye Martin, Lola Peel and the hostess.

The club will meet September 28 in the home of Mrs. Ed Gossett. As the occasion will be gift day, each member who hasn't already remembered her Club Pal's birthday or anniversary this year is supposed to do so, for the remainder of the year, at this meeting.

Ann Mathis, Ann Osborne, and Joyce Short; a queen with scepter, Annie Mae Pierce and flower girls, Jeanette Moore and Bunny Bass, Charles Osborne will play his horn during the service.

Gossip about Garza Guys And Gals —by gay nellie

A note received by the Dispatch this week, revealed the engagement of Verna Lee Parrish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Parrish, to Edwin James Mathis son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mathis of Grassland.

Jimmy Hundley called Jim and Mae yesterday from New York City, said he had gone up there to escape the storm at Miami Beach, Fla.

Betty Kennedy was home from Tech for the football game Friday night.

Bill West of Hereford and Billy Patty who is a Fish at Tech, were home over the weekend registering for Uncle Sam's Army.

Dolores Moore received a call from a big shot at Texas U. Saturday morning telling her that she would be able to enroll in their school of fine arts. She had planned all summer to go when she was informed recently that because of the crowded conditions there she would not be able to enroll for this semester. So when she got the good news, the Moore household was turned upside down and everybody in the family was busy helping her get off. She caught the early Sunday morning train.

Alvin Davis enrolled in Tech Monday. He will enter his grand champion fat steer in the Texas State Fair at Dallas, October 9.

Betty Barnett of Spur, who is an English teacher at Spur, spent the weekend here with her uncle and aunt, the Wallace Barnetts. This is her first year as a school teacher.

Let's see now: P.H.S. Homemaking boys have joined the Dinner Belle Club, and this makes the club's name too feminine. Should they change it to the Dinner Belle & Beau Club, or would Belle & Bellboy Club be better?

GETTING OUT On The LIMB

By EDDIE the EDITOR

When I was a kid in school, I never had the opportunities that are open to youngsters right here in Post today.

For instance, we have working at the Dispatch a boy named Buddy Hays, whom I now call "Darling." He is a fine, ambitious boy who has worked for me about five years and has become one of the best little printers in the country.

I guess I had a chance at all the above mentioned things when I went to school here but Buddy is learning still more things in school, things that never were available to me.

The other day when he came to the office with his nice fluffy little ruffled apron, on his way to his home economics class, he all but wilted my bobby sox down.

He said he was going to learn to make cornbread in class that day.

Now there's an accomplishment for which I truly envy him. I'm very good at making biscuits—this kind you take out of a can and wad up and throw in the dish which the wife has greased and put in the oven which she has pre-heated—but I feel simply lost when trying to whip up cornbread.

I wish I were one or the 20 or so boys taking home economics with all those cute girls who generally are considered specialists at making dainty tea cakes and the like.

Buddy Darling is a bit worried however, and he says the other boys in the class also are wondering what kind of grades they will make in the par. of the course which deals with making dainty dresses, aprons, dollies and petticoats. I understand that sewing is a required part of the well-balanced home economics course. Frankly, I, also, will be interested in seeing his report card.

I know one thing for sure: If the size of the feet has anything to do with efficiency in peddling the sewing machine, our football-playing Buddy will do all right in the class.

I have no trouble at all relaxing after a hard day's work now that these crisp, cool nights have set in and so I can easily imagine what it's like out at Al Bird's since Gertrude, the porpoise, is displaying more friskiness than usual during these cool evenings.

The other moonlight night, while Al was driving up the milk cows, Gertrude was out on the bank of the tank rolling over and over, just like a kitten. She must have been about 30 feet from the bank, when she spied Al and the cows but she didn't become excited. In her own playful, casual way, she merely bounced out of their path back over the water's edge.

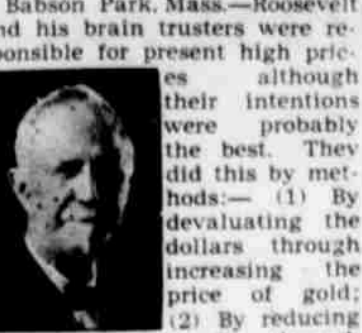

Al got off his horse and went over and looked at her. It was the first time in quite a while that he had seen her out of the water.

He didn't have a tape measure in his pocket and he was afraid she would get back in the water if he went to the house after one, so he just guessed at her size. He estimated she is now 4 1/2 feet long and that she has grown at least a foot and a half during the summer months.

I liked the "Daffinitions" from the Santa Fe magazine: Husband—What's left of a sweetheart after the nerve has

ROGER W. BABSON WRITES THIS WEEK:

U.S. Economic Curtain Compared To Iron Curtain

Babson Park, Mass.—Roosevelt and his brain trusters were responsible for present high prices although their intentions were probably the best. They did this by methods:— (1) By devaluing the dollars through increasing the price of gold; (2) By reducing the supply of goods through killing little pigs, plowing up cotton and paying farmers not to work; (3) By increasing purchasing power through encouraging labor unions to raise wages; (4) By reducing unemployment through putting millions on public payrolls and relief; (5) By printing billions of bonds and bank notes instead of financing the war in a businesslike way.

How To Reduce Prices
Prices could now be reduced just as easily by reversing all of these processes, namely: (1) By reducing the price of gold; (2) By ceasing to guarantee farm prices and letting them fall to natural levels; (3) By discouraging labor monopolies and making labor subject to Anti-Trust Laws; (4) By reducing public payrolls, thus forcing government employees and those on "relief" to go to work producing something useful; and (5) By ceasing to peg the government bond market and thereby reducing the money in circulation. These drastic steps, however, need not be necessary if we ourselves would do our part to correct the situation as I explained last week.

Why does not Mr. Truman do the above five things instead of scolding Congress for not pegging prices which would only make goods more scarce and develop tremendous black markets? The reason is that to do so would probably start the business cycle downward and bring about a "bust." No President wants to do this and Mr. Dewey will be no different in this regard than Mr. Truman. Just as we have to get sick before we will give up some bad habit and take care of our health, so a "bust" seems to be the only way to bring a nation to its senses. Its too bad, but it's human nature.

Taxes, Immigration, Peace
Two other things, however, could be done which would reduce prices and yet bring on a depression. The first of these would be to reduce taxes. Every one is now trying to pass his taxes on to the next fellow. Employees count as salary only what they take home in pay envelopes after taxes are deducted. Manufacturers and storekeepers add taxes to prices. Doctors and lawyers increase their fees enough to take care of their taxes so that they have the same left as before the Roosevelt Administration. Only investigators and those living on dividends and interest are unable to pass along their taxes to the great middle class which is unjustly suffering today.

Another way to reduce prices would be to readjust immigration restrictions so as to admit from war-stricken Europe 1,000,000 good carpenters, bricklayers and painters who would gladly do an honest 10-hour day's work for a fair pay. This would do more to reduce the cost of housing and to give homes to veterans than anything else. Our silly immigration and tariff laws were necessary when prices were too low and there was much unemployment; but these laws are not needed today. Just as their enactment resulted in higher prices, so their repeal today would result in lower prices, both directly now and in preventing further increases due to another war.

Here's wonderful news: "Americanism and Democracy in theory and practice WILL PREVAIL over the Texas Technological College campus during the coming year. President D. M. Wiggins informed his faculty of 250 members at their first general assembly this year."

The above paragraph came in a news release from Tech last week. You will note that President Wiggins didn't ask the 250 professors to "try" to carry out Americanism and Democracy in theory and practice. He said these WILL PREVAIL.

I probably would have paid no attention to this release were I not personally acquainted with Dr. Wiggins. He was one of my professors years ago at what was then Simmons University in Abilene, and I know him to be a powerful enough man to see that Americanism and Democracy WILL PREVAIL at Texas Tech.

The release went on to say that Dr. Wiggins and Vice President E. N. Jones will have no sympathy with a program departing the slightest from American principles or one that does not assure every man and woman passing through Texas Tech a well-rounded education.

If I were a parent of a college-age student I would not risk sending my child, in critical times like these, to any college or university which had not publicly announced its intentions of seeing that Americanism and Democracy WILL PREVAIL during the period of my child's education.

As early as 1930-32, I observed that Socialism was being fostered with vim and vigor at Northwestern University where I was a student. It came up in almost every class I attended. A native American boy who sat beside me in one of my "reddiest" classes was preparing to go to Russia to take a job in a canning factory and, on the side, study Communism. Russia at that time was in the midst of her first five year plan.

I have written many times in this column about the left-wing elements that are powerful enough to influence an easily impressed student at the University of Texas. I have studied all of the U. of T. news releases this summer and fall and I have found no statement to the effect that the university, like Texas Tech, intends to combat this tendency.

Communism is a long range program. Its proponents here in the United States are content to be killed. Dime—A dollar with all the taxes taken out. Argument—Discussion in which a husband is permitted to have next to the last word. Bachelor—A man who thinks before he leaps and then doesn't leap.

lay a quiet groundwork while waiting on the young people of the nation to become "educated" in our "foremost" institutions of higher learning.

I wish I could have seen the Daily Worker's account of the Texas Democratic Party convention in Fort Worth. The Daily Worker is the leading communist publication in the United States, and I feel sure it praised the un-Democratic actions which took place in Fort Worth.

The convention reminded me of the "elections" that took place while I was in Greece. In 10 months, Greece had seven or eight ministers and cabinets. Every time they had an election, only the people who signed a pledge to vote like the party ramrodding the election wanted them to vote were allowed to vote. Naturally, a minority was always in power. The people who didn't have a chance to vote, would overthrow each new government and the "elections" were held all over again.

It will be remembered that about February, 1946, the situation got so bad that an "Allied Mission for Observing Greek Elections" was expensively set-up, with the U.S. paying the bill. More than 1200 pot-bellied diplomats, extravagant secretaries and soldiers from France, England and the United States moved in, complete with hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of U.S. airplanes, trucks, automobiles, office equipment, American dollars, etc., to "observe" the upcoming Greek election and see that it was carried out without the sort of discrimination that happened at the Texas Democratic Party convention this month.

Russia refused to cooperate with the Allied Mission and the Communists "abstained" from voting. Incidentally, the Communists in Greece refer to themselves as Democrats.

The presence of the Allied Mission did—to some extent—keep down the riots that had marked previous elections. In their place were threats of "future retaliation" which had the same effect as the riots had in previous elections. Only the "rightists" voted and the election carried the way the instigators of the election wanted it.

The new premier, Constantine Tsaldaris, formed his cabinet in March (if I remember correctly) of 1946. The revolution that followed in Greece occupied the headlines of the U.S. newspapers until they were relegated to the background by the fighting in Palestine and our not-so-cold war with Russia. But they're still fighting in Greece and they always will fight over there until the great day comes when a truly Democratic election can be held.

I am not defending the Dixiecrats. I think it regrettable that the Dixiecrats popped up at all in this General election.

But when the Civil Rights Democrats of Texas refused to seat the States Rights delegations at the Democratic Convention, after they had been either appointed by the Democratic Committees of their respective counties or elected by popular vote, they were doing exactly the thing that keeps Greece, and many another country, in chaos.

I don't like to see this country following in the footsteps of the decadent nations of the world, and Texas is the last place on earth where I thought;

What Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

THE EDITOR'S STAKE—A free press is made possible by advertising—a thousand and one different advertisements of industries and business endeavoring to sell their wares and services to the public.

From such a field to seek business the press of the United States can maintain its financial independence—the smallest country weekly or the greatest metropolitan daily has an equal chance.

Such financial independence of course means editorial independence. American newspapers are not creatures of government as in dictator countries and in some other countries where they are controlled and subsidized. They are not afraid to criticize government, public officials or business.

It all adds up to a free press—and a free press is not the editor's right to criticize or praise—it is YOUR right to read it!

And there can be no free press or individual opportunity without private enterprise.

Communism and Socialism kill free enterprise and personal liberty because under such political systems government owns industry, including newspapers, and the individual.

American editors are against communism and socialism first, because such governmental philosophies destroy political freedom; second, because they destroy a free press.

Any successful move to socialize an industry in the United States, undermines by that much personal liberty, the foundation of a free press, and the unrestricted opportunity of individuals to choose a line of work or an employer. Under socialism and communism you work for the state and like it, or else.

That is why all individuals, not just newspaper editors and publishers, wishing to retain their independence, should oppose government ownership of business in our country, while they have a chance. We should continually remind ourselves not to be lulled into a sense of security by thinking it can't happen here. — Hockley County Herald.

ARE YOU READY?—As we have been reading the advertisements of recent days in the newspapers and magazines, we are reminded that colder days the trend would raise its ugly head.

Many hog raisers on the Purina Plan make 100 lbs. of pork with 8 1/2 bu. corn and 80 lbs. of Hog Chow. Compare this to tankage feeding... Hog Chow usually gets over 1/4 more pork from the same amount of grain: profitable proof that Hog Chow pays off in feedlot... pays off in saving grain. So, regardless of what grain you have, come to us figure you an economical hog raiser with Purina Hog Chow. It makes your grain go farther!

Terracing Saves
Land Both Above
And Below Slope
Terracing not only protects cultivated land from washing on the upper slope, but it also saves crops from damage on the land below the slope during heavy rains. Crops on the lower slopes are often washed up and covered up with silt by the run-off water from the upper slope. By having cultivated fields terraced and contour lined, the water can be held on the land longer, causing more of the water to soak into the ground and making great yields in crops, according to Duck Creek Soil Conservation technicians.
The general type of terrace recommended in this low rainfall area is the ridge type. Erosion control is accomplished in the ridge type terrace indirectly.
Terraces are usually run level and the ends closed, or left partially open to allow for excessive rainfall. The terraces are constructed so as to flood collected run-off over as large an area as possible to increase absorption.
Farmers in the Duck Creek Soil Conservation District who intend to construct their terraces this fall should have their lines run now so when the equipment becomes available and the weather is right they will be ready to go to work. The Seldon, The Stratosphere Man, will be seen free twice daily on the midway at the Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock, is actually 138 feet above the ground.

Residue Should Be Left On Land
After Harvests Crop residue management is harvesting a crop in a way that will leave enough stalks, stubble, or other material on or near the surface of the soil, Duck Creek Soil Conservation technicians explain.
When crop residue is worked into the topsoil, it increases the rate at which water may enter the soil and helps control the movement of soil particles from water and wind erosion. As the stubble is worked into the surface soil, it prevents the soil from packing during a rain and will also help prevent the soil from crusting. The organic matter keeps the soil loose, with more pores or spaces between the particles, thus allowing water to soak into the ground more rapidly and helping store more water for the coming year. If the surface were bare the force of rain drops would soon seal over, making the soil slick on top. In this condition the soil takes water slowly, with much of the water being lost as runoff.
In addition to helping the water hold capacity, crop residue also helps maintain soil fertility. This residue serves as food for living organisms and bacteria in the soil, which is broken down to be used by plants for food.
Crop residue management can be used on pastures by use of grass litter. A portion of the plant should be left to protect the soil and maintain the plant.
These dead leaves cover the soil, help prevent evaporation of soil moisture. During a rain this organic matter cuts down the force of the rain drops striking the soil and slows down the runoff. If enough grass is left on the ground the water going into stock tanks will be clearer and won't carry as much silt into the tank.

REV. D. A. BRYANT—

(Continued From Front Page) churches he has been a member of during his lifetime. The mother was a daughter of a Baptist minister. After finishing high school, D. A. Bryant entered Wayland College in Plainview, and later went to Howard Payne College in Brownwood to receive his degree. He also has studied at the Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth. Completing school, he went to Dallas and, in 1934, was ordained at the Cockrell Hill Baptist Church, which he served for a short time as pastor. Later, he organized the Beverly Hills Baptist Church in Dallas and was pastor for three and a half years. He then went to Madelia, Minn., where he was pastor for three years. While there, he organized that area's first associational training union. On his return to Texas, to enter Howard Payne, he served as pastor of the Belle Plains Church in Brownwood. He next served at Richland Springs for a year and a half.

One of his most fruitful ministries was at Goldthwaite, where he was pastor for five years. There he initiated and completed a building program which gave to Goldthwaite Baptists a beautiful Gothic structure costing approximately $100,000. During the building program, he carried on a program of evangelism and the church was second in the district in number of baptisms. During his ministry there, he had 325 baptisms.

During the past year at Mexico, the church auditorium has been rededicated and a home for the educational director was acquired by the church. Gifts for the Cooperative Program doubled and the overall budget of the church is 100 per cent over the previous year. The church is now constructing a building for the mission which it sponsors four miles out of town. The church is also supporting a missionary to Brazil.

The Rev. Mr. Bryant's wife is the former Louise Stites of Anson. They have two children, Mildred Llewellyn 13, and James Truett, 6.

Others Assist

Mrs. Strasner said that the boys and girls were most grateful to the above and also to the following organizations and firms which lent equipment and in other ways helped with the County Fair and Junior Rodeo.

First Methodist Church, Post Chamber of Commerce, City of Post, Parker's Bakery, Garner Appliance Company, O. C. Garner, Hudman Funeral Home, John Davis, Wilkison Lumber Company and Short Hardware Co.

Wate Adele Hill of Lubbock, district home demonstration agent, and Miss Maude Alice Zorn, Post High School home-making teacher, served as judges for the cakes, flowers, women's educational booths and the girls' 4-H booths, in the absence of the judge announced last week.

Surely!

• If there's one time you aren't interested in guessing games, it's when you have a prescription to be compounded. You want to be sure of the integrity and competence of the pharmacist. You want to know that the drugs used are fresh and potent; that you'll pay a fair price. It is on this basis that we invite your patronage!

We'd like to take up this little space to say, "thanks" to a job well done on the part of Betty Kennedy, N. W. Stone, Jr., and Bill Patty. They left us last week to enter college. We thought they were tops in everything they did and would just like to wish them a lot of luck on down the road.

DOCK, BOB and MATTIE.
